The report of a new advance added to the elation already brought in by the announcement that Canada had joined Great Britain and France in the war with the Reich.

Parisian newspapers greeted news of the Dominion's entry into the war by recalling the part played by Canada's troops at Vimy Ridge in the Great War and by pointing to the country's mineral and grain resources as a source of supply for the allied nations.

WILL SHED BLOOD TO SAVE OLD WORLD

"Canadians covered themselves with glory on the battlefields of the last war," said the Petit Parisien. "The enormous majority of the country deemed it morally impossible to remain aloof from the present conflict."

(Continued on Page Five)

Russia Believes Backbone of Polish Resistance Broken

Moscow, Sept. 11—(CP)—Further effective resistance by Poland against German forces is regarded by the Soviet press as improbable. This view was expressed today by both Izvestia, the Government organ, and Pravda, Communist Party publication.

Pravda contended Poland had lost nearly her entire military economic base.

An assertion by Pravda that Great Britain and France had failed to give effective aid to Poland followed upon yesterday's Soviet press charge that Britain had violated friendly relations with the Soviet. A statement by Tass, official Soviet news agency, asserted several British firms had cancelled production of lathes and presses ordered by Russia.

Too Much Sun May Cause Surface Cancer

Atlantic City, N.J., Sept 11—(AP)—Too much sun was shown as a cause of surface cancer in a study made at Johns Hopkins University and reported to the International Cancer Congress here today.

Paradoxically, the report said, these surface cancers apparently caused by the sun appeared insurance against all other kinds of cancer.

The sun's effects showed up in a statistical study of cancer in the United States army and navy by Dr. Sigismund Peller, statistician of the school of hygiene at Johns Hopkins.

Boston, Sept. 11 (AP)—The fishing schooner Frances C. Denehy, docking today, reported sighting an unidentified submarine on Georges Banks—about 50 miles east of Cape Cod—last Wednesday.

Absence of Bombing Raids in France And England Due to Fear of Reprisals

By DEVON FRANCIS
(Associated Press Aviation Editor)

What appears to be a logical answer to the strangely pacific "war in the air" in Western Europe has cropped out in the eight days since France and Great Britain entered the conflict.

On both German and British sides, the reason probably is as much political as it is military. As for the French, the considerations likely are entirely military.

War in the air certainly is going on in Western Europe. Reconnaissance, attack and pursuit planes are aloft and fighting, day and night.

But almost without exception, explosive-laden bombers on long-range missions are conspicuous by their absence.

For years, the world has waited for the "next war" to begin with mass bombing raids against "military objectives" in and around great cities—as, indeed, the present war did, in Poland. Polish cities are deeply gouged and scarred by warplane bombs.

But it was not Warsaw that men thought of when they pictured the horrors of aerial warfare in a new European conflict. It was London, Berlin and Paris.

From Germany's standpoint, the war at the west wall scarcely has been mentioned in the communiques. A bombing raid on war materials' manufacturing plants, railroads and highway, docks and military airdromes—all legitimate "military objectives"—in or around Paris or London would bring immediate reprisals in kind.

That would bring home to the German people that an enemy was striking in the west.

Leaflet Raids Tie Hands of England

As for Great Britain, the leaflet "raids" over Germany hardly could go hand in hand with bombing raids. It would be difficult to profess friendship for the German people and hope for results from a populace running to shelter.

Nor could Germany express a sympathetic understanding of France's position while German bombers are exploding on French soil far behind the front lines.

To be considered, however, is the fact that "military objectives" in Britain are far more vulnerable than Germany's. So are those in France. Almost since the Nazis came to power in Germany, defensive machinery against air raids has been in the making.

German war materials factories are scattered and hidden. Hangars are underground. Anti-aircraft defence has been brought to a high point of perfection.

The same steps were taken in Britain and France, but much later.

Will the "lightning war" from the air, advocated by the famous Italian tactician, General Douhet, come eventually in this conflict?

All that military observers will commit themselves to is the statement, "Any nation at war, driven to the wall and desperate, will stop at nothing in an effort to snatch victory from defeat."

REICH FORESEES EARLY COLLAPSE OF POLISH ARMY

Popular Hope Doomed That Reich Might Split Anglo-French Front

REPORT FALL OF LODZ

Great Stress Placed on Rail Communication Between Germany and Russia

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Sept. 11—(AP)— While the German army high command today professed to foresee early collapse of Polish resistance, first reports of fighting on the western front apparently doomed popular hopes that the Reich might split the Anglo-French front.

A succession of new dispatches from the eastern front claimed successes by German divisions in Poland.

Hard on the heels of a communique reporting the fall of Lodz, Polish textile centre, came word that German motorized forces were waiting in the suburbs of Warsaw for artillery to pave the way for a final assault on the capital.

Carrying On Beyond Warsaw

The air force was reported carrying on operations beyond Warsaw, attacking bridges and communication lines.

(Continued on Page Nine)

ENGLISH PEOPLE PRAY FOR PEACE

At Westminster Abbey Continuous Intercession Heard

LONDON, Sept. 11—(CP Cable)—The people of Great Britain bowed their heads in prayer Sunday as the war moved into its second week. Throughout the land people gathered in churches to pray for peace.

At Westminster Abbey there was continuous intercession for international peace. Many persons prayed at the tomb of the unknown soldier. In the rural evacuation areas thousands of little children crowded village churches.

Many great London churches like St. Paul's Cathedral and St. Martin's-in-the-Fields threy open their crypts so that worshippers would have immediate shelter in the event of air raids.

PAPERS WELCOME CANADA'S ENTRY

Act Because Liberty and Democratic Institutions Are at Stake

PARIS, Sept. 11—(CP)—Canada's entry into the war was welcomed by Paris newspapers today.

"Canada acts out of loyalty to the sovereign and the mother country," said the Petit Parisien, "but also because the liberties of Canadians and democratic institutions are at stake.

"Canadians covered themselves with glory on the battlefields of the last war.

"The enormous majority of the country deemed it morally impossible to remain aloof from the present conflict. The entire British Empire now stands arrayed against the Hitlerite aggressor."

Le Journal said: "It suffices to evoke the memory of Vimy to recall the depth of Canada's valliancy. If necessary the descendants of the British and French pioneers who created a new world will shed their blood to save the old.

"Canada alone is responsible for 90 per cent of world production of nickel, and the importance of this metal in war manufactures will be realized."

Ensuring Food Supply, Munitions to Allies Canada's Chief Concern

OTTAWA, Sept. 11—(CP)—Canada's initial contribution toward effective co-operation with Great Britain against Germany will involve safeguarding the security of Canada and the British and French possessions in the North Atlantic, according to Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Synchronizing with that will be the training and dispatch of Canadian airmen overseas and the ensuring of a supply of food and munitions to the Allies.

No C. E. F. at Present

The question of an expeditionary force has not yet arisen and according to the Prime Minister will be decided in the light and character of hostilities and the needs of the Allies.

In 1914, a total of 33,000 men sailed from Canada in October, forerunners of a force which eventually reached 450,000 before the first Great War ended. Canada enlisted 619,000 soldiers for war service, the overwhelming majority of them by voluntary enlistment.

In addition to these a large number served in the Royal Flying Corps and in the Royal Navy. This country's contribution in man-power was one of the most effective aids to the successful issue of the Great War.

55,364 Killed in Last War

Casualties in the Canadian forces during the last war included 55,634 killed in action, died of wounds and other causes, and 149,732 wounded.

The capture of Vimy Ridge on April 9, 1917, is considered one of the outstanding achievements of the Canadian Corps. But the corps saw much action throughout the war. The capture of Hill 70 in August, 1917 was another Canadian effort.

A vast war-effort again faces Canada as the second great war enters its second week and the Dominion now is formally involved.

Government officials say it is impossible to estimate what the cost will be.

Cost is Three Billions

The total cost of the first great war to Canada is estimated at $3,000,000,000. The Dominion entered the struggle with a national debt of only $363,000,000 and came out of it owing $2,248,868,000.

The war brought the introduction of the federal income tax in Canada, ever since a rich source of revenue to the Dominion government. It also brought other taxes, some of which were dropped afterwards, such as levies on luxuries, and an excess profits tax.

FRANCE HAS TWICE AS MUCH GOLD AS IT HAD IN 1914

Finance Minister Answers Speech of Herman Goering on Saturday

STRENGTH WITH ALLIES

By JEAN. ALLARY

Copyright, 1939, by the Havas News Agency

Paris, Sept. 11—(CP Havas) — Finance Minister Paul Reynaud's assertion that France has twice as much gold in its coffers today as it had in 1914 was regarded here today as a pointed answer to the speech made by Field Marshal Hermann Goering boasting of Germany's economic wealth.

With the war on the Allied part settling down to preparations for a lengthy conflict, it seems evident that German calculations of a "lightning war" have been upset. This means in turn that the respective economic strength of the adversaries may, in the long run, be a decisive factor and on this score many of Goering's statements would appear to bear little examination. The Reich is already at the point now that it did not reach in the last war until 1917.

(Continued on Page Seven)

CYCLONIC STORM AGAIN SWEEPS OVER ONTARIO

Toronto, Hamilton, Peterborough and Kingston Hardest Hit by Gale

HEAVY RAINFALL

(By The Canadian Press)

Workmen repaired power and telephone lines today and cleared away debris—mostly branches of trees—following a storm that swept through Ontario and brought the first real taste of Autumn.

The storm, made up of a severe wind, rain, hail and electrical disturbances, was felt yesterday throughout London District, the Niagara fruit belt and in Peterborough and Kingston sections of Eastern Ontario.

(Continued on Page Five)

HITLER EXPECTED TO PROPOSE PEACE IF WARSAW FALLS

International Sources Believe Rome-Berlin Axis is Still Functioning

MAY FOLLOW JAPAN

By JOSEPH E. SHARKEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

Geneva, Sept. 11—(AP)—Despite Italy's policy of seeming neutrality in the war, authoritative international sources here say the Rome-Berlin axis is still functioning.

Fuehrer Hitler and Premier Mussolini, these sources insist, will regularly exchange views on the world situation under terms of their consultative pact.

(Continued on Page Five)

NATIVE OF TWEED DIES

Winnipeg, Sept. 11—(CP)—Robert J. Oliver, 73, municipal auditor for the Manitoba Government for the last 12 years, died yesterday. He was a native of Tweed, Ont.

Copenhagen, Sept. 11 (AP)— A military balloon, drifting from the southeast, struck wires over the island of Laaland today and was destroyed. Laaland, one of the southernmost islands of Denmark, is 75 miles north of Germany's Baltic seacoast.

Coming Events

HUME ARENA DANCE GARDENS tonight Morgan Thomas, Radio Band direct from Wonder Grove, Hamilton, featuring the popular voice of Mildred Morey. Admission 15c. 4 dance tickets 25c. s11-1t

TUESDAY NIGHT CARD PARTY Conservative clubrooms. Admission 25c. Good prizes. Euchre for ladies Thursday afternoon. s11 em-tf

TEA, HOMECOOKING AND APron sale at Mrs. Ranson's home, 290 Charles, Friday, September, 15, 3 to 6, Auspices Mrs. Pigden's group. s11-14

HUME ARENA GARDENS DANCE Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday Economy night, Wednesday, Morgan Thomas and his famous band return engagement. s11-1t

RE-OPENING TONIGHT, IMPERials' Club Euchres at 8.30 p.m. Good prizes. Admission 25c. 3 special door prizes. Everyone welcome. s11-1t

BRITAIN BASES POLICY ON PREMISE OF LENGTHY WAR

Intensifies Naval and Economic Warfare After Losing 12 Ships in 8 Days

NAVY QUITE BUSY

Readiness for War Advanced Between One and Two Years

London, Sept. 11—(CP)— Great Britain intensified naval and economic warfare against Germany today, having lost 12 merchantmen in the first eight days of what the Cabinet regards as a war that will last at least three years.

The press almost unanimously backed up the Cabinet's decision to base its policy on the premise of a long war, regarding the announcement as Britain's answer to a "peace feeler" in Field Marshal Goering's speech Saturday.

Furthermore, dispatches indicated the final blows against Poland were not imminent. War correspondents, whose reports are just beginning to reach England, stressed Poland's army still is intact, and that withdrawal always has been part of the Polish plans.

The 12th British ship sent to the bottom was the 8,640-ton Magapur. The Ministry of Information announced her sinking last night with an undisclosed number of casualties, but did not announce how or where she was sunk.

The 2,796-ton Goodwood was reported by the British Press Association yesterday to have been sunk in the North Sea and the Information Ministry added the name of the 4,086-ton Rio Claro, sunk Wednesday, to the official list.

Crews Are Rescued

A fishing vessel was said to have rescued the crew of the Goodwood, many of whom were reported hurt. The crew of the Rio Claro was said to have been landed in the Azores by a Netherlands vessel.

The Government's answer was two-fold. It swung into an "unremitting" campaign of "attacks and counter-measures", and, secondly, extended machinery for its "contraband control" through stations in Gibraltar and Alexandria, at

(Continued on Page Nine)

KNOCKOUT PUNCH NOT DELIVERED TO POLISH FORCES

Poles Save Bulk of Mechanized Equipment Despite Heavy Loss of Troops

TREK A NIGHTMARE

(By Elmer Peterson Associated Press Staff Writer).

Sniatyn, Poland, Sept. 11 (AP)—(By Courier to the Polish-Rumanian Frontier)—Germany's assault has delivered a hard blow to the Polish army, but many observers believe there has been no knockout punch.

Military reports have been meagre—There is not even an estimate of Polish casualties—but there is evidence the Poles have saved the bulk of their mechanized equipment.

Poles still are hopeful, pointing out Polish commanders expected a swift, powerful German drive which might disorganize defences temporarily.

German warplanes have penetrated Eastern Poland in search of new Polish airdromes, but the fate of Poland's air force still is in doubt.

Million Being Massed

Also unknown is the situation of an estimated 100,000 Polish troops believed caught in a German pincer movement in Pomerania. An army of 1,000,000 Poles, how-

(Continued on Page Five)

Parliament to Provide Sinews of War After Entry Made in Conflict

Woodsworth Breaks from Party To Register Opposition to War

(By C. R. BLACKBURN, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, Sept. 11—(CP)—Canada, exercising her rights and responsibilities as an independent nation, has cast her lot with the British and French against German aggression and has become a self-declared belligerent for the first time in the Dominion's history.

All doubt and speculation on Canada's status in the war ended Sunday when, little more than 13 hours after parliament had given almost-unanimous approval, a special edition of the Canada Gazette proclaimed a state of war existed between Canada and the German Reich.

Parliament will go on today with the serious business of providing the sinews of war. The government is expected to ask for a lump sum to be appropriated for war preparations and to disclose the taxation and other measures by which it hopes to increase revenue. This probably will be in a war-time budget expected to be brought down possibly this afternoon or tonight.

APPROVED THRONE SPEECH

In a rapid sequence of events beginning at three p.m., EDT, Saturday and ending at 1.10 p.m. Sunday, both the Senate and House of Commons approved the government's decision and a proclamation was issued declaring a state of war existed as from Sept. 10 between Canada and Germany.

This was the first time Canada declared war herself. In 1914 the British proclamation was published in the Canada Gazette, formally making the Dominion a belligerent.

Three Liberal members from Quebec bitterly reproached the government Saturday, during the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, for its failure to keep Canada out of war. J. S. Woodsworth, veteran C.C.F. leader from Winnipeg North Centre, broke with his party to register his opposition to war.

From all other members who spoke there came acceptance that Canada's place was by Britain's side in thi sstruggle, although divergent views were expressed as to the methods to be adopted.

(Continued on Page Five)

BULLETINS

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 11—(AP)—The Copenhagen newspaper Berlingske Aftenavis reported today that a German torpedo boat exploaded in a German mine field off Trellesborg, Sweden, yesterday, with an estimated loss of 10 lives.

The paper said the explosion was seen by a Swedish ship which was unable to go to the rescue because of the mines.

NOT ADMITTED IN UNIFORMS

DETROIT, Sept. 11—(CP)—Canadian soldiers in uniform will not be permitted to enter the United States here, John L. Zurbrick, United States Commissioner of Immigration, said here today. Canadian recruits wishing to cross the border must be dressed in civilian clothes and must have a permit signed by their commanding officer.

No special instructions have been received concerning Germans wishing to enter the United States from Canada, said Mr. Zurbrick.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

'Only Thing We Could Do' General Consensus of Opinion As to Canada's Entry Into War

Canada's momentous declaration of war, the first she has ever made, brought little or no outward demonstration on the part of residents of the city yesterday.

The declaration was expected in general circles and the consensus of opinion of the man on the street was that," it was the only thing we could do."

Little groups of people stood on sidewalks and street corners, all news-hungry. Outside the office of the Ontario Intelligencer where hourly bulletins from the various theatres of war were published, people stood avidly reading the news as it was posted.

There were no expressions of dissatisfaction at Canada's entry into the world conflict. "We may as well get it over with," a grizzled war veteran remarked. Young men displayed intense curiosity as bulletins were posted while a number of women also remained near the boards for lengthy periods of time to await fresh details. Automobiles swung into the curb as newspaper men posted the news, drivers either leaving their cars to read the news, or straining their necks to obtain the information from their seats.

A survey of the business section of the city today revealed a similar feeling. Store and shop owners, business executives, clerks, stenographers and factory hands voiced the feeling that Canada had done the "right thing."

"It will mean hard work and lots of it, sacrifice on everyone's part, and a general co-operation on the part of all if we are to see this thing through to a successful finish," a manager of a Front Street department store said.

HELP WANTED
Young man, good habits, with commercial certificate and mechanical ability.
Apply at 10 A.M. NEXT WEDNESDAY at
THE JAMES TEXTS, 183 Front St.

City and District News

WORKMEN CLEAR LAND OF UNDERGROWTH

Workmen under the supervision of the Belleville Harbor Commission commenced the task this morning of clearing the thick undergrowth and brush from the vacant area of land just north of the new dock extension.

The land will be levelled and cleared to the new dock, and the removal of the trees, stumps and heavy growth of weed and brush will provide a new vista of the bay for residents of South Front Street.

BOARD ASKS FEDERAL GOV'T. TO GUARANTEE COSTS OF PRODUCTION

Members of the Campbellford Cheese Board unanimously adopted a resolution urging that the Dominion Government immediately guarantee the cost of cheese production in the belief that this produce will be necessary and vital as a food during war time. The resolution is the same as that passed at a recent meeting of the Ontario Cheese Producers' Association for presentation to the Dominion Minister of Agriculture.

RECENT STORM CAUSES GOOD DEMAND FOR WIND INSURANCE

Wind, cyclone and hail insurance has become increasingly in demand on the part of local, urban and rural dwellers lately, it was reported today by one city firm. Friday's heavy storm evidently aroused many to the necessity for this coverage, and many renewals will request the inclusion of hail and wind insurance at slightly nominal cost. The policy also covers accident to property against falling airplanes. Thousands of dollars have been paid out by local firms to policy holders for damage as the result of Friday's storm, it was stated.

MORE WILD DUCKS MOVE TO THE BAY

Large flights of wild black, mallard and teal ducks continued to flock to the Bay of Quinte over the week end apparently driven south from northern lakes by the decided coolness of the past few days. On Sunday well over one hundred ducks, mostly of the big black variety were observed on the east end of the bay near Point Anne while other scattered coveys were seen in several other locations. Local hunters mentally fixed the location of hunting blinds in preparation for the local season on the birds which opens on October 1st, and north of No. 7 Highway on September 15th.

HEAT REQUIRED EARLY

A welcome warmth pervaded the corridors and halls of the city hall building this morning and steam radiators hissed gently, their heat dispelling the coolness of today's Fall morning. The fire in the boiler was kindled earlier this year than for some time past, according to a check even though it is not expected that fires will be continued for long.

NEWLYWEDS GIVEN RIDE IN NOVEL WAY

A blushing bride and a bashful groom mounted on the seat of an old fashioned cutter which in turn was carried on the broad platform of a large truck, made a tour of Front Street late Saturday afternoon followed in the rear by a corps of horn-blowing automobiles. The sight was a novel one, and the unusual parade attracted the attention of scores who lined the walks to watch the parade go by. Long streamers of paper and silk ribbon flutt: ed from the rear of the truck and cutter.

COMMITTEE NAMED

At a meeting in Deseronto presided over by Rev. Dr. James Semple of this city, ex-president of the Bay of Quinte conference, a committee of the official board of the Deseronto United Church was named consisting of Dr. W. C. Blackwell, P. M. Stover, Manley Ostrander and Ross Rendell to confer with the settlement committee of the conference with respect to securing a minister for the Deseronto Church. Rev. A. D. Waite, present pastor will retire on superannuation for a period of one year owing to lengthy illness.

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.
FLIES ARE COMING INSIDE!
FLY-KIL
Quickly destroys this filthy Pest.
8 oz. tin - 30c
16 oz. tin - 50c
PHONE 135
McKEOWN'S
DRUG STORE

THE TALK OF THE TOWN — IS THE
Used Car Values we are offering. See for yourself. You, too, will be convinced that never before has so little money bought so much car value.
TO-DAY'S SPECIALS
'31 OLDSMOBILE SEDAN ........ $225
'31 STUDEBAKER SPEC. SEDAN.. $195
'29 SMALL SEDAN Good tires and motor $95
BELLEVILLE MOTORS
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Sts.
Phone 340
A. C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Successors To
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

CEDAR SHINGLES
Good Quality in Any Quantity
Get Our Prices.
Shingles, Edgings and Slab Hard and Soft Cordwood
F. D. PRINGLE, MELROSE.
S. 9, 3td

for PAINS
22c
FOR SALE AT DOYLE'S DRUG STORE

FURS
ADVANCE STYLES
Re-Styling.
Re-Lining
Repairing
Cleaning
AT SUMMER PRICES
FOR THE BALANCE OF SEPTEMBER.
MissGraham
Phone 415

HIVE OF WILD BEES CREATES A PROBLEM

Suggestions for the removal or disposal of a hive of wild bees in an old stump on the site of land now being cleared by employees of the local Harbor Commission were being received by foreman of the work, Peter DeCote, after the lively, buzzing insects had halted work temporarily on Saturday.

In an effort to trace the bees to their hiding place, the foreman was stung badly on arms, hands and face.

Suggestions which have ranged from the use of boiling water, fire hose and smoke have all been received by the workmen who today were carrying on despite the stinging threat.

THIEVES ENTER RESERVE CHURCH

Thieves Take Linoleum, Dishes, Silverware and Some Collection Taken

Thieves entered the Ebenezer Church, on the Tyendinaga Reserve last week and stole the linoleum off the floor, the church dishes, silverware and the amount of church collection received one week ago yesterday, Provincial Police were informed on Sunday.

There had been no occasion for church officials to visit the Ebenezer Church from the time it was secured on the night of Sept. 3rd, until yesterday morning, when the breakin was discovered.

Provincial Constable W. E. Smith investigated the robbery and connected it with several breakins that have been reported to have taken place in school houses in Lennox County of a recent date.

The robbers entered the Ebenezer Church through a rear window and stole practically everything that was movable. The value of the goods taken will amount to a large sum, if the articles have to be replaced.

KIWANIS CLUB TO RUN CARNIVAL

Street Show This Year Will be Full of Surprises for Attendants

The Kiwanis Club are perfecting plans for another appeal to the generosity of the citizens in this district, when they hold their annual Street Carnival on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The money derived from their endeavors will be used for the expenses of caring for underprivileged children and other objectives that the club have contributed to so freely in so many times. The Carnival, which has usually been held indoors the past few years, will be held on Front Street and there will be fun galore for every type of citizen. Spaces will be roped off and square and round dancing will be featured with the best orchestras obtainable.

A number of contests will be run with the Belleville Merchants taking a prominent part with no cost to themselves. One contest in particular will give everyone an opportunity as to how a shop window should be dressed. It is the intention of the Publicity Committee to run a contest in which everyone can take part. Two days before the Carnival opens the merchants, the length of Front Street will be asked to dress their windows and in each window a mistake will be made. It will be the duty of the contestants to look into each window and pick out the mistakes. There will be only one in each window and the committee will know exactly the mistake that is made. The one having the most correct answers will be given a substantial cash prize. It is expected this contest will furnish lots of excitement and competition.

There will be the annual Hope Chest draw, sponsored by the wives and sweethearts of the Kiwanis members and the "Popularity Contest" will again be a feature of the show. There will be no vaudeville nor Fashion Show this year but do not get the idea there will not be fun because the committee have planned a wonderful time for the two nights of the Carnival under the lights.

POLICE COURT

Five Front St. merchants were arraigned in City Police Court this morning, before Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., on charges of alleged violations of the city bylaw No. 420. The merchant were charged that they did display or expose goods for sale upon the city sidewalks in front of their place of business, contrary to city bylaw No. 420.

R. D. Arnott, K.C., appearing for the merchants, requested an enlargement until Friday, which was granted. The charges arose out of complaints received by city police last week. The goods displayed in each incident were fruits and vegetables.

Several persons failed to answer to their names when called in open court this morning, which prompted Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan, K.C. to remark: "Our customers are apparently neglecting us."

"If they won't come into court voluntarily, we'll have to bring them in," replied His Worship as he later signed several bench warrants against those failing to put in an appearance.

Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., returned to the bench today following two weeks vacation.

The court concluded with several non-support cases that were heard in camera.

I certainly enjoy the fascinating flavor of WRIGLEY'S JUICY FRUIT GUM!
Yes, and it's so Good for you!
WRIGLEY'S JUICY FRUIT CHEWING GUM FINE FOR THE TEETH
THE FLAVOR LASTS!
CT-11
Millions are enthusiastic about the delicious flavor of Wrigley's Juicy Fruit Gum. They chew it regularly—because it not only tastes good, it helps keep teeth bright and attractive, and aids digestion, too! A simple aid to keeping fit! Always keep a package in purse or pocket . . . and at home for the children—they just love it! Small in cost but big in benefits. Get some today!

Militia Officers Await Word From Ottawa on Recruiting

"We are still awaiting some definite word from Ottawa; up to the present there is nothing new, nor anything unusual to report," stated local militia officers this morning questioned regarding any change in local military status as the result of Canada's declaration of war.

Whether any recruiting office will be set up in Belleville is not known by the local staff, but it is believed that later when present permanent corps and units have been filled to war requirements, special mobilization of other units yet to be named will be undertaken. Belleville then will become a focal point for such recruiting, comprising as it does the centre of a heavily populated district.

Many applications have been received by officers of the Argyll, but all such have been referred to Kingston where recruiting is being undertaken. No authority has been given the local unit to increase its present complement, and it is apparently not generally known by many through the rural district that recruiting is not being centered in Belleville.

Work of Reconstruction Starts After Storm

Farmers and other residents of the district turned their attention from the war, and crops today as they swung into the task of reconstruction after the cyclonic storm of last Friday that caused thousands of dollars damage to barns, houses, orchards and telephone and hydro services.

Carpenters were busy on the third and fourth concessions of Thurlow where the storm struck with its severest fury, demolishing barns and other buildings. Trees that crashed to the ground before the force of the wind, bringing hydro and telephone poles with them are today being cleared.

Similar work is being done at the Mohawk Reserve in Tyendinaga Township where churches and other structures received the brunt of the storm.

AGRICULTURAL GRANTS TO GRADES 5 AND 6 TO BE DISCONTINUED

Agricultural grants given by the Ontario Department of Education to schools throughout the Province are to be discontinued for grades Five and Six, according to announcement from the department. Amounts for grades Seven and Eight have been revised.

Whether or not the cancellation of grants for the two grades will mean a change in agricultural programs for these groups has not yet been decided. The grants heretofore usually covered the amounts expended for this special education.

Ottawa, Sept. 11 (CP)—Wholehearted support "in all measures taken by the Canadian government in co-operation with Great Britain and others for the suppression of lawless aggression," was assured Prime Minister Mackenzie King by the National Executive Committee of the League of Nations Society in Canada, meeting here Saturday.

CORN REMOVER SAFE SURE 25¢
QUICK, SAFE RELIEF for CORNS
25c
only at
I. D. A.
DRUG STORES
THERE ARE NO LOWER DRUG PRICES.

Recruits Wanted
by the
HASTINGS & PRINCE EDWARD REGIMENT, C.A.S.F.
For Information Apply
BELLEVILLE ARMOURIES, BRIDGE STREET
Entrance: 1.00 p.m. until 10.00 p.m.
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12th., 1939

Quick LOANS
- NO ENDORSERS!
- NO RED TAPE!
- YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!

ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
se this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of ressing Debts—also to buy things you eed for Cash. Repayable in convenent Monthly Installments.
QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

REFINISHING OF ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS
Colours in Tone to Match Your Kitchen
Factory Finished in Duco or Dulux
WE CALL FOR AND DELIVER
Prompt Service. Guaranteed Workmanship.
CAMPBELL'S
Auto Paint Shop
327 COLEMAN ST. PHONE 777
S11-14

GEEN'S
Wild Strawberry Compound
for Dysentry, Diarrhoea, Colic, etc. - 25c bottle - Phone 131

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. AMY A. WYATT

Sunday afternoon, Sept. 10th., the funeral of Mrs. Amy Alberta Wyatt, widow of Henry Wyatt, took place from the residence of her son, Mr. R. A. Wyatt, 288 Coleman Street. A brief service was conducted in the home by the Rev. R. E. Newman, pastor of Holloway Street United Church, after which the funeral party left by motor cars, for Cooper, Ont., where service was conducted in the United Church by the Rev. R. E. Newman, assisted by the Rev. G. C. Crabbe of Eldorado. The latter minister conducted the service at the graveside in Cooper Cemetery.

The bearers were Messrs. Stanley Wyatt, Lester Wyatt, Allan Wyatt, Claude Wyatt, Royce Hannah and Harry Hannah. The first four mentioned are sons of the late Mrs. Wyatt and the two last mentioned are grandsons.

There were many beautiful floral tributes and the flower bearers were six grandsons and six grand daughters of the deceased.

LATE THOMAS ROBERTS
(Victoria, B.C.)

Madoc, Sept. 11—Mr. Thomas Roberts passed away at the family residence, 403 Young Street, James Bay, Victoria, B.C., on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Roberts was born in County Antrim, Ireland, in 1850, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hamble Roberts, when a young man he set sail for Canada and spent some years in Madoc, later going on to Victoria where he held the position in the Department of Customs until retirement in 1921. In 1878 he married Katharine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cross, Madoc Township, moving out West ten years later. Mr. Roberts took a keen interest in sport, was a member of Victoria Lawn Bowling Club and was a familiar figure at Beacon Hill Park until he gave up playing about four years ago. He was a member of the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and the pastor Rev. J. L. W. McLean and the Masonic Lodge jointly conducted the funeral services held from Hayward's, B.C. funeral chapel at 3.30 p.m. on Friday.

Mrs. Roberts died in 1921, four sons and two daughters survive, William L., Alexander C., and Thomas D. Roberts all of Victoria, and Allan K. Roberts, of Oakland, Cal. Misses Jean Goodman Roberts and Kathleen Roberts at the family home, also three grandchildren, one in Oakland and two in Victoria.

MRS. HUGH GILLEN
(Marmora)

Marmora (Special)—Mrs. Amelia Anne Gillen, widow of the late Hugh Gillen, village constable for many years, passed peacefully away at her home in Marmora early Saturday morning in her seventy-second year.

Death came after a long illness bravely borne. The deceased was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Levi Rose and was born in Marmora. She was of a kindly disposition given to neighborly acts and always putting forth the best effort when entertaining friends. She was interested in children and was a great lover of flowers. She was a devout member of the Secred Heart congregation. Only serious illness would occasion absence from her church at the hour of worship. Fraternally she was a member for thirty years of Marmora Council No. 279 Canadian Order of Chosen Friends and filled offices at intervals. She was also a member of the Catholic Women's League.

She is survived by three daughters: Mrs. John Doyle, Marmora Township; Mrs. James Wilson, Campbellford, and Ida, at home. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. L. Reynolds, Marmora, and Mrs. H. Lewington, Belleville.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday with Rev. Father H. J. Farrell officiating. Requiem Mass will be sung at 9.00 a.m. with interment following in the adjoining cemetery.

FREDERICK R. JOHNS
(Corbyville)

Frederick Richard Johns passed away at his late residence in Corbyville early this Monday morning. He was taken ill last Thursday.

The late Mr. Johns, who was in his 75th year, was born in Belleville, his parents being the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johns. For the past thirty-seven years he lived at Corbyville, during which time he was engaged as yard foreman with the Canadian Industrial Alcohol Company. He was faithful in the discharge of his duties and was well esteemed by his employers and many friends. In religion he was a member of the Cannifton United Church.

Surviving him are one daughter, Miss Myrtle Johns, at home; one son, Mr. Samuel Johns of Islington, Toronto; one sister, Miss Mary Johns, North Park Street, Thurlow Township, and one brother, Mr. Albert Johns, Cannifton. His wife, who was Eliza McElrath, passed away some years ago.

The funeral announcement is made elsewhere in this paper.

40 DIE IN THEATRE FIRE

Athens, Sept. 11 (AP)—A fire in a movie theatre killed 40 persons, mostly children, today on the Island of Lemnos in the Aegean Sea near the Dardanelles. Eighty other persons were injured.

WET PAVEMENT CAUSE OF CRASH

Chinese Motorist of Madoc Crashes Through Fence at County Home

Losing control of his motor car when about to pass another automobile travelling in the same direction opposite the Hastings County House of Refuge, yesterday, an automobile driven by James Lee, Madoc Chinese cafe proprietor, swerved through a wire fence and into the County turnip patch.

Lee informed Provincial Constable Wm. McBrien, who investigated, that he was about to pass a front car, when his automobile skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into the ditch, later breaking through a wire fence. Lee escaped uninjured, although his motor car was badly damaged about the under-carriage.

Employees at the County Home were surprised to find so many of their turnips uprooted, ready for the root cellar, without having to be dug.

Although Lee's car crashed down a five foot steep embankment it did not so much as turn over in its wild flight.

Boat Owners in Peril As Sunday's Storm Sweeps Over the Bay

When menacing black clouds commenced piling up over the Bay of Quinte from the west late Sunday afternoon, anchors of several boats in the vicinity of Massassaga, Ox Point, and through Muscote Bay and Sand Cove were lifted and fishermen prepared to scurry home ahead of the threatened blow.

A few of the boats directly in the centre of the bay received the first full force of the storm, which swooped down on the bay, its force so great it 'flattened' the water during the first attack, then lifted the bay into mountainous rollers the tops of which the wind wrested and flung in flying sheets of spume and spray. Visibility of pilots was cut down to a mere few yards by the flying rain and water, while in some instances boats with power turned full on were barely able to hold their own with the huge waves. Several ran for cover in the lee of the numerous islands; others were forced to battle out the storm, fearing to turn broadside to the rolling combers which threatened to swamp the smaller craft.

Veteran boat owners described the half-hour blow as the heaviest and most severe ever witnessed. "It was a miracle", declared one "that there were not a half dozen drownings."

Hail fell like shot during a brief part of the heavy storm, and along the eastern shores of the bay trees were stripped of their branches which were carried aloft like scattered hay.

As far as reported no actual damage was occasioned the boats on open water, though many owners were forced to wait until well after nightfall to brave the home passage through still heavily rolling waves.

AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
Now Playing
TWO SWELL HITS

Freshman Year
with DI UNBAR
WILLIA NDIGAN
CONSTAN MOORE
ERNES TRUEX
. . . and you'll scream with delight at the hilarious comedy and mystery in the companion feature
THE Mysterious MISS X
Featuring
Michael Whalen, Mary Hart,
Mabel Todd, Chick Chandler
Comp. Performances 2.30, 7.00, 9.10

LARGE RAT SCARES CAT

Philadelphia, Sept. 11 (AP)—Robert Allison borrowed a cat when he discovered a 12-inch rat under his baby's crib. The cat took one look at the rat—and retreated. A policeman armed with a vacuum cleaner trapped the rat in a closet.

LAST TIMES TODAY:
Randolph Scott. • Nancy Kelly
in
"FRONTIER MARSHAL" DIONNE QUINTUPLETS" in
"FIVE TIMES FIVE"
NEWS — DONALD DUCK — SPORT FILM
Starts tomorrow

THERE'S NOTHING WRONG WITH THE WORLD

BELLE THAT A GOOD HEARTY LAUGH WON'T CURE!
"THE ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES"
(and so would you . . . if she asked you to!
starring
ANN SHERIDAN
THE 'DEAD END' KIDS
2nd. LAUGH HIT
"THE KID FROM KOKOMO"
Wayne Morris, Joan Blondell, Pat O'Brien
B-E-L-L-E OVERSEAS NEWS and VIEWS
WB

Mystery..STRANGE..PERILOUS..BAFFLING!
Everyone who stood on that spot perished... in full view of the crowd!
THE HOUSE of FEAR
WM. GARGAN and IRENE HERVEY
PLUS A SECOND HIT
BUCK JONES PLAYS ANOTHER GREAT ROLE IN TWO-FISTED FIGHTING THRILLS!
UNMARRIED
CAPITOL

WEEP FOR LOVE

by

RUBY M. AYRES

CHAPTER 1

Whenever Elizabeth looked back on her childhood she invariably dated the beginning of things that matter from the moment when she woke in the night conscious that close at hand somebody was crying.

Before that, there was just ordinary memories of ordinary things; of playing games with other children, of seaside holidays, of learning to read, and of a well-beloved doll who had gloried in the grandest name the young Elizabeth knew. But there was nothing outstanding in the first seven years of her life until she woke one night in the darkness to the muffled, indefinite sound of sobbing.

Elizabeth could never bear to hear or see anyone crying. It broke her heart to feel that even the clasp of her loving arms and kisses pressed on wet cheeks could not dry other people's tears, and as she lay there in the darkness of the night nursery, half afraid to move, the sound of that muffled weeping hurt her intolerably.

She lay very still, conscious that the pillow felt hot and uncomfortable beneath her cheek and that her heart was beating very quickly, like the old painted clock in the nursery.

Tick-tock! Tick-tock! The moments seemed endless while she tried to persuade herself that it was all a dream; but, even though she valiantly pinched her soft arm hard to make sure that she was wide awake, the sobbing continued.

The loneliest, saddest sound in the silence!

Elizabeth stared at the window, glad to see that there was a narrow rim of grey just where the curtains met, which meant that it was getting light. She moved a cautious hand along the edge of the bed where the clothes were securely tucked in. Slowly — slowly, until came into contact with something very soft and familiar and reassuring—her mother's hair!

Elizabeth's little fingers stayed motionless before, with a quick sigh of relief, she sat up in bed.

"Mummie!"

Yes, there she was, the person whom Elizabeth loved best in the world. She could just make out the outline of her slender figure crouched against the bed, her face buried in outflung arms.

"Mummie!"

There was a wavering fear in her voice because her mother did not raise her head or answer quickly as she usually did. "Yes, darling?" but just went on sobbing as if her heart would break.

Elizabeth tugged at the folded arms in vain, and then, spurred on by her passionate desire to comfort, she slipped from under the bedclothes and knelt down on the floor, pressing her face close to her mother's bowed head.

"Mummie!"

She answered then, sitting back on her heels and trying to brush away her tears, keeping her face averted from the child's sorrowful, searching eyes.

"All — right — d-darling." And then; presently, with a catch in her beloved voice: "Get back to bed, Betty; I didn't mean to wake you."

"Why do you cry?" Elizabeth asked painfully.

They both spoke in whispers, perhaps because, in spite of the creeping dawn, it still seemed to be night, or because each of them realized that this was a secret which could not be shared with the outside world.

And then Elizabeth wriggled her little form into the circle of her mother's arms.

"Why are you crying, mummie?"

But this time there was no answer, though presently her mother rose and drew her to her feet.

"Get back into bed," she whispered. "I'll lie down beside you — there!"

The two heads, so alike in their fair beauty, lay close together on the tumbled pillow, and presently Elizabeth repeated her unanswered question:

"Why are you crying, mummie?"

"Because"—she felt her mother's lips on her hair—"because—I am going away."

"Oh!"

Elizabeth turned the answer over in her mind, wondering that it should be a sufficient reason for tears. Her mother often went away, to London or to Paris, or to some other faraway sounding place, and she did not cry then.

"Where are you going?" she questioned at last, vaguely conscious that this time things must be somewhat different.

"Darling, I—don't know!"

"And when will you come back?"

Elizabeth always asked that question when she knew she was to be parted from her mother, for it seemed the most important of all things. A broken sob was her only answer, and again the nameless fear turned in the child's heart.

"Can I come too?"

"We—we'll see."

Elizabeth moved her little hand to her mother's wet cheek.

"You're still crying," she whispered.

"No, darling. They're just the old tears."

Elizabeth said nothing, for she always believed everything her mother told her. Then, after a pause:

"Betty, don't believe them—don't believe anyone if—if they ever tell you that I didn't love you. Promise."

There was a ring of anguish in the beloved voice which the child could not understand, but she offered the only consolation she had to give—kisses and the whispered assurance:

"I do love you!"

And presently, held fast in her mother's arms, she fell asleep, and when she awoke the sun was shining into the room and she was alone.

At breakfast-time her stepsister, Penelope, who was seven years her senior and who seemed to know a great deal about everything, said, with a sort of triumph:

"Mother's gone away."

Elizabeth's grey eyes opened very wide.

"Gone—away?" she echoed.

"Yes." There was a little secret smile around Penelope's lips. "And she's not coming back," she added with deep satisfaction, for Penelope did not like her stepmother.

Elizabeth flushed crimson.

"She is coming back," she cried shrilly. "She always comes back. You know she does."

"She's not, this time," Penelope contradicted.

"She is!"

"She's not! Ask Baxter."

Baxter, the nursery-governess, appeared opportunely to say quickly:

"Don't quarrel, children, and don't shout. I will not have you shouting at one another."

Elizabeth looked at her with brimming eyes.

"'Nelope says mother's not coming back,' she faltered. "And she is, isn't she?"

Baxter shot a warning look at the elder girl.

"Of course she's coming back," she said comfortingly. "Penelope is very naughty to say such things."

But although Elizabeth wandered about the house all day asking questions of the maids and even the gardeners, they either could not or would not tell her anything and, when at last in despair she stole along to her mother's bedroom and tried to turn the handle, she found the door locked against her.

And then blind fear closed down upon her childish heart like a steel shutter which excludes the sunlight, and then she began to beat her hands on the door and to cry her mother's name over and over again.

"Mummie! Mummie! Mummie!"

Baxter came running at the sound of the distracted cry and drew her away determinedly.

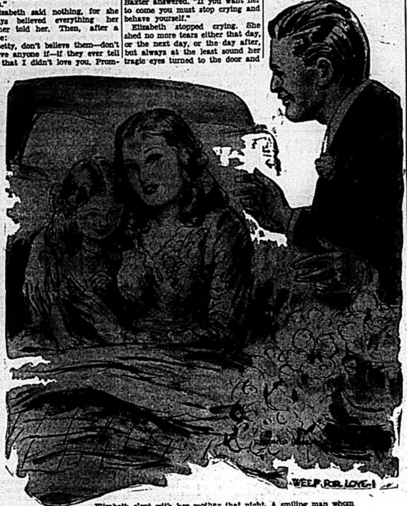
"You're very naughty," she scolded, "making all that noise. You're not a baby any more. You're nearly eight."

Elizabeth looked into Baxter's prim, unemotional face.

"I want my Mummie," she wailed.

"She won't come if you cry," Baxter answered. "If you want her to come you must stop crying and behave yourself."

Elizabeth stopped crying. She shed no more tears either that day, or the next day, or the day after, but always at the least sound her tragic eyes turned to the door and her ears were continually strained to hear a light, beloved footstep which subconsciously she knew she would not hear again.



Elizabeth slept with her mother that night. A smiling man whom Stella called "Pip, darling" stood at the side of the bed and looking at them admiringly he said, "Like two peas in a pod."

She grew ill.

"Fretting," the doctor said ruefully. "One would almost have thought she was too young. Was she with her mother a great deal?" he asked.

Baxter shrugged her shoulders.

"Oh, she came and went," she answered vaguely. "Always made a great fuss of the child before visitors," she snorted. "Not much of a love that can leave her, anyway," she added.

The doctor who was young and not above his share of curiosity said, hesitatingly:

"I suppose it's true? One hears so many stories. I suppose she has really gone?"

Baxter nodded.

"Gone right enough," she answered grimly. "Runaway from her home and husband and all this luxury with a man who hasn't a penny to his name. Queer taste, isn't it?"

They had both forgotten Elizabeth, but she suddenly raised her head from the tumbled pillows which nobody seemed to be able to make as comfortable as her mother could make them.

"What man?" she asked, for here surely was a grain of hope—something by which she might learn the meaning of the grey conspiracy of silence which seemed to brood about the house like a live thing.

"Never mind what man," Baxter answered. "The doctor isn't talking to you. All you've got to do is to take your medicine like a good little girl and get well."

But Elizabeth could not get well. She drank her medicine because it was easier than arguing about it, and she tried to eat the tempting dishes which were brought to her, but always there seemed to be a horrid lump in her throat which would not allow the food to go down.

The doctor came more often. He was a nice doctor and Elizabeth liked him, and one day he signed to Baxter to go out of the room, and then he sat down beside Elizabeth's bed and took her hand, a very thin, listless little hand.

"Would you like to go to the seaside?" he asked.

"Yes," she said indifferently.

"Then you must get well and strong," he said. "Or you won't be able to paddle and play on the sands with Penelope and your little friends."

"I don't want to play on the sands" she answered.

There was a short silence before he asked very gently.

"Then what do you want, Betty?"

It was the sound of that name—which nobody but her mother had ever called her—that broke the ice round the child's frozen heart. She began to sob—dry, tearless sobbing which could not even find the relief of tears.

"I want my Mummie," she wailed.

The doctor came again that evening and with him was Elizabeth's father.

Derek Calloner was a squarely built, rather stodgy type of man who was as far away from understanding his children as he had been from understanding his second wife.

He had married his first wife, Penelope's mother, for no better reason that they had been brought up together and the marriage was expected by their respective families. Then she died and he had been horrified to realize that his chief emotion was one of intense relief, and he registered a vow that never again would he put his head into the matrimonial collar.

But that was before he met Stella Dawson. She was on the stage, playing small parts in a suburban theatre, and for some reason or other Challoner had wandered in to see the evening performance and she had smiled at him across the footlights.

She was beautiful and he was rich, and because she had sufficient common sense to realize that without him her future was a precarious thing, when he asked her to marry him, she agreed.

He was many years her senior, and the sole descendant of a long line of extremely narrow-minded landowners in the Shires. His family mansion, suitably called Narrow Lane Hall, terrified her from the moment she set foot over its threshold, and it was in vain that she begged him to take her to his smaller and more friendly town house.

"But I prefer living in the country," he answered. "All my friends are in the country. You will be happy enough when you are more used to it."

But Stella never got used to it, and was never happy. She was an imaginative creature and she fancied that the big mansion was peopled with ghosts who watched her with disapproving eyes, and laughed at her attempts to become the kind of wife Derek expected her to be.

Her nervous overtures of friendship only repelled her husband's circle of acquaintances. They considered that she was "bad form", and that, of course, the unfortunate Derek had been caught in a weak moment. They would have been surprised had they known that the best weeks of his life were those in which he had haunted the suburban theatre, torn between the fear that Stella would refuse him a consciousness of his own unworthiness.

"Funny old thing," Stella teased him one day when he had clumsily tried to make her understand his emotions. "How can you be unworthy with all that money and a couple of houses?"

So they were married with never a real chance of happiness, and a year later Elizabeth was born.

"Another girl!" people said. "Poor Derek, he so longed for a son."

But for the first time in her life Stella was completely happy. Elizabeth was her baby, her very own, to do with as she pleased, to love as much as she wished. She was like a child with a new toy, or a waif who has been shown a glimpse of heaven.

But her happiness was soon taken from her, for Derek, who had nothing but sterotyped ideas in his square-shaped head, remembered that his own mother and all his aunts had handed their offspring over to the care of expensive and capable nurses, and insisted that the same fate should be Elizabeth's.

Stella resisted passionately at first.

"You don't want me to be happy," she accused her husband, her cheeks flaming, "and if you don't want me to be happy, why did you marry me? Betty is my baby and I love her, and now you want to take her away."

The misunderstanding grew until at last Stella gave up fighting and gradually became little more than a lodger in her husband's house, consulted neither by him nor by the middle-aged housekeeper, nor by the grey-uniformed nurse who only allowed her to visit her baby at stated and convenient hours.

So it was no wonder that she began to look elsewhere for distraction, or that when, after seven years of increasing unhappiness, Pip Hulbert came into her life, she responded recklessly to his open adoration.

Hulbert was a man who had never made good. He was attractive and amusing, but as unstable as a bridge built of straw.

When the climax came and Challoner threatened his wife with a divorce, Pip Hulbert merely grinned and shrugged his shoulders.

"Well, why worry?" he asked her, "I'll marry you as soon as you're free, and we'll get along somehow."

And then Stella had voiced the dread in her heart:

"Betty?"

Pip rubbed his handsome chin.

"Will Challoner let you take her? I'm willing enough but, according to the law, it's for him to decide." Then, seeing the fear in her eyes, he added: "But you'll manage him, I expect."

Stella had tried. Never in her life had she pleaded so earnestly or so passionately that she might be allowed to take her baby with her.

"She's mine, and you've got Penelope. Let me take her, Derek. I'll never trouble you again. You need never see me any more if only I may have her."

As it happened, it was the wrong method of approach, for her words showed him only too plainly her indifference to himself and also brought home the realization that he still loved her as he had never loved anyone in his life.

"Elizabeth stays with me," he said curtly.

So Stella went away with her Pip, and Elizabeth seemed to be the only one who really suffered.

When her father and the doctor entered her room together she made a pathetic little effort to pretend she was better.

She was always constrained in Challoner's presence, and when she was older she explained it by saying that he always made her feel as if she were trying to open a locked box of which she knew the key had been lost. At any rate, she had no affection for him or he for her, although her great likeness to her mother tore his heart afresh as he stood at the foot of her bed and asked formally if she was better.

"Yes," she said shyly, and added a whispered, "Thank you."

"Like to go to the seaside?" he asked stolidly because he knew she had already been asked the question and he could not think of anything more original.

But, this time, Elizabeth shook her head.

"I'd rather stay in bed."

Her father turned sharply away from the eyes that were so like her mother's and all he said was:

"Humph, I'll talk to Dr. Lindsey, and hear, what he has to say.

What Dr. Lindsey said was:

"She'll die. She's fretting herself to death, and there's nothing I can do. You can see for yourself! I admit that such devotion is unusual in a child of Elizabeth's age, but these things sometimes happen, and when they do there's only one possible cure—"

Challoner stared out of the library window at his magnificent lawns and wide herbaceous borders and, for a moment, he fancied he could see Stella's slim figure flitting about as she cut the flowers, answering the gardener's gruff protest in her sweetly shrill voice.

"Not cut them! But it does them good to be cut—"

And it was a moment before he could control his voice sufficiently to answer:

"Very well—then she must go; but once she leaves this house she will not return. It must be final. I am not sharing the child with anyone."

And so, one morning Baxter and the nurse carefully dressed Elizabeth and combed her silky hair, ignoring her weak protests that she "felt so tired." and she was carried downstairs and put into her father's big car.

"Where am I going?" she appealed. Baxter smiled mysteriously.

"You'll see presently," was all she would say.

"Aren't you coming too?" Elizabeth insisted anxiously.

Baxter glanced towards the open front door and before she could answer Derek Challoner came from his study.

He walked slowly down the steps to the door of the car and looked at his daughter. Her thin little face was flushed with excitement and with the exertion of being dressed, for she had been in bed for nearly a month, but the likeness which he always tried so hard to deny was still there, in her grey eyes and softly waving hair, the upward curve of the delicate brows, the outline of chin and cheek-bone.

He saw them all and his eyes softened reluctantly before he said.

"Good-bye, Elizabeth. I hope you'll be happy."

She wondered the words long afterwards and wondered whether he had realized how unhappy she was bound to be, but, before she could speak or answer him, he turned away and went back into the big empty house, and Elizabeth never saw him again.

The drive to London tired her terribly.

"My bones seem to be sticking through," she complained.

"We shall soon be there," Baxter answered. She made the same remark every few miles until at last the child fell asleep, only waking when the car stopped outside a moderate-sized house in a suburban street and the chauffeur came to open the door, looking slightly supercilious.

Elizabeth rubbed her eyes, disappointed to find that she was not in her own bed, and Baxter began to gather up rugs and wraps and packages with an air of suppressed excitement.

"Ring the bell," she commanded the chauffeur, but it was quite unnecessary, for the door of the house was flung wide and someone who seemed to be all flying hair and excited eyes and outstretched arms, came rushing down the narrow paved path and into the car.

"Betty—my own darling Betty."

"Mummie — mummie," Elizabeth screamed.

"Enough to kill the child," Baxter said indignantly afterwards.

DEPOSIT REDUCTION ON BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA"

The Coca-Cola Company of Canada, Limited—ANNOUNCES—Reduction of Deposit on its Bottles—effective

SEPTEMBER 20th, 1939

Effective September 20th, 1939, the regular DEPOSIT CHARGE of 3c each on BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will be reduced to 2c per bottle.

All persons having in their possession BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" on which the regular deposit charge of 3c per bottle has been paid, and on which they are desirous of securing refunds at the present rate of 3c per bottle, ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to return these bottles to their dealers for refund on or before September 19th.

On and after September 20th, BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will carry a deposit charge of 2c per bottle, and refunds will be made for this amount only.

Bottle Deposit on Six-Bottle Carton

formerly 18c

Reduced to 12c

EFFECTIVE SEPT. 20th

DR-38

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

"But it was no use anybody saying anything, for Elizabeth and her mother were together at last and nothing else mattered.

She slept in her mother's bed that night and a smiling man whom Stella called "Pip darling," stood at the side of the bed and looked at them both admiringly.

"Like two peas in a pod,' he said chuckling. "In a year or two, I shan't be able to tell t'other from which."

He laughed when Elizabeth asked shyly.

"Who is that man, Mummie?"

"I'm the bad boy of the family," he told her breezily. "Your mother calls me Pip, and so if you call me Pop, I think we shall all get along together like a house on fire."

"Pop," Elizabeth echoed contentedly, and she turned her face against her mother's shoulder. "I like that man," she whispered drowsily.

"Am I never going back—never?" she asked anxiously a dozen times during the next few days, and Stella answered.

"Never. You'll stay with us now for ever."

"Forever and ever?" Elizabeth insisted.

"Forever and a day," Pop put in cheerfully.

"I'm glad," Elizabeth breathed.

But there were many things she missed. Baxter and even Penelope, and most of all the garden and the big nursery, for the small house seemed a little stifling because it had no garden at all, and sometimes Elizabeth felt that she wanted to push the walls out, or to pull down the low ceilings.

And she was left alone a good deal, too, for Pip, it appeared, had a job of sorts in a local picture house which took him away during the afternoons and evenings, and generally Stella went with him.

There were occasions when Elizabeth felt jealous of Pop because of her mother's obvious devotion to him, and perhaps it was a childish sense of retaliation that one day drove her to speak of her father.

"Does he ever come to see us?"

Stella flushed. "Never," she said sharply, and then as if repenting her haste, she added, "But he's been kind, Betty darling, first because he let me have you, and then, well, sometimes he sends us money. So we'll always be grateful, won't we?"

Elizabeth was not quite sure what that meant, and anyway she did not worry about it as she infinitely preferred Pop to the other stiffly-built silent man.

"Are you happy, Betty?" her mother would sometimes ask, and Elizabeth always answered. "Oh yes, Mummie,' even when she was not quite sure about it, for there were times when she would have given almost anything in the world to find herself back in the gardens of Narrow Lane Hall, without a hat, running over the closely shaven lawns with the wind in her hair.

But at such moments she would remind herself that she had her mother, which made up for everything, even though it was not quite the same as it had been in the old days, for there was Pip to share Stella's attention, whereas before it had been undivided.

Elizabeth took a long time to regain her strength and to lose her look of fairylike delicacy. For some months she was not sent to school, but just stayed at home being made a great deal of and indulged a little too much. Like her mother, she looked much younger than she was, and so there was some excuse for Pip when, on her tenth birthday, he presented her with a doll's tea-service.

"But, darling," Stella protested, "she doesn't play with dolls any more—not since 'Miss Ponsonby'—"

She looked at Elizabeth with sudden reminiscence.

Miss Ponsonby! So long ago since Elizabeth had insisted upon naming the doll after a wealthy spinster in the village, because, so she said, it sounded "grand."

Derek had been seriously annoyed, and had refused to see the funny side.

Poor Derek! It was strange how often Stella thought about him, even though she was quite happy in her second marriage, and sometimes she wondered whether she had been to blame for the failure they had made, and sometimes she wished it was possible to go to him and lay her hand on his unresponsive shoulder and say: "I'm sorry—I wish I'd tried harder."

For always she saw him as a lonely figure, a man who, because of his narrow upbringing, could not prevent himself from following his forbears along the well-worn rut of tradition.

And yet there had been a time when Stella had almost loved him. After Elizabeth's birth for instance, when his great fear had been, not for the child, but for herself. Yet Elizabeth had been a bone of contention, instead of a link binding them together.

Stella looked across the room at her daughter, and somehow she was hardly surprised when the child asked solemnly:

"Mummie, didn't you like my father?" and she flushed as she answered:

"Yes, darling, I did once!" as if it was quite a forgotten thing.

Elizzabeth answered simply:

"But I always like the people I like, always."

Her mother said: "But sometimes, when you are older, it isn't quite so simple."

(To Be Continued)

TRESPASSERS WILL BE PROSECUTED
WEEP FOR LOVE

"Hi, you! You're trespassing! This is private property. Didn't you see the sign?" And a man's heavy footsteps came crashing through the undergrowth.

for HEADACHE and other pains
I always carry PARADOL in my handbag
DR. CHASE'S PARADOL

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

CANADA DECLARES WAR

Canada has formally declared war on Germany and thereby lines herself up with the other large countries of the Empire. Anything less than this declaration would not have satisfied the greater number of Canadians.

In the House of Commons the feeling was so unanimous that it was not necessary to take a vote there being a limited group from Quebec who proposed a non-participation amendment but which was rejected by the House. The Senate also took the same course as the House of Commons after a brief debate and without a dissenting voice.

There remains for Parliament now the bringing down of a war budget which may possibly occur today. Increased taxation is expected in view of the additional costs of Canada's participation in the war. Canadians are heavily taxed even now but they will accept the new burdens as cheerfully as the people, of Great Britain and France as well, are doing. Britain is preparing for a long war, cost what it may, to rid the world of the threat of Hitlerism and all it means and so our country must be ready to share the load. As a step in the right direction it is to be hoped that the Government will cut all unnecessary expenditures and thus devote the extra millions of dollars to war purposes. Nothing must stand in the way of bringing this war to a successful conclusion and everyone must do his or her share in whatever way the call comes

CONFLICTING REPORTS

Perhaps we shall not have a better example of conflicting news reports than those of Friday in which the Germans claimed the capture of Warsaw or at least that it had been entered by advanced mechanized units which would lead one to believe the city had fallen and also a complete denial from the Polish radio station which was broadcasting from Warsaw that the city was in German hands. It would seem that the German report was for home consumption, to magnify any success on the field no matter how small to bolster the morale of the people.

As the war goes on there will be many more cases of the same thing and it would be well for us not to count too much on stories which withhold part of the facts and which mislead us to believe that the enemy have made important advances. This war is not only a battle on the field but also of propaganda chiefly with the object of influencing opinion in neutral countries as well as those who reside in the country from which the propaganda is sent out. The fact that the Germans have radio announcers who speak English with an Oxford accent who give out news favorable to the Nazis and that they, also, went to the trouble of blanketing with interference President Roosevelt's radio address and the English announcement of the torpedoing of the Athenia by a German submarine, show that the Germans will go to all lengths to keep her people from learning anything of the true state of affairs except what she desires to hand out herself. While the communiques from the English and French commands have been, at times, brief and somewhat vague, at least they do not overstate the facts and anything that they may hand out with "official" at the head we may depend on it that they state the truth.

GATES IN THE WESTFALL

There is a great deal of curiosity among many as to the nature of the terrain of the country that lies between France and Germany and where the French are now attacking so vigorously in an attempt to crask the Siegfried Line and to force the Germans to withdraw some of their troops from the Polish front to relieve pressure there. According to an article in The New York Times it states that on the south near the intersection of the French, Swiss and German borders Belfort stands while Metz is at the north near the junction of the French, German and Luxembourg borders and these two cities are the nail heads which hold the Maginot Line in place. From Luxembourg this line juts eastward and then turns sharply south-west forming an abrupt salient in the German flank. It is faced on the German side by the formidable network of fortifications called by Hitler the Simes Line or the Westfall and by the French the Siegfried. It is along this 180-mile front that the French are now engaged in testing the German strength.

The Westfall is not a natural barrier for there are at least two gates in the line. On the south the Belfort Gap leads into rolling country between the Vosges and the Jura Mountains. In times past the Goths, the Burgundians and the Vandals have surged through it into France.

On the north the Moselle leads past Metz, where it unites with the Seille and flows through the southeastern corner of Luxembourg to join the Rhone at Coblenz. It has carved out the socalled Roman Valley between Luxembourg and the Saar. Gentle slopes fall away into a broad stretch of level ground on either side of the river. Southward through the whole great triangle to the Swiss border some of the bloodiest battles of history have been fought. Here the Germans swept through in 1870 to overwhelm the French at Gravelotte and conquer Metz but it was through the Belfort Gap that the French struck back in 1914. However, they underestimated the German strength and were defeated at Morhange. But two weeks later, at Trouee des Charmes they made a stand that sent the Bavarians reeling homeward. As the World War progressed these early engagements seemed obscure events, but some say they enabled the French to win the Battle of the Marne.

Whatever the curtain of censorship may conceal, or wherever the French decide to strike, we may be sure that General Gamelin has not failed to test these two gates in the Westfall.

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

THE MAN AT THE RADIO

'A WRAITH OF THE LAST WAR, THE WAR TO END ALL WARS, HAS FLITTED ACROSS THE STAGE MOMENTARILY, bringing up memories mellowed by the span of the years. As visioned by the editor of the New York Herald Tribune:

Across the English Channel at 11.15 yesterday morning, an old man, now in his eighty-first year, sat in a comfortable Dutch room and heard Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain announce to the world that Great Britain "is at war with Germany." The aristocratic clip of the old man's mustache and goatee can no longer subdue their whiteness. His hawklike nose has been sharpened by the years. Now he is little more than a shriveled phantom of a man, but his eyes are still keen and his hearing—by some diabolical irony—is unimpaired. So the old man listened, sitting beside his radio in the castle at Doorn. "In consequence this country is at war with Germany." Some say his face became deathly pale.

Of what was the old man thinking? Did that fateful date—Aug. 4, 1914—echo and re-echo in his mind? Did he see the confident, serried, helmeted legions which swept across the Belgian frontiers and on through Liege, Louvain and Brussels into France? Did he hear again the ecstatic victory promises of Moltke, Von Mackensen, Ludendorff and the rest? Was his vision clouded by the heaping corpses of 1,773,000 German soldiers, by more than 8,500,000 dead in sixteen countries? Did he hear the shrieks and moans of more than 21,000,000 wounded men? Out of the depths of humanity's maddest nightmare did he hear once more, as in November, 1918, the bitter verdict of his mightiest generals—"All is finished!"? What did the old man see and hear? What did he think?

He is an old man now. They say his face was whiter, much whiter than its norm. Words—calm, determined, English words—poured into his ears. At last he summoned the members of his household. Alone with these faithful few Wilhelm of the Hohenzollerns knelt in prayer. After all these years, and with the ghosts of millions of heroic dead about him, he has learned how to pray. What a different place this tortured world might have been today if Wilhelm II had paused to pray in August, 1914.

x x x

ALL WRONG

A lunatic was trying to knock a nail into a wall. But he had the head of the nail against the wood and was hammering the point.

At length he threw down the nail in disgust and said "Bah! Idiots! They gave me a nail with the head at the wrong end."

Another inmate of the asylum who had been watching, began to laugh.

"It is you that's the idiot," he said."

"Why?"

The other jerked his thumb at the opposite wall. "Nail was made for the other side of the room," he said.

OFF THE RECORD

By Ed Reed

"Lady, now wouldn'tcha like to join the Atlantic Coast Protective Association."

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 11TH, 1919

At the regular meeting of the Belleville Branch of the Great War Veterans' Association the question of a memorial home was considered and a committee appointed to ascertain available places. Comrade R. D. Ponton presided at the meeting.

Dr. Robertson has returned home after a trip down the Saguenay River.

A severe storm, the worst of the season, covered a large area east of Belleville, but the city escaped damage.

Mr. W. B. Deacon left today to spend some time at Algonquin Park.

Mr. Thomas Thompson of the William Thompson Company, has returned home after a motor trip to Detroit.

Mr. James Cook of this city bought all the cheese boarded at the meeting of the Peterboro Cheese Board. The quantity was 1423 boxes and the price paid was 25 cents per pound.

30 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 11TH, 1909

Mr. Richard Ryan of Buffalo, N.Y., is visiting Mr. F. Sharpe, South Church Street.

The Rev. J. Allan Petrie of this city left today for Bradford, Ont., where he will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church for two Sundays.

A club known as the Belleville Checker and Chess Club has been organized in this city, with Dr. Platt as President and Mr. S. H. Leavitt as Secretary-Treasurer. Suitable quarters will be obtained and the prospects are that the club will be popular.

Mr. A. O. Garrison, store keeper at Plainfield, caught a maskinonge which weighed 41 pounds in the Moira River near O'Brien's bridge.

Mr. Joseph Caldwell of this city has disposed of his well known mare, Gracie C, for $500.00.

Mr. W. H. Earle has returned home after a trip to Winnipeg.

40 YEARS AGO

Sept. 11th., 1899

Mr. R. H. Simpson, assistant operator at the C.P.R. telegraph office here for some time, has been promoted to a higher position in the Deseronto office. "Bob" has a large number of friends here who regret his departure from the city. He was a member of the choir at St. Thomas' Church and will be missed by the members.

Mr. Arthur Holden of Toronto, formerly of Belleville, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. Thomas Donahue has left for Buffalo, N. Y.,

Mr. James Meagher has left for Rochester, N.Y.

Mr. Fred Burrows of Toronto spent Sunday in town.

Mr. John Clarke of Norfolk, Virginia, is the guest of his brother, Mr. W. S. Clarke in this city.

50 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 11TH, 1889

The Rev. Eli Woodcock of this city preached in the village of Seeley's Bay yesterday.

The Rev. R. M. Pope and the Rev. G. H. Copeland exchanged pulpits yesterday morning. The former preached in the Tabernacle and the latter in Holloway Street Church.

Mr. Enos Farnsworth of Shannonville is assisting the Rev. Mr. Seymour in special services at Northport.

Albert College will reopen tomorrow afternoon after the long vacation.

The opera house will open for the season on the evening of Sept. 20th, with the production "She" by Rider Haggard.

Business men and others have contributed liberally towards the erection of an arch at the corner of Bridge and Front Streets. The work will be completed by fair week.

Mr. William Smeaton has returned after a short visit to the fair at Lindsay.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Emotional Disturbances May Cause Peptic Ulcer

For many years it was believed that ulcer of the stomach (gastric) and ulcer of the duodenum (duodenal), were due to infected teeth and tonsils. Most physicians still believe that infection is a big factor in causing stomach and intestinal (peptic ulcer) in that infection affects the lining wall and it loses its power of warding off the ulcer.

However it is becoming more and more apparent that the personality of the individual and his physique or build are more important factors in causing peptic ulcers. Thus, as mentioned before, there is the answer of the surgeon to the patient's question:

"Now you have operated, I'll have no more trouble with stomach ulcer, will I?"

The surgeon's reply was: "You will not likely have any more trouble with that ulcer but you may continue to grow more ulcers if you do not learn to keep calm and free from excitement and emotional disturbances."

As many physicians and surgeons have been stating that infection and other conditions are mostly responsible for peptic ulcers, Drs. E. J. Callahan and D. W. Ingham, Saratoga Springs, N.Y., in American Journal of Digestive Diseases, state "Despite the criticism against the nervous and emotional cause of peptic ulcer, it is yet the most constant factor in causing the condition. The food habits of a patient with ulcer must be carefully studied as a well arranged, non-irritating low residue diet (not much roughage or cellulose as found in bulky foods such as cabbage) is the foundation on which treatment is built. While heredity is not directly blamed, there is nevertheless an inherited personality and body build which accompany peptic ulcer."

To help their patients to understand the cause of peptic ulcer, these physicians show an equal sided triangle, one side representing the heredity factory which, of course, the patient can't correct, one side showing nervousness, illness in the family, financial or other worries as a cause, and the third side showing rough or unsuitable foods as another factor in causing the ulcer.

The thought then is that if peptic ulcer is present or there is a tendency to ulcer, treatment means the removal of any infection present acquiring calmness of spirit and the eating of non-irritating foods.

GETTING ACQUAINTED

At a summer resort in this district a few days ago, four young men took over a cottage for a week's vacation. In an adjoining cottage were several young ladies with whom the young men wished to become acquainted. Truth to tell, the girls were not adverse to this either, but conventions forbade the two groups getting together without introductions.

After a few days the boys apparently became fed up with washing dishes, so they hung a crude sign on the front of their cottage which read: "Dishwashers Wanted". The sign further informed the world that there would be no remuneration but the boys offered to sit down and tell funny stories while the person or persons scrubbed the chinaware. Armed with soap, tea towels, a dishpan, they raided the boys' cottage, set the kitchen in order and in a few minutes were acquainted. The story ends with the report that the young people spent a most pleasant few days, swimming, playing tennis and dancing, even though they lacked a formal introduction.—Lindsay Post.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Ontario Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—

There are so many aspects under which this new war appears in the public mind, that it would be a hopeless task to attempt to review them all. Some of them, however, deserve consideration, on account of their effect on us, and because of the new light they shed on our country.

We, who belong to the past generation have accustomed ourselves to regard England, not as the unquestioned Mistress of the Seas only, but, in some sort, as the unofficial Policeman of Europe, if not of the world.

Far be it from me to stir any mud; yet it may be permissible to state that, ever since signing the much-maligned Treaty of Versailles, England has, in many instances, allowed policy to wait upon expediency; and the younger generation may be pardoned for deeming the British Empire somewhat on the decline, her past glories forgotten, settling gradually to the level of an "also ran".

This war has come in the nick of time to show all mankind that, while the British Lion may have taken forty winks, he is as much to be exalted by the weak and feared by the bully, now, as he ever was.

In this war particularly is this so, for Britain has nothing to gain here by fighting Germany; at the end of the World War, the Allies shared the German colonies between them, forced their enemy to disgorge all of her ill-gotten gains, and finally sentenced her to cough up a sum of money reaching well into astronomical figures.

This time, the two great European democracies are showing themselves in their true light, waging battle in defense of the weak and oppressed, for the sake of an ideal, so that coming generations may be free of the hideous spectre of war; and also that would-be tyrants shall know the fate awaiting them.

It is difficult for us to conceive the mental processes of a man like Hitler. Here is an unimaginative egotist serenely contemptuous of public opinion, wildly in love with his own dismal personality, surrounded by a crowd of sycophants, looked upon like a little tin god by both the well-fed soldiers and the starving population.

Actuated by a monstrous egotism he has come to regard himself as of essence divine, infallible and unbeatable, and has taken unto himself the famous words first used by Louis XIV: I AM THE STATE.

Well, had our conceited friend hypnotized himself alone in this belief we wouldn't mind so much; the trouble is, he has mesmerized most of the German people into considering him in the same light so that, although our quarrel is with himself alone, we are compelled to fight the whole German people with the attendant risk of making a national martyr out of a congenital idiot who, up to now is only a national hero.

It is a pity old Kaiser Bill wasn't standing at this man's elbow, whispering counsels of prudence in his ear before he took the irrevocable step; one could imagine the following soliloquy taking place;

KAISER—"Where do you think you are aiming at, you blamed fool. Have you never heard the British saw;

"You may punch me on the nose, But DON'T tread on my toes."

At Munich, you delivered a master swat on the English proboscis. They didn't mind it overmuch, because they know that there is always going to be another day and the tables may turn. But when you broke your word, and annexed Bohemia and Moravia, you made Chamberlain look like a dupe. He will never forgive you now.

"Can't you see the writing on the wall, you idiot? Don't you know that, at your first move against Poland, that old gentleman in Downing Street, will wag his umbrella at you and say: 'Naughty, naughty.' And, at the first wiggle of his gamp, soldiers will rise from the very ground at your feet in their millions; and, from all corners of the globe, will be heard the tramp of marching feet. Feet belonging to men of all races, creeds and colours, with but one idea between them, the determination to smash you down.

"And, as though this weren't enough, you will have to face the French. People who take nothing for granted; who will mass millions of hardened soldiers together, plan their coup down to the minutest detail, and, when everything is ready will launch such a furious onslaught as you have never even dreamed of, you poor Austrian tin soldier."

One cold, I say, imagine the Kaiser reminding Hitler of what he was going to be up against, and it might have given pause to this already determined that the already determined thrat the fellow had gone far enough;. and so, they made him mad; and so he is coming to his end.

T. MEEUS.

Gangsters Got Camera Shy

Early in the 1920's the New York American started a cruisade against the notorious bucketshops—crooked brokerage houses. Victor Watson, the city editor, assigned me the job of digging up the facts. The American stories brought investigations, and since the bucketeers had underworld connections, Watson and I soon heard that we were on the spot.

Then one day while we were attending a hearing in a bucketshop case, I looked down into the street. In a doorway I saw a loiterer, a mobster without a doubt— but I couldn't identify him. Suddenly I realized that every doorway in sight harbored a man. I signaled Victor.

Between us Watson and I knew every rodman in New York. "They are not New Yorkers", he mused. Then he came to life. "That's Joe Maroni from Chicago—a killer! The New York mob wanted no part of us, so they brought these in. You'd better telephone Ben Bloom and tell him to bring down his mob to clean these so-and-so's out".

I knew what this meant. If Ben, our circulation manager, who a short time before had waged in Chicago one of the bloodiest circulation fights in newspaper history, came down there with his men, there would be a free-for-all. It would mean that someone was sure to get killed, and the American would be blamed for bringing gunmen into Wall Street.

So I called the office, but not the circulation department. Fifteen minutes later, we saw more than a score of men hurrying off the street. Some of their faces distorted by anger, were shaking their fists, but all were in full flight. And Victor and I knew that henceforth we need not fear harm.

My devise had been simple. I had ordered every American cameraman to the street, including the "Big Bertha", the giant apparatus with which photos of ball games are made. "Get a picture of every man on that block", I said.

The cameramen did a swell job. Their shots showed so clearly as to make identification a simple matter, exactly 22 Chicago mobsters. That night not one of them remained in town. Chicago, where they had only to face bullets, seemed safer.

—Nat Ferber in the book 'I Found Out'.

The Mule Goes on Forever

If Henry Ford said recently, as reported that the coming of the low-cost tractor meant the end of mules in the nation, he must have overlooked for the moment the trait for which the mule is best known. Now from the Hineman farm in western Kansas, which happens to be the largest jack-breeding establishment in the world, comes the indignant reply to Mr. Ford that the mule just won't go, that there will always be a market for mules.

The census of 1910 counted four and a half million mules in the nation, while in 1938 the department of agriculture estimated that there were 4,477,000, so that the mule has not gone far backward even if he has not advanced. His history is an honourable one. The inhabitants of Mysia and Paphlagonia first turned their attention to seeing to it that there were more mules in the land. The Greeks and Romans like him. Some say the hybrid mule is more intelligent than either of the parents of which he is the offspring. Undoubtedly, like human offspring, he subscribes to this belief himself. His skin is tough. He is a little deficient in imagination, perhaps, but full of patience.

So far Mr. Ford and his like have been harder on the horse than they have on the mule. Just after the turn of the century, when the automobile, if not yet running so reliably as a buggy, was at any rate getting well under way, there were nearly 20,000,000 horses in the nation. For several years the number increased, but now there are only about 11,000,000. The mule has been the animal of the south, and still is. There last of all, probably, his usefulness will end if it ever does, patiently awaited and stubbornly resisted.—New York Times.

Showing Off at the Wedding

It seems a pity that the perfectly lovely, decorous and solemn wedding ceremony should have to be followed, nine cases out of ten, by an equally undignified rumpus on the downtown streets during which several town ordinances are broken and the populace in general is outraged to such an extent that they hold a grudge against the bridal couple for years afterwards. This is the kind of thing which should be discouraged before someone's youngster is killed by the speeding cars, some of which have been clocked doing fifty miles per hour on Queen street. If a wedding party wants to show-off through the town let it be done within the law and a speed within reason. The accompanying hooting of horns and rattling of cans, could be tolerated, if the speed was reduced, for everyone likes to see the young couples going to the altar instead of to the divorce courts. Local police should assert their authority in instances where speeding is done by wedding parties, and we feel sure one appearance in the courts will be enough to discourage the practice for a good many moons.—St. Mary's Journal Argus.

World's Greatest Double-Cross

History repeated when Soviet Russia double-crossed Great Britain and France by making a secret deal with Germany in the guise of a non-aggression accord that was the crowning influence toward war. The New York World-Telegram recalls a previous betrayal of the European democracies by Russia, and minces no words in the telling. To quote:

"That the Soviet Union should have played the two great European democracies for suckers, however, should not have come as a surprise. History is merely repeating itself. Back in 1918, when these same democracies stood with their backs to the wall, fighting for their very existence, Lenin ordered a separate peace with the kaiser, signed at Brest-Litovsk, releasing hundreds of thousands of German troops on the eastern front to fight against the democracies in the west.

"Today Stalin, Lenin's successor, is performing in similar fashion for Hitler. And probably for fundamentally the same purpose, namely, to set the stage for a conflict which would leave most of the world a shambles so the communists might step in and pick up the pieces.

"To-day, as in 1918, Russia has betrayed the democracies on whose side she has so insistently pretended to be. But there is no need for despair. Now, as then, Britain, France and their allies will doubtless prove able to survive the betrayal."

Russia's betrayal of the Anglo-French peace-front will be infinitely more detestable if reports prove true that Moscow's price for neutrality when Germany fights is the partition of Poland. Then indeed will world feeling revolt against the Russian pariah, as it has already sickened on war-mad Hitler.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

The Professional Jinx Buster

When thirteen good fellows get together in Boston they are advised to do it at the Parker House if any or all are superstitious. At no extra charge they get the invaluable services of Sir Taynely Wrighte, an intensely British gentleman, who is on the payroll to serve in the capacity of number fourteen as a jinx buster. Although other and brighter careers are open to him, he is content with his lot. He has never expressed a desire to go into politics, for which he is ideally equipped. Sir Taynely is really a dummy wax figure, stuffed with straw.

He is popular with both guests and employes of the hotel. Guests like to have this model of propriety on their parties for a variety of reasons. He mooches no cigarettes, and never leaves the table to 'phone a blond in Los Angeles, sticking the party for the call. He never fumbles unsuccessfully for the check, and delivers no half-hour after-dinner speeches full of chestnuts about Pat and Mike and the travelling salesman. With the employe, he gets to first base by refraining from marking up the table cloth with indelible pencil calculations showing that Sloppy Susie cannot miss on a wet track. He never causes the temperamental French chef to tear his hair by sending back an order of champignons garnis au gratin a la mode with a request to know if it is really tripe or just tastes like it.

As stated, he gets to first base with the hired hands. He does not, however, get all the way home, as he is cursed with one fatal weakness at the plate, no doubt already spotted by the intelligent reader. Sir Taynely, although he often slumps and wobbles, never tips. — Washington Evening Star.

STAGE COACH DAYS

When iron horses began to run on rails in Great Britain, the owners of inns, coaches, horses and turn-pikes were naturally disturbed. They circulated the story that smoke from the locomotives would poison the livestock in the fields and that the human system would be ruined by travelling at fifteen miles an hour. Opposition to progress was made, as it always occurred to the government of the day that an obsolete network of stages and inns should be preserved at the public expense in competition with the new invention. And Great Britain survived all right. Individual inn owners were ruined certainly. But many of them went into other lines of business; some of them probably went to work for the railroads. In the long run everything worked out all right because economic law was allowed to function naturally.—Le Jour Montreal.

Parliament to Provide

(Continued From Page One)

NO RECORDED VOTE

And when the question was put on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, which contained the government's policy, there were not enough dissenters to make up the necessary quota to demand a recorded vote.

Immediately after the House met Saturday afternoon, Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced that adoption of the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne would be accepted by the government as approval of its determination immediately to proclaim a state of war with Germany.

In the debate which followed 11 spokesmen representing all parties registered their approval of complete participation in the war. But three Liberals, Maxime Raymond (Beauharnois-Laprairie), Liguori Lacombe (Laval-Two Mountains), and Wilfrid Lacroix (Quebec-Montmorency), turned against their party and demanded that Canada restrict all activities to home defence without commitments to Britain.

MOVED AMENDMENT

Mr. Lacombe moved an amendment to the address regretting that the government had not advised the Governor General that Canada could not participate in the war. This amendment, if carried, would have meant defeat of the government.

Mr. Lacroix seconded the amendment but when, late Saturday evening, Speaker Casgrain put the question, first on the amendment, the "ayes" were drowned in a thunder of "nays." Mr. Lacombe and Mr. Lacroix stood up to demand a recorded vote but none stood with them. House regulations call for five members to support such a request.

Then, when the main motion on the address was put to question there was a moment of drama as Mr. Woodsworth rose, looked about at his followers and others, and observed that "some of us want to vote against the main nation." But not even one of his own followers stood with him.

Armed with this authority the Prime Minister and his cabinet colleagues went into session in the government leader's office on the fourth floor of the centre block to prepare the proclamation. It was one of the rare occasions a cabinet council has been held elsewhere than in the historic privy council chamber in the east block.

CABLES EXCHANGED WITH LONDON

Cables were exchanged with London during the night and at 1.10 p.m. Sunday the proclamation, with the authority of the King, was issued both in Ottawa and London.

In the Senate the debate was brief but grave. Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, warned that if the democracies were defeated on the main issue in Europe Canada had little security. The battlefront would shift "from the banks of the Rhine to the banks of the St. Lawrence, the Mississippi and to the Indies."

There was more drama in the Commons. Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe, in the face of threats from Quebec groups that he was facing "political death" by his attitude, ridiculed the idea that Canada could remain neutral and yet be a part of the empire.

Mr. Lapointe said that neutrality was practically and legally impossible in any form or degree.

But Mr. Lapointe, speaking he said for himself and his three cabinet colleagues from Quebec, said their complete support of the government in its war effort would end if conscription for overseas service was proposed. The Prime Minister has already pledged his administration against conscription.

ISOLATIONIST TURNS OVER

Joseph Thorson (Lib. Selkirk) announced his abandonment of strong isolationist principles and pledged himself to the government's policy. He is a veteran of the Great War.

Georges Heon, young Conservative member for Argenteuil who has often expressed nationalist views, declared he had no shame in abandoning them in this instance to support the government's program.

Three Social Credit members, Eric Poole, Red Deer; J. C. Landeryou, Calgary East; and Rene Felletier, Peace River, supported the address but declared Canada should go the limit with complete conscription of industry, finance and man power, to ensure equality of sacrifice.

T. L. Church, (Con. Toronto-Danforth) and J. Earl Lawson (Con. York South) supported the address but Mr. Lawson said his vote was not to be construed as approving the "no conscription" policy.

AGAINST CONSCRIPTION

M. J. Coldwell (CCF Rosetown-Biggar) had the task of expressing the view of his group, since it could not follow its leader, Mr. Woodsworth, in opposition to war. He was against conscription and against sending an expeditionary force but wanted strict control of supplies and resources to guard against profiteering and stock manipulation.

Samuel Factor (Lib. Toronto-Spadina), a war veteran and representative of the Jewish race, pledged his support to the government and to the allied cause.

History was repeated when Pensions Minister Power introduced a bill to incorporate the Canadian fund to be used in assisting needy dependents of those who serve in the armed forces.

The first Canadian Patriotic fund was incorporated in 1900 for the South African War. It was revived in 1914 and collected some $48,000,000 in contributions. The fund was finally closed out in 1937. It is expected this bill will be given second reading today.

Every single political party represented in the House rallied to the support of the government in its war policy. Conservatives under Hon. R. J. Manion gave unquestioning support.

ENTERS ONE WEEK AFTER BRITAIN

History was made and new precedent created as Canada entered the conflict just one week after Britain declared war. But the House of Commons went about its business as on an ordinary occasion. Crowds which had filled the galleries the day before did not turn out for the vote which came shortly before 11 p.m. EDT.

Since 1904, Canada's relationship to the United Kingdom has changed. Equality of status of the Dominions with the United Kingdom called for a different procedure and so a Canadian proclamation was issued.

At first it was understood arrangements were being made to have the proclamation signed personally by the King. The fact that it did not issue immediately after adoption of the address Saturday night was believed due to an effort in this direction.

GIVEN HEARTY OVASION

Mr. Lapointe was given an ovation from all parties when he rose to speak Saturday afternoon. During the debate he said:

"I am told that my present stand means my political death. Well, it would not be a dishonorable end and I am ready to make the sacrifice for the sake of being right."

While declaring he and his three ministerial colleagues from Quebec would resign if the government altered its stand against conscription and proposed such legislation, Mr. Lapointe said, if the need arose, no government would be able to resist the demand which would come from all parts of Canada to send an expeditionary force overseas.

(Pension Minister Power, Works Minister Cardin and Senator Raoul Dandurand, Minister Without Portfolio, are the other Quebec Ministers.)

After the Great War the minister said he had become a propagandist for peace and had worked for and supported the League of Nations but he had told his fellow countrymen always that "it was useless to think there might be a grave conflict into which we would not be drawn."

ENGEAND WORKED FOR PEACE

"Devotion to peace does not mean ignorance or blindness. England has worked for peace. I say therefore that it is a crying calumny to say that England is responsible for anything that has led to the present conflict. France has worked for peace and it is slander to say that France is responsible."

Mr. Lapointe summarized the reasons Canada could not be neutral while Great Britain was at war. "We have a common national status as British subjects. We are using the diplomatic and consular functions of Great Britain and throughout the world.

"Our shipping legislation is predicted on our alliance with Great Britain. If we had neutrality we would have to close Canadian ports to all armed vessels of Britain. We would have to prevent enlistment on Canadian soil for the army or navy of Britain.

"We would have to protect our neutrality against British vessels if they wanted to be neutral during a war.

RIDICULED NEUTRALITY IDEA

Mr. Lapointe ridiculed the idea put forth in some quarters that there might be a form of "mitigated" or partial neutrality.

"As a constitutional student—as I think I am—as a public man and as Minister of Justice in Canada I state, with all my responsibility, that there is no such thing as mitigated or partial neutrality."

Amid an ovation from all parts of the House, Mr. Lapointe delivered, with great emotion, his concluding remarks:

"God save Canada. God save Canada's honor, Canada's soul, Canada's dignity, Canada's conscience. God give Canadians the light which will indicate to them where their duty lies in this hour of trial so that our children and our children's children may inherit a land where freedom and peace shall prevail and where our social, political and religious institutions may be secure, and from which the tyrannical doctrine of Nazism and Communism are forever banished. Yes, God bless Canada, God bless our Queen, God bless our King."

LOANS $50 to $500

Now made here by Central Finance

No Endorsers

No longer need you go to the Central Finance office in order to get a Household loan. Central Finance is now making loans to people in this city and surrounding community who indicate their interest by sending in the coupon below. If you need money, this coupon will make it simple for you to get a Household loan of $50 to $500 without leaving your home.

You can learn more about this convenient service by sending the coupon below today.

Rates authorized by Special Act of Dominion Parliament

Payments include all charges. No fines or extras. Equitable rebates on prepaid loans. No credit enquiries of friends or relatives. No endorsers or guarantors on any loan.

| Size of Loan | Cash to Borrower | 12 Monthly Payments |
|---|---|---|
| $ 60 | $ 51.29 | $ 5 |
| 96 | 82.08 | 8 |
| 120 | 102.58 | 10 |
| 144 | 124.04 | 12 |
| 180 | 156.80 | 15 |
| 240 | 211.40 | 20 |
| 300 | 266.00 | 25 |
| 564 | 506.24 | 47 |

CENTRAL FINANCE
CORPORATION
Second Floor, Kresge Building
355 George St. PETERBOROUGH Phone 1703

Please tell me, without obligation how I can get a Central Finance Household loan without going to your office.

Name
Address
City

'Local Advances'

(Continued From Page One)

"It suffices to evoke the memory of Vimy to recall the depth of Canada's valiancy," Le Journal said. "If necessary the descendants of the British and French pioneers who created a new world will shed their blood to save the old."

Parisians got another taste of war atmosphere when an air raid alarm at 4:10 a.m. (11.10 a.m. EDT, Sunday)—the first since the introduction of the new policy of sounding a warning only in "imminent danger of attack"—sent them to the underground refuges for an uneventful 67 minutes.

GERMANS STAGE COUNTER-ATTACK

In the "No-Man's Land" between the French Maginot and the German Siegfried Lines, German forces were reported staging a strong counter-attack. The brunt of the offensive was at the triangle formed by the junction of the Moselle and Saar rivers, on the extreme northern flank of the western front.

It is here the French were believed to have registered their deepest advance into German territory.

The French forces were reported holding fast at this point, where the Germans were attacking from the shelter of the coal mine shafts of the Saar basin. Fifty miles to the southeast, according to a general staff communique, they were staging a fresh advance. This was in a 20-mile sector between the Saar, where it cuts into French territory, and the foothills of the Vosges mountains.

Military experts meanwhile expressed gratification over the French capture on Saturday of the Warndt forest. By gaining possession of this piece of high ground, they believed, the threat to railway communications between Metz and the frontier had been removed.

NO MAJOR OFFENSIVE EXPECTED

All activity so far, however, is held to be in the nature of "spade work." France is not expected to launch a major offensive for at least several days.

On the economic home front, the big event was the broadcast by Paul Reynaud, Minister of Finance, explaining the exchange control and other war-time financial measures.

Reynaud told the nation that, in 1918, "the issue of war did not hang on the position of little flags on a map. German armies still occupied five French departments. But the German morale was broken because the economy, finances and money of the enemy were literally exhausted."

This time, Reynaud stated, "Germany already has been used up to a large measure by the gigantic effort she made to prepare for war. Economically and financially Germany already is very vulnerable. On this front Germany has no fresh troops."

He said that France, in contrast, had gone into action "under economic conditions very superior to the enemy."

Reynaud added that France's gold stock had increased by 30 per cent in recent months and that French banks today held twice the amount of gold they had in 1914. He urged the people behind the lines to fulfill two duties: Produce as much as possible; consume as little as possible.

APPROACHING A SAFE HARBOR

Survivors of the ill-fated Athenia are shown in this radiophoto aboard one of the rescue vessels which sped to the scene when the Athenia flashed word that she had been torpedoed. When this picture was made the rescue vessel was approaching a port in Northern Ireland. Flashed to New York by radio this picture was then transmitted to Canada by phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

HITLER EXPECTED

(Continued From Page One)

These circles, which include delegations from numerous neutral countries as well as belligerents, hear that Germany for the moment chooses to consider herself at war only with Poland.

When German armies attain their objectives in Poland, when and if the Warsaw area falls, Hitler is expected to propose a peace arrangement.

If this is rejected and Germany then believes herself irrevocably at war with Great Britain and France it is believed here that Hitler again will consult Mussolini to determine if he needs Italian military aid.

Permanent Neutrality Sought

But generally well - informed sources expect Great Britain and France will seek to obtain at least the permanent neutrality of Italy.

From a larger world standpoint, Geneva sources see that the future Italian attitude toward the Allied cause may be influenced considerably by the Japanese decision to follow a policy, of non-invelement" in the war.

This correspondent was informed that the new Japanese Government plans to seek peace in China through a Chinese "legitimist" government in Shanghai.

Trying to End Chinese War

Japanese, chagrined and fearful following announcement of the Russo-German pact, were declared determined to bring a quick end to the Chinese war by trying to get China to accept a plan they think will gave a face-saving appearance of neither a victorious nor a vanquished nation.

By this policy Japanese hope to satisfy China's pride and remove the cause of a later conflict as many Japanese believe was created in Europe by the Versailles Treaty.

Some sources in Geneva declared the non-intervention policy of Japan and the neutrality of Spain may influence Mussolini to remain out of the war.

It is believed that both Japan and Italy are fearful of economic ruin which may follow any general war.

CYCLONIC STORM

Toronto and Hamilton reported a sudden squall which caused minor damage to trees and transmission lines. Four boats were capsized on Toronto bay and one on Hamilton bay but all occupants were rescued unharmed. Hail fell in some sections of Hamilton and water rose to the level of the street curbing during a heavy rain.

Peterborough reported damage of several thousand dollars. Some transmission lines within the city were disrupted and uprooted trees smashed large sections of sidewalk. The storm, however, was so localized that persons a few blocks away were unaware of the damage. Minor property damage was caused in the district north of Kingston.

Many Craft Capsized

Many craft on Lake Ontario in the vicinity of Niagara-On-The-Lake were capsized. Larger boats and three United States coast guard cutters rescued an estimated 100 persons.

A wind of near-cyclonic proportions ripped through the area, blocking streets with fallen trees and debris. An automobile and several garages were wrecked by falling trees. Transmission services were disrupted.

The heavy wind and rain storm damaged many fruit trees in the Niagara Falls-St. Catharines district. Heavily laden peach trees suffered most. Hail accompanied the rain.

Following a downpour of rain in London district, a chill wind reached a velocity of 30 miles an hour in gusts. The rural district reported brief disruptions of telephone and power wires through fallen trees and branches and the blowing of fuses by lightning.

So strong was the wind that all airplanes at London airport were grounded.

KNOCKOUT PUNCH

(Continued From Page One)

ever, is being massed for a stand on the east bank of the Vistula River. Others are preparing a line of resistance along the Bug River, marching by night and hiding by day from enemy warplanes.

The German air attacks have been widespread and devastating, creating confusion which, if it continues, might see further German gains.

One section of Lowow (Lemberg) was reported burning yesterday after an air attack in which, it was reported through neutral sources, German aircraft machine-gunned streets causing panic among the civilian population.

Scenes "Terrifying"

Scenes around Warsaw were described as "terrifying." Fields were reported black with people fleeing the city, handicapped by a shortage of gasoline.

For Foreign diplomats, their families and staffs—who must follow the government—their 400-mile trek to this tiny village near the Russian frontier has been a nightmare.

The wife of one diplomat took ordinary needle and thread to sew up a deep gash in the head of a French Embassy official's wife. Their automobile toppled into a ditch when the chauffeur fainted from fatigue.

Massing For Drive on Lwow

BUDAPEST, Sept. 11 (AP)—German planes, tanks and big guns were reported massing for a drive on Lwow today in an effort to cut Poland's line of communications with Rumania, its sole avenue for supplies.

The rapid turn of events left the location of the Polish government in doubt. One report here said headquarters had been moved to Krzemieniec, 250 miles southeast of Warsaw and almost on the border of Russia. Other reports said the government had gone from Lublin to Lwow, and was moving eastward from there.

As Warsaw dug in for its fourth day of siege by a German force that launched more than 40 air raids and countless tank attacks yesterday, the radio station at Lwow, 210 miles to the southeast and capital of the Polish Ukraine, instructed the city's defenders to dig trenches and erect street barricades.

It appeared Lwow, one of the chief industrial centres in southeastern Poland, was to be subjected to the same sort of battering that has taken place at the gates of Warsaw since the German forces reached there last Friday.

While general headquarters of the Polish army, in a broadcast from Lwow, insisted "Warsaw is ready for a long defence" and stressed that action on the Franco-German front "has now really started" the government broadcasting station at Warsaw also issued a warning of the impending attack on Lwow.

Early this morning, Polish staff captain Vaclav Pilinski, in a broadcast from the capital, said Polish anti-aircraft batteries had brought down during the day 15 German bombers over the city and its suburbs.

"After sunset," he said, "German tanks in droves attacked Warsaw from the suburbs, but were driven back. Two of them were destroyed, and their crews taken prisoner."

Hunger Now Apparent

Hunger was beginning to hit the population, said a speaker identified as Mayor Starzinski of Warsaw. He added that the civilians, "mostly old people" were doing their utmost to supply food to the entrenched Polish defenders.

Correspondents of several Hungarian newspapers reported today the Polish forces were taking up a new defence line, beginning at Bialystok, about 70 miles northeast of Warsaw; swinging in an arc down to the Vistula River just south of the capital; following the river for 125 miles, and then swinging southeast toward Rumania.

POLISH PRISONERS UNDER NAZI GUARDS

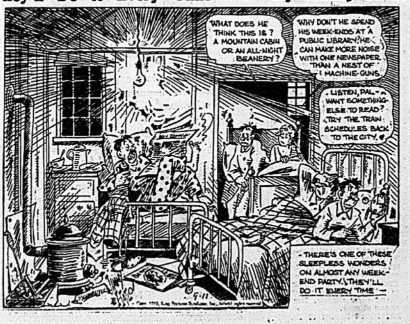
Polish soldiers, captured by German troops during their drive into Poland, are shown as they were marched through a village somewhere on the German-Polish border, enroute to prison camps. This picture was flashed to New York by radio and then transmitted to Canada by phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



WHAT DOES HE THINK THIS IS? A MOUNTAIN CABIN OR AN ALL-NIGHT BEANERY?
WHY DON'T HE SPEND HIS WEEK-ENDS AT A PUBLIC LIBRARY? HE CAN MAKE MORE NOISE WITH ONE NEWSPAPER THAN A NEST OF MACHINE-GUNS.
LISTEN, PAL— WANT SOMETHING ELSE TO READ? TRY THE TRAIN SCHEDULES BACK TO THE CITY.
THERE'S ONE OF THESE SLEEPLESS WONDERS ON ALMOST ANY WEEK-END PARTY. THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME —
9-11

WOODLEY ● FURS

HAVE

REPAIRS
RELINING
RESTYLING
POLARIZING

DONE NOW!

Get Our Estimate

272 FRONT ST.

Personals

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Glover announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Norma Blanche to Mr. Harold George Worley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Worley, Trenton, the marriage to take place early in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Collins of Toronto and Mrs. M. Collins of Islington, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doran, Station Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Tellier and son, Charles of Rochester, N.Y., have returned home after spending a week with Mrs. Tellier's sister, Mrs. Edward McFarlane, Shannonville.

Mr. Earl Winger of Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. B. Doolittle, Everett Street.

Miss Marjorie Doolittle, Reg.N., of Shiner's Hospital, Montreal spent the week-end with her parents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEvoy of Jersey City, N.J., are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. Frank Van Norman, and Mr. Van Norman, 126 South John Street.

Mr. J. P. Healey, Grove Street, received word of the death of his nephew, James Cavanagh of Thessalon, Ont., who was killed while serving with the R.A.F. in England.

Miss Annie Fleming has returned to her home, 24 Grier Street, after visiting relatives in the country.

Miss Berenice Black of Campbellford, is the guest of her brother, Gordon Oliver, Donald Street.

Mrs. E. Pringle and sons, Ernest and Robert of Toronto, visited the Misses Watson, 37 Alexander St., over the week-end.

Miss Lenore Cronin has returned home after spending the past week visiting relatives in Rochester, N.Y.

Mrs. J. T. Warren has returned home after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sansome, Toronto.

Mr. Clinton Jones, who had the misfortune of injuring his back while engaged in work on his car, at his home 54 East Moira Street, has sufficiently recovered to be about again.

Weddings

BOYLE—BURLEY

A pretty wedding took place at St. Michael's Church, this morning when Helen Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burley, became the bride of Mr. Terence Phillip Boyle, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle. Rt. Rev. J. F. Nicholson, V.G., performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a becoming frock of Queen's blue lace with navy accessories and corsage of American Beauty roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Noreen Sheridan, as bridesmaid, was in dahlia crepe with wine accessories and wore a corsage of Talisman roses. Mr. Lorne Hogan was groomsman.

A buffet luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Thos. Helm, Reid Street, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. E. G. Burley and Mrs. A. Gray.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a compact and to the groomsman a silver cigarette lighter.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle left on a wedding trip to eastern points, the bride travelling in black chiffon velvet with matching accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Belleville.

LAWSON—POPE

Wooler, Sept. 11.—(Special) — With the father of the groom performing the ceremony Wooler United Church was the scene of a charming September wedding on Saturday afternoon at two-thirty when Miss Vera Alice Pope of Wooler, formerly of Essex, England, become the bride of Mr. Donald Floyd Lawson of Pickering, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Lawson, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father assisted by Rev. W. Delve of Wooler.

Gladioli and ferns made a colorful setting for the wedding which was attended by a large number of guests. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Bert Rowe, organist of the church, with Mr. Ralph Lawson, Toronto, as soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. E. M. Wessels, Wooler, wore a lovely ivory Duchess satin floor length gown, with bustle back and long sleeves. Her veil was of Brussel's lace and she carried roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Muriel Summervoice of Brantford, was bridesmaid, wearing a floor length gown of pink net over taffeta, floral pink matching hat and silver slippers. Her bouquet was of roses.

Mr. Newell Lawson of Toronto, was groomsman and the ushers were Mr. Morris Lawson, Toronto and Mr. Lynden Bosworth, Paris, Ont.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wessels, where a buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Wessels wore blue velvet with plum accessories and Mrs. Lawson, mother of the groom wore grey silk trimmed with navy and navy accessories.

The bride and groom left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a frock of japonica and beige crepe with beige coat and matching accessories.

Upon their return they will reside in Pickering.

PURVIS—STEVENS

At Welland Avenue United Church, St. Catharines, on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 9th, at four o'clock an interesting wedding took place when Elizabeth Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otto Stevens of St. Catharines, was united in marriage to Mr. George McHaig Purvis of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Purvis of Belleville. Rev. W. D. Spence officiated.

White gladioli against a background of palms and ferns were used in the decoration of the church while white asters tied with white tulle marked the guest pews.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette over taffeta with hem and bolero of Valenciennes lace and finger tip veil. She wore the groom's gift a three-strand necklace of pearls and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Dennis Chitty of Oxford, England, sister of the bride, was matron of honour and was attired in rose faille cut on the new long lines with bustle back and matching jacket. Her hat was an imported model of velvet Chianti, with accessories in the same shade. Her bouquet was of Briarcliffe roses and gypeophelia.

Mr. Eldon Purvis, Belleville, brother of the groom, was groomsman. The ushers were Mr. Leonard Stevens and Mr. William Henry. Wedding music was played by Mr. Douglas Campbell, with Miss Aileen Whidden singing "Because" at the signing of the register.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Roses were used in the decoration of the rooms while the bride's table was lovely with the wedding cake, vases of white button 'mums and periwinkle, and tall white tapers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of fuchsia velvet with black hat and corsage of Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Purvis, mother of the groom, was attired in navy blue lace, with black off the face hat and corsage of Talisman roses.

Later the bride and groom left on a short wedding trip, the bride travelling in a Teal blue wool jacket costume with brown accessories and muskrat cape. Upon their return they will reside at 1465 King Street West, Toronto.

Out of town guests were present at the wedding from Belleville, Toronto, Ottawa, Rochester, Niagara Falls and South Dayton, N.Y.

HIGH—SAUNDERS

A very pretty Autumn wedding took place at Zion Church, Kingston, Friday September 1st., the Rev. Bell officiating, when Doris Irene Saunders was united in marriage to Sydney Leonard High of Belleville.

The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Almon Young, looked very charming in a gown of white chiffon over taffeta. Her long full veil was caught in a cap effect with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Saunders, who was becomingly attired in a gown of pale blue tulle over taffeta with matching accessories and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Walter High of Belleville. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Purdy sang "I Love You Truly. The ushers were Mr. Vincent Davis, Mr. Donald Clark, Mr. Ross Young and Mr. Kenneth Young.

After the wedding about fifty guests of the bride and groom were entertained at the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served.

Immediately following the reception, the bride and groom amid showers of confetti left for Niagara Falls, N.Y., and Buffalo. For travelling the bride wore a nile green suit with Japonica accessories.

The out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank High, Sr., Mr and Mrs. Bert High, Mr. and Mrs. Frank High Jr., Mr. Percy Flood, Mrs. Clark and son, Jack and daughter, Marion and Miss Dorothy Rose, all of Belleville. Mr. and Mrs. Luke Young, Napanee, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Young and daughters, Kathleen and Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young and sons, Kenneth and Ross, Mr. and Mrs, Walter Young all of Millhaven.

MISS MAUDE CAMPBELL

ANNOUNCES HER

FALL MILLINERY
OPENING

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
September 11th and 12th

and cordially invites the Ladies of Belleville and Vicinity to come in and see the beautiful New Season's Hats

—as well as—the Smart New Hat Shop decorated in a stunning combination of Ivory and British Tan where Miss Campbell now feels she has room and a fitting setting to show her Pretty Hats.

MISS CAMPBELL
FRONT STREET—OVER THE J. A. McNABB LTD.

S. 9, 11

Belleville Women Organize for Work With Red Cross

An urgent appeal to individual citizens for finished sox for soldiers to fill an immediate need was sent to the local branch of the Red Cross from headquarters it was announced at Saturday afternoon's emergency meeting.

This meeting of the Women's Branch of the local Red Cross held at the home of the vice-president, Mrs. P. S. Lazier brought together representatives of practically all the women's organizations of the city and the eagerness with which the women once again offered themselves for service under the banner of the Red Cross was most heartening to the officials of the local organization.

Mrs. Lazier at the opening of the meeting expressed appreciation for the splendid attendance of representatives of various women's organizations and other interested women. The Red Cross was calling upon all organizations for aid, the immediate need being for sox and pajamas.

Headquarters had asked, however, that if individual citizens have ready any finished sox that they pack and send off at once to fill an urgent need.

The donation of $63 from the Bowling Club was acknowledged with sincere thanks.

A discussion of a suitable central store room resulted in the donation of the use of such a room in the West Robertson Block by Mr. P. S. Lazier.

Mrs. J. D. O'Flynn was named convener of a committee to arrange for the furnishing of the Headquarters' room it is hoped that this room will be ready and supplies on hand at the end of the week.

Dr. Lily B. Mathieson offered to organize a group of the younger girls for emergency service.

BRIDGE STREET W.M.S.

Bridge Street W.M.S. opened the autumn meeting on Friday afternoon with Dr. Semple and Mrs. Morrison of Tweed as special speakers. They were introduced by Mrs. Morgan.

In his message to the women who will take responsibility for the new problems confronting the Church as it shares in the suffering and sacrifices of a world crisis, —Dr. Semple said,—"We have no right to expect other people to fight the battles of the world—and we go free. The world must be changed but we can't change the world until we change the hearts of the people—and the place to begin is with ourselves".

Mrs. Morrison's address dealt with the theme—"Putting great horizons around Christianity". "The field", she said, "is the world, but we need to rethink and remake the quality of our Christianity, which is at present a handicap and needs reformation. The message of Christ is for all departments of life —and might well begin with our own selfish thinking and acting".

Mrs. Elmer Dixon read the Scripture lesson. Miss Lazelle Brown, the president, conducted the business part of the programme and mentioned the names of three of our congregation who recently have passed to Higher Service.

PLAINFIELD W. M. S.

The Plainfield Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Sullivan on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 7th. Attendance, 20, and 13 children. The meeting opened with singing God Save the King. The Ode was sung and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. Roll call was answered by ,'What impressed us most during the Royal Tour?,' The August meeting was in the form of a picnic. All enjoyed an afternoon of fun. Mrs. C. Beatty and Mrs. Frank Hodgens were put in to take the lessons given on vegetable cooking. The girls' class will take up Hospitality this year if they can get a teacher to instruct them.

The programme was begun by Mrs. H. McCreary giving a lovely talk in her capable manner on a place she visited while at Toronto Exhibition, "Casa Loma", built by Col. Pellatt who passed away this past spring. It was described fully. Everyone heard the speaker with intense interest. Mrs. Norman Hall Sr., gave a reading entitled, "Only a Pin." Mrs. Bernice Moore sang a solo, "I Would Be True." A reading by Mrs. Jack Gowe "Be Brave and Smile" followed. Little Beverly Gowe then took up collection and the meeting closed with the national anthem.

The hostess and several ladies then served lunch and a social time was enjoyed by all. A vote of thanks was moved for the kind hospitality of the hostess.

DR. M. W. LOCKE SHOES ARE FITTED BY TRAINED SHOE PEOPLE

Every man in our
Dr. Locke Shoe Department is a trained expert!

• The great Dr. Locke himself —designer of our famous Dr. M. W. Locke Shoes—could give you no finer or more scientific fitting than our trained experts. They understand thoroughly the principles of foot comfort embodied in these famous shoes. Come in and let them analyze your shoe needs today.

LESLIE'S SHOE STORE
255 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 553

NEW RINSO WASHES DIRTIEST CLOTHES SNOWY WHITE

I WON'T NEED YOU ANY MORE, MR. WASHBOARD... NOW THAT I'VE DISCOVERED NEW RICHER RINSO SOAKS CLOTHES SNOWY
GOODBYE, OLD MAN BOILER! NO MORE HOT STEAMY WASHDAYS FOR ME. RINSO GETS CLOTHES CLEAN AND BRIGHT... WITHOUT BOILING JUNK
RINSO WASHED MY CLOTHES UP TO TEN SHADES WHITER THAN LAZY BAR AND PACKAGE SOAPS I'VE USED AND WASHABLE COLOURS STAY BRIGHT
Rinso
THANK THE NEW "SUDS-BOOSTER" IN 1940 RINSO... IT MAKES RINSO GIVE AS MUCH AS 3 TIMES THE SUDS OF OLD-FASHIONED SOAPS... EVEN IN HARDEST WATER. RINSO'S SWELL FOR DISHES
FOR COOL, EASY 'NO-SCRUB' WASHDAYS USE ME. I SAVE YOU... AND SAVE THE CLOTHES; MAKE THEM LAST LOTS LONGER. I'M KIND AS EVER TO HANDS AND MIGHTY ECONOMICAL TO USE. I COME IN 3 SIZES NOW: REGULAR — LARGE — GIANT

Randolph Scott, Nancy Kelly, Cesar Romero and Binnie Barnes in "Frontier Marshal," at the Belle with the Dionne Quintuplets in "Five Times Five".

Circus Table

The little boy that is said to lurk in every grown-up male manifested itself in the form of a circus table, done by a famous interior decorator. The glass table top had a painting at each place suggestive of a circus tent entrance. Napkins in the form of circus tickets, together with blown glass figures of circus folks, animals and clowns, completed a grand table setting, ideal for a children's party or a particularly festive adult gathering. In strong contrast was the Victorian table done by a famous designer of mannequins, who set his table with old-fashioned milk glass on a bright red and white damask cloth.

Another amusing notion is that of a famous Fifth Avenue store, which turned its lovely windows over to eight of the best-known interior decorators, each window room providing a setting for a certain costume. The windows draw crowds and perfect strangers start arguments with each other about the results. It shows how seriously folks take decorating these days!

Some lovely modern pieces are now on the market, the majority offering utility as not the least of their virtues. A typical example of this is a commode of bleached maple which doubles as a dining room buffet with several small, deep drawers ideal for holding linen and silver. Bands of red leather, with nail heads set in a pattern, add interest to this handsome piece.

Fourth Thurlow

4th Thurlow—A very happy event took place on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Yateman, when Bethany community presented them with a lovely studio couch, in honour of their recent marriage and showing the esteem held by all for Mr. Yateman as a neighbour and church member.

Mrs. Maggie Embury of Melrose, visited over the week-end with Miss Florence McRae.

Masters Carl Sheffield, Elton and Leroy Sills, and Glenn Wyatt, enjoyed a recent week-end camping near Milltown.

Audrey Ritz entertained Miss June Molyneaux and Donna Sills on Thursday of last week.

Harold and Ross Cole visited recently with their grandparents, at Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sparrow accompanied by Miss June Molyneaux motored Friday to Toronto, visiting the exhibition and returning home by way of Peterboro.

Mrs. Walter Sills called Friday evening on Mrs. R. Miller.

Audrey Ritz and Meribeth Miller spent a day last week with Mrs. G. Denike.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey, Miss Evelyn Bailey and Miss Cora Bailey of Harold were recent Sunday guests at the Robert Miller home.

Russell and Clayton Ritz and Harold Denike accompanied by friends spent Wednesday of last week at Toronto Exhibition.

Norman Ritz returned home on Tuesday after a week's visit with his uncle, Mr. Douglas Cooke and family, Toronto.

Mr. Everett Hall spent Labor Day at the C.N.E.

Robert Miller spent last week-end in Peterboro visiting his brother, Mr. Jack Miller.

School re-opened on Tuesday with two new pupils, Ronald Sherrard and Patricia Holden.

A large number from this line attended the auction sale of farm implements and stock on Wednesday at the home of Mr. E. W. Brown, third line.

Bethany Y.P. Union held their opening meeting this week at the church in the form of a social evening. Following the opening de-

AT THE BELLE

"Angels Wash Their Faces"

Stellar names, high in Hollywood's acting ranks, feature the new Warner Bros. picture, "Angels Wash Their Faces" which opens next at the Belle Theatre. Featured in the production which tells the story of a group of tenement slum youngsters are Ann Sheridan, the Dead End Kids, Ronald Reagan, Bonita Granville, Frankie Thomas, Henry O'Neill, Eduardo Ciannelli and others.

Heading this imposing cast is Ann Sheridan, called currently the "most widely publicized actress in the world" by a national picture magazine in a recent issue. "The Angels Wash Their Faces" provides Miss Sheridan with her first sympathetic role, that of a social worker.

The Dead End Kids—Billy Halop, Bernard Punsley, Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell and Bobby Jordan—depart from the type role with which they have been identified and appear this time on the side of good citizenship. Slightly reformed but still tough and aggressive, Billy Halop as "Boys' Week" mayor and his "cabinet" of Dead Enders co-operate with the authorities in bringing to justice a group of adult criminals.

Playing the male lead is the handsome Ronald Reegan as the deputy-district attorney who aids the Dead End Kids in their efforts and with Ann Sheridan furnishes the romantic interest. Eduardo Ciannelli, famed for his gangster portrayals in "Marked Woman" and "Winterset" is the convincing leader of the arson ring which fires tenements to collect the insurance.

Bonita Granville and Frankie Thomas, stars in their own right for their performances in the Nancy Drew adventure series, also appear in the picture. Jackie Searl is another juvenile who is importantly cast.

"Kid From Kokomo"

Working on the principle that a healthy dose of laughter is the best prescription for a worried world. "The Kid From Kokomo" the new Warner Bros. production which is announced as the companion feature attraction, is the comedy start to finish. A fulsome guarantee that this is so can be had from scanning the list of players and the roles which they play.

Pat O'Brien is a flight manager and the type of lovable crook that frequently doublecrosses himself. Joan Blondell is his sweetheart, an ex-bubble dancer whose bubble has burst, and their white hope is Wayne Morris, a husky young blacksmith whom they decide to groom for heavyweight champion. Morris, however, has a one-track mind, which is set on finding the mother who left him on a handy doorstep when he was an infant. To keep him happy, they find him a "mother" in the person of a sodden old kleptomaniac, a role that is played to perfection by May Robson. Other contributors to the fun are Maxie Rosenbloom, as the heavyweight champ, Jane Wyman as the curvacious blonde with whom Wayne falls in love, Stanley Fields, Sidney Toler, Ed Brophy and a score of others, playing shady characters with emphasis decidedly on the comic side.

But the "Kid From Kokomo" turns the tables on them all by turning out to be a real champ, and foiling all their efforts to have him lose fights when they bet against him. He not only wins the heavyweight championship but his girl and his Mama, and all ends well.

The Belle News of the Day with its up-to-the-minute world events reveals films flown from London, Paris, Berlin, Warsaw; shows continental capitals as conflict begins.

William Lundigan, Stanley Hughes, Constance Moore, Ernest Truex and Dixie Dunbar, principals in the cast of "Freshman Year," now at the McCarthy Theatre.

The Dead End Kids, and Bonita Granville in "The Angels Wash Their Faces," next at the Belle.

THOUSANDS FLEE INTO RUMANIA

Cities and Villages Becoming Vast Camps for Refugees

Cernauti, Rumania (Near the Polish Frontier), Sept. 11—(AP)—Cities and villages in the Rumanian border province of Bukowina were becoming vast refuge camps today as thousands of Polish civilians, fleeing before the invading German army, crossed the frontier in search of safety.

Throughout the Ukraine Poles were praying for rain in the belief that the beautiful Autumn weather good roads and low rivers had made possible the swift German advance.

Polish government offices were were striving to reorganize in scattered towns and villages near the Russian border. The foreign office was established in a schoolhouse.

B. BOOMHOWER HELD FOR THEFT

Two Cars Taken Off Streets in the City on Saturday Night

Following an epidemic of automobile thefts in Belleville over the weekend, Bernard Boomhower of this city, was arrested on charges of the theft of two automobiles late yesterday and today arraigned in City Police Court, held before Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., and remanded in custody for trial.

Saturday evening Ernest Emly, Wellington, reported the theft of his motor car which was later recovered by P. C. Arnott on Pinnacle Street.

Soon after the recovery of this vehicle, Clinton Bird, Holloway, reported the theft of his automobile, taken from its parking place on Pinnacle Street. Early Sunday this car was found abandoned on Strachan Street by P.C. Evans.

Beer bottle caps found in the two abandoned vehicles prompted police to connect the two robberies and upon information received Boomhower was later arrested and today arraigned on charges of the theft of both cars. Police allege the accused has an accomplice, whose identity is being withheld by police for the time being.

Boomhowcr was not asked to plead today, his case being remanded at the request of Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan, K.C.

Egg Market Strong, Butter Price Firm

Toronto, Sept. 11.—Prices continued to rise for eggs at Toronto Saturday, but cheese weakened and butter held unchanged.

Prevailing light receipts and good demand combined to send prices as much as 2c per dozen higher on the egg market. Some points were shipping supplies to Montreal where a strong market was ruling.

On a nominal market, cheese prices to the wholesale trade were revised downward. The Department of Agriculture stated that it was difficult to establish definite quotations. Some of the trade are inclined to stay on the sidelines until the export situation becomes more settled as shipping is being held up to a great extent on account of the war.

Light offerings were moving steadily at unchanged prices on the butter market. The undertone remains firm, and it was reported that forward buying was evident, particularly among retailers. Butter consumption is still running ahead of last year with July domestic disappearance 4.8 per cent above a year ago at 22.6 million pounds.

Montreal Produce

Montreal, Sept. 11.—Produce market prices here Saturday by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau follow:

Butter—First grade creamery prints, job price, 27c-28c; first grade, solids, job price, 26 1-2c-27 1-2c.

Cheese—Ontario white, current receipt price, 11 1-16c-11 5-16c Ontario colored, current receipt price 11 5-16c. Receipts, 22,825 boxes, compared with 31,372 a year ago.

Eggs—Graded inspected shipments in used free cases: A-large, 32c; A-medium, 30c; A-pullets, 24-25c; B-large, 23c; C, 16c. Uninspected lots 1-2c less. Receipts, 7,033 cases, compared with 9,548 a year ago.

FRANCE HAS TWICE

(Continued From Page One)

Canada Will Help

The entry of Canada into the war with her vast wheat and industrial resources serves only to stress the overwhelming preponderance of economic strength on the part of the Allies.

An analysis of Goering's speech by economic experts here indicated gaping holes in the economic structure with which Germany hopes to prosecute war. "We have the most important raw materials," Goering said, "coal and iron. We are manufacturing substitutes to replace those which we lack and we have as many workers as we will require."

It was commented here that Germany is manufacturing substitutes but it is extracting many of them from its precious coal and from its lumber, and needs iron and steel machinery to carry these processes through. The notion of a Germany over-wealthy in iron is not supported by the fact that last year the Reich imported 23,000,000 tons of metal, or by the fact that all iron gates have been confiscated and sent to the foundries.

Lose Plenty of Iron

At best, from the German point of view, they will obtain 840,000 tons of ore from the Polish mines, extracted at heavy cost and will still be far from filling the gap left by the loss of 8,000,000 tons usually imported from the allied countries.

With this weakness in iron, how will the Germans renew and replace the machinery needed to extract from coal the rubber and petroleum that Germany needs? Germany produces 186,000,000 tons of coal a year and cannot expect to obtain total control of the 38,000,000 tons produced by Poland. But even if she should, a vital proportion of this coal would have to be set aside for the necessities of German trade.

A similar situation exists as regards petroleum. Germany has been producing 1,500,000 tons synthetically and extracting 1,000,000 tons from her soil. To continue doing this and to replace the 5,000,000 tons she imports annually in times of peace, the Reich will have to plan on using more than 30,000,000 tons of coal.

Produces Only Half

Rubber, too, requires coal for its fabrication. In the past year the Reich was able to produce only half its rubber consumption. Imports will be impossible and the attempt to produce more will only further burden the hard-pressed industrial set-up.

The prospect of Russian economic aid to Germany is discounted here. Russia's exports have dwindled as her internal requirements have increased. Russia exported only 1,200,000 tons of oil in 1938. Her transport, especially direct to Germany, is poor and limited. Only in lumber, it would appear, can she supply any important quantities to Germany.

News Briefs And Oddities

ADMIRAL KING-HALL DIES

London, Sept. 11 (CP)—Admiral Sir George King-Hall, 89, died yesterday. Sir George was the father of Commander Stephen King-Hall, who last summer dispatched mimeographed letters to the German people predicting the Reich's inevitable defeat in the event of war.

. . . . .

CROWD THOUGHT RUBBER BALLS TO BE BOMBS

London, Sept. 11 (CP)—A 30-year-old clerk who created confusion by hurling a suitcase of slogan-inscribed rubber balls into a Downing Street crowd was sentenced to four weeks at hand labor. Police said "ardent pacificism" prompted Alfred Hisiam to toss the rubber balls which the crowd took to be bombs.

. . . . .

18 BODIES RECOVERED

London, Sept. 11 (AP)—Eighteen bodies have been taken from the sunken submarine Thetis, in shallow Moelfre Bay off the North Coast of Wales. When the Thetis sank in a test dive June 1 only four of her 103 occupants escaped.

APPLICATIONS FOR WORK SHOW DECLINE

Applications for work have fallen off at a rapid rate during the past week, Superintendent William Ross stated today.

"Not that there are jobs here for the unemployed," he added, "but the men that usually come in for odd jobs and occasional work have been conspicuous by their absence."

A number of carpenters employed at construction work at Barriefield Camp for the past week were "laid off" on Saturday, but a rush call from that place sent them back to work today.

H. N. SOCIETY, K. OF C. MEET IN COMMUNION

Principal Address to Societies Given by Monsignor J. F. Nicholson, V.G.

OTHER SPEAKERS

On Sunday morning, the Communion Breakfast, under the auspices of the Holy Name Society and the Knights of Columbus of St. Michael's Parish was held in the Hotel Quinte after the eight-thirty Mass. The members of these organizations and St. Michael's Boy Scouts attended the function in a body.

After the toast to the King was honored and the National Anthem sung, the chairman, Mr. Harold Barrett, introduced the various speakers.

Great Moral Force

Rt. Rev. J. F. Nicholson in his address stated the Holy Name Society was recognized as one of the greatest moral forces of the age. This Society is not of recent origin, as it was established by Pope Gregory in the 13th century and has spread over the world. Its widest publicity has been received through the Holy Name Rally which has been a distinguishing feature for over 600 years. It is a public profession of faith in the divinity of Christ; a public act of reparation for the insults committed against Him; a public protest against perjury, blasphemy and profanity. It is a public pledge of patriotism and loyalty to our country.

Man's rights are best guaranteed where God's claims are respected. It is only reasonable and decent that the great gift of speech, a free gift of God should not be turned against Him but should be used to honor, praise and bless Him.

Strives For Respect

The Holy Name Society strives for respect and venaration for the Holy Name of God. We are ever in the presence of Almighty God. Hence our first duty is to recognise and speak to Him. This calls for daily prayer. But many men not only ignore Almighty God in Whose presence they live but insult Him by profanity. This evil is public and prevalent the world over, and private and individual efforts against it are to no avail.

There are societies for every purpose under the sun. There is no society with a higher aim or loftier purpose than the Holy Name Society which strives that God and His Holy Name should be honored, loved and respected, not merely in church but in the home, the street, the office, the factory, in fact in our daily lives.

Vote of Thanks

A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Mr. A. B. Collins, K.C., and seconded by Mr. Frank Domenico.

Mr. George Lee, Grand Knight, stressed the co-operation between the Holy Name Society and the Knights of Columbus in this work as every other work for the general good. The aims of the Society were referred to in brief remarks by Mr. A. Dutton, Mr. Allan Meagher, Mr. Patrick Hayes, Mr. Robert Moher, Alderman E. Logan.

Reference to the good work in the formation of the Boy Scouts was also made and praise was given to Mr. Jack Murphy who has been assisted by Mr. Leo Flagler and Mr. George Matthews in this activity.

The chairman also thanked Mr. Gerald Jenkins of the Hotel Quinte for the bountiful hospitality extended. The hymn of the Society, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name" was sung by the members.

No Restriction on Travel

Washington, Sept. 11—(CP)—Travel and ordinary commerce with Canada are not expected by officials here to be affected by invocation of the United States Neutrality Act against the Dominion.

The Act restricts travel only on belligerent ships and then only in the North Atlantic area adjacent to Europe. United States citizens can still travel on Canadian steamships, between New York and Quebec for instance, or on Canadian ships to the far east. There is no restriction on railroad travel into Canada.

3 KILLED IN COLLISION

Longworth, Minn., Sept. 11—(CP)—Three men were killed early today and five others were injured when two freight trains of the Canadian National Railways collided near this Minnesota town across the United States border from Southeastern Manitoba.

The dead, all of Winnipeg, were: H. Dietrich and Nels Johnson, engineers on the two trains; W. W. Cody, brakeman.

GERMANS SEARCH FOR SNIPERS

While his comrades stand by, a German soldier wields an axe on a shutter of a Polish home during a search for snipers in mop-up operations in a captured town—somewhere in Poland. This picture was cabled from London and then transmitted by Phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

HEROIC "SUICIDE SQUAD" BECOME PRISONERS OF WAR

Members of the heroic Westerplatte "suicide squad" are shown seated as their German guards stand over them following their surrender after holding out for eight days of constant bombardment by air, sea and land. The small band of Polish heroes withstood the onslaught of an estimated 10,000 Nazi troops before being forced to surrender. This picture was flashed to New York by radio and then transmitted by Phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

THREE-FINGERED WARNING

Nature does produce some things that are unkind to man—but she usually advertises their poisonous presence. For instance, the shiny three-fingered leaves of poison ivy shout "Danger: Keep Out" to any one familiar with the Great Outdoors.

The advertising which men do to their fellow men is of a different sort. We advertise the GOOD things, and do not mention those we've found not good.

There's a reason for that. Merchants know that if they call attention to inferior merchandise, their reputation and consequently their business will suffer.

That is why you can safely rely on ADVERTISED products. Make a habit of reading the advertisements—and see how much time, money and shopping grief you save yourself.

PREPARING TO RUN SUBMARINE GAUNTLET

The French liner Champlain is shown here in New York Harbor as it underwent preparations to brave submarine infested waters in a dash for her home port. The liner wears a new coat of battleship grey and workmen are shown equipping the vessel's lifeboats with radio—just in case. This picture was transmitted to Canada by Phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

"GENERAL MUD" BEGINNING TO AID POLES

Claims from Berlin that the German troops are advancing rapidly on all Polish fronts seem to be somewhat incongruous in face of this radiophoto received in New York and then transmitted by Phonephoto. Hoped and prayed for by Polish armies, as they strategically retreated before the invading Nazis, Poland's rain and mud is counted to slow up the mechanically equipped German army.

—Phonephoto.

NEWARK BEARS, SYRACUSE CHIEFS TIED FOR FOURTH

Sudden Death Game to Decide Team to Go in Playoffs to be Played Tonight

JERSEY GIANTS ON TOP

First Pennant for Jersey City Since 1903 and Niehoff is Hero

By the Associated Press

Newark and Syracuse meet tonight in a final sudden-death struggle for fourth place in the International Baseball League standing. Not until that is over can the the winner and three other clubs go about the playoffs for the Governor's Cup.

The regular season ended Sunday with Jersey City Giants on top, where they had been all but one day since June 26. It was Jersey City's first pennant since 1903. Since it was clinched last Thursday, there wasn't much noise made about the windup and only 5,295 fans turned out to see the Little Giants split their last doubleheader with Syracuse. They won the final 2-0 after losing the opener 5-3.

Newark Bears, 1937 and 1938 champions, couldn't get a couple of extra runs against sixth-place Baltimore to take the fourth and last playoff spot without an argument. The Bears won the opener 7-6 and then lost 3-2. As a result they tied for fourth with Syracuse and made tonight's playoff necessary.

Winner Gets $4,000

The winner of this scrap will take on Jersey City in the first round of the playoffs while Rochester, which finished second, will meet third-place Buffalo. Besides taking the Governor's Cup, the ultimate playoff victor will get a $4,000 cash prize and will meet the American Association's playoff winner in the Little World Series. The runner-up in the playoffs will get $2,000.

Buffalo earned third place without an argument yesterday because of those two divided doubleheaders, although the Bisons took a 12-2 drubbing from Rochester.

Leafs Finish in Cellar

Montreal Royals slipped past Toronto into seventh place. The Royals won the first game of a doubleheader 5-4 with a four-run rally against Jimmy Walkup in the fourth and then had to go 11 innings for a 2-1 decision in the second contest. Babe Marchildon relieved Kemp Fischer in the 11th and walked home the deciding run.

In Saturday's games Toronto defeated Buffalo 7-3 and Rochester split a doubleheader with Montreal, losing the opener 12-2 and taking the nightcap 6-1. Baltimore won 12-3 from Jersey City and Syracuse turned back Newark 4-3.

ROME AND AMSTERDAM WIN

Rome Colonels and Amsterdam Rugmakers, if they can score a victory apiece tonight, will line up against each other in the Canadian American Baseball League final.

The pennant-winning Rugmakers gave Oswego Nets a 6-1 beating yesterday to take a 3-1 lead in their best-of-seven semi-final playoff series. In the other bracket, Colonels, who hold a 3-0 lead over Cornwall Bisons, played to a 1-1 tie with Bisons when rain halted the tilt in the sixth inning.

The Rome-Cornwall fixture was declared no contest so the teams will battle it out again tonight at Utica while Amsterdam and Oswego will meet at the latter's home park.

Pennant Panic Again Grips National League as Cards Press Cincinnati for Lead

St. Louis Only Three Games Behind With 24 Yet to Play

YANKS ARE IN

Paul Derringer Scatters Seven Hits to Win His 20th Game of Season

(By Judson Bailey)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Three weeks before Major League baseball is ended for 1939, pennant panic has gripped the National League again.

Cincinnati Reds are barely hanging on to their lead, three games in front of St. Louis Cardinals. A lot of people are wondering what difference it makes which team totters into the world series opposite New York Yankees, who are 17 1-2 games in front of their closest American League pursuers.

At a glance the pennant racers simmer to this.

| National League | Won | Lost | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati .. | 78 | 50 | | 26 |
| St. Louis . . | 76 | 54 | 3 | 24 |
| Chicago . . . | 72 | 62 | 9 | 20 |
| Brooklyn . . | 69 | 60 | 9½ | 25 |
| American League | | | | |
| New York . | 96 | 38 | | 20 |
| Boston. . . . | 78 | 55 | 18½ | 21 |
| Chicago . . . | 76 | 58 | 20 | 20 |

All the clubs below third place in the junior circuit already have been eliminated mathematically. The White Sox are "Dormie". needing to win all and the Yanks to lose all for a tie. This leaves the chase up to the Red Sox, who probably will be eliminated this week.

Phillies Are Out

In contrast, the only club positively out of the National League is Philadelphia. Since Sept. 1, the Reds have played mere .500 ball, winning five, losing five and tying one.

The Cardinals have crept closer by winning eight, losing three and tying one. The Cubs seem to have given up the ghost, losing seven of 11, but the Dodgers have popped into the picture by winning nine of 13—the last six victories in a row.

With big Paul Derringer scattering seven hits for his 20th victory, the Reds beat the Cubs, 7-2, yesterday. Even so, St. Louis sidled a half step closer by sweeping a doubleheader from Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-3 and 11-4 and the Dodgers moved within a half game of third place on an 8-4 victory over New York Giants. The Phillies were rained out at Boston.

Yanks Wins Eight in Row

New York's Yankees ran their latest winning streak to eight games by beating Washington Senators, 4-3 and 6-2. In the second game, they collected four homers, two by Bill Dickey, to bring the team total to 151.

The Red Sox broke a six-game losing string with 10-7 and 5-1 triumphs over Philadelphia Athletics as Ted Williams went on a spree with two homers, two triples and a single.

Cleveland divided a doubleheader with St. Louis Browns, winning the first, 15-5, and dropping the second 5-4.

Johnny Rigney's personal 11-game winning streak was ended as Buck Newsom hurled Detroit Tigers to a 5-1 victory over the White Sox, but Chicago came back to capture the nightcap 11-9.

MARATHONER DIES

Treharris, Wales: (CP)—Veteran member of an athletic club which demands its members must have at some time walked 100 miles in 24 hours, J. Iles, 64 died here recently. In 1908, he won the Middlesex 24-hour championship, covering 106 miles.

ST. CATHARINES, MIMICO WIN LACROSSE GAMES

Athletics Will Meet Fergus With Winners to Meet Mimico for Title

ORILLIA CRUSHED

St. Catharines Wins Final Game 15-3 While Mimico Downs Hamilton Tigers

(By The Canadian Press)

St. Catharines Athletics gave convincing demonstration they intend to repeat for the Canadian Senior Lacrosse title and the Mann Cup they won last season as they wound up the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association playoffs Saturday by crushing Orillia Terriers 15-3.

Athletics mauled the Terriers in this fashion after splitting the first two games of the best-of-three series. The other team to emerge from the playoffs was Mimico Mountaineers, who defeated Hamilton Tigers 10-6, also after dividing the first two games of the round.

St. Catharines officials announced Sunday they would exercise their prerogative of meeting Fergus Thistles, who qualified to meet the senior "A" winners, by beating East York, senior "B" champions. Mimico now gets a bye into the "A" finals.

The St. Catharines-Thistles series starts in Fergus today with a return game at St. Catharines Wednesday.

In Saturday's game the Canadian champions handcuffed their opponents with an iron-clad defence, highlighted by Billy Whitaker's play in goal.

Nine men contributed to the scoring as St. Catharines built up a 3-1 lead in the first period, increased it to 5-2 at half time and added three more in the third frame.

In the other tilt Mimico went ahead after a weak first period that saw Hamilton leading 2-0. The Mountaineers pulled out in front 5-4 at half time and, following a scoreless third frame, fired in five goals to Hamilton's one in the final stanza.

REFUGEE WINS SWIM

London: (CP)—Ruth Langer, 18-year-old Austrian refugee wo nthe women's long-distance swimming championship on the Thames, covering the five-mile distance in one hour, 14 minutes, four seconds.

INDIAN RETAINED

Burnley, England: (CP)—Amar Singh, Indian international cricketer, one of the mainstays of Burnley in the Lancashire Cricket league has been-re-engaged as a professional for next season.

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Napanee | Sept. 8, 9th |
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Brighton | Sept. 12-13 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Bancroft | Sept. 14-15 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Centreville | Sept. 1-2 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |
| Roseneath | Oct. 12-13 |
| Mohawk (Deseronto) | Sept. 13 |
| Shannonville | Sept. 16 |

LOCAL 'ORFUNS' BOW TO COBOURG BY 9-3 SCORE

Ed. Cowie Restricts Belleville Hitters to Five Safeties in O.B.A. Play-Off

HERE WEDNESDAY

Cobourg Ponies Drive Sammy Ellis from Hilltop in First Frame

Restricting the Belleville "Orfuns" to five singles, Ed Cowie, the Cobourg Ponies' righthand hurler, proved too much for the Wilkins-led Orfuns as the Ponies beat Belleville 9 to 3 in the first game of the second round intermediate O.B.A. playdowns at Cobourg on Saturday. The second game of the series will be played in Belleville on Wednesday afternoon.

The Ponies hit the offerings of three Belleville moundsmen hard and drove starting pitcher Sammy Ellis to the showers in the first inning before a Cobourg player had been retired. Lefty Weeks was rushed in to fill the breach and nobly halted the homesters, until the seventh, when the Ponies broke out again to drive Weeks to cover and cinch the day's honors, after Belleville had moved to within a run of knotting the score.

Field Weakened Team

Due to motor trouble Belleville was forced to start the game with a patched-up nine, that saw many players out of their natural position and ultimately resulted in Cobourg bagging a big three run lead in the initial frame. Ellis walked the first two batters and Campbell hit a triple into deep right to score two runs and later scamper home on McCaig's one base blow. Weeks was then rushed to the hilltop and succeeded in stemming the tide, although hits by Reymes and Blastorah gave Cobourg a fourth run in the sixth.

Belleville made their big bid in the seventh, as Skipper Wilkins had by now injected his regulars slowly into the game. Up until the seventh the "Orfuns" had counted just one single off Cowie, however. Carson and Pointer hit in succession to count a run and Pointer scampered home on Jarrell's one base knock, later Jarrell scoring on Riggs' sacrifice bunt. Hits by Johnstone, Brooks and Reymes interspersed with two errors and a walk gave Cobourg five runs on three hits in the seventh and saw Weeks replaced by Kelleher. Belleville feel that with their team intact for the return game here on Wednesday they will force the series to a third and deciding issue.

Campbell Triples

Campbell's first inning triple was the longest hit of the day, as every Cobourg batter hit safely, except their battery. Lorne Jarrell, Belleville's second baseman, collected two of the locals' five hits. Weeks struck out nine in six innings, while Cowie whiffed eight in nine frames and Kelleher two in as many frames. Belleville's errors in the seventh, when the Ponies pushed five runs across on three hits, proved most disastrous.

| Belleville | AB | R | H | PO | A |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| McQuaid 3b. | 3 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Barriage ss, rf. | 3 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| Weeks lf. p. | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 3 |
| Empson lf. | 3 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Carson 1b. | 4 | 1 | 1 | 5 | 1 |
| Pointer c. | 4 | 1 | 1 | 12 | 1 |
| Churchill rf. | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Ellis p. | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Riggs cf. | 2 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 0 |
| Jarrell 2b. | 4 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 1 |
| aLittle ss. | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 |
| bKelleher p. | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 |
| Total | 31 | 3 | 5 | 24 | 9 |

aWent to short in 6th.
bReplaced Weeks in 7th.

| Cobourg | AB | R | H | PO | A |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Johnstone ss. | 4 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| Rollings 2b. | 3 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 2 |
| Campbell 1b. | 4 | 2 | 1 | 13 | 0 |
| Brooks lf. | 5 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| McCaig rf. | 4 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 0 |
| Reymes 3b. | 4 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Blastorah cf. | 4 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| Cooper c. | 4 | 0 | 0 | 9 | 2 |
| Cowie p. | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 3 |
| Total | 33 | 9 | 9 | 27 | 8 |

Score by innings:

| | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Belleville | 000 000 300 | 3 | 5 | 4 |
| Cobourg | 300 001 50x | 9 | 9 | 4 |

Summary: Errors, Johnstone, Campbell, McCaig, Reymes, Barriage, Kelleher, Pointer 2; three base hit, Campbell; two base hit, Reymes; runs batted in, Pointer, Jarrell, Riggs, Rollings, Campbell 2, McCaig, Reymes 2, Blastorah; sacrifice hits, Rollings, Riggs; stolen bases, Johnstone 2, Brooks, McCaig 2, Reymes, Blastorah, Cowie 2, Carson 2, Jarrell; left on base, Cobourg 7 Belleville 8; hit by pitcher Weeks (Cowie); struck out, by Weeks 9 in six innings; by Kelleher 2 in two innings; by Cowie 8; base on balls, off Ellis 2, off Weeks 2, off Kelleher 1, off Cowie 3; losing pitcher, Ellis; passed balls, Belleville 2, Cobourg 1. Umpires: Turpin, plate; Gibson, bases, both of Cobourg.

Baseball Results

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Jersey City | 89 | 64 | .582 |
| Rochester | 84 | 67 | .556 |
| Buffalo | 82 | 72 | .532 |
| Newark | 81 | 73 | .526 |
| Syracuse | 81 | 73 | .526 |
| Baltimore | 68 | 85 | .444 |
| Montreal | 64 | 88 | .421 |
| Toronto | 63 | 90 | .412 |

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 97 | 38 | .719 |
| Boston | 78 | 56 | .582 |
| Chicago | 76 | 58 | .567 |
| Cleveland | 72 | 61 | .541 |
| Detroit | 70 | 63 | .526 |
| Washington | 59 | 77 | .434 |
| Philadelphia | 47 | 86 | .353 |
| St. Louis | 36 | 96 | .273 |

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati | 78 | 50 | .609 |
| St. Louis | 76 | 54 | .585 |
| Chicago | 72 | 62 | .537 |
| Brooklyn | 69 | 60 | .535 |
| New York | 65 | 62 | .512 |
| Pittsburgh | 59 | 71 | .454 |
| Boston | 57 | 71 | .445 |
| Philadelphia | 41 | 87 | .320 |

SUNDAY'S GAMES

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Montreal 5, Toronto 4.
Montreal 2, Toronto 1.
Syracuse 5, Jersey City 0.
Jersey City 2, Syracuse 0.
Newark 7, Baltimore 6.
Baltimore 3, Newark 2.
Rochester 12, Buffalo 2.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Boston 10, Philadelphia 7.
Boston 5, Philadelphia 1.
Detroit 5, Chicago 1.
Chicago 11, Detroit 9.
New York 4, Washington 3.
New York 6, Washington 2.
Cleveland 15, St. Louis 5.
St. Louis 5, Cleveland 4.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

St. Louis 9, Pittsburgh 3.
St. Louis 11, Pittsburgh 4.
Brooklyn 8, New York 4.
Cincinnati 7, Chicago 2.
Philadelphia at Boston, postponed, rain.

SATURDAY'S GAMES

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Montreal 12, Rochester 2.
Rochester 6, Montreal 1.
Toronto 7, Buffalo 3.
Syracuse 4, Newark 3.
Baltimore 12, Jersey City 3.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Philadelphia 2, Boston 1.
New York 5, Washington 2.
Cleveland 9, St. Louis 8.
Chicago at Detroit, postponed, rain.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Brooklyn 8, New York 3.
Philadelphia 2, Boston 1.
Chicago 3, Cincinnati 2.
St. Louis 12, Pittsburgh 2.

WILLIE TURNESA TO DEFEND TITLE

U. S. Amateur Golf Tourney Opens in Chicago Today

Chicago, Sept. 11 (AP)—Willie Turnesa began defence of his United States Amateur Golf Title today against an international field including five former champions, dozens of other top-ranking players and dark-horse aspirants.

The field, totalling 169 players set out to play 18 holes today over the 7,022-yard North Shore Country Club course in the first half of the 36-hole qualifying test. The low 130 and ties complete medal competition tomorrow.

Rated on par with Turnesa for titular honors as the medal test began were C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville of London, Ont., 1932 amateur champion, Johnny Goodman, of Omaha, 1937 champion and winner of the National Open on this same course in 1933; Charles Yates, Atlanta's 1937 British Amateur champion; Ed Kingsley, Salt Lake City, semi-finalist last year; Gus Moreland, Peoria, Ill., veteran of Walker Cup play and the 1938 amateur titlist; Marvin (Bud) Ward, Portland, Ore., who finished one stroke back of the leaders in the National Open; Jack Hoerner, Chicago, Fred Haas, New Orleans, another Walker Cupper, and Pat Abbott, Altadena, Calif., finalist last year and 1936 public links titlist.

In ddition to Goodman and Somerville, other former champions looking for another amateur crown were Johnny Fischer, Cincinnati; Francis Ouimet, Boston, who won his first amateur title in 1914 and his second in 1931, and Charles (Chick) Evans, Chicago, champion in 1916 and 1920.

Qualifying rounds will be followed by match play rounds of 18 holes Wednesday and Thursday. The semi-finals over 36 holes are set for Friday and the 36-hole championship match Saturday.

BOXER'S WIFE TRAINER

Cape Town, (CP) — Mrs. Ben Foord, wife o fa South African boxer, was opposed to a "come-back" planned by her husband —at first. Now she's enthusiastic and acts as his trainer. She used to be a physical training instructress.

OTTAWA GOLFER SOUTHPAW STAR

Henry A. Bruce Wins Two U. S. Tournaments for Left-Handers

Ottawa, Sept. 10—(CP)— While the percentage of left-handed golfers has possibly never been calculated, it is generally admitted about six to 10 in a hundred belong to this group with top-flight performers as scarce. Henry A. Bruce of Ottawa Rivermead Club is one of the exceptions.

President of the Ontario Left-handers' Golf Association when he was a resident of Stratford, Ont., prior to March 1936, the 53-year-old Rivermead champion has just returned from the United States where he won two major tournaments for southpaw golfers.

Bruce won the New York State title in Syracuse in June and then moved on to Manchester, N. H., where he defeated three former champions to win the crown and become the first Canadian ever to accomplish such a feat. The United States' National Championship held at Detroit at the same time as the New England championship attracts a smaller field and Bruce passed it up in favor of the latter.

Bruce has also been Ottawa Valley Left-Handers' Association titleholder since the event was inaugurated two years ago. His victory in the Manchester tournament however, gives him more satisfaction than his many successes elsewhere. Former champions he defeated in that event were Griffin S. Fallon of Newton, Mass., Jesse E. Giles, of Manchester, and Thomas J. Foley of Wooster, Mass.

Several Toronto men have been working on the idea of an international left-handers' tournament at a Toronto club next summer and Bruce believes it will be held with assurance of a good representation from the New England association.

Yankee Polo Monoply To be Broken Up

Boston, Sept. 10 —(CP)—Sonny Whitney's decision to disband the Old Westbury polo team has broken up what threatened to be a monopoly on the national championship.

For the past two years the team Whitney captained has taken the title, crushing opposition with an outfit which boasted three 10-goal stars, Stewart Iglehart, Mike Phipps and Cecil Smith.

With those three—Tommy Hitchcock is the United States' fourth 10-goal player— free to join other crews, polo experts expect a much more evenly-balanced field for the championship starting Sept. 16 at Meadow Brook, Long Island.

The Greentree Four, a combination built around Tommy Hitchcock, stands as favorite. Greentree was runner-up in both 1937 and 1938 to Westbury.

Mike Phipps is expected to perform with a Texas Rangers team and it's considered probable that Iglehart and Smith will team up together on some other outfit. Whitney disbanded the team because he was unable to devote sufficient time to the game.

OLD CLUB DISBANS

London: (CP)—London Caledonians, famous amateur soccer club and winner of the Football Association Amateur Cup in 1923 is to be wound up.

FRENCH WIN CLASSIC

Munich, Germany: (CP)— The Brown Ribbon, Germany's annual racing classic, was won this year by the French entry, Goya III, ridden by Charles Elliott. The favorite, Procle, was third.

CALLING 'EM

Between the Lines

with
Ken J. Colling

Fielding a patched-up team, which was made necessary owing to motor trouble enroute to Cobourg Saturday, the Belleville "Orfuns" literally spotted the Cobourg 'Ponies' three runs in the first inning as the result of not having their full team in Cobourg at game time and the locals came home on the short end of the score. On the other hand, there is no use trying to deny the fact that pitcher Ed Cowie, Cobourg's youthful righthander, tossed himself a mighty fine baseball game, as he restricted the locals to exactly five safe hits, three of which came in the seventh, when Belleville scored all of their runs. Cowie is a likely looking moundsman, possessing a good curve, a fireball that smokes and a change of pace. As to his legibility, however, the locals seemed somewhat skeptical even before Saturday's game, but we are not in a position to further comment on such matters, except to say he tossed a smart game Saturday.

It seems Skipper Bud Wilkins' car developed carburetor trouble enroute to Cobourg and the local helmsman was an hour late. Wilkins had all of the club's paraphernalia and Belleville started out using Cobourg's equipment, until Wilkins arrived. This wasn't so bad, but the fact that pitcher Joe Kelleher, second baseman Lorne Jarrell and shortstop Mel Little were all with Wilkins, forcing Belleville to start the game with several players out of position, which in no way helped the Belleville cause at any time. One of the local features was the fine relief hurling of Lefty Weeks, who stepped in cold and halted the Ponies, after they had driven Sammy Ellis from the mound in the first inning. Cobourg only got three hits off Weeks from the first until they opened a barrage of base knocks, which were materially assisted by errors, in the seventh, after Belleville had pulled up as close as 4-3. The second game of the series will be played here on Wednesday afternoon and the locals feel assured they can force the series to a third tussle.

Percy "Hoot" Gibson, former Belleville hurler who pitched Belleville to its last senior O.B.A. title in 1928, was the base umpire on Saturday, while Dick Turpin, former Cobourg senior third baseman was the umps-in-chief. The boys turned in a good chore. Incidentally Gibson is looking fine and has been umpiring all season in the Lake Shore League, he informed us. Several members of the Ponies are also with the Cobourg "Red Raiders," who were in the senior O.R.F.U. for exactly three hours last Friday, we heard in Cobourg on Saturday. It seems the Red Raiders' application to advance to the senior ranks along with Peterboro, Sarnia et al was accepted at 8.00 p.m. Friday during a regular senior O.R.F.U. conclave at Toronto. Three hours later and after much discussion, the Cobourg entry was denied, however. Cobourg is now endeavouring to obtain a berth in a Toronto intermediate football loop.

It is doubtful if there will be an O.A.S.A. playdown in Belleville before Saturday, as there has been some delays in Toronto due to rain, but the Point Anne "Cementmen" move in the Eastern Ontario "C" finals versus Wooler at Trenton on Tuesday and play the return game on Thursday. Then in baseball we have the Cobourg Ponies here on Wednesday. In the meantime the "Oilers" will have to remain idle until at least the end of the week despite O.A.S.A. draws. Originally the T.A.S.A. winners were to have met the "Oilers" here on Wednesday, but that playing date has been indefinitely postponed.

The individual exploits of jolting Joe DiMaggio hold about all the interest that is left in the so-called American league race. Joe is currently batting a few points above the .400 mark, and the fans are following his gallant fight to stay up there. They also are closely following his bid to overhaul Ted Williams for run batted in honors. Joe is trailing in the R.B.I. department 119 to 126, but he has played only 99 games to Ted's 128. Joe also is hot on the trail of Jimmy Fox for home-run honors with 27 to Jimmy's 35.

The Peterboro' scribe, who says the "Oilers" are—"fair team with a good pitcher", wishes the locals well, but his good wishes carry a tone of sarcasm, as we doubt whether his heart was in his work at the time of writing. As far as the Oshawa scribe is concerned, we understand he can come out from hiding now, as the sad blow was delivered over the week end. "So long, Georgie, it was nice to have known you."

St. Louis Cardinals won three over the week end, while Cincinnati won and lost to the Cubs, thus cutting the Redlegs' margin to three games in which they lead the National League, not too healthy a margin with the stretch looming up before them. Over in the junior circuit the Yankees are just four games off the century winning mark and barring accidents will establish a new major league winning record, held by their 1927 club of 107 games won. The Yankees won three over the week end and have 20 more games yet to play, of which they'd only have to win 11 to equal their 1927 record. The Yankees are 17 1-2 games out in front and can hobble in on two broken legs, but the Reds are going to find the sledding pretty tough, as even the fourth place Brooklyn Dodgers are only 9 1-2 games behind Cincinnati today.

SPORT HASH—Gabby Hartnett established a new major league catching record of 1,727 games last week, to top Ray Schalk's previous games caught record.... The Toronto Maple Leafs signed a Guelph pitcher, Ralph (Lefty) Hammond, a 22-year-old lad who has been scouted by both the Detroit Tigers and Montreal Royals before being signed by the Leafs.... Ralph (Highpockets) McCabe is convalescing with an injured knee, that is in a cast, and is a dead loss to the Copper Cliff ball club the rest of the season.... Cobourg is quite proud of their good junior ball club, and rightly so, the junior Ponies downed the Toronto Lizzies right in Hogstown, over the week end, which is no mean ball chore...... Both Canadian teams, Toronto, and Montreal, are out of the International League play-offs. Incidentally the Royals finished 2 1-2 games ahead of the cellar-position Leafs.

SIGN IRISH STAR

Ipswich, England: (CP)—Matthew O'Mahoney, Bristol Rovers Irish international centre-half, has been signed by Ipswich Town Football Club, at a fee said to be more than £1,000 ($4,700).

IN YORKSHIRE CRICKET

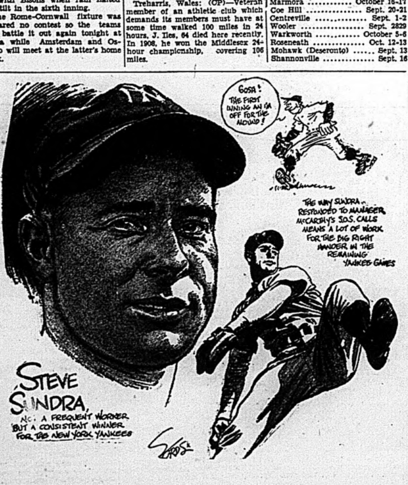
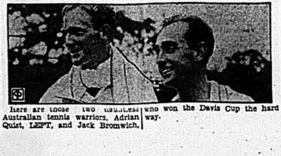
Bradford, England: (CP)—Learie Constantine, veteran West Indian, may play next season for Windhill in the Bradford Cricket League. He had previously played for Rochdale in the Lancashire League.



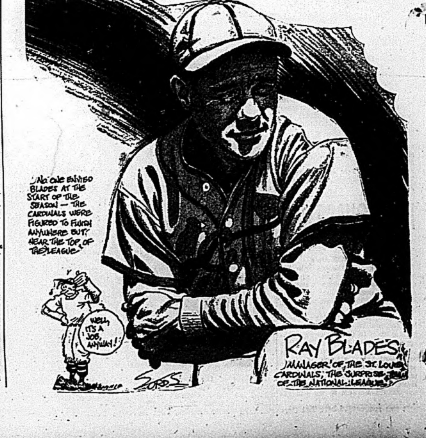
GOSH! THE FIRST INNING AN I'M OFF FOR THE MOUND!
THE WAY SUNDRA RESPONDED TO MANAGER McCARTHY'S S.O.S. CALLS MEANS A LOT OF WORK FOR THE BIG RIGHT HANDER IN THE REMAINING YANKEE GAMES
STEVE SUNDRA,
NO. A FREQUENT WORKER BUT A CONSISTENT WINNER FOR THE NEW YORK YANKEES
SORDS

TWO OF THE BEST WHO DID A GRAND JOB



Here are those two dauntless Australian tennis warriors, Adrian Quist, LEFT, and Jack Bromwich, who won the Davis Cup the hard way.

MIRACLE MAN By Jack Sords



NO ONE ENVIED BLADES AT THE START OF THE SEASON — THE CARDINALS WERE FIGURED TO FINISH ANYWHERE BUT NEAR THE TOP OF THE LEAGUE
WELL, IT'S A JOB ANYWAY!
RAY BLADES,
MANAGER OF THE ST. LOUIS CARDINALS, THE SURPRISE TEAM OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE
SORDS

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 723

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 462 264½ Front St.
27-3m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P. O. BOX 80
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. M3-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1182. "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 231 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

L. A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils, Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

E. R. and VERA B. PITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments, Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Intra-Red Radiations, Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments. 42½ Bridge St., East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
249½ Front St. Phone 492

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
278 Front St. Phone 1134w

LEGAL

S. GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 256½ Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2506. S27-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William N. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 23 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 174

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

F. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 13 Campbell St. Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

SCREEN FLICKS

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
"FRONTIER MARSHAL"
(Randolph Scott, Nancy Kelly)
3.10, 7.45, 9.50.

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
FRESHMAN YEAR
Dixie Dunbar, Wm. Lundigan
2.45 — 8.05 — 10.15
THE MYSTERIOUS MISS X
Mary Hart, Michael Whalen
3.50 — 7.00 — 9.10

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
HOUSE OF FEAR
Wm. Gargan, Irene Hervey
8.11 and 10.41
UNMARRIED
Buck Jones, Helen Twelvetrees
7.00 and 9.30

TO LET

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERlooking the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

FOUR ROOM UNFURNISHED apartment upstairs, also furnished bed-sitting room. Apply 64 Murney Street. s11-3t

2 ROOM FURNISHED HOUSEkeeping apartment, front, hot water, garage, optional. Apply 267 Foster Ave. s11-3t

APARTMENT FOR RENT 4 OR 6 rooms. All conveniences, hardwood floors. Very reasonable rent to approved tenant. Apply 161 Albert Street. s9-tf

TWO FURNISHED FRONT ROOMS hot water, garage optional. 267 Foster Ave. s9-3t

OFFICE SPACE AVAILABLE, heated and lighted. Apply G. A. Reid, Belleville. s9-3t

THREE ROOM APARTMENT hardwood floors downstairs, private entrance, near Front Street. Apply 55 West Moira Street. s9-3t

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

149 WEST BRIDGE ST., SEMIdetached frame house, six rooms, good garden. Reasonable rent to reliable tenant. Possession Oct. 1st. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

COMFORTABLE ROOM IN GOOD locality for business gentleman. Phone 620W. s8-3t

LOWER DUPLEX, 165 CHARLES St.; 133 Ann St. Bright spacious rooms. Phone 1663. s8-3t

DESIRABLE APARTMENT HIGHland Avenue, fireplace, furnace, hardwood floors, garage. Furnished dinette. Phone 1360W. a31-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

$31.50 PER MONTH INCLUDING water rates—desirable house on east hill, north of Victoria Avenue attractive living room, coal fireplace, dining room, bath, kitchen, wired for range hardwood floors, three bedrooms, good hot air furnace, garage. Possession Sept. 1st. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687 a23-tf

44 QUEEN STREET BETWEEN William and Ann Streets, desirable brick house, large living room with coal fireplace, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms and bath, hot air heating. Possession Sept. 15th. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. a17-tf

LOST

NAVY BLUE PURSE CONTAINing sum of money and other articles, vicinity Grier, Station, and Albion Streets. Phone 612J. Reward. s11-1t

Little Benny's Note Book

Me and my cousin Artie were sitting on my front steps making private fun of the diffrent funny looking hats on ladies going passed, me saying, O boy suppose us fellows wore screwy looking hats like that.

We're got too much sense. Artie said, and I said, I know, but suppose we did just for fun I mean, we could laugh at each other all day.

Being a funny idea to think of, and Artie stayed all night, and after supper everybody was in the living room and me and Artie had a contest to see who could make the funniest lady's hat, pop agreeing to be the judge, and Artie made one out of the big red cushion with a ash tray on top and I made one out of the little green cushion with a pencil hanging from each corner by a piece of string, both looking funny as anything on top of our heads, especially mine, and we both stood in front of pop for him to judge, and he kept on looking and pretending to make notes on the back of a envelope to help him decide, and finely he said, They're equally hilarious, it's a tie.

Then we divide the first prize, I said, and pop said, Not at all, you're tied for 2nd place.

Well hay, we're the only ones in it, I said, and pop said, That's what you think, your mother wins first prize with her little high hat by the judge's unanimous opinion.

Willyum Potts is that suppose to be funny? ma said, and pop said. It may not be suppose to be, but it's a perfect scream, the committee is happy to award you the first prize consisting of 3 broad smiles mounted on genuine guffaws and we hope you will say a few words of appriciation into the mikerophone.

And me and Artie started to yell Speech, speech, only ma wouldn't.

FOR SALE

BARRED ROCK PULLETS. APPLY 95 Geddes Street. s11-2t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRable brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

30-30 RIFLE, CARBINE. APPLY W. Plunder, R.R. No 6, Belleville, Cannifton Road. s11-1t

QUEBEC HEATER, PIPES AND cook stove, cheap. Call at Piggery, Cannifton Road. s11-1t

1940 R.C.A. VICTOR IMPERIAL car radio, slightly used. Cheap for cash. Phone 848. s11-2t

100 LAYING YEARLING WHITE leghorn hens. Arthur Walt, R.R. No. 5, Belleville, 4th Concession Sidney. s11-1t

COTTAGE ON BAY SHORE, 3 miles west of Belleville, containing 5 rooms and sun porch complete. Built on large lot, owned, not leased. Wired for electric range, water pump. Apply Box R, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

40 ROCK PULLETS, LAYING. APply Floyd Thrasher, Halloway. s11-1t

USED BEATTY WASHER, GOOD condition, cheap for cash. Call 1378M. s11-13

1930 PLYMOUTH SEDAN, $132 time given. Phone 2177. s11-1t

BLACK - TESTED YEARLING hens, 60c.; good layers. Frank Doxtator, R. 6, Belleville, Phone 121-r-2. s11-1t

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

35 NEW HAMPSHIRE PULLETS laying. Apply D. C. Ketcheson, Halloway. s11-1t

FARM 50 ACRES WITH HYDRO and water throughout the buildings, 8 miles from Belleville. Write Box E, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-1t

FRAME BUNGALOW, TWO BEDrooms, bathroom, dining room, parlor, kitchen, wood-house, garage. Will sell on small payment down. Balance payable monthly. Chauncey Ashley. s9-2t

PERCHERON GELDING, SIX years old, blocky built. Guaranteed sound and right. Apply Clarence Vermilyea, 445-r-2. s9-2t

ONE BLUE PRAM. APPLY 45 Chatham. Phone 1296M. s9-3t

COOK STOVE IN GOOD CONDItion, child's Simmon's bed, reasonable. Phone 1887W. s8-3t

USED LUMBER — REMOVED from Loblaw building, including heavy timbers. The Wheeler Metal Co., 45 Station Street. Telephone 353. s7-6t

MISSES' WINE WINTER COAT. Persian gray lamb trim, size 15. Reasonable. 117 W. Bridge (Upstairs). s6-tf

4 HILLSIDE STREET, WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale. Exclusive agent. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

AT AVONDALE, TRENT ROAD, directly opposite the school, residence and 8 acres of good land owned by Mrs. George Duff. House is substantial brick with bright cheerful rooms, hot water heating, bath, well decorated and in excellent state of repair. Barn and hen house. Investigate this. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

W. C. SILLS PROPERTY, JUST off highway in Avondale, Trent Road. Good frame house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors downstairs, good basement. 10 acres of sandy loam —barn, garage, hen house and brooder house. Excellent green houses. A very desirable place. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

239 CHARLES STREET, CORNER of Queen Street, roughcast house and large lot property of Miss Diamond. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive Agents, Belleville Locators, Geo. N. Gorman, Prop. 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

TENDERS

Tenders will be received by the undersigned till September 16th., for the installation of refrigeration equipment for Moira Valley Cheese Factory.

EARL JONES,
President, Roslin, P.O. s11-1t

AUCTION SALE

Auction Sale, Thursday, Sept. 14, at 1.30 at Market Square, Complete dining room suite, extension table, chairs, kitchen table and chairs, heater, bed couch, bed and springs, mattress, sealers and dishes, 6 radios all in working order.

NORMAN MONTGOMERY,
Auctioneer, Belleville. Phone 1170. s11-3t

IN MEMORIAM

ORSER—In loving memory of our dear son, and brother, James Orser in his 16th year, who never returned home on Sept. 11th., 1938.

The fairest lilies are the first to fall
The sweetest first to fade
The fondest, dearest best of all
At peaceful rest is laid.
As some sweet blossom droops and dies
When blighted by the frost
He faded from before our eyes
And all too soon was lost
But in God's garden, free from pain
Where grow his fairest flowers
We know that we shall meet
This fairest bloom of ours.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by Father and Mother, Brothers and Sisters. s11-1t

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Mary Jane Stephenson wish to express their sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness shown them during their recent bereavement, the loan of cars and floral tributes. s11-1t

BIRTHS

DEMPSEY—At the Belleville General Hospital on Sunday, Sept. 10, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dempsey, Carrying Place, a brother for George, (Norman Hardy). s11-1t

WANTED

WANTED BY OLD RELIABLE Canadian Co., 2 men between the ages of 20 and 25. Good chance for advancement. Write Box K, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-13

WANTED 2 MEN IN BELLEVILLE and surrounding district by Can. Corp. operating from Coast to Coast. Must be 25 years of age or over, good appearance and have A1 appearance. Ask for Mr. Mutch, Hotel Quinte lobby, Wednesday Sept. 13, 10 a.m. s11-2t

POSITION AS HOUSEKEEPER BY middle-aged lady for elderly couple or gentleman in city. Write Box M, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

INSTRUCTION

IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

DAIRY COWS FROM 3 TO 6 years old. Must be good quality. Due to freshen from August to November. Write or call D. Scott & Sons. Phone 615 j12-tf

MEN! HERE IS GOOD PAYING work with a large manufacturing concern of 200 daily necessities used in every home. Sure and quick repeaters. No experience needed. Good pay every day if active, and permanent business certain if persevering. Investigate our Plan at once without obligation. Catalogue Free: FAMILEX CO. 570 St. Clement, Montreal. jly15-25 a3-12-22-31 s8

Car White Cedar Shingles
At Attractive Prices
Call and see these Shingles before placing your order.
E. D. MOTT
Lumber and Building Supplies
41 Station St. Phone 1653
S. 9 2td

HOW TO OVERCOME ITCHING PILES

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from J. S. McKeown or any druggist, a package of Hemroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemroid is a physician's prescription and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

"PORCY" BRINGS HOME FINE DELICIOUS APPLES

Fort Erie, Ont., Sept. 11 (CP)—A porcupine given as a present to Johnny Thomas, veteran Niagara riverman, proved a delight at first, then an embarrassment. For several days he appeared regularly with a fine "sheepnose" apple stuck in his quills. Finally, farmer James Laur complained that Thomas would better get rid of the porcupine or else his apple tree would be stripped.

Roslin

Roslin — Rev. F. C. Beazer and Mrs. Beazer spent the past week in Toronto visiting relatives and attending the Canadian National Exhibition.

Mrs. Hudson of the British West Indies, who spent the past summer with her daughter, Mrs. Beazer, has returned to Toronto, where she is visiting other members of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Welsh and children of Toronto spent a week recently with Dr. and Mrs. Welsh.

Miss Margaret Douglas of Deseronto, spent a week recently with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Mastin of Toronto, Mrs. M. Mastin and Mr. Bentley Weeks of Consecon, and Mrs. Fred Cook and children of Belleville spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weir.

The Roslin School re-opened for the Autumn term with Miss Roberta Melburne as teacher again.

Misses Helen and Phyllis Sills and B. Howes and Donald and Walter Chisholm are attending Belleville Collegiate Institute.

Mrs. Stirk and sons, Gerald and Sam, have returned to Brampton, after spending the summer at their cottage here.

Mrs. Huffman and Mrs. Juniac of Moscow, and Mrs. Van Luven of Kingston, were recent guests at the home of Mrs. J. Chisholm.

Mr. and Mrs. Williard Delyea are visiting their daughter, Miss Clara Delyea in New York, and while there will attend the World's Fair. Mr. and Mrs. H. Chisholm and Walter and Mrs. J. Chisholm motored with them as far as Watertown, on Friday, returning home the same day. Mr. and Mrs. Delyea continued their journey to New York via train on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Hudson and little Miss Joyce of Toronto, spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. Beazer.

The September meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph Hart with an attendance of seventeen. The meeting was in charge of the President, Mrs. Wm. Gillespie, and was opened with the singing of a hymn, followed by prayer led by the rector Rev. Mr. Beazer. Miss Hazel Wilson read the Scripture Lesson, Psalm 9.

The Secretary, Mrs. Slingerland, gave her report, Mrs. H. Sills gave the treasurer's report. Numerous items of business were discussed. Plans were made for a quilting and Pot-Luck dinner and also for the annual fowl supper.

Mrs. Slingerland was leader for the programme. A hymn was sung Mrs. Clapsaddle gave a reading, Mrs. C. Sills and Mrs. N. Alexander sang a duet.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Hart for opening her home for this meeting. The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and prayer.

The hostess then served a delicious lunch and all enjoyed a social hour.

Rev. F. C. Beazer and Mrs. Beazer left on Saturday for Oxford Mills where they will spend a few days. On Sunday Rev. Mr. Beazer is the special preacher for the Seventieth Anniversary services of the Anglican Church there. Mr. Beazer was formerly rector of Oxford Mills having been stationed there previous to his coming to Roslin seven years ago.

Mr. W. J. Cotteral of Marmora was in charge of the services in the Roslin parish on Sunday.

Foxboro

Foxboro—The September meeting of the W.M.S. was held in the S.S. rooms on Thursday with a good attendance. The meeting was in charge of the President and opened by use of a hymn "A Better Day is Coming" and repeating of the Lord's prayer in unison. Mrs. W. Prentice read some appropriate passages of Scripture and Rev. E. M. Cooke led in prayer. The Christian Stewardship Secretary, Mrs. W. Wickett, then gave a splendid leaflet "His plan" which conveyed the thought that Christ expects us to carry on His work.

Dr. Helliwell was then introduced and he gave a most interesting talk of some personal experience in China and a hearty vote of thanks was extended him. Mrs. J. W. Daniels then contributed a very pleasing solo, playing her own accompaniment. The minutes were read and roll and owing to the lateness of the hour the reports of the heralds were not given. Some important items of business were dealt with the meeting closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Hodgen and Dale of Belleville, were Sunday guests of Mr. W. Hodgen.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Utman of St. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. E. Storkes and baby of Kitchener, were week end guests at Mr. J. Daniels.

Dr. Helliwell and family of Sydenham have moved into the home lately owned by Mr. Harry Frederick.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Gay spent over Labor Day at the exhibition.

School has again re-opened when a number of new pupils were enrolled.

Miss Marion Daniels spent the holiday at the Toronto exhibition.

Mrs. A. Shaw and Mr. Richard Yorke were Sunday guests at Mr. Fred Prindle's of Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoard were Sunday guests at Mr. Harold Stewart's.

Rev. Cooke and family returned from their holidays and the former occupied the pulpit in the United Church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Finkle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Longwell, Misses Nellie Bell and Verna Peacock attended the Toronto Exhibition.

Thomasburg

Thomasburg—Several from here attended Belleville Fair. A number of the local Junior Farmers took part in the judging competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wallace and family of Kirkland Lake spent a few days recently at Mr. J. H. Blakely's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Livingston of Hamilton were guests recently of Mrs. W. S. Embury.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Carter attended the Carter-Mann wedding at Fenelon Falls on Saturday.

Mr. Willie Way and Mrs. E. Way were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Westover of Sidney on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Kerruish of Kingston were holiday weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holbert. Mrs. Holbert returned to Kingston with them.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Bateman of Georgetown spent a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bateman enroute from New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Chancey Sills and family of Roslin were guests on Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. M. Geen.

Little Miss Jean Sills of Plainfield was a guest last week of her aunt, Mrs. Clifford Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carter and Miss Murphy of Toronto were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. Carter.

Little Miss Ileen Blakely of Cobalt was a guest last week at the home of Rev. H. B. and Mrs. Herrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Prindle of Foxboro called on Mrs. S. D. Prindle on Sunday afternoon.

A number from here attended the fowl supper given by Knox Presbyterian Church, Fuller, on Tuesday evening.

Miss Laura Sherry and Mr. Wilbur Sherry of Tyendinaga spent a day recently with their aunt, Mrs. E. J. Grills.

Messrs. Mufney Blakely, Gerald Blakely, John Smith, Gerald Adams and Kenneth Jeffrey attended the Toronto Exhibition recently.

Mr. Everett Geen of Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, is holidaying for a week at his home here.

Master Ross Young of Sulphide has returned home after holidaying with Roy and Cyril Coulson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steven and family left on Monday for their new home at Lakeport.

Miss V. Mickle and Mrs. Beverley of Toronto were guests last week of Miss Stella Orr.

The Anglican Auxiliary held a quilting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Mouck.

School reopened for the fall term with Miss E. Reynolds of Tweed as principal and Miss Huffman of Hay Bay, as the assistant teacher. Several new pupils made their first appearance at school. Among the new class are Margaret and Clare Grills, Jackie Vance, Glenh McCue, Clare Geen, Jackie Geen, Lorne Thompson, Mary Rose Thompson and Douglas Fluke. David Calvert and Irene Calvert are also new pupils, coming to this school from Moira.

Carter—Mann

Mr. Ernest Edward Carter of Ottawa, son of Mr. Edward Carter of Thomasburg, and Miss Kathryn Isabel Mann, daughter of Mr. Harry Mann and the late Mrs. Mann of Ottawa were quietly marriel on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2nd, at the summer home of the bride's father, at Fenelon Falls.

After congratulations were extended, a buffet luncheon was served to the immediate guests present and the happy couple left on a motor trip. Mr. and Mrs. Carter will reside in Ottawa.

Shannonville

Shannonville, —Mr. William Wilson sailed for England on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cook spent Sunday at Orillia.

Miss Marline Brown is spending a few days at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown, Front Road.

Mr. Bob Sager and Mr. Gordon Sager of Oshawa, spent the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sager and Mr. and Mrs. William Conley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Stewart and June, Ralph and Ronald, Mrs. Lela Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Mert Harper spent Sunday evening at Oak Lake.

The United Church service on Sunday evening was in charge of Rev. Mr. Sterling who complimented the congregation on the beauty of their newly decorated church.

Mrs. Dan Waddingham and family spent Sunday with the Robertson family also her guest, Miss Ina Elmy, Deseronto, who is staying with Mrs. D. Waddingham while Mr. Waddingham is in Toronto attending the Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Manly Ostrander of Deseronto and Dr. Blackwell and Mrs. Blackwell attended the United Church service Sunday evening.

Master Buddy Mowers of Napanee has returned home after spending a month with his sister, Mrs. Wallace Robertson.

Mr. Walter Pratt spent a few days at Toronto Exhibition.

Mrs. Agnes Demorest of Stirling is spending a few days with Mrs. Kathleen Mills.

DIES FOLLOWING BURNS

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 11 —(CP)—Eight-year-old Robert Sargent of Brockville died in hospital Saturday night following severe burns suffered 10 days ago when he ran through a pile of hot ashes. The ashes had been removed from the steam-boiler of a milk condensary here.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dalbert Sargent, and a brother.

The Morning After Taking Carter's Little Liver Pills

Melville

Melville—Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Root and boys, enjoyed dinner in Wellington Park on Thursday with Mrs. Matilda Arthur and Miss Nellie Arthur, Belleville.

Mrs. D. H. Young spent several days last week at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson and Mrs. Jas. Morton, Mrs. F. Morton spent Saturday in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson, Belleville, are holidaying in their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Tuck, and daughters, Lois and Marion returned to their home in Toronto on Monday after holidaying for July and Aug. at their summer cottage.

Mrs. Sims, Stirling is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ed McIntyre.

Miss Isabel Morton spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Anderson.

Miss Isabel Morton returned to her school near Oshawa on Monday.

Mr. Donald Johnson, Codrington, returned on Monday to resume his duties as teacher of S. S. No. 3.

Mr. Gerald Ferguson spent Saturday in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kinnear entertained her brother, Mr. Murray Grant of Woodstock last week. Howard Kinnear returned to Woodstock with him to attend High School.

Elmer Carley, Betty Ferguson and Hilda Morton are again attending Wellington Consolidated School and Howard Palmer is attending Consecon Continuation School.

Mr. Morris Dulmage is quite ill with an infected hand.

BRITAIN BASES

(Continued From Page One)

both ends of the Mediterranean, and on Ceylon in the Indian Ocean.

No details were given in a communique which said "it appears that German submarines are now operating far afield." But the Ministry of Information said the Admiralty had received numerous reports "of operations against German submarines and "probably some have been successful."

Navy Quite Busy

The Admiralty reported the navy is "particularly busy in waters about the British Isles and the Atlantic." It mentioned "possible success" against one submarine minelayer, but no definite results were given for flotillas of destroyers the Ministry said are active.

The Government still is concealing its military program, confining most communiques to naval and aerial operations and civil defence.

The Information Ministry told the nation last night the Polish army had shown "no sign" of crumbling under German pressure in the east.

Despite the massing of 70 German divisions against Poland by Goering's own statement, the announcement said, Poland's army "has carried out its withdrawal in an orderly manner and with a steadiness which must excite admiration."

No Entry in Warsaw

It declared German troops had not succeeded in entering Warsaw, and added:—

"It is too soon as yet to talk of what will happen to Warsaw during this early stage of the war. What is certain is that the Polish army is showing qualities which are evoking universal admiration."

The Times called Goering's speech "clumsy and rather uneasy." It charged he "aimed at gulling the western powers into a dishonorable peace after the consummation of the crime against Poland."

The Government's long-range policy, the Daily Telegraph said, was a "withering answer" to "Goering's boast that the war in Poland would end in four weeks."

Organization Well Advanced

In comparison with 1914, the Times said, British organization plans have "advanced our readiness for war by between one and two years." The Telegraph estimated the nation was at a point of efficiency reached half way through the last war, and the Express declared "Goering knows Germany cannot stand a long war."

The last week end with unlimited gasoline—rationing starts next Saturday—brought out motorists in such numbers that roads and resorts were crowded.

Crowds thronged also into parks, movies and the Whipsnade Zoo, where many of the London Zoo's animals have been taken.

Most eager of all, however, were the "evacuation widowers", who walked, bicycled, drove and jammed trains to see their wives and and children for the first time since they were removed from London.

REICH FORESEES

(Continued From Page One)

Canada's decision to enter the war beside Great Britain occasioned no surprise in Berlin. The Nazi news agency, DNB, reported Canada's decision in a brief dispatch to the German press—"Canada on Sept. 10 formally declared war on Germany."

A communique from the western front for the first time reported "skirmishes" between French and German outposts of the Maginot and Siegfried Lines. The German report said a French vanguard suffered heavy losses in an unnamed sector. No mention was made of how the Nazis fared.

Rail Communication

While popular attention was riveted on the reports from the western front, Germany's new relations with Russia engaged far more attention in official quarters. Officials said they welcomed news of the mobilization of Russian reservists, but even greater stress was placed on plans of military leaders for resuming railway communications between the Reich and the Soviets.

Germany has counted on Russia to supply a considerable share of raw materials with which to carry on the war.

The Baltic Sea route now is open and in control of the German navy. If Poland were eliminated as a state which could interfere with land shipments, German strategists hoped that rail connection could be established between Germany and Russia in event the sea route were cut by the British navy.

Hitler Flies Over Lines

Operations on the Polish front the Nazi news agency reported, were inspected yesterday by Fuehrer Hitler who was said to have made an airplane flight over the battle area.

The flight took Hitler over the Kilsz-Radom region just west of the Vistula River, where, the dispatch said, several Polish divisions were surrounded.

Dispatches said Hitler had moved his headquarters from the Corridor to the army group in Silesia which conducted the offensive against Czestochawa, Kielce and Radom.

Determined Defence

A German Army communique acknowledged for the first time today that the Polish Army is staging a determined defence of Warsaw.

Until now, resistance by the Poles was made to appear to be inconsequential. But today's communique said "Polish Artillery of every calibre opened fire from eastern sections of Warsaw against our troops lying in the western part of the city."

In the west also, the statement admitted to operations. It said: "The Saarbruecken Airdrome, which previously had been abandoned, was shot at by French artillery. Three French planes were brought down over Reich territory.

German sources said there seemed to be little doubt that remaining Polish forces west of the Vistula River were being mopped up by the German Army.

Fight Against Heavy Odds

In the south, they said, Polish troops appeared to be fighting gallantly against overwhelming odds.

Nothing was said in the communique about Lodz, Polish textile centre about 70 miles southwest of Warsaw, although a brief special report yesterday announced it had been captured. No explanation was offered for this omission.

After a lull in Baltic Sea operations, the communique reported German land and sea forces had been co-operating since yesterday in what appeared to be an attempt to capture Gdynia, Poland's only outlet to the sea.

The Stars Say—

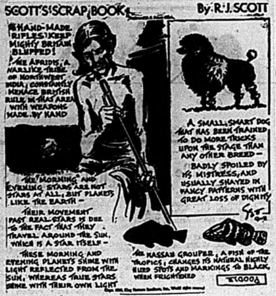
For Tuesday, September 12

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

A DAY in which much steady progress may be made, following the decisive breaking up of static conditions, impediments and tenacious obstacles, is forecast. Rather drastic action will ensue on the removal of such limitations, depressions and stagnations, placing the fortunes and interests on an enduring basis. There may be increased property values; also substantial support from elders or old institutions. But be careful in the matter of signatures, and refrain from impulsive or rash moves.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of definite action, following a long siege of stagnation, depression and frustration. There may be determined moves toward progress and stability. These may have the assistance of elders or of old-established institutions. Shun impulsive moves, excitement or recklessness, and sign papers cautiously.

A child born on this day may be practical and systematic, having much sturdiness of character to back up versatility and shrewdness, it should succeed by its own merit and determination.



SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK
By R. J. SCOTT
HAND-MADE RIFLES KEEP MIGHTY BRITAIN BLUFFED!
THE AFRIDIS, A WARLIKE TRIBE OF NORTHWEST INDIA, CONSTANTLY MENACE BRITISH RULE IN THAT AREA WITH WEAPONS MADE BY HAND
A SMALL, SMART DOG THAT HAS BEEN TRAINED TO DO MORE TRICKS UPON THE STAGE THAN ANY OTHER BREED — BADLY SPOILED BY ITS MISTRESS, AND USUALLY SHAVED IN FANCY PATTERNS WITH GREAT LOSS OF DIGNITY
THE "MORNING" AND EVENING STARS ARE NOT STARS AT ALL, BUT PLANETS LIKE THE EARTH —
THEIR MOVEMENT PAST REAL STARS IS DUE TO THE FACT THAT THEY TRAVEL AROUND THE SUN, WHICH IS A STAR ITSELF —
THESE MORNING AND EVENING PLANETS SHINE WITH LIGHT REFLECTED FROM THE SUN, WHEREAS TRUE STARS SHINE WITH THEIR OWN LIGHT
THE NASSAU GROUPER, A FISH OF THE TROPICS, CHANGES ITS NATURAL HIGHLY HUED SPOTS AND MARKINGS TO BLACK, WHEN FRIGHTENED
POODLE
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved

Christian Street

Christian Street—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cluting of South Bay, Mrs. L. Cluting and daughter of Picton spent the tea hour Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooke and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morden were recent guests at a dinner party given by Mr. Frank Grant at Tara Hall in Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Werden spent a couple of days with their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Anderson and family of Belleville.

Mrs. Harold Cross, Willet and Beatrice also Gladys Werden spent Friday afternoon with their aunt, Mrs. Elda Munn and granddaughter, Joan of Frankford.

Misses Marion and Nellie Werden spent the week end attending the C. N. E. in Toronto.

Miss Bernice Demille of Fish Lake visited her aunt, Mrs. Gordon Gilbert last week.

A number of friends from Bancroft and Musclow called to see Miss Gertrude Cross on Sunday and all enjoyed a picnic at the Outlet.

A number of ladies from here attended the meeting of Doxee's W. I. ,when Demorestville and Mt. View branches were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oram and Elgin left on Sunday to take their daughter, Mrs. Harold Regensburgh to her home in Sudbury and spend a time there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daly of Toronto spent Labor Day week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roblin. Dorothy and Laurence Vandusen returned to Toronto with them after spending some time with relatives in the county.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Stanley McQuaid who passed away at her home in Allisonville after a lengthy illness.

Messrs. Charles Wood and Don Munro attended the C. N. E. at Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Allison and Arthur of Big Island, Miss Amelia Clarke of Foxboro and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cross spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roblin.

Miss Nellie Werden left to teach Victoria School and Miss Gertrude Cross to teach at Big Island School for the coming year, everyone wishes them success.

School reopened Tuesday with a new teacher Mr. Ralph Welsh of Picton in charge and two new pupils John and Shelia Roblin starting to school .

TONIGHT!
LUX
Radio Theatre
★★★★★
Claudette Colbert
Cary Grant
"The Awful Truth"
CFRB — 9 P.M. E.D.S.T.

Outstanding Radio Programs

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF, WBEN, WGY.
7.30—Blondie sketch — WABC, WGR.
8.00—Quaker Variety Show. — WEAF, WBEN, WGY.
8.00 — Tune Up Time — WABC, WGR.
8.30—Voice of Firestone; Michael Jose Echaniz, pianist. — WEAF, WGY, CBL.
9.00—Lux Radio Theater.—WABC, CFRB.
10.00—Guy Lombardo's Orchestra.—
10.00—Lullaby Lady.—WEAF, CBL.
10.30—Pageant of Melody—CBO, CBL.
11.15—String Trio.—CBO, CBL.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12.

NIGHT

7.45—The political situation in Europe.——WJZ.
8.00—Human Adventure — WABC, WGR.
8.30—"Information Please" — WHAM, WJZ.
9.00—Artie Shaw's Orch.—WJZ, WHAM.
9.00—Battle of the Sexes, Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson. — WEAF, WGY.
9.00—We, the People.—WABC, CFRB.
9.30—Fibber McGee and Molly. — WEAF, CBL.
10.00—Middleweight Boxing Bout—WJZ
10.00—Mr. District Attorney, drama —WEAF, WGY.
10.00—Time to Shine; Hal Kemp's Orch.—WABC.
10.30—Uncle Walter's Dog House, —WEAF, WGY.

RADIO PROGRAMS

MONDAY

1.00—The Goldbergs — WABC, WGR
2.00—Betty and Bob — WEAF, WHAM
5.45—Scattergood Baines, sketch—WABC
7.15—Lum & Abner comedy sketch —WABC, WGR
7.30—Larry Clinton's Musical sensations.—WEAF, WHAM
8.30—True or False—WJZ, WHAM.
8.30—Model Minstrels — WABC, WGR
9.00—Magic Key; Guests, Jessica Dragonette, soprano; Gray Gordon and his orchestra — WJZ, CBL, WHAM
9.00—Dr. I. Q. Quiz Program—WEAF, WGY.
9.30—Horace Heidt's Orch.—WEAF, CBL.

TUESDAY

6.30—Rosh Hashanah Program — WABC, WJR
7.15—Jimmie Fidler—WABC, WGR
7.15—That's What I Said, with Ted Husing—WABC, WGR
7.15—Quicksilver with Bob Brown and Ransom Sherman, — WEAF, WGY
8.00—The Inside Story, dramatizing news of the day.—WJZ, WHAM.
8.00—Johnny with Johnny Green's Orch.—WEAF
9.30—Bob Crosby's Orch.—WABC
10.30—Kaltenborn from Europe. — WABC
11.15—Jean de Rimanoczy, violinist, —CBO,CBL.

RADIO DIRECTORY

CANADIAN STATIONS

| | Kils. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa... ... ... .... | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal ... ... ..... | 580 |
| CKOC—Hamilton ... ... ..... | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton ... ... .... | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines ... ... | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto ... ... ... ... | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor ... ... ..... | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto ... ....... . | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto ... ... ... ... | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto .. ... ... ... | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto .. ... ... ... | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland ... ... .. | 1070 |

UNITED STATES STATIONS

| | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago .. ... ... ... | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago ... ... ... .. | [illegible] |
| WGN—Chicago .. ... ... .. | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo ... ... ... ... | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville ... ... ... | 820 |
| WEAF—New York ... ... ... | 660 |
| WJZ—New York ... ... ... | [illegible] |
| WABC—New York .. ... ..... | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo .. ... ... ... | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore .. ... ... .. | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati ... ... ... | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh ... ... .. | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady .. ... ... | 980 |
| WOR—Newark ... ... ... ... | 710 |

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heddington of Belleville spent the holiday week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Ainsworth and family.

Marmora

Marmora— Many trees in the Marmora and Deloro district were uprooted or hurled to the ground through the violence of the storm which passed over the district about 5 a.m. standard time on Friday. As a result the power was off for over four hours, and telephone lines were disrupted. About five miles southwest of Marmora barns of Wilson Thompson and William Robertson on adjoining farms in Rawdon Township were badly shaken. The former's barn was moved from the foundation and the verandah attached to his residence was demolished.

Miss Grace Prentice of Belleville spent Friday evening at her home here.

Miss Mary Crawford of Belleville spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. M. Crawford.

Mr. C. W. Gladney and daughters Jean and Elizabeth of Belleville, spent the week end at their Crowe Lake cottage.

Mr. A. M. Fulton, B.Sc., spent the week end with his family at Warkworth.

NEIGHBORS' AID

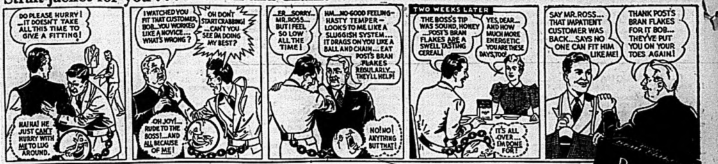
(Avondale)

As a climax to the summer's work of the Avondale Neighbours' Aid the August meeting took the form of a picnic at the home of Mrs. E. Windover on Bay of Quinte. The president opened the meeting for business. Two invitations from sister assocations to attend teas were accepted. A letter of thanks from Mr. Ruston in connection with the Welfare Work was read and appreciated. The Society voted that material be purchased and a layette be made to be presented to a nedy family. Mrs. B. Morton, who had charge of the devotional period, spoke on "How to Read the Bible." Several contests and games for which prizes were given proved amusing. A long table was set on the green and was laden with delectable food. After the singing of Grace, everyone did justice to the supper. This brought to a close the summer activities and the ladies look forward with anticipation to a full and interesting fall and winter.

---

At last it's time to put away those summer bags and select a bag to bridge the gap until leather models appear. A beauty is of black grosgrain done in ruffles with a clasp of crystal. The grame is grosgrain covered.

Strait-jacket for you . . . Mr. Ball and Chain!



DO PLEASE HURRY! —IT DOESN'T TAKE ALL THIS TIME TO GIVE A FITTING!
HA! HA! HE JUST CAN'T HURRY WITH ME TO LUG AROUND.
I WATCHED YOU FIT THAT CUSTOMER, BOB...YOU WORKED LIKE A NOVICE... WHAT'S WRONG?
OH DON'T START CRABBING! ...CAN'T YOU SEE I'M DOING MY BEST?
OH JOY!... RUDE TO THE BOSS!...AND ALL BECAUSE OF ME!
...ER...SORRY... MR. ROSS... BUT I FEEL SO LOW ALL THE TIME!
HM...NO-GOOD FEELING— HASTY TEMPER— LOOKS TO ME LIKE A SLUGGISH SYSTEM... IT DRAGS ON YOU LIKE A BALL AND CHAIN... EAT POST'S BRAN FLAKES REGULARLY... THEY'LL HELP!
NO! NO! ANYTHING BUT THAT!
TWO WEEKS LATER
THE BOSS'S TIP WAS SOUND, HONEY ...POST'S BRAN FLAKES ARE A SWELL TASTING CEREAL!
YES, DEAR... AND HOW MUCH MORE ENERGETIC YOU ARE THESE DAYS, TOO!
IT'S ALL OVER... I'M DONE FOR!
SAY MR. ROSS... THAT IMPATIENT CUSTOMER WAS BACK...SAYS NO ONE CAN FIT HIM LIKE ME!
THANK POST'S BRAN FLAKES FOR IT BOB... THEY'VE PUT YOU ON YOUR TOES AGAIN!

You Can't Be Successful or Happy . . . with Listless, Tired Feeling

If you feel listless all the time—unable to cope with things, it may be due to a sluggish system . . . the result of too little bulk in the diet. Post's Bran Flakes may be just what you need to correct it. You'll find Post's Bran Flakes with Other Parts of Wheat, a delicious cereal—just full of appetizing flavour and goodness. Eat them every day. If this does not readily relieve listless, tired feeling, see a physician. B299

Post's Bran Flakes

Mr. and Mrs.—

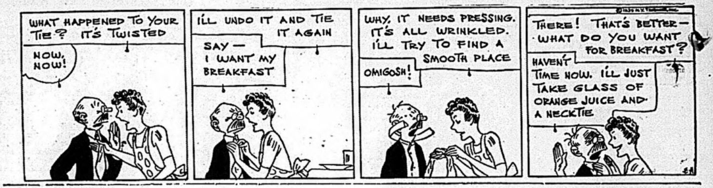
By Briggs



WHAT HAPPENED TO YOUR TIE? IT'S TWISTED
NOW, NOW!
I'LL UNDO IT AND TIE IT AGAIN
SAY — I WANT MY BREAKFAST
WHY, IT NEEDS PRESSING. IT'S ALL WRINKLED. I'LL TRY TO FIND A SMOOTH PLACE
OMIGOSH!
THERE! THAT'S BETTER — WHAT DO YOU WANT FOR BREAKFAST?
HAVEN'T TIME NOW. I'LL JUST TAKE GLASS OF ORANGE JUICE AND A NECKTIE

Pop—

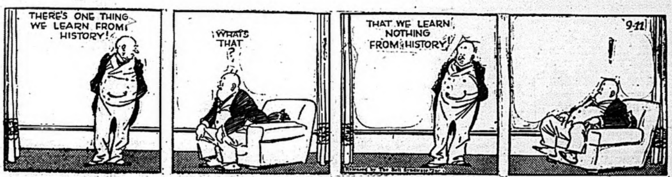
By J. Millar Watt



THERE'S ONE THING WE LEARN FROM HISTORY!
WHAT'S THAT?
THAT WE LEARN NOTHING FROM HISTORY!
9-11
Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Tillie The Toiler--

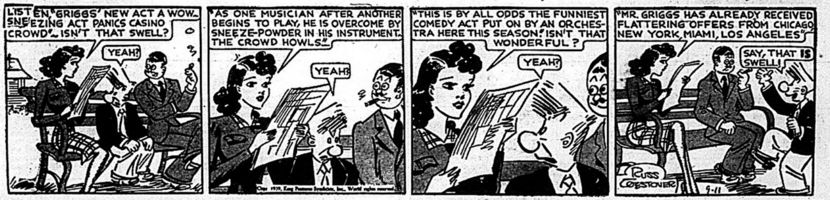
By Russ Westover



LISTEN, "GRIGGS' NEW ACT A WOW— SNEEZING ACT PANICS CASINO CROWD"— ISN'T THAT SWELL?
YEAH?
"AS ONE MUSICIAN AFTER ANOTHER BEGINS TO PLAY, HE IS OVERCOME BY SNEEZE-POWDER IN HIS INSTRUMENT. THE CROWD HOWLS."
YEAH?
"THIS IS BY ALL ODDS THE FUNNIEST COMEDY ACT PUT ON BY AN ORCHESTRA HERE THIS SEASON." ISN'T THAT WONDERFUL?
YEAH?
"MR. GRIGGS HAS ALREADY RECEIVED FLATTERING OFFERS FROM CHICAGO NEW YORK, MIAMI, LOS ANGELES"
SAY, THAT IS SWELL!
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.
RUSS WESTOVER 9-11

Bringing Up Father—

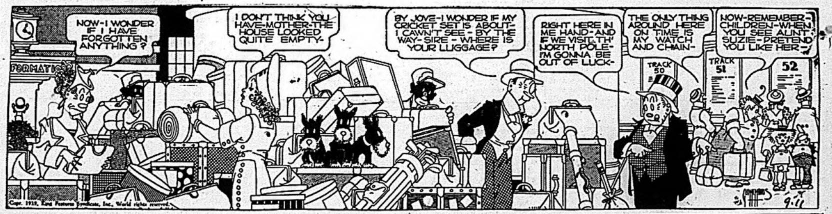
By George McManus



NOW-I WONDER IF I HAVE FORGOTTEN ANYTHING?
I DON'T THINK YOU HAVE-MOTHER-THE HOUSE LOOKED QUITE EMPTY-
BY JOVE-I WONDER IF MY CRICKET SET IS ABOUT- I CAWN'T SEE - BY THE WAY- SIRE - WHERE IS YOUR LUGGAGE?
RIGHT HERE IN ME HAND-AND IF WE VISIT TH' NORTH POLE- I'M GONNA BE OUT OF LUCK-
THE ONLY THING AROUND HERE ON TIME IS MY WATCH AND CHAIN-NOW-REMEMBER- CHILDREN-WHEN YOU SEE AUNT SUZIE-PRETEND YOU LIKE HER-FORMATIO
TRACK 50
TRACK 51
52
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.
McMANUS 9-11

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

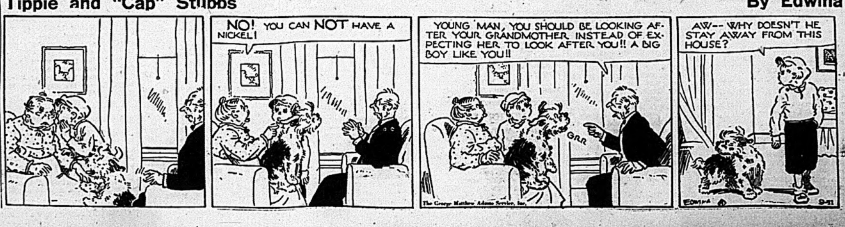
By Edwina



NO! YOU CAN NOT HAVE A NICKEL!
YOUNG MAN, YOU SHOULD BE LOOKING AFTER YOUR GRANDMOTHER INSTEAD OF EXPECTING HER TO LOOK AFTER YOU!! A BIG BOY LIKE YOU!!
GRR
AW-- WHY DOESN'T HE STAY AWAY FROM THIS HOUSE?
The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.
EDWINA 9-11

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.

Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Bigger and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 2.15:

MINES

Ajax 22
Aldermac 45
Anglo Hur. 205
Augite 180
Bankfield 18
Beattie 96
Bidgood 10 1-2
Big Missouri 13
Bralorne 925
Buffalo Ank. 575
Calgary and Ed. 191
Can. Malar. 56
Central Pat. 216
Chemical Research 20
Chromium 65
Coast Copper 275
Chiboug. 20
Coniaurum 120
Dome 23
Eldorado 85
East Mal. 210
Falconbridge 545
Francoeur 25
Gillies L. 5
God's Lake 41
Gunnar 43
Hardrock 85
Home Oil 225
Hollinger 12
Howey 26
Hudson Bay 30 1-2
Jellicoe 8
Kerr Add. 170
Kirk Hud. 22
Kirk. Lake 170
Lapa Cad. 15
Lake Shore 31 1-4
Leitch 64
Little L. L. 250
Macassa 380
McIntyre 45 1-2
McLeod 160
McKenzie 105
McWatters 45
Mining Corp. 130
Moneta 75
Noranda 71 1-2
Nipissing 120
O'Brien 152
Okalta 92
Omega 25
Paymaster 30
Pamour 185
Perron 155
Pend. Or. 240
Pickle Cr. 400
Pioneer 215
Powell 145
Premier 125
Preston E. D. 126
Pros. Air 50
Reno 33
Royalite 33 1-2
San Antonio 151
Sherritt G. 155
Siscoe 90
Sladen M. 25
Stadacona 30
Sud. Basin 225
Sullivan 65
Sylvanite 260
T. Hughes 365
Tex. Can. Oil 90
Toburn 140
Ventures 450
W. Amulet 620
Wr. Hargreaves 680

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 158 1-2
B. A. Oil 22 3-8
Brewing Corp. 86
Braz. Trac. 6 1-4
Can. Bud. Brewery 3 3-4
Can. Cement 6 1-4
Can. Dredge 13 1-2
Can. Ind. Alcohol 3 1-2
C. P. R. 6
Can. Malting 30
Can. Vinegar 11
Canada Car 17
Cockshutt Plow 8 1-2
Cons. Bakeries 16 1-2
Con. Smelting 49 1-2
Dominion Stores 5 1-2
Dist. Seagrams 15 1-4
Fanny Farmer 21 3-4
Ford "A" 19 3-4
Gypsum 4
Imp. Oil 15 3-4
Int. Nickel 50
Inter. Pet. 23 7-8
Imp. Tobacco 16 1-4
Loblaw 26 1-2
Massey Harris 7 3-4
Mont. Power 27 3-4
McColl-Frontenac 5 3-4
Power Corp 8 7-8
Steel of Canada 86
Supertest 34
Shawinigan 19 5-8
Walker's 36
Walker's Pfd 17 1-4
Walkerville Brewery 85

NEW YORK

American Can 115
Amer. For. Power 2⅜
American Radiator 9
Anaconda 38¼
Auburn 4 1-4
Bethlehem Steel 97
Chrysler 84⅜
General Electric 40⅜
General Motors 53½
Elec. Auto Lite 35½
Inter. Telephone 4⅛
North American 21½
Montgomery Ward 51½
Phillips Pet. 45⅜
Radio 5⅜
Simmons 21
Standard Oil of N. J. 51⅛
Standard Brands 6½
Stewart Warner 8½
U. S. Steel 78
United Aircraft 45½
Vanadium 38½
Westinghouse 115

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson, and Co. today at 2 p. m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

Albany River 16-18
Barber Larder 2 1-4-3 1-4
Capps Gold 3A
Kenricia 18-22
Magnet Con. 53-56
Martin Bird 2 1-2-4
Oklend 6 1-4-7 1-2
Pascalis 30A
Plains Pete 50A
Proprietary 1.60-1.70
Sheldon 5A
Shenango 5 1-2-7
Upper Canada 40-42

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, Sept. 11—(CP)— Base metal and gold shares recovered slightly today on Toronto exchange. Noranda, Nickel, Smelters and Hudson Bay all showed losses of 1 to 3 points in the second hour but losses were cut in the rally. Golds also improved but were still off at noon. The market was strong for the industrial issues of the war group, particularly the steels and papers. Western oils held narrowly to the up side.

Dome and McIntyre sold off to new lows for the year and lower prices were posted by Kerr-Addison, Powell Rouyn, Central Patricia, Bralorne, Buffalo-Ankerite and a few others.

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, Sept. 11—(AP)—Heavy buying in war stocks swept through the market today and lifted leaders 1 to around 8 points, many to peak levels in more than a year.

Steels were the favorites. They reached their tops in late dealings after the announcement this week's steel mill operations would be up 11.6 points at 70.2 per cent of capacity, highest rate since Sept. 27, 1937.

During the entire first hour the ticker tape was as much as 6 minutes behind. There were intermittent slow-downs. Near the final hour quotations were in the neighborhood of the day's best. Transfers were about 5,000,000 shares.

Produce Markets

TORONTO BUYING PRICES

(By United Farmers Co-operative Company)

United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were paying the following prices for Toronto delivery:

EGGS—Prices to producers, cases returned basis, delivered Toronto:

| | |
|---|---|
| A-large | .29 |
| A-medium | .28 |
| Pullets | .21 |
| Grade "B" | .19 |
| Grade "C" | .13 |
| Churning Cream, No. 1 lb. | .23 |
| Churning Cream, No. 2, lb. | .20 |
| Butter, No. 1 | .26 |
| Butter, No. 2 | .25 |

Prices paid to country shippers.
(Quotations in cents)

| | Live | Dressed |
|---|---|---|
| Broilers. | | |
| 1 3-4 to 2½ pounds | .13 | .17 |
| Chickens. | | |
| 2½ to 4 pounds | .13 | .17 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .14 | .18 |
| 5 to 6 pounds | .15 | .19 |
| 6 pounds and over | .16 | .20 |
| Fatted Hens. | | |
| Over 5 pounds | .13 | .16 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .12 | .15 |
| 3½ to 4 pounds | .10 | .13 |
| 3 to 3½ pounds | .9 | .12 |
| Old roosters | .9 | .12 |

POTATOES

Ontario new, 75 lb. bag . $1.00-1.10

GRAIN MARKET

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg grain exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today by J. H. Crang and Company.

Oats:

| | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat: | | | |
| October | 76⅛ | 74⅜ | 75⅛ |
| December | 77⅝ | 75 | 76⅜ |
| May | 81¼ | 78⅜ | 80¼ |
| Oats: | | | |
| October | 38⅜ | 37 | 38⅛ |
| December | 38⅜ | 37 | 37¼ |
| May | 39⅜ | 37⅜ | 38⅛ |
| Barley: | | | |
| October | 46⅜ | 44⅜ | 46¼ |
| December | 46½ | 44 | 46⅜ |
| May | 48¼ | 46¼ | 47½ |
| Rye: | | | |
| October | 55 | 53 | 54¼ |
| December | 55⅝ | 54⅜ | 55 |
| May | 58⅜ | 56⅛ | 58⅜ |

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 11 (CP)—Price advances of 25 to 35 cents were posted on Hull and Peterborough bacon-hog markets today. Other reporting markets were steady.

Liveweights: Hull $8.25.

Dressedweights: Hull $11; Peterborough $10.75 plus transportation, Stratford $10.50 plus transportation, Hamilton $11.

LIVESTOCK

Montreal, Sept. 11—(CP)—Prices on all kinds of livestock were higher on Montreal markets today the Dominion Department of Agriculture reported.

Receipts —Cattle 1,267; calves 2,341; sheep 2,383; hogs 1,432.

Good steers made $7.25 to $8, medium $6.25 to $7 and common $5 to $6. Heifers sold at $4.25 to $7.

Good cows brought $5.75 to $6 with an odd top at $6.50. Medium ones made $4.75 to $5.50 and common $4 to $4.50. Canners and cutters were $3 to $3.50. Bologna bulls $3.50 to $5 butchers at $5.25 to $6.

Trading on calves were very active at prices 50 to 75 cents higher. Good quality veals made $10, with medium kinds around $9.50 and common light $7 up. Drinkers ranged from $6 to $7 and grassers $4 to $5.50 with the bulks between $4.75 to $5.25.

Lambs were fully $1 higher with the bulk of sales bringing $9 for good ewes and wethers with odd small lots of choice ones up to $9.50. Buck lambs were cut $1 per hundredweight, and cull lambs $2 per hundredweight. Sheep brought $2.50 to $5 according to weight and quality.

Canada's Declaration Of War Front Page News in New York

New York, Sept. 11 (CP)—Canada's declaration of war against Germany was front page news in New York today but the metropolitan press did not comment editorially immediately.

"Canada proclaims itself in war, first it has entered as a nation," read the headline over the story on the Dominion's action in the Herald Tribune.

The New York Times also called attention to the fact that it was the first time in history the senior Dominion exercised the prerogative of nationhood by declaring a state of war on its own account.

France Applauds

Paris, Sept. 11 (CP-Havas)—Le Temps (Independent) in an article today on Canada's formal entry into the war said:—

"It was an act of great importance in the history of Canada, because in fact it was the first time that the Ottawa Government, acting in full independence, has declared war, firmly supporting the British Government.

"The fidelity of the dominions to the Mother Country within the framework of the British Commonwealth of Nations is one of the most reassuring signs for the success of the just cause of the two great western democracies."

No Borrowing of Funds in U. S. By Any of the Warring Nations

Neutrality Act Also Forbids U. S. Citizens Purchasing Securities of Belligerents

BIG DEBT OWING

Washington, Sept. 11.— (AP) — Treasury officials said today the Neutrality and Johnson Acts forbid any of the warring countries, including Canada and other parts of the British Commonwealth which have declared war, to borrow money from individuals or firms in the United States.

The Neutrality Act prohibits the purchase by "any person within the United States" of the securities of a belligerent country. The Johnson Act does the same in the case of a defaulter of debts arising from the first Great War.

Unofficially, Treasury experts interpret this to mean the United States government or one of its corporations could make such loans, but they indicate strongly that no such loans have been considered.

The only exception from the bans is the one invoked last week by President Roosevelt which permits continuation of "normal peace-time commercial transactions". A committee of State, Treasury and Commerce department officials has been set up to determine what comes under this exception.

Act Passed in 1934

The Johnson Act was passed in 1934 to prevent European countries which had defaulted on their war debts from borrowing more money in the United States until their old debts were in good standing. The latest total of principal and interest owed by European governments to the treasury is $14,473,478,027. Only Finland is in good standing.

Neither Act makes any clear definition of how far a Canadian factory, for instance, might borrow in the United States although the Canadian Government itself is banned. Both acts say the ban applies to the government, subdivision or agent of the government affected by the prohibition.

Some experts have speculated that a private Canadian firm could borrow money if it could prove it was not an agent of its government. Other experts dispute this "loophole" interpretation.

The Neutrality Act not only forbids the purchase of the securities of a warring nation, but also forbids the sale or exchange of existing securities of the belligerent.

Weights and Measures Inspectors Join Campaign Against Profiteers

Ottawa, Sept. 11 (CP)—Co-operation of the weights and measures branch of the Department of Trade and Commerce has been enlisted by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in its drive to track down and eliminate profiteering.

Inspectors of the branch have been asked to report instances of exorbitant prices which come to their attention to the branch at Ottawa, which will turn the information over to the board for action.

The weights and measures branch maintains offices in the principal cities of Canada and keeps inspectors going about testing the scales in retail and other stores in order to see that the public gets fair weights and that the law regarding weights is observed.

These inspectors have a more intimate contact with retail trade than any other section of the Government service. Now, when an inspector goes into a store to check the scales, he may inquire about the prices of certain commodities and report any prices he considers unreasonable.

It is also believed consumers who have complaints about undue prices may bring them to the attention of the branch offices of the weights and measures service.

The address of the local Inspector for Belleville and District is F. T. Hart, Campbell Street, Belleville, Ont.

R. M. Assoc. to Erect Directional Signs on 4 Main Highways

Roadside signs, directing traffic to Belleville will be placed on four highways leading into the city, officials of the Belleville Retail Merchants' Association announced today. The signs will be the forerunners of similar ones that will be erected in future years until all roads leading into the city will be thus marked.

One large sign, orange and black in color will be placed at the junction of Highways No. 7 and 33 at Actinolite. Arrangements are now underway whereby space will be rented from land owners at Marmora, Madoc and in the northerly part of Prince Edward County.

The signs will bear no advertising, it was stated. The lettering will consist of the distance in miles from the sign-site to Belleville while in the background a large bell will be painted.

The present plans call for an expenditure of one hundred dollars for the current work. Signs are now being constructed and, it is expected, will be placed in position by the first of next week.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 11—(CP)—Showers and thunderstorms have occurred in many districts from the Great Lakes eastward to the Maritimes, and it continues cool in eastern Canada. Light to moderate showers have fallen in Alberta and Northern Saskatchewan, though elsewhere in the west the weather has been fair.

Lake Superior—Moderate to fresh winds; partly cloudy and cool. Tuesday — Fresh winds; partly cloudy with scattered showers.

Manitoba—Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday with scattered showers; becoming somewhat cooler on Tuesday.

Saskatchewan — Cloudy tonight and Tuesday with showers; cooler on Tuesday.

Alberta—Cloudy and cool with occasional rain. Tuesday — Partly cloudy and quite cool.

| | 8 a.m. | High | Low |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 53 | 78 | 51 |
| Calgary | 43 | 65 | 43 |
| Edmonton | 45 | 57 | 45 |
| Saskatoon | — | 70 | 50 |
| Winnipeg | 53 | 64 | 52 |
| Toronto | 53 | 67 | 52 |
| Ottawa | 52 | 62 | 49 |
| Quebec | 57 | 65 | 55 |
| Halifax | 61 | 69 | 56 |
| Detroit | 49 | 71 | 48 |
| New York | 62 | 77 | 59 |
| Miami | 80 | 90 | 77 |
| Los Angeles | 72 | 95 | 72 |
| Bermuda | 80 | 85 | 74 |

Why The Weather?

By Major A. H. Thiessen
Science Service Meteorologist

Soil temperature! Just as the atmosphere warms and cools daily and yearly, so does the soil. The temperature of the soil at any point is the balance between what heat is received from direct sunlight and conduction and what is lost. The daily cycle of warming and cooling affects the soil to a depth of about three feet, and the greatest differences are in the top layers. The yearly cycle of warming and cooling goes much deeper than the daily. The temperature of the soil, like that of the atmosphere, is affected by clouds, dust and moisture, and also by the nature of the soil, its water content and whether it is bare or has a cover crop.

WAR GLEANINGS

Copenhagen, Sept. 11 (AP)—The captain and crew of the 1,514-ton Netherlands steamship Mark, which blew up in the North Sea, landed in lifeboats at Vorupuer, Denmark, today after having been on the water 38 hours.

The 22 survivors said their ship, which was on its way from Finland, hit a mine 120 miles southwest of Vorupuer. The captain was injured.

Copenhagen, Sept. 11 (AP)—Inhabitants of the fortified German Island of Sylt, subjected to a heavy British bombing attack last Friday, left the island today.

(Sylt is the site of an important German anti-aircraft defence fortification.)

Copenhagen, Sept. 11 (AP)—Effective today, women replaced men as street car conductors in Flensburg, German city on the Danish border. Travellers reported this was general in German cities, with the men continuing as motormen.

San Francisco, Sept. 11 (AP)—"Attention waiters—absolutely no war discussion with our patrons" reads a sign in a restaurant on San Francisco's famed Fisherman's Wharf. "We don't want any war in here—just shrimps, crabs, fish and people who like to eat 'em" explains Mimmo Ceragili, head waiter.

Kaunas, Sept. 11 (CP-Havas)—A German scouting plane landed on Lithuanian territory last night near Jurbarkas, not far from the border of East Prussia, it was announced here today. Its crew was interned.

Jerusalem, Sept. 11 (CP-Havas)—The Trans-Jordan Government Economic Committee today announced it was placing 40,000 tons of wheat stored in Trans-Jordan at the disposal of the British government.

Toronto, Sept. 11 (CP)—Lieut.-Col. J. H. Chipman, issued a statement today to the effect that under official mobilization instructions the 48th Highlanders will open an office in the armories at Barrie tomorrow for acceptance from Grey, Simcoe and York counties and the Muskoka district of recruits who wish to enlist with the Canadian Active Servcel Force now being raised. Major E. C. Gordon, M.C., E.D., will be in charge at Barrie.

Simla, India, Sept. 11 (CP-Reuters)—The King-Emperor, in a message thanking the Princes and people of India for their support, declared today that "Britain is not fighting for selfish ends but for a principle which is vital to the future of mankind."

Montreal, Sept. 11 (CP)—Officers of Imperial Airways flying boat Cabot reported Sunday they had sighted a German submarine as they flew across the Atlantic Ocean Saturday on a regular weekly airmail flight from England to nearby Boucherville, Que.

New York, Sept. 11 (AP)—The Wall Street Journal said today Great Britain, France and Canada are believed to have a combined total of about $7,000,000,000 in assets. The newspaper said this could be fairly turned into dollar balances for purchases of United States goods.

Philadelphia, Sept. 11 (AP)—Canada's entry into the war has caused the coal-laden Norwegian freighter Vestland to cancel its sailing for Saint John, N.B. Its Captain said "it's too risky with all those sub losses."

Oslo, Sept. 11 (AP)—The 10,000-ton German steamship Hugo Stinnes was stranded today off Lofoten, a group of islands off the northwest coast of Norway. The ship had a torn bottom.

Hollywood, Sept. 11 (AP)—Joseph Schenck, Chairman of the Board of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios, announced today his firm would meet losses in the European film market with reduction of operating expenses. The company will pass the quarterly common-stock dividend "for the protection of the company's cash position."

Washington, Sept. 11 (CP)—The United States civil aeronautics authority has granted the applications of 156 colleges and universities to undertake training of airplane pilots. Some 11,000 civil pilots will be trained in the coming school year.

Toronto, Sept. 11 (CP)—The Toronto Stock Exchange has notified member brokers that trading in Canadian Securities with citizens of enemy countries is now prohibited.

Basel, Switzerland, Sept. 11 (AP)—Rail traffic between Germany and Italy today was reported to have increased so much since the start of the war that the direct line through the Brenner Pass has proved insufficient. Germany is shipping coal to Italy and receiving foodstuffs.

Boston, Sept. 11 (AP)—The Canadian National Steamship Lady Nelson arrived today from the British West Indies and Bermuda with 117 passengers. The trip was made in complete blackout, electric light bulbs having been removed even from state rooms.

SHORTAGE OF TOOL MAKERS

Toronto, Sept. 11—(CP)—It was reported today there was an acute shortage of tool and die makers in Toronto.

A canvass of district factories revealed the shortage and one company officials said hundreds of the expert workers had gone to England to work months ago when Britain speeded up war preparations.

$15,000 DAMAGE AT WILLIAMSBURG

WILLIAMSBURG, Ont., Sept. 11—(CP)—This Eastern Ontario village, including the foot clinic of Dr. M. W. Loce, was threatened yesterday by fire which destroyed three buildings with loss estimated at $15,000 before it was brought under control.

Stewart Anderson, a Winchester, Ont., fireman, was slightly injured when he fell from the Winchester fire truck as it was rushing to the blaze.

A building owned by the Odd Fellows Lodge and the Lockewedge Shoe Company store were razed along with E. S. Axworthy's restaurant and the home of Augustus Whittaker. The fire is believed to have started in a shed.

FIRE DESTROYS LARGE BARN AT BANCROFT

Fanned by a strong breeze, fire, the origin of which is unknown completely destroyed the large barn owned by Herman Maxwell of Bancroft, over the week end. The season's crop housed in the building was a complete loss.

The flames breaking out of a corner of the building were noticed by neighbours of Maxwell, who immediately put in an alarm. The blaze, however, rapidly enveloped the building and all efforts to save it proved futile.

GERMANS DRIVEN FROM SUBURBS

Budapest, Sept. 11 —(AP)— A broadcast from the Polish radio station at Lwow today declared that after four days of fighting the Polish army had forced the German invaders "to retreat from some Warsaw suburbs."

Ontario Prepared To Forego Constitutional Rights To Help Federal Gov't During Conflict

Toronto, Sept. 11—(CP)—Ontario is prepared to forego any of her constitutional rights as a province if, by doing so she can assist the Federal Government in the prosecution of the war, Premier Mitchell Hepburn said today.

Law officers of the Government are now studying certain measures which probably will be introduced at the special session of the Legislature opening Sept. 19, with respect to the control of food and commodity prices. It was a question, Mr. Hepburn explained, as to whether such control came within the jurisdiction of the province or of the Dominion.

"However, we will do our best to assist the Federal authorities to stop profiteering and we are ready to forego any constitutional rights which may be obstacles to free action by the Dominion", he said. "There is no occasion for any increase in food prices or is there any need for hoarding."

Not Likely to Pass Legislation

At the same time the Premier indicated the improbability of invoking legislation such as was passed in 1914 to permit municipalities to borrow money for patriotic purposes. "It is not our intention to let municipalities go wide open," he said. "We must conserve our resources for after all Ontario must pay nearly 50 per cent of the taxes which will be necessary for the prosecution of the war.

"The Federal Government should remain the central authority for the assistance of soldiers. There is no reason why one municipality, because it is rich, should be able to do something for its men who enlist that cannot be done by a poorer municipality. There should be no difference in the treatment of a soldier whether he comes from a poor or a rich municipality."

Will Confer With Drew

Mr. Hepburn expects to confer with Col. George Drew, Conservative Leader, some time this week with respect to the legislative program for the special session.

The Premier said he had not yet considered the possibility of inviting Col. Drew to join his cabinet in the emergency, but he added that he believed that "this is a time to forget politics and employ brains of the country in the prosecution of war.".

As soon as both the Federal and Provincial special sessions have prorogued, Mr. Hepburn, accompanied by some of his colleagues and senior officials of the Government will go to Ottawa to confer with Federal authorities as to the best manner in which Ontario can assist.

Today Mr. Hepburn received from military and aviation officials their report on the suitability of the new mental hospital at St. Thomas for use as an air force training depot.

Mr. Hepburn said the report was confidential but he added that "I rather imagine the St. Thomas institution will be utilized by the air forces."

Bulletins

(Continued From Page One)

DIKES ARE ALL DYNAMITED

BASEL, Switzerland, Sept. 11—(AP)—The French command today ordered farmers and village folk to leave the town of St. Louis, across the border from Basel. St. Louis is between the Vosges and Jura mountains on the valley route into Germany through the Burgundian Gate.

It was reported the area could be flooded by touching off dynamite charges already set in dikes along the Rhine near the town.

INTERNED FOR DURATION

PENETANGUISHENE, Ont., Sept. 11—(CP)—Pilot Officer Alfred Burke Thompson of Penetanguishene, a member of the British Air Force, is reported as the first Canadian to be interned on neutral territory since war broke out, it was learned here today.

His father, A. B. Thompson, has received notification from the British Air Ministry that his son was interned in Belgium following a forced landing Saturday. Thompson joined the R.A.F. early in 1936.

HITLER WON'T ACCEPT FLOWERS

BERLIN, Sept. 11—(AP)—An official announcement today said Adolf Hitler would not accept flowers while travelling through areas occupied by German troops.

Donors were directed instead to give the flowers to German soldiers.

1,262 PASSENGERS ARRIVE

NEW YORK, Sept. 11—(AP)—The Swedish-American liner Kungsholm arrived from Europe today with 1,262 passengers. Wollmar Bostrom, Swedish Minister to the United States, said the Kungsholm had "an excellent passage" but went "farther north than usual."

Meanwhile United States Steamship Lines imposed new restrictions. Reporters were barred from visiting vessels and piers except on arrival and for a short time before sailing.

British and French lines withheld their schedules.

STEAMER BLAIRLOGIE TORPEDOED

NEW YORK, Sept. 11—(AP)—The United States Lines today received a wireless message saying the British freighter Blairlogie was torpedoed today off the Irish coast but that the 32 members of the crew had been saved by the United States liner American Shipper.

Without Hysteria, Flag-Waving, Canada Reacts Calmly to Declaration

(By The Canadian Press)

Without 1914's hysteria and flag-waving, but calmly and unflinchingly Canada today found herself at war with Germany.

The Dominion's citizens reacted to the war declaration with calm determination.

Throughout the land there was little of the excitement, the burning of the Kaiser in effigy in dozens of cities and towns, the cheering, crowded streets of Aug. 5, 1914, when Britain's declaration automatically carried Canada into the first Great War.

Typical of all Canada's reaction was that of Ottawa. On the nights of Aug. 5 and 6, 1914, wild crowds gathered in the streets, jamming traffic singing patriotic songs.

Yesterday, the Capital took things far calmer. There was little to indicate anything but a normal Sunday.

Here is the contrasting reaction:

HALIFAX, 1914—Two local regiments, 63rd and 66th, now Princess Louise Fusiliers and Halifax Rifles, called for duty—the first militia in Canada—paraded to positions with bands playing amid cheers of the populace. Dozen Frenchmen marched streets with tricolor.

1939—Streets crowded, but people calm and orderly. Uniforms of soldiers, sailors and, airmen seen in great numbers.

CHARLOTTETOWN, 1914—Great excitement, people cheered in streets with martial music sounding. Militia officers went into rural sections of island province to gather recruits.

1939—City normal, populace quiet and calm.

SAINT JOHN, 1914—People gathered in streets for news, excited at the suddeness of Britain's declaration.

1939—Relief at the declaration of Canada's position, without the element of surprise. Tourists starting their normal trek homeward from New Brunswick's vacation centres.

MONTREAL, 1914—Crowds lined whole parade route of first regiment of Canadian Grenadier Guards. Everywhere marital display greeted with cheering, singing of the National Anthem. Recruiting offices of Princess Pat's Light Infantry closed doors after four days, enlisting more than required.

1939—Little to indicate Canada at war. Most people took it for granted, believing declaration a formality. Soldiers seen all over city, but now an accustomed sight as recruiting proceeds apace.

TORONTO, 1914—Fifth Infantry Brigade called out to guard the Welland Canal. Imperial ex-servicemen reported eager to enlist. Streets thronged with Rule-Britania-singing crowds. Loud "boos" from newspaper-office crowds at reports German cruiser fired on Fench town.

1939—Downtown streets practically empty in usual Sabbath manner. Quiet recruiting continues without flag-waving. City and all Ontario prepared days before, on guard against sabotage.

WINNIPEG, 1914—Ten thousand persons heard declaration of war announced at one newspaper office. Military parades and a march of 6,000 citizens to Government House where they pledged loyalty to former Lieutenant - Governor, Sir Douglas Cameron.

1939—Two thousand in front of same newspaper office when war declaration broadcast. Many soldiers on streets and activity brisk at armories.

EDMONTON, 1914—City noisy, excited with patriotic demonstration. Effigy of Kaiser burned after downtown parade. Speeches and martial music with many militia officers in uniform.

1939—No observable excitement. Edmonton regiment parades quietly to church.

Ordinary Sheets of Foolscap Paper Used for Canada's Proclamation

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, Sept. 11—(CP—Cable)—Two ordinary sheets of foolscap paper, one of them bearing the words "approved George R. I.," form the legal background for Canada's declaration that a state of war exists with Germany.

The King signed this document yesterday and it is extremely unlikely that any monarch ever sent part of his domain into war in quite the same way.

Early Sunday morning a cablegram was received at Canada House from the Department of External Affairs at Ottawa asking Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner, to approach the King.

This was done, the High Commissioner being driven to the interview by his son, Hart Massey, who was cox of the Oxford University crew in the last boat race.

Message in Longhand

Mr. Massey took with him two sheets of foolscap paper on which he had copied in longhand the cablegram from Ottawa which in effect recommended to the King that he declare a state of war between Canada and Germany. The King wrote his approval on one of them.

Mr. Massey cabled Ottawa that the King's approval had been received and this formed the basis for the proclamation which was issued at Ottawa an hour or two later.

Extreme speed was necessary because the government wanted to publish the proclamation in Ottawa as soon as possible.

It was believed this was the first time any Dominion Government declared war through a direct approach to the King. All arrangements were made by Canada House direct with the King without consultation with the Dominions Office or the British Government.

---

The report was broadcast at 2.10 p.m. (9.10 a.m. EDT).

The Lwow station, about 220 miles southeast of Warsaw, said German planes were bombing the heart of Warsaw, but did not estimate casualties.

Hold Defence Lines

A Warsaw broadcast two hours earlier had indicated the Polish army still was holding the defence lines of the capital.

The Warsaw radio said German bombs had fallen in Pilsudski Square which is ringed by the War Ministry, Foreign Ministry, Warsaw Military Headquarters and the Hotel Europjski where many foreigners stayed before war started.

The fragmentary report, interrupted by static, said a large number of persons were in the Square, but did not mention casualties.

German broadcasts picked up in Budapest boasted that Polish forces were "nearing the end" and that "many encircled troops already are beginning to surrender."

King George Confers With His War Minister

King George and his war minister, Leslie Hore-Belisha, seem cheerful enough as pictured when the King left the war office after a recent visit, following the outbreak of war. His Majesty paid a visit to the war office to learn details of the preparations being taken for the safety of Britain and the empire.

AFTER THE DIE WAS CAST

This momentous picture was made on Sept. 3, showing Prime Minister Chamberlain leaving No. 10 Downing Street, acknowledging the cheers of the crowds, immediately after he had, in a radio talk to the nation, announced that England was at war with Germany.

BRITONS STORM RE CRUITING STATIONS

It was not long after the outbreak of hostilities in Europe before recruiting stations in England were jammed with men, both young and old, eager to do their part in protecting their country. No office, however, attracted as many thousands as the royal navy recruiting station in Whitehall, London, where these candidates are seen awaiting their turn to try for admittance to the branch of the service of which Britons are most proud.

POLISH WOMEN'S LEGION PREPARED TO ENTER THE FIRI NG LINE

Typical of the membership of the Polish Women's Legion is this woman soldier shown saluting the flag at the Legion headquarters in Lwow. She is one of the thousands of Polish women who are prepared to take their place in the firing line, if, and when, they are needed to fight for their country's independence.

The Polish Women's Legion has been kept up and brought to a high state of efficiency. At Lwow, the women manned the guns, stood up to cavalry charges and generally earned the reputations of highest bravery while under fire during the struggle against Russia. Today daughters of these women, (TOP) are preparing for the day when they must again face the guns of an invading army. These bemedalled officers of the Legion, (BOTTOM) are veterans of the Polish-Russian struggle and earned their medals on the field of battle. They will be in charge of the Legion should it be called upon to resist the invading forces of Nazi Germany.

Evacuation Continued

Continuing the evacuation of London, a mother and her small daughter are shown on their way to the train which was to carry them to the safety of the countryside. While the mother carries the haversack containing hers and her child's gas mask, the youngster takes care of her doll.

MINUS UMBRELLA

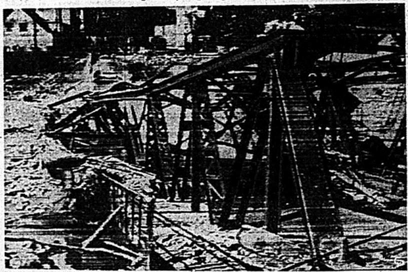
Prime Minister Chamberlain is seen here strolling in London without his famous and, until recently, inevitable umbrella. That accessory has been replaced by the gas mask which the Prime Minister carries over his shoulder.

Demolished During Heavy Fighting Between Germans and Poles



This bridge over the Brahe river at Bromberg, Poland, is shown after it was demolished either by retreating Poles or by the artillery barrages laid down by invading German forces.

MANNING BRITAIN'S "MAGINOT LINE"

Older than France's Maginot line or Germany's Siegfried line and tested through many conflicts, Britain's first line of defence, not deep underground, steel-topped fortifications, but the battleships, cruisers, destroyers and submarines that go to make up the navy, has already begun its function as a weapon of both offence and defence. Here are some of the men who guard the Empire seen going aboard the H.M.S. Chrysanthemum before she steamed out to take her place as a link in the floating steel chain that may once again prove a decisive factor in the allied cause.

WOMEN RALLY TO AID OF ENGLAND

As the manpower of England rallies to the colors women are more and more filling the emergency roles for which their numerous organizations had been preparing them for some months before the outbreak of hostilities. This picture shows the new feminine chauffeur of War Minister Leslie Hore-Belisha adjusting the flag on the front of his car.

Touch of Grim Humor in English War Sidelight

Adding a touch of grim humor to the ominous days in England are posters headed WANTED FOR MURDER, KIDNAPPING, THEFT AND ARSON and displaying in police fashion, full-face and profile pictures of Adolf Hitler. A group of Londoners is seen looking at one of the posters on a sand bag barricade. At the beginning of the last war a London newspaper used a similar display on its front page with the Kaiser as the subject and revived it again this year, merely substituting a likeness of Hitler for that of the former German monarch.

William Gargan and Irene Hervey in "The House of Fear," now playing with a second feature Buck Jones and Helen Twelvetrees in "Unmarried," at the Capitol Theatre.

Probabilities

Moderate to fresh winds with occasional rain. Wednesday: Moderate to fresh winds; partly cloudy and a little warmer with scattered showers.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1939

Temperatures

| | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today.... .... .... .... | 64 | 46 |
| Year Ago.... .... .... .... | 68 | 61 |

Weather—Cloudy.

'PAY-AS-YOU-GO' POLICY PROPOSED

Government to "Insist On the Principle Of Equality of Sacrifice On the Basis Of Ability to Pay" Says J. L. Ilsley

Deficit of $156,000,000 Is Forecast by Budget Presented in Parliament

Small and Carefully Regulated Amount of Credit Expansion

OTTAWA, Sept. 12—(CP)—A "pay-as-you-go policy" will be followed as far as practicable in financing Canada's war costs, Revenue Minister Ilsley told the House of Commons today when he presented the war budget on behalf of Finance Minister Ralston.

Believing every citizen should be ready to share the cost of the war, Mr. Ilsley said the government would "insist on the principle of equality of sacrifice on the basis of the ability to pay."

Although the speech condemned as impracticable and dangerous the theory that war costs could be met by inflation coupled with price control, it intimated there might be "a small and carefully regulated amount of credit expansion" in the early stages of the war.

The speech preceded announcements of tax increases by which it was apparent the government hopes to take care of much of the increased expenditures the war will bring, up to the end of the current fiscal year—next March 31.

SPEAKS FOR FINANCE MINISTER

Mr. Ilsley spoke for Hon. J. L. Ralston because the latter was so recently appointed Finance Minister that there has not been time for him to find a seat in the House of Commons.

Warning that war costs would increase as the struggle continues, Mr. Ilsley forecast a deficit of $156,000,000 on the current fiscal year, allowing only the $100,000,000 voted the government yesterday for conduct of the war to the end of the fiscal year. This compared with a $60,000,000 deficit estimated at the start of the year.

Revenues for the current year were estimated by former Finance Minister Dunning last April at $490,000,000. Mr. Ilsley said without tax changes these were now likely to reach $495,000,000.

In the last budget expenditures were estimated at $551,000,000. And with the $100,000,000 contained in the War Appropriations Act it is necessary to budget for total expenditures of $651,000,000 for the current year, leaving a deficit of $156,000,000.

While there would be an effort to pay the bill as the war proceeds a certain amount of borrowing will be necessary but the Minister expressed a belief this could be done within Canada at interest rates comparable with peace time levels.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT BE TIMID

Realizing that taxation can only reach a certain limit beyond which inefficiency and lack of enterprise would develop, the Minister said the government would not be "timid or light-hearted" in judging where that point of limitation lies.

It was indicated whatever borrowing is necessary in the initial stages of the war will be on short-term securities leaving any large-scale loan issues until the second stage when business would have the benefit of increased earnings and higher incomes which must result from the heavy demands which will be made for munitions and supplies.

The Minister observed that while Canada enters this war with a heavy peace-time deficit, it has a greatly improved banking system and enormous savings resources. It was a tribute to this improved financial structure that, compared with "the cataclysmical events" of the first weeks of August, 1914, there had in this war been no closing of the markets, no hysteria and no strain on financial institutions.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

'Sink on Sight' U-Boat Campaign Nears Turning Point Say Officials

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, Sept. 12—(CP Cable) — Germany's U-boat "sink on sight" campaign against Britain's merchant shipping is reaching its turning point, in the opnion of naval experts here.

After 10 days of warfare, when solitary unprotected cargo boats and liners like the Athenia have fallen easy prey to the marauding submarines, the odds were swinging definitely in favor of the navy's surface craft.

Although Britain has lost 14 or 15 ships there are signs the losses already are dwindling and every day brings closer the time when the Admiralty will have a convoying system operating.

At the height of the U-boat campaign in the last war Britain was losing 400 ships a month, which makes the present losses insignificant in comparison.

To Sail Under Guard

British merchant ships being held in port are waiting to leave under the strong guard of destroyers fitted with the latest detection devices.

This system of convoying was not introduced until late in the last war. It really smashed Germany's U-boat campaign after all sorts of devices had failed, including deep mines, Q-boats and underwater nets.

There can be no doubt that the British Navy already has destroyed a number of German submarines in the last 10 days. But the Admiralty is keeping the strictest silence about it, mainly for psychological reasons.

In the first place the Admiralty does not want to tell Grand Admiral Erich Raeder, Commander-in-Chief of the German Navy, how many submarines he should replace. But more important than that, it was learned in the last war that there is nothing so demoralizing to submarine crews than to see other vessels and other crews vanish to meet an unknown fate, with nothing ever heard about them again.

GERMANY HOPES POLISH CAPITAL WILL SURRENDER

Move Would Hearten Populace for Prospect of Stiff Fight on West Front

HOPES DAMPENED

Polish Resistance Has Been Greater and Losses Higher Than Thought Originally

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Berlin, Sept. 12 (AP)—Germany's attention was centred on Warsaw today in the hope that the Polish capital might surrender to the German invaders.

Exponents of the "Blitz Krieg" (lightning war) theory are striving for the quick conquest of Warsaw so as to hearten the German population for the prospect of a stiff fight on the western front.

Three circumstances dampened the expectation that, after initial successes in the Polish corridor and Western Poland, Warsaw would capitulate.

They were:

1. Admission that armored troops which reach Warsaw's suburbs had withdrawn to escape heavy Polish artillery fire.

(Continued on Page Seven)

ORDER-IN-COUNCIL BANS TRADING WITH THE ENEMY

Official Custodian May Examine Books of Any Firm at Anytime

ENEMY DEFINED

Ottawa, Sept. 12—(CP)— Commercial dealings with the enemy, regardless of how remote the enemy's interest in the transaction may be, were banned in Canada today by terms of an order-in-council tabled in the House of Commons yesterday by Prime Minister Mackenzize King.

(Continued on Page Seven)

King George Puts In Long Hours

London, Sept. 12—(CP Cable) — King George, working an average of 16 hours daily, has put away civilian clothes and has been seen only in the service uniforms of the army, navy and air force since the war started.

The King and Queen cancelled social engagements at the outset of hostilities. While the Queen visits hospitals, air raid precautions organizations and nursing centres, the King studies latest reports from the fighting forces.

Outside the chiefs of staff, he is the best informed man in the Empire on military matters. He is the only person who has a key to the red dispatch case that arrives from Whitehall.

His staff has been put on a war-time basis.

Their Majesties have obeyed A. R. P. wardens and gone to shelter during London's three air raid warnings.

IRISH FARMERS ELATED

Belfast, Sept. 12 (CP)—Northern Ireland farmers today accepted with enthusiasm a plan to devote 250,000 acres to increasing agricultural production.

H. Jamieson, Secretary of the Farmers' Union, issued a statement which said "our farmers will be as patriotic as those of Britain and will show themselves equal to the situation."

Budget Highlights

Ottawa, Sept. 12—(CP)—Following are highlights of the war-time budget speech delivered in the Commons today by Revenue Minister Ilsley:

Government to follow as far as practicable a "pay as you go" policy in war finance, insisting on principle of "equality of sacrifice on the basis of ability to pay."

Necessary borrowing expected to be effected within Canada at little increase over present peace-time rates of interests.

Orders for munitions and supplies expected to provide stimulus in business, expanding employment, increasing tax payments and enlarging incomes.

No large-scale borrowing operations anticipated until after initial period of war-time expansion well under way.

Government will not be "timid" in deciding when taxation has reached the limit beyond which it cannot go without producing inefficiency and lack of enterprise.

A "small and carefully regulated amount of credit expansion" may be not undesirable in early stages of the war.

Revenue for current fiscal year, without taxation changes, estimated at $495,000,000 as compared with $490,000,000 estimated in last budget.

Estimated expenditures for current fiscal year, including $100,000,000 in War Appropriation Act, is $651,000,000 leaving an estimated deficit of $156,000,000.

Canada's economic war effort may mean "some regimentation which might not be acceptable to a Democratic people in peace time."

Inflationary method of financing a war described as "most unfair and inequitable of all methods of diverting labor and materials to war time purposes."

Despite Canada's public debt and deficit, in most other respects its economy is infinitely stronger than at start of first Great War.

Borrowing operations expected necessary but policy will be to wait until after benefit of initial economic expansion has been felt before long term large scale borrowing.

Excerpts From Budget Address

Ottawa, Sept. 12— (CP)—Following are excerpts from the War Budget speech delivered by Revenue Minister Isley in the Commons today:

"What we cannot meet by taxation, we shall finance by means of borrowing from the Canadian public at rates as low as possible".

"Because we believe it is the part of wisdom, we shall follow as far as may be practicable a pay-as-you-go policy".

"In imposing the new tax burdens which this policy might require, we shall be guided by the belief that all our citizens will be ready to bear some share of the cost of the war, but we shall insist on the principle of equality of sacrifice on the basis of ability to pay."

"We must make our plans now with the full realization that we may be in for years of strenuous national effort."

"Our own expenditures on defence and preparation will furnish an important stimulus to the expansion of economic activity."

"There will be two additional sources of stimulus, first, the orders which we expect some of our allies to place in Canada for essential foodstuffs, raw materials and munitions and secondly, the private capital expenditures which will probably be necessary in order to place our industry on an adequate footing to meet war requirements."

"Parliament can be assured that while our policy will be to conserve our resources to the maximum practicable extent and to secure the maximum possible economies in the appropriations already granted by Parliament, that policy will not be carried out in such a way as to aggravate unemployment and retard the prompt expansion of production and National income".

"To destroy the menance of Hitlerism, we must be prepared to sacrifice what the use of these materials and the labor of these men would otherwise have provided for us in terms of better and more secure living. If we must devote a great deal of our labor to making guns and military supplies, we shall have to do without whatever would have been produced in their place in peacetime".

GERMANS EXPECT BIG FRENCH DRIVE TO DEVELOP SOON

Swiss Report Concentration of Mobile Equipment Along Maginot Line

5 MILES OF R.R. SEIZED

By CHARLES FOLTZ
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Basel, Switzerland, Sept. 12 (AP)—Reports of a German troop movement from Baden northwest toward the Haardt Hills in the west side of the Rhine were taken by border observers today as an indication the Germans are expecting a big French drive soon.

Baden is near the point where French territory elbows into Germany, 90 miles north of Basel. The development eased the Swiss worry that one army might try to cut through a corner of Switzerland to outflank the other.

Thousands of Swiss soldiers, it was learned today, have returned temporarily at least to civil life—the first official sign of Switzerland's growing conviction her neutrality will be respected by the belligerents.

(Continued on Page Two).

Polish Pronunciations Of Cities in War News

By the Associated Press

Pronunciations of some Polish names in today's war news:—

Przemysl—Pzhe-mish-l.
Poznan—Poz-nan.
Radom—Rah-dawn.
Kutno—Koot-naw.
Modlin—Mawd-lin.
Bialystok—Byaw-li-stalk.
Lodz—Woodzh.
Lwow—L-vuf.
Torun—To-roon.
Gniezno—Gnyez-naw.
Inowroclaw—I-naw-raw-cwav.

H. G. Wells Criticizes Literary Efforts of Goebbels and Hitler

Stockholm, Sept. 12 (CP-Havas)—Adolf Hitler and the German propaganda Minister, Paul Josepn Goebbels, were criticized today on literary grounds by H. G. Wells, novelist and historian.

A speech the writer had been scheduled to deliver here and cancelled because of the war was published today in the Goeteborgs Handels-Tidning. In it Mr. Wells criticized the Fuehrer's book, "Mein Kampf," as "badly written, vulgar chatter" and termed the "scribblings" of Goebbels as unworthy of an unemployed newspaperman.

BRITISH TROOPS IN POSITION ON WESTERN FRONT

Positive Proof Britain Intends to Fight Until Nazi Regime Smashed

NUMBER NOT KNOWN

Communique Says Britain Fighting for Return of Decency in International Relations

London, Sept. 12—The British people, 10 days at war, seized avidly today on the first trickle of news to tell them that their men, guns and planes once more were in France to fight Germany on the Western front.

Official disclosure that an expeditionary force had crossed to France was made in a communique which said troops have landed but "are not yet in action."

A communique from the British Information Ministry said:—"For some days past rumors have been current in this country and abroad that British troops have landed in France.

"The Ministry of Information is now permitted to announce officially that this is so.

"The troops are not yet in action and no further details can meantime be furnished.

"It is however, the intention of military authorities to furnish further information from time to time."

The communique was at variance with the Information Ministry's announcement last night that troops already were taking part in advances on German soil.

No explanation was offered concerning today's contradictory statement that the British had not yet engaged in fighting.

Earlier communiques hailed Canada's entry into the war beside the Mother Country and insisted no peace could be made except with a German Government whose word could be trusted.

(Continued on Page Three)

SEVERE FIGHTING ALONG BUG RIVER WITHOUT CHANGE

Germans Throw Vast Numbers of Tanks Into This Particular Battle

POLES DIG IN

Budapest, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The Polish Governal Staff's communique No. 11, broadcast today, declared stout Polish resistance had brought the German plane, tank and artillery attacks at least to a temporary stalemate throughout a wide-spread battle zone.

The Communique announced severe fighting was continuing along the Bug river without major change, with the Germans throwing vast numbers of tanks into the struggle.

(The Bug River flows from east to west, joining the Narew at a point 20 miles due north of Warsaw.)

(Continued on Page Three)

BOOTS ETERNAL

Charlbury, England (CP)—There always were boots—and heavy boots—in the armies of Britain. Remains of hob-nailed boots were found on the skeleton of a Roman soldier buried near here 2,000 years ago.

Coming Events

HUME ARENA DANCE GARDENS Tonight Economy Night. Wednesday Morgan Thomas and his famous band featuring popular singing of Mildred Morey. a12-1t

Saarbrucken Threatened As French Troops Hurl Back German Onslaught

Despite Courageous Fighting Polish Army Nearly Encircled

(By JOHN MARTIN, Associated Press Staff Writer)

PARIS, Sept. 12—(AP)—French dispatches tonight reported French advance guards had driven a wedge into the advance fortifications of Germany's westwall east of Saarbruecken.

One section of the attacking forces was said to have "slightly turned" the defences of the great industrial city.

Artillery pounded German lines surrounding the city from heights in the forest of Warndt.

PARIS, Sept. 12—(AP)—The French army was reported today to be threatenng Saarbruecken seriously by hurling back German onslaughts east of that German industrial city.

Fighting on a 100-mile sector of the western front between the Moselle and Rhjne Rivers strengthened the impression a major battle was shaping up—an engagement which history may record as the battle of the Saar.

British troops were reported moving up into positions already established by the French.

"Despite enemy resistance our attacks continued to show serious progress on a front of some 12 miles east of the Saar," said last night's war communique. This morning's communique said "the night was calm on the entire front."

GAINING NORTH OF FRENCH BORDER

Last night's announcement was taken to mean the French were gaining at a point some distance north of the French border town of Saareguemines in the German area between the Saar and Blies rivers. The Saar runs north from Saareguemines through Sarrbruecken, chief German city in the rich Saar basin.

Saarbruecken was emptied of civilians days ago. French military sources believed the German army soon would fall back into defensive positions behind the industrial capital.

Bitter fighting also was reported in the area north of Sierck, farther west where the Saar river shifts its course northward to parallel the Moselle river along the frontier of the neutral principality of Luxembourg.

Germans and French fought hand-to-hand in that wooded area between the two rivers.

INFANTRY SUPPORTED BY TANKS

The pincer movement against Saarbruecken and penetration of formidable advance posts of the Siegfried Line were accomplished in the beginning by small sorties of infantrymen supported by tank fleets.

The German lines were said to be held by young reservists because older soldiers were engaged in the Polish offensive. However, several divisions were said to be diverted already to the western front to meet the French-British threat. Diversion of German pressure from Poland is one of the cardinal aims of the allies' strategy.

Although less seasoned Nazi troops were said to hold positions near the Luxembourg frontier, their positions were strong because of the nature of the land.

The French had to make their precarious way over hilly roads topped by machine-gun and mortar nests. They had to encircle their foe to wipe out threats of cross-fire ahead.

DESCRIBE LOSSES AS SLIGHT

The French described their losses as slight as compared with the advances achieved. They said some German prisoners had been taken, that gas had not been used and that much of the fighting was under cover of night.

On the home and diplomatic fronts, Premier Daladier till was working to form a "war cabinet" for balanced representation of French political parties while watching developments in Rumania and Italy.

Andre Francois-Poncet, Ambassador to Rome, was understood to have told Daladier yesterday afternoon that Italy was observing a "strictly correct" neutral attitude despite her military alliance with Germany.

(Continued on Page Seven)

BULLETINS

LONDON, Sept. 12—(CP)—The Ministry of Information announced today the 9,465-ton British tanker Inverliffey has been sunk.

The vessel belonged to Invers Tankers, Ltd. Its crew was rescued by the United States steamship A. G. Stewart.

GENERAL NISHIO APPOINTED

TOKYO, Sept. 12—(AP)—Lieut. General Juzo Nishio today was appointed Commander-in-Chief of all Japanese forces in China. He had been Deputy Chief of Staff in Tokyo.

EMBASSY OFFICIAL'S WIFE KILLED

LONDON, Sept. 12—(CP)—The Ministry of Information announced today Mrs. J. Shelley, wife of the passport control officer at the British Embassy, was killed during an air raid on Warsaw. All other members of the Embassy staff and their families were said to have escaped the Polish capital uninjured.

HELP WANTED
Young man, good habits, with commercial certificate and mechanical ability. Apply at 10 A.M. NEXT WEDNESDAY at
THE JAMES TEXTS, 183 Front St.

City and District News

44 LB. LUNGE CAUGHT AT ADOLPHUSTOWN

Largest maskinonge to be caught in the Bay of Quinte this season was measured yesterday for official entry in a "big fish" contest. The monster, caught Sunday by John Allen of Adolphustown, is 51 1-2 inches long with a girth of 23 inches. It weighs 44 1-2 pounds and was caught with a spoon on a trolling line.

34TH BATTERY STARTS PROVISIONAL CLASSES

Provisional classes of instruction for members of the personnel of the 34th Field Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery will begin tonight at the battery headquarters, an authoritative source revealed today. This in no way indicates that recruiting has started the report stated.

Officers of the battery heard the declaration of war read in their quarters last night, where the toast to His Majesty was given in traditional manner.

MORGAN THOMAS ORCHESTRA TO APPEAR AT HUME ARENA

Said to be one of the outstanding dance orchestras in Canada, the band of Morgan Thomas, an eleven-piece organization that has met with sensational success wherever they have appeared, will play a request program at the Hume arena tomorrow night.

Miss Mildred Morey, attractive young vocalist will appear with the band.

FIRE CHIEF WARNS CITIZENS OF SOOT-CLOGGED CHIMNEYS

With the approach of cooler weather, and the fact that householders will be lighting fires in stoves and furnaces long idle, Fire Chief William Lynch urged today that all stoves and chimneys be thoroughly cleaned before any fires are lighted.

The first results of early Autumn fires, lighted during the cool period of the last two days were seen today when fire squads were called to Dunbar and Great St. James Streets to extinguish chimney blazes.

MAIL SERVICE TO GERMANY SUSPENDED

Suspension of all mail service to Germany, including former Austria and Czecho Slovakia, is announced by the deputy postmaster general of Canada. This suspension will also affect direct parcel post service to Poland and Denmark, it has been announced.

Little mail is received from or sent the countries mentioned by the local post office, it was stated. Previous to the outbreak of hostilities in Poland, but a few letters a week were received or sent from this city to Germany, it was stated.

TRUCKERS REPORT BUSINESS VERY GOOD

Truck drivers of the city and district are at present experiencing their busiest period, with work reported so plentiful that many have been forced to refuse jobs offered. Highway work and coal deliveries lately have called in every available truck in the city, and today officials of the city works department reported their inability to hire any sort of truck for city work.

SWALLOWS GATHER ON BAY ISLANDS FOR FLIGHT SOUTH

Thousands of swallows and swifts have chosen Snake and Gull Islands in the Bay of Quinte just east of the city this week as the starting point of their annual flight south. The birds have covered the trees and bushes on the small islands, bending the branches with their weight, and their brief flights when startled by passing boats resembles a cloud of smoke so thick have been their numbers. The annual migration of the swallows from the local district is believed earlier this year.

STARLING FLOCKS DAMAGE APPLES

Another war was declared last week, residents of the northern part of Prince Edward County stated today when flocks of starlings swooped down on apple crops with more or less disastrous results.

Apples brought to the market today by Messrs. Bedford and Sons revealed small holes, one in each apple, and claimed to be the work of the sharp bills of the ravaging birds.

The storm of Friday that reduced the crop to approximately fifty percent, brought apples down in such quantity that the ground is covered in places, it was stated.

NO SPECIAL SESSION OF COUNTY COUNCIL

There will be no special session of the Hastings County Council called in the immediate future, officials of that organization stated today. All war work, unless an emergency arises, will be conducted at the regular December session, it was added.

FISH PRICES RISE

Whitefish and other varieties of fish took a sharp increase in price today, veteran city market-fishvendors stated today. A rise of seven to eight cents a pound was reported by Messrs. Wesley Evans and Anthony Adams, due, it was said, to a heavy demand by metropolitan markets. The holiday of Yom Kippur, that terminates ten days of fasting on Saturday, for Canadian and American Jewry, is said to be one of the primary reasons for the sudden rise in price,

EARLY BUYING OF COAL

The heaviest rush of coal deliveries experienced by local dealers in some time is keeping teams and trucks busy this week. Residents, anticipating a rise in the price of fuel, have been ordering earlier this year, buying their winter requirements in one order instead of ton lots as needed as in past years, it was stated by one firm. As yet no increase in the price of coal, generally experienced at about this time of year, has been announced.

Strange Boat Mystifies Dock Officials by Its Suspicious Actions

A long, low dark-colored unidentified boat which nosed suspiciously through the bay in the vicinity of the Government Dock last evening resulted in a severe case of "war jitters" on the part of nocturnal fishermen who nightly angle from the cement piers for eels and mudcats and led to questioning by dock officials this morning in an attempt to identify the strange craft.

Unlighted in spite of the requirements of marine regulations which prescribe certain running lights, the strange craft reportedly circled the end of the dock twice paused in open water but a short distance out, then threshed up the bay, motors muffled, but heavy propellors giving the hint of a heavily puowered hull. Fishermen who observed the first circle of the dock questioned the boat's actions. On the second circle the more apprehensive ones deserted fishing equipment in preparation for nasty flight.

Through the gloom two men were reported indistinctly seen in silhouette standing aft of a small cabin. The craft appeared of a long streamlined type, but carried no ensign or markings.

"It might have been just a fishing boat, or some tourist wondering where he was" commented Harbormaster Jos. Waddell this morning. "But none of them seem to know just what it was."

It was reported that no special guards had been placed on the dock, nor in any special significance attached to the visitation of strange craft after dark. Many craft bearing United States ports registry have this season taken advantage of local dock facilities and have entered the port after dark for brief overnight stops.

ALBERT COLLEGE OPENS TODAY

Attendance Will be Slightly Down from Last Year Due to War

With a slightly decreased registration owing to several cancellations due to the war, Albert College opened its doors for the ensuing term today, according to Mr. Taylor K. Franklin, Registrar at the College. "There will be slightly less than a hundred registered this year," stated Mr. Franklin, "but we expect to carry on the work of the College in all its phases. The students will come from the distant parts of Canada and the United States including a student from Prince Rupert, a son of a former graduate of the college and a girl student from South Carolina.

Donald Wilcox, who intended to register for the coming term has been delayed in England due to the torpedoing of the steamer Athenia. Donald, with his mother, was to have left England aboard the Aurania but were transferred to the Athenia and were aboard when the liner was torpedoed off the Irish coast. The two were saved and taken to Galway from where they went to Cardiff and will stay with the relatives they visited with during the summer for a considerable period.

ONE VALUABLE SHAWL

London (CP)—"The Ould Plaid Shawl," a ballad of Victorian days, written in 1896, is still collecting royalties and a music firm here is trying to find executors of the joint author, the late Walter Haynes.

OBITUARY

SAMUEL R. ARTIS

(Sarnia)

Following a lengthy illness, Samuel R. Artis, who for many years conducted a grocery business in Belleville, died at his home in Sarnia yesterday. The late Mr. Artis had resided practically all of his life in Belleville, moving to Sarnia some four months ago.

The late Samuel R. Artis who was in his 71st year, was the son of the late John R. Artis and his wife, Ethel L. Kortright and was born in Tyendinaga Township. After his marriage, Mr. Artis came to Belleville, where he opened a grocery store which he operated for many years. He was well-known in the business life of Belleville and well esteemed. Old friends will regret to learn of his death.

Besides his widow, the late Mr. Artis leaves one son, Harry, of Sarnia, one daughter, Mrs. B. K. Rennie of Detroit, and three sisters, Mrs. Edward Plane, Madoc, Mrs. Annastatia Gleason, Buffalo, N.Y., and Mrs. Joseph Huff, Tyendinaga. Mr. Artis was an Anglican in religion, having attended Christ Church during his residence in Belleville.

The body of the late Mr. Artis is resting at the Belleville Burial Company Funeral Home, Campbell Street.

The funeral announcement is made elsewhere in this paper.

Oak Beam Perfectly Preserved After Being In Water 75 Years

Perfectly preserved under water on the bed of the Salmon River near Roblin for the past seventy-five years or more, a huge oaken timber weighing several tons was recovered from the water this week by a Napanee resident. The timber is believed to have become waterlogged and sunk during transit to some long forgotten mill on the river well over a half-century ago as revealed by the manner of its dressing. Hewn perfectly square it measures thirty-six feet in length, and is nineteen inches square. It is declared in as good a state of preservation as when originally cut and has been viewed by many of Napanee district.

U. S. OFFICIALS STUDY REPORT

U.S. Ships Will be Fired on if Order to Halt is Disregarded

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12—(AP)—State Department officials studied today a report that a German submarine commander had served notice that all United States ships which disregarded commands to halt would be fired upon.

They also considered a report that Great Britain had seized as contraband a cargo of resin consigned to Hamburg, Germany, on an American vessel.

Officials indicated there would be no comment on the reported incidents until reports were received from American Embassies in the countries involved.

Captain N. Nicholson, Executive Vice President of the Waterman Steamship Corporation, reported that its steamship, Wacosta, had been halted Saturday for three hours off the Irish coast by a German submarine. After a search, the ship was permitted to proceed to New York.

Nicholson said the ship's master, Captain G. Self, cabled the submarine commander warned him American ships would be fired upon in the future if they disregarded orders to halt.

Informed quarters in Berlin, meanwhile, reported that Germany would sink any ship attempting to carry to Great Britain any of the articles of the British contraband list.

SENATE CONTEST APPEARS LIKELY

President's Proposal to Repeal Arms Embargo Will be Struggle

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12—(AP)—A Senate struggle appears in prospect over President Roosevelt's proposal to repeal the arms embargo provision of the United States Neutrality Act—a step which many legislators say would benefit Great Britain and France in the war with Germany.

Senator William Borah, Idaho Republican and staunch isolationist, discussed the issue informally with Republican colleagues yesterday. One of them predicted afterward that Mr. Roosevelt would have to "fight for everything he gets" if he calls a special session to revise the Neutrality Act.

Mr. Roosevelt has said he would call such a session between now and January.

Borah asserted the administration program would "inevitably bring us into war."

WAR-TIME NOTES

LONDON, Sept. 12—(CP)—Britain is clamping the tightest sort of restrictions on the movement of printed matter to and from the United Kingdom, with exceptions only by permission of the chief censor.

For a week, the country has forbidden any one to bring in newspapers, books, maps and photographs except by mail.

Beginning Sept. 25, the prohibition will apply to mailing such matter out of Britain as well as to taking it out. This second rule applies to 27 countries, not including the United States, France or Germany.

:—:—:

All merchants are asked to maintain their current prices.

:—:—:

Temporary rates of payment for the use of requisitioned vehicles have been published. Taxicabs, for example, bring the equivalent of $10 a week.

:—:—:

Sergeant Leslie Robert Ward, 26, may be one of Britain's first war casualties. His wife, an expectant mother, has been informed he is missing.

:—:—:

Hundreds of motorists summoned to court for minor traffic offences were told the cases would be dropped.

:—:—:

London's blackout is so black the people still tumbled into curbs, buildings and each other, and the government is considering letting out a few more chinks of light.

:—:—:

A Daily Express editorial was all for lighting up the town, saying it would show the enemy nothing he doesn't already know.

POLICE COURT

As a sequel to arguments ensuing over cattle wandering from pasture, George Palmer, Eldorado, appeared in County Police Court, held at Madoc yesterday before Magistrate J. L. Lloyd, and charged with assault. Palmer was convicted and fined one dollar and costs.

According to the evidence adduced through Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan, K.C., prosecuting attorney, Palmer was supposed to have assaulted a neighbour, one G. Ellis, after the men had become engaged in an argument regarding the alleged failure of Ellis to close a gate leading into a pasture field, thus permitting Palmer's cattle to wander at large, which antagonised Palmer, he said.

Several Highway Traffic cases concluded the day's proceedings.

HOSPITAL CASE SETTLED

OTTAWA, Sept. 12—(CP)— Claim of Mrs. Azar has been settled out tal, a nurse and a physician on the hospital staff arising from the death of Mrs. Azar ha been settled out of court, it was announced last night.

Azar sued for damages when his wife died following administration of a certain drug without an accompanying treatment, and obtained a court judgment for $20,000 damages. The award was appealed, and the Hospital Board of Trustees was informed last night a settlement for $2,200 has been made. The appeal has been dropped.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 12 (CP)—Synopsis: —Showers have occurred in the region of the Great Lakes and in many parts of the Maritimes, also moderate to heavy rain in East Quebec and in Alberta, while in other districts the weather has been fair. It has been cool in Eastern Canada and in the far West, but warm yesterday in Manitoba and Southern Saskatchewan.

Lake Superior: Fresh winds; unsettled with occasional rain today and Wednesday; stationary or slightly higher temperature.

Kenora and Rainy River: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday with scattered showers; cooler by Wednesday night.

Manitoba: Partly cloudy with scattered showers. Wednesday—Partly cloudy and cooler with showers.

Saskatchewan: Partly cloudy with scattered showers; cooler tonight. Wednesday—Partly cloudy and quite cool.

Alberta: Partly cloudy and quite cool tonight and Wednesday.

| | 8 a.m. | High | Low |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 51 | 62 | 50 |
| Calgary | 36 | 47 | 35 |
| Edmonton | 38 | 45 | 38 |
| Saskatoon | — | 68 | 48 |
| Winnipeg | 61 | 75 | 61 |
| S. S. Marie | 55 | 60 | 50 |
| Toronto | 56 | 66 | 53 |
| Ottawa | 48 | 65 | 43 |
| Quebec | 52 | 67 | 48 |
| Halifax | 56 | 69 | 53 |
| Detroit | 61 | 57 | 59 |
| New York | 59 | 71 | 56 |
| Miami | 83 | 39 | 78 |
| Los Angeles | 66 | 84 | 66 |
| Bermuda | 81 | 86 | 75 |

Why The Weather?

Science Service Meteorologist

Meteorology and defense! A knowledge of our various climates and the many and varied vicissitudes of American weather is a great help in problems of national defense. Consideration of weather and climate elements enter very largely into the activities of many industries and in no less degree do they affect the problems of the army. For instance, to know the climates is to know where to place military training centres, because these must be where the climate is most suitable for the particular training to be carried on. Weather also affects all branches of the army to some extent, and some branches are entirely dependent upon suitable weather to conduct their work most efficiently.

GERMANS EXPECT

(Continued on Page Two)

It was estimated the first batch of soldiers to get leaves numbered 15,000, mostly dairy and agricultural workers. Nevertheless, more than 400,000 Swiss soldiers still are guarding the country's railroad tunnels and bridges.

Another indication that the French are about to open an offensive against main forts of the Siegfried line was seen in reports of a concentration of mobile equipment at certain points of the Maginot line.

In preliminary thrusts and counter-thrusts, as pictured in advices reaching Switzerland, the French moved up as much as four miles and captured four German towns, Brenshelbach, Uttweiler Peppenkum and Medelsheim, northwest of Bitche—while small German patrols crossed into French territory for the first time.

Penetration Short-Lived

The German penetration of French territory, however, was said to have been short-lived, the Germans retiring to their own side of the frontier after furious clashes. This action occurred just east of Saarguemines and southeast of Saarbruecken.

French forces were reported to have taken about five miles of the Saareguemines - Zweirbruecken Railway in German territory from which to threaten German forts along the northeastern bank of the Saar River.

Highly Co-ordinated

The French thrusts appeared to have changed from mere local incursions to highly co-ordinated operations, extending a smooth line from the Moselle River to the Vosges foothills.

Reports reaching Zurich from Germany today said that more than half the schools in the Berlin district have been converted into hospitals to accommodate wounded arriving in the capital from both the eastern and western fronts.

All German schools with the exception of the Universities of Berlin, Vienna, Munich and Leipzig have been closed and a decree issued by the German Government has advanced the date of examinations for Senior Medical students to avoid a shortage in military surgeons, these reports said.

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.
Athletic Supports
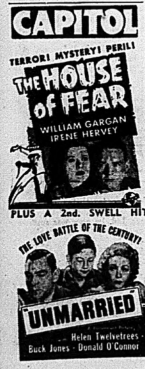
Johnson & Johnson
Bauer & Black
50c to 1.25
McKEOWN'S DRUG STORE
PHONE 135

CALLING ALL Used Car Buyers
TO THE GREATEST SALE IN TOWN.
We have a large stock of late model, fine Used Cars at prices you can't equal anywhere. Make us a visit, it will pay.
'37 CHEVROLET MASTER DELUXE COACH. Trunk, knee action ride. Sedan type front seat. Armour plate safety glass $595
'36 REO DELUXE SEDAN, with Trunk, Hydraulic brakes, all steel body. Good tires $575
'35 FORD V8 PANEL DELIVERY $375
'33 CHRYSLER COACH. See this value today $325
'31 DURANT SEDAN $175
'31 OLDSMOBILE 6 SEDAN $225
'29 OLDSMOBILE SEDAN $95
'31 ESSEX SEDAN; good tires, good finish. MAKE US AN OFFER.
BELLEVILLE MOTORS
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Sts. Phone 340
A. C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Successors To
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

CEDAR SHINGLES
Good Quality in Any Quantity
Get Our Prices.
Shingles, Edgings and Slab Hard and Soft Cordwood
F. D. PRINGLE, MELROSE.
S. 9, 3td

PIANO, SINGING, VIOLIN, THEORY
W. ERNEST WHEATLEY
(Mus. Bac., A.R.C.O., F.G.C.M.)
All Toronto Examinations
Classes: Beginners to Graduation
BANK OF MONTREAL CHAMBERS BELLEVILLE
S5. EOD 6t

New Size 39c
DOYLE'S Drug Store



• NO ENDORSERS!
• NO RED TAPE!
• YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!
ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.
QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

Tweed FAIR
THURSDAY - FRIDAY
SEPT. 21-22
New Features
Write Secretary for Prize List
S12-16-19-20

COAL
No. 1 American Anthracite
$12.50 OFF CAR
There is no better at any price.
MOORE'S - 12 Grove St.
S12-2t

AFTER MEALS TAKE DIA-BISMA
An antacid powder and stomachic agent. Take it after meals or whenever an abnormal amount of acidity in the stomach brings an uncomfortable feeling.
Dolan's & Doyle's Drug Stores

GEEN'S
Wild Strawberry Compound
for Dysentry, Diarrhoea, Colic, etc. - 35c bottle - Phone 131

I·D·A
BARGAINS FOR THE REST OF THIS WEEK
COLD CREAM THEATRICAL 1 lb. jar 49c
VACUUM BOTTLES 15 ounce 23c
WAX PAPER 100 foot roll 19c
WRITING PADS three styles 2 for 15c
HOT WATER BOTTLE guaranteed 37c
FREE — 12 NEW Try-on HAIR STYLES with purchase of 59c or 89c size FITCH SHAMPOO

83¢ jar for 59¢ NOXZEMA for Chapped Hands heals overnight
Vitamin Headquarters
Here's GOOD HEALTH for Everyone in the Family
For robust good health, pep and energy each one of your family needs vitamins to supplement the daily diet. The vitamin-rich products below are recommended:

Alphamettes $1, $1.85
Cre-O-Tone 98c
Mead's C.L.O. 50c, 75c, $1.
Scott's Emulsion 53c, 98c
Waterbury's Compound 93c
Abbott's Haliver Oil, 10 and 50 cc.... 50c, 1.75
Frosst's Neo-Chemical Food $1.15, $2.45
Parke Davis Natola 65c, $2.25
Wampole's Cod Liver Extract $1.00

HALIBUT LIVER OIL CAPS. 50's and 100's 63c, 98c
A-B-D VITAMIN CAPS. 25's and 50's. 95c, $1.50
SAVE IN BELLEVILLE AT DOLAN'S—DOYLE'S—GEEN'S
SCHRYVER'S—PAULEY'S
I. D. A. Drug Stores
We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities.

DAILY 2.30: 7.00: 9.10
AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
Tonight and Wednesday
IT'S FRESH! IT'S BREEZY! IT'S LAUGH-LADEN!

It's real college life!
Freshman Year

with DIXIE DUNBAR
WILLIAM LUNDIGAN
CONSTANCE MOORE
ERNEST TRUEX
—COMPANION LAUGH HIT—
Ten Times Funnier Than "Clouds Over Europe"
"THE MYSTERIOUS MISS X".
Featuring
Michael Whalen, Mary Hart, Mabel Todd, Chick Chandler

She's Still Your Best Girl At The MOVIES

FALL TIME is MOVIE TIME at The BELLE
WHERE HITS ARE A HABIT
TONIGHT & WEDNESDAY
It's Almost Too Funny . . . too exciting to be true . .

What a Sacrifice!
THE ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES
ANN SHERIDAN
and The
DEAD END KIDS
RONALD REAGAN
Ray Enright · WARNER BROS
But
What a Woman!

AND FOR GOOD MEASURE
One L-o-n-g LOUD Laff!

The KID from KOKOMO
PAT O'BRIEN · JOAN BLONDELL · WAYNE MORRIS
MAY ROBSON · JANE WYMAN · STANLEY FIELDS

Extra! Special!
B-E-L-L-E
OVERSEAS NEWS
Films flown from London, Paris, Berlin, Warsaw, show continental capitals as conflict breaks.
Daily 2.30: 7.10. Last Show 8.30

DEPOSIT REDUCTION ON BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA"

The Coca-Cola Company of Canada, Limited—ANNOUNCES—Reduction of Deposit on its Bottles—effective

SEPTEMBER 20th, 1939

Effective September 20th, 1939, the regular DEPOSIT CHARGE of 3c each on BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will be reduced to 2c per bottle.

All persons having in their possession BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" on which the regular deposit charge of 3c per bottle has been paid, and on which they are desirous of securing refunds at the present rate of 3c per bottle, ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to return these bottles to their dealers for refund on or before September 19th.

On and after September 20th, BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will carry a deposit charge of 2c per bottle, and refunds will be made for this amount only.

Bottle Deposit on Six-Bottle Carton

formerly 18c
Reduced to 12c
EFFECTIVE
SEPT. 20th

DR-240

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

Tyendinaga Twp. School Fair

Excellent weather favoured the schoolchildren of Tyendinaga Township on Monday afternoon September 11, when happy, eager competitors gathered to display their agricultural ability in competition at the annual School Fair held at Shannonville Fair Grounds. With a bright sunshine to help the display in every branch of outdoor exhibition a large and interested crowd of spectators were present. Mr. H. L. Fair, B.S.A., local representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, assisted by the Secretary of the local branch office, Miss Wood, and a capable staff of assistants directed the activities of the day which moved quickly and smoothly to a climax that delighted many of the youngsters. Sixteen school sections of the Township took part in the colorful school parade and a large number of entries excellent in quality, gave the judges plenty of worries in selecting the winners.

Prize Winners

Listed below are the prize-winners in the various competitive classes with the number following each name, signifying the School Section from which the exhibitor came.

Oats, Alaska, 1 quart—Earl Badgley 11; George Blathwick 9; Frank McCullough 29.

Oats, Alaska, Sheaf—Teddy Wilson 22; Earl Badgley 11; George Blatherwick 9; Pat Callery 20.

Oats, any variety—Earl Harrison 22; Allan Meagher 20; Hilda Long [illegible]; Ida Hanna 14; Gerald Stratton 1.

Barley, Nobarb—Marney Seeley, 1.

Barley, Nobarb, sheaf—Murray Seeley, 1.

Barley, Open Class—Roy Harrison 22; Billie English 11; Ross Wilson 22; Hilda Long 14.

Spring Wheat, Mindum, 1 quart—Bernice Bradshaw 14; Elwin Snider 11; Marjorie McMechan 11.

Spring Wheat Sheaf—Bernice Bradshaw 14; Elwin Snider 11.

Sweet Corn, Golden Sunshine, 6 ears—Sheila Marion 1; Tom Burley 9; Bernice Hagerman 14.

Soy Beans, O.A.C. No. 211, 1 pint seed bean—Raymond Homewood 22; M. J. O'Shaughnessy 22; Roy Harrison 22; Jean McMechan 11.

Field Peas O.A.C. No. 191, 1 pint seed peas—Donald Bardy 1; Dennis Walsh 20; Mae Toppings 6.

Potatoes, Dooleys—Ross Wilson 22.

Potatoes, Irish Cobblers—George Blatherwick 9; Raymond Homewood 22; Lorraine Brant 1; Billie English 11; Charlie Bates 11; Ronny Bates 11.

Potatoes, Green Mountain—Glen Tucker 10; Maurice Topping 10.

Turnips for feeding—Adrian Shannon 22; Lloyd Embury 15; Dennis Walsh 20; Theresa Walsh 20; Jimmy Hinchey 5.

Mangels, Yellow Intermediates—Jack Skelly 22; Justin McGurn 10; Muriel Chumley 23; Marion English 11; Sheron Maracle 1; Catherine Brant 1.

Turnips, Canadian Gem—Fred Farrell 29; Francis Enright 28; M. Mayell 1; Morley Topping 10; Clifford Atkins 9.

Beets Detroit Red—June Sampson 21; Ferne Snider 11; Leon Marion 1; Gene Stratton 4; Margaret Enright 28; Joy Mackenzie 11.

Carrots, Chantanuay — Loraine Alexander 10; Harold McMechan 11; Gerald Stratton 4; Evelyn McCullough 29; Chas. Bates 11; George Marion 1.

Onions, Yellow Globe Danvers—Glen Tucker 10; Wilfred Dunlay 9; Carl Fuller 1; Pat Shannon 22.

Parsnips, Hollow Crown—June Skelly 22; Catherine Mills 1; Wilson Bardy 1; Gerald French 6; Bruce Prindle 1.

Pumpkin Sugar Pie—Jack Skelley 22; Harold Latchford 9; Marie Badgley 11; Leyburn Leverton 1; Ross Wilson 22; Eugene Keyhoe 30.

Squash Hubbard—Muriel Embury 15; Phyllis Homewood 22; Gerald French 6; Billie Waddingham 29; Jean Hanna 14; Lloyd Mills 1.

Open Class Wheat—Roy Harrison 22; Harold Meagher 20; Teddy Wilson 22; Earl Badgley 11; Gerald Stratton 1.

Flowers

Asters, 4 blooms—Betty Maston 4; Francis Shannon 22; Vera Neill 20; Theresa Walsh 20; Chas. Mayell 1; Marion English 11.

Zinnias, 6 blooms—Terry Walsh 20; Jack Scott 21; Ronnie Bates 11; Jimmie Hinchey 5; Doris Topping 10; Marjorie Walker 11.

Nasturtiums, 6 blooms—Hilda Long 14; Billie Waddingham 29; Maurice Embury 15.

Calendula, 6 sprays—Shirley Marion 1; Adrian Shannon 22.

Cosmos, 6 sprays—Billie English 11; Earl Harrison 22; Orley Glass 22; Lynn Marion 1; Evelyn Bowen 1; Bernice Hagerman 14.

Coreopsis, 10 blooms—George Marion 1.

Helichrysum, 10 blooms—Pat Shannon 22.

Snapdragon, 6 spikes—Thomas Scott 21; Roy Harrison 22; Dorothy Morrison 14.

Phlox, 6 sprays—Marie Badgley 11; Chas. Bates 11; Muriel Chumbley 23; Olive Burtt 1.

Open Class—Lorraine Brant 1; Gerald Stratton 4; Gene Stratton 4; Mary Isobel Vioran 1; Teddy Wilson 22; Marjorie Walker 11.

Poultry

Barred Plymouth Rock Cockerel—Jos. Barnhart 1; George Blatherwick 9; Harold McMechan 11; Francis Shannon 22; Lloyd Brant 1.

Barred Plymouth Rock Pullet—Francis Shannon 22; Joe Barnhart 1; Theresa Walsh 20; Terry Walsh 20; Dennis Walsh 20; George Blatherwick 9.

White Leghorn Cockerel—Thos. Stratton 14; Lloyd Mills 1; Morley Topping 10; Keitha Weese 11; Earl Badgley 11; Jean McMechan 11.

White Leghorn Pullet—Jean McMechan 11; Maurice Topping 10; Keitha Weese 11; Jack Alexander 10; Marley Topping 10; Tommy Stratton 11.

Livestock Parade

Bill English 11; Garnet Hill 1; Jim Hinchey 5; Regie Tucker 10; Earl Harrison 22.

Calf Dairy Type—Bill English 11; Garnet Hill 1; Jim Hinchey 5.

Calf Beef Type—Regie Tucker 10; Earl Harrison 22.

Showmanship—Bill English 11; Regie Tucker 10; Earl Harrison 22; Garnet Hill 1; Jim Hinchey 5.

Apples and Fruits

Apples, Wealthies—Adrian Shannon 22; Raymond Shannon 22; Theresa Walsh 20; Dennis Walsh 20; Hilda Long 14; Eugene O'Shaughnessy 22.

Apples McIntosh—Adrian Shannon 22; Raymond Shannon 22; M. J. O'Shaughnessy 22; Terry Walsh 20; Dennis Walsh 20; Chas. Bates 11.

Tomatoes—Hilda Long 14; Garnet Hill 1; Roy Harrison 22; Lloyd Mills 1; Ross Wilson 22; Catherine Brant 1.

Apple Collection—Francis Shannon 22; Pat Shannon 22.

Recitation from Reader—Muriel Embury 15; Jean Hanna 14; Donna Lancaster 22.

Boys' and Girls' Naming Contest—Raymond Shannon 22; Keitha Weese 11; Rosie McAvoy 17; Regie Tucker 10; Dennis Walsh 20; Maurice Topping 10.

Boys' and Girls' Vegetable Judging Contest—Helen Vivian 1; Ruth Spencer 1; Irene Barty 1; Dennis Walsh 20; Tom Farrell 4.

In the school chorus, School Sections 1, 11 and 24 were awarded first, second and third prices respectively.

Schools taking part in display project included, S.S. 1, S.S. 4, S.S. 6, S.S. 11, S.S. 14, S.S. 15, S.S. 17, S.S. 22, S.S. 24, S.S. 29, S.S. 30.

Schools taking part in school parades were as follows: School Sections 1, 4, 5, 6, 9, 11, 14 15, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 28, 30.

Before You Insure Consult

Confederation Life Association

One of the World's Great Life Insurance Institutions. Renowned for Strength, Service and Security Since 1871.

H. M. JONES, Representative
175 Bridge St., E. BELLEVILLE

BRITISH TROOPS

(Continued From Page One)

Anthony Eden Heard

The same resolve was emphasized in a speech by Anthony Eden, the new Dominions Secretary, who said "there can be no peace until Nazism is banished from the earth. People of this country are ready to fight a very long war if need be to rid the world of Hitlerism."

'Canada's entry into the war was called an "event of the greatest importance" in a special Information Ministry communique. The Dominion's declaration of war "cannot be minimized by our friends or our foes."

The press commented with satisfaction upon the Empire's response to the war.

Challenge Being Met

"In Canada and everywhere throughout the Empire, the challenge of Hitlerism is being met with a unanimity and a determination even more impressive than in 1914," said the Times.

The Daily Telegraph said: "The resources of a fifth of the world, on Marshal Goering's estimate, now are devoted irrevocably to the overthrow of Nazism. That should cause a sad searching of heart in German councils."

The announcement in the official London Gazette of British troops in France said merely the transport of expeditionary forces took several days and was accomplished without accident. It was the first official indication British troops had been moved into fighting position facing Germany.

A "Peace Feeler"

The Ministry of Information devoted an entire bulletin last night to the address Saturday by Field Marshal Hermann Goering which British circles had characterized a German "peace feeler."

The bulletin declared Fuehrer Hitler had kept none of his "many promises" to foreign countries, and that Britain was justified in insisting "peace should be concluded with a German Government whose word may be trusted."

"Great Britain is fighting for a return to decency in international relations", said the communique.

Official secrecy over early movements of British troops had a 1914 parallel, but the "Tommies" of 1939 went into action much earlier than did those of 25 years ago.

Troops in Earlier Than in '14

In 1914, Britain declared war on Germany Aug. 4, and British troops were ready for action in France 17 days later. This time Britain declared war on Germany Sept. 3, and although the official announcement that the "Tommies" were in action followed on the ninth succeeding day, some troops apparently were at the front several days earlier.

"Up the line again," exclaims the Daily Express in editorial jubilation over the news that British troops are fighting beside the French. "How the news quickens the pace of the struggle for the people in this land! It becomes a British war now in a way that no other form of hostilities could make it."

The Express reminds Hitler that the British troops now in the field are the sons and younger brothers of veterans of the last war. "Yes, Adolf Hitler, the same men, the same in spirit and resolve, as those fighters you met on the Somme and praised in Mein Kampf."

"SON, ALL IS NOT GOLD THAT GLITTERS"
"RIGHT, DAD, LOOK AT THIS NUGGET SHINE"

For a brilliant, expensive-looking shine, plus weather protection, you can't beat Nugget.

Black, Blue and all shades of Brown.

"NUGGET"
SHOE POLISH
WATERPROOF FREE FROM ACID
THE FINEST LEATHER PRESERVATIVE
16N

SEVERE FIGHTING

(Continued From Page One)

The Hungarian News Agency reported the Polish radio station at Lublin said General Felicjan Skaldkowski, the Polish premier, had presided over a council of Ministers which decreed measures providing for the purchase and distribution of foodstuffs for civilians forced to flee the battle zones.

Digging Trenches, Shelters

The radio station at Lwow (Lemberg), capital of the Polish Ukraine, reported volunteers were digging trenches and air raid shelters and preparing to defend the city with the intention of carrying on until the last, and had no idea of withdrawing.

The Germans were reported continuing their attacks in the Modlin sector without achieving any gains.

(Modlin is at the juncture of the Narew and Vistula Rivers, 20 miles northwest of Warsaw.)

German attacks were reported continuing along the San River, but it was said there were no indications the Germans were making much progress toward Lwow.

The general staff communique reported Warsaw's defenders had won a brief breathing spell by forcing the enemy to withdraw from several sectors in the outskirts of the city.

Xylophone as Alarm Clock

Eleven tinkling notes, the opening bars of Chopin's "Polonaise", sounded every 30 seconds by a xylophone in the Warsaw radio station, let Europe know Poland's capital still was Polish even after the station had shut down early this morning. The screech of air alarms at dawn, drowning out the melody, served as the city's alarm clock.

The melody frequently was interrupted during the day by announcements or code signals that German planes had been spotted near other cities or were proceeding in certain directions. These served as advance warnings for other localities

Carrying on gallantly, many men and women continued the evening custom of gathering in coffee houses along the Nowyswiat to sip a cup discuss the war and listen to the radio.

In an early morning broadcast, Polish troops were said by the Warsaw station to have stopped the Germans attacking Warsaw "dead in their tracks."

GUILTY OF FRAUD GIVEN 14 MONTHS

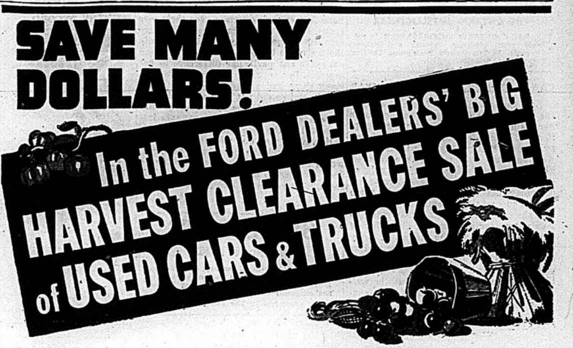
Ottawa, Sept. 12—(CP)—Cary Burns, 54-year-old negro, in custody here since his arrest Sept. 8, 1938, was convicted yesterday by Judge E. J. Daly of conspiring to defraud the public and was sentenced to 14 months imprisonment, to date from the time of his arrest.

Amelia Monique, his white secretary, was sent to county jail for six months on the same charge. As she has been on bail for several months, her term will date from today.

Constable Herman Boehmer of the Ottawa Police Force testified that documents found in the possession of the accused revealed that promissory notes totalling $145,900,000 had been issued in Canada and the United States in the past few years.

Burns claimed to be the holder of United States patents on seven inventions which were to net him a fortune, and he sold promissory notes for sums ranging from $5,000 to $100,000 for sums of from $5 up to $100.

Postponement of the trial since their arrest last year was due to illness of Burns.



SAVE MANY DOLLARS!
In the FORD DEALERS' BIG HARVEST CLEARANCE SALE of USED CARS & TRUCKS

Reap your share of this harvest of savings! Get a handsome, roadworthy automobile or powerful, economical truck at the lowest prices we've ever asked! Pick from the broadest range of popular makes and models we've ever assembled. We've taken pains to recondition these units. They're GOOD. Many are R&G—renewed and guaranteed. R & G cars carry a 2-day, money-back guarantee and 50-50, 30-day warranty against mechanical defects. In plain language—100% satisfaction or 100% refund! That's real protection! There are fine late-model Ford V-8s in this lot. For honest-to-goodness bargains in safe, comfortable transportation, take in this great CLEARANCE SALE. You'll find trade-ins liberal; Easy terms to suit you! Get here early!

These values set the pace!

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1937 FORD TUDORTRUNK. Economical V8 motor. Good paint and tires. R. and G. warranty.WAS $635.00. NOW $585.00 | 1936 FORD COUPEThis car has been driven small mileage by careful owner.WAS $595.00. NOW $525.00 | 1936 PLYMOUTH COUPEWITH RUMBLE SEAT. A good, reliable car.WAS $595.00. NOW $525.00 |
| 1935 FORD DELUXE TUDORWITH TRUNK. Tires, paint and upholstery like new. Another R. and G. car.WAS $565.00. NOW $465.00 | 1935 CHEV. DELUXE SEDANTurret top. Fisher ventilation. Knee action. New paint job.WAS $535.00. NOW $475.00 | 1931 FORD TUDORNew paint and upholstering. Motor mechanically O.K.WAS $265.00 NOW $225.00 |
| 1930 ESSEX SEDANPriced to clear at$100.00 | 1933 FORD V 8 COACHMany miles of economical transportation in this R. and G. Car.WAS $450.00. NOW $395.00 | 1928 CHEV. SEDANA good, serviceable car at a reasonable price.SALE PRICE: $100.00 |
| 1929 PACKARD SEDANRefinished in black duco. A real good taxi car.WAS $275.00. NOW $195.00 | 1930 STUDEBAKER SEDANOur Special Bargain for Today.$69.00 | 1936 FORD TUDORA car that needs no recommend.WAS $565.00. NOW $495.00 |
| 1932 FORD 4 PANEL DELIVERYJust the truck for a market gardener.WAS $350.00. NOW $300.00 | SALE BARGAINS'27 ESSEX COACH ............ $50.00'27 FORD COACH ............ $30.00'27 WHIPPET COACH ......... $49.00'27 CHRYSLER COACH ........ $55.00 | 1936 FORD LT. DELIVERYGood motor and box.SALE PRICE: $415.00 |

TRUDEAU Motor Sales

Belleville — Bloomfield — Stirling — Tweed

Helping the Adult Blind

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind was founded in 1918 to help the blind of this country. Prior to the last war practically nothing was being done for the adult blind of Canada. There were schools in Halifax, Montreal, Brantford and Vancouver where sightless children received their education but no provision had been made for those over school age. There was nowhere in Canada that an adult blind person could learn Braille reading and writing and handicrafts.

With the outbreak of the war in 1914 Canadian blind soldiers began to return to this country. They returned with the enlightenment and courageous outlook which they had obtained through their training at St. Dunstan's in England. They at once began to investigate the conditions of the civilian blind of this country and soon found that nothing was being done for them. It was then that they set themselves to meet this need and formed The Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

During the past twenty-one years of its existence the Institute has made amazing progress in work for the blind. Starting from scratch it has developed into a large national organization. Its services to the blind are many and varied and are designed to assist them in a practical and material way. Blind persons of all ages, all races and all creeds are registered with it and are eligible for its services. At present there are just over ten thousand blind persons registered with the Institute in Canada. Thirty of these are in this city of Belleville and fifty-two others are living in the towns, villages and rural sections of Hastings County.

In addition to employing those blind persons who are able to work the Institute has many important services, all free to the blind. One of its aims is that no blind person should be in need and it therefore grants supplementary assistance in cash or kind to those who require it. Free instruction in Braille reading and writing and in handicrafts, such as knitting, sewing, basketry and the making of rubber mats, is given to the blind. For those who are able to read a library of twenty thousand volumes in embossed type, as well as a large number of talking book records, is maintained in Toronto. These books and records are loaned out to blind persons all over Canada without charge and they travel through the mails free (a concession of the Canadian government).

Then, for recreation, the Institute has obtained many concessions for the blind of this country. Free bus and theatre passes, travel concessions and free radio licenses, are available to the blind.

All Institute services are designed to bring hope and happiness to those who have been denied the precious gift of sight. In Belleville last year many blind persons were assisted. Twenty-one made use of bus passes, theatre passes and radio licenses. Six received relief assistance. Two received library service and two free instruction in Braille reading and writing and in handicrafts. Other important services were also extended to the blind of this city and county.

The appeal is going out in the mail and the Tag day is on Saturday next. Substantial citizens are requested to give donations. Those who are less favoured may buy a tag on Saturday.

The friendly help of you who see is asked for those whose hands must take the place of eyes.

Dixie Dunbar and Stanley Hughes who are featured with Connie Moore and William Lundigan in "Freshman Year," now playing at the McCarthy Theatre.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

CANADA'S CONTRIBUTION TO WAR

Now that Canada has formally entered the war against Germany what are to be her main contributions now that conscription has been ruled out for the time being by Prime Minister King? Well, first of all we would say personnel for the airforce. England probably has a large supply of trained flyers who can take care of her immediate needs especially so when there is, beyond occasional ventures, no inclination shown by the Allies or Germany to indulge in indiscriminating bombing of supply centres but the time will likely come when this type of warfare will be common and then losses to all belligerents will be necessarily large. It is then that the Canadian supply of flyers will be welcomed for during the last war the Canadians displayed a certain daring and skill in combat that was unequalled by any other group.

The supply of food is another matter that this country can provide in great quantities. We have the advantage of being located closer to Great Britain than any other member of the British Commonwealth and that is no small factor with transportation difficulties being what they are. The supply of wheat, beef and pork must be raised in sufficient quantities not only for our own use but to provide a tremendous surplus that can be exported. We do not expect the prices that were established during the Great War for some of these went beyond all reason but we do expect to see enough profitable return to the producer that will be satisfactory to all concerned.

The production of aircraft can be carried on here with the minimum of risk from raiders and we feel that the government should lose no time in seeing to it that this phase of active co-operation should be gone ahead with with all possible speed. It takes time to train workmen capable of building planes and while we have been building a certain number of machines annually it is nothing to what can be done under the proper stimulus. It is in the next year that Canada should be most active in this regard. We have seen how Britain stepped up her aircraft manufacturing from a hundred or so a month to nearly a thousand a month that she was expected to reach this fall and probably has attained by now.

In the last war Canada raised something like four hundred and fifty thousand troops, the greater part of them by the volunteer system and it is expected, that for awhile, the number, who will offer themselves, will come forward in satisfactory numbers. We may be sure that the Canadian army, when the time comes for sending an expeditionary force overseas, will be no small cog in the war machine of the British forces. Our soldiers can always be depended on to carry through to a successful conclusion any task that they are assigned. The history of the past war shows that and they will do it again and so we would place manpower contribution of Canada in the top bracket with other requirements.

For the home front the financial resources of our people must supply the portion of money required by the purchase of war bonds issues which will likely be floated in the near future to provide the credit necessary for the carrying on of our war efforts. There will be the organization of the Red Cross and its maintenance by voluntary contributions, the manufacture of munitions and various other activities.

Canada wants to make her contributions worth-while and effective to the maximum. We want no faltering and we do ask that the Government will provide the leadership for the proper guidance of the war now that is has been accepted by the Canadian people.

WHY GERMAN SHIPS ARE SUNK

When the despatches last week told of the sinking of German freighters by English warships some people expressed the wonder that the captured ships were not taken to port and possibly used later on when required.

One logical answer to this is that most ships of this type are slow in speed and when overtaken on the ocean a considerable distance away from British possessions it would take too long to escort the ship to a port as a war prize. And a cruiser or other member of the fleet cannot be utilized this way for while the escorting ship was on that particular task other and maybe larger ships would escape to neutral harbors and possibly emerge after the war in direct competition with British merchant marine. There would also be the difficulty of providing a crew for the captured vessel and obviously that is not possible on warships for they have just enough quarters for their own crews. Britain is also provided with large numbers of cargo ships and apparently she feels able to lose a few of them and not make any particular difference to her supplies. In the first weeks of the war many ships had already sailed for Great Britain and so did not have the protection of the convoy of the navy consequently there has been a larger proportunate loss than will be the case later on.

However, we do not think that the Bremen, should she have been captured, would have been sunk, but would have been escorted to an Allied port even if it required more than one ship to escort her.

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

SUGAR CAUSED CONSIDERABLE COMMOTION DURING THE PAST WEEK. With preserving time right at hand housewives all over the continent suddenly got the idea that there was a scarcity of sugar, caused presumably by the war. In consequence there was a run on the stores for sugar with the result that retail stocks were depleted and grocers were obliged to limit customers to small amounts, five pounds and even less, until the wholesalers could replenish their stocks. Warnings from Ottawa that there was no scarcity of sugar and no immediate likelihood of being one did not halt the sugar stampede, but the grocers slowed it up by limiting the purchases to five pounds or less. Canada sustained the sugar shock from coast to coast and even the United States was infected with the sugar panic, New York City retailers being cleaned out early and forced to limit purchases. Wartime Prices and Trade Board issued a statement from Ottawa on the sugar situation, after a conference with the leading sugar refining officials, that RETAILERS, WHOLESALERS AND THE REFINERS THEMSELVES HAD BEEN CAUGHT UNPREPARED BY THE RUN ON SUGAR. "Consumers themselves, however, are largely responsible for the confusion," said the statement. "It cannot be too strongly emphasized, continues the statement, that "any person who has bought a 100-lb. bag of sugar, or any quantity in excess of legitimate current needs has done a serious disservice to the country in time of war, and has, in effect, deprived his or her less well-to-do neighbors of necessary sugar. Another result has been seriously to complicate the handling of the peach and other fruit crops." And so John Public takes the rap again, and is blamed for causing sugar scarcity and higher prices.

x x x

"NO PERSON SHALL ACCUMULATE OR WITHOLD FROM SALE ANY NECESSARY OF LIFE beyond an amount thereof reasonably required for the use or consumption of his household, or for the ordinary purposes of his business." This is the law.

x x x

NO WAR TALKS FROM THE PULPIT is promised by the Vicar of St. Cuthbert's Welles, largest parish church in Somerset, England, according to a news cable. Said the Vicar:

"EVERYONE HAS TO THINK QUITE ENOUGH ABOUT THE WAR ALL THE REST OF THE WEEK AND PERHAPS IT WILL BE A RELIEF TO SOME TO KNOW THAT IN ST. CUTHBERT'S AT LEAST THERE WILL BE NO WAR TALKS FROM THE PULPIT." More power to the Vicar of St. Cuthbert's who realizes that it is possible to get too much of words spoken and written and radioed on one subject. Regulation of radio commentors would also be a step in the right direction. War news and comment should only be broadcast by representatives of responsible organizations, for there are a whole lot of people who believe implicity what they hear on the radio, and do not always get it straight at that, sometimes tuning in on the middle of a broadcast. Orson Welles' "Men from Mars" radio panic illustrates the dangers of unregulated and irresponsible radio broadcasting.

x x x

NEW YORK CITY IS LONG ON COPS having 19,523 persons in its police organization. Being the largest city in the United States its criminal record was high with 73 murders topping the list for last year. Chicago had 62 and Philadelphia 40.

x x x

"NERTZ TO WAR — ITS RODEO DAY!" Headline on El Paso Herald Post (Texas), after declaration of war.

OFF THE RECORD

By Ed Reed

READ YOUR DAILY PAPER
YOO HOO
ED REED

"This is the worst corner in Belleville—I seldom get across!"

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

Sept. 12th., 1919

Miss Helen Ketcheson, who has been home on vacation, has returned to Sackville, N.B., where she is a member of the faculty of Mount Allison Conservatory of Music.

Miss Helen Kyle, nurse-in-training, has returned to Brockville, after visiting her parents here.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Kasik, of Detroit, Mich., are the guests of Mrs. Kasik's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle, William Street.

Madoc tax rate this year has been set at 48 mills. The rate for Marmora will probably be 43 or 44 mills.

Mr. Robert Thompson of Monteagle Valley, North Hastings, recently shot a bear which weighed 250 pounds.

30 YEARS AGO

Sept. 12th., 1909

The Rev. J. A. Hilts, pastor of Victoria Avenue Baptist Church in this city for the past eighteen months, has resigned his pastorate and will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday. As yet Mr. Hilts has not decided where he will locate. The members of the congregation and many citizens regret his departure from Belleville. A successor to Mr. Hilts will be selected as soon as possible.

Mr. Edward Gibson returned to his home in Rochester, N.Y., yesterday after visiting friends here.

Mrs. J. Nutbrown of Rochester, N.Y., formerly of Belleville, is visiting friends here.

Mr. George Minns of Chicago, Ill., is visiting friends here.

40 YEARS AGO

Sept. 12th., 1899

Mrs. S R. Earle of Toronto, formerly of Belleville is spending a few days in town.

The Rev. C. E. McIntyre, pastor of Bridge Street Methodist Church is spending a few days with friends in Kingston.

Mr. E. E. Richardson has returned home from the West.

Mr. Douglas McIntyre will enter Queen's University, Kingston, this term.

Dr. Mackle, an old Belleville boy, is home from New York on a visit to relatives.

Mr. J. W. Hudson left today on a trip to Western Canada.

Mr. C. W. Craig, barrister, Tweed, was in town today.

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 12th., 1899

The ladies of St. Michael's Church congregation are making preparations to hold a grand bazaar early in December for the benefit of the building fund.

Mr. E. D. O'Flynn of Madoc, will have a steam launch on Moira Lake next summer.

Mr. John Covert, an old Belleville boy, is home from Rochester, N.Y., on a visit to his parents.

Owing to ill health Mr. Easton, proprietor of the City Hotel, is offering that property for sale.

The D. & D. Institution opened yesterday after the long vacation. There are 210 children enrolled and more are expected shortly.

Let Nature Manage Her Own

In a recent Toronto newspaper a great deal of space was given over to an illustrated news story describing how a young lady of tender years—12 to be exact—"all by herself and with bare hands" caught two half-grown eagles on the farm where she lives and conveyed them to a chicken-coop where she was feeding them "until she finds whether any park or zoo wants them."

The story graphically explains how the young lady thought they were partridge and therefore she grabbed them without fear of danger to herself from powerful claws, a sharp beak and strong wings, any or all of which are capable of inflicting injuries on the unwary.

The story is interesting and full of intimate details supplied by this brave little miss and the reporter adds the information, which we readily believe, that she "is a great lover of the wild things—groundhogs, rabbits and pheasants." It is because we know that this love of nature is often misplaced, as in this instance, that we offer these comments.

—o—

For most of us there is something about wild life, met in its native habitat which fascinates and intrigues. If we discover a bird's nest we are immediately tempted to carry off one or more of the tiny colored eggs; if we come across a fawn or the young of any other animal lying in some sheltered spot, apparently helpless and forsaken, our sympathies are at once aroused and we are tempted to take them home to offer them care and protection; should we see a young fledgling floundering along on unsteady wings, our impulse is to pick it up and perhaps take it with us, for, obviously, it has been deserted and is in danger because of its helplessness. These impulses are altogether too often translated into action, with dire results to the species we are attempting to protect.

—o—

Nature herself if the best protector of her children and her plans for so doing are wise and complete. Very rarely are these allegedly helpless birds or animals unable to take care of themselves if left in the wild. The doe is seldom far from her fawn and the mother bird is usually close enough to take care of her offspring.

If it should happen that by some mischance the parents have been killed, natural instinct will usually come to the aid of the young. In any case, they have a much better chance of surviving, and at the same time fitting themselves for their natural environment if left to their own resources. The chick, which sympathetic hands helps out of its shell will usually be crippled or too weak to survive, and the young to which misguided nature lovers are so keen to afford assistance will be handicapped in the battle of life.

In the case of the chick Nature has provided that it shall obtain its initial strength through its struggle to break out of the shell, and to assist it but serves to prevent proper development, while the young found in the wild, and apparently struggling helplessly, are merely passing through the natural stages of development.

Lovers of the wild things should restrain their impulses to help and let Nature nurture and protect her own children.

—o—

The newspaper report states that there is a penalty for killing eagles in Ontario. This is quite true, but it should not be noted also that it is illegal for any person to "molest, take or have in possession" any bird protected by the Game and Fisheries Act during an unlawful period. The eagle is a protected bird, therefore it must not be molested, and capturing it alive would also be illegal. In the case under discussion the youngster presumably thought the birds were partridge until she had caught them, but as partridge are also protected there is still a technical offence under the law.

We mention this phase of the matter not with any intention of condemning or criticizing the child, our experience being that lack of knowledge on the part of children is merely a reflection on adult training, but rather with the idea of stressing the fact that, however kindly disposed we may feel toward the struggle of immature wild life, it is in most cases neither legal nor desirable to interfere with it.

—o—

In the same paper is a photo of a proud youngster, aged 15, holding up a 21-pound maskinonge which according to the caption, he caught with a garden hoe. The story is that he found the fish floating alive near the shore, clouted it over the head several times with a hoe until he killed it, then took possession. We are sure it was quite a thrill to the youth and we know that a monster of this size would excite the envy of all his companions, but just in case this roughhouse method of fishing should spread, we feel that a few words of comment are necessary.

Fishing, as we have so frequently mentioned, is sport—not the mere catching of fish—and as such should should be played according to the rules of the game. There is no provision in the regulations for taking by means of a hoe! Indeed, there is a very mandatory rule that "no one shall fish for or take maskinonge otherwise than by angling," and "angling" is defined as "the taking or attempting to take fish with hook and line held in the hand, or hook and line and rod, the latter held in the hand."

You see the point we are trying to make; clubbing a fish to death may be tremendously exciting, but it isn't sport, and is definitely illegal.—From Monthly Bulletin of Ontario Dept. Game and Fisheries.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Why Death Rate in Appendicitis Has Increased During Past Ten Years

Eight years ago, Dr. R. M. Watkins, Cleveland, reviewed the records of 1000 cases of acute suppurative (pus-forming) appendicitis, acute, simple, and chronic appendicitis (without pus) in adults, as they occurred in the Woman's Hospital. The death rate in all the different types combined was 9 per cent.

This present year Dr. Watkins and Dr. F. R. Kelly reviewed the net 1000 of these cases. Naturally with all the information that has been made known to the public, one would expect to find that the death rate of the second 1000 deaths would be lower.

What did these investigators find? In an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association they state that the death rate in the second 1000 cases were 23 per cent.

This same finding — increased death rate—is reported by two other investigators, Drs. E. P. Quain and R. H. Waldschmidt who reported a death rate of 10 per cent. in a series of 1000 cases between 1919 and 1927 and a death rate of about 19 per cent in a series of cases after 1928.

Why should the death rate in appendicitis double or more than double itself during the past ten years? It is certainly not because the public or the medical profession is not aware of the signs, symptoms and dangers of appendicitis, as we remember the educational campaigns carried on in Philadelphia and elsewhere.

In the opinion of these physicians the increased death rate is due to delay in operation, and this delay is because (a) the patient or his family fear the cost of operation, (b) the tendency to use home remedies including purgatives, and (c) complications which may cause the physician to delay operation.

To reduce the death rate in appendicitis in adults, Drs. Watkins and Kelly state that whether or not the individual has the money to pay for the operation, the operation should be performed. Patients and families should be told that the surgeons in every hospital will operate on appendicitis cases to save life regardless of whether the patient can pay for same.

"In the meantime, persons should be told to pocket their pride and seek medical aid regardless of their circumstances if they have pain in the abdomen."

HELPLESS ONLOOKER

There is no sense in it, I suppose, but it fascinates me to read of impending events about which I can do absolutely nothing. In the constellation Cassiopoeia, for example, there is a variable star that has been acting peculiarly of late, leading some astronomers to believe that it may suddenly turn into a nova, that is, explode, shedding a tremendous, if temporary, light.

Somewhat the same feeling grips me when I read such a book as Dr. Howard W. Odum's recent "American Social Problems." He cites again the figures, frequently published before, showing the extraordinary fecundity of the south as compared with the rest of the country. The birth rate in the southern states is far above that of any other section. That is not, contrary to a widespread impression, characteristic of the southern negroes only, but of all southerners. In at least four southern states — Alabama, North Carolina, Tennessee and Texas—not only is the birth rate away above the national average, but the death rate is below it. The answer? Obviously, that, just as the star may explode, eventually the southerners make take the country, and there seems to be nothing that can be done about it.—Baltimore Sun.

HELP THE YOUNG

Before one of the social welfare committees of the league of nations at Geneva it was stated that a policy of assisting early marriage might well be considered by modern governments for more than one reason. Dr. Cavaillon, French expert, agreed with the view expressed by experts and committee members that early marriage was one of the best means of ensuring normal wholesome communal life and said that, in present difficult economic circumstances, governments would be well advised to consider marriage loans, family allowances or other devices to assist young people in their natural desire to live happy, fruitful lives—Brandon Sun.

First Lord of the Admiralty

In a big panelled room in the British Admiralty in Whitehall, beneath oil paintings of historic naval battles and portraits of famed British seadogs, Admiral of the Fleet Sir Reginald Pound, First Sea Lord, works at a big oak desk.

In Whitehall he ranks next below Earl Stanhope, First Lord of the Admiralty, who is responsible to Prime Minister Chamberlain for running the navy. Sir Reginald is chief of the naval staff.

Sir Reginald was appointed First Sea Lord last May, succeeding the ailing Sir Roger Backhouse, who since has died. Called the "father" of Britain's modern naval strategy, Sri Reginald was in July promoted to the highest rank—Admiral of the Fleet, equivalent to field-marshal in the army.

For 20 years Sir Reginald has preached his gospel of "offense and attack" as opposed to the "passive defence" policy that governed British naval strategy immediately before the Great War and in the first two years of the war itself.

A firm believer in the "big ship" theory, he has never troubled to conceal his opinion that Britain must be prepared for a "showdown" in the Mediterranean.

Speaking to London newspapermen in April, 1933, Sir Reginald advocated more capital ships.

"There's going to be a hell of a fight in the next two or three years, whether we build them or whether we don't," he declared "We have got to build them." Britain is now launching new warships at the rate of more than one a week.

Through Hard Years

Sir Reginald probably knows the vital Mediterranean area better than any other man in the navy. He was commanding the British fleet there when he was called home last May to take his present post.

Sir Reginald should have taken command of the Mediterranean fleet in November 1935. After his appointment was announced the Admiralty decided a change of command would be unwise during the tension caused by the Italian conquest of Ethiopia, and extended the term of Admiral Sir William Fisher, then commander-in-chief.

Sir Reginald, himself a full admiral, caused a sensation in naval circles, by volunteering to serve as Admiral Fisher's chief of staff, an unprecedented position for a man of his rank. He finally took over the command in March, 1936.

There followed three critical years for the British fleet. The Mediterranean crisis over Ethiopia was simmering down, but there was no return to normal. Trouble in Palestine, civil war in Spain, kept British warships alert at both ends of the Mediterranean.

The Admiralty gives its commanders-in-chief a free hand. They are told the general principles of policy involved and can get advice if they ask for it, but the Admiralty expects them to do the right thing at the right time.

Men who have worked under him say Sir Reginald's boundless energy always brings results. Observers say no man in the navy has borne a greater load in the last four years, when hardly a month passed without threat of a general war in the Mediterranean.

Has Many Qualifications

Brilliant service in that job won Sir Reginald his present post. As a young officer he specialized in torpedoes, but his wide knowledge of seamanship and long experience in administrative jobs earned him a reputation as one of the "brains" of the navy.

A book on ship organization he wrote before the Great War, introducing many "novel" ideas, is still a standard text book for British naval courses.

Sir Reginald got his first headquarters job in 1915 as naval assistant to the First Sea Lord, but he went back to sea the same year as captain of the battleship Colossus.

Split-second decisions and high-speed manoeuvring of the Colossus were credited with saving his ship at the Battle of Jutland in 1916. Target for the 12-inch guns of the German battle cruiser Derrflinger, the Colossus missed destruction by inches. As each enemy salvo was fired Sir Reginald checked his ship's speed so that the shells whizzed past ahead, narrowly missing the bridge. His crafty manoeuvring was also credited with saving his ship from five torpedoes fired simultaneously from four German destroyers.

During the armistice and peace negotiations after the war Sir Reginald was Director of Operations at the Admiralty—responsible for the disposition of Britain's entire naval strength.

As senior member of the committee of Imperial defence he plays a big part in continuous examination of strategical problems involved by following any particular policy in any part of the world.

Portrait of Monsieur Daladier

M. Daladier is not an intellectually brilliant or an imaginative man, though he has a vein of romanticism. He is a dogged, able, provincial Frenchman, the son of a baker in a small town, who secured his higher education by winning scholarships and finally passed out of the university at the head of the list of agreges for history for his year.

He has never been eloquent. His prepared speeches are so superior to his improvisations that he is generally believed to seek the help of a distinguished man of letters in composing them.

Nor does he show strength when he has to choose etween two policies. His hesitations are often very apparent.

o—o

For what, then, do his countrymen respect him? For personal courage and disinterested patriotism, for an ability to judge the world in terms of the interests of a French provincial citizen, for dogged pursuance of a policy once it has been adopted, and for an ability to present policy with a due proportion of realism and idealism.

M. Daladier never sounds cynical and he never sounds like a crusader. It is always France that he is asking Frenchmen to defend, but he never forget that France means not only the lives, homes and properties of her citizens, but a certain humanity of outlook, a respect for the individual, for truth and for liberty. On occasion—as in his speech of March 29th, this year—he has succeeded in sounding this note of idealism like a trumpet-call.

His position with his fellow countrymen is enormously strengthened by the fact that as sergeant and lieutenant he saw about as much front-line fighting in the last war as any man could.

o—o

M. Daladier makes up for his lack of brilliance and imagination by a very clear vision of a few common-sensical essentials. Over and over again he hammers on the need to increase French industrial production.

This may not sound very remarkable, but it must be remembered that a very large proportion of those who rightly criticized M. Daladier's slowness to grasp the essentials of the international situation last Winter, entirely failed to see that France could have no foreign policy without an increased industrial effort.

More and more M. Daladier seemed to think of himself as the spokesman of the class of French artisans and peasants from which he springs, with their traditional virtues of hard work and thrift. There is some danger of this dangerously widening the gulf between him and the industrial working class, who at all events find it difficult to forgive him for coming in to office with a Left majority and continuing to rule with an anti-Socialist policy and the support of the Right.

The future may well hold for him such political eclipses as he has already suffered, but he will certainly go down to history as the Prime Minister under whom the authority of the French State was restored.—By D. R. Gillie in London Spectator.

RURAL SCHOOLTEACHER

There must be something radically wrong about a system under which the province spends thousands upon thousands each year in the training of teachers only to have them go into the world to receive a pittance of $600 a year or less. Such meagre salaries, paid by the rural schools, are to some degree fostered by the urban centres which demand that a teacher receive experience in a country school before he or she can hope to find a place on the city staff.

Experience seems to be the big word in the teaching profession, and yet girls and boys spend a year at Normal school gaining experience which apparently counts for little. The course at Normal is one largely of teaching, but only the smaller schools will accept teachers direct from Normal.

And some of these smaller schools make demands upon a teacher which should not be tolerated in democratic countries. One school board asked the applicant if she were willing to teach two Sunday school classes each Sunday and in addition attend a third church service, morning, afternoon and evening.

The province bears the cost of educating teachers, they pay inspectors to see that the job of teaching is well done why not go a step further and see that the teachers get a square deal?

There are 3,065 teachers of primary schools in Ontario who draw salaries of $600 or less a year, according to the last annual report of the department of education. And out of this $600 the teacher must clothe herself, pay for room and board, undertake some travelling in the holidays and participate in community life. Is it then any wonder why the registraton at Normal schools shows a decided slump?—St. Catharines Standard.

PATRIOTIC GREETING

Goebbels was paying a visit to a public school in order to see how his propaganda was affecting the youth of the country. He asked a small boy to quote from memory some patriotic greeting. The child replied: "Heil Hitler." "Quite right," said Herr Goebbels, "but there are other slogans. A second boy piped up: "Deutschland uber Alles."

"Fine, fine," said Goebbels, "but there are even more impressive ones." Whereupon the smallest boy in the class contributed: "Our people shall go on for ever." "Bravo," said Goebbels, "that's very good, indeed! What's your name?" And the boy answered: "Isaac Levy."—Nebelspalter, Rorschach.

PAID BROADCASTS

Practically nominal are the fees of from $250 to $500 per broadcast that such British big shots as Anthony Eden, Winston Churchill, Hon. Arthur Duff-Cooper and others will get for short-waving to us this fall. It doesn't sound very stiff when you recall the $5,000 fee that Eden snatched for coming over here last spring in person for one innocuous after-dinner speech.—Neal O'Hara in New York Post.

Wednesday Morning at WALKER STORES

MEN'S JUMBO KNIT SWEATER COATS 1.59
These all wool sweaters are built to stand hard wear. In colors of navy, maroon, black and brown. Sizes 38 to 44.

Men's Work Shirts 69c
Made of a heavy quality black and white flannelette. Yoke shoulders. Full size. Strongly made. One pocket. Sizes 14 to 17. Each 69c.

Hemstitched Pillow Cases 19c
Made of a sturdy white cotton. Hemstitched ends. 42-inches. On sale Wednesday morning only. Each 19c.

WATCH FOR YOUR COPY OF OUR SPECIAL
"Three Days Sale" CIRCULAR
WHICH WILL REACH YOU NOT LATER THAN WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 13th.

Items from Our Special "Three Days Sale" Circular
$1.59 and $1.98 PYJAMAS and GOWNS ........ 1.00
GIRLS' FUR TRIMMED COATS ........ 6.95
GORDON 4 BIT SOCKS. Sizes 10 to 12. Pair ........ 39c
Washable WINDOW SHADES. 36" x 6'. White, cream, green 50c
NEW YORK HAND BAGS. New Fall Styles ........ 1.39
Women's WOOLETTE PYJAMAS. 1.98 value for ........ 1.39
4 PLY KNITTING WOOL. New Shades ........ 2 BALLS 15c
EMBROIDERED PILLOW CASES. 42 inches. Embroidered in white and colors. Pair ........ 59c

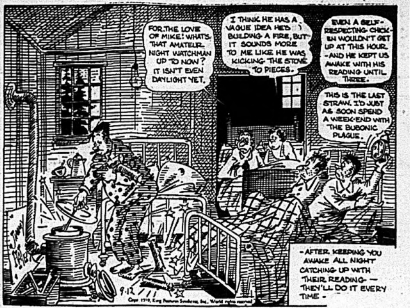
Buy these Items Wednesday Morning
BARRY SEAMLESS AXMINSTER RUGS
6' 9" x 9' ........ 19.95
9' x 9' ........ 28.50
9' x 10½' ........ 29.50
9' x 12' ........ 35.00

Net Curtains pair 1.25
This is a clearing lot and sell regularly up to $2.00 pair. Ecru shade and come in the following sizes: 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches wide by 2¼ yards long.

REXFELT MATS 18 inches by 36 inches. Each 12c

WALKER STORES, LIMITED

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE! WHAT'S THAT AMATEUR NIGHT WATCHMAN UP TO NOW? IT ISN'T EVEN DAYLIGHT YET.
I THINK HE HAS A VAGUE IDEA HE'S BUILDING A FIRE, BUT IT SOUNDS MORE TO ME LIKE HE WAS KICKING THE STOVE TO PIECES.
EVEN A SELF-RESPECTING CHICKEN WOULDN'T GET UP AT THIS HOUR —AND HE KEPT US AWAKE WITH HIS READING UNTIL THREE.
THIS IS THE LAST STRAW. I'D JUST AS SOON SPEND A WEEK-END WITH THE BUBONIC PLAGUE.
-AFTER KEEPING YOU AWAKE ALL NIGHT CATCHING UP WITH THEIR READING — THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME - Jimmy Hatlo
9-12

JOIN THE "SALADA" STAMP CLUB

● For ten cents and the label end, showing the teapot trademark, from any packet of SALADA TEA we will send you a Beginner's Outfit of: 1—64 page Stamp Album. 2—100 all-different stamps. 3—Big list of thousands of stamps offered Free in exchange for SALADA labels.

SALADA STAMP CLUB - 461 King St. W., Toronto

Huntingdon School Fair

West Huntingdon, (Special) Hastings County School fair officials held the first of the eight school fairs at Ivanhoe (Capital of Huntingdon Township). The lovely Autumn day was ideal and early in the forenoon teachers, pupils, parents and others interested citizens gathered at the Ivanhoe Public school where exhibits were carefully arranged in the schoolroom and also in the school yard. Mr. H. L. Fair, B.S.A. of Stirling, was director of ceremonies for the entire day's programme. He was assisted by his secretary, Miss Lillian Wood.

Mr. John Munro who was superintendent over the poultry and livestock; Mr. William Heath, superintendent of roots, grains and fruits and Mr. Geo. Sutherland who also assisted in a general manner.

New Feature

A new feature was introduced this year and was a much added attraction. This was a display of school and project work, each school received a donation of $3.00 and the judges had a difficult time in placing the displays in order. However the following schools were given placing as follows first S.S. 2-5; second S.S. No. 10; 3rd S.S. No. 12; fourth S.S. No. 1-3; sixth No. 8.

School Fair

The ladies representing the Ivanhoe Branch of Women's Institute did a good business with their booth. A number of sports were enjoyed by the boys and girls.

Prize List

The following is a list of the prize winners:

Grain and Corn

Oats, Alaska—first Lorne Mumby, second, Teddy Fleming.

Oats, Sheaf, Alaska—first, Joyce Wallace, second, Allan Wallace.

Open class, oats, any other variety correctly named—first Muriel Thompson, second, Donald Runnals third, H. McAvoy, fourth, Grace McInroy, fifth, Earl Thompson, sixth, Jean Haggerty.

Barley, no barb,—first, Bob Elliott; second, Douglas Mumby.

Barley, no barb, sheaf—no entries.

Open Class—Barley, any other variety, correctly named—first, Jean Haggerty, second, Allan Wallace, third, Joyce Wallace.

Spring Wheat, Mindum,— first— Allan Wallace.

Spring Wheat, Mindum sheaf— first Raymond Downey.

Open Glass, Wheat, any variety, correctly named—first, Jean Haggerty, second, Allan Wallace, third Joyce Wallace.

Field Corn, Longfellow, 6 ears, husked— first Gordon McInroy; second, Beverly Foster, third, David Mumby, fourth Mary Baker.

Field corn, Longfellow, 6 stalks, with ears attached— first Beverly Foster, second, Donald McAvoy, third Ray Morgan.

Sweet Corn, Golden Sunshine, 6 ears husked—first Murray Thomillson; second, Molly Mumby, third, Ernest Dunlay, 4th Estella MacMillan.

Field Peas, O.A.C. No. 191— 1 pint of seed peas—first Donald Wilson, 2nd Gordon MacMillan, third, Ruby Kellar, fourth Maurice Lachapelle.

Potatoes, Roots and Vegetables

Potatoes, Dooleys for table use —first Muriel Ashley, second, Allan Wallace, third Elmer Morgan, fourth Margaret Haggerty, fifth Muriel Thompson, sixth Betty Wright

Potatoes, Irish Cobblers, for table use—first Fred Reid, second, Donald Douglas, third Beverly Foster, Glen Elliott, sixth Bobby Elliott.

Potatoes, Green Mountains, for table use—first Roy Morgan.

Turnips, for feeding—first Billie McInroy, second Glen Elliott, third Bobby Elliott.

Mangels, yellow, intermediate — first, Donald Downey,' second Elmer Thompson, third, June Williams, fourth Malcolm MacMillan.

Turnips, Canadian gem, for table use—first Marilyn Mohar, second, Thelma Mulleit, third Lindsay Sills, fourth David Mumby.

Beets, Detroit Dark Red— first Betty Wright, second Eileen Fleming, third Joyce Williams, fourth Ivan Clair ,fifth, Donald Runnals, sixth, Floyd Ragerman.

Carrots, Chantenay, first, Muriel Ashley; second, Elmer Morgan; third Helen Kellar; fourth Grace McAvoy; fifth Jean Mitts, sixth Evelyn Downey.

Onion, Yellow, Globe, Danvers — first, J. McCuire, second, Gerald Douglas, third, Edith Scott, fourth Donald Wilson, fifth Connie Williams, sixth Alex. Empey.

Parsnips, Hollow, Crown — first Lillian MacMillan, second Leo McAvoy, third Ada Thompson, fourth, Victor Henley, fifth Eunice Thomilson.

Pumpkin, Sugar Pie—first, Lorne Mumby, second, Grace McInroy, third, Donald McInroy, fourth, Billie McInroy, fifth Marion Kellar, sixth Eva Henley.

Squash, Hubbard—first Tom Collins, second, Douglas Mumby, third, Jean Haggerty, fourth Madeline Reid, fifth, Billie Reid, sixth, M. Prest.

Flowers

Asters, first Allan Wallace, second, Everett Reid, third, Kenneth Runnalls, fourth Doris Mumby, fifth Agnes McAvoy.

Zinnia, first Thelma Mullett, second Molly Mumby, third Leo McAvoy, fourth Lewis Kellar, fifth, J. MacMillan, sixth Billie Reid.

Nasturtium, first Ervine McGuire, second, Joyce Wallace, third, Colleen Haggerty, fourth Melbourne Moorcroft, fifth Maurice Lachappelle, sixth Ray Morgan.

Calendula—first, Eunice Thomilson, second Donald Wilson, third Donald Douglas, fourth Bert Post, fifth Douglas Mumby, sixth, Gerald Douglas.

Cosmos — first, Beverly Palmer, second Orval Keller, third, Stuart Cooney, fourth Glen Wilson, fifth Billie Rolland.

Coreopsis—first, Norman Curtis, second, Wilbert Empey, third, Marilyn Mahor, fourth Clifford Collins, fifth Lillian MacMillian, sixth, Kathryn Duggan.

Helichrysum — first, Beverley Foster, second, Jim Short, third, Joyce Wallace.

Snapdragon,—first, Lindsay Sills, second, Floyd Hagerman, third, Allan Wallace, fourth Joyce Wallace, fifth, Elmer Morgan, sixth, Vernon Henley.

Phlox — first, Beulah McGuire, second, Muriel Ashley, third, Ruby Holland, fourth, Mac Scott, fifth, Joyce Wallace, sixth, Allan Wallace.

Open Class, Any Flower, (not more than three colors), (from home garden exhibited in suitable container, for dining room table)—first Margie Haggerty, second, Colleen Haggarty, third Muriel Prest, fourth Wanda Reid, fifth Billy Reid, sixth Beverley Foster.

Poultry

Barred Plymouth Rock, bred-to-lay strain cockerel— first Beverley Foster, second Ervine McGuire, third, Glen Elliott, fourth Beulah McGuire, fifth, Bob Elliott, sixth, Fred Reid.

Barred Plymouth Rock, bred-to-lay strain —pullet —first, Beulah McGuire, second, Beverley Foster, third, Glen Elliott, fourth Ervine McGuire, fifth, Jean Haggerty, sixth, Allan Wallace.

White Leghorn, cockerel — first, Bill Roland, second, Margie Haggerty, third, Wanda Reid, fourth, June Williams, fifth, Marjorie Wright, sixth, Donald Wilson.

White Leghorn, pullet — first, Bobby Post, second, Wanda Reid, third, Ernest Dunley, fourth, Joyce Williams, fifth, Donald Wilson, sixth, Marjorie Wright.

Livestock

Livestock Parade — first, Malcolm MacMillian, second, June Williams, third Ruby Holland, fourth Marjorie Wright, fifth, Billy Reid, sixth, Glen Elliott, seventh, Bobby Elliott, eighth John Kerby.

Calf, dairy type, grade or purebred heifer— first, June Williams, second, Ruby Holland, third Marjorie Wright, fourth Billy Reid, fifth, Glen Elliott.

Calf, beef type, grade or pure bred heifer,— first Elmer Morgan, second, Bobby Elliott.

Showmanship — first Ruby Holland, second, June Williams, third, Elmer Morgan, fourth, Billy Reid, fifth Bobby Elliott, sixth, Glen Elliott.

Market lamb, not to weigh over 90 lbs—first John Kirby, 2nd J. McGuire, third, Malcolm McMillian, fourth Ruby Holland, fifth Bobby Elliott, sixth Ruby Holland.

Showmanship — first Malcolm MacMillian, second, John Kirby, 3rd Gordon MacMillian, fourth Teddy Fleming, fifth, Bobby Elliott, sixth Ruby Holland.

Fruit

Wealthy—first Nick Rusnak, second, Muriel Thompson, third, Lindsay Sills, fourth Glen Elliott, fifth Bob Elliott, sixth Marjorie Wright.

McIntosh—first, Douglas Thompson, second, John Kirby, third, David Mumby, fourth, Marjorie Wright, fifth, Dorothy Thompson, sixth, Earl Thompson.

Tomatoes, — first John Kirby, second, Jean Haggerty, third, Beulah McGuire, fourth, Mae Scott, fifth, Marjorie Wright, sixth, Beverly, Foster.

Apple, Collection best six varieties from early Fall to Winter, three of each named, varieties chosen and quality both to count—first, John Kirby, second, Marjorie Wright, third Donald Runnalls, fourth, Malcolm MacMillian.

Contests

Open to Grade I, II, III and IV Recitation from reader — first, Margaret Redner, second, Beverly Palmer, third, Margie Haggerty.

Boy's Public Speaking Contest— first Nick Rusnah.

Boys' and girls' naming contest —first Donald Runnals, second, Melbourne Moorcrft, third Earl Thompson, fourth Donald, McAvoy, fifth, Merle Douglas, sixth, Doris Kellar.

Boys' and Girls' Vegetable Contest—first Lillian McMullen, second, Merle Douglas, third, Betty Wright, fourth, Harold Cooney, fifth, Malcolm MacMillian, sixth Donald Wilson.

Boys' and Girls' patching grain bag—first Joyce Wallace, second Betty Wright, third, Lillian MacMillian, fourth Fred Reid, fifth, Ernest Dunley, sixth Melbourne Moorcroft.

School Parade

First—S.S. No. 1-3; second S.S. No. 2-5; third S.S. No. 8; fourth S.S. No. 10; fifth, S.S. No. 12

Strathcona Exercises

First S.S. No. 1-3; second, S.S. No. 2-5; third, S.S. No. 8; fourth, S.S. No. 10; fifth, S.S. No. 12.

Chorus by School

First, School Section No. 12; second, School Section, No 10; fourth, School Section No. 2-5.

FLY SPRAYS
FLY TOX ........ 8 oz. 29c
16 oz. 49c
FLIT ........ 8 oz. 20c
16 oz. 33c
FLY DED ........ 16 oz. 25c
FLY COILS ........ 6 for 10c
WILSON'S FLY PADS ..10c

PHONE 138
WE'LL SEND IT.

DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST

North Hastings School Fair

STIRLING (Special) — Friday, Sept. 8th, was one of the most important of the entire year for the youthful agriculturalists of North Hastings. It was the day upon which they placed their knowledge of grain growing; gardening; poultry; livestock and associated project in a competitive field, the outcome of which measures their general agricultural knowledge. Competition in the above mentioned classes is being maintained by the Ontario Department of Agriculture because of its ultimate value to future Ontario farmers.

The fair was well attended by keenly interested juvenile competitors in varying classes and the proud parents of these future Canadian farming experts. The value of these annual fairs becomes apparent as the students continue their studies in Ontario Agricultural colleges by personal choice in preference to other professions and other fields of vocational training. It serves to inject science into agriculture.

The Ontario Department of Education working together with the Department of Agriculture for several years, have replaced competition in their division of the work with school displays arranged by the pupils under the supervision of the teachers and conforming to the recently adopted new course of studies. Each school featuring a display project receives an equal award and for this branch of the work they are given a choice of the following subjects: Heath; Social Studis; Natural Science; Art; Crafts; Home Economics; Agriculture; Science.

Though personal competition has been purposely removed by the Department in the above mentioned subjects; comparison of the school displays is automatically made by spectators and from their standpoint competition still exists between the school section collectively in their year work from which the divisions of the displays are selected by the teachers.

Prize Winners in Competitive Classes

Following is the list of prize winners in the competitive classes of the fair with names appearing in order of merit and the school section represented following each name.

Oats, Alaska, - quart—M. Dillon, 1 Monteagle; H. Gallagher, 10 Hershel; Rita Livingstone, 2 McClure; B. Douglas, 6 Monteagle.

Oats, Alaska, Sheaf—Wm. Douglas, 10 Hershel; Harold Gallagher, 10 Hershel; Mervin Armstrong, Carlow 4; M. Jessup, Wicklow 4; Harry Kuns, Wicklow 4; Elmer Brethow, 12 Hershel.

Oats, open class any variety— Merle Burlamyett, 3 Wicklow; Lorne Laboir, Monteagle 3; Douglas Armstron, 4 Carlow.

Barley, Nobarb, 1 quart— Hugh Muslow, 2 McClure; Catherine Poot, 2 McClure; Marjorie Liginstone, 2 McClure.

Barley, Nobarb, sheaf—Velma Lentz, 13 Monteagle; E. Brethour, 12 Hershel; Wallace Scott, 10 Hershel; Kinley Scott, 10 Hershel.

Open class barley, 1 quart—Lorne Leboir, 3 Monteagle.

Spring Wheat, Mindum, 1 quart —Revo Poot, 2 McClure.

Spring wheat, Mindum, sheaf — John Brose, 3 Monteagle; Reva Poot, 2 McClure; Catherine Poot, 2 McClure.

Field corn, Longfellow, 6 ears husked—Thelma Hamilton, 3 Carlow.

Field corn, Longfellow, 6 stalks— Harold Buelow, 5 Bangor; Theressa Lentz, 3 Monteagle; Uneta Douglas, 6 Monteagle; Allen Doney, 4 Wicklow; Mona Stringer, 7 McClure; Gerald Pesheau, ' Bangor.

Sweet corn, Golden Sunshine, 6 ears—Eugene Flynn, 1 Monteagle; Francis Cassidy, 6 Monteagle; Annie Hinze, 3 Monteagle; Dan Dillon, 5 Monteagle; Walter Watson, 3 Monteagle; Trevor Davis, 3 Wicklow.

Soy bean, O.A.C. No. 211, 1 pint— Neta Poot, 2 McClure.

Field Peas, O.A.C. No. 191, 1 pint —G. Brodofski, 6 Monteagle; H. O'Brien, 12 Hershel; Iner Robinson, 6 Monteagle; Maral Kuns, 4 Carlow; D. Linkie, 4 Wicklow; J. Dillon, 10 Hershel.

Potatoes, Dooleys—Lorne Leboir, 3 Monteagle; Arthur Brodofski, 6 Monteagle; Uneta Douglas, 6 Monteagle; Francis Hughes, 10 Hershel; Victor Williamson, 1 Monteagle; Nora Stewart, 3 Carlow.

Potatoes, Irish Cobblers— Dan Hershel, 10 Hershel; John Brose, 3 Monteagle; George McAlpine, 3 Monteagle.

Potatoes, Green Mountains—June Cassibo, 3 Monteagle; Lee McLean, 7 Dungannon; Rita Leveque, 1 Monteagle, Alice Vardy, 3 Wicklow; Edmund Hinze, 3 Monteagle; Merle Burlamyett, 3 Wicklow.

Turnips (for feeding)—Jack Godda, 1 Monteagle; Joyce Douglas, 6 Monteagle; Roy White, 7 Dungannon; Wallace Watson, 3 Monteagle.

Mangels, Yellow Intermedite—Edmund Hinze, 3 Monteagle; Albert Hinze, 6 Monteagle; Sussie White, 7 Dungannon; Inez Doney, 4 Wicklow; Latisha Scott, 10 Hershel; Jack Godda, 1 Monteagle.

Turnips, Canadian Gem—Marie Anderson, 7 Dungannon; Garth Andrews, 1 Monteagle; Leola Scott, 10 Hershel; Norma Leveque, 1 Monteagle; Ryden Davis, 3 Wicklow; Allan Dillon, 5 Mont. and Hershel.

Beets, Detroit red—Douglas Rollinson, 6 Monteagle; Gifford Davis, 3 Wicklow; Agatha Dillon, 10 Hershel; Rosemary Flynn, 1 Monteagle; Greg Green, 1 Monteagle; Marion Robinson, 6 Monteagle.

Carrots, Chantenay—Helen Douglas, 6 Monteagle; Doris Gallagher, 1 Hershel; Thomas Buckley, 1 Monteagle; Thelma Covert, 12 Hershel; Unita Douglas, 6 Monteagle; Margaret Dillon, 1 Monteagle.

Onions, Yellow Globe Danvers — Ella Brodofski, 6 Monteagle; Merle Burlamyette, 3 Wicklow; Eunice Davis, 3 Wicklow; Doreen Frantz, 3 Wicklow; Claude Lowrey, 1 Monteagle; Rosebud Prentice, 6 Monteagle.

Parsnips, Hollow Crown— Charles Leboir, 3 Monteagle; Francis Hughes, 10 Hershel; Leonard Cassidy, 6 Monteagle; Phyllis Leveque, 1 Monteagle; Eric Davis, 3 Wicklow.

Pumpkin, sugar pie—Reg. Flynn, 1 Monteagle; Jean Dupuis, 10 Hershel; Edgar Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Alice Vardy, 3 Wicklow; Jack Musclow, 2 McClure; Lorne Lebow, 3 Monteagle.

Squash, Hubbard—Noreta Lentz, 3 Monteagle; Helen Peasheu, 5 Bangor; Enra Scott, 10 Hershel; Earl Fischer, 3 Wicklow, Andy Pebowe, 4 Wicklow.

Flowers

Asters—M. Armstrong, 4 Carlow; Gerald Godda, 1 Monteagle; George Brodofski, 6 Monteagle; Verna Holmestead, 1 Monteagle; Katie Pott 2 McClure.

Zinnias—Lorne Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Gerald Pesheau, 5 Bangor; Gwen Armstrong, 4 Carlow; Jack Green, 1 Monteagle; Lambert Wasmund, 4 Carlow; Patricia Gallagher, 10 Hershel.

Nasturtiums—Doreen Frantz, 3 Wicklow; June Peshaeu, 5 Bangor; Rita Leveque, 1 Monteagle; Eunice Davis, 3 Wicklow; Tom Deady, 1 Monteagle.

Calendula—Charlie Carswell, 1 Monteagle; Norma Davis, 3 Wicklow; Loynal Armstrong, 4 Carlow; Phyllis Leveque, 1 Monteagle; Charles Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Marion Robinson, 6 Monteagle.

Cosmos—June Cassibo, 3 Monteagle; Lizie Brethour, 10 Hershel; Dorothy Jenkins, 6 Monteagle; Elsie Bimm, 5 Bangor; Leola Scott, 10 Hershel; Thelma Covert, 12 Hershel.

Coreopsis—George McAlpine, 3 Monteagle; Inez Doney, 4 Wicklow; Rena Poot, 2 McClure; Eunice Scott, 10 Hershel; Gordon Coe, 5 Monteagle; Phillip Lowry, 1 Monteagle.

Helichrysum—Joyce Peters, 7 McClure; Trevor Davis, 3 Wicklow; Theresa Gallagher, 10 Hershel; Rosebud Prentice, 6 Monteagle.

Snapdragon—Bessie Davis, 3 Wicklow; Bill Green, 1 Monteagle; Naomi Deady, 1 Monteagle; Phyllis Robinson, 6 Monteagle.

Phlox—Edgar Lebow, 3 Monteagle, Rayden Davi, 3 Wicklow, Helen Pesheau, 5 Bangor; Edmund Hinze, 3 Monteagle; Elva Lowry, 1 Monteagle Reg Flynn, 1 Monteagle.

Stocks—Muriel Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Ella Brodofski, 6 Monteagle; Jean Dupuis, 10 Hershel.

Open Class—Ferne Armstrong, 4 Carlow; Trevor Davis, 3 Wicklow; Joyce Peters, 7 McClure; Edmund Hinze, 3 Monteagle; Lorne Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Alice Vardy, 3 Wicklow.

Barred Plymouth Cockerel—Floyd Olmestead, 3 Wicklow; Violet Linkie, 4 Wicklow; Norien Leveque, 1 Monteagle; Reta Leveque, 1 Monteagle; Uneta Douglas, 6 Monteagle; John Brose, 3 Monteagle.

Barred Plymouth Rock Pullet — Trevor Davis, 3 Wicklow; Norma Davis, 3 Wicklow; Tom Buckley, 1 Monteagle; Reta Leveque, 1 Monteagle; John Brose, 3 Monteagle, Norine Leveque, 1 Monteagle.

White Leghorn, Cockerel—Leola Douglas, Monteagle 6; George McAlpine, Monteagle 3; Roy White, Dungannon 7; Doris Logan, Carlow 5; Orville Mackey, 3 Carlow; Art McLellan, Dungannon 7.

White Leghorn, Pullet— George McAlpine, Monteagle 3; Orville Mackey, Carlow 3; Wallace Watson, Monteagle 3.

Calf, dairy type—George McAlpine, Monteagle 3; Trevor Davis, Wicklow 3; Gatha Dillon, Hershel 10; Noreen Leveque, Monteagle 1; Wallace Scott, Hershel 10; Phyllis Leveque, Monteagle 1; Frank Moran, Hershel 10.

Calf, beef type—Harold Gallagher, Hershel 10; Dan Gallagher, Hershel 10; Norine Leveque, Monteagle 1; Rita Leveque, Moneagle 1; Lawrence Flynn, Monteagle 1; Martin Dillon, Monteagle 1.

Showmanship — Lawrence Flynn, Monteagle 1; Trevor Davis, Wicklow 3; Dan Gallagher, Hershel 10; Harold Gallagher, Hershel 10; Geo. McAlpine, Monteagle 3; Reta Leveque, Monteagle 1.

Market Lamb— Wallace Scott, Herhel 10; Joseph Dillon, Hershel 10; Rita Leveque, Monteagle 1; Josephine Dillon, Hershel 10; Bill Green, Monteagle 1; Phyllis Leveque, Monteagle 1.

Showmanship —Joseph Dillon, Hershel 10; Doris Green, Monteagle 1; Lawrence Green, Monteagle 1; Josephine Dillon, Hershel 10; Wallace Scott, Hershel 10; Noreen Leveque, Monteagle 1.

Wealthy Apples—Lambert Wasmund, 4 Carlow; John Brose, 3 Monteagle; Wallace Watson, 3 Monteagle; Joyce Douglas, 6 Monteagle; Warren Hinze, 6 Monteagle; Merle Burlanette, 3 Wicklow.

McIntosh Apples—Warren Hinze, 6 Monteagle; Lee McLean, 7 Dungannon; Lorne Lebow, 3 Monteagle.

Tomatoes—Vera Olmstead, 3 Wicklow; Trevor Davis, 3 Wicklow; Annabelle Donaldson, 1 Monteagle; George McAlpine, 3 Monteagle; Marie Robinson, 3 Monteagle, Elva Allison, 3 Carlow.

Apple Collection—John Brose, 3 Monteagle; Royden Davis, 3 Wicklow; Edmund Hinze, 3 Monteagle; Lorne Lebow, 3 Monteagle.

Recitation—Ursula Buckley, 1 Monteagle; Lola Scott, 10 Hershel; Reta Livingstone, 2 McClure; Myrtle Reid, 6 Monteagle; Marie Anderson, 7 Dungannon, Shirley Kuno, 4 Carlow.

Girls' Public Speaking Contest — Helen Pesheau, 5 Bangor; Selma Lentz, 3 Monteagle.

Boys' Public Speaking Contest — Trevor Davis, 3 Wicklow.

Naming Contest, boys and girls— Royden Davis, 3 Wicklow; Doris Gallagher, 10 Hershel; Helen Pesheau, 5 Bangor; Gerald Pesheau, 5 Bangor; Elmer Brethour, 12 Hershel; Marion Dillon, 1 Monteagle.

Vegetable Judging Contest, boys and girls—Elva Lowry, 1 Monteagle; Helen Pesheau, 5 Bangor; Elmer Brethour, 12 Hershel; Muriel Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Eileen Green, 1 Monteagle; Thelma Covert, 12 Hershel.

Boys and girl patching grain bag —Lorne Lebow, 3 Monteagle; Willard Stewart, 3 Wicklow; Unita Douglas, 6 Monteagle.

The following schools took part in the colorful school parade: S.S. 3, Monteagle; S.S. 6, Monteagle; 3 Carlow; 4 Carlow; 5 Bangor; 3 Wicklow; 4 Wicklow; 10 Hershel; 12 Herschel; 1 Monteagle, 2 McClure; 5 Monteagle; 7 McClure; 7 Dungannon.

Winners in the school chorus were Monteagle 1; Carlow 4; Monteagle 5., gaining first second and third in that order.

Survivor Recounts Experience in Sinking Of Steamer Manaar

GIBRALTAR, Sept. 12—(AP) — This is a survivor's account of the sinking of the 7,242-ton British freighter Manaar off Portugal last Thursday:

"We heard a gunshot about 5:30 a.m. and rushed on deck. The wireless aerial had been destroyed, and there were two German submarines on the surface about 500 or 600 yards away on our starboard side.

"Captain Campbell Shaw ordered our gun crew into action, and the aft gun was fired. But the submarines submerged, and the captain ordered us to abandon ship.

"We lowered four boats, and as we rowed away from the Manaar one of the submarines loosed a torpedo which hit the vessel amidship.

"Later, another shot was fired from the submarines, and the Manaar sank in front of us in less than five minutes."

IT'S A POOR JOKE

When someone blushes with embarrassment,

When someone's feelings are hurt,

When something sacred is made to appear commonplace.

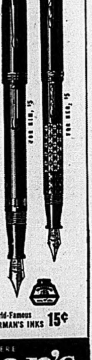
When it is directed against someone's infirmity.

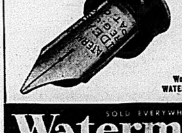
When it is uttered in a bitter spirit.

When everyone cannot join in the laughter.—Christian Advocate.

...HERE'S THE QUALITY PEN
Waterman's
THE PEN FOR STUDENTS
STARTS IN A FLASH—
With a Point to suit each Individual Style of Writing

What a gift for back to school! What pens for business and the hope! The newest Waterman's are the best "buys" of Waterman's 55 years of world leadership. Size for size, no other pen has as much gold in the point . . . or holds as much ink. And the quality leader is the style leader, too. The smartest people on the campus and about town prefer Waterman's restrained styling—never flashy —never conspicuous. Your favorite store will show you a wide variety. Priced from $3.00.





World-Famous WATERMAN'S INKS 15¢

SOLD EVERYWHERE
Waterman's
THE FIRST AND LAST WORD IN FOUNTAIN PENS

WOODLEY FURS

DON'T SAY WE DIDN'T TELL YOU!

The price of fur skins has already risen, so if you are wise you will select your new coat right now.

BUDGET PAYMENTS
FREE STORAGE

273 FRONT ST.

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Morbey announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Thelma Zena, to Mr. Alfred Easson Kirkby, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kirkby, Niagara Falls, Ontario. The wedding to take place September, twenty-third, Tabernacle United Church.

Miss Anne Doonan, Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. M. Juby of Alexander Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Carleton and daughters, Olive and Merle of Thomasburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. E. M. Juby and family, Alexander Street.

Miss Hazel Thompson has returned to the city after spending the holidays in Queensboro, with her mother, Mrs. Charles Thompson.

Weddings

BLACK—MAYNES

Rev. J. D. Parks officiated at the wedding in High Park Avenue United Church, Toronto, of Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Maynes, to Mr. William Chalmers Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Black. Pink and white gladioli and palms formed the setting. Mr. C. Roy Grass played the wedding music.

The bride wore a cloud white marquisette gown over taffeta, a finger-tip veil and carried white gladioli. She was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Miss Elsie Maynes, bridesmaid, was frocked in romance rose georgette over taffeta and with heart-shaped hat to match, trimmed with blue velvet and carried Rapture roses.

Mr. George Black was his brother's best man and the ushers were Mr. Bob Black and Mr. Jimmie Davy.

Receiving the guests at the reception at the Old Mill were Mrs. Maynes in a gown of burgundy triple sheer with corsage of Joanna Hill roses, and Mrs. Black in a mayflower triple sheer gown with corsage of Queen Elizabeth roses.

The couple left for New York, the bride going away in a Robin Hood green wool dress and hat with kolinsky scarf, the gift of the groom.

COONEY—WEESE

The quiet wedding took place at Holloway Street United Church parsonage, 44 Hillside Street, at eight o'clock, last evening, of Mrs. Henrietta Weese, Coleman Street, and Mr. William James Cooney, Trenton, Rev. R. E. Newman officiating. Mr and Mrs. Cooney will reside in Belleville.

BEDORE—BLACK

At the Church of St. Michael the Archangel at nine o'clock this morning a lovely wedding took place when Helen Frances Bernadette, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Black, became the bride Mr. Hubert Charles Bedore, Gananoque, son of Mr. Leo Bedore and the late Mrs. Bedore of Napanee. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Nicholson, V.G.

Gladioli and asters in profusion were used in the decoration of the church.

The bride given in marriage by her father was charming in a floor length gown of white net over taffeta, the bolero jacket appliqued with taffeta. Her finger tip veil of tulle was caught in cap effect and she carried Briarcliffe roses.

Miss Mary McAvoy was bridesmaid and wore pale pink net over taffeta, with pill box hat of matching net. Her bouquet was of Butterfly roses and delphiniums.

Mr. Twomey Black, brother of the bride, was groomsman and the ushers were Mr. Alphonsus Black and Mr. Jimmy Black, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. James Grant presided at the organ, with Miss Anna Lafferty as soloist singing Schubert's "Ave Maria" during the Offertory and a marriage hymn in honour of the Sacred Heart at Communion.

A reception and wedding breakfast took place at the Belvedere Hotel following the ceremony, Mrs. Black, mother of the bride, receiving in a gown of Burgundy lace with corsage of Talisman roses. Guests were present from Gananoque, Kingston, Napanee and Marmora.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Bedore left on a motor trip to Syracuse and Rochester. The bride chose for travelling a smart mist blue frock in wool faille with navy hat and accessories.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Bedore will reside in Gananoque.

C.W.L. Plans Work Of Coming Season

There was a large attendance last evening at the first meeting of the Fall season of the Catholic Women's League, held in St. Michael's Academy. The president, Mrs. A. B. Collins was in the chair and spoke to the members of the Red Cross meeting at which she was League representative, on Saturday afternoon. The members were enthusiastic about forming a group to work with the Red Cross and co-operate in their plans.

Reports were received from the various conveners, showing the extent of League activities during the summer months. Plans were outlined for the coming convention. The visit of the national president to Belleville was a source of encouragement to those who met her.

Rt. Rev. J. F. Nicholson, V.G., gave an interesting and thoughtful address on background of the present conflict in Europe.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. G. Wilson, convener of the entertainment committee.

EGG NOODLE PUDDING

1 package Eggweat Noodles broad size
1-2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoonful flour
2 eggs , well beaten
Grated rind and juice of 1-2 lemon
1-2 cup chopped walnuts.
1-2 cup raisins
3 apples thinly sliced.
1-2 teaspoon salt

Parboil the Noodles for 7 minutes in 4 quarts rapidly boiling water to which 1 tablespoonful salt has been added. Drain. Cream the butter, add the sugar and flour sifted together. Then mix in the well-beaten eggs and the lemon rind and juice. Add the walnuts, raisins, apples and salt. Combine with the Noodles, pour into a well-greased baking dish, set in a pan of water and bake in a moderate oven for one hour. Serve with whipped cream.

A good dessert for eight persons. Reduce for lesser portions.

WESLEY W.A.

An open air meeting featured the regular get-to-gether of the Wesley W.A. Thursday p.m. on the spacious lawn of Mrs. D. L. Moore, president of the local organization.

Invited guests came from every point of the compass and were received in that whole-hearted spirit that has always been an outstanding characteristic of the Wesley Association.

Mrs. D. L. Moore, who has so efficiently carried out the duties of President of the Wesley W.A. during the year, presented an address of welcome after which the meeting was conducted as follows—Singing of the Ode, Bible reading, Mrs. Matthew Denton; Bible talk, Mrs. Sweetman, both of Holloway St. W.A.; Belleville Instrumental Music. Miss L. Morton a reading entitled, "Holding the Reins" was given by Mrs. (Rev.) Mercer and was of special interest. Mrs. Lent, president of the Hastings and Prince Edward District W.A. was then introduced as the guest speaker.

Mrs. Lent spoke from the subject, "Relation of the Woman to her Church", and presented many interesting sidelights in connection with the mighty influence for good women are playing in every sphere of the church's activities. Mrs. Lent concluded her remarks with the poem "Your Job". The deep appreciation of the members was voiced to Mrs. Lent for her worth while contribution to the success of the meeting.

A contest which afforded unusual amusement was staged by the members of Avondale W.A. and was one of the highlights of the afternoon.

The contest presented by the members of Wesley W.A., was enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served.

The National Anthem brought to a close one of the most instructive and largely attended meetings of the year. There were fifty present.

Fly away birdie, onto some of the smartest new hats! A delightful model of moss green velvet is trimmed with four bronze birds. The hat, a small sailor has a whoosh of bronze brown veiling.

Take a look and you'll find bustle fullness in many frocks. A youthful dinner dance frock of black taffeta has a bustle of self ruffles reaching from waistline to floor. A demure square neckline and short puffed sleeves are its other features.

Rest up in a comfy, smart negligee. A new model in dark gray satin on double breasted lines with blue satin pipings and blue jewel buttons.

ASHLEY FURS. 294 FRONT STREET Phone 2340
- FINER FURS AT LOWER PRICES.
- PURCHASE NOW. BUDGET TERMS.
- RESTYLING, REPAIRS, LININGS, CLEANING.
- AT A PRICE WITHIN REASON. WHY PAY MORE?

"WALK UPSTAIRS AND SAVE"

WEEP FOR LOVE

by

RUBY M. AYRES

It was on her birthday, too, that Elizabeth saw a picture of her stepsister, Penelope ,in a weekly magazine.

"She's pretty", was Elizabeth's first thought, and for a moment she was too occupied with Penelope's frock and the way she dressed her hair to think of anything else. Then with a half sigh, she turned to the caption beneath.

"This very charming and clever girl is the only daughter of Mr. Derek Challoner of Narrow Lane Hall, and although she is not yet twenty, people are already predicting that she will have a very bright future, for Miss Challoner is the fortunate possessor of a wonderful voice."

Elizabeth raised her eyes to her mother's eyes.

"'Nelope isn't his only daughter" she said resentfully.

Stella looked at her blankly.

"What are you talking about darling?"

Elizabeth gave her the paper.

"She isn't his only daughter," she repeated. "There's me as well."

A long silence followed till at last Stella said very slowly and as if she were choosing her words with care:

"When your father sent you back to me, Betty, he gave you up altogether, and forever. You see, we couldn't both have you."

Elizabeth's grey eyes met her mother's steadily.

"But that doesn't make me not his daughter," she protested, and again she saw the gardens at Narrow Lane Hall, the thick rhododendron bushes, the mossy paths between the wide lawns, the great herbaceous borders which seemed to contain every flower in the world, the age-old oaks, and a queer feeling of resentment awoke in her youthful heart, for why should Penelope have them all, while she....?

She became almost painfully aware of the throbbing silence and she gave herself a little shake and smiled at her mother.

"I've got you, haven't I?" she said.

But the faint sense of injustice came back when she was alone, and with it a host of bewildering, unanswerable questions. Why had her father and mother parted? Was it Pop who had come between them? What was the use of teaching people that love was a beautiful thing which lasted for ever when all the time it died, just as the flowers died, or the animals, or even people themselves?

Presently she asked:

"Who do you love best in the world, Mummie?"

Stella laughed.

"I love two people best," she answered. "You and Pip."

"I'm glad she put me first," Elizabeth thought, and she said:

"Then I suppose nobody loves my real father."

Stella turned her face away.

"I—tried to, Betty."

"Did he love you, Mummie?"

"Yes, I think he did, darling."

There was a short silence before Elizabeth said quietly:

"It's a pity—isn't it?"

"What is a pity, darling?"

"That things don't last for ever and ever," the child said earnestly. "I wish they could. I wish nobody need ever die or grow old—or different—" She stopped, a little afraid of her own eloquence, but Stella did not know what to say, and presently Elizabeth went on. "Then I suppose it's all wrong what the books say?"

"What do the books say?" her mother asked gently.

"That love never changes," Elizabeth explained. "Then if you love someone you love them always and always. It's not true, is it?"

Stella shook her head.

"I don't know, darling. Nobody really knows."

Elizabeth looked at her solemnly and presently she said regretfully:

"Perhaps that's why when you see a picture of Cupid he is nearly always weeping. What do you think Mummie?"

Stella tried to laugh.

"What do you mean, you funny child?" she asked.

"I mean," Elizabeth answered patiently, "I mean, perhaps he's weeping for love—because he knows it's got to die."

"But we've all got to die, some day," Stella answered, and the child said:

"I know, but that's different."

Her mother kissed her.

"Don't worry about it," she said, gently. "Some day you'll understand." And with an effort to change the conversation, she said: "We'll get Pop to take the tea service back, shall we? And buy something else instead."

Elizabeth flushed sensitively.

"Oh, no, Mummie! He gave it to me."

For Elizabeth loved Pop, too, because he was so carefree and happy and kind to her, and she could not bear the thought of hurting him. So the little tea service was carefully arranged on the mantel-shelf in her bedroom, and when Pip saw it he said, "Bless her heart!" for in spite of the fact that Pip had done many things in his life of which he was ashamed, he was very warm-hearted and human.

For four years Elizabeth lived with Pip and Stella in the little house, and presently she went to a day school, where she learned very little, and in her spare time she read a tremendous number of books which taught her a great deal.

INSTALMENT 2

One day Elizabeth read in one of the smart magazines that her sister Penelope was engaged to be married.

Elizabeth flushed with excitement as she read the rest of the little paragraph which stated that marriage was not to interfere with the bride's career, and that she was shortly to finish her training in Milan.

Milan! That was in Italy, Elizabeth knew, and Italy was one of the places of which she had read, and which she passionately longed to see. But Pip never had any money, and whatever allowance Stella received from Elizabeth's father seemed to be spent well in advance. They were both heavily in debt, though that did not appear to worry them in the least.

Suddenly, as she looked again at the little paragraph, Elizabeth thought, 'I wonder what will become of me when I'm grown-up."

She let the paper slip from her knees to the floor, and her eyes grew very wide and a little scared as she started before her trying to see into the future, and that night when Stella came to tuck her up in bed she said:

"Mummy, what shall I do when I grow up?"

Stella sat down beside her.

"When you grow up? Well, I supsoe you'll marry."

"Who shall I marry?" Elizabeth asked, suddenly realizing that she had no friends except the girls at school, none of whom she cared for very much.

"Well," Stella said helplessly. "There's plenty of time—you'll meet lots of men when you're older." She stopped, feeling at a loss, and Elizabeth said:

"Penelope is much older than you ried. I saw it in the paper."

"ePnelope is much older than you are, Betty."

"I know—but—"

Her mother bent to kiss her.

"Go to sleep and don't worry. Everything always comes right in the end."

It was a comfortable sort of logic which she and Pip shared, and as, so far, it had not served them too unkindly, it seemed to be the right one.

Life takes a hand in the most unexpected manner, and it was only a few days later that Elizabeth returned from school to find a car outside the house, and the front door wide open, and strange people in the narrow hall talking together in subdued voices.

When they saw Elizabeth they became oddly silent, and presently a man came forward and drew her into the sitting-room and shut the door before he told her, as gently as he could, that Pip had met with an accident and was badly injured.

"Mummie!" Elizabeth said quickly, for she knew what this would mean to Stella, and the man told her that her mother had gone to the hospital to be with Pip, but that she would be back soon. But he did not tell her that Pip was already dead.

In after years, Elizabeth could never look back to that day or the weary months which followed without a little feel of sickness. They were a grey patch in her life and the end of her childhood.

Stella hardly shed a tear. She just sat in a frozen stupor from which nothing could rouse her. Even the clasp of Elizabeth's arms and her whispered words of love were of no avail. She would just push her impatiently away and say:

"Leave me alone — leave me alone."

It was then that Elizabeth realized to the full her utter friendlessness.

At first, neighbors tried to be kind, but they had their own lives to live, and after a time they grew a little impatient.

"She should rouse herself for the sake of the child," they said, they began to stay away.

The only soul whom Elizabeth could talk to now was the daily woman who came to "do" as she called it and, as she was rather pessimistically inclined, the girl avoided her whenever it was possible. Even Elizabeth's beloved books seemed to lose their fascination, for whenever she tried to read she would find herself wondering what her mother was doing, and what would become of them both .

She went out as much as she could, because she dreaded the silence of the little house. Sometimes she would take a bus into the country, and then she would take off her hat and walk miles through woods or over fields and think of the garden at Narrow Lane Hall and of her father and Penelope, and even Baxter, and wonder why grown-up people seemed to make such a muddle of their lives.

But she could never find it in her heart to blame Pip. She knew that he had made her mother happy in spite of the fact that she had heard derogatory remarks made about him by neighbors at the time of his death.

"These affairs never turn out well, you know. She ran away with him? Yes, she was married before —and Elizabeth is the child of the first marriage. So hard on the children, I think, in such a case—it always seems to reflect on them in afterlife."

Elizabeth had not paid much attention at the time, but the words had come back to her afterwards, and she had wondered a little.

It was all very perplexing but her chief concern was for her mother who was so altered, so lifeless and unsmiling.

No use saying to her any more. "You've got me." No use saying anything.

It was on one of her excursions into the country that Elizabeth met the man with the dog. It was springtime and the woods were yellow with primroses, and ignoring the sign "Trespassers will be prosecuted," she climbed a rather broken-down-looking stile to pick some of the primroses which lay like a yellow carpet about her feet.

She was kneeling down engrossed in her task when a voice broke through the silence.

"Hi, you! You're trespassing! This is private property. Didn't you see the sign?" And a man's heavy footsteps came crashing through the undergrowth.

Elizabeth raised a startled face and gave a little cry of alarm as a big mongrel dog came bounding towards her—but instantly the man said, "It's all right. He won't hurt you. Come here, Sinbad. Come here, sir."

The dog turned obediently and Elizabeth said rather breathlessly:

"I did see the sign—but there are so many primroses, aren't there?"

And meeting the man's eyes, she smiled, for he was not a bit fierce-looking in spite of his authoritative voice. He even sounded a little apologetic as he answered.

"Well, yes, I suppose there are. But you see, people do so much damage in the woods."

"I know," Elizabeth agreed sympathetically. She had suddenly remembered that in the far-away years she had heard her father grumbling about the same thing. She had thought then, as she thought now, that it seemed a little hard that one man should have so many acres and such thousands of primroses, and bluebells, and that other people—like herself who lived now in a little suburban street — should not be allowed to pick just a handful.

"They trample things down and don't care a hang what damage they do," the man went on. and then he added, "I'm sorry if I frightened you."

"You didn't frighten me exactly," she answered "It was—only when the dog—" She looked at Sinbad, who was wagging his tail, and impulsively she stopped to pat him. "He's nice," she said. "I love dogs."

"You've got one, I expect," the man said.

Elizabeth shook her head.

"No. You see, I live in London. I just came down by the bus."

"I see," he looked a little amused. "I live in London, too, most of the time," he told her.

"Is this your wood?" she asked.

"Yes."

She glanced down at the little bunch of primroses she had gathered. "May I have these, please?" she asked.

He laughed. "Well, it seems a pity to leave them to die, doesn't it?" he submitted.

And then quite suddenly it began to rain. A violent little storm literally tumbled out of the skies without the slightest warning and pattered heavily through the overhead leaves and branches.

"Oh!" Elizabeth gasped.

She looked round for shelter and the man said quickly, "There's a hut along the footpath. I'll show you. Run!"

She ran with him, breathless and laughing, and presently they were standing together beneath the shelter of a roughly constructed shed in which bundles of faggots were stacked from the ground to the roof.

"Are you wet?" the man asked.

Elizabeth shook the drops from her hat, which she was still carrying.

"No, there wasn't time. It was lucky I met you, wasn't it? Because I shouldn't have known about the hut."

He laughed his eyes on her charming face.

"Do you often come here?" he enquired.

(To Be Continued)

CATELLI Spaghetti ITALIAN STYLE

READY TO SERVE CATELLI SPAGHETTI IN TOMATO SAUCE WITH CHEESE

HEAT AND SERVE

22

in TOMATO SAUCE and CHEESE

Amazing New HIGH COOKING SPEED with a Modern Electric Range

HOW long since you compared the speed of cooking electrically? Do so today—and prepare for a surprise! For modern developments have given today's Electric Range amazing quick heat. On the powerful, safe, flameless top elements, foods cook as fast as they can be cooked. The electric oven is as fast as any other kind—and so much superior in cleaning ease, baking and roasting results, and ease of temperature control.

One demonstration will prove that today's Electric Range is "1st choice" for quick cooking, perfect results, tastier meals—and a truly modern kitchen!

HYDRO THRIFT PLAN

SMALL DOWN PAYMENT. BALANCE IN LOW MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS.

HYDRO SHOP
277 FRONT ST. PHONE 284

HYDRO servants work for Pennies

Get your share of these useful FREE GIFTS... for Sunlight Soap carton ends

FREE BATH TOWELS

FREE TEA TOWELS

How to Get Your Free Gifts

Just save the required number of "English" ends from Sunlight Soap cartons and take them to WALKER HARDWARE CO., BELLEVILLE. If you cannot call for your gifts, simply send your carton ends by Parcel Post to: Lever Brothers Limited, Station G., Toronto. Do not enclose a letter, do not seal, simply tie with string and include a slip of paper stating your Name and Address in block letters, number of carton ends enclosed and gift required.

This Offer Good Until Dec. 31st, 1939.

Sturdy quality Bath Towels like these give long satisfactory service. 22 x 44 inches, heavily looped, the thirsty, absorbent kind with attractive colour stripes and borders. Get them FREE for only 30 "English" carton ends each.

Give a clean, crisp air to your kitchen with All-Linen Tea Towels like these. 22 x 32 inches hemmed, quick-drying, serviceable, free from lint. Gay colour check pattern and border. Easy to get ... only 20 "English" carton ends each. Sunlight Soap's rich, long-lasting suds make dishes sparkle.

FREE Pillow Cases Too! ... "Colonial" quality, 42-inch size. Beautifully hemstitched. Of smooth, snowy-white cotton. Only 35 "English" carton ends each.

For easier washes ... for useful FREE GIFTS ... order Sunlight Soap today!

Sunlight's Gentle Suds Make Wash Days Easier

Try Sunlight Soap today. Discover how easily, how quickly, its gentle suds float out the dirt. See how they clean your lovely things safely, without hateful scrubbing and rubbing, and Sunlight protects your hands ... even on heavy wash days. Use it for household cleaning too!

START SAVING THE ENDS PRINTED IN "ENGLISH"

SUNLIGHT SOAP

CANNIFTON W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Cannifton United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hall, with the president, Mrs. Chas. Mills, in charge.

The meeting opened with silent prayer in memory of the late Miss Mary Callery, followed by a hymn. Prayer by Mrs. Armstrong. Scripture lesson read by Mrs. Roy Pound.

Roll call and members answered with a verse from the Beatitudes.

Mrs. Jack Williams and Mrs. Willis Brenton were appointed delegates to attend the annual convention to be held at Zion.

Miss Myrtle Johns, acting secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. H. Empson, treasurer, gave a satisfactory report.

Mrs. W. Clapp took charge of the following program. Mrs. J. Williams gave an interesting reading. Hymn, "Take my life and let it be." Mrs. Williams gave the last chapter of the study book. Mrs. E. Hall rendered a splendid solo. Then the Lord's Prayer was repeated by all and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. W. Hall and Mrs. E. Hall.

SHANNONVILLE W.M.S.

The monthly meeting of the W.M.S. of Shannonville United Church was held at the home of Mrs. H. Shetler on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 7th., with Mrs. C. Liddle, group leader, in charge and after the opening hymn Mrs. C. Liddle read the 23rd Psalm and Mrs. Sam Elliott offered prayer. Roll was called by the Secretary and brought forth a good response of Bible verses containing the word "Holy".

Mrs. S. Elliott then took charge of the business. A letter of thanks from Mrs. Stickney for sympathy at the time of her grand-daughter's death, Mrs. Wilbert Doan of London (nee Miss Evelyn Lindenfield, who was a member of our society), was read by the Secretary, Mrs. Robertson, also a letter from Mrs. Craig thanking the W.M.S. for kindness and sympathy also for flowers at the time of her sad bereavement. Mrs. S. Elliott spoke of the great loss we had sustained in the loss of our beloved minister and how very difficult it seems to carry on without them. Mrs. Claude Clarke expressed her thanks for the cards she received when she was ill. A special collection for the flower fund was taken and will be taken again at the next meeting. After singing another hymn Mrs. Liddle gave the temperance reading. Papers prepared by Mrs. W. S. Dies on the next chapter of the Study Book were read by Mrs. Claude Clarke, Mrs. Orval Stratton, Mrs. Frank Doxtator and Mrs. Damon Hinchey. Attendance was 16. Members were glad to have some visitors present. After the closing hymn all repeated the Mizpah benediction. The hostess and her conveners served a delicious lunch and a social time was enjoyed. Collection $2.30. The sewing for the bale was handed in.

Each lady is asked to donate three pies to be sold at the booth at Shannonville Fair in aid of the Sunday School.

PRESENTATION

On August 23rd., the friends and neighbours invaded the home of J. W. Yateman and tendered him and his bride a real old fashioned charivari ending up with a feed of ice cream and cake. After all singing "For they are Jolly Good Fellows", all returned home feeling it was good to be there. Then on the following Tuesday evening they again wended their way back filling the house to capacity. Rev. Mr. Armstrong called the gathering to order and in a few well chosen words extended to the bride and groom the best wishes of the people of the community. The following address was then read by Miss Edith Easton.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Yateman

A few evenings ago, we invaded and took possession of your home with discordant music. You greeted everyone in the spirit in which they came and proved yourselves "real sports". Tonight we have come in a little more orderly manner, and knowing you, Mr. Yateman, as we do, we know that we are indeed welcome.

We wish to say to you, Mr. Yateman, that we set a high value on you, in the neighborhood as a neighbour and friend, and as one who is always willing to take your part and give your support on every phase of the church and community life.

At this time we wish to extend to you our heartiest congratulations and best wishes. Mrs. Yateman, you come to most of us as a stranger, but as a church and community we extend to you a very hearty welcome and trust that as time marches on, we will become better acquainted and that our friendship will increase.

Now to show you just how we feel about you both, we ask you to accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value but as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held and we trust that you may have every happiness in your married life.

Signed on behalf of Bethany community—Mrs. Walter Sills, Mrs. Geo. Beer, George F. Hamilton, Clayton Eggleton.

They were then presented with a beautiful day bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Yateman thanked the friends for their lovely gift and kind words and all enjoyed a social time together.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will invite you to dances and parties.

BUT if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls along who are full of pep.

So in case you need a good general system tonic, remember for 3 generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling thru" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps build up more physical resistance and thus aids in giving you more pep and lessens distress from female functional disorders.

You'll find Pinkham's Compound WELL WORTH TRYING!

CAVERLY MODELS.

These fine fur felt hats are tailored by the makers of the famous Lady Biltmore line. New Autumn shades as well as black. Sizes 21½ - 24.

Priced $3.95.

EXCLUSIVELY AT

Woodley's

273 FRONT STREET

COLDS

FIGHT MISERY right where you feel it—with swift-acting

VICKS VAPORUB

Canadian Gov't Passes War Appropriation Act To Spend $100,000,000

War-Time Budget to Be Brought Down in House This Afternoon

(By C. R. BLACKBURN, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, Sept. 12—(CP)—Canada's war parliament pushed ahead strenuously today in its effort to gird the country for the conflict with new sources of revenue and new administrative offices, after giving its approval to the government spending $100,000,000 in the Dominion's initial war effort.

The war-time budget will be brought down in the Commons this afternoon showing how the government proposes to raise money for the war chest. A bill providing for a new Ministry of Supply and Munitions will be introduced.

Both the House of Commons and the Senate yesterday passed through all stages the War Appropriation Act, authorizing the $100,000,000 expenditure by order-in-council. Only the formality of royal assent is necessary for the act to become law.

OPPOSITION AGAINST WAR OUTSIDE CANADA

But before it was passed in the Commons, spirited opposition was expressed by 10 Quebec Liberals and six Co-operative Commonwealth Federation members to any war activities outside Canada.

Social Credit members also opposed the idea of borrowing to meet war costs and urged instead the issue of money by the Bank of Canada.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King introduced a sobbering note when a series of amendments were presented to prohibit extending the war effort outside Canada.

While "hundreds of thousands" were dying in a rapidly extending theatre of war, he demanded the government be empowered not only to act effectively in co-operation with the British and French, but to act "expeditiously."

If there were to be any more amendments he urged that they be voted upon at once.

The Prime Minister outlined the legislative program yesterday and announced one measure would have to do with a Department of Munitions and Supplies. This confirmed rumors that the cabinet would be enlarged in that manner.

PREMIER ASKS HOUSE TO MOVE QUICKLY

Mr. Mackenzie King also requested, at the outset of yesterday's sitting, that the House move quickly in view of the fact that to be effective Canada must act quickly. He said he felt sure he would not be accused of attempting to curtail parliament's right to question and debate measures.

The House also put through the Canadian Patriotic Fund bill which revives a corporation along the lines of that which collected by voluntary contribution some $48,000,000 to aid the needy dependents of soldiers in the last war.

A bill to amend the Combines Investigation Act was held up in second reading when it was suggested the same objectives could be achieved by action under the War Measures Act.

Maxime Raymond (Lib. Beauharnois-Laprairie), who started the Quebec Liberal opposition to participation in the war beyond defending Canada in a speech delivered Saturday, moved an amendment to the War Appropriation Act amendment yesterday, restricting expenditures to war costs in Canada only.

MOTION RULED OUT OF ORDER

This was ruled out of order and the House went into committee on the bill itself. Grant MacNeil (C.C.F. Vancouver North) moved an amendment which would have the same effect.

When it seemed this amendment would be debated at length, Mr. Mackenzie King made his appeal for speedy action.

If the government were restricted to war activities only within the confines of Canada it would be impossible, he said, to carry out the policy inunciated in the Speech from the Throne, and to meet the responsibilities involved in Canada's declaration of war.

Unless Newfoundland and the Gulf of St. Lawrence were defended it would be impossible to defend Canada, the Prime Minister said. Enemy submarines were everywhere. The place to meet this menace was out at sea and not after it had invaded the Dominion.

Hon. H. H. Stevens (Con. Kootenay East) urged the government to make use of the gold production in Canada, to build up gold reserves and thus utilize to the maximum the natural credit of Canada.

NOT WILLING TO DELAY PROCEEDINGS

J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader, said there were provisions in the appropriation bill which were in conflict with his party's policies but he would not delay proceedings to discuss them at this time.

Liguori Lacombe (Lib. Laval-Two Mountains) renewed his opposition to any measure authorizing the government to carry on war activities outside Canada.

The $100,000,000 being voted would be no more than "pin money" said A. H. Mitchell (S. C. Medicine Hat), and he reiterated the Social Credit demand for conscription of wealth and man-power.

Hon. J. Earl Lawson (Con. York South) advised the government to finance its war budget by long-term borrowing at once. He doubted if interest rates would ever be lower than at present.

Howard Green (Con. Vancouver South) asked the government to make up its mind at once that an expeditionary force would be necessary and to begin the necessary recruiting and training so as to avoid the possibility of sending improperly trained soldiers into action.

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR C.E.F. ARGUED

Mr. MacNeil, in moving his amendment declared there were blunders made at the start of the first great war which caused sacrifice of many Canadians. He said there was no justification for sending an expeditionary force abroad.

J. A. Crete (Lib. St. Maurice-LaFleche) and Maurice Lalonde (Lib. LaBelle) voiced opposition to any outside participation in the war.

A standing vote on Mr. MacNeil's amendment resulted in 10 Quebec Liberals and six C.C.F. members supporting it and 151 Liberals, Conservatives and Social Credit members opposing it.

At the evening session Lucien Dubois (Lib. Nicolet-Yamaska) and Pierre Gauthier (Lib. Portneuf) registered objections to the proposed war effort, but Jean Francois Pouliot (Lib. Temicouata) said Canada could not be neutral and urged that if an expeditionary force be sent it be well equipped and well-led.

During the course of the debates yesterday Prime Minister Mackenzie King said the government proposed to send High Commissioners to South Africa, New Zealand and Australia, to facilitate diplomatic relations with those countries.

RECRUITS SIGN FOR DURATION OF WAR

Defence Minister Mackenzie, prompted by questions in the House, explained that those enlisting for active service were signing on for the duration of the war subject to being sent whether it was decided the defence of Canada would be made.

The money voted last night will be in addition to the regular defence department estimates passed at the last session and will be available to all departments to meet expenses due to the war between now and the end of the fiscal year, March 31.

The preamble of the bill declared: "Whereas a state of war exists between His Majesty and the German Reich: and whereas it is necessary that measures be taken for the common defence and security and to this end it is expedient, that aid as hereinafter provided be rendered to His Majesty."

The main section provides that, in addition to ordinary grants provided at the last session, a sum not exceeding $100,000,000 is granted for the defraying expenses incurred for:

"(A) The security, defence, peace, order and welfare of Canada;

"(B) The conduct of naval, military and air operations in or beyond Canada;

"(C) Promoting the continuance of trade, industry and business communications whether by means of insurance or indemnity against war risk or in any other manner whatsoever; and

"(D) The carrying out of any measures deemed necessary or advisable by the Governor in Council in consequence of the existence of a state of war."

SPECIAL WARRANTS TOTAL $16,454,120

Special warrants already issued for expenditures totalling $16,454,120 will form part of the amount appropriated by the bill.

Indication the government is preparing for measures of economic co-operation with the allies came in a clause authorizing it to act as the agent for any British or allied country for any purpose directly connected with the war. This would make possible the purchase of munitions in Canada for other governments.

The bill authorizes the government to raise the $100,000,000 by way of loan. A clause requiring the Finance Minister to report on the disposition of all moneys expended under the bill before June 30, 1940, or, if parliament is not sitting, within 15 days from the start of the next session, was struck out at the suggestion of Conservative Leader Manion.

In introducing the bill, Revenue Minister Ilsley said it was impossible to forecast the actual financial requirements of the country during the war. Many financial decisions would have to be made as needs arose. For this reason detailed estimates were not submitted to cover the sum asked.

---

Saarbrucken Threatened

(Continued From Page One)

(By MELVIN WHITELEATHER, Associated Press Staff Writer)

With the German army west of Warsaw, Sept. 12—(AP)—Warsaw's fate was being fought out today on two fronts—one north of Lodz, 60 miles almost due west of the Polish capital, and the other at the city's gates.

The German high command expressed confidence that Warsaw, subjected to a pincer attack, would fall within 24 to 48 hours.

A few miles north of Lodz, important textile centre, Nazis claimed that one German division was fighting five or six encircled Polish divisions in the hope of capturing the 50,000 to 60,000 men. (A German division numbers 10,000 to 12,000 men.)

This Polish army, consisting of troops withdrawing from Poznan Province and the Corridor, on Sunday staged a strong offensive in an attempt to break out and fall back on Warsaw. They were halted Sunday night after advancing several miles. On Monday morning a German counterattack was started.

MUST DEFEAT TWO STRONG LINES

If the Polish division succeed in breaking out of the 12-mile-wide "pocket" near Lodz, they will encounter another German line drawn up west of Warsaw and between them and the capital. This line, which received heavy reinforcements this morning, extends south of the city.

Another German force was driving toward Warsaw from the northeast. It had crossed the Narew River in its advance out of East Prussia.

A third German army, meanwhile, was surrounding Lublin, railway point 100 miles southeast of Warsaw and approximately 140 miles east of Lodz.

An armored car division which entered Warsaw a few days ago after driving up from Silesia has withdrawn.

I have just completed two days of roaming about with the first group of foreign correspondents permitted at the front by the German high command.

Everywhere we found the Poles had been fighting harder than we had imagined from reading the German army communiques. Every inch of the Polish retreat has been contested.

FIGHT EVERY INCH OF WAY

Fighting took place in almost every town and village from the German border to the line which now is just west of the capital. Today these towns are largely in ruins—either destroyed by bombs from the air, burned down, or both.

The destruction in the area through which we passed, and it was typical of all of western Poland, resembled northern France after the Great War. The few walls still standing showed the gouges of machine-gun bullets. Hundreds of farm houses were burned so thoroughly that scarcely any debris remained.

We entered Poland at Ketno in Silesia and there, six miles from the border, found the first trenches. They had been dug in a graveyard.

Farther on we encountered the town of Liebruszow, which had had 6,000 inhabitants, about half of them Jews. In the Sunday evening twilight it looked like the ruins of Pompeii. The entire town was merely a series of charred walls.

SNIPERS KILL 21 GERMANS

After the Polish army had left Liebruszow snipers killed 21 German soldiers, and the penalty they paid was a terrible sight. The Germans said machine-guns had been placed in various buildings which commanded the road leading into town, including the Jewish temple.

Then we met the first of a seemingly endless line of tattered refugees. We counted 180 v-shaped hay wagons of the type used throughout central Europe within one 20-mile stretch on the road to Sieradz. They were loaded with bedding and represented about the only earlthy belonging of their owners. One had a baby goat lying on a bed tick.

I estimated there were 500 refugees in the wagons in those 20 miles and that, in all, I had seen 1,500 persons being hauled along by slowly-starving horses and had passed 500 more on foot, some of them driving cattle and goats.

These refugees had fled before the oncoming German army but had been overtaken and had been told by the Germans to go back home.

I talked with a grandmother who, with her daughter and son-in-law, had walked 50 miles between Friday and Sunday nights. Their bare feet were bleeding. The daughter carried her baby.

NOTHING LEFT BUT CHIMNEYS

We passed farmhouse after farmhouse where refugees had reached home only to find nothing left but a brick chimney. They were camping out beside the ruins.

The town of Lask was heavily damaged, but practically no fighting had taken place in the 20 miles between there and Lodz.

Lodz, although near the front lines, was fully illuminated. It is the headquarters for General Johannes Blaskowitz, who is commanding the effort to capture the Polish troops to the north of the city.

German troops took over Lodz Friday, after the Polish forces had withdrawn. Yesterday truckloads of Jews were seen in the streets, being taken out to do manual labor. In another section I also saw bearded Jews carrying stones, one by one, to help troops reconstruct dynamited bridges.

The German counter-attack was resumed at dawn today north of Lodz, in the region of Kutno, Piatek and Leczyca. Armored cars, tanks and light artillery were used. The Polish forces were said to be fighting a desperate uphill battle in close formation.

The Germans claimed that in the first 24 hours of the battle, now in its third day, 2,000 Poles were killed and 5,000 wounded. No estimate was made of German casualties.

---

ORDER-IN-COUNCIL

(Continued From Page One)

Enforcement of the new regulation, under authority of the War Measures Act, was placed under the Secretary of State and a newly created official, the custodian of enemy holdings. The office will be administered for the present by Justice Minister Lapointe who has been acting Secretary of State since the death two months ago of Hon. Fernand Rinfret.

The scope of the voluminous order-in-council is suggested in the definition of "enemy", which includes all persons, including British subjects, residing in or carrying on business in enemy territory occupied by the enemy.

The official custodian, by the new ruling, may examine all books or documents "owned by or under the control of" a person suspected of directly or indirectly trading, attempting to trade or offering to trade with the enemy, within the meaning of the regulations.

Can Apply for Controller

The Secretary of States may apply to the courts for appointment of a controller with powers either as a receiver or manager in cases where it appears an offence against any regulation is likely to be committed by a firm, or that its management is likely to be "so affected by the state of war as to prejudice the effective continuance thereof."

An order-in-council authorizes the Exchequer Court of Canada to vest in the custodian property "suspected or belonging to or held or managed for or on behalf of an enemy."

The prohibition against the transfer of securities aplies to all transfer of securities applies to all the nationality of the transferee, place of transfer, location of the certificates or the location of the registry where such securities may be registered.

Must Inform Custodian

Anyone managing or holding any property on behalf of an enemy is required within 30 days to inform the custodian. This includes balances and deposits credited to enemies and debts due or becoming due.

Wherever money has been paid to any account or persons in trust for an enemy, the person making the payment must require the person receiving that money to pay it over to the custodian with full particulars.

The custodian will record claims against enemy governments in respect of public securities of those governments held by claimants. Where enemy interest in a property is in dispute, the claimant must obtain consent of the custodian before taking the question before the Exchequer Court. The custodian cannot be compelled to give that consent.

Where a company offends against the regulations, every director and officer of the company as well as the company itself will be considered guilty and liable to fine or imprisonment.

---

GERMANY HOPES

(Continued From Page One)

2. Well-substantiated reports that Polish resistance was greater than the Germans at first believed and that German losses were higher than it was thought originally.

3. The decision of Field Marshal Hermann Goering to go to the Polish front.

But Nazis expressed confidence that part of the Polish Army, caught between Lodz and Warsaw, could be brought to terms. Then more infantry, artillery and planes could be released to aid in the assault on the Polish capital. However, even if Warsaw were occupied, much of Poland still would remain to be conquered.

The general impression in Government circles was that Britain's calculation on a war of at least three years' duration meant the Allies would attempt a blockade as their chief weapon.

"In other words," said the Dienst Aus Deutschland, "England admits it is not to be a war against Nazi leaders, as advertised, but another brutal war against German women and children."

But leaders said that, with access to large and small neutral states which was lacking in 1914, the blockade now was less likely to succeed. Other quarters indicated German submarines would sink any ship carrying to Britain articles labelled contraband by Britain. These quarters said the submarines would proceed by international rules of submarine warfare.

It was argued in Nazi circles that the British blockade might force such countries as Yugoslavia, Rumania, Russia, Denmark and the Netherlands to deal with Germany more extensively than normally would be the case.

Domestically, Germany took additional restrictive measures in the matter of consumption of materials. A decree was issued forbidding the use of automobiles after Sept. 20, except in the interests of the state.

Berlin's street car and omnibus service which was limited a week ago, was reduced further by the shortening of service on many lines.

Berlin newspapers displayed prominently a dispatch saying that Russian ships enroute to England with cargoes of lumber had been ordered to return to their home ports. The item was another of the increasing number of hints that Germany expects substantial aid from Russia.

---

Rotarians Hear Informative Address on Work of the Blind

"Had the proper methods been employed five thousand of Canada's eleven thousand sightless residents need not have been blind" William E. Milton, district field secretary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind told members of the Belleville Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon yesterday.

In a highly informative address, the sightless speaker gave a vivid verbal picture of the origin, aims and work that his organization is doing not only for the blind people of the Dominion but in assisting in the prevention of blindness.

The organization was originated by a group of blinded Canadian soldiers who were taught how to make their four senses recompense themselves for the loss of the fifth. They gathered a group of interested friends about them, and the result is the magnificent institution that today is doing a splendid work for the sightless.

Gainfully Employed

One of its major activities, Mr. Milton stated was the employment of the blind and creating opportunities for employment in the business, industrial and commercial life of the country. Blind persons today are gainfully employed at cafeterias, booths in public buildings and in factories where brooms, leather goods, house-dresses and other articles are manufactured.

A large number have taken advantage of the home-teaching methods of the institution and are now employed at making various articles within their own homes, he said.

"The institute grants special concessions to the needy blind, in some cases providing emergency relief, eye glasses and treatment for those in need".

Special recreational concessions have, also, been secured in various parts of the province, such as free bus fare, theatre tickets and radio licences, he pointed out. A library of twenty thousand volumes, beside wax records, is available at no charge in Toronto.

The speaker paid tribute to the many organizations of voluntary workers throughout Canada who are rendering able assistance to the institute. "Without these splendid men and women we could not get along and it is mainly through their efforts that we can give such service to the blind.

Want Co-operation

He concluded a splendid address with an appeal to the clubmen to "tell others about our work. By this means more support will be forthcoming and the institute can thus continue its humanitarian work of service to the blind".

He appealed to the club to support the Institute Annual Tag Day that falls on Saturday of this week.

Mr. Milton was introduced by Rotarian Ed. Bernstein while club appreciation was expressed by Rotarian Dr. Locke. Visitors who were given Rotary welcome by Past-President McLean Haig included, Inspector J. Pickering, C. L. Jewell, both of Belleville and Mr. Felix Garffer of San Juan, Porto Rico.

---

Chinese Missionary Returns Home From War-Torn China To Find Homeland at War

Stirling, Sept. 12.—(Special) — Mrs. George Simmons, missionary in China and her son, Peter, arrived in Stirling a short time ago, on what she terms an extended furlough partially made necessary by the Sino-Japanese hostilities. Stationed at the Canadian Church of England Mission at Kaifeng in Honan province, she, along with other British and American Christian missionaries watch the retreat of the Chinese soldiers fade steadily before the onslaught of the superior mechanized Japanese forces. watched town after town fall into the hands of the aggressors until Kaifeng finally came under Japanese control. Superior fighting equipment augmented by the use of aerial attacks on important centres and lines of communication along with skilfully arranged propaganda programmes all contributed much to the success of the invaders. Every Japanese soldier conscientiously believes that occupation of China by Japan was its only hope for peace and constructive advancement in the days to come.

Retreat Strategic Move

On the other hand retreat of the Chinese at many points was announced to be strategic and occupation of towns and cities were carried out with the natives accepting their position in the best possible manner, though many of them feel that life under Japanese rule will be one of servitude. Occupation of a town by the invaders is followed by the hoisting of the five stripe banner of former China. The former flag of China known to the Chinese as the flag of the five peoples has been adopted as the Japanese flag in China.

Chinese Gallant and Clever Fighters

True evidence of gallantry was displayed by the weary soldiers on both sides, fighting and willing to sacrifice their lives for a cause which they both conscientiously believed to be right.

After the occupation of Kaifeng it was believed by many that Japanese victories would soon take them into the important city Hankow. But a brilliant stroke of strategy was enacted by the Chinese. They lead their pursuers to a town Chungmow, near the Yellow River, blasted the dykes and diverted the river, which swamped the mechanized units of the invaders causing them heavy losses. Meanwhile within the occupied area life became more and more difficult for foreigners as the anti-British feeling rose. Japanese authorities ordered the dismissal of all native servants in the employ of Britishers and placed strong police pickets about their property to enforce this law. Then followed the official order of evacuation of all Britishers to take effect so suddenly, that little time was given for gathering belongings and nearly all had to be left behind. Friends of the American Baptist Mission were left with power to act for the refugees in the matter of personal property and goods left behind. But shortly after the departure of the Britishers, which included Mrs. Simmons, word was received, that the mission was ordered sealed and put under the "protection" of the new regime.

En route to Canada Mrs. Simmons spent five days in Japan and was treated courteously by Japanese officials. Her Canadian calling card was sufficient to get her through the barriers at Tientsin. She sailed for home on the S.S. Empress of Canada.

From War to War

Having travelled half way round the world seeking safety from a war torn land which through years of faithful service she has learned to love, Mrs. Simmons was within a hundred miles of her native Stirling, when glaring headlines bore her the news that Great Britain had declared war.

Throughout the months of the bitter struggle and the slow but sure retreat of the Chinese troops Mrs Simmons and here associates worked feverishly at First Aid work caring for suffering wounded men on their way to a safe hospital base.

The future is a bit uncertain Mrs. Simmons thinks with regard to immediate Mission work activity. But after her extended furlough if conditions are sufficiently favorable and her services needed she hopes to return to her life's work in the foreign mission field. Meanwhile she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Robert Christie, of Stirling and her son, Peter, will continue his academic training which he began at an English school at Chifoo, at Stirling High School, where he finds his studies on an equal basis with local students of the fourth and fifth forms.

The "Dead End Kids" in a scene from "The Angels Wash Their Faces," featuring Ann Sheridan, at the Belle with "The Kid from Kokomo."

Old Kentucky CIGARETTES

Old Kentucky have the new "wetproof" paper—smooth as the smoothest tip—it does not stick to the lips.

OBITUARY

LATE J. A. BERTRAND

Picton, Sept. 12 (Special)— The death occurred in Picton on Thursday— Sept. 7th of James Albert Bertrand in his 67th year. The deceased was for many years a railroad man, and made his home in Picton, Trenton and later in Detroit. He returned to Picton about eight years ago. He suffered a stroke two years ago, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. He is survived by his wife who was formerly a Miss Gallagher of Picton, and one son. Many relatives and friends attended the funeral service at his late residence, Mary Street, on Saturday, Sept. 9th. Interment was made in Cherry Valley cemetery.

LATE W. J. RUTTER

Picton, Sept. 12 (Special)— On Wednesday, Sept. 6th, at the A. M. Palmatier Funeral Home, friends gathered to attend the funeral service of William James Rutter, a native of this county, who died in St. Boniface, Winnipeg, on Sept. 1st. Mr. Rutter had been ill for the past four years. He was in his 54th year. Fraternally he was a Mason. Mrs. Wm. Watson, Mrs. Mason, and the Misses Rutter of Picton are sisters of the deceased. Interment was made in the Hicksite cemetery in Bloomfield.

The Stars Say—

For Wednesday, September 13

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

A SURPRISING turn of events, according to important planetary aspects, may greatly stimulate the energies and initiative, especially in connection with promoting new propositions. Great ingenuity and skill are shown, with audacity and adventure probably uprooting many old and stagnant situations. Sudden change is presaged, with new environs, interests and associations.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of sudden and radical upheaval, with the fortunes, objectives, surroundings and interest undergoing a somewhat devastating about-face, although in a progressive and promising direction. New matters are on the tapis, with many surprises and adventures, perhaps romantic and audacious.

A child born on this day may be ingenious and inventive. It may concern itself with scientific or intellectual matters or social and humanitarian reforms.

SAFER WALKING

Mr. Whimer's proposal for an amendment to the Motor Vehicles Act demanding that pedestrians walk on the left of the highway facing the traffic is a timely and needed measure. Anyone who walks on the right with the traffic at his back, especially in the dark, expecting car lights to pick him out of the shadows, is taking the risk of involuntary suicide; if he will not take care to protect his own life the law should do it for him.—Vancouver Sun.

Little Benny's Note Book

Pop was smoking to himself with a satisfied expression and ma said, You're doing it again. Willyum, now really Willyum my patience is at a standstill. You know very well that no gentleman is suppose to smoke a cigar in the presence of a lady without first removing the band, and yet you persist and persist and persist, just as if my wishes as far as you are concerned my feelings might as well be bagatelles in the wind, she said.

Not at all, I mean for Peet sake if there was anything obnoxious about a beautiful red and gold cigar band why the doce would they be put on in the first place? pop said, and ma said, Just as a trap to make you men prove to all beholders that you lose all sense of proportion at the site of a pretty face.

Yee gods, if that's logic I'll take dubbletalk, pop said taking the band off. And besides, how about yourself? You've just been subjecting me to an indignity that's grounds for divorce in some countries, he said, and ma said, Why I have not, I mean what are you talking about?

I'm referring to the brazen way in which you've been holding your wrist watch up to your ear, pop said. I suppose you realize who gave you that watch? he said, and ma said, Why naturally, you did.

Exactly, and in front of my very eyes you've been slyly insinuating that I didn't give you a good one, pop said. Do you realize that in all the Scandinavian countries there's an old proverb that goes, Who harkens to a gift watch tick, at the innocent giver has cast a brick. That's the old proverb, and where there's an old proverb there must be a reason for it. I don't have to be a Scandinavian to take a hint. Why dont you come right out and tell me if you're dissatisfied with the watch? he said, and ma said, I'll come right out with a sofa cushion in your silly face.

Only she didn't, making me miss a funny site.

Last Major Intersectional Offensives Open on Eastern And Western Baseball Fronts

Possibility Yanks Will Cinch Fourth Straight Pennant by Saturday

REDS HAVE BATTLE

Cincinnati Opens at Home Against the Brooklyn Dodgers

(By Sid Feder)

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The last major intersectional offensives open on the eastern and western baseball fronts of the big league battleground today, with the pennant pretty certain to go to the lads who hold their own in this final swing around the circuits.

The prospects are New York Yankees will have won their fourth straight American League flag before Saturday night. The Yankees, waltzing along on an eight-game winning streak and a 17-game lead, despite Boston's 11-9 decision over the Athletics yesterday, need but four more victories to clinch. It shouldn't be any trick at all to take those four games in their own backyard from Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers.

The Junior Circuit situation shapes up this way:

| Club | W. | L. | P. | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Yankees.. . . | 96 | 38 | .716 |  | 20 |
| Red Sox . . . | 79 | 55 | .590 | 17 | 20 |

Reds Won't Blow Lead

In the National League Cincinnati Reds won't give the home folks a chance to draw a deep breath. While they have not looked much like champions recently it still is going to be tough for them, playing at home, to blow their lead, which was obligingly boosted to 3 1-2 games yesterday when Pittsburgh Pirates cuffed the second-place St. Louis Cardinals 8-6.

At the moment, here is the way things stand:

| Club | W. | L. | P. | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati . . | 78 | 50 | .609 |  | 26 |
| St. Louis. . . | 76 | 55 | .580 | 3½ | 22 |
| Chicago . . . | 72 | 62 | .537 | 9 | 20 |

Two Hurlers Ready

With pitchers Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer ready, willing and able—and Will McKechnie says he will pitch his two aces every other day if necessary—the Reds should take the flag by a nose. Walters will open the Cincinnati home stand today against Brooklyn Dodgers.

It took a complete collapse on the part of young Nate Andrews' salary wing for the Cards to blow yesterday's game in Pittsburgh. Andrews opened the eighth by fanning the first two Bucs. Then he turned right around and walked the next three. Rookie Maurice Van Robays then broke up the ball game with a two-run single.

The Red Sox and A's trotted six alleged hurlers out before the Philadelphia folk. Jim Tabor, the Sox third-sacker, was the "payoff guy" in this game, whacking a homer and triple to drive five runs home.

Super-Subbing!

Substituting with a vengeance was Jimmy Mullen, who won the 12th annual U.S. outboard motorboat championship, after only getting into the race when defending champion Gerald Sheeran suffered a broken shoulder blade. Mullen took over Sheeran's boat, the Pat Grita, and came down in front to win the Sir Thomas Lipton $5,000 trophy he is seen holding.

NEWARK BEARS IN PLAYDOWNS

Beat Syracuse Chiefs 9-6 in Sudden Death Game for Fourth Spot

(By The Associated Press)

yyyyyyyyyy

Newark Bears, who spent most of 1939 International Baseball League season in the second division after two seasons of overwhelming all opposition, may turn up in the little World Series again.

The Bears slipped in the league's playoffs, by the closest possible margin. They beat Syracuse Chiefs 9-6 last night in a one-game playoff for fourth place in the final standing and the last berth in the post-season series.

Tonight the Bears open the playoffs against their successors as league champions, Jersey City Giants, Rochester and Buffalo, second and third in the campaign ended Sunday, square off in another seven-game round. The two winners will clash in a final round for the Governors' Cup and the $4,000 that goes with it as well as the right to meet the American Association's playoff winners in the little World Series.

Newark goes into the post-season battles in good form. The Bears steadied down from their poor start and staged a late-season burst to tie Syracuse, and they blasted the Chiefs out of the picture last night.

Frankie Kelleher's pinch homer with Max Macon on base and two out in the eighth turned the trick. That tied the score after the Bears had belted Jack Tising off the hill. Then Johnny Gee, victim of the clout, issued a pass and Ray Benge was touched for two doubles and a single to complete a five-run rally.

HAPGOOD LOSES MEDALS

London (CP)—Eddie Hapgood, Arsenal player and captain of England has been robbed of 30 gold football medals. He has appealed to the thief's sense of sportsmanship to get them back.

A BAIL CURIOSITY

Bulwer, South Africa (CP)—In a recent cricket match here a batsman was bowled by a fast ball which uprooted the leg stump. Only one bail was displaced and this finished up on end in the stump hole.

Leading Jockey

First jockey this year to top the 200 mark in riding winners was Don Meade, ABOVE, whose reinstatement in various sections of the continent created quite a stir at the beginning of the year. Meade guided a 30-1 shot home at New York's Aqueduct track for No. 200 and he has a big lead over his nearest competitor, Johnny Longden, in the race for 1939 winning honors. Longdon was last year's champ.

The three top sluggers in the American League get together during a game between the record-breaking New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox. LEFT to RIGHT: Ted (The Kid) Williams, rookie outfielder with the Sox; Joe DiMaggio, Yankees' terrific centre fielder; and Jimmy Foxx, powerhouse first baseman of the Boston team. The players run one-two-three in the order named for leadership in the very important runs batted in tables in the American loop, while DiMaggio and Foxx hold first and second places in the averages, in which Jimmy topped the league last year. This year he appeared to be headed for the home run crown until forced out of the game for the rest of the season by an operation. Williams and Der Mag are both close to the top in home run production.

Major Football Schedules

Schedules of four major Canadian rugby leagues follow:

Interprovincial Union

Oct. 7: Montreal at Toronto; Hamilton at Ottawa.

Oct. 14: Toronto at Hamilton; Ottawa at Montreal.

Oct. 21: Hamilton at Montreal; Ottawa at Toronto.

Oct. 28: Montreal at Hamilton; Toronto at Ottawa.

Nov. 4: Hamilton at Toronto; Montreal at Ottawa.

Nov. 11: Toronto at Montreal; Ottawa at Hamilton.

Intercollegiate Union

Oct. 7: Queen's at Western; Toronto at McGill.

Oct. 14: Western at Toronto; McGill at Queen's.

Oct. 21: McGill at Western; Toronto at Queen's.

Oct. 28: Western at McGill; Queen's at Toronto.

Nov. 4: Toronto at Western; Queen's at McGill.

Nov. 11: Western at Queen's; McGill at Toronto.

Ontario Rugby Union

Oct. 9: Sarnia at Balmy Beach; Montreal at Peterboro.

Oct. 14: Peterboro at Sarnia; Balmy Beach at Montreal.

Oct. 21: Balmy Beach at Peterboro; Sarnia at Montreal.

Oct. 28: Montreal at Sarnia; Peterboro at Balmy Beach.

Nov. 4: Sarnia at Peterboro; Montreal at Balmy Beach.

Nov. 11: Peterboro at Montreal; Balmy Beach at Sarnia.

Western Conference

Sept. 15: Calgary at Winnipeg; Edmonton at Regina.

Sept. 18: Edmonton at Winnipeg; Calgary at Regina.

Sept. 22: Regina at Calgary; Winnipeg at Edmonton.

Sept. 30: Calgary at Winnipeg; Edmonton at Regina.

Oct. 7: Winnipeg at Calgary; Regina at Edmonton.

Oct. 9: Regina at Calgary; Winnipeg at Edmonton.

Oct. 14: Edmonton at Winnipeg; Calgary at Regina.

Oct. 21: Winnipeg at Regina; Edmonton at Calgary.

Oct. 28: Regina at Winnipeg; Calgary at Edmonton.

CORNWALL BISONS ARE ELIMINATED

Rome Colonels Will Meet Winners of Amsterdam-Oswego Series

(By The Canadian Press)

They're talking up Rome's chances of winning the Canadian-American Baseball League championship wherever a couple of the Colonels gangs meet today—and little wonder—for the Romans have gained a berth in the final playoffs for the first time since their inauguration.

More than one fan, anxiously waiting for Colonels to clash with the winner of the Amsterdam-Oswego series for the title, is pointing to the fact Colonels brushed past the twice-champion Cornwall Bisons without the loss of a game.

Colonels, who finished third in the league standing, shutout the fourth-place Bisons 3-0 at Utica last night in the fifth game while Oswego Nets, playing at home, blanked Amsterdam Rugmakers 12-0 to force a sixth game in their series. The Romans won the first two games in Cornwall, a third at home and might have made it four straight had not rain halted the fourth encounter with the teams tied 1-1 in the sixth inning.

Steady Pitching

Bisons, winners of the championship the first two years the league operated and finalist last season, bowed out before the steady pitching of Joe Butsko and their own costly errors. Butsko gave up but one double and five well-spaced singles while Colonels made the most of five blows off lefty Carr and as many Cornwall miscues for their runs.

A walk to Danny Rich, Al Lehman's wild throw and a hit gave the Colonels one run in the second and a hit, another wild peg and a fly brought in one more tally in the next session. Mancini's triple with a man on base accounted for the final run in the fifth. The teams played at Utica by agreement.

At Oswego, it was a slightly different story. While the league's leading pitcher, Ken Tashian, held the pennant-winning Rugmakers to five hits, the Nets pounded three hurlers for 16 hits and runs in all but three innings.

The winners counted four runs in the first, two in the second and seventh, three in the third and one in the fifth. With Rugmakers leading 3-2 in the series, the teams will clash again tonight at Amsterdam.

Consuming ambition of Red Rolfe, third baseman with New York Yankees, and considered by the critics (New York variety) the best at his position in the game, has been to bang out 200 hits, a handy feat in many major league season. There will not be many players reach the mark this year, but Red has over 190 and should attain his ambition any day now.

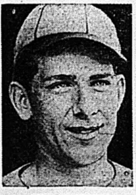
WINNERS OF 20 GAMES SO FAR IN MAJOR LEAGUES

RED RUFFING
New York Yankees

BOB FELLER
Cleveland Indians

BUCKY WALTERS
Cincinnati Reds

Winning 20 games in a season is a big ambition in the life of any major league pitcher and the five heavers shown here, all right handers have already attained the mark. For Red Ruffing it marks the fourth year in a row he has entered the 20 circle and he now has more than 200 wins to his credit during his career. Bob Feller, strikeout king of the majors for the second year in a row, made the 20 group for the first time in this, his third full year with the Indians. Bucky Walters, former third baseman, is another first timer, while for his teammate and co-mainstay of the Cincinnati Reds, Paul Derringer, it is the third time in the select group, 1935 and last year being the others. Curt Davis, who pitches almost as often as the rest of the Cardinal staff, finds himself with 20 wins for the first time.



PAUL DERRINGER
Cincinnati Reds

CURT DAVIS
St. Louis Cards

O. B. A.
Play-off
Second Round
COBOURG vs. BELLEVILLE
FAIR GROUNDS,
BELLEVILLE
WEDNESDAY, 3.15 p.m.
ADMISSION ...... 25c

R. SOMERVILLE POSTS NEAT 71 IN U. S. AMATEUR

H. Haverstick Leads Field With Four Under Par in First Round

36 ELIMINATED

Low 64 of Today's Play Will Open Match Play on Wednesday

Chicago, Sept. 12 (AP)—The amateur golfing brigade started down the home stretch of the 36-hole qualifier for the 43rd annual United States championship today.

A newcomer to the big time links wars, 21-year-old Harry Haverstick of Lancaster, Pa., was in the driver's seat as the round got under way. The big question was whether he possessed the hots to stay there.

While the gallery followed the favorites yesterday, Haverstick slipped in unnoticed through the rain to post a neat 68, four under par, and two strokes ahead of eight better known aspirants to the crown now held by Willie Turnesa.

Haverstick, after a shaky 37 going out, cut corners on the back nine for a 31, five birdies brightening his home-stretch card.

Of the 167 starters, only 131 were left today, the remainder blowing themselves out of the way by scoring 82 or worse on the opening 18. Of the remainder, the low 64 qualify today for match play starting Wednesday.

Plenty of Talent

Plenty of talent was wrapped up in the octet bracketed at 70. The list included Johnny Goodman of Omaha, 1937 champion; Harry Todd of Dallas, Tex., the western amateur King; Gen Rogers; Maurice McCarthy of Cincinnati, Walker Cup star; and Don Schumacher of Dallas, Thomas Sheehan of Notre Dame, Albert (Scotty) Campbell of Seattle, another Walker Cupper, and Harold Mandly of Wethersfield, Conn.

C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville, of London, Ont., 1932 champion; B. Patrick Abbott, the movie extra from Altadena, Calif., who reached the finals last year, and Harry Givan of Seattle, clipped par for 71's, while nine others matched even figures.

Second best in the Canadian contingent was Joe Thomson, of Burlington, Ont., who put together two 36's for a 72.

Phil Farley of Toronto carded 39-36—75 and Merlin Luther of Fort Erie fired a 38-42—80 to go into today's round.

Ed Sams of Fort Erie, Ont., and Howard Jones of Burlington, Ont., both with 82's, were eliminated.

KINGSTON HOCKEY PLAYER MOVES TO QUEBEC

Championship Team of 1937 is Well Scattered

Kingston, Sept. 12—Johnny Carr-Harris, Kingston's stylish right-railer, left here today for a position in Quebec City, where he will play for the Aces in the Quebec Senior Hockey League next winter. Don Penniston, new coach of the Aces, needed a right-winger to balance his Quebec team, which is a strong Allan Cup contender, and he invited the Kingston junior graduate to Quebec. Carr-Harris played junior hockey here last winter and was with the Garrison intermediate team.

Carr-Harris is the third member of Kingston's O.H.A. junior "B" championship team of two years ago to leave here in the last few weeks. Don Crawford and Aymer Burch recently left for Trenton to join the air force. Only the goaltender remains of the regular championship junior club of 1937.

Don Goodfellow played with Perth last year. Artso Partis was with Atlantic City. Len Crawford was in Toronto, and Jerry Younger Lewis is expected to be moved with the army soon.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By the Associated Press

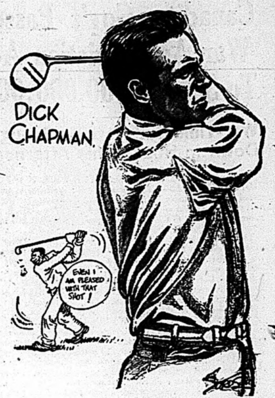
New York—Victor Dellicurti, 150, New York, outpointed Sammy Luftspring, 148 3-4, Toronto (8).

Chicago—Tony Sopko, 155 1-4, outpointed George Nyberg, 152 1-2, Porth Arthur, Ont., (5).

Washington—Harry Jeffra, 122 3-4, Baltimore, outpointed Baby Yack, 124, Toronto, (8); Spider Armstrong, 125 1-2, Toronto, knocked out Lou Transparenti, 121 1-2, Baltimore (1).

Chicago—Lem Franklin, 198 1-2, Cleveland, and Clarence Brown, 192, Chicago, drew (10).

Atlanta—Ben Brown, 159 1-2, Atlanta, outpointed Teddy Yarosz, 162, Pittsburgh (10).



DICK CHAPMAN
EVEN I AM PLEASED WITH THAT SHOT!

CALLING 'EM

Between the Lines

with
Ken J. Colling

There seems to be somewhat of a hubbub over the playing of the next round in the intermediate "A" series of the O.A.S.A. Originally the T.A.S.A. winners were sheduled here tomorrow, but last week's rain forced the postponement of the Toronto finals, which now won't be finished until Friday of this week. The O.A.S.A. ordered the Toronto winners to Belleville on Saturday of this week with the return game next Monday, Convener Harry Rollins announced yesterday. However, the Shell "Oiler" heads are not satisfied with the O.A.S.A. ruling, as they are not in favor of a Saturday playing date in Belleville. Now we hear that the "Oilers" have suggested that Belleville goes to Toronto on Saturday with the return game to be played here next Monday. From this corner it would seem that the "Oilers" are well advised to play as soon and as often as they can. In the meantime the Point Anne "Cementmen" are tangling with the good Wooler nine, who boast of a star pitcher, we hear.

When the Cobourg Ponies play the local "Orfuns" in the O.B.A. play-offs here on Wednesday, the local baseball fans will see a swell first baseman in the elongated Doug Campbell, who can reach ten feet in any direction, except down, to spear wild throws. Campbell literally holds up his infield with his elongated reach, as he stands well over the six foot mark. No doubt Archie Campbell, former Belleville Victoria portsider, will get the Cobourg pitching assignment against the locals on Wednesday, despite the fact Ed Cowie, their youthful righthander turned in such a masterful effort last Saturday. Although we feel the locals should force the series to a third game, the Orfuns do not want to sell Cobourg short, as they have a young fighting team, as was proven in the seventh inning on Saturday. Although Weeks turned in a masterful and splendid relief hurling chore on Saturday, in all probability a righthander will get the locals' pitching assignment tomorrow. Patrons at the game also should take a gander at Reymes, the Ponies' third sacker. The kid shows promise.

In Brooklyn they have dubbed Luke Hamlin, "Luke, the Giant Killer." Luke has beaten the Polo Grounders in four out of five games this season. In an earlier period of the league's history, there was Jack the Giant Killer (Jack Pfiester of the Cubs), Lew, the Giant Killer (Lew Ritchie of the Phillies), and Harry, the Giant Killer (Harry Coveleskie of the Phillies). Harry, then a rookie pitcher, knocked the McGraw men out of the pennant by defeating them three times in the closing week of 1908 season.

Pennants come to New York with the regularity of taxes, but in some other cities it is a long time between drinks to celebrate a victory. For example, if Cincinnati wins, it will be the Reds' first pennant in 20 years. The Bees have had none since Stallings' "miracle" club of 1914, and the Red Sox' last flag came under Ed Barrow in 1918, the last year of the World War. Brooklyn has had no chance to celebrate a pennant victory since 1920, and the White Sox fans go back as far as the Reds—1919. It is 24 years since the Phillies took their one and only pennant, under Pat Moran, in 1915, and 19 years since Cleveland won its lone flag, under Speaker, in 1920. Pittsburgh's last pennant came 12 years ago, in 1927. Pennant joys have been more recent for the fans of the Cubs, Cardinals, Tigers, Athletics and Senators. However, long-suffering fans of the St. Louis Browns have yet to put the victory cup to their lips in modern times and with the team resting in the cellar, a pennant seems as far away as ever.

Local football fans will remember Coach Bamford, who headed the Peterboro Collegiate football squads when senior Interscholastic rugby football throughout Central Ontario was one of the strongest seasonal sports with Oshawa, Lindsay, Peterboro and Belleville competing in one big loop. Bamford was recently appointed as coach of the Peterboro "Orfuns" in the senior O.R.F.U., filling the shoes of Coach Irwin, who migrated to Montreal, taking along with him Mike Loucks and Herb Hendrie. Last year the "Orfuns" surprised the football world with a 3-2 win over the great Sarnia Imperials, a victory that sold the fall classic in the Liftlock City and assured them of major league football for some years to come. Practically all of last year's Peterboro squad were first-year seniors and they should be seen at a much better advantage this season than they were in 1938.

Maurice Podoloff, president of the International-American Hockey League announces that the league "definitely" would operate during the 1930-40 season regardless of the possible effects the European war may have upon its supply of players from Canada.

Wally Elmer's good junior O.H.A. team of the past two years is scattered to the four winds. Don Crawford and Aymer Burch are at the Trenton Airport, Don Goodfellow is with the Perth Blue Wings while the latest migration was Johnny Carr-Harris, crack rightwinger, who has been secured by the Quebec Aces. The only regular of the Kingston championship team of two years ago is the goalkeeper. Incidentally there may be some good hockey news break in or around Belleville during the next few weeks, just prior to the October deadline, we'd suggest.

The Pirates beat the Cardinals yesterday to help the Reds somewhat, with the latter now enjoying a 3 1-2 game lead. Bill McKechnie's Cincinnatis are far from in, as they have 16 games more to play. Facing the Redlegs we find the St. Louis "Gas House Gang" scheduled to appear at Redland Field in the final week of the National League schedule for a three game stand, games which may prove as interesting as the subsequent world's series. The Cards windup the league schedule at Chicago, however, while the Reds close at Pittsburg.

SPORT HASH — Leo Culhane's Montrose "Sluggers" waited in vain for the appearance of the Cannifton "Gangsters" at Coleman Flats last night, Leo says....Seems the two clubs were to have played a grudge softball game, or sumpin' ....When the Newark Bears won an International League play-off berth by beating Syracuse yesterday, the result kept second baseman Nick Witek from joining the New York Giants....The Yankees are only leading the American League by a scant 17 games today ....Napanee Gibbards meet Bowmanville in the second round O.B.A. playdowns, the Royals having disposed of Oakville over the week end. The Royals eliminated the Gibbards last year.

SYMBOLIC FIRE

Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany (CP)—The Olympic Fire will burn from aloft a high tower at the Ski Stadium during the fifth Winter Olympic Games next year. The symbolic flame was a feature of the 1936 games.

M. C. C. IN DENMARK

Copenhagen (CP)—A Marylebone Cricket Club eleven defeated a Copenhagen team by an innings and 115 runs here. The M. C. C. made 334 runs for six wickets, and declared.

A GRAND TIRE IN TOUGH GOING

● The husky, full-traction tread of this big-value, low-price Goodyear will give you many extra miles of carefree motoring for your tire dollar.

Goodyear built, and Goodyear guaranteed. Gives you more for your money!

GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY

CLIFF BARAGAR
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 723

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 462 24½ Front St.
17-3m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P. O. BOX 30
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1732, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. M5-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1182, "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 231 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist. Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils, Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

E. R. and VERA B. FITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments, Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Intra-Red Radiations, Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments, 42½ Bridge St., East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
249½ Front St. Phone 492

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
178 Front St. Phone 1154w

LEGAL

R. GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 236½ Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2500. S27-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William N. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 174

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

SCREEN CLOCK

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
THE ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES
Ann Sheridan, "Dead End" Kids
2.40 — 7.10 — 9.55
THE KID FROM KOKOMO
Wayne Morris, Joan Blondell
3.45 — 8.30

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
FRESHMAN YEAR
Dixie Dunbar, Wm. Lundigan
2.45 — 8.05 — 10.15
THE MYSTERIOUS MISS X
Mary Hart, Michael Whalen
3.50 — 7.00 — 9.10

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
HOUSE OF FEAR
Wm. Gargan, Irene Hervey
8.11 and 10.41
UNMARRIED
Buck Jones, Helen Twelvetrees
7.00 and 9.30

TO LET

184 CHURCH STREET, NEWLY decorated inside and out. All conveniences except furnace. Phone 1650J. s12-3t

ONE NICELY FURNISHED HEATED bedroom. Apply 185 Albert Street. s12-3t

ONE OR TWO ROOMS UNFURNISHED or partly furnished suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 20 Charlotte Street. s12-3t

COMPACT SEVEN ROOMED house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, furnace. Immediate possession. Apply 243 Coleman St. j6-t, t, s-tf

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERLOOKING the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

FOUR ROOM UNFURNISHED apartment upstairs, also furnished bed-sitting room. Apply 64 Murney Street. s11-3t

2 ROOM FURNISHED HOUSEKEEPING apartment, front, hot water, garage, optional. Apply 267 Foster Ave. s11-3t

APARTMENT FOR RENT 4 OR 6 rooms. All conveniences, hardwood floors. Very reasonable rent to approved tenant. Apply 161 Albert Street. s9-tf

OFFICE SPACE AVAILABLE, heated and lighted. Apply G. A. Reid, Belleville. s9-3t

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

DESIRABLE APARTMENT HIGHLAND Avenue, fireplace, furnace, hardwood floors, garage. Furnished dinette. Phone 1360W. a31-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

$31.50 PER MONTH INCLUDING water rates—desirable house on east hill, north of Victoria Avenue attractive living room, coal fireplace, dining room, bath, kitchen, wired for range hardwood floors, three bedrooms, good hot air furnace, garage. Possession Sept. 1st, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687 a23-tf

PERSONAL

MEN OF 30, 40, 50! WANT VIM, Vigor, for rundown body? Try OSTREX Tablets of raw oyster stimulants and general body builders. If not delighted with results of first package, maker refunds its low price. Call, write Dolan the Druggist and all good drug stores. s1-t-f

AUCTION SALE

Thursday, Sept. 14, at 3 o'clock at Mrs. F. Manning's, 196 Dundas St., Chesterfield suite, Moffat electric range, 2 studio couches, Coffield washer, dresser, other articles.
N. MONTGOMERY, Auctioneer, Phone 1770. s12-2t

AUCTION SALE

Auction Sale, Thursday, Sept. 14, at 1.30 at Market Square, Complete dining room suite, extension table, chairs, kitchen table and chairs, heater, bed couch, bed and springs, mattress, sealers and dishes, 6 radios all in working order.
NORMAN MONTGOMERY, Auctioneer, Belleville Phone 1170. s11-3t

LOST

PAIR OF SPECTACLES IN leather case, between Market Square and Bowra Electric. Finder phone 145-4-3. s12-2t

USED FOR WAR PURPOSES

Brockville, Ont., Sept. 12—(CP)—George T. Fulford of Brockville yesterday was advised that the Department of National Defence has accepted his offer to place the services of his 53-foot motor cruiser, Moby Dick, at the disposal of the Government during the war.

50,000 CZECHS AVAILABLE

Paris, Sept. 12.—(CP-Havas) — Fifty thousand Czechs and Slovaks are available for the Czech National Army being mobilized in France, Stephan Osusky, Czecho-Slovak minister at Paris, said in an interview with the newspaper Paris-Soir.

The envoy said this figure did not include Czechs and Slovaks in Great Britain and the United States.

LENSES ARE READY

London (CP)—Production of lenses by British firms has progressed to the extent that importations from Germany are unnecessary. British production is now as fast as German, and the product as good.

FOR SALE

OR TO LET STORE WITH DWELLING at 433 Bleecker Ave. Apply on premises. s12-3t

A QUANTITY OF HARD WOOD $7.50 per cord, soft wood $5.50 per cord, and soft slab wood $4.50 per cord delivered at Belleville in 3 cord loads. Write H. C. Lloyd, Bannockburn, Phone Madoc 5233. s12-6t

MAROON BABY PRAM IN GOOD condition. Apply 103 West Dundas. s12-2t

PRINCESS PAT, 6-HOLE RANGE hot water front, practically new. Boy's leather coat, size fourteen years. Apply 337 Dufferin Ave. s12-2t

FIVE ACRES LAND, FRAME house, garage, hen house, good well, cistern, electricity 1 1-2 miles from city on paved road. Write Box D, Ontario Intelligencer. s12-3t

MASSEY HARRIS CORN BINDER almost good as new. Apply Mrs. G. A. Babcock, R. 2, Belleville. s12-1t

29 PLYMOUTH COUPE WITH rumble seat, new tires and paint. Motor good. Price low. 211 Pinnacle Street. s12-3t

OR RENT—BRICK HOUSE, WEST Bridge, newly decorated, oak floors, bath, sun-porch, hot-water heating, garage. Possession Oct. 1. Phone 506. s12-3t

USED CONNOR WASHER GOOD condition, Stewart Warner table model radio. Phone 445-r-31. s12-1t

11 MURNEY STREET, SOLID brick house, six rooms and bath, hardwood floors, house in good condition and easily heated, double lot. Good garden. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s12-tf

ONE MODERN KITCHEN CABINET nearly new, one glass enclosed front porch. One bathroom fixture complete. Phone 714. s12-3t

CHILD'S STEEL CRIB IN GOOD condition. Reasonable. Apply 85 Gordon Street. s12-1t

GIRL'S BICYCLE, FIRST CLASS condition. Stan Barriage, 80 College Street, between 6 and 8 p.m. s12-3t

BARRED ROCK PULLETS. APPLY 95 Geddes Street. s11-2t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRABLE brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusve agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

1940 R.C.A. VICTOR IMPERIAL car radio, slightly used. Cheap for cash. Phone 848. s11-2t

COTTAGE ON BAY SHORE, 3 miles west of Belleville, containing 5 rooms and sun porch complete. Built on large lot, owned, not leased. Wired for electric range, water pump. Apply Box R, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

USED LUMBER — REMOVED from Loblaw building, including heavy timbers, The Wheeler Metal Co., 45 Station Street. Telephone 353. s7-6t

MISSES' WINE WINTER COAT. Persian gray lamb trim, size 15. Reasonable. 117 W. Bridge (Upstairs). s6-tf

4 HILLSIDE STREET, WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

AT AVONDALE, TRENT ROAD, directly opposite the school, residence and 8 acres of good land owned by Mrs. George Duff. House is substantial brick with bright cheerful rooms, hot water heating, bath, well decorated and in excellent state of repair. Barn and hen house. Investigate this. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 627. s9-tf

W. C. SILLS PROPERTY, JUST off highway in Avondale, Trent Road. Good frame house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors downstairs, good basement. 10 acres of sandy loam —barn, garage, hen house and brooder house. Excellent green houses. A very desirable place, Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

239 CHARLES STREET, CORNER of Queen Street, roughcast house and large lot property of Miss Diamond. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive Agents, Belleville Locators, Geo. N. Gorman, Prop. 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

WARLIKE HOUSEHOLD

Ipswich, England (CP)—Mrs. Welham, an Ipswich housewife, has to cater for a family of soldiers. Her husband and four sons all serve in the 4th Suffolk Regiment, Territorial Army.

WANTED

WIRELESS
WANTED—MEN FROM 17 TO 35 with High School Education—to train for qualified Radio Operators. Trained operators needed by Dominion Government in increasing numbers. Prepare for responsible position by Home Study and Resident Practical Instruction for 1st or 2nd class certificates. Evening Code Classes. Free employment assistance in securing positions. Write for full particulars to Radio College of Canada, 54 Bloor Street, West, Toronto. s12-14-16

WANTED 2 MEN IN BELLEVILLE and surrounding district by Can. Corp. operating from Coast to Coast. Must be 25 years of age or over, good appearance and have A1 references. Ask for Mr. Mutch, Hotel Quinte lobby, Wednesday, Sept. 13, 10 a.m. s12-1t

A USED SILO IN GOOD CONDITION. Write to George Attwell, R.R. No. 5, Campbellford, Ont. s12-3t

PRIVATE LIBRARY OF GOOD books wanted for cash. State approximate quantity and kind. Box A, Ontario Intelligencer. s12-2t

POSITION AS PRACTICAL NURSE or housekeeper by experienced widow. Holds driving license. Mrs. Jennie Hagerman, R. 2, Trenton. s12-14

McCORMICK CORN BINDER BY Sept. 18. Must be in good condition. Will pay cash. Write Box 125, Madoc. s12-3t

TO RENT BY ELDERLY COUPLE small house with Hydro, within 40 miles of Belleville. Write stating rent to Charles Mawson, Shannonville, Ont. s12-19-26

WANTED BY OLD RELIABLE Canadian Co., 2 men between the ages of 20 and 25. Good chance for advancement. Write Box K, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-13

POSITION AS HOUSEKEEPER BY middle-aged lady for elderly couple or gentleman in city. Write Box M, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

INSTRUCTION
IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

DAIRY COWS FROM 3 TO 6 years old. Must be good quality, due to freshen from August to November. Write or call D. Scott & Sons. Phone 615 j12-tf

MEN! HERE IS GOOD PAYING work with a large manufacturing concern of 200 daily necessities used in every home. Sure and quick repeaters. No experience needed. Good pay every day if active, and permanent business certain if persevering. Investigate our Plan at once without obligation. Catalogue Free: FAMILEX CO. 570 St. Clement, Montreal. jly15-25 a3-12-22-31 s8

FIRE INSURANCE CO.
Business Doubled! Surplus Trebled Since 1931
Farmers' desire to build a home company has made this possible.
Our Motto:
A FAIR AND SQUARE DEAL WITH 100 PER CENT. ADJUSTMENT.
It will pay you to get our rates and to learn our methods.
BAY OF QUINTE MUTUAL
C. W. BURR
219 Front St. Phone 944w
J13-tf

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF MARGARET LORETTA JONES, late of the Village of Cannifton in the County of Hastings, Widow, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1937, Chapter 165, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Margaret Loretta Jones, late of the Village of Cannifton in the County of Hastings, who died on or about the 31st of August, 1939, are requested to forward their claims, duly proven, to the undersigned on or before the 12th of October, 1939.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executor will proceed to distribute the estate among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which he shall then have notice.

DATED at Belleville this 11th day of September, 1939.

CAMERON & CAMERON,
Barrister &c., Belleville, Ontario,
Solicitors for the executor.
s12-19-26

EXCURSIONS CENTURY OLD

Grosmont, England (CP)—It is 100 years since the first railway excursion was run in England—to a church bazaar here. Horses pulled the train a great part of the way, and the trip was only 24 miles.

JEWELRY TO GRAVE

Hove, England (CP)—Edmund Distin Maddick, former naval surgeon and air force major, in accordance with his will was buried wearing a pin presented him by King George V. Other jewelry was buried with him in a box.

DEATHS

JOHNS—At Corbyville, on Monday, September 11th., 1939, Frederick Richard Johns, aged 75 years.

The funeral will be held from his late residence, Corbyville, on Wednesday, September 13th., 1939. Service in the home at 3.00 p.m., D.S.T.

Interment Belleville Cemetery. s12-1t

ARTIS—At Sarnia, Ont., on Monday, Sept. 11th., 1939, Samuel R. Artis, in his 71st year, (formerly of Belleville.)

The funeral will take place from the Belleville Burial Company Funeral Home, Campbell Street, on Thursday, Sept. 14th., 1939, at 3.00 p.m. (D.S.T.) Interment Shannonville Cemetery. s12-1t

AT THE McCARTHY

"Freshman Year"

For worried mothers with boy-crazy daughters, Dixie Dunbar, the screen star, offers an unusual solution—Hollywood.

The actress, who plays the lead in Universal's "Freshman Year", the current attraction at the McCarthy Theatre prescribes the film town as a cure for feminine hearts that flutter in the masculine presence.

She made the "discovery" during a personal appearance tour just before she returned to Hollywood for the picture. She observed that the girls she met during the tour were far more impressed with young men than was she or her actress friends.

"In pictures," she explains, "we work with so many tall, dark and handsome actors that a man is just another biped to us. Not a girl I know is 'gone' on men."

"So, comparing myself and other acresses with the girls I met on the personal appearance tour, I concluded that it must be Hollywood that gives us a detached viewpoint."

Dixie added that when she gets married he has to be just the man, not just a man.

"Freshman Year" is the first of a series of sparkling new college comedies made by Universal. In action, dialogue and setting it represents an accurate portrayal of modern college life.

Besides Dixie, the picture features William Lundigan, Constance Moore, Ernest Truex, Stanley Hughes, Frank Melton, Tommy Wonder, the Lucky Seven and the Murtah Sisters.

Dixie and Tommy Wonder, her partner on the tour, do two dance numbers—one a new creation called "Freshman Swing" and the other their popular penguin dance.

The film introduces three new songs—"Chasin' You Around," "Ain't That Marvelous" and "Swing That Cheer."

Excellent Second Feature

"The Mysterious Miss X", second feature presentation now playing at the McCarthy Theatre, features an exceptionally fine cast including Michael Whalen, Mary Hart, Chick Chandler, Mabel Todd and Regis Toomey. It is a fast moving mystery and in addition loaded with laughs. Miss Hart proves to be a fascinating as well as "mysterious" heroine and does exceptionally well in a splendid role. She succeeds admirably in projecting her personality onto the screen and coloring her role with an individuality which is most welcome to all moviegoers. The program also includes a most beautiful scenic of the Pan-American City, Rio de Janero.

AT THE BELLE

AT THE BELLE .. .. ....vtBGa
"The Angels Wash Their Faces"

The "Dead End" Kids are somewhat reformed, though still rough and aggressive, and Ann Sheridan has her first really sympathetic part since being made a star — those are the main items of interest about the new Warner Bros. picture, "The Angels Wash Their Faces," now at the Belle theatre.

Besides the "Dead End" sextette and the screen's "oomph" girl, who are co-starred, the cast of the new Warner production includes many other fine performers, both juveniles and adults. Among the former are Frankie Thomas, Bonita Granville and Jack Searl, while among the adult players are Ronald Reagan, Henry O'Neill, Eduardo Ciannelli and Berton Churchill.

Based on an idea of Jonathan Finn, the screen play, written by Michael Fessler, Niven Busch and Robert Buckner, places the Dead Enders in a tenement environment but depicts them as thoroughly law-abiding youngsters. In fact, they co-operate so smartly with the authorities that they are chiefly responsible for bringing to justice a sinister gang of adult criminals.

It is not, however, an abstract interest in law and order that motivates the kids. One of their number has perished in a tenement fire set by members of the gang, and furthermore the gangsters have succeeded in pinning the guilt for this arson and murder on a member of their club.

With the co-operation of Reagan, who is a district attorney's investigator and is in love with Ann, who plays the sister of the wrongfully accused boy, the kids cleverly take advantage of Boys' week to accomplish their ends.

"Kid From Kokomo"

Some of the racketeering that goes on behind the scenes of the prize fight game is hilariously exposed. in "The Kid From Kokomo" the Warner Bros. comedy featuring Pat O'Brien, Wayne Morris and Joan Blondell which is announced as the companion feature attraction.

Exposing evils of the boxing game is, however, merely incidental to the main purposes of the picture, which is to garner laughs. Nothing is taken seriously, and even the most dishonest of the film's characters are rather engaging rascals.

In the new picture every twist of the plot is humorous, laughter being directed even at the virtuous hero, who is altogether admirable in every respect except that he does seem to be just a bit dense, even for a country bumpkin who has been slickered by a crooked fight manager into leaving his native heath to become a professional fighter.

The husky farm boy, it seems, has only one great desire in life, and that is to find the mother who left him as a boy on the doorstep of the farmer who brought him up. So, the scheming fight manager, played by Pat, provides a mother for Wayne in the person of a raffish old kelptomaniac who in her distant youth had been an actress.

Supporting the featured trio, is a cast rich with accomplished comedians, including May Robson, Jane Wyman, Stanley Fields, Maxie Rosenbloom, Sidney Toler, Ed Brophy, Paul Hurst, Morgan Conway and many others.

The Belle overseas news and views will be presented on the same program.

WAR GLEANINGS

Hamilton, Bermuda, Sept. 12 — (AP)—Two of Bermuda's most widely known prohibitions have gone toppling as a result of the war. The Assembly has decided to allow motor traffic on the island. Women have been granted suffrage.

Lille, France, Sept. 12—(AP) — Jeane Poulle, fugitive from the Devil's Island penal colony, appeared here today to join the French Army. He had been living in Belgium after escaping 13 years ago.

Vigo, Spain, Sept. 12—(AP) — Vigo's fishermen did not cast their nets yesterday. They picked bananas. A German ship threw overboard about 500 tons of bananas. The fishermen gathered the fruit and sold it in Vigo.

Wellington, N. Z., Sept. 12—(CP Reuters)—Men stood in line before recruiting offices throughout New Zealand today to volunteer for the special military force to be used for possible overseas service as well as for home defence.

Financial proposals to meet the war situation will be brought down in Parliament Friday.

of the present and post-war gener-pay interest to those of their fel-

PRODUCTIONS
hereby shift its own real burden on home does not enable us to borrow l goods and services that are used ne means of diverting our produc-

s which is less painful at the time mewhat greater resort to taxation.
of our citizens and spend it on war om spending that $100 on his own le someone else to spend it on some ure we will have to pay him not ell.
the same diversion by taxing the
this method alone, that is to say, s-you-go policy would seem at first
y of war finance; in principle it al, the most equitable, the least locations.

VE IN CHARACTER
no account of the desire, indeed ng some savings to provide for a much in taxation that individual l out, would become so disruptive ce disorganization and public dispels us to admit that a pay-as-you-e psychological reactions to taxa-nize that when diversion by means is carried too far the average citi-use in his working for any addis not put his best effort into his production fall off.

KIMUM EFFICIENCY
uction at maximum efficiency we eal costs of the war will increase.
these various considerations that and how much to borrow.
to war purposes by inflation. We oney and use them to purchase in the others, what we take for without. Instead of taking money rm of taxes or loans, we put our is old money and take the goods
ing prices up against him.

L CIRCULATION
ey will then go into general cir-te with the former supply. There-that we need we must necessarily ey, thus driving prices up farther trol prices rigidly, then, assuming could be effectively controlled—would have to prevent the public her means such as a drastic system at case the citizen would get paid d freely. In other words, he has forced loan to the government on

THOD UNFAIR
at this inflationary method of fi-nfair and inequitable of all the erials to war-time purposes. It d scheme of taxation of a most tion of the burden upon the pere wage earner, the salaried man

, insurance policies or securities money. It represents a complete on in accordance with ability to

ILE IN WAKE

NO MATERIAL CHANGE IN INTEREST RATES

We do not expect that any material change in interest rates from peace-time levels will be necessary to attract a sufficient portion of the large increase in savings which should be produced by the expanding production and incomes under war-time conditions. And we refuse to believe that those of our people who will benefit from the new conditions would seek to take advantage of war necessities to demand any undue increase in the interest rates which we have paid in peace-time.

I have already indicated the basis for distinguishing two major periods in our program—the initial period of expansion and preparation and the main period of full war effort. We commence the initial period immediately, and the paramount need is to get things moving as rapidly as possible in the proper direction.

Our own expenditure on defence and preparation will furnish an important stimulus to the expansion of economic activity. There will be two additional sources of stimulus, first, the orders which we expect some of our allies to place in Canada for essential foodstuffs, raw materials and munitions; and secondly, the private capital expenditures which will probably be necessary in order to place our industry on an adequate footing to meet war requirements.

RAPID EXPANSION OF EMPLOYMENT EXPECTED

These expenditures will probably soon be large enough to bring a rapid expansion of employment and incomes. Out of these enlarged incomes the public will be able to contribute more tax revenues and more savings.

During the next few months, while we are starting the process of getting all our available resources into useful employment, the expansion in tax revenues from either existing or new sources may not provide for any very important part of our increased expenditures.

We shall have to do some borrowing but the initial operation will probably be of a very short-term character and be signed to promote the immediate expansion of productive activity.

It would be unwise and probably impracticable to attempt at an early stage any large borrowing operation designed to draw heavily upon public savings. Only after the initial period of expansion is well under way should we find it necessary to offer a loan for general public subscription in order that savings may be put directly to use.

NATIONAL INCOME TO INCREASE

By the time we have achieved the second stage of full war effort our national income will have increased so substantially that our existing taxes will yield a much higher revenue than during the last year or two. Not only will there be a greater volume and value of sales but the rise in individual earnings will bring more incomes into the higher taxation brackets and there will be additional business profits subject to tax. Consequently, the increase in Dominion revenues should be larger, proportionately, than the increase in the national income.

ELIMINATES RELIEF COSTS

Nevertheless, our special expenditure caused by war conditions will be substantially increased, and while certain expenditures that have caused heavy drains upon the treasury in recent years, such as those for unemployment relief and wheat marketing, may be largely or wholly eliminated, it can never be forgotten that we start the war with a Dominion budget heavily unbalanced under peace-time conditions.

It is obvious, therefore, that additional taxexs should be imposed immediately. I am confident that the Canadian public as a whole will expect this parliament to have sufficient courage to impose upon them such new or additional levies as will demonstrate an immediate and resolute effort to pay our way.

Good Demand Raises Butter, Egg Prices

Toronto, Sept. 12.—Further price advances were recorded by butter and eggs at Toronto yesterday.

Good demand with some speculative interest apparent, readily absorbed prevailing light offerings on the butter market and occasioned higher prices. A brisk movement through retail channels was reported as many retailers, fearing rising prices, are buying ahead. Wholesale prices on No. 1 Ontario

CHIEF OF TWEED ARRESTS PAIR

Alleged Stolen Linens and Bedding Found in Their Possession

When Chief Constable J. C. Hayes, of Tweed, stopped a suspicious-looking pair of men driving through Tweed yesterday, his sus-

Ottawa, Sept. 12—(CP)—Kenneth W. Taylor of Hamilton, Ont., has been appointed Secretary of the War-Time Prices and Trade Board, it was announced here last night. Professor of Economics at McMaster University, he has served as advisor to various government departments on several occasions.

London, Sept. 12— (CP)— The King and Queen have donated 7,000 pounds ($28,750) to the Red Cross for aid to war wounded. Queen Mary has contributed 1,800 pounds, the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester 1,000 pounds, the Duke and Duchess of Kent 750 pounds, the Princess Royal and the Earl of Harewood 500 pounds and the Duke of Connaught 500 pounds.

London, Sept. 12—(CP Cable) — The Cereal Control Board today urged economical ues of Manitoba wheat stocks and suggested that millers limit themselves to a grist of 10 per cent in their flour. The Board pointed out that only limited supplies would be released from stores under its control in order to conserve supplies for the present. The recommendation was in the nature of a warning, not an order.

New York, Sept. 12—(AP)—Earl Browder, General Secretary of the Communist Party in the United States, believes revolution within Germany will destroy Hitler.

Browder, addressing a mass meeting in Madison Square Garden last night, predicted such a revolt as the planned result of the recent Soviet-Reich non-aggression pact.

Edmonton, Sept. 2—(CP)—Three Chinese were among the men seeking to enlist here yesterday in the Canadian Active Service Force. They wanted to be recruited as cooks.

New Orleans, Sept. 12—(AP) — Only persons of legitimate business will be allowed on the wharves and other property of the Port of New Orleans during the war. No skiff, motorboat or similar craft will be permitted within 200 feet of the docks or of ships moored to the docks.

POLAR HERO DIES

Klerksdorp, South Africa (CP)—Only man in the world possessing a South Pole medal with five bars, Commander Frank Wild, who went south with Captain Scott and Shackleton, died here recently.

A scene from "Unmarried," the picture now playing at the Capitol Theatre showing John Hartley, Helen Twelvetrees, Sidney Blackmer and Buck Jones with the second feature, "The House of Fear," starring William Gargan and Irene Hervey.

THEY'RE SENSATIONAL!
THE FLAVOUR'S WONDERFUL!
HUSKIES for Husky Youngsters
Huskies Whole Wheat Flakes

You'll say Huskies are the greatest breakfast cereal you've met. Wonderful flavour—and rich with the food values of whole Canadian wheat.

NIGHT

7.45—The political situation in Europe.——WJZ.
8.00—Human Adventure — WABC, WGR.
8.30—"Information Please" — WHAM, WJZ.
9.00—Artie Shaw's Orch.—WJZ, WHAM.
9.00—Battle of the Sexes, Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson. — WEAF, WGY.
9.00—We, the People.—WABC, CFRB.
9.30—Fibber McGee and Molly. — WEAF, CBL.
10.00—Middleweight Boxing Bout—WJZ
10.00—Mr. District Attorney, drama —WEAF, WGY.
10.00—Time to Shine; Hal Kemp's Orch.—WABC.
10.30—Uncle Walter's Dog House, —WEAF, WGY.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF.
7.30—Summer Colony with Buddy Clark.—WABC, WGR.
8.00—One Man's Family, dramatic sketch.—WEAF, CBO, CBL.
8.00—Honolulu Bound with Phil Baker.—WABC, WGR.
8.30—Paul Whiteman's Orch.—WABC.
9.00—What's My Name: Quiz program.—WEAF, WGY.
9.30—George Jessel's Celebrity Program.—WEAF, WGY.
9.30—American Chemical Society meeting.—WJZ, WHAM.

RADIO PROGRAMS

TUESDAY

6.30—Rosh Hashanah Program — WABC, WJR
7.15—Jimmie Fidler—WABC, WGR
7.15—That's What I Said, with Ted Husing—WABC, WGR
7.15—Quicksilver with Bob Brown and Ransom Sherman. — WEAF, WGY
8.00—The Inside Story, dramatizing news of the day.—WJZ, WHAM.
8.00—Johnny with Johnny Green's Orch.—WEAF
9.30—Bob Crosby's Orch.—WABC
10.30—Kaltenborn from Europe. — WABC
11.15—Jean de Rimanoczy, violinist. —CBO,CBL.

WEDNESDAY

3.00—Navy Band.—WGR
4.00—Bay Shore Handicap—WJZ, WGR, CFRB
6.45—Lowell Thomas, news commentator—WJZ, CBL
8.30—Hobby Lobby; Dave Elman—WJZ
8.30—Tommy Dorsey's Trombone and Orch.—WGY
8.30—Jack Teagarden's Orchestra —CBO, CBL
9.30—Percy Faith's Music—CBO, CBL.
10.00—Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge — WEAF.
12.30—Lights Out; mystery, drama —WEAF

RADIO DIRECTORY

CANADIAN STATIONS

| | Kls. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal | 600 |
| CKOC—Hamilton | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland | 1070 |

UNITED STATES STATIONS

| | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago | 354 |
| WGN—Chicago | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville | 820 |
| WEAF—New York | 660 |
| WJZ—New York | 760 |
| WABC—New York | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady | 980 |
| WOR—Newark | 710 |

Mr. and Mrs.—

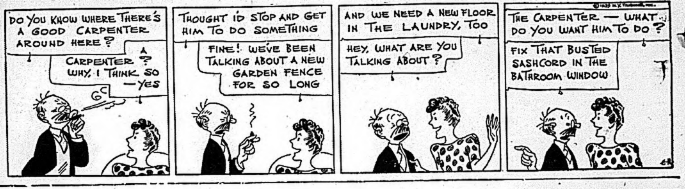
By Briggs



DO YOU KNOW WHERE THERE'S A GOOD CARPENTER AROUND HERE?
A CARPENTER? WHY, I THINK SO —YES
THOUGHT I'D STOP AND GET HIM TO DO SOMETHING
FINE! WE'VE BEEN TALKING ABOUT A NEW GARDEN FENCE FOR SO LONG AND WE NEED A NEW FLOOR IN THE LAUNDRY, TOO
HEY, WHAT ARE YOU TALKING ABOUT?
THE CARPENTER — WHAT DO YOU WANT HIM TO DO?
FIX THAT BUSTED SASHCORD IN THE BATHROOM WINDOW

Pop-

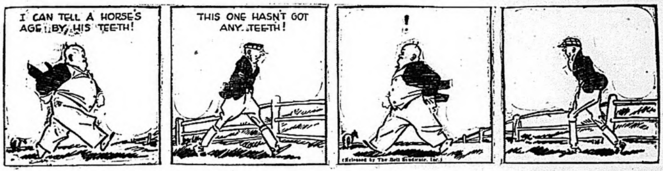
By J. Millar Watt



I CAN TELL A HORSE'S AGE BY HIS TEETH!
THIS ONE HASN'T GOT ANY TEETH!
!

(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

er--

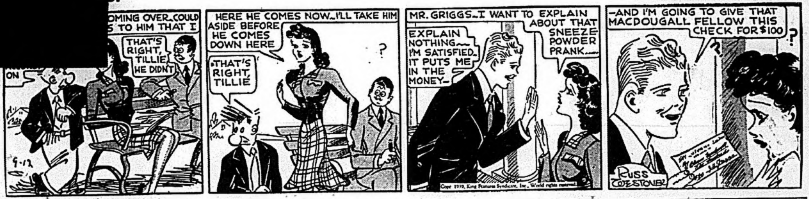
By Russ Westover



OMING OVER..COULD S TO HIM THAT I ON
THAT'S RIGHT, TILLIE HE DIDN'T
HERE HE COMES NOW..I'LL TAKE HIM ASIDE BEFORE HE COMES DOWN HERE
THAT'S RIGHT, TILLIE
?
MR. GRIGGS..I WANT TO EXPLAIN ABOUT THAT SNEEZE-POWDER PRANK....
EXPLAIN NOTHING—I'M SATISFIED..IT PUTS ME IN THE MONEY—
—AND I'M GOING TO GIVE THAT MACDOUGALL FELLOW THIS CHECK FOR $100
?
?
RUSS WESTOVER
9-12

Copr 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

Bringing Up Father—

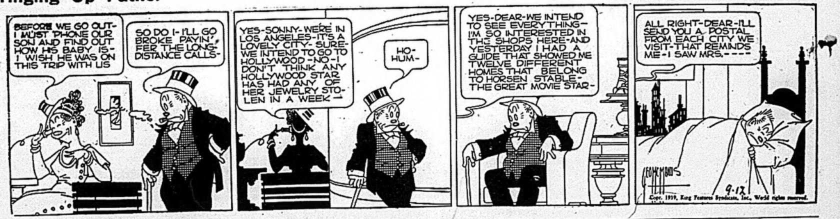
By George McManus



BEFORE WE GO OUT-I MUST PHONE OUR SON AND FIND OUT HOW HIS BABY IS-I WISH HE WAS ON THIS TRIP WITH US
SO DO I-I'LL GO BROKE PAYIN' FER THE LONG-DISTANCE CALLS-
YES-SONNY-WE'RE IN LOS ANGELES-IT'S A LOVELY CITY-SURE-WE INTEND TO GO TO HOLLYWOOD-NO-I DON'T THINK ANY HOLLYWOOD STAR HAS HAD ANY OF HER JEWELRY STOLEN IN A WEEK—
HO-HUM-
YES-DEAR-WE INTEND TO SEE EVERYTHING—I'M SO INTERESTED IN THE SHOPS HERE-AND YESTERDAY I HAD A GUIDE THAT SHOWED ME TWELVE DIFFERENT HOMES THAT BELONG TO HORSEN STABLE-THE GREAT MOVIE STAR-
ALL RIGHT-DEAR-I'LL SEND YOU A POSTAL FROM EACH CITY WE VISIT-THAT REMINDS ME-I SAW MRS.----
GEO McMANUS
9-12

Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

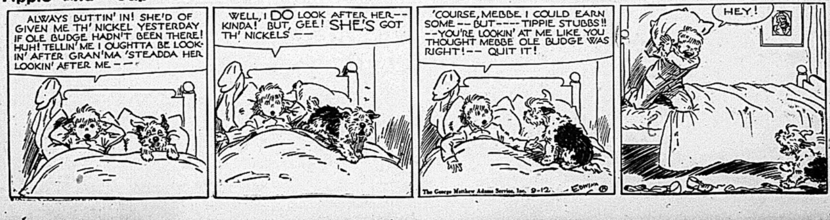
By Edwina



ALWAYS BUTTIN' IN! SHE'D OF GIVEN ME TH' NICKEL YESTERDAY IF OLE BUDGE HADN'T BEEN THERE! HUH! TELLIN' ME I OUGHTTA BE LOOKIN' AFTER GRAN'MA 'STEADDA HER LOOKIN' AFTER ME — —
WELL, I DO LOOK AFTER HER — — KINDA! BUT, GEE! SHE'S GOT TH' NICKELS — — 'COURSE, MEBBE I COULD EARN SOME — — BUT — — — — TIPPIE STUBBS!! — — YOU'RE LOOKIN' AT ME LIKE YOU THOUGHT MEBBE OLE BUDGE WAS RIGHT! — — QUIT IT!
HEY!
EDWINA
9-12

The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 2.15.

MINES

| | |
|---|---|
| Ajax | 22 |
| Aldermac | 48 |
| Anglo Hur | 210 |
| Aunor | 192 |
| Bankfield | 19 |
| Beattie | 102 |
| Bidgood | 10 1-2 |
| Big Missouri | 13 |
| Bralorne | 930 |
| Buffalo Ank | 650 |
| Calgary and Ed. | 195 |
| Can Malar | 56 |
| Central Pat | 220 |
| Chemical Research | 20 |
| Chromium | 55 |
| Coast Copper | 300 |
| Chiboug | 18 |
| Coniaurum | 140 |
| Dome | 25 |
| Eldorado | 85 |
| East Mal | 216 |
| Falconbridge | 545 |
| Francoeur | 28 |
| Gillies L | 5 |
| God's Lake | 42 |
| Gunnar | 43 |
| Hardrock | 97 |
| Home Oil | 218 |
| Hollinger | 12 3-8 |
| Howey | 26 |
| Hudson Bay | 30 1-4 |
| Jellicoe | 8 |
| Kerr Add | 176 |
| Kirk Hud | 20 |
| Kirk Lake | 122 |
| Lapa Cad | 15 |
| Lake Shore | 30 1-2 |
| Leitch | 69 |
| Little L L | 270 |
| Macassa | 395 |
| McIntyre | 45 3-4 |
| McLeod | 175 |
| McKenzie | 108 |
| McWatters | 42 |
| Mining Corp. | 135 |
| Moneta | 84 |
| Noranda | 72 1-4 |
| Nipissing | 110 |
| O'Brien | 170 |
| Okalta | 100 |
| Omega | 23 |
| Paymaster | 34 |
| Pamour | 180 |
| Perron | 175 |
| Pend. Or. | 279 |
| Pickle Cr. | 160 |
| Pioneer | 220 |
| Powell | 160 |
| Premier | 128 |
| Preston E.D. | 130 |
| Pros. Air. | 50 |
| Reno | 34 |
| Royalite | 33 1-2 |
| San Antonio | 165 |
| Sherritt G. | 155 |
| Siscoe | 90 |
| Sladen M. | 26 |
| Stadacona | 28 |
| Sud. Basin | 235 |
| Sullivan | 65 |
| Sylvanite | 290 |
| T. Hughes | 395 |
| Tex. Can. Oil | 93 |
| Toburn | 140 |
| Ventures | 430 |
| W. Amulet | 620 |
| Wr. Hargreaves | 705 |

TORONTO

| | |
|---|---|
| Bell Telephone | 157 |
| B. A. Oil | 21 3-8 |
| Brewing Corp. | 90 |
| Braz. Trac. | 7 |
| Can. Bud Brewery | 3 7-8 |
| Can. Cement | 6 3-4 |
| Can. Dredge | 13 |
| Can. Ind. Alcohol | 4 1-8 |
| C.P.R. | 6 |
| Can. Malting | 29 1-2 |
| Can. Vinegar | 10 3-4 |
| Canada Car | 17 |
| Cockshutt Plow | 8 1-2 |
| Cons. Bakeries | 16 1-2 |
| Con. Smelting | 51 1-2 |
| Dominion Stores | 5 1-4 |
| Dist. Seagrams | 15 |
| Fanny Farmer | 21 3-4 |
| Ford "A" | 19 1-2 |
| Gypsum | 4 1-8 |
| Imp. Oil | 15 3-4 |
| Int. Nickel | 50 |
| Inter. Pet. | 23 1-2 |
| Imp. Tobacco | 14 3-4 |
| Loblaw | 26 1-4 |
| Massey Harris | 8 1-8 |
| Mont. Power | 27 1-2 |
| McColl-Frontenac | 6 |
| Power Corp. | 8 |
| Steel of Canada | 85 1-2 |
| Supertest | 33 |
| Shawinigan | 19 3-4 |
| Walker's | 35 |
| Walker's, Pfd. | 16 7-8 |
| Walkerville Brewery | 80 |

NEW YORK

| | |
|---|---|
| American Can. | 113 |
| American T. and T. | 164 5-8 |
| Amer. For. Power | 2 3-4 |
| American Radiator | 9 |
| Anaconda | 37 7-8 |
| Auburn | 5 1-4 |
| Bethlehem Steel | 95 |
| Case | 86 |
| Chrysler | 85 1-8 |
| General Electric | 40 3-4 |
| General Motors | 54 |
| Elec. Auto Lite | 35 1-4 |
| Inter. Telephone | 4 3-4 |
| North American | 21 3-4 |
| Montgomery Ward | 51 3-4 |
| Phillips Pet. | 44 3-4 |
| Radio | 5 5-8 |
| Simmons | 21 1-2 |
| Standard Oil of N. J. | 51 1-2 |
| Standard Brands | 6 3-8 |
| Stewart-Warner | 9 |
| U. S. Steel | 77 1-4 |
| United Aircraft | 45 7-8 |
| Vanadium | 38 1-4 |
| Westinghouse | 117 |

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 2 p. m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

| | |
|---|---|
| Albany River | 15-18 |
| Barber Larder | 2-3 |
| Capps Gold | 3A |
| Kenricia | 16-19 |
| Magnet Con. | 53-56 |
| Martin Bird | 2-4 |
| Oklend | 6 1-2-7 1-2 |
| Pascalis | 31A |
| Proprietary | 165B |
| Sheldon | 5A |
| Shenango | 5 1-2-6 1-2 |
| Upper Canada | 40-42 |

Market Prices Remain Firm

Egg prices noted a slight increase today on the city market where vendors demanded thirty cents the dozen for choice firsts. Mediums and other grades were offered at from one to two cents less.

Bartlett pears stole the fruit limelight today with heavy supplies being available at thirty-five cents the six-quart basket. Peach stocks were fair with good quality fruits offered at twenty-five and thirty cents the basket.

Watermelons and canteloupes were again plentiful with district grown stocks competing with imported offerings at from five cents each for watermelon and a new low of fifteen cents the dozen for small canteloupe.

Vegetable quotations were firm with potatoes selling at one dollar the bushel for good quality potatoes, while a smaller variety was offered at eighty-five and ninety cents for the same quantity.

Sweet corn was likewise steady with good quality ears offered at fifteen cents the dozen. Choice tomatoes were offered at fifty and sixty cents the bushel, with beets, carrots, onions, new cabbage and cauliflower, offered at week end prices.

Burbank plums and green gages sold at forty-five and fifty cents the basket with German prunes offered at a few cents extra.

No fish was offered today due to rising metropolitan markets.

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 12 (CP)—Peterborough dressedweight bacon-hog prices, up 25 cents Monday, advanced another 65 cents today. Stratford quotes were up 50 cents and Hull prices were unchanged.

Due to unsteady tone of the Hamilton market, no prices were established.

Liveweights: Hull $8.25, Chatham $8.25, Brantford $8.60.

Dressedweights: Hull $11, Peterborough $11.40, Stratford $11 plus transportation, London $11, plus transportation, Chatham $11.30, Brantford $11.65.

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, Sept. 12—(CP)—Traders turned to the golds in the afternoon session today and the buying pushed prices up to show 2 to 3 points of an index gain. Base metal stocks also stiffened moderately to show a preponderance of net gains against losses in the early session and the western oils leaned slightly to the up side. Profit-taking in the steels expanded and they led the industrial section to a lower close. Volume was well above the 500,000 share mark.

Gol dstocks returned to the spotlight around the noon period and through the early afternoon buying was fairly active on rising prices. The gold share index showed a gain of more than a point at noon while the base metal and western oil indices were unchanged and the industrials lower.

Profit-taking developed in the recently buoyant steels, causing price recessions in spots and lower prices ruled for the utilities and foods.

Base metal issues improved in the early afternoon and gains were boarded by Noranda, Nickel, Smelters and Pend Oreille. Western oils were mainly steady, Home holding at 2.20 and Calgary-Edmonton at 1.90.

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, Sept. 12—(AP)—Buying in Rails and Utilities halted a fast retreat of many recent warboom stocks in today's market.

The list ran into profit-taking barriers at the start and virtually all industrial groups eventually backaway 1 to more than 6 points. The rallying attempt took place after noon, and extreme setbacks were reduced substantially. Transfer were about 4,500,000 shares.

Deficit of $156,000,000

(Continued From Page One)

In view of the absence of the Minister of Finance due to the fact that sufficient time has not elapsed since his appointment for his election to a seat in this House, it falls to my lot to lay before the House the financial proposals of the government.

We enter this war at a time when Canadian business has been reviving from the recession which checked our recovery from the great depression. Without attempting to describe economic conditions in detail, I would draw your attention to the fact that conditions have improved substantially in the four months that have elapsed since the last budget.

Given peace, we might legitimately have anticipated a brisk recovery during the balance of the fiscal year. Now that war is upon us, its immediate effect may produce hesitation and quietness for a month or two in view of the shock to business confidence and the necessity of making readjustments to war conditions.

This period should not last long, and once it has passed we may, I think, expect a more rapid expansion due to the insatiable demands of war.

NATURAL FOR REACTIONS

It has been a matter of special gratification to note the comparatively moderate effect of the immediate shock of war upon our financial markets. It was only natural that certain reactions should take place in the opening days of a major war but there has been no closing of stock exchanges, no public hysteria, no wholesale liquidation, no strain upon our financial institutions.

What a contrast with the cataclysmic events of the first two weeks of August 1914! What has happened is, of course, a strong tribute to the vastly improved position which we enjoy today. True, we started with a much higher public debt, but in most other respects our economy is infinitely stronger. We are no longer dependent on vast imports of foreign capital on which the old pre-war boom was based.

CANADIAN SAVINGS INCREASED

During and since the war, Canadian savings have increased enormously and we have built up a vast and efficient mechanism for the mobilization of these savings. The strength of our banking system has always been recognized, but the changes which we have made in monetary and banking legislation during the last few years have greatly improved its efficiency and flexibility and its ability to promote the public welfare in wartime as well as in peacetime.

In recent years we have increased enormously the diversification of our industries, and in particular the remarkable expansion of our mining and metal industries will be of unique importance in a modern war. In every way we are far better able to undertake immediately the great economic tasks which war has thrust upon us.

TAX STRUCTURE WILL PRODUCE HIGHER REVENUE

You will recall that in April last the then Minister of Finance forecast total revenues of $490,000,000 for the present fiscal year.

While during the first five months of the year the receipts from certain taxes, particularly income tax, were possibly lower than he had anticipated, I now expect that our present tax structure, without any revision, will probably produce a higher revenue for the year as a whole than he had estimated, because of the expansion of production and incomes which should result within a relatively short time from our own expenditures on war activity and the probable placing of substantial war orders in this country by one or more allied governments.

For our present purposes it is now estimated that, if there were no changes in our tax structure, our total revenues for the year would be of the order of $495,000,000.

On the side of expenditure it is far more difficult to forecast the final result of the year's operations. In the budget of last April the probable total expenditure for the year was estimated at $550,100,000, exclusive of any further losses in respect of wheat and exclusive of certain defence expenditures which are being capitalized under the special sinking fund plan.

NOT FEASIBLE TO MAKE ESTIMATE

For many obvious reasons it is still not feasible or advisable to make any estimate of the probable financial results of the wheat marketing program, although it will be clear to everyone that the substantial change which has taken place in wheat prices will, to say the least, greatly ease the burden that might otherwise have had to be borne by the national treasury.

Fortunately, also, the splendid wheat crop which is now being harvested in Western Canada should reduce to rather modest proportions any expenditures that might otherwise have had to be made under the Prairie Farm Assistance Act. With the certainty of a good wheat crop and as a result of the gradual improvement in business which has already taken place, the appropriations already made by parliament for deficits of government-owned enterprises will, I believe, prove adequate.

SPECIAL EXPENDITURES LEFT

This leaves for consideration, in respect of the items budgeted for last session, mainly our ordinary and capital expenditures and special expenditures for unemployment relief and for projects designed primarily to alleviate the problem of unemployment.

Parliament can be assured that while our policy will be to conserve our resources to the maximum practicable extent and to secure the maximum possible economies in the appropriations already granted by parliament, that policy will not be carried out in such a way as to aggravate unemployment and retard the prompt expansion of production and national income.

Finally, we must take into account the sum of $100,000,000 which we have asked parliament to appropriate in order to meet the special expenditures necessitated by the existing state of war.

EXPENSES WILL BE $651,000,000

Including this amount, it is now estimated that our total expenditures for the year will aggregate approximately $651,000,000, not including the two items of capitalized defence expenditures and any further losses in the marketing of wheat. If we deduct from this sum the estimate I have given of $495,000,000 for our total revenues for the year, we arrive at an anticipated deficit of $156,000,000, exclusive of the two items just mentioned.

CANNOT ESCAPE REAL COST

First of all let me emphasize that however we finance the cost of the war, whether by taxation or by borrowing or by inflation, we cannot escape its real costs.

To destroy the menace of Hitlerism, we must be prepared to sacrifice what the use of these materials and the labor of these men would otherwise have provided for us in terms of better and more secure living.

We can, however, lighten the burden imposed by this real sacrifice if we expand our total employment and production. To the extent that we can put our unemployed men and equipment to work producing what we need for war, we will have to divert less resources away from normal uses.

Conditions of war will not only demand but probably also make possible the full utiliation of our man-power and equipment.

MAY BE SOME REGIMENTATION

The urgent demands of ourselves and our allies for supplies of all kinds and the will of a united people to win the war, even at the cost of some regimentation which might not be acceptable to a democratic people in peace time, will provide that impetus to expansion of production and capital investment, which has been lacking in these recent years of uncertainty and fear.

In this connection we recall how rapidly Canadian business responded to the needs of our own and allied governments during the last war.

There may be some who feel that borrowing at home may enable us to shift part of the burden to the next generation. Ill-considered and excessive domestic borrowing, of course, may add unnecessarily to the burdens of certain members of the present and post-war generations who will find it necessary to pay interest to those of their fellows who may be bondholders.

DIVERT OUR PRODUCTIONS

But the war generation does not thereby shift its own real burden on to prosperity because borrowing at home does not enable us to borrow from future production the physical goods and services that are used up during a war.

Borrowing at home is merely one means of diverting our production into war requirements, a means which is less painful at the time but which ultimately requires a somewhat greater resort to taxation.

When we borrow $100 from one of our citizens and spend it on war supplies, he is thereby prevented from spending that $100 on his own consumption or investing it to enable someone else to spend it on some kind of capital production. In future we will have to pay him not only the principal but interest as well.

Obviously we could accomplish the same diversion by taxing the $100 away from him. Diversion by this method alone, that is to say, by a 100-per cent taxation or pay-as-you-go policy would seem at first sight to represent the ideal policy of war finance; in principle it would appear to be the most logical, the most equitable, the least likely to create disturbances and dislocations.

BECOME DISRUPTIVE IN CHARACTER

But, in the first place, this takes no account of the desire, indeed the necessity, of individuals making some savings to provide for a rainy day, and an effort to take so much in taxation that individual savings would be practically wiped out, would become so disruptive in character as inevitably to produce disorganization and public discontent.

In the second place, realism compels us to admit that a pay-as-you-go policy has to take account of the psychological reactions to taxation. In other words, we must recognize that when diversion by means of taxation rather than borrowing is carried too far the average citizen begins to feel that there is no use in his working for any additional income and therefore he does not put his best effort into his work the result that efficiency and production fall off.

MUST MAINTAIN MAXIMUM EFFICIENCY,

If we cannot maintain our production at maximum efficiency we may lose the war, and at least the real costs of the war will increase. It is by a reasonable balancing of these various considerations that we have to decide how much to tax and how much to borrow.

We can also divert our resources to war purposes by inflation. We can create additional supplies of money and use them to purchase what we need. In this case, just as in the others, what we take for war purposes someone else must do without. Instead of taking money from the individual citizen in the form of taxes or loans, we put our new money into competition with his old money and take the goods and services away from him by forcing prices up against him.

GO INTO GENERAL CIRCULATION

Of course this new supply of money will then go into general circulation and will continue to compete with the former supply. Therefore to continue getting the supplies that we need we must necessarily continue issuing more and more money, thus driving prices up farther and farther.

If it is replied that we should control prices rigidly, then, assuming that all prices under such conditions could be effectively controlled—a very optimistic assumption—we would have to prevent the public from spending its money by some other means such as a drastic system of rationing all commodities. In that case the citizen would get paid in money which he could not spend freely. In other words, he has in effect been compelled to make a forced loan to the government on which he receives no interest.

INFLATION METHOD UNFAIR

It must be realized, therefore, that this inflationary method of financing a war is easily the most unfair and inequitable of all the methods of diverting labor and materials to war-time purposes. It represents merely a thinly disguised scheme of taxation of a most unjust type.

It throws a grossly unfair proportion of the burden upon the person of small or medium income, the wage earner, the salaried man and those who have savings deposits, insurance policies or securities of any kind whose value is fixed in money. It represents a complete violation of the principle of taxartion in accordance with ability to pay.

LEAVES TROUBLE IN WAKE

It leaves in its wake a host of troubles such as chronic dislocations between industries, incomes and prices which are most difficult to cure, very serious damage to business and public morale, and high interest rates. If long continued, it can end only in complete collapse. These and other results of drastice inflation can be illustrated from the experience of many countries during the last war.

Canada's record in that war was much better than that of most other countries. But like the other belligerents she met the major portion of the cost of the war out of borrowings and credit expansion.

PAID PRICE FOR 20 YEARS

No country had the courage to finance the great war solely by resort to taxation and borrowings out of savings. As already indicated, the record of some countries was much better than that of others but all suffered from a world-wide inflationary rise of prices of enormous magnitude. For the last 20 years the world has been paying the price—a colossal one. Indeed it is perhaps not too much to say that some of the roots of the present war are to be found in the world-wide unsound financing of the last war and the great economic dislocations and continuing burdens of which it was in part the cause. It is to be hoped that in the present war the world may be able to avoid a repetition of that experience.

MAY BE NECESSARY IN EARLY STAGES

All this is not to say that a small and carefully regulated amount credit expansion may give an impetus to their prompt utilization. If war in order to assist the increase of production and employment. It must be small and carefully controlled because its effects which may not appear immediately are cumulative and otherwise might get out of hand.

If at the beginning of the war there are unemployed resources, some credit expansion may give an impetus to thei rprompt utilization. If it is carefully controlled, the expansion of production may prevent any abnormal rise in prices, confidence may be maintained and the initial impetus may be carried on and accelerated by the insistent demand that exists for supplies.

However, as soon as the expansion of employment and production gets well under way and certainly before it approaches its limits, further expansion of the supply of money and credit must be stopped if the danger of progressive inflation is to be avoided. .

With an economy at full production and employment, the only result of expanding money and credit is to raise prices without increasing production. At such a point commences the cumulative spiral of inflation with all its deadly consequences to the economy.

PAY-AS-YOU-GO POLICY

It is with these fundamental considerations in mind that we have decided upon our policy of war finance. Because we believe it is the part of wisdom, we shall follow as far as may be practicable a pay-as-you-go policy.

In imposing the new tax burdens which this policy will require we shall be guided by the belief that all our citizens will be ready to bear some share of the cost of war, but we shall insist on the principle of equality of sacrifice on the basis of ability to pay.

We shall not of course be able to meet all war costs by taxation, because, as already indicated, there is a limit to the taxes that can be imposed without producing inefficiency, a lack of enterprise, and serious discontent.

What we cannot meet by taxation we shall finance by means of borrowing from the Canadian public at rates as low as possible. There may be some who expect or fear that interest rates will rise substantially, perhaps a few who are thinking in terms of conditions during the last war. Such a view completely overlooks the vast changes that have taken place.

NO MATERIAL CHANGE IN INTEREST RATES

We do not expect that any material change in interest rates from peace-time levels will be necessary to attract a sufficient portion of the large increase in savings which should be produced by the expanding production and incomes under war-time conditions. And we refuse to believe that those of our people who will benefit from the new conditions would seek to take advantage of war necessities to demand any undue increase in the interest rates which we have paid in peace-time.

I have already indicated the basis for distinguishing two major periods in our program—the initial period of expansion and preparation and the main period of full war effort. We commence the initial period immediately, and the paramount need is to get things moving as rapidly as possible in the proper direction.

Our own expenditure on defence and preparation will furnish an important stimulus to the expansion of economic activity. There will be two additional sources of stimulus, first, the orders which we expect some of our allies to place in Canada for essential foodstuffs, raw materials and munitions; and secondly, the private capital expenditures which will probably be necessary in order to place our industry on an adequate footing to meet war requirements.

RAPID EXPANSION OF EMPLOYMENT EXPECTED

These expenditures will probably soon be large enough to bring a rapid expansion of employment and incomes. Out of these enlarged incomes the public will be able to contribute more tax revenues and more savings.

During the next few months, while we are starting the process of getting all our available resources into useful employment, the expansion in tax revenues from either existing or new sources may not provide for any very important part of our increased expenditures.

We shall have to do some borrowing but the initial operation will probably be of a very short-term character and be signed to promote the immediate expansion of productive activity.

It would be unwise and probably impracticable to attempt at an early stage any large borrowing operation designed to draw heavily upon public savings. Only after the initial period of expansion is well under way should we find it necessary to offer a loan for general public subscription in order that savings may be put directly to use.

NATIONAL INCOME TO INCREASE

By the time we have achieved the second stage of full war effort our national income will have increased so substantially that our existing taxes will yield a much higher revenue than during the last year or two. Not only will there be a greater volume and value of sales but the rise in individual earnings will bring more incomes into the higher taxation brackets and there will be additional business profits subject to tax. Consequently, the increase in Dominion revenues should be larger, proportionately, than the increase in the national income.

ELIMINATES RELIEF COSTS

Nevertheless, our special expenditure caused by war conditions will be substantially increased, and while certain expenditures that have caused heavy drains upon the treasury in recent years, such as those for unemployment relief and wheat marketing, may be largely or wholly eliminated, it can never be forgotten that we start the war with a Dominion budget heavily unbalanced under peace-time conditions.

It is obvious, therefore, that additional taxexs should be imposed immediately. I am confident that the Canadian public as a whole will expect this parliament to have sufficient courage to impose upon them such new or additional levies as will demonstrate an immediate and resolute effort to pay our way.

Good Demand Raises Butter, Egg Prices

Toronto, Sept. 12.—Further price advances were recorded by butter and eggs at Toronto yesterday.

Good demand with some speculative interest apparent, readily absorbed prevailing light offerings on the butter market and occasioned higher prices. A brisk movement through retail channels was reported as many retailers, fearing rising prices, are buying ahead. Wholesale prices on No. 1 Ontario creamery solids closed at 26 1-2c to 26 3-4c per pound, and retail prices at 27 1-2c to 28c for top grade prints.

Decreasing receipts due to seasonal declining production and strong demand were responsible for another fillip in egg prices. Despite the sharp advances of last week, the Dominion Department of agriculture points out that Canadian prices are still below a year ago. Number of cases of eggs inspected for export to Great Britain last week totalled 500, bringing total for the current season, April 21 to Sept. 9, to 19,092, as compared with 14,564 a year ago and 2,575 in the 1937 period.

Montreal Produce

Montreal, Sept. 12 (CP)—Produce market prices here yesterday as reported by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau, follow:

Butter—First grade creamery, prints, job price, 28c; first grade solids, job price, 27 1-2c.

Cheese—Ontario white, current receipt price, 11 1-16c-11 5-16c; Ontario colored, current receipt price, 11 5-16c. Receipts, 416 boxes.

Eggs—Graded shipments in used free cases, A-large, 34c-35c; A-medium, 32 1-2c-33c; A-pullet, 26 1-2c-27c; B-large, 23c-24c; C, 16c-17c. Reeipts, 266 cases.

GRAIN MARKET

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today by J. H. Crang and Company.

| | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| WHEAT | | | |
| October .. | 75 | 72 1-2 | 72 1-2 |
| December . | 76 7-8 | 74 1-4 | 74 3-8 |
| May .. ... | 80 1-4 | 78 1-4 | 78 3-8 |
| OATS | | | |
| October .. | 38 1-8 | 37 1-2 | 37 1-2 |
| December . | 37 5-8 | 36 7-8 | 37 |
| May .. ... | 38 5-8 | 37 3-4 | 37 3-4 |
| BARLEY | | | |
| October .. | 46 1-4 | 45 3-8 | 45 1-2 |
| December . | 46 | 45 | 45 1-4 |
| May .. ... | 47 | 46 1-4 | 46 1-4 |
| RYE | | | |
| October .. | 53 7-8 | 52 1-2 | 52 1-2 |
| December . | 54 | 53 1-4 | 53 1-2 |
| May .. ... | 57 1-2 | 56 1-2 | 56 5-8 |

London (CP)—A self-appointed guard was posted at 10 Downing Street, home of Britain's Premier, one morning. He was Peter Jackson, three, who amused crowds by threatening them with a wooden rifle if they came near.

WEDDING MARCH

Twickenham, England (CP)—The youngest bandmaster in the British Army was the first to be married at Kneller Hall chapel here when 26-year-old Donald Keeling married Enid Green. Keeling is bandmaster of the Seaforths.

CHIEF OF TWEED ARRESTS PAIR

Alleged Stolen Linens and Bedding Found in Their Possession

When Chief Constable J. C. Hayes, of Tweed, stopped a suspicious-looking pair of men driving through Tweed yesterday, his suspicions were apparently quite well founded as a quantity of alleged stolen linens and bedding was found in the possession of the men. The two men gave their names as William Peterson, Bordenwood and Russell Barlow, no address.

Barlow was charged with drunken driving, as well as reckless driving, while both men were charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Mrs. (Dr.) Bolton, of Cleveland, Ohio, the summer home being on the north shore of Big Gull Lake, Frontenac County.

Large quantities of linens and bedding were found in Barlow's car by Chief Hayes and following investigations the pair were turned over to Provincial Constable Campbell at Kingston, where they will face the breaking, entering and theft charges. Chief Hayes stated after the arrest he was convinced the arrest of Peterson and Barlow would lead to the solving of other summer cottage robberies, that have taken place in the north country of late.

GOV'T EVACUATES MANY EMPLOYEES

Between 7,000 and 8,000 Departmental Workers Will be Effected

GOV'T EVACUATES ETC.

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, Sept. 12—(CP Cable) — The Ministry of Information today announced the Government was starting to evacuate from London some of its departmental staffs. Between 7,000 and 8,000 Government employees will be affected.

No department concerned with the prosecution of the war will be evacuated, nor will any Minister of the Government leave.

The announcement said steps were being taken to "transfer from London a limited number of department staffs who can perform their duties away from the centre of Government without loss of efficiency."

R. C. H. A. Recruits at Brockville

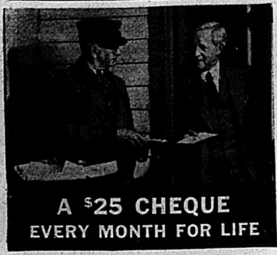
Brockville, Ont., Sept. 12—(CP)—The Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, Kingston opened, two recruiting stations in Brockville this morning. Applications had been received from approximately a dozen young Brockvillians.



Not a great deal—$25 a month—yet alone or added to your other possessions, it may represent the difference between comfort and want at age 65. Just $2 a week* payable now, will guarantee you this $25 monthly cheque beginning at age 65. In addition, this double-purpose income policy guarantees, in case of your death before age 65, an immediate payment of $905 followed by an income of $25 every month for ten years for your family. Why not talk it over with a North American Life man today.

*Approximate rate at age 35.

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE

Solid as the Continent

R. B. COOPER,
District Manager,
208 East Robertson Block.

ALL PROFITS FOR POLICYHOLDERS

British Diplomacy Now Quite Active On Many Fronts

(By J. C. Stark Associated Press Staff Writer).

London, Sept. 11 (AP)—Britain's war effort at home and afield was adjusted today to the government's plan for a long struggle based on "winning the last battle."

The limited scale of British military operations except on the sea in the nine days of the war is considered only a part of the British pattern of moving slowly and methodically at the start and increasing the tempo steadily as the conflict goes on.

"Time is on our side," was the typical explanation of events thus far.

London itself took on a more normal appearance today. Digging of trenches continued and other activity served as a reminder that the country is at war, but the whole atmosphere of the city was different from last week.

Complaints increased that the nightly blackouts were too black and could be relaxed. The first rush from the large cities has passed and those persons continuing to work in London about their duties in much the same manner as before the war started.

On the military side the terse government announcements indicated British naval power was getting into its stride against German submarine activity.

The official attitude was that spectacular successes should not be expected the first few day.

British diplomacy has been active on many fronts since the war began.

Italy, Japan and Spain, all anticomintern partners of Germany, British diplomats apparently have been making the fullest use of the new German-Russian pact to encourage distrust of the Nazi government.

Madoc

Madoc— The September meeting of St. Peter's Presbyterian Church Madoc, W.M.S., was held at the home of Mrs. Jenkins on Thursday afternoon. The president was in charge of the programme. The opening hymn was sung and Mrs. Sharpe read the Scripture lesson, followed by prayer by Mrs. Hunter. The treasurer reported the July collections. Arrangements were made to send the bale. Nine visits were reported to sick and shut-ins. A hymn was sung and the lesson period followed.

Mrs. MCaffrey took the study on the "Untouchables of India", and showed how they had responded to missionary work and were now a force in the life of India. Miss Mackintosh continued the chapter paying special attention to the work of Ghandi and of Dr. Ambedkar, a converted Untouchable, who is doing a wonderful work along, Social Service lines in Bombay. A hymn was sung, the collection taken and Mrs. Jas. Whytock and Mrs. McCaffrey closed with prayers for peace. The hostess was assisted in serving lunch by Mrs. Hugh McIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. Knapp of Buffalo, N.Y., spent the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Moon.

Mrs. Jennie Morrison returned home on Friday after two months' visit with her sister, in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Loug, and family of Grand Rapids, Mich., spent the week-end with Mr. Loug's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Loug.

Dr. A. B. Whytock of Niagara Falls, Ont., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Jas. Whytock.

Miss Aileen Kelly has accepted a position as teacher in the Continuation School at Forester's Mills, Ontario.

3rd. Sidney

3rd Sidney—The progress of Mrs. Fred Westover, who is ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chas. Moon, 2nd Line, is steadily improving.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Jas. Radford, having recently celebrated his 85th birthday. A dinner was held in his honour by the immediate relatives when Mr. Radford was presented with a gift.

Mrs Harley Hubble, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hubble and sons, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pound, Third of Thurlow.

Mrs. Joe Vallace of Bermuda, is visiting at the home of Mr. Frank Grills and her brother, Mr. Allan Latta and Mrs. Latta. Mrs. Vallace, with her husband, spent the summer in England and is spending a short time with relatives here before going to her home in Hamilton, Bermuda.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bush and sons, Jack and Glen of River Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Jared Hannah of Corbyville, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bush, 2nd Line.

Mrs. Joe Langman, 4th Line spent Friday at the home of Mrs. Harley Hubble.

Mr. Edwin Adams spent a couple of days last week in Toronto.

Mr. Harold Bowers, Thomasburg, was a recent guest at the home of his cousin, E. K. Hubble.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Westover spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hay, Bay Shore Road, Belleville, Mr. Fred McMullen, uncle of Mrs. Hay, is seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. Clayton Herman and daughter, Shirley, returned on Saturday, to Vankleek Hill, after spending a few days at their home here.

Aikens' W.M.S.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Aikens' United Church held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee Grills on Thursday afternoon.

Quiet music with Mrs. Fred Moon at the piano, and "Meditations" by the President, preceded the opening hymn. This was followed by prayer by Mrs. Harley Hubble. The twenty-seventh Psalm was read by Mrs. Ken Jones with the Devotional talk by Miss Ruth Spafford.

Members responded to the roll call with verses of Scripture on Praise and the minutes were read by Mrs. S. Westover in the absence through illness of the secretary, Mrs. Fred Westover.

Business concerning autumn activities was discussed and plans made for packing the bale for supply work. An invitation was accepted to join the Holloway Street Auxiliary in their 50th anniversary.

The Treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Fred Moon. Temperance by Mrs. Earl Bush the Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Westover, reporting the cards sent to the sick and other activities.

Mrs. Stanley Spafford gave a graphic description of the five days of fellowship and study while at the School for Leaders, held at Whitby last week.

Mrs. Earl Bush rendered the solo "Make a little Rainbow of Your Tears". A reading "Teach me to Love", was given by Mrs. E. K. Hubble followed by one verse of "Sweet Hour of Prayer" with prayers by Mrs. C. McMullen and Mrs. W. H. Kells. "A World's Heartache" by Mrs. Fred Moon and "Prayer for the Year" were the closing numbers on this fine program. Rev. L. W. Scott was present and closed the meeting with sincere remarks and the benediction.

Huff's Island

Huff's Island—School has once more re-opened and teachers and pupils face another year of endeavor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hatfield and Miss M. Hatfield motored to Toronto on Monday, Miss Hatfield remaining on the Toronto staff of teachers.

Miss Lois Gorman, nurse-in-training at the Hospital for Sick Children, spent a few days with Miss Frances Wallbridge.

Miss P. Benson, Belleville, was a week-end guest of Miss O. Nightingale.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. MacKenzie (nee Doris Wallbridge) on the birth of a son, James Ian.

Mrs. T. and Miss O. Nightingale spent a couple of days at the C.N.E.

Miss F. Wallbridge entertained some of her friends at the tea hour on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Conklin and children spent the week-end in Toronto.

Miss O.' Barr, Toronto, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. Nightingale.

Misses Mildred Hall and Frances Wallbridge were given a trip to the C.N.E. by the Agricultural Dept. in recognition of their work in the girls' branch. Among 260 competing in house-furnishing, Mildred came fifth and Frances seventeenth.

Burr's

Burr's—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, St. Catharines, arrived on Wednesday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Norman Fox and Mr. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carley, South Lakeside, were at Mr. B. Hough's on Wednesday.

Mr. Clifford Hough, Mrs. Bride Hough, Mr. Norman Fox and Mr. Walter Brown were at Belleville on Thursday.

Mrs. Lorne Burr and Mrs. Val Squire attended the meeting of Crofton Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Ernest Crook's on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and Mrs. Norman Fox were at Wellington and went via Glenora Ferry to Odessa on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Clifford Gaffney, L'Amable, is helping Mr. Norman Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fox, Miss Irene Fox and Mrs. George Fox motored on Friday to Moira Lake then to Oak Lake via Madoc, Marmora and Stirling. They enjoyed a picnic supper at Oak Lake.

Mrs. Geo. Fox called on Mrs. Lester O'Hara, Madoc, on Friday afternoon.

2nd Thurlow

2ND THURLOW—A very severe lightning and wind storm accompanied by rain and hail in some sections, passed over a large area between five and six o'clock Friday noon. Nearly everything in the path of the storm suffered loss. Roofs were torn from houses and barns, silos were blown down, fences were blown over and in some sections nearly all fences were strewn over the fields. Huge trees were torn up and hydro and telephone poles were blown across the roads making traffic impossible. Corn and crops in this section didn't seem to suffer, as little or no rain fell. But rain and hail in other communities was reported.

The many friends of Mr. Robert Mitchell are sorry to hear of his illness in the Belleville General Hospital. All hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Kathleen Whalen, St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, has returned to her duties after spending a month's holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Whalen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bouldstridge motored over Ivy Lea bridge and spent the day in Watertown recently.

Miss June Terry has returned home after spending some holidays with friends at Wellington.

Mona and Roderick Prichard spent a few days with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. A. Milne.

Miss Pat Wilder and friend of Rochester visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaldson on Sunday evening.

Miss Margaret Donaldson left on Monday to take up her duties as teacher at William's School at Roslin.

Miss Hazel Dent returned to Belleville after spending a few days at her home here.

Mrs. A. Barnum and Myrtle spent Monday with the former's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. D. Atkins.

Mrs. Doherty, Ottawa, Misses Nora Lynch and T. Flagler, Belleville, had tea on Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. Lynch.

Dr. and Mrs. Bowlby, Tweed, Mrs. J. Houston, Miss L. Brown and Miss M. Ketcheson, Belleville, called on Miss Mable Clazie this week.

Mrs. Michael Cassidy, Tweed, visited her sister Mrs. D. Whalen one day last week.

Mrs. F. Haight and Lorena spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Salisbury at their summer cottage, Rednersville.

Mrs. G. Atkins and boys spent a couple of days last week with her sister Mrs. C. Fawl, 3rd line.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaldson and family had dinner with the latter's brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Claizie, Front Road on Sunday.

Mis Elsie Lazarick nurse in training in Belleville Hospital is spending three weeks' holidays with her mother Mrs. R. Lazarick.

Miss Doris Atkins spent a few days recently with Miss Doris Fox, Madoc.

4th Sidney

4TH SIDNEY—Quite a number attended the general cleaning of the church and cemetery on Tuesday afternoon which made quite an improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jeffery spent the past week camping at Silver Lake.

School has begun again and the children are back after having their vacation.

The community welcomes the new teacher, Miss Foster of Bloomfield, who has taken the school.

Mrs. A. Woods spent a few days recently with her daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. J. Pitts of Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Langabeer spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. S. Harris also Mr. and Mrs. H. Pound and son Ross were tea hour guests Tuesday evening.

The farmers are busy preparing their ground for fall wheat.

Miss Clara Belle MacPherson of Bermuda with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Grills returned to their home on Wednesday going by plane from New York. Word was received by the latter's mother that they arrived safely.

Mrs. C. Brenton and children spent Thursday with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brickman and son Carl spent a day recently with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Vermilyea spent a couple of days at Toronto Exhibition. Their daughter Lenore returned home with them having spent a couple of weeks with her sister Mrs. J. Balkie of London.

Carmel

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dafoe and two granddaughters of Watertown arrived at Mr. and Mrs. H. Dafoe's on Sunday. On Monday his brothers and sisters held a picnic at Oak Lake and on Tuesday they returned to their home in Watertown.

Mrs. Leslie Buckett and her two sons Harold and John of Minnesota spent Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. G. Vanderwater's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Elliott of Halloway spent Friday at Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Reynolds'.

Miss M. Foley, Reg. N., of New York is spending a few weeks with her sister Mrs. Frank Guay.

Mr. H. Gerow spent Sunday with Mr. G. Vandewater.

Mrs. J. Goodfellow and Mrs. C. Rutter spent an evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodfellow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Simmons jr. returned to their home at Rouyn after spending a few days with the former's father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simmons.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Wootton and family of Ottawa are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. Simmons.

Mr. Harry Redner of Centre spent Sunday with Mr. Elgin and Percy McDavitt.

Marmora

Marmora—Mr. and Mrs. G. Chambers of Toronto are occupying Miss Sullivan's cottage at Crowe Lake.

Mr. Fred Johnston of Peterborough spent the past week at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McGrath and family have returned to their home in Oshawa after visiting relatives at Crowe Lake.

Miss I. Turner, B.A., of the High School staff visited friends in Stirling over the week end.

Miss Margaret O'Connor of Stoco spent the week end at her home here.

Messrs. W. H. Dye, E. G. Graham and W. N. Williams of Olean, N.Y., are guests at Tipperary Hotel, Crowe Lake.

Rev. H. J. Farrell attended Forty Hours Devotion in Tweed on Sunday.

Mr. James Loveless of Trenton Airport spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Loveless.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Maloy and Mr. and Mrs. R. Rosenberger of Akron, Ohio, are occupying Mr. R. Peckinpaugh's cottage at Crowe Lake.

Miss Noreen Sullivan of Ottawa spent the weekend with the Misses Sullivan.

Miss Annie Bronson of Eldorado spent the week end with relatives and friends here.

Rawdon

RAWDON—About six a.m. Friday morning one of the worst storms in history passed over Rawdon Township. Large black clouds rolled together in the shape of a funnel with a white centre and this was accompanied by both sheet and chain lightning with booms of thunder. When the storm broke a hurricane of wind drove with full force and a great deal of damage was done. Hydro poles were broken and twisted, leaving many farmers to finish their milking by hand and in the dark. Large trees were uprooted and rows of fences toppled over. Several branches were broken from the trees and some of these fell on the telephone wires, leaving a large number of telephones out of order.

Heavy loss was noted as pails of apples and pears fell to the round.

In the gardens, sunflowers, dahlias tomatoes and other plants toppled over with the force of the impact and they were left with their roots in the air. Several silos, drivesheds and milkhouses were blown down and some were wrecked beyond repair.

At one farm home the brooder house and its quota of chickens was picked up and set down again a few yards away with no damage to the chickens.

Another farmer reports his milkhouse moved several feet and a can of milk upset in the building.

Owing to disrupted telephone service it is hard to know the extent of the storm but everywhere fences are lying flat and large branches of trees are scattered.

Old-timers say it is a new innovation in storms and a sure sign that our Canadian climate is changing and that some day tornadoes will be common to this part of the country.

A large number of folk who witnessed this storm hope it will be the last as it came up so menacing and gave little heed to large elm trees which had braved the storms for many years, but this time they were all uprooted.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Badgley, Campbellford, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sine.

Rawdon friends were sorry to hear that Mrs. S. Gummer was in Belleville Hospital suffering with an injured shoulder. Mrs. Gummer met with an accident while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Thurlow.

Mrs. Ed Todd recently visited Mrs. M. Pidgeon in Stirling.

Mrs. J. B. Nelson who has been holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sine at Bethel and other relatives at Campbellford and Frankford returned to her home in Detroit on Labour Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Todd of Colborne, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Todd on Wednesday.

Master Bert Sharp has been holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rowe at Halloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dunham recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunham and daughters of Mount Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and family of Trenton, Miss Delia Johnson, Belleville, were recent guests at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clute Sine of Saskatoon spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Carman Sine.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey attended Toronto Exhibition last week.

Mrs. C. F. Lloyd is spending a few weeks at Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armstrong attended the C.N.E. last week.

Miss Nama and Master Garth Sine of Foxboro, Miss Muriel and Master Gerald Heagle of Hoards visited their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sine last week and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heagle Hoards and Mrs. Wanda Sine, Foxboro, visited at the home of their parents and the grandchildren returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patton, Oshawa, have been holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farrell.

Mrs. Edith Sharp was a recent guest of Mrs. Emma Summers.

Allan Mills

ALLAN'S MILLS—On Wednesday night last a shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnum, when many friends of Mrs. Albert Case gathered to present their best wishes and gifts to the bride and groom. The beautiful and costly array of presents show the high esteem in which Mrs. Case is held in this vicinity. The community turned out en masse to greet the happy young couple and to wish them joy and prosperity.

The bride received a address from Zion congregation and the bride and groom one from the community at large. Fitting replies were made. The address were as follows:

Dear Eevlyn:

Your friends of Zion congregation feel that they have the privilege of a special message of appreciation on this the eve of your departure for a new home.

Ever since you were a child growing up with the church, you have given your best and taken an active and leading part in our religious life. Your service of music and song has been one that we will not soon forget and though the work of the church goes on as usual, something very real will be missing.

We know that the same willing, cheerful spirit that you showed here will be a part of your work for the Kingdom wherever your path may lead, and some worthy congregation will gain what Zion has lost.

Will you accept this gift as a remembrance from your friends of Zion United congregation and with it the sincere wish that God may richly bless both you and your husband as you journey through life together.

Signed on behalf of the congregation, W. J. Forde, Albert Petherick, Thos. Fry.

Dear Evelyn and Albert:

It is with rather mixed feelings that the friends and neighbors from several communities are gathered here tonight. A very natural pleasure at the happy beginning of another matrimonial adventure is shaded by a real regret at the loss from our community of one who has meant so much to us all.

May be congratulate you, Albert, on your rare good judgment in travelling so many long miles to wed an East Seymour girl, for they grow them up just right, here. We trust that you realize your good fortune, and will show your gratitude by frequently bringing your bride back to the old community, so that her many friends may see her.

It is not necessary Evelyn, for your friends to write on paper their feelings for you, their presence here tonight speaks for itself.

May we wish you both the best that God can give, and a long and happy wedded life. Signed on behalf of your many friends, Mrs. Bill Heath, Marjorie McKeown, Mrs. Earl Godden, Doris Barnum, Isobel Irwin, Mrs. C. Barnum.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McEwen spent a day with Mrs. Allan McComb.

St. Mark's Anglican Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, Sept. 6th at 10 a.m. when Rev. Canon W. G. Swayne united in marriage Eva Lorena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Brown to Howard Gordon Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrow of Stirling. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother Ronald to the strains of music played by Mrs. W. G. Swayne, the bride was preceded by the surplice choir. The bride looked charming in a white silk embroidered net over white taffeta with veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Margaret Brown, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and was attired in pink silk net over pink taffeta with a picture hat and carried a bouquet of roses and fern.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for an extended honeymoon and on their return they will reside at Wooler.

Mrs. Dave Wellman visited her father in Peterboro and brother Harry Gifford from Sarnia this week.

Mrs. Petherick, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. Lilliam Anderson, Mrs. R. Lain, Mrs. W. V. Allan and Mrs. J. S. McKeown attended the afternoon tea held at Springbrook on Thursday afternoon.

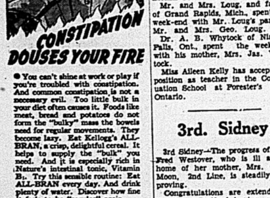
Mr. Don McKeown had the misfortune to have his hand badly hurt and cut in the curd mill at the factory.

Mrs. John Stewart spent Saturday with Mrs. Anderson.

The worst storm this vicinity ever experienced struck on Friday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock a. m. and did a great deal of damage uprooting trees all over and blowing fences over everywhere. The barn belonging to Mr. Eldon Anderson was blown down and broken so badly it can not be rebuilt. Also the barn of Mr. Mac Anderson was badly twisted and shifted on its foundation, silos belonging to Mr. Andrew Thomson, Mr. Barnum, Mr. Finch and several others are down. A drive house belonging to Mr. Ken Bain was blown several rods and broken, also a drive shed belonging to Mr. Jas. Gibson was demolished. Telephone lines and poles are down in a great many places and trees had to be cleared before traffic could be resumed.

The storm of thunder and lightning was accompanied by a downpour of rain and large hailstones, which flattened the corn crops.

The friends were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. John Reid at his home on the 9th concession on Saturday, Sept. 8. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, formerly Essie Morton and four sons and two daughters.



● You can't shine at work or play if you're troubled with constipation. And common constipation is not a necessary evil. Too little bulk in your diet often causes it. Foods like meat, bread and potatoes do not form the "bulky" mass the bowels need for regular movements. They become lazy. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, a crisp, delightful cereal. It helps to supply the "bulk" you need. And it is especially rich in Nature's intestinal tonic, Vitamin $B_1$. Try this sensible routine: Eat ALL-BRAN every day. And drink plenty of water. Discover how fine it feels to be "regular" again.

ALL-BRAN KINDLES YOUR ENERGY

Kellogg's
ALL-BRAN

Made by Kellogg in London, Canada. At your grocers.

CDS Half day SPECIALS

PHONE 2000

Only 3 Hours to Shop Wednesday Morning

12 ONLY! MEN'S WOOL
Felt Hats
Half Day Special. Each 50c
For men who wear sizes 6⅞, 7⅛ and 7½ here's a splendid buy in wool felt hats for work. In grey or blue color. On account of the very limited quantity we ask you to shop early.
— Men's Store

Odd Lines Children's Shoes
Sizes in the lot for both children and infants. Broken lines and sizes in the lot. Included are patent leathers, canvas shoes and elk (trade name) shoes. In sandal and strap styles. Infants' sizes 2 to 6. Children's 8 to 10, Misses' 1 and 2 in the lot. Pair ............ 50c
— Men's Store, rear

Women's Flannelette Gowns
Long sleeved affairs, for comfort and warmth this Fall and Winter. V neck styles, with rayon embroidery work on front of yoke. Standard and oversizes in the lot. In white only Half Day Special, Each ........ 89c
— Second floor

12 ONLY! BOYS'
Windbreakers
Half Day Special. Each 1.49
Checked cotton doeskin windbreakers, with full zipper front. In blue color. Sizes 26 and 28 only. A few button front styles, of all wool materials in brown or navy These in sizes 28, 30 and 32. Splendid for school wear this fall.
— Men's Store

Rayon and Cotton Damask
In four warm shades for Autumn: Rust, gold color, mulberry and wine. Just the tones to give an inviting appearance to your rooms this Winter. 42 inch width. Half Day Special. Yard ........ 69c
— Main floor, rear

Large Floor Lamp Shades
In smart shapes, covered in fine rayon material in tints of eggshell, green, gold color or white. Contrastingly trimmed. Splendid for junior type lamps. Half Day Special, each ........ 2.25
— Main floor, rear

"ZEBRA" STRIPE
Linen Toweling
Half Day Special. Yard 19c
Always in demand, popular zebra stripe linen toweling. Quick drying and absorbent. Full 17 inch width.
— Main floor, rear

Misses' Wool Faille Skirts
Regularly 1.98 each—smartly tailored with button trims, with flares and pleats, all wool faille, skirts in black, brown, wine, green or navy. Half Day Special, each ........ 1.00
— Second floor

Children's Cotton Golf Hose
Of good length, wth "Lastex" cuff. In striped patterns of sand, brown, grey, blue. Sizes 6 to 8½ in the lot. Half Day Special. Pair ........ 15c
— Main floor, left

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

DOCTORS CHECK KIDNEYS FIRST

Because they know that healthy Kidneys remove from the blood the waste matter—the excess acids and poisons, formed by the ever-changing human body as it decays and rebuilds itself. But if the Kidneys fail, illness surely follows. Backache, Rheumatism, Impure Blood, Lack of Energy, Too Frequent Urination, Sleeplessness, Headaches—all may result from faulty kidneys. As a health safeguard—as a wise precaution—regulate your kidneys frequently with Dodd's Kidney Pills—for over fifty years the favorite Kidney remedy—non habit forming—safe. 105

Dodd's Kidney Pills

Probabilities

Lower Lake Region — Moderate winds; mostly fair and somewhat warmer today and Thursday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1939

Temperatures

| | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | 68 | 46 |
| Year ago | 74 | 57 |

Weather—Partly cloudy.

FRENCH TROOPS UNDER HEAVY FIRE

War Budget Sets Excess Profits Tax; Tobacco, Liquor, Tea, Coffee Rates Up—French Enter Saarbruecken's Suburbs

German Artillery Hidden Many Miles in the Rear Opens Devastating Fire

"Great Activity" by Air Forces On Both Sides Reported Today

(By JOHN MARTIN, Associated Press Staff Writer)

PARIS, Sept. 13—(AP)—French forces driving into Saarbruecken and advanced fortifications of the Siegfried Line were reported under heavy fire today from long-Range German artillery hidden miles to the rear. French guns thundered in reply.

The German big guns pounded villages held by the French near Saarbruecken, railroad junction and industrial heart of the rich Saar Basin.

French tanks and armored cars were reported to have reached the outskirts of Saarbruecken yesterday, thrusting into the suburbs.

The War Ministry communique for this morning reported a "reaction of the enemy artillery continued throughout the night." The communique referred briefly to "great activity" by the air forces of both sides.

VIOLENT FIGHTING MARKS ACTION

French sources said their army had advanced only a few thousand yards a day in some sectors where violent fighting marked every action. Roads shattered by German mines and artillery had to be repaired. Advance units often had to await nightfall to fortify their positions for the protection of troops moving up behind them.

The advance on Saarbruecken was said to have hammered a wedge in the Siegfried Line at its strongest point. Fall of the city would give the French control of the Saar mining basin, one of the world's most productive coal fields.

Saarbruecken, important railroad junction, lies about midway on a 100-mile front between the Moselle and Rhine rivers on France's north-eastern boundary—northern wing of the western front.

REINFORCEMENTS SHUT OFF

East of Saarbruecken the French reported cutting important German communications and shutting off reinforcements with an artillery barrage.

To the northwest of the city, in a pocket formed by the Luxembourg and German border, the French were said to be meeting fierce resistance. Bayonet fighting was reported. Comparatively unseasoned German reservists in that sector were said to have been replaced by veterans.

A dispatch from Basel, Switzerland, described the artillery warfare near Luxembourg as one of the greatest duels in history. The Moselle Valley had been converted into one of the most heavily fortified regions of the world with the great Sierck forts, on the French side, facing the German Trassen area.

The main Siegfried Line positions lie some seven miles behind Saarbruecken, and apparently the heavy German shellfire came from them. The French fire in this district was laid down along a two-mile front through the eastern suburbs of the city to the aviation field, which has been a German military air base.

ALLIES DETERMINED TO CARRY ON

Meanwhile French sources pointed to the first meeting of the Anglo-French "Supreme Defence Council" in France yesterday as evidence of determination on the part of the allies to maintain the closest possible contact for the duration of the war.

The fact that a "Supreme Defence Council" existed came as a complete surprise. It was observed in official circles that it is no longer a question, as in 1914, of co-ordinating more-or-less separate actions of the two countries but of taking joint decisions which will be applied to the Anglo-French bloc as a whole.

In utmost secrecy Prime Minister Chamberlain and Lord Chatfield, British Defence Co-ordination Minister, flew to France to confer with Premier Daladier and General Maurice Gamelin, French Commander-in-Chief, at an undisclosed point.

BULLETINS

PARIS, Sept. 13—(AP)—British troops were reported in French military dispatches this afternoon to have entered action with the French against the Germans on the western front for the first time in the war.

FORM MINISTRY OF SHIPPING

LONDON, Sept. 13—(CP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons today that the government intends to establish a Ministry of Shipping at an early date.

Mr. Chamberlain said plans for establishment of such a Ministry had been in existence for some time but that at the present time he believed greater efficiency would be attained by keeping shipping problems within the Board of Trade.

CONSUL GIVEN PASSPORT

OTTAWA, Sept. 13—(CP)—Erich Windels, German Consul General in Canada, and his wife have been issued special passes to enable them to leave Canada, it was learned at the Department of External Affairs here today.

It is understood they are going to the United States. Passes also are being issued to German Consuls in various Canadian cities.

EVERY CITIZEN WILL CONTRIBUTE TO WAR BUDGET

Parliament Goes Long Way to Discourage Profiteering in Canada

S. C. GROUP OPPOSES

Tea and Coffee Taxed Up to 10 Cents Pound Customs Duty on Invoice Value

Ottawa, Sept. 13 (CP)—Every citizen of Canada will be called upon to contribute to the war budget to which Royal Assent is expected in parliament today but the main feature of the government's proposals for providing the sinews of war is the excess profits tax aimed at enriching the treasury and at the same time discouraging profiteering.

Revenue Minister Ilsley, speaking for Finance Minister Ralston who has no seat in the House of Commons, yesterday presented the war budget which was adopted in the record time of six hours.

Beverages, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic, tea and coffee, cigarettes and tobacco, wines, personal and corporate income taxes all will be expected to increase the revenue by some $62,000,000 a year.

(Continued on Page Five)

GERMANY USING "SUICIDE CORPS" TO HELP ADVANCE

Polish Reports State German Forces "on the Run" Near Warsaw

STATIONARY WAR

By LLOYD LEHRBAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

BUDAPEST, Sept. 13—(AP)— A German "suicide corps" dropping from the skies by parachute, is making desperate efforts over a wide territory to expedite the German advance across Poland, it was reported here today.

Poles reported that several of the Germans, after being captured, revealed they had been assigned to discover the locations of Polish headquarters, air ports, war supplies, factories and warehouses, and to cut communication lines ahead of the advancing German columns.

(Continued on Page Five)

FOUR BOYS CLAIM BICYCLE ENDURANCE RECORD

Shelbyville, Ind., Sept. 13 (AP)—Four Shelbyville boys claimed today a new bicycle endurance record of 1,135 hours. They finished at 8 o'clock last night a marathon which they estimated had taken them 11,400 miles. They had ridden one bicycle, in two-hour shifts, since July 27. All in their teens, they are George Larmore, Jim Vaubel, Herbert Lewis and Maurice Brokering.

Coming Events

BARN DANCE W. MATTHEWS, Cannifton, Thursday, Sept. 14th. Ladies free. Gentlemen .25. s13-1t

CARD PARTY ST. GEORGE'S, Station Street, Thursday, Sept. 14, 8.15 p.m. Good prizes. Door prize basket groceries. Proceeds for local Red Cross. s13-1t

HUNGERFORD JUNIOR FARMERS' Dance in Tweed Pavilion, Friday night, Sept. 15. Music by Jack Denmark and his Aces. s8-13

No Peace Until Menace Of Hitlerism Removed Joint Governments Say

London, Set. 13 (CP)—The British Government advised Parliament today that both Great Britain and France are convinced "there can be no peace until the menace of Hitlerism has been finally removed."

The Allies' stand was contained in a joint statement read in the House of Commons by Prime Minister Chamberlain and in the House of Lords by Earl Stanhope, Lord President of the Council, in the Government's second report on the war.

Referring to yesterday's meeting of the Supreme War Council in France which Mr. Chamberlain attended, the statement said:

"I am glad to be able to assure the House that it is evident that public opinion on the two sides of the channel is completely in accord."

Further Meeting

Further meetings of the Council will be held "when necessary," it was said.

Reviewing the military operations so far, the statement said:

1. Germany so far has directed most of her activities against Poland but that she had been "frustrated" by the "indomitable spirit of the Poles."
2. On the Western front France had begun a "methodical advance" which had been 'completely successful."
3. British troops were in France and have gone into action with French Army.
4. The Royal Air Force already had a number of squadrons operating from French soil.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

War-Wracked Refugees From Athenia Land at Halifax Telling Harrowing Tale of Torpedoing and Privations

By JOHN LEBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Halifax, Sept. 13—(CP)— War-wracked refugees from the destroyed liner Athenia came ashore from the rescue ship City of Flint today with grim accounts of the torpedoing, death at sea and privation in open boats adrift in the Atlantic.

As the more than 200 survivors from the Donaldson liner made port after nine days crowded into the scanty accommodations of the freighter, they told how the liner had been struck by a torpedo without warning as the ship "steamed westward the day Britain declared war.

Mrs. McMillan Wallace of Hamilton, a borrowed chef's hat atop her head, told of seeing the periscope of the submarine just before the crash that signalled the end of the liner 200 miles off the Hebrides.

Some Were Crying

Seated on a stanchion, she told the story while others trickled ashore from the Flint, which picked up survivors the night of the sinking. Some refugees were in dungarees bororwed from crew members; some in evening dress; one woman in pajamas and a fur coat, some crying, some laughing gaily.

Amid the stir of the survivors, preparations were being made to take ashore the body of a 10-year-old girl who died on the City of Flint as she headed for land with her cargo of rescued. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayworth of Hamilton had died of head injuries she suffered before she got into a lifeboat.

Her mother was aboard the ship with her. The father was on the dock to meet his wife and dead child. He was the only person, aside from officials and newspapermen, allowed aboard the battered freighter after she entered the harbor convoyed by the cutters Bibb and Campbell of the United States coastguard service.

Tales of Heroism Told

Tales of horror and heroism were brushed against each other in the accounts of the survivors. One woman had seen a fellow passenger lying in a passageway near her cabin, dead, with part of her head carried away. Another told of the heroism of an anonymous cook of the Athenia, who kept a lifeboat afloat until help came.

Mrs. Wallace said she was standing on an upper deck when she saw the torpedoing. "The boy in the crow's nest was the first to sight the submarine," she said. "He shouted down to the deck, and I looked over the side.

"I could see a periscope sticking out of the water. It was about an eighth of a mile away. I didn't see a torpedo, but I saw a white streak of foam running out from the submarine.

"Then I heard the crash. People on deck fell down. Smoke started coming up from down below.

"I couldn't get to where my lifebelt was—the stairs had been blasted away, or had fallen. I got into the lifeboat all right though."

Roosevelt Renews Pledge That U. S. Will Help Dominion If Invaded

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—(CP)—President Roosevelt has renewed his pledge that the United States "will not stand idly by" if a foreign power seeks to dominate Canada.

The fact that the Dominion has joined Great Britain and her Allies in the war against Germany does not change the situation.

In restating this interpretation of the Monroe doctrine before a press conference yesterday, Mr. Roosevelt said it also applied to other territory in this hemisphere, such as that held by France and the Netherlands.

(The New York press featured the President's utterances as they applied to Canada. "Roosevelt says U. S. should fight invasion of Canada," said an eight-column streamer in the Herald Tribune. "We fight if Canada invaded," ran the heading over the Daily Mirror's story. The Daily News interpreted it as an explicit warning to Germany. The heading over its dispatch read, "Hands off Americans, F. D. R. warns Reich.")

Stand Made Plain

The President made his stand plain at his press conference yesterday in response to a question about the speech Mr. Roosevelt made at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont. on Aug. 18, 1938.

At that time the President said: "The Dominion of Canada is part of the sisterhood of the British Empire. I give to you the assurance that the people of the United States will not stand idly by if domination of Canadian soil is threatened by any other empire."

It was a matter of self protection on the part of the United States, said the President yesterday. In this connection he said he interpreted the Monroe doctrine to include in its protective area in addition to Canada, such territories as British Guiana, Dutch Guiana, the Dutch islands of Curaco, the British owned Bahama Islands and the French islands of Martinque, Guadeloupe, St. Pierre and Miquelon to name a few.

Will Have Majority Support

Meanwhile, the President appeared assured of majority support within the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for his proposal to permit the sale of arms to belligerent nations.

Senator Frederick Van Nuys, Indiana Democrat, announced he would support a "cash and carry" plan for arms sales, if it were properly safeguarded. Van Nuys is one of the committee members who, by a vote of 12 to 11 at the last session of Congress, delayed consideration of proposals to repeal the arms embargo provision of the United States Neutrality Act,

ATTEMPT DRIVE THROUGH POLAND TO CRUSH STATE

Complete Subjugation of Poland Set as Objective of German Army

DRIVE TO UKRAINE

German Report States Four Divisions of Polish Army Ready to Capitulate

By Alvin Stenkopf Associated Press Staff Writer).

Berlin, Sept. 13 (AP)—Warsaw remained in the hands of Polish troops today after a night of bitter fighting, but Nazi military leaders continued to tell the German people that the Capital's outlying defences are crumbling under steady pounding of ground and air forces.

Apparently confident that the fall of Warsaw is only a question of time, the high command said it was concentrating its attention on the next phase of operations. This was reported in reliable quarters to involve an attempt to drive through Poland to the Russian border, if necessary, to crush the Polish army.

Complete subjugation of Poland was set as an objective in order to permit concentration of the Reich's full strength on the Western Front.

(Continued on Page Five)

WARTIME BUDGET TAKEN IN STRIDE BY ALL CANADIANS

Mr. and Mrs. Public Gleefully Try to Beat Rap Before Act is in Effect

By The Canadian Press

Canada's wartime budget—an operation that pulls pennies from the pockets of some; dollars from others—was taken in stride by Canadians generally, already busy at the task of smashing Hitlerism.

There was just one pause, an inspired diversion when Mr. and Mrs. Public gleefully tried to beat the tax rap. Thrifty housewives scurried to grocery stores to buy tea and coffee. Thirsty husbands laid siege to liquor stores. Smokers popped into the corner hangout for tobacco and cigarettes.

(Continued on Page Three)

EASTERN ONTARIO TO GET $127,614

Hydro Commission Announces Reductions in Several Districts

Toronto, Sept. 13.—(CP)—Officials of the Ontario Hydro Commission announced rate reductions will be made for the benefit of consumers in the Niagara, Georgian Bay, Eastern Ontario and Thunder Bay systems, following analysis of the financial situation in these areas.

Consumers in the Niagara area will receive a benefit of $204,215, $50,061 by refund and $52,904 by monthly deduction from their bills for the remainder of the year. A total benefit of $93,337 was announced for the Georgian Bay section, while consumers in the Eastern Ontario system will save $127,614.

Hydro users in the Thunder Bay district will benefit to the extent of $42,192.

NO APPLES FOR THE HITLER GAME

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 13 (AP)—Mary Weaver, 11, who was "it" in a hide-and-seek game, counted by fives to 100 and then cried, "Hitler!" She explained to a bystander: "That means, 'here I come, ready or no'."

Parliament Will Meet For Another Session Before General Election

Senate May Block Prorogation Planned to Take Place at Noon

(By C. R. BLACKBURN, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, Sept. 13—(CP)—Moving at record-breaking speed which carried the budget through all stages in six dramatic hours, the House of Commons has completed work of the momentous war session but the Senate may block prorogation planned for noon E.D.T. today.

At 11:45 p.m. last night the House of Commons had completed its program, putting through the budget involving heavy taxation increases and a new excess profits measure, and three other measures including one authorizing creation of a Ministry of Munitions and Supply.

Speaker Casgrain announced the Governor General would arrive at the Senate at noon today to prorogue parliament and the Commons quietly adjourned.

MEIGHEN OBJECTS TO RUSH

But in the Senate, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, declared: "These bills are coming at us at the rate of one a minute. We are expected to pass them en masse. Why all this rush? We should not pass these measures without even reading them."

Result was that the Senate adjourned at 12:35 a.m. today after advancing some of the bills through initial stages and the hour of prorogation remains indefinite.

In addition to the budget presentation, important announcements were made by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who told the House he was convinced there should be no election until after another session of the present parliament which he would call in January or earlier.

WAR SUPPLY BOARD SET UP

The Prime Minister also told the House he did not propose to exercise creation of a Ministry of Munitions and Supply but would first set up a War Supply Board, supplanting the present Defence Purchasing Board.

The War Supply Board will be set up under authority of the War Measures Act and will do the preliminary work of mobilizing industry in a major effort to meet wartime demands but if it becomes necessary in his opinion to set up a Ministry of Munitions and Supply the act will be proclaimed.

The necessary act was passed without debate to authorize payment of the normal salary of $10,000 a year to whoever may be appointed Minister of Munitions and Supply.

Other features of the day included tabling of an order-in-council setting up a voluntary service registration bureau to ensure maximum advantage is taken of all the offers of service the government has and will receive.

AGRICULTURE SUPPLY COMMITTEE

Agriculture Minister Gardiner announced the creation of an Agricultural Supplies Committee to mobilize the Canadian agricultural industry in order to facilitate maximum export of farm supplies to Great Britain and the Allies, and to ensure domestic requirements.

An act was put through all states without a single question asked, requiring that all war charity funds organized in Canada be registered with a central federal authority, to avoid confusion and duplication, and possible abuses.

Justice Minister Lapointe, sponsoring this measure, said it was along the lines of a similar measure adopted in 1917 during the first Great War. It was requested by leading philanthropic workers.

RECORD GOES BY BOARDS

Conclusion of the Commons work in five days of sitting equals the record of the special war session of 1914 but on that occasion the Senate concluded in equally quick time and prorogation was effected on the fifth day.

In the 1914 session the budget was introduced Aug. 20 and adopted on Aug. 22 so the passage of the present war budget in one day constitutes a record in Canadian parliamentary annals.

This special war session has handled more legislation than the 1914 session, and there is the added difference that in 1914 there were but two parties in the House, Liberal and Conservative. Now there are two additional groups, the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation and the Social Credit party.

EXPECT LENGTHY DISCUSSION

Judging from the attitude of the Conservative majority in the Senate as represented by Mr. Meighen, there will be considerable discussion of the five government measures they will have before them today, including the new Excess Profits Tax Act.

Revenue Minister Ilsley introduced his budget in the afternoon and early in the evening it was approved after a Social Credit amendment was turned aside by the overwhelming vote of 190 to 8.

Rene Pelletier, Social Credit-Peace River, sponsored the amendment which calls for creation of a committee to study ways and means of conscripting wealth and ensuring equality of sacrifice.

After Conservatives, Liberals, C.C.F. and Independent members banded together to defeat it, the House approved the taxing resolutions in the budget and gave first, second and third readings to the implementing bills. These amend the Income War Tax Act, The Excise Act, The Customs Act and The Special War Revenue Act and The Excess Profits Tax Act.

While announcing a "pay-as-you-go" finance policy for the duration of the war, Mr. Ilsley did not rule out the possibility of borrow-

(Continued on Page Twelve)

HELP WANTED
Young man, good habits, with commercial certificate and mechanical ability.
Apply at 10 A.M. NEXT WEDNESDAY at
THE JAMES TEXTS, 183 Front St.

City and District News

ACCEPTS CALL TO SHANNONVILLE

Rev. William Sterling, formerly of Colborne and Fenelon Falls, has accepted the call for Shannonville pastoral charge of the United Church, of which the late Rev. W. D. Craig was pastor. The induction of Rev. Mr. Sterling will take place at Melrose on Sept. 29th.

Belleville Presbytery Y. P. Raise $3,297

In the report of activities of the Young People's organizotions of Belleville Presbytery of the United Church made to the executive by Miss Doris Williams the objective for 1938 was $2,000. The various groups raised $3,297 during the year.

PHEASANTS COME OUT OF HIDING PLACES

Cooler weather lately has brought pheasants of the district out from summer hiding, and many of the brilliantly colored birds have been observed on the outskirts of the city lately. Three of the birds were observed feeding quietly at the edge of the Marshall Road last evening near the Fair Grounds, and others have been sighted along the C.P.R. tracks at dusk.

UNIFORMED P. O. EMPLOYEES MUST WEAR WAR RIBBONS

Local postal employees, along with other members of the postal service throughout the Dominion have received instructions that in future all uniformed employees of the department who served in the Great War must wear war medal ribbons while in uniform.

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW LABORATORY

Contract for the new research laboratory at the Deloro Smelting Company at Deloro has been let, an authoritative source stated today. Work on the erection of the new building will start immediately.

PICTON RESERVIST CALLED TO DUTY

H. A. Rawlins, resident of Picton for a number of years and reservist of the Royal Navy was ordered to report at Halifax for duty the other day. Mr. Rawlins' children were called from school to say goodbye to their daddy.

During the Great War, he was engaged in the Atlantic submarine patrol, North Sea mine sweeping and the patrol of the Red Sea.

JEWS WILL OBSERVE DAY OF MEMORIAL STARTING TONIGHT

This evening at sunset, Judaism will observe the Day of Memorial, also called New Year's Day in the Jewish calendar. The festival is the first day of a season of ten days set aside for penitence and meditation on the great problems of the world and of man.

The turn of the century in the Synagogue calendar finds the Jewish people in a fight decisive for the future of humanity in general, and of the Jew in particular. This will greatly increase the solemnity of the day, and result in ardent prayers for the salvation of the race.

One rite which will be observed in the Belleville Synagogue will be the sounding of the ram's horn. The sound is, in pious belief, to herald the coming of the Messiah or of the messianic age. Throughout the period following special services will be held daily in the local Synagogue presided over by Rabbi Ben Gerstel of the local congregation, and a Jewish cantor who will be brought from Toronto to assist Belleville and district Jewry in the proper observance of the festival.

RECRUITING FOR H. & P. E. REG'T. REPORTED HIGHLY SATISFACTORY

Recruiting for the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment at Belleville, Trenton and Picton yesterday was reported by officers of the Regiment today to be highly satisfactory, with a high type of applicant volunteering services.

Yesterday thirty-four from Madoc district and forty from the Belleville area had been examined by the medical board at Trenton.

Trenton, Ont., (Special)—Conversion of the Empire Food Products plant, the former Associated Quality Canners factory on the Bay Front near here into an armory and winter quarters for troops was being considered by officers of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment today.

Inspection of the building and its potentialities as a military establishment was carried out this afternoon.

If found suitable the buildings will house "A" Company of the regiment and regimental headquarters staff.

FEWER TRANSIENTS SEEN ON STREETS

One result of the war has been the noticeable disappearance of transients from the local scene, and lately this type of citizen has been conspicuously absent from the city's streets. Whining pleas for five or ten cents with which to buy the inevitable cup of coffee have been less frequently heard, and requests for back door handouts at homes have dropped off to a minimum.

Employment lately has also been better, it is believed by the fact that main corners downtown have been comparatively deserted lately by the usual out of works.

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.
Athletic Supports
Johnson & Johnson
Bauer & Black
50c to 1.25
McKEOWN'S DRUG STORE
PHONE 135

QUALITY USED CARS
Selling at
THE LOWEST PRICES IN TOWN.
We Give Fair Allowances and Easy Terms!
'37 PONTIAC DELUXE SEDAN
'36 REO FLYING CLOUD SEDAN.
'37 CHEVROLET DELUXE COACH.
'35 FORD V8 DELUXE COACH.
'31 DURANT SPEC. SEDAN ........ $175.
'30 PONTIAC SEDAN ... $150.
'29 OLDSMOBILE SEDAN. $95.
TRUCK SPECIALS
1936 FORD PICK-UP .... $395.
1935 FORD PANEL ...... $375.
1930 DODGE PANEL ........ $95.
BELLEVILLE MOTORS
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Sts.
Phone 340
A. C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Successors To
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

OIL BURNER SERVICE
ANY MAKE.
Phone 2260
JOHN LEWIS CO.
S13-3t

MADAME CORNELIA
The Well Known European Clairvoyant, Psychologist
Advice on all affairs of life.
PRIVATE READINGS 50c
Queen's Hotel, Room 35.
10 a.m.-11 p.m. beginning Friday
S13-2t

TONIGHT is FOTO-NITE
BE PRESENT FOR THE FOTO - NITE
$140.00 Offer
FOR YOUR PHOTO
The Best Mystery of the Year, with the Foto-Nite Offer.
TERROR! MYSTERY! PERIL!
AND LOTS OF LAUGHS in

THE HOUSE of FEAR
WILLIAM GARGAN
IRENE HERVEY
A NEW UNIVERSAL PICTURE

CAPITOL 2ND. HIT "UNMARRIED"

Tweed FAIR
THURSDAY - FRIDAY
SEPT. 21-22
New Features
Write Secretary for Prize List
S12-16-19-20

COAL
No. 1 American Anthracite
$12.50 OFF CAR
There is no better at any price.
MOORE'S - 12 Grove St.
S12-2t

ONLY H. & P. E. REG'T. IS RECRUITING HERE

Recruiting at the local Armouries yesterday for the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment has no connection with the Argyll Light Infantry (Tank) Battalion officers of the local unit have been forced to explain to many who have indicated a desire to join up. Yesterday's recruiting in Belleville was wholly connected with other recruiting which has been carried on in the district for the Hastings and Prince Edward unit and was held in Belleville merely for the purpose of selecting some of the many who applied for enlistment with this Regiment from the local district.

All such applicants who presented themselves to Captain Ferguson and staff at the Armouries in Belleville yesterday were sent on to the Medical Board which held a sitting at Trenton.

Canada Cement Co. Guarantees Positions To Those Who Enlist

Notices posted at the plant of the Canada Cement Company, Point Anne, today advised that all employees of the company wishing to sign up in the Canadian Active Service Force would have their old jobs guaranteed at the ending of army service, and that the difference in pay as soldier would be made up by the Company for a period of six months.

After this six month period, further consideration of a continuance of this salary to make up the former paid schedule will be given by the Company, it was stated.

Civil Servants Who Enter Active Service Given Leave of Absence

Notice has been received by local civil servants that through an Order-in-Council a civil servant who "as a member of the Forces is placed on or called into active service by Governor or Council, or is called out for service by the Minister of National Defence," may be treated as being on leave of absence from duties without pay.

Shell Oil Co. Rushes Work on Installation On New Storage Tanks

Workmen of the Shell Oil Company were rushing operations today to complete the installation of the sites of two 750,000-gallon storage tanks north of the city property at the foot of South John Street.

Trenches have been dug across the city dump south of the tanks in which six-inch pipes will be laid to transport gasoline from vessels which will unload at the dock on South Front Street.

In turn, piping will be laid in South John Street to the company's tanks at present situated on George and Edmond Streets.

Men's Clothing Costs Will Likely Increase

Increases in clothing costs ranging as high as twenty per cent over present prices are indicated by the receipt yesterday of a communication from Toronto head office by a local agency. The letter did not specify when such increase might go into effect, but intimated that all larger clothing firms were holding themselves in readiness to accept war orders from the Dominion Government for uniform supply.

"If such orders are received, naturally the cost to the civilian buyer will have to be increased", stated the letter.

Woollen goods may even go higher, according to the local agent, but it is generally understood by clothiers that the increase will range from ten to twenty per cent over present costs.

Quick LOANS

• NO ENDORSERS!
• NO RED TAPE!
• YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!
ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.
QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

THE MARY FORSTER SCHOOL of DANCING
FALL TERM OPENS MONDAY, OCTOBER 2. Phone 958
Children Taught from 4 Years up.
Toe, Acrobatic, Ballet, Tap and Highland Dancing.
PRIVATE, SEMI-PRIVATE AND CLASS.

W. WISE
ANNOUNCES
THE STORE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY
THURSDAY and FRIDAY
SEPTEMBER 14th. and 15th.
On Account of Our Rosh Hashana
RE-OPENING FOR BUSINESS SATURDAY MORNING, September 16th.
W. WISE
LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR

Many People Rush to Buy Supplies Before New Tax Can be Effected

A mild buying rush in tea and coffee was observed in the city this morning as housewives engaged in hurried shopping for limited supplies of these beverages before the new war tax of ten cents or so went into effect.

Fair supplies were being held on dealers' shelves and residents will be given plenty of opportunity to purchase before the tax does take effect, it was stated by the manager of one store.

As yet no statement had been made by tobacconists regarding the manner of tax upon cigarettes and tobaccos as announced by the Dominion government. Excise duties on tobacco have been increased by five cents per pound, but this new tax will not be too noticeable on the customary small packages purchased by the average smoker, it was stated. It was suggested that in the case of cigarettes, fewer smokes will be sold in each package to make up for the tax.

City Must Make Provision For Extra Pumping Equipment

Fire Chief Lynch Informed by Attorney-General That Action Must be Taken at Once

REMOVE FIRE HAZARDS

In conjunction with other city fire departments of the province, Fire Chief William Lynch received an official communication from the Attorney - General's Department, Toronto today informing him that provision for additional pumping capacity for his department must be made at once, emergency fire-squads held in readiness, and all places that constitute fire-hazards in the city be cleaned up.

The emergency fire-squads are to be drawn from the city departments, the communication stated. It will be presented to the City Council at its meeting tomorrow night.

Police Blotter

William Springer, East Dundas St. complained to city police today that youthful miscreants were stealing fruit from his garden. This morning Mr. Springer chased a boy and girl from his premises, but not before they made off with a bag of his favorite winter apples.

An electric razor, the property of Clifford Baragar, of this city, was reported stolen from Mr. Baragar's parked automobile last night. Mr. Baragar had parked his automobile on East Dundas St. and during his absence some person entered the vehicle and stole the electric razor, nothing else was reported missing.

Following altercations on Pinnacle St. last night, Alfred Welsh, Belleville, was arrested by city police on charges of assault. The accused appeared before H. B. Wilson, local Justice of the Peace today, and was remanded until Friday. At the same time Welsh preferred a counter charge against a woman, who he alleges was implicated in the matter.

There has been a distinct decrease in the number of transients seeking shelter at the police station since Canada's entrance into the war. "They're not so prone to be apprehended wandering at large these days," revealed Chief Kidd as he intimated the war scare was doubtless the accuse of the general exodus of transients.

IN PEACE OR WAR KIWANIS SERVES

Motto Adopted by Club and Fund Raised at Carnival to be Used for Patriotic Purposes

Following a meeting of the various chairmen of the Kiwanis Club arranging for the monster Street Carnival for next week, a decision was made to use all the funds obtained in the drive for specific Patriotic Purposes. It was the original intention of the Club to use the money to carry for the several projects now sponsored by the Club but due to the war it was thought and unanimously accepted that the money should be used for Patriotic Purposes. The money obtained will be apportioned out where it will do the most good and for this reason the citizens of Belleville will have every right to patronize freely the amusement to be offered at this Carnival.

The committee has worked very hard under the general chairmanship of Albert Boynton and Bruce Lattimer and from the consensus of opinion expressed at the emergency meeting last night at the "Y" the Carnival will be every bit as good as those run in previous years. Front Street will be roped off between Bridge Street and Victoria Avenue or possibly not that far and booths will be erected in the middle of the street in the centre of this area. Dancing spaces will be provided at each end and both square and round dancing will be carried out with suitable orchestras for each kind of dancing.

In the booths there will be every kind of a game run and valuable awards will be given the winners. Besides there will be several contests run the most important being the guessing of the mistakes in the windows dressed by the merchants of the city. This co-operation is greatly appreciated by the club. Other contests such as the Popularity Contest and the Hope Chest are receiving merited support and the Kiwanis Queens are working very hard to put over this phase of the Carnival. In Peace or War Kiwanis Serves is a slogan that has been adopted by the club for the duration of the struggle and there is no doubt the club members in word and deed will live up to that motto and all that it means. The Kiwanis Club is prepared to assist in every worthy cause for right and justice.

GEEN'S
Wild Strawberry Compound
for Dysentry, Diarrhoea, Colic, etc. - 35c bottle - Phone 131

3 STOLEN CARS ARE RECOVERED

Roy Weaver, Local Youth, Arrested for Theft of One Motor Car

All three automobiles reported stolen in Belleville over the week-end were recovered by Belleville police, while charges of theft were preferred against two persons. On Sunday Bernard Boomhower was apprehended and charged with the theft of two of the vehicles and is at present on remand in the county jail.

Today city police arrested Roy Weaver, local youth, on a charge of the theft of a motor car, the property of Patrick Donnelly, Trenton. Weaver is said by police to have stolen Mr. Donnelly's car on Moira Street on Saturday night and following a hectic drive in a westerly direction, later wrecked the vehicle north of Brighton. Weaver was arraigned before H. B. Wilson, local Justice of the Peace today, on the theft charge and remanded in custody until Monday.

Belleville police allege that Weaver took the motor car and after driving it into a ditch near Brighton, later pushed the vehicle off a steep precipice north of Brighton. The car was badly damaged as it rolled down a steep hill. All three cars have been returned to their respective owners.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. HUGH GILLEN
(Marmora)

Marmora (Special)—The funeral of the late Mrs. Hugh Gillen was held on Tuesday morning to Sacred Heart Church where High Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. H. J. Farrell, Rev. Father Keeley and Rev. Father McAuley of Campbellford were in the sanctuary. The palls bearers were E. A. O'Connor, Dan Shannon, W. R. Linn, William Burns S. A. Stephens and Percy Gray. The service at the graveside was conducted by Rev. Father McAuley assisted by Rev. Father Farrell. Interment was made in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

LATE JOHN REID
(Rawdon Twp.)

Marmora (Special)—Funeral service for the late John Reid 55, of Rawdon Township were held in Campbellford. Deceased was for 28 years section foreman on the C. N. R. near Marmora, where he was for five years a member of the council. Lately he farmed in Rawdon Township.

Surviving besides his widow are five sons—Arthur, Walter, Claude, Ernest and Percy, and two daughters, Evelyn and Marjorie, all at home, and one brother James of Wellington and one sister, Mrs. Ed. Johnson of Cordova.

S. Army Organizes Woman's Auxiliary

War work machinery of the local corps of the Salvation Army swung into preliminary action yesterday at the rally of the Army's Home Service League when a new organization, the Red Shield Woman's Auxiliary was brought in to being under the supervision of Major Alderman.

The aims of the Red Shield Auxiliary are to provide various necessities for the Canadian soldiers overseas and at home, such as knitted articles, clothing, etc., and other phases of war work for which the Salvation Army was justly famed during the last war.

The new auxiliary is undenominational athough it will work under the supervision of officers of the army. "Any lady, no matter who she is or what church she belongs to will be given a cordial welcome by officials of the Army," Major Alderman stated this morning in extending an appeal to residents of the city to join the organization.

OUR $10.
MODEL HATS
These lovely hand made hats will appeal to women who buy quality. Beautiful materials, youthful styles, all hand made.
SEE THESE HATS AT Woodley's
273 FRONT ST.

TONIGHT ONLY
"FRESHMAN YEAR"
also
THE MYSTERIOUS MISS X
2 BIG LAUGH HITS.
AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
THURSDAY — FRIDAY — SATURDAY
Mighty Drama! Breath-Taking Scenes! Glorious Adventure! A Long-to-be Remembered Epic of the Sea.
The triumphant story of the service that never sleeps!

COAST GUARD
RANDOLPH FRANCES RALPH
SCOTT · DEE · BELLAMY
WALTER CONNOLLY
ADDED FEATURE
"PARENTS ON TRIAL"
Jean Parker—Johnny Downs
ADDED CHAPTER PLAY
"Mandrake the Magician"
Warren Hull — Doris Weston

I.O.D.E. TO HOLD BRIDGE BENEFIT FOR ENG. CHILDREN

Function Will be Held in Armouries in Order to Supply Blankets for Evacuated Children

APPEAL IS URGENT

Belleville's first answer to the call of the Motherland to assist in providing necessities for the thousands of British children who are being, and have been, evacuated from the thickly populated centres of the country, will ring out Friday Sept. 22nd., when members of the Argyll Chapter, Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, will hold a bridge in the Armouries to raise funds for the assistance of these children.

The bridge is being organized in response to an urgent call from Lady Reading, British peeress and official head of the British organization in charge of children's relief operations.

Cabled appeals were sent out to the Dominions, and Mrs. William Morrison, Toronto Provincial President of the I.O.D.E., immediately wired the several branches of her organization for their aid in this, the first patriotic contribution of Canadian women.

All funds will be immediately sent to England where they will be used for the supplying of warm blankets and clothing for the thousands of English children at present scattered in the countryside of England, far, it is hoped, from the death-dealing airplanes that are expected any time in bombing raids over the main centres of the country.

Mrs. A. B. Gribble, president of the Argyll Chapter, I.O.D.E., here, immediately swung organization forces of her chapter into action. An appeal will be sent out to the ladies of Belleville to patronize this, the first function, and one of probably many, that will result in funds to help secure the comfort of England's children.

NO APPLES FOR TEACHERS HERE

Wakefield, Mass., Sept. 13 (AP)—You can't bring an apple for the teacher in this town. The school committee placed in effect a new rule banning gifts to teachers from pupils or parents because "the likelihood of accusations of favoritism or hurt feelings on the part of those children who cannot afford to bring gifts will thus be lessened."

P. C. MacLaurin Speaks To B.Y.P.U. as Season's Activities Are Begun

With a hundred members in attendance, the Senior and Intermediate B. Y. P. U. organizations of Victoria Ave. Baptist Church opened a new season's activity at a banquet held in the church parlours Monday night.

Principal P. C. MacLaurin of the B. C. I. & V. S., who was special speaker for the occasion, issued a challenge to the young people that stirred the hearts of his hearers.

"Despite the efforts of our statesmen to stave off war they did not succeed and people have been thrown into spasms of despair. But we must not become panicky", warned the speaker, "we must follow the advice of our leaders and be calm no matter what turns up. We know there is right and wrong in the world and we must not forget that, sooner or later, right will prevail.

"The year 1939 is the beginning of a period such as has never been lived through before. In May of this year when the King and Queen visited Canada, something a reigning monarch had never done before, the Dominion was filled with fervent expressions of loyalty the Empire of which we are so proud to be a part. Had we been able to live the next few years without war Canada would have experienced an era of real prosperity, such was the effect of the Royal Visit.

"However, upon our shoulders as young people has been placed a time in history and a responsibility that we must meet. We shall have to take life a little more seriously. We shall have to consider our duties in the home and, help lighten the worries and burdens of our parents. Burdens in the school will be heavier still; we must respond in the school as well as in the home. Burdens of church officers are going to be much heavier and our closer co-operation will be required. We shall have to share sacrifices cheerfully and make our contribution in every phase of life in which we live."

Miss Muriel Jobson contributed to the evening's entertainment with two vocal solos and a piano duet by Muriel and Ted Wells was heard with appreciation. Arthur Wynne lead a sing-song of favourite choruses. A short devotional period was conducted with scripture reading by Miss Della Anderson and prayer by Mr. Bert Orr. Mr. John Jury, president of the senior B. Y. P. U. performed the duties of chairman.

TONIGHT—A Smart Show!
Fun and Thrills
DEAD END KIDS
ANN SHERIDAN
in
"THE ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES"
Last Show 8.30
A Laugh Hit!
WAYNE MORRIS MAY ROBSON
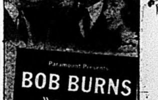
in
"THE KID FROM KOKOMO"
B-E-L-L-E Overseas News
THURSDAY and FRIDAY
BELLE
WHERE HITS ARE A HABIT
FULL OF LAUGHS, CHUCKLES AND YOUNG ROMANCE.. THAT WILL MAKE YOU A LOT HAPPIER!



Paramount Presents
BOB BURNS
"OUR LEADING CITIZEN"
with
SUSAN HAYWARD
JOSEPH ALLEN, Jr.
ELIZABETH PATTERSON
— SECOND BIG HIT —
Intrigue! Romance! Mystery! The Daring Story of a Man Who Doubled for a Dictator!
THE MAGNIFICENT FRAUD'
AKIM TAMAROFF — LLOYD NOLAN
PATRICIA MORRISON
EXTRA! SPECIAL!
"THE MOVIES MARCH ON"
Packed with all the laughs of the old-time "Flickers". 30 of the Screen's biggest stars reliving the most memorable moments of the Screen's history!

COAL is Best

• COMFORT
Coal assures your home of an abundance of heat thru' the most severe cold spells.

• CONVENIENCE
Coal does not require constant watching, thus freeing you from a lot of trips to the furnace.

• SAFETY
Coal cannot ignite or leak, but burns silently and safely. No fear about serious explosion.

• CLEANLINESS
Coal is offered in grades that are specially treated to eliminate soot, smoke and smudge.

• HEALTHFULNESS
Coal warms your home thoroughly, keeping an even temperature in all kinds of weather.

• DEPENDABILITY
Coal can be stored in your bin with complete safety, assuring a constant supply all winter.

• ECONOMY
Coal is cheap to use and affords warmth without using excessive amounts to obtain it.

PHONE 2071 TODAY!

HARRY SMITH
152 Pinnacle Street

Hungerford Twp. School Fair

With a definite increase in interest over previous years as shown by larger entries in competitive classes higher calibre of exhibits, the Township School Fairs of Hastings County are being met with splendid weather, large crowds and general improvement over previous years in the belief of Mr. H. L. Fair and his staff of capable assistants who are directing the work with the assistance of school teachers and others interested in the Department of Education's Branch of the project. A change in the procedure this year was made by the Ontario Department of Education in order to meet the needs of the new course of study. It was thought by many that this would reduce the attendance since much of the competition was eliminated. One of the changes was the discontinuance of Grand Championship School Fair in which the winners competed for county honors. These changes have increased interest however and the fairs are progressing most satisfactorily toward their climax. Fourth on the list was Hungerford School Fair held at Stoco on Tuesday, Sept. 12th. Here, too, were superb exhibits of highest quality so equal in every respect that the judges had difficulty in selecting winners in the agricultural division.

Prize Winners

In the competitive classes six prizes were awarded in each division and following are listed the prize-winning pupils with the number following each name signifying the School Section represented.

Grains and Seeds

Oats, Alaska, 1 Quart—Fergus Cassidy 16; Raymond Geen 1; Gerald Bateman 1; Ursula Allore 13; Lawrence Goulah 13.

Oats, Alaska, Sheaf—Raymond Geen 1; Agnes Fobert 13; Fergus Cassidy 16; Lawrence Goulah 13; Pat Rush 6.

Oats, Open Class — Claude Thompson 1; Raymond Geen 1; James McCutcheon 18; Mary Farrell 12; Gerald Morton 1; Bernard Ervine 9.

Barley, Nobarb, 1 Quart—Harold Geen 1; Francis Mulroney 16.

Barley, Nobarb, Sheaf—Raymond Goulah 13; Donald Goulah 13; Bernard Goulah 13; Francis Mulroney 16.

Open Class Barley—Mary Farrell 12; Avon Whalen 6; Herbert Johnston 16.

Spring Wheat, Mindum, 1 Quart —Leo Mulroney.

Spring Wheat, Mindum, Sheaf—Gerald Bateman 1; Leo Mulroney 16; James Arney 18; John Whalen 6; Clement Cassidy, 16; Hilda MacFarlane 12.

Field Corn, Longfellow, ears—Oakley Lafremire 22; Leo Whalen 6; Freida Cousin 18; Herbert Johnston 16; Donald Denison 18.

Field Corn, Longfellow, on stalk —Herbert Johnston 16; Leo Whalen 6.

Sweet Corn, Golden Sunshine—Louise Kirkpatrick 18; Jeanette Lefremire 22; Joe DeMarsh 7; Ruth Forbes 4; Herbert Johnston 16; Clair Meeks 18.

Soy Beans O. A. C. — No 211—Agnes Mulroney 18; Timothy Rush 6; Stafford Cassidy 16; Michael McGrath 12; Jos Schwager 1; Carmen Geen 1.

Field Peas A.O.C. No 191—Madeline McGrath 12; Donald Cousins 18; Gerald Muroney 18; Kenneth Carleton 1; Audrey McFarlane 12; Stanley Lafremire 22.

Potatoes and Roots

Potatoes, Dooleys—Gerald Morton 1; Michael Rush 6; Oakley Longwin 22; John Whalen 6; Albert Lloyd 18; Earl Morton 1.

Potatoes Irish Cobblers—Lawrence LeBarge 7; Ronald Whalen 6; Claude Thompson 1; Jimmie Whalen 6; Fergus Cassidy. 16; Clare McGrath 12.

Potatoes, Green Mountains—Barbara Whalen 6; Ruth Jones 1; Florence Deshane 12; Rita Derusha 19; Mary Farrell 12; Noreen McGrath 12.

Turnips (for feeding)—Raymond Geen 1; John McCutcheon 18; Stewart Geen 1; Chas. Palmer 1; Catherine Coulter 1; Joyce Morton 1.

Mangels, Yellow Intermediate—Donald Tuepah 13; Fred Allore 13; Gordon Carleton 1; Theresa Cassidy 16; Roy Lafremire 22; Noreen McGrath 12.

Turnips, Canadian Gem—Chas. Palmer 1; Theodore Forbes 4; Jas. Jordan 18.

Beets, Detroit Red—Harold Mulroney 18; Gordon Tuepah 18; Doreen Doran 13; Donald Goulah 13; Beverley Bush 18; Clarence Holler 18.

Carrots, Chantenay—Gerald Tuepah 18; Rosemary Jordan 18; Jimmy Young 18; Rita Langevin 22; Myrtle Arny 18; Alice Van Dusen 18.

Onions, Yellow Globe Danvers—Raymond Goulah 13; Harold Lewis 18; Carman Schwager 1; Marion Jones 1; Donald Lafremire 22; Eileen Derusha 19.

Parsnips, Hollow Corn—Joyce Benn 18; Jos. Horrigan 18; Noreen Rivers 4; Claude Thompson 1; Donald Geen 1; Roy Van Dusen 18.

Pumpkin, Sugar Pie—Kenneth Hughes 13; Donald Flynn 22; Arthur Vance 1; Clayton Palen 13; Fred Denison 18; Mary Farrell 12.

Squash, Hubbard—John Taylor 18; Raymond McGrath 12; Raymond Ervine 9; Chas. Marlin 6; Edmund Giguere 6.

Open Wheat—Raymond Geen 1; Marguerite Farrell 12; Olive Smith 9; Timothy Horrigan 12; Marie Flynn 12.

Flowers and Plants

Asters, 6 blooms—Harold Mulroney 18; Gerald Tuepah 18; Dorion Vezina 13; Lois Van Dusen 18; Hilda Vezina 13; Bobbie Goulah 13.

Zinnias, 6 blooms—Barbara Whalen 6; Stewart Geen 1; Alice Van Dusen 18; Raymond Geen 1; Lawrence Goulah 13; Earl Morton 1.

Nasturtiums, 6 blooms—Glen McCammon 1; Helen Mulroney 18; Carman Geen 1; Dorothy Meeks 18; Audrey McFarlane 12.

Calendula, 6 sprays—Theresa Cassidy 16; Florence Deshane 12; Hilda McFarlane 12; Tommy Kellar 1.

Cosmos, 6 sprays—Dorothy Young 18; Donald Goulah 13; Frank Barker 12; Wayne Arbuckle 9; Theodore Forbes 4; Margaret Garrison 18.

Coreopsis, 10 blooms—Catherine Coulter 1; Gerald Mulroney 18; Reta Derusha 19; Clare McGrath 12; Basil McFarlane 12.

Helichrysm, 10 blooms—Lillian Burd 18; Reta Langevin 22; Chas. Marlin 6; Stafford Cassidy 6.

Snapdragon, 6 spikes—Arthur Vance 1; Hester Grills 16; Gerald Morton 1; Noreen McGrath 12; Anna Forbes 4; Jean Larkin 19.

Phlox, 6 sprays—Kevin Mulroney 18; Bobbie rbuckle 9; Oakley Lafrenire 22; Agnes Fobert 13; Paul Larkin 19; Donald Geen 1.

Stocks, 6 sprays—Chas. Palmer 1; Roy Van Dusen 18; Raymond McGrath 12.

Open Class, any Flower—Stewart Geen 1; Cecilia DeMarsh 7; Rosemary Marew 7; Gerald Morton 1; Anna Forbes 4; Betty Vance 1.

Poultry Exhibit

Barred Plymouth Rock Cockerel —Mary Farrell 12; Margaret Farrell 12; Raymond Geen 1; James McCutcheon 18; Timothy Rush 6; Theodore Forbes 4.

Barred Plymouth Rock Pullet—Margaret Farrell 12; Mary Farrell 12; Raymond Geen 1; James McCutcheon 18; Theodore Forbes 4; Florence Deshane 12.

White Leghorn Cockerel—Gordon Tuepah 18; Gerald Morton 1; Kenneth Hughes 13; Harold Geen 1; Leo Mulroney 16; Harold Mulroney 18.

White Leghorn Pullet—Gerald Morton 1; Harold Geen 1; Kenneth Hughes 13; Harold Mulroney 18; Leo Mulroney 16; Geraldine Whalen 6.

Those exhibiting in Livestock Parade—John Whalen, Edward Tiguere, Stewart Geen, Raymond Geen, Harold Geen, Carman Geen, Alvon Whalen, Donald Geen, Michael Rush, James Whalen and Patrick Rush.

Livestock

Calf Dairy Type—Stewart Geen 1; Raymond Geen 1; Harold Geen 1; Carman eGen 1; Alvon Whalen 6; Donald Geen 1.

Calf Beef Type—Michael Rush 6; Jim Whalen 6; Patrick Rush 6; John Whalen 6; Edward Tiguere 6.

Showmanship—Stewart Geen 1; Carman Geen 1; Raymond Geen 1; Jimmy Whalen 6; Harold Geen 1; Edward Tiguere 6.

Market Lamb—Mary Farrell 12.

Showmanship—Mary Farrell 12.

Apples and Fruits

Apples, Wealthy—Gerald Mulrroney 18; Harold Mulroney 18; Francis Whalen 6; Helen Derusha 19; Claude Thompson 1; Stewart Geen 1.

Apples, McIntosh—Anna De Marsh.

Tomatoes—James McCutcheon 18; Gerald Morton 1; Joyce Morton 1; Earl Morton 1; Merle Bateman 1; Marion Jones 1.

Apple Collection—Edna Ervine 9; James McCutcheon 18.

Contests, Etc.

Recitation—Rosemary Meraw 7; Hilda McFarlane 12; Joyce Morton 1; Chas. Marlin 6; Paul Larkin 19; Vincent Goulah 13.

Girls Public Speaking—Lillian Bird 18; Merle Bateman 1.

Boys Public Speaking—Joseph De Marsh 7.

Boys and Girls Naming Contest —Clifford McCamon 1; Raymond Geen 1; Aileen Horrigan 12; Claude Thompson 1; Moreen McGrath 12; Gordon Carleton 1.

Boys and Girls Vegetable Judging—Claude Thompson 1; Clifford McCamon 1; Gerald Mulroney 18; Timothy Horrigan 12.

Boys and Girls Bag Patching—Noreen McGrath 12; Theresa Marlin 6; Cecillia De Marsh 7; Joseph Schwager 1.

School Sections 18, 1 and 6 were awarded first, second and third prizes respectively in the School Shorus, and School Sections numbering 1, 4, 6, 7, 12, 13, 16, 18, 19 and 20 took advantage of the project display plan which is a new feature of the fairs.

In the school parade, the following School Sections took part—1, 4, 6, 7, 12, 13, 16, 18, 19, 22 and 9.

Are you a Socket robber?
ORDER BY THE CARTON

Order HYDRO Lamps by the carton—and always have spares on hand when old lamps burn out. Save yourself all that inconvenience of robbing one socket to fill another. Avoid the embarrassment of darkened lamps, empty sockets, when guests drop in.

HYDRO LONG LIFE LAMPS

Get them at Your Nearest Hydro Shop

HL-89

Only 2 Necessities Cost Less Than Electric Light—Air and Water!

WARTIME BUDGET

(Continued From Page One)

But you can't beat such things as excess profits tax and income tax. So the we-can-take-it philosophy won out and all hands went back to the serious business of winning the war.

Coffee Up 10 Cents a Pound

From Revenue Minister Ilsley's budget announced in the House of Commons yesterday, the public gleaned: Coffee probably will cost 10 cents a pound more; tea, from five to 10 cents more; tobacco, another nickel a pound; cigarettes, 2½ cents more for every 25 smokes; liquor, about 35 cents more for a 26-ounce bottle; beer, a couple of cents or so added to a quart; income tax, 20 per cent more on the amount already payable: an added scale on excess profits for the business man.

Mr. Average Citizen took all this in, reached for a pencil and began going places.

Grocers in large cities, particularly Montreal and Toronto, reported a sudden burst of purchases of tea and coffee.

In Toronto liquor stores took on the appearance of a Christmas holiday rush. Quebec Province liquor stores were closed five hours early when General Manager J. A. Savole set his staff to work drafting a new price list. The Ontario Liquor Commission likewise put its clerical staff to work but there was no earlier closing. From Victoria came the report that the British Columbia Liquor Control Board was expected to announce price increases in a few days.

Less Number in Package

Tobacco companies began figuring if it wouldn't be better to change the number of cigarettes in a package rather than the price. Easier handling of change was the reason.

Nearly all the tax increases were expected to be passed along to the consumer, but he may not have to pay the small increase in tax on carbonic acid gas used in making soft drinks.

E. P. Taylor, President of Canadian Breweries Ltd., said he wasn't sure whether the beer tax increase would have "any great effect" in Ontario, "and it may turn out the breweries would be better off by absorbing the increase and maintaining present prices."

Bacon Likely to Go Up

Officials of the Canadian Dressed Meats, Ltd., in Toronto said bacon particularly will be affected by removal of the eight-per cent sales tax exemption from salted or smoked meats. The price may go up two cents a pound.

A. M. Wilson, Vice-President of the Salada Tea Company of Canada, Ltd., said there will be no immediate increase in the price of tea "until we start using imported stocks."

Coffee distributors in Montreal and Toronto said the 10-cent tax on each pound would be passed along to the consumer. Allan Saunders, manager of the Majabo Company in Toronto, said: "It will be a matter of policy with some companies to raise their prices immediately; other companies will wait until their supply is exhausted."

Cut into Revenue

Peculiar twists were seen in the increase in federal income tax. In Toronto, Chester Walters, Comptroller of the Ontario Treasury, said the increase would cut "tremendously" into the Province's income tax revenue because Ontario exempts the amount of tax paid to the federal government.

But in Montreal the city's income tax collections are expected to increase $300,000 a year. Montreal has a graduated tax based on amounts paid to the federal government, and a federal increase means a city increase.

"HERE'S HOW WE CURE TOBACCO!

This picture gives you a glimpse into a tobacco 'kiln'. Experts have taught us how to 'prime' the crop—that is, to pick the leaves separately as they ripen—so that each batch goes into the kiln when it's just ripe enough to give first class results in curing. Raising tobacco good enough for Dominion Fine Cut is a ticklish job which takes a lot of watchfulness and hard work."

J. D. (tobacco grower).

Dominion FINE CUT TOBACCO 10¢ PKG.

Bringing out NATURE'S Flavour

Years of scientific study have taught us how to help Nature produce tobacco of exquisite flavour and fragrance—the leaf that goes into Dominion Fine Cut. That's why this tobacco is so cool and mellow, mild and smooth—and Nature-flavoured! If you haven't already given yourself this treat, buy a package of Dominion Fine Cut today and roll your own for economy and added pleasure—extra large package, only 10c.

DOMINION Fine Cut
CANADA'S FINEST NATURE-FLAVOURED TOBACCO

DENIES REPORT

Ottawa, Sept. 13 (CP)—Defence Minister Mackenzie last night described as incorrect a report said to have been printed in the Vancouver un that two Canadian divisions were being equipped and organized for service overseas.

Immediately before adjournment of the House of Commons, Conservative leader Manion asked the Minister whether the published report was true.

"That is not correct," said Mr. Mackenzie.

LEAD DOMINION'S AIR, LAND AND SEA FORCES IN WAR AGAINST GERMANY

Air Vice-Marshal G. M. Croil
Chief of the Air Staff

Air-Commodore E. W. Stedman
Chief Aeronautical Engineer

Major-General T.V. Anderson
Chief of Militia Staff

Rear-Admiral P. W. Nelles
Chief of Naval Staff

Air-Commodore L. S. Breadner
Chief of Staff Division

Col. E. W. Sanson
Director Military Training and Staff Duties

The R.C.A.F. is destined to play an important part in the defence of Canada and in assisting England in the war against the German Reich. Now that Canada has formally entered the war, plans are rapidly being made in Ottawa to bring Canada's air force up to the peak of efficiency. Here four high ranking officers of the R.C.A.F. are pictured as they conferred in Ottawa. From LEFT to RIGHT: Air-Commodore W. R. Kenny, head of personnel division; Air-Commodore L. S. Breadner, head of staff division; Air-Vice-Marshal G. M. Croil, chief of the air staff; Air-Commodore E. W. Stedman, chief aeronautical engineer.

Hon. Ian Mackenzie
Defence Minister

Charles Burns
Assistant Deputy Minister of National Defence

Abbot of Dunfermline Dies

Inverness, Scotland, Sept. 13 —(CP)—Rt. Rev. Sir David Hunter-Blair, 85, Abbot of Dunferline, died yesterday at Fort Augustus Abbey, Inverness. A scholar, soldiel, musician, geologist and author, he relinquished an estate of 300,000 pounds ($1,200,000) to become a monk.

DIES FROM TETANUS

Brockville, Ont., Sept. 13 (CP)—Harry Halliday, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Halliday, Elizabethtown township, died in hospital today from tetanus resulting from an injury to his foot caused when he stepped on a nail about two weeks ago.

LETTER A LITTLE LATE

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 13—(AP)—The Governor's office received a letter addressed to "Hon. Thomas Crittenden, Governor of Missouri." It was from a Hollywood woman who wanted information about the outlaw Jesse James. Crittenden served as Governor from 1880 to 1884.

Air-Commodore W. R. Kenny
Head of Personnel

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

A SOUND POLICY

The Dominion Government in its "Pay-as-you-go" policy as announced in Parliament on Tuesday has tackled the problem of meeting the expenses as occasioned by the war budget in a highly eminent fashion. Canadians as a whole will agree that it is far better to raise the greater amount of money by direct taxation rather than ease the burden for the present by the simple expedient of borrowing funds which, if allowed to go on over the possible length of the war and longer, would bring on the danger of inflation with all its accompanying distress especially to the low wage earner and those depending on interest returns for a living.

Mr. Ilsley has stated that, while heavier taxes will not take care of expenses, even as they have not in peace years and there is a limit to what can be raised by taxes, the deficit will be taken care of by borrowing from the Canadian public at rates as low as possible. He does not expect much change, in interest rates from normal years, will be needed to attract a sufficient portion of the large increase in savings which should be produced by the expanding production and incomes under war-time conditions. It must be remembered here that a government can carry on only as long as its credit is satisfactory. If, for instance, the response to borrowing is poor then inflation to some degree must be resorted to. We are, in a manner, partners of the Government, and, if when the call comes, investors will absorb the bulk of the securities offered to provide the money for the carrying on of the war then they will be doing "their bit" in fighting the scourge that is upon us.

Canada is a rich country but despite our wealth we can appreciate the Government's intention of raising the money as we go along and avoid top heavy debt load as much as possible for so long as the money is spent some way must be found of paying it back. Better now than in post-war years when production falls off and fewer are employed because of stoppage of war-order contracts. This in turn yields decreased tax returns because of lower earning power of the people.

Most of us think we are over-taxed but we do not bear the load that is imposed on the people of Great Britain and they seem to get along quite satisfactorily. If the money is spent to carry on national life how else can it be paid than by taxation and economizing in all ways possible? The only answer is it cannot. As Mr. Ilsley has pointed out, if we wish to destroy the menace of Hitlerism, we must be prepared to "sacrifice the use of some of the materials and the products of men's labor which otherwise would have provided for us in terms of better living."

Our ability to pay the increased costs of Government is considerably better than at the beginning of the last war. We have a higher public debt it is true but our national wealth has also increased. The production from our gold mines was slight in comparison with today while our nickel and copper and lead mines have had commensurate increases as well. Along with this we have had industrial growth which is giving employment to thousands more than in 1914 to1918. Industry is better able to take care of the economic tasks which the war has and will produce. Canada is prepared now as before to supply the huge quantities of foodstuffs needed by Great Britain and France in the tremendous undertaking ahead of them. With the extra outlet for our farm produce the rural residents of Canada will obtain the extra millions of dollars with which to spend on the improvement of their properties and the purchase of equipment much of which has been put off for lack of ready cash.

Parliament has been asked to appropriate one hundred million dollars to meet the special expenditures occasioned by the existing state of war. This is a small amount to what will be spent in the future but the ultimate cost will not be too great if we can help to rid the world of the foes of peace and friendship. We should be glad that our Government has chosen the policy of good business principles and intends to apply it in a determined way to pay our way as we go in as far as it is practicable.

DIFFERENT OBJECTIVES

On Tuesday Prime Minister Chamberlain took another airplane flight but on a far different mission than the last time when he flew to Munich to appease Hitler. How different was the object in view. Last year it was to avoid war. Now it was to a meeting of the Supreme Council of Western Allies to prosecute war more actively and give lie to the rumors that there were differences of outlook between the two countries. What a change in objectives!

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

HE DOES NOT MARCH ALONE!

He does not march alone—
This boy of yours
Who leaves so large an aching void, it seems
That all the world is gone!

He does not march alone!
The mighty hosts,
Crusaders all, for freedom, justice, right,—
They, too, are marching on.

With them are spirits strong!
Those gone before
Have left a heritage of wisdom, strength
Unseen, they march along!

Ascending to the Throne
Where justice reigns
Are countless prayers. Well armed we send them forth;
He does not march alone!

—Mrs. David S. Walker, in Montreal Star

x x x

CANADA IS A LAND OF HOMES and that Canadians take an interest in their homes is indicated by the steadily increasing volume of Home Improvement Loans reported. In towns and cities with a population of 5,000 and over to July 31, 1939, 57,911 of these loans have been made, a total of $24,356,969.98. Loans under the Dominion Housing Act are also being taken up for the building of new homes in a satisfactory manner. Belleville registers 241 Home Improvement loans with a total of $90,983. The mining town of Timmins, (population 20,000—40,000), centre of some of the greatest gold mines in the world, is still tops with $1,287,804 for 1,410 Home Improvement loans. Sudbury in the group of cities from 20,000 to 40,000 population, has had 1,410 Home Improvement loans for $766,340.15. Kirkland Lake, famous for the Lake Shore and other splendid gold mines, shines brightly in the group of towns with from 5,000 to 10,000 population, with 1,178 Home Improvement loans and a total of $956,688.13. Flin-Flon, Manitoba, gets in the picture with 531 loans totalling $277,725.08. Other new Canadian towns are well represented. Canada's new communities certainly do not neglect their opportunities and are right up on their toes when it comes to expansion.

x x x

BUSINESS AS USUAL! THE SHOW MUST GO ON! The tradition of the theatre that the show must go on no matter what happens is duplicated by the modern daily newspaper. The daily newspaper goes on regardless, and the more news there is the harder does the newspaper work to present it to the public. Wartime illustrates the spirit of service which animates the modern daily newspaper. Every day there is a new newspaper and between times bulletins keep the public posted as to news of importance and day and night sleepless vigil is maintained in the interest of the subscribers and the public generally. Nothing can take the place of the modern daily newspaper—and this is especially apparent in times of stress and strain, such as wartime. Your daily newpaper is the cheapest and best investment possible to make for wartime or peacetime.

x x x

A NEW MASONIC LODGE JUST INSTITUTED in Geraldton, Little Long Lac mining region of Ontario, illustrates the rapid growth of communities in Ontario's ever-widening mining belt. Geraldton recently celebrated its first year of existence and is a husky, lusty, infant. Geraldton has a hotel, a newspaper, and all the comforts of home possible on such short notice. The new Masonic lodge will be known as Kenogamisis, which is the Indian name for Little Long Lac. Starting with a charter membership of thirty odd, the ceremony was held in the newly modeled and completely furnished lodge rooms, followed by a banquet in the Mariaggi Hotel. Visiting Masonic officials stayed over the week-end and attended divine service in St. James Anglican Church. Geraldton, one of Ontario's newest towns, is one of its brightest and best with a community organization of progressive citizens.

x x x

WHICH?

Local Mayor (presenting prizes): Now look at me, children, I am a self-made man.

Modern Scholar (to boy sitting next to him): Is he boasting or apologizing?

IN CONFIDENCE

"And when your wife is out, old boy, do you mind the baby?"

"Yes—awfully."

OFF THE RECORD

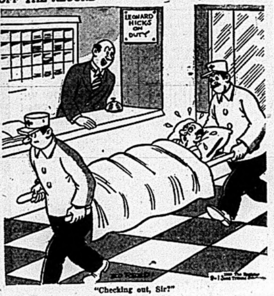
By Ed Reed



"Checking out, Sir?"

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

Sept. 13th., 1919

Mrs. H. Boyle of Montreal, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. L. Pringle of Lochlin, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Watson, Ann Street.

Mr. Thomas Sheehan of Proctor, Minn., formerly of Belleville, who has been here for a few days, has left for his home.

Mr. A. Malyea of Chicago, Ill., formerly of Belleville, is visiting relatives here.

Master Fred Robinson, Pine Street, when fishing recently in Moira Lake caught a maskinonge which weighed 22 pounds and was 44 inches in length.

Vaudeville entertainment will be added to the screen programme at Griffin's Theatre, commencing next week.

30 YEARS AGO

Sept. 13th., 1909

Mr. Walter Dobbs of Montreal, is home on a short visit.

Miss L. Hubly has returned to her home in Halifax, N.S., after visiting her uncle, the Rev. A. M. Hubly in this city.

Mrs. Fred Hawley of Troy, Ohio, is visiting friends here.

Dr. McCartney, wife, and son, left today for Canton, China.

Messrs. F. Buckley, W. Wims and J. Lally are spending a few days in Montreal.

Mrs. J. Duffin has returned to the city after visiting her son, Dr. D. W. Duffin, Toronto.

40 YEARS AGO

Sept. 13th, 1899.

Miss Urquhart, head milliner in the Ritchie store, is visiting the millinery openings in New York City.

Miss Jennie and Miss Minnie Higginbotham of Toronto are visiting friends here after several years' absence.

Miss Edith Tugnett is home from Toronto on a visit to her mother.

Mr. Frank Mitchell of the Rolling Mills Company, has returned after a short visit to Norwich, Conn.

A light overcoat feels good these mornings.

A runaway occurred on Pinnacle Street this morning and the buggy collided with the large tree at the corner of Bridge and Pinnacle Streets in front of Lake and Jenkins' livery office. The driver was thrown from the vehicle but not injured.

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 13th, 1889.

The 15th Battalion will parade this evening.

Temperatures today: Maximum 80; Minimum 61.

A number of citizens went to Madoc today to attend the trotting races.

Mr. A. E. Fish will leave tomorrow on a business trip to Toronto and New York City.

Ald. Hanley, who has been in Toronto for some time superintending the erection of a church for which he has the contract, has returned to the city.

The Township of Rawdon Fair will be held at Harold on Oct. 11th.

Ex-Ald. W. A. Ostrom, formerly of this city, now of the Canadian Customs at Brantford, Ont., is visiting friends here.

Gold Camps of New Guinea

New Guinea gold provided a unique opportunity for aviation.

Gold was known to exist long before the war and German scientists with Australian prospectors expected to find it when hostilities and the Australian invasion stopped the search. It was 1926 before the rich strikes at Koranga and Edie creeks brought chance-takers at the double.

These areas were 60 miles from the coast but they were separated from it by the world's wildest country—razor-backed ridges 6,000 feet high, precipitous chasms, jagged spurs, torrents, torrential rains, tropic growth in a nightmare tangle. Native carriers—hard to get, costly to maintain and, because of cannibal head-hunters, hard to keep—made the journey in eight days, three weeks out and home, but 35 lbs. of each man's 50 lbs. load went to maintain him.

Wau, Bulolo and other finds followed. Communication was vital.

x x x

In 1927 the first 'plane went in to land on a sloping shelf on a hillside. The trip lasted half an hour and its 600 lbs. of freight was equivalent to three weeks' work by 250 carriers at 10 pounds a head to procure and to 1 pound a week to maintain. Operations started with freight at 1s a pound and passengers at 25 pounds a head. Other companies followed. Six trips a day were normal and one pilot did 11.

Bigger and bigger freight carriers were demanded and, ironically, Germany was the only country which could supply them. These machines carry a 3 1-2 ton load.

Men, women and children went in, houses and a hotel, dredges and engines in sections, bullocks and cows, pigs and hens, billiard tables, pianolas and radios, meat and beer, potatoes and onions, quinine and needles, dogs' chains and a baby's pram. Gold came out—one parcel alone worth 30,000 pounds.

Wau soon had electric light, refrigerators and tennis courts, and since roads are impossible, all the settlements are dependent on air transport. Last year New Guinea's 'planes flew 1,488,000 miles, carried 12,119 passengers and 26,170,000 lbs. of freight.

Now Lae and Salamaua on the coast and Wau and Bulop have radio phone links. Eavesdropping is impossible because of the inversion of "scrambling" of speech. Anyone overhearing a conversation would understand nothing, as the inverted speech is rectified only at the receiving station.

x x x

But New Guinea demands her pound of flesh. She fights to keep her secrets and, last stronghold of primitive man, her peoples take toll of Government patrols.

Last of a string of casualties in the service, was Patrol Officer N. C. Elliott, son of the late Brigadier General "Pompey" Elliott, who commanded the 15th Brigade A.I.F., in the World War.

With a handful of native police he visited Wanali village, found it dirty and rebuked the tultul or native officer. The tultul gashed Elliott's arm with a knife and another native speared him through the body, but firing from the ground he killed the tultul. Rescued by a thrice-wounded native constable, Elliott dragged a spearhead from his henchman's shoulder with his teeth, and died.

During the night another native constable was ambushed and slain and Elliott's body mutilated.

x x x

Of a total revenue of 53,000 pounds received by the island of Nauru last year, 30,000 pounds came from the sale of special postage stamp issues.

This 5,000-acre atoll out in the Pacific just south of the equator is practically a mountain of phosphate and supports 1,661 Nauruans, 1,533 Chinese, 179 Europeans, 27 other Pacific Islanders—and the British Phosphates Commission.

Discovered by Captain Fearn in 1798, the island was annexed by Germany in 1888, occupied by Australian forces in 1914, placed under British mandate in 1919, and is now jointly administered by Britain, Australia and New Zealand, which jointly purchased the interests of the Pacific Phosphate Company (1906 to 1919) for 3,500,000 pounds.

The population lives on a fertile strip between a sandy beach and the coral cliffs which bound the phosphate-bearing plateau. By an old custom of land tenure, the island is owned by individual natives.—From Empire Press Union.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

The Liver is Nature's Great Filter

A few years ago I found that I was writing about the liver so often that I practically stopped writing about it. To me it is still king of the organs and the old saying "life depends upon the liver" is replaced by "health depends upon the liver"

We are not apt to think of the liver as the organ most important to life, because stopping the heart beat means immediate death, whereas stopping or sluggishness of the liver still allows life to go on for a considerable time. But from the health standpoint, the liver is your most important organ.

Why? Poisons entering the body by way of the mouth or directly into the blood are immediately seized by the liver cells, and the great majority of them are held by the liver and thus prevented from doing damage. Harmful substances are broken down by the liver, are rendered harmless, and pass out of the system in the urine. The liver is Nature's great filter.

Thus in testing the "health" of the liver and its ability to remove poisons from the blood, what is known as the dye test is made whereby a dye is taken by mouth or into a vein and the blood is examined at intervals to see how long it takes the liver to remove these poisons. A definite amount of the dye should be removed within a definite time.

But for you and for me the poisons from wastes from digestion and other processes must be removed from the blood by the liver, and if the liver does not remove these body poisons we are sleepy and sluggish, just the same as when poisons from infected teeth and tonsils are in the blood stream.

What can you and I do in the way of keeping the liver in good condition to do all its jobs including filtering out poisons from the blood?

The two ways to keep liver healthy and active are, (a) by bending exercises, (knees straight) and breathing exercises, both of which "squeeze" this large soft organ, and (b) by eating small meals (even if four a day are eaten), thus not overworking the liver. A little fat—cream, butter, bacon — eaten at breakfast time is a good stimulator of the liver processes and helps empty the gall bladder, thus preventing stone formation and gas pressure.

THE CARDIFF GIANT

There are celebrations and celebrations—but one of the most curious in modern times was that which was staged recently in the little village of Cardiff, N.Y., memorializing one of the most famous hoaxes in history, none other than the Cardiff giant of 1869! This jubilation, it seems, grew out of the placing of highway markers perpetuating the memory of the gypsum giant, reports The Illinois State Register.

But it is safe to say that no matter how many of the 150 inhabitants of Cardiff and the country folk roundabout turned out for this occasion, the little town wasn't as crowded as it was 70 years ago when horse-drawn vehicles of every description clogged the roads, bringing multitudes eager to see the giant dug up and acclaimed as a real find.

The story of this celebrated hoax, one of the most outlandish ever perpetrated in the U.S.A. goes back to 1869, when a supposedly petrified man was found on a farm near Cardiff, where the excavators claimed he had been buried for centuries.

This stone man was 10 1-2 feet tall and was reputed to have weighed 3,000 pounds. The promoters took it all over the country, exhibiting it with great success at fairs, in sideshows and museums. Nickels, dimes, quarters, and even half dollars were willingly paid to see the Cardiff giant. Finally it came to the attention of the old showman, P. T. Barnum. Failing in his efforts to buy the statue, he had a facsimile of it made and exhibited it here and abroad!

For a long time the giant "went big," but at last a Yale professor exploded the myth, revealed that a practical joker had had a sculptor carve the "petrified man" from a block of gypsum quarried at Fort Dodge, Ia., and had secretly transported it to Cardiff for "ageing" in the bed of a stream, prior to "discovery." For many years the giant was forgotten, but recently it came to light in an Iowa warehouse and it now stands in a special niche in the basement of the home of Gardner Cowles, Jr., Des Moines publisher.—Windsor Star.

A PETTED PUBLIC

The aim to please policy of the modern merchant has badly spoiled the buying public. It has rather been overdone. If we suddenly find some Saturday night around midnight that we require anything between a package of pins and a suit of clothes to a roast of beef, we phone the store and tell the merchant to send it up.

We don't even put it in the form of a special favor asked. It is just a plain demand and one that must be met within a few minutes, so that we will not be detained if we want to go out, or will not be kept up if we want to go to bed.

Of course, we are not all like that but a good many of us are, and the number is increasing every day. When one comes to study the question, is it any wonder that we find the cost of living is not on the down grade? — Huron Expositor, Seaforth.

Frank Advice About America

You, Herr Hitler, may not know it, but what you need is frank advice about America.

We feel qualified to give it. We are an independent newspaper of the populous American mid-west, where the trend of national opinion always can be first detected.

We feel called on to give this advice, because we think your understanding of America may influence decisions you are about to make.

The advice is this:

Don't count on America remaining neutral in a new European war. The chances are 10 to one against it. Sooner or later— all but certainly—America will be in the war. It will be on the side of so-called democracies. And if America is in the war, Germany can not win it. That is absolutely certain.

x x x

Please do not misunderstand us. We are against war. We are against war with Germany. We were against American entry into the last World War. We believe in letting Europe go to the devil in its own way. We have opposed President Roosevelt's policy of helping the so-called democracies, diplomatically or economically. We are for air-tight embargo on trade with belligerents and have opposed President Roosevelt on that.

But please listen to this: We know we are right. We know there is no sane reason for sending American young men to be killed and maimed on European battle-fields.

x x x

But, listen, Herr Hitler, we also know the American people.

We know that when war starts and the bombs start raining on London and Paris, the American people will begin to get angry. They will hear a lot about the slaughter of little French and English babies. They will see pictures of these babies, torn limb from limb by bombs tossed from your aeroplanes. They will get angrier and angrier, until—just as in the last war—America will be in it, until the end.

x x x

It is because we hate war and will fight against war, until it becomes treasonable to do so, that we are telling you this, Herr Hitler: America, 10 to one, will be in the war and Germany can not win it.—Detroit News.

BACK TO THE OLD

The Big Apple, the Lambeth Walk and other "new dances" which have added to the variations and diversions of the dance floor during the last few years are not new. They are adaptations of styles once popular but now almost forgotten. They have served a purpose in starting a revival of popularity for such old-time dances as the gavotte, the polka, the rye waltz, the mazurka and many others including the varsovienne which, despite its pretty name, has plenty of dip and sway to it," according to Thomas E. Parsons, executive secretary of the Dance Educators of America, meeting in fourth annual convention in New York.

"The public wants those dances in which each couple is its own set and the 300 dance instructors from all parts of the United States and Canada, attending the convention, are concentrating on study of the old dances," says Mr. Parsons.

The latest jitterbug steps were given due consideration at the convention, but the public's surprising predilection for the more dignified and statelier dances occupied the first interest of the assembled mentors of the world of ballroom dance. Fashions burst upon us, no one knows how or why or whence, and the dance teachers may be all wrong. But there is no doubt that they have considerable influence in guiding the dancing feet and it may be that the circle will swing around to the ways of a more serene age, and the old dances will be unwrapped from their lavender and old lace to delight a new generation.—Buffalo Courier Express.

PENALTY OF HASTE

There is a tendency to have hard feelings against truck drivers when a motorist runs into a vehicle stalled on the road at night. The average motorist is unfriendly toward trucks because they take up a lot of room on the highways. Sometimes they whizz past him and almost scare him out of his wits, or they are slow, particularly on the hills, and impede the traffic.

An Elgin coroner's jury, however, praised a Blenheim truck driver at an inquest on a Detroit motorist who was killed when he crashed into the rear of the stalled truck near New Glasgow at 1.30 a.m., and whose wife is still in a serious state. The trucker had to stop for mechanical adjustment. He had five red lights on the back of his vehicle and he had set out two red flares on the highway some distance behind. The truck, stalled, was far more conspicuous than it would have been if it had been running.

Yet the Detroit motorist crashed into it.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

THE RADIO HABIT

It is a bad habit, we believe, for people to remain "glued" to the radio all day long. There is a certain pressure, a personalized presentation, which can be said to engender almost an emotional hynosis in the listener. This is not a "plug" for the newspaper, but it nevertheless remains true that cold type is much less nerve-wracking than a voice constantly cracking over the air.

There is another angle. Persons are ill-advised to become upset over part of a statement heard over the air. We imagine seventy-five per cent. of the calls received by the Evening Review from people desiring to check on radio news result from hearing only part of a radio news bulletin. That is a radio weakness which is due to its mechanical set-up. This is not an attempt to run down a news medium. It is simply to point out that listeners can save themselves anxiety by remembering these weaknesses.—Niagara Falls Review.

CONQUEROR'S PHILOSOPHY

"A clever conqueror will always, if possible, impose his demands on the conquered by instalments. For a people that makes a voluntary surrender; and with such a people you can calculate, that none of these oppressions in detail will supply quite enough reason for it to resort once more to arms. The more such extortions are suffered without resistance, the more unjustifiable it comes to seem to people to make any ultimate stand against pressure; which appear each to be new and isolated, though in fact there is perpetual recurrence of them." — From His Book "Mein Kampf."

COLONELS' CLUB

An unusual distinction recently befell the Secretary of the South African National Parks Board of Trustees, Mr. van Graan, who received notification from the United States that he had been elected a member of the "Colonels' Club." This honor is conferred upon leading men in different parts of the world for "industry, integrity, fidelity, patriotism and good fellowship," and Mr. van Graan was selected for the distinction for his activities in directing the Kruger National Park, the great game reserve which bears the name of the last president of the South African Republic and which every American visitor to South Africa makes a point of seeing. What particularly captured the imagination of the Americans was Mr. van Graan's issue of a series of fauna stamps which circulated widely in the United States and are keenly sought after by collectors—Empire Review.

POLICE RESCUE

Constabulary duty so frequently is associated with restraints and restrictions with psychic if not physical manacles and gyves, that it is a pleasure to note an occasion on which the police, far from dampening the fun, contributed to it. Such an incident occurred in Baltimore in the rescue of the 27 West Virginia fishermen who caught only six fish. Attracted to the spot by reports of a "suspicious crowd," humane and understanding police directed 27 frantic searchers to a fish market.

Do not deny that this was a rescue. True, the West Virginians were not snatched from the perils of the deep, nor delivered from the machinations of wicked men, but for all that they were in a sorry plight. They had sallied out from home and come a long journey for the sole purpose of fishing. Probably before leaving they had made incautious boasts about the depredations they would wreak upon the finny tribes. Fishermen frequently do just that.

Then for 27 to come home with six fish—why it would have been catastrophic, calamitous! They would never have heard the end of it.—Baltimore Sun.

FAMILY ALBUM

The family album is back—but not on the parlor table. It will be on fashionable feminine heads the coming season. It will hang suspended from slim waistlines—behind and before. Not, of course, complete with all those stern pictures of Grandfather Brown when he was the responsible head of the house, and of Rover who always was on hand when the surrey turned in at the gate, and of the bewiskered ball team whose redoubtable first-baseman was Uncle Rod.

No, the family album is to be taken apart and distributed throughout the Woman of Tomorrow's wardrobe—a bustle here, a muff there, and hats that are called as if it were news!) amazing.

One wonders, of course, what the 1940 rumble-seat girl will do with her 1880-style taffeta rumble (or won't they be taffeta this year?) To what decorous straits will that erstwhile ladies' game, tennis, be confined if our Alice Marbles and Kay Stammerses become affected by the nostalgic whims that distil from the Seine's mist each year about this time?—Christian Science Monitor.

BATHS BANNED

Uncle Sam has some very funny laws. All the laws cited are still valid, and all who violate them are technically liable to imprisonment. Here are a few:

In Ohio all cats going out on the streets at night must have a red light tied to their tails.

In Boston it is forbidden to play the violin and to have dogs more than a foot high.

In South Carolina it is forbidden to go to church with a revolver in your pocket.

In Virginia baths in rooms are banned. People must bathe only in the yards of their houses. — Commentator Magazine.

JAPANESE MADE

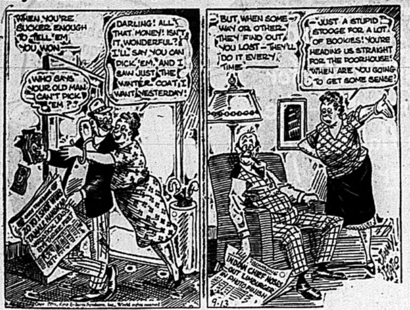
An agitated housewife who had canvassed department and variety stores in a vain effort to purchase tiny American flags for a patriotic party called the Oregonian.

"They haven't any," she reported indignantly. "They say that the little American flags are made only in Japan. Is that true?"

An investigation indicated that it was true.—Portland Oregonian.

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



WHEN YOU'RE SUCKER ENOUGH TO TELL 'EM YOU WON—
DARLING! ALL THAT MONEY! ISN'T IT WONDERFUL? I'LL SAY YOU CAN PICK 'EM. AND I SAW JUST THE WINTER COAT I WANT YESTERDAY!
WHO SAYS YOUR OLD MAN CAN'T PICK 'EM??
20 TO 1 SHOT WINS TAMALE HANDICAP
BUT, WHEN SOME-WAY OR OTHER THEY FIND OUT YOU LOST—THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME—
—JUST A STUPID STOOGE FOR A LOT OF BOOKIES! YOU'RE HEADING US STRAIGHT FOR THE POORHOUSE! WHEN ARE YOU GOING TO GET SOME SENSE?
INDIAN CHIEF NOSES OUT LIMBURGER IN PHOTO FINISH
9-13

EVERY CITIZEN

(Continued From Page One)

Operative on March 31

Taxes on excess profits, a revival of the business profits tax of 1916, will bring in a revenue which Mr. Ilsley refused to estimate, but its effect will not become operative until after next March 31.

The Revenue Minister declared the government to be opposed to any inflationary experiments and announced a "pay-as-you-go policy" would be followed as far as possible in conducting Canada's war effort.

Borrowing would be necessary, the Minister said, but no major operations would be carried on until after the first stage of the struggle which would essentially bring much business to Canada, increasing revenues and payrolls and reducing unemployment.

Opposition to the budget came from Social Credit group. Rene Pelletier (SC. Peace River) moved an amendment to the budget motion calling for the setting up of a House Committee to study conscription of wealth.

Amendment Defeated

This amendment was defeated 190-8 and only the Social Credit members voted for it.

Under the Excess Profits Tax Act companies will be offered two alternative methods of assessment and may elect which one they will choose to come under.

Tax is to be imposed on all businesses whether incorporated or not on profits in excess of five per cent starting at 10 per cent and ranging up to 60 per cent when profit on capital is 25 per cent or over, or as an alternative a straight 50 per cent on profits in excess of the average for the last four years.

Tea is to be taxed up to 10 cents a pound customs duty according to the invoice value, and the coffee tariff is increased by 10 cents a pound.

Wine Tax Doubled

Excise duty on spirits is increased by $3 a proof gallon, malt and beer is taxed to a small extent, cigarettes will bring an additional $1 a thousand and tobacco an additional five cents a pound. Excise tax on wines is doubled.

No change was made in the sales tax rate but salted or smoked meats, canned fish, and electricity and gas used for domestic purposes are removed from the exempt list and will be under the eight-per cent tax.

Income tax increases included a 20 per cent surtax on the normal tax paid by individuals and the corporation income tax increased by three per cent.

Without the returns from new taxation imposed, the Minister anticipated a deficit at the end of the current fiscal year of about $156,000,000. Returns from the war tax increases were estimated to be $21,000,000 to the end of the fiscal year, but benefit of the new profits tax and the corporation income tax increase would not start until after the end of the fiscal year.

ATTEMPT DRIVE

(Continued From Page One)

Repeated Nazi Thrusts

While Warsaw's defenders were fighting off repeated Nazi thrusts, Berlin claimed that four Polish divisions encircled in the Radom Sector, approximately 30 miles south of the Capital, were beginning to capitulate.

Far to the south, German troops driving into the Polish Ukraine were said to have taken Sambor on the Dniester River. Advance guards also were said to have reached the western edge of Lwow (Lemberg), Ukranian Capital.

There was no official comment on German casualties during the 13 days of fighting since the beginning of the war, but informed quarters disputed British press reports placing the Nazi dead at 25,000.

A Stern Task

There appeared to be an increasing belief that the conquest of Poland would prove a stern task.

A communique issued this morning indicated encirclement of Warsaw is being attempted.

Since the Polish invasion began Sept. 1, no rain of any consequence has fallen in western Poland to impede the highly mechanized forces.

Dust on some of the highways has been so heavy that auxiliary troops have been kept busy watering the surface to facilitate movement of motorized columns.

While operations in Poland occupied the attention of Fuehrer Hitler and Field Marshal Hermann Goering, who conferred somewhere on Polish territory yesterday, the Admiralty was formulating a policy on submarine warfare to meet the challenge of a British blockade.

Won't Violate Agreements?

A spokesman said some sort of communique would be issued shortly explaining what steps Germany would take to combat the British blockade. Meanwhile, officials were unwilling to commit themselves except to say Germany has no intention of violating international agreements on submarine warfare.

Informed circles, however, implied Germany might "revise her attitude" toward neutrals who withhold products from normal trade or refuse to sell certain commodities declared contraband by Britain.

Germany took steps last night to conserve materials of which there is a shortage. Sweeping orders confiscated all rubber tires in the Reich and forbade gasoline consumption for private use.

Stricter limitations also were placed on food rations. The meat consumption per person was reduced from 700 to 500 grams weekly—slightly more than a pound.

West Huntingdon

West Huntingdon —(Special) — Huntingdon Township had the honor of entertaining the Belleville Presbytery of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church of Canada on Tuesday of this week, in the White Lake Church of the Ivanhoe circuit of which the Rev. Sam Delve is pastor.

Early in the forenoon ministers and lay delegates gathered from nearly all of the 58 pastoral charges in this presbytery

Both morning and afternoon sessions were presided over in a very efficient manner by chairman Rev. H. B Herrington and presbytery secretary, Rev. Jas. Beckel.

A very impressive service marked the opening of each session. Rev. J. T. E. Blanchard had charge of music. The registration revealed 49 ministers and 40 laymen present, also numerous visitors. Eight new ministers were introduced to the gathering—Rev. Jas. McAvoy of Bath; Rev. Alfred Poulter of Madoc; Rev. R. J. Merriam of Monteagle; Rev. J. F. Reycraft of Picton; Rev. W. J. Fletcher of Yarker; Rev. William Sterling of Shannonville; Rev. L. W. Scott of Sidney; Rev. J. T. Caswell of Roblin.

Rev. J. T. Reycraft replied to the welcome extended the new ministers into this presbytery.

Most of the morning session was spent in general routine work of the presbytery such as reading of correspondence and communications.

In the laymen's hour from 11 a.m. to 12 a.m., the chairman, Mr. Percy Holland conducted the worship service and introduced the special speaker, Rev. W. J. Scott of Stirling, who delivered a fine address from the text "Ye are the salt of the earth." Mr. Scott urged his fellow ministers to more earnest zeal in this time of much anxiety. Following this address the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was partaken of, with Rev.'s Herrington and Beckel conducting.

The ladies of the White Lake Church served a banquet in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

Afternoon Meeting

Promptly at two o'clock, when the members again assembled in the auditorium of the church and following a brief worship service the gathering was treated to one of the most impressive and helpful services of the presbytery meeting, when the missionary and maintenance committee under the leadership of Mr. H W. Ackerman, secured the services of two outstanding leaders in church work. Mr. C. W. Burr of Belleville gave an address on "stewardship" using pages from his own history as a church worker. In this the greatest crisis in years the church more than ever needs great leaders, and if we have consecrated leaders there will be no failure in church work. If big organizations fail, it is not the employees' fault but the leaders' blunders. The same in church work. When we get ministers who are on their knees praying for the work of the church then and not till then can we expect consecrated laymen.

Mr. Ridout Gives Address

The next speaker was the Rev. Mr. Ridout, assistant secretary for Home and Foreign Missions, who gave in a travelogue style his impressions of what the United Church is doing for Canada and the world at large. Mr. Ridout is confident that any church that has such a foundation need not be afraid even in conditions such as we are experiencing at present. He has visited 43 different countries and believes that we have the best folk in all the world. He was very optimistic of the missionary cause, and gave two illustrations of how the work was progressing. A trapper up in Newfoundland while listening to a sermon on the radio was converted and a Chinese doctor gave a letter stating his gratitude for what the missionaries had done for his country stating how he hoped some day to send back help. Mr. Ridout closed this address with the hope that the United Church people would increase their missionary givings and that they would take courage from their two great leaders, John Knox, who would preach even if his opponents would try to drown out his preaching with the blowing of the bagpipes and how John Wesley at the age of 82 went out canvassing for money in order that he might help the unfortunates.

Mr. Percy Holland was elected representative to conference executive. Mr. Arthur Wilson was appointed Secretary-Treasurer of the Lay Association.

The balance of the afternoon session was spent in receiving of reports from the various committees, some of which created much discussion which was profitable to all concerned.

Rev. A. J. Wilson, editor of the United Church Observer addressed the court in the interest of his paper. On motion the court adjourned to meet in Shannonville for next meeting.

GERMANY USING

(Continued From Page One)

The number captured indicated the Germans were introducing the technique on a wholesale basis far exceeding similar experimental efforts in the Great War.

Confirmation Given

Confirmation of the parachute descents and the capture of the Germans was given by several foreigners.

Meanwhile, German armies attacking Warsaw were reported by Poles to have been hurled back six miles in action which definitely put the invaders "on the run."

Official Polish broadcasts said the defenders' stand, based on lines set up along the east bank of the Vistula, was aided by these factors:

1. Withdrawal of nine German divisions from the lines before Warsaw to other sections of the front. (A German division normally numbers from 10,000 to 12,000 men.)

2. Arrival of thousands of young volunteers, more than could be accepted into the army, from among the civilians pouring back into the city.

3. The news of reinforcements en route from the southeast through a gap between the armies with which the Germans are trying to encircle the city.

Attempt Fails

Staff Captain Vaclav Lipinski, speaking from Warsaw, asserted that German attempts to storm Warsaw with tanks and motorized units had failed. Captain Lipinski said the Poles now were ready to "change a mobile war into a stationary war."

German bombing planes appeared over Warsaw only three times yesterday; artillery fire continued but the damage was comparatively light, and Polish military casualties, the radio reported, numbered only one colonel, two other officers and 13 soldiers, although the number of wounded was considerably larger.

An unidentified broadcasting station, meanwhile, reported an actual march in progress in the west. The announcer said two Polish divisions that had been cut off near the German-Polish border were fighting a running battle in an effort to break through the German lines and relieve Warsaw.

ON PRICE BOARD

Kenneth W. Taylor, Hamilton, appointed secretary of the wartime prices and trade board. He is professor of economics at McMaster university and has served as adviser to various government departments.

'Anti-Knock' Gas May Defeat Germany In Present War

Boston, Sept. 13—(AP)— Germany may lose the war because she lacks "anti-knock" gasoline for her fighting planes, a well-known chemist said today.

"Not enemy guns, but the 'knocking' of her airplane motors will toll the doom of Germany in this war" declared Dr. Gustav Egloff, research director for an (universal) oil products company of Chicago in an interview.

Here to attend the 98th meeting of the American Chemical Society, Egloff said Britain and France had facilities for developing "superior" gasolines from crude petroleum products obtained from the wells of Persia.

"On the other hand," he said, "Germany has principally the gasoline she obtains from coal—a product which not only diminishes the speed and carrying power of planes, but cuts down their life span."

Orders for Steel Swamp Employees

New York, Sept. 13 (AP)—Iron Age reported today that orders for steel in the United States since the war began were "assuming almost fantastic proportions."

"Business has come in so fast," said the magazine, as virtually to swamp the sales and clerical forces of steel companies.

"Under the circumstances, an accurate estimate of total bookings of the past 10 days is impossible. Some products have gained from 35 to 200 percent over their weekly averages of August.

"Comparatively little of the heavy inflow of tonnage has come from abroad.

"The sharp gain in business has been accompanied by a quick rise in Steel Ingot Production to 71 per cent, a gain of 12 points over the Labor Day holiday week, and advancing scrap prices, which have raised the the Iron Age scrap composite price to $16.75, a gain of $1.13 to the highest level since early October, 1937."

FEATURE WRITER WARNS GERMANY

G. Ward Price Tells Nation Britain Will Prosecute War to Successful End

LONDON, Sept. 13—(CP)— G. Ward Price, feature writer on the staff of the Daily Mail who interviewed Adolf Hitler on several occasions, warned Germany in a short wave broadcast Monday night that Britain will prosecute the war "until the Nazi regime has disappeared and a free German government has taken its place."

Speaking in German, Mr. Ward Price said:

"Before Germany now lies only the grim prospect of fighting against a world in arms which is determined to end the Nazi rule of force in Europe.

"Even if it were possible for Germany to annex a few hundred square miles of Polish territory, would any individual German be better off."

County Court

"I wore out the siren on my car trying to apprehend this man and was forced to drive at the rate of 80 miles per hour for a distance of 12 miles along Highway No. 62 before I finally overtook him," Provincial Constable Palmateer, of Bancroft, told Magistrate J. L. Lloyd in County Police Court, held at Bancroft yesterday when Kenneth Fraser, Montreal motorist, appeared on a charge of speeding.

Fraser was convicted, but owing to the increased costs assessed, sentence was suspended for three months. The costs amounted to $30.95 including the repairs to Constable Palmateer's car siren.

Lorne Phillips, Cashel Township, appeared charged with the theft of his own cattle, which had been impounded by Bailiff Charles Trumble. The Crown alleged that Phillips trespassed upon the pound property and removed his cattle without due authority. The accused was given a six months suspended sentence upon the payment of the costs of the proceedings. Phillips was also convicted of trespassing.

A charge of failing to report a motor accident was dismissed against Ilan Gunter, while James Maxwell, of Bancroft, was convicted of causing a disturbance and fined $10.00 and costs. The latter charge arose out of altercations which ensued at the 12th of July celebration held at Boulter, where it was alleged by Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan K.C., that Maxwell was intoxicated and caused a disturbance at the celebration.

B. C. Donnan K.C., County Crown Attorney, conducted the prosecution in all cases.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT

The French general staff announces that the French army had beaten off German counter-attacks against the allied advance (1) in the vicinity of Sierck. It also announces that French troops, attacking on the Bitche Plateau, (2) east of the Saar Basin, had made important advances. The black area just over the German frontier designates territory occupied by the French in their previous advances.

POLISH MILITARY MISSION IN LONDON

With great secrecy and via several neutral countries, a Polish military mission arrived in London, no doubt for the purpose of co-ordinating the British and Polish offensives against Germany and probably with a view toward acquainting high British officials with the progress of Poland's defence against Nazi invasion. In the CENTRE here is Polish General Norvig Neugebauer, pictured with two aides on arrival in the British capital.

JOIN THE "SALADA" STAMP CLUB

● For ten cents and the label end, showing the teapot trademark, from any packet of SALADA TEA we will send you a Beginner's Outfit of: 1—64 page Stamp Album. 2—100 all-different stamps. 3—Big list of thousands of stamps offered Free in exchange for SALADA labels.

SALADA STAMP CLUB - 461 King St. W., Toronto

Montrose Milk At Every Meal Gives Him the Energy He Needs!

This youngster uses up more energy than five adults! That's why his mother provides plenty of MONTROSE MILK . . . after school, and during every meal. YOUR children need it for growth and to promote strength!

PHONE 374

MONTROSE DAIRY

"Tops" for nourishment!

MUFFETS

The New Whole Wheat Breakfast Taste Thrill!

Join the swing to the most delicious and appetizing of all breakfasts. Order Muffets from your grocer today.

MUFFETS
WHOLE WHEAT BISCUITS
ECONOMICAL! 12 BIG BISCUITS IN EVERY PACKAGE
Now on sale at your grocers
Delicious as they are Nutritious

Making HOME MORE COMFORTABLE

"Isn't it grand, Jane?"

"But where did you get all the money from for such marvellous improvements?"

"Why, John got a Home Improvement Loan at the Bank of Montreal. He was surprised how simple it all was, and how low the rates are. And we're paying it back in quite small monthly instalments."

• • •

Home Improvement Loans . . . obtainable at $3.25 per $100 repayable in twelve monthly instalments. Ask for our folder.

BANK OF MONTREAL

ESTABLISHED 1817

"A bank where small accounts are welcome"

STANDARD ENCYCLOPEDIA

VOLUMES 12 and 13

ARE NOW AVAILABLE AT THIS OFFICE

WOODLEY FURS
HAVE REPAIRS
RELINING
RESTYLING
POLARIZING
DONE NOW!
Get Our Estimate
273 FRONT ST.

Personals

Mr. M. Callaghan, Hamilton, formerly of this city is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Gordon Robson is visiting at his home in Lindsay.

Miss Bernice Robinson, A.C.C.M. of Corbyville, and Miss Mary Walsh of Marysville, have received their certificates obtained at summer school as supervisors of music in public schools.

Mrs. Charles Spalding, Miss Zita Ryan, Mrs. Charles Lyall, Mrs. E. W. Parker and Mrs. J. D. O'Flynn were tea hostesses at the Bay of Quinte Country Club today.

Mrs. Harold Mott, 88 Queen Street, was hostess at a delightful kitchen shower in honor of Miss Ines Bonter, bride-to-be. About twenty girls were present and the evening was spent in making a bride's book.

St. George's Guild held their first meeting of the fall season yesterday with a splendid attendance of members, eager to begin the Guild activities. Rev. G. G. Wright and Mrs. Wright were present and gave interesting addresses congratulating the members on the fine record of the Guild. The President, Mrs. Pepper, spoke on Red Cross plans and distributed wool to be made up into six. To co-operate with the Red Cross it was announced that the proceeds of the first of the series of card parties, this week, will be donated to the local branch and prizes will be given by Guild members.

On Saturday evening, Sept. 9th., Mr. and Mrs. Orley Parks, entertained about thirty friends and neighbors in honour of Miss Mary Shannon, who left on Tuesday for Hotel Dieu, Kingston. Cards were enjoyed by the guests. During the evening Mrs. Orley Parks presented Mary with a number of gifts from her friends. Mary thanked everyone for the lovely gifts and invited all to call and see her if ever in Kingston. Lunch was then served by the ladies after which everyone departed for their homes wishing Mary every success in her new work.

Weddings

FOSTER—McLAUGHLIN

The wedding took place at Bridge Street United Church parsonage this morning, Rev. Dr. James Semple officiating, of Miss Norma Beryl McLaughlin, and Mr. Theodore Morden Foster, both of Picton. The witnesses were Miss Grace B. Miller and Mrs. A. H. McLaughlin. After a honeymoon in Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Foster will reside on the bridegroom's farm near Picton.

NEAL—McCANN

Eldorado, (Special)—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, September 9th., at two o'clock at the United Church parsonage, Eldorado, when Freda Helen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. McCann was united in marriage to Mr. Percy Franklin Neal, son of Mrs. Neal and the late Mr. Franklin Neal of Oshawa.

The bride looked charming in a street length frock of ice blue silk crepe with matching accessories.

Rev. George Crabbe officiated at the ceremony.

They were unattended and after the ceremony the happy couple left amid showers of rice and good wishes for a trip to Toronto and other points. On their return they will reside at Oshawa.

Trail Rangers Elect Officers

Ten members of the "Live Wires" Trail Rangers of Bridge Street United Church held their first midweek meeting on Monday evening, under the leadership of their Mentor Mr. D. W. Moore. The following officers were elected for the fall and winter term.

Earl Woodley—Chief Ranger.
Donald Kellett—Sub-Chief Ranger
Vincent Massey—Tally
Billy Rawson —Cache
Jack Diamond—Sponsor
Billy Gilbert—Trail Ranger.

At the next-mid-week meeting, Friday, Sept. 22nd, six new members will receive the initiatory degree.

Group games and table tennis rounded out a very enjoyable evening.

TOO MANY COLDS LAST WINTER?
This year—whenever a cold threatens—put a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol in each nostril. Used in time, Va-tro-nol helps prevent colds from developing.
VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

Snap!
Crackle!
Pop!

JOY NOTES AT 8.00
KRISPIES CRACKLE-tantrums go!
Believe it or not . . . they once had to coax little Helen R. to eat breakfast! But not now! First time she heard that cracklin' 'n poppin' that comes when Rice Krispies meet cream . . . why tantrums were over for good!
Whole families—thousands of them, right across Canada—delight in these honey-coloured bubbles of crispness. Order Kellogg's Rice Krispies today. Made only by Kellogg's in London, Canada.
SO CRISP THEY CRACKLE IN CREAM!
Kellogg's RICE KRISPIES

WEEP FOR LOVE

by RUBY M. AYRES

INSTALMENT 3

"I've never been before," Elizabeth said, "not to this wood, but sometimes I take bus rides to other parts of the country when—"

She stopped, and the man prompted her gently.

"When?"

"When I can't bear it any more," Elizabeth said simply, and then realizing that he could not possibly understand, she explained. "You see, since Pip died, it's so dreadful at home."

"Pip?"

"My stepfather. He was killed in an accident, and Mother can't forget him or be happy, and so —it's rather dreadful."

"I'm sorry," the man said.

Elizabeth's long lashes flickered sensitively.

"Yes, he was nice," she said wistfully. She thought of the doll's tea service that Pip had given to her on her tenth birthday and felt glad that she had not asked him to change it for something more grown-up.

There was a little silence before the man asked hesitatingly.

"How old are you now?"

"I shall be seventeen next month."

'Seventeen?" He seemed surprised.

"I know I don't look so old," Elizabeth said, "but mother doesn't either. I mean she didn't—until this happened."

"Some day she'll feel beter!" the man said. "It's impossible to go on grieving. Nothing lasts for ever."

Elizabeth nodded.

"I know." Her voice was regretful.

"You sound as if you are sorry about it."

She looked up at him.

"I am. At least, I don't like things to change. I don't mean that I want her always to be unhappy, but it seems dreadful ever to forget people and some day, not to love them any more," she explained haltingly.

"That's human nature," the man said. "Nothing is meant to last for ever." He glanced down at the little bunch of primroses in her hand. "Even the flowers die," he added. "And the leaves tumble off the trees."

"I know," she answered, "but it's sad all the same."

"You funny child," he said.

She flushed at that and turned her face away.

The rain was falling less heavily now and there was a watery gleam of sunshine through the trees.

"Are you going back to London this afternoon?" the man asked.

"Yes, it takes about two hours by bus." She loked down at the primroses. "I hope they won't mind being taken to London," she said.

"Don't you like London?" he asked.

Elizabeth hesitated.

"I like the country better," she admitted.

He half-shrugged his broad shoulders.

"It's all right when the weather's good, but on foggy November afternoons——"

"I know," she said, and again she thought of Narrow Lane Hall, and the long, grey autumn afternoons when they used to be shut in by mists and silence. "I used to live in the country when I was small," she told him.

The man smiled. "You're not very big now," he said, but when she did not answer, he stepped outside the hut and looked up at the sky. "It's stopped raining," he told her.

But the grass and the undergrowth were sopping wet as they retraced their steps to the stile, and the man said, as if he was speaking to a child, "You'll have to change directly you get in or you'll catch cold."

Elizabeth laughed.

"I don't catch cold very easily," she told him. "And I've only been ill once in my life—really ill, and that's a long time ago."

He offered his hand to help her over the stile and Elizabeth looked back at the wet wood and the yellow carpet at the foot of the trees.

"Goodbye, primroses," she said.

"But you can come again," the man reminded her.

She raised her eyes to his face and shook her head, pointing to the "Trespassers will be prosecuted" sign which hung above their heads.

"What about that?" she asked.

The man thrust a hand into his jacket pocket.

"Look here, I'll give you a card, and if one of the keepers or anybody catches you, just show it to them and it will be all right. Wait a minute." He found a pencil and a few words above his printed name. "There!" he said, and put it into her hand.

She read the nam aloud—"Kim Lawless" and the words he had pencilled above it, "A permit to pick primroses."

She laughed and put the card away in the pocket of her woolly coat. "Thank you so much," she said, and would have left him but he explained.

"I'll walk with you to the corner. I know where the bus passes."

Elizabeth looked at him a little shyly as they went down the road together.

Tall—she liked tall men. Pip had been tall, broad-shouldered, with darkish brown hair, brown eyes. She liked his tweed jacket, too, and she liked his name. "Kim Lawless." It was the kind of name you would find in a book of adventures.

He waited with her till the bus came swinging along the road on its way back to London.

"Here we are," he said, and then, "I'm quite sorry you're going," he added boyishly.

"I'm sorry, too," Elizabeth answered.

She waved to him as the bus started away and he waved back, and then a bend in the wood hid him from view.

"It was fun meeting him," Elizabeth told herself and she slipped a hand into her coat pocket to make sure the card was still there.

Kim Lawless. She spoke the name in her thoughts and somehow it seemed quite familiar and as if she had heard it often and knew it well.

And then she realized that this was the first time she had ever really been in a man's company alone, and then came a quick memory of something her mother had said, when they had been speaking of Penelope's engagement.

'There's plenty of time, and you'll meet lots of men when you are older.'

"I don't want to meet lots of men," Elizabeth's thoughts ran on, "but I should like to meet Kim again." It did not seem at all strange to think of him only by his Christian name. But she forgot him as soon as she turned into the little road where she lived, and the clouds which a few hours in the country always dispersed gathered around Her once more.

And today there was a car outside the house—a grand-looking car with a chauffeur standing beside it. Elizabeth's heart missed a beat and her steps grew hurried as she thought of that other afternoon—nearly a year ago now—when she found strange people in the hall and had been told that Pip had met with an accident.

Had something else tragic happened today?

But when she entered the little drawing-room which was so seldom used since Pip died, her mother was there and a man whom Elizabeth did not know, and a tall, smartly-dressed girl who looked at her critically for a moment before she laughed and said:

"Well, you haven't altered much!"

" 'Nelope!" Elizabeth said breathlessly.

It was Stella who presently told the two girls to go away for a little because she wished to talk to the strange man alone, so Elizabeth took Penelope up to her room.

She felt a little shy but then she and Penelope had never been very friendly, and it was the elder girl who broke the silence to say. "Do you know why we're here? No, I suppose you don't. Perhaps you didn't even know that father died a fortnight ago?"

Elizabeth paled a little.

"No. I didn't know."

"Your mother knew," Penelope told her, and she laughed. "She's changed, hasn't she? She looks quite old and faded."

"It's only since Pip died." Elizabeth said defensively. "She's never got over his death. I don't think she ever will."

"How absurd," the elder girl said a little contemptuously. "I don't believe in fretting about anything or anybody. You only make yourself look miserable and nobody cares." But there was a hard unhappy ring in her voice and as, Elizabeth did not speak, she went on. "well, if you didn't know that father was dead, you can't know why we're here, so I may as well tell you. It's about the will."

She sat down on the side of Elizabeth's bed.

"He left a lot of money, you know," she said, "and apparently you and I get half if you agree to certain conditions."

"I get half?" Elizabeth said incredulously.

Penelope nodded.

"Yes, but you won't like the conditions—or at least I don't imagine that you will."

"What are they?"

"That you leave your mother and come back to live with me and Aunt Thornley."

INSTALMENT 4

"I suppose," Penelope continued, "you don't remember Aunt Thornley, do you? She was my mother's sister and she has been keeping house for us since your mother ran away. I don't quite know what relation she is to you—it's all so involved with so many step-people in the family—but Mr. Ruff (he's the man downstairs) knows all about it and he's trying to explain to your mother—only she's so stupid— she doesn't seem to take anything in. Anyway, those are the conditions."

Elizabeth put out a trembling hand to steady herself against a chair.

"Leave Mummie?" she said intensely.

Penelope raised her eyebrows.

"Do you still call her 'Mummie'? I thought you'd have grown out of that ages ago. Yes, that's what the will says. I suppose father never really forgave her, and this is his way of telling her so." She looked at Elizabeth curiously. "What will you do?" she asked. "You can't be having much of a time here, and it's a lot of money."

Elizabeth turned away to the window where she stood looking out at the street, and the big car with it's imperturbable chauffeur, and at last she said, very quietly:

"I think it's a pity you came—because it's just sheer waste of time."

Penelope laughed.

"Oh, well, please yourself. You were always peculiar. Not that I'm querrelling with you about it, because if you turn the money down it comes to me. Of course, I think you'll be crazy to refuse it. Still, it's your funeral," she added callously.

Elizabeth did not answer. Her brain was in a whirl.

Leave her mother! To walk away from her now when she was ill and broken-hearted, just for the sake of being rich. It seemed to her to be the height of cruelty even to suggest such a thing, and all the old passionate love and adoration for Stella rose like a tide in her heart.

She remembered her own sorrow when Stella first went away with Pip, how that there seemed nothing worth while anywhere. Stella had been young and gay then, the sweetest thing in the world, and now that she was alone and grief-stricken, they could come with the suggestion that she should be deserted.

"You wouldn't have a bad time with Thornley," Penelope was saying calmly. "She's not a bad old thing, and she lets me do as I please, and, after all, life isn't much if you haven't got money, and by the look of your clothes—"

Elizabeth turned, her pale face flaming.

"I shall never leave her! Never!" she said. "Please don't say anything more."

"Oh, very well. You'd better tell Ruff. He didn't believe me when I said I was sure this is what you would say. He's like me. He can't understand anyone but a lunatic refusing a fortune."

She went to the mirror and began powdering her nose.

Elizabeth watched her silently, and presently she said, a little shyly: "I've seen your picture in the papers sometimes."

"Have you?"

(To Be Continued)

New Package

SAVED! The Price of a Good Movie
DURHAM Corn Starch
Wonderful Recipe For Caramel Pudding
(Note: When well chilled, this dessert may be unmoulded.)
Stir ¾ cup brown sugar in shallow pan over low heat until sugar has melted and browned delicately. Slowly stir in ½ cup boiling water and cook, stirring often, until caramel has melted and syrup thickened slightly. Mix ½ cup brown sugar very thoroughly with 4 tablespoons Durham Corn Starch and ¼ teaspoon salt; stir in 2½ cups hot milk. Stir and cook in double boiler until mixture thickens. Add the caramel syrup; cover and cook, with occasional stirring, until no raw flavor remains. Remove from heat and add ½ teaspoon vanilla. Cool slightly and turn into wet moulds or dessert glasses. Serve cold. Delicious with cream, plain or whipped. Nutmeats or chopped dates a grand addition. Six servings. D13
Use level standard measurements.
DURHAM STARCH Saves You Money!

You won't be allergic to goldenrod as a color. A charming suede hat in goldenrod has the wide brim bent back and finished with a long brown silk tassel.

IF BABY IS CROSS FIND OUT WHY
HEALTHY BABIES are not cross. Your baby should not be cross. If he is, then something in his little system is "out of order". Probably Baby's Own Tablets can promptly "put it right". Mrs. H——, of Fenelon Falls, had the experience. She writes: "My little girl was irritable, feverish and sometimes sick at her stomach—what a relief it was, after giving her Baby's Own Tablets, to see how much better she was."
No matter how delicate your baby may be, these little sweet-tasting tablets cannot harm him. Easy to take. Promptly effective in clearing up simple fevers, diarrhoea, colds, constipation, simple croup, colic, teething troubles and other minor ills.
Never be without a full box of Baby's Own Tablets. Sickness so often strikes in the night. 25 cents. Money back if you are not satisfied.

Save the Tops from the big Yellow and Orange box for FREE towels
JIF
I sure do like this new JIF- it's plentiful, mild suds make my white things look sparklingly clean so easily
And do you notice how it keeps colored things fresh & bright! Why, I wash everything in JIF now!
And look at these perfectly lovely towels you can get FREE for JIF box-tops
Linen Tea Towel 22" x 32", FREE, for only 8 box-tops
Big Bath Towel 23" x 44", FREE, for only 12 box-tops

Look! FREE Bath and Tea Towels for box-tops from JIF - the new soap flakes with the richer suds!
See How the New JIF Makes Washing Whiter!
The new super-fine JIF soap flakes dissolve so quickly that the rich, active suds go to work at once —loosening every speck of dirt quickly and thoroughly. It's a real pleasure to see the clothes come snowy-white without any hard rubbing or scrubbing.
And just see these grand towels—absolutely FREE for JIF box-tops. Save only 12 of them, and this big, luxuriously fluffy-soft Bath Towel is yours, FREE. Or here's an all-linen tea towel, fine quality and long-wearing, FREE for only 8 JIF box-tops. Start using JIF today, and save the box-tops.
How to get your FREE Towels
Simply take, or mail, the required number of JIF box-tops to JIF Towel Dept., 299 Eastern Ave., Toronto. Enclose a slip of paper on which you have printed clearly your name, address, and which towel you desire. Your towel will be sent to you immediately.
Offer Closes December 31st, 1939

The Stars Say—

For Thursday, September 14

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

THE LUNAR transits for this day forecast very lively conditions, both in business and in purely personal associations. Matters should move with definite progress and achievement, although there are omens of possible mistakes to be made in undertaking changes, removals of journeys without due consideration and justification. There are also financial hazards, with extravagance and indulgence, and hits of legal entanglements.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a lively year, in which both business and private affairs will be greatly accelerated. The danger is in making unwise moves in connection with travel, removal or deals with strangers. Finances may be imperiled by these false moves, or by extravagant outlay or indulgence, perhaps to the point of legal complications.

A child born on this day, while being active, energetic and ambitious, may be restless, fond of change and adventure, and keen in the pursuit of pleasure. It should be friendly, popular and fond of the "good things" of life.

CARMEL W. M. S.

The meeting of the Carmel W.M.S. was held on Wednesday, September 6th, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Horton. The president, Mrs. W. Simmons opened the meeting

Miss Marron Waddell gave a reading. Hymn 148 was sung and prayer by Mrs. J. Homan followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. Simmons took charge of the devotional part of the meeting. Hymn 152 was sung. Several members answered the roll call by using the word "love". Mrs. G. Moorman, group leader, then took charge of the meeting. Hymn 262 was sung. Mrs. Chas. Brintnell gave a reading, "Jesus Paid the Price." Mrs. (Rev.) Wootton favored with a solo. A reading was given by Mrs. E. Horton entitled "A Prayer of Home." A duet was given by Misses Marron Waddell and Hazel Hicks, accompanied by Miss M. Waddell on the guitar. Miss Ruth Brintnell favored with an instrumental number. Mrs. Moorman gave a reading on Temperance entitled "How It Pays." Meeting closed by singing "God Save the King."

A conundrum tea was much enjoyed by the ladies.

It being the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Wallace Simmons, Mrs. George Moorman and Mrs. Charles Brintnell, they were seated at a small table centred with a wedding cake for the occasion.

A vote of thanks was tendered the hostess and a social time spent together. The proceeds amounted to $5.60.

There's a demand for the three-piece suit this autumn. A smart and practical model is of tweed in a purple grape mixture, the topcoat and suit jacket edged with gray krimmer. The suit is so made that it can serve as a two-piece frock.

William Gargan and Dorothy Arnold and Walter Woolf King and Irene Hervey in "The House of Fear," now playing with a second feature, Buck Jones in "Unmarried," at the Capitol Theatre.

FEARS FOR HITLER

It is reported that when the deposed German Kaiser heard of the British decision, he first gathered his household at Doorn about him for prayer, then fled into the room when his former Kaiserin died fell upon his knees before her bed and burst into tears. The fanatic of Berchtesgaden may not have realized what this decision implied, but the old man of Doorn has abundant reason to understand it. More tears than his will be shed before finis is written to the chapter so ominously begun.—New York Sun.

Going around to smart places in town one already notes a general acceptance of brown. A delightful frock of dark brown moire has light coffee-color lace ruffles up the sleeves to the elbow and at the back.

NEW...a CREAM DEODORANT which safely STOPS under-arm PERSPIRATION
1. Does not harm dresses, does not irritate skin.
2. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
3. Instantly checks perspiration 1 to 3 days. Removes odor from perspiration, keeps armpits dry.
4. A pure, white, greaseless, stainless vanishing cream.
5. Arrid has been awarded the Approval Seal of The American Institute of Laundering for being harmless to fabrics.
39¢ a jar
Also in 15¢ and 59¢ jars
15 MILLION jars of Arrid have been sold ...Try a jar today—at any store which sells toilet goods.
ARRID

Warmly Received in Canada Bata Shoe Official Tells Members of Kiwanis Club

"We have received the finest welcome from Canada of any country in which our company is operating. We came to Canada to be Canadians and want to do as Canadians do and live as they live," Mr. Thomas Bata, youthful manager of the Bata Shoe Company's Canadian plant at Frankford, Ont., told members of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon yesterday. With the clubmen were officials of other city service clubs, the Chamber of Commerce, and other prominent organizations, who heard a highly interesting address from the cultured young Czech, whose clear concise English bespoke his Cambridge University education.

Mr. Bata paid tribute to the adaptability of the one hundred and fifty Canadians at present employed at his plant. "Executives of the British Bata Company," he said, "rose to high responsible positions with the firm in a period of six years. We sincerely hope the same procedure will apply here, in fact we have found no reason to date why Canadians should not rise as quickly as did their English cousins. Indications now point to the fact that progress along these lines will be much faster than in England."

Employees Not Regimented

"There is nothing farther from the truth," the speaker declared, answering criticism from certain quarters, that employees of the firm were 'regimented'. "Our organization is split up into individual units that take pride in the production of their phase of the industry. Responsibility is placed on individuals as the head of each group, instead of having one man in charge of the plant. In this manner, pride in the unit is achieved by the employees and it brings about a spirit of friendly rivalry that results not only in increased production but happier company associations."

Speaking of the Canadian plant, Mr. Bata stated that 150 Canadian employees were occupied at present "making a few pairs of shoes for experimental purposes. We are now entering the second phase of the industry, that of engineering. The reason we bring Czech keymen with us is because our business is based upon individual responsibility," he said. "In England, after six years of operation, only a few Czechs remain. The rest are Bata-trained employees from the British Isles."

"Soon after we established our business in England, we discovered we had ample retail outlets in the Empire. Then conditions forced us to face two alternatives, to lose the Empire business or establish our headquarters in England. We chose the latter because we found that British business methods were the best in the world, and our employees from other plants could learn these methods and adapt them to the countries in which they worked."

Activities Outlined

He outlined the activities of the British plant. "Here," he said, "we produce eighty percent of the shoes required for the Empire trade. The remaining 20 percent are, or were, imported from Czecho-Slovakia. The British plant started exactly the same way in which we are originating the Canadian factory and community. The home plant in Czecho-Slovakia produces, or did produce, 220,000 pairs of shoes per day."

He explained the reason for the "community centres." "Stores are rented," he said, "not for the purpose of opposition to others but to reduce the cost of living for employees. Recreational and social activities are not compulsory" he pointed out, "but they will no doubt provide an outlet for sport for which the western countries are noted."

Language Not Understood

"There might be misunderstandings," Mr. Bata concluded," for as yet our people are not able to understand the language. We know we are being scrutinized very closely, and we are trying to do our best. We can only be successful if we have the good will of not only the district, but of the surrounding countryside. There might be mistakes and occasional friction," he said.

"We only ask that people be kind enough to draw our attention to any mistakes which might occur. We came here to be Canadians and want to live as Canadians, and we hope to have the pleasure of the advice and correction of any mistakes from you gentlemen who have been the first to give me the opportunity to ask for it."

Mr. Bata was accompanied by two officials of his company. He was introduced by Kiwanian Jim Barclay with Kiwanian Cliff Baragar expressing the club's appreciation of the fine address.

WAR MAY CREATE BOOM IN TOURIST TRAVEL HERE IN 1940

The tourist business in the district has dropped off to almost winter levels during the past week or so, as observed by the local Chamber of Commerce, and city service stations, but the war which has been believed responsible for the sudden scurry of United States visitors for home may, next year, if it continues, result in the biggest tourist boom ever witnessed in this country, it is conjectured by the Chamber of Commerce. Thousands of residents of the United States who annually go to Europe for their vacation may next year choose Canada, if the war is still in progress, with the result that this country may experience unprecedented trade.

REV. W. J. WALKER NOW MODERATOR

Presbytery Elects Pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Belleville, as Organization Head

The regular meeting of the Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met in St. Andrew's Church, Belleville, on Tuesday, the twelfth day of September, the Moderator, Rev. W. A. Hunter, B.D., presiding. On request of the moderator a period of prayer was observed and to the end that a world peace may be speedily effected which will be in keeping with the principles of liberty and democracy.

The term of the office of Moderator having expired the Reverend W. J. Walker, B.A., B.D., of St. Andrew's Church, Belleville, was duly elected Moderator for the ensuing year.

Rev. C. E. Kidd presented the Budget (interim) report wherein he urged congregations to forward contributions for budget to the church treasurer at least quarterly.

Mr. R. L. Moore and Mr. A. B. Baird were re-elected Auditors for the ensuing year.

Mr. Campbell Hunter, son of the (now) ex-Moderator was recommended to the General Board of Missions for appointment to a mission field for the six months beginning, October first of the present year.

Rev. A. E. Cameron presented the Home Mission report, wherein recommendation was made for the usual Augmentation grants to aid receiving congregations; further, that all arrears of stipends be reported forthwith to Presbytery at the end of each financial year with reasons for such arrears attached.

Rev. Dr. Boudreau, convener of the S.S. and Y.P.S. outlined a revised constitution for the Presbyterial Association of S.S. and Y.P.S., which was duly adopted by Presbytery. The court respectfully thanked Dr. Boudreau for drafting this revised constitution. Announcement was made of the S.S. and Y.P.S. rally of the Presbytery (eastern section) to be held in St. Andrew's Church, Kingston.

Blindness is Being Prevented

Through the efforts of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind sight is being conserved and blindness prevented. In addition to helping those who are already blind the institute aims to reduce the amount of blindness in Canada to its lowest possible minimum. Investigation shows that about four thousand of the ten thousand blind persons in Canada need not have been blind if proper prevention methods had been employed.

Through the Institute's prevention of blindness activities hundreds of pairs of glasses are being supplied to school children and adults in Canada each year. Examinations by eye specialists and operations are being arranged for and precious sight is being saved.

Prevention of blindness activities are also being carried on in Belleville and Hastings County. During the past year eleven pairs of glasses were supplied in the city of Belleville and others provided throughout the County. A million dollars cannot buy eyesight once it has gone but a few dollars can often save it from going. Every day, in some part of Canada, the Institute is supplying these few dollars to prevent some one from becoming blind.

This week, in Belleville, the Belleville Committee of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind is holding its annual campaign to raise funds in support of services to the blind and the prevention of blindness. The Tag day is Saturday next. By responding to this appeal you will be aiding in carrying on a great humanitarian work.

CRICKETERS HUSTLE

Coleraine, Northern Ireland (CP)—Five cricket matches, each limited to an hour of play, were held on one ground on one afternoon here. Only five of the 10 teams completed innings. Three were all out in 28 minutes.

COBB'S SPEED

The practical value of the achievement is not too clear to us, but we're interested in the fact that John Cobb of England drove his 2,600-horsepower car over a measured mile on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah recently in something less than 10 seconds.

Mr. Cobb's speed—at the rate of 369.23 miles an hour—won't stand as an official world's record. He had gearshift trouble and so failed to complete the required run in the opposite direction within an hour. But he certainly travelled. To observers along the course he and his turtle-shaped auto must have seemed a mere blur.

The only thing that ever went by us at any such speed was the last week of vacation.—N. Y. World-Telegram.

SALESGIRL
TELEPHONE GIRL

BOTH SAY:

The Customer is always Right!

Your telephone company has always tried to see telephone problems through your eyes. Like the department store that coined the phrase, it approaches its problems on the assumption that "the customer is always right", and develops its service to that end. Particular care is taken, therefore, in selecting our telephone staff which now totals over 9,700 men and women, handling some 5,600,000 calls a day. Experience teaches. Thus, this staff's effectiveness grows each year as it gains an ever-clearer insight into the Company's objectives and policies. The telephone people want to serve you. Your viewpoint is their constant concern.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA

G. W. Proctor Manager.

Why I Like Selling Life Insurance

"Because—

"Every policy I sell is a guarantee of someone's happiness and prosperity.

"Each life insurance contract safeguards a home

—provides for dependents

—furnishes money for educating children

—enables people to enjoy independence, particularly during old age, or —builds and protects a business.

"To realize something of the satisfaction I get from selling life insurance, you would only need to go with me to any of the thousands and thousands of homes that are kept together by insurance money.

"If I seem persistent at times in advising people to buy life insurance, it is because I have seen the suffering of families for whose future no provision had been made."

London Life

ESTABLISHED 1874

Insurance Company

Head Office - London, Canada

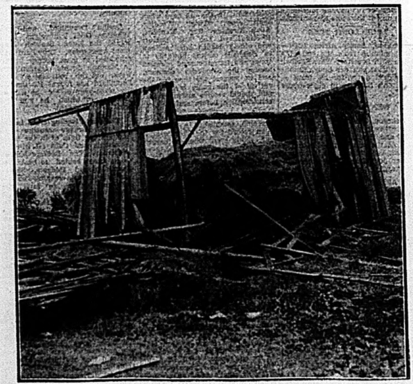
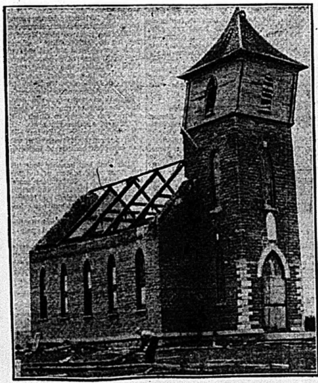
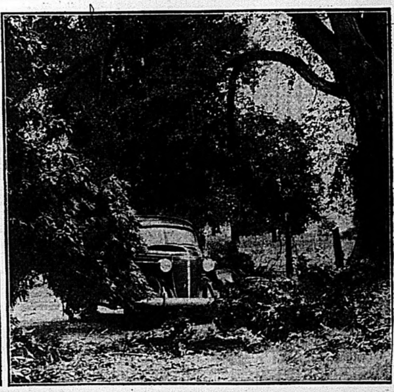
District Offices — 17 Bridge St. E., Belleville

The Morning After, Taking Carter's Little Liver Pills







Unestimated damage to crops and farm buildings was caused by a terrific wind which swept the Belleville, Kingston, Stirling, Picton, and Peterborough districts during the week-end. Many trees were felled in Peterborough. Scores of barns were blown apart in the storm, and farmers stated in some sections that loss to apple crops would amount to 50 per cent. Tomato crops were badly damaged and hailstones the size of eggs fell in the Picton area. Highlights of the storm damage are pictured here. James Brant, near Belleville, was milking a cow just outside his barn, LEFT, when he saw the wind lift the building bodily into the air and throw it in a tangled heap of wreckage. Scores of other barns had the walls or roof destroyed. Some were sent sprawling over fields like matchwood. The Mohawk church centre on the Indian reserve near Deseronto, east of Belleville, was demolished. The roof was carried away in three sections about three hundred feet. Trees were uprooted by the hundreds. The picture, RIGHT, shows how a tree fell across a highway. Telephone and Hydro lines were hard hit.

Point Anne 'Cementmen' Take Wooler Nine 14-7 in 1st Game Intermediate 'C' Zone Finals

Wooler Restricted to Seven Hits by "Ding" Luffman During Pastime

PLAY THURSDAY

Two Big Innings for Pointers in Third and Ninth Frames Helped

With good solid base knocks to their credit, the Point Anne "cementmen" annexed the first game of Eastern Ontario intermediate "C" zone finals in the O.A.S.A. when they drubbed the Wooler "sluggers" 14 to 7 at Trenton last evening. The second game of the series will be played at Point Anne on Thursday.

With their ace moundsman, "Ding" Luffman, hurling seven hit ball, the "cementmen" played loose ball at parts, but in the clutches hit Wooler's 16-year-old pitcher, Cliff Stacey, hard and with effort to pound out 14 base hits, including Genereaux's third inning homer and five other extra base blows, that materially helped the cause of the Gaulin-led nine in victory.

Point Anne took a five run lead in the third frame after Wooler had scored an unearned run in the initial frame. Luffman scattered seven hits well, but was not given the usual support afforded a Point Anne pitcher, as errors and passed balls materially helped Wooler in their scoring. On the other side of the picture, however, all of Point Anne's run were not of the earned run nature, as Wooler booted the period for five costly errors, but the "cementmen" pounded Stacey to 14 hits, including six extra base blows.

Many Men Stranded

Point Anne had men stranded on the runways in all of the nine frames and might have mounted the score with timely hits. Their six run barrage in the third practically settled the issue, however, as the winners carried too much potent scoring power in the clutches When the courageous Wooler nine did threaten in the eighth, the "cementmen" came back tc score five runs in the top half of the ninth, on one hit, as the Trent River boys lost control and tossed the ball around at random.

Luffman restricted Wooler to seven hits, struck out nine and walked five, while his mound opponent, Stacey, was touched for 14 hits, struck out but four and walked ten in his wildness.

Whitehead with a double and three singles in four tries led the Ox Pointers, with Green following with a double and three singles in six tries. Genereaux hit a home run and a double for good measure as Whalen had a double and single as his contribution. Austin was the only Wooler batter to count over one hit off Luffman, two singles being his effort, as McCall and Steenburg hit doubles for the lone hits.

During the game Pitcher Cliff Stacey of Wooler, was presented with a silver trophy, emblematic of the most valuable player in the Trenton Softball League throughout the current season. The presentation was made by O.A.S.A. Convener Harry Rollins and was added to by the hearty applause that proved the popularity of the player to win such outstanding distinction.

| POINT ANNE | AB. | R. | H. | PO. | A. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Genereaux, c ..... | 4 | 2 | 2 | 1 | 0 |
| Whitehead, ss .... | 5 | 3 | 4 | 2 | 2 |
| Loft, 3b ..... ..... | 4 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 4 |
| Green, e .... ..... | 6 | 3 | 4 | 9 | 0 |
| Gaulin, 1b ... ..... | 4 | 1 | 1 | 11 | 0 |
| Bennett, rf ..... .. | 4 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Hutchings, lf .... | 6 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Whalen, 2b ....... | 5 | 0 | 2 | 2 | 0 |
| Luffman, p .. ..... | 4 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 4 |
| Total ...... | 42 | 14 | 14 | 27 | 10 |

| WOOLER | AB. | R. | H. | PO. | A. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Austin, 1b .... ... | 4 | 1 | 2 | 11 | 0 |
| Ruttan, 2b ... ..... | 5 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| McCall, cf ........ | 5 | 0 | 1 | 4 | 0 |
| L. Redcliffe, c .... | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 2 |
| Stacey, p .......... | 4 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 4 |
| Dunn, lf .... ..... | 4 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| G. Redcliffe, 3b ... | 3 | 3 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Richards, ss ....... | 3 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 4 |
| Steenburg r.f ..... | 4 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 |
| Total ...... | 37 | 7 | 7 | 27 | 11 |

Score by innings: R.H.E.
Pt. Anne 0 0 6 1 1 1 0 0 5—14 14 3
Wooler 1 0 0 1 1 3 0 1 0— 7 7 5

Summary—Errors—Ruttan 3; L. Redcliffe Dunn, Whitehead, Green, Gaulin; Home run—Genereaux; Two base hits—McCall, Steenburg, Whitehead, Green, Whalen, Genereaux; Gaulin; Runs batted in—Genereaux 3, Whitehead 2, Green 2, Gaulin 2, Hutchings, Whalen, Luffman, Austin 2, G. Redcliffe 2, Steenburg; Left on base—Point Anne 11, Wooler 7; Struck out—by Stacey 4, by Luffman 9; Base on balls—off Stacey 10, off Luffman 5, Wild pitch—Stacey 3, Luffman 1; Passed balls—Point Anne 2, Wooler 3; Umpires—Bawden, Belleville, plate; Steenburg, Trenton, bases.

Wrestling Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

Indianapolis— Billy Thom, 178, Indiana University wrestling coach and Whitey Wahlberg, 176, Duluth, Minn., drew 9.

Congratulations!

Traditional part of the game called tennis is the handshake at the close of a match, and jumping over the net here is Jack Kramer on his way to shake with Joe Hunt after the latter had eliminated him from the American singles championship tournament currently in full swing at Forest Hills, N.Y. The victor and the vanquished teamed up to make the U.S. pair in the losing Davis cup round against Australia.

JERSEY GIANTS WHIP THE BEARS

Team Finishing First in Schedule Comes From Behind to Win 3-2

(By The Associated Press)

Jersey City Giants want it known they still are champions of the International League.

The Little Giants got off to a good start in the Governors' Cup playoffs last night by whipping Newark Bears 3-2 in the opener of a first-round, best-of-seven series. Meanwhile the initial game between Rochester and Buffalo in the second and third place series was postponed because of cold.

The Bears, who barely slipped into the playoffs in fourth place by conquering Syracuse in a post-season game to break their tie, were supposed to be "hot." But Roy Joiner set them down with nine hits and one earned run. That came in the third inning when Holm tripled and scored on Walt Judnich's single. The other run, in the eighth, was the result of Johnny Dickshot's three-base muff, of Frank Kelleher's fly. Judnich also singled it in.

Hank Borowy had only one really bad inning on the hill for the Bears but that was enough. In the fourth Ray Honeycutt opened with a single, advanced on an infield out and tallied on Morris Jones's single. Glen Stewart doubled Jones home then tallied himself when Joe Mack dropped Woody Jensen's short fly.

The series will continue in Jersey City tonight, then shift to Newark for the next three games. Meanwhile Rochester and Buffalo will try again to get under way.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

New York—Maxie Berger, 140 3-4, Montreal, outpointed Norment Quarles, 137 1-2, Richmond, Va. (8).

Meriden, Conn. — Eldridge Eatman, 188, Norwalk, Conn., knocked out Steve Carr, 188, Meriden, (2).

New York—Lew Jenkins, 131 1-4, Sweetwater, Tex., knocked out Primo Flores, 134, Puerto Rico (3).

St. Paul, Minn.—Arne Anderson, 210, Stockholm, Sweden knocked out Ed (Tipperary) Murray, 210, Chicago (3).

Los Angeles — Baby Arizmendi, 137, Los Angeles, outpointed Joey Silva, 135 1-2, Los Angeles (10).

DARTS FOR CHARITY

Tottenham, England (CP)—Tommy Farr, Jack Doyle, Len Harvey and other noted boxers opposed the Tottenham Hotspurs football team in a darts match for charity at the Belsize Tavern, Hampstead.

PROMOTE TRAINER

London (CP)—Directors of Crystall Palace Football Club have given George Irwin, the trainer, the position of team-manager and trainer. Appointment of a team coach will be made shortly.

R. SOMERVILLE IN THIRD PLACE OF QUALIFIERS

London Golfer Shoots Even Par for 36 Holes in U. S. Amateur

SHEEHAN LEADS FIELD

Medalist Rips Two Strokes Off All-Time Qualifying Mark

(By Fritz Howell)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Chicago, Sept. 13.—(AP)—When great golf fields are mentioned in the future, the chances are the boys will cite as the finest of them all the 64 who started match play over North Shores' hazardous holes for the 43rd United States amateur championship.

Still in there battling, after the most sizzling qualifying test in the tourney's history, were a former United States open king, four United States amateur winners, a quartet of public links title holders and five intercollegiate victors.

The field was wide open; the four who got into the title flight through a 16-man play-off for the last places apparently have an even chance against the medalist.

The medalist was Tom Sheehan who ripped two strokes off the all-time qualifying mark with a sensation five-under-par 139, for 36 holes. The Detroit youngster held a three-stroke lead over the field in taking the medal.

Three Strokes off Pace

Three blows off the pace with a two-under-par 142 was Maurice McCarthy, three-time winner of Ohio's amateur laurels, former New York Metropolitan and United States Intercollegiate champion, and Walker Cup star. A stroke back of him was Patrick Abbott of Altadena, Calif.

Next came C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville, the Canadian star who won the amateur in 1932, and H. H. Haverstick, the Lancaster, Pa., youth who led the first day's round with a brilliant 68 but slipped to a second-round 76 for his even par 144 total.

Back of them in the qualifier were strung a flock of top-notch club-swingers. Willie Turnesa qualified comfortably with a 149, 10 strokes off the pace, but with a six-stroke margin over the 16 who battled in the four-place playoff.

Three in Match Play

The Canadian contingent was reduced to three as the match play began. Merlin Luther of Fort Erie added an 85 to his earlier 80 for a total of 165, nine over the qualifying score.

Little Joe Thompson of Burlington, Ont., carded a 77 over the second 18 for a total of 149 and a place well up among the qualifiers. Phil Farley of Toronto, has to play off today for a place in the tournament. He finished yesterday's play with an 80 to add to an earlier 75, ending up in a tie with 15 others for the last four berths.

Baseball Results

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati ..... .. | 79 | 50 | .612 |
| St. Louis .. .... | 77 | 56 | .583 |
| Chicago .... .. .. | 73 | 62 | .541 |
| Brooklyn .. .. .. .. | 69 | 61 | .531 |
| New York ..... .. | 65 | 62 | .512 |
| Pittsburg .. .. .. .. | 60 | 71 | .458 |
| Boston .. ..... .. | 57 | 72 | .442 |
| Philadelphia ..... | 41 | 88 | .318 |

Tuesday's Results

zCincinnati 3 Brooklyn 2.
St. Louis 4 Philadelphia 3.
Chicago 8 Boston 3.
New York at Pittsburg—rain.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York ..... .. | 96 | 39 | .711 |
| Boston .. .. ..... | 80 | 55 | .593 |
| Chicago .. .. .. .. | 77 | 58 | .570 |
| Cleveland .. .... | 73 | 61 | .545 |
| Detroit .. ..... .. | 70 | 64 | .522 |
| Washington .. .. .. | 59 | 79 | .428 |
| Philadelphia .. .. .. | 48 | 87 | .356 |
| St. Louis ..... .. | 36 | 97 | .271 |

Tuesday's Results

xCleveland 4 New York 3.
Chicago 3 Washington 2.
Philadelphia 9 St. Louis 1
Boston 2 Detroit 1.
x—10 innings.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
Governor's Cup Series.
Series B.

Buffalo at Rochester—Rain and cold.

Series A.

Jersey City 3 Newark 2.

LOSES UNIQUE WATCH

Cape Town (CP)—Bobby Bruns, visiting American boxer, lost a unique watch, a present from the late Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago here. In place of the figures on the watch were the letters of Brun's name.

BARGE AS HOSTEL

Magdeburg, Germany (CP)—An 800-ton barge will be used as a swimming hostel on the Elbe and Saale Rivers. There will be accommodation for nearly 100 German boys, who will be taught to swim.

TENNIS REFEREE QUITS

London (CP)—Referee of the Wimbledon Tennis championships from 1919 to 1936, F. R. Burrows will retire from active work at the end of this season.

CUFF-LINK SOUVENIR

Johannesburg, South Africa (CP)—Manager of an English soccer team that recently visited South Africa, Bert Hemingway was presented with a pair of cuff-links made of miniature gold footballs and a pair of Kruger coins.

SMOKE A REALLY FRESH CIGAR
GUARANTEED Fresh
ST. REGIS CIGARS
WITH THE EXCLUSIVE REYNOLDS HUMIDOR WRAP
5¢
EVERYWHERE

Set of Four-Base Knocks Behind Some Excellent Hurling Breaks Up Most of the Games

Cincinnati Wins in 10th and Cards Hole Out Against Phillies

TRIM LEAD A GAME

Yanks Defeated While Boston Defeats Tigers 2-1 in Bean Town

(By Sid Feder Associated Press Sports Writer).

A lot of baseball's field generals have long contended that pitching is 80 per cent of the game and nobody has proved them to be very far out. At the same time the home run is a pretty fair weapon and nobody need go farther than yesterday's result to prove it.

It was a set of four-base knocks which cashed in on elegant pitching all around the games involving the leaders in the Majors, breaking up every game and leaving this situation:

1. Cincinnati Reds still 3 1-2 games in front of the National League.

2. The Yankees' American League edge trimmed to 16 games.

3. St. Louis Cardinals still in the thick of the National League circuit fight.

4. The Cubs with a slightly tighter grip on third place.

Reds Win in 10th

In Cincinnati, the Reds, opening a home stand, were collecting a basket of goose eggs from potato Luke Hamlin and Brooklyn Dodgers, when with two out in the ninth and a man on base, Billy Myers homered to tie the score. After that, Buck McCormick's single in the 10th, sent the winning run across for a 3-2 decision. Bucky Walter's 24th pitching victory was just an anti-climax.

The Cards, in St. Louis, were having a tough time with the Phillies. Johnny Mize and Ducky Medwick hit homers in the early innings, but Joe Marty came back with a two-run round-tripper in the seventh to put the Phils in front. So Terry Moore, getting into the swing of the thing, whacked one along the paying customers with a man on base in the last of the seventh to give the Gas House Gang a 4-3 decision.

Homer With Bases Loaded

The Cubs used the most outspoken kind of homer—one with the bases loaded. Hank Leiber belted it in the first inning. From there it was no trick at all for the Cubs to coast in 8-3 over the Bees.

This left the National League situation this way:

| | W | L | Pct. | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati .. | 79 | 50 | .612 | | 25 |
| St. Louis .... | 77 | 56 | .583 | 3½ | 21 |
| Chicago .. .. | 73 | 62 | .541 | 9 | 19 |
| Brooklyn ..... | 69 | 61 | .531 | 10½ | 24 |

The American League's top tussle also followed the home-run suit. With Joe DiMaggio in a slump—he has now been up 13 straight times without a hit—the Yankees had a tough uphill fight to deadlock Cleveland Indians in nine innings. But Ossie Grimes settled the thing by leading off the 10th with his third homer of the year, and the Indians clicked 4-3.

Lead Trimmed a Game

Since the second-place Boston Red Sox, behind Denny Galehouse's five-hit pitching, nipped Detroit Tigers 2-1 the Yanks' American League lead was trimmed one game. They still need four victories to clinch the flag, leaving this set-up:

| | W | L | Pct. | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| New York .. | 96 | 39 | .711 | | 19 |
| Boston .... | 80 | 55 | .593 | 16 | 19 |

The Athletics didn't hit a homer, but they collected 19 other assorted base knocks to wallop St. Louis Browns 9-1, behind steady seven-hit elbowing by Buster McCrabb, making his first start in the big time. Chicago White Sox's lefty Lee left his home run ball home, and so he downed Washington Senators 3-1 with a four-hit elbowing job.

The Senators made a successful protest as the result of a sixth-inning play and the game was ordered replayed today. The New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates were rained out.

New P.G.A. Champ

Stanley Horne's three-year reign as winner of the Canadian Professional Golfers' association championship, was brought to a close at Montmorency, Quebec, when Jules Huot, ABOVE, finished the 72-hole tournament with an eight-shot edge over his brother, Roland, and defending champion Morne. Rounds of 65, 71, 69 and 74 for a 279 total did the trick for Huot.

RUGMAKERS AND COLONELS MEET

Amsterdam Team Rallies in Sixth Frame to Win 5-3 Over Oswego

(By The Canadian Press)

Word spread around Canadian-American baseball league circles today that Amsterdam Rugmakers are sharpening up their batting eyes and rubbing down their pitching arms in preparation for the drive through the final playoffs which lead to the championship.

The pennant-winning Rugmakers—sometimes called the Little Yanks after their parent club, New York Yankees—probably will prove to be veritable sons and rely on heavy hitting and fair pitching to get past Rome Colonels in the best-of-five final series.

Known for their driving comebacks during the season, Rugmakers earned the right to meet Rome by rallying to setback the second-place Oswego nets 5-3 last night in the sixth game of a best-of-seven series. Colonels, who ousted Cornwall Bisons in a similar series, will travel to Amsterdam Thursday for the opening game of the title series.

Rugmakers, down one run going into the last of the sixth, staged a three-run splurge to clinch their chances of another crack at the title which evaded them last year when a final series with Cornwall was cancelled because of inclement weather.

After Nets had bunched four hits for three runs in two of the first three innings, Rugmakers scored single runs in the third and fourth. Then, Warren singled and Harbin and Karpel beat out bunts to load the bases, Richards walked to force in a run and Moore doubled to bring home the final pair of counters.

The second game of the series will be played in Rome Friday and a third at Amsterdam Saturday. A fourth, if necessary, will be played at Rome Sunday.

"Now When I Was the Best in My Line . . .

Gene Tunney, ex-world's heavyweight boxing champion, and Don Budge, former No. 1 amateur tennis player, have a chat.

HILTON EXPECTED TO REPORT AT WESTERN

Local Grid Star Has Not Reported to Coach Bill Storen as Yet

London, Ont., Sept. 13.—Harry Szumlinski and Bert Harris, experienced Rugby players from Big Four and Senior O.R.F.U. squads respectively, joined the University of Western Ontario Mustangs today. Szumlinski, former Hamilton Tiger player, is a good kicker and passer. Although he played quarter last year he may be used as a halfback in the senior college series.

Harris, former Balmy Beach player, will be used on the secondary defense. He is 5 feet 10 inches tall and tips the scale at 185 pounds.

There were thirty-two players in attendance at the drill. Ernie Gaunt and Herb Hollingsworth of last year's Colts were among the newcomers to report.

Gordon Taylor, who is slated to be George Willis' successor at snap, made his first appearance. He has been Willis's understudy for the past two seasons.

Reid, a newcomer from Ridley College, joined the squad. He is a likely looking prospect and is the second Ridley College grad to join the Mustangs this season. Ray Lewis turned out at the initial drill.

Joe King, Gus Guilfinan, Wally Hilton and Joe Krol have not reported to date. King, Hilton and Krol are not expected until next week. Guilfinan is expected tomorrow.

Coach Bill Storen announced that he will start scrimmage next week. Today's two drills were devoted to conditioning. Next week the recruits will get down to strenuous work in preparation for their exhibition game with the Royal Military College on Saturday, Sept. 23.

The Western squad is expected to reach the fifty mark by the first of the week. Several of last year's intermediates will be given a trial in the pre-season contests.

Alice Marble's Vast Superiority Abundantly Shown

New York, Sept. 13. —(AP) — Alice Marble's vast superiority over the best of the other tennis girls has knocked about all the interest out of the ladies' league in the United States championships at Forests Hills.

The Los Angeles Bomber is considered a cinch to win. Whether she will meet Helen Jacobs or Kay Stammers in the finals seems to be about the only point in doubt. She defeated Betty Nuthall of England 6-0, 6-2, yesterday.

So that's why all the interest is wrapped up in the men's division. Bobby Riggs, the Wimbledon champion and Adrian Quist of Australia are about equal favorites to win.

Today's first order of business was the continuation of the match between Harry Hopman of Australia and Bryan Grant, Jr., of Atlanta, halted by darkness last night after three sets. Hopman won the first two, 7-5, 7-5, but Bitsy made a strong comeback to capture the third after trailing, 0-5.

Other antagonists today were Frankie Parker of Beverly Hills vs Gilbert Hunt, Jr., of Washington, D.C.; Gardnar Mulloy of Miami vs Jack Bromwich of Australia; Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., vs Welby Van Horn of Los Angeles, and Adrian Quist of Australia vs Wayne Sabin of Portland.

MUST BE A RECORD

Bulli, Wales (CP)—Four golfers here, one of them a woman, claim a world record for holes-in-one. In the course of the day, all four holed out in one at the same 85-yard hole.

TOOK LONG TIME

Hamilton, South Africa (CP)—Three minutes from the end of a match with Somerset West Football Club, Justus van der Spuy, Hamilton, scored a try for his team — Hamilton's first try in eight weeks of play.

WENT ON AND ON

Muskegon, Mich. (CP)—A marathon softball game that lasted 12 hours and five minutes was played here. At the end of the 140-inning conflict, each team had 66 runs. Pitcher Joe Markovitch pitched 91 innings.

AFTER NEW RECORD

London (CP) — Sir Malcolm Campbell, British speedster, will attempt to break the world motor boat record of 130.9 miles an hour he set on Lake Hallwil, Switzerland, in a run on Lake Coniston, in the Lake District.

FIELD HAS JINX

Cape Town (CP)—R. C. Poultney suffered two fractured ribs during a game on Hartleyvale football field, and was the third player to be sent to hospital from that ground in three weeks.

ROOKIE'S BIG DEBUT

Chicago (CP)—Bill Nicholson is only a rookie, but in his first appearance with the Cubs here he made a sensational one-handed catch in the field, then went to bat and hit a home run.

QUIT AMATEUR RANKS

Salford, England (CP)—S. M. Williams and Emrys Evans, Welsh Rugby Union players, have turned professional for Salford of the English Rugby League.

The Juniors Will Like Our New Fall Styles . . .

Here's a store that sees eye to eye with you on the matter of good looking clothes, even though you're not yet in the "earning class." You'll like our grand Fall selection . . . from colorful Sox up to snappy Suits! Drop in with the folks today!

THEY KNOW ABOUT OUR QUALITY AND MODERATE PRICES!

BOYS' FALL SUITS
Grown up models with all the new style features you like in Dad's Suit!

Quick and Robertson
CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

CALLING 'EM

Between the Lines

with
Ken J. Colling

Although girls' softball flourished with more than the average success in Belleville some years ago, the sport has not been advanced to any large degree during the past few years, girls' softball now being confined to the schools and city playgrounds. No doubt there could be found the nucleus of three and possibly four, girls' softball teams for 1940. Girls' softball in Peterboro has been revived this year with success, while down around Ottawa and Chalk River districts the game was never allowed to pass into oblivion. If girls' softball could be revived locally, and we understand there are several good players now available, the question of obtaining the old girls' softball playing site on the armouries lawn would be problematic, in case war continues, but no doubt permission to use the Collegiate campus would be granted by the Board of Education, providing responsible parties were behind the project. With war in our midst no doubt there will be a revival of girls' sports all over the country, replacing that now enjoyed by the younger men.

The last war era is still quite memorable to many, when the old Ontarios, Beavers, Frontenacs, Belleville High School, Belleville Fruit and Maple Leaf girls' softball teams flourished with games on the armouries lawn when league schedules were adopted and outside teams from Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Peterboro and intermediate points all played here. In those days Belleville had such outstanding feminine pitchers as Jean Ramsay, Molly Gray, Marguerite Fairburn, Gladys Knott, Vera Ibey and others met such outstanding pitchers as Thelma Golden, Babe Vincent and Thelma Gow from outside points. No doubt if girls' softball was to be revived in Belleville within a season's play the calibre of girls' softball would once again reach its previous lofty heights and enjoy the popularity of the sport fans. In the old days when Walt Gerow, "Twig" Woodley, Allan Meagher, Reg. Moncrief, Harold Lloyd, Leo "tub" Barrett and others headed girls' softball in Belleville crowds upwards to three and four thousand crowded around the armouries diamond and we suggest the time for the revival of the game is at hand and should receive attention and consideration before spring.

Hal Pringle, of the Oshawa Victors club, established a new Canadian record for the 25-mile amateur cycling event when he covered the measured course in 1:01.19 recently. The new record is subject to the confirmation of the Canadian Wheelmen's association. The record for this event was previously held by Lew Elder of Toronto. Lance Pugh, also of the Victors club, was second to Pringle, crossing the line just 26 seconds in front of Art Leadbeater, the Dominion champion.

Sidetracking the fact he mislead his readers (?) in the matter of Sonny Green's suspension the Peterboro scribe still bewails the fact that Johnny Bawden and company eliminated his Little Hariam pets and adds Belleville should win with the writer all but wearing an "Oiler" uniform when umpiring. Of course whenever the Petes lose at any line of sport, the Liftlock City scribe always reverts to that old sport alibi—"blame the officials". As for our "specs," Cecil, we keep 'em clean for the express purpose of seeing what's going on around the home plate at times, for instance when Bawden was called out here in the eighth. As Mischa Auer would say—"confidentially it stinks."

With a six run rally in the third inning, the Point Anne "Cementmen" literally coasted in to a 14 to 7 win over Wooler in the Intermediate "C" zone finals of the O.A.S.A. at Trenton last evening. Up around the shores of the Trent River the softball moguls held the Wooler team high in their respects and we have to agree they are a goodly "C" nine, but as we predicted before the "Cementmen" are just about the class of the provincial softball realm, in the "C" category. The team to beat the Ox Pointers will win the provincial bunting, and that's a prediction. However as to last night's game there were too many errors misplays and too much general indifference shown. Perhaps it was due to the intense effort of the teams or the fact that both squads were trying too hard but we expect to see a much better game at Point Anne tomorrow. The fact Point Anne outhit Wooler 14 to seven very nearly tells the tale without additional explanation.

"Ding" Luffman was returned the winning pitcher last night when he let the hard-hitting Wooler nine down with seven hits but we have seen Luffman toss much better ball and if he ever meets Wooler again the Trent River kids will have much tougher time swinging prolific hickory. Cliff Stacey Wooler's 16-year-old moundsman, did not hold any great respect for the Cementmen's batting efforts, but in case any good softball team is looking for a likely pitcher in the making, we'd recommend Stacey. He's far from a matured moundsman, as the box score proves, but he was plenty of what will some day made a good softball tosser. Incidentally Stacey was presented with a handsome silver trophy, emblematic of the most valuable player in the Trenton Softball League for the season. The ovation which followed the presentation proves the popularity which Stacey enjoys in his community. munity.

Orville Drouillard, well-known Windsor, Ont., lightweight boxer, joined the Essex Scottish Regiment yesterday. Drouillard was scheduled to meet Berney Frieken in Madison Square Garden next week, but the bout is off now. Drouillard has fought 170 times in his seven-year career as a professional, of which he won 115, drew 15 and lost 40.

The three leading clubs in the National League continue to make a dog fight of it, the Reds, Cardinals and Cubs all winning yesterday. The Redlegs had to come from behind to beat the fourth placed Dodgers, Shortsto Billy Myers, cracking out a two-run homer to knot the count. Over in the American loop the Indians shaded the Yankees, who are only 16 games out in front today. Marse Joe McCarthy's charges need exactly four more victories to cinch the bunting and 12 more to break the major league record for the most number of games won in one playing season, 108. The Cards said it with circuit blows to beat the lowly Phillies 4-3, even if they were out-hit.

SPORT SPICE—The Dempsey-Firpo boxing bout put exactly $1,082,590 into Promoter Tex Richards' box office.... Major leastop Billy Myers, cracking out a and other large centres have a very bad case of 'war jitters' these days and who can blame them.... Actually there is plenty of room for sport during a war, it tends to lessen and relieve the strain and tension, remember the good baseball clubs the old Canadian Army Corps had in France?....All war and no play might make Johnny Canuck rather lose his sense of humor.

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS
REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 72

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 463 2461/2 Front St.
17-3m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P. O. BOX 38
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1732, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. m3-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1132, "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 231 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils, Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

H. S. and VERA B. PITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments, Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Intra-Red Radiations, Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments. 421/2 Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
4491/2 Front St. Phone 492

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
278 Front St. Phone 1154w

LEGAL

S. GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 2561/2 Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2500. s27-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William N. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 174

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

SCREEN CLOCK

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
THE ANGELS WASH THEIR FACES
Ann Sheridan, "Dead End" Kids
2.40 — 7.10 — 9.55
THE KID FROM KOKOMO
Wayne Morris, Joan Blondell
3.45 — 8.30

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
FRESHMAN YEAR
Dixie Dunbar, Wm. Lundigan
2.45 — 8.05 — 10.15
THE MYSTERIOUS MISS X
Mary Hart, Michael Whalen
3.50 — 7.00 — 9.10

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
HOUSE OF FEAR
Wm. Gargan, Irene Hervey
8.11 and 10.41
UNMARRIED
Buck Jones, Helen Twelvetrees
7.00 and 9.30

TO LET

BRIGHT 4 ROOM APARTMENT and sun room. All conveniences. Private entrance. Phone 63-r-4. s13-3t

DOWNSTAIR THREE ROOM apartment, closed in porch; wired for stove, gas, also rooms, 132 MacDonald Ave., near Dundas. s13-1t

NUMBER 23 HIGHLAND AVENUE. Possession October 15th. Apply R. J. E. Graham, Telephone 150. s13-15-18

OR FOR SALE— BRICK HOUSE, West Bridge, newly decorated, oak floors, bath, sun-porch, hot-water heating, garage. Possession Oct. 1. Phone 506. s13-2t

5 ROOM APARTMENT, CATHARINE Street. All conveniences, except furnace. Possession immediately. Apply 28 Catherine St. s13-3t

BEDROOM IN PRIVATE HOME, warm and comfortable. Apply 27 Isabel Street. s13-2t

7 ROOM HOUSE EAST HILL, CONVENIENCES, furnace, hardwood floors ,sunroom, immediate possession. Apply 46 Highland Ave. s13-3t

NEW BACHELOR APARTMENT, also choice two bedroom apartment, heated. St. Agnes' Manor, Phone 1819. s13-1t

FURNISHED COTTAGE, ROSSMORE Point for last two weeks of Sept. Reasonable. Stove and boat. Sixth cottage right of Bridge. s13-2t

ONE NICELY FURNISHED HEATED bedroom. Apply 185 Albert Street. s12-3t

ONE OR TWO ROOMS UNFURNISHED or partly furnished suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 20 Charlotte street. s12-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERLOOKING the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

FOUR ROOM UNFURNISHED apartment upstairs, also furnished bed-sitting room. Apply 64 Murney Street. s11-3t

2 ROOM FURNISHED HOUSEKEEPING apartment, front, hot water, garage, optional. Apply 267 Foster Ave. s11-3t

APARTMENT FOR RENT 4 OR 6 rooms. All conveniences, hardwood floors. Very reasonable rent to approved tenant. Apply 161 Albert Street. s9-tf

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

DESIRABLE APARTMENT HIGHLAND Avenue, fireplace, furnace, hardwood floors, garage. Furnished dinette. Phone 1360W. a31-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

$31.50 PER MONTH INCLUDING water rates—desirable house on east hill, north of Victoria Avenue attractive living room, coal fireplace, dining room, bath, kitchen, wired for range hardwood floors, three bedrooms, good hot air furnace, garage. Possession Sept. 1st. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687 a23-tf

AUCTION SALE

Auction Sale, Thursday, Sept. 14, at 1.30 at Market Square, Complete dining room suite, extension table, chairs, kitchen table and chairs, heater, bed couch, bed and springs, mattress, sealers and dishes, 6 radios all in working order.

NORMAN MONTGOMERY,
Auctioneer, Belleville Phone 1170.
s11-3t

LOST

PAIR OF SPECTACLES IN leather case, between Market Square and Bowra Electric. Finder phone 145-4-3. s12-2t

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 1.30 o'clock at Mrs. P. Munning's, 196 Dundas St. chesterfield suite, Moffat electric range, 2 studio couches, Coffield washer, dresser, other articles.

N. MONTGOMERY, Auctioneer,
Phone 1770. s13-15-18

"THE WORLD" WINS

London (CP)—Queen Mary presented the shield to The World after a polo match here in which an Indian Princes' team challenged a World team. The Princes lost by seven goals to six.

FOR SALE

38 PONTIAC COACH, ALSO HARLEY Davison Motorcycle. Sacrifice for cash. Apply 10 Geddes St. s13-3t

QUANTITY OF LEGHORN AND rock pullets. Write Box B, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-2t

50 R.O.P. LEGHORN PULLETS, 5 1-2 months laying, $1 each. Also breeding cockerels, Hilltop Poultry Farm, Trenton. s13-2t

A SILO OR EXCHANGE FOR hogs or young cattle. Fred Maynes, R. 1, Thomasburg. s13-2t

FIVE YOUNG BROOD SOWS TO freshen in December. Apply to Clayton Eggleton, R. 6, Belleville, 3rd Thurlow. s13-3t

BLOOD - TESTED YEARLING hens, 60c; good layers. Frank Doxtator, R. 6, Belleville, Phone 121-r-2. s13-1t

SLIGHTLY USED DINING-ROOM suite. Apply J. Waddell, Government Dock, Phone 803 after 8 a.m. s13-3t

USED BEATTY WASHER, GOOD condition, cheap for cash. Call 1378M. s11-13

OR TO LET STORE WITH DWELLING at 433 Bleecker Ave. Apply on premises. s12-3t

A QUANTITY OF HARD WOOD $7.50 per cord, soft wood $5.50 per cord, and soft slab wood $4.50 per cord delivered at Belleville in 3 cord loads. Write H. C. Lloyd, Bannockburn, Phone Madoc 5233. s12-6t

MAROON BABY PRAM IN GOOD condition. Apply 103 West Dundas. s12-2t

PRINCESS PAT, 6-HOLE RANGE hot water front, practically new. Boy's leather coat, size fourteen years. Apply 337 Dufferin Ave. s12-2t

FIVE ACRES LAND, FRAME house, garage, hen house, good well, cistern, electricity 1 1-2 miles from city on paved road. Write Box D, Ontario Intelligencer. s12-3t

29 PLYMOUTH COUPE WITH rumble seat, new tires and paint. Motor good. Price low. 211 Pinnacle Street. s12-3t

11 MURNEY STREET, SOLID brick house, six rooms and bath, hardwood floors, house in good condition and easily heated, double lot. Good garden. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99. House Phone 687. s12-tf

ONE MODERN KITCHEN CABINET nearly new, one glass enclosed front porch. One bathroom fixture complete. Phone 714. s12-3t

GIRL'S BICYCLE, FIRST CLASS condition. Stan Barriage, 80 College Street, between 6 and 8 p.m. s12-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRABLE brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusve agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

COTTAGE ON BAY SHORE, 3 miles west of Belleville, containing 5 rooms and sun porch complete. Built on large lot, owned, not leased. Wired for electric range, water pump. Apply Box R, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

USED LUMBER — REMOVED from Loblaw building, including heavy timbers. The Wheeler Metal Co., 45 Station Street. Telephone 353. s7-6t

MISSES' WINE WINTER COAT. Persian gray lamb trim, size 15. Reasonable. 117 W. Bridge (Upstairs). s6-tf

4 HILLSIDE STREET. WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale Exclusive agent. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99. House Phone 687. s9-tf

AT AVONDALE. TRENT ROAD, directly opposite the school, residence and 8 acres of good land owned by Mrs. George Duff. House is substantial brick with bright cheerful rooms, hot water heating, bath, well decorated and in excellent state of repair. Barn and hen house. Investigate this. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

W. C. SILLS PROPERTY, JUST off highway in Avondale, Trent Road. Good frame house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors downstairs, good basement. 10 acres of sandy loam —barn, garage, hen house and brooder house. Excellent green houses. A very desirable place. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

WANTED

WORK WANTED

HANDY MAN AND EXPERIENCED is anxious to get sufficient work to purchase clothing. Kindly write Box Y, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-3t

BED-SITTING ROOM WITH light housekeeping privileges or board by business girl. Write Box U, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-1t

2 HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TO board. Apply 247 John Street. s13-3t

HOUSE FOR SMALL FAMILY preferably on outskirts of city. Reply stating rent and conveniences to Box I, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-3t

A USED SILO IN GOOD CONDITION. Write to George Attwell, R.R. No. 5, Campbellford, Ont. s12-3t

PRIVATE LIBRARY OF GOOD books wanted for cash. State approximate quantity and kind. Box A, Ontario Intelligencer. s12-2t

McCORMICK CORN BINDER BY Sept. 18. Must be in good condition. Will pay cash. Write Box 125, Madoc. s12-3t

WANTED BY OLD RELIABLE Canadian Co., 2 men between the ages of 20 and 25. Good chance for advancement. Write Box K, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-13

POSITION AS HOUSEKEEPER BY middle-aged lady for elderly couple or gentleman in city. Write Box M, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

INSTRUCTION

IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

A STEADY JOB! MAKE REAL money selling guaranteed quality trees and plants. Excellent samples. Full or part time. Cash payment every week. Luke Bros. Nurseries, Montreal.

HOW TO GET A GOVERNMENT job as Letter Carrier, Postal Clerk, Customs Examiner, Stenographer, etc. Free Booklet. The M.C.C. Schools Ltd., Toronto 10. Oldest in Canada. No agents. w s-tf

NOTICE

To Parents, Township Thurlow: According to a recent by-law all Public School children must be vaccinated. The M.H.O. Dr. Welsh will check up on this not later than Oct. 1. If there are any objections due to ill health or physical disability parents please notify your teacher at once.

(Signed) W. E. BROWN,
Clerk, Board of Health,
Township of Thurlow.
s13-1t

For Sale

239 CHARLES STREET, CORNER of Queen Street, roughcast house and large lot property of Miss Diamond. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive Agents, Belleville Locators, Geo. N. Gorman, Prop. 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

Little Benny's Note Book

Pop was reading his paper and ma was reading hers, saying, Willyum, what do you think of a man who tells a girl that she's a billion doller little barrel of honey?

I think he reserves at he gets, pop said, and ma said, Well, maybe so, but that's not the worst, how about telling her she's as graceful as a bit of fairy fluff blown by an angel's breath?

He ought to have his head examined, and he wouldn't even need to call in an expert, any ordnerry plummer could tell him he was cracked, pop said, and ma said, Heehee Willyum you're funny. Well what do you think of teeth like tiny snowflakes carved out of alabaster by the great Cellini? she said.

There's no hope for him, pop said, I'll bet 10 little barrels of honey to 2 bits of fairy fluff that he's being sued either for alimony or divorce right now, am I right? he said, and ma said, Well heehee not quite.

Nowheres near, pop I said, and pop said, What do you know about it?

I know exactly about it, because I'm the one that found the letter with a old fashion stamp on it, and all that stuff was in it and you're the one who wrote it to ma, I said, and ma said, When are you thinking of having your head examined by an ordnerry plummer, Willyum?

Don't let anybody fool you, that stuff's not so bad, pop said. I dont think so much of the billion doller little barrel of honey. I proberly heard that somewhere, but I must of invented the bit of fairy fluff blown by an angel's breath, that's a good one, and as for the alabaster snowflakes by Cellini, that's one of my masterpieces, if they wrote stuff like that for the movies I'd go oftener he said, and ma said, Well just for being so conceeted you'll just take me to one this minute.

Wich he did.

DEATHS

MARTIN—In Tyendinaga Township on Monday, September 11th., 1939, Margaret Jane Martin in her 81st year.

The funeral will be held from the home of her niece, Mrs. S. French, 1st concession, Tyendinaga, on Wednesday, Sept. 13th., 1939. Service in the home at 2.00 p.m. (Standard Time). Interment Deseronto Cemetery. s13-1t

ROUND TRIP
BARGAIN FARES
SEPT. 15, 16, 17.

| from BELLEVILLE | to |
|---|---|
| TORONTO | $2.85 |
| Buffalo | 5.55 |
| Chatham | 7.35 |
| Hamilton | 3.85 |
| Owen Sound | 5.85 |
| Parry Sound | 6.65 |
| Schreiber | 19.80 |
| Sudbury | 9.25 |

and many intermediate points. For train service, return limits, etc., consult Agents
Ask for Handbill

POOL TRAIN SERVICE
CANADIAN PACIFIC CANADIAN NATIONAL
s9, 13

AT THE BELLE

"OUR LEADING CITIZEN"

"Our Leading Citizen", Paramount's colorful, honest screen treatment of a vital contemporary American problem, will bring Bob Burns back to town in a role which is being hailed as the best of his career. When the picture is presented next at the Belle Theatre, Bob will be seen as a man who is a lawyer by profession, a philosopher by instinct, a real dyed-in-the-wool, down-to-earth, 100 per cent American character, who believes in the principles of democracy, of square dealing with his fellow men.

As in his other starring successes, Bob is once more aided by a grand supporting cast. Numbered among them are Susan Hayward and Joseph Allen, Jr., members of the "Golden Circle", select group of young Paramount players slated for stardom, cast as Bob's daughter and his junior law partner, respectively. The supporting cast also includes Elizabeth Patterson, Gene Lockhart, as an industrialist, and Charles Bickford as the chief of a gang of strike breakers.

The Irvin S. Cobb story is concerned with Bob's efforts to restore law and order in a thriving American city when an industrialist puts through a ten per cent pay cut at one of his mills despite the fact that business is good. Bob and his junior partner have been retained as counsel for Lockhart, and when the latter refuses to reconsider, Bob resigns as his counsel.

It would be giving away too much of the story to tell how Bob goes into action, deals with the leader of the strike breakers, Bickford, in a thrilling fist fight, and finally is nominated to run for the Senate in place of Allen!

Of course, there are grand romantic moments in the picture, involving Miss Hayward and Allen. In the course of the story, Bob has plenty of trouble keeping them together, but he deals with their difficulties in stride.

"Magnificent Fraud" Romantic

Lloyd Nolan, one of Hollywood's busiest leading men, and Patricia Morison who scored so sensationally in her screen debut in "Persons in Hiding", form a new love team in the daring new Paramount drama, "The Magnificent Fraud," which is announced as the companion feature attraction. With Akim Tamiroff and Mary Boland also holding featured roles, the picture is a sensational story of a man who dares to double for a dictator!

Miss Morison, who is a member of the "Golden Circle", Paramount's select group of young players slated for stardom, has appeared most recently in "I'm From Missouri", the Bob Burns starrer. Lloyd Nolan has been seen recently in such hit pictures as "St. Louis Blues" and "Undercover Doctor."

"The Magnificent Fraud" casts Tamiroff as a dictator-actor, and Mary Boland as an ex-darling of the dictator. Also in the cast are George Zucco, Steff Duna and Ernest Cossart.

The Movies March On

"The Movies March On", to be presented on the same program, presents a swift-moving film packed with all the laughs of the old-time "flickers".... the action, comedy, and drama of 24 features rolled into one. 30 of the screen's biggest stars reliving the most memorable moments of the screen's history.

AT THE McCARTHY

"PARENTS ON TRIAL"

Deriving its inspiration from the age-old conflict between the older and younger generations, "Parents On Trial," the new Columbia production opening next at the McCarthy Theatre has been hailed as an attraction of exceptional appeal. Much interest has been centered recently on the parent-child relationship and the picture, which features Jean Parker and Johnny Downs, presents the contrast between the old and the new way of solving the problems of adolescence.

On the modern side of the conflict are allied a beautiful seventeen-year-old girl, eager for the good times and romance that life holds out to her, her school-mate and the latter's mother, between whom there is a perfect bond of understanding, and two young aeronautical students.

Opposing them is the girl's father, who ignores the changes in standards that have come about since the horse-and-buggy days and insists upon discipline that humiliates her proud spirit. The mother of one of the boys, a narrow-minded, selfish person, sides with him.

The resulting sequence of events, which includes a midnight elopement, annulment of the marriage and a thrilling flight by the lovers, culminates in a startling courtroom denouement.

In addition to Miss Parker and Mr. Downs, the cast includes Noah Beery, Jr., Linda Terry, Henry Kolker and Nana Bryant. Sam Nelson directed the film, which is based on a popular radio serial.

"Coast Guard"

In addition to "Parents On Trial" a second feature presentation entitled "Coast Guard", one of the greater films of the year and featuring a cast of favorites including Randolph Scott, Frances Dee, Ralph Bellamy and Walter Connolly, will be next on the McCarthy Theatre screen, plus the opening chapter of "Mandrake The Magician", featuring Warren Hull, who had the star role in "The Spider's Web", a chapter play which played at the McCarthy Theatre some time ago. In this his latest, Warren Hull as "Mandrake" surpasses the thrills, adventure and excitement of which made "The Spider's Web" so splendid a serial presentation. Do not miss the thirty minute opening chapter an we guarantee that you will see every single future episode of "Mandrake The Magician."

"Freshman Year"
"The Mysterious Miss X"

Now playing, two splendid laugh hits are to be seen at the McCarthy Theatre, "Freshman Year", featuring Dixie Dunbar and an excellent cast of funmakers plus a mystery-comedy, ten times funnier than "Clouds Over Europe" entitled "The Mysterious Miss X" co-starring Michael Whalen, Mary Hart, Chick Chandler and Mabel Todd. Don't miss this swell all fun all laugh show.

SURPRISE VISIT

Paying a surprise visit to the headquarters of the British Red Cross Society, Queen Elizabeth went equipped for any eventuality. Like of all her subjects these days, Her Majesty carried a gas mask. It is in the bag that hangs from her shoulder.

Aids Warsaw Defence

Helping direct the defence of Warsaw is Mayor Stefan Starzynski. More than 150,000 men and women are reported engaged in digging trenches and building defences in an effort to stem the Nazi advance.

The "Dead End" Kids and Boni Wayne Morris and May Robson in Their Faces," now at the Belle with ta Granville in "The Angels Wash "The Kid From Kokomo."

FIRST LORD EN ROUTE TO No. 10

Grim-faced, with a bulldog set to his jaw, Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty in the war cabinet of Premier Neville Chamberlain, is shown, RIGHT, as he left the admiralty building to attend a cabinet session at No. 10 Downing St., official residence of the Prime Minister.

READING OF CANADA 'S ENTRY INTO WAR

PRIME MINISTER KING ISSUES PROCLAMATION DECLARING STATE OF WAR WITH GERMANY WAR PROCLAMATION

Citizens are pictured in the Dominion's capital as they read bulletins announcing that Canada had officially declared war against the German Reich. The proclamation was published in Ottawa early on Sunday afternoon after the Canadian declaration of war, cabled to Buckingham Palace in the early hours of the morning, was given immediate approval by King George.

Frank Melton, Dixie Dunbar and Stanley Hughes, principals in "Freshman Year," now playing at the McCarthy Theatre with the co-feature "The Mysterious Miss X."

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

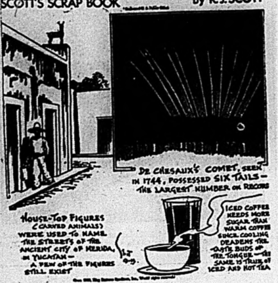
By R.J. SCOTT



DE CHESAUX'S COMET, SEEN IN 1744, POSSESSED SIX TAILS—THE LARGEST NUMBER ON RECORD
HOUSE-TOP FIGURES (CARVED ANIMALS) WERE USED TO NAME THE STREETS OF THE ANCIENT CITY OF MERIDA, IN YUCATAN— A FEW OF THE FIGURES STILL EXIST
ICED COFFEE NEEDS MORE SUGAR THAN WARM COFFEE SINCE COOLING DEADENS THE TASTE BUDS OF THE TONGUE—THE SAME IS TRUE OF ICED AND HOT TEA
R.J. 9-13

Too Many Frien's

By GEORGE A. WILSON

The window squeaked slightly as it raised slowly upwards. There was the sound of a sigh as the dark figure slid over the sill. He walked on tip-toe across the kitchen floor to the door of the hallway. Silently he stood, listening. The only sound in the whole dark house was that of the kitchen clock. The burglar went swiftly down the hall, the small spot of his light dancing on the floor in front of him.

He turned into the dining room and let his spot travel carefully about. It came to rest upon a china closet, then a polished side-table. Walking swiftly to the latter, the man pulled out a long drawer. In one short moment he had the silver rolled into a neat package.

Satisfied that he had done a good night's work, he left the house by the same window he had entered, which he carefully closed behind him; then he walked rapidly away from the house.

A young man and a girl sat at a table in one of the small restaurants in the more crowded and less luxurious part of the city. Their faces looked eager in the dim light. The youth indicated with a nod the tall man with gray-red hair who had just entered.

"See that man now just came in, Jane?"

"Yes. Do you know him?"

"Yeah. My dad and him were old friends. Since Dad died Red has been almost like a father to me. Gosh, he don't look much but he's a great guy."

"Sure," the girl agreed. "I'll bet he is. Why don't you bring him over, Jimmy? We could tell him about us, now that your dad's dead. We've got to tell somebody, you know."

"You bet! Red would be glad, too."

Jimmy Burke walked over and placed his hand on Red Martin's shoulder. Red whirled quickly.

"Oh, hello, Jimmy!"

"Hello, Red. You sure jumped when I touched you. Was you expecting somebody?"

"Well, no—not exactly," the older man answered with a grin.

"You're gettin' jumpy. Better lay off the beer."

"Naw, I always was kind of high strung like that. Have a glass of beer with me, Jimmy?"

"No, thanks, Red. I've got the girl-friend with me tonight, and she don't like me to drink it. Come on over to our table. I been tellin' her about you an' she wants to meet you."

"Sure I will, Jimmy!"

Red looked at the girl. Jane, he decided, wasn't pretty, but cute.

The girl returned his gaze warmly. "Jimmy's just been tellling me that you're almost like a father to him."

"Aw, Jimmy's always spoofin' like that. Me an' Jimmy's father was just pals, that's all. So I kind of keeps my eye on the kid, just to make sure he lives the way his father wanted him to."

Jimmy leaned across the table. "Red, Jane an' me's goin' to get married pretty soon now."

"Yeah?" Red looked pleased. "That's the way for young kids to do. Me, I never had brains enough, I guess. When you plannin' on doin' it?"

"Just as soon as we get two hundred dollars more in the bank," Jimmy replied. "We got almost enough for the furniture now, but Jane's set on havin' a honeymoon."

"Sure," Red agreed heartily. "But ain't it goin' to take quite a while to save two hundred on your pay, Jimmy?"

"Oh, I'm working too," the girl interrupted.

"Well, that's fine," Red said.

"Yeah" Jimmy said proudly, she's a maid for some big-shots uptown. She works for the Masons. They got a swell house on Third avenue."

"You mean that big brick one, that sets way back from the street?" Red asked, looking rather startled.

"Yes, that's the one," Jane said. "The Masons have been away for a couple of weeks, but they're coming back pretty soon. I shouldn't have gone away and left the house alone, but I haven't seen Jimmy for an awful long time. I guess it will be all right though."

"Sure," Jimmy added cheerfully, "it'll be all right. What could happen anyway?"

"I suppose if they found out you left the house, you'd be fired, wouldn't you?" Red asked.

"Yes." Jane answered simply.

'An'," Red continued, if you got fired you wouldn't be able to get married for a long time. Either that or you'd have to go without this here honeymoon. An' you want that a lot, don't you?"

"You bet she does." Jimmy answered for her. "But let's forget the ol' house. Nothin' goin' to happen to it."

Red sat scowling thoughtfully into his glass as the two young people talked on. Soon, he excused himself and left the restaurant.

For a second time that night, the kitchen window of the big brick house on Third avenue was raised and a dark figure climbed in. The man quickly reached the dining room and deposited the silver carefully. Hearing steps approaching the front of the house, he ran back to the kitchen, climbed through the window, and lowered it carefully behind him.

"That," Red muttered to himself, as he walked rapidly away, "is what ya get for havin' too many frien's."

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Brighton | Sept. 12-13 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Bancroft | Sept. 14-15 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Centreville | Sept. 1-2 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |
| Roseneath | Oct. 12-13 |
| Mohawk (Deseronto) | Sept. 13 |
| Shannonville | Sept. 16 |

Outstanding Radio Programs

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF.

7.30—Summer Colony with Buddy Clark.—WABC, WGR.

8.00—One Man's Family, dramatic sketch.—WEAF, CBO, CBL.

8.00—Honolulu Bound with Phil Baker.—WABC, WGR.

8.30—Paul Whiteman's Orch.—WABC.

9.00—What's My Name: Quiz program.—WEAF, WGY.

9.30—George Jessel's Celebrity Program.—WEAF, WGY.

9.30—American Chemical Society meeting.—WJZ, WHAM.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14.

AFTERNOON

4.00—Smile Parade, variety program with Ransom Sherman. —WJZ, WHAM.

NIGHT

7.15—The Parker Family sketch—WABC, WGR.

7.30—Joe E. Brown.—WABC, WGR.

8.00—Jessica Dragonette, sop. —WJZ, CBL, CBO.

8.00—Rudy Vallee Variety Hour. —WEAF, WGY.

9.00—Promenade Symphony Orch. —WJZ, CBL.

9.00—Good News of 1940; Fannie Brice.—WEAF, WGY, CBL.

10.00—Music Hall; Bob Burns m.c. guest: Yella Pesal, harpsichordist. —WEAF, WBEN, CBO, CBL.

10.00—Columbia Workshop. —WABC, CFRB. WJZ.

10.30—Concert Orch.—WJZ.

RADIO PROGRAMS

WEDNESDAY

3.00—Navy Band.—WGR

4.00—Bay Shore Handicap—WJZ, WGR, CFRB

6.45—Lowell Thomas, news commentator—WJZ, CBL

8.30—Hobby Lobby; Dave Elman—WJZ

8.30—Tommy Dorsey's Trombone and Orch.—WGY

8.30—Jack Teagarden's Orchestra—CBO, CBL

9.30—Percy Faith's Music—CBO, CBL.

10.00—Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge — WEAF.

12.30—Lights Out; mystery drama—WEAF

THURSDAY

2.00—Betty and Bob.—WEAF, WHAM

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure time—WEAF, WGY

7.30—Lyric Trio—CBO, CBL.

7.45—The political situation in Europe—WJZ

8.00—Ask-It-Basket with Jim McWilliams—WABC, WGR

8.30—Strange as it seems—WABC, WGR

9.00—Major Bowes' — WABC, CFRB

10.45—Armchair Adventures — WABC, CFRB

11.30—Lugi Romanelli's Orchestra—CBO, CBL

RADIO DIRECTORY

CANADIAN STATIONS

| | Kls. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal | 830 |
| CKOC—Hamilton | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland | 1070 |

UNITED STATES STATIONS

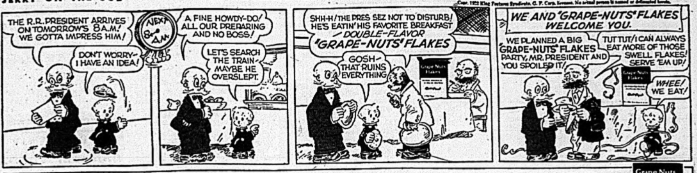
| | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago | 354 |
| WGN—Chicago | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville | 820 |
| WEAF—New York | 660 |
| WJZ—New York | 760 |
| WABC—New York | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady | 980 |
| WOR—Newark | 710 |

JERRY ON THE JOB "SHOWING OFF FOR THE HEAD MAN"

by Hoban



THE R.R. PRESIDENT ARRIVES ON TOMORROW'S 8 A.M.! WE GOTTA IMPRESS HIM!
DON'T WORRY—I HAVE AN IDEA!
NEXT 8 A.M.
A FINE HOWDY-DO! ALL OUR PREPARING AND NO BOSS!
LET'S SEARCH THE TRAIN—MAYBE HE OVERSLEPT.
SHH-H! THE PRES SEZ NOT TO DISTURB! HE'S EATIN' HIS FAVORITE BREAKFAST —DOUBLE-FLAVOR "GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES
GOSH—THAT RUINS EVERYTHING
WE AND "GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES WELCOME YOU.
WE PLANNED A BIG "GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES PARTY, MR. PRESIDENT AND YOU SPOILED IT!
TUT TUT! I CAN ALWAYS EAT MORE OF THOSE SWELL FLAKES! SERVE 'EM UP!
WHEE! WE EAT!
Grape Nuts Flakes

YESSIR! BREAKFAST'S AS GOOD AS A PARTY WHEN YOU HAVE DELICIOUS "GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES!
THEY'RE NOURISHING, TOO—MADE OF SUN-RIPENED WHEAT AND MALTED BARLEY!
GET 'EM AT YOUR GROCER'S IN THE RED-AND-WHITE BOX TODAY.
AT THE VERY LOW PRICE!
Grape Nuts Flakes
GF597

Mr.. and Mrs.—

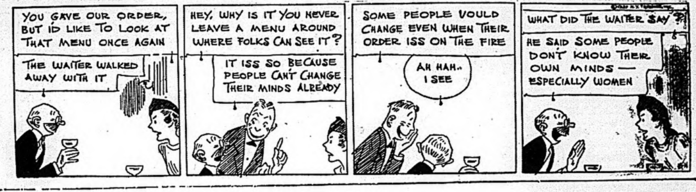
By Briggs



YOU GAVE OUR ORDER, BUT I'D LIKE TO LOOK AT THAT MENU ONCE AGAIN
THE WAITER WALKED AWAY WITH IT
HEY, WHY IS IT YOU NEVER LEAVE A MENU AROUND WHERE FOLKS CAN SEE IT?
IT ISS SO BECAUSE PEOPLE CAN'T CHANGE THEIR MINDS ALREADY SOME PEOPLE VOULD CHANGE EVEN WHEN THEIR ORDER ISS ON THE FIRE
AH HAH. I SEE
WHAT DID THE WAITER SAY?
HE SAID SOME PEOPLE DON'T KNOW THEIR OWN MINDS—ESPECIALLY WOMEN

Pop-

By J. Millar Watt

WHO'S THAT SUPPOSED TO BE ADAM!
NOBODY KNOWS WHAT HE LOOKED LIKE!
THEY WILL WHEN THEY SEE THIS!
9-13

Tillie The Toiler--

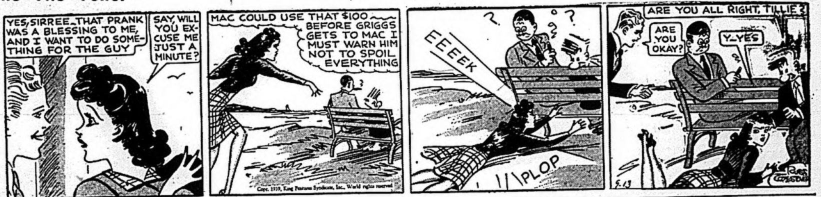
By Russ Westover



YES, SIRREE—THAT PRANK WAS A BLESSING TO ME, AND I WANT TO DO SOMETHING FOR THE GUY
SAY, WILL YOU EXCUSE ME JUST A MINUTE?
MAC COULD USE THAT $100 BEFORE GRIGGS GETS TO MAC I MUST WARN HIM NOT TO SPOIL EVERYTHING
EEEEK
PLOP
ARE YOU ALL RIGHT, TILLIE?
ARE YOU OKAY?
Y-YES
9-13
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved

Bringing Up Father—

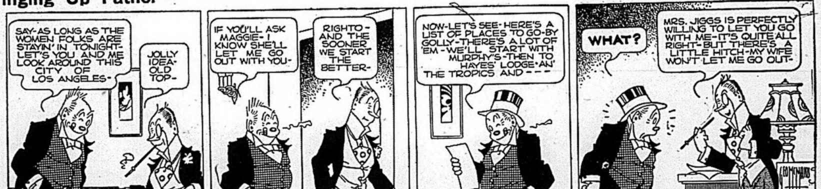
By George McManus



SAY-AS LONG AS THE WOMEN FOLKS ARE STAYIN' IN TONIGHT-LET'S YOU AND ME LOOK AROUND THIS CITY OF LOS ANGELES-JOLLY IDEA-OLD TOP-
IF YOU'LL ASK MAGGIE-I KNOW SHE'LL LET ME GO OUT WITH YOU-
RIGHTO-AND THE SOONER WE START THE BETTER-
NOW-LET'S SEE-HERE'S A LIST OF PLACES TO GO-BY GOLLY-THERE'S A LOT OF 'EM-WE'LL START WITH MURPHY'S-THEN TO HAYES' LODGE-AN' THE TROPICS AND--- WHAT?
MRS. JIGGS IS PERFECTLY WILLING TO LET YOU GO WITH ME-IT'S QUITE ALL RIGHT-BUT THERE'S A LITTLE HITCH-MY WIFE WON'T LET ME GO OUT-
9-13
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

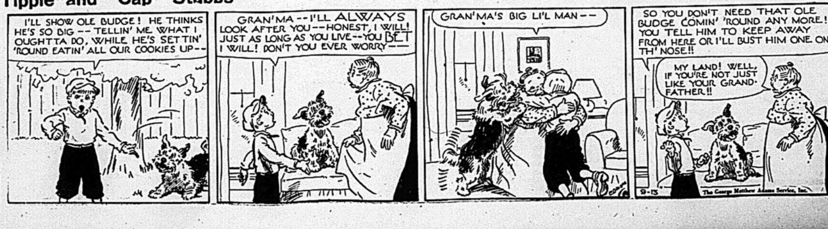
By Edwina



I'LL SHOW OLE BUDGE! HE THINKS HE'S SO BIG--TELLIN' ME WHAT I OUGHTTA DO, WHILE HE'S SETTIN' 'ROUND EATIN' ALL OUR COOKIES UP--
GRAN'MA--I'LL ALWAYS LOOK AFTER YOU--HONEST, I WILL! JUST AS LONG AS YOU LIVE--YOU BET I WILL! DON'T YOU EVER WORRY--
GRAN'MA'S BIG LI'L MAN--
SO YOU DON'T NEED THAT OLE BUDGE COMIN' 'ROUND ANY MORE! YOU TELL HIM TO KEEP AWAY FROM HERE OR I'LL BUST HIM ONE ON TH' NOSE!!
MY LAND! WELL, IF YOU'RE NOT JUST LIKE YOUR GRAND-FATHER!!
9-13
The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 2.15:

MINES

| | |
|---|---|
| Ajax | 20 |
| Aldermac | 48 |
| Anglo Hur. | 230 |
| Aunor | 200 |
| Bankfield | 21 |
| Beattie | 100 |
| Bidgood | 12 |
| Big Missouri | 12 |
| Bralorne | 975 |
| Buffalo Ank. | 780 |
| Calgary and Ed. | 211 |
| Can. Malar. | 60 |
| Central Pat. | 222 |
| Chemical Research | 25 |
| Chromium | 55 |
| Coast Copper | 255 |
| Chiboug. | 16 |
| Coniaurum | 135 |
| Dome | 26 1-2 |
| Eldorado | 85 |
| East Mal. | 255 |
| Falconbridge | 535 |
| Francoeur | 32 |
| Gillies L. | 5 |
| God's Lake | 46 |
| Gunnar | 42 |
| Hardrock | 100 |
| Home Oil | 245 |
| Hollinger | 13 |
| Howey | 29 |
| Hudson Bay | 30 1-2 |
| Jellicoe | 8 |
| Kerr Add. | 172 |
| Kirk. Hud. | 25 |
| Kirk. Lake | 120 |
| Lapa Cad. | 22 |
| Lake Shore | 33 1-2 |
| Leitch | 71 |
| Little L.L. | 265 |
| Macassa | 390 |
| McIntyre | 48 3-4 |
| McLeod | 165 |
| McKenzie | 110 |
| McWatters | 47 |
| Mining Corp. | 132 |
| Moneta | 81 |
| Noranda | 72 |
| Nipissing | 120 |
| O'Brien | 180 |
| Okalta | 107 |
| Omega | 25 |
| Paymaster | 32 |
| Pamour | 175 |
| Perron | 174 |
| Pend. Or. | 305 |
| Pickle Cr. | 425 |
| Pioneer | 223 |
| Powell | 160 |
| Premier | 140 |
| Preston E.D. | 131 |
| Pros. Air | 50 |
| Reno | 38 |
| Royalite | 36 3-4 |
| San Antonio | 168 |
| Sherritt G. | 155 |
| Siscoe | 98 |
| Sladen M. | 30 |
| Stadacona | 36 |
| Sud. Basin | 230 |
| Sullivan | 70 |
| Sylvanite | 285 |
| T. Hughes | 395 |
| Tex. Can. Oil | 90 |
| Toburn | 155 |
| Ventures | 435 |
| W. Amulet | 640 |
| Wr. Hargreaves | 750 |

TORONTO

| | |
|---|---|
| Bell Telephone | 149 1-2 |
| B. A. Oil | 21 |
| Brewing Corp | 85 |
| Braz. Trac | 8 3-4 |
| Can. Bud. Brewery | 3 5-8 |
| Can. Cement | 6 3-4 |
| Can. Dredge | 13 |
| Can. Ind. Alcohol | 4 1-8 |
| C. P. R. | 6 1-4 |
| Can. Malting | 29 |
| Can. Vinegar | 11 |
| Canada Car | 16 3-4 |
| Cockshutt Plow | 7 3-4 |
| Cons. Bakeries | 16 1-2 |
| Con. Smelting | 50 1-2 |
| Dominion Stores | 6 |
| Dist. Seagrams | 15 3-4 |
| Fanny Farmer | 21 1-4 |
| Ford "A" | 20 1-4 |
| Gypsum | 4 1-2 |
| Imp. Oil | 15 3-4 |
| Int. Nickel | 48 1-2 |
| Inter. Pet | 24 1-2 |
| Imp. Tobacco | 15 1-4 |
| Loblaw | 27 |
| Massey Harris | 8 1-4 |
| Mont. Power | 27 1-2 |
| McColl-Frontenac | 6 1-4 |
| Power Corp | 8 1-2 |
| Steel of Canada | 86 |
| Supertest | 34 |
| Shawinigan | 19 3-4 |
| Walker's | 35 |
| Walker's Pfd | 17 1-4 |
| Walkerville Brewery | 95 |

NEW YORK

| | |
|---|---|
| American Can | 114 7-8 |
| American T and T | 165 1-2 |
| Amer. For. Power | 2 5-8 |
| American Radiator | 10 3-4 |
| Anaconda | 36 1-2 |
| Auburn | 4 1-2 |
| Bethlehem Steel | 96 3-4 |
| Case | 84 |
| Chrysler | 90 1-4 |
| General Electric | 42 3-4 |
| General Motors | 55 3-8 |
| Elec. Auto Lite | 38 |
| Inter Telephone | 4 1-2 |
| North American | 22 5-8 |
| Montgomery Ward | 54 |
| Phillips Pet | 45 3-4 |
| Radio | 6 5-8 |
| Simmons | 24 3-8 |
| Standard Oil of N.J. | 53 |
| Standard Brands | 6 3-8 |
| Stewart Warner | 9 1-2 |
| U. S. Steel | 80 5-8 |
| United Aircraft | 44 1-4 |
| Vanadium | 38 |
| Westinghouse | 119 3-4 |

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 2 p.m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

| | |
|---|---|
| Albany River | 17-20 |
| Barber Larder | 2-3 |
| Capps Gold | 3A |
| Kenricia | 17A |
| Magnet Con. | 53-56 |
| Martin Bird | 2-4 |
| Oklend | 7-8 |
| Pascalis | 31A |
| Proprietary | 175-180 |
| Sheldon | 5A |
| Shenango | 5 1-2—6 1-2 |
| Upper Canada | 47-49 |

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, Sept. 13—(AP)— The stock market tried a new set of leaders today, lifting rail, rubber, utility, merchandising and specialty shares and more or less neglecting steels, aircrafts and metals.

Toward the final hour, after a fast pace had been maintained throughout the day, gains and losses were about evenly distributed with top prices a little under their best.

Transfers approximated 3,500,000 shares.

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, Sept. 13—(CP)—Western oil stocks advanced in heavy buying today on the Toronto market while other index groups lost ground. Gains posted by the industrials and the golds in the first hour were entirely lost and industrials were well down at the close and the base metal shares took an index loss of 2 points or more. Trading expanded to about 800,000 shares.

Gold and industrial shares staged a moderate rally in the early period and slipped off later to show net index losses at noon. Industrials were off 1.67 in the index as traders took profits on some of the steels and utilities. Base metal shares declined about a point while the western oils attracted heavy buying and advanced strongly.

Losses of about 3 points were netted by Nickel and Noranda, depressed partly by the fixing of metal prices in London at levels under recent tops. The cheaper base metals also were weak. In the golds the seniors held to the up side but the secondary and junior issues lost ground.

Heavy trading in the junior oils sent Home Oil up to 2.45. Calgary-Edmonton to 2.20, Okalta to 1.14 and Royalite firmed more than 2 points to 37 4-4. Cheaper issues made corresponding gains.

GRAIN MARKET

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg grain exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today by J. H. Crang and Company.

| | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat: | | | |
| October | 76¼ | 72½ | 75¾ |
| December | 78 | 74 | 77¼ |
| May | 82⅛ | 78 | 81⅝ |
| Oats: | | | |
| October | 39¼ | 37⅝ | 39½ |
| December | 38⅛ | 37¼ | 38¾ |
| May | 39⅜ | 37¾ | 39⅜ |
| Barley: | | | |
| October | 48¾ | 45½ | 48⅝ |

Premier Hepburn Predicts Fall In Revenue

Toronto, Sept. 13.—(CP)—Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario today predicted a "tremendous fall in provincial revenue" owing to the surtax on Federal income tax announced in yesterday's war budget.

Taxpayers are allowed to deduct the amount of their Federal income tax payments from the amount taxable under Ontario income tax regulations.

"I have not had time to work out the probable loss, but it will make a big difference to us," the Premier said. He indicated, however, that no tax action will be taken at the special session of the legislature which opens Tuesday.

Editor Says Italy's Position Will Be 'Gradually Defined'

Rome, Sept. 13—(AP)—Virginio Gayda, Fascist editor who frequently expresses Premier Mussolini's ideas, said today that Italy's attitude toward the war would be "gradually defined."

Gayda's editorial in Il Giornale D'Italia was the first authorative comment on Italy's position since the cabinet communique of Sept. 1 announcing she would take no military initiative.

Gayda attacked the post-war settlement of Versailles, but gave no clear indication of Italy's course.

Produce Markets

TORONTO BUYING PRICES

(By United Farmers Co-operative Company)

United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were paying the following prices for Toronto delivery:

EGGS—Prices to producers, cases returned basis, delivered Toronto:

| | |
|---|---|
| A-large | .30 |
| A-medium | .29 |
| Pullets | .22 |
| Grade "B" | .22 |
| Grade "C" | .14 |
| Churning Cream, No. 1 lb. | .25 |
| Churning Cream, No. 2, lb. | .20 |
| Butter, No. 1 | .27 1-4 |
| Butter, No. 2 | .26 1-4 |

Prices paid to country shippers.

(Quotations in cents)

| | Live | Dressed |
|---|---|---|
| Broilers. | | |
| 1 3-4 to 2½ pounds | .13 | .17 |
| Chickens. | | |
| 2½ to 4 pounds | .13 | .17 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .14 | .18 |
| 5 to 6 pounds | .15 | .19 |
| 6 pounds and over | .16 | .20 |
| Fatted Hens. | | |
| Over 5 pounds | .13 | .16 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .12 | .15 |
| 3½ to 4 pounds | .10 | .13 |
| 3 to 3½ pounds | .9 | .12 |
| Old roosters | .9 | .12 |

POTATOES

Ontario new, 75 lb. bag . $1.00-1.10

LIVESTOCK

Montreal, Sept. 13. —(CP)—Prices remained steady on Montreal Livestock markets today the Dominion Department of Agriculture reported.

Receipts— Cattle 487; sheep and lambs 163; hogs 261; calves 167.

The few cattle sold were about steady. Most of them were just received and not enough were weighed to make a market.

Good veals made $10.50-$11, medium $9.50 to $10 and common kinds down to $7. Drinkers brought $6 to $8 and grassers were mostly $5 to $5.50.

Good ewes and wethers made $9, buck lambs $8 and culls $7. Sheep sold at $3 to $5.

The bulk of hogs were delivered on former contracts. Fresh sales made $9.65 to $9.75 for bacons off trucks. Selects drew $1 premium with regular cuts on off grades. Sows brought $6 to $7.25. Hogs sold on rail grade brought $12.60 hot weight.

Toronto, Sept. 13—(CP)—Toronto Livestock Market trade eased off slightly in early afternoon dealings today. Cattle prices held steady. The calf division was slow while a steady tone prevailed on the lamb and sheep sections. No hog price was set.

Receipts reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were: Cattle 1,480; calves 570; hogs 1,120; sheep and lambs 690.

Weighty steers sold from $7-$8 and butcher steers and heifers made $6-$7.50. Butcher cows ranged from $4-$6 with a few light cows selling at $6.25. Good bulls brought $5.25-$5.75 and fed calves traded at $8-$9.50. Stockers were $5.50-$6.75.

A general top of $10 was set for choice veal calves, with a few selling up to $10.50. Common vealers sold downward to $6 and grass calves brought $5-$5.50.

Previous close on off-truck bacons was $9.

Good ewe and wether lambs made $9.75. Bucks traded at $8.75 and culls $7.

Sheep held at $2-$4.50.

Further Advances For Eggs, Butter

Toronto, Sept. 13 — Advances were extended by butter and eggs at Toronto yesterday.

A combination of buying for trade requirements, with retailers continuing to stock up, speculative interest and limited offerings were behind increased butter prices. Holdovers were a little more liberal in offerings in afternoon trading, it was reported. No. 1 Ontario creamery solids sold in wholesale channels at 27½c per pound, and the Western product as high as 28c per pound. Reflecting the brisk rise on the butter market, buyers boosted prices on churning cream, No. 1 grade, country truck, being quoted at 25c to 27c.

Keen demand absorbed the light volume of receipts almost on arrival on the egg market. A general gain of 1c per dozen was seen in all divisions.

Montreal, Sept. 13—(CP)—Produce market prices here reported by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau, follow:

Butter—First grade creamery prints, job price, 28c; first grade solids, job price, 27½c. Receipts 1816 boxes.

Cheese—Ontario white, current receipt price, 11 1-16-5-16c; Ontario colored, current receipt price, 11 5-16c. Receipts, 4,662 boxes.

Eggs—Graded inspected shipments in used free cases—A-large, 34c135c; A-medium, 32½c-33c; A-pullets, 26½c-27; B-large, 23c-24c; C, 16c-17c. Receipts, 1,049 cases.

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 13 (CP)—Chatham bacon hog market went against the trend today, losing 25 to 30 cents. Stratford dressed-weights gained 50 cents and Hull quotes were up 25-35 cents. No Hamilton prices were available due to unsettled tone of the market.

Liveweights: Hull $8.50, Chatham $8, Brantford $8.60.

Dressedweights: Chatham $11, Hull $11.35, Stratford $11.50 plus transportation, Brantford $11.65.

NO PEACE

(Continued From Page One)

5. The British Merchant Fleet had suffered "somewhat severe" losses as a result of German submarine attacks but that the "submarines are constantly being attacked and successes have been achieved."

6. The British fleet had been joined by three Polish destroyers "which had proved to be very efficient and were taking part in the strenuous life of our light forces."

7. Practically all German shipping had been cleared off the high seas.

Situation Examined

Speaking of the meeting of Mr. Chamberlain and Premier Daladier the statement said:

"The present situation was fully examined and the measures to be taken in the immediate future were discussed. Further meetings will be arranged as and when necessary in order to ensure that the closest possible contact is maintained between our two countries on all major aspects of the conduct of the war.

"I am glad to be able to assure the House that it was evident that public opinion on the two sides of the Channel was completely in accord.

"The people of France and the people of Great Britain are alike determined not only to honor to the full their obligations to Poland but also to put an end once for all to the intolerable strain of living under the perpetual threat of Nazi aggression.

"Our French allies are, like ourselves, a peace-loving people but they are no less convinced than we are that there can be no peace until the menace of Hitlerism has been finally removed."

Far-Reaching Step

Parliament was told that the Dominions as well as the United Kingdom have taken both military and civil measures "which in some cases are of a far reaching character."

"These steps", it was said, "are all directed to one end—the pursuit of a common purpose, the fulfilment of a common task."

Turning to actual war operations the government's statement said:

"The eastern theatre of war is still the main centre of operations. The Germans appear to be endeavouring to force a decision in this theatre before they are compelled to transfer formations to the west to meet the threat of Allied intervention.

"With this object in view they have continued their relentless pressure on the Polish army hoping thereby to break the resistance and to turn a hardly contested withdrawal into a retreat.

"That these hopes have so far been frustrated is due to the indomitable spirit of the Poles who refuse to be intimidated by the weight of material brought against them or the overwhelming superiority of the German Air Force.

Methodical Advance

"In the west the French armies have begun a methodical advance. Hitherto these operations have been local with the object of straightening out the line and gaining contact with the main enemy positions.

"This is an essential and important preliminary phase about which the French are naturally reticent but it is sufficient to say that it has been completely successful.

"Certain statements have been made to the effect that the British expeditionary force has already been engaged in France. These statements are not strictly accurate and are principally the result of the highly imaginative reports of foreign correspondents over whose activities we unfortunately have no control.

"Nevertheless it is true that British troops are already in France although they have not been in action. When this happens as full information as the exigencies of the military situation permit will at once be issued.

Reconnaissance Continuous

"In the air the normal work of reconnaissance and patrol has been continuous.

"And a number of R.A.F. squadrons are now operating from French soil. Further successful reconnaissance flights over Germany have been carried out by the bomber command in this country and much useful information has been gained in the course of these flights of activities behind the German frontier.

Defence patrols proceed continuously and the fighter command remains in a state of instant readiness.

"The coastal command has continued to carry out extended reconnaissance and anti-submarine patrols and a number of attacks have been carried out against enemy submarines."

Duke of Windsor Will Receive a WarAppointment

London, Sept. 13 —(CP)— The Duke of Windsor will take up a war appointment, it was announced today.

Announcement of the Duke's assignment probably will await its passage through the usual channels with publication finally in the London Gazette—the last step that makes military appointments official.

On the first day after their return from France the Duke and Duchess posed for photographers at the Sussex estate of Major Edward Metcalfe, where they are staying.

CREW OF TORPEDOED BRITISH FREIGHTER RESCUED BY AMERICAN LINER

Captain James Barnetson, skipper of the British freighter Olivegrove, LEFT, is pictured here aboard the S.S. Washington after the American liner had rescued the captain and 32 members of the crew of the Olivegrove, which was torpedoed by a German submarine about 200 miles of Bantry, Ireland. This picture of the rescue of the officers and crew of the torpedoed ship, RIGHT, was made from the deck of the Washington as the first of the freighter's lifeboats came alongside the American ship.

WAR GLEANINGS

Bucharest, Sept. 13 (AP)— The Rumanian Air Ministry today ordered that all motor buses and trolley cars, which now are yellow be repainted grey as protection against air raids.

Schaffhausen, Switzerland, Sept. 13 (AP)—Swiss anti-aircraft batteries fired warning shots today to turn away an unidentified plane which twice circled high over this region and then headed toward German territory.

Rome, Sept. 13 (AP)—Premier Mussolini today ordered preparations for Rome's 1942 international exposition to proceed despite the war.

London, Sept. 13 (CP)—The Ministry of Information in a bulletin today said it had been reported that Germany "already" had drafted into her Landwehr (second line troops for home defence) men from 41 to 55 years old. It added these veterans were "complaining" at having been called up before younger men.

Berlin, Sept. 13 (AP)—High-powered executives and many of lesser power—both German and Foreign—are buying bicycles when they can get them. Automobiles, except tiny ones, have been forbidden.

Copenhagen, Sept. 13 (CP Havas) —The population of eastern Germany has been advised that anyone caught reading leaflets dropped by British planes will be imprisoned, according to reports reaching here today. Inhabitants may not even pick up the leaflets. The job of clearing them from the streets is confined to the police aided by children under 10 years of age.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 13 (CP) Synopsis: —Showers have occurred in the Lower Lake region, Northwestern Ontario and near the Gulf of St. Lawrence, though in other districts of Eastern Canada the weather has been fair and cool. Light to moderate showers have fallen in Southern Districts of the West. It has been cool in Alberta and Saskatchewan with a tendency towards lower temperature in Manitoba.

Lake Superior: Moderate to fresh winds; mostly cloudy today and Thursday with scattered showers; not much change in temperature.

Manitoba: Partly cloudy; light showers in southern districts; cooler tonight. Thursday—Fair and cool.

Saskatchewan: Partly cloudy and cool tonight. Thursday—Fair and becoming a little warmer.

Alberta: Partly cloudy and cool. Thursday—Fair and somewhat warmer.

| | 8 a.m. | High | Low |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 49 | 67 | 48 |
| Calgary | 37 | 42 | 37 |
| Edmonton | 41 | 46 | 39 |
| Saskatoon | — | 52 | 44 |
| Winnipeg | 62 | 78 | 62 |
| S. S. Marie | 57 | 64 | 52 |
| Toronto | 56 | 62 | 52 |
| Ottawa | 57 | 65 | 39 |
| Quebec | 49 | 68 | 45 |
| Halifax | 56 | 63 | 53 |

Why The Weather?

By Major A. H. Thiessen
Science Service Meteorologist

Weather and bird migration! Weather is certainly not a major factor in bird migration. Different species always arrive at their breeding grounds within a few days of the average date. Sometimes their arrival is retarded by cold weather, heavy fog or rain. Often while advancing to their summer homes they are overtaken by inclement weather conditions which destroy thousands. Weather conditions, such as a fall in temperature, also affect migratory birds by diminishing the insect supply upon which they depend to feed themselves and young. When birds arrive in stormy weather, it is thought that they started out in good weather but were caught in it while enroute.

TEXT OF SPEECH AT PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, Sept. 13—(CP)— With a prayer that "an all-wise Providence" may guard and guide Canada "in a united effort to do what lies within its power to help defend and preserve the liberties of mankind," Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor General of Canada, prorogued the war emergency session of Parliament today.

It was a brief closing throne speech. His Excellency thanked Members of the Commons for the $100,000,000 appropriation made to meet the initial cost of war, and thanked both Chambers for prompt action in the emergency.

"In providing voluntarily for effective co-operation by Canada at the side of Britain and France in a war to resist aggression, you have made a momentous decision," the speech said.

Honorable Members of the Senate: Members of the House of Commons:

I thank you in the name of His Majesty the King for the manner in which you have responded to the demands of this critical time. In enacting measures necessary for the defence of Canada you have performed a primary national obligation. In providing voluntarily for effective co-operation by Canada at the side of Britain and France in a war to resist aggression, you have made a momentous decision. The promptness with which you have acted affords unmistakable evidence of the ability of a free people, through its representatives in a free parliament, to meet the grave emergencies of war.

Members of the House of Commons:

I thank you for the appropriation you have made to meet the needs arising from the state of war.

Honorable Members of the Senate: Members of the House of Commons:

The people of Canada will, I know, face the future with calm and resolute courage. The days of stress and strain, which lie ahead, cannot fail to prove a supreme test of national determination and endurance.

In bringing this special war session to its close, I pray that an all-wise Providence may guard and guide this land, united in an effort to do what lies within its power to help defend and preserve the liberties of mankind.

Germans to Retaliate Against Polish Snipers

Berlin, Sept. 13.— (AP)— The German Supreme Army Command in Council at "headquarters of the Fuehrer" decided today upon severe retaliation of Polish civilian snipers.

The announcement said this military measure was necessary because the Polish population had been encouraged to resort to sniping as a means of resisting the German army.

The army announcement read:

"The excessive considerateness of German artillery and German fliers from open towns, markets or villages is based on a pre-condition: namely that these should not be declared or turned into a battle area by the opponent himself.

"As the Pole, without regard for his own population, declines this principle, the German army from now on will break resistance in such places with all means at its disposal.

"The German air force, in conjunction with heavy artillery, will apply those military measures which are apt to make clear to such places in the shortest possible time the uselessness of their resistance.

"The responsibility for the consequences arising therefrom for the hard-hit population falls exclusively upon the Polish government and its incompetent as well as reckless army leaders."

Bulletins

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—(AP)—President Roosevelt today called Congress to meet in special session Sept. 21.

Although his proclamation made no mention of the Neutrality Act, the President had already stated informally he would seek repeal of the arms embargo clause and try to confine the session to that action.

SWEEPSTAKES DRAWN AS USUAL

LONDON, Sept. 13—(CP Cable)—In the event of cancellation of the Cesarewitch Race at Newmarket late in October, it was learned officially today that the Irish Hospital's sweepstakes would be drawn Oct. 20, as scheduled and prizes paid.

The names of 95 Cesarewitch acceptors will go into the drum according to this plan. Each holder of a ticket drawing a horse will share in the prize money equally. There will also be the usual 100 consolation prizes of £100 ($400) each.

SOMERVILLE WINS FIRST ROUND

CHICAGO, Sept. 13—(CP)—Ross Somerville of London, Ont., had an easy task today in speeding through the first round of the United States Amateur Golf Championship.

The Canadian sharpshooter, seeking to repeat his 1932 victory, defeated T. R. Johnston, Philadelphia, 6 and 5.

ACQUIRES STATUS OF ITALIAN VESSEL?

LONDON, Sept. 13—(AP)—The Information Ministry today issued a notice permitting publication here of a report appearing in a Rotterdam newspaper that the German liner Bremen had acquired status as an Italian vessel and was heading for an Italian port. (The Associated Press has had no confirmation of this report).

HOUSE PROROGUES AFTER FIVE DAYS OF BUSY SESSION

Cabinet Will Conduct Business of Canada in War Until Regular Session

ASSENT GIVEN BILLS

Ottawa, Sept. 13 (CP)—The Canadian parliament today finished its business until the next January regular session and left the conduct of Canada's part in the war against Germany to Prime Minister Mackenzie King and the cabinet.

In the six-day special session which ended at 1.42 p.m. EDT today the cabinet was clothed with extraordinary powers for the duration of the war and voted a sum of $100,000,000 in addition to the ordinary estimates for defence and other departments.

The Governor-General, Lord Tweedsmuir, brought the session to an end by reading a brief speech from the Throne in the Senate Chamber. He said parliament had performed a primary national obligation by enacting measures for defence, and a momentous decision in joining with Britain and France in the war against aggression.

In the King's name the Governor-General gave royal assent to the ten bills passed during the session.

The last of these, the excess profits tax bill, passed Third Reading in the Senate a short while before prorogation. The House of Commons completed its work last night but the Senate met for three hours this morning to discuss and pass the last of the legislation.

SENATE APPROVES BILLS

Ottawa, Sept. 13 (CP)—The Senate today approved the last six of the Special Bills implementing the war program laid down by the government in the present short emergency session of parliament.

Immediately after the third reading of the Excess Profits Tax Act, last of the six measures, machinery was set in motion for the immediate prorogation of parliament.

The first three bills approved by the Senate today, the War Revenue Act, Income Tax Act and the War Charities Act, went through with a minimum of explanation from government leader Dandurand.

BRITAIN'S CENSOR

Lord MacMillan, Minister of information in the British war cabinet, is charged with the duty of enforcing a strict censorship in England.

SOX STAR SPIKED

One of the five players in the American League who had taken part in all his team's games this season, Luke Appling, star shortstop with Chicago White Sox, was forced to the sidelines recently when spiked on the knee while making a play on Frank Croucher, of Detroit, sliding into second. Batting better than .320 at the time, Luke will be out for about 10 days, a loss to the Sox in the great fight they are putting up to finish third in the "Yankees' League."

Parliament Will Meet

(Continued From Page One)

ing or of a small degree of credit expansion. The pay-as-you-go principle would be followed as far as practicable. Additional sums would be borrowed from the Canadian people and in the early stages of the conflict some credit expansion might be in order.

NO INCREASE IN SALES TAX

The new taxes affect excess profits, incomes, tea, coffee, liquor, beer, wine, cigarettes, tobacco and soft drinks. No increase is made in the sales tax which stands at eight per cent but the tax will apply to salted or smoked meats, canned fish and electricity and gas used for domestic purposes, all of which have been hitherto exempt.

"We are engaged in a grim and serious business," said Mr. Ilsley. "Modern war is a conflict in which whole nations are pitted against one another. The issue may be decided not by the relative strength of armed forces but by the magnitude and efficient use of economic power and by the test of human nerves, the strength of the will of peoples to bear burdens and stand strains.

"No one can doubt the courage and the moral strength of the Canadian people. But this courage and strength must be shown at home as well as on the field of battle."

EXPENDITURES SET AT $651,000,000

Revenues from the existing tax structure for the present fiscal year, ending March 31 next, were placed at $495,000,000, just $5,000,000 in excess of the estimate made in the regular budget. Mr. Ilsley recalled the budget estimate last April placed expenditures at $551,000,000 and adding to this $100,000,000 appropriated in the war supply bill passed Tuesday, anticipated total expenditures for the year of $651,000,000.

Revenues likely to accrue during the balance of the fiscal year from the new taxes were placed at $21,000,000. This would not include returns from the increased income tax nor the excess profits tax which will not come until well into the next fiscal year.

On actual revenue in sight, the probable deficit is placed at $135,000,000.

Without allowing for any increase in production and income from 1938 or 1939, Mr. Ilsley said the new imposts, other than the excess profits tax, would yield about $62,000,000 over a whole year

LUCID EXPOSITION OF WAR FINANCING

The budget debate began with Mr. Ilsley's speech which was considered by many veteran parliamentary observers as one of the most lucid expositions of war financing ever delivered in Canada.

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative-Kootenay East, assumed the role of opposition financial critic and voiced general approval of the budget. He was glad the sales tax was not increased and thought if a change was contemplated there it should be turned into a turnover tax of one or two per cent.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F.—Rosetown-Biggar, regretted no tax had been imposed on capital gains. He thought profits made from increases in the value of securities a possible source of large revenues.

Resuming debate last night, J. C. Landeryou, Social Credit-Calgary East, said any claims that the government's policies made for "equality of sacrifice" was "absolutely false."

He said "there is no equality of sacrifice in the policy advocated by the administration. There is nothing different from the policies of the government of 1914 to 1920—nothing but borrowing and taxation."

Reiterating the Social Credit group's demand for universal conscription of man-power, industry and finance, Mr. Landeryou said he would never vote to send one man overseas unless there was conscription of weath at home. By conscription of wealth he did not mean nationalization of industry and resources but the issue of enough new "debt free" money to meet the costs of conducting the war and developing industry.

EQUALITY OF SACRIFICE FARCE IS CLAIM

J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader, said talk of equality of sacrifice in war was a farce. Additional taxes on expensive wines and incomes did not make for equality of sacrifice. Even conscription of all wealth would not make equality of sacrifice unless all men were forced to endure the life of the trenches.

"Our friends to the left (Social Credit) talk about conscription of wealth," he said. "But it is not the kind of conscription I want. They speak of conscription without change of ownership. If we are going into conscription let us take bank accounts and every kind of property.

"That is conscription I would favor, not the namby-pamby think they speak of which doesn't mean anything."

MILD OBJECTION FROM MANION

Drastic powers provided for the Minister of Munitions and Supply drew mild objections from Conservative leader R. J. Manion who suggested the Minister would be able to nationalize all industry in Canada. He questioned whether one man should have so much power.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King assured the House he would see that the powers were not abused. He said the bill was based on British experience and British legislation during the first Great War when Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George was made Minister in charge of a similar department.

Should the department be set up one of the Minister's duties will be to "examine into and organize the resources of Canada contributory to, and the sources of supply of, munitions of war and supplies and the agencies available for the supply of the same and for the execution and carrying out of defence project."

MUST ESTIMATE PRESENT NEEDS

He also "shall explore and estimate the needs present and prospective of the government and the community in respect thereto and generally take steps to mobilize, conserve and co-ordinate the economic and industrial facilities available in respect of munitions, supplies and defence projects for the effective prosecution of the present war."

Canada Will Not Take Part in 1940 Olympics

Toronto, Sept. 12.—(CP)—Canada definitely is out of the 1940 Olympic games, P. J. Mulqueen, chairman of the Dominion Olympic Committee announced today.

Mr. Mulqueen said a meeting of the committee was held at Hamilton last night and the members decided to discontinue preparation for the games in Finland as well as the winter games in Germany. The war was given as the reason.

The committe's dollar-for-dollar campaign to raise funds for participation of Canadian Athletes has been "dropped cold", said Mr. Mulqueen.

The plan, under which a dollar was sent to a prospective subscriber and he was asked to add a dollar to it and mail it back, has been turned over to the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association. It will carry on the campaign to provide sports equipment for Canadian military units.

At Helsingfors yesterday Finland's Olympic Games Organization committee suspended for three months' preparations for the games, which have not yet officially been cancelled.

Supreme Allied Defence Council Meets in France

Paris, Sept. 12—(CP—Havas)—Prime Minister Chamberlain and Lord Chatfield, Minister for Co-ordination of Defence, conferred "on French territory" today with Premier Daladier and General Maurice Gamelin, commander-in-chief of the French army.

An official announcement described the gathering as a meeting of the Supreme Allied Defence Council.

It is said the Council decided to throw all British and French resources into the war with Germany and to give Poland all the assistance in their power.

Sabotage Attempt In North Failed

Man Chased Dropped 141 Sticks of Dynamite Carried in Bag

Timmins, Ont., Sept. 12 (CP)—What is thought to have been an attempt at sabotage at the Broulan Porcupine Mine, 10 miles from here was foiled early today by Ole Olsen, mine cage tender.

Olsen said that while he was at work he noticed a man lurking near the auxiliary powder magazine in which is kept the mine's immediate supply of dynamite. When Olsen went to investigate the intruder ran away, carrying two bags on his back.

The fleeing man dropped one bag after another in his flight and finally escaped into the bush near the mine, Olsen said. The bags were found to contain 141 sticks of dynamite, stolen from the magazine, while in the magazine itself police found a bundle of nine sticks and a 10-foot fuse with which the man apparently intended to blast the structure.

The fuse, however, showed no signs of having been lighted. In the magazine were 13 cases of high-powered explosive. Officials said an explosion of the magazine would have rocked the entire district.

Provincial police, summoned by Olsen after the man's escape, searched the surrounding bush country without result.

BRITAIN BURIES HER RADIUM

Manchester, England, Sept. 12—The Manchester Guardian said today almost all the radium in Great Britain has been buried at spots of safety as much as 50 feet underground in pits made by artesian well drillers.

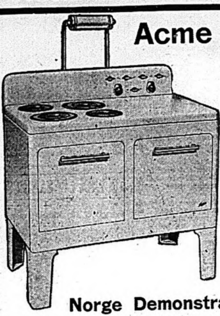
This step was taken to guard against damage that might be done if the radium was dispersed by an explosion.

C.D.S. DAYS In the Quinte DISTRICT!

Thursday — Friday — Saturday Sept. 14 - 16

● A Grand THREE-DAY Special selling in the Quinte District, with savings that should induce shoppers to be waiting when the doors open at 9.00 a.m. Thursday Morning! Our buyers have scoured the markets for timely and seasonable merchandise for the family and the home and you'll find them all marked at very attractive prices. Read every page of the big 4-Page Folder sent to every home in the city and hroughout the surrounding district. Check the items of interest to you, THEN come early for best selection! To buy during these Three Big Days is to SAVE SUBSTANTIALLY!

Read the 4-Page Folder Sent to Every Home!



Acme Electric Range

A smart, modern electrical convenience for the kitchen . . . clean looking with its ivory enamel finish, neatly trimmed in green. Note the smart lines, the convenient attached light light over the cooking top. Equipped with four Chromalox elements and designed with oven heat control.

The Acme is priced at only

169.50

Norge Demonstrator Washer

Popular Norge make with gleaming white enamel tube and finish. Demonstration model, list price of which was 114.95. Note the saving you enjoy if purchased at this featured price. Quinte Days, each

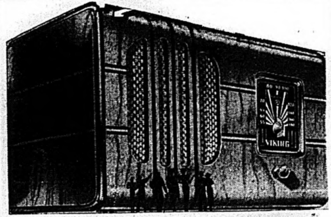
100.00

The "Huron" Electric Washer

54.50

A new gleaming white "Huron" Washer, a new departure in design from the old model, and with many new improved features. You'll find it has full sized porcelain enamel tub, also porcelain enamel hand rests on wringer. Powered by an efficient ¼ h.p. motor of reliable make; it works smoothly and quietly, and does its work wonderfully well. It's the Gyrator style which gently washes dirt and dust from clothes without undue wear and tear. Ask the salesman about its many other features which make it truly outstanding value at this featured price.

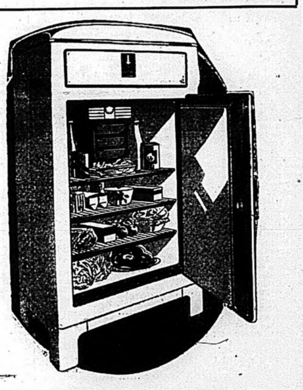
— Main floor, centre



The "Viking" 5-tube Mantel Radio

It's a mantel model, with power and performance equal to larger sets with the same number of tubes. Popular in size for convenient carrying from one room to another. It should find a place in almost every home where an extra radio is required. 5-tube chassis, with good tonal qualities; is very selective and reproduces with excellent clarity. In walnut finished cabinet, as sketched. Mighty good value at ...............

Only 19.95



Deforest Crosley "Statler" Console Radio

A powerful 8-tube set, operating on both long and short wave lengths, bringing a world of entertainment almost at your finger tips. Rich, resonant tone, selective and with plenty of power for bringing stations in which are farther away. Smart, modern style cabinet in beautifully grained veneer woods; featured with illuminated band indicator; electric eye for easier tuning of stations and many, many others. See it in the department; hear it in operation. The price is only

119.95

— Main floor, centre

1939 "Coldspot" Electric Refrigerators

Here's a buy of buys—A larger, roomier electric refrigerator at a price you generally pay for a 4 cu. ft. size. One of the most outstanding values of the season. Famous "Coldspot" 6.3 cu. ft. size, with 3 ice cube trays, 3 shelves with 11.3 cu. ft. of shelf area. All steel cabinet construction. Interior finish porcelain enamel. Outside dimensesions: Height 56"; Width 30", and Depth 29½". Quinte Days, featured at, each ....................

149.50

EATON'S 5-YEAR PROTECTION PLAN—Offers 5 years protection on sealed system and motor of "Rotorite" mechanical unit, one year protection on whole refrigerator as outlined in certificate accompanying each refrigerator.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Excess Profits Tax Act

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 — (CP)— Following are main provisions of the Excess Profits Tax Act as set forth in the printed bill passed by the Commons yesterday:

(2) For the purposes of this act "capital" means:

A. In the case of a company incorporated in Canada.

(A) The share capital paid up in cash or if issued for consideration other than cash the fair equivalent at the date of issue as the Minister may determine, and in any event shall not exceed the par value thereof;

(B) The actual unimpaired reserve, rest or accumulated profits held at the commencement of an accounting period, reduced by one-half of the dividends paid during the period or deemed to have been received by the shareholders thereof under section 13 of the Income War Tax Act.

Borrowed Money Not Capital

(C) "Capital" shall not include

(I) Borrowed money;

(II) Capital stock to the extent, that it represents the value of good will, other intangible assets, whether paid for in cash or not, or appreciation in value of assets used in the business unless the Minister is satisfied that capital values should be recognized in whole or in part to the extent that cash was used in the purchase of good will or other intangible asset.

In the case of a company not incorporated in Canada, the capital shall be determined as provided for in the case of companies incorporated in Canada but shall be only that proportion of the said capital which the value of the assets in Canada used in the business bears to the value of the total assets of the company.

Regard to Fair Value

In the case of taxpayers other than corporations regard shall be taken only of the fair value of all assets, real and personal, used in the business, less borrowed money and the value of the items referred to in sub-paragraph (C) (II) of paragraph A of subsection (2) of this section.

(3) "Profits" for the purposes of this act shall be the same as the income determined under the provisions of the Income War Tax Act.

(4) For the purposes of this Act an accounting period shall be taken to be the period for which the accounts of the business have been made up, but where the accounts of any business have not been made up for any definite period or for the period for which they have been usually made up, or if a year or more has elapsed without the accounts being made up, the accounting period shall be taken to be such period and ending on such a date as the minister may determine.

3—There shall be assessed, levied and paid a tax upon the annual profits of every person.

(a) Residing or ordinarily resident in Canada, or

(b) Who, not being a resident in Canada, is carrying on business in Canada.

The tax shall be upon the profits as herein defined, derived by the taxpayer from the carrying on of any trade or business, subject to the exemptions and deductions as hereinafter provided, at either the rates provided in paragraph A or at the rate provided in paragraph B at the option of the taxpayer, namely:

Rates 'A'

On profits not in excess of five per cent of the amount of the capital employed by the taxpayer in the business—Nil; on profits in excess of five per cent but not exceeding 10 per cent of the capital employed—10 per cent; on profits exceeding 10 per cent but not exceeding 15 per cent of the capital employed—20 per cent; on profits exceeding 15 per cent but not exceeding 20 per cent of the capital employed—30 per cent; on profits exceeding 20 per cent but not exceeding 25 per cent of the capital employed—40 per cent; on profits exceeding 25 per cent—60 per cent.

OR

Rate 'B'

Fifty per cent on the profits in excess of the average annual income of the taxpayer as determined under the income War Tax Act for the four years 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, or for the four fiscal periods of the taxpayer ending in such years, or for such of such years or fiscal periods during which the taxpayer may have been in business, taking into account profits and deficits.

4. The taxpayer shall be entitled to deduct from the profits as herein defined the following:

(A) The income tax payable by corporations upon the income for corresponding periods under the Income War Tax Act, to the extent that the income tax is based upon income derived from businesses subject to the provisions of this act;

(B) In the case of a sole proprietor, an amount equal to that portion of the income tax paid that the income from the business taxed herein bears to his total income from all sources, and in the case of partnerships and personal corporations, as defined in the Income War Tax Act, an amount equal to the aggregate of those portions of the individual income taxes paid by the individual partners or shareholders thereof on their respective shares of the business income, such portions of tax to be determined for each partner or shareholder in the same manner as for a sole proprietor;

(C) The amount paid for corresponding periods under part III of the Special War Revenue Act;

(D) Amounts provided in paragraphs (A), (B), (J) and (N) of subsection one of section 5 of the Income War Tax Act;

(E) Dividends received from any company incorporated in Canada.

(F) The Governor in Council may provide by regulation for depreciation of plant and equipment built or acquired to fulfill orders for war purposes.

5. Profits of the following businesses shall not be liable to taxation hereunder:

(A) The profits of those businesses referred to in paragraphs (D), (E), (F), (G), (H), (I), (K), (M), (P) and (Q) of section 4 of the Income War Tax Act;

(B) The profits from any professional activity.

6. In computing the amount of profits or gains to be assessed a deduction shall not be allowed in respect of

(A) The items referred to in subsection 1 and 2 of section six of the Income War Tax Act;

(B) The tax payable under this act for any period.

7. Every person liable to taxation hereunder shall deliver to the Minister in such form as the Minister may prescribe, a statement of his total profits and the same shall be filed in such manner, at such time, and in such place as is provided in the Income War Tax Act for the filing of income tax returns and all the provisions of the income tax law applicable to the filing of income tax returns shall be equally applicable to filing of excess profits returns and all penalties and other provisions relating thereto shall apply under the Excess Profits Tax Act to the same extent and in like manner as they now apply in the filing of income tax returns.

8. Any person liable to pay any tax hereunder shall estimate the amount of tax payable and shall send with the return of profits not less than one-third of the aggregate amount of such tax and may pay the balance within four months thereafter, together with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, upon such balance, from the last day prescribed for the making of such return until the time payment is made and all the provisions of the Income War Tax Act relating to payment at other times than those herein specified shall apply as if enacted under this act.

9. After examination of the taxpayer's return the Minister shall send a notice of assessment to the taxpayer verifying or altering the amount of the tax as estimated by him in his return and any additional tax found due shall be paid in the same manner, at the same time and subject to the same interest and penalty provisions as if the additional tax were found due under the provisions of the Income War Tax Act.

10. Without limiting any of the provisions herein provided, it is further provided that sections 40 to 87 of the Income War Tax Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to matters arising under the provisions of this act to the same extent and as fully and effectively as they apply under the provisions of the Income War Tax Act, excepting therefrom section 76A.

11. The provisions of this act shall apply to the profits of the year 1940 and of all periods ending therein after the 31st day of March, 1940, and to all subsequent periods.

Probabilities

Moderate winds; mostly fair and warm today and Friday; probably light scattered showers.

The Ontario Intelligencer

Temperatures

|  | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | 75 | 63 |
| Year Ago | 68 | 59 |

Weather—Clearing.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1939

GERMAN FORCES ENTER GDYNIA IS REPORT

Liner Bremen in British Port Says Survivor

Athenia Attacked In Retaliation for Capture of Bremen

Survivor of Torpedoed Boat Told by Swedish Wireless Operators They Heard the Report

FORCED TO HALT

Liner Captured According to Report Early On September 3rd Off Coast of Norway by British Destroyers

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—(CP)— A refugee from the torpedoed liner Athenia said today that intercepted wireless messages indicated the British vessel had been attacked in retaliation for the seizure of the German liner Bremen.

The Daily News quoted Gus Anderson, who flew here from Halifax, N.S., yesterday after disembarking from the rescue ship City of Flint, as saying that crew members of the Swedish yacht Southern Cross which picked up some Athenia lifeboats, had told him many Swedish wireless operators heard the report that British warships had captured the Bremen.

Anderson said the crewmen were sure the Nazi super-liner had been caught early Sept. 3 off the coast of Norway by two British destroyers.

The messages were said to have indicated that one destroyer fired a shot across the bow of the Bremen and forced her to halt. Two British tugs, following the destroyers then took the Bremen in tow. At 7:40 p.m. the same day the Athenia was torpedoed off the Irish coast.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 14 (CP)—Synopsis: Showers have occurred in some parts of Ontario and Northeast Quebec, also light to moderate showers in many sections of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Southern Alberta. It has become warmer in Eastern Canada, but it has continued cool in the Far West.

Lake Superior—Moderate winds; partly cloudy today and Friday with scattered showers and not much change in temperature.

Manitoba—Partly cloudy today and Friday with not much change in temperature; light scattered showers.

Saskatchewan—Partly cloudy today and Friday with a few scattered showers; stationary or slightly higher temperature.

Alberta—Mostly fair today and Friday; stationary or slightly higher temperature.

| Station | a.m. | Yda | Night |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 52 | 66 | 51 |
| Calgary | 43 | 56 | 37 |
| Edmonton | 36 | 60 | 36 |
| Winnipeg | 59 | 67 | 56 |
| S. S. Marie | 62 | 66 | 58 |
| Toronto | 63 | 70 | 61 |
| Ottawa | 62 | 70 | 56 |
| Montreal | 61 | 70 | 46 |
| Quebec | 57 | 68 | 53 |
| Moncton | 55 | 69 | 46 |
| Halifax | 57 | 68 | 55 |
| Detroit | 71 | 82 | 67 |
| Boston | 61 | 69 | 58 |
| New York | 62 | 75 | 59 |
| Miami | 74 | 87 | 70 |
| Los Angeles | 62 | 72 | 58 |
| Bermuda | 78 | 85 | 75 |

Why The Weather?

Weather hazards in war! A weather hazard for one side may be a boon to the other. Almost any weather element may be a hazard. Rain, in addition to making fields and roads muddy, may turn creeks into rivers, making crossing difficult and even impossible. Sometimes artificial flooding is resorted to in order to impede the attacking or pursuing enemy. Hot weather is responsible for many ailments and sunstroke; and if accompanied by wind, dust storms may result; also mirages are then frequent, causing disconcerting visual effects. Cold weather has its advantages, but is generally considered poor for the attack. Clouds, fogs, mists, and often rain play important parts in screening certain operations of war.

King George Greets Duke of Windsor

London, Sept. 14 (CP)—The King received the Duke of Windsor this afternoon. It was the first time the brothers had met since December, 1936.

The Duke and the Duchess of Windsor returned quietly to England two days ago. The Duke is awaiting assignment to a war post.

LIFELINE RAILWAY BEING GUARDED BY POLISH PLANES

Most of Air Force Now Stationed Near Rumanian Frontier

CONDITIONS CHAOTIC

By DANIEL Le LUCE

Associated Press Staff Writer

Lwow, Poland, Sept. 13—(Delayed)—(AP)—Most of the Polish air force has been stationed near the Rumanian frontier in the hope of fighting off German attempts to smash Poland's lifeline railway bringing oil and other supplies from Rumania.

But it is possible that German fliers may spot the Polish planes for bomb attacks and before this reaches the presses that may have happened.

Berman bombers even as I write this, are raining explosives on the oil and alcohol refineries. The table quivers under my hand as the earth trembles.

(Continued on Page Nine)

Toronto Bank Branch Robbed of $2,000

Toronto, Sept. 14—(CP)—A man whose face was smeared with yellow grease paint today held up the Danforth and Layton Avenue branch of the Dominion Bank here and escaped with approximately $2,000.

The disguise, according to employees of the bank, made the robber look like an Indian. He fired one shot before leaving but police said it apparently was a blank because no bullet mark could be found in the walls or furnishings.

Refugees Under a Continual Fire Of Planes Using Machine-Guns

By DANIEL DE LUCE

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Sniatyn, Poland (At the Rumanian Border), Sept. 14 (AP)—Weary refugees, trudging along the main highways of Southeastern Poland, reported today they were under continual fire of German planes using bombs and machine-guns.

They said every train, railroad station, bridge and automobile in the area was an actual or potential target of the swarming aerial invaders.

It was estimated that at least 100,000 Poles, moving mostly afoot toward the Rumanian frontier, were fleeing Poland's war zones.

Many Blasted Homes

Persons coming through the countryside could see blasted homes, burning factories, shattered railroad lines—and tangled bodies of men, women and children.

The frontier itself was not safe until one actually crossed into Rumania. Zaleszczyki, on the Polish side, already has been raked with aerial fire and the Sniatyn Railway Station on the frontier was photographed by two low-flying bombers which dove within 500 feet of the ground, ignoring rifle fire from the station roof.

Five Polish fighting planes based in a woods somewhere in the vicinity were attempt to protect the rail lines against bombers.

Onslaught Speeded Up

The Poles say the German onslaught has been speeded by a network of spies using hidden shortwave radio.

Poles on the other hand are handicapped in maintaining connections between staff headquarters at Lwow and the front lines, frequently meeting with delays as much as six hours. Virtually the only means of communication now existing is by courier planes hedgehopping and sneaking back between German raids.

I was able to leave the besieged city of Lwow through the kindness of British Consul Middleton when the Consulate departed. I perched on a baggage truck piled high with parcels from the British and French Consulates.

(Lwow is about 150 miles northeast of Sniatyn by railroad.)

Subjected To Raids

We were subjected to air raids all day along the dusty chuckholed road toward Sniatyn. Nearly every village we passed through had been bombed. Outside the picturesque village of Trembowla we dove into the shelter of an apple orchard while two German bombers swooped over the railway station.

Two bombs fell with ear-shattering explosions. Five minutes later when we passed through the main street of the town we saw bombs had struck peasant houses on each side, missing the railroad station by 100 yards. Five bodies were lying under a half-fallen tree.

BRITAIN WILL NOT BOMB CIVILIANS SAYS PREMIER

Deliberate Attack on Women and Children for Mere Terrorism Strictly Out

ANSWERS QUESTIONS

Action of Forces Will be for Most Effective Prosecution of the War

By J. F. SANDERSON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Sept. 14—(CP Cable)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons today that the British government "will never resort to deliberate attack on women and children and other civilians for purposes of mere terrorism."

In view of Adolf Hitler's threat to bomb open towns and villages in Poland, Great Britain and France were demanding a free hand for themselves, the Prime Minister declared.

"In the meantime it must be remembered that our strategy and tactics must at all stages be governed by one consideration, and one only, namely: The most effective prosecution of the war," he told the House.

"I will add that if action of the kind suggested in the German announcement is taken it will inevitably further strengthen the resolve of ourselves and our allies so to conduct our policy and so prosecute the war as to ensure that the menace we are fighting, of which this may be another manifestation, is finally removed."

Made Statement

The Prime Minister made his statement in reply to a question by Hugh Dalton, Labor. Earlier he had announced the government was not contemplating establishing a Ministry of Munitions at this stage, stating the existing arrangements through the Ministry of Supply "are working satisfactorily and much expansion (of production) already has taken place."

The Prime Minister reiterated the statement yesterday by Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax that Britain would claim a free hand to take "appropriate action" if Germany bombed civilians.

Referring to an official German statement that severe measures would be taken to crush civilian resistance in Poland he said:

Flat Contradiction

"His Majesty's government have noted this announcement, which in the face of it is in flat contradiction of the German Chancellor's recent statement to the Reichstag when he disclaimed any desire to make war on women and children.

"The restrictions that we—like the French—have imposed on the operations of our own forces were based upon the condition of similar re-

(Continued on Page Eleven)

Movement of the B. E. F. To Positions in France Triumph of Organization

LEEDS, England, Sept. 14—(CP)—Movement of the British expeditionary force to France was described today by the military correspondent of the Yorkshire Post as a "triumph of determined organization."

"The provision of vessels was the great problem with a modern army which is 30 times heavier in bulk weight owing to mechanization," the article said. "Here the shipping companies and the mercantile marine played their part by dismantling their ships' holds to take the giant machines.

"German calculations up to a year ago were that even if the short channel crossing might not be preventable it was possible to make long sea transportation a dangerous hazard and that submarines and aircraft could prevent overseas possessions from being reinforced with speed.

"We countered that by placing our overseas forces in accessible positions during the months of peace and so limited transportation to the troops destined for France."

This was a reference to the official announcements of August in which the government made certain dispositions of reinforcements for Singapore and Egypt.

(Continued on Page 11)

ITALIAN PAPER SPEAKS ON POLICY

Paper Predicts Germany Will Win War and Italy Receive Her Share

Rome, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Bologna newspaper Il Resto Del Carlino asserted today that Italy in her present neutrality is pursuing the policy of the Rome-Berlin axis. The newspaper, regarded as an important Fascist organ, predicted Germany would win the war, and added:

"And in the hour of passage of power between the old plutocracies and the young totalitarian states Rome will take the place which belongs to it."

The article was regarded as the most outspoken to appear in the Fascist press since the war began. Newspapers have scarcely mentioned the axis of the military alliance with Germany.

"Italy has changed nothing of the foreign policy which is that of the axis," the newspaper said.

"Italy has not entered the war because Il Duce sees further than anyone and is very jealous of our blood and our gold."

It recalled Mussolini had assured Italy she would reach her goals. It added that among these goals were Tunisia, Jibuti and Suez.

EMPTY BUILDINGS USED FOR OFFICES

New Ministerial Offices Being Opened Rapidly in the Capital

Ottawa, Sept. 14—(CP)— Ministerial sub-committees met today on the various defence and internal security problems of the Government and a call went out for a general meeting of cabinet at 3 p.m. EDT.

Moving gangs were at work in and about several government buildings carrying office furniture as new and expanded staffs were finding quarters and empty downtown buildings being fitted for occupancy.

First big move today was that of the Defence Purchasing Board which since its creation has been occupying rooms on the fourth floor of the centre block on Parliament Hill.

Today the whole board, which is to be enlarged and transformed into the War Supply Board, moved into the sixth floor of the Birks building on Sparks Street.

Several departments, particularly defence, have found it necessary to obtain additional space.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

BULLETINS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—(AP)—The United States liner Manhattan today radioed she had turned from her course to rescue the crew of the British tanker "British Influence."

No position was given for the tanker.

The Influence, a ship of 8,431 gross tons owned by the British Tanker Company, Ltd., was in the India-England trade. Her home port is London.

Commodore A. B. Randall, master of the Manhattan which left New York last Saturday, did not give further details in his message, nor did he say what had happened to the tanker.

The New York office said that by now the Manhattan should be about 300 miles off the Irish coast.

NO VICTIM OF AGGRESSION

BERLIN, Sept. 14—(AP)—In a discussion of President Roosevelt's interpretation of the Monroe doctrine, Boersen Zeitung said today that "Canada is no victim of German aggression, rather Germany is nominated as a victim of intended Canadian aggression."

It added that the President "worries needlessly" and that Germany did not dream of taking possession, for example, of Bermuda or Jamaica, but:

"Should these lands fall into the possession of Germany by an unimaginable miracle, the Reich would immediately turn around and hand them to the U.S.A."

CHURCH PROPERTY DESTROYED

TORONTO, Sept. 14—(CP)—Definite word was received at the United Church of Canada headquarters here today that church property to Luchow, China, was "mostly destroyed" in a bombing raid by Japanese planes several days ago.

Two missionaries attached to the Luchow mission and school escaped unharmed, it was definitely established. They are Rev. C. E. Hoffman, Renfrew, Ont., and Miss Constance Ward of Vancouver.

TAX APPICABLE ON NEW STOCK AFTER SEPT. 12

OTTAWA, Sept. 14—(CP)—The new increased excise tax on cigarettes and tobacco is applicable only to new stock put out by manufacturers on and after Sept. 12, officials of the Excise Division of the National Revenue Department said today.

Under the war budget presented to the House of Commons the excise tax on cigarettes was increased by $1 per 1,000 cigarettes and on tobacco by five cents a pound.

"ALL CLEAR" SOUNDED IN 22 MINUTES

SOUTHEND-ON-SEA, England, Sept. 14—(CP)—Air raid alarms sounded this afternoon in this town at the mouth of the Thames, followed 22 minutes later by the "all clear" signal.

Pedestrians sought shelter in orderly fashion. There was no immediate explanation of the alarm.

(No alarm was sounded in London.)

FRENCH CLOSING IN ON 3 SIDES OF SAARBRUECKEN

French Army Supported in Drive by Thousands of British Troops

SEIZURE VITAL

Would Provide Jumping-Off Place for Wider Attack of Siegfried Line

(By John Martin Associated Press Staff Writer).

Paris, Sept. 14 (AP)—French forces, supported by thousands of British troops, were reported today in military dispatches to be closing in from three sides on Saarbruecken industrial centre of the Rich Saar Basin.

Seizure of the city, the reports indicated, was considered vital to give the French a jumping off point for a wider attack against the heavily fortified Siegfried line.

Indications the French were meeting concentrated German artillery fire came in an official communique.

"Strong action by heavy artillery on heights south of Saarbruecken," the communique read.

(Continued on Page Nine)

AUTUMN RAINS FALLING NEAR CITY OF WARSAW

Poles Hope Rains Will Hamper Movement of Germany's Motorized Forces

BUDAPEST, Sept. 14—(AP)—Heavy autumn rains for which all Poland has been praying in the hope they would hamper Germany's motorized forces were reported today to have begun falling in the vicinity of Warsaw during the night.

The Warsaw correspondent of the Pesti Hirlap wrote today that there was much rejoicing among people in the besieged city.

(Continued on Page Nine)

QUIET IN GERMANY!

London, Sept. 14 (CP)—British humor continues to glow through the war clouds.

A favorite story of the war today concerns an aviator who took part in one of the now-famous leaflet raids over Germany. He returned to base four hours after the other planes in the flight.

"Where the blinkety blank have you been?" the Squadron Leader asked the belated one.

"Why it was so quiet over there in Germany I landed and shoved the leaflets under the doors," replied the B. O.

Ross Somerville In Quarter-Finals

Chicago, Sept. 14. —(CP)— C. Ross Somerville, Canada's great Internationalist, scored a 3-2 victory today over Dick Chapman of Greenwich, Conn., to advance into the quarter-final of the United States Amateur Golf Championship.

The London, Ontario, star reached the turn two up and defended his margin as they halved the next six holes in identical figures. On the 16th Somerville dropped his putt for a birdie that won the match.

His opponent also is well known in International circles. A semi-finalist last year in the United States event, Chapman went to Europe this year to win the French amateur title and reach the semi-final of the British amateur.

The Cards:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Par out .. .. | 453 | 444 | 534—36 |
| Par in .. .. | 445 | 345 | 344—36—72 |
| Somerville out | 443 | 454 | 544—37 |
| Chapman out. | 453 | 546 | 535—39 |
| Somerville in | 445 | 345 | 2xx |
| Chapman in | 445 | 345 | 4xx- |

Don Schumacher, Dallas, Tex., star who yesterday sent Johnny Goodman to the sidelines, defeated Ed Meister, Warrensville, Ohio, 3 and 2.

Harry L. Givan, Seattle, eliminated Harry Todd, Dallas, two up.

Polish Commander Surrenders Port After Long Siege

Communique Says 100 Hostages Taken, Among Them the Mayor — Find Large Part of Population Armed

CRITICIZE U. S.

Interpretation of Monroe Doctrine Called "Unfair and Unchivalrous" to Say Nothing of Being Unneutral, Foreign Office Reports

BERLIN, Sept. 14—(AP)—Surrender of the Polish port of Gdynia after a two-week siege was claimed by the German army today.

A communique said German troops entered the town at 10:15 a.m. (5:15 a.m. EDT.)

"The Polish commandant surrendered the city," it continued. "North of Gdynia fighting is still going on."

Informed sources said the Mayor of the port town met General Magnus Eberhardt, commander of the besieging German forces, to negotiate surrender and accepted conditions proposed by General Eberhardt—including surrender of 100 hostages, among them the Mayor.

First troops to enter the city, which had held out despite encirclement since the early days of Germany's drive into Poland, were alleged to have reported finding "a large part of the civilian population was armed."

U. S. Criticized

Meanwhile a commentary which usually presents the German foreign office opinion attributed to President Roosevelt, in his interpretation of the Monroe doctrine in respect to Canada, an attitude "unfair and unchivalrous, to say nothing of being unneutral."

The comment on President Roosevelt's attitude appeared in Deutsche Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz as part of the German reaction to Canada's declaration of war last Sunday.

As for the Polish campaign, the German army said it was closing its ring around Warsaw and shoving closer to Lwow and Lublin.

A disquieting note in the army communiques from Poland were occasional references to "unfavorable weather."

Proclamation of a long list of contraband articles, which ships of all nations may deliver to the Allies only under peril of destruction, was regarded here as an answer to the British blockade.

May Search Neutral Ships

The presumption was that neutral ships suspected of heading for allied forts would be stopped, searched and permitted to proceed if they carried no contraband but on findings to the contrary would be torpedoed.

Deutsche Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz referred to President Roosevelt's press conference at which he interpreted the Monroe doctrine to mean the United States should protect by force if necessary all the Americas, including Canada.

The commentary observed that Mr. Roosevelt, in effect, was saying that Canada may attack a European power but that power may not strike back at Canada. It held such an attitude be "unfair and unchivalrous, to say nothing of being unneutral."

THREE KILLED NEAR MOOSE JAW

Car Hits Truck and Bounds Into Path of C.P.R Gas-Electric Train

Moose Jaw, Sept. 14 (CP)—Three Regina residents were killed when an automobile in which they were driving hit a truck at Primrose Crossing, two miles east of here, early today and rebounded into the path of a Canadian Pacific Railway gas-electric train.

The dead are Alvin Nelson, 25, Jimmie Brown, about 17 or 18, and a girl whose name is believed to be Gertrude Elkie, about 20.

Chester Morrison, 18, driver of the car owned by Nelson, and Miss Frances Vanntt, both of Regina, are in hospital suffering from shock, face and hand lacerations.

Fire Destroys United Church

Windsor, N.S., Sept. 14 (CP)—Trinity United Church here was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin today at an estimated loss of $50,000.

'Stew Bad!

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 14—(AP)—Nazi newspapers today recommended the following menu to war-pinched German housewives:

Breakfast: Potato tea, bread and marmalade, curdled milk.

Dinner: Soup, lard stew, tomatoes and string beans, fruit.

Supper: Soup made from the remainder of the mid-day stew, sausage sandwich.

WAR GLEANINGS

LONDON, Sept. 14—(CP)—An anonymous person has offered £3,000 to the government without interest for three years. The offer was accepted with thanks.

LONDON, Sept. 14—(CP)— The Queen today visited two of the special garages set aside for the London ambulance service. She discussed ambulance work with women chauffeurs and nurses.

LONDON, Sept. 14—(CP)— The naval correspondent of The Daily Express today reported a "second wave" of German submarines is en route to the Atlantic to relieve the U-boats which have been operating there.

PARIS, Sept. 14—(CP)— Havas news agency reports from London that a steady stream of war planes is reaching the Polish eastern front by way of the Mediterranean and Rumania.

Copenhagen, Sept. 14 (AP)—With the heaviest fruit harvest in recent years, import restrictions make it impossible for Danish housewives to obtain enough sugar for making preserves. Much of the fruit is rotting.

Paris, Sept. 14 (CP-Havas)— An appeal to the women of Annam in the Far East to do their duty at the side of France was broadcast from here today by the Empress of Annam.

London, Sept. 14 (CP)— The Ropner Shipping Company announced today that a message from the crew of its 4,869-ton steamship Fidby, which was torpedoed, said the men had reached land safely.

Lwow, Poland (By Courier to Rumanian Frontier), Sept. 14 (AP)—Poland finally has completed harvesting and has stored away about 500,000,000 bushels of grain. Poland is one of Europe's major producers of rye and oats, a large grower of wheat and of some corn and barley. Her normal potato crop is about 1,000,000,000 bushels.

Forced to Leap From Burning Boat

PORT HOPE, Ont., Sept. 14—(CP)—Three men, H. Campbell, his son, John, and George Mercer, were forced to leap from a blazing fishing boat moored in the west harbor early today when fire, ignited by a lighted match which fell into gasoline covered water in the hold, swept the boat.

The fire is said to have originated when H. Campbell, owner of the boat, lighted a match which broke. The lighted portion fell between the motors, flames immediately flared up and forced the men to abandon the boat. Gasoline in the tanks and in four drums did not explode. Port Hope firemen extinguished the blaze.

Coming Events

TEA, HOMECOOKING AND APron sale at Mrs. Ranson's home, 290 Charles, Friday, September, 15, 3 to 6, Auspices Mrs. Pigden's group, St. Andrew's Guild. a11-14

SEE "THE MOVIES MARCH ON", at the Belle Tonight. A swift-moving film packed with all the laughs of the old-time "flickers". Thirty of the screen's biggest stars reliving the most memorable moments of the screen's history. a14-1t

THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE W.C.T.U. will be held at the "Y", Friday, Sept. 22nd., at 3.00 p.m. Come and support this worthy cause. a14-1t

EUCHRE TONIGHT — AAJMAA Club, 224 Front St. Friday afternoon euchre for ladies. Admission 25c. m9-et-tf

City and District News

BRICK WALLS OF NEW HOSPITAL WING ABOUT ⅓ FINISHED

Rapid progress is being made on the construction of the new west wing of the Belleville General Hospital and at present the work is well ahead of schedule, it is reported by contractors in charge. This week brick walls of the building are about one-third completed and interior construction is being rushed at the same time.

TO REBUILD BARN

Contract has been awarded Harry Montgomery of Frankford for the rebuilding of a large barn on the farm of Edward McConnell near Hastings to replace the large structure recently destroyed by fire. The new building will be of frame construction, 36 by 63 feet in size.

RIBBONS 'MAY' BE WORN INSTEAD OF 'MUST'

The substitution of a single word in yesterday's brief item in this paper regarding the wearing of war medal ribbons by local employees of the postal service intimated that such decorations were compulsory while employees were in uniform. It was pointed out by the local Post Office today that the word "may" instead of "must" wear ribbons should have been used.

DESERONTO PLANT MAY BE RE-FITTED

Residents of the Village of Deseronto are attaching certain significance to the work this week of re-laying new railroad ties on the spur line of the C.N.R. leading to the old Dominion Match Factory building in the village. Old ties are replaced with new, and a carload of lumber was shipped to the plant this week for repairs to the roof. It is suggested that the plant is being refitted for the purpose of making war supplies of unknown nature.

BATHING BEACH IN CONSTANT DEMAND

The civic bathing beach in full glory of a departing Summer is still attracting city bathers lately in spite of the cooler weather. As the Summer draws to a close officials are surveying a most successful season at the beach, with larger numbers than ever being accommodated daily. At its peak of popularity this Summer two and three hundred bathers a day have been counted. Sand beach, water toboggan, diving raft and boat wharf have all been in constant use during the season.

MAYOR TO ADDRESS COBOURG MEETING

An invitation to attend and address a special meeting of the Cobourg Property Owners' Association on Friday evening of this week has been accepted by Mayor Jamieson Bone. Mayor Bone's address will deal with the patriotic contribution of property owners of present war.

LAWRENCE E. WRAY SQUADRON LEADER

Promotions of twenty-five Royal Canadian Air Force flight-lieutenants to the rank of squadron leader announced yesterday by the Department of National Defense included Flight-Lieutenant Lawrence E. Wray, son of R. J. and the late Mrs. Wray of Belleville, and Flight Lieutenants R. A. Cameron, D. S. Blaine, H. L. Campbell and D. M. Edwards, all of Trenton.

PENNY BANK DEPOSITS INCREASE

Pupils of the four city public schools and S. S. No. 4, Sidney, increased their penny bank deposits during May and June this year over the same period a year ago, according to statistics released today by the Department of Education.

Figures for last June show $9,852.86, as compared to $9,599.03, of June, 1938, or an increase of $353.83.

Average aggregate deposits of the five schools was 34% with the separate percentages of deposit being King George, 63; No. 4 Sidney, 46; Queen Mary, 27; Queen Victoria 26; Queen Alexandra, 25.

KINGSTON RECRUITING REPORTED WELL UP

Recruiting at Fort Frontenac Barracks, Kingston, to bring the R.C.A. and R.C.H.A. up to fighting strength is almost completed. The response for recruits during the past few days has been very gratifying and as soon as the batteries have been brought up to was immediately strengthened. strength the recruiting sign at the gates will be taken down before officers are "swamped" with recruits, according to reports.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week the R.C.H.A. band paraded through Kingston streets and during the following days recruiting

A uniform policy of training was begun at the barracks this week, stress being laid on individual instruction. For the time being extensive training will take place at Artillery Park and Fort Frontenac. So far 267 recruits have been taken on, and places are being reserved for permanent men, who are temporarily absent.

BEFORE AFTER
Price $2.75
The New Supporter Belt

The BRACER makes you
Look Better—Feel Better

McKEOWN'S
DRUG STORE

QUALITY USED CARS

Selling at
THE LOWEST PRICES IN TOWN.
We Give Fair Allowances and Easy Terms!

'37 PONTIAC DELUXE SEDAN
'36 REO FLYING CLOUD SEDAN.
'37 CHEVROLET DELUXE COACH.
'35 FORD V8 DELUXE COACH.
'31 DURANT SPEC. SEDAN .................. $175.
'30 PONTIAC SEDAN ... $150.
'29 OLDSMOBILE SEDAN. $95.

TRUCK SPECIALS
1936 FORD PICK-UP .... $395.
1935 FORD PANEL ...... $375.
1930 DODGE PANEL ......... $95.

BELLEVILLE MOTORS
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Sts.
Phone 340
A. C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Successors To
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

FURS REPAIRED RE-STYLED RELINED
R. A. BACKUS
EXPERT FURRIER
38 Bridge St. W. BELLEVILLE

OIL BURNER SERVICE
ANY MAKE.
Phone 2260
JOHN LEWIS CO.
S13-3t

MADAME CORNELIA
The Well Known European Clairvoyant, Psychologist
Advice on all affairs of life.
PRIVATE READINGS 50c
Queen's Hotel, Room 35.
10 a.m.-11 p.m. beginning Friday
S13-2t

PIANO, SINGING, VIOLIN, THEORY
W. ERNEST WHEATLEY
(Mus. Bac., A.R.C.O., F.C.C.M.)
All Toronto Examinations
Classes: Beginners to Graduation
BANK OF MONTREAL CHAMBERS
BELLEVILLE
S5. EOD 6t

RED CROSS Headquarters
224 Front St. 2nd. Floor
OPEN MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS and FRIDAYS.
2.00 to 5.30 p.m.
S14-2t

CAPITOL
Today!
WYOMING OUTLAW
JOHN WAYNE
BIG TOWN CZAR

YOUR 3 FAVORITE WESTERN STARS together in an action-packed picture.

A 2nd. HIT. Barton MacLean in

British Freighter Sunk Near Ireland

New York, Sept. 14 (AP)—Radiomarine reported that its Chatham, Mass., station intercepted at 6:12 a.m. E.D.T. today a wireless call from the steamship Vancouver City saying it had been torpedoed and was "taking to boats."

The message gave the vessel's position as latitude 51-23 north, longitude 7.03 west. This would place it roughly south of Ireland, near the English Channel.

The Vancouver City is listed in Lloyd's register as a freighter, built in 1930, and operated by the Reardon Smith Line. It is 415 feet long and has a 55-foot beam.

The ship, a 4,955 ton vessel of British registry, sailed from Colon, Canal Zone, Aug. 29, bound for the United Kingdom.

Sale
40% OFF OPEN STOCK PRICE
SEPT. 15th to 30th ONLY
COMMUNITY PLATE
ALL PATTERNS
INCLUDING...
"Forever"
THE BRAND NEW PATTERN

50 PIECES Service for 8 — SALE PRICE $39.75
Open Stock Price $67.25

39 PIECES Service for 6 — SALE PRICE $29.75
Open Stock Price $50.00

62 PIECES Service for 12 — SALE PRICE $49.75
Open Stock Price $83.50

Above Prices Include Tarnish-Proof Chest BUDGET TERMS
STROUD'S
GIFT SHOP

Belleville Citizens Take War-Measure in Its Stride

Little or No Signs of "Jitters" Due to New Taxes Imposed

HOTELS CROWDED

Aftermath of the Canadian War Budget handed down by the Federal government saw a calm Belleville population take another war-measure in its stride.

While there was much conjecture regarding the possible advance in price of foodstuffs and other commodities there were little or no signs of the "jitters" over what was termed by a number of store and shopkeepers a necessary measure.

Restaurant owners interviewed this morning offered in the main, the suggestion, that an increase in meals would be a natural aftermath of the new taxation. "Increase in taxes of tea and coffee, sugar and other restaurant necessities would naturally result in a slight increase in price," they offered. "Electricity costs increase is another contributing factor," it was stated.

Soda fountains will also note a slight increase in prices, drugstores and other fountain proprietors due to the advanced taxes on foodstuffs.

Hotels of the city were crowded to capacity last night, a commercial traveller stated. Asked for a reason, he stated that the majority of the patrons were members of the travelling fraternity, but whether the new war taxation had any bearing on this sudden exodus to the rural districts on the part of the travellers, he was unable to state.

Department store officials were unable to make any statement regarding the effect of the new taxes on their wares. "There will no doubt be some differences one stated but until we get fuller information, we are unable to make any definite statement."

A prominent Front Street tobacconist stated this morning, that the new tax on tobaccos and cigarettes had not as yet gone into effect. He was of the opinion, that not until new stocks now on order were delivered would the new prices be quoted.

However, the man on the street is taking the new measure calmly. There was not any rush to stores this morning, and the usual Front Street early morning activity was unmarred by any buying flurries or other outward demonstrations.

OBITUARY

LATE FREDERICK R. JOHNS (Corbyville)

Wednesday afternoon the funeral of Frederick Richard Johns took place from his late residence in Corbyville and many old friends were present. The service in the home and at the graveside in Belleville cemetery was conducted by the Rev. A. Armstrong, pastor of the Cannifton United Church.

The bearers were all old associates of the deceased and were as follows: Messrs. Wm. Cole, John Smallhorn, A. Roper, Geo. Sharpe, W. Clapp and Jos. Whiting.

EDWARD WILSON (Gilmour)

On Tuesday, September 5, there passed away at his home at Gilmour, Edward Wilson, husband of Eliza Ann Bigelow, in his 67th year. Besides his wife, he leaves to mourn his loss, one daughter, Mrs. Herbert Hodgson, of Sundridge, Ont., and three sons, Earl, of Eldorado, and Carl and Kenneth at home; also two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Morriss of Winnipeg, and Mrs. Abe Potter, of Trenton, also three brothers, John, of Gilmour, Ernest of Corbyville, and Herbert, Prince Edward County. Mr. Wilson had been ill for some time. On Dec. 13 he went to Brantford Sanatorium where he stayed till March 29th.

The funeral took place on Thursday, September 7th, service being held in the home by his pastor, Rev. F. Wicks, of Coe Hill. Interment was in the Wilson cemetery nearby.

LATE JOHN REID (Allan's Mills)

Allan's Mills—The funeral of the late John Reid was held at his residence on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Taylor preached the funeral sermon. Interment was made in Rylestone cemetery. Mr. Reid is survived by his sorrowing wife and five sons, Arthur, Walter, Percy, Ernest and Claude and two daughters, Marjorie and Evelyn, also one brother, Jim, and one sister, Mrs. Johnson.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Robt. Mumby, Wm. Stuart, Robt. Fleming, Andrew Thomson, Thos. Reid, Howard Pinch. The flower-bearers were: Mr. Les. McKeown, Melville McKeown, Don McKeown, Allan Hallestone, Ted Hallestone, Morton Reid, Alex Stuart.

The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

GUELPH, Ont., Sept. 14—(CP)—War will invade the sports field here soon. Officers of the 11th Field Ambulance and the 29th Battery will play a game of softball wearing gas masks and steel helmets. They are waiting for the equipment to arrive.

GEEN'S
Wild Strawberry Compound
for Dysentry, Diarrhoea, Colic, etc. - 35c bottle - Phone 131

RE-UPHOLSTERING
SLIP-COVER TO ORDER.
DRAPERIES
VENETIAN BLINDS
Call 2265 and we will gladly have our decorator call with full range of samples and quote you prices.
NEW PERCIVAL
FURNITURE COMPANY LTD.

Week-End SPECIALS

MATTRESSES— Cotton filled. Good ticking. All sizes. $3.95
INNER SPRING MATTRESSES .. $8.95 up
IBEX FLANNELETTE BLANKETS— 70 x 84, substandards. Pair $1.98
CELANESE HOSE— Semi-fashioned, fit well. While they last. pair 19c

Special Discount on Wallpaper
THOMPSON'S
Temporary Address:
11 Victoria Ave. Phone 295

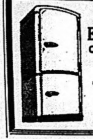
Quick LOANS

- NO ENDORSERS!
- NO RED TAPE!
- YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!

ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.

QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168



REFINISHING OF ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS
Colours in Tone to Match Your Kitchen
Factory Finished in Duco or Dulux
WE CALL FOR AND DELIVER
Prompt Service. Guaranteed Workmanship.
CAMPBELL'S
Auto Paint Shop
327 COLEMAN ST. PHONE 777
S11-14

TODAY
COAST GUARD

Make way for a Couple o' men o' the sea . . . and a Gal Who Loved a Sailor!

RANDOLPH SCOTT · FRANCES DEE · RALPH BELLAMY
WALTER CONNOLLY

ADDED FEATURE
"PARENTS ON TRIAL"
JEAN PARKER, JOHNNY DOWNS
EXTRA—OPENING CHAPTER
MANDRAKE the Magician
with WARREN HULL, star of "The Spider's Web"

AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
TODAY, FRIDAY, SATUR'Y
DAILY ....... 2.30 7.15: 9.00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Treverton Observe 59th Anniversary

Quietly in the comfort of the home they have graced for many years on the sixth concession of Thurlow Township, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Treverton, scions of grand old Hastings County families, today will observe the fifty-ninth anniversary of their wedding.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Treverton are eight-one years of age, are in good health and enjoy the daily activities that are their lot. Time has been kind to this fine old couple and they are looking forward to many more years of the mutual love and contentment that has been a highlight of fifty-nine years of marital happiness.

It was in Sidney Township, exactly fifty-nine years ago today that Mr. and Mrs. Treverton pledged their troth, the nuptials being performed in the town of Trenton.

Loyal Descendants

Loyal descendants of sturdy pioneering stock, they remained true to the heritage bequeathed them by their British forebears and remained in the county that gave them birth. Down the years they have remained true helpmates to each other and in the declining days of a life well and truly lived, are enjoying the fruits of contentment that come from mutual love, sympathy and faith in each other.

Five children blessed their lives. Four sons, Frank, of Plainfield; Fred, of Corbyville; Walter, of Plainfield, and Edward of Corbyville and one daughter, Mrs. Orville Beare, R.R. 6, Belleville. Nine grandchildren and a great grandchild will add their congratulations to those of other relatives and friends.

The anniversary will be celebrated quietly in the home where Mr. and Mrs. Treverton have received many messages of felicitation on the attainment of their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary.

Poland Accused Of Violating Russian Frontiers

MOSCOW, Sept. 14—(AP)— Soviet Russia today accused Polish war planes of "frequent violations" of her western frontier, to which Moscow has dispatched vast numbers of reservists.

A Soviet news agency communique said Russian fliers had forced down two Polish planes and that their crews, totalling 15 men, were detained.

Previous Tass reports said three planes had been forced down after crossing the frontier near Mosyr, in White Russia, and that a fourth was compelled to land in the Ukraine.

Recruits Wanted
by the
HASTINGS & PRINCE EDWARD REGIMENT, C.A.S.F
For Information Apply
BELLEVILLE ARMOURIES, BRIDGE STREET
Entrance: 10.00 a.m. until 10.00 p.m.
S14,16,19,21,23,26,28,30

STOP
LOOK SAVE

SHOP AT ANDERSON'S
You Will Save Both Time and Money!
Try our Service You'll find everything you expect in the way of fine foods, economically priced — plus FREE DELIVERY SERVICE!
209 Front St. Phone 676

GREEN GIANT BRAND TOMATO JUICE 4 20 oz. TINS 29c
WHEAT FLAKES 5 Pound Bag 19c
ROSE BRAND BAKING POWDER 2 1 LB. TINS 25c
SQUARE DEAL GOLDEN CORN 2 TINS 15c
McCORMICK'S Whole Popped Wheat 2 6 oz. Pkgs. 15c
CLASSIC CLEANSER 3 TINS 13c
GOLD MEDAL FINEST QUALITY ORANGE PEKOE TEA 1 LB. Pkge. 64c
HABITANT PEA SOUP 2 TINS 19c
FRESH CRISP GINGER SNAPS LB. 10c
LIBBY'S GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 50 ounce tin 23c
LIBBY'S PORK and BEANS 3 21 oz. tins 25c

3 OUTSTANDING VALUES IN QUALITY PICKLES
LYNN VALLEY Sweet Mixed Pickles 27 oz. jar 19c
PICCADILLY SWEET RELISH PICKLE 28 oz. jar 15c
PLANTERS' SLICED DILL PICKLES 26 oz. jar 15c

FRUITS and VEGETABLES
CALIFORNIA GRAPEFRUIT "Full of Juice." Good sized fruit. 6 for 21c
TENDER CELERY STALKS Large size .................. each 5c
IMPORTED HEAD LETTUCE ................2 for 15c
PEACHES—The Famous Elberta Peaches are Here — SEE OUR DISPLAY

.. WHITE EAGLE ..
PASTRY FLOUR
24 Pound Sack 59c
The ideal FLOUR for all Baking Purposes

Remember to Phone 676 — Free Delivery

It's the BEST HABIT WE HAVE!

We like books and a game of bridge and we get pleasure from motoring, too, but once a week we leave all else behind and trek for two chairs in a cool, softly-lighted place where there comes a relaxation only contentment can give. Yes, the best habit we have is the movies!

Today! BOB BURNS in "OUR LEADING CITIZEN" — 2nd. HIT. "The Magnificent Fraud" Extra! "THE MOVIES MARCH ON"

• B-E-L-L-E
Home of Fine Pictures
Daily 2.30: 7.10. Last Show 8.30

Coming S-A-T-U-R-D-A-Y
THE GREATEST MOTION PICTURE OF 1939
Stanley and Livingstone
Spencer Tracy, Nancy Kelly, Richard Greene

DEPOSIT REDUCTION ON BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA"

The Coca-Cola Company of Canada, Limited—ANNOUNCES—Reduction of Deposit on its Bottles—effective

SEPTEMBER 20th, 1939

Effective September 20th, 1939, the regular DEPOSIT CHARGE of 3c each on BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will be reduced to 2c per bottle.

All persons having in their possession BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" on which the regular deposit charge of 3c per bottle has been paid, and on which they are desirous of securing refunds at the present rate of 3c per bottle, ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to return these bottles to their dealers for refund on or before September 19th.

On and after September 20th, BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will carry a deposit charge of 2c per bottle, and refunds will be made for this amount only.

Bottle Deposit on Six-Bottle Carton

formerly 18c
Reduced to 12c
EFFECTIVE
SEPT. 20th

DR-38

Drink
Coca-Cola
Delicious and Refreshing

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

Thomasburg

Eldorado — Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, also Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes of Stirling; Mrs. J. Fitzgerald and Jack of Eldorado, were guests at the home of Mr. W. Holmes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Thomas, Mr. John Conly of Wellington, were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sandford.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson and two children attended the funeral of Mr. Wilson's father, Mr. Ed. Wilson of Gilmour on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Armstrong returned home this week. They were accompanied by the former's parents.

Master Lorne Donly spent a few days in Bancroft.

Mrs. Moon of Madoc has been a visitor at the home of her nephew, Mr. Oscar Wannamaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conly spent the week-end with friends at Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. Southwick, Wisconsin; Mrs. Mary Nixon and Mrs. W. McCoy called on relatives at Bannockburn one day last week.

Mrs. Muriel Moran left Monday for Clydesdale where she has been engaged as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel McLeod and sons of Thorold, spent the week-end in and around Bannockburn.

Miss Rietta Severin of Bancroft, spent last week with friends at Bannockburn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Noble of Madoc, visited the latter's parents on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bird and family were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lloyd.

W.M.S. Meeting

The Eldorado and Union W.M.S. held the September meeting in the Eldorado United Church on Friday afternoon, with Mrs. F. J. Nickle presiding. A short worship service opened the meeting with Bible responsive reading and silent prayer. A short business period was then conducted. Arrangements were made for a number to attend the convention at Belleville. It was decide dto hold a pot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. A. Empey when one quilt will be quilted.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. George Robinson. The roll call showed thirteen members present and one visitor. The offering amounted to 95c. Flower fund 39c. The last chapter of the Study Book was given by Rev. G. Crabbe. Interesting reports of the school for leaders held at the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, were given by Mrs. Arthur McCreary and Mrs. A. Empey. The meeting closed with prayer after which lunch was served and a social time spent.

The anniversary services were held on Sunday in the United Church at Fox's. Cloudy skies and rain kept many away in the morning. The evening service was well attended. Rev. Geo. Crabbe, the minister, was in charge.

The church was tastily decorated with potted plants and seasonable cut flowers. The choir sang two anthems in the morning and one in the evening. Mesdames Robinson and Holmes sang a duet, "He Watches over me."

IT PAYS YOU to shop DOMINION

CHOICE QUALITY

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Tomatoes | 2½'s | 3 tins | 25c |
| SOAP FLAKES | PRINCESS | 2 pkgs. | 25c |
| CORNED BEEF | BEEFEX 12-oz. tin | 2 for | 25c |
| MATCHES | PERFECTION | 3 Boxes | 19c |
| BISCUITS | DUPLEX Cream Filled | 2 lbs. | 29c |
| SOUPS | CLARK'S ASSORTED | 4 Tins | 25c |

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| CRISCO 1-lb. tin ............ | | 21c | Quaker MACARONI, lb. pkg. | 2 for | 25c |
| SUPER SUDS .. .. | 2 pkgs. | 35c | CLOVER HONEY 4-lb. tin ........... | | 39c |
| CLAM CHOWDER, 10 oz. | 3 tins | 25c | FISH CAKES, 10 oz. tin .......... | | 10c |
| LIBBY'S PICKLES, 12 oz. jar | | 15c | ORANGE JUICE, 12 oz. tin | 3 for | 25c |
| BLUEBERRIES, 2s sq. | 3 tins | 25c | SALTED PEANUTS. Lb. ...... | | 10c |

QUANTITIES LIMITED TO STOCK ON HAND.

FRUIT SPECIALS

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| ONIONS | COOKING | 10-lb. bag | 21c | | |
| LETTUCE | CALIFORNIA | 2 for | 15c | | |
| ONTARIO CELERY .. .. .... | | | 5c | GREEN GRAPES 6 qt. basket........ | 29c |
| TOKAY GRAPES | 2 lbs. | | 19c | BLUE GRAPES, 6 qt. basket.... | 27c |

DOMINION STORES LIMITED

Cannifton

Cannifton — Mr. J. A. Gordon of Syracuse, has returned home after being the guest of his sister. Mrs. Harry Cairns.

Mrs. Charles Matthews spent Thursday visiting friends in Shannonville.

Many friends are sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith have moved away. He is going to work for Mr. Donald Leeming, 2nd. of Thurlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fulton, of Toronto, were here to attend the funeral of Mr. Richard Johns.

Mrs. Dan Mason is ill.

Friends are glad to see Mr. Rupert, who has returned back to his work at the quarry.

Miss Jean Armstrong spent the week-end at the parsonage.

Mrs. B. Gilbert called Friday at Mrs. Harry Cairns'.

Mrs. George Lywood entertained company on Sunday.

The executive members of the Y. P. U. met at the church on Friday night to discuss different items.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Urch and family have taken up residence in Mr. George Ketcheson's house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Savage were recent callers on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Savage.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hearns and Audrey spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Clapp of Trenton.

The Women's Association held their quilting on Tuesday at Mrs. D. Collett's.

Sidney Crossing

Sidney Crossing — Sunday school was quite well attended at Aikens United Church on Sunday morning last. After the lesson period the special number was given by Mrs. Leon McMullen, a very appropriate solo, which was much appreciated. The church service followed. Rev. Scott preached a splendid sermon, taking as his subject, "Open Doors", and taking his text from Revelation 3: 20, "Behold I stand at the door and knock." During the service the choir sang "Wonderful News."

Mrs. Annie Brickman of Belleville, is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brickman.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Westover are glad to know that she is progressing favorably and is still at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. Moon.

Mrs. Arthur Saylor opened her home to a delightful afternoon tea under the auspices of Aikins W.A. on Tuesday afternoon, where they welcomed a number of visitors from the neighboring societies. A good program was given and the ladies served a sumptuous lunch. All report a good time.

Burr's

Burrs — Miss Lila Caughey is teaching Royal Street school. She was home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Edwards, Mr. Floyd Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clarke and Doris were at Ivy Lea on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Burkitt and family visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkitt on Sunday.

Messrs. Jack and David Keary visited Mr. Tom Morden on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Osterhourt, Mrs. Frank Osterhout, Mr. Elmer Osterhout and Mrs. Albert Adams went to Toronto on Saturday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Adams' daughter, Miss Myrtle Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, St. Catharines, returned home on Sunday after a four days' visit to their daughter. Mrs. Norman Fox and Mr. Fox, who with Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and Miss Irene Fox, accompanied them as far as Lakeport where they all picnicked in Cedar Grove.

Mr. Maurice Baker spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Baker, Belleville.

Mrs. Grace Scheninger, Syracuse, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Simon Caughey returned home from Toronto on Saturday night after spending several days visiting friends and at- [redacted] hibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scheninger, Syracuse, N.Y., came to Mr. Simon Caughey's on Saturday to take his mother home. They left for home on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Caughey and Mr. Leon Caughey dined Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Caughey.

Mr. Burton Osterhout spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osterhout.

Miss Vera Hubbs was at Madoc on Sunday.

Mr. Gene Hubbs was helping Mr. Basil Ainsworth, Christian Street, to pick corn on Monday.

Mr. Harold Cross, Christian St., had a colt killed by lightning on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hubbs spent Sunday at her father's camp at West Lake, near Wellington. Other visitors at Mr. Moon's camp were Mr. C. L. McFaul and sons, Allisonville; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McFaul and Elmer, Wellington Road; Mr. and Mrs. Basil Ainsworth. M[illegible] Stanley Douglas and children, of Christian Street; Mr. and [illegible] Heddington Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Jack McBride, Toronto. Mrs. McBride spent spent last week at the camp and she and Mr. McBride returned to Toronto on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purtelle with Mr. and Mrs. Val Squire, Mrs. Libbie Burlington, Wellington; Mr. and Mrs Fred McNair, Rose Hall, picnicked by Lake Ontario on Friday to celebrate Mrs. Val Squire's birthday.

Messrs. Walter Brown. of St. Catharines and Norman Fox attended Napanee Fair on Saturday.

Among those who visited Belleville on Saturday: C. L. McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Adams, Mrs. [illegible] and Mrs. Harry Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Calnan, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. George Fox, Miss I. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hubbs and Miss Vera Hubbs.

THE KING LOOKS OVER HIS AIR FORCE

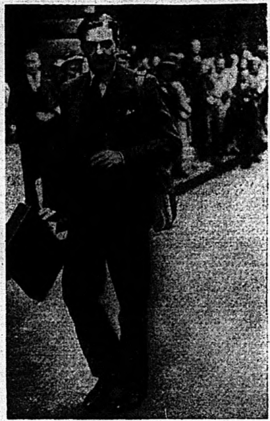
Dressed in the uniform of a marshal of the Royal Air Force, King George is seen here on a tour of inspection of an R.A.F. station. His escort is Sir Hugh Dowding, Commander-in-Chief of Britain's fighting air force.



Anthony Eden is shown walking in Downing Street on Sept. 5, carrying a dispatch case in one hand and a gas mask hanging from his shoulder. This picture was flown to New York by Clipper and then transmitted by Phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

Niles Corners

Niles Corners—Mr. Perry Smith left on Thursday last to visit his brother in the States. Mrs. Smith is staying for the present at the home of her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Dafoe visited relatives in Belleville on Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Ellis spent a day last week with relatives in Wellington.

Although accompanied by a gale the rain on Sunday was very welcome and helpful.

A. N. Dafoe attended the Presbytery on Tuesday in company with Rev. J. G. McKee, Wellington.

Mr. Weaver of Belleville, has been calling in this locality the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dafoe and family, called on Mr. and Mrs. J Kleinsteuber at West Lake on Sunday afternoon

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS TREATMENT
BACKACHE
HEADACHE RHEUMATISM

Plainfield

Plainfield — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson and children, Tweed, called on Mr. and Mrs. A. Parks on Monday last.

Mrs. J. G. Latta spent last Wednesday with Mrs. T. Mills.

Mrs. Fred Prindle spent Friday with Mrs. Stanley Hazard.

Mr. Harry Dunning and Mr. F. Sills returned on Thursday night from a trip to the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Huffman, Mrs. Materson and girls were Friday evening callers on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marshall.

Miss Annie E. Hamilton has returned to her home in Toronto.

The W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Sullivan on Thursday last.

Mrs. A. Parks is ill. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Master Arthur Marshall spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marshall.

Miss Norma Hubel, Miss Maude Hubel, Mr. Eldred Phair, Toronto, and Mrs. Mabel Hubel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Hubel, Gilead.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Cronkright and family spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cronkright, Zion Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Latta and Jean Dartford spent Sunday with Mrs. J. G. Latta.

Master Ronnie Cronkright was able to return to school again this week after his recent illness.

Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie. also Mrs. Frank Goodfellow and Carrie spent Monday afternoon at Napanee.

A severe electric storm followed by hail and a terrific wind passed over here on Friday morning. Very little damage was reported around here, although north and east of here it caused a great deal of damage. On Sunday afternoon another storm caused the Hydro to be off for a few hours but came on again later in the evening.

Miss Maude Hubel, Toronto, and Mr. Eldred Phair, Collingwood, are spending this week with Mrs. M. Hubel.

Miss Irene Grills, Mr. Frank Grills, Sidney, and Mrs. Valance, Bermuda, spent the tea hour Sunday evening with Mrs. J. G. Latta.

Mr. Sherman Parks and Mr. W. J. Parks spent Monday, in Kingston.

Mrs. E. Fargey spent a few days last week in Toronto.

Many of the farmers are busy cutting their corn, which seems to be a pretty fair crop considering the dry weather which held it back for so long.

Miss Maude Hubel and Mr. Eldred Phair were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, Wellington on Tuesday.

Madoc Junction

Madoc Jct. — Mr. Ray Danford spent last week-end in Toronto and attended the Canadian National Exhibition.

Mrs. Charles Wright who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Chambers, returned to her home at West Huntingdon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Ashley spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hamilton of Mountain View.

Miss Helen McMullen left on Monday for Dartford where she has been engaged as teacher for another year.

Misses Laura and Ella Wannamaker spent a few days this week in Toronto visiting relatives and also attending the Canadian National Exhibition.

Mrs. Will Stapley is somewhat improved at present and is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Smith at Glen Ross.

Miss Anna Sharpe spent this week with Miss Marion McMullen.

Miss Gladys Mark has returned to her home in Lindsay after spending part of her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Woodward.

Eggleton W.M.S. and W.A.

On Friday evening the regular September meeting of the Eggleton W.M.S. and W.A. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stapley.

After the opening hymn Mr. Stewart led in prayer, and Mrs. Oliver Stapley read the Scripture lesson. Minutes were read by Mrs. Harlow and the Roll Call showed nine members and two visitors present. Mrs. Harry Clarke gave a reading, "Anglican Missionary work in the Arctic." Mrs. Danford read a poem. Mrs. Harlow gave another reading, "The Christian Church in the Orient." The business period followed. Mrs. Chambers sang a solo. Mr. Stewart gave a short address based on a Scripture verse. Hymn 81 was sung and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Russell Stapley.

The hostess served a dainty lunch and during the social half hour, Mr. Stewart displayed several beautiful pieces of quill work and basket work made by Indians north of Peterboro.

6th Tyendinaga

6th. Tyndinaga — Service was held at Mount Pleasant church on Sunday morning, the first since the Rev. Mr. McKenzie returned from his holidays.

The severe electric and wind storm which passed over here on Friday morning did considerable damage although not as much as in some places. At Mrs. T. Parks the machine house was moved from its foundation, the posts broken and siding torn off and fences blown down. Mr. A. Boldrick and Mr. R. Boldrick had their silos blown down. In Mr. C. Goodman's woods trees were torn out by the roots and some broken off. One by a fence was struck by lightning. The top of a tree was carried over the house and left standing among some other trees.

Mr and Mrs. Charlie Treverton spent a couple of days in Toronto and attended the Exhibition.

Miss Lottie Goodman went to Picton on Sunday to visit her brother, Mr. Fred Goodman, who is ill in Picton Hospital.

Messrs. Bruce and Douglas Christie of Sidney, called on Jimmie and Alton Goodman on Sunday afternoon.

Miss May Boldrick is spending a few days with her mother.

Mrs. R. F. Elliott of Wallbridge, spent Friday at Mr. C. Goodman's.

SHOP AT ZELLER'S RETAILERS TO THRIFTY CANADIANS —IT PAYS!

Fall Styles at THRIFT PRICES!

MAKE YOUR SELECTIONS NOW WHILE OUR STOCKS ARE COMPLETE.

CAPESKIN GLOVES - 1.00
New styles in the popular Fall Shades.

GLOVES and BAGS are important accessories

Charming Millinery 1.49
At prices that are sure to please. Soft brimmed Hats in shades to match the New Fall Coats. Come in and see our large assortment.

SMART BAGS 1.49
This season's Bags are outstanding in Styles and Quality

GIRLS' HATS. Just the type school girls are looking for. All shades and sizes .. .. 1.29

Fur-Trimmed Coats
Fitted coats of good wearing wool fabrics. Trimmed with dyed squirrel, Dropped Opposum. Sizes 13 to 44. Colors Green, Blue, Wine, Brown. Zeller Priced
15.95

ZELLER'S LIMITED — Retailers to Thrifty Canadians

Stop!
Look!
Shop!

SHOP AT ZELLER'S —IT PAYS!

is most profitable at this season of the year as our assortments of New Fall merchandise are almost at their peak. Buy now while you have first choice of color and sizes.

IF NECESSARY USE OUR CONVENIENT LAY-AWAY PLAN.

Flannelette PYJAMAS For Ladies. Attractive styles. 1.00

NIGHT GOWNS - 49c
White Flannelette — a lady's favorite.

Yama and Woolette Flannelette yd. 27c in dainty patterns. — 36 inches wide.

CREAM RIBBED COMBS. for men... Sizes 36 to 42. 79c

Boys' Combinations 49c
Cream. Fall weight. Sizes 24 to 32.

WOOL HOSE children's ¾-length assorted colors. Pair 25c

GOLF HOSE - pr. 25c
Wool mixture. Ideal for school wear.

Pure Wool SWEATERS 79c
V neck. Contrasting trim. Boys' sizes, 24 to 34.

WOOL Sweaters Pullover and Cardigan styles for ladies. 1.59

Fleece-Lined SLEEPERS 79c
With feet pink and blue. Sizes up to 6 years.

IBEX Blankets pr. 1.98
Grey and White Flannelette. Double bed size.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

NEW TAXES

After reading over the budget as presented by Revenue Minister Ilsley one has the feeling that he has made a good job of a difficult task and he taxed only the things that will not work hardship on any particular commodity or class of people. The income tax increases were to be expected and most people will agree that those who can best afford to pay are the taxpayers with high incomes. Mr. Ilsley has stated that the Government does not intend to tolerate profiteering and in this he was given support by the Conservative leader and other members of Parliament. The excess profits tax is designed to take care of this situation.

The tax on tea and coffee and tobacco is apparently designed so that all Canadians will bear a proportionate share of the war load while the increase on liquor, which is in the luxury class, is a fair one. The present tax of seven dollars a gallon is the same as was in force from 1932 to 1935.

Another way of getting at nearly all householders is the eight per cent tax on gas and electricity for domestic purposes and the same on smoked meats and canned fish. The tax on these items is also another way of sharing the tax load amongst the greatest number.

There will be still more taxes and higher ones if the war goes on long enough but the earning power of the nation will be greater at the same time and consequently the greater ability to pay. The taxes certainly seem fair and the public now realizes that to achieve the goal of victory then it must be paid for.

NEUTRALITY IN PRACTICE

In discussing the terms of the Neutrality Act, the New York Times states that the President had no other alternative but to extend the arms embargo to Canada as soon as that country entered war. The law requires such action on his part. But the order he has issued shows once more how capricious is the working of this law in practice.

Canada, which needs airplanes in the first instance, not for any expedition overseas, but for the rounding out of her home defence, cannot buy airplanes in the United States even for this latter purpose. But Italy, still being neutral, though an open ally of Germany, is at liberty to buy all the American planes she wants and to take advantage of this opportunity to put her own manufacturing facilities at the service of her ally.

This may be many things but it is not "neutrality."

RECIPE FOR AVOIDING A CRABBED OLD AGE

The calendar cannot be trusted to tell you the truth about old age. While you may be "officially" old at 65, the years following that milestone need not be ones of senility, says Dr. Donald A. Laird, well-known psychologist. In the current Rotarian Magazine, he offers six rules as insurance against an unhappy, crochety old age. These rules were developed from reports of scientific studies by such authorities on human behavior as Dr. Francis G. Benedict, Dr. Christine Margaret Morgan, Dr. Francis M. Pottenger, and Dr. Edward K. Strong, JJr. Here are the "rules":

(1) Keep in good health. (Exemplary habits with regard to food, drink, and matters of hygiene, and above all, a philosophy of doing away with worrying work wonders.)

(2) Maintain an intellectual interest in many things. (An education has been found to help make old age happier.)

(3) Enjoy your children and relatives—but don't live with them, if you can possibly avoid it! (Happiest old folks live alone so they can remain independent.)

(4) Mingle with the younger crowd at least occasionally. (Retain membership in your club, lodge and church—and serve on committees.)

(5) Keep occupied! (Choose hobbies and recreations which keep the hands busy, the mind occupied. One of the surest ways discovered to make old folks unhappy, crabbed, disillusioned, was for them to retire.)

(6) Prepare for old age. (Organize your thoughts, your life philosophy, and your activities in middle age with the inevitableness of age 65 before you. This is as important as making financial preparations for your "declining years.")

And now, continues Dr. Laird, if you have doubts about your youthfulness, check your habits against these which follow. If you have lost or are losing interest in bridge games, the newspaper sports page, tennis, musical comedies, hunting, auto driving, full-dress affairs, golf, smokers, picnics, poetry, collecting stamps and if you are gaining interest in "educational" movies, nature study, art galleries, museums, zoos, chopping wood, detective stories, raising flowers and vegetables, being left to yourself, methodical people—then, alas, you are growing old (regardless of your age!). In that case the above rules are given for your benefit.

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

BUSINESS AS USUAL ANIMATES THE LONDON TIMES, (The Thunderer) and neither wars nor rumors of wars seem to affect this staid old English newspaper, which has been through so many wars that one extra one or two is just taken as all in the day's work and nothing to get excited over. The recent declaration of war on Germany was found in The Times by readers after struggling through eight pages of advertisements which prefaced the news section. No Front Page news this, Page 8, forsooth. However, the London Times, Weekly Edition, features official military news on its second page, army and navy as issued by the War Office and Admiralty, and Air Ministry. The same page also features a paragraph or two taken from The Times of 1839, describing a scene in the English Opera House, London, where the manager appeared before the curtain and announced that the play could not go on, that he had just received a note from the principal actor which read: "Dear Balfe . . .. I have taken so much claret tonight as to be unfit to play. Damme." A spectator in the gallery shouted out "Drunk!"

The paragraph goes on to say that a double bill was put on instead of the play announced .. . . . . and that's probably where the double feature originated.

The London Weekly Times is a four-column tabloid, wire stitched, with an index, thirty pages.

x

The first traffic signal erected in London, 1868, is described by The Times as a "giant semaphore arrangement, 24 feet high, with a handsome lantern on the top. Three arms pointed north, south and west, raised and lowered by a handle like a bell pull. Arms raised, the lantern gave a red light, lowered it showed green. All the arms raised simultaneously stopped traffic completely, so that M.P.'s and other pedestrians could cross. The green light signified caution. The signal system is said to have worked well but was not popular with the police, one officer having been burned while lighting the lantern which was operated by gas. Consequently the signal system fell into disuse and the inventor had to pay three hundred pounds for its erection and the gas used. He was just some years ahead of his time.

x

Mulberry trees live to be a great age according to the Times Weekly, in recording a gift to the Lord Mayor of a basket of fresh picked mulberries. The oldest mulberry tree in London is in the garden of the Drapers' Company, and is at least 500 years old. It survived the Great Fire in 1666. The tree is protected by lead sheeting and requires a wooden prop to prevent it falling to the ground, but it still bears fruit. Mulberry pie is made from the fruit and served at Court luncheons. There are five other mulberry trees in the same garden. In the Charterhouse gardens are 15 magnificent mulberry trees, while in Finsbury Circus Gardens are four mulberry trees which produce well. So dancing around the mulberry tree need not be discontinued altogether for some time yet.

x

For centuries the Men of Ness, a seafaring community in Lewis, England, have set off from Skigersta, on the northeast of the island to raid the gannets of Sulsisgier, a rocky island about forty miles northwest of the Butt of Lewis. The County Council refused to prohibit the killing, said The Times, on the ground that the fishermen involved derive a considerable part of their living from the sale of the birds. This year's crew which left in the open sailboat, Peaceful, consisted of ten men, five of whom are old age pensioners, four being well over 70 years of age. The voyage of forty miles across the open Atlantis in an old sailing boat is a hazardous one even for men in their prime, but the Skigersta fishermen are among the hardest seamen round the coast and these old-age pensioners regard the voyage almost in the light of a holiday trip.

x

An echo from Africa is sounded by The Times in a letter from Sir Arnold Hudson, Governor of the Gold Coast, from Christiansburg Castle, Accra, Gold Coast Africa acknowledging contributions to the Gold Coast Earthquake Fund, through The Times. Apparently the earthquake caused considerable damage and distress on the Gold Coast, although its reverberations were hardly noticed in the public press of North America, which had its attention focussed on big news nearer home.

x

August is the holiday month in England and is generally observed as such. The Times describes the rush to the great open spaces and the seashore during August with the railway companies making provision for 20,000,000 holiday-makers, more than half the total population of England, in addition to the annual number of monthly passengers, which meant 40,000 extra trains in August. Wars and rumors of war does not prevent the average Englishman from enjoying the annual holiday with his wife and kids.

Sinking of the British submarine Thetis, with considerable loss of life, some time ago, has an echo in the Times Weekly which reports the Thetis Disaster Fund as having passed the half million dollar mark. Current donations included five pounds, six shillings and four pence from the Mayor of Halifax.

The Right Hon. Sir Phillip Albert Gustave David Sassoon, P.C., G.B.E., C.M.G., of Park Lane, near Enfield, and Lymmee, Kent, who died on June 3, aged 50, left an estate of nearly four million dollars, gross. This and other estates are reported on by The Times Weekly with the principal bequests noted.

Altogether the London Times Weekly is a very interesting publication, especially to those who have lived in the British Isles during part of their lives.

OFF THE RECORD

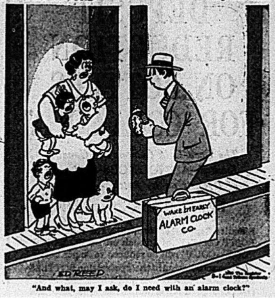
By Ed Reed



"And what, may I ask, do I need with an alarm clock?"

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

Sept. 14th, 1919.

Mr. Walter T. Alford returned to Hamilton today after spending a vacation of two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alford, Church Street.

Mr. John Elliott has returned home after spending a few days in Toronto and Hamilton.

The "World's Fair" at Shannonville was held yesterday and was a great success. Many persons from this city attended.

Messrs. H. F. Ketcheson and Fred D. Diamond of this city, and R. H. Spencer of Trenton left today for St. John's, N.B., where they will attend the Sovereign Grand Priory of Knights Templar, as representatives from King Baldwin Preceptory of this city.

Belleville Market Prices: Butter 63c to 65c per pound; eggs, 53c to 55c per dozen; chickens $2 to $3 per pair; potatoes 65 to 70c per peck; tomatoes $1 per bus.; apples 30c to 40c per peck.

30 YEARS AGO

Sept. 14th, 1909.

The fall millinery openings were held in the city today and were visited by many ladies.

Mr. P. J. M. Anderson, County Crown Attorney, was in Deseronto today on court business.

The Rev. J. C. Dixon of Roslin was in town today.

Mrs. G. H. Hinch has returned to the city after spending some time in the Old Country.

Belleville Market Prices: Butter 26c to 28c per pound; eggs, 21c to 23c per dozen; ducks, $1 to $1.50 per pair; chickens, $1 to $1.50 per pair; potatoes 75c per bag; tomatoes, 20c per peck; fall wheat, 90c per bushel; hay, $12 to $14; spring wheat, $1 per bushel; oats, 50c, old 60c per bushel; rye, 65c per bushel; peas 90c to 95c per bushel; dressed beef, fore, $4 to $4.50; dressed beef, hind, $5 to $5.50; spring lamb, 18c to 20c.

40 YEARS AGO

Sept. 14th, 1899.

The beautiful silver challenge cup presented by Mr. H. Corby, M.P., for competition among the gun clubs of this district, was competed for yesterday afternoon at Massassaga Park. Only two clubs competed, namely, the Quinte Gun Club of this city and the Wellman's Corners Gun Club. The Belleville team won by 15 shots. During the contest, Mr. Corby and some friends visited the park and a salute of 40 guns was fired in his honor. Following are the scores: Quinte Gun Club—George Leavens 7; George J. Johnson 9; W. H. H. Ponton 4; H. Day 10; C. Herring 10; R. Day 6; J Cochram 6; F. Roote 7; E. Turley 6; W. Andrews 11. Total 76. Wellman's Corners Gun Club—Bert Nix 9; B. Lott 5; George Anderson 7; A. Connor 9; Wilson Anderson 7; Thomas Woolton 6; George Mack 6; F. Anderson 6; Dr. Sargent 3; Wm. Sutherland 3. Total 61. Wm. Tugnet operated the traps in a satisfactory manner.

Mr. J. W. Boyce of this city is spending a short time in Boston, Mass.

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 14t, 1889.

The parade of the 15th Battalion last evening was most creditable. The silver and the fife and drum bands were in attendance. The former band gave several excellent selections during the time the men were drilling. An electric light has been placed on the lot and is much appreciated by the officers and men. A large crowd of spectators was present.

The Rev. Dr. Poole of Detroit, Mich., will preach in Holloway Street Methodist Church next Sunday.

Butter is selling at 22c to 25c per pound here and is scarce.

Mr. M. Robinson, Reeve of Huntingdon Township, and Warden of the County, was a visitor in town today.

Mr. James Wensley of Tickell and Co., is spending a few days in Ottawa.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor, Ontario-Intelligencer,
Belleville.

Dear Sir,—

We have heard lately, rumors of disaffection in certain parts of Germany, more especially in those parts on which propaganda pamphlets have been raining like manna from heaven.

Now, I don't aim to throw cold water on a bean fiesta, but there is no sense in deluding ourselves; these reports, if true, don't mean a thing.

In a country of ninety millions, there is bound to be some discontent, here and there. This in no way affects the issue, nor do we see any consequent slackening in Germany's Poland push.

When the Germans will have been at war for several years, when the constant advance of the allied troops will have proved to the people, their leader's imaginative fluency, after the German mothers have seen their children starve slowly to death, while the soldiers remain well-fed and prosperous, then, and then only, may we hope to witness a national upheaval, sweeping in nature, tremendous in its scope, before which the army and all it stands for in mental anguish and bodily suffering will fall and be utterly destroyed.

This is only by the way. My purpose, today, is to analyse parts of Marshal Goering's speech to these poor, cozened Germans, forced to accept his random utterings for want of anything more substantial in the way of reliable information to digest.

The first thing we notice in this memorable hot-air menu is Goering's tacit admission that raw materials are conspicuous by their absence in the Reich. "But," adds he, "you must admit that they exist in Russia." The following paragraph ought, logically, to deal with the means adopted by the government to acquire these much needed raw materials. It is significant that Herr Goering refrained from broaching this burning question, and illuminating that none of his hearers had the audacity to pin him down to an exact statement on this subject. The normal inference is that, not only is Russia plentifully supplied with raw materials, but that she proposes, as the song goes, to "keep on keeping them."

Then, with a fine burst of rhetorical eloquence, Hitler's worthy lieutenant sweeps on: "Will Russia and Germany," he says, "fight each other for the sake of England?" and "Will Rumania or Hungary cut their own throats to help England?"

These speculations which, to us well-informed citizens are of a purely academical interest, must necessarily appear of vital importance to people kept in ignorance of the truth.

These windy ramblings, besides, are mere trivialities compared to the wonderful peroration of the German Demosthenes:

"England," he states, "doesn't really want to fight us, and as for France, our Fuehrer has repeatedly advised her that he had no political aspirations in her direction. WE WON'T FIGHT THE FRENCH."

In the light of the latest news, telling us of the breaking of the Siegfried line, this seems to be a true tale, although I hazard the guess that Hitler will pretty soon reconsider his decision, and fight like all get out, not the French only, but several other people whom he may affect to despise at present, but who shall prove to be mighty hard nuts to crack.

To cap all Pantaloon exclaims grandiloquently: "When Germany draws the sword, that sword destroys."

And isn't it the truth? Is there anybody so wilfully short-sighted as to deny the care with which the great German army chooses its victims? Has any one ever heard a tale of such heroic prowess as, for instance, the march on Austria? Have we not yet ringing in our ears the cheers which accompanied the victorious German troops when at the peril of their lives they entered into Sudetenland? Are we not moved to grudging admiration as we witness their latest exploit and see them breast with unexampelled temerity, the Polish front where they are no more than fifteen to one? There are those, I dare say, who will tell you that the German storm-trooper isn't the absolute ideal perfection of mankind.

But there! The world is full of jealousy. Have we not in our own midst, men and women so lost to all sense of what is right and proper, as to cavil at the sinking without warning of passenger ships, at the ruthless murdering of defenceless women and children.

Ah! If we had only listened to Mister A. Hitler, how different everything would have been! And how benevolent were the demands and intentions of this misunderstood philanthropist.

All he asked of us was that we stand aside while he murdered our friends, shamed our women, exiled our sons, blasted and pillaged our fair cities, humiliated our government, and absorbed or destroyed our dearly beloved land.

And, in exchange for those trivial sacrifices on our part, the Fuehrer was even willing to give us his solemn undertaking that in the future he would curb his desires and only steal the properties of people living in the eastern part of Europe.

Ah! Well! It takes all kinds of people to make a world.

And then, just think! Not only have we had the ungenerosity to oppose his ambitions, but we are even now preparing a most bitter pill which we propose to offer for his private delectation.

For one may imagine Mr. Hitler's chagrin when, having at long last conquered the Polish porcupine, he will turn with every appearance of brotherly love towards France and England with proposals of peace, and receive in reply a "brutum fulmen" which, translated into ordinary English will spell the words: "Go take a jump in the lake."

Truly this Hitler is a man of many illusions. It will be our privilege and our pleasure to correct them, one at a time; to batter him down on his knees; to stamp him flat. Then, when we have him grovelling at our feet, like any whipped cur, to spurn his abject apologies, ignore him as a thing of no account, and send him ingloriously back to his paper-hanging.

How shall we accomplish all this?

The answer lies in five short words: WE WILL WIN THE WAR.

T. MEEUS.

ON TO BERLIN

One of the most cheerful items reaching the Tribune today was a publicity letter from Berlin inviting us to the Olympic ski contests at Garmisch-Partenkirchen next February. The cancellation mark on the envelope carried the slogan "Travel in Happy Germany."

We mean to, some day — to Berlin.—Winnipeg Tribune.

Ontario's Vanishing Sawmills

The other day the lumber mill owned by Wilson N. Blewett, at Bridgenorth, on Chemong Lake, about seven miles from Peterborough, Ont., was destroyd by fire. The flames are believed to have gotten their start in the boiler room. The result was the complete destruction of another one of those lumber factories that used to be so numerous in Ontario and once constituted units in an industry that employed thousands of men and were th ebackground for production of great wealth.

Eastern Canada was at one time one of the world's greatest lumber areas. Besides the great mills that sawed up the lumber taken out by major concerns operating thousands of square miles of forest, there were hundreds of smaller mills that catered to the requirements of localities, provided the lumber from which rural homes and barns were built and gave employment to a considerable number of men. These factories met a vital need in the comunity, but they have been disappearing rapidly, largely because the raw material which they utilised is steadily becoming scarcer. The older and more densely peopled areas of Ontario and Quebec have relatively few of these sawmills now. When one is destroyed by fire as in the case near Peterborough, it seldom is rebuilt, and there is an unemployment disaster to the little community where it gave jobs and circulated money.

The gradual disappearance of these small sawmills marks the decline of the Canadian forest areas. It is evident that a definite official policy to conserve the Canadian forests would have perpetuated the lumber industry that has played such a prominent role in our pioneer development. Reforestation, prevention and control of bush fires and better discrimination in the manufacture of lumber are today doing something to save what is left of our once incomparable timber resources, but a much greater success could have been achieved if there had been vigorous leadership of such thrift half a century ago.—Sarnia Observer.

Protecting Ontario's Wild Life

Hunting and fishing in Ontario has frequently reviewed, not the strictness but the sincerity of law enforcement in different Canadian provinces and the fair and vigorous enforcements of the statutes to protect wildlife in the populous Province of Ontario, for Ontario has demonstrated frequently that when its laws protecting wildlife are passed they must be interpreted literally.

A recent case is noteworthy in that it demonstrates the vigilance of Ontario's protective service and the sincerity of its law enforcement agencies even though the offence was one that might have been condoned by a department less conscious than that under the control of the Hon. H. C. Nixon.

On June 22, in the town of Hawkesbury, nine men were charged with fishing with nets and night lines contrary to law . . . They were fishing for sturgeon.

They appeared before the local magistrate and were fined $10 and costs, $15 or 10 days in jail . . . Three of these men were married and on relief, the other six were single and had been on relief but, at the time of their arrest, were off the relief rolls.

The sturgeon is not regarded as a game fish but netting and fishing with night lines are both illegal and while it is not a nice experience to go to jail, that, perhaps, is something these nine men should have thought of before they decided to disregard the laws of their province, for they went to jail.

At the end of five days the Hon. Minister saw it fit to extend them clemency and remit five days of their ten day sentence and all fair-minded sportsmen will agree that these unfortunates had undoubtedly learned their lesson well in those five days.

Ontario has proven on many occasions that all offenders, whether rich or poor, stand equal before the bar of justice when charged with an offence against the status protecting the wildlife of the province, and the fairness of this policy has given the sportsmen of that province some of the finest all around hunting and fishing in Canada.—From Hunting and Fishing in Canada.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Poisons in the System Cause Rheumatism —Arthritis

While rheumatism is about the oldest known disease, just what causes it is difficult to find in some cases. There is no question but that some poison in the system is causing the symptoms but just where the poison comes from must be discovered before relief can be obtained.

There appears to be swinging of the pendulum backward from thinking that all cases of rheumatism or arthritis are due to infected teeth and tonsils and to thinking that failure of the stomach, liver, gall bladder, and intestines to do their work properly, is the cause.

Dr. Robert S. Contrell, Englewood, N.J., in Medical Press and Circular says:

"The significant fact that nearly all arthritic and rheumatic patients have, or have had, stomach and intestinal or liver disturbances, should suggest that the source of rheumatic disease lies within the body and the infection of teeth and tonsils are due to these disturbances. One thing is certain: Dysfunction (disturbance) of the liver, spleen, gall bladder, and intestinal stasis (sluggishness of the bowel) will certainly help form poisons.

In one form of rheumatism—arthritis deformans— where the joints are enlarged and often twisted, disturbance of the liver was found in about three of every four cases, and the severity of the symptoms was in exact proportion to the degree of disturbance in the liver."

While many physicians will agree with Dr. Contrell that the failure of the liver to remove poisons is one cause of rheumatism, others believe the infection of teeth and tonsils created so much poison that the liver was unable to filter it out joints, caused the rheumatism or arthritis.

It can readily be proven that symptoms of arthritis were first made worse and then disappeared after removal of infected teeth and tonsils, and it can be just as readily proven that many individuals with badly infected teeth and tonsils never had an attack of rheumatism.

However, as physicians generally agree that toxins (poisons) cause rheumatism, the first thought is not only to remove the poisons but remove the factories (infected teeth, tonsils, gall bladder) manufacturing the poisons.

After this has been done, heat and other forms of treatment can be given.

LONDON'S MULBERRIES

The Master of the Girdlers' Company has sent the Lord Mayor a basket of mulberries picked from the tree growing in the garden of the company's hall in Basinghall street.

The tree is of some age, and was probably planted just after the Great Fire, when the hall was rebuilt. In the same garden, a small but beautifully laid-out piece of ground surronded by a high wall, are a fig tree and a grape vine. The fig tree is invariably prolific in foliage but seldom fruits. The grape vine occasionally does so.

The oldest mulberry tree in the City is in the garden of the Drapers' Company, and is at least 500 years old. It survived the fire in 1666, and was flourishing many years before that disastrous period in the city's history.—London Times.

FOUR BOYS CLAIM BICYCLE ENDURANCE RECORD

Shelbyville, Ind., Sept. 13 (AP)—Four Shelbyville boys claimed today a new bicycle endurance record of 1,135 hours. They finished at 8 o'clock last night a marathon which they estimated had taken them 11,400 miles. They had ridden one bicycle, in two-hour shifts, since July 27. All in their teens, they are George Larmore, Jim Vaubel, Herbert Lewis and Maurice Brokering.

SAVING SIGHT

Probably the man or woman does not live who would not, if he or she had the opportunity, restore the sight of a blind man or prevent a child from going blind.

The average person probably does not know of anyone who is in danger of going blind, but there are thousands of such people in Canada, and every person with sound sight can assist in preserving them from the fate which is already that of over ten thousand of their fellow-countrymen.

The sight of many of those whose eyes are growing dim, can be preserved. There are instances where the sight of blind people can be restored. Every citizen can assist. There is one way to do it and that is through The Canadian National Institute for the Blind which carries on a constantly progressing program for the prevention of blindness. There is no other organization in Canada definitely devoted to this essential work.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind provides a large variety of helpful services for blind people wherever they are situated, but one of the most important phases of its activities is that which deals with the conservation of sight. The extent to which it can make its program effective largely depends on the amount of financial support accorded to it by the public.

In Belleville on Saturday, Sept. 16, the citizens will have an opportunity to shoulder a portion of the financial load. The drive will be under the auspices of the Belleville branch. The Canadian National Institute for the Blind has no paid canvassers. It makes a direct appeal for financial assistance only once a year.

LET'S SEE OUR BANK ABOUT A
*Personal Loan

*A personal loan with your bank is often the answer to many a financial problem in the home. Call at any branch of The Royal Bank and talk things over with the manager. He welcomes enquiries from responsible men and women able to repay out of income and will explain the terms and conditions under which loans are made. Arrangements can be made to pay back by instalments if desirable.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA
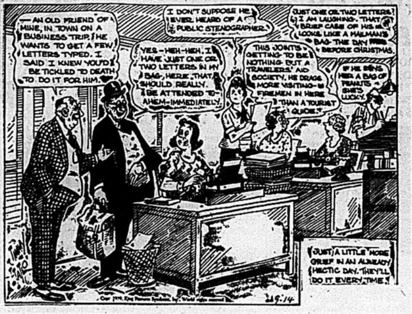
OVER 700 BRANCHES IN CANADA AND 30 OTHER COUNTRIES

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



—AN OLD FRIEND OF MINE, IN TOWN ON A BUSINESS TRIP. HE WANTS TO GET A FEW LETTERS TYPED. I SAID I KNEW YOU'D BE TICKLED TO DEATH TO DO IT FOR HIM.
I DON'T SUPPOSE HE EVER HEARD OF A PUBLIC STENOGRAPHER.
YES—HEH-HEH. I HAVE JUST ONE OR TWO LETTERS IN MY BAG, HERE, THAT SHOULD REALLY BE ATTENDED TO—AHEM—IMMEDIATELY.
THIS JOINT'S GETTING TO BE NOTHING BUT A TRAVELERS' AID SOCIETY. HE DRAGS MORE VISITING FIREMEN IN HERE THAN A TOURIST GUIDE.
JUST ONE OR TWO LETTERS! I AM LAUGHING. THAT BRIEF CASE OF HIS LOOKS LIKE A MAILMAN'S BAG THE DAY BEFORE CHRISTMAS.
IF HE BRINGS HER A BAG OF PEANUTS SHE'S LUCKY.
JUST A LITTLE MORE GRIEF IN AN ALREADY HECTIC DAY. THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME.
9.14

Queensboro

Queensboro — Miss Minnie Green returned to Peterboro on Monday after spending the holidays at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Groves and Mr. Percy Groves, Madoc, spent the holiday at their home.

Miss Hazel Thompson returned to Belleville on Monday after spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Thompson.

Mr. Melvin Loucks, Meaford, has returned to take charge of Moore's School.

Miss Betty Lynn returned to Bancroft on Sunday after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Will Lynn.

Miss Gilmer of Dunbarton has taken charge of Queensboro public school for the coming term and Miss O'Sullivan of Niagara, is teaching in Sager's School.

Miss Geneva Holmes, Remington has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Goldie Holmes.

THOMPSON— Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, in Madoc Township, a son.

Mrs. J. McClintock, Eldorado, spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Clayton McMurray.

Mrs. L. Bateman, Mr. E. Bateman and Miss Annie Bateman, Springbrook, were Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Rourke.

Mrs. Thos. Moorcroft and Miss Alma Moorcroft, Hazzards, called on Mrs. Sam Palmer on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Clark and family, Eldorado, spent Wednesday evening with Queensboro relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Groves motored to Ottawa on Friday.

Mrs. Ella Holmes spent Thursday with Cooper friends and attended the W.M.S. meeting held there in the afternoon.

Miss Flindal of Brighton, is teaching at the Cedar School.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sidenius of Hamilton, are spending some time with their daughter, Mrs. E. D. Snelgrove.

A Harvest Service was held in the Anglican Church on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Annie Laton, Tweed, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. A. Laton.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Flint, Mich. spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Delyea.

Mr. Harry Sager, Ottawa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leslie.

Miss Margaret Leslie left on Monday to attend Normal School at Peterboro.

A number from Queensboro attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Wyatt, Belleville, which was held at Cooper United Church on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. B. Brown, David and Louise have returned to Ottawa after spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. James Cassidy.

Mr. and Mrs. V. McMurray, Gilmour, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McMurray on Sunday.

Mr. Roy Rollins spent last week in Toronto

Point Anne

Point Anne — Mr. Ken. Haines of Toronto, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. J. Haines.

Mrs. Peter Green is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Bugman of Buffalo, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Large of Rochester, N.Y., and Mr. Alex Gaulin and Mr. and Mrs. Oudet and family of Detroit, Mich., were recent week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Genereaux.

Mrs. Andrew Bennett and sons visited her mother, Mrs. Bessie Hughes of Napanee, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gaulin and family spent the week end with Mr. Gaulin's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gaulin of Deseronto.

Mrs. W. Pile and Mrs. Ross Akey and Paula of Newburg, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Pile.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clapperton, Misses Marie and Kay Genereaux and Mssrs. Doughty and Kirkpatrick of Toronto, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Genereaux recently.

Mrs. Clifford Deforge and Teresa spent Sunday with Mrs. Fred Coran of Deseronto.

Miss Barbara MacDonald, Reg. N. of Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roach and daughter of Deseronto, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Felix Genereaux.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Akey and Milton and Mrs. Myles Lucas were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amab Akey on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Clayton Carter and Miss Lois and Mac, and Mr. and Mrs. MacElrath and Gwen motored to Ivy Lea on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shepherd and Miss Ethel and Chester motored to Gananoque and visited Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Waterbury on Sunday.

Picton

Picton— Mr. Alex. Lipson is among those who anxiously await word from the battlefront in Poland. He has a married sister living in one of the border towns of Poland, that has been under bombing.

Miss Donna Cooper spent the week-end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyatt, Lake Shore House, Sandbanks.

Mr. Nicky Sargeant is now taking aerial machine gun training at St. John, N.B.

A second severe wind and rain storm passed over this district on Sunday afternoon, but no serious damage was reported. The storm of a few days previous destroyed large acreages of tomatoes and the apples in several orchards, at Cressy. Mr. August Kaiser is said to have lost 800 bushels of tomatoes, and many trees of apples.

Mrs. Seymour Putman is a patient in Prince Edward County hospital.

Mrs. Brock Hudgin has returned from Quebec where he has spent several months.

Two 10c Cakes
CASHMERE BOUQUET
SOAP FREE

A Coupon will be delivered to your door Friday; save it and Phone 138.

WE'LL DELIVER IT.

DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST

3rd Thurlow

3rd. Thurlow — Mr. and Mrs. E. Hall spent a few days of the past week with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris, Sidney, spent the tea hour Wednesday at Mr. Harry Pound's.

The regular Missionary monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. Hall on Thursday, with a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K Hubble and boys, Mrs. Harleigh Hubble of Sidney, were Sunday guests at Mr. J. R. Pound's.

The gale which swept through this vicinity on Friday last did considerable damage to buildings, trees, Hydro and telephone poles.

Miss Jean Armstrong of Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Twiddy, Betty and Clare of Cannifton, spent the week-end in St. Catharines and Toronto with relatives.

Salem

Salem — Mrs. Clarence Hazer with little son Carl, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sam Sherman, Melrose, on Tuesday.

The regular W.M.S. meeting was held in the church on Wednesday with a good attendance.

Miss Bernice Robinson spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLaren of Campbellford.

A very severe storm of wind and hail swept through this district on Friday morning with the result that a great number of trees were uprooted, electric wires and poles and telephone wires were broken. But residents were very fortunate as no barns were burned and no one hurt as in other sections.

Phillipston

Phillipston — Mr. Earle Thompson hos returned to his home at Moira after visiting his cousin, Mr. W. Phillips and Mrs. Phillips for a few days.

Mrs. George Dickey spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. B. Foster of Moira.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clarke and Jack spent a week end recently in Toronto visiting relatives and attended the Exhibition.

Many on this line attended the Belleville Fair.

Mrs. Floyd White entertained eight little girls to a party in honor of her daughter Marion's 7th. birthday on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 31.

Mr. Bob Bibby of Barrie, spent last Sunday with his mother, Mrs. N. Bibby.

Quite a lot of damage was done to buildings and late crops on Friday morning when a terrific wind and hail storm passed over this community. The roof and end of Mr. J. P. Ketcheson's barn was blown completely off and his drive shed twisted; the roof of Mr. Arthur Casey's house and barn were damaged and Mr. Harry Phillip's summer kitchen was twisted and the roof taken off.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sayers and Mrs. P. Sayers spent the week-end in Toronto and attended the Ex.

Misses Mona and Beverley Miller returned to their home in Toronto on Friday after spending the past five weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Calnan and Mr. Graydon Calnan of Crofton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Pearsall.

Mr. James Holmes of Ottawa, spent a week-end recently with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ketcheson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Haley and family are spending a few days in Toronto this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Dickey of Corbyville, and Mrs. Floyd White spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker, Ronald and Shirley of Trenton, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Carter.

Mr. Clifford Hodgen of Latta and Misses Audrey, Shirley and Barbara Robson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Phillips.

Master John McAllister has returned to his home in Toronto after spending the summer holidays with his aunt, Mrs. Carl Clarke.

Wooler

Wooler—On Thursday evening there was a community shower held in the church parlors in honor of Miss Vera Coote and Mr. Donald Lawson of Toronto. Rev. W. Delve acted as chairman for the evening. Mrs. Delve gave a Scotch reading. After community singing and the chairman's remarks the saxaphone trio consisting of Edith, Roma and Karl Austin, entertained the audience with a few numbers. After this Vera and Donald were asked to unwrap their beautiful gifts. The Jasmine Club of which Vera has always been a faithful member presented her with a beautiful wool blanket. They both replied with fitting words.

Miss Bernice Walker, assistant teacher of the Wooler Continuation School, spent the week-end in Toronto.

Mr. Lawson, of Toronto, representing the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke in the United Church on Sunday. Miss Lina Jonson sang a solo.

Rev. and Mrs. W. Simpson, of Detroit, have returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McColl.

Mr. Clarence Cole and family returned home after motoring to Rochester, N.Y.

Mrs. Annie Plumpton is at her home after spending a few months with Mrs. J. McIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Scott are home after spending the summer at Weslemkoon Lake.

The W.M.S. will hold a public meeting in the church parlors on September 22 when Rev. and Mrs. Delve will give a talk on their work in the Peace River district. This will be an evening meeting.

Silo-filling has started around here.

Mss Ruth Orvis of Toronto, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Orvis and her brother.

Miss Ada Cummings and Mr. H. McCauley were married on Thursday. The wedding of Vera Coote and Donald Lawson, which took place in the United Church on Saturday afternoon was largely attended.

There was a shower on Thursday evening for Hugh Phillips and his bride at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McMaster of Trenton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Masters.

Kenneth Gunter attended the New York World's Fair.

Mrs. K. Flindal is visiting her mother in Detroit.

Mrs. Catharine Sharpe and Mrs. Emma Sharpe spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Gainforth.

---

SARNIA, Ont., Sept. 14—(CP)—An alarm was raised when it was found the Bible used for administering the oath of allegiance to recruits had been stolen. Another was purchased.

Good Supply Potatoes Assured, Dealers Say

Prices Will be Moderate if Buying is Restricted

Quality and quantity of shipments from New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, along with local weather conditions which have not been so favorable recently will prove a major factor in the price of winter potatoes in Belleville, it was stated by wholesalers of the city this morning.

As the actual potato harvest has not been completed in the district, no estimate has been given yet of the probable supply and quality of the product, it was stated. It was believed, however, that this year's crop will be a fairly heavy one, sufficient for normal district needs, and that the quality will be of a good average growth.

No immediate heavy rise in price of potatoes is forecast by local dealers, nor should there be any increase, it was pointed out. The seeds were planted when prices were low, and no further expense except that of care and digging has been or will be expended it was pointed out. Any decided increase in price of the vegetable would savor of 'profiteering', it was stated by one dealer.

"But, if people start stocking up on potatoes, buying bay after bag, when they don't really need to, then the price is bound to rise. This increase will naturally follow the law of supply and demand. However, there are plenty of potatoes in the country, and Canada, at least will not have to go hungry for them this winter. Local supplies will fill a large part of the district demanded, and then early in the Spring the eastern imports will fill out the demand."

It was recalled by the wholesaler that during the early part of the Great War prices for potatoes rose heavily because people would insist upon buying far above their normal requirements.

STOP HERE
WHEN YOU COME TO TORONTO—WHETHER FOR A BUSINESS TRIP, A SHOPPING TOUR OR A HOLIDAY WEEK END.
Convenient to downtown theatre and shopping district. Moderate rates for single and double rooms or suites. All rooms with private bath.
WESTMINSTER
fireproof HOTEL
240 JARVIS STREET - - TORONTO

RED & WHITE
features
BAKING Day!

WHITE EAGLE
FLOUR
Made from Canadian wheat — recognized for quality
24-lb. bag 59c

JUNKET
QUICK FUDGE pkg. 19c
Something entirely new for cake icing. Try a package.

SHIRRIFF'S NEW
LEMON PIE FILLING
Makes a Delicious Lemon Pie. Pkg. 15c

CLOVER LEAF
Red Sockeye
Salmon
No. ½ Can 21c

SPECIAL PIE
CHERRIES
Solid pack for these mouth-watering pies. 12-oz. tin
2 cans 25c

1 Bottle EXTRACT FREE
With purchase of one pound RED and WHITE
BAKING POWDER
Guaranteed to make better cakes or your money back — buy a pound today and get the flavouring free.
25c

RED & WHITE
PASTRY
FLOUR
24 lb. bag 64c
6 lb. bag 18c

OXYDOL
For Washing Clothes Whiter.
LARGE SIZE
24c

New Crop Seedless Raisins 2 lbs. 25c
QUARTERS
Shelled WALNUTS ½-lb. 19c
SHORTENING Supreme 1 lb. cartons 2 for 25c
COWAN'S COCOA ½-lb. tin 14c
Shredded Cocoanut ½-lb. 12c
Pumpkin Pie Spice Just the right flavour. Tin 10c
SERVE PORRIDGE THESE COOL MORNINGS
Quick Quaker Oats Large Package 21c

CHERRY
JELLIES
½-lb. pkg 15c
Cherry Jelly cake receipt on every package

2 in 1
SHOE POLISH
Black or brown
12c tin

SILVER
GLOSS STARCH
12c pkg.

QUALITY ALWAYS HIGHER THAN PRICE

DOUBLE 12 FL. OZS. DRINK
WEBB'S
Stubby
REGISTERED
BEVERAGES
ASK FOR STUBBY

Enjoy this new LIME
KOLA
tang!
5c
DOUBLE DRINK
OTHER STUBBY BEVERAGES·ORANGE·LEM'N LIME·GRAPEFRUIT & GINGER BEER
FOY & IRWIN
BOTTLERS
Phone 142 354 Pinnacle Street

WOODLEY • FURS

HAVE REPAIRS
RELINING
RESTYLING
POLARIZING
DONE NOW!

Get Our Estimate

273 FRONT ST.

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townsend announce the engagement of their only daughter, Mabel Ruth, to Matthew W. Dickinson, son of Mrs. Dickinson and the late J. Dickinson of Newcastle, Eng. The wedding will take place in Saint John, N.B. early in October.

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

The engagement is announced of Gertrude Mabel, only daughter of Mrs. Holgate and the late Bidwell A. Holgate to Mr. John A. Graham eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Graham, Red Deer, Alberta. The wedding to take place quietly September 23rd., at Stirling.

Miss Margaret Houston left on Tuesday to resume her studies at Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby.

Miss Doris Hogle, Reg.N., left Wednesday to spend two weeks in New York City visiting friends.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, September 15

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

MODERATELY - favorable conditions are shown by an interesting array of planetary directions. These should stimulate employment, business, writings, publicity and all manner of home, educational or cultural activities. There are hints of intrigues of a pleasant nature, and certain rather fascinating undertones in connection with intimate relations demand prudent, circumspect restraints.

Those whose birthday it is may be assured of a fairly progressive and fortunate year, with some surprising developments. The latter mainly affect the private affiliations, in which some glamorous or alluring intrigue may call for much discretion and restraint if pitfalls and regrets are to be averted.

A child born on this day may be active, efficient and fairly ambitious. Its talents and inclinations lie in the direction of art, music, literature or acting, although it may be largely devoted to romantic indulgences or the pursuit of pleasure.

Sale

COMMUNITY PLATE 40% OFF OPEN STOCK PRICE ALL PATTERNS

Including "FOREVER" The Brand New Pattern

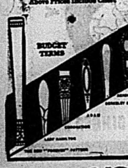
Sept. 15th to 30th Only

50 PIECES SALE PRICE $39.75
SERVICE FOR 8
OPEN STOCK PRICE $67.25

39 PIECES . . . SALE PRICE $29.75
SERVICE FOR 6
OPEN STOCK PRICE [illegible]

62 PIECES . . . SALE PRICE $49.75
SERVICE FOR 12
OPEN STOCK PRICE [illegible]

Above Prices Include Chest



Angus McFee JEWELERS Since 1840

Young Man Wants Wife Who Can Bake Well!

"GOOD LOOKS ARE NOT ESSENTIAL" HE SAID

APPARENTLY, the way to a man's heart is still through his stomach. Mrs. E. E. Riesberry, Rapid City, Manitoba, whose photograph is shown at the right, overheard a young man, who was a guest in her home, say, "If I knew a girl who could bake as good pie as Mrs. Riesberry, she would suit me even if she wasn't pretty."

I thought that there must be hundreds of young men thinking along the same lines, and hundreds of Canadian girls who might like a tip or two on how to bake appetizing bread, cakes and pastry. So I asked Mrs. Riesberry to give me her advice.

"Never Skimp on Quality"

Mrs. Riesberry said, "When baking bread, cakes or pastry, the quality of the flour should be your first consideration. I never skimp on quality and that's why I have long been using Robin Hood Flour. This flour is all I could desire for bread and fancy baking. It even makes wonderful Angel Cake. I've won prizes with mine."

Mrs. Riesberry also said that she had proved positively that Robin Hood Flour was more economical. "And, when you can get both quality and economy in the one flour, that's the flour every woman wants!" she added.

Better Baking

Whether you are a young girl learning to bake or an experienced woman like Mrs. Riesberry, Robin Hood should be your flour if you want better-than-usual baking. Ask for Robin Hood next time you order and you'll always be glad you switched to the flour that is milled from washed wheat.

Sincerely, Evangeline

HOME BAKING SERVICE
ROBIN HOOD FLOUR MILLS LIMITED

Robin Hood Flour
Milled from Washed Wheat

WEEP FOR LOVE

by RUBY M. AYRES

"Yes, and bits about your voice. It must be wonderful to have a lovely voice, 'Nelope."

Penelope laughed shortly.

"It's something," she admitted.

"An dabout your being engaged," Elizabeth said. "I saw that, too, and I'm so glad. When are you to be married? Will it be soon?"

Penelope suddenly dropped the little powder-puff she was using and stooped to recover it, so that it was a moment before she answered off-handedly:

"That's all finished. I'm not engaged now. It was finished—some time ago."

Elizabeth gave a little cry of distress.

"Oh, I'm so sorry."

"You needn't be," the elder girl answered. "Being engaged is a very overrated excitement, I assure you. Anyway, it's finished."

"Then, didn't you like him?" Elizabeth asked hesitatingly, and a kind of despair arose in her heart to think that there was yet another finished romance—a fresh cause for weeping because another love had died.

Penelope was still standing by the dressing-table staring in the mirror, but Elizabeth felt that she was not really looking at herself, not really looking at anything. Suddenly she said as if the words were forced from her against her will:

"Yes, I liked him. It was he who got tired of me. Men are all the same. If they know that you care too much, they get indifferent and don't want you. Don't ever fall in love, Elizabeth! It's unlucky in our family to fall in love—only somehow" — her voice faltered. "I thought Kim was different from other men."

"Kim!" Elizabeth said sharply.

"Yes." Penelope put the powder-puff away and snapped the little gold case shut. "Kim Lawless, his name was. You'll hear it from someone else, if I don't tell you." She laughed mirthlessly. "He wrote to me—quite a gentlemanly letter." The words were a bitter sneer. "Asked me to forgive him, but he found he couldn't marry me, after all. Told me I could say that I'd jilted him. I did, of course, but I don't suppose people believed me." She drew a long breath. "Well, that's that!" She met Elizabeth's eye defiantly. "Don't ever fall in love," she said again. "It won't last if you do, and you'll only be hurt—more than I was. We're an unlucky family where marriage is concerned. I suppose everybody is unlucky in something. There! Now you'd better come downstairs and tell Ruff the glad news. What's the matter?" she asked as Elizabeth did not move.

Elizabeth gave herself a little shake.

"There's nothing the matter," she said very quietly. "Nothing."

It was very late that night when Elizabeth at last went to her own room.

For hours and hours, ever since the big car had driven away, she and her mother had talked and argued—had been angry and almost cruel to each other, for Stella had wanted her to go, to accept the terms of Derek Challoner's will and to leave her behind.

"My life is finished," she said. "I'm no use to you or to anyone now. For your own sake, I want you to go, Betty. I've had my life and yours is still to come. I've had my happiness and it has gone, but if anything can make me—less unhappy—it will be to know that you've got plenty of money and everything you would have had if it hadn't been for me."

It seemed to Elizabeth that they talked round and round in circles till her head ached and she could not control her thoughts, or think of anything to say which would make her mother understand that she did not want to go—that she did not mean to go—that she would stay where she was, with the only soul in the world whom she had to love. It was in vain that she pleaded.

"If you're, unhappy, you'll be more unhappy without me. How could I bear to think of you living alone? What would Pip say? Besides, it's a horrible will, and I hate him for ever making it. Oh, Mummie, if only you'll try not to be so unhappy, there's still a lot of fun we can have together. I'll never leave you—never. I don't want any more money than we've got. Why can't you believe me?"

But Stella had pushed away her clinging arms.

"You don't understand," she said. "It's the chance of a life-time for you, and what does it matter about me? If you love me, Betty, you'll do as I ask you."

Elizabeth looked at her with frozen eyes, faltering, at last: "Why are you so different? You never used to be like this! You loved me, before Pip came and you've still got me."

But it was like beating one's hands against a stone wall, trying with human tears to thaw a glacier centuries old.

"We can't go on arguing for ever, Betty darling. We'll go to bed and tomorrow it will be different."

"Tomorrow it will be just the same," Elizabeth answered, but for the first time in her life it was she who saw mother to bed and patted the pillow into a comfortable little hollow and sat for a time beside her holding her hand.

"Do you think you will sleep, Mummie?" she asked when presently she saw her mother's eyes close.

Stella smiled and looked at her.

"I'm sure I shall," she answered. And then, suddenly, she drew the girl down into her arms, and held her closely.

"It's such a funny world," she said, "the sort of place where you can't help losing your way."

The clock struck twelve when Elizabeth at last went to her own room. She was so tired that she left her clothes in a little forlorn heap on the floor and almost fell into bed.

INSTALMENT 5

Such a funny world! Funny, because people seemed to find amusement in wilfully hurting one another instead of being kind and tender. And then suddenly Elizabeth started up, remembering that she had forgotten to put the primroses in water.

There they were, faded and pathetic, lying on the dressing-table where she had laid them down when Penelope came.

She filled a little glass with water, into which she carefully put them, remembering the laugh in Kim Lawless's voice when he had said, "It seems a pity to leave them to die, doesn't it?" remembering, too, how she had hoped to see him again—some day.

What did it matter after all? Everything had to die—flowers and trees and people—and love; so what did it matter?

Elizabeth turned out the light and went back to bed.

An odd world, a place in which it was so easy to lose one's way, like wandering in a wood, quite alone until a voice suddenly calls to you through the silence:

"Hi, you! You're trespassing!" And Elizabeth knew it was what she had done, even if only in her thoughts—trespassed quite innocently on the property that had once been Penelope's.

For that afternoon in the woods it had been as if the door of some secret chamber in her untried heart had opened—just a little way to reveal something of its treasures, and now she had been forced to close it again—against a dream which could never be a reality.

"Don't you ever fall in love— it won't last and you'll only be hurt."

It was with Penelope's bitter words ringing in her ears that Elizabeth at last fell asleep, but it was to a very different and more urgent voice that she awoke to find it was broad daylight and that the woman who came in to "do", as she expressed it, was standing beside her bed with a white, scared face.

"Miss Elizabeth! Miss Elizabeth! It's your mother! I can't wake her. She doesn't answer when I speak and I can't wake her!"

Elizabeth was still half asleep as she leaped out of bed and ran across the landing to her mother's room.

The sun was shining through the window, and she could see Stella lying with her face turned away as she had seen her a hundred times before, and yet she knew quite well that the room was empty, and that somewhere far away her mother and Pip were holding hands again, and laughing happily into each other's eyes.

x x x

It was intensely hot. Elizabeth had opened both her windows wide to catch what little air there was to be had, and yet the room seemed breathless.

She slipped on her frock and stood for a moment in front of the long mirror, thinking what an effort it was to have to dress and go out when she would so much rather have taken a book and lain down on the bed until the heat of the day was over.

Elizabeth quite liked Aunt Thornley, who was really Penelope's aunt, for during the past three months since her mother's death, she had been exceedingly kind and had done her best to make her happy.

She was very rich, too, like all Penelope's relations on her mother's side, and the house in St. John's wood where she lived was the last word in luxury and comfort.

"This is your home, Elizabeth," she had told the girl, "and although you are not really my niece, it will make no difference. I shall do my utmost to make you happy."

Miss Thornley was a tall, masterful woman with a keen sense of duty towards the two girls of whom she was secretly rather proud.

"I want you to know everybody", she told them. "One cannot have too many friends."

It was beginning of August now, but although the usual exodus from London had begun there were a number of Miss Thornley's acquaintances who were still entertaining and, as Penelope put it, "Wearing out their party frocks for the fag end of the season."

Penelope had a way of saying rather ironical things. "Life's such a pretence, and a sham," she declared. "And people hate the truth."

"Don't take too much notice of her," Miss Thornley counselled Elizabeth had asked also to be allowed to refuse, Miss Thornley had objected.

KIDDIES' NEW FALL FELT HATS.

Pert bonnets or brims with ribbon trimmings; in a wide range of colors and head sizes.

Priced: 1.29 to 1.95

WOODLEY'S
273 FRONT STREET

"It's good for you to go," she said. "You like the Selbys, and they always do things well. This is quite a friendly affair as you know, in their own home, so I think you will enjoy it."

"If only it wasn't so hot!" Elizabeth thought again as she slipped into the coolest frock she had, a flimsy affair of white chiffon.

She had a wardrobe full of clothes now which were looked after by Miss Thornley's own maid. A few weeks after Elizabeth's mother died there had been what Penelope had sarcastically called an "orgy" of shopping, during which it had seemed to Elizabeth that she had bought enough clothes to last a lifetime.

"What's money for if you don't spend it?" Penelope said, when Elizabeth protested. "If you save it, someone else will only blow it away."

Downstairs in the drawing-room Penelope was singing. She had a grand piano which was her exclusive property, and of which she never seemed to weary, and sometimes she would get up very early in the morning to spend an hour practising scales and running over particularly difficult passages with which the professor who was training her voice had expressed dissatisfaction.

Penelope had a lovely voice, clear as the song of a bird, and once when Elizabeth had ventured to ask, "Don't you ever get tired?" she answered: "Tired? Why should I? It's all I've got to live for."

And then Elizabeth knew she was thinking of Kim Lawless.

Elizabeth had never heard Kim's name mentioned in the house, for Miss Thornley believed that least said is soonest mended, and that it is no use raking up a past which cannot be altered.

But sometimes Penelope's voice sounded unutterably sad, as it did tonight, and Elizabeth paused for a moment in her dressing to listen.

She had heard the song before, but it always made her feel as if she was shrinking away from an ungentle touch on something that hurt.

"Long since I wounded him I loved the best,
And all that night my pillows knew no rest;
And in the morning I arose, and lo!
The wound I gave him showed on my own breast!
Ah, then I knew how terrible the blow.
"Within a dream one night I spoke to thee,
'What is this road of thorns and misery
That stretches from my dwelling to thy door?'
And thou, 'The road that leads thee back to me'
Yet will I walk it steadfastly, oh, friend,
What though my feet be bleeding and most sore,
So thou shalt bind them for me in the end.
"Beloved, are the tears I shed for thee
Less than white roses thrown for Majesty—
To trample on with cruel, careless feet?
Nay, pass not unregarding. Pause and see,
Grown with such pain they surely must be sweet."

It was not often that Penelope sang such songs. As a rule, she chose opera or something more classical—especially when the professor was present—which Elizabeth did not like so well, but sometimes, as tonight, when she was alone and perhaps feeling rather sad, it was very different.

Suddenly the music stopped and Elizabeth gave herself a little shake and went on with her dressing.

There was a string of pearls which had been her mother's but which she had left behind when she went away with Pip, and Derek Challoner had bequeathed them to Elizabeth.

She seldom wore them, but tonight she took them from the drawer where they were carefully put away in a case lined with white velvet, and clasped them round her throat.

Her mother must have looked beautiful in them, she thought, and for a moment her eyes were blurred with tears, but she had learned to control her grief, realizing that neither Miss Thornley nor Penelope, kind as they were, would be able to understand or to sympathize.

Someone rapped on the door.

"Can I come in?" It was Penelope.

(To Be Continued)

CREAMED MACARONI WITH SHRIMPS OR LOBSTER

2 cups cooked macaroni or 1 cup uncooked.
2 tablespoonful butter
3 tablespoonful flour
1 1-2 cup milk
1-2 tin shrimps or lobster
Salt and pepper.

Make a sauce of butter, flour and milk, add the shrimps or lobster (broken in pieces) and the cooked macaroni and season. Serves 5 people. Takes 20 minutes.

Little Benny's Note Book

I was eating luntch and ma put a letter in front of me saying, I want you to mail that as soon as you've finished, it's important, so dont leave it out of your hands.

Wich I didn't, only it left itself out just as I was going to put it in the letter box, landing right in a muddy place on its address, and I thought, Gosh, ma wouldn't want me to mail that to anybody.

Wich I didn't and after supper I suddenly remembered it again, saying, Hay ma, here's that letter you wanted mailed.

Well that's a fine proclamation I must say of all things, ma said, and I said, Well wait till you see it, ma, I dropped it, I mean it dropped, and I knew you wouldn't want anybody to get a letter from you looking like that and have them lower their opinion of you.

And I took it out of my pocket to prove it and ma said, O for land sakes what a site, well naturelly you couldn't mail an object like that in your right senses, but was that any reason you couldn't bring it right back so I could put it in a clean envelope?

Well G, ma, I started to, only Mrs. Pifferd stopped her car going passed and called to me, and made me forget it again, I said. Mrs. Pifferd said she was just going to stop at the house and ask you something, so she told me instead. She said her and Mr. Pifferd would come to see you and pop tonight if you were going to be home, and she said not to bother calling her up if you were going out, so she said if she didn't hear from you by 6 o'clock they'd make it some other time, I said, and pop said, The Pefferds, what boars, what a lucky excape.

Now Willyum that's not the principle, you should speak seriously to this boy, ma said.

Wich pop did, telling me not to do it again.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 14—(CP)—More than 25 Red Cross Society units for war work will be started in Essex County before the end of this week, officials announce.

DUBLIN, Sept. 14—(CP)— The government tonight announced that gasoline would be rationed throughout Eire effective Saturday.

IMPORTANT!
medical tests reveal how thousands of WOMEN HAVE BEEN ABLE TO GET NEW ENERGY

If you feel tired out, limp, listless, moody, depressed—if your nerves are constantly on edge and you're losing your boy friends to more attractive, peppy women—SNAP OUT OF IT! No man likes a dull, tired, cross woman—

All you may need is a good reliable tonic. If so, just try famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made especially for women. Let it stimulate gastric juices to help digest and assimilate more wholesome food which your body uses directly for energy to help build up more physical resistance and thus help calm jittery nerves, lessen female functional distress and give you joyful bubbling energy that is reflected thruout your whole being.

Over 1,000,000 women have reported marvelous benefits from Pinkham's Compound. Results should delight you! Telephone your druggist right now for a bottle.

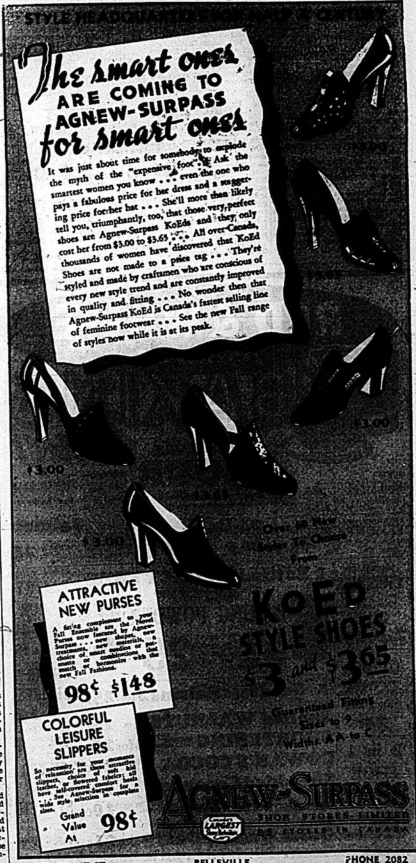
WELL WORTH TRYING.

Here's a wife who's kept Romance

Her skin
LOVE TEST

Foolish to risk Cosmetic Skin: the dullness, tiny blemishes, enlarged pores that spoil good looks! Use cosmetics all you wish, but use Lux Toilet Soap's ACTIVE lather to remove dust, dirt, stale cosmetics thoroughly.'

9 out of 10 Screen Stars use Lux Toilet Soap



STYLE HEADQUARTERS

The smart ones ARE COMING TO AGNEW-SURPASS for smart ones

It was just about time for somebody to explode the myth of the "expensive foot". Ask the smartest women you know . . . even the one who pays a fabulous price for her dress and a staggering price for her hat . . . She'll more than likely tell you, triumphantly, too, that those very perfect shoes are Agnew-Surpass KoEds and they only cost her from $3.00 to $3.65 . . . All over Canada, thousands of women have discovered that KoEd Shoes are not made to a price tag . . . They're styled and made by craftsmen who are conscious of every new style trend and are constantly improved in quality and fitting . . . No wonder then that Agnew-Surpass KoEd is Canada's fastest selling line of feminine footwear . . . See the new Fall range of styles now while it is at its peak.

ATTRACTIVE NEW PURSES
98¢ $1.48

COLORFUL LEISURE SLIPPERS
Grand Value At 98¢

Over 30 New Styles To Choose From

KoEd STYLE SHOES $3 and $3.65

Guaranteed Fitting
Sizes to 9
Widths AA to C

AGNEW-SURPASS SHOE STORES LIMITED

252 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE PHONE 2082

MERCHANDISE RELEASE SALE

$50,000 Worth of New Seasonable Merchandise Offered at Prices Which Mean Large Savings For You! Buy Now! Before Prices Advance! Visit The Store Daily! Act Quickly!

NOTE: Prices no doubt will advance—We are prepared by having a large stock on hand and which will be sold at the same prices as at present until our stocks are depleted, in other words our prices will not increase until we are forced to buy merchandise at the advanced price—We suggest you buy now and take advantage of this great sale at special low prices.

Sale of Men's Fine Worsted SUITS

"S. B. AND D.B. MODELS"

Never in our history have we offered such an amazing value—Fine worsted suits for men and young men—expert tailoring and workmanship—Single and double breasted models in greys, blues and browns— Neat patterns—Neatly lined — Buy now and save.

14.95

Extra Pants $3.50

Fall Weight Underwear

Penman's 71 Combs

"Penman's "71" combinations, long sleeves, long legs—sizes 34-44—The popular garment for this time of year. Suit .................. 1.79

Penman's 71 Shirts—Drawers

"Penman's "71" Shirts and Drawers. Sizes 34-44. Reasonably priced at garment ............... 89c

Balbriggan Combs

Men's fine quality balbriggan combinations, button style — short sleeves— long legs — all sizes. Priced at Suit ................... 79c

Men's Cream Rib Combinations

Men's Cream Rib Combinations in either athletic or button style, Short or long sleeves with long legs. All sizes. Suit .... 89c and $1.00

BOYS' TWEED

SHORTS 98c

Boys' all wool tweed shorts, with elastic back, grey and brown shades, also blue cheviot. Sizes 24 - 32.

Boys' Longs

NEW DESIGNS

$1.98

Boys' longs. In the lot are all wool tweeds and cotton materials, all with cuffs, five pockets, belt loops—blue, brown, grey and green shades. Sizes to 36.

Boys' Longs

AT ONLY

$1.49

Boys' cotton tweed longs—an ideal pant for everyday wear. Sizes to 36—cuffs, pockets, belt loops. Checked designs.

Men's New FALL HATS

See our assortment of men's hats— Snappy styles for fall and winter. Leather sweat band, silk lining—Silver tones included. All Sizes. Each

1.49 to 1.95

BOYS' COTTON

Sweaters 39c

Boys' cotton pullover sweaters with long sleeves, zipper at neck. sizes 24-32, fancy stripes in assorted colors.

BRUSHED WOOL

Sweaters $1.49

Boys' fine brushed wool pullover sweaters, zipper at neck, assorted colors. All sizes.

Boys' All Wool Zipper Neck

Sweaters 98c

Boys' all wool pullover sweaters, long sleeves, zipper style at neck. Colors of wine, blue, maroon, all sizes.

Work Clothes at Prices That Will Save You Money

Overalls AND Smocks

$1.49

GARMENT

Men's 8 oz. red back denim bib overalls and smocks, full cut. double stitched throughout. Sizes 36 to 44. Specially priced.

1 and 5 Finger

Work Gloves

Men's horsehide 1 and 5 finger, gauntlet style work gloves. Some with strap thumb. Good size. Pair ............... 75c

COTTON

Gloves

Men's grey and brown cotton jersey gloves, fleece lining. Special pair .... 15c

Work Shirts

Men's good quality chambray workshirts, button or zipper style. Sizes 14-17. colors light blue and navy.
Button style.. 59c. Zipper .. 79c

Work Shirts

Fall weight shirts of serviceable covert cloth in assorted colors. Sizes to 17. Full cut and double stitched.
Button style 79c. Zipper .. 98c

Work Shirts

Sale of Domet workshirts. Sizes to 18. Fall and winter weight, full size and moderately priced at each .. 79c

Sale of Men's Fall TOP COATS

$9.95 to $14.95

Sale of men's fall top coats, popular styles in grey and brown shades. Sizes up to 44 in the lot. Regular value up to 16.95. All specially priced. Be early!

Men's Cottonade Work Trousers

$1.25 Pair

Special purchase of men's strong, serviceable cottonade work pants. Sizes 30-42. Dark stripe pattern, have cuffs, belt loops and pockets. Buy and Save!

Leather Trim Moleskin Trousers at pair ................................ 1.95

Overalls

Boys' 'Winchester' bib overalls made of red back denim. Sizes 22-34. Wear Splendidly. Pair ................ 79c

BOYS' 'BIG B'

Overalls

Just like dad's—Boys' "Big B" bib overalls — slant pockets — watch pocket, full size throughout, pair 1.00

WOOL

Work Sox

Men's all wool work sox, white heels and toes. 25c value. Priced at pair..... 19c

Work Boots

Men's work boots with full grain uppers, panco soles and heels, all sizes. 2.69 value, Reduced to, pair ................. 2.19

FEATURES IN THE WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENTS

Lavishly Fur Trimmed COATS

$12.95 to $21.50

Buy your new coat now, you'll find the selection large and varied. Smart styles in popular colors—and all lavishly trimmed with fur—lined and interlined. See the assortment before you buy They're all priced to save you money.

Smartness in Millinery

$1.49 to $1.95

And for a smart new hat, see our wonderful selection —every style you can think of — Good colors and all headsizes. You'll find the hat that suits you best.

Sale of Pullover Sweaters — Sweater Coats

Women's

Pullovers

Women's fine all wool pullover sweaters, fine knit or rib knit in popular colors. Some button down front. Sizes 34 to 40.

1.69—1.95

Women's Cardigan

COATS

"Zimmerknit" fine all wool cardigan coats in sizes up to 44. Colors navy, black, etc. Regular 2.19.

$1.95

Children's

Sweaters

Children's all wool pullover sweaters, long sleeves, fancy trim. 2 to 6 year sizes.

98c

Girls'

Pullovers

Girls' fine wool pullovers, long sleeves, smart styles, lovely trim. Sizes to 34.

$1.49

Children's

Dresses 59c

Sale of children's cotton plaid dresses, some jumper styles, assorted colors. 2-6 year sizes.

Girls'

Dresses 98c

Outstanding value in girl's dresses—in the lot are brightly patterned prints—fancy plaids. Sizes 7 to 14 years. Short and long sleeves.

Boys'

SUITS 98c

Boys' doeskin suits, long sleeves—shorts and blouse to match—cord and whistle trim. 2 to 6 year sizes.

Girls'

SKIRTS 98c

Girls' plaid skirts with white top, sizes 7 to 10, assorted plaid colors.

Misses

SHOES $1.29

Sale of patent or calf oxfords, good styles, sizes 11 to 2, long wearing soles.

Lipson's

Smart All Wool Plaid Jackets

Misses' smart all wool Jackets, in fancy plaids in assorted colors. Sizes 14 to 20. Each .......... 2.95

Delightful New FROCKS

New Styles

New Trimmings

Sizes 14-52

$2.95 to $5.95

You'll thrill at the amazing value offered in dresses — You'll find a large and varied selection from which to choose—few plaids included. You'll find smart up to the minute styles in all the popular colors for fall and winter.

ANDISE RELEASE SALE

h of New Seasonable Merchandise Offered at Mean Large Savings For You! Buy Now! Advance! Visit The Store Daily! Act Quickly!

NOTE: Prices no doubt will advance—We are prepared by having a large stock on hand and which will be sold at the same prices as at present until our stocks are depleted, in other words our prices will not increase until we are forced to buy merchandise at the advanced price—We suggest you buy now and take advantage of this great sale at special low prices.

Worsted
ITS

AND D.B. MODELS" nave zing suits

n—ork-uble
reys,
Neat
—

14.95

Extra Pants

$3.50

nderwear

71 ers
and eason-
9c

Balbriggan Combs

Men's fine quality balbriggan combinations, button style — short sleeves— long legs — all sizes. Priced at Suit ................ 79c

ombinations

89c and $1.00

gs
8 are all mater-ockets,
ey and

Boys' Longs

AT ONLY

$1.49

Boys' cotton tweed longs—an ideal pant for everyday wear. Sizes to 36—cuffs, pockets, belt loops. Checked designs.

Men's New ## FALL HATS

See our assortment of men's hats— Snappy styles for fall and winter. Leather sweat band, silk lining—Silver tones included. All Sizes. Each

1.49 to 1.95

BOYS' COTTON
Sweaters
39c

Boys' cotton pullover sweaters with long sleeves, zipper at neck. sizes 24-32, fancy stripes in assorted colors.

BRUSHED WOOL
Sweaters
$1.49

Boys' fine brushed wool pullover sweaters, zipper at neck, assorted colors. All sizes.

Boys' All Wool Zipper Neck
Sweaters
98c

Boys' all wool pullover sweaters, long sleeves, zipper style at neck. Colors of wine, blue, maroon, all sizes.

Work Clothes at Prices That Will Save You Money

Overalls AND Smocks

$1.49

GARMENT

Men's 8 oz. red back denim bib overalls and smocks, full cut. double stitched throughout. Sizes 36 to 44. Specially priced.

1 and 5 Finger
Work Gloves

Men's horsehide 1 and 5 finger, gauntlet style work gloves. Some with strap thumb. Good size. Pair ................ 75c

COTTON
Gloves

Men's grey and brown cotton jersey gloves, fleece lining. Special pair .... 15c

Work Shirts

Men's good quality chambray workshirts, button or zipper style. Sizes 14-17. colors light blue and navy.
Button style.. 59c. Zipper .. 79c

Work Shirts

Fall weight shirts of serviceable covert cloth in assorted colors. Sizes to 17. Full cut and double stitched.
Button style 79c. Zipper .. 98c

Work Shirts

Sale of Domet workshirts. Sizes to 18. Fall and winter weight, full size and moderately priced at each .. 79c

Sale of Men's Fall TOP COATS

$9.95 to $14.95

Sale of men's fall top coats, popular styles in grey and brown shades. Sizes up to 44 in the lot. Regular value up to 16.95. All specially priced. Be early!

Men's Cottonade Work Trousers

$1.25 Pair

Special purchase of men's strong, serviceable cottonade work pants. Sizes 30-42. Dark stripe pattern, have cuffs, belt loops and pockets. Buy and Save!

Leather Trim Moleskin Trousers at pair ................................ 1.95

Overalls

Boys' 'Winchester' bib overalls made of red back denim. Sizes 22-34. Wear Splendidly. Pair ................ 79c

BOYS' 'BIG B'
Overalls

Just like dad's—Boys' "Big B" bib overalls — slant pockets — watch pocket, full size throughout, pair 1.00

WOOL
Work Sox

Men's all wool work sox, white heels and toes. 25c value. Priced at pair..... 19c

Work Boots

Men's work boots with full grain uppers, panco soles and heels, all sizes. 2.69 value, Reduced to, pair ................ 2.19

THE WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENTS

ed
rs
5 0
now, n large tyles in lavish-
—lined assort-
They're money.
ery
to
s hat, see
—every
— Good
. You'll
ou best.

Sale of Pullover Sweaters — Sweater Coats

Women's
Pullovers

Women's fine all wool pullover sweaters, fine knit or rib knit in popular colors. Some button down front. Sizes 34 to 40.

1.69—1.95

Women's Cardigan
COATS

"Zimmerknit" fine all wool cardigan coats in sizes up to 44. Colors navy, black, etc. Regular 2.19.

$1.95

Children's
Sweaters

Children's all wool pullover sweaters, long sleeves, fancy trim. 2 to 6 year sizes.

98c

Girls'
Pullovers

Girls' fine wool pullovers, long sleeves, smart styles, lovely trim. Sizes to 34.

$1.49

Children's ### Dresses
59c

Sale of children's cotton plaid dresses, some jumper styles, assorted colors. 2-6 year sizes.

Girls'
Dresses
98c

Outstanding value in girl's dresses—in the lot are brightly patterned prints—fancy plaids. Sizes 7 to 14 years. Short and long sleeves.

Boys'
SUITS
98c

Boys' doeskin suits, long sleeves—shorts and blouse to match—cord and whistle trim. 2 to 6 year sizes.

Girls'
SKIRTS
98c

Girls' plaid skirts with white top, sizes 7 to 10, assorted plaid colors.

Misses
SHOES
$1.29

Sale of patent or calf oxfords, good styles, sizes 11 to 2, long wearing soles.

Lipson's

Smart All Wool Plaid Jackets

Misses' smart all wool Jackets, in fancy plaids in assorted colors. Sizes 14 to 20. Each .......... 2.95

Delightful New FROCKS

New Styles
New Trimmings

Sizes 14-52

$2.95 to $5.95

You'll thrill at the amazing value offered in dresses — You'll find a large and varied selection from which to choose—few plaids included. You'll find smart up to the minute styles in all the popular colors for fall and winter.

Cincinnati Reds Uncover Starting Hurler in Thompson And Troubles Appear Over

Allowed Two Hits in Defeating Brooklyn Dodgers 3-0

YANKS BEATEN

Bob Feller Wins 21st Game of Season Defeating Yanks 9-4

(By Judson Bailey
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The best news Cincinnati has had lately was the two-hit pitching performance unfurled by Gene (Junior) Thompson.

Thompson shut out Brooklyn Dodgers 3-0 yesterday for the first victory the Reds have negotiated in more than three weeks with any pitcher other than Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer.

A 21-year-old righthander with four years of minor league experience, Thompson took part in a no-hit spring training game and otherwise proved his worth. However, he has been used as a relief agent most of the season and did not get his first starting call until July 19.

If he is now able to take a regular and effective turn on the mound some of the Reds' troubles are solved. Both the singles he gave up yesterday came with two out, one was an infield bunt, and no Dodger reached second base.

Lead Preserved

The immediate effect of this triumph was to preserve Cincinnati's 3 1-2 game lead over St. Louis Cardinals, who nosed out the Phillies 10-9 by virtue of Duckey Medwick's two-run homer in the eighth.

The pennant picture at present is

| | Won | Lost | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati .. .. | 80 | 50 | | 24 |
| St. Louis . . . | 78 | 55 | 3½ | 20 |
| Chicago .. .. .. | 74 | 62 | 9 | 18 |
| Brooklyn .. .. | 69 | 62 | 11½ | 23 |

Giants Split

New York Giants split a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Harry Gumbert coming up with a spectacular two-hit contribution to take the opened 2-0 and the Buccaneers bunching their hits in the nightcap to win 7-4.

Bobby Feller led Cleveland Indians to a 9-4 decision over the world champion Yankees for a sweep of the two-game series..

Boston Red Sox took advantage of the opportunity to chop another nick in New York's American League lead and prolong the pennant race.

They now stand:

| | Won | Lost | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| New York .. .. | 96 | 40 | | 18 |
| Boston . . . . | 81 | 55 | 15 | 18 |

Grave Gave Four Hits

Boston's victory was a 1-0 taming of Detroit Tigers by Lefty Grove, who allowed only four hits.

Chicago White Sox, out of the Pennant race, took both ends of a doubleheader from Washington Senators on seven hit pitching jobs by Ted Lyons and Jack Knott. The first went 11 innings to a 3-1 score and the second was called at 4-2 in the eighth because of darkness.

St. Louis Brown did an about face against Philadelphia Athletics to win 11-3 on a 17-hit attack.

Welby Van Horn Rising Star In Tennis World

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. —(AP)— Welby Van Horn from California has everybody at Forest Hills saying he will be the next great champion of the tennis courts—perhaps no later than next year.

Welby, 19, only six days ago, looked like championship stuff yesterday in swatting Elwood Cooke out of the big tournament in four sets. His service and his flat forehand drive, reminiscent of the great Ellsworth Vines of 1931, defeated Cooke 6-3, 8-10, 6-4, 7-5.

Cooke was a Wimbledon finalist this year, good enough to carry Bobby Riggs of Chicago to five sets, and he wasn't off his game yesterday. Yet Van Horn's blazing speed almost hand-cuffed him.

Though unranked nationally and unseeded in the championships, the Los Angeles kid has a good chance of reaching Saturday's semi-finals at least. His quarter-final opponent tomorrow will be Wayne Sabin of Portland, who scored a surprising victory yesterday over Adrian Quist of Australia, 11-9, 4-6, 8-6, 6-1.

There were eight men and eight women survivors to battle it out in the quarter-finals starting today. The general opinion was that yesterday's series of upsets, eliminating Quist, Cooke and Frankie Parker, the three top-seeded men in the lower bracket, had gone a long way toward giving the title to Bobby Riggs.

2 Belleville Rinks Win at Deseronto

A Belleville rink won the annual Deseronto Lawn Bowling Club trebles in the village of Deseronto Wednesday. Fourteen rinks from all parts of Eastern Ontario competed, six being from Belleville.

The Belleville rinks of Fred Harper, skip, Joe Black and Robert Coleman swept all before them to advance to the finals, while still another Belleville rink, with Charlie Sulman, skip, Rod Mitchell and H. Middleton also triumphed in the semi-finals. In the final match, however, the Harper-Black-Coleman rink defeated their club members for the day's honors, but only by a close-margin score. The Deseronto tournament is one of the last district bowling meets of the season. The club championships in the Belleville Club have yet to be decided, however.

NAPANEE LOSSES FIRST PLAY-OFF BY 3 TO 2 SCORE

Bowmanville Royals Humble Gibbards on Latters Diamond

Napanee, Sept. 14.—Bunching three straight hits following two easy outs in the fifth inning, Bowmanville Royals counted a pair of runs that gave them a 3 to 2 win over Napanee Gibbards here yesterday in the first game of the second round O.B.A. Intermediate "A" playdowns. The winners opened the scoring in the first inning, when Colville doubled to drive Williams in.

Napanee rallied in the sixth as Thompson got a life when Williams bobbled his bounder. After two outfield putouts seemed to dim scoring chances, the scintillating Gerow smashed hard down the right field foul line for three bases. Lucas' timely hit sent him in. The locals had the winning runs on the bases in the eighth with one away, but the best they could do with Witheridge was two infield putouts.

Score by innings: R.H.E.
Bow'ville 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0—3 11 2
Napanee 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0—2 7 3

Batteries: Bowmanville — Witherage and Rickard; Napanee—Spratt and Cairns.

Baseball Results

American League

| | Won. | Lost. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York .. .. .. | 96 | 40 | .706 |
| Boston .. .. .... | 81 | 55 | .596 |
| Chicago .. .. ..... | 79 | 58 | .577 |
| Cleveland .. .. .. | 74 | 61 | .548 |
| Detroit .. .. .... | 70 | 65 | .519 |
| Washington .. .. | 59 | 81 | .421 |
| Philadelphia .... .. | 48 | 88 | .353 |
| St. Louis .. .. .. | 37 | 97 | .276 |

Wednesday Results

Chicago x3-z4; Washington 1-2.
Cleveland 9; New York 4.
Boston 1; Detroit 0.
St. Louis 11; Philadelphia 3.
x—Eleven innings.
z-Called end of eighth—Darkness.

National League

| | Won. | Lost. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati .. .... | 80 | 50 | .615 |
| St. Louis .. .. .. | 78 | 55 | .586 |
| Chicago .. ..... .. | 74 | 62 | .544 |
| Brooklyn .. .. .. | 69 | 62 | .527 |
| New York .. .. .. | 66 | 63 | .512 |
| Pittsburg .. .. .. | 61 | 72 | .459 |
| Boston .. ..... .. | 57 | 73 | .438 |
| Philadelphia .. .. | 41 | 89 | .315 |

Wednesday Results

New York 2-4; Pittsburg 0-7.
St. Louis 10; Philadelphia 9.
Chicago 15; Boston 4.
Cincinnati 3; Brooklyn 0.

International League Playoffs

Series A.
xNewark 3; Jersey City 2.
Series B.
Buffalo 8; Rochester 1.
x16 innings.

Tweed Netters Win Trent Valley Title

Tweed Tennis Club was declared winner of the Trent Valley Tennis League here Wednesday, when they defeated the Belleville Tennis Club on the Point Anne courts. It marked the first time in three years the cup has been taken away from the Campbellford Tennis Club. Tweed won four matches, Belleville took one, and the sixth match was unfinished. The results:

Men's singles — Mack Cotton, Tweed, defeated Howard Kerr, Belleville, 7-5, 5-7, 6-2.

Men's doubles—O. Courneyea and F. Tummon, Tweed, lost to D. MacLean and G. Buker, Belleville, 6-2, 6-4; S. Lafontaine and T. Moffat, Tweed, defeated Spencer Evans and Dick Logie, Belleville, 8-6, 6-4.

Mixed doubles—Miss F. Graham and J. Courneyea, Tweed, defeated J. Cruji and Jack Dickens, Belleville, 6-3; 6-4; Maida Sills and Gerald Wager, Tweed, tied with Muriel Wardner and Gord Barclay, Belleville, 7-5, 1-6.

Ladies' doubles—Connie Morrison and Mrs. T. Moffat, Tweed, defeated Madge Howard and Marion MacLean, Belleville, 6-1, 6-4.

CORNWALL ENTERS TEAM

Ottawa, Sept. 14 (CP)—Entry of Cornwall Collegiate Institute into the senior group of the Ottawa Interscholastic Football League was announced last night at a league meeting here.

Cornwall student teams have frequently played exhibition games with Ottawa schools, but this is their debut as members of the league.

CANADIANS WIN TWO ROUNDS IN U. S. AMATEUR

Somerville and Thompson Showed Brilliant Golf in Their Matches

TALENT TOLL HEAVY

Defending Champion and Other Big Names Out in First Round

Chicago, Sept. 14.— (CP)— C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville and Little Joe Thompson, carrying the Canadian challenge in the United States amateur golf championship, faced stern opposition in the third round today.

Somerville, only former champion left in the tournament, was drawn against Dick Chapman of Greenwich, Conn., a semi-finalist in the 1938 tournament. Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash., who nearly won the United States open crown this summer, furnished the opposition for little Joe of Burlington, Ont.

The 1932 champion from London, Ont., won his way into third-round play with a 4-and-2 victory over Joseph Lynch of Canton, Mass., yesterday afternoon. In the first round he defeated T. R. Johnston of Philadelphia 6 and 5.

Thompson gained the third round with a 4 and 3 victory over Kean Donnelly of Philadelphia after a 2-up triumph over Stewart Alexander, Jr., of Burlington, N.C.

The talent toll in yesterday's play was terrific.

Defending Champ Out

Ushered to the sidelines in the most dazzling series of upsets in years were the defending champiano; two others who had won the amateur; a former United States open king; the Tourney medalist; a former British Amateur Champ and four former rulers of the United States public links.

The sprinkling of "Big Names" still in the running included Somerville, Harry Todd of Dallas, Western amateur champion; John Burke of Rye, N.Y., the United States Collegiate ruler, and Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., finalist n the 1937 United States amateur.

Although last year's champion, Willie Turnesa of Elmsford, N.Y., was eliminated, along with B. Patrick Abbot of California, the runner-up, last year's defeated semi-finalists survived. Dick Chapman, of Greenwich, Conn., and Ed Kingsley of Salt Lake City, who lost out a year ago, romped through a pair of matches yesterday.

Turnesa, after a 5-and3 triumph over Howard Everit of Orland, Pa., in the first round, dropped a two-down decision to George Dawson of Chicago, the latter firing a one-over-par 73 at the champ.

A Great Surprise

A great surprise came, however, when Johnny Goodman of Omaha, 1937 winner and United States open victor over this same course in 1933, collapsed on the last two holes to let Don Schumacher of Dallas, Texas, in with a one-up victory. One up going to the 17th., Goodman took bogie fives on the last two holes, losing both.

Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati, former king of the Simonpures, couldn't stave off the second-round surge of Gordon Kummer of Milwaukee, and went out 3 and 2. Kingsley took care of Charley Yates of Atlanta, former British amateur Victor, 5 and 3, in the second round.

The field slashes down to four in today's pair of 18-hole rounds, and the survivors battle Friday in the 36 hole semi-finals. The 36-hole championship round comes up Saturday.

JOHNNY LONGDEN LEADING RIDER

Alberta Jockey Has Best Percentage of Winners of Any of the Riders

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(CP)— Johnny Longden, A. Taber, Alta., mine mucker before he was lured to the turf, has unloosed the wraps in a drive to retain United States riding honors.

Displaying the form that carried him to the 1938 leadership, Longden has started to whittle down the distance separating him from the pace-setting Don Meade, leading with 203 winning mounts. Longden trails by 23.

Johnny, who scales 106 pounds, started his push last July at Arlington Park, driving home 43 winners in 19 days. He lost five days of action later, however, when he was shelved for fighting during a stretch drive.

This month at Aqueduct Park he turned on the pressure again, scoring doubles three days in a row.

His winning percentage outranks that of Meade. Don accepted 979 horses since his reinstatement this year after a two-year suspension and has a winning average of about 22 per cent. On 811 mounts Longden shows an average of more than 25 per cent.

GIBBARDS DEFEATED

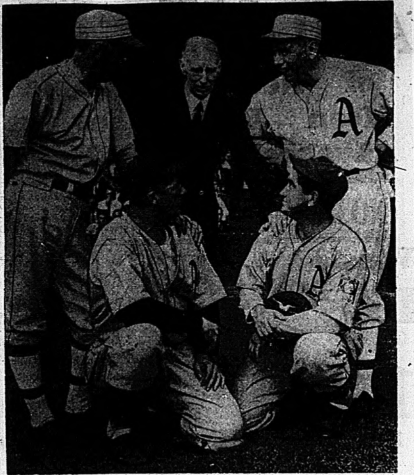
Napanee, Ont., Sept. 14 (CP) — Bowmanville Royals ousted Napanee Gibbards 3-2 here yesterday in the first game of their second-round intermediate "A" Ontario Baseball Association playdowns. Lefty Ed Witheridge pitched seven-hit ball for Bowmanville and struck out six batters. Second game will be played Saturday in Bowmanville.

CONNIE MACK AND SOME OF HIS BRIGH TEST STARS



Gathered around Connie Mack, manager of Philadelphia Athletics since they entered the American League nearly 40 years ago, are stars of his two greatest teams, those that won pennants four times in five years 1910, '11, '13 and 14, and his three straight squad of 1929-30-31. Standing are Iron Man Jack Coombs, LEFT, and Chief Bender, who with Eddie Plank made up the winning pitching staff on his first great team. Kneeling is his most famous battery, Lefty Grove (still pitching with Boston Red Sox) and Mickey Cochrane, who combined with Al Simmons, Jimmy Foxx, George Earnshaw, Jimmy Dykes and others to lead Connie's second great team to the heights. The players were brought together at a baseball centennial celebration in Philadelphia.

Belleville Ints. Even Series With Cobourg Winning 6-5 In Ten Frames in 2nd Game

Third and Deciding Game in Playdowns Will be Played in Cobourg Saturday

BARRIAGE THE HERO

Besides Pitching Swell Game Hurler Singled Home Winning Run in Tenth

Besides pitching a first class game of ball, "Chuck" Barriage singled home the winning run in the tenth frame to win the pastime and put Belleville and Cobourg Intermediates all tied in theirO.B.A. playdowns at one game each at the Fairgrounds Wednesday afternoon with the third and deciding tussle to be played in Cobourg on Saturday afternoon, that club winning the toss. The locals had to fight a courageous uphill battle for they spotted the losers three runs in the first and later forging to the front in the seventh with a four run splurge saw their margin disappear when Cobourg whacked across two tallies. The winners came back to score the tying run in the eighth and then touched off the fireworks with a run to win the pastime in the tenth.

The game was a fair exhibition of the national pastime, the majority present, which incidentally were only a few of the veterans, being present to watch Archie Campbell, former Belleville hurler for the old Victorias, perform again on the slab. Archie did not disappoint them as for six frames he let the locals down without a semblance of a hit, while his team mates got to Barriage for a trio in the first frame. Campbell has been around quite a long time and he began tiring in the seventh and Jarrel, who played a steady game nicked him for a triple with a couple aboard and it looked as if Archie was all washed up but he hung in there for the duration. Although he has lost much of his former zip, he still possesses an excellent curve, a fine change of pace and nearly perfect control. He simply had the locals eating out of his hand as only the first twelve batters faced him.

Allowed Only Nine Hits

Campbell whiffed seven and many of them in the pinches and allowed but nine hits. He walked three and his loss can be attributed to his team mates not being able to connect with Barriage in the pinches, the Cobourg squad having twelve left on the runways. On the other hand "Chuck" Barriage with the exception of the first and eighth had the Cobourg squad well in hand. He struck out eleven in the ten frames, allowed thirteen hits and walked three. He was not responsible for the flurry of runs in the first frame and in the latter stages although he got into trouble he always had enough left to get his batter in the clutch. He used a good fast ball with a smart curve and generally was on top of every batter. Until the seventh when his team mates started to hit in the pinches, he was fighting a lone cause and once his team gave him some runs, he battled gamely down the stretch. The winning of the game was left strictly up to him in the tenth and he rapped a nice single to left field and Riggs galloped home with the winning tally.

A Smart Catch

Riggs pulled the best catch of the afternoon, when he went far back in the seventh to rob Brooks of at least a double. Plummer made a couple of good catches in left, while the Cobourg outfield did not have a fly ball to handle in what of a record. Jarrel led the what of a record. Parrell led the Belleville hitters with a slashing triple to right, when most needed and a single, while Pointer, Empson and Riggs hit in the pinch with McQuaid supplying a punch in the hectic seventh. Johnstone for the losers was hard to get out and he had three singles in six times up, which is not a bad afternoon's work. Three smart double plays were pulled during the pastime, Belleville kicking in with two on line drives for the first out. A. Campbell had the only extra base knock for his team, a slashing double in the eighth, he being knocked home to tie the count by Johnstone, who later came home on D. Campbell's one base sock. The teams are evenly matched but the locals believe they can win the round in Cobourg on Saturday next.

All Even

| BELLEVILLE | ab | r | h | po | a |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| McQuaid, 3rd .... .. | 4 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 2 |
| Jarrell, 2nd ...... .. | 5 | 0 | 2 | 1 | 3 |
| Empson, ss. .... .. | 5 | 0 | 1 | 4 | 2 |
| Pointer, c ........ .. | 5 | 2 | 1 | 11 | 0 |
| Carson, 1st ...... .. | 2 | 0 | 0 | 9 | 2 |
| Weeks, rf ...... .. | 4 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Barriage, p. .... .. | 3 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| Riggs, cf. ....... .. | 4 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| Plummer, lf. .... .. | 4 | 1 | 1 | 3 | 0 |
| Totals | 36 | 6 | 9 | 30 | 10 |

| COBOURG | ab | r | h | po | a |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Johnstone, ss. .. .. | 6 | 2 | 3 | 5 | 3 |
| Rollings, 2nd. .... .. | 5 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 1 |
| D. Campbell, 1st ... | 5 | 1 | 2 | 14 | 0 |
| Brooks, lf. ...... .. | 4 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| McCaig, rf. ...... .. | 5 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Reymes, 3d. .. .. | 4 | 0 | 2 | 1 | 2 |
| Blastorah, c. ... .. | 5 | 0 | 0 | 6 | 4 |
| Elliott, cf. ....... .. | 5 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| A. Campbell, p. .. . | 5 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 9 |
| Totals | 44 | 5 | 13 | x28 | 19 |

x one out when winning run scored.

Score by innings:

| | | R. | H. | E. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cobourg | 300 000 020 0—5 | | 13 | 4 |
| Belleville | 000 000 410 1—6 | | 9 | 4 |

Summary, errors—Rollings, 2, D. Campbell, Blastorah, McQuaid, Pointer, Carson, Plummer; runs batted in—Johnstone, Rollings, D. Campbell, Reymes 2, Jarrell 2, Weeks, Barriage, Riggs, Plummer; two base hits, A. Campbell, three base hits, Jarrell; earned runs — Belleville, 5; Cobourg 3; sacrifice hits—Carson, 2; stolen bases—Rollings, Reymes, 2; A. Campbell, McQuaid, Carson, Barriage; struck out by A. Campbell, 7; by Barriage, 11; bases on balls off A. Campbell —3; off Barriage—3; double plays —Belleville — Carson to Empson, Empson to McQuaid to Jarrell; Cobourg—Rollings to Johnstone to D. Campbell; left on bases—Cobourg—12; Belleville—7; hit by pitcher—A. Campbell, (Carson, Weeks), Barriage (Brooks); passed balls—Cobourg—2. Umpires—Young, Picton; Townsend—Belleville; time of game —2 hours, 35 minutes.

NOVA FAVORITE TO WHIP GALENTO FRIDAY NIGHT

9-5 Odds Offered on Nova Although Underdog in All Other Fights

PULL IN WEIGHTS

Galento Will Weigh 230 Pounds and is in Fine Condition

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14—(AP) —The odds-layers established Lou Nova a 5-to-9 favorite today to thump Tony Galento soundly Friday night in Municipal Stadium, and a lot of the customary "short-enders" immediately wondered why.

Nova himself, underdog in the last three tilts that "made" him as a heavyweight contender — against Gunnar Barlund, Tommy Farr and Maxie Baer, doesn't like it even a little bit. He vowed positively it was a put-up job to get his "nanny."

And the man in the street was even more mystified. Both fighters were in fine condition at the conclusion of their workouts— Nova long since over his cold and Tony coming out of one he acquired two days ago. So the layman, with all things being equal, can't understand why Nova, who was put on the floor by Maxie Rosenbloom and Bob Pastor, should be so lop-sided a betting favorite against the pudgy pounder who even had Joe Louis resting on the seat of his pretty silk panties less than three months ago.

Nova Can Hit

In other words, Nova has shown that he can be hit. And the two-ton gent from Jersey has definitely demonstrated he can toss the heavy artillery.

On that basis, this corner likes Galento to win—in a hurry. He must do it in six rounds. Otherwise, Nova is the lad over the long haul.

Galento will have the weight pull as usual, scaling some 230 pounds to Nova's 206.

All pre-fight hails and howls seemed to be settled this morning. Pennsylvania Athletic Commission Chairman Leon Rains decided not to give Referee George Blake any further instructions than he has already received.

Request Unheeded

As a result the request of Galento's manager Joe Jacobs—that the California arbiter be asked not to stop the fight if Tony is cut unless "Yussel" specifically asks him to—went unheeded.

Ray Carlen, Nova's manager, didn't have a thing to say except that the betting fraternity was just about right in making his boy favorite.

"Yes, and after this we'll be looking for the heavyweight crown," the Californian added.

NEWARK BEARS DEFEAT GIANTS IN 16 INNINGS

Longest Game in History of Playoffs Won by Bears 3 to 2

BISONS WIN EASILY

Defeat Rochester Red Wings 8-1 in First Game of Series "B"

(By The Associated Press)

Jersey City and Newark, the noted sports rivals, are going to extremes in their International League Governors' Cup series.

It took the longest game in the history of the playoffs—16 innings —to bring the Bears a 3-2 victory over the Giants last night to even their series after two games. This score was identical to that by which Jersey's champions won the opener Tuesday night.

In contrast Buffalo Bisons opened their series against Rochester Red Wings last night with an easy 8-1 triumph, achieved on the five-hit flinging of Lefty Al Smith.

The fray at Jersey City, was a hurling duel between Johnny Wittig of the Giants and George Barley and Norman Branch of the Bears.

Scoreless For 14 Innings

Newark collected two runs in the second on an error, a walk and two singles and then was held scoreless until the 16th when catcher Hal Wagner doubled and came home on two sacrifices—the second a lon fly by Branch, who got credit fo the victory.

Branch pulled Barley out of a jam in the 11th and allowed only two hits in six innings of spectacular relief pitching.

Wittig went the entire route, scattering a dozen hits. His teammates got him two runs to tie the score in the fifth on a walk and three singles, but Jersey's offence took the rest of the night off at that point.

The longest previous playoff game was 13 innings in 1934 when Toronto nudged past Rochester, 3-2.

Shift to Newark

The Giants-Bears series will shift to Ruppert Stadium at Newark tonight, but the Bisons and Red Wings, delayed a night in starting because of rain, will remain at Rochester for another game.

Winners of four out of seven games in these two series will meet for the Governors' Cup which carries with it a $4,000 purse and the right to meet the American Association representative in the "Little World Series."

PEMBROKE DOWNED

Smith's Falls, Ont., Sept. 14 (CP) —Ty Gallipeau hurled six-hit ball here last night as Smith's Falls Railroaders downed Pembroke 6-1 to even their Eastern Ontario Baseball Association semi-final series at two games each. [illegible] game will be played at [illegible] Ont., Saturday.

NO OVERTIME PLAYED

Montreal, Sept. 14 (CP)—Cornwall seniors and Montreal Canadiens fought to a 9-9 draw here last night in the first game of the Quebec senior group lacrosse playoff. No overtime was played.

CALLING 'EM

Between the Lines

with
Ken J. Colling

P. J. Mulqueen, chairman of the Dominion of Canada Olympic committee, yesterday announced that Canada was definitely out of competition for the 1940 Olympic games, be it summer or winter competition. This business of war in Europe has taken its full toll, in Helsingfors, Finland, where the 1940 Olympic Games are proposed to be held the Finns have suspended preparations towards the construction of a site for the games. No doubt, as in 1916, the 1940 games will have to be foregone owing to war measures. The United States, however, has suggested the Olympic winter games be held at Lake Placid, but with so many U boats threatening the high seas Olympic competitors, who are not belligerents, could not be expected to send contesting athletes to the U. S. A. Already Canada's Allan Cup champions, the Port Arthur Bearcats, have disbanded. The Bearcats were to have represented Canada at the Vth Olympic winter games and we had entertained hopes of Canada regaining her amateur hockey supremacy, lost to Britain in 1936.

Occasionally in baseball one hears the statement—'the pitcher won his own game.' Yesterday "Chuck" Barriage, hurling for the "Orfuns" made that statement come true before a mere handful of Belleville ball fans as Barriage cracked out the moneyed single to drive home "Doll" Pointer for a sixth and winning run, that gave Belleville a 6-5 ten-inning win over the Cobourg Ponies, thus forcing their O. B. A. series to a third and final game. Twice yesterday the locals rallied to come from behind before they snatched the overtime win. After the game Cobourg won the toss, sending the third and final tussle to the Summer Town, along the shores of Lake Ontario, next Saturday afternoon. Although Cobourg outhit the locals 13 to nine, Barriage was most effective in the clutches. In the fifth with three on he retired the Cobourgs without a score, after having done the same thing in the second. Barriage struck out 11, no mean mound chore for any pitcher while his team mates kicked in with two timely double plays, that helped the Belleville cause materially. Jarrell's three-base hit in the seventh came when most needed also.

Barriage was opposed by Archie Campbell, former Belleville southpaw, who held the locals to nine hits, as the Wilkins-led nine failed to count a single hit until the sixth when Empson singled. Campbell retired the locals in order for the first four frames and struck out seven. Errors on the part of his team mates, two hit batters and a trio of walks all proved costly to the veteran Cobourg moundsman, but Barriage stepped to the plate to deliver the much-needed money hit in the tenth and thereby grabbed all of the laurels that were to be handed out. Although the two clubs do not play senior class ball, they are quite evenly matched and we look for a tidy third game. Incidentally, we were reliably informed yesterday that pitcher Eric Cowie isn't exactly eligible to play for Cobourg, as he wasn't passed by the Lake Shore League, nor did he take part in three league games before last Saturday, the grapevine route did reveal. Incidentally Belleville may be without the services of second baseman Lorne Jarrell on Saturday, a situation that does not appear very appealing at this time.

We have reason to believe Eddie Schrieder's proposed junior rugby football squad would be accepted into the Kingston district junior group at least Scribe Bill Walshe of the Limestone City seems to think so, if that's worth investigating. Convener Bill Fry might take a week end jaunt down among the haunts of old Fort Henry and enquire as to what it is all about. Doubtless the Kingston scribe has some authentic information or he would not publish them. If Belleville is to have a junior O. R. F. U. squad for the coming campaign, the call for practice should be issued immediately as the playing season will soon be upon us and football is one game that demands much conditioning. We hope to hear some encouraging news from Convener Fry's office before the first of the week. In the meantime Eddie Schrieder might scout around for material.

Bill Werber, new Cincinnati thi baseman, had never seen Crosle Field until this year's opening game. Werber, who was bought from the Athletics, majored in psychology while attending Duke university.

Eleven former managers of the Reds are still alive, and five of them are still active in baseball in one capacity or another. This group includes Charley Dressen, Bob O'Farrell, Donie Bush, Heinie Groh and Clark Griffith.

Walt Gerow's Gibbards didn't have any too much luck yesterday when the Bowmanville Royals won 3-2 in Gibbardville, Lucas' error at first, with two out, ultimately gave the Royals two runs early in the game, but inability of the Napanee hitters to find Witherage, the Royals' youthful southpaw, for clutch hits with runners in scoring position really lost the diamond argument. Stan Spratt, Napanee's good righthander, hurled himself a fine ball game and deserved a better fate in a pitchers' duel with Witherage. Both pitchers were on top of the batters for the better part of the game. They move to Bowmanville Saturday.

The Cincinnati Reds rallied yesterday, after losing several ga to beat the Dodgers, as the Cards eked out a 10-9 win over the Phillies, leaving the Reds still three games out in front of the Mound City nine. Incidentally it looks as though High Commissioner Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis has conceded the Yankees the American League pennant, that is from his office. At any rate, Judge Landis has called together the Yankees of the American League, Reds, Cardinals and Cubs from the National League to confer with him in New York on Friday to discuss the coming world series. What—no mention of the "Daffiness Men"? Incidentally Bob Feller's fireball really sizzled yesterday as the Iowa farmer-pitcher beat the Yankees 9-4, to give Feller his 21st win of the season. The Yankee loss leaves them but 15 games afront of the Red Sox today.

SPORT SPICE—The Tweed Tennis Club won the Bay of Quinte Tennis League honors yesterday, defeating the Belleville Tennis Club four games in five...... It marked the first time in a decade that the Tweed Club has triumphed, but they made sure of their honors yester day and are to be congratulated. .....For a second-year club however, the Belleville netisters were in no way disgraced.....A lawn bowling team consisting of Fred Harper, Joe Black and Bob Coleman (Belleville) won the annual Deseronto Lawn Bowling Club trebles yesterday...... O[illegible] Mose Grove hurled a four-hitter to blank the Tigers 1-0 yesterday...... The Sportsmen's Patriotic Association, organized during the last war, is being revived with the advent of war...... With so much talk of football—can autumn be far behind?

Cubs

THE "READY-TO-EAT" CEREAL that took Canada by Storm!

They're just fine Canadian wheat with mellow malt added. Crisp, crunchy, toasted golden brown. And simply pack—l with wholesome energy.

A product of The Canadian Shredded Wheat Company Ltd.

A REAL ENERGY FOOD

TRENTON

WORKERS' HOMES NOW BEING BUILT

Bata Shoe Company Begins Erection of Houses in Communnty Centre

Trenton, Sept. 14 (Special)—The Bata Shoe Community is taking form on the 1540 acres of farm land the company recently purchased one and a half miles south of the village of Frankford. These workers' homes have been partially built and foundations are being laid for others. The company has planned to construct 80 workers homes by Christmas. It is on this tract of land that the Bata Export and Import Company proposes to erect a self-contained village to accommodate 2,500 people. It is understood that the Bata town at Frankford will be copied after the concern's community at Tilsbury, England, where 3500 shoe workers find employment.

Trent Masonic Lodge Meets

Last night at the Masonic Temple on Dundas Street members of Trent Masonic Lodge No. 38 attended the first meeting following the summer holidays. Worshipful Master Frank Sherbert presided.

R.C.A.F. News

The airmen of the Trenton Air Station have laid away their civilian clothes and donned uniforms to wear until the war is over. Authorities at the Airport have enforced rigid laws since Canada declared war on Germany and freelance photographers have been forbidden to take pictures of any part of the Air Base.

Lion's Club Party Friday Night

The Lion's Club street dance, which was washed out by a heavy downpour of rain last Friday night is scheduled to be held this Friday night weather permitting. An area between Dundas Street and Elgin Street will be blocked off on Front Street to allow the dancers to "swing it" to the music of an out of town band. Other forms of amtsement will be provided for those who can't dance or who don't care to paticipate.

Notes

Down at Kingston two Trenton youths Jimmy Kerr and Donald Wright are taking flying lessons fitting themselves for pilot courses in the R.C.A.F. Among the latest planes delivered to the Trenton Air Station were three Hawker Hurricanes. Extra guards have been posted at the main entrances to the Air Base since England declared war on Germany. A special police force has been organised at Trenton to take care of the heavy traffic on Saturdays. Ross rifles have been issued to the anti-sabotage guards in this district. Trenton Rotary Club heard Owen Herity of Belleville at the regular weekly meeting. Lieutenant Harold Campbell and Lieutenant Frank Sherbert were unable to pass army medical tests. John Leland of Trenton claims he saw the Proctor ghost last night while riding along the Presqu'ile road in a motor car. Warning signals have been erected on the C.N.R. crossing at King and Dundas Streets, Trenton. The electric bells replace the ducket system of motor traffic protection.

Rawdon

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Linn entertained last week, Mrs. W. [illegible] man, Stirling, Mrs. Stanley Patterson, Merrickville, Mrs. Claire Deo and daughter, Shirley, Moosejaw, Sask.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Bowman, Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Todd on Sunday.

AUTUMN RAINS

(Continued From Page One)

Still holding out against repeated German thrusts, the capital was half in ruins, its plight rendered serious by a growing food shortage and severed communication lines.

Radio broadcasts, virtually the only source of news from the beleaguered city, pictured scenes of death and desolation as a prolonged bombardment by land and air forces continued unabated.

Most Polish government officials long since have fled the city. Eleven of them, headed by Eugen Kwiatkowski, Finance Minister, were reported last night to have crossed the southern Polish border into Rumania.

Bodies Lay in Streets

Describing the situation in Warsaw in a broadcast from the capital, Captain Wladyslaw Polenski of the Polish air force said that the entire Praga district was in ruins and that many bodies—some of women and children—lay in the shell-scarred streets.

"Many people were killed inside churches where they had sought safety," he said. "Others died in cemeteries where tombstones were smashed and bodies scattered about."

Polenski declared the Germans had used incendiary bombs and had "shelled and machine-gunned panicky crowds who had taken refuge in fields outside the city limits."

"Hospitals were pitiful sights during the air raids," the broadcaster said.

A staff officer who broadcast a description of fighting in the suburbs said that roads were "blocked with smashed lorries, carts, dead soldiers, women and children."

LIFELINE RAILWAY

(Continued From Page One)

Using Shrapnel Bombs

The Germans are using shrapnel bombs, I am told, and also some sort of concussion bombs. One of the latter dropped into a three-storey building. It collapsed.

The shrapnel bombs are used against concentrations of soldiers—and sometimes civilians also are hit. Flying metal from the explosions kills persons a block away from the blast.

The Polish warfront is in flux again after the Poles temporarily stopped the Germans along the San and Vistula Rivers. The Polish stand has been broken by the Germans in four places as nearly as could be told from the fragmentary information reaching Lwow.

Conditions Chaotic

One of the breaks is said to be 50 miles west of Lwow. Behind the Polish lines, here in Lwow at least, conditions are chaotic. Bombs have smashed the aqueduct and nearly 500,000 residents of this city must draw water through old hand pumps. The sewage disposal system also has been damaged. Physicians fear great outbreaks of disease.

Fires are burning in many parts of the city. The roads hereabouts are filled with refugees trying to reach Rumania and safety.

Missions on Move

The French and British military missions to Poland are kept constantly on the move, remaining in contact with the Polish general staff through couriers. The British and French headquarters frequently become bomb targets a few hours after establishment.

Life is extremely difficult for foreigners of any nationality and is becoming worse. Even the British consul here was detained for a short while when he attempted to photograph ruins of a bombed building.

FRENCH CLOSING

(Continued From Page One)

The position of the batteries and the intensity of the shelling were not disclosed.

German reinforcements were reported massing behind Saarbruecken for an attempt to prevent occupation of the Saar Capital by the French troops.

Fighting Near Hornbach

Heavy fighting was reported near Hornbach as the French troops pushed eastward in an attempted encircling movement.

Rain hampered operations along the 100-mile front between the Moselle and Rhine Rivers, but military dispatches spoke of "substantial" gains.

The French government declared officially that there already are "several hundred thousand" British troops now in France. Officials said, however, the British troops had not yet engaged in action, pointing out it would take some time to concentrate supplies and dispose the units along the front. Crossing the channel was effected without incident.

(A dispatch from Algeciras, Spain reported that ten British troop transports had passed Gibraltar en route to France).

Units of the British army were observed moving toward the front. Polius mingled with the troops as they halted for brief rest periods. Many of the Britons, some of them veterans of the last war, adopted the attitude that "we're just picking up where we left off last time."

Removed From Range

Reports of fighting in the Saar Basin said the advance had almost removed the French frontier town of Saareguemines from the range of German artillery.

The dispatches said French shell fire had caused the German army to start removal of its Saar headquarters from Saarbruecken.

The latest advances were said to have been accompanied by the heaviest aerial fighting on the Western Front to date. Dogfights over the lines, French sources said, resulted in destruction of three German planes and "one or two" French.

(Swiss observers, watching the progress of the fighting from across the border, said French machine gunners had proved more effective than the Nazis. The heavy fixed guns in the Maginot line, they declared, also had proved superior in range and destructive power to the guns installed on the Siegried line.)

Weygand Going Home

There were reports that General Maxime Weygand, Commander of the French Forces in the Near East, was en route to Poland to assist in the Polish defence. A conflicting report, however, said he had left Ankara, Turkey, by plane and was returning to Beirut, Lebanon.

Behind the lines Premier Daladier shuffled his cabinet for what the French termed "a fight to the finish with Nazidom."

Georges Bonnet, who has been Foreign Minister, was appointed Minister of Justice, while Daladier took over the Foreign Affairs portfolio in addition to his duties as Premier and Minister of National Defence. He also assumed presidency of the War Council.

Two new Ministries — Blockade and Armament—were created.

CATELLI'S
MACARONI
DINNER WITH CHEESE AND CREAM SAUCE

a meal in 5 minutes

Randolph Scott, Frances Dee and Ralph Bellamy, featured in "Coast Guard," now playing at the McCarthy Theatre.

IF IT'S Borden's IT'S GOT TO BE GOOD

TO ELSIE: FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO CANADIAN CHEESE-LOVERS.

"It's a pleasure," mooed Elsie the Borden cow, graciously, "to have my milk go into Chateau Cheese."

Yes, it takes over two quarts of rich milk from well-kept bossies like Elsie to make just one half-pound of golden, mellow-mild Chateau. So that Chateau is as digestible and as nourishing as milk. It contains the milk proteins and milk minerals which form an indispensable part of an adequate diet.

And Chateau is dee-licious! It spreads for sandwiches, slices for salads, melts easily and blends gloriously in cooked dishes.

Try a package of Borden's Chateau Cheese today. Plain or Pimiento. At your grocer's.

Chateau Cheese

CHATEAU CHEESE

A Borden Product

63

OVER 1000 SENSATIONAL SAVINGS EVERY DAY in the WEEK!

A&P FOOD STORES ESTABLISHED 1859

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| SALADA TEA | | |
| BROWN LABEL BLACK | ½'s Pkg. 34c | 1's Pkgs. 68c |
| YELLOW LABEL BLACK | ½'s Pkg. 32c | 1's Pkg. 63c |
| TEA BAGS | | 45's Pkg. 49c |
| McCORMICK'S SODAS | | 1-lb. Bag 11c |
| NAVY TISSUE | 3 | rolls 19c |
| OXYDOL | 2 | packets 41c |
| KELLOGG'S ALL BRAN | | Large 20c |
| ORANGE MARMALADE | | 32-oz. Jar 19c |
| WHITE SWAN TISSUE | 3 | rolls 25c |
| BULK QUICK OR REGULAR ROLLED OATS | 3 | lbs. 10c |
| BULK MAC. or SPAG. | 3 | lbs. 10c |
| WITH PECTIN PLUM JAM | | 32-oz. Jar 18c |

GILLETT'S LYE Tin 11c

PURITAN POP CORN 10's Tin 25c

A&P HIGH QUALITY BREAD Fresh Daily ANN PAGE WHITE – WHOLE WHEAT – CRACKED WHEAT Big 24-oz. Wrapped Loaf 2 for 13c

PRESERVING NEEDS

| | |
|---|---|
| CERTO | bottle 25c |
| PAROWAX | pkg. 11c |
| RINGS, Rubber | 6 doz. 25c |
| RINGS, Zinc | doz. 19c |
| SEALERS, Small | doz. 89c |
| SEALERS, Medium | doz. 1.05 |
| VINEGAR, Blended | gal. 39c |
| SPICE, Pickling | lb 15c |

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| LICORICE ALL SORTS | | | lb. 15c |
| SUNSWEET PRUNES | 2 | 1-lb. Pkgs. 23c | 2-lb. Pkg. 19c |
| CLOVER HONEY | | 4's Tin 33c | 2's Tin 17c |
| BULK SOAP CHIPS | | | 5-lb. Box 25c |
| CHOICE Blueberries | 2 | | Tins 17c |
| KINNEY'S SQUAT Raspberries | 2 | | 2's Tins 25c |
| SINGAPORE PINEAPPLE | Sliced or Cubed | | tin 8c |
| FANCY SHRIMPS | 2 | | 5¾-oz. Tins 23c |

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| A. and P. TOMATO JUICE | | 25-oz. | 4 Tins | 25c |
| TODD'S SALMON | HORSESHOE. | ½'s tin 17c | 1's Tin | 31c |
| CATELLI'S SPAGHETTI | COOKED. | 24-oz. | 2 Tins | 23c |
| CLARK'S PORK & BEANS | | 2's. | Tin | 8c |
| BEAVER BRAND CHICKEN HADDIES | | ½'s. | Tin | 10c |
| SPECIAL LAYER CAKE | COCOANUT ICED. | | Each | 17c |
| LYNN VALLEY PEACHES | | | No. 2 Squat Tin | 10c |

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| SUMMER PRIDE CORN GOLDEN BANTAM | 4 | 17-oz. Tins | 25c |
| SUNNYFIELD TOASTED WHEAT | 2 | pkgs. | 13c |
| LIFEBUOY SOAP | | Cake | 7c |
| TWO YEAR OLD CHEESE | | lb. | 19c |
| COX GELATINE | | Pkg. | 15c |
| OGILVIE'S BLENDED FLAKES | 2 | Pkgs. | 19c |
| OGILVIE OATS MINUTE | | 48-oz. Pkg. | 19c |
| OGILVIE OATS HEATHER | | Pkg. | 14c |
| DEL MAIZ CORN CREAM STYLE | 2 | 17-oz. Tins | 17c |
| WHITE NAPTHA P & G SOAP | 3 | Bars | 10c |

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| KEIFFER PEARS DESSERT | | 16-oz. Tin | 7c |
| SUGAR CRISP CORN FLAKES | 3 | Pkgs. | 19c |
| HIGH TEST OXYDOL | 2 | Large Pkg. 41c | Giant Pkg. 59c |
| McLAREN'S JELLY POWDERS | 2 | Pkgs. | 9c |
| IONA NEW PACK PEAS No. 4 SIEVE | 3 | 2's Tins | 23c |
| A. and P. HEALTH COOKIES | 2 | lbs. | 25c |
| HEINZ SOUP TOMATO | 2 | Med. Tins | 23c |
| HEINZ SOUP ASSORTED | 2 | Med. Tins | 25c |
| YUKON CLUB Contents GINGER ALE | 2 | 30-oz. Bottles | 17c |
| ANN PAGE MAYONNAISE | | 16-oz. Jar | 19c |

A&P High Quality MEAT SATISFACTION OR MONEY BACK

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| BLADE ROAST | PRIME BEEF | lb. 17c |
| SHORT RIB ROAST | PRIME BEEF | lb. 18c |
| B'LESS VEAL ROAST | MILK FED | lb. 15c |
| PRIME RIB ROAST | PRIME BEEF | lb. 22c |
| ROASTING CHICKENS | 4 - 5 lbs. | lb. 25c |
| PEAMEALED ROLLS | | lb. 21c |
| BREAKEAST BACON | SLICED | lb. 25c |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| GRAPES | TOKAY FLAME | 3 lbs. 25c |
| ORANGES | CALIF. VAL. 220's | dozen 29c |
| YAMS | | 3 lbs. 14c |
| WEALTHY APPLES | HAND PICKED | 6 quart 19c |
| ONIONS | | 10 lb. bag 19c |

GET THE THRIFT HABIT... HELP YOURSELF TO SAVINGS!

A&P SELF-SERVICE STORES

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 723

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 662 284½ Front St.
17-3m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P. O. BOX 40
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. 13-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1182. "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 231 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist. Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils, Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

H. R. and VERA B. PITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments. Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Intra-Red Radiations, Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments. 42½ Bridge St., East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
249½ Front St. Phone 492

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
278 Front St. Phone 1134w

LEGAL

S. GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 256½ Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2500. s27-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William M. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 174

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

E. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
OUR LEADING CITIZEN
Bob Burns, Susan Hayward
2.45 — 7.00 — 10.00
THE MAGNIFICENT FRAUD
Akim Tamiroff, Patricia Morrison
4.00 — 8.35

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
COAST GUARD
Randolph Scott, Frances Dee
3.00 — 7.15 — 10.15
PARENTS ON TRIAL
Jean Parker, Johnny Downs
4.05 — 9.00

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
BIG TOWN CZAR
Barton MacLane, Tom Brown
7.12 and 9.28
WYOMING OUTLAW
Three Mesquiteers, starring
John Wayne
8.21 and 11.30

TO LET

100 ACRE FARM, LOT 27, CONcession 8, Thurlow, good barn, well watered, near school, cheese factory. Apply 14 Parker Street. s14-3t

DOWNSTAIRS APARTMENT newly decorated. Rent reasonable to reliable party. Apply 26 Isobel Street. s14-3t

6 ROOM HOUSE, FULLY MODern with fireplace and garage, 234 Charles Street. Phone 2177. s14-1t

COMPACT SEVEN ROOMED house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, furnace. Immediate possession. Apply 243 Coleman St. j6-t, t, s-tf

BRIGHT 4 ROOM APARTMENT and sun room. All conveniences. Private entrance. Phone 63-r-4. s13-3t

OR FOR SALE— BRICK HOUSE, West Bridge, newly decorated, oak floors, bath, sun-porch, hot-water heating, garage. Possession Oct. 1. Phone 508. s13-2t

5 ROOM APARTMENT, CATHARine Street. All conveniences, except furnace. Possession immediately. Apply 28 Catherine St. s13-3t

BEDROOM IN PRIVATE HOME, warm and comfortable. Apply 27 Isabel Street. s13-2t

7 ROOM HOUSE EAST HILL, CONveniences, furnace, hardwood floors, sunroom, immediate possession. Apply 46 Highland Ave. s13-3t

FURNISHED COTTAGE, ROSSmore Point for last two weeks of Sept. Reasonable. Stove and boat. Sixth cottage right of Bridge. s13-2t

ONE NICELY FURNISHED HEATed bedroom. Apply 185 Albert Street. s12-3t

ONE OR TWO ROOMS UNFURnished or partly furnished suitable for light housekeeping. Apply 20 Charlotte street. s12-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERlooking the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

APARTMENT FOR RENT 4 OR 6 rooms. All conveniences, hardwood floors. Very reasonable rent to approved tenant. Apply 161 Albert Street. s9-tf

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

$31.50 PER MONTH INCLUDING water rates—desirable house on east hill, north of Victoria Avenue attractive living room, coal fireplace, dining room, bath, kitchen, wired for range hardwood floors, three bedrooms, good hot air furnace, garage. Possession Sept. 1st. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687 a23-tf

AUCTION SALE

Auction Sale, Friday, Sept. 22, at 1.30 at 126 Bridge East, Mrs. S. R. McCreary, owner:—Newcombe piano, Westinghouse radio, 2 complete bedroom suites, rugs, settee and chairs, glider, large leather couch, verandah mats, curtains, hospital bed, high frequency machine, surgical instruments, nearly new cook stove, chairs, and numerous other articles. Terms Cash.
NORMAN MONTGOMERY,
Auctioneer, Belleville, Phone 1170.
s14-18-21

TENDERS

Will be received by the undersigned until Tuesday, September 19th., 1939, for installing refrigeration, according to Government specifications in the Northport Cheese Factory. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
RAY SIMPSON,
President, Picton, R. R. No. 2.
s14-2t

How To Overcome Piles And Rectal Soreness

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from J. S. McKeown or any druggist, a package of Hemroid and use as directed This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemroid is a physician's prescription and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

FOR SALE

SIX PIECE BREAKAST SUITE. Good condition. Phone 44J. 257 John Street. s14-1t

B FLAT TENOR SAXOPHONE, complete with case. Violin complete with bow and case. All in excellent condition. G. Brown. Phone 1473J. s14-16

$150 BUYS 1931 BUICK SEDAN good condition. Apply 19 Franklin Street. s14-3t

GOOD WORK TEAM BETWEEN 1400 and 1500 lbs, 3 and 4 years old. Going reasonable. Francis Maloney, R. 3, Tweed. s14-1t

BABY PRAM, NAVY BLUE IN good condition $5. Phone 841W. s14-1t

KITCHENETTE SET, STUDIO with chairs, electric stove, dresser, bed and other small articles practically new. Apply 73 South Front Street. s14-1t

1932 DURANT SPECIAL SEDAN excellent condition. Terms given. Phone 2177. s14-1t

38 PONTIAC COACH, ALSO HARley Davison Motorcycle. Sacrifice for cash. Apply 10 Geddes St. s13-3t

QUANTITY OF LEGHORN AND rock pullets. Write Box B, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-2t

50 R.O.P. LEGHORN PULLETS, 5 1-2 months laying, $1 each. Also breeding cockerels. Hilltop Poultry Farm, Trenton. s13-2t

A SILO OR EXCHANGE FOR hogs or young cattle. Fred Maynes, R. 1, Thomasburg. s13-2t

FIVE YOUNG BROOD SOWS TO freshen in December. Apply to Clayton Eggleton, R. 6, Belleville, 3rd Thurlow. s13-3t

SLIGHTLY USED DINING-ROOM suite. Apply J. Waddell, Government Dock, Phone 803 after 8 a.m. s13-3t

OR TO LET STORE WITH DWELling at 433 Bleecker Ave. Apply on premises. s12-3t

A QUANTITY OF HARD WOOD $7.50 per cord, soft wood $5.50 per cord, and soft slab wood $4.50 per cord delivered at Belleville in 3 cord loads. Write H. C. Lloyd, Bannockburn, Phone Madoc 5233. s12-6t

FIVE ACRES LAND, FRAME house, garage, hen house, good well, cistern, electricity 1 1-2 miles from city on paved road. Write Box D, Ontario Intelligencer. s12-3t

29 PLYMOUTH COUPE WITH rumble seat, new tires and paint. Motor good. Price low. 211 Pinnacle Street. s12-3t

11 MURNEY STREET, SOLID brick house, six rooms and bath, hardwood floors, house in good condition and easily heated, double lot. Good garden. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s12-tf

ONE MODERN KITCHEN CABINet nearly new, one glass enclosed front porch. One bathroom fixture complete. Phone 714. s12-3t

GIRL'S BICYCLE, FIRST CLASS condition. Stan Barriage, 80 College Street, between 6 and 8 p.m. s12-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRable brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusve agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

COTTAGE ON BAY SHORE, 3 miles west of Belleville, containing 5 rooms and sun porch complete. Built on large lot, owned, not leased. Wired for electric range, water pump. Apply Box R, Ontario Intelligencer. s11-3t

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

4 HILLSIDE STREET, WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale Exclusive agent. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99. House Phone 687. s9-tf

AT AVONDALE, TRENT ROAD, directly opposite the school, residence and 8 acres of good land owned by Mrs. George Duff. House is substantial brick with bright cheerful rooms, hot water heating, bath, well decorated and in excellent state of repair. Barn and hen house. Investigate this. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

W. C. SILLS PROPERTY, JUST off highway in Avondale, Trent Road. Good frame house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors downstairs, good basement. 10 acres of sandy loam —barn, garage, hen house and brooder house. Excellent green houses. A very desirable place. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

WANTED

POSITION AS HOUSEKEEPER by widow for 1 or 2 adults. Write Box T, Ontario Intelligencer. s14-1t

AN EXPERIENCED MARRIED man with one extra milker to work on farm by year. Apply Donald Gunn, Trent Road. s14-2t

2 FURNISHED ROOMS SUITABLE for light housekeeping. Preferably near Front and Station, 2 adults, 3 children. Phone 186. s14-1t

POSITION BY LADY STENOGrapher, accurate, neat, rapid. Available immediately. Inquire Box H, Ontario Intelligencer. s14-3t

POSITION AS PRACTICAL NURSE or housekeeper by experienced widow. Holds driving license. Mrs. Jennie Hagerman, R. 2, Trenton. s12-14

WORK WANTED

HANDY MAN AND EXPERIENCed is anxious to get sufficient work to purchase clothing. Kindly write Box Y, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-3t

2 HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TO board. Apply 247 John Street. s13-3t

HOUSE FOR SMALL FAMILY preferably on outskirts of city. Reply stating rent and conveniences to Box I, Ontario Intelligencer. s13-3t

A USED SILO IN GOOD CONDItion. Write to George Attwell, R.R. No. 5, Campbellford, Ont. s12-3t

MCCORMICK CORN BINDER BY Sept. 18. Must be in good condition. Will pay cash. Write Box 125, Madoc. s12-3t

WIRELESS

WANTED—MEN FROM 17 TO 35 with High School Education—to train for qualified Radio Operators. Trained operators needed by Dominion Government in increasing numbers. Prepare for responsible position by Home Study and Resident Practical Instruction for 1st or 2nd class certificates. Evening Code Classes. Free employment assistance in securing positions. Write for full particulars to Radio College of Canada, 54 Bloor Street, West, Toronto. s12-14-16

INSTRUCTION

IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

NOTICE

Due to the continued and unavoidable absence of Dr. H. J. Fahey from the city, all accounts owing by his former patients may be paid at the office of E. Ormonde Butler, 28 East Bridge Street, and a receipt obtained therefrom. s14-1t

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF MARGARET BOYLE, late of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, Widow, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1937, Chapter 165, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Margaret Boyle, late of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, who died on or about the 14th day of May, 1939, are requested to forward their claims duly proven, to the undersigned on or before the 1st day of October, 1939.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVen that after the said date the executors will proceed to distribute the estate among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which they shall then have notice.

DATED at Belleville, this 31st day of August, 1939.
CAMERON & CAMERON,
Barristers &c., Belleville, Ontario.
Solicitors for the executors.
a31-s7-14

AT THE BELLE

"Our Leading Citizen"

When Bob Burns' new starring vehicle, "Our Leading Citizen", is seen on the Belle screen today Belleville and vicinity moviegoers will find that it is a vivid, colorful film dealing chiefly with a vital problem of contemporary American life. However, they will also be glad to discover that, as in all of Bob's previous starring films, the romantic side of things is not neglected.

As a matter of fact, two members of Paramount's "Golden Circle" a select coterie of young players destined for stardom, hold down the romantic roles in the film. They are Susan Hayward and Joseph Allen, Jr., as promising a pair of young players as one could find in any film.

Susan Hayward is the red-headed Brooklyn, New York girl who walked unheralded into the Paramount talent department and came out with the leading romantic role in "Beau Geste", in which she will be seen soon. Before that she played in stock, modelled, and been tested for the role of Scarlett O'Hara in "GWTW". After loosing out in the screen test, she won the "Beau Geste" role. Alfred Santell, director of "Our Leading Citizen" put her to work in the Burns picture while she was waiting to go before the cameras for "Beau Geste."

Success Came Hard

Joseph Allen, Jr., who is cast in the romantic role opposite Miss Hayward, came to Hollywood following six years of experience in school and stock company plays. His first assault on the magic city was unsuccessful. He returned to New York, was tested for the leading role in ". . . one third of a nation . . .", but lost out to Leif Erikson. Paramount scouts saw the test and signed him to a long term contract. He has been busy ever since.

Burns becomes concerned with their romance when Miss Hayward, cast as Bob's daughter, resents the fact that Allen, cast as his junior law partner, does not agree with school and stock company plays. His industrialist for whom they have become counsel.

Also in the supporting cast of the picture are such favorites as Elizabeth Patterson, Gene Lockhart and Charles Bickford.

"The Magnificent Fraud"

A bold, forthright and timely film drama, one that dares to show how an actor substitutes for a dictator, is announced as the companion feature attraction. With Akim Tamiroff, Lloyd Nolan, Mary Boland and Patricia Morison heading the cast, "The Magnificent Fraud" is one of the most powerful, thought-provoking pictures ever to come out of Hollywood.

"The Movies March On"

"The Movies March On" is the title of a swift-moving film packed with all the laughs of the oldtime "flickers."

The action, comedy and drama of 24 features rolled into one, and reveals thirty of the screen's biggest stars reliving the most memorable moments of the screen's history.

TIME TABLE CHANGES

Effective
SUNDAY, SEPT. 24, 1939
Full information from agents
CANADIAN PACIFIC • CANADIAN NATIONAL

Once Again
YOUR FAVORITE
Home-Made
CANDIES
Go on Sale
FRIDAY and SATURDAY
Be sure and try a pound or so of our new lines at 15, 20 & 25c lb.
FRUIT SUNDAES and SODAS .................. 10c
MOORES
CANDY SHOP
Opposite McCarthy Theatre

AT THE McCARTHY

"Coast Guard"

Flaming with all the colorful intensity of men who dare death in the pursuance of duty, the action-filled drama entitled "Coast Guard" is now playing at the McCarthy Theatre. The film, which features Randolph Scott, Frances Dee, Ralph Bellamy and Walter Connolly, tells a dramatic and romantic story of sensational adventure set against a background of suspense-laden rescues, colorful characterizations and unusual thrills.

Among highlights in the picture are the rescue of a seriously injured seaman by a flying ambulance during the height of a hurricane; the search for stranded whalers in icebound Alaskan wastes; perilous duty during an inland flood and other sequences which leave one breathless.

Randolph Scott brings a zest to the film with his characterization of a careless, reckless flier. Ralph Bellamy's portrayal of a Coast Guard officer stands out in a group of praiseworthy performances. Frances Dee, brings loveliness and a refreshing quality to the picture which enhances romantic interludes and offers sharp contrast to starker scenes.

Walter Connolly, as a choleric sea-captain, Warren Hymer as a bewildered mechanic and Edmund MacDonald, radio headliner who makes his screen debut in this picture, add sharply-etched characterizations which contribute generously to the all-around excellence of the film.

"Coast Guard" is strong filmfare. Scott meets Miss Dee when he rescues her father with a flying ambulance. His carefree spirit estranges the girl, but when he proves his courage and resolution in a rescue scene which brings the picture to a thrilling climax, she realizes his buoyancy is a safety-valve for pent-up emotions.

Not only is "Coast Guard" recommended for its thrilling entertainment, but also because it brings to the screen a vivid and colorful chapter of a little army of men who are constantly risking their lives to protect the coast lines of America.

"Parents on Trial

In addition to "Coast Guard" the McCarthy Theatre is also now playing a splendid companion feature entitled "Parents on Trial" which features Jean Parker, Johnny Downs, Linda Terry, Noah Beery, Jr., and Henry Kolker. "Parents on Trial" tells the story of a youthful romance blighted by parental disapproval and is a picture every boy and girl in love should bring their parents to see.

"Mandrake the Magician"

The opening chapter of "Mandrake the Magician" a thrilling adventure story featuring Warren Hull, who recently played the leading role in "The Spider's Web" is also now at the McCarthy Theatre and if the succeeding chapters are anything like the first entitled "The Shadow on the Wall," it will be the greatest serial presentation ever offered to thrill-seekrs.

BUS GOES TO WRONG SCHOOL

Grace, Idaho, Sept. 14—(AP)—Teacher was perturbed when no pupils showed up at her one-room school the first day of the term. The school bus had taken the pupils to the wrong school.

Watch for Feature Announcement
SATURDAY
KIWANIS
Street Karnival
September 20 & 21
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

LATE SUMMER CLEAN-UP SALE
ALL OUR USED CARS MUST GO!

With Fall just around the corner, we are cleaning up our late-summer stock to make way for Autumn business. These sale cars are lower in price only because we want to move them quickly. They are fully guaranteed, however, and in the best possible condition inside and out. A few samples of the bargains you can find all over our lot are listed below.

FINE CARS PRICED RIGHT

| | WAS | IS |
|---|---|---|
| 1931 Chevrolet Roadster | $225.00 | $200.00 |
| 1929 Ford Town Sedan | | 200.00 |
| 1930 Oakland Coach | 225.00 | 175.00 |
| 1929 Durant Sedan | | 125.00 |
| 1933 Chevrolet Sedan | 375.00 | 325.00 |
| 1931 Chrysler Sedan | 265.00 | 225.00 |
| 1932 Chevrolet Sedan | 350.00 | 300.00 |
| 1936 Studebaker Sedan | 550.00 | 495.00 |
| 1937 Ford Coupe | 565.00 | 525.00 |
| 1932 McLaughlin-Buick Special Sedan | 375.00 | 300.00 |
| 1934 Chevrolet Master Coupe | 400.00 | 325.00 |
| 1938 Ford Deluxe Sedan | 850.00 | 750.00 |
| 1939 Pontiac Chieftain Coach (5000 miles) | 1175.00 | 1000.00 |
| 1930 Ford Coach | | 200.00 |
| 1928 Chevrolet Sedan | 135.00 | 100.00 |
| 1929 Pontiac Coupe | | 170.00 |
| 1936 Chevrolet Standard Coach (Trunk) | 550.00 | 500.00 |
| 1930 Durant Special Sedan | 225.00 | 175.00 |
| 1929 Essex Coach | 125.00 | 95.00 |
| 1929 Chevrolet Sedan | 185.00 | 150.00 |
| 1931 Oldsmobile Special Coupe | 300.00 | 245.00 |

TRUCKS

| | WAS | IS |
|---|---|---|
| 1937 Chevrolet ½-ton Pick-up | 600.00 | 550.00 |
| 1938 Chevrolet ½-ton Panel | 750.00 | 685.00 |
| 1936 Maple Leaf 2½-Ton Stake L.W. | 675.00 | 600.00 |
| 1928 Rugby 1-Ton Stake | 85.00 | 50.00 |
| 1933 Chevrolet ½-ton Panel | | 225.00 |

Open Evenings Until 10.00 p.m.
EASY TERMS. LIBERAL ALLOWANCES
STIRLING MOTOR SALES
E. G. BAILEY, Proprietor.

Susan Haywood and Joseph Allen, Jr. in Bob Burns new picture "Our Leading Citizen," now at the Belle Theatre.

OBITUARY

MRS. ETHEL GALNA
(Trenton)

The death occurred at the Belleville General Hospital on Wednesday evening, September 13th, of Mrs. Ethel Galna, wife of Irwin Galna, merchant, of Trenton. She was 59 years of age and had been a patient in the hospital since August 2nd.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Galna is survived by two daughters, Miss Rhea and Miss Dorothy Galna. To many friends the passing of Mrs. Galna has brought sincere feelings of regret.

GUARD FOUND INJURED

LANCASTER, Ont., Sept. 14 (CP) —Andrew Dufresne, 21, a guard at the Canadian National Railway bridge, was found lying by the side of the tracks by the crew of a passing freight train early today. He was suffering from a fractured skull and was taken to hospital in critical condition.

Railway employees said they believed Dufresne was struck by an earlier train. Police are investigating.

Lancaster is 17 miles east of Cornwall.

Steeplechase Racing Cancelled

LONDON, Sept. 14—(AP)— Flat race and steeplechase programs for the remainder of the year in England were cancelled today.

Race meets, like theatres and other places of entertainment, had been temporarily closed under Great Britain's wartime air raid precautions program.

One of the races cancelled is the Cesarewitch, scheduled for Oct. 25 at Newmarket, and upon which the Irish sweepstakes is based.

Donald Barry, Ray Corrigan, Raymond Hatton and John Wayne in "Wyoming Outlaw," now at the Capitol Theatre.

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 2.15

MINES

Ajax 20
Aldermac 46
Anglo Hur. 225
Aunor 195
Bankfield 205
Beattie 102
Bidgood 11
Big Missouri 11
ralorne 995
Buffalo Ank. 780
Calgary and Ed. 222
Can. Malar. 59
Central Pat. 218
Chemical Research 20
Chromium 55
Coast Copper 260
Chiboug 15
Coniarum 136
Dome 26
Eldorado 90
East Mal. 220
Falconbridge 500
Francoeur 26
Gillies L. 5 1-2
God's Lake 44
Gunnar 2 1-2
Hardrock 96
Home Oil 261
Hollinger 12 3-4
Howie 29
Hudson Bay 29
Jellicoe 8
Kerr Add. 165
Kirk. Hud. 22
Kirk. Lake 118
Lapa Cad. 21
Lake Shore 33
Leitch 68
Little L. L. 265
Macassa 400
McIntyre 47 1-2
McKenzie 106
Mcenzie 108
McWatters 48
Mining Corp 130
Moneta 86
Noranda 70
Nipissing 110
O'Brien 182
Okalta 118
Omega 25
Paymaster 32
Pamour 175
Perron 172
Pend Or. 305
Pickle Cr. 425
Pioneer 215
Powell 162
Premier 136
Preston E. D. 131
Pros Air 50
Reno 41
Royalite 38 1-2
San Antonio 167
Sherritt G 150
Siscoe 96
Sladen M. 30
Stadacona 30 1-2
Sud Basin 220
Sullivan 65
Sylvanite 280
T Hughes 300
Tex. Can Oil 90
Toburn 155
Ventures 440
W. Amulet 615
Wr. Hargreaves 730

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 149 1-2
B. A. Oil 21 3-4
Brewing Corp 86
Braz. Trac 8
Can. Bud. Brewery 3 7-8
Can. Cement 7
Can. Dredge 13
Can. Ind. Alcohol 3 3-4
C. P. R. 6 1-8
Can. Malting 29 1-2
Can. Vinegar 10 3-4
Canada Car 16 1-4
Cockshutt Plow 7 3-4
Cons. Bakeries 13 3-4
Con. Smelting 49 1-2
Dominion Stores 6
Dist. Seagrams 16 7-8
Fanny Farmer 20 3-4
Ford "A" 20 1-4
Gypsum 4 1-8
Imp. Oil 15 7-8
Int. Nickel 47 3-4
Inter. Pet. 24 3-8
Imp. Tobacco 13 3-4
Loblaw 26 1-2
Massey Harris 7 3-4
Mont. Power 27 3-4
McColl-Frontenac 6 1-4
Power Corp 9
Steel of Canada 84 1-2
Supertest 34
Shawinigan 19 3-4
Walker's 36 1-4
Walker's Pfd 17 3-4
Walkerville Brewery 80

NEW YORK

American Can 112 3-4
American T. and T. 163
Amer. For. Power 2 3-4
American Radiator 11 5-8
Anaconda 35 5-8
Auburn 4 7-8
Bethlehem Steel 93 1-8
Chrysler 87 1-2
General Electric 42 1-4
General Motors 54
Elec. Auto Lite 37 1-2
Inter. Telephone 5 1-4
North American 22 3-8
Montgomery Ward 53 7-8
Phillips Pet. 45
Radio 6 3-8
Simmons 23 3-4
Standard Oil of N.J. 52 3-4
Standard Brands 6 3-8
Stewart-Warner 9 5-8
U.S. Steel 78 1-8
United Aircraft 43
Vanadium 38
Westinghouse 117 1-2

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 2 p.m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

Albany River 16-18
Barber Larder 2-3
Capps Gold 3A
Kenricia 18-22
Magnet Con. 53-56
Martin Bird 2 1-2-3 1-2
Oklend 6 1-4-7 1-2
Pascalis 31A
Proprietary 165
Sheldon 5A
Shenango 5 1-2-7
Upper Canada 46-49

WALL STREET CLOSE

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—(AP)—The stock market lost much of its war exuberance today and prices were spotty in most groups during the greater part of the session.

The ticker tape was behind for a brief interval at the start when declines ran to 2 or more points. The pace slackened on a subsequent recovery move when extreme recessions were reduced or cancelled. Near the final hour dealings were relatively slow and quotations well jumbled.

Transfers were about 2,000,000 shares.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, Sept. 14—(CP)— The western oils alone maintained the advance in the early part of the session on Toronto exchange today. The index for the group showed a gain of about 1 1-2 points at noon and the gains were enlarged in the early afternoon. Industrials and base metals were lower and the golds practically unchanged.

Home Oil advanced 25 cents to 2.66, Royalite firmed 3 points to 40, Calgary-Edmonton gained 15 cents and prices were up for Okalta, Foothills, Davies, Dalhousie and others.

In the base metal group, Nickel, Hudson Bay and Sherritt were off narrowly. The more active steels dropped about a point and prices were irregularly lower for the utilities, foods, papers and miscellaneous industrials.

GRAIN MARKET

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg grain exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today by J. H. Crang and Company.

| | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat: | | | |
| October | 79¾ | 75⅝ | 78¼ |
| December | 81⅝ | 77⅞ | 79½ |
| May | 85⅞ | 81¾ | 84⅛ |
| Oats: | | | |
| October | 40¼ | 38⅝ | 39 |
| December | 39¼ | 38⅛ | 38½ |
| May | 40½ | 38⅛ | 38½ |
| Barley: | | | |
| October | 49½ | 48 | 48 |
| December | 49¼ | 48½ | 48¾ |
| May | 51 | 49½ | 49¾ |
| Rye: | | | |
| October | 59¾ | 58¼ | 59 |
| December | 60¼ | 58 | 59½ |
| May | 62⅞ | 60½ | 61¾ |

Yugoslavia and Germany In Squabble Over Cargo Carriers' Return

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 14 —(AP)—It was reported reliably here today that a consignment of German airplanes for Yugoslavia was stopped by German authorities at the Yugoslav frontier in a dispute over transportation facilities.

Stoppage of the shipment was attributed to Yugoslavia's refusal to let several transloads of wheat through to Germany until Germany returned 400 railroad cars and more than 100 Danube River barges.

Yugoslavia was said to have refused to send any goods into Germany until cars and barges already held are sent back.

Frontier authorities were reported to have refused a German suggestion that shipments be dumped at the border where they could be picked up by German cars.

ATHENIA

(Continued From Page One)

The Bremen left New York Aug. 30 She has not been heard from since.

Berlin, Sept. 14—(AP)—A man with an excellent connection with the German navy reported today that the liner Bremen had been sailed to Nurmansk, Russia.

He said the $20,000,000 ship, after leaving New York without passengers about 36 hours before Germany started her campaign in Poland, took the most northerly course possible, entering the Arctic Ocean from the Atlantic and then proceeding to Kola Bay, where Nurmansk is situated.

(It was reported without official confirmation in Berlin on Sept. 7 that the Bremen had reached an unidentified neutral port.)

3¾%
On Guaranteed Trust Certificates
A legal investment for Trust Funds
Unconditionally Guaranteed
THE STERLING TRUSTS CORPORATION
STERLING TOWER TORONTO

Produce Markets

TORONTO BUYING PRICES

(By United Farmers Co-operative Company)

United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were paying the following prices for Toronto delivery:

EGGS—Prices to producers, cases returned basis, delivered Toronto:

| | |
|---|---|
| A-large | .31 |
| A-medium | .30 |
| Pullets | .22 |
| Grade "B" | .22 |
| Grade "C" | .14 |

| | |
|---|---|
| Churning Cream, No. 1 lb. | .26 |
| Churning Cream, No. 2, lb. | .21 |

| | |
|---|---|
| Butter, No. 1 | .27 1-2 |
| Butter, No. 2 | .26 1-2 |

Prices paid to country shippers.

(Quotations in cents)

| | Live | Dressed |
|---|---|---|
| Broilers. | | |
| 1 3-4 to 2½ pounds | .13 | .17 |
| Chickens. | | |
| 2½ to 4 pounds | .13 | .17 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .14 | .18 |
| 5 to 6 pounds | .15 | .19 |
| 6 pounds and over | .16 | .20 |

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 14—(CP)—An easier undertone developed on reporting bacon-hog markets today. Brantford dressedweights lost 40 cents while Hull quotes were off 25-35 cents. Stratford and London markets were unchanged.

Liveweights: Hull $8.25.

Dressedweights: Brantford $11.25 plus transportation, Hull $11, Stratford $11.50 plus transportation, London $11 plus transportation, Barrie $11.50.

Misfortune Strikes Family When Two Sons Fracture Arms

Misfortune struck twice at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Percy, College Street, this week.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Percy accompanied an ambulance to the Belleville General Hospital bearing her youthful son who a few moments before had fallen in the yard of the College Street home fracturing his left arm above the elbow.

With first aid given the boy, Mrs. Percy breathed easier until a telephone call came to the Hospital with a request for the mother to answer.

"Mrs. Percy speaking," she replied in answer to the voice on the telephone.

Mrs. Percy. Your other son, Nor-
Mrs. Percy. Your other son, norman, just fell in the yard and fractured his right arm."

Both Gerald and Norman are confined to the institution with their injuries.

Lonsdale

Lonsdale—A terrible storm came on Friday morning. No damage was done in this neighbourhood.

Teachers and pupils have returned to their several schools again. In the absence of the former teacher who was called for army duty, Mrs. J. Farrell has been teaching until a permanent teacher is secured.

Mrs. (Dr.) A. G. Cameron and her mother, Mrs. Gooddell of Ottawa, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Abbott McCullough on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Waddingham, her mother, Mrs. Tucker and Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson, Napanee, have returned home after spending a few days with friends in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson visited the latter's sister, Mrs. John McRae on Sunday.

Miss Tena McCullough has returned to Trenton, after spending a week-end at her home here.

Miss Sarah Winters, Napanee, is a visitor this week with her cousin, Mrs. Sarah McCullough.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Topping, Deseronto, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCullough on Sunday.

Miss Bernice Doudle enjoyed one day with her mother, Mrs. E. Doudle.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Camden East, Mr. George McLeod and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Dafoe, and son, visited Mr. Wilson Doudle one day quite recently.

Quite a number from this village attended Napanee Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Haight, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haight, Messrs. Murven and Angus and Mr. George McLeod, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. Sparrow, Thurlow on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McHenry spent one day lately at Trenton.

PLANT EMPLOYEES PRESENTED WITH GOLD WATCHES

Point Anne Plant of Canada Cement Co. Has Employees honored

FIRST AID TOKENS

Twenty-five years of faithful efficient service received colorful tribute at the Point Anne plant of the Canada Cement Company this week when seventeen employees received gold watches emblematic of the completion of a quarter-century continuous association with the plant.

At the same ceremony, forty-four first-aid tokens of efficiency in various stages, were given to employees passing examinations in this important work.

The watches were presented before the entire personnel of the plant by J. H. Johnson, President of the Canada Cement Company, Montreal, who in a brief address paid further tribute to the loyalty, efficiency, and whole-hearted cooperation of the men who had served the company over the period of years. He added the hope that they would remain to serve many more years in their various capacities.

First Aid Tokens

Mr. Jack Dempser, Montreal, Director of Safety for the company, presented the first-aid tokens. Certificates were given to sixteen "first-year" men and seventeen second-year men, while medallions were furnished by the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of England.

J. H. Legate, manager of the Point Anne plant, who acted as chairman of the function, likewise expressed his appreciation of services well rendered and added his congratulations upon the attainment of this long period of service and its ensuing reward.

Among the employees connected with plants other than that of Point Anne, who received the handsome watches were Mr. V. C. Moynes, Toronto Sales Manager, and A. Bailey, superintendent of the Lakefield, Ont., plant.

Mr. Johnson, following the presentation which was held in the company club house, left for Port Colborne where a similar presentation was made to twenty-five year employees yesterday.

Top Grade Egg Price Increase 1c

Toronto, Sept. 14.—Top grade eggs climbed another 1c per dozen at Toronto yesterday, but little change occurred in butter.

With continuing good demand and prevailing light arrivals of fresh receipts, local dealers sent prices higher on top grade eggs. In the graded section of the market all but B grades advanced 1c.

Trading tapered on the butter market, and there was more willingness on the part of holders to offer regraded Ontario butter. Amount of fresh Ontario make arriving was still light, and these supplies were clearing steadily. Although an easier undertone was evident, prices generally were unchanged. Sales were made in Western butter at 27 3-4c to 28c per pound.

Montreal Produce

Montreal, Sept. 14 (CP)—Produce market prices here as reported by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau follow:

Butter: First grade creamery prints, job price, 29c; first grade solids, job price, 28 1-2c. Receipts, 507 boxes.

Cheese: Ontario white, current receipt price, 11 1-16c to 11 5-16c. Ontario, colored, current receipt price, 11 5-16c. Receipts, 461 boxes.

Eggs: Graded inspected shipments in used free cases, A-large, 35 1-2c; A-medium, 33 1-2c; A-pullets, 27c; B-large, 23c to 24c; C, 17c. Receipts, 960 cases, including 508 export.

County Court

Hugh Green, Tyendinaga Reserve Indian, appeared in today's County Police Court, held before Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., charged with intoxication. The charge was preferred under the Indian Act and Green pleaded guilty and was fined $20.00 and costs.

The accused was arrested by the R.C.M.P. following alleged altercations at the Mohawk Fair, which was held on the Reserve yesterday. Green gave the authorities some little trouble following his arrest, resulting in some property damage to the R.C.M.P. police car, for which Green will be held responsible, Crown Attorney B.C. Donnan, K.C., revealed after court proceedings today.

Four teen-aged Belleville lads were apprehended by city police yesterday following complaints from George Mintz stating teen-aged lads were stealing grapes from the vines in his garden. The lads will be arraigned in Juvenile Court tomorrow.

Two non-support cases were heard by His Worship in police court today. His Worship lectured the parties regarding their actions, as the welfare of children was evident in both instances.

Special Classes For Czecho-Slovak Pupils at Frankford

Frankford—There are 23 Czecho-Slovakian children attending the Frankford Public School. Their task now is to learn to speak English before taking their places in the different class rooms. They are under the tuition of Miss Marion Casement and Miss Hazel Mikel.

Mrs. Geo. Weaver had the misfortune to tear the ligaments of her ankle loose when she fell down the outside steps of her home.

The many friends of Mrs. A. B. Loney will be glad to hear that she is improving. Miss Doreen Loney arrived home Sunday from Belleville General Hospital where she stayed by her mother's bedside while she was seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvenus V. Moor of Wellington spent Friday evening with their daughter, Mrs. Cecil Tripp.

Presentation

The many friends of Miss Helen Wallis gathered at her home on Friday evening Sept. 8th to spend a social evening with her prior to her departure to Toronto where she will attend the Provincial Normal School. Mr. G. A. Hearns acted as chairman and Miss Hazel Hearns made the presentation. The gift being a beautiful wrist watch. The following address was read by Miss Olive Rose.

Dear Helen:—

Tonight we have come to your home to wish you success in the coming year. We deeply regret that you must leave us in a few short days to go to Toronto, but we shall always extend to you a most cordial welcome when you come back home.

"Come Back Home"

Rattle and clank and clamor, honk
and whistle and shout,
Tramp of hurrying feet and the city's maddening rout;
And up thro' it all, remembrance of the old farmhouse and grounds,
And your deafened eardrums in fancy will hear the familiar sounds
The peep of little chickens, the rooster's clarion crow,
The bawl of complaining calf and brindle's mournful low,
The whinny of frisky foal and the whicker of answering dam,
The contented grunt of the pig
and the bleat of ewe and lamb;
All thro' the city's clank and clash half-pleading murmurs come
Of farmyard voices calling, calling,
Come Back Home.
Before you, desk and papers; behind the city's hum,
Soot and grime over everything,
smoke and filth and scum;
And thro' it all you'll be listening, listening for the call
Of the robin in the lilac, and the swallow by the wall,
The bobolink in the meadows—in the orchard the oriole,
The thrush in the silent wood-lot,
the finch on the thistle poll,
The whispering wind in the cedars,
the tinkle of tiny rill,
The riot of daisies and clover mantling yonder hill,
And the air vibrating, sparkling,
clear the heaven's dome,
The great outdoors, all calling,
calling, "Come Back Home."

We are proud to know that you have chosen one of the noblest professions and we hope that in the coming year your fondest desire and ambition will be realized.

Helen:—

You have a way of smiling
At the folk you daily meet,
And the smile makes many people
At the moment pain forget.
You have a way of watching
For a chance to render aid,
And of work, dear little maiden
You never seem to be afraid.
You have a way of singing
Songs of joy the whole day through,
Do you wonder we are hapy
When you try your best to do?

We envy your new friends next year of the sincere friend they shall have in you. We trust that you shall never forget us.

Make new friends, but keep the old,
These are silver, those are gold;
New-made friendship like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.

We could go on and on telling of your excellent qualities but:

Oh this occasion we have brought you tonight
A small gift all shining and bright,
Just accept this gift as a slight token we pray
Of the love and esteem we shall bear you alway,
Please kindly unwrap it and we will stand by
And watch with delight as the knot you untie.

Signed on behalf of your friends:
Olive Hearns,
Grace Rowley,
Beulah Nicolson,

Fishing in the Trent at Frankford is good. As one of our Czech friends remarked—"One worm, two fish."

Furniture Delayed

Much of the furniture belonging to the Czechs is arriving and many of them are securing rooms or homes of their own. Others who have not yet received their furniture are worrying, as the shipping is so disrupted that they fear it may be returned to Germany.

Mr and Mrs. Geo. Montgomery and Douglas and Mr. Wesley Wallis and Jackie accompanied Helen Wallis to Toronto on Sunday, where she will attend the Normal School.

Mrs. Hugh Miller and Mrs. Mac Rostie spent a few days of last week in Toronto attending the Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Innis and son Foster of Peterborough were in town over the week end. They were on their way to spend a few days in Toronto, Oakville and Orangeville.

Mr. Hubert Mitchell arrived home on Saturday night from Toronto.

Birthday Party

A birthday party was held at the home of Mr. J. Williamson on Monday evening in honor of Miss Kay Hibbert and Miss Evelyn Crow of Stockdale. Miss Audrey Graham of Stockdale was also present to commemorate the event.

Mr. E. B. Lott is seriously ill at his home on the 6th Con. of Sidney.

Mrs. P. Consaul arrived home from Brighton on Monday night, after spending some time with her sister, who has been ill.

Miss Edna Johnson is in Stirling attending the Stirling High School.

An accident of minor importance occurred on the four corners of Frankford on Monday morning, resulting in one of the cars being slightly damaged.

Interesting Wedding

A wedding of much interest to the people of Frankford took place at Marmora on Wednesday, Sept. 6th when Leona, daughter of the late Mr. Wm. Gauley and Mrs. Annie Gauley of Malone, to Mervin Dafoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dafoe, of Frankford. Rev. Fletcher officiated. The bride and groom are spending their honeymoon in Toronto, Hamilton and other points and are expected to arrive in Frankford shortly. They will reside in Malone where the groom has been running a general store for some time past. The best wishes of the Frankford people go with them.

MOVEMENT

(Continued From Page One)

Story is Told

Returning to the subject of the movement of the expeditionary force to France, the correspondent continued:

"As far as is known the enemy gleaned no knowledge of the long columns that passed in recent nights through the dark country lanes to British harbors. As the heavy columns arrived dockers made short work of stowing armored fighting vehicles on shipboard. Steam was up and the ships are quickly away, shadowed by the escorts of the Royal Navy.

"Brigade after brigade, division after division were thus transported. The work went on and some idea of the enormous nature of the task may be gathered from the fact that a division with its vehicles on a single road stretches for 20 miles."

One correspondent at a port in the south of England estimated that at one time three trains arrived each hour day and night from the interior of England for the dispatch of those troops which did not come to the embarkation point by highway.

Fail to Dislodge Troops

Discussing operations on the western front, the correspondent said a German counter attack by "at least six assault divisions" has failed to dislodge the French from their stranglehold in the Saarbruecken sector.

"French advanced troops continued yesterday the series of operations designed to abolish all the salients of the German line in front of the westwall," the correspondent said. "Piece by piece the outworks of Saarbruecken are being cut off and yesterday an important cover point at the River Blies passed into French hands.

"Saarbruecken is thus stripped of all its outward cover and as a coal and iron centre is of no use to the Germans. Nothing can enter or leave owing to the shell barrage.

"Road and rail avenues to the Siegfried fortifications are cut off. All along the Saar front artillery operations dominate.

Use Six Divisions

"To dislodge the French from this stranglehold of first positions, the Germans have used, in whole or part, at least six assault divisions and the attack along the line yesterday again failed against artillery fire. If Saarbruecken is taken it will be serious for the Germans, as one more advance towards Saarlautern and Neunkirchen would endanger the first zone of German defence and provide an approach point for a bigger advance against the next line of the main defence works.

"The Germans must be much worried that the French threaten to make 'marching roads' through the gigantic fortification lines. The German military mind is mechanical and shows inability to tackle unorthodox methods such as the French use in biting off pieces of the German defence territory every second day.

"In Poland the 'Mons retreat' has reached the point where retirement has halted and the 'Marne advance' has begun. Happily, the Polish army still remains intact as a result of brilliant strategy. It is also welcome to note that already the autumn rains are softening the ground and thus impeding the motorized German invaders."

BRITAIN WILL NOT

(Continued From Page One)

straint being observed by our opponents; and His Majesty's government must, of course, hold themselves free, if such restraint is not in fact observed, to take such action as they may deem appropriate.

"But I wish to add that whatever be the lengths to which others may go, His Majesty's government will never resort to deliberate attack on women, children and other civilians for purposes of mere terrorism."

CANADA LIFE APPOINTMENTS

W. J. BEATTIE

E. C. GILL, F.A.S.

The Canada Life Assurance Co. announces the appointment of W. J. Beattie, formerly assistant to the president, as assistant general manager, and E. C. Gill, F.A.S., formerly treasurer, to be assistant general manager and treasurer. It is pointed out that the appointments involve no change in the company's administrative policy.

POTATO PRICES SHOW INCREASE

Bushel Lots Up 10 Cents With Crops Slightly Below a Year Ago

Potato prices shot upward on the city market today with bushels quoted at $1.10 and peck lots thirty five cents each, rise of ten cents over last weekend quotations.

While the quality of the potatoes offered was good a number of farmer-vendors stated that the crop would be slightly below that of a year ago.

War news and new taxation, however failed to have any visible effect on the prices of other commodities and produce. Home grown tomatoes sold at fifty and sixty cents the bushel with sweet corn offered at ten and fifteen cents the dozen.

New vegetables were plentiful with quotations steady at earlier levels. Only a small amount of butter was offered as this sold slowly at sixty cents the two-pound roll.

Fruits were plentiful with peaches and plums heading the display. The former were offered at thirty five cents for good quality fruits with Burbanks and German Prune plums selling at forty-five and fifty cents the basket.

New fall varieties of apples were available in large lots with Wolf River offered at twenty cents the half-peck. Clapps Favorite pears offered at forty cents the peck with the popular Bartlett quoted at twenty cents the basket.

Watermelon and canteloupe were plentiful with good quality fruits offered at steady prices. Watermelon was available in all sizes and at all prices with the cantelope moving quite briskly at from five cents each. No fish offering was noted on the market.

EMPTY BUILDINGS

(Continued From Page One)

More Privacy

One of the measures to ensure government officials have a greater degree of privacy has been to close the doors of government buildings to the general public.

In the large buildings all the entrances but one have been closed and a mounted police guard scrutinizes every person who enters. Only those having legitimate business in the buildings are admitted. Eventually cards of identification will be issued employees.

The centre block, usually thronged by tourists when Parliament is not in session, has been closed since Sept. 3 to all except those with admission cards, employees, Members and those with business to transact.

Canadian Dollar Discounted 13 P.C.

Detroit, Sept. 14 —(CP)— Canadian dollar dropped to 87 cents here today.

New York, Sept. 14—(AP)— The pound sterling tumbled 16 cents in the foreign exchange market today, touching $3.85, its lowest level since May, 1933. The French franc was permitted to slide with it, losing .09 1-4 cent to 2.20 in terms of the United States dollar. The Canadian dollar also dropped with the pound, losing 1 7-16 cents to 10-5 1-6 cents discount.

Traders said there were no heavy dealings but that no one seemed to want to buy the currencies and there was some pressure of offerings.

PROVINCIAL POLICE PROBE BREAKIN

Provincial Police today investigated a breakin at a schoolhouse on the second concession of Thurlow. Provincial Constable W. E. Smith investigated the breakin and found an old fashioned schoolhouse clock was the only thing to be missing. The schoolroom, students' desks and cloakrooms were ransacked and goods strewn about the classroom. What puzzled the police was why an old fashioned practically valueless clock should be the only article stolen.

MINISTERS WILL ATTEND FUNERAL

Educational Minister Will Represent School Children of the Province

Toronto, Sept. 14—(CP)— Hon. L. J. Simpson, Ontario Minister of Education, said today he and Dr. Duncan McArthur, Deputy Minister of Education, would attend the funeral of Margaret Hayworth in Hamilton Saturday.

The girl died on the City of Flint while being brought with her mother to Halifax after the British liner Athenia was torpedoed. The rescue ship reached Halifax yesterday with 216 survivors. The girl died en route of injuries suffered in the torpedoing.

"Margaret Hayworth, a defenceless, innocent child of 10 years of age, was one of the first victims of the campaign of ruthlessness being waged by Hitler and his armed forces", said Dr. Simpson. "The death of this child should bring home to every family in this province and throughout Canada the issues involved in this present conflict."

It was announced the Minister and Deputy Minister will attend the funeral as representatives of Ontario school children "who would desire to pay tribute to one of their own number who has fallen victim to the cruelty of unrestrained aggression."

Dr. Simpson suggested that it would be fitting that Ontario schools Monday honor the memory of the girl.

SURVIVORS NOW ON WAY HOME

Athenia Survivors Taken by Train from Halifax to Montreal

Montreal, Sept. 14 (CP)—Survivors of the torpedoed liner Athenia today rolled swiftly away from the sea on which they played unwilling roles in the war's first submarine drama.

A special train bore to Montreal more than 200 of the 216 refugees who reached Halifax yesterday on a rescue ship.

As first victims of 1939's warfare at sea, tragedy had touched them all.

As they headed toward their homes in the United States and Canada, they left behind stories of a liner bearing 1,500 persons torpedoed without warning, and of death and suffering on the Atlantic off the Hebrides. Some had lost family members when the Cunard White Star ship went down Sept. 3.

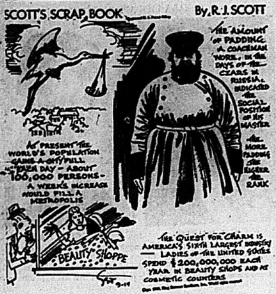
They boarded the special train in Halifax last night, seven hours after the United States freighter City of Flint brought them into the safety of that harbor. Nurses, doctors, government officials and welfare workers had prepared them swiftly for the land journey that followed 10 days of precarious life at sea.

Archie Cameron New Leader of Australian Country Party

Canberra, Sept. 14 (CP-Reuters)—Sir Earle Page stepped down as leader of the Australian Country Party today and was succeeded by Archie Cameron, former Postmaster General, in a move to hasten formation of a National government.

Sir Earle presented his resignation last week after holding office for nearly 20 years. He explained "my continued leadership might for personal reasons impede formation of a composite goevrnment."

At the party meeting during which Mr. Cameron was elected leader a resolution was passed declaring it was essential that a National government "should be formed on just terms" in this time of war.



SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK
By R. J. SCOTT
THE AMOUNT OF PADDING A COACHMAN WORE, IN THE DAYS OF THE CZARS IN RUSSIA, INDICATED THE SOCIAL POSITION OF HIS MASTER - THE MORE PADDING THE HIGHER THE RANK
AT PRESENT THE WORLD'S POPULATION GAINS A CITY FULL EACH DAY - ABOUT 100,000 PERSONS - A WEEK'S INCREASE WOULD FILL A METROPOLIS
BEAUTY SHOPPE
THE QUEST FOR CHARM IS AMERICA'S SIXTH LARGEST INDUSTRY - LADIES OF THE UNITED STATES SPEND $200,000,000 EACH YEAR IN BEAUTY SHOPS AND AT COSMETIC COUNTERS
9-14

A Pressing Matter

By EMELINE BOYER

"Stay where you are, Joie, and keep your hands in sight." Detective Big Jim Dunn halted the young man's nervous pacing. "We were anxious to see you," he went on in the same even voice; "so we got a pass-key from the janitor and came in."

Keeping a close watch on his host Big Jim motioned to the two policemen behind him. While the one held a drawn revolver, the other ran his hands over Joie Ray's clothing. "No rod," he reported.

"We want you to come down to headquarters," said the detective.

"What for?" asked Joie insolently. "You've got nothin' on me."

"Too bad about Sol Moses," observed Big Jim. "He worked hard all his life, lived in two little rooms above his store, didn't even get glasses when he needed them. And now, when he'd put his boy through college and was gonna retire to the country, he gets bumped off on his way to the bank tonight." He paused, but Joie offered no comment. "Somebody was after his money, I guess," Big Jim continued, "but left without taking it, or his gun either. Maybe he was afraid that his shot had attracted too much attention."

"Whaddya tryin' to feed me?" asked Joie derisively. "The banks close at noon on Saturday."

"But the night depository doesn't" answered the detective.

Joie was unimpressed. "What do I care about Sol Moses and his chicken-feed?" he asked airily.

Big Jim's reply was a question "What have you been living on since Louie was sent up the river?"

"Oh, I have an income," replied Joie, grandly.

"You wouldn't think an old fellow like Sol would put up a fight," remarked the detective.

If he expected a reply, he was disappointed. With a yawn that looked real, Joie observed, "Well, drop in again sometime—any time. I'm going to bed now."

"Since when do you go to bed at half past ten?" asked Big Jim.

"Is that what you wanted me to come down to headquarters to find out?" Joie inquired sweetly.

"No", said the detective. "We wanted to ask you where you were this evening."

"Right here," declared Joie flatly.

"Reading and smoking?" asked Big Jim.

"Reading," answered Joie; "but I've cut out smoking." His glance strayed over to empty ash trays.

The detective's eyes followed his.

"I thought you might like to see this," he said, taking from his pocket a piece of cloth—cheap, shoddy suit material. "It was in Sol's hand" he explained. "Somebody in the crowd said it matched a suit you've been wearing."

Big Jim did not need to take the word of some one in the crowd. The material matched the suit that Joie had on.

But Joie's smile remained idyllic. "I don't feel any draft," he remarked, "but pr'aps you'd like to take a look." He rose and insolently turned about.

"Look it over boys." Big Jim ordered. The policemen did thoroughly.

"Well, I guess we've drawn a blank," he observed. "But we'll take a look around before we go."

At the end of an hour, everything had been subjected to a close scrutiny, without result. But Big Jim was not through. "You boys stay here and keep your eye on Joie," he ordered. I'll be back soon."

In less than ten minutes Big Jim returned. Too bad," he told Joie, "that the new janitor didn't keep the incinerator going. I found another pair of pants down there just like yours; only the other pair has a piece torn out."

Joie's calm was apparently unbroken. "So what?" he asked, rising and moving aimlessly toward Big Jim. But with a sudden motion his aimlessness disappeared. He leaped for the door.

The detective was too quick for him. With a flying tackle that would seem impossible for one his size, he brought Joie to the floor.

"Lucky there was a new janitor up there," observed one of the policemen to Big Jim, after Joie had signed a confession.

"Yes," replied Big Jim. "Joie wouldn't have believed me if I had told him that an old hand had forgotten the incinerator."

"Did the piece in Sol's hand just fit the hole in the pants?" asked the policeman.

"I don't know," was the reply.

"Didn't you try it?" The policeman was obviously shocked.

Big Jim reached in his pocket and pulled out a handful of twisted buttons.

"Here's what I found in the incinerator," he explained. "The janitor was right on the job."

"So it was a bluff," said the policeman admiringly. "But what made you think of a two-pants suit?"

"When Joie stood up for us to look him over," explained Big Jim, "I noticed that his pants were pressed, but that his coat was wrinkled. Just before I came on duty at six o'clock," he confessed, grinning, "my wife made me take off my coat and let her press it, because I looked the same way.

"I guess that's why they pay us only $160 a month on this job," he observed; "so that we have to buy two-pants suits."

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Brighton | Sept. 12-13 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Bancroft | Sept. 14-15 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Centreville | Sept. 1-2 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |
| Shannonville | Sept. 15 |

4th Sidney

4th. Sidney — Mr. and Mrs. Brigham of Windsor, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Jeffery spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. H. K. Denyes, it being the occasion of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woods spent Sunday with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. F Harris and Mrs. S. Phillips and daughter, Maude, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Simpkins of Melrose.

The terrific wind on Thursday morning last did considerable damage in this vicinity, uprooting trees and the apple orchards suffered as it blew down the apples, covering the ground. In some orchards pear trees were blown a considerable distance and fences are seen turned over, but the buildings were not damaged on this line.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Brigham spent Sunday with relatives in Madoc and on Monday took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Detlor spent Sunday with relatives in Ivanhoe.

Bonarlaw

Bonarlaw — St. Mark's Church annual harvest thanksgiving service was held last Sunday evening at 7.30 p.m. The church was beautifully decorated and there was a good attendance. Rev. Canon W. G. Swayne delivered a splendid sermon and made reference to how thankful the people of Canada should be in these troublous times. The choir sang the anthem, "Praise the Lord O King of Heaven."

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. R. Brown, Mr. G. S. Eastwood and Mrs. J. F. Baker motored to Oshawa and called on Mrs G. S. Eastwood, who is a patient in the Oshawa General Hospital. They found her much improved and expecting to be able to leave this week.

St. Mark's Sunday School opened Sunday last after the holiday, with a fine attendance and a promising outlook for the Fall and Winter. All adults and children in the vicinity are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. John Davidson loaded a mixed car of stock on Tuesday and a carload of cattle on Saturday last.

Gore

Gore—A slight frost visited this community the other night, but did no damage. It makes everyone feel as though Winter is not far away.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brickman and Carl were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bryant and family of Wellington were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Brickman and they visited Trenton Airport and called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sager of Belleville.

The W.M.S. meeting of this month was held at the home of Mrs. B. L. Redner on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fox returned home from Toronto on Wednesday afternoon after visiting there for a few days. Mrs. Jennie Fox returned home with them after a few weeks' stay with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Lont.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fox on Sunday.

School re-opened once more on Tuesday of this week at Centre with Mr. Jack Delong engaged as teacher for another year. Sybil Redner and John McIntyre were the new beginners.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Brown were tea hour guests of Mr. Lorne Brickman's on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stewart of Belleville, were callers on Tuesday evening of last week at Mr. Willie Fox's.

Mrs. Julia Fox has returned home after a few days' stay with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson.

Mr. W. Fox and Mr. N. Wilder of Rednersville, made a business trip to Frankford on Saturday.

Pickling and canning corn is the order of the day in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fox accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Delbert McCurdy to Toronto recently and attended the Toronto Exhibition.

Mr. Lorne Brickman's are very busy canning tomatoes and corn in their canning factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fox spent Thursday at Belleville and visited at Mr. Arthur Stewart's.

Sunday school and church were held at Centre Sunday morning with a good attendance.

Mrs. Annie Allison of Jericho St. is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Townsend for a few days.

Mrs. John Coukell with little son Gordon of Shannonville, is spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Pulver were noon hour guests of her mother, Mrs. Mac Humphery, third line.

Mr. Lorne Humphrey of Toronto, called on Mr. Earl Fox on Sunday evening.

Outstanding Radio Programs

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14.

AFTERNOON

4.00—Smile Parade, variety program with Ransom Sherman. —WJZ, WHAM.

NIGHT

7.15—The Parker Family sketch—WABC, WGR.
7.30—Joe E. Brown.—WABC, WGR.
8.00—Jessica Dragonette, sop. —WJZ, CBL, CBO.
8.00—Rudy Vallee Variety Hour. —WEAF, WGY.
9.00—Promenade Symphony Orch. —WJZ, CBL.
9.00—Good News of 1940; Fannie Brice.—WEAF, WGY, CBL.
10.00—Music Hall; Bob Burns m.c. guest: Yella Pessl, harpsichordist. —WEAF, WBEN, CBO, CBL.
10.00—Columbia Workshop. —WABC, CFRB. WJZ.
10.30—Concert Orch.—WJZ.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF, WGY.
7.00—Artie Shaw's Orchestra. —WJZ.
7.15—Lum and Abner, comedy sketch.—WABC, WGR, CFRB.
8.00—Concert with Lucille Manners, quartet, Frank Black's orchestra.—WEAF, WBEN, CBL.
8.30—Johnny Presents; Short Stories; Orch—WABC, WGR.
8.30—Don't Forget, Allen Prescott, m.c.—WJZ, WHAM.
9.00—Waltz Time, Frank Munn. tenor, Manhattan chorus; Abe Lyman's Orch.—WEAF, WGY.
10.00—Guy Lombardo's Orchestra. —WEAF, WGY, WBEN.
10.00—Heavyweight Boxing Bout: Lou Nova-Tony Galento.—WJZ, WHAM.

RADIO PROGRAMS

THURSDAY

2.00—Betty and Bob.—WEAF, WHAM
7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure time—WEAF, WGY
7.30—Lyric Trio—CBO, CBL.
7.45—The political situation in Europe—WJZ
8.00—Ask-It-Basket with Jim McWilliams—WABC, WGR
8.30—Strange as it seems—WABC, WGR
9.00—Major Bowes' — WABC, CFRB
10.45—Armchair Adventures — WABC, CFRB
11.30—Lugi Romanelli's Orchestra—CBO, CBL

FRIDAY

12.30—Nat'l. Farm and Home Hour WJZ
3.00—Marine Band—WGR
3.00—Navy Band—WJZ, WHAM
8.00—Lucille Manners, soprano—CBL
7.15—Jesse Crawford and. Novachord—WEAF, WBEN
9.00—Plantation party — WJZ, WHAM
9.00—Make Mine Music — WABC, CFRB, CBO, CBL
9.30—Death Valley Days—WEAF, WLW
9.30—First Nighter, drama. — WABC, WJR.
9.30—Music and Manners — CBL, CBO
10.30—Believe it or Not, Ripley — WJR
10.30—America Unlimited — WEAF, WLW

RADIO DIRECTORY

| CANADIAN STATIONS | Kils. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal | 580 |
| CKOC—Hamilton | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland | 1070 |

| UNITED STATES STATIONS | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago | 854 |
| WGN—Chicago | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville | 820 |
| WEAF—New York | 660 |
| WJZ—New York | 760 |
| WABC—New York | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady | 980 |
| WOR—Newark | 710 |

Mr. and Mrs.—

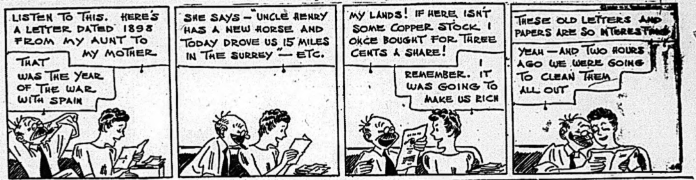
By Briggs



LISTEN TO THIS. HERE'S A LETTER DATED 1898 FROM MY AUNT TO MY MOTHER
THAT WAS THE YEAR OF THE WAR WITH SPAIN
SHE SAYS — "UNCLE HENRY HAS A NEW HORSE AND TODAY DROVE US 15 MILES IN THE SURREY" — ETC.
MY LANDS! IF HERE ISN'T SOME COPPER STOCK I ONCE BOUGHT FOR THREE CENTS A SHARE!
I REMEMBER. IT WAS GOING TO MAKE US RICH
THESE OLD LETTERS AND PAPERS ARE SO INTERESTING
YEAH — AND TWO HOURS AGO WE WERE GOING TO CLEAN THEM ALL OUT

Pop-

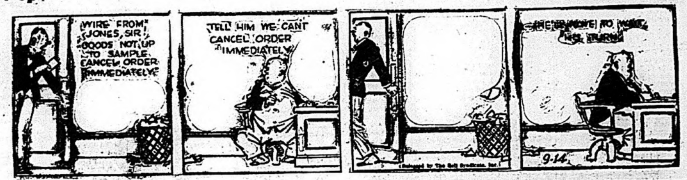
By J. Millar Watt



WIRE FROM JONES, SIR: GOODS NOT UP TO SAMPLE. CANCEL ORDER IMMEDIATELY
TELL HIM WE CAN'T CANCEL ORDER IMMEDIATELY
9-14
(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Tillie The Toiler--

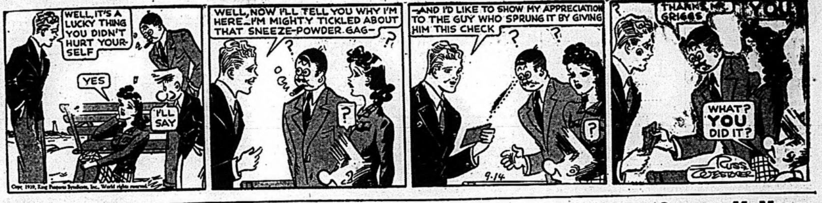
By Russ Westover



WELL, IT'S A LUCKY THING YOU DIDN'T HURT YOURSELF
YES
I'LL SAY
WELL, NOW I'LL TELL YOU WHY I'M HERE—I'M MIGHTY TICKLED ABOUT THAT SNEEZE-POWDER GAG—
?
?
—AND I'D LIKE TO SHOW MY APPRECIATION TO THE GUY WHO SPRUNG IT BY GIVING HIM THIS CHECK
?
?
9-14
THANKS, MR. GRIGGS
YOU
WHAT? YOU DID IT?
RUSS WESTOVER
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

Bringing Up Father—

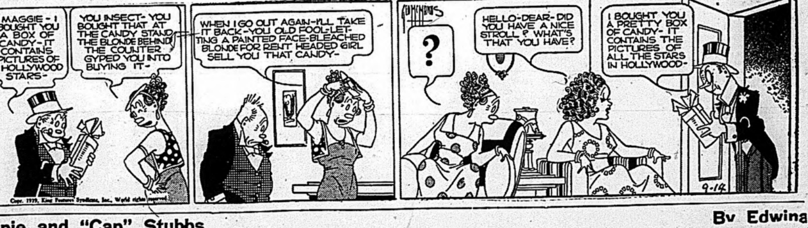
By George McManus



MAGGIE - I BOUGHT YOU A BOX OF CANDY - IT CONTAINS PICTURES OF HOLLYWOOD STARS -
YOU INSECT - YOU BOUGHT THAT AT THE CANDY STAND THE BLONDE BEHIND THE COUNTER GYPED YOU INTO BUYING IT -
WHEN I GO OUT AGAIN - I'LL TAKE IT BACK - YOU OLD FOOL - LETTING A PAINTED FACE - BLEACHED BLONDE FOR RENT HEADED GIRL SELL YOU THAT CANDY -
GEO McMANUS
?
HELLO - DEAR - DID YOU HAVE A NICE STROLL? WHAT'S THAT YOU HAVE?
I BOUGHT YOU A PRETTY BOX OF CANDY - IT CONTAINS THE PICTURES OF ALL THE STARS IN HOLLYWOOD -
9-14
Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

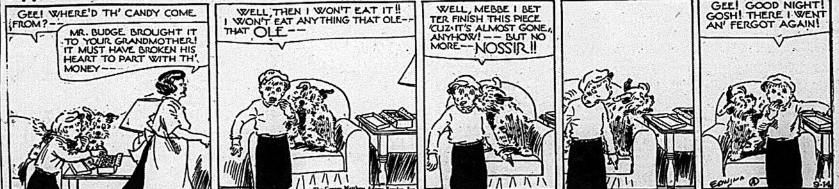
By Edwina



GEE! WHERE'D TH' CANDY COME FROM?--
MR. BUDGE BROUGHT IT TO YOUR GRANDMOTHER! IT MUST HAVE BROKEN HIS HEART TO PART WITH TH' MONEY---
WELL, THEN I WON'T EAT IT!! I WON'T EAT ANYTHING THAT OLE-- THAT OLE--
The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.
WELL, MEBBE I BETTER FINISH THIS PIECE 'CUZ IT'S ALMOST GONE, ANYHOW! -- BUT NO MORE--NOSSIR!!
GEE! GOOD NIGHT! GOSH! THERE I WENT AN' FERGOT AGAIN!
EDWINA
9-14

NO BEES
NEED APPLY

As the bees buzz busily from bloom to bloom, they carry the pollen which makes the seeds fertile. But tobacco flowers have no need for bees; they do their own pollination. Which is fortunate for the Burbanks of tobacco culture, for they can tie a flowering head in a bag without condemning it to perpetual spinsterhood and so found a blue-blooded tobacco family without fear that a busy bee will mix the breed.

Since Columbus discovered the tobacco plant, hundreds of varieties have been developed, each with leaves having their own particular qualities of size, texture, flavour and fragrance. Turkish leaves, for instance, will lie in a baby's hand while a leaf of Burley would almost cover the baby.

Soil and climate do curious things to tobacco which is one of the world's most finicky plants. From the seed, which is the smallest sold commercially, to the cigarette—in growing, harvesting and curing—tobacco must be handled as delicately as a royal infant. Your favourite Imperial brand never varies in fragrance and flavour. This is because the Company constantly keeps an adequate stock of many varieties maturing for years in storage ready for blending by experts who have spent years in mastering the art.

IMPERIAL TOBACCO COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

Rawdon

Rawdon—On Thursday evening, the Carmel folk tendered Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clements (nee Isobel Dunkley), a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dunkley.

Rev. W. J. Scott was Master of Ceremonies and all enjoyed a round of community singing. Mr. Harvey Couch rendered a guitar solo. Readings were contributed by Mrs. Ashley Brooks, Mr. Clarence Seeney and Miss Joan Hoard.

Mr. Frank Harding sang a solo with guitar accompaniment and Master Neil Hubble sang. Mrs. Clarence Seeney read an address of appreciation and the bride and groom opened the parcels and graciously thanked their friends for the lovely array of gifts.

Several of the men made impromptu speeches and all enjoyed a social half hour and a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Jaynes of Cobourg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fanning last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harvie, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bertrand were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Reid.

Mr. Harold Lowery, Regina, Mrs. Arthur Southworth and Miss Thelma Lowery, Campbellford, visited their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hubble on Sunday.

Miss Margaret Donaldson is the new teacher at the Williams' School.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson and Orland of Brockville, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Linn on Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. John Hawley of Detroit, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fanning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Linn recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson, Campbellford, Mrs. A. Oddie of St. Catharines, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson, Douglas and Tommie, Mrs. W. C. Pitman and Grace, Stirling, also Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Linn.

Rev. J. E. Beckel attended Presbytery at White Lake on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Saskatoon, Miss E. Anderson, Montreal and Mr. Anderson's sister and husband visited friends at Wellman's on Sunday as they formerly resided in that locality.

Miss Marie Ketcheson spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. M. Fitzgerald, Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Meiklejohn, Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Morton recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Humphries and son of Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dunham recently entertained relatives from Picton and Demorestville.

Lengthy Docket In Bancroft Court

Bancroft — In Bancroft police court on Tuesday James Maxwell charged with causing a disturbance in a public place on July 12th. at Boulter picnic, refusing to move off the baseball field, was arrested and fined $10 and costs.

Mr. Mervin Goebel charged with assault causing bodily harm to Wm. Mattis was found guilty and fined $10 and costs.

Joseph Werner of Bancroft, charged with failing to report a car accident, was found guilty and fined $10 and costs.

K. W. Fraser of Montreal, charged with reckless driving, was given a three months' suspended sentence and paid court costs.

L. Phillips, of Gunter, charged with stealing a cow was tried here and found guilty. He was also found guilty on a separate charge of trespassing on private property.

Mrs. Susan Tripp pleaded guilty to charges of stealing $70 from Mrs. Annie Tripp. She paid court costs and was given three months to make restitution. She was also put on a six months' suspended sentence.

James Bierworth and Mervin Goeber were sued by Allan Morris for $100 wages for 6 months' work. The case was settled outside out of court.

Baseball

Bancroft baseball team was handed a 19-18 defeat by the Maynooth Royals on Saturday afternoon.

Fifteen men of this village report in Madoc Thursday for military service.

Stirling

Stirling—The cyclone that played havoc throughout this district last week did much damage that is being revealed as days pass. The high winds that laid many of Stirling's largest trees flat, tore roofs off, shattered several silos and small farm buildings and dislodged several chimneys in the district and loosened the roots of some trees that will yet have to be removed as a safety measure for people walking the streets. Elm trees measuring three feet in diameter of which Stirling has been very proud for many years, were finding their way to the woodpile after the wind had twisted them loose from the ground and laid them flat.

An inspection of the eighty-five foot steeple on St. Paul's United Church reveals its timbers and mooring twisted and torn loose and wide gaping cracks appearing in the masonwork below it. It is feared that measures will have to be taken for its removal or replacement at once. A special meeting of the Church Board has been called to deal with the matter.

Two large elms have disappeared from Stirling Park; five trees are down on Church Street, some having torn up six feet of lawn with them. Several fell on Front Street, Station Street, Gore Street, James Street, Mill Street and Henry Street. In all parts of town axes were needed to clear the streets for traffic. On Sunday, shortly after noon, a comparatively light wind finished the falling of a tree on the Front Street property of Mrs. George White. The large tree fell against the back kitchen, though little damage was reported. Heaviest losses were sustained apparently by St. James' Catholic Church Rectory, St. Andrew's Church and St. Paul's United Church.

St. Paul's Women's Association

The regular monthly meeting of St. Paul's Women's Association was held at the home of Mr. R. B. Duffin on Friday afternoon last, Mrs. F. N. McKee, president of the organization, presided at the opening exercises with Mrs. M. Hick at the piano. Following the use of the theme song and the Lord's Prayer, Mrs. Duffin presented the secretary's report. Mrs. Duffin also gave the treasurer's report. Attendance recording revealed thirty ladies present. During the business portion of the meeting it was decided that the Association would sponsor a pot luck supper.

The remaining portion of the meeting was directed by the convener of the program committee, Mrs. H. C. Martin following the use of hymn No. 519. Mrs. Wm. Fox read the Scripture and Mrs. H. David led in prayer. An excellent musical contribution to the afternoon's entertainment was made by Miss Janette Workman in an instrumental solo, and Mrs. G. L. Clute conducted a uiz Contest.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. H. C. Martin who gave an excellent address based on the theme "Good Cheese As It Benefits Our Community." With cheese the main industry of the Central Ontario Rural District this address prepared and delivered in a most capable fashion was most fitting. At the conclusion of the fine program luncheon was served by the following ladies responsible for the meeting: Mrs. H. C. Martin, Mrs. Geo. Richardson, Mrs. Robt. Bastedo, Mrs. W. Fox, Mrs. Walter Elliott, Mrs. Geo. Rosebush, Mrs. H. David, Mrs. G. L. Clute and Mrs. M. H. Patterson. The thanks of the Association was expressed to Mrs. Duffin in a brief address by Mrs. Clifford Hatton.

Rrepresentatives of the Bata Shoe Co. of rankford were in Stirling recently and the names of several Stirling young people were added to the waiting list of future employees of the Frankford plant which is rapidly being absorbed as the building program proceeds.

Mr. B. W. Bishop, well-known watchmaker who three years ago acquired the jewelry and watch-repair business owned and operated by the late Herb Hadley has announced his intention of closing his Front Street business establishment owing to poor health. Mr. Bishop who has been a watchmaker for more than forty years, is well-known for his workmanship in both Stirling and Trenton. Closing of his business doesn't mean retirement however, for when health permits it Mr. Bishop will continue watch repair work at his Front Street residence after disposal of his store.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jackson, Allan and Margaret of Newmarket, were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Pitman and visited other friends in the district. Mr. Jackson is a former Principal of Stirling Public School.

Yours for ONLY 5¢ While your dealer's supply lasts!

Get this Beautiful
SERVING SET FOR ONLY 5¢ when you buy large package of
NEW & IMPROVED
Chipso

ACTUAL SIZE

BEAUTIFUL "CUT GLASS" TYPE SERVING SET

This lovely Serving Set will add new sparkle and gaiety to your table or buffet! All the rage just now for serving jellies, jams, sauces, relishes, salad dressings and other delicious tidbits. But don't forget, due to the unusual value of this amazing offer—your dealer's supply will go quickly. So act at once. Serving dish measures 4½" wide by 2½" deep; plate measures 6" wide.

Choice of 2 lovely colors:
CRYSTAL or ROSE

HURRY!
Go to your dealer's, today —while he has a supply of both colors.

This Valuable Offer made solely to get you to try
NEW, FASTER-SUDSING CHIPSO!

New Chipso...
Dissolves up to 66% Faster, Makes Suds up to 44% Faster . . .
Amazing Power . . . Yet Safe for Washable Silks and Woolens

IMAGINE! Only 5¢ for this beautiful Serving Set—when you buy a large package of the new, FASTER-SUDSING Chipso. This amazing offer is made solely to get you to try new Chipso, today. For no other popular laundry soap surpasses Chipso's combination of safety, power and amazing speed!

SPLIT-SECOND SPEED! Actual tests prove Chipso dissolves up to 66% faster, makes suds up to 44% faster than other popular washday soaps tested. Chipso's new, tissue-thin flakes dissolve in a flash. And you get a beautiful white wash!

DEPENDABLE SAFETY! Chipso is NOT loaded with harsh chemicals or harmful alkalis—it's made to be safe. Your heavy family wash, washable colored fabrics...EVEN WASHABLE SILKS AND WOOLENS...are safe in Chipso. And if your hands are rough and red from using strong soaps in tub, washer or dishpan, we believe 2 weeks' trial with Chipso will find them becoming smoother.

AMAZING POWER! Faster, hard-working suds give Chipso thorough cleansing power; you have no back-breaking scrubbing because Chipso's suds do so much of the hard work for you. You get power that means white washes, brilliant colors and no dragged-out feeling at the end of washday. Old-fashioned soaps cannot give you all these remarkable advantages.

CHIPSO IS ECONOMICAL! Ounce for ounce, you need 26% less Chipso in your washer than the average of other washday soaps tested.

GUARANTEED! If you don't agree new Chipso gives you better ALL AROUND PERFORMANCE—speed, safety and power—than any washday soap you ever used, return the unused portion to your dealer and he'll refund YOUR MONEY. Buy a large economical box of new Chipso today—and for only 5¢ more get this exquisite Serving Set. Act now! Offer good only while supply lasts!

NO CHANGE IN THE PACKAGE—BUT WHAT AN AMAZING DIFFERENCE IN THE FLAKES!

Chipso's new "Tissue Thin" Flakes are nearly twice as thin as they were before!

Chipso WONDER FLAKES
OFFER LIMITED TO BELLEVILLE ONLY

SHAMPOO
CHIPSO
Chipso
Quick Suds
"I'm going to get Chipso right away--and get one of these lovely SERVING SETS for only 5¢ more!"

MADE IN CANADA

CHIPSO'S "TRIPLE TEST" PROVES YOU CAN HAVE EASY, FAST WASHDAYS!

SUCH RICH, HEAVY SUDS IN A FEW SECONDS!

TEST NO. 1—SPEED
Dissolves up to 66% faster, makes suds up to 44% faster, than other popular washday soaps tested!

EVEN WASHABLE SILKS AND WOOLENS ARE SAFE!

TEST NO. 2—SAFETY
Chipso is not loaded with harsh chemicals or harmful alkalis. Washable colored fabrics will come out sparkling through repeated washings!

CHIPSO'S DIRT-ROUTING POWER IS UNBELIEVABLE!

TEST NO. 3—POWER
Chipso's amazing dirt-getting power means white washes, easy washdays—without back-breaking scrubbing!

EATON'S Where It Pays to Shop FOOD SALE

PHONE 800
WE DELIVER ORDERS OF $1.00 OR OVER WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

Check these values carefully—every one was chosen especially for this sale—brands famous for quality —tender meat, and fruits that are fresh—all offered to you at substantial savings. Don't miss them. Look for better values at Eaton's Groceteria, "Where it pays to shop."

★ Check These Values
Tenderized—To Eat Like Candy
SUNSWEET LARGE PRUNES
Handy 1-lb. carton 14c

Fruits and Vegetables

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| CAL. VALENCIA ORANGES | Large Size 176's | 39c |
| SWEET JUICY Grapefruit | 6 for | 25c |
| MEDIUM SIZE ORANGES | doz. | 19c |
| LIMES 2 | doz. | 11c |
| CALIFORNIA LEMONS | Size 300's doz. | 29c |
| CRISP TENDER Celery Stalks | 2 for | 13c |
| COOKING ONIONS | 10-lb. mesh bag | 25c |
| WHITE FIRM Cauliflower | hd. | 10c |

MEATS

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| CHUCK-ROASTS. | lb. | 17c |
| SHOULDER ROASTS. | lb. | 18c |
| BONELESS POT ROASTS. | Lb. | 18c |
| BLADE ROASTS. | Lb. | 19c |
| FRESH PORK SHOULDERS. | Lb. | 19c |
| FRESH PORK BUTTS. | Lb. | 24c |
| FRESH FILLETS. | Lb. | 17c |
| SMOKED FILLETS. | Lb. | 18c |
| COOKED HAM. | ½ lb. | 29c |
| Sliced BREAKFAST BACON | Lb. | 29c |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| RED PLUM JAM | New Pack. Eaton's, with Pectin 32-oz. jar | 21c |
| RICH PEA SOUP 2 | 28-oz. tin | 19c |
| CHOICE TOMATOES 3 | No. 2½ Tin | 25c |
| RED CHERRIES | Aylmer Pitted in Heavy Syrup. Eagle Large 15-oz. tin | 10c |
| WAX BEANS | Lachine Cut. Standard. Lge. No. 2 tin | 7c |
| CHOICE CORN | Eaton's Golden Bantam 3 No. 2 Tins | 25c |
| TOMATO JUICE | Large 25-oz. tin | 7c |
| CLOVER HONEY | No. 1 Quality. Honey Boy. 4-lb. tin | 39c |
| Sweet Mixed Pickles | Crunchie Brand. 27-oz. jar | 23c |
| PORK & BEANS | Aylmer Brand. 3 20-oz. tins | 25c |
| MIRACLE WHIP | Salad Dressing. Large 32 oz. jar | 45c |
| VINEGAR | BULK SPIRIT or BLENDED Gal. | 39c |

| | Small | Medium | Large |
|---|---|---|---|
| SEALERS | 95c | 1.09 | 1.49 |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| ZINC RINGS | doz. | 21c |
| RUBBER RINGS | RED or WHITE 2 pkgs. | 9c |

MORE GOOD VALUES FOR THRIFTY SHOPPERS

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| MANNING'S FRUIT SANDWICH ROLLS | each | 10c |
| BULK PITTED DATES | 2 lbs. | 23c |
| BULK TAPIOCA | 2 lbs. | 15c |
| BULK WHEATLETS CEREAL | 2 pkgs. | 8c |
| EATONIA BAKING POWDER | 1-lb. | 21c |
| CONNORS' KIPPER SNACKS | 6 tins | 27c |
| SONGSTER BIRD SEED | 2 16-oz. pkgs. | 25c |
| MAPLE LEAF EDDY'S MATCHES | 3 pkg. | 21c |
| CHECK THESE VALUES. RINSO SOAP FLAKES | pkg. | 23c |
| CLASSIC CLEANSER | tin | 4c |
| P & G SOAP | 5 bars | 17c |
| KIRK'S CASTILE | 2 bars | 9c |
| HANDY AMMONIA | 3 pkgs | 14c |

Plain or Pimento
Chateau Cheese
2 ½-lb pkgs 29c

HAWES' WAX

HAWES FLOOR WAX

For a Harder More Lasting Finish.
½-lb tin ..23c
1-lb tin ..43c

GILLETT'S
LYE

You Should Have it on Hand Always.
GILLETT'S LYE
Effective, Economical tin 11c

EATON GROCETERIA

Britain Promises Swift Retaliation For Nazi Bombings

Unfortified Cities Must be Left Alone Lord Halifax Warns Germany in Address to House of Lords

FEAR SUB BASE

Reported Germany May Try to Establish Sub and Aerial Bases on Coasts of South and Central America

London, Sept. 14 (CP)— Great Britain warned Germany today that Nazi bombing of unfortified Polish cities would bring swift retaliation from Britain's Air Force.

The warning came from Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax following reports that Germany would seek to put down Polish sniping against the Nazi invaders by bombing undefended cities.

Reports of plans for unrestricted German bombing closely followed a British announcement that Germany "may attempt to establish submarine and air bases on the coasts of South and Central American countries."

As to aerial warfare, Lord Halifax told the House of Lords yesterday:

"The restrictions which His Majesty's government have imposed on their forces were based on the condition of similar restraint being observed by their opponents.

"His Majesty's government must hold themselves completely free, if such restraint is not in fact observed, to take such action as they may deem appropriate."

(An announcement from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters said the German army would break Polish resistance in open towns and villages "with all means at its disposal.")

Representatives Instructed

In reporting the belief of the British government that Germany would try to establish submarine and air bases in South America, the Ministry of Information said:

"The government has instructed His Majesty's representatives in those countries to invite the governments to which they are accredited to take all steps which may be necessary to prevent any breaches of their neutrality."

The Times commented that the British government had received no official confirmation of any German intention to bomb undefended cities, but added:

"At any rate, whether the proclamation is authentic or not the German airmen have not yet been set to this work of murder. Until the proposed atrocities are actually committed the British government with the French will certainly not depart from the assurance that both have given (that they would refrain from such attacks)."

Statement Featured

Other newspapers featured prominently a statement from the Polish Embassy that up to Sept. 3 German planes had bombed 30 cities and open towns in Poland killing more than 1,500 civilians including women and children. Since then, the Embassy said, scores of Polish towns and villages have been raided.

The papers also gave prominent place to a report by the United States Envoy to Poland, Anthony Biddle, that Germans were bombing without regard to the safety of civilians.

The Daily Telegraph wrote: "The very suggestion that British forces might one day be compelled to bomb open towns is enough to make soldier and civilian alike recoil; but Lord Halifax was right to point out that a policy of restraint is based on reciprocation. A healthy fear of reprisals and their effect on the morale of the German population may well prove a deterrent where considerations of humanity have nailed."

Restritiones Eased

Meanwhile blackout restrictions which plunged London into complete darkness with the outbreak of war are just beginning to ease up.

Pedestrians and automobiles will be allowed to carry a little more light and the opening of more movie houses was considered. In the west end night clubs and hotels announced they would resume dancing and entertainment.

Men With More Than Two Children Exempted

Ottawa, Sept. 13—(CP)— The Government has adopted the policy of not accepting enlistments from men with more than two children, Government Leader Dandurand informed the Senate today.

The policy was to see that single men were called first, he said.

LONDON, Sept. 14—(CP)—Estates of civilians killed by enemy action will not be exempt from death duties, the House of Commons was told yesterday.

LONDON, Sept. 14—(CP Cable)—The government will make known on Oct. 2 its decision regarding resumption of horse racing, it was announced today. The sport has been banned since the outbreak of war.

NO APPLES FOR THE HITLER GAME

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 13 (AP)—Mary Weaver, 11, who was "it" in a hide-and-seek game, counted by fives to 100 and then cried, "Hitler!" She explained to a bystander: "That means, 'here I come, ready or no'."

NEUTRAL STATES TRY TO PRESERVE THEIR NEUTRALITY

Premiers of Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Finland to Meet Sept. 18

DECLARE EMBARGO

General Export to Belligerent Nations Will be Seriously Curtailed

By WADE WERNER
Associated Press Staff Writer

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 14—(AP)— Neutral northern European States, faced with the pressing necessity of protecting winter supplies, are seeking a means to maintain import and export trade without dangerously offending the belligerents.

What the neutrals would like to do already has been expressed by Finland's Foreign Minister Eljas Erkko, who said his country would try to maintain trade relations with warring nations "on an identical basis, favoring neither side."

Premiers of Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Finland meet here Sept. 18 to discuss the situation.

Several of the northern states already have initiated steps designed to assure adequate winter supplies of food, fuel and raw materials.

General Export Embargo

Norway has issued a general export embargo, from which were excluded only iron ore and fish. The order recently was extended to include fish products.

Flour was rationed at 10 kilograms (about 20 pounds) per person monthly and the private use of gasoline was forbidden. Norway also halted the domestic sale of coal and coke pending fixing of ration quotas.

Sweden has regulated strictly all import and export trade, requiring permits for each transaction. Approximately 60,000 men have been called to the colors.

Denmark has called up five classes of reservists and has laid mines protecting the waters near Copenhagen. The nation has found its fishing fleets demoralized and commercial navigation crippled by nearby German and British minefields, whence come almost daily reports of sinkings.

Outlet Practically Closed

Finland, its Baltic outlet practically closed, is considering immediate extension of a railroad to the Arctic ocean. The government is supervising trade, but export restrictions are few and imports are practically free from restraint.

There has been no food rationing yet in Finland, but there has been a rush to buy sugar, salt, coffee and soap.

Latvia has tightened supervision of its Polish frontier and has called up three classes of reservists. Embargoes have been placed on exports of metals, cotton, rubber, fuels and wool. Lithuania already is feeling an acute shortage of fuel, which is serious in view of the usually severe winters.

Copenhagen, which a fortnight ago was brilliantly lighted, has become almost as dark as the belligerent capitals, largely to conserve fuel.

Neutrals Watch Closely

Budapest, Sept. 14—(AP)— Neutral nations in southeastern Europe watched Italy, Russia and Germany today for any move which might draw them into the war now raging at the Balkans' front door.

Many government leaders feel that continuation of southeastern Europe's aloofness in the conflict and peace among the Balkan States depend on what courses are pursued within the next few weeks by the three powers.

Political figures said that any attempt of Russia to take Rumania's Bessarabia or Polish Galicia, a German threat to use Hungarian railroads for troop movements against southeastern Poland or warlike gestures by Italy would be enough to ignite war flames in this corner of Europe.

Hungary, with German troops along her northern border and the Polish war just 150 miles from her capital, appeared in the most precarious position.

Allies Offer Gold

Great Britain and France have been sending buyers into the little Danube nations with offers in gold for their products. Some circles reported many of these offers have been accepted.

First Nazi reaction was a public protest from Berlin yesterday in which Britain was charged with "interfering with the economic neutrality" of small nations.

This was followed by an announcement from Rumania that Dr. Claudius, Chief of the German Finance Ministry's Economic Department, was going to Rumania Friday to discuss exports to the Reich, chiefly oil, and a payment plan, now that war makes barter difficult.

Significantly, this flying trip to Bucharest follows closely upon the announcement that Rumania has accepted large orders from Britain, France and Holland.

Germany May Use Pressure

Observers said perhaps the greatest threat to Balkan neutrality is the possibility Germany may use "pressure" to corner the oil, grain, metals and other products of what she calls her lebensraum — living space.

Rumanians are watching closely every Russian move. They are working feverishly to strengthen their fortifications on the Soviet border in view of Russia's troop movements the other side of the line.

Reports—wholly unconfirmed — that Russia has a secret agreement with Germany whereby the Soviet would be given a free hand to take Bessarabia from Rumania have caused alarm in Bucharest and spurred war preparations.

Italy Withdraws Troops

On the peaceful side, news from Albania indicating Italy has been withdrawing troops from her recently acquired territory has eased tension.

Greece and Turkey, observers point out, are especially interested in Italy's remaining out of the war because of the feeling in diplomatic circles that growing Italian influence in the Mediterranean already threatens their positions.

Dispatches from Istanbul quoted government quarters as saying Turkey would remain neutral if Italy did. Similar expressions have come from Athens.

Secret Agreement Rumored

Diplomatic sources said other rumors of a secret agreement between Russia and Germany to give the Galicia section of Poland to Russia left the Hungarian capital with a diplomatic headache. Such a "territorial readjustment" would give Hungary and Russia a common frontier. Intense anti-communist feeling here, dating back to Hungary's red revolution and shortlived communist regime, would make such a redrawing of borders extremely unpopular.

Another trouble spot is indicated in Rumania-Hungarian relations. Rumania, which received a rich southern section of Hungary after the first Great War, is keeping a watchul eye on German-Hungarian developments in fear of some agreement whereby Budapest might be given Nazi backing in reclaiming Transylvania.

RECOVER MONEY IN BANK HOLDUP

$8,400 Taken at Matachewan but One of Bandits Wounded

MATACHEWAN, Ont., Sept. 14 —(CP)—A posse that included several Indian trackers scoured bushland and swampland of this Northern Ontario mining district today for one of two bandits who held up the one-room branch of the Imperial Bank of Canada.

The bandit escaped after a running gun fight along a street here yesterday with N. M. Plant, bank manager, during which Plant wounded a man who gave the name of Harry Billosh, 32, Sudbury. Police said $8,400, all the money taken in the holdup, was found on Billosh.

The wounded man, a bullet wound in his back, was taken to Haileybury for hospital treatment. His injury is not believed critical.

The bandits entered the bank shortly after noon and one held the manager and clerk, Ralph Robinson at bay while the other scooped up the money. One also took a revolver from the teller's cage.

The bandits then fled and Plant, armed with another revolver, and Robinson, who threw rocks at the men, took up the chase. The armed men exchanged shots with Plant and one fell wounded. Residents took up the chase of the other but lost the trail after a chase of more than a mile through swamplands.

Marmora

MARMORA—Mr. Jimmy Daly of Toronto is visiting relatives here.

Mr. W. J. Cottrell had charge of the Anglican services in the parish of Roslin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Youmans of Havelock and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Youmans of Cordova attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Hugh Gillen on Monday.

Mr. James E. Bailey is home from Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. L. K. Crawford and family were in Kingston over the weekend.

Miss Rita Johnston is confined to her home through illness.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Snell and son Bill of St. Thomas are visiting relatives here.

GOV'T CLOTHED WITH POWER BY WAR SESSION

Ten Bills Passed in Six Days to Set Machinery in Motion

SOME OPPOSITION

OTTAWA, Sept. 14—(CP)— The historic emergency war session of parliament, the second such session since confederation, is over.

Opening on Sept. 7, the special session closed yesterday after six days of arduous labor in which parliament clothed the government with executive powers to deal with the war situation as occasion demands in the struggle against German aggression.

Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor General of Canada, prorogued the fifth session of the 18th parliament since confederation, at 1:30 p.m. yesterday after waiting more than an hour for the Senate to finish its business. There was no display of the usual pomp and ceremony.

Ten Bills Passed

Ten bills were passed at the emergency session as compared with six in the five-day war session of 1914, but five of these were budget bills involved in the various forms of increased and new taxation, including the new tax on excess profits.

Other measures included authority for the government to set up a new ministry of munitions and supply if the need becomes apparent, gave it blanket power to spend up to $100,000,000 on war activities up to the end of the fiscal year, and incorporated the Canadian patriotic fund on the same lines under which it operated during the first Great War.

Because The War Measures Act of 1914 remains on the statutes, it was unnecessary to pass a similar measure at this session. Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced he would act under its authority to create a war supply board, replacing the defence purchasing board with the widest powers to mobilize and regulate industry in a national economic effort to meet war needs.

Act Proclaimed if Needed

If the surveys and operations of the war supply board indicate the desirability or necessity of creating a full-time Ministry of Munitions and Supply, the act to create such a department will be proclaimed.

For the second time in the Dominion's history, parliament had to be called in emergency session to cope with problems arising from a Great War. The session which opened last Thursday and closed yesterday was only a few hours longer than that in 1914, but was less harmonious.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who leads an unprecedented majority of Liberals in the House of Commons, met his greatest opposition from within his own ranks when a small group of Quebec members moved time after time for rejection of the policy so far as it concerned war activities outside Canada.

From Conservatives, Social Crediters and members of the C.C.F. group with the lone exception of their leader, James S. Woodsworth, came co-operation on the main policy that Canada enter the war on the side of the British and their Allies.

Many Methods Suggested

But there were various suggestions as to methods, and members of the Social Credit party made a vigorous attempt, sometimes with much bitterness, to have the government adopt a policy of financing the war and other government expenditures with money issued free of debt by the Bank of Canada.

Conscription was a word much used but was never a real issue during the debate since the government has taken the firm stand it will never adopt that method of obtaining men for overseas service. Social Crediters demanded complete conscription of wealth and man power.

Only one recorded vote was taken during the session, that on a budget amendment from Rene Pelletier, (S. C. Peace River) which would have the government set up a committee to study means of conscripting wealth. It was supported only by eight Social Credit members, with 190 of all other parties against.

Senate Calls Halt

While the Senate quickly placed its approval upon the government's war policy as set forth in the Throne Speech and dealt with much of the legislation quickly, the final rush in the Commons Tuesday night, when the budget was adopted in recor time, was too swift for the senio House and its members called a halt

With the Commons idle, the Se ate took three hours yesterday disposing of the last important bil and prorogation was reached at 1.30 an hour and a half later than th time tentatively fixed when th

Commons adjourned Tuesday ni

HORSE GUARDS WEAR FULL WAR EQUIPMENT

Formerly one of the most colorful spectacles in London, the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace has lost much of its color as the Horse Guards discard their colorful dress uniforms for the more sombre dress of war time. This picture was cabled to New York and then transmitted by Phonephoto.

—Phonephoto

ARCHDEACON SCOTT OFFERS SERVICE S TO CANADA

The most beloved padre in the Canadian Overseas Forces during 1914-18, Venerable Archdeacon F.G. Scott was in Ottawa when Canada officially declared war against Germany. He has offered his services to the minister of national defence, and is shown here surrounded by officers following a church service for the 2nd and 51st R.C.A. batteries.

C.D.S. DAYS in the Quinte District

Come Early! Come Often! Save!

Towels! Towels!

Special for Friday and Saturday

Those large, white cotton terry towels, with gay stripe patterns of red, gold color, green, and helio Big, thirsty towels, softly and thickly napped and firmly woven. Always in demand for bathroom and kitchen use. Stock up now while this low price prevails. Size about 20 inches by 40 inches.

39c pair

—Main floor, rear

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES

STANDARD ENCYCLOPEDIA

VOLUMES 12 and 13

ARE NOW AVAILABLE AT THIS OFFICE

ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

COUPON

for

STANDARD AMERICAN ENCYCLOPEDIA

In 15 Volumes

SAVE A COUPON A DAY— GET A BOOK A WEEK!

Redeemable Only at Ontario Intelligencer Office.

This coupon and five others, plus price of the binding chosen, entitles you to one volume of the Standard American Encyclopedia, at the special Gift Price of 59c (Deluxe Binding 79c) per volume. Mail Orders 15c Extra to Cover Postage and Packing.

NAME ........................................

ADDRESS ........................................

NOT ACCEPTABLE UNLESS FILLED IN AND READABLE.

Have You Had Your Automobile Inspected?

During the month of September you have the opportunity of VOLUNTARILY having all safety factors on your car or truck inspected by GOVERNMENT CERTIFIED MECHANICS in any garage listed below.

A Service Charge of $1.00 will be made for this inspection except in cases where a car passes its first check when a sticker will be supplied and NO CHARGE MADE.

Sponsored by the following members of the GARAGE OPERATORS' ASSOCIATION OF ONTARIO
HASTINGS - PRINCE EDWARD BRANCH

BELLEVILLE
Bourk's Ignition Service
J. B. Boyce Garage
Grills' Garage
Hastings Motors, Ltd.
Biggs Motor Sales
Farnham's Garage
Brown's Garage
Burkholder's Garage
Hastings Auto Electric
Quinte Motors
Trudeau Motor Sales
DESERONTO
Burley's Auto Service
Irwin's Auto Service
FRANKFORD
Ketcheson's Garage
MADOC
Armstrong's Garage
Smith and Derry Garage
Nayler's Garage
Hulin's Garage
MARYSVILLE
McAuley's Garage
MARLBANK
Van Dusen's Garage
TWEED
Trudeau Motor Sales
Jones' Garage
LeSage Motor Sales
MILLTOWN
Fitzgerald's Garage
SHANNONVILLE
Shannonville Garage
Cook's Garage
MARMORA
Forestell's Garage
SPRINGBROOK
McKeown's Garage
TRENTON
Fitzgibbon and Clegg Garage
Graham's Garage
BLOOMFIELD
Trudeau Motor Sales
PICTON
Grindrod's Auto Electric
Prince Edward Motors
Noxon's Motor Service
Reblin Motor Sales
Francis' Garage

Probabilities

Light to moderate winds; fair and decidedly warm today and Saturday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

Temperatures

| | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | 86 | 65 |
| Year Ago | 70 | 50 |

Weather:—Fair, warm.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1939

GERMANS LEAVE ADVANCED POSITIONS IN FRANCE

German Gov't Draws on Supplies From Occupied Regions in Poland; Saarbruecken Defenders Retreat

Warsaw Admitted to be in Polish Hands but That Pincer Movement Closing Fast

FEAR ISOLATION

By ALVIN STEINKOPF

Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Sept. 15—(AP)—While the German high command claimed new successes on the eastern front today, the government began to draw on already occupied regions of Poland for supplies with which to wage war against France and Great Britain in the west.

Field Marshal Hermann Goering, director of the Reich's four-year plan, returned from a tour of the Silesian industrial area to report that factories which a week ago were manufacturing Polish munitions now were turning out bombs for German planes.

Counter Blockade Ordered

Goering's report closely followed an announcement the Nazi high command had ordered German submarines and warships to begin an immediate "counter blockade" in answer to Britain's determination to intercept war supplies intended for the Reich.

A communique issued this morning by the high command claimed new German advances at widely separated points on the Polish front.

In the south, troops pressing into the Ukraine were said to have crossed the Lwow-Lublin road and to be "progressing toward the Bug river."

WARSAW ADMITTED

(Continued on Page Five)

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 15. — (CP) — Thundershowers have occurred in Northern districts of Ontario and in Quebec, also light scattered showers in the Maritimes, but it has been generally fair and warmer in the lower lakes and Georgian Bay area. Light to moderate showers have fallen in Manitoba and in some parts of Saskatchewan, while it has been fair with moderate temperature in Alberta and West Saskatchewan.

Lake Superior—Moderate winds; partly cloudy tonight and Saturday with scattered thundershowers chiefly in western and northern sections; continuing quite warm in southern and eastern districts.

Manitoba— Partly cloudy with a few scattered showers. Saturday—Fair and moderately warm.

Saskatchewan — Fair tonight and Saturday; moderately warm on Saturday.

Alberta — Fair and moderately warm today and Saturday.

| | 8 a.m. | High Y'day | Low Night |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 52 | 56 | 50 |
| Calgary | 50 | 66 | 46 |
| Edmonton | 40 | 69 | 36 |
| Winnipeg | 62 | 76 | 61 |
| S. S. Marie | 67 | 86 | 63 |
| Winnipeg | 62 | 76 | 61 |
| Toronto | 68 | 79 | 66 |
| Ottawa | 69 | 75 | 56 |
| Quebec | 63 | 64 | 62 |
| Halifax | 59 | 71 | 57 |
| Detroit | 78 | 98 | 73 |
| New York | 63 | 77 | 55 |

Why The Weather?

By Major A. H. Thiessen

Science Service Meteorologist

Air and airplanes! Flying has been an accomplished fact for over a quarter of a century, but it took nearly 20 centuries of study to make this possible. Leaving out the difficulties of building light enough engines and the correct form of wings, certain things had to be learned about the air. It took a long time to realize that air is a substance and to learn the qualities of that substance. The important qualities, so far as aviation is concerned, are compressibility, viscosity, and density. Air density, once it gets less and less with elevation, determines how high any particular plane can go: it fixes the ceiling for that plane.

'Friendly Talks' Prepare Ground for Discussion Of Italy's Neutrality

LONDON, Sept. 15—(CP Cable)—The Daily Expres (Independent) said today that "friendly talks" are preparing the ground for a discussion of Italy's neutrality in the war, especially in the Mediterranean.

The Rome correspondent of the newspaper said that these talks have taken place among Sir Percy Loraine, the British Ambassador, Andre Francois-Poncet, the French Ambassador and Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian Foreign Minister.

The correspondent wrote:

"I learn that conversations are to begin soon between the British, French and Italian governments about Italy's status as a neutral particularly in the Mediterranean.

"Sir Percy Loraine already has seen Count Ciano this week and Francois- Poncet has been reporting personally to his government in Paris.

"But these talks which have been held in a markedly friendly atmosphere have been merely preparing the ground.

"There are several thorny questions to be decided for which the assistance of naval legal experts will be called. There is the problem of Italy's trade with Germany. Nearly all this goes by sea as a single highway and railway which runs across the Brenner Pass into Germany is unable to handle any large bulk of goods.

"At present Italy sends 25 per cent of her exports, mostly wines, vegetables, fruit and artificial fibre to Germany and receives 27 per cent of her imports from Germany, mostly coal, steel, electrical equipment and other varieties of fibre.

"The coal comes round by sea from Rotterdam."

(Dispatches from Switzerland have indicated that large quantities of coal also are reaching Italy by train across that neutral country.)

Counter Offensive in Vicinity of Sierck Close to Luxembourg Border Checked and French Move Deeper Into German Territory

PRISONERS TAKEN

PARIS, Sept. 15—(AP)—German troops were reported today to be retreating slowly down the Moselle valley in the face of persistent French pressure.

Unofficial French advices said the Germans were leaving their advance positions before the west wall, ripping up railroad tracks which follow the course of the river.

The Germans apparently feared a French attack in force toward their base at Trier, which is only a few thousand yards in front of the Siegfried Line.

French forces were attacking from three sides in seeking to capture Saarbruecken, their first major goal of the war.

French troops also staged an offensive northeast of the frontier town of Sierck which carried them closer to the important German base of Trier.

The General Staff reported a local offensive toward Trier had established strong positions near the junction of the French, German and Luxembourg borders. Trier lies about 25 miles within Germany.

Moving Toward Prize

The communique also indicated the French line facing Saarbruecken was moving slowly toward that rich prize "despite strong enemy reactions, notably by his artillery."

The advance in the Sierck region the communique said, gave the French assured positions after five days of fighting touched off in that sector by a "German offensive movement."

The communique did not disclose the extent of the area concerned in the Sierck sector advance. It had been known that the Germans shelled the disputed territory, blasting roads and railway lines between Sierck and Trier.

Violence of the combat caused Luxembourg authorities to remove residents from the border region close by although the fighting was said to have been confined strictly to German soil.

COUNTER OFFENSIVE

(Continued on Page Five)

SINISTER SECRECY AS BASIC WEAPON AGAINST SUBS

Policy of Suppressing News Regarding Sinkings Supposed to Break Down Morale

KNOW SOME SUNK

By ALBERT WILSON

Associated Press Staff Writer

"Sinister secrecy"—as in the first Great War—is again being employed by Great Britain and France as a basic strategic weapon in the fight against German submarines.

The policy of suppressing the news when submarines were sunk and refusing to disclose the methods used to track them down was credited with breaking the German morale in the last war. It was estimated a mysterious fate for one out of every 10 U-boats would turn the trick. One out of seven was the ratio in the closing weeks of the war and this, naval historians have said, had a direct bearing on the German naval mutiny of 1918.

Again today, British and French officials keep silence regarding the fate of German submarines except for vague reference devoid of facts. While they do this, they freely give details regarding submarine successes.

No Counter Claims

The toll of the German submarines reached 18 British ships and one French vessel yesterday but not one specific counterclaim had been

(Continued on Page Two)

HOLLAND FINDS NEUTRAL POSITION HARD TO MAINTAIN

Belligerents' Planes Frequently Fly Over Borders While Army Mobilization is Expensive

420,000 UNDER ARMS

Amsterdam, Sept. 15 (AP)—The Netherlands is finding the path of peace a rocky one.

The country's objective is to remain at peace and to prevent incidents that might have grave consequences, while at the same time maintaining her international trade.

This objective has been both difficult and expensive. The nation has mobilized about 420,000 troops to supplement the regular army of 30,000. These men are doing what is largely police work to keep the nation out of the European conflict.

A full investigation has been ordered of the shooting down of a Netherlands naval plane by a German warplane on Wednesday. The German plane and its crew were detained, and the German government has offered to pay indemnity for the Netherlands plane.

Germany's version was that the crew of the Nazi plane thought they were being attacked and could not identify the Netherlands craft in time to avoid the conflict.

Foreign planes, under a recent ruling, will be signalled to land If they do not comply they may be fired upon.

Blitzkreig or Lightning War Adds 75,000 Square Miles to Germany

By LLOYD LEHRBAS

Associated Press Staff Writer

BUDAPEST, Sept. 15—((AP) — Blitzkrieg— or lightning war — has added approximately half of Poland's 150,000 square miles to Germany's "living room" in two weeks of fighting.

German forces today straddled the main highway running literally through the middle of Poland after a motorized occupation of all of western Poland except for the desperately defended peninsula containing Warsaw, which still was jutting into German-conquered territory.

Casualties Only a Guess

The swift German advance and the apparent disorganization of Poland's civil government, with the resultant lack of official statistics, made an estimate of casualties in the first fortnight of the war a mere guess.

From all available information, however, Polish military losses were high. The civilian population throughout the war zone and behind the lines also was said to have suffered severely in death, injuries, and property destruction.

The Poles said that a German mechanized force held Zamosc, on the main highway between Lublin and Lwow, with attacks continuing against Warsaw and Lwow.

(Lwow is 220 miles southeast of Warsaw, with Lublib about half way between the two cities).

Split in Half

This meant that Poland had been split in half, with the greater portion of its population of 33,000,000 either already in occupied territory, or fleeing toward Hungary, Rumania and Latvia.

The most intense German attacks today were aimed at Warsaw and Lwow.

Oberserves ewere amazed by the speedy transformation of Zamorsc from a peaceful, almost mediaeval town into the battlefield. Only a few days ago I drove through Zamosc, with the twilight making it a picture-book town of the middle ages, centres around a picturesque square dominated by an ancient church.

The townsfolk appeared almost unaware that a war was going on. They were going about their affairs normally, and when I was forced to stop to fix a flat tire, my car was surrounded by an inquisitive crowd.

Communiques Issued By Belligerent Nations

PARIS, Sept. 15—(CP-Havas)—The French army today issued the following communique on operations on the western front:

"Operations of the last few days enabled us to assure possession in the region northeast of Sierck of the terrain disputed since the offensive movement of the Germans announced in the evening communique of Sept. 10. Moreover, we advanced still further. During the night there was a local improvement in our first line, despite the sharp reaction of the enemy, especiall with artillery."

CROSS LWOW-LUBLIN ROAD

BERLIN, Sept. 15—(AP)—The German supreme command issued the following communique this morning:

"On Sept. 14 the southern wing of the German eastern army already had crossed the Lwow-Lublin road. Very strong and desperately defending Polish forces encircled around Kutno yesterday again attempted to break through southward. These attacks also failed.

"Eastward of the Vistula river German troops are nearing the suburb of Praga from the north, east and southeast. There, too, Polish attempts to break through eastward were warded off.

"Those troops aiming at the Brest-Litovsk fortress entered the fortification zone from the north. The fortifications have been partly blown up. The citadel still is occupied by the enemy.

GYDNIA CLAIMED BY GERMANY

"The city of Gydnia is in German hands. Naval forces participated effectively in the fight around Gydnia and on the Hela Peninsula. Entry into the southern harbor of Gydnia was forced.

"Despite bad weather conditions the air force successfully attacked rail lines and stations, and supported with bombs and low attacks the army's fight against enemy forces encircled around Kutno.

"Polish war vessels still lying in the harbor of Heisternest were sunk by bombs.

"In the west enemy artillery was active east of Saarbruecken. The enemy, who launched an attack Sept. 12 near Schweig (a border point south of Pirmasens), retreated beyond the border under an impressive erman artillery barrage. Air attacks on Reich territory did not occur."

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

By The Canadian Press

Sept. 15, 1914—The French reoccupied Rheims, the Germans making stubborn resistance in an effort to maintain their line on the Aisne, reached in initial invasion of France. Russians encircled Austrians in an angle of the Polish rivers Vistula and San.

INTERVENTION OF SOVIET IN POLAND FREELY DISCUSSED

British Press Says Russian Gov't. Suddenly Adopts Hostile Attitude Toward Poland

MAY SEIZE REGIONS

Forfeiture of Independence of Baltic States Price Paid by Germany for Pact Says Chronicle

LONDON, Sept. 15—(CP)—British newspapers today discussed the prospects of Soviet intervention in Poland.

"To judge from the tone of its official press," said the diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Herald, "The Soviet government has suddenly adopted a strong hostile attitude towards Poland.

"It all bears a very distinct and very unpleasant resemblance to Nazi accusations against first Czecho-Slovakia and then Poland. And indeed many observers in London drew the deduction that it is a prelude to active co-operation with Germany against Poland."

(Continued on Page Eleven)

CONTINUED PEACE IN S. E. EUROPE HANGS BY THREAD

Hungary's Action in This Section Will Determine Course of Five Other Nations

MUSSOLINI PRAISED

Csaky's Speech Prompted by Desire to Appease Hungarian Nazis is Report

BUDAPEST, Sept. 15—(AP)—Hungary's denunciation of the Versailles Treaty, her refusal to proclaim her neutrality and her notice she would "stand firm until the very last man" to protect her vital interests caused diplomatic circles today to speculate as to how long neutrality would continue to rule southeastern Europe.

Foreign Minister Count Csaky's speech last night to the parliamentary foreign affairs committee was considered of prime importance in view of the belief of well-informed observers that on Hungary's actions depends the continued peace in five other little nations now standing aloof from war.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

RUSSIA CALLING MILLION RECRUITS

Editorial Stresses Necessity of War Measures So As Not to be Caught Unawares

Moscow, Sept. 15 (AP)—About 1,000,000 recruits under the regular annual draft were being called to the colors throughout the Soviet Union today, according to unofficial estimates.

It also was estimated unofficially that approximately 1,500,000 reserves were called up in the course of the partial mobilization announced last Sunday.

An editorial in Pravda today stressed the necessity of military measures because "the capitalist world is caught by war fever."

"The flame of war is already enveloping many countries. The Soviet Union and her armed forces must be in full military preparedness so that stormily developing events do not catch us unawares."

VOLUNTEER FORCE TO BE 20,000

Australia Raising Army for Service at Home or Overseas

Canberra, Australia, Sept. 15 — Prime Minister Robert Menzies announced today formation of an Australian war cabinet which decided to raise immediately an initial volunteer force of 20,000 men for "service in Australia or Overseas."

The cabinet also decided to increase the current year's defence expenditure from 33,000,000 Australian pounds (approximately $105,600,000) to 45,000,000 pounds (approximately $144,000,000).

In addition to Menzies, the cabinet includes William Hughes, Australian Prime Minister during the last war; R. G. Casey, Brigadier G. A. Street, Sir Henry Gullett and Senator G. McLeay.

Members of the war cabinet are all veterans of Australian political life. Brigadier Street is Minister of National Defence and Mr. Casey, Minister of Supply. Mr. Hughes became Prime Minister in 1915 and held office for eight years.

Members of United Party

Sir Henry Gullett, who was a newspaper correspondent at the front in the last war, is Minister of External Affairs. Senator McLeay is Minister of Commerce. All are members of the United Australia Party.

No announcement has been made of the Prime Minister's intentions concerning formation of a National government, to include members of the Country Party, which holds the balance of power in the House of Representatives.

Inclusion of members of the Country Party in the cabinet was facilitated by the resignation of Sir Earle Page as party leader. Sir Earle served for six years under the late Prime Minister Joseph Lyons, but split with Mr. Menzies shortly after Mr. Lyons' death.

Bizarre Plot to Escape Fails And 48 in Solitary Confinement

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 15—(AP)—Forty-eight convicts were held in solitary confinement at Stateville Penitentiary today while Warden Joseph Ragen investigated a bizarre plot to escape by scaling walls manned by 11 drugged, unconscious guards.

Three convicted murderers made a futile dash for liberty. Prison officials have yet to determine whether others were involved in yesterday's abortive break.

Warden Ragen told his version of the attempted escape:

Prison trusties, according to daily routine, delivered locked lunch buckets to each of the 12 watch towers surmounting the walls.

The buckets contained, in addition to food, poisoned coffee. Eleven towermen drank their coffee. The other gave his share to a trusty.

Carried 'Chicken Ladder'

A few minutes later the three convicts dashed toward the northeast corner. They carried a "chicken ladder" fashioned from rope, wire and lumber stolen from the gymnasium.

Apparently working on a prearranged schedule, the convicts began raising their 32-foot ladder, confident no gun blasts would interrupt them. In 11 of the towers guards lay unconscious over their guns.

The convicts were spotted, however, by the lone conscious guard in a distant tower. The felons being out of his rifle range he telephoned the north wall tower. When no one answered he called surface guards who quickly rounded up the convicts with drawn guns.

Poison Smuggled in

Warden Ragen said the poison or drug might have been made from weeds growing on the prison farm, and smuggled into the commissary. Forty-five convicts assigned to the kitchen detail were placed in solitary confinement in addition to the three who tried to escape.

All of the guards and the trusty who partook of the poisoned coffee regained consciousness but one guard remained in a critical condition. The convicted murderers were Patrick Joyce, 31, Joseph Jazorak, 44 and Peter Balourilis, 28.

Royal Navy Keeps Unceasing Vigil In Naval Blockade

Second Group of Militiamen Called to the Colors Under Conscription Act—Settle Down for Long War

MOVIE THEATRES OPEN

Chamberlain Warns Mothers Not to Bring Children Back from Rural Refuges "Because Nothing Has Happened"

London, Sept. 15—(CP)—A second group of militiamen was called to the colors today as Great Britain, resigned to the prospect of a long war, settled down to make the best of war conditions.

The southern army command authorized the information that the new militiamen had reported to more than a dozen reception depots for training, under provision of the military service act which provided for conscription before the opening of hostilities.

(Continued on Page Five)

PANAMA CANAL HEAVILY GUARDED

Canal Zone Garrison Numbers 18,500 and More to Follow

Washington, Sept. 15 (AP)—The United States moves to safe-guard the Panama Canal have made the waterway the most heavily defended American military position, with the possible single exception of the Hawaiian Island of Oahu.

Anti-aircraft troops who left New York this week and others already dispatched or under orders to leave shortly will swell the canal zone garrison to more than 18,500 officers and men, exclusive of naval and marine forces.

Several thousand others are destined to reinforce the canal zone further.

High Soviet Sources Deny Intention To Intervene in War

Berne, Sept. 15 (CP)—The Swiss Telegraph Agency in a Moscow dispatch today said high Soviet sources deny Russia intends to "intervene in any fashion whatever in the German-Polish war."

Swiss newspapers were indignant in commenting on alleged Moscow press threats against Poland. Speaking of a Russian newspaper's criticism of Poland's social structure, the Journal De Geneve said:

"This indictment strangely resembles those Hitler used against the Czechs and Poles before attacking their sovereignty. Is this an indication that a new plan for the partition of Poland was agreed upon by the Berlin and Moscow dictators when they signed their non-aggression pact?"

ANTI-TANK GUNS USED BY GERMANY TO STOP ADVANCE

Action Breaks Out on New Sector of Western Front Near Wissembourg

OPEN FIGHTING

By CHARLES FOLTZ

Associated Press Staff Writer

BASEL, Switzerland, Sept. 15—(AP)—Action broke out on a new sector of the western front today, according to reports reaching here, when a German counter-attack in the Mundat forest north of Wissembourg stopped French patrols slowly penetrating the area.

(Continued on Page Nine)

Pound Sterling Drops to 6-Yr. Low

New York, Sept. 15 (AP)—A chaotic situation again existed in day with transactions in the pound day with transactions in the pound sterling at a new six-year low and a corresponding slide in the French franc. The Canadian dollar also depreciated.

Some sales of sterling were made at $3.73 of 19 7-8 cents from yesterday's closing level but the rate advanced later to $3.80 after there had been a number of offerings but no bidders.

Bankers explained that two sterling rates exist, one an official rate set by the Bank of England which has agreed to buy the pound at $4.02 and sell it at $4.04 for transactions concerning liquidation of pre-war sterling balances or current trade transfers with the British Empire.

Then there is the free market which fluctuates, as this morning, according to supply and demand.

The French franc dipped to 2.13 cents off .10 of a cent from yesterday and the Canadian dollar dropped 1-2 of a cent at 89.50 cents. There was little fluctuation in other foreign currencies traded in here.

OCTOBER 1st TO BE OBSERVED AS DAY OF NATIONAL PRAYER

London, Sept. 15 (CP)—The Archbishop of Canterbury, with the approval of the King, announced today that Sunday, October 1st, "has been appointed to be observed as a day of national prayer."

Dare Nearly Causes Death

Detroit, Sept. 15 (CP)—Marjorie Buelman, 21, was in hospital today. She told police that after a night spent visiting beer gardens, her boy friend dared her to jump in the river.

"I don't remember whether it was the beer or the heat," she said. "I do remember accepting the dare." A passing yacht rescued Marjorie.

German Sub O. C. Sends S. O. S. To Churchill

London, Sept. 15 (CP)—A report of an SOS on behalf of a British ship, sent by a German submarine commander to the First Lord of the Admiralty, Winston Churchill, was given today by the chief officer of the vessel.

James Woodruff said the German officer sent the SOS, addressed personally to Mr. Churchill, before the submarine sank the steamship Firby off the Scottish Coast on Monday.

Woodruff said the German gave the Firby's master "a stiff drink" and nine loaves of black bread and three rolls of bandages for four crewmen wounded by shells. The Firby's crew of more than 40 spent 13 hours in lifeboats.

Coming Events

RUMMAGE SALE ST. THOMAS' Parish House, Saturday evening, 7 o'clock auspices Woman's Guild. s15-1t

BAY OF QUINTE COUNTRY CLUB Bridge for members and friends tonight at 8.30. Dancing after 11 o'clock. s15-1t

City and District News

LOCAL SALESMAN SEES STRANGE DUEL

W. Somers, local salesman, reports observing a strange duel between two large cranes at the edge of the marsh but a few feet from the bay bridge road early last evening.

The birds according to the observer, stood toe to toe slashing furiously at each other with bills used in rapier fashion making feathers fly with each savage jab. The end of the encounter was not witnessed.

THREE AT NAPANEE REMANDED IN CUSTODY

Three Lennox County youths were remanded in custody awaiting sentence after being convicted of cattle rustling in the Napanee Police Court, held before Magistrate Butler of Belleville yesterday. The three men were Arthur Sexsmith, 22, William Gibson, 18, and James Rogers, 23. Signed statements, said to have been voluntarily given the Provincial Police on their investigation, were read in open court.

It is charged the men stole two heifers belonging to Mylo Schermerhorn of Richmond Township, loaded them into a truck, and drove to Toronto Union Stockyards where they were sold.

Defense counsel pleaded that the boys had regarded the escapade as nothing more than a 'smart stunt.' There was nothing premeditated about the affair, he said.

BOY INJURES BACK IN FALL

Falling near his home at 221 Coleman Street yesterday, Douglas Bone, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bone suffered injuries to the back and kidneys. He was taken to Belleville General Hospital where his injuries were treated by Dr. R. Flynn. The lad's condition today was reported as being satisfactory.

DUNBAR ST. RESIDENT INJURES HAND

Charles Green, 18 Dunbar Street, was admitted to Belleville General hospital yesterday suffering with an injured hand. Following examination and treatment by Dr. G. H. Stobie he was permitted to leave for his home.

PEAR TREE BLOOMS

Nature is reversing the order of things in the city this week.

In the backyard of Mr. Ed. Thomas, 288 William Street, a five year old pear tree is again in blossom after having borne its first crop of the year's fruit.

The new blossoms give promise of heavy budding.

SALVATION ARMY GRANTED TAG DAY

At the regular committee meeting of city council held last evening it was recommended that the local corps of the Salvation Army be granted the privilege of holding their tag day on Saturday, September 23, as requested in their application.

It was also recommended that arrangements be made with Mr. Howes of the Citizens' Research Bureau to attend the hearing of appeals against the assessment made in 1939 for the year 1940 taxes. Under another recommendation the Public Utilities Commission will be asked to place a street light on the pole nearest No. 7 Meyers Street.

HICKORY NUT CROP HEAVY IN DISTRICT

Hickory nut trees through the district are holding a heavy crop at the present time and the first harvest of this toothsome delicacy is already underway in some sections. Butternut trees are also heavily laden and a heavy crop will be picked, according to a Tyendinaga resident this morning.

CLOCKS SET BACK ON SEPTEMBER 24th

It was recalled at the city hall this morning that the period of Daylight Saving for Belleville will end at 12.01 o'clock on the morning of September 24th. At this time all clocks will be put back one hour. A proclamation to this effect will appear in tomorrow's issue of the Ontario Intelligencer.

CAPITOL
BIG TOWN CZAR
Barton MacLANE
Tom BROWN
Also your favorite western Stars in a Swell Second Feature.
THE 3 Mesquiteers
WYOMING OUTLAW
Also Color Cartoon

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.

FREE
12 HOLLYWOOD TRY-ON HAIR STYLES given F-R-E-E with purchase of 6 oz. or 16 oz. Bottle of FITCH'S DANDRUFF REMOVER SHAMPOO

McKEOWN'S
DRUG STORE
PHONE 135

SERVICE—
WITH A SMILE
THAT'S OUR MOTTO ! !
Satisfaction at a price that will please.

Our General Motors trained mechanics and a complete, modernly equipped shop is at your service. A complete stock of Genuine Parts on hand for your convenience. So—when in need of Fast, Economical Service
REMEMBER IT'S THE

BELLEVILLE MOTORS
PONTIAC, McL.-BUICK, G.M.C. SALES and SERVICE
A. C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Sts.
Phone 340
Successors To
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

THERE ARE NO LOWER DRUG PRICES.
ATTRACTIVE
GLASS FREE with
39c
16 oz. tin
OLD ENGLISH
Health Salts
I. D. A.
DRUG STORES
815-1t

OIL BURNER SERVICE
ANY MAKE.
Phone 2260
JOHN LEWIS CO.
813-3t

RED CROSS Headquarters
224 Front St. 2nd. Floor
OPEN MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS and FRIDAYS.
2.00 to 5.30 p.m.
814-2t

MADAME CORNELIA
The Well Known European Clairvoyant, Psychologist
Advice on all affairs of life.
PRIVATE READINGS 50c
Queen's Hotel, Room 35.
10 a.m. - 11 p.m.

FREE SOAP
FOR THAT COUPON
THAT WAS LEFT AT YOUR DOOR
PHONE 11
WE'LL SEND IT UP
SELDON'S
DRUG STORE

No Change in Price Of Milk is Expected

While the prices of various commodities are expected to rise within the next few days due to new war taxation and other reasons the retail price of milk is not expected to fall in line with new price fixations, a prominent city dairy man stated this morning.

"In fact," he added, "the price of milk is not expected to change until butter quotations reach a forty-five cent level."

Asked to amplify the statement, he added that with butter at this price, it necessarily meant that cream would also rise in price, thus the farmer would separate to get better prices. This in turn would mean new costs for milk to the dairy and a consequent rise in price to the consumer.

WOTTEN'S LIMITED ARE MOVING

On and after the Middle of October we will be located at our new and Modern Store, now in course of construction just opposite Victoria Ave. In the meantime we are going to make an honest attempt to clear out every article of merchandise that is in our present store. Every garment cut and slashed in price, and that in face of the fact that prices are rising every day. True, there's lots of old merchandise that will be sold for almost a song, but there are still thousands of dollars of fresh, new garments that will be marked away below present selling prices.

WATCH FOR THE SALE TAGS AT "WOTTEN'S" LIMITED

Quick LOANS
- NO ENDORSERS!
- NO RED TAPE!
- YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!

ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.

QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

HAVE YOUR HEATING SYSTEM REPAIRED AND SERVICED FOR WINTER USE NOW.
Call 38 for Prompt and Efficient Service by an Experienced Workman.

If You are Thinking of Buying a Stove or Furnacette Look Over Our Stock for Values before You Buy.

| | |
|---|---|
| SUNGLO Wood Heater | $39.00 |
| HAPPY THOUGHT Buffet Stove | $110.00 |
| SPENCER Quebec Heaters, small, med., large | $12 to $25.00 |

We have several Good Used Stoves Attractively Priced.

SPECIAL
1 good used COFFIELD WASHER
Only .... $60.00

CHAS. L. HYDE
292 Front St. Phone 38
BELLEVILLE, ONT.
Rural Water Systems a Specialty.

We Sell and Instal Pease, "Eclipse" "Economy" "Nugget" FURNACES

JURIES SELECTED FOR FALL ASSIZES

Selection of members of the Hastings County Grand and Petit juries was conducted today and yesterday at Shire Hall under the supervision of His Honor Judge G. E. Deroche.

The fall assizes of the Supreme Court of Ontario will be held here on October 23rd with Mr. Justice Chevrier presiding. Annual inspection of county buildings and other duties of the Grand Jury will be conducted at that time.

Sale
COMMUNITY PLATE
40% OFF
OPEN STOCK PRICE
ALL PATTERNS
Including
"FOREVER"
The Brand New Pattern
Sept. 15th to 30th Only

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 50 PIECESSERVICE FOR 8OPEN STOCK PRICE $67.25 | SALE PRICE | $39.75 |
| 39 PIECES . . .SERVICE FOR 6OPEN STOCK PRICE $50.00 | SALE PRICE | $29.75 |
| 62 PIECES . . .SERVICE FOR 12OPEN STOCK PRICE $83.50 | SALE PRICE | $49.75 |

Above Prices Include Chest

BUDGET TERMS
THE NEW "FOREVER" PATTERN

Angus McFee
JEWELERS
SINCE 1860

OBITUARY

MRS. MARY O'ROURKE

Mrs. Mary O'Rourke, widow of Edward O'Rourke, passed away suddenly this Friday morning at the family residence, 118 Pinnacle Street.

The late Mrs. O'Rourke was well known in the city and had many friends to whom her passing has brought sincere feelings of regret. In religion she was a devout member of St. Michael's Church, and took an active part in the work of the parish, being a member of the Catholic Women's League and the Altar Society.

The late Mrs. O'Rourke was born at Cloyne, Ont., her parents being the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hunt. For the past sixty years she made her home in Belleville and was held in high regard by all who knew her. Surviving to mourn her loss are four daughters, Mrs. T. R. Barrett, Mrs. W. G. Grant, Miss Kathleen O'Rourke, all of Belleville, and Mrs. Hugh Keon of Detroit; one son, Mr. J. M. O'Rourke, Detroit, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. John Mulvihill, Frankford and Mrs. Root Armstrong, Toronto; two brothers, Mr. Joseph Hunt, Newburg, Ont., and Mr. John Hunt, Saskatoon, Sask.; also fourteen grandchildren.

The funeral announcement will be made tomorrow.

WILLIAM C. MAYO
(Los Angeles)

Word was received in Belleville today stating that William C. Mayo a former Belleville resident had passed away at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., on Wednesday. Friends in Belleville were informed that the funeral of the late Mr. Mayo will be held in Belleville late next week; a funeral notice will appear later.

Mr. Mayo's wife, the late Mary E. Lott, predeceased him some years ago and was the daughter of the late Ex-Alderman Lott of this city. Mr. Mayo was a brother of the late Bennie Mayo, who also was well known in Belleville. Two sisters, Mrs. J. McDonald, Los Angeles and Mrs. A. Thompson, Calgary, survive.

The Mayo family took up residence in Los Angeles in 1914, after having resided in Belleville for some years.

Old friends here will regret to learn of his death.

SAMUEL R. ARTIS
(Sarnia)

Following a lengthy illness, Samuel R. Artis, who for many years conducted a grocery business in Belleville, died at his home in Sarnia recently. The late Mr. Artis had resided practically all of his life in Belleville, moving to Sarnia some four months ago.

The late Samuel R. Artis who was in his 71st year, was the son of the late John R. Artis and was born in Tyendinaga Township. After his marriage, Mr. Artis came to Belleville, where he opened a grocery store which he operated for many years. He was well-known in the business life of Belleville and well esteemed. Old friends will regret to learn of his death.

Besides his widow, who was Miss Ethel Kortright, the late Mr. Artis leaves one son, Harry, of Sarnia, one daughter, Mrs. B. K. Rennie of Detroit, and three sisters, Mrs. Edward Plane, Madoc, Mrs. Annastatia Gleason, Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Joseph Huff, Tyendinaga, and two grandchildren, Gwen and Harry Wheeler, of Belleville. Mr. Artis was an Anglican in religion, having attended Christ Church during his residence in Belleville.

The funeral took place from the Belleville Funeral Home, Campbell Street yesterday afternoon with the Rev. C. P. Heaven of Shannonville officiating. Pallbearers were Messrs. Gerald Vance, Oliver Plane, Gordon Craig, John Craig, John Bovay and Joseph Huff. Interment was made in Shannonville Cemetery.

ANOTHER BIG WEEK FOR DANCE LOVERS AT HUME ARENA DANCE GARDENS
BELLEVILLE
September 18 to September 23

MONDAY and WEDNESDAY
Morgan Thomas and his Hamilton Orchestra, featuring Mildred Morey, girl singer. Return Engagement. Voted the best band to visit the district this season. As your friends who have danced to them.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY
Regular Dance Nights. Music by the popular Tophatters.
Prices:. Monday and Wednesday, Admission 15c. Jitney Dancing, 4 tickets for 25c.

TUESDAY, Economy Night
Admission: Gentlemen 10c, Ladies free. Jitney dancing a Cent a person per dance. Thursday and Saturday, Gentlemen 10c, Ladies Free. 6c per couple per dance.

Hume Arena Dance Gardens
BELLEVILLE
Where Dancing Satisfies the Most Critical. Plan Now to Attend.

STOMACH DISTRESS
RELIEVE THE DISCOMFORT OF A HEAVY MEAL WITH DIA-BISMA
An antacid powder and alkalising agent. Take it after meals or whenever an abnormal amount of acidity in the stomach brings an uncomfortable feeling. Sold only by Doyle's & Dolan's Drug Stores

USED CARS
Outstanding on the Used Car Market is a
'29 PLYMOUTH CABRIOLET
New Paint; Tires; Brakes. In excellent mechanical condition. A very snappy car with rumble seat. The price is far lower than you would expect.

New Car
(Demonstrator)
1939 STUDEBAKER CHAMPION
6 PASSENGER SEDAN, carefully driven. Finished in beautiful Victoria blue with massive nickel mouldings. Heavy, serviceable whipcord upholstery. Remote gearshift control. Planar front end suspension. Large trunk, all steel body. Hydraulic brakes. Like new in every respect. At a greatly reduced price.

THE NEW 1940 CHAMPION IS HERE
Priced with the Lowest.

QUINTE MOTORS
STUDEBAKER DISTRIBUTOR
BELLEVILLE

GEEN'S
Wild Strawberry Compound
for Dysentry, Diarrhoea, Colic, etc. - 35c bottle - Phone 131

TWO CONVICTED OF CAR THEFT

Roy Weaver Given 18 Months and Bernard Boomhower a Year in Reformatory

Roy Weaver, Belleville, was sentenced to serve 18 months definite and not more than 2 years less one day in the Ontario Reformatory by Magistrate E. J. Butler K.C. in today's city police court, where Weaver was convicted of the theft of a motor car, the property of Patrick Donnelly, Trenton.

"This lad not only stole the car, but he deliberately and wantonly committed sabotage," pointed out Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan K.C., County Crown Attorney, after Plainsclothes Constable Fred Isard had testified that Weaver had stolen the car in Belleville, drove it to a spot near Brighton, where he wrecked it, later pushing the vehicle, which was a new car, off a steep precipice. Weaver's record of previous convictions was also presented before sentence was passed.

Bernard Boomhower, also of Belleville, was sentenced to one year in the Reformatory after the accused pleaded guilty to a charge of the theft of a motor car, the property of Clinton Bird. Boomhower denied taking another car, the property of Ernest Elmy, Wellington, however. The latter charge was withdrawn by Mr. Donnan.

The three vehicles mentioned as stolen above were all recovered by Belleville police after being stolen last Saturday night. The damage to Mr. Donnelly's car was estimated at $300.00.

New School Inspector Pleased by Welcome

Members of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce yesterday welcomed a new guest at their regular luncheon, Mr. J. R. Pickering, public school inspector who has succeeded the appointment of Mr. H. J. Clarke, recently retired on superannuation.

Introduced by Mr. Mac Haig, president of the Chamber, Mr. Pickering recently of North Bay district, who with his family has taken up residence on MacDonald Avenue, this city, spoke of the extremely cordial welcome extended himself and family since arrival in Belleville.

"In fact it has been the most hearty, and warmest welcome I had ever received anywhere," Mr. Pickering elaborated. "All have been most cordial and most helpful, and I felt I was indeed among friends shortly after my arrival here," added the new inspector, warning, however, that any speech making expected of him must necessarily be deferred.

Mr. Leo Riggs, past president of the Chamber who has returned from an extended holiday spent in the highlands of Michigan, was also tendered a warm welcome by members.

'WORLD'S FAIR' AN INSTITUTION

Shannonville Exhibition Always Attracts a Large Attendance

Long before New York or San Francisco held world's fairs, the annual fall fair at Shannonville was known far and wide as —"the world's fair." Steadily the popularity of this County Fair has increased until today the village of Shannonville boasts of fine buildings, a good track and Saturday sees the annual Shannonville "world's fair" again the centre of attraction for farmers and urban folk of the district.

The exhibits of products of the soil and livestock are limited exclusively to farmers of Hastings County, when the final judging results in assured county championships being won by the farm exhibitors of Hastings County. However, the Shannonville Fair and exposition is not solely given to farm and livestock exhibits, as the Fair Board annually arrange a varied programme to interest all, assured Secretary Ken Vivian.

Two harness races and two running races, as well as a bicycle race for those enjoying tests of speed on the track will be featured at the Shannonville Fair on Saturday. The tug-of-war, a feature that is constitutional with the fair, always brings keen competition among Tyendinaga, Thurlow, Point Anne and the Indian Reserve, while the log-sawing contest is equally as keenly contested, but the climax comes with the greasy pig chase, that usually terminates with several tumbles into the Salmon River.

Climaxing a full day of fun and frivolity is always the evening performance, when the midway is in full swing, free performances on an open stand and the gala day's programme is finally terminated with a mammoth dance, both round and square dancing being featured. To miss the Shannonville "world's fair" is to leave a vacancy in the community's list of feature seasonal attractions.

YOUTH STEERS A COURSE TO ADVENTURE
Thrills roaring across the high seas to the Arctic in COLUMBIA'S mighty drama of America's heroic "Navy of Mercy"!
COAST GUARD
Randolph SCOTT · Frances DEE · Ralph BELLAMY · Walter CONNOLLY
2ND. BIG FEATURE
EMOTIONAL DYNAMITE!
PARENTS On TRIAL
JEAN PARKER
JOHNNY DOWNS
PLUS OPENING CHAPTER
Mandrake, the Magician
with
WARREN HULL, DORIS WESTON
TONIGHT & SATURDAY
AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
COMPLETE PERFORMANCES DAILY 2.30: 7.15: 9.00 p.m.

SINISTER SECRECY

(Continued From Page One)

made regarding the capture or destruction of a submarine. United States naval men familiar with submarine warfare say it is unbelievable that some German submarines have not been sunk.

But the big problem—as in the last war—is how to catch the subs, said an American officer who has commanded several undersea craft. The development of radio and sound detection devices has both helped and hindered the submarines—it has permitted submarines to remain under sea during an attack, without using periscopes to aim their torpedoes, but it also has been a big help to their pursuers.

United States naval authorities doubt, however, that the campaign against the German submarines has been especially effective because of the frequent reports of "courtesies" shown their victims. With the notable exception of the Athenia sinking, most of the victim ships apparently have been sunk only after the submarine commander permitted the crew to put off in life-boats.

Q-boat Methods

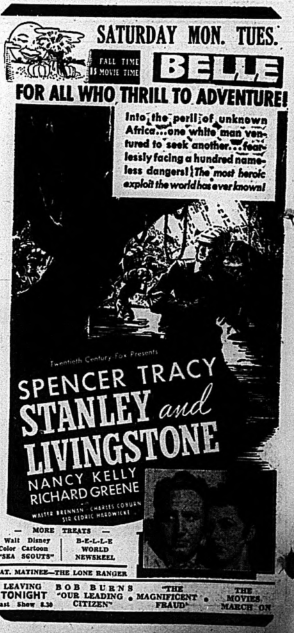
If Britain and France had been sinking submarines by "trick" methods—as with the disguised Q-boats of the first Great War—authorities reason the Germans might not be so polite.

The Q-boats were disguised old tramps, sailing ships, trawlers or fishing smacks which carried guns hidden on their decks, depth bombs and even torpedoes under water. When a submarine came to the surface to warn the crew to abandon ship, these hidden weapons opened fire.

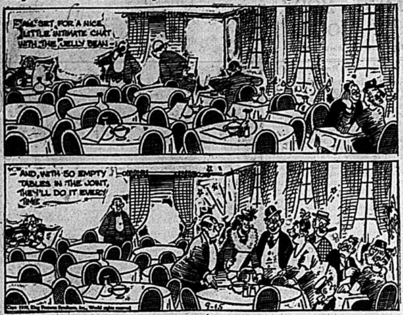
It wasn't long before some submarines escaped and the trick was exposed. After that, the U-boats no longer were so considerate.

"Faith is the very essence of knowledge. It is never lost, once you have had it."
—Henry Ford.



SATURDAY MON. TUES.
FALL TIME IS MOVIE TIME
BELLE
FOR ALL WHO THRILL TO ADVENTURE!
Into the peril of unknown Africa...one white man ventured to seek another...fearlessly facing a hundred nameless dangers! The most heroic exploit the world has ever known!
Twentieth Century-Fox Presents
SPENCER TRACY
STANLEY and LIVINGSTONE
NANCY KELLY
RICHARD GREENE
with WALTER BRENNAN · CHARLES COBURN · SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE
— MORE TREATS —
Walt Disney Color Cartoon "SEA SCOUTS"
B-E-L-L-E WORLD NEWSREEL
SAT. MATINEE—THE LONE RANGER
LEAVING TONIGHT Last Show 8.30
BOB BURNS "OUR LEADING CITIZEN" · "THE MAGNIFICENT FRAUD" · THE MOVIES MARCH ON

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



ALL SET FOR A NICE LITTLE INTIMATE CHAT WITH THE "JELLY BEAN"— AND, WITH 50 EMPTY TABLES IN THE JOINT, THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME
9-15

Madoc Twp. School Fair

School sections of Madoc Township more than lived up to the records established in other townships when the children of the various School Sections attended the annual School fair held on Wednesday, Sept. 13th at Madoc Fair Grounds at the remarkable strength of one hundred per cent. Fourteen schools took part in the school choruses and displayed the value of superb training they have passed through during the year under the guidance of the capable musical instructor, Mrs. Alexander of Madoc. Keen competition in all competition classes added interest to the event which was attended by one of the largest crowds in its history. Following is listed the prize winners in the various classes listed according to merit with the number following each name signifying the school section represented.

Grains and Seeds

Oats, Alaska, 1 quart—Jean McKinnon 4; Helen Robinson 7.

Oats, Alaska, 1 sheaf—Jean McKinnon 4; Helen Robinson 7.

Open Class Oats—Lillian Blakeley, 16; Farley Parnell 7; Chester Bronson 16; Jean McKinnon 4; Leah Bronson 16; Don Campbell 14.

Barley Nobarb — Carl Rollins 6; Ross Pigden 12.

Barley, open class—Chas. Robinson 7.

Spring Wheat, Mindum — Chas. Robinson 7; Ruth Chambers 16.

Spring Wheat, Mindum Sheaf—Cecil Bronson 16; Aileen Diamond 13; Chas. Robinson 7; Carl Rollins 6.

Field Corn, Longfellow, 6 ears—Velma Carmen 16.

Sweet Corn, Golden Sunshine — Allan Phillips 5; Chas. Thompson 7, Arthur Bronson 16.

Soybean O.A.C. No. 211, 1 pint—June Holmes 5; Foster Rose 13; Marion Sanford 14.

Potatoes and Roots

Potatoes Dooleys— Joyce McCarey 16; Grace Moorcroft 3; Joyce Ferguson 6; Ruth Chamber 16; Wilbert Moon 13; Joyce Pigden 13.

Potatoes Irish Cobblers—Mark Thompson 7; June Holmans 5; Molly Meraw 3.

Potatoes, Green Mountain — Francis Love 4.

Turnips for feeding — Sherwood Palmer 7; Jean McKinnon 4; Margaret Harris 6; Francis Love 4; Arthur Brownson 16; Carl Cleveland 6.

Mangels Yellow Intermediate — Joyce McCarey 16; Elmer Wannamaker 4; Shirley Palmer 7; Don Phillips 5; William Robinson 7; Faye Rollins 6.

Turnips, Canadian Gem — Arlie Burris 9; Raymond River 3.

Beets, Detroit Red— Margaret Harris 6; Donald Shattrew 14; Faye Rollins 6; Doris Ellis 7; Teddy Pigden 13; Donna Parnell 7.

Carrots, Chantenay— Sherwood Palmer 7; Betty Strebe 7; Eugene Pigden 9; Arlie Burris 9; Mary Lois Pigden 13; Ruth Gunsolus 4.

Onions, Yellow Globe Danvers—Eric Bristol; Shelbourne Woods 5; Wilbert Moon 13; Glen Anderson 6.

Parsnips, Hollow Crown — Joyce Sandford 14; Bert Derry 14; Anne Nickle 7; Bernadette Thompson 7; Sheila Empey 7.

Pumpkin, Sugar pie—Cecil Bronson 16; Kenneth Cleave 16; Velma Carman 16; Fred Rollins 6; Phyllis Holmes 5; Glen Rollins 6.

Squash, Hubbard— Arthur Bronson 16; Carl Rollins 6.

Apples and Fruits

Apples, Wealthy — Shirley Pigden 7; Adeline McCoy 6; Joyce Ferguson 6; Roy Blakeley 6; Eugene Sandford 14; Phyllis Rose 13.

Apples, McIntosh,—Eugene Pigden 9; June Holmes 5; Joyce Ferguson 6; Eric McCoy 6; Lois Chamber 16; Bella Moon 13.

Apple Collection—Joyce Ferguson 6; Allan Phillips 5; Don Phillips 5; Bella Moon 13.

Tomatoes — Kenneth Broad 4; Joyce McCarey 16; Joy Blackburn 14; William Brady 6; Roy Blakeley 3; Cecil Bronson 16.

Flowers and Plants

Asters, 6 blooms— Jean Anderson 6; Joan Empey 7; Donald Shattrew 14.

Zinnias, 6 blooms—Shirley Pigden 7; Phyllis Holmes 5; Ross Bristol 13; Bob Bird 9; John Blackburn 14; Elmer Wannamaker 4.

Nasturtiums, 6 blooms—Margaret Harris. 6.

Calendula, 6 sprays — Naomi Johnston 13; Harold Burnside 13.

Cosmos, 6 sprays—Madeline Bird 9; Amy Nichol 7; Shirley Empey 7, Arlene Woods 5; Chas. Thompson 7.

Coreopsis, 10 blooms — Phyllis Rose 13; Lillian Blakeley 16; Chas. Robinson 7; Burnadette Thompson 7.

Helichrysum, 10 blooms—William Robinson 7.

Snapdragon—Betty Strebe 7; Glen Davis 14; Allan Phillips 5; June Holmes 5; Kenneth Cleave 16.

Phlox, 6 sprays—Arlie Burris 9; Donald Burnside 13; Eric Bristol 13; Dorothy Martin 7; Betty M. Love 11; Don Phillips 5.

Stocks, 6 sprays— Lemmel Sandford 14.

Open Class, any flower—Marilyn Parks, 6; Donald Burnside 13; Joan Empey 7; Harold Burnside 13; Betty Strebe 7; Doris Parnell 7.

Poultry

Barred Plymouth Rock Cockerel—Eric Bristol 13; Wilbert Moon 13; Kenneth Broad 4; Harold Burnside 13; June Holmes 5; Carl Rollins 6.

Barred Plymouth, Rock Pullets—Harold Burnside 13; Joyce McCarey 16; Fred Rollins 6; June Holmes 5.

White Leghorn, Cockerel—Kenneth Cleave 16; Donald Burnside 13; Shirley Palmer 7; Cecil Bronson 16; Arthur Bronson 16; Fay Rollins 6.

White Leghorn Pullet — Shirley Palmer 7; Donald Burnside 13; Fay Rollins 6; Anne Nickle 7; Cecil Bronson 16.

Livestock Parade

Donald Burnside 13; Harold Burnside 13.

Calf Dairy type—Donald Burnside 13; Harold Burnside 13.

Showmanship — Harold Burnside 13; Donald Burnside 13.

Contests and Displays

Recitation from reader— Betty Love 4; Eugene Sandford 4; Marian Gaevel 2; Donna Phillips 5; Margaret Brady 6.

Girls' Public Speaking contest—Helen Tate 14.

Boys' Public Speaking contest—Robert Anderson 6; Eugene Jarvis 17; Russell McCoy 2.

Boys' and girls' naming contest—Helen Tate 4; Cecil Bronson 16; Hazel Burris 9; Bessie McCann 14; Norma Boyle 14; Carl Rollins 6.

Boys' and Girls' Vegetable Judging contest—Madeline Bird 9; Donald Campbell 14; Bessie McCann 14; Joyce Ferguson 6; Helen Tate 14; Don Shattrew 14.

Boys' and Girls' grain bag patching—Dorothy Feeney 3.

Colourful display of routine school work gave visitors ample chance to see the work of the various class these displays are an added feature to the fair and are creating much interest. Schools with displays arranged were S.S. 3; S.S. 4; S.S. 5; S.S. 6; S.S. 7; S.S. 9; S.S. 11; S.S. 12; S.S. 13; S.S. 14; S S. 16.

The entire fourteen schools all trained under the supervision of music instructor Mrs. Alexander of Madoc, entered the School Chorus Contest with School Section 4, 16 and 7 receiving first, second and third prizes respectively.

Those taking part in the colourful school parade were S.S. 2; 3; 4; 5; 6; 7; 8; 9; 12; 13; 14; 16; 17; 19.

WHEN USING WILSON'S
FLY PADS
READ DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY AND FOLLOW THEM EXACTLY
Each pad will kill flies all day and every day for three weeks.
3 pads in each packet.
10 CENTS PER PACKET
at Druggists, Grocers, General Stores
WHY PAY MORE?
WILSON FLY PAD CO., Hamilton, Ont.

Stirling Friends Present Gift to Bridal Couple

Stirling — On Monday evening, Sept. 11th a group of officers and teachers of St. Paul's United Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Good, superintendent of the school, to honour Mr. and Mrs. Donald Williams (nee Miss Ferne Patterson). Mr. and Mrs. Williams recently returned from a wedding trip to New York City and will establish their new home in Stirling.

Mr. Williams is widely known throughout the Stirling District for his interest in Church, Sunday School and Young People's work. For several years he has acted on the executive of St. Paul's Sunday School. It was in appreciation of these excellent services that his fellow officers gathered for this pleasant evening.

After a business and discussion period, Rev. W. J. Scott, addressed the honoured couple paying tribute to the faithfulness in which Mr. Williams has executed his duties on various church executive bodies. Following the address Miss Frances Fenwick presented Mr. and Mrs. Williams with a lovely modernistic table lamp. Mr. Williams briefly expressed the appreciation felt by himself and Mrs. Williams for the kindly gesture Several of the ladies assisted Mrs. Good in serving luncheon and a social period was very much enjoyed by all.

St. Paul's W. M. S. Meeting for September

The regular monthly meeting of St. Paul's Women's Missionary Society was held in the church parlours on Tuesday afternoon, Sept 12th. Mrs. R. A. Patterson, President of the Society presided over the meeting. Following prayer by the President, the business part of the meeting was conducted which included the roll call and the secretary's report given by Mrs. E. G. Bailey and each of the department secretaries presented their monthly reports.

The remaining portion of the meeting was directed by Miss E. Donnan, convener of the program committee. After the use of hymn No. 390, Mrs. H. David led in prayer. Mrs. Geo. Pollard read the Scripture lesson. A chapter of the adopted study book, "Moving Millions in India" was read by the speaker of the day, Mrs. F. Jackman, who delivered a brief address of comment.

Mrs. Clapper contributed musically to the programme with an instrumental solo. After the singing of another hymn, Mrs. (Rev.) W. J. Scott led in the closing prayer and all repeated the parting Benediction.

THAT SHINE IS WORTH MONEY
YES— NUGGET'S A HONEY
NUGGET SHOE POLISH
THE FINEST LEATHER PRESERVATIVE
The daily Nugget shine pays real dividends in smart appearance:
Black, Blue and all shades of Brown.

Deal at Dolan's
AND SAVE MONEY
PHONE 138
WE'LL SEND IT.
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST

Bay of Quinte Conference Branch W. M. S. Executive

The Autumn executive of the Bay of Quinte Missionary Branch of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada convened at the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby with every secretary present, also from presbyterial presidents representing Sidney, Peterborough, Renfrew and Oshawa.

The new president Miss Eliza Dunoon, Lindsay, based her opening theme on "Widening Horizons." The allocation of $77,500 was accepted for 1940. The treasurer has remitted to Dominion Board $25,882 for the half year. Glimpses from Dominion Board held in June was given by Mrs. W. H. Morton, Peterborough and Mrs. F. Myers, Lindsay, also a full report appears in July Missionary Monthly.

Mrs. W. L. Smyth, B.A., was dean of the school for leaders and based her worship periods on "The Kingdom Without Frontiers." The special item of the school was a series of lectures and slides given by Mrs. Hugh D. Taylor, who was our delegate to Madras. India, last December and she chose as her theme "The World Mission of the church."

The New Study Books were discussed and many interesting groups studied under the leadership of Mrs. H. T. Thompson, Miss Mabel Carroll, Miss Semmens and Miss Allan.

A brief memorial service was held for Miss Minnie Shipley who suddenly passed to higher service in Changte, China.

Among those who attended the school and brought greetings were Mrs. H. A. Lavalle, Kingston. first president of Dominion Board. Miss Wilma Samlalsingh, our scholarship's student from Trinidad. Miss Mary Haig home on furlough from Japan. Dr. Alice Anderson home on furlough from Central India. Miss Wilma Paddoch our own Home Missionary on Highway No. 7. Dr. Reta Kilborn, Toronto and her daughter Miss Cora Kilborn, a number of officers of the Dominion Board, and these women with the branch officers all had a share in making every session a success.

Mountain View

Mountain View — Miss Nora Sprague of Belleville spent over the holiday at the home of Mr. J. G. Sprague.

Miss Elizabeth Jordon spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. Goodwin of Cherry Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Ashley and Seymore of Madoc Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parks and family of Madoc Junction, also Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunter and family of Belleville, spent Labor Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague and family spent Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Sprague and family of Big Island.

Mr. and Mrs Bernard Lawson of Brockville were Monday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bovay.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Parliament of Belleville spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Parliament.

Mr. William and Jack Sprague of Kirkland Lake called at the home of Mr. Jay Sprague on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kent motored over the Thousand Island Bridge down in the States on Sunday and Monday.

School reopened on Tuesday after the summer holidays with the same teacher, Mr. Andrew Harris, in charge. The school looks nice, having been repainted in the holidays.

The pupils also resumed their studies at the Belleville Collegiate. New pupils from this vicinity were: Leland Sprague, Harry Burkitt, Arthur Minaker and Lorraine Wilson.

Miss Helen Lough with the other members of the girls' judging team for Prince Edward County spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Toronto at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Goodwin of Peterboro called on Mrs. Jordon and Miss Elizabeth Jordon on Thursday morning.

Mrs. James Barber entertained the Guild at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Jordon of Cherry Valley is spending holidays with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jordon.

Mrs. Warren Chase of North Lakeside spent the supper hour on Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Eleanor and Roger Sprague spent the week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Way of Bowerman's.

Misses Lillian Sprague, Maggie and Annie Blair spent the supper hour on Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson.

Quite a number of the young people of this neighborhood enjoyed a motor trip to Peterboro on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague and family called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cross, Christian Street, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Seymore Hamilton and Miss Pearl Hamilton returned home on Monday night after a motorcycle trip to Niagara Falls. Sunday and Monday was spent in enjoying the scenery on both the Canadian and American side.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lovell, also Mr. Charles Sprague spent the dinner hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Poste.

Shannonville School Fair

Shannonville—The School Fair held in Shannonville Sept. 11. was a decided success with fifteen schools on the fair grounds. The teachers for Shannonville school are Mr. J. Coukell, Miss Stillson and Miss Robertson, singing teacher, who are proud of their pupils who won prizes and the school who won the prize for singing, also the prize for showmanship. The pupils winning prizes are as follows:

Chorus—1st prize.
Charles Mayell—5th, Asters.
Shirley Marion—1st, Calendula.
Leon Marion—4th, Cosmos; 3rd, Beets.
George Marion—1st, Coreopsis; 6th, Carrots.
Olive Burtt—4th, Phlox.
Lorraine C. Brant—1st, Table Bouquet; 3rd, Potatoes.
Mary Isabel Vivian—4th, Table Bouquet.
Helen Vivian—1st, Carrot judging.
Ruth Spencer—2nd, Carrot judging.
Irene Bardy—3rd, Carrot judging.
Joe Barnhardt—1st and 2nd, Barred Rocks.
Floyd Brant—5th, Barred Rocks.
Floyd Mills—2nd, White Leghorns; 6th, Squash; 4th, Tomatoes.
Murray Seeley—1st, Barley, sheath; 1st, Quart of Barley.
Sheila Marion—1st, Sweet Corn.
Donald Bardy—1st, Peas.
Sharon Maracle—5th, Mangels.
Catherine Brant—6th, Mangels; 6th, Tomatoes.
Mary Mayell—3rd, Turnips.
Kathryn Mills—2nd, Parsnips.
Carl Fuller—3rd, Onions.
Wilson Bardy—3rd, Parsnips.
Bruce Pringle—5th, Parsnips.
Leburn Leverton—4th, Pumpkin.
Gerald Stratton—5th, Barley; 5th, Oats.
Garnet Hill—2nd, Tomatoes; 2nd, Calf; 4th, Showmanship.

Massassaga

Massassaga—The Ladies' Aid met the Parsonage on Thursday afternoon and entertained the Roblin's Mills Ladies' Aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gray, Jack and June motored to Welland last week and spent a few days with Mr. Gray's brother, also visited friends at Niagara Falls and Buffalo and attended the Toronto Exhibition.

Miss Helen Wallbridge, Reg. N., is spending a month's holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wallbridge.

Mr. James Broad and Miss Hattie Broad motored to Madoc on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallbridge left on Tuesday for New York to attend the World's Fair.

Mr. Morley Davidson attended Toronto Exhibition a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alder and Keith, also Mrs. Asa Foster of Bethel were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wallbridge and family on Sunday.

Mr. Morley Davidson, Mrs. D. R. Davidson and Miss Claire Adams were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Giles at Centre, on Sunday.

Mrs. Thrasher of Belleville spent a couple of days last week with her brother, Mr. Will Gray and Mrs. Gray.

3rd Thurlow

3rd Thurlow—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Youker and Francis of Belleville, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rupert.

Miss Marie Emmons of Belleville was a week-end guest of Mrs. Wm. Doxtator.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cole called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry McPherson on Tuesday evening last.

Mrs. Wm. Casey and Eva, also Miss Mabel Latta called on Mrs. Harold Rupert and baby on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Walker spent Tuesday with her uncle, Mr. Chas. Denike, 4th line.

Mr. Harry Tummon and family spent Sunday last with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hamilton.

Mrs. H. Brason of Belleville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Rupert.

Misses Edith, Hazel and Bessie Walker, Miss Edith Easton, Misses Marion and Vera Pound and Miss Isabel Huffman, Gilead, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Clare and family, of Gilead, on a motor trip to Combermere where they spent the week-end camping.

Mrs. W. Eggleton of Sidney spent the week-end with her son, Mr. Clayton Eggleton and family.

Fillers -tigthatoefCFO AAa

"We must be prepared to meet with success any application of force against us."

—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"The first chore of a political party out of power is corrective opposition."

—Herbert Hoover.

Saturday — Final Day of Our September "3 Special Days"

FOUR-PLY WOOL
One Ounce Balls
2 for 15c

ONE POUND
QUILT BATTS
25c Each

GIRLS'
FUR-TRIMMED
WINTER COATS
$6.95

WOOL MOTOR RUGS
38 x 65 inches
$2.25 Each

UNBLEACHED
PILLOW COTTON
19c Yard

4-THREAD FULL-FASHIONED SILK HOSE 59c
Fine silk-to-top Chiffon Stockings, sheer enough for evening wear, yet sturdy enough for every-day wear. Four new Autumn shades to choose from. Sizes 9 to 10½. Pair............ ..................

MEN'S FLANNELETTE PYJAMAS
$1.39 Suit

WASHABLE
WINDOW SHADES
50c Each

NEW YORK
HAND BAGS
$1.39
Newest Autumn Styles.
Black, Parisian, Navy, India Brown, Wine and Green.

RAG MATS
24 x 48 inches.
50c Each

EMBROIDERED
PILLOW CASES
59c Pair

GORDON "FOUR-BIT" SOCKS 39c
Men's fancy Cashmere Socks of "Better Qualities" in attractive patterns of checks, horizontal bars and figured designs. The colors are Black, Brown, Wine, Navy and Grey ..............................

Men's Work SHIRTS
Made of a heavy Quality. Navy Shirting. Sizes 14 to 17.
59c EACH

HEMSTITCHED
PILLOW CASES
42 inch.
19c EACH

LARGE FANCY
BATH TOWELS
45c each
22 x 44 inches.
- Solid colors with bar borders.
- Solid colors with fancy borders.
- White with fancy Jacquard patterns

TERRY
HAND TOWELS
10c EACH

MEN'S WOOL
WORK SOCKS
15c PAIR

WALKER STORES, LIMITED

ATLAS HAS ALL FIVE!
1. FIRST LINE QUALITY—LOW COST
2. SILENT SAFETY TREAD
3. LATEX SOAKED CORDS
4. IMPERIAL OIL GUARANTEE
5. GUARANTEE GOOD THROUGHOUT CANADA AND U.S.
ATLAS
GRIP-SAFE • SILENT TREAD
TRUDEAU
MOTOR SALES
Belleville — Bloomfield — Stirling — Tweed

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

HASTINGS AND PRINCE EDWARD REGIMENT

The first regiment to begin active enlistment in Belleville and vicinity is the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, C.A.S.F. This is one of the oldest and most honored militia units in Military District No. 3. The Regiment itself is the uniting of the 16th Prince Edward Regiment and the 49th Hastings Rifles which was effected soon after the Great War. It is, also, affiliated with the Royal Sussex Regiment in Great Britain, one of the oldest and proudest units of the Old Country's forces.

The Commanding Officer is Lieut.-Col. Sherman Young, D.C.M., V.D., who has had a distinguished military career and who is extremely popular with the men of his Regiment. He, along with all the company commanders of the unit, has worked his way up from the ranks. Practically every officer on the slate has been associated with the Regiment for years and many are specialists along many lines. Lt.-Col. B. C. Donnan, of the city, is a former commanding officer of the Regiment.

It is, perhaps, significant to note that, when the order to mobilize came through on September first, the H. & P. E. Regiment was the only infantry unit called into service in the whole of district No. 3, an area extending from Ottawa to Oshawa.

WHERE IS THE BREMEN?

"Bremen, Bremen, who's got the Bremen?" as it is aptly described by a Windsor newspaperman, is the first mystery of the present conflict to stir the curiosity of not only the populations of the belligerent nations but is fast assuming the proportions of a jig-saw puzzle to those of other countries.

This twenty-two million dollar jumpjng bean of the high seas, vanished mysteriously from the Atlantic Ocean a couple of days after war was declared. Since that time she has been reported to be anchored in "unidentified neutral ports" from the ice-coated harbor of Murmansk in Russia to the palm-fringed shores of Progresso, Mexico.

From Naples came the report (via German radio) that the big luxury liner of the German mercantile marine had anchored there proceeding from New York under the more or less protection of the Italian flag, after she had been reported to have been purchased by the Mussolini government.

A survivor of the Athenia disaster, rescued by the Swedish yacht "Southern Cross" came forward with the most probable of all Bremen reports when he told New York newspapermen that the "Southern Cross" had received wireless messages that British destroyers had captured the liner off the coast of Norway.

In what seems to be a verbal reprisal against this statement is that issued today by an official who claims to be close to the German navy, that "the Bremen is now anchored in the Russian port of Murmansk," having reached there by sneaking along the most northerly route via the Arctic Ocean. And the latest word regarding the anchorage of this prize package of the German mercantile fleet is the rumor brought by passengers of an American airliner, that she is anchored in the port of Progresso, a small protected harbor on the tip of the Yucatan peninsula.

Be that as it may it is most likely that the lads in the blue-and-gold of Britain's first line of defence have a general idea of where the liner is at present. And we may be wrong, but we doubt it, that the twenty-two million dollar prize is just where they can see her.

If not, then a lot of people will be surprised. Just how the huge liner mysteriously disappeared in thin air, eluded the British watchdogs on the Atlantic, ran the blockade and slipped through the Mediterranean sea is a matter for broad conjecture. This smacks of the first edition of Hitler's Fairy Tales.

Then again, had such a thing happened, the Nazi High Command would have howled the news to high heaven. As it was, they were satisfied in broadcasting to the world in general, and Germany in particular, that the Bremen was safe in "an unidentified neutral port". They would not have passed up such a glorious opportunity to ridicule the British navy to glorify the cleverness and seamanship of the Nazis sailors.

Adding weight to the theory that she is in British hands, is the story of the Athenia survivor, who claims his rescue ship intercepted wireless messages that the Athenia had been sunk in reprisal for the capture of the Bremen.

However, this is war, and in the battle-pie of rumors one can reach in his finger, like Mother Goose's Jack Horner, and pull out a plum to suit his own conception of just what has happened to the "mystery" liner, until the dark cloak of official censorship is lifted and the truth of the matter is made known.

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

OLD MILL

A smell of weathered wood warm with the sun,
And silver dust motes dancing in thin shafts of light:
Ghosts may walk at midday in this place
As surely as at night.

The last grain long ago was threshed and ground,
The millrace now but a trickle over mossy stones;
Something of men's lives is buried here
More finally than bones.

This dust, this rust, these time-warped beams,
Are legacy for patient spiders now,
Along with boards that creak beneath no foot, and doors
That move when no winds blow.

—Frederick Ebright, in N. Y. Times.

x x x

"KEEP YOUR HEAD COOL AND YOUR FEET WARM." That is the best advice I can give you, said an aged sage to a young business man who sought his advice at the beginning of the World War. Pretty good advice for any time of stress.

x x x

BULLETIN BOARD boards of strategy are in daily session. Get a real kick by listening in to the criticism voiced before the bulletin boards and the suggestions of how the war should be fought and won. Being a free country people are not afraid to voice their thoughts here, however erratic they may be. In Germany the people are not permitted to think out loud, the Hitlers and Goerings do that for them.

x x x

GLADYS DOKIS HAS HAD HER PICTURE IN THE NEWSPAPERS. Gladys is five years of age and claimed the attention of a newspaper photographer because she is one of the heirs of the Dokis forests in the French River part of Northern Ontario. Gladys has already profited to the extent of $1,200.00 from the timber fund because she belongs to the Dokis tribe of Ojibways, and she will continne to profit providing she marries into the tribe. For many years old Chief Dokis would not permit an axe to be laid to the great forests on the Dokis reserve and lumbermen were warned off. Thirty years ago after the death of Chief Dokis the young bucks succeeded in having the tribe consent to the sale of the forests for timber. The timber was auctioned off at Ottawa and realized several million dollars. This money was put into a fund for the benefit of the Indians and payments made at various times, the tribe at the time of sale numbering not more than two hundred souls. First payments amounted to one thousand dollars per head, man, woman and child, and large families drew as much as ten thousand dollars. Family portrait enlargers, salesmen of parlor organs, motor boats, etc., made a dead set on the tribe when they learned of their wealth, and wigwams gave place to smart cottages on the Dokis reserve. Bootleggers also plied their trade along the French River but were closely watched and roughly handled by law officers when caught. The most exciting thing to happen on the reserve aside from the first money payment was the crashing of a balloon in Lake Nipissing at the mouth of the French River. The balloon left St. Louis on a long distance race and descended one morning early in Lake Nipissing. Indians observing the strange sight concluded it was the moon dropping out of the sky and it was with difficulty the occupants of the baloon basket could get them to come to their rescue.

x x x

LADY ASTOR HAS ANNOUNCED THAT HER FIVE SONS will all be in the firing line for Great Britain, in the army, navy, and air force. Lady Astor, a member of the British House of Commons, is United States born, but takes no back seat to anyone in her loyalty to the British Crown. Over There they don't believe in half measures. However, one Brockville home has three sons in the Canadian air force.

x x x

LAZINESS

Two Indians noticed a white man cycling.

Said one: "White man very lazy, sitting walking."

OFF THE RECORD

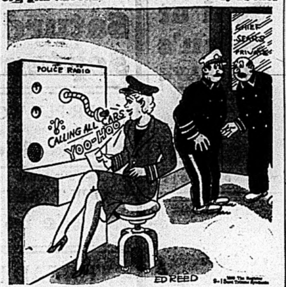
By Ed Reed



"You'd better speak to that Policewoman! She's hunting for a date tonight!"

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

Sept. 15th, 1919.

Mr. Clarence Mallory, secretary-treasurer of the U.F.O. for Prince Edward County, was unanimously nominated as candidate to contest the riding in the interests of the U.F.O. at the next Provincial election. Mr. Mallory was nominated by Mr. R. W. Ireland of Wellington, and Mr. Ed. Purtelle of Bloomfield, seconded the nomination. Mr. Mallory is a progressive farmer and an extensive breeder of Holstein cattle. He was Warden of Prince Edward County in the year 1918.

A fast game of baseball was played on the Ann Street School grounds last evening between the Red Sox and the Maple Leafs. The result was a score of 9 to 0 in favor of the Red Sox. The battery for the Red Sox was Maraskas and Ashley. Maraskas pitched brilliant ball, striking out nineteen men during the game. He also was the batting star, with a home run, two triples and three singles in six times at the bat. Ashley, the catcher, played a good game. This pair makes a brilliant battery and should be heard from next year. The fielding feature was supplied by Fred Myles also of the Sox team. He grabbed a liner over his head, touched third, then ran and touched the man coming from second to third. The bases were full with none out at the time. Joss and Bob Myles also played a good game. For the losers, Kerr was the best, he being the only one who could do anything with Maraskas' shots.

30 YEARS AGO

Sept. 15th, 1909.

A deputation representing the congregation of Victoria Avenue Baptist Church waited upon the Rev. J. A. Hilts, who has resigned the pastorate of the church, and presented him with an address and a purse of gold.

Mr. W. W. Pope, K.C., for the past twenty-six years connected with the legal office of the Grand Trunk Railway at Belleville and subsequently at Montreal, has been appointed secretary to the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario. His appointment is expected to relieve the chairman, the Hon. Adam Beck, of much of the heavy detail work which now falls to his lot.

Mr. S. Burgoyne left today for Cleveland, Ohio, where he is booked to play hockey this season with the Thistles.

Mr. James McKnight left today to visit his sister in Beslin, Wis.

40 YEARS AGO

Sept. 15th, 1899.

Mr. W. Lattimer of this city, D.D.G.M. of Prince Edward District for the A.F. and A.M., paid an official visit to Picton Lodge last evening. Some fifteen members of the Order in this city accompanied him to that town on the steamer Annie Lake.

Dr. James Potts is spending a few days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Murphy of Trenton were in town today.

Mr. James English of Madoc Township, Warden of the County, was in town today.

Mrs. W. A. Carr of Rochester, N.Y., is visiting relatives in the city.

The schooner Echo passed up the bay this morning.

Mrs. Geo. Crang, William St., has returned home from Kingston where she visited friends.

Mr. William Church of St. Paul, Minn., is here on a visit to friends after an absence of eleven years.

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 15th, 1889.

A new pipe organ is being installed in Wesley Methodist Church, Trenton.

The prize of a silk hat donated by Mr. S. A. Hyman to the member of the Forest and Stream Club, who caught by trolling or angling, the largest maskinonge up to this date, has been won by Mr. H. K. Smith, second Vice-President of the Club, who recently caught a 'lunge which weighed thirty-six pounds, measured four feet and two and three-quarter inches in length and in girth measured twenty-three inches. Mr. A. H. Crosby's prize of a lancewood rod for the largest bass caught under the same conditions, resulted in a tie between Messrs. W. P. Clarke and W. Ormond; each having caught a bass weighing four and a half pounds.

Ald. P. J. M. Anderson, barrister, is acting police magistrate during the absence of Magistrate J. J. B. Flint.

Prof. Stanistreet has returned to his home here after an extended visit with friends in Ireland.

Selling Sleigh Bells in Manila

The globe-trotting American salesman — a familiar figure in every big port in the world—has long used Yankee ingenuity to sell all the products of American manufacture from tractors to toothbrushes. When the old-fashioned bulb type auto horn went out of style here some salesman conceived the idea of selling the surplus stocks to China for use on rickshas. A vogue was established and the horn became standard equipment for all private rickshas whose owners made any claim to social distinction.

For many years before tomato juice became popular here the natives of Mongolia were drinking American catchup with gusto. A case of it was an appropriate present for a prince — taking the same rank as champagne in other lands. The salesman who introduced this vogue may have been the one who sold certain Mongol tribes the idea that, as the wearing of a hat was just a bit of ostentation, one could gain social prestige by wearing two or more hats — one on top of the other.

But probably the most difficult sales problem ever solved by an American salesman was the matter of sleigh bells in Manila. After Admiral Dewey's victory a Seattle firm, which had been very successful in Alaskan trade, wasted no time in tapping this new market. They simply duplicated a typical shipment to Alaska and then sent a salesman out to dispose of the cargo.

But he found no demand for the five tons of sleigh bells which, among other things, had been sent to this sleighless climate. However, he noted that Manila was full of caramatas and calasas, high-wheeled, gaudily decorated vehicles which served as hansom cabs. So he thought up a safety campaign and suggested to the authorities that provisions should be made for the protection of pedestrians against these vehicles which dashed through the streets at three miles an hour giving no hint of their coming other than the noise made by iron tires on the cobbles. The city fathers were duly convinced and a police regulation soon set forth in the English, Spanish and Tagalog languages a solemn injunction that all ponies pulling caramatas and calasas should be belled.

The ordinance required only two bells for each pony, but the proud drivers festooned their steeds like the reindeer of an opulent Santa Claus; sleigh bells became the fashion and now are found in remote villages where no police regulations require them.—Carl Crowe, in Harper's Magazine.

---

To make a pound of oil of roses requires eight tons of flowers.

About one-fourth of the 130,000 blind individuals in the United States read raised Braille type.

The 'possom is spreading northwest until some can be found within 100 miles of the Great Lakes.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

False Alarms in Heart Disease

Gone are the days when a heart murmur alarms the physician and in most cases the patient also. Yet, during the early part of the Great War recruits with a heart murmur were rejected, as were also those who did not have "perfect" vision in both eyes. A heart with a slight leak and eyesight that can observe features or colors at a reasonable distance give no cause for concern.

However, now that heart murmurs cause no alarm, pain in the heart region does cause alarm and not without reason as angina pectoris and coronary thrombosis both cause pain at or near the heart region.

That there are many false alarms in heart disease was reported some weeks ago in Hygeia, the health magazine, by Dr. Ernest P. Boas, New York. Dr. Boas states that in many instances such conditions as heart murmurs and pain in heart region, dreaded symptoms of heart disease, may mean very little to one's health. In other instances while the health may be affected, other organs than the heart are responsible. And even when there is true heart disease, it is often not so serious as many persons suppose.

The so-called heart murmur may be a true heart murmur due to a leaking valve or it may not arise in the heart at all. "If the murmur is not due to organic heart disease it is a factor of less importance in his life than whether his hair is dark or blonde, whether he is tall or short". Even if due to a leaking valve, if the heart muscle is doing its work, the murmur is not important.

What about heart pains? Dr. Boas points out that while pain in heart region may mean true heart disease, many disorders of the chest may cause pain. "Often the discovery that the pain has nothing to do with the heart is often enough to make it disappear."

I remember a case where the patient insisted on having three physicians in attendance at one time because of her heart disease, whereas the cause of the severe pain was neuralgia and myalgia (pain in nerves and muscles of the chest) in heart region. Neuralgia of nerves going to the heart can also cause pain over the heart. So also can gas pressure from stomach and intestine.

RUGGED NORSEMEN

My thought of Scandinavia has always been colored by tales of the rough and rugged Norsemen. Probably nothing but a visit to Copenhagen would have made me realize just how much polish has been added by Norse strength. The Danes are Nordic without trying, upstanding, blond and clean. But they are also urbane, with grace, gaiety and good manners.

The sense of order is strong, though I did not think so the first time I saw a swarm of bicycles—Copenhagen has only 400,000 bicycles—milling through a square. But never did we see a smash or even a pedestrian leap for safety.

I do not mean to say that Denmark is exactly Utopia, but for those who have thought of Utopia in terms of slumless cities, industrial co-operation, organized and stable agriculture, 100 percent. literacy, well-governed cities, low crime and disease rates, secure and contented workers, highly developed social inventions, Denmark will give a very good imitation.

Germany has taken great trouble to organize an excellent Strength Through Joy movement. I should say that in Denmark such a movement is not required, for the whole country seems to be engaged in a spontaneous happiness-through-harmony movement.—Christian Science Monitor.

REGINA JAYWALKERS

A visitor from the United States was so upset about Regina's 15-mile-an-hour speed limit and the jaywalking habits of Regina citizens that he was afraid to take his car downtown. He took a street car. The Regina situation had him scared.

Perhaps it was the jay-walkers who got him down. Most visitors to Regina say they are pretty bad. Perhaps they are bad because of the low speed limit. They can venture out in a street without looking, and at all places and times without the danger of being bowled over as they would be in most cities.

Even the policeman on point duty in Regina cannot get the walkers to stay back till he can get the cars across.—Regina Leader-Post.

GUARDED CONVERSATION

A woman air raid warden, steel-hatted and with gas-mask at her side, is shown telephoning from one of the well-protected booths that now dot London.

Censoring Canada's Newspapers

The days of the last war and some of the incidents connected with censorship of the press are recalled by Arthur R. Ford of the London Free Press:

During the whole war there was only one paper as far as we are aware that was actually suppressed by Col. Chambers. This was a weekly published at Sault Ste. Marie by Charles Napoleon Smith, an old Toronto newspaperman and at one time a member of the Ontario Legislature. Hector Charlesworth in his memoirs tells of the incident. He writes:

"Nobody quite understood why he yielded to the temptation to use his paper as a vehicle for German propaganda in Canada unless it was his love of mischief and habitual impecuniosity. Efforts of old acquaintances to save him from the loss of his newspaper property failed because his guilt was too clear. I learned from a printer who was obliged, against his will, to set the article that led to his condemnation, that Smith had taken no precaution to conceal the fact that it came from the German propagandist agency established in the United States by Count von Bernstoff. Col. Chambers had ample provocation in a few other cases, but in none could direct intercourse with the enemy be proven, and as a rule he preferred to use moral suasion and warn the offender not to do it again."

Mr. Charlesworth was at the time on the staff of Saturday Night and he tells an interesting story of the only time during the war that the censor had occasion to rebuke Saturday Night. He writes:

"All publications, quite properly, were forbidden to record naval movements, but as we did not publish news of this kind it was a verboten to which we gave little thought. One week there appeared in our columns of social news an item recording the fact that a prominent lady of Vancouver had given a tea for the officers of a Japanese naval squadron then in Vancouver harbor. The world was not supposed to know that the Japanese fleet, which had been scouring the North Pacific for German vessels had been in British Columbia waters, and we received a most censorious letter from the censor department, expounding on the treasonable nature of our offence, and threatening Saturday Night with confiscation if we were not more careful in future. Fred Paul (editor of Saturday Night at the time), who was an old newspaper pal of Col. Chambers and held him in high regard, made a characteristic reply. He simply sent the letter back to Ottawa with these words 'Dear Ernest: What damn fool wrote this'."

War in Earth's Underworld

Few things are more familiar, and less known, than ordinary garden soil. Perhaps last week's report by Dr. Rene J. Dubois, of the Rockefeller Institute to the International Congress of Microbiology, is the beginning of a change. What he told them was that a hitherto unknown bacterium collected from ordinary soil makes the most potent germ-killing chemical so far known to science. A pound of it is enough to keep pneumonia germs or the still more virulent streptococci away from more than five trillion mice, if the world possessed that many mice to be protected.

What it will do for germ-threatened human beings remains to be seen, but no soil scientist will be surprised that it is so potent. Among the teeming population and cut-throat competition inside a bucketful of soil, only potent weapons against one's enemies are of any use at all.

The late Professor Milton Whitney once said that if the average camper suspected the murder and rapine and sudden death happening every second in the microscopic world three or four inches underneath his bedroll there would be no sleeping out.

A teaspoonful of ordinary soil harbors millions of living creatures, mostly with teeth at each other's throats. Scores of kinds of bacteria and animalcules struggle to survive. Worm-like three-jawed nematodes swallow each smaller compatriot too slow or luckless to escape. Tall tales of man-eating plants in New Guinea or Madagascar nobody takes seriously, but carnivorous vegetation is a commonplace of the soil's microscopic realm. Tiny but voracious plantlets lay ingenious traps for nematodes not instantly alert. Largest is the gigantic juggernaut of an earthworm, disposing forever of a few thousand tinier creatures with each gulp of swallowed soil.

Among large land creatures or even in the sea the principle of survival of the fittest—or the fleetest—seems almost gentle. Nature, even there, occasionally may be red of tooth and claw, a million oyster larvas may be eaten to let one survive, but in the soil mutual pursuit and destruction never end; the whole soil society living, in last analysis, on the discarded roots and other parts of plants.

Lords of the domain undoubtedly are the earthworms, perhaps the most successful of all of evolution's products. Aristocrats like the five-foot singing earthworms of Australia are uncommon but lesser and more modest worms, all closely related to each other, are the most nearly world-wide of all living creatures, perhaps excepting a few kinds of soil bacteria.—New York Herald Tribune.

Little Benny's Note Book

We were eating supepr, being liver and onions in pop's honor, and I said, Hay ma, the fellows are getting up a berthday surprise party and we're all suppose to bring diffrent things, so can I have a dozen lemmons for my share?

We were eating supper, being that carries me back, we were always giving and having surprise parties when I was a girl, my what excitement, ma said, and pop said, Many's the time I pretended to be surprised on my berthday when the crowd came clammering in with their donations, what an actor I was. I half fooled myself.

Well can I have the dozen lemmons? I said, and ma said, Wich boy is having a berthday?

Mam? No boy, I said, and pop said, O, it's a girl how romantic, roses are red, sugar is sweet, I lay my lemmons at your feet.

What girl is it, Mary Watkins I'll bet, ma said, and I said, No mam, no girl.

Yee gods they're staging a surprise party for somebody's father, that'll be a surprise and a half, pop said, and ma said, Well of all the ideas whose father for land sakes?

Nobody's I said. It's for Sid Hunt's fox terrier Teddy, and Sid dont know enough dogs to have a dog party for him so we're going to give him a regular fellows party, I said and ma said, Now Benny you're not going to have a dozen good lemmons for any such purpose, that's impossible and you know it.

Well jimminy ma why is it? I said. G roozlem it's sure to be a surprise party because even if anybody told Teddy in advance he couldn't understand them, I said, and ma said, You can have 2 lemmons out of the ice box and let that be the end of it.

---

Being better than nothing.

In banding birds to trace their wandering, British observers use seven sizes of rings to fit British birds, from the wren to the eagle, and forests, we can roughly guess about how long America could feed

WOODLEY FURS
HAVE REPAIRS
RELINING
RESTYLING
POLARIZING
DONE NOW!
Get Our Estimate
273 FRONT ST.

Personals

A general tea was held at the Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club yesterday, following the afternoon's play. Members of the winning rink included Mrs. Argue, Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Scott (skip).

Dr. Maurice James, who spent the past week in Kingston with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William James, has resumed his duties at the Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Reid, who are leaving shortly to spend the winter at their home in St. Petersburg, Florida, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ackerman, Ann Street.

Among the officers of the R.C.A.F. who were promoted to Squadron Leaders yesterday was Flight-Lieutenant R. C. Mair of Dartmouth, N.S. Friends in the city of Flight-Lieutenant and Mrs. Mair (nee Grace Graham), will be interested to learn of his promotion.

Friends in Belleville of Mr. Thomas Wayling, Ottawa, will be interested to learn that he has been appointed chief press liaison officer, by the Dominion Government, with the rank of Major. Mr. Wayling addressed meetings of the Women's Canadian Club here on two occasions and made many friends in the city.

Weddings

LAWSON—COOTE

With the father of the groom performing the ceremony, Wooler United Church was the scene of a charming September wedding on Saturday afternoon, September ninth, at two-thirty when Miss Vera Alice Coote of Wooler, formerly of Essex, England, became the bride of Mr. Donald Floyd Lawson of Pickering, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Lawson, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father assisted by Rev. W. Delve of Wooler.

Gladioli and ferns made a colorful setting for the wedding which was attended by a large number of guests. The guest pews were marked with pink gladioli tied with white satin bows. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Bert Rowe, organist of the church, with Mr. Ralph Lawson, Toronto, as soloist, singing "Still as the Night" during the signing of the register. Miss Lina Jonson, Toronto, sang before the ceremony "O Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. E. M. Wessels, Wooler, wore a lovely ivory Duchess satin floor length gown, with bustle back and long sleeves. Her veil was of Brussels lace falling from a coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Muriel Summerboys of Brantford, was bridesmaid, wearing a floor length gown of pink net over taffeta, floral pink matching hat and silver slippers. Her bouquet was a muff of pink sweet peas and blue cornflowers.

Mr. Newell Lawson of Toronto, was groomsman and the ushers were Mr. Morris Lawson, Toronto, and Mr. Lynden Bosworth, Paris, Ontario.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wessels, where a buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Wessels wore blue velvet with plum accessories and Mrs. Lawson, mother of the groom wore grey silk trimmed with navy and navy accessories.

The bride and groom left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a frock of japonica and beige crepe with beige coat and japonica accessories.

Upon their return they will reside in Pickering.

CHATTERTON W.M.S.

The September meeting of the Chatterton W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. N. Parks, Tuesday, September 5th., 1939, with ten members and two visitors present.

Letter of thanks from Mrs. Lindenfield was read by Mrs. Marisette. The supply secretary reported $150 collected for quilt supplies. Temperance talk was given by Mrs. F. Campbell. The Worship service was led by the President. Prayer from monthly group leader, Mrs. Bleecker. Devotional leaflet, "Be of Good Cheer", Mrs. G. Frederick; reading, "Sacrifices", Mrs. J. H. Frederick; solo, Mrs. F. Campbell; reading "An Ode", by Mrs. B. Finkle; reading "I Call Christ Saviour", Miss Marjory Parks. A bazaar was held at the close of the meeting, proceeds $3.75.

1 OUT OF 3
Canadian mothers relieve misery of colds externally with
VICKS VAPORUB

IF IT'S ABOUT YOUR EYES . . . SEE McFEE

WEEP FOR LOVE

by

RUBY M. AYRES

INSTALMENT 6

Penelope sat down on the side of Elizabeth's bed and looked at her critically.

"You're very smart tonight."

Elizabeth glanced down at her frock.

"Do you like it?" she asked.

"Um—it's all right." Penelope was never enthusiastic about anything except her own singing. "Why in the world do people want to give a dance on a night like this?" she said abruptly.

"I expect it was arranged before they knew it would be so hot," Elizabeth answered. She glanced through the mirror at her stepsister. "Are you tired " she asked.

"I'm never tired."

There was a little silence before Elizabeth said shyly:

"I heard you singing. That is such a lovely song. What is it called?"

"'Penitence,' I believe," Penelope said carelessly. "They're stupid words, anyway, but it suits my voice."

"You don't mean that," Elizabeth thought, but she could not say so.

"I wish it would get cooler," the elder girl said presently. "This weather hurts my throat. I hate it."

"Why do you stay in London?" Elizabeth asked. "If you went to the country or to the sea, it would be much cooler." Then as Penelope did not answer, "What have they done with Narrow Lane Hall?"

"It was sold, the land separately, for building. People can't afford to keep up big estates nowadays." Penelope rose and walked over to the window. "I feel stifled," she said irritably.

Elizabeth picked up her little handbag and handkerchief.

"Why won't you come tonight?" she asked.

"You know I don't care about dancing. It bores me to career about with some dull young man who doesn't interest me in the slightest. I can't see any sense in it."

"The Selbys are nice," Elizabeth ventured.

Penelope laughed.

"And Roy Selby is keen on you, you mean," she said.

Elizabeth flushed.

"I hardly know him!" she protested.

Penelope glanced over her shoulder.

"'Who ever lov'd, that lov'd not at first sight?'" she quoted mockingly.

"Do you believe that?" Elizabeth asked.

"You know I don't believe in love at all," Penelope answered bluntly, and she turned again to the window. "The car is there. You'd better go."

Elizabeth sighed.

"Well, I'm ready."

They went downstairs together and Miss Thornley came from the drawing-room. She cast an appraising eye over Elizabeth's slim figure.

"You look very nice," she said. "White suits you."

"Maidenly charm and innocence personified," Penelope remarked.

Miss Thornley touched Elizabeth's shoulder.

"Have a good time," she said. "How like her mother she is!" she was thinking.

It was only a short drive to the Selbys', and Elizabeth's heart shrank a little as she saw the many lights in the windows of the house and the red carpet which stretched from the front door to the road, for she had not yet recovered from her feeling of shyness with strangers, and, although the Selbys were kind, she did not look upon them as friends.

She liked Roy Selby, but his open admiration scared her.

The big hall seemed full of people when she entered, but Ray saw her at once and came forward, saying:

"I was afraid you were not coming."

"Am I late?" Elizabeth asked.

"No, you're not late, but I hoped you'd be earlier."

He took her away to dance in the big drawing-room.

"What a ripping frock!" he said.

His mother touched his arm as they passed.

"You're not to monopolize Elizabeth," she said, but she smiled, for she knew all about Derek Challoner's will and she thought that it would be exceedingly wise if her son elected to marry for love where money was.

It was very hot in the ballroom, although the windows were all wide-flung to the garden, which was cunningly lit with colored lights, and there was a long buffet table spread beneath the trees.

"It's almost like being in the country," Elizabeth said when, between dances, she and Roy went outside.

(To Be Continued)

NEVER MIND JAVEX WILL BLEACH IT OUT IN A JIFFY
15c
AT YOUR GROCER'S
JAVEX removes stubborn stains from linens and cottons the quick, easy way! They simply disappear like magic. And a little Javex in washer or rinse water is the short-cut to a snowy-white, sweet-smelling wash. Use it, too, for bleaching and disinfecting sinks, drainboards, closet bowls, etc. A 15c bottle goes a long way.
Javex
DIRT'S WORST ENEMY

WALLBRIDGE W. M. S.

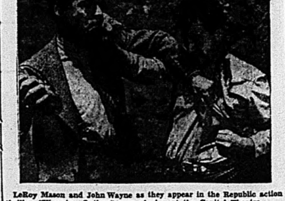
The September meeting of Wallbridge W.M.S. was held at the Town Hall on Wednesday, Sept. 6th, with a good attendance. In the absence of the president, Mrs. L. J. Ketcheson, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. John Chisholm and was opened by a hymn followed by prayer by Mrs. Chisholm. An invitation was received from Foxboro W.M.S. inviting Wallbridge W.M.S. to a social evening and was accepted. The theme of this meeting was "The God of All the Earth." After a short period of silent prayer, Mrs. Chisholm led in prayer followed by hymn 28. After another season of silent prayer, short prayers were given by Mrs. F. Shorey, Mrs. S. Nicolson, Mrs. L. Badgley and Mrs. J. Hinchcliffe followed by closing prayer by Mrs. J. Chisholm.



LeRoy Mason and John Wayne as they appear in the Republic action thriller, "Wyoming Outlaw," now playing at the Capitol Theatre.

Something In CHINA?
WE PRIDE OURSELVES on a truly well assorted, beautiful and well known stock of China.
OVER 30 DESIGNS in Dinner Sets to Choose from.
RANGING IN PRICE from $22.00 to $100. for 96 piece set service for 12. Smaller Sets available.
We import direct and invite comparison in prices.
ODD PIECES, too—perfect as gifts or for your own home.
OUR TIME PAYMENT PLAN is available on all Dinner Sets—no interest
IF IT'S CHINA — Shop at
Angus McFee JEWELERS SINCE 1880

ROYAL NAVY

(Continued From Page One)

At the same time there were increasing indications that the Royal Navy was keeping an unceasing vigil of the seas to enforce the naval blockade with which Britain hopes to defeat Nazi Germany.

But Britain was becoming progressively brighter as rigid precautionary measures imposed at the outbreak of hostilities gradually were lifted.

Picture Theatres Open

All moving picture theatres opened today except in the centre of London although Earl De La Warr, President of the Board of Education, warned that "the time may come when air raids are a grim reality."

The House of Commons met for slightly more than an hour today to discuss minor points of Britain's war legislation and then adjourned until next Wednesday when Prime Minister Chamberlain will deliver his third statement on the progress of hostilities against Germany.

He also warned mothers in a radio broadcast last night not to bring their children back from rural refuges "just because nothing has happened during the first few days of the war."

War Prize Cargo Held

As Britain tightened the blockade, the first disclosure of a war prize cargo involving the freighter Warrior of Mobile, Ala., was made. A public notice yesterday said about 5,900 tons of phosphate had been taken from the Warrior and was being held by order of the Marshal of the Admiralty.

The Ministry of Economic Warfare previously had announced seizure of the cargo of the Netherlands steamship Gornelo as suspected contraband and the searching of the American freighter Black Osprey. The Admiralty had disclosed that more than a score of ships had been detained for investigation and that a search for contraband already had been made aboard the Nieuw Amsterdam, flagship of the Holland-American Line.

The first meeting between the Duke of Windsor and his brother, the King raised the belief in informed quarters that the Duke soon might begin work in a war assignment.

Kiel Raid is Described

The first eye-witness account of the air raids on Kiel and Wilhelmshaven, Germany, in which Canadian airmen played a prominent part, were given yesterday through the Ministry of Information.

The Wilhelmshaven raid, guided by a Canadian navigating officer whose name was not disclosed, was carried out successfully by three British planes and without a casualty, the flight leader reported.

"We could see a German warship," he said, 'taking on stores from two tenders at her stern.

"Flying at 100 feet above the mast height all three aircraft converged on her. I flew straight ahead. The pilot of the second aircraft came across from one side, and the third crossed from the other side.

"When we flew on top of the battleship we could see the crews running fast to their stations. We dropped our bombs. The second pilot, flying behind, saw two hit. We came 'round, and the ship's pompom guns began to fire as we headed for home. My navigator saw shells bursting almost on the tail of the aircraft.

"The second pilot, swooping across took a photograph which was subsequently found to be very blurred owing to the weather conditions at the time just before he dropped his first bomb."

The officer said the pilot of the third plane told him the second bomber's missile "appeared to drop dead amidships."

Shipping is Warned

The Ministry of Information warned British shipping today against the danger of German raiders disguised as merchantmen operating on the high seas.

A statement published by the Ministry reviewed the operations of German raiders during the Great War and said "it is possible that such raiders may be used again.

"No matter to what extent our naval forces may preponderate, no matter how rigorous our watch, the circumstances of sea warfare in general will always afford opportunities for small squadrons or single raiders to escape unobserved and to make harassing descents upon unprotected portions of our long coast line, or sporadic attacks upon trade routes," the Ministry said. "Escape has become easier still in the case of U-boats which can travel submerged."

The Ministry said that on a typical day 1,545 British ships of 3,000 tons and over were at sea in all parts of the world and another 705 British merchantmen were in ports.

"In the course of time," the Ministry said, "the term 'command of the sea' has become firmly rooted in the English language. In modern naval war, however, there can be no such exclusion of enemy craft from the ocean."

do your FEET ACHE?
Don't suffer from tired, aching feet. Start this treatment now. Bathe your feet in hot water. Dry carefully. Then massage Zam-Buk into the ankles, insteps, soles, and between the toes. You will be amazed by the instant relief. Do away with foot torture. Get a tin of Zam-Buk today and know the joy of perfect foot comfort.
Excellent for athlete's foot
Use ZAM-BUK Nightly

WARSAW

(Continued From Page One)

Praga in Ruins

In the Warsaw sector, German forces were reported to have crossed the Narew river east of Modlin and seized Jablona, about 10 miles north west of the capital. The communique said these troops were approaching the Warsaw suburb of Praga, which Polish broadcasts yesterday described as in ruins.

Approximately 100 miles east of Warsaw, forces advancing against the city of Brest-Litovsk "have invaded the north and northeastern zone of fortifications," the communique declared.

Warsaw was admitted to be still in Polish hands, but the communique claimed "five important railway lines were attacked and interrupted" east of the city.

A general staff spokesman asserted "the army's schedule for occupation of Poland is being preserved."

Campaign Nearing End

Nazi leaders, professing confidence the campaign "to establish order in Poland" is nearing a conclusion, expressed belief that materials and resources now available to the Reich in Poland would be of great assistance in prosecuting the war in the west.

Goering said he found German mining engineers already making plans to step up the production of Polish coal mines, which last year produced about 45,000,000 tons of anthracite alone. Resources in the occupied area include minerals and metals necessary for manufacture of war supplies.

Nazis said the Fuehrer Hitler, who has been in German-occupied Polish territory recently, might be expected to return to Berlin to watch developments on the western front.

Use Coal to Meet Demands

Nazis plan to use Polish coal supplies to meet trade demands with Sweden and other Baltic countries.

Sweden's chief need is coal, and to obtain Swedish iron ore, lumber and foodstuffs, Germany has been preparing to export large quantities of her own sorely needed coal reserve.

Petroleum obtained from Poland also may figure in German trade with the Baltic States. German authorities estimate the occupied Polish territory produces about six per cent of Europe's petroleum.

Germans hope they will be able to carry on their Baltic trade despite the British blockade.

While obviously incensed by the British blockade, German spokesmen claim it will not seriously affect the Reich. German propaganda concentrates on the argument that the British blockade would most directly hit neutral states wishing to trade with Germany. Diplomatic pressure is being applied to arouse neutrals to oppose the blockade.

Of the boast that America could feed the world, J. N. Darling says: "But since we, with 10 per cent of the world's population have in the brief period of 200 years used up 80 per cent. of our forests, 33 per cent. of our soil and abused our aquatic resources even more than our land the world."

Coffee plants were brought to America early in the eighteenth century, when the French introduced them in the West Indies.

Quaker Muffets..
Whole Wheat Cereal Biscuits
Ready-to-serve
Delicious as they are Nutritious
All the health, energy, proteins, vitamins, bran and flavour of whole wheat. Your family will love Muffets. Buy a package from your grocer today.
Made by
The Quaker Oats Company

COUNTER

(Continued From Page One)

Fall Back 500 Yards

The French were reported to have fallen back about 500 yards at one point when heavy artillery shelled their advancing lines. Later, however, the French regained the same ground and pushed on for an undisclosed distance.

Military observers expressed belief that the operations would continue to be localized.

Although Saarbruecken is seven miles in front of the main fortifications of the Siegfried Line, its capture would give the French attackers their first important victory.

French military dispatches said the French army commanded heights to the west and south of Saarbruecken and that other units had advanced between there and Hornbach on the east.

The French army communique this morning announced that French troops had checked a German counter-offensive in the vicinity of Sierck, close to the Luxembourg border, and had since moved more deeply into German territory in that region.

Further advances along the Saar front also were announced, "despite sharp reaction by the enemy, especially with artillery."

Occupy Two Villages

(Reports received in Brussels from Luxembourg said French forces had occupied the villages of Appach and Maimuhlen, from which two roads lead to Perl, 10 miles from the Saar river.)

The French disclosed officially they had taken German prisoners as they pressed their advance and declared their own casualties had been "slight."

Saarbruecken still was occupied by German units but was reported to have been deserted by its civilian population and to have ceased functioning industrially.

French guns shelled all roads from the rear of the city and German artillery bombarded French positions immediately to the south of it.

Artillery Hard Pressed

Because of weather conditions preventing aerial surveys, the German artillery was reported hard pressed in trying to locate French positions to the west and east of the city. The German retreat was reported, nevertheless, to be proceeding under cover of tons of high explosive shells fired from heavy batteries on the range of hills south of Saarbruecken.

Some French observers expressed belief that any German withdrawal was merely for tactical purposes. They said there were many indications that Germans were preparing a heavy counteroffensive with reinforcements and artillery moved up to the northern side of Saarbruecken.

A heavy rain fell in the battle zone and dirt roads were thick mires in many places.

Progress Bogs Down

The slippery, narrow side roads slowed down the progress of the French motorized units and swollen streams increased the infantry's task of feeling its way through the broken, shell-pocked countryside.

The French strategy, reports said, consisted in varying the pressure on the German defences from each of the three sides of the approach to Saarbruecken.

French guns held some elevated positions and one French unit was reported to have occupied a road and railroad leading indirectly to the main Siegfried Line behind the city.

Not Altogether Bad News

The heavy rain which slowed down the French machine was not altogether bad news to the French however, as it was said also to have bogged down the German advance in Poland in some places.

The Polish position was not regarded by observers here as critical but the great power of the German forces fighting toward Warsaw and south toward Lwow caused apprehension over how long the Poles might hold out.

Soviet Russia's eventual role was regarded anxiously because of the widespread conviction that Moscow might try to regain eastern Poland in conjunction with the German attack in western Poland. Both nations contributed about equally to the territory from which modern Poland was created after the Great War.

BLUE Stops Your Clothes from turning Yellow!
Without blue, your cottons or linens (so white when new) take on a yellow tinge. To restore their lovely WHITENESS — just add a swish or two of Reckitt's Blue to the last rinse. No effort. Cost? A cent or two a month!
RECKITT'S SQUARE BLUE
RECKITT'S BLUE
Prevents Your Clothes Turning Yellow

Steffi Duna, in "The Magnificent Fraud," now at the Belle Theatre.

CANADIAN BLIND

Of the ten thousand blind people in Canada, four or five hundred are of school age and attend government schools for the blind. There are a few children below school age. The rest, the great army of sightless adults scattered across Canada from coast to coast, constitute the section of the population which depends upon The Canadian National Institute for the Blind for the assistance and guidance necessary to their wellbeing. With the co-operation of governments and generous citizens, the Institute has developed a systematic schedule of services of great variety designed to provide employment, furnish occupational work, arrange for the teaching of handicraft, maintain libraries and care for the blind in every possible way.

The problem of the blind is not an easy one to solve, but it has reached a point nearer solution than has been accomplished in any other country. If there is a chance of finding a job for a blind person, The Institute finds it. If it is possible to set a blind person up in some small business by means of which he can make a living, the Institute locates the business and starts it going. If the blind person is capable of being taught typing, Braille, or any useful handicraft, the Institute teaches him. If there is any way in which any kind of service can be brought to a blind person, through which he is enabled to attain a more secure economic position or be provided with any service capable of making his life more comfortable or enjoyable, the Institute endeavours to provide that service.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind is the only organization in Ontario attempting to improve the conditions of the blind. It has made great strides towards its goal. It needs the continuous support of the public to further its program. It is a work in which every one is interested. On Saturday the citizens of Belleville will have an opportunity of contributing their share to this great humanitarian enterprise.

It's More Fun to Eat QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT and QUAKER PUFFED RICE...
They're so different! So Delicious! So Nourishing!
"We love 'em! They're really fun to eat," say millions of happy, healthy boys and girls just like yours. "Those two keen cereals are so different. They look different and taste different. Yes sir, they're the tops."
"Yes, Mother, these delicious cereals are especially good for your family. They're rich in nourishment, in food energy. Get some Quaker Puffed Wheat and Quaker Puffed Rice in the famous red and blue packages right away.
QUAKER PUFFED RICE
QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT
WAX-WRAPPED AND TRIPLE-SEALED FOR FRESHNESS
ORDER FROM YOUR GROCER TODAY!

OPENING OF ARTISTIC'S NEW STORE

"Building Products"

3-8 Heavy Duty
Asphalt Tile Flooring
Was Installed in the New Artistic Ladies' Wear
By

Alex W. Carmichael
Roofing and Flooring Contractor
15 AND 20 YEAR BONDED ROOFS

Good Luck to the Artistic In Your New Store

OFFICE: 327 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE PHONE 1872

Painting and Decorating

WE HAVE INCORPORATED IN THE PAINTING
AND DECORATING OF THIS BEAUTIFUL STORE,
THE TRUE MEANING FOR WHICH IT STANDS, NAMELY "ARTISTIC"
ESTIMATES GLADLY GIVEN

Best Wishes For the Success of Your New Store

E. W. VANNER
35 Burton St. Belleville Phone 652

Fine New Business Place Opens Its Doors to Public

New Artistic Ladies' Wear Store Modern in Every Respect — Building Entirely Rebuilt — Fine Front Worthy of Large City — Arrangement of New Store Makes it Pleasure to Shop — Every Modern Arrangement for Display of Goods—Opening Day Saturday

Fifteen years of continuous service to the City of Belleville and surrounding district in the sale of ladies' ready-to-wear apparel with the perpetual motto. "Always the Most Popular Prices With the Largest Selection From Which to Choose" the constant guiding policy, will be marked in this city on Saturday morning with the opening of a new and modern Artistic Ladies' Wear store at 301 Front Street, one of the most modern and largest exclusive ladies' wear departments in Eastern Ontario.

Characteristic of the newest methods of store architecture, designed and executed by J. Arnold Thomson, Registered Architect of this city, the new store, a distinct acquisition to the commercial life of Belleville embodies many new features of department stores found only in the larger metropolitan centres. Skilled artisans after months of continuous work, have with the liberal use of terrazo tile, vitrolite and alumilite, newest materials of the craftsman's art, fashioned a store combining utility and natural beauty of construction to a marked degree.

Large sweeping windows constructed to give the best possible display of varied lines of goods at all times to the best advantage at either side of a broad facade give easy entrance to the store which in its interior appointments has been designed for the perfect management of each department. The shining exterior is a pleasing combination of plate vitrolite and chromium appearing metal trim. Within tile floors in blended color contrast with the trim of the various departments.

Main Floor

On the ground floor may be found the Dress Department, the Hosiery Department, and the six Fitting Rooms which are centrally located, and perfectly appointed for the customer. Also on the main floor may be found, towards the rear, the Coats and Fur Departments.

Millinery Department

The Millinery Department, always one of the most popular features of the modern department store deserves special mention. Here comfort combines with utility to provide the most perfect setting possible for the customer. Broad mirrors and counters offer full display of the hundreds of hats. Eight individual boudoir tables for seating customers are conveniently located. Individual chairs are beautifully chromed with contrasting red leather seats.

Comfy Rest Rooms

Comfort of the customer has been borne in mind by the management of the Artistic Store. At the rear of the main floor may be found the rest room and powder room equipped with every latest accessory. Whether customer or not, this room is always available, it is carefully pointed out.

Beautiful in proportion and layout as the downstairs and main floor, the second floor of the building offers the same attractiveness in setting for the visitor. Here may be found the special alteration room, and a new convenience in which the management has taken particular pride, a stock room which is entirely cedar lined in which furs and woollens may be safely packed or laid away for the customer. At the rear of this main room may be found the stock room, expressly constructed to give the maximum amount of room for the large supplies of stocks of all kinds used to replenish the racks and counters downstairs. Across the front of the building on the second floor, a huge window gives ample light for color matching at all times. Throughout the remainder of the store indirect lighting of the newest type is employed to give the most efficient illumination without glare. In the show windows alone some thirty reflectors provide light for after dark settings. Among other features to be found in the new Artistic Store are the modern office and salesmen's sample room where the newest fashions in clothing may be shown to the best advantage previous to purchase.

Large Sales Force

An increased sales force will be on hand on Saturday morning at nine o'clock, store opening time. Mrs. N. W. Clarke will be manager of the Coat Department; Miss

(Continued on page nine)

High-Grade
Cabinet & Carpenter Work

J. F. AITKEN
44 Gt. St. James St. Belleville

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR BEAUTIFUL STORE

Lumber
Factory Work
Builders' Supplies

IN FACT—
Everything in the Construction of a Building
WE SPECIALIZE

CONGRATULATIONS BY US

THE
HOUSTON CO.
LIMITED
BELLEVILLE

All Plumbing and Heating

For Artistic's New Store
Was Supplied By Us
NEW TRANE CABINET RADIATORS WERE USED THROUGHOUT ESTIMATES GIVEN CHEERFULLY

Best Wishes From

Howe & Hagerman
HEATING AND PLUMBING ENGINEERS
Phone 1268 Belleville Pinnacle St.

WE SPECIALIZE IN
Roofing and Asphalt Tile Flooring
Hardwood Flooring and Insulation
ESTIMATES GLADLY GIVEN
BEST WISHES FOR THE SUCCESS OF YOUR NEW STORE

ARTHUR A. SILLS
225 Coleman St. Belleville, Ont.

The Alterations

for the
New Artistic Store
Were Designed and Supervised by

J. ARNOLD THOMSON M.R.A.I.C.
ARCHITECT
Phone 1808 93 Dundas St. E.

My Best Wishes For Your Success

Store Front

ALL THE PLATE GLASS AND BLACK VITROLITE
MIRRORS AND ALUMILITE METAL WAS SUPPLIED BY US FOR

Artistic's Smart and Modern Store

Lots Of Luck In Your New Venture

PHILLIP'S GLASS CO., LTD.
292 Dufferin St., Toronto

New Front and Building of Artistic Store
Insured By Us

Bateman & Doctor
GENERAL INSURANCE
10 VICTORIA AVE. Belleville, Ont

Our Best Wishes For Your Success

HARDWARE for

Artistic's Ultra Smart Store
Was Supplied By Us
WE SPECIALIZE IN BUILDERS' HARDWARE,
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS AND HOUSEHOLD SUPPLIES

Wishing You All Sorts of Success

WALKER
HARDWARE CO., LIMITED
248 Front St. Belleville Phone 163

ARTISTIC LADIES' WEAR

GRAND OPENING

OF OUR NEW STORE

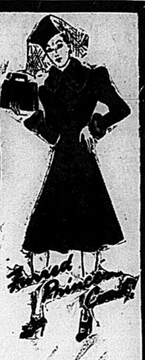
Furred Sports Coat!



Furred Princess Coat!

We are now pleased to inform the ladies of Belleville and surrounding district of the completion of Belleville's newest and most modern up-to-date Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Store, where the most complete stock of wearing apparel awaits you and where the highest quality of merchandise and the lowest prices still prevail.

OFFICIAL OPENING SATURDAY, SEPT. 16 at 9 a.m.

We invite you to visit our new home, where our manager and experienced staff of salesgirls will expend every effort to make you comfortable and show you around. You will be delighted with the beautiful garments that we have assembled for your selection. ARTISTIC ONCE AGAIN SETS THE PACE FOR STYLE AND VALUE!

BETTER GARMENTS

For the lady who prefers a better garment at a reasonable price. We now carry the famed "NOSONIA" line of Coats and Suits. Ultra-smart styles at Artistic's special values.

HUGE STOCK OF COATS

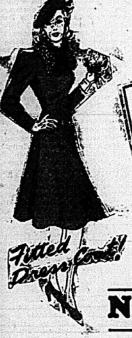
Remember the Artistic when you are about to make a coat purchase. Every garment is an individual show-piece, luxuriously trimmed with rich fur and reflecting only the most authentic styles. You will adore these coats on sight and you will be delighted with the values we are going to offer you. Hundreds of coats to pick from in all the newest shades and materials. Sizes from 11 to 20 and 38 to 52 and 16½ to 26½.



Fitted Dress Coat!

"MARY MUFFET" COATS

We are now the sole authorized distributor for the renowned "Mary Muffet" Coats for Juniors. Sizes 11 to 15. Girls you will be thrilled when you see these coats.

Complete Stock of Dresses & Gowns

The Artistic is now showing over two thousand dresses that are all new arrivals. No old stock to choose from. Every frock is new and crisp. These new Fall fashions have real elegance; they are striking and immensely varied. Skirts are draped to make your waist look smaller and there are new shoulder treatments that will delight you. Choose from the largest stock of dresses in the city, at prices that we guarantee cannot be duplicated.

DON'T FORGET TO SEE OUR COMPLETE STOCK OF NEW EVENING GOWNS.

Shopping Is Now a Pleasure

We have done everything possible to make our store convenient and modern in every respect. Shopping is now no longer an ordeal but a pleasure that you will enjoy. Make Artistic your shopping centre.

BELLEVILLE'S PARADE OF FASHION

Our Policy Still Remains The Same

Please note that we have not changed the policy of our store which has been in operation for the past fifteen years. We still pledge ourselves to give you the very latest up-to-the-minute fashions and the highest quality garments at the very lowest possible prices. We still pride ourselves on the fact "that a sale is never complete until you are satisfied."

OUR FUR DEPT.

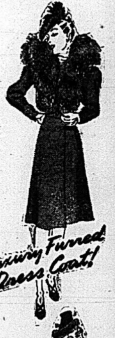
We are now in a position to offer you the season's smartest fur coats at prices within the reach of all. Every coat carries a guarantee for durability. Only the best selected pelts used in our garments. Styles are the very latest. See us first before buying your fur coat. Artistic always saves you money.

- MINK-DYED MUSKRAT
- PERSIAN LAMB
- NORTHERN SEAL
- GRAY PERSIANS.
- SHEARED BEAVER.
- PERSIAN CARACULS.
- SQUARE SHOULDERS.
- BELL SLEEVES.
- EXPERT WORKMANSHIP
- FULL FLARED
- STUNNING SWAGGERS.
- FLATTERING BOXY COATS.



Luxury Furred Dress Coat!

New Hosiery Dept.

We are pleased to announce that we now have a complete range of the season's finest silk hosiery in all the leading new shades and threads. A complete hosiery department for your convenience.

NEW YORK AND PARIS STYLES

VISIT OUR NEW MILLINERY DEPT.

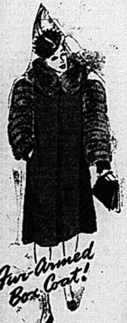
Our Millinery Department is now the most complete and up-to-date department in Eastern Ontario. Everything possible has been done to make your millinery shopping a pleasure. We now carry the largest and newest selection of hats in the city. Make it a point to purchase your hat here. Styles are flattering and youthful.



Fur-Armed Box Coat!

LAY-AWAYS

A small deposit will hold any garment until wanted. All lay-aways are placed in our new mothproof cedar room for your protection.

WE FEATURE STYLISH OVERSIZE AND HALF-SIZE COATS AND DRESSES

As usual the Artistic carries a complete range of Oversize Coats and Dresses. Styles are youthful, slenderizing and flattering. Every garment has that distinctive appeal and at prices that only Artistic can offer.

ARTISTIC LADIES' WEAR

303 FRONT STREET
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

'Faltering' Cincinnati Reds May Take Flag in Full Stride Following Their Double Win

Widen Margin Between Selves and Cards by Beating Giants Twice

YANKS LOSE ANOTHER

Despite Slump Team Needs Only Three Victories to Cinch Pennant

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Just to cross up the experts the "faltering" Cincinnati Reds may rush into the National League baseball pennant under full steam and the "invincible" New York Yankees may make another embarrassing entrance into the American League sanctum through the back door.

Cincinnati, shaking off misfortunes right and left while withstanding a siege by St. Louis Cardinals, has won five consecutive games this week, including a doubleheader from New York Giants yesterday.

In contrast the world champion Yankees, with resources to burn, have lost three in a row. But Boston Red Sox also were beaten yesterday, improving New York's position and recalling the fact that last year the Yankees "clinched" the flag while dropping a doubleheader to St. Louis Browns.

The Yankees were spanked 6-1 by Detroit Tigers yesterday on the six-hit pitching of Buck Newsom while Cleveland Indians edged out Boston 8-7 with Bruce Campbell hitting a triple, double and two singles. New York needs only to win three games, or Boston to lose three, to wrap up the Yanks' fourth flag in as many seasons.

Giants Are Crushed

The Reds on the other hand linked together 13 hits in each game to crush the Giants 8-5 and 9-3. The first game was Paul Derringer's 21st victory and the second went into the books as Milt Shoffner's first in Cincinnati livery on the basis of splendid relief pitching.

The Cardinals made the most of their single game with Boston Bees, swatting out a 6-3 victory for Curt Davis' 21st of the season.

Chicago Cubs swept two games from the Phillies 13-1 and 5-2. Old Charley Root held the tail-enders to eight scattered hits in the first and hit a homer.

Brooklyn split a double bill at Pittsburgh. The Buccaneers bagged the opener 4-3 but left 14 runners on the basepaths in the nightcap to lose 8-4.

Dutch Leonard, Washington's masterful knuckleballer, earned his 18th win with a six-hit job that beat St. Louis Browns 5-1. Dee Miles made a pinchhitter's dream come true for Philadelphia Athletics. Coming to bat in the last of the 10th inning with a man on base, Miles slammed out a homer to beat Chicago White Sox 4-2.

JUST PULL THE PEG
AND Light up!
PEG TOP CIGAR
The Old Reliable
5¢

Kansas City Blues Nearly Washed Up

Chicago, Sept. 15—(AP)—Indianapolis just about washed Kansas City Blues out of the American Association Shaughnessy playoff series last night. The Indians chalked up their third straight win over the Blues, 13-1, and now need only one more victory to win one of the first-round playoffs.

Minneapolis stemmed the tide of defeat, however, and closed its home series with Louisville by hammering out a 16-1 victory last night after losing the first two games.

Kansas City won the championship in the regular playing season.

Tonight's Winner Ranking Challenger For Louis' Crown

Washington, Sept. 15.—(CP) — The winner of tonight's Philadelphia fight between Tony Galento and Lou Nova has been nominated by the National Boxing Association as the ranking challenger for Joe Louis' World Heavyweight crown.

Curiously enough, the N.B.A. ranked Bob Pastor, who already has a date with Louis, in second place and reserved third place for the loser of the Galento-Nova fight.

Two Canadians, Billy Marquardt of Winnipeg and Dave Castilloux of Montreal were ranked in their classes in the latest N.B.A. listings issued last night. Castilloux, whom Montreal Sports tried to have ranked as No. 1 challenger in the featherweight Division, was named No. 3. Marquardt received No. 4 ranking in the lightweight division.

4 YOUNGSTERS IN SEMI-FINALS OF U. S. AMATEUR

Ross Somerville Defeated in Fourth Round by Ray Billows 6 and 5

Oldest of the Semi-Finalists is Bud Ward of Spokane at 26

(By Fritz Howell)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Quartet of youngsters, survivors of a match play field of 64, teed off today at the North Shore Club in the 36-hole semi-finals of the 43rd United States Amateur Golf championship.

Still in the running for the Simon-pure crown were—

Art Doering, 23-year-old Chicagoan who led the amateur brigade in the 1938 United States open.

Marvin (Bud) Ward, 26, of Spokane, Wash., who finished just a stroke off the three-way first place pace in the 1939 open.

Ray Billows, the 25-year-old lightweight from Poughkeepsie, N.Y., who opposed Johnny Goodman in the finals of the 1937 amateur.

Don Schumacher, 23-year-old Dallas, Tex., youth, Texas State champion and former winner of the trans-Mississippi and Eastern titles.

The four battled their way into the semi-finals yesterday with a thrilling bit of shot-making.

Billows Red Hot

Billows was the red hot number as he swept John Burke of Rye, N.Y., aside by 2 and 1, and then followed up by defeating Sandy Somerville, the 1932 champion from London, Ont., by 6 and 5. Billows was four under par for the 17 holes against Burke, Collegiate champion, and he came right back to knock five strokes off even figures in the 13 holes against Somerville.

Billows and Schumacher meet today. The Texan, too, reached the semi-finals the hard way.

Doering and Ward were opponents today. Doering walloped Bill Holt of Clay, N.Y., by 5 and 4 yesterday morning, and then scored a one-up win over George Dawson of Chicago, the Illinois champion, in one of the toughest matches of the tourney.

Ward won his way into the semi-finals with a 2 up victory over Joe Thompson of Burlington, Ont., and a 3 and 1 verdict over Ed Kingsley of Salt Lake City, Utah, a semi-finalist last year at Pittsburgh.

GOOD YEAR
TIRES AT
THE EASIEST TERMS IN TOWN
ALL SIZES IN STOCK
NO DOWN PAYMENT

● Let us put new Goodyears on your car TODAY! No money down . . . pay in small amounts weekly. No waiting! No red tape! No embarrassment. We trust you!

CLIFF BARAGAR
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

ROCHESTER WINGS EVEN SERIES WITH BUFFALO BISONS

Ken Raffensberger Allows Ten Hits but Applies 2-0 Shutout

BEARS GO AHEAD

Newark Defeats Jersey City 9-4 to Go Ahead One Game in Series

(By The Associated Press)

If Jersey City Giants had any idea that their winning the Inter-Baseball League pennant gave them an automatic passport into the "Little World Series" the impression must have been corrected by now.

Newark Bears, who squeezed into the Governors' Cup series through a play-off for fourth place, tramped on the Giants 9-4 last night for their second straight victory and a 2-1 game advantage in the playoffs.

At the same time Rochester Redwings turned the tables on Buffalo Bisons with a 2-0 shutout administered by Ken Raffensberger, evening their preliminaries at a game apiece.

The Bisons got to Raffensberger for 10 hits, but he had the benefit of sparkling support and struck out nine men.

The game at Newark was a loose-hitting affair with the Bears banging five pitchers for 11 hits and having to use two hurlers themselves to quell the Giants. The Bears teed off on Rollie Stiles in the third for three runs and kept piling on the licks throughout the remainder of the contest.

These two teams will clash at Newark again tonight. The series between the Wings and Bisons running a day behind the other playoffs because of rain, will be moved to Buffalo tonight for three games.

NOVA, GALENTO MEET TONIGHT

Winner Will Have a Crack at Joe Louis Next Year

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Philadelphia, Sept. 15—(AP) — Before a crowd expected to reach 30,000, barkeeper Tony Galento and collegian Lou Nova tangle in Municipal Stadium tonight for the rather doubtful pleasure of meeting Joe Louis next year.

The fistic faithful figured to ring the cash register at the $100,000 mark or over for co-promoters Mike Jacobs and Herman Taylor, who are putting on this scheduled 15-round party at 10 p.m. EDT in the same ring in which Jack Dempsey was dethroned by Gene Tunney 13 years ago.

The odds on Nova continued to stand at 1 to 2, generally regarded as out of proportion against the pudgy puncher who had Louis on the floor in Yankee Stadium less than three months ago. One explanation was that the price had been "upped" to lure wagers, since little betting activity has been noted.

The winner gets a shot at Louis' heavyweight crown next year, provided, of course, the Brown Bomber slips by Bob Pastor in Detroit next Wednesday. Nova has skyrocketed to the front rank of the heavyweights only in the past year or so, largely on victories over Gunnar Barlund and durable Tommy Farr and a technical knockout of madcap Maxie Baer.

Galento, on the other hand, is an old campaigner along the fistic trail. On the pugilistic cash-heap five years ago, he came back to chalk up a long string of knockouts and win a chance at Louis last June. Louis' fearful artillery stopped the fighting beer keg in four rounds on that occasion, but only after Galento had hurt him in the first round and dropped him in the third.

Baseball Results

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Governors' Cup Series

Rochester 2 Buffalo 0.
Series tied, one game each.
Newark 9 Jersey City 2.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 96 | 41 | .701 |
| Boston | 81 | 56 | .591 |
| Chicago | 79 | 59 | .572 |
| Cleveland | 75 | 61 | .551 |
| Detroit | 71 | 65 | .522 |
| Washington | 60 | 81 | .425 |
| Philadelphia | 49 | 88 | .355 |
| St. Louis | 37 | 98 | .274 |

Thursday's Results

Cleveland 8 Boston 7.
Detroit 6 New York 1.
Philadelphia 4 Chicago 2.
Washington 5 St. Louis 1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati | 82 | 50 | .621 |
| St. Louis | 79 | 55 | .590 |
| Chicago | 76 | 62 | .551 |
| Brooklyn | 70 | 68 | .526 |
| New York | 66 | 65 | .504 |
| Pittsburg | 62 | 73 | .459 |
| Boston | 57 | 74 | .435 |
| Philadelphia | 41 | 91 | .311 |

Thursday's Results

Cincinnati 8-9 New York 5-3.
Chicago 13-5 Philadelphia 1-2.
Pittsburg 4-4 Brooklyn 3-8.
St. Louis 6 Boston 3.

LOOK for this label Before You BUY!
PENMANS
WARRANTED
KNIT-GOODS
ANGLE

The trade-mark on Penmans "95" Underwear wins the goodwill of more Canadian men and boys every year. This confidence is earned by satisfactory service, correct fit and skilled tailoring. And more—Penmans "95" is a sensible health safeguard, because this fine underwear is specifically designed to protect you against our rigorous Canadian Winters. Knitted from fine, soft yarns that readily absorb all body moisture, it gives you snug, dry warmth without excessive weight. There is a style to meet your requirements, at your dealer's.

139F95

AVAILABLE IN SHIRTS AND DRAWERS AND UNION SUITS INCLUDING THE POPULAR NUCUT STYLE.

Penmans 95
UNDERWEAR
FOR MEN AND BOYS

Fight Tonight in Philly

Principals in tonight's 15-round heavyweight bout in Philadelphia are Lou Nova, (TOP), and Tony Galento, (BOTTOM). Nova is favored to win this bout, second only in importance in the heavyweight picture to the bout between champion Joe Louis and Bob Pastor in Detroit next Wednesday. The winners of these two bouts are scheduled to meet.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Wednesday Results

Indianapolis 12 Kansas City 4.
Indianapolis leads series, 2 to 0.
Louisville 9 Minneapolis 8.
Louisville leads series, 2 to 0.

"I want to do some plays that papa and mama used to like and that people would like today."

—William A. Brady

"America is tolerance; dictatorship is intolerance."

WOOLER PLAYERS TAKE CEMENTMEN IN SECOND GAME

Show Complete Reversal of Form to Force Series to Third Game

MANY HOME RUNS

Ruttan Hit One and McCall Two in Running Up 16 to 6 Count

Living up to their reputation as prolific and potent batsmen, the Wooler "Sluggers" gained sweet revenge over the Point Anne "Cementmen" in the second game of the Eastern Ontario Intermediate "C" finals in the O.A.S.A. playdowns at Point Anne last evening when Wooler pounded out a 16 to 6 victory over the homesters, forcing the series into a third and deciding game to be played at Trenton on Saturday, Point Anne having won the initial game of the round.

Smarting under the reverse handed them in the initial game of the series, the "Sluggers" from along the shores of the Trent River launched an early game barrage of base hits and were leading 10 to 0 as the bottom half of the fifth opened and the frame that saw the Cementmen's first scoring. Elongated Jim Stacey returned to the mound, after losing the first decision to the Ox Point nine, and although he developed a mild streak of wildness in the middle stages, Stacey scattered ten Point Anne hits in a masterful manner, while his teammates were cuffing "Ski" Brant, the homesters' moundsman, for a total of 22 solid base clouts, including three circuit blows.

Ruttan Hit Homer

Adams and Richards hit to give Wooler their first two runs in the second, Austin, Redcliffe and Stacey singled in the third, while Ruttan hit a home run to give Wooler three more in the frame, as the winners added five additional runs in the fourth as Austin, McCall, Redcliffe and Stacey hit safely and Steenburg doubled. Wooler added one in the sixth and came back to pound out six hits, including McCall's second home run of the game, to score five runs in the seventh. Three walks and hits by Green, Gaulin and Hutchings, gave the homesters three in the fifth, while Whitehead and Brant hit to add another counter in the sixth. Two walks coupled by hits by Genereaux and Whitehead added the final runs scored by the Cementmen in the eighth. Wooler out-hit the homesters by the wide margin of 22-10.

Whitehead with three hits and Gaulin with two led the homesters on the offensive, while every member of the Wooler team hit safely at least once, McCall getting two circuit blows and a single, while Redcliffe had four and Austin, Stacey and Steenburg three each. Stacey hurled a steady game, showing some fine spot hurling when the "Cementmen" had runners in scoring position in the latter stages.

EVEN UP

| Point Anne— | AB. | R. | H. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Genereaux, cf | 4 | 2 | 1 |
| Whitehead, 2b | 5 | 0 | 3 |
| Loft, 3b | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Green, c. | 5 | 0 | 1 |
| Gaulin, 1b | 4 | 0 | 2 |
| Bennett, rf | 5 | 0 | 1 |
| Hutchings, lf | 5 | 1 | 1 |
| Whalen, 2b | 2 | 2 | 0 |
| Brant, p | 2 | 1 | 1 |
| Total | 36 | 6 | 10 |
| Wooler— | AB. | R. | H. |
| Austin, 1b | 6 | 2 | 3 |
| Ruttan, 3b | 6 | 3 | 2 |
| McCall, cf | 6 | 3 | 3 |
| Redcliffe, c. | 5 | 2 | 4 |
| Stacey, p | 5 | 0 | 3 |
| Adams, 2b | 5 | 1 | 1 |
| Richards, ss | 5 | 2 | 2 |
| Steenburg, rf | 5 | 2 | 3 |
| Dunn, lf | 5 | 1 | 1 |
| Total | 48 | 16 | 22 |

| Score by innings: | | R. | H. | E. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Wooler | 0 2 3 5 0 1 5 0 0 | 16 | 22 | 1 |
| Pt. Anne | 0 0 0 0 3 1 0 2 0 | 6 | 10 | 5 |

Summary—Home runs—Ruttan, McCall 2. Two base hits—Steenburg, Redcliffe. Struck out—by Stacey 3; by Brant 3. Base on balls—off Stacey 8. Left on base—Point Anne 7; Wooler 5. Passed balls—Point Anne 2, Wooler 1. Winning pitcher—Stacey. Losing pitcher—Brant. Umpires—Steenburg, Trenton, plate; Bawden, Belleville, bases.

11 FRAME HOMER WINS BALL GAME

Amsterdam, N.Y., Sept. 14 (CP)—A home run is still a pretty good way to break up a ball game, Rome Colonels will agree today—and it may be good enough to bring Amsterdam Rugmakers the Canadian-American Baseball League championship.

It was Cleo Diehl's 11th homer with a man on base last night that gave Rugmakers a 7-5 victory over Colonels in the first game of a best-of-five title series. Diehl, former Northwestern University football star, slammed the ball over the rightfield fence to chase home Paul Badgett and break up the game, deadlocked from the fifth inning.

The teams clash again tonight at Rome and unless Colonels' pitchers can whip the fast ones past the Amsterdam sluggers the series probably won't go the limit. The third game will be played at Amsterdam Saturday.

The Juniors Will Like Our New Fall Styles . . .

Here's a store that sees eye to eye with you on the matter of good looking clothes, even though you're not yet in the "earning class." You'll like our grand Fall selection . . . from colorful Sox up to snappy Suits! Drop in with the folks today!

THEY KNOW ABOUT OUR QUALITY AND MODERATE PRICES!

BOYS' FALL SUITS
Grown up models with all the new style features you like in Dad's Suit!

Quick and Robertson
CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

CALLING 'EM

Between the Lines

with
Ken J. Colling

The Canadian Federal Government and the Senate both expressed their feelings very much in favor of the continuance of Canada's sporting activities, especially for the immediate future at least. "Organize your football and hockey schedules. Increase them wherever possible," suggested the Dominion parliament this week after wartime measures had been passed. "By keeping the general public interested in their customary sporting activities, the sporting fraternities of Canada will be doing much towards relieving the wartime tension and thus keep the morale of the general populace operating in its general plane while this serious matter of war is continuing. It would appear as though the governments are taking the proper steps towards endeavouring to keep the citizens cool, calm and collected in this time of stress and anxiety. We know of no better procedure of taking the public mind off the worries of war—than through the channels of good clean competitive team sport.

Canada's sporting activities during the last war continued and in Belleville actually increased and flourished. In baseball the old Ontario's were reorganized with junior players, many of whom later advanced to the C.O. B.L. in post war days. In hockey Belleville enjoyed several good war seasons, most prominently being the 1915-16 season when our junior team advanced to the junior O.H.A. semi-finals and our intermediates to the O.H.A. finals. There were no A. B. or Z series in those days and a club had to be really good to emerge group winners. In the spring of '16 Belleville boasted of as good a junior team of pucksters as we can remember. The late Dick Arnott was the club's mentor and the team consisted of Stan Nurse, goal, who had the distinction of being selected on the junior O.H.A. "all-star" team that year. "Bouncer" Holway and Lynn were on the defence, but as "Bounce" was in the army at the time, he could not always get leave, so Gar "Fifty-fifty" Arnott subbed as point. "Daw" Whalen was at rover. "Gunner" Arnott centre, Bill Green left wing and an American-born player named Armstrong, who was attending Albert College at the time was along the right boards. Those were the days of seven-man hockey and no substitutes were allowed.

That spring Belleville beat the Lindsay Midgets, Kingston Frontenacs and St. Andrew's College, headed by Harry Watson, before they were eliminated by Bill Marsden's giant Aura Lee team. The late Billie Whitty, Bill Finkle and Sammy Symons were soldiers during the last war and played for Belleville's 1916 intermediate team, that eliminated all competition, until the final game of the year, which they lost in Sarnia. The next year, 1917, the 235th Battalion sponsored a hockey team as they were in training in Belleville. They fared fairly well and were eliminated, we believe, by Oshawa, while Belleville 1918 junior team fared better than average. This helps to prove the present government's stand—sponsor sport and help win the war.

During the recent fast-moving developments, both here and over in Europe, the Peterboro scribe says he's lost track of Gord Meikle, former Cobourg triple-threat grid star. If Mister Perdue, the gent in question, will take a good gander at the Sarnia Imperials' backfield when they meet his "Orfuns," we have reasons to believe he'll find the classy Meikle punting 'em over the Orfuns' heads.

Charlie Root, 40-year-old Chicago Cubs mound mainstay, plays billiards left-handed, though ever since breaking in with Terre Haute in the Three-eye league in 1921, he has done all his pitching right-handed. Incidentally, before some of this year's National leaguers ever touched a baseball, Charlie was in the No-Hit Hall of Fame, reaching there his second year in a Tot uniform, 1922.

Complete arrangements for the intermediate O.A.S.A. semi-finals in the "A" series, between the Shell "Oilers" and Toronto were announced by convener Harry Rollins yesterday. The "Oilers" go to Toronto on Saturday with the return game to be played here on Monday. With Belleville's baseball team in Cobourg on Saturday also and a "C" softball play-off in Trenton, we look for a rather busy week end.

Confronted with some of the most powerful willow-wielding they have experienced during the current O.A.S.A. hunt, the Point Anne "Cementmen" fell before a torrid and potent Wooler attack last night and lost 16 to 6 forcing a third and deciding game that is to be played in Trenton Saturday. Wooler won the toss for grounds. Twice the hard-hitting Wooler batsmen rang the bell for five runs in an inning, and the rest were for good measure. After being beaten 14-7 on Tuesday, the youthful and elongated Jim Stacey, Wooler's pitcher, returned to the mound in Point Anne yesterday and not only gained sweet revenge, but made the Cementmen eat humble pie before the eyes of the home supporters. Every member of the Wooler team hit safely at least once, McCall getting two homers and Redcliffe four hits in five tries, while Stacey helped his own cause with three timely hits. "Ski" Brant went to the mound for the homesters and yielded up 22 hits, leaving "Ding" Luffman, the Cementmen's ace hurler to take to the mound for the third game, while Stacey will have to make a third trip to the Wooler mound on Saturday.

Two former Belleville grid stars, Jimmie Follwell and Bud Johnson will clash on the gridiron in an exhibition rugby game at Kingston on Sept. 30th. Yesterday it was announced that Queen's University had completed arrangements for a pre-season exhibition game with the Ontario Agricultural College. Follwell is the main cog in the O.A.C. machine, while Johnson is expected to be a regular with Queen's this fall.

The boxing prognosticators are calling Lou Nova, to win, tonight's Galento-Nova fight by a T.K.O. and before the tenth round is over. The Philadelphia boxing experts seem to think Nova will use a modern European—long range attack—on Galento and cut him to ribbons. It is believed that 30,000 fans will pay $100,000 to see the blood-spilling contest. However, Galento might tag Nova with one of his wild swings from the back concessions, but we doubt it. It's Nova by a decision.

Sport Hash—Curt Davis hurled his 21st victory for the Cardinals yesterday, but the Reds won both ends of a twin bill from the Giants, with Paul Derringer winning his 21st game of the season for the Redlegs....Seems as if a lot of pitchers are becoming of baseball age (winning 21 games or more) this season....Toronto McCormicks eliminated Cobourg's junior nine yesterday and we wonder if coming events cast their shadows before them, referring to the Cobourg-Belleville intermediate playoff of course....The football boys are getting down to hard labor these days and we hope Convener Bill Fry has some success, when he visits Kingston soon in the matter of getting a berth for a Belleville junior grid squad.

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS
REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 723

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone 462 284½ Front St.
17-3m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH
Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P. O. BOX 30
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. M3-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1182, "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 231 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

E. A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils, Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 286 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

L. E. and VERA B. FITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments, Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Infra-Red Radiations, Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments, 42½ Bridge St., East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
249½ Front St. Phone 432

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
272 Front St. Phone 1154w

LEGAL

E. GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 254½ Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2500. 827-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William M. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 174

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

SCREEN CLOCK

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
OUR LEADING CITIZEN
Bob Burns, Susan Hayward
2.45 — 7.00 — 10.00
THE MAGNIFICENT FRAUD
Akim Tamiroff, Patricia Morrison
4.00 — 8.35

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
COAST GUARD
Randolph Scott, Frances Dee
3.00 — 7.15 — 10.15
PARENTS ON TRIAL
Jean Parker, Johnny Downs
4.05 — 9.00

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
BIG TOWN CZAR
Barton MacLane, Tom Brown
7.12 and 9.28
WYOMING OUTLAW
Three Mesquiteers, starring John Wayne
8.21 and 11.30

TO LET

6 ROOM MODERN HOME, HOT water heating, electric stove, double garage. West Hill, $26. Phone 2177. s15-2t

UP-TO-DATE FIVE AND SIX room apartments; modern conveniences, hot water heating, hardwood floors. Apply Hogle Estate, Trent Road. s15-2t

FURNISHED BED-SITTING ROOM suitable for couple. All conveniences, garage, modern home. Phone 502. s15-1t

8 ROOM HOUSE, 3 PIECE BATH, furnace, wired for electric range. Apply 17 Reid Street. s15-3t

STORE 282 FRONT STREET, APproximately 19x80. Phone 834. s15-18-20-22

NICE COSY HOME, SIX ROOMS, hardwood floors. Conveniences. Newly decorated. Possession Oct. 15. 8 Centre Street. s15-2t

SIX ROOM HOUSE WITH ALL conveniences; near bus line. 123 Catherine Street. Immediate possession. Phone 978W. s15-3t

NUMBER 23 HIGHLAND AVENUE. Possession October 15th. Apply R. J. E. Graham, Telephone 150. s13-15-18

100 ACRE FARM, LOT 27, CONcession 8, Thurlow, good barn, well watered, near school, cheese factory. Apply 14 Parker Street. s14-3t

DOWNSTAIRS APARTMENT newly decorated. Rent reasonable to reliable party. Apply 26 Isobel Street. s14-3t

5 ROOM APARTMENT, CATHARine Street. All conveniences, except furnace. Possession immediately. Apply 28 Catherine St. s13-3t

7 ROOM HOUSE EAST HILL, CONveniences, furnace, hardwood floors ,sunroom, immediate possession. Apply 46 Highland Ave. s13-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERlooking the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

APARTMENT FOR RENT 4 OR 6 rooms. All conveniences, hardwood floors. Very reasonable rent to approved tenant. Apply 161 Albert Street. s9-tf

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

TENDERS

Will be received by the undersigned until Tuesday, September 19th., 1939, for installing refrigeration, according to Government specifications in the Northport Cheese Factory. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
RAY SIMPSON,
President, Picton, R. R. No. 2.
s14-2t

Polish Government Now at Zaleszczyki

Budapest, Sept. 15 (AP)—The Polish Government and diplomatic corps today were located at Zaleszczyki, on the Dniester River at the Rumanian frontier, said a report by Stefani, Italian News Agency.

Tha report said that, if this furthest corner of Southeastern Poland should become unsafe, the Polish officials were ready to move into Rumania.

The pressure of the German mechanized drive previously had forced the Government from Warsaw to Lublin and then to Krzemieniec.

Spencer Tracy, Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene in "Stanley and Livingstone," next at the Belle.

FOR SALE

COOK STOVE, BEACH COMPANion, hot water front, good condition. Apply 36 Catherine Street, Phone 1030W. s15-1t

$150 BUYS 1931 BUICK SEDAN Excellent condition. Terms. Apply 19 Franklin Street. s14-3t

SOLID BRICK HOUSE, HARDwood floors, all convenінces, garden, garage. Phone 818W. s15-6t

1936 FORD 1-2 TON TRUCK. Price right and terms given. Phone 2177. s15-2t

DELUXE BUICK 1935 COUPE. Sacrifice if sold immediately. Rumble seat. Phone 1014W. s15-1t

MOTORCYCLE, NORTON E.S. 2, 36, tools, riding kit. Reasonable for cash. A. M. Sharp, R.A.F., Trenton. s15-3t

OVEN WITH THERMOMETER for gas or 2 plate electric, curtain stretchers, pint sealers, catsup bottles. Apply 41 Pine St. s15-3t

38 PONTIAC COACH, ALSO HARley Davison Motorcycle. Sacrifice for cash. Apply 10 Geddes St. s13-3t

FIVE YOUNG BROOD SOWS TO freshen in December. Apply to Clayton Eggleton, R. 6, Belleville, 3rd Thurlow. s13-3t

A QUANTITY OF HARD WOOD $7.50 per cord, soft wood $5.50 per cord, and soft slab wood $4.50 per cord delivered at Belleville in 3 cord loads. Write H. C. Lloyd, Bannockburn, Phone Madoc 5233. s12-6t

11 MURNEY STREET, SOLID brick house, six rooms and bath, hardwood floors, house in good condition and easily heated, double lot. Good garden. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s12-tf

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRable brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusve agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

4 HILLSIDE STREET, WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

AT AVONDALE, TRENT ROAD, directly opposite the school, residence and 8 acres of good land owned by Mrs. George Duff. House is substantial brick with bright cheerful rooms, hot water heating, bath, well decorated and in excellent state of repair. Barn and hen house. Investigate this. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

W. C. SILLS PROPERTY, JUST off highway in Avondale, Trent Road. Good frame house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors downstairs, good basement. 10 acres of sandy loam —barn, garage, hen house and brooder house. Excellent green houses. A very desirable place. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

239 CHARLES STREET, CORNER of Queen Street, roughcast house and large lot property of Miss Diamond. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive Agents, Belleville Locators, Geo. N. Gorman, Prop. 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

The Stars Say—

For Saturday, September 16

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

MUCH ACTIVITY is shown for this day, judging by the lunar transits, but it may be of a turbulent, violent and reckless nature unless extreme care is taken to curb rash, impulsive and other forms of temperamental behavior. Such aggravating action may impel elders, superiors or others of importance to withdraw their sympathetic support, and may also provoke reprisals in the way of subterfuge, deception and collusion. These might be placated and solid benefits derived by a show of moderation, self-restraint or amiability.

Those whose birthday it is are confronted by a year in which all depends on moderate and calmly-deliberated conduct when drastic activity seems to incite to agitation, strife or some other form of intemperate behavior. Elders and superiors may be aggravated to withdraw their support, but amiability and self-restraint may placate them. Be alert to duplicity and intrigue.

A child born on this day may be reckless, turbulent, quarrelsome and prone to "fly off the handle" on slight provocation. With youthful discipline it might make a success in a definitely-creative and practical calling.

WANTED

WORK WANTED

HANDY MAN AND EXPERIENCed painter is anxious to get sufficient work to purchase clothing. Kindly write Box Y, Ontario Intelligencer. s15-3t

GIRL TO TAKE CARE OF SMALL child and travel. Apply Mrs. Moore, Cameron's Cabins, Trent Road, 2 miles west of city. s15-1t

SALESMEN TO SELL CALENDARS, exclusive territory, big commissions, attractive popular line—one of Canada's oldest and favourably known Calendar Houses. Write today for particulars. Truro Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., Truro, Canada. s15-1t

A RELIABLE GIRL FOR GENERal housework and look after small child. For particulars write Box O, Ontario Intelligencer. s15-1t

AN EXPERIENCED MARRIED man with one extra milker to work on farm by year. Apply Donald Gunn, Trent Road. s14-2t

POSITION BY LADY STENOGrapher, accurate, neat, rapid. Available immediately. Inquire Box H, Ontario Intelligencer. s14-3t

2 HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TO board. Apply 247 John Street. s13-3t

INSTRUCTION

IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 1.30 o'clock at Mrs. F. Munning's, 196 Dundas St. chesterfield suite, Moffat electric range, 2 studio couches, Coffield washer, dresser, other articles.
N. MONTGOMERY, Auctioneer, Phone 1770. s13-15-18

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ELIZABETH VICKERS SCANTLEBURY, of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, Widow.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1937, Chapter 165, Section 51, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Elizabeth Vickers Scantlebury, late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, who died on or about the 14th of August, 1939, are requested to forward their claims, duly proven, to the undersigned on or before the 1st of October, 1939.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that after the said date the executors will proceed to distribute the estate among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to such claims of which they shall then have notice.

DATED at Belleville this 31st day of August, 1939.
CAMERON & CAMERON
Barristers &c., Belleville, Ontario, Solicitors for the executors.
s1-8-15

PERSONAL

MEN OF 30, 40, 50! WANT VIM. Vigor, for rundown body? Try OSTREX Tablets of raw oyster stimulants and general body builders. If not delighted with results of first package, maker refunds its low price. Call, write Dolan the Druggist and all good drug stores. s1-t-f

TENDERS

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned and marked "Tender for Radio Range Station, Stirling", will be received up to 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, September 27, 1939, for the development of a radio range station at Stirling, Ontario.

Plans, specifications, labour conditions and form of contract to be entered into may be seen and tender forms obtained on application to the undersigned at Ottawa or the Postmaster at Trenton, Belleville or Stirling, Ontario. Further information if required regarding location of site or interpretation of plans may be obtained on application to the Airway Engineer, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Ontario.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered Canadian Bank equal to ten per cent (10%) of the tender price, payable to the order of the Receiver General of Canada, which cheque will be forfeited in the event of the tenderer refusing to enter into a contract on the basis of his tender, if called upon to do so, or failing to satisfactorily complete such a contract. Cheques of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned.

Any tender not accompanied by a security deposit as described will not be considered.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

GEO. W. YATES,
Secretary.
Department of Transport,
Ottawa, September 13, 1939.
s15-3t

Divine Service

The Companions of Moira and Quinte Friendship Chapter, are requested to attend Divine Service at King Street United Church, Trenton, Ontario, Sept. 17th. Companions will assemble at Masonic Temple, Trenton, at 10 a.m. D.S.T.

By Order of
EX COMP. JOHN NOAKES,
EX COMP. ISAAC STEPHENSON.
s15-1t

FINE NEW BUSINESS

(Continued from page six)

Bluma Tobe of the Dress and Hosiery Department; Miss Evelyn Whalen will be in charge of Millinery, and all alterations will be under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Thompson.

Mr. Franklin Rubenstein advertising and display expert, of Ottawa, who has assisted in the general decoration of the store, will remain on Saturday and assist in the official opening.

Head of the Artistic Ladies' Wear store is Mr. J. Abramsky, B.A., resident of Belleville for the past five years, and native of the City of Kingston. A graduate of Queens University, '33, majoring in economics and political economy, Mr. Abramsky has had wide experience in the retail trade and under his capable management steady progress of the local business has been shown.

"We have enjoyed this progress and built our confidence in Belleville and wide trade here on the solid policy of popular prices and the largest selection of stock at all times," reminds Mr. Abramsky. "We have never changed this policy and we never will. We feel that we are giving the public the most inviting place at which to trade, plus the added inducement of lowest prices and the most complete range of stock. We take particular pride in the fact that we do not only keep abreast of, but a little ahead of the newer modes at all times, and thus we have been able to build up that large trade which we now enjoy.

"Our new store, made necessary by our expanding trade and increased patronage has been the answer to our straight forward policy," he declares.

ANTI-TANK GUNS

(Continued From Page One)

(Wissembourg is just within the French border, 12 miles east of Laterbourg, where the French Maginot Line elbows sharply from its west-east direction to follow the Rhine south. It is 45 miles east of Saarbruecken, goal of the main French drive.)

Try to Prevent Repetition

The German action apparently was an effort to prevent a repetition of the methodical advances by which the French gained their foothold in the Saar area. It is from these positions that they now are threatening the city of Saarbruecken.

The nature of the Mundat forest lands on the eastern slopes of the Vosges foothills enabled the troops of both sides, reports indicated, to engage in comparatively open fighting, with guns from the opposing lines of forts firing over them.

Should the French action in this sector develop into a full-fledged drive, it was believed the objective would be Bergzabern. One of the big forts in the German Siegfried line crowns a high hill in the town.

Battle Deadlocked

The battle at Saarbruecken was reported to be deadlocked, although the French. It was said methodically were destroying German mine fields ahead of the French troops by literally spraying the area with shells.

In other manoeuvres in the Saar district, the French high command was described as using troops as sparingly as possible, meanwhile relying on artillery fire to make the German positions untenable.

Dispatches reaching here said action in the Moselle River valley, west of Saarbruecken, was confined to local attacks. In some of these, it was reported, Germany's new type low-speed tanks, armed with long-barreled light anti-tank guns, appeared for the first time in counterattacks against French tanks.

The Swiss press was aroused by the fact that pictures of certain of These German tanks showed them labelled with a white cross, similar to that which appears on the Swiss flag, on a dark field.

Italy Sends Food to Allies

It was learned that a large part of the food supplies which came out of Italy by way of the St. Gothard Pass were destined for England via French channel ports.

Swiss agents of Italian shippers reported that Italian firms already held so many blocked credits in Germany that they preferred to send foodstuffs to Britain for cash, rather than take more German coal in exchange.

The Swiss have a vital interest in the economic side of the war. While they depend for imported foodstuffs and other supplies on their neighbors, the belligerent nations already are reported complaining that some shipments sent to Switzerland eventually find their way across the enemy's frontiers.

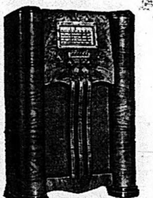
The Swiss are debating the feasibility of a Control Board, similar to the one which operated during the last war. This board would furnish guarantees that goods manufactured in a belligerent nation would not be sent to its enemy.

Randolph Scott and Ralph Bellamy in "Coast Guard," now playing at the McCarthy Theatre.

THE FORWARD MARCH OF RADIO

Led by MARCONI
1898 MARCONI Discovers Radio
1901 MARCONI Establishes Trans-Atlantic Radio
1915 MARCONI Pioneers High-Speed Wireless Transmission
1917 MARCONI gives Canada her first Radio Broadcast
1921 MARCONI gives first Musical Broadcast
1925 MARCONI Inaugurates Ship-to-Shore Wireless Telephony
1926 MARCONI Makes the first Beam Wireless Transmission
1930 MARCONI gives Radio Wireless direction-finding equipment for aircraft
1931 MARCONI brings in the first of a brilliant series of SHORT-WAVE Receivers
1937 MARCONI gives Radio Band-Spreading and Automatic Tuning

1939 MARCONI presents "The Radio of Tomorrow!"



MODEL 158 AC

A distinctive waterfall front console cabinet of beautiful design. 5 band full band spreading. 6 Marconi RVC Radiotrons. 8 tube performance. Special Marconi superheterodyne circuit. New standards of clarity, tonal quality and ease of tuning. Improved 5 station automatic tuning with push button switch for changing from automatic to dial tuning. Full variable tone control. 12" dynamic speaker. Cathode Ray tuning indicator. Continental type coloured dial. Tunes standard broadcast including police from 540 to 1725 KC with 49, 31, 25, 19 metre short wave bands. Full band spreading. Special Marconi non-directional built-in antenna. Special acoustical chamber giving equal distribution of sound. Cabinet, height 36½", width 26½", depth 12" $89.95

The Radio Buy of the Year!

Marconi, the World's Greatest Radio Organization, climaxes a record of matchless achievement with these sensational new receivers.

Compare them with your present set or with any set, new or old. Compare them from every angle: tone, tuning-ease, cabinet beauty, price. Note the perfected simplicity of Marconi Push-Button Tuning: the amazing ease with which you can get short-wave, thanks to Marconi Band-Spreading. Take nothing for granted. Subject Marconi to the most searching investigation, point by point, and you will be convinced that Marconi is the radio buy of the year. Models for every budget.

Models from $17.95 to $149.00

CANADIAN MARCONI COMPANY
MARCONI BUILDING, MONTREAL
Vancouver Winnipeg Toronto Halifax St. John's, Nfld.

The Famous 4 Aces of Radio

MODEL 153
(Walnut or Ivory Plastic Cabinets)
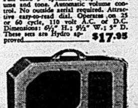
5-tube superheterodyne (7-tube performance). Small, compact, light in weight. Standard broadcast and some police. Full tone 5" speaker. Exceptional volume and tone. Automatic volume control. No outside aerial required. Attractive easy-to-read dial. Operates on 25 or 60 cycle, 110 volt A.C. or D.C. Dimensions: 6½" H.; 9½" W.; 5" D. These sets are Hydro approved $17.95



MODEL 154
(Brown or Cream Leatherette Cabinets)
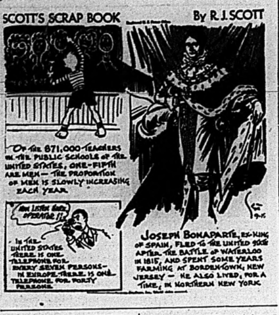
No installation required. Truly portable. No ground; built-in loop. Can be carried from room to room. Plug in anywhere. Full tone 5" speaker. Exceptional volume and tone. Automatic volume control. 5-tube superheterodyne (7-tube performance). Standard broadcast and some police. Operates on 25 or 60 cycle, 110 volt A.C. or D.C. Dimensions: 7" H.; 12" W.; 6" D. These sets are Hydro approved $21.50

As Always MARCONI THE GREATEST NAME IN RADIO

BELLEVILLE HEADQUARTERS
LIPSON'S Furniture House
(The House of Quality)



SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK
By R. J. SCOTT
OF THE 871,000 TEACHERS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE UNITED STATES, ONE-FIFTH ARE MEN — THE PROPORTION OF MEN IS SLOWLY INCREASING EACH YEAR
NOW LISTEN HERE, OPERATOR!!
IN THE UNITED STATES THERE IS ONE TELEPHONE FOR EVERY SEVEN PERSONS — IN EUROPE THERE IS ONE TELEPHONE FOR FORTY PERSONS
JOSEPH BONAPARTE, EX-KING OF SPAIN, FLED TO THE UNITED STATES AFTER THE BATTLE OF WATERLOO IN 1815, AND SPENT SOME YEARS FARMING AT BORDENTOWN, NEW JERSEY — HE ALSO LIVED, FOR A TIME, IN NORTHERN NEW YORK
9-15

'Sweet Little Thing'

By BERTHA LEAH CROSS

I haven't run a boarding house fifty years for nothing! I kin tell you that I've seen samples of every known type of persons from saints to sinners. Yes, sir! We folks in hotel business come up against all sorts! But I'm not so quick judgin' folks these days......"

I've got in mind a girl who come to me last summer, a girl, as you might say, "from out the storm."

It was a terrific wild night in mid-June. Alice and Mary, the two waitresses, were settin' in the kitchen waiting for Miss Carr to open the dining room, and Bob, the bell-hop, was joshing 'em when we heard a knock.

"See who 'tis, Bob," I said.

When he opened the door a little straggly figure of a girl fell in.

"The sweet little thing!" Alice cried.

"Oh, Mrs. Potter ,who d'ye s'pose she is?"

"I don't know! I said. "Whoever she is, she's half dead from fright ....Can you tell us who you are, dearie?" I asked as she opened big blue eyes.

"I'm Jessie Carey. Oh, please, please may I stay here tonight? I can't....I don't know what to do ...."

The bell rang just then for Alice, and directly after, Mary was called. The bell-hop also received his call and I was alone with the child. I poured her a cup of strong, hot coffee and then helped her out of her wet coat.

"Drink this, child," I said. "As soon as I serve up these two orders I'll take you where you can change those wet clothes....Of course you can stay here; I wouldn't turn a dog out on a night like this."

As soon as I could I took her up to my room and helped her out of her wet clothes. Then, after a hot bath and a stiff drink of whisky, I tucked her in on the couch.

"Now, Jessie," I said, 'tell me."

"I don't know how to begin .... You see, I ran away. There was a man my father wanted me to marry. I hated him!" She shivered. "He was a bad man. He—he—

"I ran away," she went on, "away from them both. I had a little money. I walked miles through the woods. And then came the awful storm."

As I held her there I tried to think what to do. All my help was hired. And, anyway, I could see how useless she'd be, thin and plainly not used to work. And yet, I couldn't send her away.

"You'll stay with me until I know what's best to do," I told her.

Three days passed. Jessie refused to give me her address or to write to her father. Every time I mentioned! it she went off into hysterics.

There seemed to be some mystery. The papers said nothing about a runaway and there was no search for her. All that was sensational them days was the murder of John Cold, the rich Wall-Streeter.

I never followed murder stories. They made me sick to my stomach. I believed that every murder was done because of some unlawful desire.

But on the third day the headlines turned me cold:

WHERE IS THE GUILTY WIFE?
WHAT HAS BECOME OF JESSIE
—THE GIRL WHO MURDERED
HER HUSBAND?!

I read on about how they'd spread the dragnet all over New England. My heart about stopped when I come to the descriptio nof the missing wife. 'Blonde; blue eyes, large, expressive; small stature..."

And I was shielding her! A murderess.

I climbed the stairs as fast as my rheumatism would let me. But she swore up and down that she was not the guilty one and there was innocence in her face. But I'd get to reading those papers and I couldn't believe her.

The second day after I decided Jessie was lying I sent for the police. I felt justified. If a girl will murder one person, it just ain't right to keep her about, I thought, where she might do more harm. At times her face looked so drawn and sick that it haunted me. But I hardened my heart. I would not abet crime! No murderess would be under my roof, hiding from justice.

That night a big car drove into the yard with four policemen.

"Where's the dame?" one of them asked.

"I'll bring her," I said.

When I reached her room it was empty. My room was, too. I knew then that somehow she'd learned that I had betrayed her. That's just how I felt—like Judas. Guilty or not, I had betrayed her.

"She's the one, all right," one man said, 'else she'd not have skipped."

We looked everywhere for her and all the roads were watched, and on the third day they found her body. Evidently she had hidden in one of the caves and in the dark had walked over the edge of a cliff. I couldn't believe that she'd committed suicide, although the policemen said it was so.

But even they were obliged to own themselves wrong. For a week after we found her, the authorities found the guilty wife in Maine—another Jessie. But, oh, so different from this girl! This child was truthful and honest. Her heartbroken father attested to every word she'd said. Then the "bad" man was overcome. He cried when he saw her.

But I! I am the murderer. I feel that if someone would only tell me that I done right, even in my mistaken judgment, perhaps I could find peace......

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Brighton | Sept. 12-13 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Bancroft | Sept. 14-15 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Centreville | Sept. 1-2 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |
| Shannonville | Sept. 16 |

Rawdon

Rawdon—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer returned home on Saturday after a two weeks' holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Spencer in Toronto and while there they attended the C.N.E.

Mrs. George Weaver spent the week-end in Toronto and visited the exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleland Reid and Shirley, Trenton, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rowe, Campbellford, spent Labour Day with Mr. and Mrs. Merle Spencer.

Miss Phyliss Beckel spent Tuesday with Miss Isobel Turner.

Miss Eileen Phillips, Belleville, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phillips.

A number of men of this community under the direction of Mr. James William are busy this week tiling the "Mount Pleasant Church Cemetery.

Miss Ferne Hubble was a recent guest of Miss Fenice Joyce at Campbellford.

Miss Isobel Turner of Belleville, spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey.

Mount Pleasant was well represented at Belleville Fair.

Miss Fenice Joyce, former teacher at Williams school and Mr. Ivan Crossen were quietly married on Saturday, September 9th and the newlyweds will reside in Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Roman of Cleveland, Ohio, spent a recent week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver and attended the Weaver re-union at "The Tabernacle", Oak Lake.

Miss Helen Spencer, Belleville, and Miss A. Donaldson were supper guests Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Spencer.

Mr. Roy Welbourne and daughter, Muriel, have been holidaying with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Higgs, Mr. and Mrs Carleton Potts, recently attended a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McConnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warren, of Kingston, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Warren.

Several Rawdonians have been attending the camp meetings at Ivanhoe.

Mr. James Coutts returned to Toronto, after spending the holidays with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Maybee.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kemp, Kirkland Lake, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mowat Sine.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Nix entertained Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nix and Barbara of Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Butcher and Edna of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Patrick, Frankford, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sine on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brady, Niagara Falls, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin Brady.

Mrs. Wm. McMullen visited her sister, Mrs. E. Rodgers, Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. George Watson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Will Clarke and daughter, of Thurlow on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Higgs were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Turpin at Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison and family of Bethel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weaver and Frank and Miss Pearl Belshaw, Stirling, were guests Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver.

Mount Pleasant Community was given a thrill early Friday morning when a heavy cyclonic gale passed over doing considerable damage to buildings, orchards and fences. Several telephone lines were out of commission all day Friday and Sunday afternoon another storm passed over and the heavy wind was responsible for more damage while the electric storm put the Hydro out of commission for the second time in a few days so several farmers who have Hydro were forced to do their milking by hand power. At Mount Pleasant United Church coal oil lamps were used throughout the service and that same evening at Rylestone anniversary services it was necessary to light the church with gasolene lamps. The farmers are suffering from the effects of these two storms and in some cases it will be necessary to rebuild.

School re-opened again with Miss Esma Cole of Wooler returning to the Allan school and Miss A. Donaldson is the new teacher at the Williams school.

Misses Eileen MacMullen and Bessie McMullen spent a few days last week in Toronto and attended the exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, Havelock, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey.

---

"The sound of applause is the sweetest music in the world."
—John Barrymore.

"Women's brains are a source of lost power, like flood water."
—Pearl Buck.

Outstanding Radio Programs

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF, WGY.
7.00—Artie Shaw's Orchestra. —WJZ.
7.15—Lum and Abner, comedy sketch.—WABC, WGR, CFRB.
8.00—Concert with Lucille Manners, quartet, Frank Black's orchestra.—WEAF, WBEN, CBL.
8.30—Johnny Presents; Short Stories; Orch.—WABC, WGR.
8.30—Don't Forget, Allen Prescott, m.c.—WJZ, WHAM.
9.00—Waltz Time, Frank Munn, tenor, Manhattan chorus; Abe Lyman's Orch.—WEAF, WGY.
10.00—Guy Lombardo's Orchestra. —WEAF, WGY, WBEN.
10.00—Heavyweight Boxing Bout: Lou Nova-Tony Galento.—WJZ, WHAM.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16.

AFTERNOON

3.00—Scarborough night from London.—CBL, CBO.

NIGHT

8.30—Avalon Time.—WEAF, WGY.
9.00—Your Hit Parade. —WABC, WJR.
9.45—Saturday Night Serenade —WJR.
10.00—Benny Goodman's Orch. —WEAF, WLW, WGY.
10.15—Symphonic Strings — CBL, CBO.

RADIO PROGRAMS

FRIDAY

12.30—Nat'l. Farm and Home Hour WJZ
2.00—Marine Band—WGR
3.00—Navy Band—WJZ, WHAM
8.00—Lucille Manners, soprano—CBL
7.15—Jesse Crawford and Novachord—WEAF, WBEN
9.00—Plantation party — WJZ, WHAM
9.00—Make Mine Music — WABC, CFRB, CBO, CBL
9.30—Death Valley Days—WEAF, WLW
9.30—First Nighter, drama. —WABC, WJR.
9.30—Music and Manners — CBL, CBO
10.30—Believe it or Not, Ripley —WJR
10.30—America Unlimited — WEAF, WLW

SATURDAY

7.00—Americans at work—WABC, WGR
8.30—Let's join the band—WABC, WGR, CFRB
8.30—Hawaii Calls—CBL
9.00—Vox Pop; Interviews—WEAF, WBEN
9.00—Barn Dance—WJZ, WLW
9.30—Military Band—CBL, CBO
9.30—Arch Oboler's plays—WEAF, WGY
9.45—Music in the air—WABC
10.15—Man About Hollywood — WABC, CFRB

RADIO DIRECTORY

CANADIAN STATIONS

| | Kls. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal | 880 |
| CKOC—Hamilton | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland | 1070 |

UNITED STATES STATIONS

| | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago | 354 |
| WGN—Chicago | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville | 820 |
| WEAF—New York | 660 |
| WJZ—New York | 760 |
| WABC—New York | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady | 980 |
| WOR—Newark | 710 |

Mr. and Mrs.—

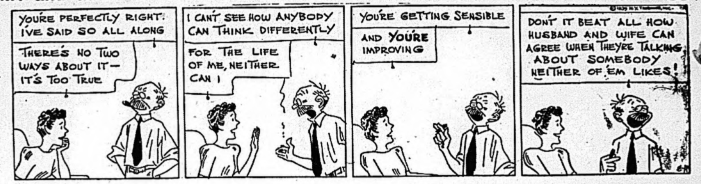
By Briggs



YOU'RE PERFECTLY RIGHT. I'VE SAID SO ALL ALONG
THERE'S NO TWO WAYS ABOUT IT — IT'S TOO TRUE
I CAN'T SEE HOW ANYBODY CAN THINK DIFFERENTLY
FOR THE LIFE OF ME, NEITHER CAN I
YOU'RE GETTING SENSIBLE
AND YOU'RE IMPROVING
DON'T IT BEAT ALL HOW HUSBAND AND WIFE CAN AGREE WHEN THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT SOMEBODY NEITHER OF 'EM LIKES!

Pop-

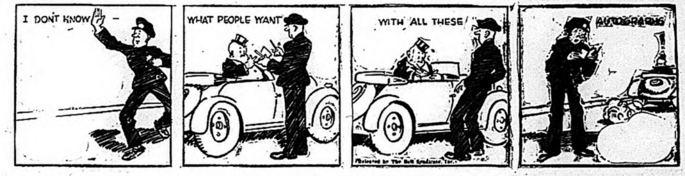
By J. Millar Watt



I DON'T KNOW
WHAT PEOPLE WANT
WITH ALL THESE AUTOGRAPHS

Tillie The Toiler--

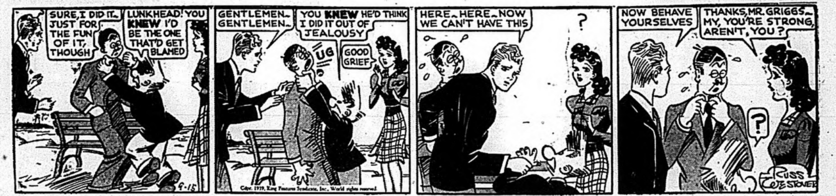
By Russ Westover



SURE, I DID IT JUST FOR THE FUN OF IT, THOUGH
LUNKHEAD! YOU KNEW I'D BE THE ONE THAT'D GET BLAMED
GENTLEMEN— GENTLEMEN—
YOU KNEW HE'D THINK I DID IT OUT OF JEALOUSY
UG
GOOD GRIEF
HERE—HERE—NOW WE CAN'T HAVE THIS
?
NOW BEHAVE YOURSELVES
THANKS, MR. GRIGGS— MY, YOU'RE STRONG, AREN'T YOU?
?
9-15
RUSS WESTOVER

Bringing Up Father—

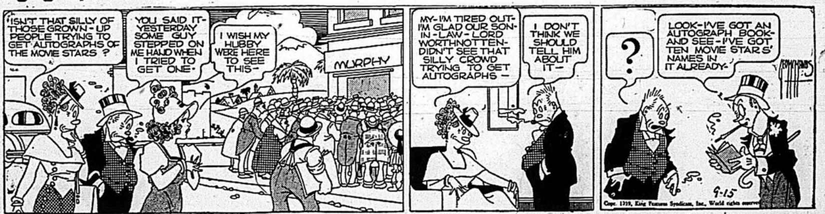
By George McManus



ISN'T THAT SILLY OF THOSE GROWN-UP PEOPLE TRYING TO GET AUTOGRAPHS OF THE MOVIE STARS?
YOU SAID IT— YESTERDAY SOME GUY STEPPED ON ME HAND WHEN I TRIED TO GET ONE—
I WISH MY HUBBY WERE HERE TO SEE THIS—MURPHY
MY— I'M TIRED OUT— LORD I'M GLAD OUR SON-IN-LAW— LORD WORTHNOTTEN— DIDN'T SEE THAT SILLY CROWD TRYING TO GET AUTOGRAPHS—
I DON'T THINK WE SHOULD TELL HIM ABOUT IT—
?
LOOK— I'VE GOT AN AUTOGRAPH BOOK— AND SEE— I'VE GOT TEN MOVIE STARS' NAMES IN IT ALREADY—9-15

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

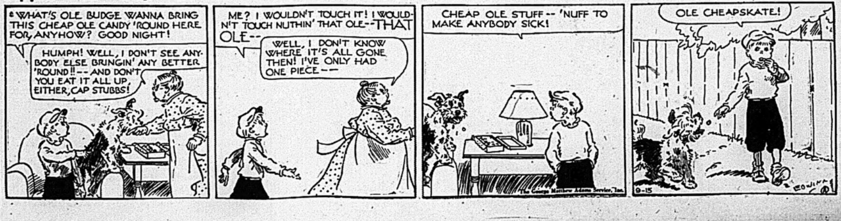
By Edwina



WHAT'S OLE BUDGE WANNA BRING THIS CHEAP OLE CANDY 'ROUND HERE FOR, ANYHOW? GOOD NIGHT!
HUMPH! WELL, I DON'T SEE ANYBODY ELSE BRINGIN' ANY BETTER 'ROUND!! — AND DON'T YOU EAT IT ALL UP, EITHER, CAP STUBBS!
ME? I WOULDN'T TOUCH IT! I WOULDN'T TOUCH NUTHIN' THAT OLE— THAT OLE—
WELL, I DON'T KNOW WHERE IT'S ALL GONE THEN! I'VE ONLY HAD ONE PIECE—CHEAP OLE STUFF — 'NUFF TO MAKE ANYBODY SICK!
OLE CHEAPSKATE!
9-15
EDWINA

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 2.15
MINES

Ajax 20
Aldermac 46
Anglo Hur. 220
Augite 186
Bankfield 19
Beattie 105
Bidgood 12
Big Missouri 11
Bralorne 995
Buffalo Ank. 760
Calgary and Ed. 220
Can. Malar. 58
Central Pat. 213
Chemical Research 26
Chromium 55
Coast Copper 250
Chiboug. 15
Coniaurum 135
Dome 25 1-2
Eldorado 85
East Mal. 220
Falconbridge 490
Francoeur 30 1-4
Gillies L. 4 1-2
God's Lake 42
Gunnar 46
Hardrock 96
Home Oil 255
Hollinger 12 3-4
Howey 29
Hudson Bay 28 1-2
Jellicoe 8
Kerr Add. 178
Kirk Hud. 25
Kirk. Lake 121
Lapa Cad. 24
Lake Shore 32
Leitch 69
Little L.L. 260
Macassa 375
McIntyre 47 1-2
McLeod 176
McKenzie 111
McWatters 62
Mining Corp. 134
Moneta 82
Noranda 70 1-2
Nipissing 110
O'Brien 188
Okalta 116
Omega 25
Paymaster 31
Perron 168
Pend. Or. 375
Pickle Cr. 415
Pioneer 220
Powell 160
Premier 135
Preston E. D. 130
Pamour 180
Pros. Air 50
Reno 82
Royalite 37 3-4
San Antonio 168
Sherritt G. 140
Siscoe 93
Sladen M. 26
Stadacona 31
Sud. Basin 215
Sullivan 70
Sylvanite 278
T. Hughes 390
Tex. Can. Oil 90
Toburn 155
Ventures 435
W. Amulet 630
Wr. Hargreaves 705

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 145
B. A. Oil 21 1-2
Brewing Corp 85
Braz. Trac 8
Can. Bud Brewery 3 7-8
Can. Cement 6 3-4
Can. Dredge 13
Can. Ind. Alcohol 3 3-8
C. P. R. 5 3-4
Can. Malting 30
Can. Vinegar 10 1-2
Canada Car 16 3-4
Cockshutt Plow 8
Cons. Bakeries 15 1-2
Con. Smelting 48 3-4
Dominion Stores 6
Dist. Seagrams 17
Fanny Farmer 20 3-4
Ford "A" 20 3-8
Gypsum 3 3-4
Imp. Oil 16
Int. Nickel 46
Inter. Pet 24
Imp. Tobacco 13 1-2
Loblaw 26 1-2
Massey Harris 7 1-2
Mont. Power 27 1-4
McColl-Frontenac 6 7-8
Power Corp. 7 3-4
Steel of Canada 81
Supertest 33
Shawinigan 19
Walker's 36
Walker's Pfd. 17 1-2
Walkerville Brewery 80

NEW YORK

American Can 111 5-8
American T and T 163
Amer. For. Power 2 1-2
American Radiator 11 1-2
Anaconda 34 1-2
Auburn 3 3-8
Bethlehem Steel 92 1-4
Case 86
Chrysler 89 5-8
General Electric 42 5-8
General Motors 54 3-8
Elec. Auto Lite 37
Inter Telephone 5 3-8
North American 21 3-8
Montgomery Ward 53 1-2
Phillips Pet 44 5-8
Radio 6 1-8
Simmons 24
Standard Oil of N.J. 51 3-4
Standard Brands 6 3-8
Stewart Warner 9 1-4
U. S. Steel 77 7-8
United Aircraft 44
Vanadium 38
Westinghouse 117

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 2 p.m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

Albany River 16½-18 1-2
Barber Larder 2-3
Capps Gold 3A
Kenricia 15-20
Magnet Con. 53-56
Martin Bird 3½-5 1-2
Oklend 6½-8
Pascalis 30A
Proprietary 165-175
Sheldon 5A
Shenango 5½-7
Upper Canada 45-48

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, Sept. 15 (CP)—Trading turned dull on Toronto Exchange today after an opening flurry in the Western Oils. Volume stood at 268,000 shares.

Pend Oreille featured base metals with an advance of 45 cents to 3.95 and in the golds McWatters pushed up 19 cents to 65 on the news that a 10-cent dividend would be paid Oct. 10 and another on Jan. 15. Other base metals were unchanged to slightly lower and soft spots in the golds involved Buffalo-Ankerite, Macassa and San Antonio.

Steel issues led the industrial section to a slightly lower level and at early afternoon prices were off slightly for Home Oil, Okalta and Dalhousie.

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, Sept. 15 —(AP)— War-buying slackened further in today's stock market and irregular price trends were displayed in virtually all departments.

Steels, motors, coppers, rubbers and oils dipped and rallied at frequent intervals and, near the final hour, showed signs of revival. A number of merchandising, rail, rail equipment, and speciality issues were up throughout. Transfers were at the rate of approximately 1,700,000 shares.

No Price Changes In Quiet Trading

Toronto, Sept. 15—Price changes were slight on the Toronto open produce market yesterday, with the quieter trading pace.

Buying interest waned in butter, but prices generally held to former levels. Holders did not show any desire to press for sales and arrivals of fresh Ontario butter continued light. It was reported, however, that prices on 37 score Ontario solids eased to the range of 25 1-2c to 26c per pound as this grade proved difficult to move.

More plentiful offerings and a let-up in demand checked the rise on the egg market. No change occurred in the ungraded or retail divisions, but grades A-large and A-medium eased 1c per dozen in the graded section of the market, while pullets and C grades advanced a similar figure.

Montreal Produce.

Montreal, Sept 15—(CP)— Produce market prices here yesterday, as reported by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau, follow:

Butter: First grade creamery prints, job price, 29c; first grade solids, job price 28 1-2c. Receipts: 399 boxes.

Eggs: Graded inspected shipments in used free cases, A-large, 36c; A-medium, 33 1-2c to 33 3-4c; A-pullets, 27c to 28c; B-large, 25c to 26c; C, 17c to 17 1-2c. Uninspected shipments 1-2 cent less. Receipts: 938 cases.

Pres. Roosevelt Hopes To Limit Session to Neutrality Revision

Washington, Sept. 15 —(AP) — President Roosevelt indicated today that he hoped to limit legislation at the session of Congress to revision of the Neutrality Law.

Asked at his press conference whether he planned to request anti-profiteering legislation, he said he did not expect to .

When requested for a definition of territorial waters of the United States, Mr. Roosevelt said the limit was as far as our interests needed to go out.

A reporter asked whether those waters, under his definition "reached to the Rhine".

Mr. Roosevelt chuckled and said he was talking about salt water.

Asked whether the fact that United States war vessels were patrolling 200 miles off the coast indicated that distance was the boundary of territorial waters, Mr Roosevelt replied in the negative and said the ships were out there to obtain information.

Produce Markets

TORONTO BUYING PRICES

(By United Farmers Co-operative Company)

United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were paying the following prices for Toronto delivery:

EGGS—Prices to producers, cases returned basis, delivered Toronto:

| | |
|---|---|
| A-large | .31 |
| A-medium | .30 |
| Pullets | .22 |
| Grade "B" | .22 |
| Grade "C" | .14 |
| Churning Cream, No. 1 lb. | .26 |
| Churning Cream, No. 2, lb. | .21 |
| Butter, No. 1 | .27 1-2 |
| Butter, No. 2 | .26 1-2 |

Prices paid to country shippers.

(Quotations in cents)

Broilers.

| | Live | Dressed |
|---|---|---|
| 1 3-4 to 2½ pounds | .13 | .17 |
| Chickens. | | |
| 2½ to 4 pounds | .13 | .17 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .14 | .18 |
| 5 to 6 pounds | .15 | .19 |
| 6 pounds and over | .16 | .20 |
| Fatted Hens. | | |
| Over 5 pounds | .13 | .16 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .12 | .15 |
| 3½ to 4 pounds | .10 | .13 |
| 3 to 3½ pounds | .9 | .12 |
| Old roosters | .9 | .12 |

POTATOES

Ontario new, 75 lb. bag . $1.00-1.10

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 15 (CP)—Reporting bacon-hog markets showed a firmer tendency today. Brantford dressedweight prices rose 15 cents while Hull, London and Peterborough quotes were unchanged.

Liveweights—Hull $8.25.

Dressedweights — Brantford $11.40; Hull $11; London $11 plus transportation; Peterboro $11.40.

GRAIN MARKET

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg grain exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today by J. H. Crang and Company.

| Wheat: | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| October | 79⅜ | 77¼ | 78 |
| December | 81⅝ | 79¼ | 79½ |
| May | 85⅜ | 83¼ | 84 |
| Oats: | | | |
| October | 39⅜ | 38⅝ | 38⅝ |
| December | 38⅞ | 37⅞ | 38 |
| May | 39¼ | 38⅝ | 38¾ |
| Barley: | | | |
| October | 49⅜ | 48 | 48 |
| December | 48¾ | 47½ | 47¾ |
| May | 50⅝ | 49 | 49⅝ |
| Rye: | | | |
| October | 60⅝ | 58 | 60 |
| December | 60⅝ | 58 | 60⅛ |
| May | 63 | 60¾ | 62½ |

Little U.S. Currency in Circulation Due to High Exchange

Questioned at the luncheon of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce yesterday regarding the present rate of exchange between Canada and the United States, Irvine G. Hefkey, manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada stated that United States money had practically disappeared from the tills and cash boxes of local stores and shops.

"People have been collecting and saving up American money with the main idea of making a pretty good profit on the exchange. I know several in Belleville who have saved up quite a bit of it, and intend holding it until it goes to fifteen per cent. The banks of the city themselves used to pass out a lot of American silver in the course of a day, but now the dealing is all in Canadian money".

Mr. Hefkey pointed also to the termination of the tourist season as being responsible for the disappearance of American money from the city and district. There has not been so much buying by tourists lately, and not so much United States money has been seen, it was stated.

"Who gets the premium? That's a question that is put to the bankers several times a day. And it is a hard one to answer. It could be answered, but it would involve long detailed and technical explanation".

Preparations Not Built for Short Term War

London, Sept. 15 (CP)—The Information Ministry today declared Great Britain's war preparations "are not and cannot be" built for a short term struggle with Germany.

Declaring the German preparations "once again seem based on the hope of a lightning war," the Ministry added:

"By dint of great exertions we had, before the outbreak of war, built up an extremely powerful navy and air force and created the skeleton of an extremely powerful army.

"That skeleton now is having flesh put on it, is being supplied with a vast industrial cushion which will support its growing weight and will—much faster than in 1914 to 1918—make a contribution to the allied effort on land in every way conforming to the resources of our country and to the desire of our people."

Previously the War Cabinet had said it was framing plans on the assumption of three years' war.

Cheese Board

In spite of the fact a telegram had been received from Mr. S. L. Joss, Secretary of the Ontario Cheese Producers' Association, from Ottawa by the Secretary of the local Board advising: "The position with reference to markets for cheese not yet clarified. But since the beginning of hostilities prices have been advancing. Under existing circumstances must strongly recommend that no cheese be sold this week, even though this involves financial inconvenience," all cheese factories on the Belleville Cheese Board but one, Frankford factory, accepted a price of 11 5-8 cents and 11 9-16 cents last evening.

The telegram had been read by the secretary and the advice given by President Weaver, to cheesemakers to "use their own judgment in the matter of selling."

A total of 3473 white and 256 special colored cheese were offered for boarding. 3050 white and special color sold at 11 9-16 cents and 619 sold to Charles Fraleigh at 11 5-8 cents.

Initial bid was 11 cents, after which bids progressed briskly. Buying was among Mr. Fraleigh, Mr. Murphy, Mr. Hart, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Morton and Mr. McCreary, Jr.

Buyes present were: Messrs. Stiles, Taylor, Hart, Hunter, McCreary, Cook, Morton, Fraleigh and Murphy.

The following factories were represented:

| | W. |
|---|---|
| Shannonville | 49 |
| Bronk | 74 |
| Harold | 63 |
| Central | 92 |
| Silver Springs | 35 |
| Union | 60 |
| Eclipse | 36 |
| Halloway | 46 |
| Northport | 36 |
| Sidney | 97 |
| Acme | 134 |
| Wooler | 63 |
| Sidney T. H. | 66 |
| Maple Leaf | 88 |
| Cloverdale | 386 |
| W. Huntingdon | 54 |
| Melrose | 99 |
| Zion | 94 |
| Foxboro | 100 |
| East Hastings | 56 |
| Springbrook | 41 |
| Mountain | 37 |
| Weller's Bay | 44 |
| Moira Valley | 59 |
| Albert | 103 |
| Bloomfield | 84 |
| Roslin | 41 |
| Kingston | 22 |
| Mountain | 87 |
| Quinte | 64 |
| Evergreen | 191 |
| Frankford | 60 |
| Rogers | 66 |
| Moneymore | 26 |
| Elmwood | 30 |
| Victoria | 47 |
| Roblin | 59 |
| Glen | 30 |
| Shamrock | 55 |
| Ben Gill | 65 |
| Enterprise | 63 |
| Waupoos | 28 |
| Black River | 46 |
| Cressy | 28 |
| Elmbrook | 70 |
| Royal Street | 75 |
| Maple Leaf | 34 |
| Kingsford | 73 |

County Cheese Boards

Vankleek Hill, Ont., Sept. 15 —(CP)—Boarded, 3,389 boxes white, 296 colored. Sold at 11 1-2 cents for white and 11 9-16 for colored.

Winchester, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP) —Boarded, 1,180 boxes colored, 1,681 white. Sold: 140 boxes colored at 11 3-4 cents., 371 boxes at 11 5-8, rest held; 171 boxes white at 11 9-16, 722 boxes at 11 1-2, rest held.

Iroquois, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP) — Boarded 2,564 boxes white, 2,282 boxes colored. Sold 36 white, 92 colored at 11 1-2 cents.

Ottawa, Sept. 15—(CP)—Boarded 2,443 boxes white, 327 colored. Sold 1,256 white at 11 3-4 cents, 209 white at 11 9-16, 2127 colored at 11 13-16.

Alexandria, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP) —Boarded 6,684 boxes white. Sold 387 boxes white at 11 5-8 cents.

Kemptville, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP) —Boarded 2,132 boxes white, 2,379 colored. Sold 1,844 white at 11 7-8 cents, 2,073 colored at 12 cents.

Casselman, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP) —Boarded 5,197 boxes white, 25 colored. Sold 179 white and 28 colored at 11 5-8 cents.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP)— Boarded 1,752 boxes white 1,819 colored. Sold 1,021 white at 11 5-8 cents, 1,669 colored at 12.

Napanee, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP)— Boarded 1,392 white. Sold none.

Perth, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP)— No cheese boarded.

Delta, Ont., Sept. 15 —(CP)— Boarded 5,523 boxes white, 515 colored. Sold 3,069 white at 11 5-8 cents, 1,152 white at 11 9-16, 230 colored at 11 5-8.

Cornwall, Ont., Sept. 15—(CP)— Cheese boarded at 11 11-16 cents. No sales made. (Number boxes boarded unavailable).

Campbellford—1036 white, 613 colored boarded, white sold at 11 3-8 to 11 9-16, colored at 12 1-8 to 12 7-16.

Madoc—723 white boarded, 429 sold at 11 11-16, balance price refused.

BELL TELEPHONE TO GRANT LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Montreal, Sept. 15 (CP)—C. F. Sise, President of the Bell Telephone Company, said today that to assist the Company's employees who enlist in the Canadian Forces leave of absence will be granted to all those who join up. They will be re-employed on discharge from the army.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Sept. 15—(CP)—The Ministry of Information announced today that "a number" of German submarines have been destroyed by patrols of British destroyers and airplanes.

The U-boat survivors were rescued and captured wherever possible, the Ministry said.

"His Majesty's destroyers, patrol vessels and aircraft have been carrying out constant patrols over wide areas in search of enemy U-boats. Many attacks have been made and a number of U-boats have been destroyed. Survivors have been rescued and captured when possible."

LABORERS WORK 24 HOURS A DAY

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 15—(CP-Havas)—From the border village of Vaals a correspondent of the Allgemeen Handelsblad today reported watching German laborers work on a section of the fortified west-wall close to the Netherlands frontier.

Work is going on 24 hour a day, the correspondent said, on a series of advance posts. Anti-tank obstacles were constructed for a depth of five miles in one week and 24 casemates were finished in 24 hours, the dispatch reported.

INTERPRETER ASKED FOR RESIGNATION

TORONTO, Sept. 15—(CP)—That Russo-German non-aggression treaty just began to have its effect on Gustav Strum today.

Strum, a German born in Russia, was asked by the Board of Police Commissioners to resign from his post as police court interpreter.

Mayor Ralph Day, in a statement on the affair, said:

"The Police Board does not think it the right thing to have a Russian-born German interpreting Polish, Jewish, Russian or other slavic languages."

Said Strum, in effect "c'est la guerre." (that's war).

VOICE DROWNED OUT BY SIRENS

BUDAPEST, Sept. 15—(AP)—A radio station identified by the announcer as in Lwow, Poland, declared today German warplanes bombed Warsaw and Lwow continuously during the night.

The announcer's voice then was drowned out by the screech of sirens apparently warning of another raid. He warned all persons in war areas in Poland to take every protective precaution since, he said, German planes were dropping bombs everywhere.

INTERVENTION

(Continued From Page One)

Germany's Price

The diplomatic correspondent of the News Chronicle said that "forfeiture of the independence of the Baltic States was the price Germany paid for the pact with the Soviets, in addition to granting Polish territory to the country which for years has condemned aggression more loudly than any other in Europe.

"It is believed that part of any such Russian plan would be to occupy Riga and annex Estonia and Latvia to the Soviet Union. There is a possibility that a neutral strip of territory, or else some buffer protectorate, which would include Lithuania, would be set up between the two countries."

GALENTO WEIGHS IN AT 224 1-2 LBS.

Lou Nova, His Opponent, Weighs 207 and Both in Fine Condition

Philadelphia, Sept. 15—(AP) — Tony Galento, although boasting a 17½ pound advantage, weighed "a mere" 224½ pounds on the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission's scales today for his fight in the Municipal Stadium tonight with Lou Nova. Nova weighed 207.

This weight was the lightest Galento has scaled for any fight almost as far back as his handlers could remember.

Whether a pudgy finger which the Orange, N.J., barkeeper rested on the balance rod of the scale had anything to do with that could not be determined.

Both fighters were examined by Commission Physician Dr. W. B. G. Terry who pronounced each in fine physical condition.

"Galento's reflexes," the physician said, "are at a very high pitch, indicating he is considerably nervous. Nova's reflexes are absolutely normal."

G. M. PRODUCTION UNDERWAY NEW CARS COMING SOON

Oshawa, Sept. 15 (Special Dispatch)—With the announcement today that 1940 McLaughlin-Buick automobiles are now coming off the Assembly line at the local plant of General Motors of Canada, and that the other General Motors cars and truck lines for 1940 will follow immediately, the normal new-car production year is well underway in this Ontario "Motor City."

"We are well advanced with our preliminary production schedules," the press was told today by H. J. Carmichael, vice-president and general manager. "Materials from our own parts factories and from those of contributing supply companies are being received daily, and here at Oshawa we will be recalling all our regular employees progressively until assembly lines reach their full activity on the new models." All the General Motors car lines, it was learned, are scheduled for announcement to the public within the next few weeks. There are to be some pronounced changes in body styling, it was hinted, and a number of tested innovations are to be added mechanically.

Plans for conventions of dealers and salesmen are well advanced by both Chevrolet-Oldsmobile and Pontiac-McLaughlin-Buick sales divisions.

CONTINUED PEACE

(Continued From Page One)

He said a Hungarian declaration of neutrality in the present European conflict was "needless," since "any declaration of that sort only could complicate our national life in case of a long-term war." In elaboration he said "no danger imperils Hungary from the part of adversaries fighting near her frontiers."

WORLD SERIES TO OPEN OCT. 4

First Two Games to be Played in New York's Yankee Stadium

Chicago, Sept. 15 (AP)—The 1939 World Series will open Wednesday, October 4th, in the New York Yankees' Stadium.

After games there Wednesday and Thursday, the series will transfer to the park of the National League winner for games Saturday, Sunday and Monday, if necessary. Friday will be left open for travel.

Representatives of the American and National Leagues, the Yankees, Cincinnati Reds, St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs worked out the details today at a meeting called by Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis.

The Yankees were the only team invited from the American League, Commissioner Landis being convinced their 15-game lead, with but 17 games to play, was suffi-

Veterans Reaffirm Loyalty to King in Open Meeting

Reaffirmation of their loyalty to King and Country and a firm willingness to serve again in whatever capacity they are needed was given by members of the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, Belleville Branch No. 201 at the opening meeting of the fall and winter term last night.

The clubrooms on Front Street were crowded to near-capacity as war veterans gathered as if drawn by the common bond of war that united them a quarter-century ago.

Inactivity of governing bodies of certain organizations in the present war was criticised by the meeting which was unanimous in recommending a resolution that communications be sent at once demanding a stand in the present crisis.

Distribution of and the status of men guarding certain government and private properties underwent a thorough discussion by the veterans, many of whom have registered for emergency duty, but as yet have had no call, in spite of the fact that there are men who, it was alleged, do not come up to government qualifications, at present engaged in this work.

Reports of the various committees revealed the association to be in splendid condition, financially and otherwise. At the end of the meeting veterans again took the oath of allegiance to the King and to their organization. Vice-President Fred Wiggins occupied the chair in the absence of President Jack Clarke. Refreshments were served at the end of the business session.

MURNEY FOSTER GIVEN 3 MONTHS

Former Bailiff of Frankford Convicted of Fraud in Police Court

Murney Foster, former Frankford bailiff was sentenced to three months in the common jail after being convicted on a charge of fraud before Magistrate E. J. Butler K.C., today. Foster, who was arrested last month on a warrant issued in 1936, pleaded guilty to a charge that he did obtain the sum of $191.07 from Harold Cummings by false pretenses with intent to defraud.

A. B. Collins K.C., appeared for the accused and stated there were extenuating circumstances surrounding the entire case: "This man is a good citizen and a good family man and it is his first conviction", pleaded Mr. Collins on behalf of his client.

The three months sentence was dated back to the time of Foster's arrest on August 14th., last.

Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan, K.C., did not stress a severe penalty.

No Factories in City Working on Munitions

As yet there has been no talk in Belleville of any manufacture of munitions here, but it is understood that a recent survey has been made by Dominion Government representatives for the purpose of discovering what facilities are available in the manufactureing line in Belleville, it was reported today by a manufacturer.

On a recent visit to Ottawa, the local resident discovered the Chateau Laurier filled with representatives of various manufacturing firms all anxious to receive orders for different lines of goods and materials.

It is known that one or two firms in Belleville had as early as last year completed small test contracts for various items for the Dominion Government.

POLICE COURT

When the name of Alfred Walsh of this city, was called in city police court, held before Magistrate E. J. Butler K.C., today, charging Walsh with assault, Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan K.C. informed the court Walsh could not be present to answer to the charge.

"This man joined the army yesterday and I'm offering no evidence against him", revealed Mr. Donnan after which His Worship dismissed the charge. A counter charge preferred by Walsh was also dismissed on the same grounds. Both charges arose out of altercations of a family nature.

When another local citizen appeared on a charge of a breach of the Liquor Control Act, the accused asked for a week's enlargement.

"I'm going to try and get into the army as a cook", revealed the man.

"I know your category and you can't expect to get into the army", replied Mr. Donnan, who is a Lieut.-Colonel in the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment.

"They were glad to get me in 1914, weren't they," mumbled the man as His Worship granted the week's enlargement.

During a short recess called, a special session of the Juvenile Court was held in the Magistrate's private chambers and in camera. Four teen-aged lads appeared charged with the theft of fruit, namely grapes from a local garden. The boys were severely reprimanded by His Worship and given into the custody of their parents.

Police Blotter

Activities in local police circles suddenly became brisk on Thursday, after a dull week of activities. Several minor motor accidents were reported and two bicycles damaged.

At the intersection of Harriett and North Front Streets, late yesterday afternoon, a motor car driven by S. R. Rickett, 403 Coleman St., was in collision with a south bound car driven by Alfred Tyrell, North Park Street. Damage to the amount of over $40 resulted to Mr. Rickett's vehicle, Traffic Officer Doug Ellis reported after investigation.

Mrs. H. L. Campbell, R.C.A.F., (Trenton), informed the authorities that her car had scraped the fender of another parked automobile on Front Street, while backing out from the curb. The owner of the second vehicle implicated declined damages when tendered by Mrs. Campbell she told police.

W. B. Taylor, Kingston, told police his car had struck a parked bicycle on the street and he had arranged amicable settlement of damages between the bike owner and himself. Another bicycle was reported stolen.

Two inebriates found themselves in the clutches of the law after imbibing too freely yesterday.

NEW STONE WALL NEARLY COMPLETED

Operations for the completion of a new wall that borders the front and sides of the City Home for the Aged property at the corner of South John and Dundas Streets are being rushed by workmen. With the new wall giving the frontage of the building a new attractive appearance, workmen are now busy on the John Street wall which is expected to be finished within a few days.

DR. J. M. SMITH GUILTY OF FRAUD

Former President of Louisiana State University Arrested in Brockville

New Orleans, Sept. 15 (AP)—Convictions of Seymour Weiss, a lieutenant of the late "Kingfish" Huey Long, and four other persons on mail fraud charges spurred Federal prosecutors today in their attack upon Louisiana political scandals.

The convictions, punishable by 10-year sentences and $10,000 fines, were a blow to the Long political machine now fighting for retention of power with a state election for the Governorship only four months away. The late Senator Huey Long's brother, Governor Earl Long, is a candidate.

Weiss, one of the three heirs to the powerful Long machine, and four co-defendants were found "guilty as charged" last night on the Government's contention they bilked Louisiana State University out of $75,000 in an alleged double sale of hotel furnishings to the University.

Arrested In Brockville

Convicted with him were Dr. James Monroe Smith, much-indicted former president of the University who surrendered in Brockville, Ont., last July; Monte Hart, wealthy New Orleans contractor; Louis LeSage, former Standard Oil official, and J. Emory Adams, Dr. Smith's nephew by marriage.

The Government contended Weiss got $16,500, Dr. Smith $25,000, Hart about $17,500 and LeSage $8,500 in a deal whereby Bienville Hotel furnishings were sold to the University for $75,000 after the University allegedly purchased them previously in a $575,000 deal for the hotel. Prosecutors charged the mails were used in the transaction, leading to convictions of each on two counts.

Prosecutors said the next trial would be that of Weiss and Leche on charge of conspiracy to violate the Oil Laws.

COMBATS COST BRITISH 18 SHIPS

Total Tonnage Destroyed is 144,645 and Cargoes Run Into Millions

By The Canadian Press

Sea combat has cost belligerent and neutral nations 32 ships, an average of more than 2½ daily since war was declared Sept. 3.

Tonnage destroyed is estimated at 144,645 and the death toll at more than 180. Cargoes valued in the millions of dollars have been lost.

Great Britain, with a vast merchant marine on the seas, has lost 18 vessels. France has lost one ship and Germany nine, including three that struck mines and three that ran aground in Norway.

The four neutral craft sunk included two lost by the Netherlands, one by Greece and one by Finland.

Two in One Day

German submarines sank two British merchantmen off the Irish coast yesterday, the 4,955-ton motor freighter Vancouver City and the 8,431-ton British Influence. Crews of both ships were rescued.

An indication the Nazi government might extend its submarine warfare to waters of the western hemisphere was seen in repeated reports of submarines in the vicinity of Saint John, N.B. At Saint John, a radio warning was dispatched yesterday advising ships in the Bay of Fundy to proceed with caution. However authorities doubted that a German raider was planning to attack shipping out of the Canadian port.

FINAL INSPECTION MADE IN COUNTY

Final inspection of the year of the roads and bridges system of Hastings County was conducted today by the Roads and Bridges Committee. Under the chairmanship of Reeve James Moore, members held a brief meeting here before leaving early today for Bancroft, where recommendations and reports will be tabulated, at the conclusion of the inspection.

Warren Hull who plays the title role in "Mandrake the Magician" new serial presentation now at the McCarthy Theatre.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

NOW! Canada's Greatest Made-to-Measure Suit Value Highlights Overcoats!

- NOW! Overcoats made to the same quality first standards . . . at the same famed low price as in our suits.
- Every suit and overcoat is cut entirely by hand to your personal specifications with hand sewing where it counts.
- So if you're hard-to-fit! If you want something new and smart . . . here it is!

EATON Made-to-Measure One-Trouser Suits
OR
EATON Made-to-Measure Overcoats

22.50 EACH

TWO-TROUSER SUITS, $26.50

It's the hand-cutting and the hand-sewing in both EATON-MADE suits and overcoats that adds the shapeliness and lends the style that results in their huge popularity. If you appreciate made-to-measure features at a dramatically low price, come in to-morrow and look over the new woollens offered for your choice in this important feature.

OTHER 3-PIECE SUITS AT 29.50 AND 35.00

Purchase these suits and overcoats on EATON'S Budget Plan Terms if you wish.

T. EATON Co. LIMITED

Rawdon Twp. School Fair

Sixth on the list of Township School Fairs now being held throughout the county of Hastings was Rawdon Township School Fair held on Thursday, Sept. 14th., at Springbrook School. Despite a heavy thunder shower in the early hours of the day all sixteen schools of the township were present each contributing a good share to the success of the exhibition which all school children look forward to with eagerness. After the short thunder shower a bright sunshine broke through the low hanging clouds to make the weather ideal for all events.

The fair was exceptionally well attended as were all such fairs held so far this year, and the children from each of the sixteen schools of the township were no less eager than the large number of spectators as they compared their practical agriculture, horticulture, and general farm knowledge in the various competitions directed by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

A few changes in the routnie of school fairs have been undertaken this year as recommended by the Ontario Department of Education for the express purpose of fitting the project into the scheme of the recently adopted new course of study. Some of the changes included the elimination of competition in school room work, to be replaced by school displays of selected work over the period of the preceding year. These displays are arranged by the pupils under the supervision of their teacher and each school receives an equal reward. The Grand Championship fair for county honours has been discontinued

Prize Winners

Listed below are the prize winners in the various classes competition listed according to merit and with the number of their school section following each name.

Grains and Seeds

Oats, Alaska, 1 quart: Douglas Campbell 3, Claude McInroy 14, Glenn Hammond 1.

Oats, Alaska, sheaf: Glenn Hammond 1, Bert Sine 13.

Oats, open class: Joe Thompson 20, Gerald Clancy 8, Lois Weaver 3, Claude McInroy 14, Gordon Richardson 7.

Barley, Nobarb, 1 quart: Marion Johnson 14, Chas. O'Shea 20.

Barley, open class: Marion Johnson 4, Joe Thompson 20, Gerald Clancy 8, Gordon Richardson 7.

Spring Wheat, open class: Joe Thompson 20, Carl Ray 11, Lois Weaver 3, Gerald Morrison 7, Carleton Phillips 3, Chas. O'Shea 20.

Field Corn, Longfellow, ears husked: Clifford Heath 12.

Field Corn, Longfellow, sheaf: C. Heath 12.

Sweet Corn, Golden Sunshine: Carl Ray 11, Lloyd Cooney 3, Ralph Thompson 20, Douglas Andrews 14, Gerald Clancy 8.

Field Peas, O.A.S 191: Arthur McMullen 20, Ruth Bain 14, Jean Morton.

Roots and Vegetables

Potatoes, Dooleys: Bobbie Rodgers 1, Meighen Rodgers 1, George Rodgers 1, Eric Summers 4, Phyllis Hammond 1, Alex McCurdy 1.

Potatoes, Irish Cobblers: Ralph Johnson 4, Lois Weaver 3, Grant Stapley 1, Marion Johnson 4, Jean Morton 12, Bobbie Sine 6.

Potatoes, Green Mountain: Leah McInroy 14, Ralph Thompson 20, Claude McInroy 14, Ronald Johnson 4, Margaret McGee 1, Marion Hammond 1.

Turnips, for feeding: Joe Thompson 20, Clifford Heath 12, Douglas McGee 1, Douglas Cooper 20, Gladys Summers 4, Doug. Morton 12.

Mangels, yellow intermediates: D. Barton 12, Audrey Mumby 20, Carl Kirkey 6, Eric Foshay 5, Gordon Preston 6, Grant Bronson 15.

Turnips, Canadian Gem: Bruce Melville 4, Robt. Elliott 13, Bobbie Sine 6, Tom Neal 5, Joe Thompson 20, Clifford Heath 12.

Beets, Detroit dark red: Don Spencer 4, Geo. Rodgers 1, Grant Richardson 1, Eric Summers 4, G. Clancy 8, Ruth Rose 3.

Carrots, Chantenay: Kenneth Cooke 20, Bobbie Rodgers 1, Douglas Reid 13, Meighen Rodgers, 1, Donna Bateman 14, Margaret McGee 1.

Onions, Yellow Globe Danvers: Gladys Summers 4, Daisy Towes 20, Phyllis Hammond 1, Shirley Preston 6, Dora E. Rodgers 1, Evelyn Reid 12.

Parsnips, Hollow Crown: Donald Rombough 5, Marie Louise Lanigan 1, Alex McCurdy 1, Eva Bateman 20, D. Bronson 14, Lois McGee 1.

Pumpkin, sugar pie: Marjorie Hammond 1, Dencille Foshay 5, J. Lanigan 1, Gerald Melville 4, Eileen Runnalls 13, Clifford Heath 12.

Flowers and Plants

Asters, 4 bloom: Donna Bateman 14, Meighen Rodgers 1, Keith Brown 5, Gerald Taylor 8, Stanley Galloway 20, Joe Thompson 20.

Zinnias, 6 blooms: Phyllis Huff 14, T. Stocker 5, Nora Danford 13, Gladys Summers 4, Leah McInroy 14, Bobby Rodgers 1.

Nasturtiums, 6 blooms: J. Solmes 12, Lois Barton 20, Roy Solmes 12, Dencille Foshay 5, Mary Hagerman 13, Mary McInroy 14.

Snapdragons, 6 spikes: Florence Galloway 20, Grant Bronson 15, Gerald Clancy 8, Lois Weaver 3, Bruce Melville 4, Chas. O'Shea 20.

Phlox, 6 sprays: Phyllis Cassidy 16, Marjorie McCoy, Doris Twiddy 19, G. Foshay 5, Fred Howard 11, Marie Meiklejohn 12.

Open Class any Flower: Lois Weaver 3, Joan Hoard 4, Eileen Runnalls 13, Joe Thompson 20, Margaret McGee 1, Leah McInroy 14.

Calendula: Roy Thompson 20, Ila Barton 20, Eric Summers 4, Eugene Burrell 1, Douglas Andrews 14, D. McGee 1.

Cosmos, 6 sprays: George Rodgers 1, Margaret McGee 1, Eva Barton 20, Lillian S. Haggerty 14, Vivian Welbourne 7, James Pollock 8.

Coreopsis, 10 blooms: Donlon Bronson 15, Doris Pollock 8, Montana Foshay 5, Douglas Campbell 3.

Helichrysum, 10 blooms: John Lanigan 1, Helen Ryan 7, Marie Cassidy 16.

Fruits and Apples

Squash, Hubbard: David Cooper 20, Grace Dunham 4, John Reid 3, Ralph Loney 1, Merle Moore 13.

Apples, Wealthies: Francis Wrightman 3, Douglas Reid 13, R. Loney 1, Dora Rodgers 1, Gladys Summers 4, Eric Summers 4.

Apples, McIntosh Red: Francis Wrightman 3, Robert Elliott 3, Don Spencer 4, Marie Meiklejohn 12, Gerald Clancy 8, Lois McAdam 4.

Tomatoes: Phyllis Hammond 1, Gwendolyn Ray 11, Bobbie Ray 11, Gerald Clancy 8, Irene Ray 11, K. Cassidy 16.

Apple collection: Robt. Elliott 13, Francis Wrightman 3, Gerald Clancy 8, Maurice Clancy 8.

Poultry

Barred Plymouth Rock, cockerel: Don Spencer 4, F. Dunkley 4, Carl Ray 11, Bobbie Ray 11, Ila Barton 20, Vivian Welbourne 7.

Barred Plymouth Rock, pullet: Freeman Dunkley 4, Don Spencer 4, Vivian Welbourne 7, Eva Barton 20.

White Leghorn, cockerel: Robt. Elliott 13, Gerald Clancy 8, Joan Hoard 4, Lloyd Cooney 3, Bert Sine 13, Raymond Dunkley 4.

White Leghorn, pullet: Gerald Clancy 8, Joan Hoard 4, Robt. Elliott 13, Arthur Dunkley 4, Lloyd Cooney 3, Raymond Dunkley 4.

Livestock

Livestock parade: Joe Thompson 20, Gordon Richardson 7, Buddy Heath 12, Junior Baine 14, Glen Morton 12.

Calf, dairy type: Joe Thompson 20, Gordon Richardson 7, Buddy Heath 12, Junior Baine 14, Glen Morton 12.

Showmanship: Gordon Richardson 7; Joe Thompson 20, Buddy Heath 12, Glen Morton 12, Junior Baine 14.

Market Lamb: Clifford Heath 12, Joe Thompson 20, Douglas Morton 12, Ralph Thompson 20, Tommy Solmes 12.

Showmanship: Joe Thompson 20, Clifford Heath 12, Tommy Solmes 12, Ralph Thompson 20, Douglas Morton 12.

Contests

Recitation from reader: Florence Galloway 20, Gerald Melville 4, Thelma McMullen 6, J. Rose 3, F. Bateman 16, D. Foshay 5.

Girls' Public speaking contest: Lois Weaver 3, Gladys Summers 4.

Boys' Public Speaking contest: Bert Sharpe 3.

Boys' and Girls' Naming contest: Joan Hoard 4, Carl Ray 11, Eric Summers 4, Roy McLeod 3, Keith Brown 5, Claude McInroy 14.

Boys' and Girls' Vegetable Judging contest: Ruth Rose 3, Lois Weaver 3, Gordon Preston 6, Irene Preston 6, Chas. O'Shea 20, Joan Hoard 4.

Boys' and Girls' grain bag patching: Eva Sine 6, Ruth Rose 3, Gordon Preston 6, Bobby Sine 6, Irene Preston 6.

The following schools took part in the school parade School Section 1 3 4 5 6 7 8 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 19 20. Excellent musical knowledge and training was displayed in the school choruses with S. S. 1 S.S. 8 and S.S. 4, gaining first, second and third honors respectively. Schools taking advantage of the display feature were school section 1 3 4 5 6 7 8 11 12 13 14 16 19 and 20.

It pays to buy the BEST!

CANADIAN INDUSTRIES C-I-L LIMITED PAINTS

PAINT NOW see your
C-I-L
Dealer

HEADQUARTERS for C.I.L. PRODUCTS
WHITES HARDWARE
240 FRONT STREET - PHONE 323

TRENTON

PLANT IS LEASED TO COBOURG CO.

Trenton Council Leases Plant to Dye Works Who Start Immediately

Trenton, Sept. 15 (Special)—The Trenton town council decided at a special meeting on Wednesday night to lease the old film plant on Film Street to the Cobourg Dye Works for manufacturing purposes. It is understood that the dye company will occupy their new premises immediately. This new industry is expected to give work to twenty-five workmen. The Trenton Badminton Club with headquarters in the film plant at present will have to find new quarters when the Cobourg outfit takes over.

High School Field Day

On the second day of Autumn Trenton High School students will present their annual sports program on the playing field to the east of the school. The yearly meet has been a successful affair in the past and the committee in charge this term is making plans for a bigger and better get-together.

Instructors Coming to Trenton

When Avon Duffy, Jack Clapp and George Town complete their physical training courses at Kingston they will become full fledged instructors and will be stationed at the Armouries here to teach the new recruits callisthenics. At present C.M.S. Angus Duffy and C.S.M. Ferguson are conditioning the Hastings and Prince Edward volunteers here.

Latta

Latta—The electric and wind and hail storm which came up from the north-west Friday morning early, was a wild one. It blew out a fuse on the hydro pole at Mr. J. W. Hamilton's and Mr. E. Denyes' and put the system out of order. It blew down a limb on the telephone wire by Mr. Edmund Carleton's and put the line out as the wire was broken. There were only two lines which central could use. Corn and hay cocks were flattened. One clap of thunder sounded like a pistol shot and hail fell for a few minutes. Rain fell heavily. Cows and horses jumped in their stalls with fright. No telephone service nor Hydro service was available until Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Beatty's and Mr. Harry Harrison's silos were blown down. The wind blew a big hay waggon around in a barn yard.

Many people motored to 3rd and 4th Concession on Sunday to see the wrecks caused by the wind on Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCreary spent Sunday at Napanee with Mr. and Mrs. Miller and family and report that hail stones broke all the glass in the north and west windows of the Miller house and other houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Rollins and baby motored to Gilead and Mr. and Mrs. Everett York joined them and they motored to see relatives at Harrowsmith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denyes and Mr. Stuart and Miss Maud Denyes Reg. N. of Smithfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Erle Denyes.

The storm on Sunday was quite bad around Zion.

Mr. Frank Hicks arrived home last week from Toronto after spending some time there.

Mrs. Absolem Parks has been ill lately.

Mrs. W. Elliott and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall.

Mr. Kenneth Kleinsteuber spent Sunday at his home in Sulphide.

Another storm which passed over Sunday afternoon had enough wind power to put a limb on the Hydro wire at Zion's Hill and put out the lights but they were fixed in the evening. Church started with lamps for light but the lights came on before church service was over.

Little Jack Beatty had the misfortune to trip over his wagon tongue and break his arm on Thursday evening.

An aluminum tea was held at Mr. and Mrs. John Rollins on Monday evening.

An aluminum tea was held at Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCreary's last week.

Fiji Islander no longer suggests wildness; 90,000 natives in this British Crown colony live government-controlled lives under their own chiefs.

On exhibit at the British Industries fair this year is an anti-aircraft searchlight which throws a 10,000-watt beam and is designed for London defense.

AT THE McCARTHY

"Coast Guard"

An action-filled drama, realistic and factual in its presentation, based on actual history, which material has been compounded to make up one of the most thrilling epics of the sea, the McCarthy Theatre is now proudly presenting "Coast Guard" which in the screen version features Ralph Bellamy, Randolph Scott, Frances Dee and Walter Connolly. In addition to this one hit, also playing is "Parents On Trial" featuring Jean Parker, Johnny Downs, Noah Beery, Jr., Linda Terry and Henry Kolker. "Parents On Trial" is a production which every boy and girl in love should bring their parents to see because it unfolds a most human modern drama between parental discipline and rebellious youth, revealing the dangerous effects of an unsympathetic attitude in the home when youthful romance is blighted by parental disapproval.

"Mandrake the Magician"

The first episode of "Mandrake the Magician", a thrilling new chapter play, featuring Warren Hull, who also played in "The Spider's Web" is also now showing at the McCarthy Theatre, preceding "Coast Guard" and "Parents On Trial."

AT THE BELLE

"Stanley and Livingstone"

"Find Livingstone!"

Exactly 70 years ago this October 16th, James Gordon Bennett barked these words at his crack reporter, Henry M. Stanley.

It was apparently the most hopeless assignment in all journalism. No one but a mad man would brave the terrors of unknown Africa to hunt for a missionary-explorer from whom no word had come in two years.

How Stanley found Livingstone, how the world called the newspaperman "the most colossal liar of his age" and how he later became the greatest hero of his era, is the story of the 20th Century-Fox picture, Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Stanley and Livingstone" coming next to the Belle Theatre, an important event for Belleville and a notable occasion for all.

Spencer Tracy, twice an Academy Award winner, portrays Stanley. Nancy Kelly who rose into the front ranks of Movietown with her role in "Jesse James" and Richard Greene, who in a year's time has become one of Hollywood's top romanitc stars, are starred with Tracy. Another two-time Award winner, Walter Brennan, heads the outstanding cast which includes Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwicke (as Livingstone), Henry Hull and Henry Traverse.

Henry King, who directed "In Old Chicago," "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and "Jesse James" was assigned the megaphone.

In 1937 Mrs. Martin Johnson, the famous explorer, led an expedition of 27 Hollywood stars and technicians into the wild Tanganyika country of Africa. They began at Bagamoyo, on the coast opposite the island of Zanzibar, and retraced Stanleys historic nine-months' trek in 1871. They spent five months in reaching Ujiji, the village where Stanley found Livingstone, filming the country, which had changed little since it first witnessed one of the most heroic adventures known to man.

More than a thrilling adventure story, the screen play by Philip Dunne and Julien Josephson presents Livingstone's remarkable refusal to be "rescued" when Stanley arrived. The newspaperman stayed with the missionary to get his story and the contact with a great soul changed him completely. A profound story of human experience is "Stanley and Livingstone"—extraordinary outstanding screen fare.

Sea Scouts, the latest Walt Disney color cartoon and the Belle newsreel with its overseas events and World Events will be presented on the same program.

Bob Burns Funny

Laughs, chuckles and youthful romance abound in Bob Burns' latest film, "Our Leading Citizen" to be presented at the Belle tonight with "The Magnificent Fraud," a romance.

A special extra attraction on the same program is "The Movies March On," a swift-moving film packed with all the laughs of the old time "Flickers" the action, comedy and drama of twenty features rolled into one, with thirty of the screen's biggest stars reliving the most, memorable moments of the screen's history.

Soothe SORE FEET THIS WAY

Rub in Minard's Liniment generously, and feel the relief steal over the aching muscles and joints. For all muscle and joint pains, aches and stiffness, sprained ankles, twisted limbs—Minard's has been famous for over 60 years. Good for dandruff and skin disorders, too. Get a bottle today; keep it handy.

35c

MINARD'S LINIMENT

C.D.S. DAYS In the Quinte DISTRICT

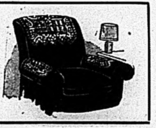
Saturday Is "Climax Day"

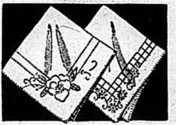
Repeat Shipment for Saturday! Another Big

25c SALE

of Linen and Cotton Pieces

A new shipment of these cotton and linen pieces has arrived just in time for another big week-end selling And if you remember last week how quickly they moved you'll want to be here waiting when the doors open Saturday! A big opportunity to save on both gift and personal needs. Check the list below, then hurry down for your supply. They should go like hot cakes at this low pricing!





5-PIECE MOSAIC COTTON BRIDGE SETS —36-inch cloth and four serviettes. Set of 5 pieces ........ 25c

5-PIECE COLORED COTTON APPLIQUE BRIDGE SETS — 36 inch cloth and four SERVIETTES. Set of ........ 25c

COLORED COTTON APPLIQUE RUNNERS—
18" x 36" Each ........ 25c
18" x 45". Each ........ 25c
18" x 54" Each ........ 25c

COLORED COTTON HUCK APPLIQUE TOWELS—15 x 22 inches ........ 2 for 25c

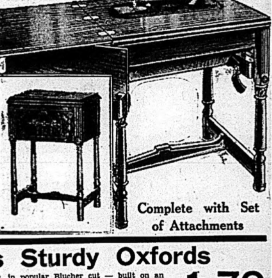
HAND-MADE TUSCANY (STYLE) COTTON FILET CHAIR BACK SETS. 3-piece set ........ 25c

EMBROIDERED COTTON PILLOW CASES. 22 x 36 inches, each ........ 25c

IRISH LINEN HAND-MADE LACE EDGE RUNNERS, 16 x 34 inches, each ........ 25c

IRISH LINEN HAND-MADE LACE EDGE OBLONGS, 12 x 18 inches, each ........ 25c

Fall Sewing Made Easier with An Electric Sewing Machine



So easy now to sew up those frocks, Fall skirts, jackets, etc., with one of these efficient electric sewing machines. Smart in appearance, quiet in operation and complete with set of attachments. In walnut veneer cabinet, with built-in motor which operates in direct drive style, without belt. Knee control makes it just that much simpler to operate. Complete with 10-year guarantee by the manufacturer. Priced at

67.50

NOTE: May be purchased on Budget Plan Terms if desired.

Main floor, rear

Complete with Set of Attachments

Men's Sturdy Oxfords

Of smooth, black side leathers, in popular Blucher cut — built on an easy-fitting style, with durable composition rubber soles and rubber heels. Sizes 6 to 11. Quinte Days, Pair ........ 1.79

Boys' Oxfords

A sturdy, well made oxford that should give excellent service and satisfaction. Of black side leather, fitted with long wearing composition rubber soles and rubber heels. An excellent shoe for school wear for boys taking sizes 1 to 5.

Pair 1.59

— Men's Store, rear

Men's Popular Varsity Stitch Sweaters

Knit from all wool yarns in heavy Varsity stitch. In blue with white, black with white and red. In shawl collar style, with rolled cuffs on sleeves. Sizes 36 to 42 in the ot. Excellent for Fall and Winter wear, or men working out-of-doors. Special, each ........ 1.79

— Men's Store

Girls' Wool Faille Skirts

Smart tailored affairs with zipper side closing and smartly pleated. In blue, brown, etc. Sizes 12 to 14x years. Inexpensive outfit indeed when combined with a wool sweater or blouse. Quinte Days, each ... 98c

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Probabilities

Moderate to fresh winds; fair and cooler tonight and Sunday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1939

Temperatures

| | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | 86 | 65 |
| Year Ago | 70 | 50 |

Weather:—Fair, warm.

GERMAN ATTACK 'SHARPLY REPULSED'

Germans Harassing Front Lines Fail to Check Poilus' Advance; All Poland Blasted by Air Raids

Use Great War Technique of Sending Their Infantry in 'Waves' Against the French but Forced to Retire

FRENCH BEYOND PERL

Saarbruecken Reported to be Surrounded by French Troops With French Guns Dominating the Entire Area

By JOHN MARTIN

Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Sept. 16—(AP)— German infantry was reported today to have gone "over the top" toward French lines in the lower Nied River valley under cover of a heavy artillery bombardment.

The French general staff said the attack was "sharply repulsed."

The Germans apparently used the first Great War technique of sending their infantry in "waves" against the French.

After hours of fighting, the French command reported, the German charge was broken and the attackers were forced to retire to their original positions.

Trying to Turn Flank

French forces were reported to have driven beyond the German border village of Perl in an attempt to turn the flank of Germany's army in the Moselle Valley near the Luxembourg frontier.

Dispatches said the Germans were giving ground slowly after having blown up the main railroad line between the French city of Metz and the German city of Trier. The railway parallels the border of neutral Luxembourg.

(Continued on Page Seven)

USE GREAT WAR

THE WEATHER

Toronto Sept. 16 (CP)—Synopsis: Thundershowers have occurred in many parts of the Maritimes, Quebec, Northern Ontario, Manitoba and Southeastern Saskatchewan, though in other districts the weather has been fair. It has been decidedly warm over Ontario and Southwest Quebec and moderately warm over the Prairie Provinces. It is cooler this morning over Northwestern Ontario.

Lake Superior—Fair and cooler tonight and Sunday; fresh strong winds, decreasing on Sunday.

Manitoba—Fair today and Sunday; a little warmer on Sunday.

Saskatchewan—Fair and moderately warm today and Sunday.

Alberta—Fair and moderately warm. Sunday—Partly cloudy with scattered showers and not much change in temperature.

| Station | 8 a.m. | High Yda. | Low Night |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 50 | 62 | 40 |
| Calgary | 43 | 67 | 39 |
| Edmonton | 38 | 67 | 37 |
| Winnipeg | 46 | 66 | 44 |
| S.S. Marie | 65 | 87 | 65 |
| Toronto | 69 | 89 | 68 |
| Ottawa | 72 | 80 | 67 |
| Quebec | 69 | 69 | 63 |
| Halifax | 67 | 73 | 56 |
| Detroit | 76 | 100 | 75 |
| New York | 65 | 81 | 64 |
| Miami | 80 | 85 | 80 |
| Los Angeles | 69 | 92 | 69 |
| Bermuda | 82 | 89 | 75 |

Why The Weather?

By Major A. H. Thiessen

Science Service Meteorologist

Airplanes in war! The weather is perhaps more important to the aviation branch of an army than to any other. Not only is the weather important in getting from place to place but it often plays an important part in the success or failure of an airplane expedition, even though flying conditions are good. For instance, bombers in starting out may fly for a considerable distance in a cloud layer, then emerge and meet above, re-form and go through the cloud to their objective. After performing their mission, they rise and again take advantage of the cloud layer to hide their movements.

Ambassador Intimates German Liner Bremen Taken by British Navy

MOSCOW, Sept. 16—(AP)—The German Ambassador to Russia, Count Friedrich Von Der Schulenburg, today intimated that the $20,000,000 German liner Bremen, unreported since she sailed from New York Aug. 29, had been captured by Great Britain.

He said questions concerning the German merchant flagship should be referred to Winston Churchill, First Lord of the British Admiralty.

"American authorities were so kind as to hold up the Bremen for 22 hours and so far as I knew the British have rather fast destroyers," the German diplomat said in response to queries about reports the Bremen had reached Murmansk, Soviet Arctic Port.

"I should think the joint efforts of the two powerful empires— the United States and British—should have been able to trap and take an unarmed German ship."

CANADA'S ENVOY TO UNITED STATES IS L. C. CHRISTIE

Appointed by Prime Minister King to Succeed Sir Herbert Marler

NATIVE OF N. S.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16 — (CP) — Canada's new envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States, Loring C. Christie, will proceed to Washington immediately to take over the Canadian Legation there.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King last night announced Mr. Christie's appointment as successor to Sir Herbert Marler, whose resignation through ill health was announced to parliament early in the week.

Mr. Christie, 54-year-old native of Amherst, N.S., moves up from his post as counsellor to the External Affairs Department here to become Canada's fourth Minister to Washington. Canada established the Washington Legation in 1927 with Hon. Vincent Massey, present Canadian High Commissioner in London, as first Minister. He resigned in 1930, and Hon. W. D. Herridge was appointed in 1931 to replace him. Mr. Herridge retired in 1935, and Sir Herbert Marler was sent to the United States capital the following year.

Resignation of Hon. Daniel C. Roper, former United States Secretary of Commerce, has left the post of United States Minister to Canada here untenanted.

(Continued on Page Seven)

SEN. McLENNAN DIES SUDDENLY IN HOTEL ROOM

Newspaper Publisher and Industrialist of Sydney, N.S., Well Known

86 YEARS OLD

Ottawa, Sept. 16 (CP)—Death of Senator John Stewart McLennan, 86-year-old newspaper publisher and industrialist from Sydney, N.S. has created the 11th vacancy in the Upper House. Senator McLennan died suddenly in his hotel here last night.

Two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Farley of Needham, Mass., and Miss Katharine McLennan of Sydney, were expected to arrive here today to make funeral arrangements. They had been summoned when their father was first taken ill following the Parliamentary War Session.

Of the vacancies in the Senate, five are in Quebec, three in Ontario, and one each in Alberta, Manitoba and Nova Scotia. The Conservatives, with the loss of Senator McLennan, are reduced to 53 seats with the Liberals holding 32.

(Continued on Page Seven)

Dare Nearly Causes Death

Detroit, Sept. 15 (CP)—Marjorie Buelman, 21, was in hospital today. She told police that after a night spent visiting beer gardens, her boy friend dared her to jump in the river.

"I don't remember whether it was the beer or the heat," she said. "I do remember accepting the dare." A passing yacht rescued Marjorie.

Strides in the Science of Radio Revolutionize War on the Sea

By ALBERT W. WILSON

Associated Press Staff Writer

Tremendous strides in the science of radio have revolutionized the war now being fought on the seas by—and against—submarines.

The British Admiralty recently developed new listening devices, with great range under water.

While reporting the international naval conferences held in recent years in London, the writer heard much talk of a powerful directional wireless. When a submarine prowling off the British Isles communicated with its base in Germany, this apparatus in London would intercept the message, quickly locate the undersea craft and notify the nearest destroyer.

Cruising Radius Lengthened

The cruising radius of submarines on the surface, where they are run by Diesel engines, has greatly increased since the first Great War. But little improvement has been made in underwater travel. They still must run by electricity when submerged, a costly operation, and must come to the surface in a limited time to recharge batteries.

Germany's biggest submarines are credited with a cruising radius of 7,000 miles but under water they probably cannot exceed 200 miles in a continuous run at a speed of only about seven to 10 knots.

Germany officially reported last December that it had 49 submarines and 28 more under construction. These are craft of 750, 500 and 250 tons which take from eight months to a year to build. Therefore, most of the 28 now are completed.

Do Not Have to Rise

The United States, on its subchasers, introduced a device at the end of the last war, which now is invaluable to both subs and destroyers. The invention soon became everyone's property. It is a sound detector placed on each side of the submarine. A man sitting in the centre with ear phones, listening to both mechanisms, can locate a ship. At that moment, the torpedo is pointed directly at its prey. This means a submarine does not have to rise to the surface and locate a ship through its periscope before firing.

Loss Heavy in Mine "Hells"

In fighting submarines, depth bombs were only used toward the end of the last year and are much improved today. More widespread use of convoys to guard ships has been indicated already by dispatches from abroad.

Germany's greatest losses in the last war were in the mine "hells"—five U-boats were sunk in one day after a North Sea mine barrage had been laid.

Another lesson of the last war was that submarines were more effective than any other type of ship in catching submarines.

Kutno, Warsaw and Brest-Litovsk Centres of Intense Fighting According to German Reports—Vague Hints of New Peace Pact

CLOSE TO LWOW

Official Germany Remains Almost Completely Silent Respecting War on West Front — Believed Rumania Persuaded to Remain Neutral

BERLIN, Sept. 16—(AP)—A German communique reported today additional divisions have been hurled against Kutno in a new attempt to defeat a Polish "lost army" which has held out for six days.

Kutno is the key to a diminishing circle of territory still held by the Poles west of Warsaw and a buffer between the beleaguered capital and the German army to the west.

Importance of the position was demonstrated by the visit yesterday of General Walther Von Brauchitsch, Germany army chief of staff, to front lines there to confer with leaders and give orders.

The German announcement was taken to indicate the plan is to try to crush the divisions at Kutno quickly, while closing the ring tighter around Warsaw in the hope the capital may surrender.

8,000 Prisoners Claimed

The high command claimed 8,000 prisoners and 126 cannon had been captured by the Germans as they moved into Praga, a Warsaw suburb on the east bank of the Vistula river.

Another section of the eastern army was reported moving to the southeast with Lwow as its principal objective. (Lwow, principal city of southeastern Poland, is 225 miles from Warsaw).

The communique said the Poles still hold Lwow and Bilgoraj, 70 miles to the northwest toward Warsaw.

On the western front, the high command admitted Saarbruecken was under French artillery fire.

Banner Lines Carried

In Berlin, mid-day editions of the German press had banner lines on the agreement between Russia and Japan to halt frontier fighting and to arbitrate. The stories recalled a statement by Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop that the non-aggression pact between Germany and Russia would lead in turn to an understanding between the Soviet government and Japan.

(Continued on Page Seven)

KUTNO, WARSAW

U-BOATS BLAMED FOR SINKING OF 3 BRITISH SHIPS

Sinking of Belgian Boat Near Weymouth Result of "Enemy Action"

ALL CREWS RESCUED

British Communique States Sinking of Belgian Boat Contrary to International Law

LONDON, Sept. 16—(CP)— German submarines were blamed officially today for the sinking of four more ships, one a cargo motorship from neutral Belgium and three British vessels.

The Ministry of Information said the sinking of the Belgian vessel, the 5,965-ton Alex an Opstal, off Shambles lightship near Weymouth, was the result of "enemy action."

The captain of the ship told the Press Association: "All I know is there was a terrific explosion and the ship broke in two."

He said the crew and passengers got away safely in the vessel's lifeboats and were picked up by the Greek ship Atlanticos and brought ashore on the south coast of England.

The British vessels sunk were the 5,200-ton cargo ship Fanad Head, bound for Belfast from Montreal, and the 291-ton trawler Davara and the 8,825-ton tanker Cheyenne. They were the 19th, 20th, and 21st British ships sunk since Great Britain declared war on Germany two weeks ago tomorrow.

Many U-Boats Destroyed

These sinkings followed by a few hours a government announcement that "a number of U-boats" had been destroyed by war vessels and planes.

The Ministry of Information said the Alex Van Opstal was either "torpedoed or, as her master believes, struck a mine."

The statement argued that the mine—if that was the cause of the sinking—must have been laid by the enemy because at no time have the British authorities laid mines in the vicinity of the sinking. (Weymouth is on the south coast of England in the English Channel.)

The communique said "by either method of sinking the enemy has violated international law."

Want More News

The British press gave prominence to the announcement that "a number of U-boats" had been destroyed by the navy, but commented editorially the government still was too grudging in giving out news of its operation.

(Continued on Page Seven)

FOREIGN TRADE WILL BE RULED BY OTTAWA BOARD

All Major Transactions in Foreign Exchange in Control of 5-Man Board

TOWERS HEADS BOARD

Will Prevent Exports from This Country Reaching the Enemy

OTTAWA, Sept. 16—(CP)— All major transactions in foreign exchange by residents of Canada, exports and imports of all goods, money and securities, today were in the hands of a foreign exchange control board.

Headed by Graham Ford Towers, Governor of the Bank of Canada, the five-man board was created by order-in-council yesterday with wide powers to regulate and control. The board's powers became operative today.

In addition, the board is empowered to use the exchange stabilization fund, created in 1935 when Canada's reserve gold was revalued at $35 an ounce and believed to exceed $60,000,000, to assist in maintaining the external value of the dollar.

All chartered banks, and in some instances postoffices, have been appointed "authorized dealers" in foreign exchange and no dealings may be carried on except through them.

Announce Rates

The board will announce from time to time the rates at which exchange may be bought and sold, will be the final judge of applications for foreign exchange dealing permits, and may, if it deems advisable, require that foreign securities owned or controlled by Canadians, in excess of $1,000, shall be transferred to His Majesty in the right of Canada and compensation paid.

Finance Minister Ralston announced creation of the board and proclamation of the Exchange Fund Act relating to use of the stabilization fund after the cabinet had passed the necessary orders in council yesterday.

(Continued on Page Seven)

WAR GLEANINGS

Amsterdam, Sept. 16 (CP)—The Berlin correspondent of De Telegraaf today reported that German Zeppelins will be used by the Reich to bring supplies from Russia. The Zeppelins would take chemical products and machinery to Russia and bring back mainly gasoline.

London, Sept. 16 (CP)—Air raid sirens sounded at Aldershot during the night, but it was all a mistake. It was explained the warning was sounded after receipt of a test message sent to determine whether air raid precautions men were on the alert.

Berlin, Sept. 16 (AP)—The German government has acted to protect the stomachs of foreign correspondents covering the war. The restaurant "Taverne" was given permission to remain open during the night. Only foreign correspondents are to be admitted.

American Red Cross Offers Aid to Canada

Toronto, Sept. 16—(CP)—A voluntary offer of assistance from the American Red Cross Society to the Canadian Red Cross was received today.

A telegram from Washington signed by Norman H. Davis, chairman of the United States Society, said: "In these unhappy days, with the tragedy of another Great War going on, we want you to know that the American Red Cross in the spirit of neighborliness is standing by to be helpful when your Society needs our aid."

Daily War Survey

By The Canadian Press

Germany's piece - meal conquest of Poland proceeded Friday. The second of two big German pincers appeared to be closing east of Warsaw. This would cut off a big slice of Western Poland just as effectively as the first pincers movement cut off the Polish Corridor.

A German advance from the south and another from the north began cutting communication lines east of the Polish capital.

The objective of the German advance through southern Poland which has now passed the Lublin-Lwow road was not so clear. Activity in that direction gives rise to conjecture as to whether an immediate drive right across southern Poland to the Russian frontier is contemplated or whether it is a move to protect the flank of the force operating around Warsaw.

Should the advance proceed to the Russian border a corridor for the transport of supplies from Russia to Germany would be opened up and the Poles would be cut off from communication with Rumania on the south.

French Forces Move Up

On the west the French forces moved closer to the Siegfried line as they closed in on Saarbruecken and forced the Germans to retreat down the Moselle Valley.

In some respects the British-French position recalled 1915. Then Russia after a brilliant campaign at the start of the war was on the point of collapse and an Allied offensive in the west was considered necessary in order to relieve the Russians.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

By The Canadian Press

Sept. 16, 1914—Germans gave way slowly in fighting extending from Noyon to Verdun. Sixty thousand Germans sent into Belgium for attack on Antwerp. Russians attacked Prezemyel in southern Poland.

Sept. 17, 1914—Battle of the Aisne, between British-French allies and Germany, along 150-mile front, entered fifth day. Paris reports said Italy would join Allies against Austro-German forces within two weeks.

Huge Mass of Cool Air Billowing Eastward to Break Heat Wave

(By The Canadian Press)

Take off those summer duds and get ready for the second instalment of Autumn, readers. A usually well-informed source told The Canadian Press today that a huge mass of cool air is billowing eastward from the Blue Pacific.

The source (Dominion Government Meteorological Bureau in Toronto) said this shipment of cool stuff will be wafted over Ontario tonight and all those thermometers will be able to relax.

The cause of the terrific heat and humidity that made pikers out of records for September in many Ontario centres was a concentration of southerly winds blowing their hot breath on Illinois and Michigan, then moving eastward. The source said stagnant air also had something to do with it.

Meanwhile, breezes began to appear modestly in some sections of Ontario as advance couriers of tonight's promised coolness. The breezes were cheering to persons in London who saw thermometers yesterday go over 92 degrees Fahrenheit, setting an all-time record. Kitchener also hit a new high yesterday with 95.5. Peterborough thermometers touched 99 when the sun was hottest.

Polish Defenders Rout Besiegers With Severe Losses

German Forces West of Warsaw Hardest Hit by Counter - Attack of Polish Main Army

REPULSED AT VOLA

Ten Tanks and Ten Armored Cars Taken While Polish Aircraft Bring Down Several German Planes

By ROBERT ST. JOHN

Associated Pres Staff Writer

BUDAPEST, Sept. 16—(AP)— Hungarian diplomatic and press circles today received reports the Polish defenders of Warsaw and Lwow had pushed back their besiegers inflicting severe losses on the German forces.

Although Warsaw and Lwow were holding out against ceaseless hammering of German planes, artillery and tanks, reports from numerous sources said, the German lines had been extended 110 miles east of the Polish capital of Brest-Litovsk (Brzesc.)

The newspaper Pesti Hirlap reported German forces west of Warsaw had suffered considerable losses from a Polish counter-attack and that skirmishes were continuous on the city's eastern side.

(Continued on Page Seven)

LINER AQUITANIA ARRIVES SAFELY IN N. Y. HARBOR

U.S. Citizens Criticize Message Received from U.S. Ambassador Before Sailing

AFTER DECK CLEARED

New York, Sept. 16 (AP) — The British liner Aquitania, first armed merchantman to reach New York since the second Great War started, arrived today with 1625 passengers, including many Canadians.

Many of the 660 United States citizens aboard criticized a warning they said Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy had sent them from London before the ship sailed. The message, said Gilbert Miller, theatrical producer, "scared the gizzard out of us."

Miller said G. K. Donald, United States consul at Southampton, summoned the Americans just before sailing and read the following message from Mr. Kennedy:

"Ambassador Kennedy feels that in addition to the other statements he has made, it is his duty to warn American citizens taking passage on vessels of belligerent nations that when such vessels are being convoyed, the opposing belligerent may take this opportunity to sink them without warning. This does not mean that convoyed vessels are more unsafe than unconvoyed vessels, but it is made purely to acquaint American passengers with the contingencies that might arise."

Passengers Most Irate

Miller said "this very negative message" left the Americans "most irate and resentful."

"The spirit of the ship up to that time was very high," he said. "That (the message) scared the gizzard out of us. Hearing that, many people became panic-stricken."

(Continued on Page Eleven)

Canada's Population Placed at 11,195,000

Ottawa, Sept. 16—(CP)—Population of Canada on Dec. 31, 1938, was estimated today by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics at 11,195,000, an increase of 89,000 compared with 1937. There was an increased population in every province of Canada.

Population by provinces was estimated as follows with 1937 figures in brackets: Prince Edward Island 94,000 (93,000); Nova Scotia 548,000 (542,000); New Brunswick 445,000 (440,000); Quebec 3,172,000 (3,135,000); Ontario 3,731,000 (3,711,00); Manitoba 620,000 (717,000); Saskatchewan 941,000 (393,000); Alberta 783,000 (778,000); and British Columbia 761,000 (751,000).

Live births in Canada last year were given at 229,183 compared with 229,235 in 1937. Marriages increased to 88,398 from 87,800.

RECORD NUMBER SENT TO PRISON IN PAST YEAR

27,926 Imprisoned Compared With 23,649 in 1939 Report States

MANY YOUNG IN AGE

Toronto, Sept. 16—(CP)— Record number of persons were sentenced to prison in Ontario during the last year, according to the annual report on prisons and reformatories released Friday by C. F. Neelands, Ontario Deputy Provincial Secretary. There were 27,926 persons imprisoned compared with 23,649 in 1938.

The report suggested the main causes for the increase are a lack of proper character buildings in home training; a feeling of defeatism, reacting on adults and youths as a result of the unemployment situation; a breaking down of moral standards, a reaction against current social conditions and a disregard for moral and social laws.

Many Young Prisoners

"The huge majority of these prisoners," the report said, "are as in former years, young in age, below average in mentality, low in academic education and almost totally lacking vocational training. Add to all these causes the comparative ease of obtaining deadly weapons and speedy motor cars and we have the natural result—the reckless youthful gun bandit."

(Continued on Page Seven)

Coming Events

ATTENTION! MEMBERS AND adherents of Bridge Street Church. Special Congregational Meeting Sunday night to consider the relationship of our church to the present war emergency. s16-1t

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, ROSLIN, annual Chicken supper, Tuesday, October 3rd. Good programme. Adults 50c. Children 25c. Harvest Thanksgiving Service, Sunday 10.30 a.m. s16-30

DANCING TONIGHT HUME Arena Dance gardens. Monday return of Morgan Thomas and his eleven musical artists. Voted best band to visit district this year. s16-1t

TONIGHT — EUCHRE AT 8.45 Aajmaa Club 224 Front St. Regular prizes. Admission 25c. m11-es-tf

RESERVE FRIDAY, SEPT. 22, FOR Argyll Chapter I.O.D.E. Bridge and tea. Proceeds blankets for English children. Anyone wishing to make up table Phone 1829 or 888. We would welcome any subscriptions to this cause. s16-21

QUINTE INN — FALL OPENING Wednesday, September 20. Music by Jimmie Davies and his Swing Band. Admission Ladies 25, Gents .35. s16-20

Cashmere Bouquet Soap Coupons
Redeem at
GEEN'S
PHONE 131 — WE DELIVER PROMPTLY.

City and District News

PICTON OFFERS WINTER QUARTERS TO REG'T.

Following a report that the Hasting and Prince Edward Regiment might establish winter quarters in Picton, members of the town council immediately offered the market building and fire hall for use as a military barracks, it was learned here today.

In similar vein, officials and members of the Prince Edward Yacht Club offered their clubhouse to the militia.

The clubrooms of the local post of the Canadian Legion have been offered as a reading room and recreation rooms for the troops, with free membership to enlisted men included in the offer.

Formation of a women's auxiliary of the post is now under way.

ROBLINS MILLS SCHOOL HOLDS ANNUAL FAIR

With entries said to be far below those of a year ago, the first of Prince Edward County's rural school fairs held at Roblin's Mills yesterday attracted a large crowd of interested spectators. Officials stated the decrease in entries was due to a new ruling that all exhibits must be grown from seed supplied whereas last year grain, vegetables and flowers did not have to be grown from school fair seed.

Alfred Cairns, S. S. No. 7 Ameliasburg captured the special prize awarded to the township boys securing the largest number of points, with Josephine Dempsey, S. S. No. 3 winning the girls' title.

Other winners included: Joyce Bonter and Mildred Gilmour, cloth-naming contest; Faye Vancleaf, wood-naming contest; Jimmie Tanner, leaf-naming contest; George McIntyre, boys and girls livestock judging contest, Ken Thompson, Howard Lough, Sheila Brickman.

MANY DUCKS KILLED IN RECENT STORM

During last week's hail and cyclonic storm, that swept through Eastern Ontario considerable property damage resulted, while more recently it was learned that the storm had wrought havoc among the wild ducks feeding in Hay Bay. Over fifty percent of the wild ducks feeding in the Hay Bay district were killed by hailstones, Game Warden Herb McCabe stated today after investigating reports received regarding the matter. "There were hailstones as large as golf balls fell, killing a large percentage of the wild ducks and damaging their feeding beds in and around Hay Bay," Inspector McCabe stated today.

UNEMPLOYED WAR VETERANS TO BE GIVEN WORK AT BARRIEFIELD

Every available unemployed returned man of Kingston has been ordered to report at Barriefield this morning to assist in the work of building thirty new huts which will house the Canadian troops which are to be trained there.

DUCK HUNTING OPENS NORTH OF HIGHWAY 7

Duck shooting season opened in the district north of Highway No. 7 yesterday morning, but the shooting was poor for one hunter, according to Leo Grey, local resident, who journeyed north of Marmora for the opening. Ducks were sighted, but the birds were wary and few, and reportedly flying high. Not a shot was fired by the local man and his companions. Another pair of hunters from the city shot fifteen ducks at Crowe Lake.

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.
WHEN YOU BUY
Puretest
Cod Liver Oil
YOU BUY THE BEST.
Plain or Mint flavored.
16 oz. $1.00
McKEOWN'S
DRUG STORE
PHONE 135

G-M
SERVICE
GENERAL Motors factory trained mechanics.
MODERN shop equipment.
GENUINE Replacement parts.
MODERATE charges.
GUARANTEEDD work.
MORE Value in our Used Car Clear-out Sale.
BELLEVILLE
MOTORS
PONTIAC, McL.-BUICK, G.M.C. TRUCKS.
SALES and SERVICE
A .C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Streets
Phone 340
Successors to
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

MADAME CORNELIA
The Well Known European Clairvoyant, Psychologist
Advice on all affairs of life.
PRIVATE READINGS 50c
Queen's Hotel, Room 35.
10 a.m.-11 p.m. One Week Only

THERE ARE NO LOWER DRUG PRICES.
ATTRACTIVE
GLASS FREE with
39c
16 oz. tin
OLD ENGLISH
Health Salts
I. D. A.
DRUG STORES
S15-15

— STARTING MONDAY —
WOULD YOU SEND THIS MAN TO HIS DOOM?...
You can be the judge when he goes
"ON TRIAL"
with
MARGARET LINDSAY · JOHN LITEL
John Litel and Margaret Lindsay give you a superb performance in their masterpiece of the screen.
"ON TRIAL"
Added HIT!
THE FUNNIEST LAUGH HIT EVER PRESENTED IN ENGLAND.
England's four Foremost Comedy teams, co-starred in
"ALF'S BUTTON AFLOAT"
— LAST TIMES TODAY —
Added Feature
BARTON MacLEAN
TOM BROWN
in
'BIG TOWN CZAR'
He was a Czar who ruled his shady empire with a bank roll and a gun.
3 Mesquiteers
WYOMING OUTLAW
JOHN WAYNE
CAPITOL Today!

• NO ENDORSERS!
• NO RED TAPE!
• YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!
ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.
Quick LOANS
QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

Recruits Wanted
by the
HASTINGS & PRINCE EDWARD REGIMENT, C.A.S.F
For Information Apply
BELLEVILLE ARMOURIES, BRIDGE STREET
Entrance: 10.00 a.m. until 10.00 p.m.
S14,16,19,21,23,26,28,30

Hardwood Flooring
MEAFORD BRAND OAK IS AN OLD SEAMAN KENT LINE. WE RECOMMEND IT.
STORM SASH
The season will soon be here. Our sash are made of CLEAR PINE and are manufactured by LOCAL LABOR.
THE HOUSTON COMPANY LIMITED
BELLEVILLE ONTARIO.

BARGAIN FARES
SEPTEMBER 22 - 23 - 24
FROM BELLEVILLE TO
WINDSOR DETROIT 8.50 CHICAGO 14.85
GOING—First train from Toronto 5.25 p.m., Sept. 22
RETURNING—Leave Detroit and Windsor up to 3.05 a.m. and Chicago 11.50 p.m., September 26.
ROUTE
Via Pooled Services to Toronto, thence Canadian Pacific only.
For full information consult Agents. Ask for handbill.
Not good Pool Trains 6 and 15.
CANADIAN NATIONAL CANADIAN PACIFIC
S16-20

Stewart-Warner Corporation to Increase Wages

The management of the Stewart-Warner Alemite Corporation in Canada announced today from their Belleville headquarters that on Monday next a five per cent increase in wages would be effective in all the manufacturing divisions of the company.

Two Hillier Barns Destroyed by Fire

Several Buildings Also Endangered by Sparks Carried by Strong Breeze

Residents of Hillier village, Prince Edward County, alarmed by flames that swept two barns early yesterday, rallied to the defence of their homes and succeeded in reducing the fire that threatened the entire community before it became out of control.

The blaze had made considerable headway in a large barn owned by Thomas Smith before it was discovered. Fanned by a strong breeze the flames swept to a nearby barn owned by Mrs. Bertha Covert, Wellington. Both buildings were completely destroyed while a house owned by Smith suffered considerable damage before the fire was reduced.

Three hogs in the Smith barn were rescued, but crops and machinery in both buildings are a total loss. The fire was the most disastrous one to visit the village in years and but for the efforts of large crowds of residents who fought it for hours, might have reduced the entire community to ashes.

CITY TO MAKE SURVEY OF VACANT PROPERTY

A survey of vacant city property which might be utilized for the growing of food stuffs is to be made by city council and it is expected that next season a concentrated effort will be made to provide free plots and seeds to needy householders displaying a willingness to grow their own produce.

The extra city acreage will do much to combat the rising costs of food, cost which might be much higher next year in the event of the continuance of war, and will assist the needy of Belleville in providing for themselves during the coming year.

A survey made recently by the city engineer snows considerable open lots which might be used for this purpose, though past experience has shown council that in the majority of cases the provision of lots and seeds has not repaid the effort.

Prominent Churchman To Speak Here Sunday

On Sunday at The Victoria Avenue Baptist Church, the Reverend John Bates McLaurin, B. A., D. D., General Secretary of The Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board will be the guest of the day and preacher at both services.

The General Secretary was born in Samalkot, India, where his parents were then engaged as pioneers in theological education. He received his higher education at Woodstock College and McMaster University, where he graduated in Arts in 1907 and Theology in 1909. During the years spent in these institutions Dr. McLaurin exercised a wholesome Christian influence and took his share of the student-missionary work both during college sessions and summer vacations. These early visits to various churches, followed by Canada-wide deputation work during repeated furloughs, have given him a varied and intimate knowledge of the work of the missionary work of Canada from coast to coast.

In the short time he has been in the work in Canada he has made great impressions wherever he has gone. He made his bow as General Secretary of The Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board at the annual meeting of the Ontario ahd Quebec Baptist Convention held in Toronto last June. At this meeting he proved to be the right man in the right place. At the recent Congress of The Baptist World Alliance held in Atlanta, Georgia, he held forty thousand people spellbound for forty-five minutes. All Canadians present were justly proud. Dr. McLaurin is a great preacher. He also possesses a pleasing personality.

Of special interest is the evening service tomorrow. This will be under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's Union. Mr. John McLaurin Jury, President of the organization, will preside.

HOLSTEIN SHIPMENT SENT TO CHAFFE, N.Y.

Except for United States export and domestic demand, cattle sales have been quieter lately, and less trading is reported locally by Dr. O. J. Reed, Dominion veterinarian. Sales lately include a shipment of Holsteins, purchased by C. E. King, of Chaffee, New York. Twenty-one head were purchased from among J. M. Williams, Picton; H. E. Bolton, Picton; R. Roblin, Belleville; Harry Hicks, Picton; John Burnside, Madoc; Earl Burnside, Madoc, and Thomas Chalmers, of Dorland.

The difficulty of securing ships for cattle has resulted in local and district buyers cancelling nearly all orders, it was stated.

Tweed
FAIR
THURSDAY - FRIDAY
SEPT.
21 - 22
New Features
Write Secretary for Prize List
S12-16-19-20

A QUANTITY OF DRY
BALED SHAVINGS
Order Early -
The HOUSTON COMPANY LIMITED

OIL BURNER SERVICE
ANY MAKE.
Phone 2260
JOHN LEWIS CO.
S13-3t

PIANO, SINGING, VIOLIN, THEORY
W. ERNEST WHEATLEY
(Mus. Bac., A.R.C.O., F.G.C.M.)
All Toronto Examinations
Classes: Beginners to Graduation
BANK OF MONTREAL CHAMBERS
BELLEVILLE
S3, EOD 6t

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. IRWIN GALNA

Trenton, Sept. 16 (Special)—The funeral was held yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ethel Blanche Galna, 59, wife of Irwin Galna, was buried in St. George's Cemetery, following services in St. George's Anglican Church. The funeral ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. A. Smith and he was assisted by his father, Canon Smith. Mrs. Galna died in the Belleville General Hospital on Wednesday after a six weeks' illness. A graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, Mrs. Galna was also awarded a diploma by the British Academy of London, England. She played the organ in St. George's Church here for 35 years. Born in Brighton, Mrs. Galna came to Trenton at 14. After attending public and high schools here she entered the music field and enjoyed a very successful career as a teacher and player. Her loss is mourned by the community and among her many friends and relatives. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Rhea and Dorothy, both living at home on Marmora Street, and her mother, Mrs. Fred Clarke of Victoria Ave., Trenton.

Funeral bearers were: Walter Ketcheson, C. Lott, H. Baker, W. H. Ireland, Reg. Armstrong and E. Allison. Flower bearers were E. L. Fraser, Max Waldorf, J. Stacey and W. H. Heaney.

The funeral music was rendered by Mrs. Charles Wilkins, organist of St. Andrew's Presbyterian, church, while other local musicians and associates of Mrs. Galna sat in the choir.

Bishop G. Marshall To Instal New Rector Of Emmanuel Church

The Rev. S. R. Foreman who came from St. David's Church, Ottawa, to assume charge of Emmanuel , Free Church of England, parish, September 1st, will be installed as Rector of the Church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service.

The ceremony will be conducted by the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. George Marshall, D.D., who retired from the active work of the parish last August.

Mr. Foreman will preach at both morning and evening services.

Police Blotter

Last evening a teen-aged lass, who stated her name was Cecelia Seams, 61 Foster Ave., reported to city police that her bicycle had been stolen.

Later the police, in company with the girl, observed the bike being ridden by another teen-aged lass. When questioned at the police station the second girl stated she merely wanted to go for a short joy ride. The bike was returned and the little girl to take it was given a severe lecture by Chief Kidd and later taken home by police.

Shortly after 10.00 p.m. last evening city police were called to the corner of Coleman and Harriett Streets, where reports stated mischievous boys were breaking the windows of a grist mill. Investigations revealed a number of boys were loitering around, but no windowsn had been broken. The boys were dispersed and instructed not to congregate in such a manner in the future.

Only two transients sought shelter at the police station last night.

KIWANIS STREET CARNIVAL READY FOR PRESENTATION

Club Will Use Funds Obtained for Specific Patriotic Purposes

STREET DANCING

Everybody's doing it—and if they aren't already, they soon will be—doing their bit toward making this terrestrial sphere a nobler and happier place for the sons and daughters of Adam to live in...... The young men, the grim young men, are flocking to the colors; the young women are quietly having their names listed with several associations with whom their special talents can be utilized when Britain's vigorous young whelp, Canada, is called upon...... And unobtrusively the business men are setting their houses in order and getting ready for the struggle..... Notable among these, and to a great extent representative of the business men of this city, are the Kiwanians, that body of energetic men who have as their motto those comprehensive yet meaningful two words, "We Build."

We will explain. To date, very little has been heard of the great annual event of the Kiwanis Club except that it has been noised about that this year the Kiwanians would hold a Street Dance instead of the accustomed Karnival of style and fashion in the Armouries. Screaming war headlines have, perhaps played their part in taking the attention of Mr. and Mrs. John Public away from simple local matters and focussed their fascinated gaze upon the grander and more fearful vista of war that newspapers and radio bring them from the foreign field. Now, however, with the first shock over your citizen can turn his attention to the matters of everyday life even though a part of him cannot remain inattentive to the great chess game being played upon Europe's checkered field of carnage.

Business goes on as usual even though preparation for the great game of war goes hand in hand. Everybody will be doing something in some way or another. This year the Kiwanis Club means to be to the fore as they usually happen so to do. This year in addition to living up to their motto, "We Build", they mean to adhere to a second—and the monies so raised will be devoted to SPECIFIC PATRIOTIC PURPOSES.

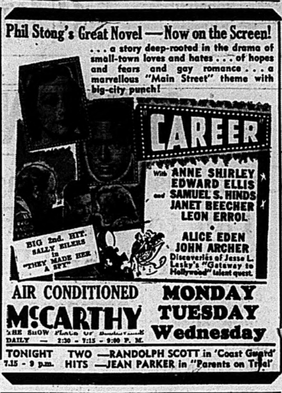
We all must make sacrifices, big and small, at this time and the Kiwanians offer the citizens of this city a chance to make their first contribution. It should be with a gladsome mind that we attend the Street Karnival on Front Street on Wednesday and Thursday, September 20th and 21st, next week for every silver nickel, dime quarter and paper dollar that passes into the hands of the Kiwanians on those days will be devoted to the service of country and the Empire. They are raising a new foundation upon which they allow all of us to build...... to build with our coins of the realm the wherewithal to help a great cause that has as its foundation the bolstering and furtherance of Christianity and the ideals and ideologies which it embraces.

And there is no doubt about it that you will find pleasure in the giving. The Kiwanians have provided for that. They have provided a miniature Midway between Victoria Avenue and Bridge Street. The Kiwanians have really excelled themselves this year in providing new and varied entertainment. There is to be a Popularity Contest and Street Dancing and a drawing for a Hope Chest on the evening of September 21st. And last but by no means least there will be the novelty of the "Window Shopping Tour" which is open to everyone and gives everyone the opportunity of winning four cash prizes amounting to $20.00. For complete details about this contact your nearest Kiwanis friend and he will, with enthusiasm, proceed to acquaint you about every point, that you may be in doubt about.

Two grand nights of entertainment await you on Wednesday and Thursday next week. There will be no admission charge. Bring yourselves and your friends; shake off the cares and anxieties that unsettle your lives and for two nights at least let joy be unconfined for in so doing you are doing your bit in contributing to specific patriotic purposes. On those two nights all who attend are in reality honorary members of Kiwanis and so can join with them in saying: "In Peace or War Kiwanis Serves."

Summer Clothing Worn Again as Heat Wave Strikes City

After experiencing rather cool Autumn weather, when furnaces were lighted, Belleville returned to summer clothing yesterday when the mercury hovered around the 90 mark on the thermometer. Other centres throughout Ontario reported the hottest day in record for the month of September, when the mercury rose to 99 at Windsor. In Belleville, however, straw hats were recovered from storage and the conventional Front Street male dress resembled mid-summer as business men shed their suit coats and sweltered in the sudden heat wave. A slight southwest wind blew early today to relieve what might have been a repetition of yesterday, however.



Phil Stong's Great Novel — Now on the Screen!
... a story deep-rooted in the drama of small-town loves and hates ... of hopes and fears and gay romance ... a marvellous "Main Street" theme with big-city punch!
CAREER
With ANNE SHIRLEY
EDWARD ELLIS
and SAMUEL S. HINDS
JANET BEECHER
LEON ERROL
ALICE EDEN
JOHN ARCHER
Discoveries of Jesse L. Lasky's "Gateway to Hollywood" talent quest.
BIG 2nd. HIT. SALLY EILERS in "THEY MADE HER A SPY"
AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
DAILY — 2:30 - 7:15 - 9:00 P. M.
MONDAY TUESDAY Wednesday
TONIGHT 7.15 - 9 p.m. TWO HITS —RANDOLPH SCOTT in 'Coast Guard' —JEAN PARKER in "Parents on Trial'

EGGS CONTINUE UPWARD TREND ON CITY MARKET

"A" Selects Offered at 35 Cents With Mediums at 32 and Pullets at 29

HEAVY FRUIT DISPLAY

Continuing the sharp upward trend that characterized quotations last week, eggs shot to a new high on the city market today when 'A' selects were offered at 35c the dozen; mediums at 32c and pullets at 29c. Advancing prices of feed were given as the cause of the increase by several prominent vendors.

Potatoes, despite the fact that the largest quantity in weeks was offered, marked another slight rise over former quotations as 75-lb. bags were quoted at $1.40. Bushel lots generally were $1.10 and $1.20, with pecks moving briskly at 35c each.

Other Prices Steady

Other prices, however, were steady. Farmers' butter held firm at 30c the single pound with two-pound rolls offered at 60c. The chicken display was average, with a few broilers offered at 85c and 90c the pair, yearlings at 85c, each and four months' old birds at a $1. Fowl was quoted from 55c upwards per bird.

The fruit offering was exceptionally heavy with melons, imported peaches, plums and apples heading a variable display. No. 1 Alberta peaches were offered by the truckload, at 36c per basket with a slightly inferior size and quality quoted at 25c and 30c.

Blue Damson plums were offered at 40c the basket, with Burbank plums and German prunes at 50c for the same quantity. Good quality pears sold at 20c the basket.

The first offering of McIntosh Red apples was available today with some good quality "grounders," products of the storm of last week, selling at 25c the basket. Wolf Rivers were quoted at $1. the hamper with some exceptionally fine St. Lawrence offered at 30c the basket.

Market Flooded

Watermelons and canteloupe fairly flooded the market, with all sizes and weights offered. Prices ranged from as low as 5c each for the watermelon and 15c to 20c the doz. to ten cents each for the canteloupe.

Homegrown tomatoes were plentiful with bushel lots moving at 50c and 60c the bushel and basket lots at commensurate prices. Sweet corn moved well at 10c and 15c the dozen ears. New vegetables were strong at 5c the bunchlot with radishes and new celery selling briskly all morning.

Whitefish and lake trout reached a new high for the season today with the former selling at 25c the pound and the trout retailing at 30c. The rise in price was attributed to heavy demand from large city markets.

B.C.I. HAS LARGEST REGISTRATION OF PUPILS EVER RECORDED

Belleville Collegiate and Vocational School at the present time is caring for the largest registration of pupils ever recorded, it is revealed in the monthly report of the school submitted by Principal P. C. MacLaurin. Some 950 pupils are now in attendance.

Results of the departmental examinations this year compared very favorably with the general results through the Province, it was reported by the Principal, with an average of 67 per cent passing in Middle School and 73 percent in Upper School subjects.

All teachers of the school are at present engaged except Mr. Bear who has been given leave of absence and Miss Ash, the art teacher who is in Ireland, unable to return home. Mr. Bear's position has been filled by Mr. David Harcus until Mr. Bear can return.

Wheat Market Continues Inactive

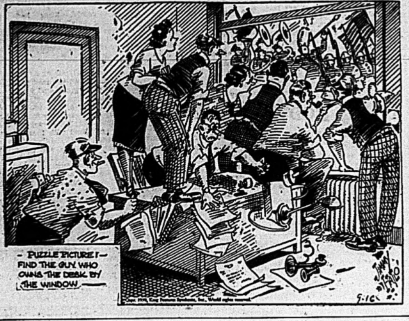
Grain dealers this week offered as high as one dollar per bushel for supplies of winter wheat held locally, but there were no takers at this price, it was reported by Mr. Charles Bishop, who added that the grain market at present was extremely inactive. "Not a bushel of grain is being bought or sold," it was stated by the local dealer.

How high wheat may go before a recession sets in was problematical, according to dealers. It is recalled that during the last year wheat sold as high as $2.50 per bushel, but the belief was expressed by one member of the local grain trade this morning that the Dominion Government might possibly peg the present supply at about $1.25.

TODAY MONDAY TUES.
FALL TIME IS MOVIE TIME
BELLE
FOR ALL WHO THRILL TO ADVENTURE!
Twentieth Century Fox presents
Darryl F. Zanuck's Production of
STANLEY and LIVINGSTONE
starring
SPENCER TRACY
NANCY KELLY · RICHARD GREENE
WALTER BRENNAN · CHARLES COBURN · HENRY HULL
SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE · HENRY TRAVERS
The finest acting cast ever assembled!
SPENCER TRACY ... twice winner of the Academy Award ...gives another masterful performance!
EXTRA! Walt Disney Cartoon —World News.
• THE GREATEST MOTION PICTURE OF 1939 •
TAKE YOUR FAMILY TO THE MOVIES TONIGHT

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



BELLEVILLE KIWANIS PRESENTS
ATTRACTIVE STREET KARNIVAL
WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY SEPT. 20 & 21
6 MAJOR ATTRACTIONS

1. DANCING — ROUND AND SQUARE DANCING to best Music Available.
2. MIDWAY — Bingo, Wheels, Games, Refreshments. All the glamor of a Miniature Midway.
3. CAR GUESS — Guess the Nearest Correct Mileage. Receive a Bag of Sugar each night.
4. BANDS — Outstanding Bands will be in attendance each night.
5. HOPE CHEST — Valued at $100.00, to be drawn for on September 21st.
6. $20.00 in Prizes — Special Window Shopping Tour. Get Printed details at Zeller's, Kresge's or Lattimer's Drug Store.

IN PEACE OR WAR KIWANIS SERVES.
All Proceeds Derived from the Karnival will be Specifically Used for Patriotic Purposes.
"No Admission Charge"

GET A BOX OF DELICIOUS, FRESH
Laura Secords for Sunday
FILMS, CIGARETTES,
TOBACCO.
Bring in your Colgate
Coupon for Two 10c Cakes of Soap FREE
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST
Phone 138

Thomasburg

Thomasburg—Mr. Cottrell of Marmora, conducted services in the Anglican Church on Sunday afternoon, in the absence of the Rector, Rev. F. C. Beazer, who was the guest speaker at the seventieth anniversary service at Oxford Mills of which church Rev. Mr. Beazer was Rector before coming to this parish.

Service in the United Church was withdrawn on Sunday as Roslin appointment was holding their anniversary services. Rev. Mr. Scott of Stirling was the special speaker at these services.

Miss L. Stillson of Shannonville was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thompson.

Mrs. D. Elliott is spending a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elliott at Lodgeroom.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hobbs and family of Detroit were recent guests of Miss Stella Orr.

Master John Houston of Belleville spent the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. James Way.

A number from here attended the Anniversary Services at Roslin United Church on Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Yateman, 4th of Thurlow, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morton.

Mrs W. S. Embury is holidaying wtih Mrs. W. Garrett and other relatives in Tweed for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carney and Mrs O. Carney of Moneymore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs Charles Grills.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porritt and children of Tweed were guests on Sunday at Mr. W. H. Elliott's.

Hungerford Township Rural School Fair was held at Stoco on Tuesday. The teachers, pupils and many interested parents attended. Thomasburg School was among the prize-winners for the parade school chorus and Strathcona exercises, while the pupils carried home prize money for their exhibits.

While the wind and electric storm which passed over on Friday morning was not as severe as to the north and south, considerable damage was done to the corn crops and fruit trees; many fences were flattened and some of the farmers report their silos badly damaged.

Rev. Mr. Scott of Stirling, who was the guest speaker at the Anniversary Services at Roslin on Sunday was entertained at the Parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Carleton and Misses Olive and Merle Carleton spent Sunday with friends in Belleville.

The C.G.I.T. girls and a number of the young men of the United Church enjoyed a corn and marshmallow roast on Tuesday evening.

Johnstown

Johnstown—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers attended Brighton Fair on Wednesday.

Johnstown's Ladies' Aid quilted two quilts on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Busn.

Misses Doris and Faye Stickle spent Wednesday with Mrs. E. G. Stickle.

UPPER SECOND

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stickle also Mrs, Doherty spent Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stickle of Sidney Crossing.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stickle also Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Carr have returned home after spending the week-end at Toronto and other western points.

Mrs. Dennis Carr spent Wednesday at the home of her brother, Mr. Barney Long.

Mrs. J. B. Stickle entertained a number of ladies from Grace United Church, Trenton on Monday evening.

Carmel

Carmel—The Carmel Young People's Society held a melon social on Wednesday evening of this week after the regular meeting. All guests had a jolly time.

Mrs. Morris Wootton of Ottawa who has been visiting her parents for the past week has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Guay and Xavier attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Walter Foley in Madoc on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Spencer, Mr. Kemp of Trenton and Mrs. Moran of Chicago was recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guay, Noel and Norman and Mrs. Foley took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Latton, Marmora.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patterson visited Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams', Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Simmon had to curtail their holiday on account of the war crisis and returned to their home at Rouyn. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons intend taking their holiday later on.

Mr. and Mrs. Orland Bertrand and Mary of Gilead spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds attended the funeral in Cooper on Sunday of the late Mrs. Wyatt of Belleville.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Everson of Springfield were recent callers at Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Simmons'.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Jones and Mildred visited friends at Peterborough recently.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong and Mr. J. McCabe spent Thursday evening of last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. Hutchinson of Gilead.

Mrs. John Elidge of Belleville is staying a month or so with Mrs. Wilfred Clapp.

The ladies of Carmel W.M.S. has accepted the invitation to join Bethany W.M.S. for a social evening.

Mr. and Mrs Percy Reynolds spent Thursday with Mr and Mrs. Boldrick.

Minto

Minto—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Belcour and Glen attended anniversary services on Sunday at the Sidney Baptist Church and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Irvine.

Miss Edna McMaster spent a couple of days last week with her aunt Mrs. Will Brown at Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morgan and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan were Sunday guests of Mrs. M. E. Hogle and Mr. Tom Hogle at Roslin.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. Freeman Sine on Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clements who were recently married and presented them with a miscellaneous shower. The bride was formerly Miss Isabelle Dunkley of this place. A program of music and speeches was enjoyed. Miss Mae Johnston then read an address to the young couple, after which the bride and groom thanked their friends for the gifts, lunch was then served and a friendly chat was enjoyed, after which everyone departed for their homes wishing the bride and groom every happiness.

BE GOOD TO YOURSELF!
Smoke
Turret
CIGARETTES

● Make a date with Turrets. Enjoy the cigarette that's blended to an original and unique formula which makes it just that much different, just that much better. Be good to yourself — make a date with Turrets for real smoking pleasure.

For roll-your-owners we suggest Turret Fine Cut

Burr's

Burr's—Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Harnes spent Wednesday in Toronto.

Mrs. Earl Caughey visited her grandmother, Mrs. Laura Brason on Wednesday and attended Burr's Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Tom Morden's.

Mr. Norman Fox and Mrs. Geo. Fox were at Wellington on Tuesday evening.

Rev. W. J. Parsons was at Picton on Wednesday.

Dr. Gordon Caughey, Whitby, visited his home here on Saturday evening. Dr. Caughey has enlisted in the Army Medical Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowers were at Belleville on Wednesday.

Mr. Clifford Cleave, Wellington-Bloomfield Road, was a caller at Sunnyside Farm on Thursday.

Miss Bernice Brason, Picton, spent a few days last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Laura Brason.

Mrs. Earl Caughey was at Picton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hough, Codrington, visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bride Hough on Monday and called on Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morden.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Tom Morden entertained Burr's Ladies' Aid. As September is such a busy month the attendance was not as large as usual, there being seventeen members and two visitors present. The president, Mrs. Eugene Hubbs, opened the meeting with a hymn followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Psalms 87 and 88 were the Scripture lesson, read alternately. The theme song was then sung. A Thanksgiving verse was chosen for next roll call. Those responsible for the program for next meeting are Mrs. Keith Blakely, Mrs. Allan Carter and Miss Zelda Carter and those who prepare lunch are Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Moon and Mrs. Hubbs. A discussion followed about Red Cross work and all were agreed to reorganize the Red Cross Society. The collection was then taken and the following short programme was put on:

Reading, Mrs. Frank Burkitt; Reading, Mrs. Geo. Fox. A hymn was sung and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Parson. A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess and her assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carley and Dorothy, South Lakeside, spent Thursday at Mr. Bride Hough's.

Mr. Scott, Picton, was a caller at Sunnyside Farm on Thursday.

Messrs Ernest Carley, South Lakeside, and Gene Hubbs and Miss Dorothy Carley were helping Mr. Clifford Hough to pick corn on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Parks, Mrs. Gene Hubbs and Miss Vera Hubbs attended the Eastern Star meeting at Ameliasburg on Thursday evening.

Mr. Donald Parks was trucking corn on Thursday for Mr. Clayton Carter, Mrs. Clifford Hough and Mr. Robert Bowers.

Mr. Alfred Eley, Crofton is helping Mr. Tom Morden this week.

Miss Vera Hubbs spent Wednesday at Mr. Moon's camp at West Lake.

Mrs. Emma Ainsworth left her brother Mr. Moon's camp on Tuesday to spend a few days with her son Mr. Basil Ainsworth, and Mrs. Ainsworth, Christian Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fox, Miss Irene Fox and Mrs. George Fox were at Belleville on Friday.

Frankford

Frankford—Miss Ruby Hadley has gone to Rochester for an extended visit with her sister Mrs. H. Noble and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Dafoe arrived in Frankford after an extended honeymoon in Toronto, Hamilton and Niagara Falls enroute to Malone where they will set up housekeeping. The good wishes of all of Frankford attend them in their new undertaking.

Mrs. Whitmore and baby are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Adams of Frankford.

Mr. Jno. Hanna, Carrying Place, spent Wednesday with his son, Lloyd Hanna.

Mrs. Lane and Helen arrived home from Oakwood on Tuesday. Mrs. Lane was called to Oakwood owing to the death of her father Mr. Jno. Rich. While there Mr. Lane also lost a brother-in-law. The sympathy of the people of Frankford is extended to them both.

Miss Frances Lohnes of Coe Hill is visiting friends in Frankford.

On Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 14th the Frankford W. A. held their regular monthly meeting in the Rose-Lowery Hall. A hymn was sung and the Lord's prayer was repeated in unison. The Scripture lesson Psalm 95 was read by Mrs. P. Mikel. It was decided to hold the annual fowl supper. The different committees were appointed. The roll call showed 25 present. A hymn was sung and the Rev. Mr. Lane closed with prayer. Grace was sung and lunch served by the hostesses Mrs. H. Terry, Mrs. D. Badgley, Mrs. B. Bush and Mrs. J. Hubble.

Marmora

Marmora—Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Burns of Cleveland, Ohio, are guests at the Royal Hotel.

Mrs. George Brooks was admitted to Belleville General Hospital on Wednesday.

Mr. Alexander Gawley visited friends in Thomasburg on Sunday.

Messrs Douglas Flett and Rol Pereman of Oshawa spent Sunday with friends here.

Misses Teresa and Dorothy Henry are spending the weekend with relatives in Oshawa.

Mrs. W. J. Taft is spending a week with her daughter Mrs. H. Dillon at Ottawa.

Rural Dean and Mrs. A. B. Caldwell motored to Point Ideal, Lake of Bays, on Wednesday and on their return were accompanied by their daughter, Beatrice, who spent the summer there.

Harvest Thanksgiving services are being held at St. Paul's Anglican Church with Canon W. G. Swayne of St. Mark's, Bonarlaw as special preacher at the morning service.

Mr. William McCormack and daughter Ella of Moose Jaw, Sask; visited the former's sister, Mrs. Seymour Henry this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Woodhouse have moved to the residence on Matthew Street lately vacated by Mrs. H. Melville.

Mrs. M. LaFontaine and son Shannon of Tweed visited Mrs. M. Clement on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lynch and family of Falconbridge have returned to Marmora and taken up residence in their home on Church Street.

Mrs. M. Bacon of Peterborough is visiting Mrs. Agnes Crawford and other relatives here.

The wild duck season north of No. 7 highway opened on Friday morning and scores of duck hunters were on the marshes of Crowe Lake in the early morning hours. The wild ducks are reported very plentiful in this locality.

Born— In St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterboro, on Wednesday, September 13th to Mr. and Mrs. John Rombough, Marmora, a daughter.

Wooler

Wooler—Wooler played Point Anne in Trenton on Tuesday evening. The score was 14-7 for Point Anne. Jim Stacey received a cup being the most valuable player to his team in the Trenton League.

The official Board of the Wooler United Church met in the church parlors on Tuesday evening.

Several people from this district exhibited at Brighton Fair on Wednesday.

Several from Wooler attended the wedding of Edna Maybee and Sterling Stewart in the Carmen Church on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McColl and Vera Teal returned home after exhibiting at different fairs down east.

The school fair was held on the Wooler exhibition grounds on Monday. There was a large crowd.

Lindbergh Urges United States to Stay Out of War

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh urged the United States last night to keep out of the second Great War, asserting that "if we enter fighting for democracy abroad, we may end by losing it "at home.

"We must not be misguided by this foreign propaganda to the effect that our frontiers lie in Europe," the famous flyer said in an address broadcast by all major United States networks.

Refresher Course on Lathes At Vocational School Shops Offered Free by the Board

Patriotic Gesture of Members Will be Much Appreciated in City

LITTLE BUSINESS

Belleville Board of Education will make the patriotic gesture of offering all machines and facilities of the Collegiate and Vocational School machine shop immediately for the purpose of providing free of charge full refresher courses in lathe work and other allied metal crafts for mechanics of the city, it was agreed unanimously at a regular meeting of the Board last evening.

The move anticipates the need soon for more lathe hands than can be supplied ostensibly in the manufacture of munitions in Canada and was made at the suggestion of Principal P. C. MacLaurin of the Collegiate contained in his monthly report.

In the report it was recommended by Mr. MacLaurin, that the Board advertise classes in the machine shop for men out of work and for men who would like to improve themselves in the practical use of machines. "There is going to be a very large demand for men who can operate lathes, and this is a very important matter," impressed Mr. MacLaurin.

Not Night School Work

"This is not a matter of night school work; it is distinctly different and apart from that," further explained the Principal, who told of being visited this week by a representative of the Ontario Department of Labor, Toronto, who had expressed the belief there would soon be a full demand for men who have been trained in mechanics.

"We can accommodate about fifty men in this shop, with perhaps two fully qualified teachers needed," stated Mr. MacLaurin.

The demand for mechanically trained men already exists in Belleville and elsewhere, it was agreed by one Board member, who spoke of the report that the Bata Import and Export Company had already expressed the need for one hundred and forty-seven machinists.

"They are going to need about fifty thousand machinists in Canada within the near future, and already there is so much work in this line for the mechanics available, a machinist has been very hard to get," declared Trustee Reg Moncrieff.

A refresher or training course in "lead burning" was also suggested by Trustee Moncrieff.

During the last war the whole country was held up by the need for men trained in this work, he stated. This suggestion was accepted as a recommendation and the whole matter of the machine shop and its manner of operation was referred to the Vocational Committee consisting of F. G. Cushing, chairman, with Board Chairman Russ Wotten and E. A. Geen, J. W. Deacon, W. H. Finkle, B. C. Sisler, R. R. Stiver and W. J. Harrison as members, with Principal MacLaurin also taking an active part.

Grant Leave of Absence

Should any of the city teaching staff be called for military duty, the Chairman of the Board, the chairman of the School Management Committee, and the principal of the school involved have been given full power to grant leave of absence, and also replace those who have been called for duty elsewhere, it was agreed in a recommendation passed.

Other recommendations passed by the Board authorized the appointment of Miss Phyllis May as teacher of music in the public schools at a probational salary of $75.00 per month, the purchase of two woollen flags, one for Queen Mary and one for the Collegiate, and the appointment of Mr. Cooper as leader of the Collegiate Band at a salary of $300 per year.

Complaint Attended To.

A suggestion voiced by one member of the Board that at a certain school books for pupils had been given out under the fee system in a condition of disrepair was clarified by the statement of the principal of the school in question that just one complaint had been received by him. Attention was immediately given personally to the matter, it was stated.

Members of the local St. Julien Chapter of the I.O.D.E. at their request, will be given the privilege of working with the Junior Red Cross departments of the various schools for the purpose of soliciting new clothing and cash donations for the needy children of the British Isles, it was agreed.

Permission for the use of the Collegiate auditorium was granted the Industrial Accident Prevention Association for the holding of public meetings on the evening of October 24th and January 16th.

Previous to adjournment a notice of motion was submitted by Trustee Reg Moncrieff that at the next regular meeting of the Board he would move that the fees in public schools be abolished after January 1st, 1940, and that books be supplied free of charge.

Moira

Moira—The cyclonic storm which passed over this district lately did not seriously damage any buildings here, but many trees were blown down, fences levelled and hydro and telephone wires broken.

The anniversary services were held in the United Church on Sunday last and were well attended. Mr. Kenneth Stewart, the pastor, conducted these services. In the morning special music was rendered with Mrs. Nelson Welsh singing a solo. In the evening a trio was given by Messrs Milton Vanderwater, Joe Williams and Gordon Foster.

The anniversary was continued on Tuesday evening when a sumptuous chicken supper was served by the ladies. After the supper a very enjoyable program was given. Those taking part were Mr. Hawthorne and sons of Madoc, Miss McCullough of Thurlow and Mr. Sills of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vanderwater entertained Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Post and family of West Huntingdon on Sunday.

Mr. Gardiner Mitts, Mr. and Mrs. Berson Mitts and family of Halloway were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Ketcheson, while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Foxboro were their tea hour guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clare entertained Mrs. S. Coulter, Mr. Burton Coulter and Miss Doris Coulter of Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Townsend of Halloway were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Foster.

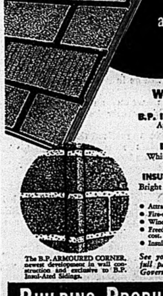
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Elliott and family were entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McInroy's on Sunday.

Guests at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerson's were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Tufts of Tweed and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Emerson and Eric of Halloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shaw and Wayne of Ivanhoe and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Foxboro took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Good of Thomasburg were entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Angus Mumby's after the anniversary services.

Mr. Kenneth Stewart, the pastor for the services, later took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Herity.



BP
INSUL-ATED
SIDINGS
...add Beauty to Your Home
at LOW COST!

The B.P. ARMOURED CORNER, newest development in wall construction and exclusive to B.P. Insul-Ated Sidings.

WINTERPROOF
Your Home Now with
B.P. INSUL-ATED SIDING (5/8")
Applied directly over wood siding walls
INSUL-BRIC SIDING
White Mortar Line — in a wide choice of blends.
INSUL-ATED SHINGLE SIDING
Bright Aluminum, Olive Green and Cinnamon Brown.

- Attractive, Colorful, Modern appearance.
- Fire-safe rock-granule wall protection.
- Wind and Weather security.
- Freedom from painting or maintenance cost.
- Insulation for more comfort—less fuel.

See your Dealer today, or write for full particulars and Free Booklet on Government Loans.

BUILDING PRODUCTS LIMITED
MONTREAL TORONTO HAMILTON
WINNIPEG SAINT JOHN HALIFAX
ASPHALT SHINGLES—INSUL-BOARD (Vapor Seal)—RESILIENT TILE FLOORINGS

USE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT.
The Houston Co., Ltd.
BELLEVILLE
St. Paul Street Phone 1677

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

BERLIN PROTESTS LOUDLY

Berlin is protesting against the action of Britain in sending agents to Rumania armed with gold to buy the supplies needed by the Reich by saying that the British are "interfering with the economic neutrality" of small nations. This was followed by an announcement that a German expert was going to Bucharest to discuss exports to the Reich, chiefly oil, and a payment plan now that the war makes bartering difficult.

Germany would like to get supplies of foodstuffs, metals and other products from the Balkans but these countries are not anxious to do business with her unless they can get payment in gold which is one commodity she is shy of. Britain, on the other hand, has been husbanding her resources in gold and now is using part of it to "blockade" supplies to Germany in that part of the world just as effectively as is being done on the Atlantic. Since she has started her purchases the price of wheat has advanced over thirty per cent while other grains have also shown gains. This extra cost adds to Nazi difficulties but promotes better feeling for the allies among the Rumanians. Even if the small countries do sell to Germany on the promise to pay, and her promises have not been so good along other lines, the sight of gold must look pretty good to them for gold currency in the hand is worth any amount of promises.

THE HOME FRONT

Recent news dispatches bring the word that Great Britain has prepared for a struggle that will last three years. Quietly, without blare of trumpets, or other outward demonstrations, she has gone silently about this business of conservation of foodstuffs, raw materials and other war necessities.

On the high seas, the Royal Navy is keeping silent watch on the channels along which will come the ships' cargoes of necessities from the huge granaries and other resource sources of the Empire.

Throughout the British Dominions, men, and women are answering the call.

In England itself, women of high and low degree have rallied in answer to the appeal for service. Duchess and maid, the Colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady, debutante and domestic, have swept aside social barriers to serve for the common cause.

The war will not be won on the battlefields alone. True, Canada's finest manhood, as in 1914-18, will rally to the colors and, on foreign fields, uphold the ideals and principles of Democracy for which their fathers and forefathers fought to maintain.

And Canada, like the rest of the British Lion's cubs, if we are to pursue this conflict to a successful conclusion must sweep aside all thoughts of personal sacrifice, variation of opinions, political and otherwise, and buckle on the armor of freedom in a vast domestic army which will, through its efforts, form the first line of reserves for the lads "over there".

All must be willing to serve. Old and young, man, woman and child, if necessary, should enlist in the forces of "effective cooperation" if we are to crush once and forever the curse of Hitlerism.

During the last war, Belleville and its outlying districts performed fine service in the 'domestic' war zone. Organizations, clubs and churches, rallied to the call for service in a manner that bespoke not only true patriotism, but an unflagging zeal and enthusiasm in the performing of duties that were as necessary to the state as they are now, or will be in the near future.

Outwardly, Belleville wears an unruffled calm. One would scarcely know, by the pursuance of the even tenor of their way, that its citizens realized the awful import of Canada's momentous declaration of war. But underneath the surface, there is a strange movement. Forces dormant for a quarter of a century are beginning to stir themselves.

Within a few weeks or perhaps months, when the full force of the meaning of the word war will be brought home to those living near the actual war zone, its reaction will be felt here. Not in the bombing of cities or the destruction of property—God forbid that we ever have to experience that phase of warfare—but in the need for necessities for civilians and other non-combatants of the Allied forces, as well as Canada's and Great Britain's fighting divisions.

But far-seeing local organizations are not waiting for such a moment. Fully cognizant of what is to come, they have already organized their forces in the initial effort to stand behind Canada and the Empire in the "dark hours". They should be patronized by all and sundry who value freedom, liberty and British principles.

Next week the Argyll Chapter, I.O.D.E. is giving a tea and bridge. The Salvation Army has already formed a "Red Shield" auxiliary. They need "recruits," no matter who or what they are. They are not individual organizations attempting to raise funds for their own needs. They are doing it for Canada and the Empire, and it is up to all of us to put our shoulder to the wheel, no matter how strong or weak the push may be.

In the words of the Great War slogan, "If you can't go across, come across".

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

THE FIRST HUNDRED DAYS OF THE GREAT WAR still linger in the minds of the stay-at-homes as a period of great anxiety, when the "Old Contemptibiles" and the French army were holding back the great German steam roller. It seemed that nothing could stop the victorious advance of the Kaiser's "greatest army the world ever knew" in their "on to Paris" irresistible drive—but the "Old Contemptibiles" did stop them, with the French army and the "Angels at Mons" and turned von Kluck and his "unbeatables" back in disorderly rout. Those who lived through the "First Hundred Days" of the last Great War and have a lively recollection of the series of reverses which preceded the beginning of the swing of victory will consider the present war with the calmness of conviction of ultimate victory.

x x x

PEACE ON EARTH, GOOD WILL TO MAN has some distance to go before it becomes universal, according to historical records which show that Spain has been at war 67 per cent of the time as far back as history has any records. England has been at war 56 per cent of the time, Greece 57 per cent, France 50 per cent, Russia 46 per cent, Italy 36 per cent, Germany 25 per cent.

x x x

"LUCKY IS THE MAN WHO CAN FIGHT THE WAR WITH DOLLARS INSTEAD OF BULLETS," said an editorial writer in pointing out the fact that the new war taxes would enable many people to do their bit, far behind the firing line, but effectively, and without the discomforts and dangers of the Front Line. It was a bit of a shock to the Man on the Street, no doubt, to find whisky prices up as much as a dollar a bottle, cigarettes, coffee and tea prices advanced, and twenty per cent sur-tax on incomes, etc., but when he considers that the extra tax is helping in the defence of Canada and the protection of the world from domination by dictators whose one object is to stamp out individual liberty and initiative, he agrees the money is well spent, and lucky is the man who can fight the war with dollars instead of bullets.

x x x

"BEHIND THE HEADLINES" was the title of a radio program conducted by Floyd Gibbons, war correspondent. Looking behind the headlines now one senses restraint and sanity in a time when the biggest news possible is crying to get on the Front Page in big letters. Canadian newspapers are handling the war news with a grand display of restraint and refusing to be stampeded by war or war rumors. All news gathering organizations at home and abroad serving Canadian newspapers are in good working order and giving a magnificent public service, and there are no glaring scare headlines to fill up most of the space. The United States where scare headlines were invented, is displaying remarkable restraint especially the leading dailies led by the New York Times, itself a model of restraint and sanity.

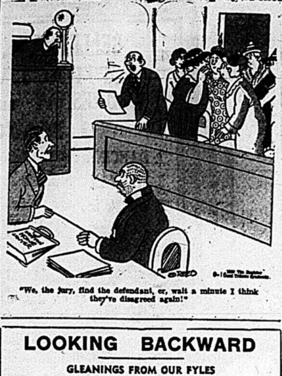
x x x

GERMANS CAN DO THEIR COUNTRY A GREAT SERVICE and bring the war to a speedy conclusion by capturing and confining, or otherwise, Hitler, Goering, Von Ribbentrop and other madmen who plunged the country into war for their own aggrandizement.

x x x

GERMAN SUBMARINE COMMANDER IN THE LAST WAR became converted to Christianity after the war and turned preacher of the gospel, with peace on earth and good will to men his principal text. Hitler showed his good will by imprisoning the ex-sub boat commander, for peace on earth and good will to man had no part in the Hitler program. Just another honest man crucified for his faith on the cross of Naziism insanity.

OFF THE RECORD By Ed Reed



"We, the jury, find the defendant, er, wait a minute I think they've disagreed again!"

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

Sept. 16th., 1919

Monday, Oct. 13th will be Thanksgiving Day in Canada.

Manager Forhan of the Griffin Amusement Company here, is having a stage constructed in the Palace Theatre to accommodate vaudeville acts and to provide a modern setting for stage plays.

Mr. Joseph Frechette, Pontiac, Mich., is here on a visit to his mother at her home on Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. White, Sidney Township, entertained the members of the Tabernacle Church Epworth League at a corn roast last evening. The corn roast took place in the corn field and the affair was most enjoyable.

Mr. Harry L. Davies, a veteran of the Great War, and a former member of the Canadian Pacific Railway Police at Montreal, has been appointed to act with Constable Simpson at the G.T.R. station here and other station in this district.

30 YEARS AGO

Sept. 16th., 1909

The new Canadian Northern Railway line will pass through Belleville.

In a baseball match yesterday afternoon at the Agricultural Park the Coleman Flats team defeated the team from the Lehigh Cement Plant by a score of 18 to 2. The following composed the teams—Coleman Flats— Bowen, Jarrell, Clement, Gorman, Pringle, Delaney, Barrett, Brown and Cornell. Lehigh Cement Team — Lloyst, Reddick, Smith, Gunyou, Berrick, Froysell, Smith, McKinnon and Coughlin. Umpire George gave general satisfaction.

Mr. J. P. O'Connell of San Francisco, California, is visiting his uncle, Mr. P. Hayes, Catherine Street.

40 YEARS AGO

40 YEARS AGO Cn( CaA hflC.

Sept. 16th., 1899

Mr. and Mrs. Luscombe left this morning to visit friends in St. Thomas, Ontario.

Mr. F. G. Lockett, spent yesterday in Kingston.

Mr. Thomas F. Hawkins late of the O.B.C., has secured a position with a weekly publication in New York City.

Miss Florence Dame of New York City, formerly of Belleville, will sing a solo in Bridge Street Methodist Church Sunday evening.

Don't walk on the edge of the wooden sidewalks in this town; they might fly up and hit you.

Mr. William Johnson, who for over a quarter of a century has been the efficient and popular superintendent of Bridge Street Methodist Church Sunday School, was recently presented with an address of appreciation and a beautiful clock by the teachers and officers of the Sunday School.

Mr. Bert Bowers left last night for New York City.

Mr. James Quinn has left for Toronto where he has accepted a position.

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 16th., 1889

The Rev. J. M. Hodson, pastor Bridge Street Methodist Church is expected home from vacation tomorrow.

Mr. S. Burrows has left on a trip to Western Canada.

Besides the arch at the corner of Bridge and Front Streets, which is being erected at the expense of the business men south of Campbell street, another arch will be erected somewhere between Hotel Street and the upper bridge by merchants north of Campbell Street. These two arches will be ready in time for the fair.

Mr. W. A. Lingham of this city, who has been in Denver, Col. for a time, is spending a few days at his home here.

Mr. E. Farnsworth and Mr. C. Simpkins of Shannonville, have entered Albert College as students.

Weekly News Editors too Modest

It has been our privilege in the last month to attend a convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association. With a membership of 383, there cannot be many weeklies of consequence that are not members, and the gathering was representative of rural and town opinion throughout Canada.

Many a daily newspaperman has day dreams as to the time when he will retire to the editorial chair in a small town and live a life of ease Which shows that daily newspapermen don't know much, except for the fact that deadlines are not so rigid, getting out a good weekly paper is as strenuous as working under Mr. Hindmarsh — more strenuous, perhaps, for then the discipline must be self-administered.

We have a sneaking suspicion, also, that many a daily newspaperman would not be competent to run a weekly. He would find no department easy except that of writing. A city job printer would make a better fist of producing a weekly than would a Montreal ship-news reporter who would think that a Babcock drum cyclinder was some sort of Scotch boiler.

On the other hand, we confess ourselves a trifle impatient with some of the editors and publishers of weeklies. They are too modest. They compare themselves unfavourably with Lord Atholstan and George Brown. In citizenship, brain power and the ability to express themselves in plain English most of them compare favourably with the editors of papers which count their readers in ten or hundreds of thousands. The principal differences are that the metropolitan editor is forced to wear an air of continual rush, is buffered by secretaries and beset by politicians, and is reinforced in his learned discourses by Bartlett's Familiar Quotations, Who's Who Here and Elsewhere, and the Encyclopedia Britannica. He writes, more, but not always better.

Country editors are as free of prejudices as are any men living and their ability to think through and see the rights and wrongs of both local and national problems is second to none. They have great power, which they don't always exert, and there is little doubt that if, and when, they all reach similar conclusions on the same national question their opinion on that question will become the national opinion—especially when, as at present, public men seem disinclined to take a stand and uphold it.

No one ever heard of a country editor getting rich. One reason probably is that most of them have worthier ambitions ,but the principal reason is that their field is restricted. Yet most of the country editors we have met in nine provinces appear to be pleasantly solvent, and ever well to do, and if they never attain the ostentatiousness of employing a liveried chauffeur and a butler, they are comfortable, liked in their communities and have that self-respect which comes from the consciousness that theirs is a job well done.

We fancy that the weekly paper is going to be a better proposition in the future—so long as it sticks to its job of chronicling the local happenings and guiding local opinion. It will slump only if it makes the error of aping the big city daily: in that unequal race defeat is certain. But there can be no competition, in these days of one-paper communities, in the news that is exclusive to that community, and in the opinions of the editor. While in many ways the dailies emanating from the large centres are indispensable features of life for both readers and advertisers, adjustments are inevitable for the daily, because of the radio. But no radio discovery is yet in sight which adversely touches, even remotely, the natural field of the live town weekly.—The Printed Word.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Gland Extracts and Avoiding Certain Foods Help Cases of Acne

I frequently write about acne—pimples—because I know that there is always a fresh group of teen age boys and girls who are afflicted with this distressing and embarrassing condition just when their appearance means so much to them.

Because acne causes so much mental anguish and so can affect health and happiness, physicians today are giving more attention to acne instead of simply telling the boy and girl that it will pass away in a few years.

Dr. L. P. Ereaux, Montreal, whom I have quoted before, states in the Canadian Medical Association Journal, that the general practitioner should shoulder his responsibility in correcting this disfiguring skin disorder. Physical imperfections should be corrected, hygienic habits established, and the local skin condition then treated.

The fact that nearly all cases of acne occur near or at the period of puberty (12 to 14 in girls and 14 to 16 in boys) shows that the sex and other glands have something to do with causing it.

Dr. Ereaux records that in their clinic observations were made on a group of acne patients who were unselected, not on any special diet and who were receiving no treatment of any kind. A combination of pituitary and sex gland extracts was used and immediate improvement was noted—clearing of the skin up to a certain point. But after the condition had improved up to a certain point, no further improvement could be obtained although the same regular doses of the combined extract were continued. However, when this remedy was withdrawn the acne returned in most cases and was about as bad as ever.

The above shows that while these gland extracts helped the condition, something else was needed to bring about a complete cure. In the opinion of the most skin specialists food is an important factor in causing or helping to cure acne. Dr. Whitfield, after whom Whitfield's ointment, so helpful in fungous skin affections is named, advises that the fat element found in whole dairy products (milk, butter) and in goose and duck should be avoided by acne patients. Sir Malcolm Morris advises that mustard, pepper, pickles, spices, catsups, sauces, curry and coffee be avoided if a clear skin is desired.

HEREDITY COUNTS

At the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society of St. Thomas, the superintendent's report referred to the descendants of "a defective male adult . . . a social defective", who married five generations ago. The direct descendants of this couple, those who married into the connection and, in brief, all those related to the original couple by what would ordinarily be family ties, numbered altogether 49. Of the 49, nine have died and one has left the district, leaving 39 residing today in Elgin county. Of these 39, three are separated from wife or husband, 15 are mentally or social defective, two are inmates of institutions for the aged, three are in the Ontario mental hospital, one is in jail, nine are wards of the St. Thomas' Children's Aid Society and it appears that a tenth child shortly will became a ward. Altogether, 12 of the 39 are maintained entirely by Elgin county and the municipalities therein.—Stratford Beacon Herald.

CHARGED AS SPY

Day before Great Britain declared war on Germany, the Duchess of Westminster, Lady Maureen Stanley, Lady Dufferin, and Ava and Mrs. Richard Norton, wife of a cinemagnate, were politely eating their lunch in London's Ritz when into the dining room swept Stephanie Julienne Richter Princess Hohenlohe-Waldenbourg - Schillingsfurst, Jewish-born international gossip-trader, close Hitler friend and Germany's No. 1 female propagandist aboard Before Princess Hohenlohe could be shown to her seat a murmur went up among the fashionable ladies and a voice was heard, loud and clear above the hushed room: "Get out, dirty spy". Imperturbably, the Princess sat down, the ladies went on with their lunch. But as they departed, Mrs. Norton stopped long enough to warn the headwaiter that if the Princess was not kept out of the Ritz from then on, Mrs. Norton and titled friends would go somewhere else to eat.—Time.

"Puppies For Sale"

The large notice board at the side of the road bore the simple, irresistible words: "Puppies for Sale". Just that; no trimmings. The painter of this sign must have known there would be no need to elaborate!

After the briefest of struggles with my practical conscience, I wrenched the steering-wheel round and swung into the short drive. Immediately a shrill chorus of combined welcome and doggy invective reached me. A delightful little fellow approached. From his white ears, set at what I am sure must be the exact angle prescribed by all experts, to his elegantly cocked white tail, he was the last word in aristocratic dogdom. He examined me with grave courtesy, and was kind enough to signify his approval by a friendly wriggle which ran his whole length. Then, seeing his mistress coming across the lawn, he seemed to think his responsibility was over, so frisked away in the direction of the staccato chorus of barks.

"Now remember," I told myself firmly, "you do NOT want to buy a puppy. You would just like to look around."

The lady of the kennels greeted me, and from the pocket of her ancient blazer protruded a small black silk head with flopping ears. I capitulated without further struggle.

We strolled in the direction of the "pens" and the orchestra swelled to a hysterical crescendo. Puppies for Sale! There were armfuls and lapfuls and basketfuls of fluffy or silky, long-legged or tubby, flopping, wriggling morsels of puppyhood. We began with a little group who were obviously related to the trim little fellow I had already met. Unlike their father, they were not in the least reserved, and I was soon enveloped in a wave of eager bodies, pushing and tumbling with determined energy.

My guide extracted one from the indistinguishable mass of ears and tails, and set him apart for my inspection. He wobbled aimlessly toward me on short, weak legs, and scraped my fingers with a pink tongue. I listened to the long and impressive list of ancestors to which the panting small scrap laid claim and murmured tentatively that I hadn't REALLY intended to buy a dog: but that, if I DID, a pedigree wouldn't matter so much. I know nothing about shows, and so forth. Something a little more plebeian, perhaps?

My guide quite understood. Of course, all their dogs were not of the show variety. They had some "rather jolly" little spaniels who were by no means show animals, but well-bred and splendid little chaps all the same. Would I care to see them?

I would.

There is something irresistibly appealing about the mournful gentleness of a "grown-up" spaniel. How could I stand out against the sad liquid eyes of the two fat, black, silky little creatures with their big clumsy feet? They staggered over to us and gazed with innocent puppy wonder. I picked them up one under each arm, and was promptly assaulted by wet inquiring noses and appreciative tongues.

"We have a white West Highland —" my guide began, but I shook my head resolutely.

"Now don't tempt me! I really did not come to buy a dog. To tell the truth, I couldn't pass your sign! I'm afraid I'm wasting your time".

The warm black object under my right arm wriggled closer and poked its nose exploringly into my neck. The brother was trying out baby teeth on my collar, tugging joyously. I looked at the one, and wavered.

Of course, puppies were frightfully destructive! But our rugs needed renewing anyway, and new pairs of slippers would have to be bought soon in any case.

"I think perhaps —after all— I MIGHT—" I said, and deposited the puppies on the ground to study them more closely. Choosing a dog is a terribly important task.

"This," said my guide, "is Damon, and this is Pythias. Which will you have?"

Exactly! Which WOULD I have?

From eager noses to quivering tails, there was not a hair to choose between them. Pythias's ears flapped enchantingly and his brown eyes pleaded. So did Damon's. Pythias was fat and beautifully cuddlesome. So was Damon. Pythias, when rolled on his back and tickled, made ecstatic snuffling sounds of approval. So did Damon.

I turned to my guide in despair.

"Call them, and see which one comes to you," she suggested.

I snapped my fingers. Damon lumbered obligingly up to me at once. So did Pythias—

Half an hour later, I drove out of the grounds past that notice board. In my pocket was a booklet on the care of spaniels and faint protesting noises came from the hamper on the seat beside me. After all Damon and Pythias are nice, classical names; and, if you are going to train one puppy, you might as well train two.

But what on earth will the family say? —Gwen Roland in Christian Science Monitor.

An Adventure in Darkness

Night falls on London in these days of early September about 7.30 —a real night unrelieved even by a flicker of light from an open doorway or window momentarily unveiled. Afterward one walks warily and of necessity slowly. Undue haste courts disaster.

Unless it cannot be helped, nobody goes out at all. But it is perhaps necessary to go to dinner. Whenever possible this is timed before dark, but there are occasions, such as this, when one has been delayed by necessary business. So, boxed gas masks over the shoulder as directed in regulations and faithful little pocket flash kept convenient in case of dire necessity, one sets forth.

Within the double door of this efficient office building stands Cerberus, the watchman. He hears approaching footsteps, opens the inner door and, hand on shoulder, guides one into the blackness. He is necessary, for after the bright lighting indoors, the darkness strikes one in the face like a pall.

The outer door is thrown open and one is outside, although mentally one phrases the situation rather as "in it". Then one remembers there are outer steps, several of them. They are even indistinctly visible in alternate blocks of black and white painted across them, but that does not help much. One swears a little over not having counted them in the daytime and remembered the number, and it is human nature to feel for the pocket lamp.

"Four steps, sir," calls the watchman, and after that it is easy.

Now for the trek to the restaurant. It is about 12 blocks to the nearest, which, being in a district sacred to night-workers, is doing a land office business these days; the war is not a calamity to everybody.

One strides off confidently, trying to recall the street crossings. There must be about ten, and the first should be some fifty paces ahead. Look out for the new black and white curbstones. Here they are. One is across.

In the dimness, blacker shadows flit past, mostly silent but now and again heralded by cheerful conversation, welcome because it tells far ahead that someone is coming. But slight mishaps do happen. One collides with another pedestrian.

The strolling policeman one shouldered quite involuntarily in the deeper blackness of a tall building a little farther on wasn't such a pleasant experience. He was almost as solid as a granite pillar. It was quite a shock. The extreme propinquity identified him as a policeman by "police" in large white capitals on his tin helmet. They are quite unmistakable.

"Steady, sir," said the policeman cheerfully as though he were quite used to it. And he was past.

In the roadway great juggernauts rumble by, a faint light shining behind a number far above the blue-tinted headlights classifying them as the Metropolitan omnibuses so familiar in the daytime. There are indubitably passengers in those omnibuses, but how many you never could tell. They sit in darkness until the conductor calls out their street corner.

Between the omnibuses come other and noiser giants marked by many hooded tiny lights in red and yellow. These are trucks, mostly army lorries carrying military material or contractors' trucks laden with thick beams for sharing up buildings or gravel for filling sandbags; the sand supply seems to have given out long ago. Planks and gravel you see in day time piled in heaps in every square and vacant space against the time when they will be needed. It is not a pleasant thought what they will be needed for.

But here is— or should be— the familiar restaurant. There is some uncertainty because it shows as merely another darkened plate-glass window in a row of such. Nevertheless one tries the door. It yields and the doorkeeper's hand reaching out closes it behind one, then lets light stream out through the opened inner portal.

Before settling down for an evening at home, every householder looks to his windows. Those not covered with black paper must be heavily curtained lest the least gleam of light might show through. Moreover, if there is the slightest air stirring windows must be closed, for even the heaviest curtains might blow inward a little and the penalty for showing a light is heavy—100 pounds for the first offence, prison if the omission is regarded as deliberate.

So life has begun anew in London. It is the same in Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Glasgow, Edinburgh and every city and town scattered through the length and breadth of Britain. Newspapers are filled with suggestions on how to avoid letting light through the doorways even for a brief moment when the doors are opened. They are particularly severe on saloons and shops doing a night trade. Every one of these is warned to arrange a "light trap" of curtains or double doors.

But outside of the towns there is the sweet, wholesome countryside, just now at its best.—By Frederick T. Birchall in New York Times.

Sunday Church Services

Bridge Street United Church

REV. J. SEMPLE, B.A., S.T.B., Th.D., Minister.

11 a.m.
THE MINISTRY OF ENCOURAGEMENT
2.30 p.m.—Sunday School.

7 p.m.
Parliament Has Spoken. The Issue is Clear. What is the Special Responsibility of Our Church?

Meeting of Session Close Morning Service.

Alec. Gordon, Organist. Leona Riggs, Choir Leader.

TABERNACLE UNITED CHURCH

REV. D. T. McCLINTOCK

11 a.m.—Every man with one of his hands worked and with the other held a weapon. Neh. 4: 17.
Miss Billie Smith, New York, soloist.
2.30 p.m.—Sunday School.
7.00 p.m.—GOD AND THE COMMON TASK.
Mrs. F. J. Bradley, choir leader. Mrs. M. P. Duff, organist.

HOLLOWAY STREET UNITED CHURCH

REV. ROYAL E. NEWMAN, Minister

11.00 a.m.—"COMMUNION WITH GOD"
2.30 p.m.—SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAY.
7.00 p.m.—THOUGHTS ON THE EPISTLE TO THE EPHESIANS
Choir Leader, S. M. Angin, B.A. Organist, Wm. Connor, M.A.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND
CHURCH OF ST. THOMAS

15th Sunday After Trinity. Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne, Vicar

8 a.m.—Holy Communion; 10 a.m.—Sunday School; 11 a.m.—Matins; 7 p.m.—Evensong.

The Rev. F. A. Smith, Rector of St. George's Church, Trenton, will conduct these services.

ERNEST WHEATLEY, Mus. Bac., A.R.C.O., Organist.

CHRIST CHURCH

15th Sunday After Trinity. Rev. G. G. Wright, L.Th., Rector

8 a.m. Holy Communion. 11 a.m. Morning Prayer. 2.30 p.m. Sunday Schools. 7 p.m. Evensong.

GEO. N. MAYBEE, Director of Music.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Rev. W. J. Walker, B.D., Minister.

11.00 a.m.—OUR GOSPEL OR HIS.
10.00 a.m.—SABBATH SCHOOL.
7.00 p.m.—THE JEW AND THE WORLD

MUSIC:
A.M.—Recit. "Comfort Ye My People."
Air—"Every Valley Shall be Exalted" from Handel's Messiah"—Mr. Frank Whittle.
Anthem—"Hear My Prayer" (James.)
P.M.—Anthem—"The Twilight Shadows Fall" (Wood.)
Charles R. Kilgour, Organist and Choirmaster

VICTORIA AVE. BAPTIST CHURCH

REV. CLAUDE TROUPE OLMSTEAD, B.A., B D., Minister

THE REV. JOHN BATES McLAURIN, B.A., D.D., General Secretary of The Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board, will preach at both services.

The Evening Service will be under the auspices of the B.Y.P.U.

A HEARTY WELCOME TO ALL.

ALLIANCE TABERNACLE

REV. C. V. FREEMAN, Pastor

11 a.m.—CHRISTIAN! WHAT ARE YOU THINKING ABOUT?
7 p.m.—DOES IT MATTER WHAT WE BELIEVE?
9.45 a.m. Sunday School. Tuesday, 8 p.m. Prayer Meeting.

BETHEL HALL

Corner Church and Station Streets
SUNDAY, 7.00 p.m.
Speaker — MR. WILLIAM BELCH
Sunday School, 9.45 a.m.
Thursday at 8 o'clock, Prayer Meeting

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

(I.O.O.F. Temple, 271½ Front Street)
Service, 11.00 a.m.; Sunday School 11.00 a.m.
Subject — "MATTER"
Testimonial Meeting First Wednesday of Each Month at 8 p.m.
The Public is Cordially Invited to Attend These Services.

EMMANUEL CHURCH

VICTORIA AVENUE
SUNDAY, SEPT. 17th.
11.00 a.m.
INSTALLATION OF THE
REV. S. R. FOREMAN
AS RECTOR.
The Bishop, the Rt. Rev. George Marshall, D.D., officiating.
7.00 p.m.
EVENING PRAYER
The Rev. S. R. Foreman will preach at both services.

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |
| Shannonville | Sept. 16 |

Belleville Burial Co. Has New Ambulance

Gleaming in its shining coat of black, relieved by the emblem of the Red Cross that is placed on both front and rear, the new ambulance recently obtained by the Belleville Burial Company, Campbell Street, is a splendid addition to the ambulance service of the city.

With its motor practically noiseless as it glides along the street, the new vehicle is the last word in ambulances of its type, Mr. Joseph Imlah stated this morning.

Accessibility is one of its main features, with operators being able to instal stretchers at a maximum of speed. Its riding capabilities are one of the best in the city. Mr. Imlah stated, while quietness and simplicity of operation, essential to the comfort of patients are one of its main features.

The new ambulance was placed in operation the other day, and according to its owners is functioning with a mechanical success that is a pleasure to the Belleville Burial Company.

"When I say that this great country and this great Empire can never be defeated, I am not playing with phrases nor using rhetoric for effect." —Sir Samuel Hoare.

EVANGEL TEMPLE

Bridge W. and Coleman Sts. E. N. O. KULBECK, Pastor
10 a.m.—Sunday School. 11 a.m.—"Three Places of Enjoyment"
7.30 p.m.—GOSPEL SING-SONG AND EVANGELISTIC RALLY.
Vocal and Electric Vibraphone Specials.
"A CAPTIVE'S ESCAPE FROM FOUR QUATERNIONS OF SOLDIERS"
"Seek ye the Lord while He may be found"—Isa. 55: 6

TOUGH AS NAILS, READY TO FIGHT

100 Hard Rock Miners from Timmins Enlist in Field Engineers

Toronto, Sept. 15.— (CP)—Termed Toronto's "toughest" group of recruits, 100 hard-rock miners from Timmins who paid their own way to Toronto yesterday to offer their services to the military authorities were almost 100 per cent through the medical board examinations today. A few were rejected because of poor eyesight.

In Timmins some were making $300 a month. In the army they will get $1.30 a day.

The entire group enlisted as privates in the 2nd Field Company of the Royal Canadian Engineers. They marched up to the Fort York armouries recruiting office yesterday and according to the officer in charge announced: "We're as tough as nails and we want to fight."

One of the first to sign was Charles E. Girardet, who was the first man to enlist for the Great War in Timmins in 1914.

RUSSIA, JAPAN REACH ARMISTICE

Quarrel Over Manchoukuo-Mongolian Border Dropped for Time at Least

Moscow, Sept. 15—(AP)— Soviet Russia and Japan were reported to have reached an "Armistice" today in their quarrel on the Manchoukuo-Mongolian border. Some observers expected the move to the signing of a non-aggression pact between them.

Japanese Ambassador Shigenori Togo and Foreign Commissar Vyacheslaff Moltoff were said by usual unimpeachable sources to have agreed upon an "immediate cessation of hostilities" in a four-hour conference.

They will meet again tomorrow, after which a communique will be issued, it was said.

Germany has been trying to effect a reconciliation between Moscow and Tokyo since the signing of the German-Soviet non-aggression pact Aug. 24.

Canada's Agricultural Industry Surveyed by Supplies Committee

Ottawa, Sept. 15—(CP)— A survey of production and marketing trends of Canada's agricultural industry is the first general step being taken by the new Agricultural Supplies Committee, composed of heads of agricultural department branches, announced this week by the government.

While the first duty of that committee is to see that the normal needs of the home market are supplied as usual, despite war conditions, it is also laying the groundwork for meeting requests from the United Kingdom and France for food supplies. No such specific requests have been received as yet, it is understood, but are expected soon and will be the basis of new long-range plans.

Meanwhile, immediate problems which have arisen regarding certain commodities as a result of the war are being threshed out by the committee and representatives of producers and shippers. Cheese, apples and bacon, for example, are all suffering severely at the moment from sudden slump in their United Kingdom market.

Canada sells half its apple crop in the old country and a current conference here is studying substitute ways of disposing of a large crop.

Little Cheese Sold

Little cheese has been sold on the cheese boards for 10 days because of loss of the British market. That was lost by an accumulation of factors. First, retail prices were pegged by the British Government at the present low level; then British exchange declined in terms of Canadian dollars; and lastly marine insurance has been boosted sky-high, altogether throwing the cheese market completely out of gear. Bacon has been affected somewhat similarly.

Then the special committee must make sure Canadian farmers and gardeners have sufficient seed next season. Ordinarily a general survey is made but this autumn it will be made in fuller detail. New sources for several varieties of vegetable seed ordinarily obtained from westen Europe must be found.

Wheat May Be Problem

Wheat also is expected to prove a problem in the long run. A rising market will probably be sufficient assurance of supply but a high official has indicated that "definite direction" will likely be necessary. Such "direction", which might include price-fixing, would be the means of maintaining a reasonable balance in agricultural production.

That direction will also work against a repetition of mistakes made during the first Great War, when much grazing land, unsuitable for cultivation, was broken up for wheat farming. Such land has suffered heavily from drought in recent years.

New Wrinkle in Nazi Propaganda

New York, Sept. 16 (CP)— A new wrinkle in Nazi propaganda was offered by short wave from Berlin to North American radio listeners last night.

In a 20-minute program, from 8:32 to 8:52 p.m. E.D.T. English-speaking German announcers offered interviews with three men they said were captured British aviators.

The first interview was with a man identified as flying officer Edwards, a New Zealander.

As a prelude a Nazi who said he was Sergeant Grabbe and had shot down a British plane off the German coast described his experience. He told of going to the rescue of the British crew after the plane was brought down in the sea. Three of the crew drowned but he rescued Edwards.

The man described as Edwards said in response to questions that he had been "wonderfully treated."

"They treat me just as if I were a German officer," he said, "exceupt that I am constantly under guard."

The broadcast then was transferred to a German naval officers' hospital. There two more "captives," identified as Sergeant Observer George Booth and Aircraftsman Larry Slattery were interviewed.

The announcer jovially mentioned Slattery's Tipperary origin, and Booth made a few humorous remarks about a fractured foot. He said he hoped to play football again soon.

"How about your food?" the announcer asked the man described as Booth.

"Well…It's different…I'm not exactly starving," the reputed airman answered somewhat hesitantly.

"Where do you come from?" the announcer interrupted.

"Yorkshire," was the reply.

"That's the trouble, ladies and gantlemen," said the announcer. "He just misses his Yorkshire pudding."

Saar Region of Vital Importance to Germany's Economic Setup

Industries Employ 130,000 Persons in Producing Coal and Iron

Manchester, England, Sept. 15.—(CP)—The importance of the Saar region to Germany was outlined in a special article today in the Manchester Guardian.

"The Industries of the Saar employ about 130,000 persons, about as many as the industrial region of North Riding" (in Yorkshire), the article said, "and the net value of their work in this region is about £30,000,000 annually.

"The industrial value of the Saarland to Germany is higher than that of East Prussia or even the German part of Upper Silesia's industrial region.

"Hitler's war machine is built on coal and iron. Recent frantic efforts to produce more coal and iron at any price shows that it is in coal and iron, the basis of war machines that problems will arise.

"The Saar industry situated on the German frontier, has —relatively to its size—exports nearly 30 per cent higher than the rest of German industry. Loss of the Saar would therefore mean loss of valuable free exchange-producing export connections.

"By value, 11 per cent of all coal exports come from the Saar, but go almost wholly to France, representing £2,000,000 annually. Five per cent of all German coal tar exported, 10 per cent of all iron ore exported come from the Saar.

"While Saar coal is at present about eight per cent of all German coal mines, the available coal resources in the Saar are officially estimated as at least 12 per cent of all German resources, so that in the long run the importance of the Saar would likely increase."

White Eagle Plume

It is not often that Indian tribes confer high honor on women, but in Alberta recently, the Stoney tribe conferred royal honor on Miss Helen Keller, and registered her in the annals of the tribe as "White Eagle Plume." Miss Keller, or rather, Dr. Keller (for she holds many honorary degrees) is probably the most famous of all blind people, living or dead. She accomplished great things in the way of education for she had not only to overcome the handicap of blindness, but she was deaf and mute as well. In spite of these almost insurmountable obstacles, Dr. Keller has achieved distinction as an author and, of late years, as a partial ability at speech came to her, as a lecturer.

Few, if any blind people can hope to reach the heights attained by Helen Keller, but there are few who, if given some sort of an opportunity, could not make something of their lives. Helen Keller was given an enormous amount of assistance in her younger days. More than one individual devoted almost their entire time to her skilful training. That cannot be done with every blind person, but The Canadian National Institute is pledged to the task of giving blind people in every walk of life and of every variety of ability and training, the kind of assistance best calculated to help them. The Institute's program in this regard has been successful. Not every blind person who can work and is willing to work, is working, and not every blind person competent to condurt a commercial business has been provided with a business opportunity, but it is a fact, the obvious evidence of which can be observed in larger towns and cities of the Dominion, that hundreds of blind men and women are earning their livelihood through opportunities in the way of employment and business opened to them by The Canadian National Institute for the Blind. A portion of the chance that was given to Helen Kellar, is asked for the blind men and women of Canada. There is only one channel through which the blind may be reasonably helped and that is through The Canadian National Institute for the Blind. There is probably no citizen who feels called upon to spend a fortune in making a Helen Keller out of any blind citizen known to him, but there is no citizen who is not able to help to some extent the work which is providing employment and valuable service to thousands of blind people all over Ontario. The Institute depends for its support on public and private subscriptions. This week the residents of Belleville will have an opportunity to assume a small share of the cost of carrying on the great humanitarian work of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

North Lakeside

North Lakeside—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stinson and Marlene of Ameliasburg were tea hour guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Chase on Friday. Master Wayne Stinson who had been spending a time with his grandparents returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corey of Belleville were Sunday guests at the Huyck home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Scott and Helen of Doxsee's were Sunday guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cruickshanks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Chase and Mr. and Mrs. W. Chase enjoyed a dinner picnic at Twelve O'clock Point on Sunday.

Mr. Mac French threshed at Mr. Carl Woof's and Mr. T. Mikel on Tuesday.

Mrs. Elvira Tomblin is ill with rheumatism. Dr. Vanluven is in attendance.

Ameliasburg Township rural school fair was held on Tuesday at Roblin's Mills. A number of fine exhibits were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Weir and Mr. Gerald Way of Bowerman's were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chase on Sunday.

The members of Group 1 of the W. A. were entertained at the home of Mrs. T. Alexander of Consecon on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Huyck and Mrs. Lela Weeks were Tuesday afternoon callers of Mrs. Mac French.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller spent Sunday with relatives at Hillier.

Mrs. Warren Chase spent the dinner hour on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague and family.

Some of the ladies of Group II met at the home of Mr. Chas. Jinks of Consecon on Thursday afternoon of last week and had a cutting bee, also made plans for their annual fall bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Biddle and family of Oshawa spent the week end with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. Cunningham.

Mrs. Sherman Chase spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Merritt Huyck.

Allan Mills

Allan's Mills—Mr. and Mrs. Les McKeown spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKeown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McComb visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson at Stanwood on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McAdam called on Mr. and Mrs. A. Burkitt on Sunday evening and attended Harvest Home service.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Mr. Geo. Eastwood and Mrs. J. F. Baker motored to Oshawa on Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Geo. Eastwood who is a patient in the hospital in Oshawa.

The anniversary services held in Rylestone United Church on Sunday were well attended morning and evening.

Owing to the severe electric storm on Sunday afternoon the electric power was off in Rylestone Church and St. Marks on Sunday evening and lamps and candles were used.

Mr. L. Johnson, teacher in S. S. No. 14 and pupils will attend the school fair at Springbrook on Thursday.

Miss Betty McKeown spent the week end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McAdam of Mt. Pleasant visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Mumby on Sunday.

Mr. Clarence Wellman is ill with an attack of quinzy.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McKeown of Springbrook attended anniversaries and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKeown.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McKeown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Reg McGee at Harold.

Halloway

Halloway—Mrs. A. Lowery returned home from the Toronto General Hospital on Friday.

Mrs. R. Townsend is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elliott, West Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Emerson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerson, Moira.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Snider and family, Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cranston, Belleville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Townsend attended the anniversay services at Moira on Sunday and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rose and family, Mount Pleasant, called on Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rose on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. Smith and Mrs. Pearsall took dinner on Thursday with Mrs. W. Cadman.

Bonarlaw

Bonarlaw—At the annual Harvest Thanksgiving service in St. Thomas Church, 8th line of Rawdon, Sunday the special preacher will be Rural Dean A. B. Caldwell of Marmora. Rev. Canon W. G. Swayne will take the service at St. Mark's, Marmora.

Mr. Mel Fitzgerald loaded a carload of stock on Wednesday.

Schoharie

Schoharie—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grimmon of South Bay were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw.

Mr. John Benson and Mrs. Mildred Benson spent the week end at Demorestville with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Longwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Hobson and baby of Toronto are holidaying with Mr. Hobson's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hobson and other relatives in the county.

Friends in this neighborhood extend deepest sympathy to Mrs. E. Vance and sons in the loss of a loving husband and father. Mr. Vance passed away at his home in Picton on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McDonald of Mount Pleasant spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cleave.

Miss Jeanne Tayler of Wellington spent the tea hour on Friday with Miss Rose Walters.

Christian Street

Christian Street—Mr. Norman Morden spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Eric Foster and family of Northport.

Mrs. Stanley Werden spent Thursday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pooley and sons of Bloomfield.

Several ladies from here attended the W. M. S. meeting at Doxsee's Church on Wednesday afternoon when Bloomfield and Demorestville branches were entertained.

A number from here attended the Crofton Ladies' Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Crook on Thursday afternoon at Crofton.

Mr. Stanley Douglas spent a recent week end with his wife and children at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Basil Ainsworth.

Misses Marion Werden of Belleville and Nellie Werden of Victoria spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Werden and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Calnan have returned to their home in Picton after spending the summer at their farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roblin spent Sunday at the home of her brother Mr. Will Clarke of Foxboro.

Mrs. James Noxon called on Mrs. S. J. Cross on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Burr and Ronald also Allan Werden of Burr's spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Werden.

Mr. Harold Cross had a valuable colt killed when struck by lightning in the storm on Sunday afternoon.

Picking and hauling tomatoes and corn keeps many farmers in this vicinity very busy these days.

In the violent wind on Friday morning the silo on Mr. Hanson Huff's farm was blown down.

Empey Hill

Empey Hill—Misses Thelma Melbourne, Helen McKeown, Bea, Irene and Geraldine Mowers attended the Canadian National Exhibition last week. Thelma, Helen and Irene took part in the junior judging competition, Bea and Geraldine came fourth in the Clothing Demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson and Vera of Gananoque spent a week with her mother Mrs. James Barnes and Mr. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchinson were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yorke, Gilead.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brown of Napanee spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Winter.

Mrs. E. S. Ford visited Mrs. Harold Mott in Belleville on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Kimmerly spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Allan Jones and Mr. Jones, Thomasburg.

Mr. J. McMath visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. James McMath Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMath a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Akey spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ashley.

Mr. Lorne Laundrie underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis in Cornwall hospital on Friday His condition is critical.

Major Onley, who holds a responsible position in the work of the Salvation Army in Montreal was a recent week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens. On Sunday evening the Major conducted the dedication service of "Neville" their infant son, at the local corps.

Mrs. John Mowers returned home on Thursday from Walkerville where she was called owing to the sudden death of her brother Mr. Wm. H. Woods. She was accompanied by her sister Mrs. Ethel Timmerman and son Jack of Kingston.

Mrs. Robert Harvey, Mrs. E. S. Ford and children and Mr. Delbert Harvey were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grooms on Sunday.

Mrs. E. R. Price had the misfortune to lose a valuable 4 year old horse on Monday.

On Tuesday 23 ladies gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Winter and quilted three quilts. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. Proceeds were for the W.M.S. and L. A.

The W.M.S. and L.A. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alexander on Tuesday, Sept. 5 for their monthly meeting. Mrs. S. E. Winter presided and opened by singing a hymn. Silent prayer followed by the Lord's prayer in unison. Owing to the absence of Mrs. J. Mowers, secretary, the roll call was omitted. Scripture reading was given by Miss Doris Kimmerly. Several items of business were dealt with. Delegates were appointed to the W.M.S. convention to be held in Deseronto in October.

Another hymn was sung and the afternoon was spent in sewing for the autumn box which will be packed next month. A vote of thanks was given the hostess Mrs. Wm. and Mrs. Clifford Alexander. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nugent were tea guests on Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doidge.

Mrs. Jim Alexander of Arden spent Monday with her sister Mrs. S. E. Winter.

Mrs. C. Johnston, Miss C. Mastin and Mr. J W, Richmond of Napanee spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kimmerly.

The contract has been let for wiring the church before the anniversary services in October.

Miss G. Macheska spent Sunday with the Misses Mowers.

DEPOSIT REDUCTION ON BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA"

The Coca-Cola Company of Canada, Limited—ANNOUNCES—Reduction of Deposit on its Bottles—effective
SEPTEMBER 20th, 1939

Effective September 20th, 1939, the regular DEPOSIT CHARGE of 3c each on BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will be reduced to 2c per bottle.

All persons having in their possession BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" on which the regular deposit charge of 3c per bottle has been paid, and on which they are desirous of securing refunds at the present rate of 3c per bottle, ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to return these bottles to their dealers for refund on or before September 19th.

On and after September 20th, BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will carry a deposit charge of 2c per bottle, and refunds will be made for this amount only.

Bottle Deposit on Six-Bottle Carton
formerly 18c
Reduced to 12c
EFFECTIVE SEPT. 20th

DR-240

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

ROOFING VALUE
'Here it is!'

Sold by reliable dealers everywhere

FOR new homes or to replace an old, worn-out roof, a Brantford Roof will give the utmost in roofing value.

Years of protection from driving rains, winter storms and extreme variations of temperature are built into Brantford Roofs.

Brantford Asphalt Slates can be obtained in many pleasing colour combinations. There is a Brantford Roofing dealer near you who will gladly submit an estimate of cost and explain the many desirable features of, and extra protection that can be obtained from, a Brantford Roof.

More than thirty years' experience in the manufacture of roofing materials ensures that Brantford Asphalt Slates will give unexcelled value, weather protection and beauty.

Brantford Roofs
Brantford Roofing Company, Limited

For Sale by ARTHUR A. SILLS 285 Coleman St. Phone 1584

Personals

ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Mrs. E. J. Stephenson of Winnipeg, announces the engagement of her only daughter, Lillian, to Mr. A. E. Clarke Murkar, of Belleville, Ontario, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Murkar, of Winnipeg, the wedding to take place in mid-October in Winnipeg.

The many friends of Mrs. Gemmell-Shaw will regret to know she is a patient in the Belleville General Hospital.

Miss Margaret Bunting and Miss Elizabeth Wallen were tea hostesses at the Belleville Golf Club today.

Mr. W. E. Colclough, who was operated on recently at Belleville General Hospital, is progressing favourably.

Mr. Ralph W. Harris is in Toronto today for the marriage of his sister, Miss Grace Ellen Harris to Mr. Charles Murray Brady, which takes places in Erskine United Church this evening.

The many friends throughout the Foxboro district of Rev. and Mrs. F. Horton will be sorry to learn that Mr. Horton has recently undergone an operation in the Peterborough hospital, but will be glad to know that he is on the way to recovery again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Howie were called to Bath yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Howie's brother, Mr. J. Thompson, who passed away on Wednesday. Mr. Thompson was a former Belleville resident and news of his death will be regretted by many old friends.

Misses Olive and Jeanette Fralick, whose birthdays occur on the same date were hostesses to a number of their friends on Wednesday. A most enjoyable time was spent by the guests, and the birthday party supper was climaxed by a beautiful birthday cake.

Deep toned Autumn flowers lent a charming decorative note at the very successful tea held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Percy Ranson, 290 Charles Street, by members of Mrs. E. Pigden's group of St. Andrew's Guild. Mrs. Ranson and Mrs. Pigden received the many guests, who were invited to tea by Miss Blair. The tea table was lovely with a beautiful lace cloth, centrepiece of scabiosa, and ivory tapers. Mrs. James Haggerty and Mrs. K. S. Hill poured tea, Mrs. George Cherry and Mrs. A. B. Baird assisting in the serving. Mrs. George Darvell, Mrs. Milligan, and Mrs. McConnell replenished the table. Mrs. Bruce Beavis acted as treasurer for the tea. The home-cooking was in charge of Mrs. Wm. Mills and the apron table was looked after by Mrs. J. Miller.

Mrs. W. N. Ponton has returned home after visiting with her sister, Mrs. James Gillespie Dale, Rochester, N.Y.

Out of town guests attending the Wallbridge-Hinds wedding today, include Mrs. Lyle E. Replogle, New York, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clute and Mr. W. H. Wallbridge, Toronto, Mrs. C. H. Wallbridge, Madoc, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. S. Young, Picton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevenson, North Bay and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Breithaupt, Oshawa.

Weddings

BEADLE—LAMONT

Miss Goldie Evelyn Lamont, daughter of Mrs. W. Heathcote, of Toronto, and the late Finlay Lamont of Lindsay, and Mr. Lloyd Charles Beadle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beadle of Lindsay, Ont., were married in St. Peter's Anglican Church, Toronto, in a quiet ceremony, performed by Rev. J. H. Barnes.

The bride wore a teale blue ensemble with shoulder knot of Sweetheart roses, cornflowers, lily of the valley and bouvardia. Her attendant was Mrs. Roy Madden, sister of the groom, in dusty blue with corsage of rubrum lilies. Mr. Roy Madden was groomsman.

AITCHISON—BONTER

The marriage of Inez Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonter, to Mr. Hector Pirie Aitchison, son of Mr. J. P. Aitchison and the late Mrs. Aitchison, Listowel, was solemnized at St. George's Church, Trenton, this afternoon with Reverend F. A. Smith officiating. The wedding music was played by Mr. L. Hearts, rendering "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register.

The bride wore a street length dress of dragon fly blue with harvest wine accessories and carried a nose-gay of shaded wine scabiocia, forget-me-nots and roses. She was attended by Miss Florence Bonter, who wore a wine dress with black accessories and carried a nosegay of shaded blue and wine sweet sultan and roses. Mr. William Keyes, Grafton, was groomsman.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left by motor for Eastern Ontario and the States. On their return they will reside at 266 Bridge Street East, Belleville.

ST. ANDREW'S W.M.S.

The W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church met on Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Beevis' group, Miss Blair, Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Diamond.

Scripture and prayer—Mrs. Beevis. Hymn "Come let us sing". topic, Mrs. Parry. Solo, Mrs McBrien accompanied by Mrs. Mantel. Currents events, Mrs. Fargey. Business reports, Mrs. Fleming. The service closed with The National Anthem after which lunch was served.

THE Event of the Season!

CHARLES of the RITZ
NOW SOLD IN BELLEVILLE

exclusively with
GEORGE PAULEY — DRUGGIST

Come in and learn new tricks of makeup, new ways of glorifying your loveliness and receive a regular $1.25 box of powder, blended just for you to harmonize your new complexion and your new wardrobe.

Miss Lucille Campbell
Special Charles of the Ritz technician will be with us

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 18th.

During this period a $1.25 box of
CHARLES of the RITZ
Individually Blended Powder
Without charge with other purchase of Ritz Preparations

Kiwanis Ladies Organize for Work With Red Cross

Offering their services in the cause of Red Cross the Kiwanis Ladies held a meeting in the Y.M.C.A. yesterday afternoon, to organize a Red Cross unit. Mrs. F. S. Lazier, vice-president of the local branch, addressed the gathering on the plans of the Society for the coming months.

Officers of the unit were elected as follows—

President—Mrs. R. A. Flynn
Vice-President — Mrs. J. W. Imlah
Secretary—Mrs. W. Anderson
Treasurer—Mrs. F. M. Lewis
Supplies' Convener — Mrs. J. Barclay.

All funds for patriotic activities will be supplied by the Kiwanians, as the group is to be a self-sustaining unit.

TODAY'S MENU

BY BETSY NEWMAN

Vegetable Sandwiches
Buttered Spinach
Scalloped Apples or Apple Pudding
Milk

THIS MENU is for children, but is excellent for adults as well. Mother too often neglects her own lunch, or finishes up the "left-overs" to "save" them.

Buttered Spinach —Ingredients: one pound spinach, one tablespoon butter, one-half teaspoon salt, Remove roots and any wilted leaves of spinach, wash in several waters and put into kettle with no water. Cook until tender, drain, but save liquid down to one tablespoon, add butter and salt and add to spinach. Serve hot.

Vegetable Sandwiches—Take any of the following raw vegetables or combinations of them, and chop fine or grind, cream with butter, and spread between thin slices of whole-wheat bread; celery, carrot, apple, cabbage, lettuce, watercress. Do not cut crusts from bread as they are nutritious and encourage chewing.

Apple Pudding — Line buttered baking dish with breadcrumbs, put apples, prepared as for sauce, in centre, sprinkle with brown sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg, cover with crumbs, dot with bits of butter and bake until apples are soft. Serve with vanilla sauce or cream. Vanilla Sauce—Ingredients one and one-half cups brown sugar, one-fourth cup water, two tablespoons cornstarch. Mix sugar and cornstarch, add water, boil five minutes. Cool and add two teaspoons vanilla.

The Stars Say—

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Sunday, September 17

SUNDAY'S horoscope is one of excellent promise for the conventional routines of the Sabbath day, although there may be developments of a sudden, surprising and uprooting nature. Superiors, elders and those in authority will have friendly and helpful impulses, and all mystical and cultural pursuits are under very stimulating and happy auspices. But be judicious with funds.

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year of definite opportunity for advancing themselves with employers and superiors, especially in lines pertaining to writings, publishing or promotion, or in political or diplomatic circles, where strategy and tact may be utilized for promotion and progress. Sudden and drastic change may be necessary, but be prudent in the management of finances.

A child born on this day seems to be endowed with many talents and faculties for success in life, probably in literary, artistic or dramatic lines. But it also may have ability for politics or diplomacy because of its versatility and shrewdness.

For Monday, September 18

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for an exceedingly lively, enterprising and progressive state of affairs. There is a definite prospect of attaining cherished wishes or ambitious objectives, whether they concern business, public life, social or educational activities, romance, adventure or humanitarian affairs.

Those whose birthdy it is are under most propitious auspices for attaining lofty ambitions in the realm of romance, adventure, philanthropy, education or politics.

A child born on this day should be well-equipped with talents, capabilities and force of character to achieve high station in life.

Randolph Scott, Frances Dee and Ralph Bellamy, featured in "Coast Guard," now playing at the McCarthy Theatre.

WEEP FOR LOVE

by RUBY M. AYRES

"We shall be in the country next week," he told her. "My people have a place in Somerset, you know, and they always shut this house up during August." He glanced down at her a little diffidently. "Any use the matter asking you to come too?" he asked.

Elizabeth's first thought was, "Oh, yes," for she longed to get away from London and from what she rather pathetically called "best clothes" and to be free. But would it be freedom to stay with the Selbys? She was not sure. They would probably have a big houseparty and life would be very much the same as it was in London.

Roy saw her hesitation and he added persuasively:

"I think you'd like it. It's rather a decent old place—garden and all that, and we're not far from the sea. It won't be a full house, either Just a couple of my friends and a girl Barbara is friendly with."

Barbara was his sister who had been abroad "finishing" so Elizabeth had met her on only one occasion.

"It sounds lovely," she said warmly.

"It would be if you'd come," he answered. "You love the country, don't you?"

"I was born in the country."

"I'll get the mater to ask you," he told her eagerly. "She likes you, you know. She was only saying last night that you're not the modern type of damsel and that it's quite refreshing."

"I'm afraid I'm really rather dull," Elizabeth apologized.

"Dull!" he laughed. "Well, all I can say is, if you're dull, I wish everyone was the same."

He stopped by the buffet.

"What about an ice? Or a cool drink?"

"Yes, please—an ice."

"I'll find you a seat—Why, hullo!" he broke off as a man crossed the lawn from the house and spoke his name.

"Hullo, Selby!"

Elizabeth turned quickly and there was a startled look in her eyes as she raised them to the man's face and, meeting them, he smiled in astonishment.

"Why—how do you do?"

"Do you two know each other?" Roy asked blankly. Then he laughed. "Is there a girl in the world you don't know, you old rascal?"

Kim Lawless laughed, too, as he stretched an involuntary hand to Elizabeth.

"We have met before," he said.

Roy shrugged his shoulders.

"Well, don't spirit her away while I get an ice cream," he said, and left them.

"This is a very pleasant surprise," Lawless said. "I have often wondered whether we should meet again, but I did not expect it to be here of all places."

"I wonder you remembered me", she answered. She looked a little pale and her voice was not quite steady.

"Did you ever visit the primroses again?" he asked.

She smiled. "No—I didn't," and she remembered that only a few hours after her meeting with this man, she had been called upon to bear the greatest sorrow of her life.

"I did," he said. "I went the next day—and the following week, too. Somehow, I thought you would be there."

There was the tiniest pause before she answered.

"My mother died—soon after you caught me trespassing."

His face changed.

"I'm terribly sorry."

Roy came back with a large pink ice precariously balanced on a plate.

"Here we are!" he said cheerfully. "I've got something stronger for mysif."

Lawless drew up a chair for Elizabeth.

"May I have a dance later?" he asked.

"Much later," Selby said firmly, and then his sister Barbara came running up to them.

"I want you, Kim," she said breathlessly. "It's a Paul Jones. They want some more men to make up the number." She took his arm in the friendliest fashion and led him away, and Roy sat down on the grass at Elizbeth's feet.

"Fancy you knowing old Lawless" he said, and then added abruptly: "Of course! I remember now. He was engaged to your sister, wasn't he?"

INSTALMENT 7

"Yes." Elizabeth was glad to be relieved of a difficult explanation.

"Pity they broke it off," Roy Selby went on, "he's a decent chap. Why was it?"

"I don't know."

"I expect she's a bit tempermental," Roy said carelessly. "Clever people always are. Penelope rather scares me," he admitted frankly. "She's got such a sarcastic way of saying thing."

"She doesn't mean it. Her voice is beautiful—"

"So the mater says. I've never heard it myself."

"Some day she'll be famous," Elizabeth told him.

She finished the ice and he took the plate from her.

"Care to dance again?"

"Yes."

They went back to the ballroom where the Paul Jones had just finished and Elizabeth caught sight of Kim Lawless talking to Mrs. Selby. She looked quickly away, her own words a moment since echoing through her mind, "The day you caught me trespassing." But she had never gone back. She never would go back, and she remembered with a pang how she had left the primroses to die ....

It was much later on in the evening that Lawless came to ask for his dance.

"I've been very patient," he said.

Elizabeth glanced at Roy.

"Can you spare me?" she inquired, with a little smile.

"As you've asked permission you may go," he answered magnanimously.

Lawless was a beautiful dancer and Elizabeth found herself wondering whether he and Penelope had ever danced together, and if so, if that was why she would no longer dance.

Poor Penelope, she thought, and she glanced up at Lawless's face. It seemed strange to think that he had so nearly married her stepsister. Would it have made any difference if their engagement had not been broken? "Difference to what?" she asked herself quickly.

"Shall we go outside?" he asked when the music stopped, and he drew her hand through his arm before she could answer and led her into the garden.

"Can I get you anything?"

She shook her head and they walked past the buffet into the shadows beyond.

"It's very strange, meeting you here of all places," he said, "And yet I always knew we should meet again. The Selbys are old friends of mine, but I have never heard them speak of you."

"I haven't known them very long."

"I've known Barbara since she was in the nursery," he told her. "Shall we sit down?"

They found two chairs in the shelter of a tall oak tree.

"It's difficult to believe we are in London, isn't it?" Lawless said. "And within a quarter of an hour of Piccadilly."

"Yes."

Elizabeth looked up at the stars. There seemed to be millions of them against a purple background.

"What are you thinking about?" Lawless asked, and Elizabeth started.

"Nothing—I was looking at the stars."

"They're very bright tonight." And then, as she did not speak: "Do you live in London?"

"Yes, in St. John's Wood. I live with an aunt—now." She had almost spoken Miss Thornley's name, but checked herself in time, remembering that as yet this man did not know who she was.

There was a short silence before he said, diffidently:

"Will you forgive me if I say how sorry I am—about your mother, I mean? If you remember, when we met before you had another trouble in your life."

"Yes." The little handbag slipped from her lap and he stopped to recover it. "Thank you for being sympathetic," she said, "but I'd rather not talk about it, if you don't mind."

"I'm sorry," he said simply.

He took some cigarettes from his pocket.

"Will you smoke?"

"Thank you."

He struck a match and leaned down to give her a light, noticing with compassion the tears in her eyes and the slight tremble of her lips.

"I suppose that you will not by any wonderful chance be at the Selby's place in Somerset next week?" he asked presently, with a keen desire to distract her thoughts.

"Will you?" she asked.

"I have been invited." And then, without allowing her time to speak: "Do you know that nobody has told me your name? Selby seemed to take it for gronted that there was no need to introduce us."

Elizabeth laughed, a little nervously.

"I know yours," she reminded him. "Don't you remember giving me your card that day in the woods?"

"I remember very well, and also that afterwards I thought what a mistake I had made not to ask your name in return."

She looked away from him towards the brilliantly-lighted house. "The band has started again," she said.

"Does that mean that you wish to go back?" he asked, a little offendedly.

"Oh, no!"

He laughed.

"Mustn't I be told your name?" he asked, in a long-suffering voice. "I've only to inquire from Selby, you know."

There was a little silence before she said quietly:

"My name is Elizabeth Challoner."

"Challoner!" he repeated sharply.

"Yes."

"Then"—he suddenly flung away his cigarette—"you are Penelope's stepsister."

"Yes."

There was a profound silence before he laughed grimly.

"Talk about poetic justice," he said. She could feel that his eyes were upon her. "Do you know who I am?" he asked abruptly.

"Yes."

"You know that I was—once engaged to Penelope?"

"Yes."

"Did you know that day in the woods when we met?"

"Oh, no!" And then suddenly she rose. "Shall we go back now?"

Lawless rose, too, standing between her and the house so that its many lights outlined his tall figure.

"Does it make any difference?" he asked.

She looked up at him.

"What do you mean?"

"Only that—I was so glad to see you again—that I hoped we should be friends."

Elizabeth forced her lips to smile.

"Why shouldn't we be friends?" she asked.

There was a short silence.

"Then it does make a difference," he said quietly. "I can tell by your voice."

"Shall we go back and dance?" she asked.

But still he did not move, and presently he said:

"Do you think it is dishonorable of a man or of a woman to break an engagement which he or she knows to be a mistake?"

Elizabeth moved restlessly.

"I don't know anything about it. I've never been engaged. Oh, please, let us go back and dance."

"Very well."

He went with her silently, but as soon as they reached the ballroom, Roy dashed up to them.

"Where have you been? You said one dance, and you've had three." He squared his fists in pretended anger at Lawless. "How dare you trespass on my preserves?" he demanded.

Lawless laughed.

"A thousand apologies," he said calmly, "but I failed to see the sign 'Trespassers will be prosecuted.' "With a little bow to Elizabeth he left them.

"Where have you been?" Roy demanded suspiciously. "I looked for you everywhere! I suppose you were in the garden."

"We were—looking at the stars," she answered.

He laughed.

"I can't imagine Lawless looking at the stars," he said. "He's the most matter-of-fact chap. He hates sentiment and all that kind of clobber."

She looked up at him.

"But he was once engaged to Penelope," she said.

"Probably just a business arrangement," Roy declared breezily. "She's not the sentimental kind either, is she?"

"I don't know," Elizabeth answered. But an unkind freak of memory brought back the words of Penelope's song—

"Beloved, are the tears I shed for thee
Less than white roses thrown for Majesty—
To trample on with cruel, careless feet?"

Stupid words, Penelope had called them, but then, Penelope had a way of pretending to despise the things she held most dear.

INSTALMENT 8

Elizabeth did not speak to Kim Lawless again that night but when she reached home, Penelope's door was ajar and she could see a light still burning.

She tried to tiptoe past to her own room but her name was called:

"Is that you, Elizabeth?"

"Yes."

"Well, come and tell me about the dance."

Penelope was sitting up in bed with a bandage round her throat.

"Does it hurt?" Elizabeth asked in concern.

"Of course it doesn't hurt, but I told you that the hot weather makes me feel tired, and I have to be careful with my only asset."

She turned the shade of the bedside lamp so that it's light fell on the younger girl's face.

"Well, how did you get on?"

"It was quite nice."

"Were there many people?"

"The house seemed to be crowded. We had supper in the garden and that was nice."

"Was Barbara there?"

"Oh, yes. She had on a striped frock, all sorts of colors. I thought it was rather attractive."

"Anybody else there that I know" Penelope demanded.

Elizabeth's eyes wavered.

"I expect you know them all."

Her stepsister laughed.

"I suppose Kim Lawless was there," she said defiantly. "He always is. You need not be afraid to speak his sacred name."

"Yes, he was there."

"Did you dance with him?"

"Only once."

"You could have danced with him all night for all I care," Penelope said, but for an instant she closed her eyes, to open them again quickly as she asked: "He knew who you were?"

"Oh, yes."

"And what do you think of him?"

Elizabeth winced beneath the merciless questioning.

"I thought he—he seemed nice," she said helplessly.

There was a short silence during which she did not dare to look at Penelope until she asked:

"I suppose Barbara was running after him, wasn't she? I always thought she was keen on him."

"I only saw her with him once."

Penelope suddenly raised her hand to her throat.

"I'll bet he never mentioned me", she said hardily.

Elizabeth shook her head.

"He wouldn't," her stepsister said, and again she closed her eyes.

"Can I get you anything?" Elizabeth asked.

"No, thanks."

The younger girl turned to go and then stopped.

"Mrs. Selby has asked me to go and stay with them in Somerset" she said.

Penelope made a little inarticulate sound.

"Did she? Will you go?"

"If Aunt Thornley doesn't mind."

"Mind? She never minds anything! London will be as dead as mutton in a week's time. I'm going to Italy myself."

Elizabeth turned.

"Won't it be very hot?"

"I daresay."

"Well—good night."

"Good night."

Elizabeth shut the door softly. She wished it was possible to say something kind, just to show that she understood, but she knew Penelope would only have been resentful.

"I suppose we can't ever be friends," Elizabeth thought regretfully, and somehow it seemed sad. She took off the pearl necklace and slipped out of her white frock and then, when she was ready for bed, she turned out the light and drew back the curtain to look again at the stars.

And then she seemed to see again Kim Lawless! tall figure standing between her and the light and to hear his blunt question, "Does it make any difference?"

And although she had not been able to answer it then, now in her heart she answered it passionately: "I hope it won't—oh, I hope it won't"

Penelope left for her holiday in Italy while Elizabeth was still at home. "Such a queer, unaffectionate girl," Miss Thornley said when she had gone.

Miss Thornley had decided to spend a holiday in Harrogate. She had offered to take Elizabeth with her, but the Selby's invitation had come as a relief, for though she was firm in her determination to do her duty to the end, she much preferred her own company.

"Have you all the clothes you will need?" she asked. "Plenty of tweeds and washing frocks— for those are what you will wear most often in the country. And about trains—"

Elizabeth said a little shyly that Roy Selby had offered to drive her down.

"If you don't mind," she added.

"Mind!" Miss Thornley looked mildly astonished. "Why should I mind? I like Roy Selby." And then, to Elizabeth's amazement, she spoke of Kim Lawless. "Was he at the dance the other night?"

"Yes."

"I thought so." Miss Thornley looked complacent. "That's why Penelope refused to go I suppose. What did you think of him, Elizabeth?"

"I danced with him only once," Elizabeth answered.

"Well," Miss Thornley sighed, "I always liked him, whatever his faults may have been. I don't know the truth about his engagement to Penelope and I have never asked any questions, but I think that she was probably to blame. Still, it's over and done with. It seems a pity, well—Penelope has her career. Let us hope that will not be another disappointment."

"I think her vocie is beautiful," Elizabeth said warmly.

"Many people have beautiful voices," her aunt answered. "But it needs more than that—it needs the touch of genius to bring fame; it needs personality, too—all the great singers have had personality, and sympathy, but Penelope seems to be a little hard, or that may be just a pose. One can never tell."

So Roy Selby duly called for Elizabeth, and they drove away together.

"It's a bit out of the way," he told her. "But it's the prettiest route, and there's no hurry. Mater and the rest of the family went down yesterday, and Lawless comes to-morrow."

He glanced down at her, thinking how beautiful she was, wondering whether she could ever— some day—learn to care for him.

He had always been inclined to laugh at sentiment and at other fellows who fell in love and "mooned about" after a girl; but now it was his turn, and he felt a little ashamed of the merciless way he had chaffed his friends and held them up to ridicule.

Elizabeth was so sweet. Even to his unpoetical mind she was like a delicate flower which one only longed to protect and was half afraid to touch.

But his eloquence could find nothing better to say than:

"It's ripping to think we shall be together for the next fortnight. I hope you'll like the house. It's a queer, old-fashioned place. It's supposed to have a family ghost, too. People say they've seen our pet spook wandering about the corridors—at midnight, of course."

"A woman?" Elizabeth asked, her eyes wide open with interest. But Roy shook his head.

"No; it's a dog. But it's only supposed to appear when someone in the house is about to meet with tragedy or make a lifelong mistake or some such tosh."

He laughed, but Elizabeth said seriously:

"A dog! I think that's rather beautiful, because dogs are such understanding creatures."

Roy had spoken truthfully when he described the house as an old-fashioned place.

"It looks older than Narrow Lane Hall," Elizabeth said when they turned into the drive. "But not so big," she added, eagerly scanning the rugged face of the house, with its tall, knotted chimneys and crooked gables.

"No wonder it's called High Chimneys," she said.

"Supposed to be Elizabethan." Roy answered carelessly. "The inside is old enough, anyway — two stairs up and two stairs down in most unexpected places. And there's a secret room—only everyone knows where it is—and the ghost."

"What do they call the ghost?" she asked interestedly.

He shook his head.

"I suppose it had a name once," he admitted. "But Barbara and I have christened it 'Bingo.' I don't know why."

Elizabeth laughed.

"Poor Bingo!" she said.

(To Be Continued)

Rugs are REALLY CLEAN
WHEN MODERN DOES THE JOB

First Aid in your Fall Cleaning comes from MODERN. For we take on your hardest task, and do the job thoroughly. Our plant is equipped to handle perfectly your finest rug and each process in our method beautifies and preserves its fabric. Let us remove Summer's grime before it injures the texture of your rug.

MODERN Cleaners and Dyers
PHONE 2277 PINNACLE at STATION STREET

COULDN'T SLEEP COULDN'T WORK

What a relief to settle down to a real night's rest, and awake fully refreshed, ready for the day's duties. I was tortured by fretful nights—tossing, turning—never comfortable. Half awake days —over-tired, driving body and mind to work when they needed rest. "Try Dodd's Kidney Pills," said a friend— "it may be your kidneys". I'm glad I followed his advice as now I'm sleeping like a top—thanks to 111

Dodd's Kidney Pills

The Happy Young Mother

Long before the arrival of baby she began to fortify her body by enriching the blood and building up the vigor of the nervous system. This was to enable her to withstand the strain she had anticipated and to supply abundant nourishment for her child. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has long been known for its benefit to women under these circumstances, and she proved it to be most helpful in her case, both before and after baby's coming.

The addition of Vitamin B1 to the formula of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has made it more effective than ever as a preventive of many of the discomforts preceding childbirth as well as in recovering strength and vigor afterwards.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food FOR NEW PEP AND ENERGY

USE GREAT WAR

(Continued From Page One)

Peri a mile and a half within Germany, was the starting point of a German counter-offensive up the Moselle valley last Sunday in which the French were forced to give up some 500 yards of German territory.

Move Up Reinforcements

The French moved up reinforcements, these advices said, under fire from heavy German guns in the rear.

Saarbruecken, industrial centre of Germany's Saar valley, was reported surrounded by French forces. French guns were said to dominate the area forcing to a standstill mining operations which supply a considerable percentage of the coal, coke and iron needed for the German war machine.

But French dispatches acknowledged progress has been difficult, Every conquered position has been taken first by a tank crew, they said, and has had to be widened and protected on all flanks before it has been possible to move men up.

Planes Very Active

German artillery constantly sought to break up French rear-guard convoys and yesterday the Germans introduced low-flying aerial attack. French pursuit planes, however, fought off the German ships. The French described their losses as slight and the enemy's as "heavy."

Military observers here saw a two-fold objective in the German tactics: First, to extract as heavy losses as possible before the French are able to reach more formidable main Siegfried Line in large bodies and, second, to delay the French advance in the hope that a decisive blow soon may be delivered to Poland in the east.

Morale of Troops High

Military observers paid tribute to the morale of the French troops operating from entrenched positions in the face of German infantry crossing the Nied river valley area, a new salient on the western front.

They said the troops held their positions against the charge and against blasting fire from German mortars and long-range guns.

Northeast of Sierck, in German territory, the French were reported to have captured a small wood which had been under German fire for five days. They were said to be holding consolidated positions gained after a temporary withdrawal and a later recovery of the disputed terrain.

KUTNO WARSAW

(Continued From Page One)

In government circles it was said Germany might take a part in meditation between Russia and Japan.

At Brest-Litovsk, 100 miles east of Warsaw, where Germany in the first great war imposed a peace on Russia which was later swept aside by the Versailles Treaty, an East Prussian army was pressing down from the north.

Face Fierce Battle

Brest-Litovsk is defended by a line of permanent fortifications and the Germans face a fierce battle for its possession. Dispatches from the front today, however, said the East Prussian army had taken some of the outer defences.

Outside of these operations, the Polish campaign appeared to be developing into a chase to the southeast, where the Russian and Rumanian borders come together.

German forces were reported close to Lwow, capital of the Polish Ukraine.

News and military dispatches reaching Berlin described the flight of Polish officials, diplomats, refugees and even some soldiers over the Rumanian border.

Official Germany meanwhile remained amost completely silent about the war in the west. The average German knew there was bitter fighting in Poland and was aware of the British blockade in the North Sea, but was relatively uninformed on other phases of the war.

No Mention Made

Nazi communiques did not mention activity along the Siegfried Line.

Nevertheless Germany was fighting actively on the diplomatic, economic and propaganda fronts.

In the field of diplomacy informed sources say Germany has been successful in persuading Rumania to remain neutral. Another diplomatic success from the German viewpoint was the apparently increasing friendliness of Soviet Russia.

Talk of possible peace efforts by Premier Mussolini was given impetus by the return to Berlin of the Italian Ambassador, Bernardo Attolico, who earlier in the week made a flying visit to Rome after conferring with the Nazi State Secretary, Baron Ernest Von Weizsaecker.

No Hope For Success

Some diplomats expressed belief "something is in the wind," but saw small hope for success of any peace move at present.

On the economic front, the Reich was taking measures in an attempt to offset the British blockade.

Some military leaders argued that with the acquisition of the Polish mining region, Germany becomes Europe's greatest coal producer.

With Polish naval resistance shattered, they said, the Baltic was fast becoming a German lake over which essential ores might be brought in from the Northern States and the blockade, consequently, could be no major disaster.

SEN. McLENNAN

(Continued From Page One)

Senator McLennan was born in Montreal, Nov. 5, 1853, son of Hugh McLennan. He was educated at Montreal High School and at McGill University, where he won the degree of LLD., and at Trinity College, Cambridge, England, where he was a gold medallist.

Once In Grain Business

First business venture of Senator McLennan was in his father's grain firm in Montreal, but he went to the Cape Breton coal fields a little later and watched the rapid rise of the coal and steel industry there. He was first General Manager of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company in 1899, and the next year retired for a time. Senator McLennan next purchased the Sydney Post in 1904, and in 1933 it was merged with its rival, the Sydney Record, to become the Sydney Post-Record. He was called to the Senate in 1916.

A keen historical student, Senator McLennan was an authority on the old French fortress at Louisburg, N.S. His writings earned him a Fellowship in the Royal Society of Canada and the Royal Historical Society of England.

Other surviving children include John S. McLennan, Jr., and Mrs. H. E. Kendall, Windsor, N.S. Another son, Hugh, was killed in action at Ypres in 1915. Senator McLennan's first wife was the former Louise Bradley, Chicago, who died in 1912. In 1915 he married Grace Henop, widow of R. de P. Tytus, Berkshire County, Mass. His second wife died in 1924.

CANADA'S ENVOY

(Continued From Page One)

U S Post in Canada Untenanted

Education for the legal profession at Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S., and Harvard University, Mr. Christie was admitted to the Nova Scotia bar. He became legal advisor to the External Affairs Department here in 1913. In 1923 he left the government service for legal and financial work in London, England; Montreal and Toronto before rejoining the External Affairs Department in 1935 as counsellor.

Mr. Christie was closely associated with the late Sir Robert Laird Borden, war-time Prime Prime Minister of Canada, throughout the first Great War, and later attended the Imperial War Conferences, the Paris Peace Conference, and the Washington Conference for limitation of armaments in 1921-1922.

FOREIGN TRADE

(Continued From Page One)

In addition to Mr. Towers, the board is composed of Dr. W. C. Clark, Deputy Finance Minister; H. D. Scully, Commissioner of Customs; L. D. Wilgress, Director of Commercial Intelligence, Trade and Commerce Department; and N. A. Robertson, First Secretary, Department of External Affairs.

Licences Must be Obtained

Under the new regulations licences must be obtained for the export and import of goods of all kinds, including money and securities.

Main objects of the export control measure were set forth in the statement as being "to conserve supplies for the use of this country and allied countries and to prevent exports from this country reaching the enemy either directly or indirectly."

Control of exports will enable the board to ensure that the foreign exchange requirements of imports are based on normal commercial transactions.

Explaining that the government had decided a policy of foreign exchange control was essential under present war time conditions to make sure the country's foreign exchange resources are used in the national interest, the Minister said.

Statement Issued

"The use of Canadian money for speculation abroad or for other purposes which cannot be regarded as necessary or desirable, would be bound to hamper Canada's war efforts and should therefore be prevented.

"Such policy does not involve interference with legitimate commercial transactions nor with acquisition of funds required for servicing our foreign debt."

Provision is made so that small transactions of an ordinary nature, and the normal possessions of tourists crossing into and out of Canada, shall not be subject to the formalities and restrictions involved in larger dealings.

Must Register Exchange

Holders of foreign exchange or securities will be required to register them with the board if the amount is in excess of $1,000.

The public is warned that those sending articles out of Canada by mail should take them to the post-office. If dropped in a mail box they are subject to seizure in the absence of evidence a licence has been issued or that the shipment is exempt.

Licences for import and export of goods, and for import of securities and other property may be obtained from customs officers while licences for export of currency, securities and foreign exchange may be obtained through authorized dealers only.

Provision has been made for full information on the new regulations to be obtainable from authorized dealers and customs officers, and from the Bank of Canada which will act as technical adviser to the board and its agent and banker to deal in foreign exchange on its behalf.

If in Doubt Board Decides

Applications to authorized dealers for foreign exchange may be dealt with by the dealer only if in his opinion it is for normal requirements. Otherwise the application must be submitted to the board.

Normal requirements mean for goods to be imported within the normal scope of the applicant's business, payment for normal services, and exchange for reasonable travelling expenses.

Exporters making regular shipments of a kind that it would be difficult to obtain a particular licence for in advance of each export, may obtain the board a general licence subject to a declaration being made subsequently as to each exportation.

Export and import restrictions will not apply to goods shipped before the coming into effect of the regulations, that is prior to Sept. 16, 1939.

POLISH DEFENDERS

(Continued From Page One)

Lose Some Artillery

French reports said heavy German attacks were repulsed at Vola, a Warsaw suburb, with the loss of some artillery and mechanized equipment. Other foreign sources reported Polish gains but there was no further confirmation of the dispatches.

Hungarian reports said there was little aerial raiding over Warsaw and Lwow. They said most German air activity was confined to scouting operations.

The Hungarian news agency declared German forces attacking Lwow, Poland's third largest city, had been beaten back with the loss of 10 tanks and 10 armored cars while Polish aircraft brought down several German planes.

The Polish telegraph agency quoted a Polish army major as saying the Germans had not been able to destroy important military objectives around Lwow. The agency declared the Poles had captured 13,000 men and 350 officers, mostly aviators, 48 guns, 215 machine guns, 170 tanks, 1,000 armored cars and 280 planes.

Must Submit to Surveillance

CERNAUTI, Rumania, Sept. 16—(AP)—Rumanian diplomatic authorities crossed into Poland today to notify President Ignace Moscicki and the Polish government that if they chose to flee to this country they must submit to constant surveillance.

At the same time many foreign diplomats who came here last night with their families and staffs returned to the Polish government seat at Zaleszczyki, presumably for the day only.

Large numbers of Polish child refugees arrived here under supervision of Polish diplomatic authorities.

An unconfirmed report persisted here, despite denials from the Polish legation, that Moscicki already had crossed the frontier secretly, but there were no signs of such a move.

Another report was circulated that the British government asked Rumania to allow 45,000 Polish Jews to pass through the country to Palestine. This report said the British government had agreed to allow them to enter Palestine. It could not be verified immediately.

RECORD NUMBER

(Continued From Page One)

Gaol accommodations were overtaxed by the large increase last year, Mr. Neelands reported, but sanitary conditions remained "reasonably good." The new 75-bed building at the Mimico reformatory was used for the first time and a new 300-bed dormitory at Burwash was placed in immediate use as soon as it was completed. The experimental farm at Monteith, in northern Ontario, was transformed into a prison farm.

Capita Cost Down

The report said the average per capita cost was $1.352 a day as compared with $1.5820 a day during the previous year. Ordinary expenditure was listed as $1,736,391.25, an increase of $50,162.22 over 1937-38, while ordinarily revenue was reported at $929,860.35, an increase of $87,337.94 over the preceding year.

U-BOATS BLAMED

(Continued From Page One)

"This is the first time that the authorities have alluded publicly to the success of operations against the submarine menace," the Daily Sketch said. "Even now the claim is modest enough, but reading between the lines we can see that already within a fortnight from the beginning of the war the U-boat as a weapon has been paralyzed."

News on the activities of the army and air force continued to be scanty. So far all that has been announced officially is that British troops have landed in France and that the air force is operating from French soil.

Organization Rapid

The Ministry of Information disclosed that military organization is progressing "much faster" than in 1914 and that mobilization of the Nation's industries for a long war is proceeding rapidly.

It also was disclosed, in line with Britain's war time policy of detaining merchant ships to search for contraband cargo, that 70 vessels are being held under guard off the southeast coast.

In recognition of the fact that modern warfare takes its toll from the civil population as well as soldiers, the British government intends to broaden the scope of its pensions wounded as result of operations of a military character.

Pensions or temporary payments have already been made to crew members of the torpedoed liner Athenia and other British ships sunk by the Germans.

Picton

Picton, Sept. 15—There has been a splendid response to the call for recruits for Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, and in keeping with this response is the activity noted among organizations who are ready and eager to swing into war work.

At their meeting this week, the Sir Thomas Picton Chapter of the I.O.D.E. made plans to hold a golf day on Saturday of next week, Sept. 23, when new clothing and blankets will be received. These are to be sent to England for use by children who have been evacuated from London and other large centres. There is said to be a great need for these articles and a generous response is anticipated. All organizations in town and county have been requested to co-operate. This is the main project of the Order in Ontario at the present time. Mrs. Gerald Allison, Regent, presided at the meeting, and on the 23rd a tea will be held at the premises of the former A. and P. Store, at which time the donations will be received.

The girl students at Picton Collegiate and Vocational Institute have written to the Canadian Red Cross offering their services in any capacity and are awaiting word before organizing an active unit in the school.

As a result of the war, cadet training is to be carried on at Picton Collegiate and Vocational Institute. It is some years since this type of training was carried on. While drills have been held, the boys have as yet received no uniforms. Those which were used in years past are now in too poor a condition for use and the school board is taking up the matter of securing new ones. The boys are enthusiastic over the training.

The Picton branch of the Canadian Legion is doing everything possible to aid the regiment. They have offered the use of their club rooms to the two local companies as a recreation centre. It will be suitably fitted up. They are also offering honorary memberships in the Legion to all recruits. This will give them all the privileges enjoyed by Legion members wherever they may be.

Mrs. Winston C. Hicks is entertaining at a miscellaneous shower on Friday evening in honor of Miss Dorothy Leavens, whose marriage to George Henry Dickie, of Toronto, takes place here on Saturday evening. Many lovely gifts were presented to the bride-to-be and a social time was spent. Earlier in the week, Mrs. (Rev.) Allan Anderson entertained in honor of Miss Leavens at the Rectory at Milford.

There are now 230 pupils registered at Picton Collegiate and Vocational Institute. This number will be increased, according to Principal Andoff, at the end of the term when those who are working in factories or helping on farms, return to classes.

Recruits continue to apply at Picton armouries and the streets of the town take on a military atmosphere, as the men are required to wear their uniforms at all times in public. Lieut. Arthur Norrington of Trenton has been moved to Picton and will act as Adjutant to Lt.-Col. Sherman Young, Officer Commanding the regiment. Picton town council held a special session this week and is offering the use of the market building and the former town hall to the regiment as barracks. It is hoped to have the men remain in Picton for winter training.

Plans are being made for the graduation exercises of Prince Edward County Hospital, which will take place in Picton United Church. There will be five graduates, Misses M. Wager, B. McCulloch, L. Dawe, A. Palmer and Theda Jones.

The fall activities of the Mission church got under way today (Friday) when the Mothers meeting held its first gathering. Mrs. C. Ball, the deaconess, is in charge of the work at the Mission, and the regular classes for juniors will begin on Monday.

Miss Margaret Cahoon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cahoon, has entered the Woman's College Street Hospital in Toronto, where she will take a nurses' training course.

The executive of the Woman's Association of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. D. F. VanDusen, Thursday evening to make plans for the fall and winter months.

Miss Fannie Jex has returned to Montreal after being a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Browne.

Mrs. Richard Hadden arrived home from Regina today (Friday) where she attended the wedding of her daughter, Kathryn, to Dr. Geo. Currie, son of Dr. and Mrs. Morley Currie of Picton. The ceremony took place in Westminster United Church in Regina. The groom has joined a medical corps in Regina.

The staffs of the Canadian Department Stores of the district held a wiener roast at the Sandbanks on Wednesday evening, and enjoyed a very happy time around the fire.

Mrs. Criverley of Belleville, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Foster.

"I am now living on borrowed time, but I want to live long enough to see what happens to Hitler", said James Dainard of Milford, who on Saturday, with Mrs. Dainard, will mark the 52nd anniversary of their wedding. He is 72 years of age and still continues to operate his own eighty acre farm. "I have no doubt as to the result of this war and am confident that the principles for which we are fighting will triumph. As a farmer I am ready to do all I can to help win."

Mr. and Mrs. Dainard were married in Picton by Rev. Ostrom and have spent all their lives in Prince Edward County with the exception of twenty years spent on a farm in the Trenton district. Mrs. Dainard who is 69, was formerly Emma Clapp, and she is recovering from the effects of a stroke suffered five years ago. They have a family of three children living. Percy of Trenton, Mrs. Herb Jeffrey of Milford and John of Picton.

They plan to observe the anniversary very quietly. "I am too busy on the farm these day to take time off for a real celebration," Mr. Dainard stated.

Hamilton Mourns At the Funeral of Margaret Hayworth

10 - Year - Old Girl Was Victim of the Torpedoing of Athenia

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 16 (CP)—This city mourned today at the funeral of a 10-year-old girl whose death following the torpedoing of the liner Athenia has been represented as a symbol of Nazi warfare of civilians.

Margaret Hayworth became a figure of nationwide importance in death—the first victim of the second Great War to be buried in Canadian soil.

Premier Hepburn of Ontario, members of his cabinet, Mayor William Morrison of Hamilton and many Federal and Municipal officials attended the funeral. Absent was Margaret's younger sister, Jacqueline, who was saved after a torpedo from a German submarine struck the passenger ship in the North Atlantic. Jacqueline was taken aboard another rescue vessel and is in Aberdeen, Scotland with her grandparents.

Mrs. John Hayworth was aboard the Athenia with her two daughters when the torpedo struck.

After she and he. injured daughter Margaret were taken aboard the City of Flint, Mrs. Hayward learned that Jacqueline was safe on another boat. Margaret died of her injuries on the city of Flint.

Local Schools to Observe Minute's Silence

Flags of all schools in the city are flying at half-staff and on Monday one minute's silence will be observed in class rooms in memory of Margaret Hayworth, 10-year-old Hamilton resident, a victim of the sunken liner Athenia.

27 DEATHS IN U. S. HEAT WAVE

Record - Breaking September Wave Broken as Cooling Winds Advance

Chicago, Sept. 16—(AP)—The United States middlewest counted 27 dead today from its record-breaking September heat wave as cooling winds advancing from the northwest promised relief.

For the fourth consecutive day the mercury yesterday pushed beyond the 100-degree mark over a wide area. Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and Arkansas all reported 100 plus temperatures.

After smashing midwest records in wholesale quantities, the heat wave slowly rolled eastward. A reading of 93 broke September 15 records at Northfield, Vt. yesterday. Boston's 90 was only three degrees under the season's maximum.

Scores of schools were dismissed again yesterday because of the blistering heat. Many high school football games were postponed.

In northwest Missouri hot winds tore millions of apples from trees, making them unfit for anything except vinegar.

Oklahoma suffered one of its worst fall droughts in history. Some towns were on emergency water rations.

JOHN L. SMITH IS FOUND DEAD

Gilmour Farmer Found on Barn Floor With Rifle by Side

With a bullet wound in his right temple and a twenty-five calibre rifle lying on the floor nearby, the dead body of John Leslie Smith, seventy-four-year old Gilmour farmer, was discovered in his barn late last night.

The body was discovered by Clayton Smith, and Almen Moore, son and son-in-law of the dead man. The elderly farmer, whose wife died last March, has been despondent since her death, relatives told investigating police. He had wandered away from his home where he lived alone, for approximately twenty-four hours and his failure to return caused relatives to organize a search-party.

Coroner Dr. R. Nickle, of Eldorado decided that ni inquest would be held following his investigating of the circumstances. The official investigation of the accident was conducted by Provincial Police constable A. Dymond and Special Provincial Police Constable Herbert Howe of Madoc.

HOUSEWIVES START BUYING OF HONEY

Apiarists of the district today reported the first heavy buying of honey by housewives who have turned to this product to replace sugar in Fall preserving. A fair supply of the honey is on hand, and the present season has been a fairly productive one, according to a local supply house.

Thurlow Twp. School Fair

The excellent records established by the School Children of other Townships were equalled by the pupils of Thurlow Township as competitors representing fourteen school sections gathered for their Annual Fair held on Friday, Sept. 15th at Cannifton School. A hard-working staff of competent judges and assistants found the exhibits remarkably close on all scoring points and rating high with those of other townships. School children gaining experience in showmanship with the passing of each year are becoming excellent judges of quality in every class and entering only the best available creates an equality that makes judging a real task. Thurlow Fair enjoyed the warmest weather experienced since the fairs began little more than a week ago and the fine weather increased the attendance over all previous years.

Cancellation of the usual championship fair held formerly to establish County Championship has so far not effected the attendance or entries of the local fairs and interest is apparently higher than previously. Listed below are the prize-winners in the various competitive classes with the numbers following each name being that of the school section represented.

PRIZE WINNERS

Grain and Seeds

Oats, Alaska, 1 quart—Wallace Reid, 9; Gerald Eggleton 7; Orval MacDonald 1.

Oats, Alaska, sheaf—Gerald Eggleton 7; Wallace Reid 9.

Oats, Open Class, any variety, 1 quart—Keith Hicks 16; Ray Wedden 16; Douglas Ross 9; Roscoe Moorman 12 and 14; Rita Christie 12 and 14; Arthur Hamilton 7.

Barley, Nobarb, 1 quart—Arthur Hamilton 7.

Barley, Open Class, 1 quart—Rita Christie, 12 and 14; Allan Lott 16; Roscoe Sine 15; Irene Sine 15; Mary Hamilton 7.

Spring Wheat, Mindum, 1 quart—Goldie Reid 9; Howard Elliott 17.

Spring Wheat, Sheaf—Lorne Elliott 17; Goldie Reid 9; Franklin R. Hazard 17.

Open Class Wheat—Mary Hamilton 7; Rita Christie 12 and 14; Garnald Peacock 12 and 14; Norman Ritz 11; Roscoe Sine 15; Irene Sine 15.

Field Corn, Longfellow, 6 ears husked—Jack Clarke 18; Douglas Sills 15; Roscoe Moorman 12 and 14.

Field Corn, Longfellow, Stalks—Jack Clarke 18; Douglas Sills 15.

Sweet Corn, Golden Sunshine, Husked—Norma Ritz 11; Bruce McMaster 19; Ann Marie McCullough 12 and 14; Albert Grills 3; Walter Elliott 17; Ross Pound 6.

Soybeans O.A.C. No. 211. 1 pint—Keith Harrison 19; Lyle Walker 7; Dorothy Reid 12 and 14.

Field Peas, O.A.C. 191, 1 pint—Marie O'Neill 1; Goldie Reid 9; Phyllis Walker 7.

Roots and Vegetables

Potatoes, Dooleys—Cecil Grills 3; Gerrard Boisvert 12 and 14; Donald Bates 19; George Clare 23.

Potatoes, Irish Cobblers—Rita Christie 12 and 14; Glenn Wyatt 23; Georgina Huffman 23; Glen Bradshaw 1; Irene Sine 15; Lois Bradshaw 1.

Potatoes, Green Mountain—Glenn Bradshaw 1.

Turnips for Feed—Roscoe Sine 15; Garnald Peacock 12 and 14; Bessie Summers 1; Roscoe Moorman 12 and 14; Allan Lott 16.

Mangels, Yellow Intermediate—Irene Sine 15; Garnet Mitchel 4; Earl Lattone 9; Ray Wedden 16; Cecil Grills 3; Verna Brown 1.

Turnips, Canadian Gem—Hilda Howes 9; Harold O'Neill 1; Isobel McCullough 12 and 14; Douglas Cronkwright 15.

Beets, Detroit Dark Red—Bill Sharpe 6; Beatrice Gannon 6; Ruth McMullen 15; Douglas Clarke 23; Bobby Ketcheson 12 and 14; Isobel Elliott 17.

Carrots, Chantenay—Annie Boisvert, 12 and 14; Isobel McCullough 12 and 14; Luella Homan 9; Myrtle Tearne 6; Dorothy Goodfellow 9; Margaret Harrison 19.

Onions, Yellow Globe Danvers—Walter Bradshaw 1; Robt. Atkins 3; Wilma Swan 23; June Sills 19; Earl Grills 3; Jean Lattone 9.

Parsnips, Hollow Crown—Barbara Simmons 18; Verna Carleton 17; Roscoe Moorman 12 and 14; Ronnie Grey 19; Howard Elliott 17.

Pumpkins, Sugar Pie—Garnet Latchford 23; Morris Bradshaw 1; Rhea McCullough 12 and 14; Percy Latchford 12 and 14; Isobel Bates 19; Harvey Putman 6.

Squash, Hubbard—Vernon Bradshaw 1; Donna Sills 7; Roscoe Sine 15; Arthur Clarke 12 and 14.

Flowers and Plants

Asters, 4 blooms—Ann Marie McCullough 12 and 14; Howard Elliott 17; Joseph Chisholm 19; Carl Spencer 12 and 14; Glenn Bradshaw 1; Arthur Barry 6.

Zinnia, 6 blooms—Rita Christie 12 and 14; Bessie Sills 15; Glenn Priest 12 and 14; Lorne Elliott 17; Hazel Prindle 17; Bruce Cassibo 12 and 14.

Nasturtium, 6 blooms—Barbara Simmons 18; Percy Priest 12 and 14; Luella Homan 19; Jean Howes 19; Donald Sills 19; Helen Johnson 12 and 14.

Calendula, 6 blooms—Douglas Sills 5; Jack Stewart 12 and 14; Rhea McCullough 12 and 14; Douglas Yorke 23; Ferne Easton 7; Elsie Walker 7.

Cosmos, 6 sprays—Keith Harrison 19; June Sills 19; Muriel Homan 9; Albert Grills 3; Dorothy MacDonald 1; Bessie Summers 1.

Coreopsis, 10 blooms—Margaret Summers 1; Marie O'Neill 1; Dorothy Reid 12 and 14; Phyllis Walker 7.

Helichrysum 10 blooms—Cecil Grills 3; Bobbie Gay 12 and 14; Vernon Bradshaw 1; Arthur Hamilton 7.

Snapdragon—Morris Bradshaw 1; Hilda Howes 9; Isobel Atkins 3; Isobel McCullough 12 and 14; Betty Elder 12 and 14; Dorothy Sills 15; Norman Ritz 11; Dorothy Howes 19; Ronald Grey 19; Gerrard Boisvert 12 and 14; Irene Sine 15; Joseph McDonnell 12 and 14.

Open Class, Any Flower—Rita Christie 12 and 14; Glenn Priest 12 and 14; Rhea McCullough 12 and 14; Ann Marie McCullough 12 and 14; Foxboro School 12 and 14; Douglas Yorke 23.

Poultry

Barred Plymouth Rock Cockerel—Douglas Ross 9; Billie Leeming 3; Lorne Dougherty 3; Marilyn Eggleton 7; Howard Elliott 17; Gerald Eggleton 7.

Barred Plymouth Rock Pullet—Douglas Ross 9; Lorne Dougherty 3; Franklin Pope 6; Gerald Eggleton 7; Cecil Grills 3; Howard Elliott 17.

White Leghorn Cockerel—Lorne Elliott 17; Roscoe Sine 15; Garnet Mitchell 4; Beulah Wellman 4; Arthur Hamilton 7; Luella Homan 9.

White Leghorn, Pullet—Greta Martyn 15; Beulah Wellman 4; Bernice Wellman 4; Donald Leeming 3; Garnet Mitchell 4; Walter Elliott 17.

Livestock

Livestock Parade—Rita Martyn 15; Frank Pape 6; George Matthews 6; Bill Matthews 6; Carl Haynes 9; Reuben Gannon 6; Beatrice Gannon 6; Roy Boyce 6; Lloyd Greatrix 4; Betty Wellman 4.

Calf, Dairy Type—Rita Martyn 15; Frank Pope 6; Carl Haynes 9; Bill Matthews 6; George Matthews 6.

Calf, Beef Type—Roy Boyce 6; Reuben Gannon 6; Beatrice Gannon 6.

Showmanship—Carl Haynes 9; Rita Martyn 15; Frank Pope 6; Beatrice Gannon 6; Reuben Gannon 6; Bill Matthews 6.

Market Lamb—Betty Wellman 4; Lloyd Greatrix 4; George Matthews 6; Bill Matthews 6.

Showmanship—Lloyd Greatrix 4; Betty Wellman 4; Bill Matthews 6; George Matthews 6.

Apples and Fruits

Apples, Wealthy—Keith Hicks 16; Ray Wedden 16.

Apples, McIntosh Reds—Garth McCreary 17; Earl Grey 12 and 14; Billie Watt 12 and 14; Betty Ray 16; Irene Sine 15; Lois Bradshaw 1.

Apple Collection—Ray Wedden 16; Keith Hicks 16; Rita Christie 12 and 14; Hilda Howes 9; Norma Dunlay 9; Garnet Latchford 23.

Tomatoes—Harvey Hornan 9; Ethel Fox 9; Betty Wellman 4; Gerrard Bosvert 12 and 14; Ruth Reid 19; Lloyd Greatrix 4.

Contests

Recitation from Reader—Marlin Eggleton 7; Isobel McCullough 12 and 14; Lois Bradshaw 1; Dorothy Goodfellow 9; Franklin Hazard 17; Douglas Yorke 23.

Girls Public Speaking Contest—Rhea McCullough 12 and 14; Marjorie Outwater 17.

Boys Public Speaking Contest—Carl Spencer 12 and 14; Garth McCreary 17.

Boys and Girls Naming Contest—Rita Christie 12 and 14; Carl Haynes 9; Gwen Ray 16; Mary Emerson 16; Glenn Priest 12 and 14; Rhea McCullough 12 and 14.

Boys and Girls Vegetables Judging Contest—Rita Christie 12 and 14; Walter Elliott 17; Carl Haines 9; Rhea McCullough 12 and 14; Jean Lattone 9; Ethel Fox 9.

Boys and Girls Grain Bag Patching—Rita Christie 12 and 14; Betty Hodgen 12 and 14.

Schools taking advantage of the display project included School Sections 19, 11, 12 and 14, 23, 6, 3, 9, 15, 1, 16, 7, 17. Winners in the School Chorus Competition were School Sections 19, 4, 12 and 14, gaining first, second and third respectively. All fourteen schools took part in the colorful school parade in the following order—1, 3, 4, 7, 9, 11, 6, 12, 19, 15, 18, 16, 17 and 23.

Survey to Be Made of Womanpower Available For National Service

Toronto, Sept. 16—(CP)—Within the next few months a census of Canada's womanpower available for national service will be completed, Mrs. Joshua Smith, National Chairman of Publicity for the Voluntary Registration of Canadian Women said Friday.

Two million questionnaires are being printed and will be distributed in a Dominion-wide voluntary registration of women from 16 to 65 years of age as soon as provincial organization is completed.

Registration of women's qualifications in times of national emergency through V. R. C. W. booths will in no way interfere with any proposed Dominion Government's national registration scheme, Mrs. Smith said.

TRANSIENT'S PLEA PRODUCES RESULTS

A new dodge for the extraction of transitory alms from the tender-hearted pedestrian was observed on Front Street this morning.

A seedy-appearing transient, lurking in a downtown doorway, made brief sorties into the crowd at the appearance of likely-looking "touches" and put the following tearful plea:

"Buddy, I'm trying hard to get back to my old outfit at Halifax to enlist. I have to hitch-hike my way along and get pretty hungry at times. Could you spare a quarter?"

It was noticeable that the transient did not approach any citizen who might question him regarding previous service with any Canadian unit.

GRAIN SHIPPING BY WATER HEAVY

Many Boats Laid Up for Winter Being Put in Service Again

Toronto, Sept. 16 (CP)—Grain shipping on the Great Lakes is humming along at a lively clip but traders here say that next month, if Great Britain has its naval convoy system in operation, there should be a boom in such activity.

Reports from Canadian ports on the lakes indicate that harbors virtually have been cleared of idle ships as wheat is being transported to eastern terminals for export. Whether the movement is greatly accelerated depends in part on the action taken by the central buying agency for the United Kingdom after the convoy system starts functioning.

During the last week five ships of the Canada Steamship Line, part of the fleet tied up in Kingston harbor for some months, have been placed in service again. Eight more boats are still tied up there, and unless the movement of grain is extraordinary they will not be put into use.

During the last part of August and the first week of September grain ships cleared out of Sarnia, Port Dalhousie, Owen Sound, and Port Colborne to engage in the grain trade. There are no idle ships in any of these ports.

NEUTRALITY COSTS $1,130,000 A DAY

Switzerland's Soldiers Urged to Economize on Gasoline and Oil

Berne, Switzerland, Sept. 16—(AP)—Frugal Swiss, holding shut the neutral side-door to French and German battle lines, learned with shock today that their general mobilization is costing about 5,000,000 Swiss francs ($1,130,000) a day.

Along with publication of this estimate, an order of the day entitled "Economy of a Soldier's Duty" was issued by General Henri Guisan, the gentleman farmer who heads Switzerland's 400,000 citizen soldiers.

Guisan urged soldiers to economize o ngasoline and oil, to take no unnecessary train trips and to throw away nothing which might be of possible use in civilian or military life.

Guisan acknowledged that continued mobilization was a strain on the economy of a nation whose total debt, including cantonal obligations, is about 8,000,000 Swiss francs ($1,806,000,000). Although the Swiss have 116.3 per cent gold coverage of their currency in circulation, which is the envy of most of the world, a long European war might be ruinous to Swiss economy.

Switzerland, like Belgium and The Netherlands is operating on the principle a weak nation these days is an open invitation for molestation by stronger powers.

Geographically, Switzerland looks like a convenient side route around the south ends of the French Maginot and German Siegried Lines. The Basel region, however, bristles with fortifications and is teeming with crack sharpshooters of the Swiss citizen army.

Doom of Hitler Seen in Polish Resistance

London, Sept. 16 (CP)—Poland's staunch resistance is spelling "the doom of Hitler and his satellite thugs," the Evening News said today.

"The Poles today are doing what the Belgians did in 1914—putting up a terrific fight against overwhelming odds, a fight in which every advantage is enormously with the Germans," the newspaper said.

"The Poles have the virtues of courage and endurance. These cannot prevail in the field indefinitely against the weight of men and metal. Nevertheless, they can, they did in 1914 and are doing so at the moment, make all the difference between a quick, dazzling German victory and a check in the time-table which is always a grave matter for the German military machine."

MODERNIZING YOUR HOME

If you are planning to make any repairs or renovations to your home, you will be interested in a folder which the Bank of Montreal is distributing which gives a bird's-eye view of the Home Improvement Plan and tells you how a loan can be obtained under the Plan and by what easy instalments it can be repaid. If you will call on Mr. Dredge at the Bank of Montreal he will be glad to let you have a copy and to answer any questions about home improvement financing.

SEMI-FINAL ROUND
O. A. S. A.
PLAY-OFFS
TORONTO (Tri-Bells) vs. BELLEVILLE (Oilers)
COLEMAN FLATS — MONDAY, 5.30 p.m.
The Locals are heading for a Provincial title, come out and encourage them.

Steve Sundra, Yankee Hurler, Tops Pitchers of Both Loops By Winning Tenth Straight

Yankees Need But One Game or Boston to Lose Game to Cinch Pennant

REDS HOLD LEAD

Split Twin Bill With Giants and Cards Win Over Bees 1-0

(By Judson Bailey)

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The American League flag fuss was down to brass tacks today and New York Yankees were all set to use them to nail the pennant to the mast.

With arrangements already approved for the World Series to open in Yankee Stadium Oct. 4, the Club needs only to win from Detroit Tigers today, or Boston Red Sox to lose, to clinch New York's fourth consecutive championship.

The Bombers dropped Detroit 10-3 yesterday and Cleveland Indians massacred Boston 7-1 to increase the margin between the two teams to 16 games with exactly that number left to play.

The National League Adventure tightened slightly again as Cincinnati Reds divided a doubleheader with New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals nosed out Boston Bees 1-0 in 14 innings.

This left the pennant picture in this form:

American League

| | Won | Lost | G.B. | G.P. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| New York . . . | 97 | 41 | 11 | 16 |
| Boston . . . | 81 | 57 | 16 | 16 |
| National League | | | | |
| Cincinnati . . | 83 | 51 | .. | 20 |
| St. Louis . . | 80 | 55 | 3½ | 18x |
| Chicago . . | 77 | 63 | 9 | 14 |
| Brooklyn . . | 71 | 63 | 12 | 20 |

x—One game with New York cancelled.

Sundra Has Ten Straight

The Yankees' victory yesterday, halting a three-game slide, shoved Steve Sundra into the forefront of Major League pitchers with ten triumphs and no defeats. He spaced six hits effectively as well as bringing in one run with a double and hitting a single with the bases loaded for two others.

The Red Sox were victims of seven hit pitching by Willis Hudlin and a 15-hit offensive. Philadelphia Athletics edged out Chicago White Sox 3-2 with all their runs coming on Bob Johnson's 22nd homer with two on in the first inning. St. Louis Browns bowed over Washington 9-5 with the help of six errors by the Senators.

Continue to Hit

Cincinnati continued its recent terrific hitting in taking the first game of the doubleheader from the Giants 10-6 and running a sudden winning streak to six games. Led by Ernie Lombardi and Frank McCormick the Reds got 18 hits. But in the nightcap errors and some ineffectual pitching let New York take a lead that was good enough to win 4-3 when darkness closed in after seven innings.

Brooklyn was forced to extra lengths to beat Pittsburgh Pirates, jamming across two runs in the tenth for a 4-2 decision.

Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies split a double bill. The tail-enders crowded six runs into the third inning to take the opener 9-6 and the Cubs came back in the nightcap, 6-1 with Vance Page and Claude Passeau co-operating in a four-hit pitching show.

BLUE BOMBERS TAKE CALGARY

Third Straight Win Secured in Last Minute of Play 19-18

Winnipeg, Sept. 16 (CP)—Winnipeg Blue Bombers pointed shaky fingers at the undefeated Western Interprovincial Football Union record today and mentally awarded hardrock Greg Kabat a medal.

Kabat probably was the only cool person among $5,000 in Osborne stadium here last night as he kicked a field goal from 25 yards out with only a minute remaining to give Bombers their fourth 1939 victory, 19-18 over Calgary Bronks.

Regina Roughriders took over second place in the Union when they whipped Edmonton Eskimos 18-5 at Regina last night for their second victory. Bronks and Eskimos have won once each.

The finish here probably was the most exciting in Winnipeg grid history. Leading 18-15, Bronks were dominating play when Bombers got possession on their own 15-yard line. Andy Bieber carried the ball to the centre stripe in three plunges and, after an exchange of punts, Wayne Sheley lined a 20-yard pass to Art Stevenson on the Calgary 30.

A penalty to Bronks put the ball on their 20. After two plays Kabat stepped back to the 25 and calmly kicked a goal from an angle.

Even then Bronks refused to be beaten and Bizz Bisbing, great halfback from Mississippi, fired a 20-yard forward to Bill Wusyk. Bisbing galloped 15 yards on the next play to the Bomber 25. The tension of the game's last play required the coolness of a Kabat and Paul Rowe was wide and short with his field goal attempt.

A slim crowd at Regina saw Roughriders shake off the effects of an early Edmonton touchdown. Troy School fumbled the kick-off and Eskimos recovered 23 yards out. Bill Matheny then raced over for his team's five points.

Only twice after that did Edmonton threaten. They were halted on the Regina five-yard line by the half-time whistle and failed in a fourth-quarter attack that netted 85 yards on six plays.

AIMING FOR THEIR SECOND WINS

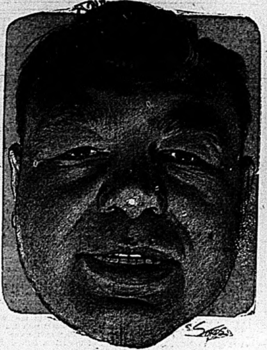
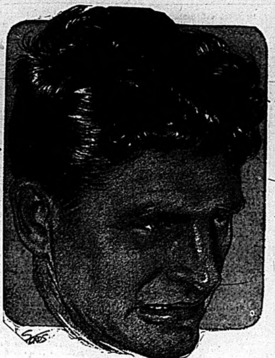
Striding over the fairways of the North Shore club at Chicago, where the U.S. amateur golf tournament is being contested, are Canada's Sandy Somerville, (LEFT), and Johnny Goodman, one of the best shot-makers across the line. Johnny won the American open at North Shore in 1933 and two years ago took the amateur title, while Somerville, whose Canadians crowns are innumerable, won the U.S. crown in 1932. He had a 71 for the first half of the 36-hole qualifying test in this year's event while Goodman posted a 70.



TONY GALENTO



LOU NOVA

The victor and the vanquished. Tony Galento (RIGHT), the roly-poly, wild-swinging fighter from Orange, N.J., who pounded out a clean cut victory over Lou Nova (LEFT), the California scrapper at Philadelphia last night. Referee Blake stopped the fight after 2.44 minutes of fighting in the 14th round, awarding the decision to Galento by a technical knockout. Galento will meet champion Joe Louis in a return bout next June, as the reward of winning last night's bout. Galento punished Nova with wild swinging blows.

JERSEY GIANTS AND THE BEARS EVEN IN SERIES

Jersey City Defeats Bears 9-4 in See-Saw Contest at Newark

ROCHESTER WINS

Buffalo Bisons Down Two Games in Their Series With Wings

(By The Associated Press)

The "big" game of the Newark-Jersey City playoff series which will send either the International Baseball League pennant winners or the fourth-place Newark Bears into the final round of the Governors' Cup struggle, comes up today.

They are all even now with two victories apiece as the result of a slugfest last night which ended in a 13-9 decision for Jersey Giants. The series is the best four out of seven games, but a triumph this afternoon will give the winner a tremendous bulge.

A day behind in the playoffs, Rochester and Buffalo, which finished second and third during the regular season, clash at Buffalo tonight in the fourth game of their series. Rochester took a 2-1 lead last night by hammering out a 5-3 victory.

The Little Giants cut loose with the kind of power that won their first pennant since 1903 in the early innings of last night's contest. They smacked Joe Beggs for four hits and as many runs in the first frame and tallied three more against Charley Cassaway in the second. But their own starter, Hy Vandenberg, also was shelled freely and finally retired in favor of Bill Harris in the fourth.

Lead Giant Attack

Glen Stewart, whose hitting has been one of the features of the playoffs, and Johnny Dickshot, league batting champion, led the Giants' attack with four hits apiece. That made an even dozen blows in four games for Stewart.

Mike Chartak did his best to keep Newark in the game with two homers but they only accounted for three tallies.

George Kurowski's hitting and Mike Ryba's pitching proved an effective combination for Rochester in a see-saw game. Ryba gave only eight hits, including a two-run homer by John Tyler, while Kurowski knocked in three important runs. Kurowski first homered in the third inning.

After Tyler's swat had given the Bisons the lead, he singled with two aboard in the seventh and went clear around to third when Tyler let the ball go through him. Three straight singles off Bill Zober produced another run in the ninth and it was Kurowski who drove it in.

Murray Canal District

Murray Canal— Mrs. B. Mabee, Brighton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fitchett.

Miss Helen Moran, Reg. N. of New York returned to her duties on Wednesday after a week's holidays with her mother Mrs. F. Moran.

Mr. R. Ireland, Mrs. B. Flindall and Edward spent a few days holiday in the State of New York last week.

A large number attended church services in Smithfield United Church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. M. McCullough spent a few days with her sister Mrs. L. Burley last week.

Miss E. Gibson entertained company from Trenton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Tripp, Trenton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Powers.

The W. A. met at the home of Mrs. R. Haggerty on Tuesday afternoon with a fair attendance.

Two-Ton Tony Galento Earns Right to Meet Louis Defeating Lou Nova in the 14th Round

Beer-Barrel Tony Always in Lead and Had Nova in Bad Way

BOTH BLEED FREELY

Nova Clipped to Canvas Twice in 14th Before Referee Stops Bout

By Gayle Talbot Associated Press Sports Writer).

Philadelphia, Sept. 16 (AP)—Tony Galento was back on top of the world again today, yelling for another chance at the heavyweight championship and likely to get it, following his bloody 14th round technical knockout of Lou Nova in Municipal Stadium.

Regarded by a majority of critics as easy prey for the powerful California, round Tony last night gave Nova a fearful punching, knocked him down four times and forced referee George Blake to stop it in 2.44 of the 14th.

Lead From Second Round

Tony led from the instant he landed a terrific left hook on Nova's jaw in the second round. He would have won by a wide margin on points if they had gone the limit. Nova's efforts to box him were futile. Every time Lou started a left jab, his best weapon, Tony nearly knocked his head off.

In the third round Tony clipped Nova to the canvas for a count of one. In the eighth he had him down again for no-count, and in the final chapter Lou was on the floor twice for three and eight before Blake took pity on him. Tony was staggered a couple of times here and there, but he never looked as though he would go down.

Nova Bled Furiously

From the third round on Nova bled furiously from cuts around his right eye, and his handlers did wonders in bringing him out at all toward the last. His face was a crimson blotch. One of Nova's straight left drove Tony's teeth through his lower lip midway of the ringside for the first time in everybody in the ring, including the referee, was smeared with blood.

Promoter Mike Jacobs, sitting at the ringside for the first time in his career, fidgeted and talked to himself as Tony made a shambles of his beautiful "white hope." There had been no doubt in Mike's mind that Lou would be the one to fight the winner of next week's battle between Joe Louis and Bob Pastor in Detroit.

Opinion May Force Hand

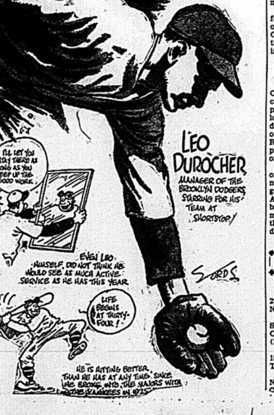
Now it is a question whether he will want to put Galento in the championship ring again, especially with Louis, but the weight of public opinion might force his hand. Tony looked great last night, and he wants another shot.

"I'll stop that Louis in two rounds next time," he said earnestly as he peered out of his one good eye.

As for Nova, his bubble has burst, He thought he was a boy of destiny, and he thought Galento would do no more than give him a good workout. He learned last night that he did not have the punch to stop a really rugged fighter, and that his own jaw was not made of concrete after all. He fought gamely, but that was all.



LEO DUROCHER
MANAGER OF THE BROOKLYN DODGERS, STARRING FOR HIS TEAM AT SHORTSTOP!
I'LL LET YOU STAY THERE AS LONG AS YOU KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK.
EVEN LEO HIMSELF, DID NOT THINK HE WOULD SEE AS MUCH ACTIVE SERVICE AS HE HAS THIS YEAR LIFE BEGINS AT THIRTY-FOUR!
HE IS HITTING BETTER THAN HE HAS AT ANY TIME SINCE HE BROKE INTO THE MAJORS WITH THE YANKEES IN 1925
SORDS

JOHNNY DICKSHOT INTERNATIONAL BATTING CHAMP.

Jersey City Outfielder Finishes Season With Average of .355

HIT 16 TRIPLES

Ollie Carnegie Leads in Matter of Home Runs With 29

New York, Sept. 16 (AP)—Close of the International League schedule this week brought the batting championship to Johnny Dickshot of Jersey City with an average of .355. Dickshot, who also collected the most triples, 16, finished a mere six points in front of Tommy Holmes of Newark.

Behind them ranged Murray Howell, Baltimore, .342; Dusty Cooke, Rochester, .337; Estel Crabtree, Rochester, .335; Mickey Witek Newark, .331; Lou Boudreau, Buffalo (recalled by Cleveland) .329; Jim Oglesby, Buffalo, .327; Bob Elliott, Toronto, .326; and Joe Martin, Buffalo, .325.

Oliver Carnegie, veteran Bison outfielder, slammed out the most home runs, 29, and batted in the most runs, 112. Teammate John Tyler scored the most runs, 123, and Lefty Al Smith topped all the pitchers with 16 victories and two defeats. His last 15 triumphs were scored in succession.

Witek Had Most Hits

Witek collected the most base hits, 203. Herman Clifton of Toronto stole the most bases, 22 and Crabtree and Cooke finished in a triple tie with Morris Jones of Jersey City for the most doubles, 41.

Topping the pitching accomplishments was the no-hitter hurled by Bill Weir of Toronto Maple Leafs, May 16, against Baltimore. He struck out six and walked four.

Reggie Grabowski of Syracuse pitched the most games, 55, but Si Johnson of Rochester pitched the most innings, 254, won the most games, 22, and allowed the most hits, 310.

John Tising, who labored both for Baltimore and Syracuse, struck out the most batters, 145, while George Washburn of Newark had the unenviable distinction of giving the most passes.

OUTLOOK CLEARS UP

Rome, N.Y., Sept. 16 (CP)—Outcome of the Canadian-American Baseball League playdowns probably will take on a clearer outlook this week-end, wtih Amsterdam rugmakers standing a chance of clinching the championship and Rome Colonels a hance of tieing or pulling a game ahead in the best-of-five series.

The teams tied 3-3 in the second game of the series here last night but Rugmakers took a one-game lead in the first encounter at Amsterdam Thursday by setting back the Colonels 7-5. The clubs move back to Amsterdam today for third game and the fourth is scheduled for Rome Sunday.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

Philadelphia — Tony Galento, 224½, Orange, N.J., stopped Lou Nova, 207, Alameda, Calif., (14).

Chicago—Tiger Jack Fox, 181½, Spokane, Wash., knocked out Orlando Trotter, 171½, Chicago (2).

Minneapolis—Andy (Kid) Miller, 189, Sioux City, Ia., outpointed Tony Musto, 202, Chicago, (10).

Hollywood—Lou Salica, 117½, New York, outpointed Manuel Ortiz, 116, Los Angeles, (10).

CALLING 'EM
Between the Lines
with
Ken J. Colling

If nothing else the Peterboro sport scribe is at least an optimist of the first school. Whether he has been crystal-gazing or affected by the heat, we are unable to say, but the Liftlock City scribe now entertains far-away visions of the revival of the Central Ontario Baseball League. Frankly speaking we feel the anticipation will be much greater than the reality, although more power to his elbow in the project. He says "providing work picks up—due to the war—in such cities as Kingston, Belleville and Oshawa" the league may be revived. Apparently the Peterboro scribe isn't any too conversant with the interest being taken in Belleville baseball these days. "Pal, you can't operate an intermediate club on from $5.00 to $17.00 gates, as has been the case here all season, yes even including the play-offs." The Peterboro scribe carries a priviso, however, which has something to do with the absence of conscription, which seems inevitable if this war business continues at any length.

The Peterboro scribe says Oshawa is quite anxious to return to the C.O.B.L. fold and refers to Kingston's fine effort at encouraging baseball through their four-teamed junior league, that has just completed a successful season. He also refers to Belleville's intermediate team of 1939 as a potential senior starter in the senior ranks of 1940. "Chum, you ain't seen nothing, when it comes to baseball. Before Belleville could entertain even thoughts of returning to senior ball, they'd have to import so many ball players, that the immigration would resemble the mad rush to the colors in Toronto last week." However, if Oshawa and Kingston did not import players and Peterboro was unfortunate enough to lose one or two of this year's squad, then perhaps baseball could get down to its original Central League status of 1919, when all players were homebrews. Perhaps Port Hope, Cobourg and the Bowmanville Royals could be persuaded to return to the fold. This day of imports is past, that old bug-bear (imports), saw the exodus from the league of several Central Ontario towns, so why even so much as mention importations again. Let's start with the foundation, by building our own structures with our own material and no doubt Kingston and Belleville might be mildly interested.

We are glad to know the Peterboro scribe can at least read. There were times in the past we doubted this fact, but he has proven himself an apt scholar in the fact he condescended to at last open the covers of a baseball rule book and peek inside. When recently asked a simple baseball question, the Peterboro scribe went to great length to answer, along the following lines—"Comes a tricky ball question. A gent asks us our opinion when a batter swings and misses a third strike, with the catcher failing to hold the ball which bounces in front of the plate in the path of the batsman—who has started for first—and hits him on the leg. The ball is deflected and the runner reaches first, the question being is this guy on first out and can a runner on third score on the play? Well, the whole thing hinges on umpire's judgment—whether or not the runner "intentionally" interfered with the ball. If the ump decides the guy could not avoid this ball—which is considered a thrown not a batter ball—then he and any other runner may advance at his own risk. Just like a thrown ball on the infield hitting a runner, with everyone advancing or trying to do so. Rule 48, Sec. 1. pretty well clears this point up."

The fate of two local ball teams hangs in the balance today. Up at Cobourg the Belleville "Orfuns" clash with the Cobourg Ponies in a third and deciding intermediate O.B.A. tussle. No doubt "Chuck" Barriage will have to bear the locals' pitching brunt again and the "Orfuns" may be minus the services of their star second baseman Lorne Jarrell. Up in Trenton the Point Anne "Cementmen" face elimination in defeat at the hands of Wooler. Here, however, the "cementmen" will press into service their ace moundsman, "Ding" Luffman, who beat Wooler in their first meeting. Another O.A.S.A. series opens today with the local Shell "Oilers" meeting the "Tri-Bells", winners of the T.A.S.A. at Acorn Park, Toronto. The second game of the Tri-Bell-Shell "Oilers" series will be played at Coleman Flats on Monday.

Ladies' Day presented a new problem to the Cincinnati Reds management last week. The last game of the Giant series had to be called on account of rain, August 3, despite the fact that the stands were full of feminine fans, waiting for some kind of action. After the game was called, one of the ladies barged into the office of Warren Giles and wanted to be reimbursed for the damage which was done to her hat. She said it had been "ruined" while sitting out in the rain.

Owen Sound was disqualified by the O.A.S.A. yesterday, which cancelled the Owen Sound at Trenton softball game for today. The parent association disqualified the Owen Sound nine after ascertaining that two of the "Trappers" star players were ineligible. In the meantime Collingwood and Orillia will now meet for the Georgian Bay title, forcing the Trenton champions to remain idle for another full week, which won't help the cause of Art Black's pets.

Round Two-ton Tony Galento proved to the fight world he can win over the route. Prior to last night when Galento won over Lou Nova by a T.K.O. in the 14th, the experts were of the opinion that Galento had to 'tag his man' early, or else. Last night however, Galento disproved this theory as he clipped Nova hard in the third and then the boys wrestled around until the 12th, when Galento caught Nova with another left and finished the Californian off in the 14th. Galento had closed one of Nova's eyes and had him bleeding badly from the nose and mouth when the referee called it a day. "Get me that bum Louis, I'll moider de bum," was Galento's first statement after winning. They'll meet again next June, that is Louis and Galento. Nova proved courageous all through.

Sport Spice—The world series will open in New York on Oct. 4th and return to the National League winner's grounds on the 7th, with a lay-off on the 6th.....The football boys are finding this present heat wave anything but acceptable for pre-season training, but pop is glad, he's saving on the coal bill ....The Reds split with the Giants and the Cardinals won 1-0 after 14 torrid innings with the Bees which leaves the Reds but 3 1-2 games in front of the Mound City nine....Joe Louis will get 40 percent of the gross gate in his fight with Bob Pastor next week .... Shades of cooler weather must be around the corner. Pick Hines' Baltimore Orioles are going to train in Owen Sound......Just how this war business will affect Canadians playing amateur hockey in the U.S.A. is hard to say, to which the Peterboro scribe will doubtless be glad to hear, if they ain't, er sumpin', if you get what we mean.

MAKING GRIDIRON PLANS

Not until next month does the drive for the eastern intercollegiate football crown get under way, and with the college rule stipulating no practice more than a month before the schedule opens, it is only recently that the squads at Toronto, Kingston, Montreal and London got down to business. The picture shows Warren Stevens, University of Toronto coach, discussing plans with Jack Sinclair, who used to kick the Toronto students to numerous titles and who now assists "Steve" with the direction of the team.

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS
REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 723

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone [illegible] [illegible] Front St.
17-2m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 6—P. O. BOX [illegible]
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. M3-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1182. "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 231 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist. Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils. Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

R. and VERA B. PITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments, Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Intra-Red Radiations. Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments. 42½ Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
240½ Front St. Phone 482

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
178 Front St. Phone 1154w

LEGAL

GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 256½ Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2500. s27-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William N. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 176

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
OUR LEADING CITIZEN
Bob Burns, Susan Hayward
2.45 — 7.00 — 10.00
THE MAGNIFICENT FRAUD
Akim Tamiroff, Patricia Morrison
4.00 — 8.35

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
COAST GUARD
Randolph Scott, Frances Dee
3.00 — 7.15 — 10.15
PARENTS ON TRIAL
Jean Parker, Johnny Downs
4.05 — 9.00

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
BIG TOWN CZAR
Barton MacLane, Tom Brown
7.12 and 9.28
WYOMING OUTLAW
Three Mesquiteers, starring
John Wayne
8.21 and 11.30

TO LET

HOUSE WITH ALL CONVENIENCES. Immediate possession. Apply 22 Chatham Street. s16-1t

5 ROOMS, GARAGE AND GARDEN; corner College and North Front Sts. Adults only. Apply on premises. s16-1t

NICE ROOM, WITH OR WITHOUT board, central location, continuous hot water, use of telephone. Write Box L, Ontario Intelligencer. s16-2t

FURNISHED APARTMENT, POSSESSION, October 1. Apply 252 Coleman Street. s16-4t

MODERN SEVEN ROOM HOME, hardwood floors, fire-place, furnace, garden, heated garage, West Belleville, below hill. Phone 776. s16-1t

BUNGALOW IN CORBYVILLE, hardwood floors, Hydro, garage, $12.50 per month. Apply Mrs. E. Nicholson, Stirling. s16-20-23

2 FRONT BEDROOMS, COMFORTABLE; all conveniences, with board. Reasonable rates. Apply 244 George Street. s16-3t

SOLID BRICK HOUSE, HARDWOOD floors, all conveninces, garden, garage. Phone 818W. s16-6t

6 ROOM MODERN HOME, HOT water heating, electric stove, double garage. West Hill, $26. Phone 2177. s15-2t

UP-TO-DATE FIVE AND SIX room apartments; modern conveniences, hot water heating, hardwood floors. Apply Hogle Estate, Trent Road. s15-2t

8 ROOM HOUSE, 3 PIECE BATH, furnace, wired for electric range. Apply 17 Reid Street. s15-3t

NICE COSY HOME, SIX ROOMS, hardwood floors. Conveniences. Newly decorated. Possession Oct. 15. 8 Centre Street. s15-2t

SIX ROOM HOUSE WITH ALL conveniences; near bus line. 123 Catherine Street. Immediate possession. Phone 978W. s15-3t

100 ACRE FARM, LOT 27, CONCESSION 8, Thurlow, good barn, well watered, near school, cheese factory. Apply 14 Parker Street. s14-3t

DOWNSTAIRS APARTMENT newly decorated. Rent reasonable to reliable party. Apply 26 Isobel Street. s14-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERLOOKING the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

APARTMENT FOR RENT 4 OR 6 rooms. All conveniences, hardwood floors. Very reasonable rent to approved tenant. Apply 161 Albert Street. s9-tf

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

TENDERS

Will be received by the undersigned until Tuesday, September 19th., 1939, for installing refrigeration, according to Government specifications in the Northport Cheese Factory. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

RAY SIMPSON,
President, Picton, R. R. No. 2.
s14-2t

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHERS

IN THE ESTATE OF MARY ANN THOMPSON, DECEASED.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to The Trustee Act that all persons having claims against the Estate of Mary Ann Thompson, late of the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings, Widow, Deceased, are required to forward full particulars in writing of their claims duly proven together with the nature of the security if any held by them to the undersigned on or before the eighteenth day of October 1938. And notice is further given that after the said date the Administratrix will proceed to distribute the Estate having regard only to such claims as she shall then have had notice. Dated this sixteenth day of September, 1939.

T. Y. WILLS,
Barrister, etc., 15 Campbell Street, Belleville, Ont., Solicitor for the Administratrix. s16-23-30-o7

PERSONAL

WHY SUFFER WITH ECZEMA, Psoriasis, Erythema, Pemphigus, Chaps, Boils, Pimples, Itch, Ringworm, etc? Try KLEEREX—"A Quick Healing Salve". 50c; $1.00; $2.00. (Medium and Strong). Recommended and sold by all Drug and Dept. Stores. s16-1t

YOU CAN RUN A HOME KINDERGARTEN with our help. Canadian Kindergarten Institute, Toronto 10, Ontario. f4-estf

FOR SALE

$800.00 WILL BUY WELL BUILT and comfortable cement cottage No. 255 Sidney Street, West Hill, near Fair Grounds, three lots, good garden, small barn. Immediate sale desired. Inspect this property. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s16-tf

BEACH COMBINATION COAL OR wood and gas stove, 2 ovens, used only short time. Phone 1265. s16-1t

36 BARRED ROCK PULLETS, 3½ months old; and Bicycle, 7 dollars. J. Ellis, R.R.1, Centre, Belleville. s16-2t

KNITTING MACHINE. APPLY 30 Everett Street. Phone 296W. s16-1t

$50; 1928 CHEVROLET COACH. Phone 2177. s16-1t

$50 OR BEST CASH BID, BUYS 29 Whippet roadster. Apply Booth, Belleville Tourist Camp. s16-1t

B FLAT TENOR SAXOPHONE, complete with case. Violin complete with bow and case. All in excellent condition. G. Brown. Phone 1473J. s14-16

$150 BUYS 1931 BUICK SEDAN Excellent condition. Terms. Apply 19 Franklin Street. s14-3t

1936 FORD 1-2 TON TRUCK. Price right and terms given. Phone 2177. s15-2t

MOTORCYCLE, NORTON E.S. 2, 36, tools, riding kit. Reasonable for cash. A. M. Sharp, R.A.F., Trenton. s15-3t

OVEN WITH THERMOMETER for gas or 2 plate electric, curtain stretchers, pint sealers, catsup bottles. Apply 41 Pine St. s15-2t

A QUANTITY OF HARD WOOD $7.50 per cord, soft wood $5.50 per cord, and soft slab wood $4.50 per cord delivered at Belleville in 3 cord loads. Write H. C. Lloyd, Bannockburn, Phone Madoc 5233. s12-6t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRABLE brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusve agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

4 HILLSIDE STREET, WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale. Exclusive agent. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

AT AVONDALE, TRENT ROAD, directly opposite the school, residence and 8 acres of good land owned by Mrs. George Duff. House is substantial brick with bright cheerful rooms, hot water heating, bath, well decorated and in excellent state of repair. Barn and hen house. Investigate this. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

W. C. SILLS PROPERTY, JUST off highway in Avondale, Trent Road. Good frame house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors downstairs, good basement. 10 acres of sandy loam —barn, garage, hen house and brooder house. Excellent green houses. A very desirable place. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

239 CHARLES STREET, CORNER of Queen Street, roughcast house and large lot property of Miss Diamond. Reasonable price for quick sale. Inspection by appointment. Exclusive Agents, Belleville Locators, Geo. N. Gorman, Prop. 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

AUCTION SALE

Of fine stock and implements, some household effects, Lot 4, Con. 3, Thurlow Township on Foxboro Highway, 1 1-2 miles north of Belleville, Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 1 o'clock. Mrs. E. S. Gilbert, owner. Geo. Arnott, Auctioneer. s16-2t

NOTICE

All childen who have not been vaccinated are to be vaccinated before attending Public School in the city.

DR. CRONK, M.O.H.
s16-1t

TENDERS WANTED

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up to September 30th., 1939, for the purchase of the Plant and Equipment of The Centreville Dairy Co., Ltd., together with a residence, in the village of Centreville, Addington County. Plant in excellent condition, manufacturing both butter and cheese. Highest or any Tender not necessarily accepted.

K. L. WEESE,
President, Centreville, Ont.
s16-23

WANTED

EXPERIENCED GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 135 William Street. s16-1t

TO RENT FROM 2 TO 5 ACRES with good house, cistern cellar, garage, hen house, well, near school and paved road. Possession Nov. 1st. Frank Hagerman, R. 2, Holloway, Ontario. s16-3t

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WOMEN, COPY NAMES, ADDRESSES for Distributors, Home. Easy Work. Good pay, Experience Unnecessary. Write, Acme Advertising, Journal Sq., P.O., Box 605, Jersey City, N.J. s16-1t

OPPORTUNITY

FOR MEN OR WOMEN. LEARN profitable hairdressing or barbering trades at Canada's largest Hairdressing and Beauty Culture School. Hygienic; newly equipped. Write for free literature. Marvel and Moler Schools, 358 Bloor West, Toronto. s16-1t

WORK WANTED

HANDY MAN AND EXPERIENCED painter is anxious to get sufficient work to purchase clothing. Kindly write Box Y, Ontario Intelligencer. s15-3t

POSITION BY LADY STENOGRAPHER, accurate, neat, rapid. Available immediately. Inquire Box K, Ontario Intelligencer. s14-3t

ACTIVE MEN WANTED TO SELL guaranteed quality Red Tag Nursery stock. Weekly pay and real sales help given. Start now —full or part time. Dominion Nurseries, Montreal.

HOW TO GET A GOVERNMENT job as Letter Carrier, Postal Clerk, Customs Examiner, Stenographer, etc. Free Booklet. The M.C.C. Schools Ltd., Toronto 10. Oldest in Canada. No agents. w s-tf

INSTRUCTION

IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

WIRELESS

WANTED—MEN FROM 17 TO 35 with High School Education—to train for qualified Radio Operators. Trained operators needed by Dominion Government in increasing numbers. Prepare for responsible position by Home Study and Resident Practical Instruction for 1st or 2nd class certificates. Evening Code Classes. Free employment assistance in securing positions. Write for full particulars to Radio College of Canada, 54 Bloor Street, West, Toronto. s12-14-16

PROCLAMATION DAYLIGHT SAVING

Notice is hereby given that the period for which Daylight Saving Time was set for the Municipality of the City of Belleville expires at 12.01 a.m. on Sunday, September, 24th., 1939, at which time all offices under the jurisdiction of the City Council will revert to Standard Time and all clocks will be turned back one hour. Citizens are requested to govern themselves accordingly.

JAMIESON BONE,
Mayor.
s16-20-23

TREASURER'S SALE OF LANDS

In the County of Hastings, in the Province of Ontario

To Wit:

By Virtue of a Warrant issued by the Warden of the County of Hastings bearing date of the Fourteenth day of July, 1939, sale of lands in arrears of taxes in the County of Hastings will be held in Shire Hall, in the City of Belleville, at the hour of Ten o'clock in the morning, on Tuesday, the Seventh day of November, 1939, unless the taxes and costs are sooner paid. Notice is hereby given that the list of lands for sale for arrears of taxes is being published in the Ontario Gazette on the Fifth day of August, the Second day of September, and the Seventh day of October, 1939, and that the copies of said list may be had at my office, 228 Church Street, Belleville.

Treasurer's Office this Tenth day of August, 1939.

James W. Haggerty, Treasurer.
a12 19 26 s2 9 16 23 30 o7 14 21 28 n4

TRENTON

FIRST PAY DAY FOR THE ARMY

$4,500 Paid Out in Trenton to Members of Hastings and P. E. Regiment

Trenton, Sept. 16 (Special)— Yesterday was an army pay day and Pay Sergt. Wensley of Picton distributed $4,500 in cash among Headquarters and A Company here. Lt.-Col. S. Young, O.C. of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment accompanied the paymasters staff to Trenton, where 125 new recruits answered the call of their country. In an interview with the Ontario Intelligencer Lt.-Col. Young said: "I would like the volunteers to know that every commanding officer of this regiment came up from the ranks and knows what it means to be a private as well as an officer." "This," he said, "is a record I am proud of." Daily the ranks of the Trenton branch of the regiment continue to swell but it is understood that many more sound men are needed before the regiment is at full strength. In charge of army activities here are Major H. D. Graham, second in command of the regiment, Major Bruce Sutcliffe, O.C. of A Company and Major E. W. Mathews, O. C. of Headquarter's Company.

Trenton Youths Enter R.C.A.F.

Among the Trenton youths who entered the R.C.A.F. recently were Gerald Wright, oldest son of Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Wright and James Wallace only son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wallace.

New Gas Station For Trenton

The City Service station on east Dundas Street has been torn down and the McFarland Construction Co. are replacing it with a new and modern station, which is expected to reach completion before the snow flies. The LaMorre brothers, Allan and Barney will be in charge of the new depot when it is open for business.

BAY OF QUINTE W. I.

The monthly meeting of the Bay of Quinte local Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Percy Boulton, Belleville, on Wednesday of this week. The meeting opened in the usual manner, with the President in the chair. Business was discussed. Mrs. Richie Ketcheson and Mrs. G. Frost, also Mrs. Roy Westfall, cemetery secretary were appointed a committee to look after some of the business of the cemetery.

Groups were discussed, finally two groups were decided upon for the future work; one group on the highway and Trenton members combined under the conveners of Mrs. Boulton and Mrs. Fred Wilson; another group on the 2nd concession and Centenary combined under the convenership of Mrs. C. Ketcheson and Mrs. Bruce Hogle.

At this period, Mrs. Richie Ketcheson handed the meeting over to the convener of the programme, Mrs. J. Ray opening her programme by singing "God Save the King." Mrs. Ray now passed around a beautiful tray cloth of linen in cut work, her own hand work, which she donated to the society. Miss Phyllis Frost was the lucky winner, and she will donate something at the next meeting for the same purpose. Mrs. Bonisteel favoured all with a humorous reading "Hubby's Toothache." Current events were taken by Mrs. Fred Aikens in the form of a contest. Mrs. Aikens had given much time and trouble in cutting out pictures from papers of noted characters. She placed them around the room for members to guess who they were. As she read out the answers she made a few remarks on current events connected with many of the characters. Mrs. Fred Wilson, who had the highest number correct carried off the prize.

The Institute expressed sympathy for Mrs. J. Kelly, one of the members who is in Kingston Hospital very ill. Mrs. G. Frost was asked to send a card from the local W. I.

The President took over the meeting and a flower contest was judged. Miss Burley, Toronto, a guest of Mrs. Boulton was asked to judge with Mrs. F. Denyes and Mrs. Rutter, Sr. Mrs. G. Frost received the prize. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. Lunch was served by Mrs. Boulton and lunch committee.

HALLOWAY W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Halloway W.M.S. was held at the church on Wednesday. Fifteen partook of the dinner served on the grounds after which Mrs. E. G. Snider presided over the meeting. A hymn was followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Cook. Roll call was responded to by a verse containing the word "Thanks." Mrs. Harry Townsend read the Scripture lesson. A poem was read by Mrs. Don Rose.

It was decided to hold a melon and ice cream social at Mrs. E. Hough's. Plans were made to attend the open meeting at Foxboro, and the conference at Belleville next week. It was decided to have an advertisement inserted in the Belleville paper of the aniversary services and Thanksgiving supper. For the supper, the following committees were appointed: Program, Mrs. C. Townsend, Mrs. C. Reid, Mrs. E. Emerson. Refreshments: Mrs. H. Wilson, Mrs. D. Rose.

A reading was given by Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. E. Emerson read a poem, "What I Promised," hymn 90, followed by the Mizpah Benediction closed the meeting.

London, Sept. 16 (CP)—The British motorist has got a week's reprieve from gasoline rationing, scheduled to begin today. Rationing was delayed until Sept. 23 to give motorists more time to obtain ration books.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 16 (AP) — Bulgaria, Germany's ally in the last war, officially declared her neutrality today.

Premier George Kiosseivanoff, a communique announced, ordered diplomats to notify governments throughout the world that Bulgaria would remain "neutral and peaceful."

AT THE McCARTHY

"Career"

"Career," R.K.O.-Radio's new comedy-drama coming next to the McCarthy Theatre is one of those photoplays which doesn't fall into any of the ordinary classifications and yet is one of the more absorbing and touching entertainments of the season.

The simple and homespun story of "Career", deals with life in the little Iowa town of Pittsville during 1931. It offers a cross section of that town and of its people in a compelling fashion that makes it a really brilliant pieces of screen fare.

Anne Shirley, playing the role of the town banker's daughter, and Edward Ellis, as the community's leading store-keeper, have the top roles, aided by a host of highly capable players—Samuel S. Hinds, Janet Beecher, Leon Errol, Raymond Hatton and John Qualen— and two clever young newcomers, Alice Eden and John Archer, final selections in the first "Gateway to Hollywood" talent search.

These players turn in notably natural and vivid performances in their respective roles. Ellis, long a rival of the banker, Hinds, suspects the latter of crooked work at the bank and draws out all his funds, thus precipitating the closing of the institution. The local feud that follows, and the solution of a brace of romances all make for the absorbing situations of "Career."

"They Made Her a Spy"

The inside working of a foreign ring of spies and saboteurs, and the method by which counter-spies attempt to frustrate their activities are threaded into a timely screen offering. "They Made Her a Spy", featuring Sally Eilers, Allan Lane, Fritz Leiber and Frank M. Thomas, which will also be presented as a companion feature to "Career" at the McCarthy Theatre.

"Parents on Trial" — "Coast Guard"

Randolph Scott, Frances Dee and Ralph Bellamy in "Coast Guard" and Jean Parker, Johnny Downs and Noah Beery in "Parents on Trial," two excellent feature presentations are now playing at the McCarthy Theatre and in addition the opening chapter of "Mandrake the Magician" featuring Warren Hull, star of "The Spider's Web" which was made some time ago, is also shown and to all looking for a good evening's screen enjoyment we can recommend this program as one of the very finest.

AT THE BEELE

"Stanley and Livingstone"

"Dr. Livingstone, I presume?"

Drama knows no more thrilling moment than when Stanley speaks these words to Dr. Livingstone in the heart of Africa, the climax of the adventure that thrilled the world. And now the most heroic exploit known to man may be seen in one of the most spectacular motion pictures ever undertaken. Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Stanley and Livingstone" and now playing at the Belle.

Featuring one of the finest acting casts ever assembled, the opening of the 20th. Century-Fox film will be a gala day at the Belle Theatre. Spencer Tracy, twice winner of the Academy award, portrays the daring Stanley, crack newspaper man of the New York Herald. Starred with him are Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene, heading an imposing cast including Walter Brennan, also an Academy Award winner; Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, as Livingstone; Henry Hull and Henry Travers.

Into the perilous wilderness of unknown Africa one white man ventured to seek another, an impossible Herculean labor marked by innumerable, nameless terrors — but nothing could stop him! Such is the theme of the screen play by Philip Dunne and Julien Josephson, reaching a new high in script writing. Under the direction of Henry King (noted for "In Old Chicago", "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and "Jesse James") the film assumes a top position among the year's most notable screen achievements.

But there's more than thrilling adventure to be seen in "Stanley and Livingstone." The great reporter found Livingstone unwilling to be "rescued," and learned from the missionary-explorer a new, heroic meaning in life that sent him back to carry on the great work. "Stanley and Livingstone" is a picture not to be missed!

"Sea Scouts" is the title of a new and funny Walt Disney color cartoon to be presented on the same program with the Belle World News with its overseas events.

PAULEY'S
DRUG STORE
Open Sunday

TENDERS

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned and marked "Tender for Radio Range Station, Stirling", will be received up to 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, September 27, 1939, for the development of a radio range station at Stirling, Ontario.

Plans, specifications, labour conditions and form of contract to be entered into may be seen and tender forms obtained on application to the undersigned at Ottawa or the Postmaster at Trenton, Belleville or Stirling, Ontario. Further information if required regarding location of site or interpretation of plans may be obtained on application to the Airway Engineer, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Ontario.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered Canadian Bank equal to ten per cent (10%) of the tender price, payable to the order of the Receiver General of Canada, which cheque will be forfeited in the event of the tenderer refusing to enter into a contract on the basis of his tender, if called upon to do so, or failing to satisfactorily complete such a contract. Cheques of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned.

Any tender not accompanied by a security deposit as described will not be considered.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

GEO. W. YATES,
Secretary.
Department of Transport,
Ottawa, September 13, 1939.
s15-3t

JUDICIAL SALE OF FARM LANDS IN AMELIASBURG TOWNSHIP PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY

In the Supreme Court of Ontario

BETWEEN

ANDERSON v. PHILLIPS et al

Pursuant to the judgment in this matter there will be offered for sale by public auction with the approbation of the undersigned Local Master by Norman Montgomery, auctioneer, at the Court House in the City of Belleville at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday the 30th day of September 1939 the following lands and premises namely those parts of lot Ninety-three (93) in the Fourth Concession of the Township of Ameliasburg, in the County of Prince Edward, containing Ninety-six (96) acres more or less and generally known as the Parliament Farm and which is more particularly described in two conveyances registered at the Registry Office for the County of Prince Edward as instrument numbers 5818 and 5864 for said Township.

On the premises is said to be erected a barn and sheds.

The property will be offered subject to a reserved bid fixed by the Local Master. The purchaser shall pay on the day of sale 10 per cent of the purchase money and shall pay the balance of the purchase money, subject to adjustments, without interest within thirty days after the date of sale. The conditions of sale are the standing conditions of sale of the Court as modified by the conditions of sale set by the undersigned.

Further particulars and conditions of sale may be had from Robert J. E. Graham, Barrister, 262 Pinnacle Street, Belleville, or from Messrs. Cameron & Cameron, Barristers, Dominion Bank Building, Belleville, Ontario.

DATED at Belleville this 21st day of July, 1939.

W. C. MIKEL,
Local Master.
s9-16-23

IN MEMORIAM

McKEAN— In loving memory of Clarence McKean, who died, Sept. 16, 1937.

"I have only your memory, dear husband
To remember my whole life through;
But the sweetness will linger forever
As I treasure the image of you."

—Ever remembered by Helen.
s16-1t

BIRTHS

SHAW— At Belleville General Hospital on Friday, Sept. 15, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shaw, Albert Street, a daughter. s16-1t

DEATHS

WOOTON—In the Belleville General Hospital, on Saturday, September, 16th., 1939, George Wooton, in his 75th year.

Resting at the Belleville Burial Company Funeral Home, Campbell Street until Sunday morning, then at his late residence, 68 Catherine Street.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, 68 Catherine Street, on Monday afternoon, September 18th. Service in the home at 2.30 o'clock. (D.S.T.)

Interment, Foxboro Cemetery.
(Kingston papers please copy.)
s16-1t

BURROWS—In the Belleville General Hospital on Saturday morning, September 16th., 1939, William John Burrows, late residence, 154 Church Street, in his 49th year.

The funeral will take place from the Martin Funeral Home, Church Street, Belleville, on Monday afternoon, September 18th. Service in the chapel at 2.00 o'clock (D.S.T.)

Interment Belleville Cemetery.
s16-1t

O'ROURKE—In Belleville, on September 15th., 1939, Mrs. Mary O'Rourke, widow of Edward O'Rourke.

The funeral will take place from her late residence, 118 Pinnacle Street, Belleville, Ont., on Sunday, September 17th., 1939 at 2.30 p.m. to St. Michael's Church for service at 3.00 p.m.

Interment St. James' Cemetery.
s16-1t

774W
EVERY detail of each funeral service is worked out carefully
in advance.

Belleville Burial Co.
27 Campbell St.

THOMAS C. THOMPSON
Funeral Director
FUNERAL HOME
32 Everett St. Phone 62
AMBULANCE SERVICE

FINANCIAL

PERSONAL LOANS
FOR
- Due and Overdue Accounts.
- Mortgage Payments and Interest.
- Property and Income Taxes.
- Insurance Premiums.
- Medical and Hospital Expenses.
- Dental Expenses.
- Household Furnishings. Equipment and Fuel.
- Educational Fees.
- and Other Useful Purposes

AT LOW RATES.

Apply to Nearest Branch of
THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE
MONTHLY DEPOSITS PROVIDE FOR REPAYMENT.

Spencer Tracy, Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene in the romantic adventure story, Stanley and Livingstone, at the Belle Theatre.

John Wayne and Ray Corrigan in "Wyoming Outlaw," now playing with a second feature "Big Town Czar," starring Barton MacLane at the Capitol Theatre.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

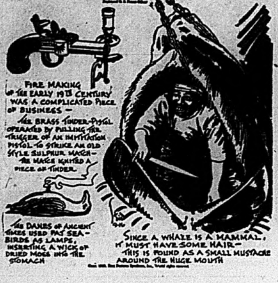
By R.J. SCOTT



FIRE MAKING OF THE EARLY 19TH CENTURY WAS A COMPLICATED PIECE OF BUSINESS —
THE BRASS TINDER-PISTOL OPERATED BY PULLING THE TRIGGER OF AN IMITATION PISTOL TO STRIKE AN OLD STYLE SULPHUR MATCH — THE MATCH IGNITED A PIECE OF TINDER
THE DANES OF ANCIENT TIMES USED FAT SEA-BIRDS AS LAMPS, INSERTING A WICK OF DRIED MOSS INTO THE STOMACH
SINCE A WHALE IS A MAMMAL, IT MUST HAVE SOME HAIR — THIS IS FOUND AS A SMALL MUSTACHE AROUND THE HUGE MOUTH
9-16

The Guardian of Allah

By WALDO THAYER

A pale violet glow from unseen lanterns filled the room. The walls were hung with loose silken tapestry and in the corners stood carved oriental stands, a grotesque figure atop each. From the mouths or nostrils of these incense smoke languidly upward.

Mildred sat among many cushions in a massive teakwood chair and gazed through gauze at the shadowy face of Rubai Khan. Before his crystal ball he crouched, brooding fixedly upon its clouded depths. A multi-hued turban swathed his head. Below a short black beard was visible a cloak of gold brocade.

Rubai Khan raised his hands, bejeweled fingers widespread.

"I see," he murmured, "only that which I have seen before. I see you taking other paths, seeking to avoid the inevitable—and along these paths I see only sorrow and desolation. That is all, madame."

Mildred bent forward a little, nearer the veil of scrim which hung between them. Her voice was intensely eager as she asked:

"You mean that my happiness depends on this? You feel I must go back to my husband?"

"Yes!" The man spoke with emphatic conviction.

"But,"— in breathless anxiety—"are you sure he wants me back?"

Rubai Khan made a languid motion above the gleaming sphere.

"There," he said. "I have looked upon the two of you together and seen the contentment of each. Is he not tall, fair-haired, with eyes of deepest blue?"

She nodded.

"Then have no fear. He longs for you—lives but for your return. And now, the light fades; my journey for you into the realm of eternal truth is at an end. The spirit of Allah alone lives on. May it be with you ever."

His chin sank upon his breast and thus he remained, silently immobile. Mildred waited a moment, uncertainly, then rose and groped her way to the door. It opened on the anteroom through which she had come. She entered, pausing for a moment to blink at the shock of stronger light. A dozen or more women were waiting. They all seemed quite at home, Mildred noted, observing too the smart apparel which plainly indicated wealth.

She went forth into the glare and bustle of Hollywood boulevard, hastened to the nearest drug store, and telephoned Mary.

"Listen," she babbled excitedly into the mouthpiece, "something wonderful's happened! I'm going back to Don!"

After a second's silence.

"What on earth—" Mary began in bewilderment; but Mildred cut her short with:

"Never mind. I'm on my way now to see you and tell you everything. It's too marvelous!"

Ruabi Khan stood up as the outer door closed behind the last of his patrons. Strolling to the wall, he pulled a cord that hung behind the draperies. They slid aside, revealing curtained windows and a number of electric fixtures. He flicked a switch and the bulbs sprang into life.

Shortly the door reopened; a man in business suit and small black turban came in. The crystal gazer was seated, holding a small mirror and expertly plucking whiskers from his chin by the handful. His smile of greeting to the other was radiant.

"Well, Jim, old boy," he cried, "it happened! She came at last, so the game's finished."

The fellow halted, gazing at him gloomily.

"Your wife?" he asked in a flat voice.

"Yep! First one today. She never had a suspicion, and she swallowed everything whole. I said right along it'd happen sooner or later, didn't I? She was always crazy about psychic stuff; I knew all I had to do was to get a reputation, and she'd be bound to come."

"But, look here, Don," the man called Jim protested, "you're surely not going to throw this thing over now, just when you've built it up into the big money? Think of the time and work you've put in."

Don Johnson shed the last of Ruboe Khan dropping the motley head-cloth in a heap on the floor. His blond hair was tousled above twinkling dark blue eyes.

"Guess you're forgetting," he reminded, "that it was all for one purpose only. Well, that's been accomplished, and I'm through. Think I want to go on slaving like this, when I can have a soft job managing Mildred in pictures? Not much! Why, I've even phoned a dealer to come get all this truck tonight."

"But, my dear," Mary was saying. "I simply can't understand why you're giving up everything this way, just because some ridiculous dressed-up fake advised you to. Maybe you have only gotten bit parts so far, but—"

"Darling, wait a minute." Mildred leaned forward, her eyes dancing. "I haven't told you the big secret. This 'ridiculous fake' is Don himself; I recognized him the instant I went in. And a whole bunch of rich women were there to see him. He must be making scads of money! Think I want to go on trudging around studios when I can live on that? Why, I only left him in the first place because he wouldn't work."

Little Benny's Note Book

Sattiday afternoon pop got a inspiration to go down the cellar and fix the grate in the furnace, me going down with him to watch him work, and he fixed it in about 5 minutes, saying, Well, that was too easy, my urge to perform good deeds is still unsattisfiea How about pitching in with me and making a little law and order in that wood bin? I seem to have a vague recollection of your mother mentioning the disreputable condition of that wood bin, can you recall anything of the sort? he said.

Sure, lots of times, I said. Let's pile everything up perfect and surprise her, I said.

Wich we started to do, being harder than I thought, and I heard the fellows playing and arguing out in the street and I said, Well jiminy, pop, how would it be if we just did half now and half the next time?

It wouldn't be, pop said. In other words there wouldn't be any next time. If a thing's worth doing it's worth doing while the iron is hot, he said, and I said, Well gosh, pop, maybe it's not exactly worth doing.

Let's assume that it is, in fact one of the most sattisfying phillosophies of life is to assume that everything you do is worth doing, pop said.

And we kept on till we finished, and ma came down the cellar to see how pop was doing with the grate, saying, Well, now isn't that lovely, and now you can just get to work on that gassly mass of papers while you're in the mood.

Well G, ma, we're not, I said, and pop said, That's right my deer, the mood has vanished, perhaps not forever, but completely.

And we both quick went up the cellar steps brushing our hands.

Fourth Thurlow

4th Thurlow—Heartfelt sympathy is extended by everyone to Mrs. Clare Sills and family in the recent loss of her mother, Mrs. Wyatt, of Belleville.

Sympathy is also due those who suffered damages resulting from the gale which struck this part of the county on Friday. Mr. Garrison's barn, Mr. Ritz's verandah and barn, the steel roof of Mr. C. Cole's barn, also the roof on Mr. W. Sparrow's barn and a silo and one of Mr. Yateman's barn and a silo comprise the chief losses in this immediate neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Badgely spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin.

Mrs. Fred Wilson of Lime Lake, called recently on Mr. John Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bradshaw visited friends at their old home, near Selby, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cole of Wellington, and Rev. Armstrong, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. Chas. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McMath are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Sparrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Badgely and children also Mr. Ryerson Badgely, and Mrs. Stewart of Melrose, were entertained to dinner at the Ritz home on Sunday.

Miss Stella Bradshaw entertained recently Miss Marion Martin and friend of Trenton.

Mr. Horace Yateman of Windsor, was a week-end visitor at the home of his father, Mr. W. Yateman.

Meribeth Miller entertained eight little girls on Saturday in honour of her eighth birthday.

Mrs. Chas. Cole returned to her home on Sunday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Foote, Northport.

A number of members from this Line attended the W.M.S. meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Doxtator, 3rd Line on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole and Miss Theda Cole of Belleville, called Sunday on Mr. John Cole.

Young People's Union met Tuesday evening with Russell Ritz in charge of the Missionary program.

Outstanding Radio Programs

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16.

AFTERNOON

2.00—Scarborough night from London.—CBL, CBO.

NIGHT

8.30—Avalon Time.—WEAF, WGY.
9.00—Your Hit Parade. —WABC, WJR.
9.45—Saturday Night Serenade — WJR.
10.00—Benny Goodman's Orch. — WEAF, WLW, WGY.
10.15—Symphonic Strings — CBL, CBO.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17.

AFTERNOON

2.00—Continental Varieties.—WJZ, WHAM.
3.00—Columbia B'casting Symphony.—WABC, CFRB.
2.00—Electronic Orch.; a 12-piece electric instrument dance band—WEAF, CBL.
4.00—So, You Think You Know Music.—WABC, CFRB, WGR.
5.00 — Enna Jettick Melodies — WEAF, WGY
5.15—Four Star News.—WJZ.
6.30—Gateway to Hollywood,

NIGHT

6.00—Canadian Grenedier Guards Band.—CBO, CBL.
6.30—Gateway to Hollywood, —WABC.
7.00—European Survey by Hugh Gibson—WJZ
7.30—Jane Froman, mezzo sop. — WABC, WGR.
7.30—Radio Guild, drama. — WJZ, WHAM.
8.00—Symphony Orch.—WJZ.
8.00—Don Ameche, m.c; Robert Armbruster's Orch.; Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy; Dorothy Lamour, vocalist. — WEAF, CBO, CBL.
9.00—Summer Hour; James Melton tenor.—WABC, WGR.
10.00 — Voice of Hawaii — WJZ WHAM.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF, WBEN, WGY..
7.30—Blondie sketch — WABC, WGR.
8.00—Quaker Variety Show. — WEAF, WBEN, WGY.
8.00 — Tune Up Time — WABC, WGR.
8.30—Voice of Firestone; Michael Jose Echaniz, pianist. — WEAF, WGY, CBL.
9.00—Lux Radio Theater.—WABC, CFRB.
10.00—Lullaby Lady.—WEAF, CBL.
10.30—Pageant of Melody—CBO, CBL.
11.15—String Trio.—CBO, CBL.

RADIO PROGRAMS

SATURDAY

7.00—Americans at work—WABC, WGR
8.30—Let's join the band—WABC, WGR, CFRB
8.30—Hawaii Calls.—CBL
9.00—Vox Pop; Interviews—WEAF, WBEN
9.00—Barn Dance—WJZ, WLW
9.30—Military Band—CBL, CBO
9.30—Arch Oboler's plays—WEAF, WGY
9.45—Music in the air—WABC
10.15—Man About Hollywood — WABC, CFRB

SUNDAY

10.00—Highlights of the Bible — WEAF, WGY, WBEN
10.00—Church of the Air—WABC
10.00—Diversion Without Exertion—WJZ
11.30—Major Bowes Capital Family —WABC
12.00—Radio City Music Hall — WJZ, WLW.
12.30—Salt Lake City Tabernacle—WABC
4.00—National Vespers—WJZ
4.30—The World Is Yours, drama—WEAF, CBL
5.30—Paul Wing's Spelling Bee — WEAF, WGY
5.45—Letters Home from the World's Fair—WJZ, WHAM
6.30—The Grouch Club, drama and music—WEAF, WGY
7.30—Band Wagon—WEAF, WGY
8.00—Manhattan Merry-go-Round —WEAF
9.00—Hollywood Playhouse—WJZ.
9.30—Walter Winchell, comm. — WJZ, WLW, WHAM
10.00—Concert Orchestra — WEAF, WGY, WLW
10.00—Alibi Club—WABC, CFRB
10.30—Kaltenborn from Europe — WABC

MONDAY

1.00—The Goldbergs — WABC, WGR
2.00—Betty and Bob — WEAF, WHAM
5.45—Scattergood Baines, sketch—WABC
7.15—Lum & Abner comedy sketch —WABC, WGR
7.30—Larry Clinton's Musical sensations.—WEAF, WHAM
8.30—True or False—WJZ, WHAM.
8.30—Model Minstrels — WABC, WGR
9.00—Magic Key — WJZ, CBL, WHAM
9.00—Dr. I. Q. Quiz Program—WEAF, WGY.
9.30—Horace Heidt's Orch.—WEAF, CBL.

RADIO DIRECTORY

CANADIAN STATIONS

| | Kls. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal | 880 |
| CKOC—Hamilton | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland | 1070 |

UNITED STATES STATIONS

| | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago | 354 |
| WGN—Chicago | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville | 820 |
| WEAF—New York | 660 |
| WJZ—New York | 760 |
| WABC—New York | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady | 980 |
| WOR—Newark | 710 |

Mr. and Mrs.:—

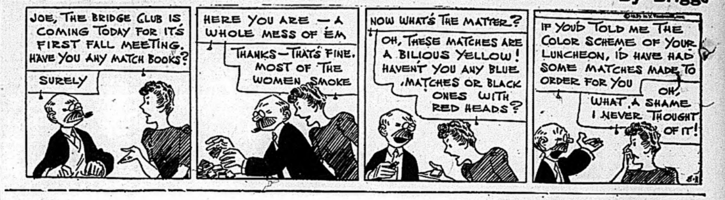
By Briggs



JOE, THE BRIDGE CLUB IS COMING TODAY FOR IT'S FIRST FALL MEETING. HAVE YOU ANY MATCH BOOKS?
SURELY
HERE YOU ARE — A WHOLE MESS OF 'EM
THANKS—THAT'S FINE. MOST OF THE WOMEN SMOKE
NOW WHAT'S THE MATTER?
OH, THESE MATCHES ARE A BILIOUS YELLOW! HAVEN'T YOU ANY BLUE MATCHES OR BLACK ONES WITH RED HEADS?
IF YOU'D TOLD ME THE COLOR SCHEME OF YOUR LUNCHEON, I'D HAVE HAD SOME MATCHES MADE TO ORDER FOR YOU
OH, WHAT A SHAME I NEVER THOUGHT OF IT!

Pop-

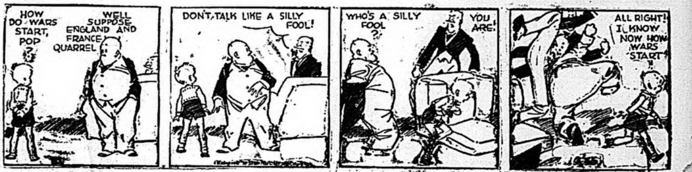
By J. Millar Watt



HOW DO WARS START, POP ?
WELL SUPPOSE ENGLAND AND FRANCE QUARREL
DON'T TALK LIKE A SILLY FOOL!
WHO'S A SILLY FOOL ?
YOU ARE!
ALL RIGHT! I KNOW NOW HOW WARS START!

Tillie The Toiler--

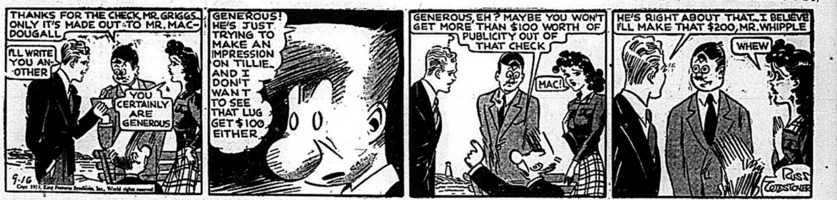
By Russ Westover



THANKS FOR THE CHECK, MR. GRIGGS. ONLY IT'S MADE OUT TO MR. MAC-DOUGALL
I'LL WRITE YOU ANOTHER
YOU CERTAINLY ARE GENEROUS
GENEROUS! HE'S JUST TRYING TO MAKE AN IMPRESSION ON TILLIE. AND I DON'T WANT TO SEE THAT LUG GET $100 EITHER
GENEROUS, EH? MAYBE YOU WON'T GET MORE THAN $100 WORTH OF PUBLICITY OUT OF THAT CHECK MAC!
HE'S RIGHT ABOUT THAT...I BELIEVE I'LL MAKE THAT $200, MR. WHIPPLE
WHEW
9-16
RUSS WESTOVER

Bringing Up Father—

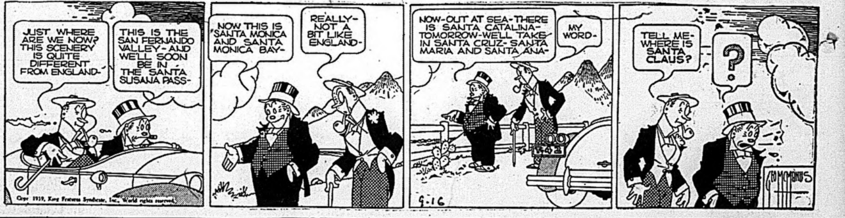
By George McManus



JUST WHERE ARE WE NOW? THIS SCENERY IS QUITE DIFFERENT FROM ENGLAND-
THIS IS THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY- AND WE'LL SOON BE IN THE SANTA SUSANA PASS-
NOW THIS IS SANTA MONICA AND SANTA MONICA BAY-
REALLY- NOT A BIT LIKE ENGLAND-
NOW-OUT AT SEA-THERE IS SANTA CATALINA-TOMORROW-WE'LL TAKE IN SANTA CRUZ-SANTA MARIA AND SANTA ANA-MY WORD-
TELL ME-WHERE IS SANTA CLAUS?
?
9-16
G. McMANUS

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

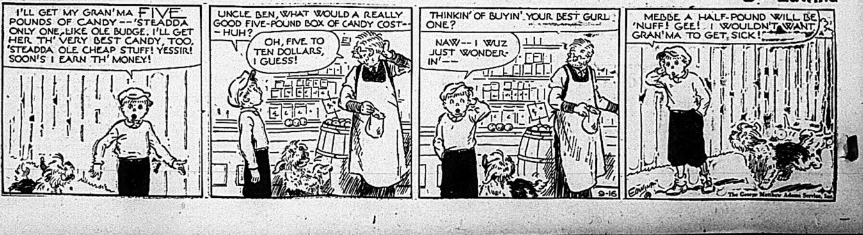
By Edwina



I'LL GET MY GRAN'MA FIVE POUNDS OF CANDY--'STEADDA ONLY ONE, LIKE OLE BUDGE. I'LL GET HER TH' VERY BEST CANDY, TOO, 'STEADDA OLE CHEAP STUFF! YESSIR! SOON'S I EARN TH' MONEY!
UNCLE BEN, WHAT WOULD A REALLY GOOD FIVE-POUND BOX OF CANDY COST--HUH?
OH, FIVE TO TEN DOLLARS, I GUESS!
THINKIN' OF BUYIN' YOUR BEST GURL ONE?
NAW-- I WUZ JUST WONDERIN'--
MEBBE A HALF-POUND WILL BE 'NUFF! GEE! I WOULDN'T WANT GRAN'MA TO GET SICK!
9-16
EDWINA

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 11.30.

MINES

Ajax 20
Aldermac 42
Anglo Hur 220
Aunor 186
Bankfield 20
Beattie 100
Bidgood 11
Big Missouri 11
Bralorne 900
Buffalo Ank 750
Calgary and Ed. 210
Can Malar. 58
Central Pat 210
Chemical Research 26
Chromium 55
Coast Copper 260
Chibougamau 15
Coniaurum 130
Dome 26
Eldorado 85
East Mal 223
Falconbridge 465
Francoeur 29
Gillies L 5 1-2
God's Lake 42
Gunnar 46
Hardrock 96
Home Oil 201
Hollinger 13 3-4
Howey 29
Hudson Bay 26 1-2
Jellicoe 8
Kerr Add 178
Kirk Hud. 23
Kirk Lake 116
Lapa Cad 24
Lake Shore 32
Leitch 68
Little L L 265
Macassa 365
McIntyre 47
McLeod 170
McKenzie 106
McWatters 63
Mining Corp 125
Moneta 83
Noranda 70
Nipissing 110
Obrien 195
Okalta 106
Omega 26
Paymaster 31
Pamour 180
Perron 170
Pend. Or. 305
Picke Cr 410
Pioneer 215
Powell 160
Premier 135
Preston E. D. 126
Pros. Air 50
Reno 46
Royalite 34
San Antonio 163
Sherritt G. 133
Siscoe 95
Sladen M. 28
Stadacona 30
Sud. Basin 205
Sullivan 66
Sylvanite 280
T. Hughes 380
Tex. Can. Oil 85
Toburn 155
Ventures 420
W. Amulet 505
Wr. Hargreaves 700

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 142 1-2
B. A. Oil 21 1-4
Brewing Corp. 85
Braz. Trac. 7 3-4
Can. Bud Brewery 3 7-8
Can. Cement 8
Can. Dredge 12
Can. Ind. Alcohol 3 3-8
C.P.R. 5 1-2
Can. Malting 29 1-2
Can. Vinegar 11
Canada Car 15 1-4
Cockshutt Plow 8
Cons. Bakeries 15
Con. Smelting 48
Dominion Stores 5 3-4
Dist. Seagrams 16
Fanny Farmer 21
Ford "A" 20 1-4
Gypsum 4
Imp. Oil 15 7-8
Int. Nickel 45 1-4
Inter. Pet. 24 3-8
Imp. Tobacco 13
Loblaw 26 1-2
Massey Harris 6 7-8
Mont. Power 27 1-2
McColl-Frontenac 6 3-4
Power Corp. 7 1-2
Steel of Canada 80
Supertest 34
Shawinigan 19 1-2
Walker's 36 3-8
Walker's, Pfd. 17 1-4
Walkerville Brewery 85

NEW YORK

American T. and T. 162⅝
Amer. For. Power 2⅝
American Radiator 11¼
Anaconda 33⅛
Auburn 3⅝
Bethlehem Steel 89
Case 85
Chrysler 86
General Electric 41½
General Motors 52⅝
Electric Auto Lite 36⅝
Int. Telephone 5⅝
North American 22½
Montgomery Ward 54⅛
Phillips Pet. 44⅛
Radio 6½
Simmons 24⅛
Standard Oil of N.J. 52⅛
Standard Brands 6⅝
Stewart Warner 9
U.S. Steel 76
United Aircraft 43⅛
Vanadium 36½
Westinghouse 116½

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 11.30 a.m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

Albany River 15 1-2-18
Barber Larder 2-3
Capps Gold 3A
Kenricia 16-19
Magnet Con 53-56
Martin Bird 3 1-2-5
Oklend 6 1-2-8
Pascalis 30A
Proprietary 1.70-1.80
Sheldon 5A
Shenango 5 1-2-7
Upper Canada 45-48

TORONTO STOCKS CLOSE

Toronto, Sept. 16 (CP)—Except for moderate weakness in the base metal and the western oil groups, the Toronto stock market finished the week with a firm to strong tone. Gold stocks were irregular with the list showing more gains than losses at the close and in the industrial section a stronger note in the utility, senior oil and miscellaneous groups lifted the general level moderately. Trading was of a cautious nature and the total turnover for the two-hour session was around 226,000 shares.

Bell Telephone, following several days of successive losses, tightened up 1½ to 141½ and better prices were posted for Shawinigan, Union Gas and United Fuel A. Steels leaned to the down side. Page-Hersey weakened two points and Dominion Foundries and Canadian Car pfd. 1. Steel of Canada advanced narrowly. Papers were soft and the foods irregularly lower. Canada Packers weakened about 1⅛. Walker's common was the strongest of the liquor group.

With the exception of Hudson Bay, the big base metals posted fractional declines in light trading. Pend Oreille slipped back rapidly from 3.80 where it closed yesterday, to 3.05 and then erased half the loss to close around 3.40. Waite-Amulet, Ventures and Sherritt were weak.

Trade in the golds was dull with prices showing little change. Buffalo-Ankerite was off 35 cents, Teck Hughes 15 and Premier 12. Dome, Macassa, and Kerr Addison ruled stronger. Small net losses were boarded by Home Oil, Anglo-Canadian, Calgary-Edmonton, Okalta and Dalhousie.

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, Sept. 16—(AP)— The stock market's war babies were hit by further profit-taking today and most dropped 1 to more than 4 points before buying support came to their aid.

Worst setbacks came in the first hour when selling pressure was heavy enough to put the ticker tape behind two minutes for a brief interval.

Steels, aircrafts, coppers and specialties were the principal sufferers in the initial tumble. Utilities contested the trend with a number posting modest advances. Rails also were fairly resistant.

Action of the Canadian Government in taking over wide control of foreign exchange, imports, exports and securities helped depress Dominion stocks and the country's dollar.

Transfers approximated 900,000 shares.

Main share losers included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, American Smelting, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, U. S. Rubber, International Harvester and Texas Corp.

Among Dominion issues Canadian Pacific and Dome Mines were lower. Distillers Corp.-Seagrams added a fraction. Canada 4s in the bond market were off 1 1-4.

Resistant were American Telephone, Consolidated Edison, North American, Public Service of N. J. and American Water Works.

Produce Markets

TORONTO BUYING PRICES

(By United Farmers Co-operative Company)

United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were paying the following prices for Toronto delivery:

EGGS—Prices to producers, cases returned basis; delivered Toronto:

| | |
|---|---|
| A-large | .31 |
| A-medium | .30 |
| Pullets | .22 |
| Grade "B" | .22 |
| Grade "C" | .14 |
| Churning Cream, No. 1 lb. | .26 |
| Churning Cream, No. 2, lb. | .21 |
| Butter, No. 1 | .27 1-2 |
| Butter, No. 2 | .26 1-2 |

Prices paid to country shippers.

(Quotations in cents)

| | Live | Dressed |
|---|---|---|
| Broilers. | | |
| 1 3-4 to 2½ pounds | .13 | .17 |
| Chickens. | | |
| 2½ to 4 pounds | .13 | .17 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .14 | .18 |
| 5 to 6 pounds | .15 | .19 |
| 6 pounds and over | .16 | .20 |
| Fatted Hens. | | |
| Over 5 pounds | .13 | .16 |
| 4 to 5 pounds | .12 | .15 |
| 3½ to 4 pounds | .10 | .13 |
| 3 to 3½ pounds | .9 | .12 |
| Old roosters | .9 | .12 |
| POTATOES | | |
| Ontario new, 75 lb. bag | .90 | .95 |

GRAIN MARKET

Quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 11.30 a.m. by J. H. Crang and Co.

| | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat— | | | |
| October | 78⅝ | 76¾ | 77¾ |
| December | 80⅝ | 78½ | 79¾ |
| May | 84½ | 82½ | 83¾ |
| Oats— | | | |
| October | 38⅝ | 38¼ | 38¾ |
| December | 37⅝ | 37⅛ | 37½ |
| May | 38½ | 38¼ | 38⅝ |
| Barley— | | | |
| October | 48½ | 47⅝ | 47¾ |
| December | 48 | 47⅝ | 47⅝ |
| May | 49⅛ | 49⅛ | 49⅛ |
| Rye— | | | |
| October | 58½ | 58½ | 58½ |
| December | 58½ | 58¼ | 58½ |
| May | 61½ | 60⅞ | 61½ |

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 16 (CP)—An easier tendency prevailed on reporting bacon-hog markets today. Stratford dressedweights dipped 75 cents and London dressedweights were down 25 cents. Hull quotes were unchanged and no prices were available from Hamilton.

Liveweights—Hull $8.25; Stratford $8-$8.50.

Dressedweights — Hull $11; London $10.75 plus transportation; Stratford $10.75 plus transportation.

RASPBERRY BUSHES YIELD 2ND CROP

In line with second blossoming pear and apple trees of the city and district, it was reported by James Donaldson of 182 Foster Avenue this morning that members of his family have breakfasted all week on second crop blue raspberries which are growing in his garden. The second crop of berries is reported almost as heavy as the first.

Hog Survey Cards Sent to Owners

During this week the quarterly pig survey cards were sent to the boar owners of the province of Ontario who have been supplying the Department of Agriculture with information regarding their breeding operations. This information is of vital importance to the Canadian bacon industry.

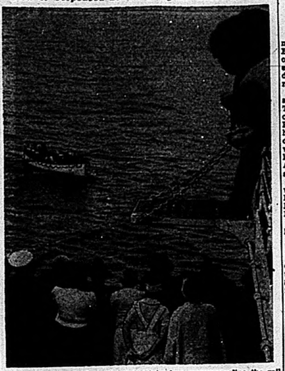
The co-operation that has been given by the boar owners of Hastings County has been much appreciated and the Department is looking for the same co-operation in the future.

Some good lots of hogs marketed from the Belleville district during the week of September 15th are as follows:

| Name and Address: | No. | GRADE A | B 1 | B 2 | B 3 | C 1 | C 2 | C 3 | Premium |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| W. McPherson, Belleville | 8 | 6 | 2 | | | | | | 6.00 |
| Kenneth Broadworth, Stirling | 10 | 5 | 5 | | | | | | 5.00 |
| Roy Sills, Holloway | 4 | 4 | | | | | | | 4.00 |
| Chris. Bateman, Springbrook | 4 | 3 | 1 | | | | | | 3.00 |
| Angus Gunter, Trenton | 5 | 5 | | | | | | | 5.00 |
| Percy Sparkett, Belleville | 3 | 3 | | | | | | | 3.00 |
| Milton Robson, Holloway | 6 | 4 | 2 | | | | | | 4.00 |
| B. R. Hunt, Belleville | 7 | 5 | 1 | | 1 | | | | 3.50 |
| Arthur Casey, Holloway | 4 | 3 | | | 1 | | | | 1.50 |
| Harry Ketcheson, Holloway | 4 | 4 | | | | | | | 4.00 |
| Roy Walker, Harold | 5 | 4 | | 1 | | | | | 4.00 |
| O. Taylor, Madoc | 7 | 6 | 1 | | | | | | 6.00 |
| Moses Boseley, Madoc | 7 | 5 | 2 | | | | | | 5.00 |
| A. Latta, Belleville | 5 | 4 | 1 | | | | | | 4.00 |
| Hugh Badgley, Belleville | 6 | 5 | 1 | | | | | | 5.00 |
| E. Conkwright, Holloway | 8 | 4 | 4 | | | | | | 4.00 |
| Earl Bonisteel, Frankford | 5 | 5 | | | | | | | 5.00 |
| M. Trudeau, Tweed | 4 | 4 | | | | | | | 4.00 |
| J. Johnson, Tweed | 6 | 5 | 1 | | | | | | 5.00 |
| C. Fisher, Tweed | 6 | 3 | 3 | | | | | | 3.00 |
| J. E. Bateman, Tweed | 7 | 5 | 1 | | 1 | | | | 3.50 |
| M. Everson, Plainfield | 13 | 8 | 3 | | 1 | 1 hvy. | | | 4.00 |
| F. Robinson, Shannonville | 7 | 6 | 1 | | | | | | 6.00 |
| W. Bush, Frankford | 4 | 3 | 1 | | | | | | 3.00 |
| A. Woods, Belleville | 7 | 5 | 2 | | | | | | 5.00 |
| A. Wallbridge, Belleville | 7 | 5 | 2 | | | | | | 5.00 |
| D. Wallbridge, Belleville | 3 | 3 | | | | | | | 3.00 |
| Carman Grills, Trenton | 5 | 4 | 1 | | | | | | 4.00 |

Any farmer who experiences any difficulty in obtaining his premiums kindly notify W. M. Gordon, Federal Department of Agriculture, Canada Packers Limited, Peterboro, Ont.

Crew of Torpedoed British Freighter Reach Safety



This picture, made from the deck of the S.S. Statendam, shows a lifeboat filled with members of the crew of the British freighter Winkleigh, as it approached the side of the S.S. Statendam in mid-Atlantic. Statendam passengers line the rail watching the end of a saga of war which had started with the torpedoing of the Winkleigh by a submarine. All Winkleigh crew members were saved by the Statendam.

GUARDING U.S. "LIFELINE"

No longer are sightseers welcomed at the Panama Canal, the narrow link that permits the U.S. fleet swift passage from the Pacific to the Atlantic, for it has now taken on the role of a United States "lifeline." Sentries have been posted at all important points of the great locks to guard against sabotage.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Sept. 16—(CP)—The 8,825-ton British oil tanker Cheyenne, operated by the Anglo-American Oil Company, has been sunk by a submarine, the Ministry of Information announced today.

The Cheyenne, which carried petroleum in bulk, was built in 1930. Its home port was Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The Cheyenne was sunk off the southwest coast of Ireland. Her crew was saved by the ship Ida Baake which already had rescued the crew of the sunken British freighter "British Influence."

DROP BOMBS ON DEFENCELESS CIVILIANS

ZALESCZYKI, Poland, Sept. 16—(CP-Havas)—The Warsaw radio station reported today 18 German warplanes dropped about 200 bombs in the centre of Wilno yesterday causing serious damage. "The number of civilian victims, women and children, is so large that up to now it cannot be established," the broadcast said.

BRITISH MISSION COMING TO CANADA

LONDON, Sept. 16—(CP)—The Press Association today said a British mission headed by Sir James Rae has left for Canada as a consequence of the visit of a group representing Canadian industry which came to Britain prior to the war to discuss possible emergency measures. Sir James Rae has been one of the under-secretaries of the treasury since 1932.

A mission under Admiral Sir Percy Addison already is in the Dominion.

Communiques Issued By Belligerent Nations

BERLIN, Sept. 16—(AP)—The German supreme high army command today issued the following communique:

"Fighting around Lwow continues. Polish divisions encircled around Kutno still are offering resistance. Bialystok was captured."

NIGHT DISTURBED ONE ON WEST FRONT

PARIS, Sept. 16—(CP-Havas)—The morning war communique from the French high command today said:

"The night was a disturbed one on many parts of the front. There was very strong German artillery action in the regions of Sarrbruecken. Some progress was made by our troops east of the Moselle river. A strong enemy counter-attack, with artillery preparation, was repulsed in the region neighboring the lower Nied valley."

NO DRAMA FESTIVAL

Ottawa, Sept. 16 (CP)—The Dominion Drama Festival will not be held here next April because its executive considers it "unsuitable" during the present national emergency, Col. H. C. Osborne, Festival chairman, said today.

The national executive hopes local drama groups will carry on as usual, providing entertainment and diversion in a time of stress, Col. Osborne said. The holding of a national festival, however, being a more festive occasion, is held unsuitable.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM JOHN BURROWS

Following an illness of approximately seven months, William John Burrows, highly respected resident of this city died in Belleville General Hospital early today. The deceased who was in his 48th year, resided at 154 Church Street.

Born in London, England, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burrows, the deceased came to Canada sixteen years ago. Previous to his coming to Canada he served as a Kings Messenger during the war and rendered service to his country in his native land. He was educated in England. After coming to Canada he became a member of St. Thomas Church.

Left to mourn his passing are his widow, the former Miss Maysel Luckhurst, and three children, Mabel, 11; Lorne E., 11, and David R., 9 years.

The funeral announcement appears elsewhere in this edition.

GEORGE WOOTON

George Wooton, late residence 66 Catharine Street, passed away in the Belleville General Hospital, this Saturday morning. He had been in failing health for some time.

The late George Wooton, who was in his 75th. year, was born in Kingston, his parents being the late Mr. and Mrs. James Wooton. He was a stonecutter by trade and lived for some years in Foxboro. For the past 35 years he made his home in Belleville and held a high place in the esteem of many friends and acquaintances. In religion he was a member of Holloway Street United Church.

Surviving to mourn his loss and to whom the sympathy of many friends will be extended are his wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Annis Wickett; three daughters, Miss Floral Wooton, at home; Mrs. Poulker, Madoc, and Mrs. Sharpe, Nashville, Tenn.; one son, Mr. Fred Wooton, Denver, Col.; one sister, Mrs. Charles Snider, Syracuse, N.Y.

The funeral announcement is made elsewhere in this paper.

(Kingston paper please copy).

LINER AQUITANIA

(Continued From Page One)

Robert J. Landry, radio editor of a theatrical weekly, said he had "never seen such bad mob psychology in all my life of professional theatre-going."

"This statement did not tell us what to do, and the consul refused to answer any questions or take any responsibilities," he said.

The Cunard liner's after deck was cleared before she sailed. About 100 feet of railing was removed at the stern and two 12-pounders were mounted, one on either side.

Officers said the guns were purely for defensive purposes. No weapons were mounted forward.

Destroyer Convoy for Day

The ship had a destroyer convoy for one day and then sailed alone. Capt. George Gibbons, master of the liner, declined to say what course he had followed in the six-day voyage. Passengers believed the ship had gone far north because they saw no other vessels and the weather was cold and foggy.

Sir Ashley Sparks, resident director in New York of the Cunard White Star line, said he thought Mr. Kennedy's message "was perfectly all right from the ambassador's point of view, but I certainly think it disturbed the people who had to sail."

He said he believed only six passengers left the ship after the message was read.

Passengers said they sighted a Canadian plane two days ago and yesterday saw a United States destroyer.

---

THERE ARE SIGNS that this is to be a luxury winter. A suit just received is of black wool with silver fox in a wide band used for the rippling skirt hem. The jacket is girdled with satin which ties in a big bow, and it has silver fox cuffs.

At last a novelty. At the night gala at Longchamps one woman wore a wide skirted white faille gown with the hem decorated with stylized embroidered miniatures, with gold thread "frames".

CHARGE IS LAID UNDER WAR ACT

Frank Watson, Toronto Alleged to Have Made Statement Prejudice to Recruiting

Toronto, Sept. 16—(CP)—In the first case of its kind since Canada declared war, Frank Watson of Toronto was held on $10,000 bail today on charges of vagrancy and making statements likely to prejudice recruiting. The charge was laid under the War Measures Act of 1939, passed at the special session of parliament last week.

The formal charge reads that Watson, on Sept. 15, "unlawfully did make statements intended or likely to prejudice recruiting of His Majesty's forces contrary to the defence of Canada regulations."

The case was laid over today at request of Assistant Crown Attorney Norman Borins.

PRUSSIAN PRINCE KILLED IN POLAND

Prince Oskar, Grandson of Former Kaiser Wilhelm, Killed in Action

Berlin, Sept. 16 (AP)—Prince Oskar, junior, of Prussia, a grandson of former Kaiser Wilhelm and son of Prince Oskar, has been killed in Poland, the first Hohenzollern victim of the war.

The family received word yesterday that Oskar, who was born in Potsdam July 12, 1915, fell honorably "Somewhere in Poland" during an attack.

The young prince, a lieutenant, was said to have led a company into a skirmish.

The news reached his family, while his brother, Prince Burchard, a member of the Ninth Infantry Regiment, also was somewhere on the Polish front. His father, Prince Oskar, the fifth son of Wilhelm, is in charge of a regiment with the rank of colonel.

First-Grade Butter Prices Unsettled

Toronto, Sept. 16—The butter market became unsettled at Toronto yesterday, with buyers taking little interest in proceedings. Supplies of fresh make Ontario solids remained light, but prices for first grades eased to range at 27c to 27 1-4c. Most sales were reported at the higher figure. Ontario 37 scores continued hard to move and the price of this grade ranged from 25c to 25 3-4c.

A quiet tone prevailed on the egg market. Prices ruled steady in the ungraded and retail sections, but top grades weakened in the graded division as undergrade eggs improved slightly. Receipts were sufficient to cover requirements.

Montreal Produce

Montreal, Sept. 16 (CP)—Produce market prices here yesterday by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau, follow:

Butter. First - grade creamery prints, job price, 29c; first-grade solids, job price 28 1-2c.

Cheese—Ontario white, current receipt price, 11 9-16c to 12 3-16c; Ontario colored, current receipt price, 11 13-16c to 12 7-16c. Receipts 1,092 boxes.

Eggs—Graded inspected shipments in used free cases, A-large, 35c to 36c; A-medium, 33c to 34c; A-pullets, 27c to 28c; B-large, 25c to 26c; C, 17c to 17½c. Receipts 746 cases.

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |

Foreign Exchange Bd. to Control Rates

OTTAWA, Sept. 16—(CP)— The Bank of Canada plans to announce daily exchange rate on sterling and United States dollars in Canadian funds, it was learned here today. Details have not yet been worked out for making the announcements.

With the appointment last night of a foreign exchange control board with Graham F. Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada as chairman the board will exercise control over exchange rates and the rates will be made public through the machinery of the Bank of Canada.

The announcement of today's rates was: Premium for New York funds, buying 10 per cent, selling 11 per cent; pound, buying $4.42, selling $4.46 in Canadian dollars.

In the past chartered banks have announced exchange rates and they will continue to announce rates on currencies of other countries based on the Bank of Canada's figures for United States dollars and pound sterling.

Comparative Rank Of Commanding Officers In Canada's Forces

Highest rank in the Canadian Army at present is that of Major-General. Equivalent or comparative rank in the navy in that of Rear Admiral, and in the Royal Canadian Air Force, Air Vice Marshal. The navy is the senior service.

Other comparative ranks in the Navy, Army and Air Force are, in the order named. Commodore, Brigadier, Air Commodore, Captain, Colonel, Group Captain, Commander, Lieutenant-Colonel, Wing Commander; Lieutenant Commander, Major, Squadron Leader; Lieutenant, Captain, Flight Lieutenant; sub-lieutenant, flying or observing officer; Second lieutenant, (Army) Pilot Officer, (R.C.A.F.)

Tame Black Squirrels Use Nice New Lawn For Burying of Nuts

A well known George Street resident may soon be in the market for a dog, preferrably a lively terrier, in the last hope of saving a new lawn from the massed attack of black squirrels with nut-burying propensities.

Several of the animals which have become exceedingly tame through the free supply of food offered by neighbors of the section, have found the nice new lawn a better hiding place than other older lawns of the street, and have created fair-sized excavations all over the green sward. Attempts at chasing the squirrels have only resulted in a sort of hide-and-seek game around trees and shrubbery.

"I like animals, but I like a nice lawn, too," offers the resident with the resulting recommendation by friends to "get a dog."

SIDNEY COUNCIL

The September session of Sidney Council was held on the 4th of the month. Mr. J. F. Wilson was appointed clerk pro tem in the absence of the clerk. The following resolutions were moved and adopted.

That a grant of $100 be made to the Belleville Fair.

That H. D. Graham be authorized to take the necessary proceedings to close Sidney Township Roads on the property of the Bata Shoe Company providing the Company pay all the costs in connection therewith.

That the Township rent tractor and grader to the Ontario Department of Public Works for the purpose of finishing the ditch started last fall in the Third Concession, at the rate of $18 a day.

That relief accounts for August be paid.

That the clerk be instructed to place the amounts for Hydro arrears on the collector's roll.

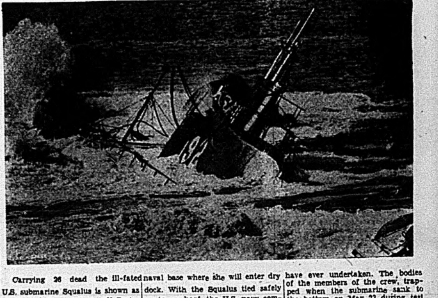
That accounts on the September Pay list be paid.

That accounts under Road Voucher No. 9 be paid.

A by-law to transfer 50 acres of Township property to the Bata Shoe Company and one granting a fixed assessment to the said Company were passed through their various readings and council was adjourned to meet October 2nd at one o'clock p.m.

W. H. NOBES, Clerk.

ILL-FATED SQUALUS REACHES NAVY YARD HAVEN



Carrying 26 dead the ill-fated U.S. submarine Squalus is shown as she broke the surface off Portsmouth prior to being towed into the naval base where she will enter dry dock. With the Squalus tied safely up to a wharf, the U.S. navy completed the biggest salvage job they have ever undertaken. The bodies of the members of the crew, trapped when the submarine sank to the bottom on May 23 during test dive, will be removed later.

TO HEAD AIR FORCES

Inspector-General of Britain's air force, Sir Edward Ellington is expected to be given command of the air forces of the allies. Sir Edward was appointed inspector-general last January.

MAY BE REPLACED

General Fedor von Bock, chief of the Nazi armies in Poland, may be dismissed from his command, according to unconfirmed rumors circulating in Paris. General von Bock's failure to crush Polish resistance is reported to be causing much dissatisfaction among high Nazi leaders.

TO HEAD MUNITIONS

Unconfirmed reports from Ottawa state that W.R. Campbell, president of the Ford Motor Co., of Canada, is being sought to direct the new department of munitions and supply.

ADDS TO COFFERS

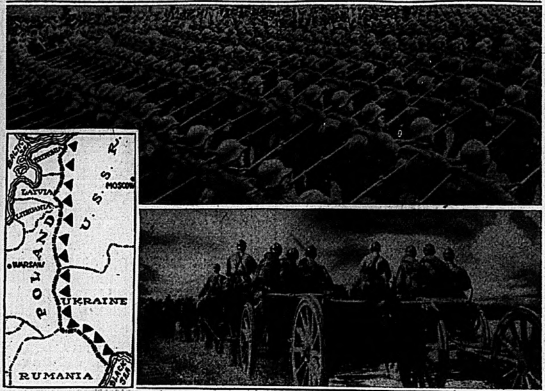
After losing out in playoffs following ties for top place in two big golf tournaments this year, Denny Shute, ABOVE, turned the tables in the Glens Falls open in New York as he defeated Horton Smith by seven strokes in their 18-hole playoff, a win that added $1,000 to the Shute treasury. Denny is the player the pros had a strike over in the American P.G.A. tourney earlier this year.

EUROPE WONDERS AS RUSSIA MASSES TROOPS ON POLISH BORDER



BALTIC SEA
ESTONIA
LATVIA
LITHUANIA
U. S. S. R.
MOSCOW
POLAND
WARSAW UKRAINE
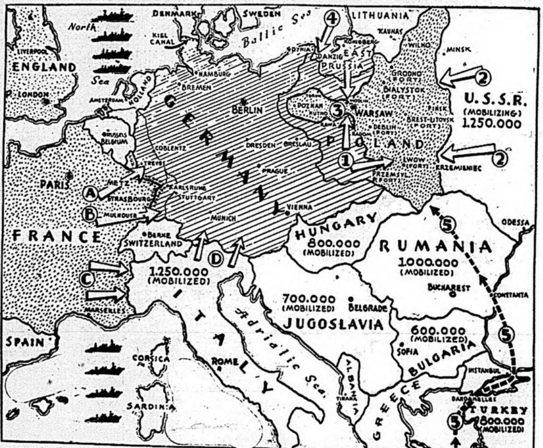
RUMANIA
BLACK SEA

With details of the Russo-German pact being kept secret, Soviet's mighty army mobilizing and Red soldiers massing on the Polish border, Allied leaders fear Russia may have been promised a share of Poland and is preparing to help the invading Nazis. The Polish Ukraine rich in grain and oil, once belonged to Russia, as did Esthonia and Latvia. Rumania fearful Stalin has designs on her, has called a million men to the colors. Another possibility, observers point out, is that Russia, watching Hitler's rapid advance in Poland, has decided independently to grab a share of the booty. Some of the Soviet's massed manpower is shown, TOP, its heavy artillery at BOTTOM.

STIFF POLISH RESISTANCE SLOWS DOWN NAZI JUGGERNAUT



DENMARK
SWEDEN
LITHUANIA
North Sea
Baltic Sea
KIEL CANAL
KAUNAS
④
GDYNIA
DANZIG
KONIGSBERG
EAST PRUSSIA
WILNO
MINSK
LIVERPOOL ENGLAND
LONDON
HAMBURG
BREMEN
AMSTERDAM
HOLLAND
GERMANY
BERLIN
GRODNO (FORT)
BIALYSTOK (FORT)
②
U.S.S.R. (MOBILIZING) 1.250.000
POZNAN
TORUN
KUTNO
③
MODLIN
WARSAW
RAWA
RADOM
DEBLIN (FORT)
PINSK
BREST-LITOVSK (FORT)
BRUSSELS
BELGIUM
LUX.
COBLENTZ
DRESDEN
BRESLAU
POLAND
①
LWOW (FORT)
KRZEMIENIEC
②
PRZEMSYL (FORT)
TREVES
PRAGUE
PARIS
METZ
Ⓐ
STRASBOURG
KARLSRUHE
STUTTGART
VIENNA
Ⓑ
MULHOUSE
MUNICH
HUNGARY 800.000 (MOBILIZED)
⑤
ODESSA
FRANCE
BERNE
SWITZERLAND
Ⓓ
RUMANIA 1.000.000 (MOBILIZED)
Ⓒ
1.250.000 (MOBILIZED)
BUCHAREST
CONSTANTA MARSEILLES
ITALY
700.000 (MOBILIZED)
BELGRADE
JUGOSLAVIA
Adriatic Sea
600.000 (MOBILIZED)
SOFIA
BULGARIA
⑤
SPAIN
CORSICA
ROME
ALBANIA
TIRANA
INSTANBUL
GREECE
DARDANELLES
SARDINIA
TURKEY 800.000 (MOBILIZED)
⑤

Polish resistance, stiffening along the San, Vistula, Bug and Narew rivers, has slowed down, if not stopped, the Nazi Juggernaut that has rolled across half of Poland. Poznan, in Western Poland, is still holding out, although the Germans driving north between Rawa and Radom (1) and southward from East Prussia, have tried for days to close the "Poznan Pocket" by the bottleneck just west of Warsaw (3). Far to the north at Gydnia (4) a Polish garrison still holds out, although completely cut off from supplies or aid. Meanwhile Russia mobilizes along her Polish border (2) to prevent "refugees" from crossing her border. The "back door route" to Poland, by which men and munitions might be sent to the aid of Poland from Egypt and India is shown (5). Figures give the strength of Balkan countries mobilized to protect their neutrality. On the Western Front, along the Maginot Line, the French Moselle Valley attack (A) was reported making "satisfactory" progress into the Saar basin, and the Burgundy Gate attack lane (B) was credited with stopping German counter-attacks. French troops are also massing at the Italian border (C) commanding the passes leading into the rich industrial districts of Northern Italy. Trainloads of supplies are reported crossing the Italian border (D) toward Vienna and north through the Brenner pass to Munich.

FRENCH WAR GAMES NOW GRIM REALITY AS FRENCH ADVANCE INTO GERMANY

When these pictures were taken a few short months ago, the French army was playing at war near Metz during their early summer manoeuvres, behind the famed Maginot line. Today the French are following similar tactics as they drive into German territory near Saarbrucken to within striking distance of Germany's Westwall, or Siegfried line. The French high command has announced that most of the Great Walnut forest, studded with machine gun nests and tank traps, is now in French hands.

LORD TWEEDSMUIR LAUNCHES CANADIAN RED CROSS DRIVE

A campaign for $3,000,000 to carry on war time as well as its present peace-time work will be inaugurated by the Canadian Red Cross Society on November 13. The announcement was made at the emergency meeting at Rideau Hall, Ottawa, by the chairman of the executive committee, Norman Sommerville, K.C. Representatives from Vancouver to Halifax were present. Lord Tweedsmuir, president of the Canadian Red Cross, presided and said, "we feel now as though we are entering a long and dark tunnel and we have to go through. There is a light at the end of it though, because we have a clear conscience." Lord Tweedsmuir spoke of the co-operation which would be necessary between the Canadian society, the British, French and Polish societies, saying that the latter will certainly need a great deal of help.

NEW PHOTO OF GERMANY'S SUB BASE

This heretofore, unpublished picture was made at Germany's largest submarine and naval base at Kiel, which was reported bombed by allied planes. The brood of submarines in the foreground had already been camouflaged in preparation for war when the photo was taken a few months ago. In the background is the Schleswig-Holstein, the same Nazi warship which razed the city of Almeria in Spain and shelled the Westerplatte forts in Poland until Poland's plucky "suicide squad" was subdued.

SALVATION ARMY HEAD VISITS BIRD SANCTUARY

High Commissioner George L. Carpenter, newly appointed general of the Salvation Army, recently visited Jack Miner's bird sanctuary at Kingsville, Ont., and assisted in placing bands on the legs of Canadian geese to aid in the study of their migration.

GERMAN BOMBING PLANES AND ARTILLERY DAMAGE KRAKOW

A view of the destruction wrought by German bombing planes and artillery at the Central station of Krakow, which fell into German hands last week in their lightning drive through Poland. Krakow, once

Probabilities

Moderate winds; fine; quite cool tonight. Tuesday—Moderate winds; fair and a little warmer.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1939

Temperatures

| | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | 63 | 39 |
| 1 year ago | 67 | 50 |

BRITISH AIRCRAFT CARRIER SUNK

Soviet Army Strikes Swiftly to Capture Three Polish-Rumanian Border Towns; Number Killed on 'Courageous' Not Known

Two Great Army Machines Attempting to Crush Poland on Eastern Front

AT GATES OF WARSAW

Reports State Polish President Ignace Moscicki Has Crossed Into Rumania

By ALVIN STEINKOPF

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Berlin, Sept. 18 (AP)—Two powerful forces—the German military machine on the West and the vast Soviet Russian army on the East—were attempting to crush Poland today under the weight of overwhelming odds.

At the gates of Warsaw German troops waited for the Polish capital to capitulate.

In the East, Russian forces which crossed the border yesterday were reported bearing down all along the extensive frontier which divides Poland from the Soviet.

News reaching Berlin indicated the Red troops had penetrated as much as 28 miles into Poland, and no one here could guess where they proposed to stop.

(A Russian General Staff communique in Moscow last night indicated their point of furthest penetration was Baranowicze, a railroad centre about 50 miles in-

TWO GREAT ARMY MACHINES

(Continued on Page Five)

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 19 (CP)—Thundershowers have occurred in some parts of the Maritimes with heavy rain in Southern Nova Scotia, though in nearly all other districts the weather has been fair. It is cool in Eastern Canada with high temperature yesterday in Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Lake Superior—Moderate winds; fair and cool. Tuesday—Fresh winds; fair and somewhat warmer, followed by thundershowers in western districts.

Manitoba—Moderate to fresh winds; mostly fair and warm; scattered thundershowers. Tuesday—Partly cloudy and somewhat cooler; light scattered showers.

Saskatchewan — Partly cloudy with a few scattered showers and cooler tonight. Tuesday—Mostly fair with moderate temperature.

Alberta—Partly cloudy with light scattered showers. Tuesday—Fair and moderately warm.

| Station | 8 a.m. | High Yda. | Low Night |
|---|---|---|---|
| Victoria | 49 | 65 | 48 |
| Calgary | 41 | 77 | 40 |
| Edmonton | 47 | 60 | 44 |
| Saskatoon | — | 84 | 50 |
| Winnipeg | 56 | 78 | 56 |
| S. S. Marie | 42 | 63 | 40 |
| Toronto | 44 | 66 | 43 |
| Ottawa | 41 | 57 | 39 |
| Quebec | 44 | 60 | 40 |
| Halifax | 48 | 86 | 47 |
| Detroit | 46 | 70 | 44 |
| New York | 55 | 78 | 52 |
| Miami | 82 | 88 | 76 |
| Los Angeles | 81 | 100 | 80 |
| Bermuda | 78 | 78 | 72 |

Why The Weather?

By Maj. A. H. Thiessen
Science Service Meteorologist

Climate of Poland! Poland lies far enough to the east and away from the ameliorating influence of the Atlantic Ocean to have a continental climate; that is, slightly more severe than that of Germany but less severe than that of Russia in the same latitudes. The climate of Warsaw, nearly in the centre of Poland, is typical of the whole country. It has an average of 25.9 degrees in January, the coldest month, with a record of 37.6 degrees below zero for the minimum. Rivers are ice-bound for two or three months. July is the warmest month, 64.8 degrees average, and 95 degrees for the highest. The precipitation is light, only 22 inches a year, mostly falling in the summer months.

Russian and German Forces Likely to Meet Near Hungarian Border

Cernauti, Rumania, Sept. 18 — (AP)—It was reported here today that the Russian Army, striking swiftly since its invasion of Poland yesterday, now held the Polish-Rumanian border town of Zaleszcyki and Sniatyn and was closing in on Kuty.

(Zaleszczyki and Kuty are about 40 miles apart; Sniatyn is about midway between them on a line running southwest.)

Germans in their eastward drive still were reported more than 50 kilometres (about 31 miles) from Kuty. Foreign circles considered it likely the Soviet divisions would seek to sweep the entire length of the Polish-Rumanian frontier and meet the Germans on the Polish-Hungarian border.

Battered remnants of the Polish Army crossed the Rumanian frontier, barely escaping the advancing Russian troops. President Ignace Moscicki, Foreign Minister Joseph Beck, other members of the Government and the Polish General Staff had reached here earlier.

Equipment Surrendered

Tanks, planes and artillery as well as hundreds of Polish soldiers were said to have surrendered to the Red Army. More than 250 planes had landed in Rumania, many of the crewmen wounded.

Two planes of undetermined nationality were reported to have dropped incendiary bombs on Criseatec, Rumanian border town which already was suffering from a similar raid last night when a sugar refinery was set afire. Eight peasant homes were destroyed and six persons killed in the second attack, advices reaching here said.

Four persons were killed by bombs at another Rumanian border town—Kotringent —Rumanian dispatches reported.

Moscicki and Beck were in virtual custody of Rumanian authorities who denied them permission to confer with other diplomats here. It was believed the Polish officials would leave shortly for Paris.

Marshal Edward Smigly-Rydz, Polish army commander, although expected here, had not arrived.

Poland ordered her Ambassador, Waclaw Grzybowski, to leave Moscow in protest against the Soviet march into Polish territory.

CHINESE STILL FIGHTING JAPS

Forces Resist Attacks 25 Miles Southwest of Nanchang

Hong Kong, Sept. 18 (AP)—Reports from Chinese Army Headquarters in Kiangsi Province reported resistance today to Japanese attacks 25 miles southwest of Nanchang.

The reports did not indicate whether the end of a six-month lull on this front was regarded as the forerunner of a Japanese offensive.

The Chinese, however, said they had prepared formidable defences and that, simultaneous with the Nanchang action, the Japanese had resumed attacks on the Yangtse River Valley, west of Yochow. This, they said, may mean a two-way Japanese drive toward Changsha.

POLAND SENDS ITALY PROTEST

Belief is Held That Il Duce Knew in Advance of Russian Plan

Rome, Sept. 18 (AP)—The Polish government has delivered to Italy a note protesting that Poland is the victim of "unprovoked aggression by the Soviet Russian army".

No official comment was forthcoming immediately on the message, presented last night to the Italian Foreign Minister, Count Galeazzo Ciano, by the Polish Ambassador, General Boleslao Wienswa Dlugoszowski.

While the Italian attitude toward the latest development in the European conflict thus remained an enigma, diplomats expressed belief Premier Mussolini knew in advance of Russia's intention to enter Poland.

No Tax Changes Contemplated In Ontario Says Hepburn

Toronto, Sept. 18.—(CP)— All Ontario will be called upon to tighten its belt in the National War effort against Hitlerism, Premier Hepburn said today on the eve of the wartime emergency session of the Provincial Legislature.

He said no taxation changes were contemplated, although the Dominion Government's new income tax legislation is expected to cut deeply into provincial income. Instead, every effort will be made to reduce provincial administration costs and encourage similar savings in the municipalities.

Mr. Hepburn said he and Conservative Leader George Drew were "pretty well in agreement" on the legislation to be introduced at the session opening tomorrow. It will be shorn of all formalities and the Premier will move and Col. Drew second a motion to dispense, with the customary throne speech debate.

"Our financial house is in order", The Premier commented regarding possible taxation changes. "Ontario is in good shape at present, but we must wait and see what the effect of the war will be".

Session Earlier

He said that the regular 1940 session "may be earlier this year", although he could not say when it would open. Ordinarily it starts in February with prorogation before Easter.

Toronto, Sept. 18.—(CP)—Ontario is not affected by the Dominion Government's new foreign exchange regulation, Premier Hepburn said today. He said not a dollar had been borrowed in the United States by Ontario since his government came into office. Its borrowing has all been done in Canada.

Crack Down on Bootlegging

Toronto, Sept. 18—(CP)—Ontario is ready to crack down on bootlegging which might arise from the higher prices now charged for liquor through the government stores, Premier Hepburn said today.

Ontario, like other provinces, boosted its prices as a result of increases in Dominion excise taxes. The Premier said provincial authorites are cognizant of the danger of "cheap liquor" being run into the province from the United States and were closely watching the situation.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPT. 18, 1914 — Allies reported progress north of the Aisne River with lull in battle but no change in the general situation. United States Ambassador at Berlin announced Germany would enter plan to exchange war prisoners.

Soviet Says in Notes to 24 Countries Action Necessary in Poland to Protect Interests of Russia

HEAVY AIR RAIDS

Deepest Thrust Made by Army Far to North, the Centre of Poland's White Russian Minority

Moscow, Sept. 18 (AP)—The Red armies of Soviet Russia penetrated war-weakened Poland from the east today as diplomatic circles predicted the republic which regained its independence after the first Great War would be divided again between its two invaders.

Word from the Red army general staff of a constantly narrowing wedge between Russian and German invaders revived reports an armistice would be proposed as soon as Poland's fate is determined.

Such a proposal diplomatic sources said, might be made by Russia or Germany's axis partner, Italy.

With the first move from the east that pinned Poland in a vice yesterday, Moscow informed Poland's armies, Great Britain and France, that the Soviet Union would follow a neutral policy toward them.

SOVIET SAYS.

(Continued on Page Five)

WAR SESSION OF LEGISLATURE OPENS TUESDAY

15 War Measures Will be Dealt With in Special Session

WITHOUT FRILLS

Toronto, Sept. 18 (CP)—Ontario Government officials today put finishing touches on preparations for the wartime emergency session of the Provincial Legislature while marching men in Queens Park provided a martial setting. The Park is a training ground for recruits.

Called originally to redraft the Succession Duties Act, the special session will deal with 15 war measures. It opens tomorrow afternoon without fuss or frills, and is expected to continue through Friday with morning and afternoon sittings.

(Continued on Page Nine)

BRITAIN TO FIGHT NEW SITUATION TO A FINISH

Britain's Belief Maintained There Can be No Peace Until Nazi Germany Wiped Out

STRONG COMMENT

Act of Treachery Serious Blow to Allies Daily Mail Says in Article Headed "Betrayal"

London, Sept. 18 (CP)—The British government was represented today as more than ever determined to fight Germany to a finish despite the new situation created by Soviet Russia's invasion of Poland.

Just how important this new complication would be was not immediately clear. The government continued to study the situation, but remained silent pending receipt of more detailed information.

The possibility of action such as Russian forces took against Poland yesterday, informed sources said had been taken into account by Great Britain and France from the moment the German-Russian non-aggression pact was signed Aug. 24.

Authoritative quarters said the new developments in no way altered Britain's belief there can be no peace

(Continued on Page Eleven)

Stop Hoarding Sugar Appeals Toronto Mayor

Toronto, Sept. 18—(CP)—Mayor Ralph Day appealed today to citizens to stop hoarding sugar and warned drastic action would be taken unless it was stopped.

Mayor Day said he had learned a number of people, mostly workingmen's families, have no sugar at all in their homes and had little prospect of being able to get any.

Earthquake Rocks Fuchberg, Austria

Vienna, Sept. 18 (AP)—Two persons were killed today when an earthquake collapsed an apartment house at Fuchberg. The Vienna Seismographical Institute registered 14 tremors.

Daily War Survey

By The Canadian Press

The first stage of the second Great War neared an end Sunday as Soviet Russia sent its troops into Poland to claim the areas inhabited by Ukrainians and White Russians which once formed part of the Russia of the Tzars. High officials of the Polish government are reported to have crossed the frontier into Rumania, although Polish soldiers continue the fight against the invading German Forces.

With certain important differences, Poland's position resembles that of Belgium in the first Great War. The greater part of its territory is occupied by enemy forces. Unlike Belgium, however, Poland has no allies at hand. The second stage of the second Great War must be fought on the Western Front and elsewhere as Great Britain and France strive to smash the power of the German Reich. Only when that power is broken can Polish independence be restored.

May Be Different

In the first Great war a small corner of Belgian territory flew the Belgian flag throughout and in it the Belgian army remained intact. With Poland it may be different. Beset on two sides the Polish army may have to resort to guerrilla warfare to continue its resistance.

According to information from Paris the advance of the French forces on German fortifications in the Saar area continued and drew German reinforcements from the east. What effect, if any, this may have on the Polish situation remains to be seen but as long as fighting continues in Poland it is probable considerable German forces will be needed there.

Fighting in the Saar region developed into a general battle, reminiscent of some of the great struggles of the first Great War. Hundreds of thousands of troops were engaged.

SIEGFRIED LINE HEAVILY MANNED TO STOP ADVANCE

French Regard Reserve Power as Sign Polish Resistance Nearly Ended

DALADIER IN PARIS

French Forces Dominate Whole Saar Valley and Germans Move Back Several Thousand Yards

By JOHN MARTIN

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Paris, Sept. 18 (AP)—Thousands of German reserves were reported flooding into the Siegfried Line today to strengthen Germany's stand against the French advance on the Reich's soil.

The movement of German reserves toward the western front was regarded by military experts here as a sign that the Nazis expect Polish resistance on the eastern front to break down.

Russia's invasion of Poland shocked France, although the nation expected it. The press condemned it almost unanimously as treachery.

Officially, however, France gave no hint whether she would classify the Russian move as an act of war against allied interests or accept the Soviet explanation that the invasion was undertaken merely to protect Russian interests on the assumption the Polish government no longer existed.

(Continued on Page Nine)

Did Not Know Germany at War With France

Paris, Sept. 18—(CP—Havas)—The first two German civilians taken prisoner by French forces did not know Germany was at war with France, it was announced here today.

The first captured German soldiers were in possession of pamphlets dropped by British aviators in propaganda flights over Germany at the outset of the war.

Some of the soldiers made prisoners after German counter-attacks seemed to expect ill-treatment while others were defiant and in some cases arrogant, the announcement said.

Because of the nature of the operations on the Western Front, with the opposing armies rarely in direct contact, the number of prisoners taken so far has not been large.

Communiques Issued By Belligerent Nations

BERLIN, Sept. 18 (AP)—The Army Command issued the following communique today:

"The campaign in Poland is nearing its end. After the complete encirclement of Lwow and the capture of Lublin, part of the German eastern army is drawn up along the line Lwow-Wlodzimier-Brest-Litovsk-Bialystok, thereby having occupied the greatest part of Poland.

"Beyond this line the annihilation and capture of individual scattered remnants of the former Polish army proceeds apace at several points. The strongest of these encircled Polish fighting groups, constituting approximately one-fourth of the Polish army, is pressed together in the narrowest of space southwest of Wyszogrod between the Bzura and Vistula Rivers, and since yesterday is facing dissolution.

'On Sept. 17 a request was addressed to the Supreme Command of the German Army by the Polish broadcasting station from encircled Warsaw to receive a Polish negotiator. The Supreme Command of the Army declared its readiness so to do. Until midnight of the 17th, however, no negotiator arrived at our troops.

"The air force effectively attacked Polish forces encircled southwest of Wyszogrod. Polish aviation forces no longer figured anywhere along the entire front. The German air force, thereby, on the whole accomplished the task set before it in the east. Numerous units of air force, troops and anti-aircraft artillery have been drawn together and stand ready for service elsewhere.

"No noteworthy war activity in the west. Near Saarbruecken a French plane was shot down by a German pursuit plane. During Sept. 17 no air attacks on German soil occurred."

Destroyers Attack Possibly Sink Enemy Submarine

H.M.S. Courageous Launched in 1916 Has Crew of 1216 and Carries 48 Aircraft — On Service With Reserve Fleet

CREW RESCUED

Admiralty Does Not Say Where Loss Occurred—Survivors Picked Up by Destroyers and Merchant Ships

(By J. F. Sanderson)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

London, Sept. 18.—(CP Cable)—H.M.S. Courageous, a 22,500-ton aircraft carrier, has been sunk by a German submarine, the Admiralty announced today.

The announcement said survivors had been picked up by destroyers and merchant ships which were bringing the rescued to land.

(Continued on Page Five)

SEPTEMBER HEAT WAVE IS ENDED BY SEVERE STORM

Trees in Brantford and St. Thomas District Uprooted Buildings Flattened

London, Ont., Sept. 18 (CP)—Residents throughout the Western Ontario district of St. Thomas and Brantford counted losses of thousands of dollars today following a Saturday storm that featured a wind of cyclonic proportions. The storm ended a September heat wave after several new records had been established.

The storm brought damage to crops and trees in an area running from Port Stanley and St. Thomas eastward through Norwich, Burford and Brantford but no fatalities. London escaped with a moderate breeze and no damage.

As the storm moved eastward, hail fell with the heavy rain in the Norwich-Burford district and late tobacco left in the fields was badly

(Continued on Page Five)

Lindsay Editor Misses Story, Loses Reporter

In Lindsay they're telling of the editor of a daily paper who is waiting patiently for the return of a reporter sent out by him to cover the enlistment of Lindsay's youth.

When, shortly after war was declared, word got about that recruits would be accepted in the Lindsay Battery, the editor sent his reporter hot-foot to Col. Brown, commanding officer of the unit. But he made one mistake, the reporter was a young man.

"Is it right, Col. Brown, that recruits are being signed up by your outfit?" asked the reporter.

"That's true," replied the Colonel.

"That's just fine, came the reply. "I'd like to be your first recruit.'

"Then, take off your coat and get to work. I need desk men," declared the commanding officer.

That's why the editor of the Lindsay paper is still waiting for his reporter's story about the recruiting in Lindsay.

THREE TRAPPED IN BLAZING HOME

Four Others at Owen Sound Able to Reach Safety by Narrow Margin

Owen Sound, Ont., Sept. 18 (CP)—Origin of a fire that took three lives in a farmhouse fire three miles south of here Sunday remained a mystery today.

Mat Halcrow, 68, and two of his grandchildren, Reggie, five, and Kenneth, three, were burned to death as four other members of the household made their way to safety.

John Halcrow, father of the two children, said last night the blaze might have originated from a cigarette butt. He was smoking shortly before going to bed. John and his wife were allowed to leave hospital here last yesterday after treatment for shock. Another child, Leone, two, and Marie Quilan, a maid, were unhurt.

The blaze was believed to have started in a frame part of the house and spread to a brick section where the bedrooms were located. Mat Halcrow, Reggie and Kenneth were trapped by the flames which were fanned by a high wind.

Coming Events

FOR REAL DANCING PLEASURE —the Arena Gardens tonight featuring Morgan Thomas and his eleven musical radio artists. Return engagement popular request.
s18-1t

CLOSING DANCE W. MATTHEW'S Cannifton, Tuesday, Sept. 19. Ladies free. Gents .25 s18-1t

EUCHRE TO-NIGHT IMPERIAL Club rooms, 8.30 sharp. Good prizes. Admission .25. s18-em-tf

THE HOSPITAL AUXILIARY will hold its September meeting at three p.m. on Tuesday, September 19, in nurses' residence. Annual dues will be collected.
s18-1t

RESERVE FRIDAY, SEPT. 22, FOR Argyll Chapter I.O.D E. Bridge and tea. Proceeds blankets for English children. Anyone wishing to make up table Phone 1889 or 888. We would welcome any subscriptions to this cause.
s16-21

TUESDAY NIGHT CARD PARTY Conservative clubrooms. Admission 25c. Good prizes. Euchre for ladies Thursday afternoon.
all em-tf

Holden's Expectorant
WILL STOP THAT COUGH. 35c and 65c bottles
GEEN'S PHONE 131
818-26

City and District News

ALL FORMER OFFICERS OF IMPERIAL FORCES ASKED TO REPORT

All former officers of His Majesty's Imperial Forces are being asked to communicate with their nearest branch of the Imperial Officers' Association of Canada which has lately been organizing for wartime activities. Officers not at present belonging to the Association are asked to communicate with Captain C. H. N. Ashlin at 25 King Street, W., Toronto.

DOUG. LATTIMER HEADS TUXIS BOYS OF BRIDGE ST. CHURCH

Douglas Lattimer will head the Bridge Street United Church Tuxis Boys for the coming season, members decided at the annual meeting held over the week-end. The Mentor of the organization, D. W. Moore, was in charge of the gathering.

Officers elected were: Past Pretor, Frank Foley; Pretor, Douglas Lattimer; Scriptor, Gerald Hyde; Comptor, John Locke; Asst. Mentor, E. J. Suter.

Elected as chairmen of the various committees were: Sports, Ralph Parliament; Badge Work, Frank Foley; Entertainment, Vance Colling.

Six new members will be initiated at the next meeting it was decided. Ralph Parliament won the table tennis honors for the evening.

PERMIT HAS TO BE SECURED TO CLEAR SHIP FROM PORT

Clearing Customs in the Port of Belleville has become a new procedure under the War Measures Act and on Sunday afternoon the coal carrier, Henry C. Daryaw, which entered port with a cargo of slack coal was the first ship to be cleared locally under the new regulations. Permission to allow the ship to proceed out of harbor had to be secured by Col. E. A. Geen, in charge of the local port, from Ottawa late in the afternoon.

LIGHTHOUSE TENDER PAYS CALL HERE

On a trip of inspection through local waters, the Government lighthouse tender and buoy carrier, Steamer Grenville, was a week end visitor at the local port. The well known visitor has been painted a new shade of battleship grey, instead of the former black and white hull and superstructure.

MUST SECURE LICENCE TO EXPORT OR IMPORT GOODS AFTER SEPT. 16

New regulations under the newly formed Foreign Exchange Control Board received at the office of the local Port of Customs advise that every exporter and importer of the city and district must secure a licence to export or import goods, on and after the 16th day of September. These licences are already being applied for at the local office.

HEAVY DEMAND BY EXPORTERS FOR ALL CANNED GOODS

The heaviest demand for canned goods for export ever experienced by local shippers is now reported by the office of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. Canning factories throughout this central Ontario district, including the County of Prince Edward are clearing out their stocks to the bare floors. The order for tomatoes has been particularly heavy. Over the week end the steamer Glen Allan made her regular weekly trip out of the local port to Montreal carrying one of the heaviest cargoes of canned goods ever loaded, and unable to take other stocks which remain at the dock warehouse this week. Every means is being tried by exporting firms to secure cargo space on ships to the British Isles.

UNIFORMS CALLED IN

Argyll Light Infantry (Tank) Battalion of the city is this week without uniforms for its members as the result of the calling in to Ottawa of all uniforms and stores of the unit. The calling in of stores and uniforms of the various non permament units of Canada's forces has been general and all militia units have been affected by the order, it was stated.

18-POUND CHANNEL CAT CAUGHT SATUR.

Veteran of many a hard fought battle with itinerant fishermen as revealed by the deep scars on its solid jaws, an eighteen-pound channel cat was finally captured at the bay bridge on Saturday afternoon by Wilfred Terris, local youth. When caught the fish was found trailing some twenty feet of fish line, and a heavy hook embedded in its mouth. Nearly a half an hour was required to land the fish.

BANCROFT WANTS MEN TRAINED THERE

Bancroft Village is making official effort to have men of its own village recently recruited for various military units trained in Bancroft.

On Saturday the following telegram was despatched by Reeve S.S. Lumb of Bancroft to R. S. Ferguson, M.P., Ottawa:—

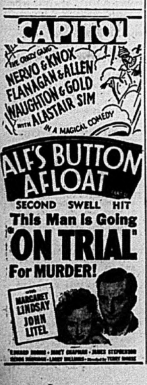
"Understand about forty men already enlist from Bancroft area, going to train elsewhere. Plenty billets and training ground available here as in 1915. Please use best efforts to have men remain here during training periods."

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.
FALL WEATHER BRINGS HEAD COLDS
REXALL
Nose & Throat Relief
with Ephedrine will give you relief Speedily
2 sizes
25c & 50c
McKEOWN'S
DRUG STORE
PHONE 135

G-M SERVICE
GENERAL Motors factory trained mechanics.
MODERN shop equipment.
GENUINE Replacement parts.
MODERATE charges.
GUARANTEEDD work.
MORE Value in our Used Car Clear-out Sale.
BELLEVILLE MOTORS
PONTIAC, McL.-BUICK, G.M.C. TRUCKS.
SALES and SERVICE
A .C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Streets
Phone 340
Successors to
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

THERE ARE NO LOWER DRUG PRICES.
ATTRACTIVE GLASS FREE with
39c
16 oz. tin
OLD ENGLISH
Health Salts
I. D. A.
DRUG STORES
815-16

THE MARY FORSTER SCHOOL OF DANCING
RE-OPENS
MONDAY, OCTOBER 2
All Types of Dancing Taught.
PHONE 958
818-20-22



CAPITOL
THE CRAZY GANG
NERVO & KNOX
FLANAGAN & ALLEN
NAUGHTON & GOLD
WITH ALASTAIR SIM
IN A MAGICAL COMEDY
ALF'S BUTTON AFLOAT
SECOND SWELL HIT
This Man Is Going "ON TRIAL" For MURDER!
with MARGARET LINDSAY JOHN LITEL

FLAG IS LOANED TO R. E. CHURCH

Union Jack Will Remain in Church for Duration of Hostilities

Mr. R. H. Ketcheson, Rector's Warden at Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal Church, has loaned to the church a Union Jack for the duration of the war. Yesterday the flag hung from the pulpit temporarily.

At the morning service the Rev. S. R. Foreman, the Rector, referred to the loaning of the flag which he said would be in the church for the duration of hostilities. He declared there was the confidence that the country which that flag represented was fighting on the side of justice and right.

Mr. Ketcheson has been an official of the church for many years. He was for a long time secretary and then people's warden and is at present holding the latter office.

Other officials of the church are Robert Coles, People's Warden and Treasurer and Alex Carmichael, Secretary.

PETTY THEFTS QUITE PREVALENT

Whether it can be attributed as a direct war scare with so much talk of food shortage or not police are unable to state, but there was a marked increase in the theft of foodstuffs, taken from parked automobiles in Belleville over the week end.

Clinton Bird, Halloway, parked his automobile at the upper end of Front Street, leaving in the rear of the vehicle two cases of canned corn, two baskets of plums and some other smaller articles, that had been purchased during the day. Upon his return to the vehicle later Saturday night, Mr. Bird was surprised to find the two cases of canned corn and the plums missing. Police were informed, but could do little towards recovery.

Charles Brenton, R.R. No. 5, Belleville, parked his automobile on Coleman Street after making some grocery purchases. Later all of the groceries, valued at over $3.00 were stolen.

Raymond Zufelt, reported the theft of a $15.00 pen and pencil set, taken from his office on an upper Front Street used car lot. Police investigated and later Plainsclothes Constable Fred Isard apprehended three teen-aged boys, who later admitted taking the set, which was recovered and returned to Mr. Zufelt.

Police Blotter

John Hannah, 13 Baldwin Street, reported a rather contemptible piece of businehs over the weekend, when some person deliberately cut Mr. Hannah's garden hose in two pieces. Police are endeavouring to ascertain the names of such destructive persons, who if apprehended will be severely dealt with.

City police investigated an attempt to break and enter a small grocery store at the corner of Forin and Charles Streets on Sunday. Although entrance was not gained, it was clearly indicated that efforts to jimmy a rear window had been attempted.

Police arrested two inebriates at the upper end of Front Street on Saturday night. The men had been engaged in a general fight and were badly cut and bruised, insomuch as Dr. G. S. Cronk had to be called to render medical attention and halt the flow of blood through medical aid. After being detained in the cell block Saturday night the two men were allowed to return home Sunday. Charges of drunk and disorderly in a public place will be preferred against the disturbers, Sergeant Arthur Harman added.

The continued absence of transients seeking lodgings at the police station is quite marked, police officials revealed today. "Whether they are joining the colors, or have obtained employment, we cannot say, but there has been a marked decrease in transients in Belleville since the declaration of war," police asserted today.

Woman Motorist Injured When Car Crashes Into Truck

Marmora, Ont. (Special)—Mrs. Minnie O'Hara, Madoc resident, was slightly injured one mile west of this village on Saturday afternoon when the car she was driving is said to have crashed into a truck owned by Wells Brothers of Marmora.

According to reports from the scene of the accident, Mrs. O'Hara failed to notice the oncoming truck when emerging from a sideroad. Her car was completely wrecked while considerable damage was done to the undercarriage of the truck. The driver of the truck was uninjured.

Quick LOANS
• NO ENDORSERS!
• NO RED TAPE!
• YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!
ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.
QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

NEW RECTOR IS INSTALLED

Bishop Marshall Officiates at Ceremony in Church of Which He Has Been Rector for Many Years

Rev. S. R. Foreman, who has succeeded Bishop George Marshall as rector of Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal Church was on Sunday morning installed into the charge by Bishop Marshall at an impressive service, during which the Bible and the book of prayer and discipline of the church were presented to the new incumbent.

The new rector in his sermon referred to responsibilities. He declared that often "we do not realize our responsibility" and cited the example of Pilate as the most outstanding example of shirking of duty in history.

Sitting as judge of the Roman Empire his duty was to be just, but he avoided the duty. He sent Jesus before Herod as he learns that he is from Galilee. But after Christ's appearance before Herod and the mockery which followed Herod sent Him back to Pilate. Pilate found Jesus innocent but would allow Him to be scourged and then probably the people would let Him go, Pilate thought. But the people cried for the death sentence. Pilate still had another way, he would put before them the robber Barabbas and by the very difference in the natures of Christ and this man the mob would probably vote for the release of Jesus. But again his responsibility was not removed for the crowd cries for the release of Barabbas. Then the crowd uses an argument against Pilate which sealed the fate of Christ. The crowd touched Pilate at the vulnerable point "If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar's. Then he called for a bowl of water, saying he found no guilt in Jesus and declaring he was not guilty of His blood.

"You and I know" said Mr. Foreman, "that if Pilate had washed his hands from that day until this, he would not have wiped away the responsibility. His duty was to free Jesus, who was innocent and give Him the protection of the court."

Men are always trying to shirk responsibility", the minister said. They say they were driven to this and that. That is but an excuse.

"Many feel there was no excuse for Pilate but that there is for them", Mr. Foreman said. He showed that Pilate had differed from other governors who had been considerate of the Jews. Pilate would rule them with a rod of iron. He placed the insignia of Caesar on the citadel at Jerusalem, which stirred the Jews. They caused so much agitation that Pilate appeased them because he did not want Rome to know that he could not control the people. The Emperor Tiberias disliked weak officials. Pilate knew this and dreaded loss of prestige and the possibility of facing prison or death. He may have asked himself why he should give up position and everything for the sake of the people.

"We think of the responsibility of the church and the home. Duties are cast upon us and sometimes we have to bear our responsibilities with an aching heart. A great many people are carrying responsibilities which they have in the hearts. They go on day by day bearing them.

"Don't forget that in the final issue of things God is going to send the bill to us. There are two ways, the way of Jesus in accepting His responsibilities and that of Pilate in shirking them.

2 CHARGED UNDER NEW WAR ACT

Michael Phelen, Marysville, Pleads Guilty and Remanded in Custody E. G. Restell Held

Arrested for violations of the War Measures Act of 1939 and charged with uttering disaffection to His Majesty, two men were arraigned in city police court today before Magistrate E. J. Butler, K.C., charged that "they did unlawfully make statements intended or likely to cause disaffection to His Majesty contrary to the Defence of Canada Regulations, Section 39, enacted under the War Measures Act of 1939, Chapter 49."

One of the men, Michael Phelen, Marysville, pleaded guilty as charged and was remanded in custody for sentence until Friday next. The second man, who gave the name of E. G. Restell, no address, was not asked to plead when a charge of vagrancy was laid against him, but later Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan K.C., instructed city police to prefer the War Measures Act charge against Restell, who is alleged to have made defamatory statements against the Crown.

Restell was arrested on Highland Ave., yesterday by Plainclothes Constable Fred Isard after he was said to have stated to witnesses at the Robson Garage, Moira Street, that "it would be a good thing when Germany blew up Britain and then came over here and settled up things." After being taken into custody, Restell, who claims to be a Canadian by birth, stated he had left Southampton, England, on a freighter some weeks ago and arrived in Montreal after being in trouble with British authorities. The state of the alleged trouble was not revealed by police, however. Restell was remanded in custody until Friday also.

Phelen was arrested by Provincial Officers Wm. McBrien and S. Ervine near the Shannonville Fair grounds on Saturday after he had allegedly made statements against the King, flag and Empire, at which time he was admonished for his utterance by bystanders. After learning that Phelen was a native of Ireland and had been in that country within the past six months, Crown Attorney Donnan asked him if he was connected with the Irish Republican Army. "None whatsoever," replied Phelen.

E. M. DELL, NOVELIST, DIES

London, Sept. 18—(CP)—Ethel M. Dell, the novelist, died yesterday in a Hertfordshire nursing home.

More than 3,000,000 copies of her books were sold in North America durring the 30 years she wrote. She was the author of such popular novels as "The Hundredth Chance," "Great Heart" and "The Lamp in the Desert."

Little was known of the author's life. She lived in Guilford, near London, and her house had a high brick wall around it like a country home. She always refused to be interviewed by the press.

In 1922 she married Lieut.-Co. G. T. Savage.

LOANS $50 to $500
Now made here by Central Finance
No Endorsers

No longer need you go to the Central Finance office in order to get a Household loan. Central Finance is now making loans to people in this city and surrounding community who indicate their interest by sending in the coupon below. If you need money, this coupon will make it simple for you to get a Household loan of $50 to $500 without leaving your home.

You can learn more about this convenient service by sending the coupon below today.

Rates authorized by Special Act of Dominion Parliament

Payments include all charges. No fines or extras. Equitable rebates on prepaid loans. No credit enquiries of friends or relatives. No endorsers or guarantors on any loan.

| Size of Loan | Cash to Borrower | 12 Monthly Payments |
|---|---|---|
| $ 60 | $ 51.29 | $ 5 |
| 96 | 82.06 | 8 |
| 120 | 102.58 | 10 |
| 144 | 124.04 | 12 |
| 180 | 156.80 | 15 |
| 240 | 211.40 | 20 |
| 300 | 266.00 | 25 |
| 564 | 506.24 | 47 |

CENTRAL FINANCE
CORPORATION
Second Floor, Kresge Building
355 George St. PETERBOROUGH Phone 1703

Please tell me, without obligation how I can get a Central Finance Household loan without going to your office.
Name..................
Address..................
City..................

KIWANIS TO HOLD A STREET DANCE

This Feature Only One of Many for Carnival This Week

Put down Wednesday and Thursday of this week in your "date" book. There might be amusement elsewhere but it is doubtful whether it would be half as enjoyable or entertaining as that which awaits you at the Kiwanis "Street Karnival" on the two dates mentioned above.

Yes, the Kiwanians are holding a street dance this year instead of the time-honoured Fashion Show in the Armouries. Perhaps one reason being that the military authorities need their building in these perilous times for the drilling of recruits.

However, the Karnival has a strong patriotic tie-up for we understand, on the best Kiwanis authority, that the money raised from this year's activities will be devoted to specific patriotic purposes. Monies raised in previous years have been devoted to good causes but it is doubtful that any cause could be more imperative than the need of country. Great Britain and her Empire's fight to end aggression will mean many calls for sacrifice on the part of her citizenry.

One of Service

The Kiwanis Club is an association of business and professional men whose whole object is one of service. Since the outbreak of hostilities they have contracted themselves to bend all their activities in one form or another to give service to their country. This "Street Karnival," we are informed, is the first of many services that they are prepared to give. The spirit that pervades local Kiwanians is exemplified in their new slogan: "In Peace or War Kiwanis Serves." What could be nobler? Does it not touch a responsive chord within you—to serve as they? War is ruthless; war is unspeakably cruel but it also serves to bring out the true nobility inherent in human nature.

True nobility embodies lofty purpose, deep sympathies and absolute self sacrifice. Neither is sufficient without the others. Our response to the call of country is a measure, in more or less degree, of the nobility within us. The appeal of Kiwanis to help them in advancing their patriotic plans should find an immediate and overwhelming response on the part of the public.

But there is little question that the people of Belleville and vicinity will be there. They will be present in their hundreds, weather permitting, for it has never been said that the residents of the area were found wanting when it came to supporting a worthwhile cause.

Miniature Midway

Front Street from Bridge Street to Victoria Ave., will be devoted to a Miniature Midway and Street Dance; there's to be a Popularity Contest, a drawing for a Hope Chest and a "Shopping Tour" (with 4 prizes worth $20.00) that promises to be something new and different.

Get out your "date book" or better still mark your calendar with crosses against the two days — Wednesday and Thursday, September 20 and 21—when the Main Street is thrown open to the Kiwanis "Street Karnival" and to its supporters. Will you be one?

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. MARY O'ROURKE

The funeral of Mrs. Mary O'Rourke, widow of Edward O'Rourke, took place from the family residence, 118 Pinnacle Street, Sunday afternoon to St. Michael's Church, where the Libera was sung by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Nicholson, V.G.

At the close of the service Mr. Harold Barrett sang "Nearer My God to Thee." The service was very largely attended by friends of the late Mrs. O'Rourke.

Interment was made in St. James' cemetery, the committal service was conducted by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Nicholson, V.G.

The bearers were Messrs. W. J. Lynch, P. Cote, F. Barrett, T. Sullivan, James Lynch and John Lafferty.

Trenton and District

Trenton, Sept. 18—(Special)—At the Trenton Armoury special classes were held for members of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment yesterday. . . . S. M. I. C. Dadds of the Royal Canadian Regiment (C.A.S.F.) at Toronto who has acted as instructor here since Friday, conducted the Sunday morning school. About thirty volunteers sat in for the lessons. . . .

x x x

Masons Parade to Church

With a bright sun shining overhead brothers of the Trent Masonic Lodge No. 38 marched to King St. United Church yesterday from the Masonic Temple on Dundas Street. . . . . Rev. J. U. Robbins minister of King Street Church, conducted the religious service.

x x x

H. and P. E. Regiment News

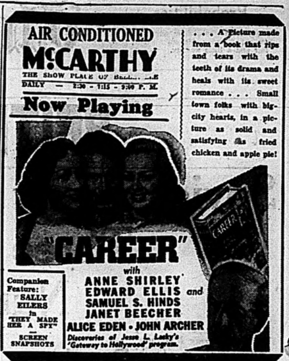
Captain Arthur Norrington adjutant to Lt.-Col. S. Young of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment at Picton, visited his wife and two children at Trenton over the week-end. . . . Recruiting for a week in Bowmanville a staff of Trenton recruiting officers returned here Saturday. . . . Kenneth Kenny, clerk of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment at Trenton, has been moved to Picton where he is acting in a similar capacity. . . . Police authorities here report that the soldiers were well behaved following the army pay day here Friday. . . . Bayshore Park where all the softball games are played is being used as a parade ground by the H. and P. E. Regiment. . . . It is rumored that recruits will be brought in from Toronto to bring the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment up to full strength.



AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
DAILY — 2:30 - 7:15 - 9:00 P. M.
Now Playing
. . . A Picture made from a book that rips and tears with the teeth of its drama and heals with its sweet romance . . . Small town folks with big-city hearts, in a picture as solid and satisfying as fried chicken and apple pie!
"CAREER"
with
ANNE SHIRLEY
EDWARD ELLIS and
SAMUEL S. HINDS
JANET BEECHER
ALICE EDEN • JOHN ARCHER
Discoveries of Jesse L. Lasky's 'Gateway to Hollywood' program.
Companion Feature: SALLY EILERS in "THEY MADE HER A SPY"
SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

Race Horse Causes Much Excitement at Bancroft Fair

Gets Out of Control and Ends up With Front Feet Through Windshield of Car

RIDER AND HORSE HURT

Spectators at a horse race at Bancroft on Friday scurried for cover when a horse named "Sniper", owned by H. Mills of the village, went on a rampage. Rounding the curve of the home stretch on the course, Sniper headed for a row of cars lined up at the rail. He leaped the barrier and over one car completely. He then put his hoof through the headlight of a car owned by Clarke Rollins of Coe Hill, next hurtled headlong to the hood of a car owned by F. B. Sprung of Bancroft, who was sitting with his wife and daughter-in-law in the front seat. The horse put his front feet through the windshield and stove in the hood.

Jockey Moore riding Sniper was thrown twenty feet and suffered a sprained shoulder. The horse was badly cut about the legs.

TWEED

REDCROSS BRANCH FORMED IN TWEED

Executive of 30 Named Who Will Elect Their Officers in Near Future

Tweed, Sept. 18 (Special)—The Canadian Red Cross Society has sent out an urgent request for the organization of voluntary local units to co-operate with the parent body with the object of arriving at a method of co-ordinating all war efforts so that there will be a minimum of duplication, overlapping and confusion.

Having this in mind, some fifty men and women met on Thursday night in the council chambers for the purpose of organizing a local unit. The meeting was called to order by W. E. Tummon ex-M.P. who explained its purpose. He was elected chairman and S. H. Connor was elected secretary of the meeting.

During the Great War 1914-1918 a very active and efficient branch of the Red Cross was in operation in Tweed. Most of those present recalled the excellent work the unit had done at that time. In fact, the greater number of them had been actively engaged in the work of the local organization at that time and realized the need for the revival and reorganization of the local branch.

Mr. I. Hefkey, President of Belleville Red Cross Society and Mrs. Lazier, Vice-President were present to assist with the organization. Mr. Hefkey briefly traced the history of Red Cross since its founding by Florence Nightingale, through the various phases of its activities in peace time and war, and offered valuable suggestions to the local group.

Excellent Information

Mrs. Lazier, who is also a member of the National Executive of Canadian Red Cross also gave some excellent information and advice. She recommended that all local organizations work in conjunction with Tweed Red Cross Branch to prevent overlapping and duplication of services. She said that the chief need at the present time was for sox and pyjamas for recruits in the various military camps throughout the province.

It was decided to appoint a committee of thirty men and women who would comprise the Executive Committee to meet at a later date and elect the officers of the local unit.

Officers Elected

The following were appointed: W. E. Tummon, C. H. Kerr, Clair White, S. B. Rollins, Jas. Ryan, S. R. Curry, D. H. Morrison, S. H. Connor, Rev. Fr. Cullinane, Rev. H. L. Morison, Rev. A. E. Pepper, Rev. W. A. Hunter, Captain Bonar, Miss Cosey Meiklejohn, Mrs. F. T. Bowlby, Mrs. Jno. McGowan, Mrs. S. B. Rollins, Mrs. J. W. Kingston, Mrs. W. H. Hicks, Mrs. J. C. Hayes, Mrs H. L. Morrison, Mrs. T. J. Calnan, Mrs. (Dr.) Doyle, Mrs. Bert Sills, Mrs. F. C. Arber, Mrs. S. A. McCarey, Mrs. C. W. McCaw, Mrs. Geo. Clark, Mrs. M. J. Quinn, Mrs. Jno. McNaught, Mrs. F. B. Foster, Mrs. W. E. Prust, Mrs. C. Barnett.

Of this committee five ladies are life members of the Canadian Red Cross Society; Mrs. Bowlby, Mrs. S. B. Rollins, Mrs. J. W. Kingston, Mrs. J. L. McGowan and Mrs. W. H. Hicks.

A motion was passed to hold a Tag Day for Red Cross on Friday, Sept. 22nd. the date of Tweed Fall Fair. The following committee was appointed: Miss C. Meiklejohn, Mrs. F. C. Arber, Mrs. M. J. Quinn, W. E. Tummon and D. H. Morrison.

The following was appointed as Booth Committee: Mrs. J. C. Hayes, Mrs. S. A. McCarey, Mrs. W. E. Prust.

The acting Secretary was instructed to write to Red Cross headquarters in Toronto to procure a supply of tags, arm bands and boxes for Tag Day.

The committee agreed to meet on Monday afternoon to elect the officers for the local branch.

FALL TIME is MOVIE TIME at The
She's Still Your Best Girl At The MOVIES
BELLE
WHERE HITS ARE A HABIT.
TONIGHT & TUESDAY
For all who thrill to adventure . . . here is the greatest the world has ever known!
STANLEY and LIVINGSTONE
starring
SPENCER TRACY
with
NANCY KELLY • RICHARD GREENE
and
WALTER BRENNAN
CHARLES COBURN
Sir Cedric HARDWICKE
HENRY HULL
HENRY TRAVERS
Directed by Henry King
HOLLYWOOD'S BEST MOTION PICTURE for 1939!
Extra! B-E-L-L-E WORLD NEWS EVENTS — Walt Disney's Newest Color Cartoon, "SEA SCOUTS"
Daily .......... 2.30: 7.10: 9.10

Entries, Entertainment, Crowd Feature Colorful 'World's Fair'

Brilliant Weather Attends Shannonville Exhibition, Fair Attracts Largest Crowd in Years

SPLENDID RACES

Midway, Vaudeville, Racing and High Class Entries in All Phases Are Features

With Canadian warplanes flying over the scene in a brilliant stunting display to give the affair the only reminder of the grim struggle being waged overseas, thousands of district fair-goers on Saturday thronged the Shannonville Fair Grounds where the 1939 edition of the famous local "World's Fair" proved a royal successor to the autumn exhibitions that in the past have enhanced a reputation earned when county pioneers first inaugurated the function.

It was a typical Shannonville Fair with all the color, attractions, entries of every description and entertainment par excellence which with the genial camaraderie characteristic of Hastings County fair-goers that was evident beneath the brilliant September sunshine, went to make a whole that marks this year's fair as one of the most successful in a decade.

Variety, for which directors of this exhibition are justly famous, again was an outstanding feature. They interspersed a livestock parade that far outshone those of the past few years, a display of exhibits of ladies work, grain, seeds, flowers, preserves and home-cooking in the exhibition building, with a colorful midway, thrilling horse races, a greasy pig scramble, baseball games, log sawing, nail driving and other contests, a tug-of-war, clown orchestra and vaudeville entertainment.

And topping the day's fun, an old-fashioned barn dance was held in the grounds at night where another large crow enjoyed the entertainment that the Shannonville Fair executive provided for them.

Entry List High

The entry list in all phases of the exhibition was in advance of those of recent years, officials declared.

Indicative of the strides made by cattle and horse breeders of the district was the fine array of livestock. Proud Holstein, Ayrshires and Jerseys of both sexes made up a display that left no doubt in the minds of judges and spectators that breeders are fast reaching the peak of blue-blooded livestock production.

Swine and sheep entries were good with a fine poultry exhibit rounding out an exhibition that will compare well with any in the district.

Handiwork of the ladies was seen in the Exhibition Building where a fine display was offered. Finework, quilts, fancy work and those articles dear to the feminine mind exemplified the cleverness of milady. Sheafs of golden grain tastefully arranged brought out the glowing colors of fine fall fruits. Apples, scarlet in color, gleamed against the gold of the giant pumpkin. Roots, vegetables of all descriptions were mute testimony to a bountiful harvest. Preserved fruits and vegetables, a beautiful floral exhibit and other products of farm and garden drew a large crowd to this particular spot.

The Midway

The midway was the mecca for the youth and age of the district. Here colorful entertainment was offered while booths and concessions of all descriptions did a land-office business. Here one could drink sweet cider, have his picture taken, knock down grimacing clowns, have his age and weight guessed or if lucky enough win valuable prizes in the games of chance. On a raised dais at the east end of the midway, colorful Tommy Mason, announced all events as well as giving a detailed description of the races as they got underway.

Jimmy Barber and his Toronto orchestra, painted in the grotesque make-up of the clown, delighted a large audience with swing and sweet music, interspersing their number with some snappy comedy. Pat Gibson, clever versatile singing cowboy and his dog "Buddy" received the well-merited acclaim of the crowd with a splendid performance. Step-dancers from the district vied for honors, with old-time fiddlers reviving tunes that their forebears danced to in years gone by.

In an enclosed space at the west end of the midway, the brawny backs of a Thurlow Tug-of-war team pulled themselves to victory over the Milltown aggregation. Nearby baseball lovers enjoyed their favorite pastime as a Napanee team earned a well-deserved 7-3 victory over their Shannonville opponents. Ladies of the district showed their versatility when twenty-one fair competitors clasped hammers in their hands in the nail-driving contest. Sawyers from the county followed, steel crosscut saws biting through heavy logs at a high rate of speed.

The Greasy Pig

A highlight of the afternoon's entertainment was the traditional Shannonville Fair event of catching the greasy pig. A 150 pound porker, liberally sprinkled with black grease, suddenly shot out of its gate and squealing its indignation ran through the excited crowd. It dashed about that part of the grounds near the track with several determined youths galloping in its wake. Several minutes of exciting fun elapsed before Morris Dent, husky young Thurlow farmer succeeded in capturing his slippery quarry and placing it in the crate.

The Races

Fighting finishes characterised the trotting races with all entries bunching in heats that thrilled a large crowd of race lovers. Richard Hal, rangy Campbellford-owned horse showed a fine burst of speed in the Class "A" events finishing first in all three heats. 'Infringer Grattan" owned by the same stable was too fast for the field in the Class 'B' race, and like his stablemate annexed three firsts to win the money.

Five horses went to the barrier in the farmers running race with Rockwell Rose ridden by Arthur Richmond, Roblin, nosing out Norway Maracle and Charles Kimmett in two closely contested heats. A pony race and bicycle race rounded out a fine card.

The results:

Class "A"

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Richard Hal—Harry Ingles, Campbellford | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| Cactus Star—Cy Garrison, Frankford | 2 | 2 | 3 |
| Major Penalty—G. Ruttan, Napanee | 3 | 3 | 2 |
| Peter Greatworthy—F. Yorke, Tamworth | 4 | 4 | 4 |
| Ideal Patchen—H. Ingles, Campbellford | 5 | 5 | 5 |

Times: 2.14, 2.15, 2.15.

Class "B"

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Infringer Grattan—H. Ingles, Campbellford | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| Frances McMillen—Cy Garrison, Frankford | 2 | 4 | 2 |
| Tiny Tot—C. Kilpatrick | 3 | 2 | 3 |
| Phil Carney—Chas. Smith, Holloway | 4 | 3 | 4 |

Times: 2.20, 2.21, 2.pl.

Starter, Dr. H. P. Wellbanks, Belleville; Judges, Dr. O. J. Reid, Ross Turley, Sandy Lummas; Timekeepers, A. Loyst, L. C. Harris; Clerk, Lorne Lazier.

Pony Race—James Hinchey, Shannonville, Grace Roblin, John Symptician, Belleville.

Running race—A. Richmon, Roblin (Norway Maracle, Chas. Kimmet) tied.

Bicycle race—Thornton Porte, Shannonville; Gerald Stratton, Shannonville, Jack McFarlane, Shannonville.

Nail-driving contest—Mary McFarlane, Shannonville, Miss Asselstine, Mrs. Denyes.

Log-sawing contest—C. Bunnett and H. Thompson, Thurlow; O. Carl and W. Martin, Thurlow.

Tug-of-war—Thurlow defeated Milltown.

Reid Family Holds Picnic

The third Reid reunion picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Ivanhoe, on Labor Day, September the 4th. Relatives and friends were present from Cobourg, Wooler, Belleville, Stirling, Latta, Madoc, Crookston, Malone and Campbellford.

At noon everyone enjoyed the bountiful and appetizing dinner and spent a social hour talking over the happenings of the past year.

During the afernoon the gathering was called to order by the president Mr. Charles Martin, who addressed a few words of welcome to the guests. The following officers were elected for 1940: President, Mr. Thomas Plane; Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Caskey; Program Committee, Mrs. Thomas Plane, Miss Vera Reynolds.

The President called upon Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. John Elliott and Miss Edna Elliott to address a few words to the guests. The honoured guests of the day were Mr. Thomas Reid, who was celebrating his birthday, and Mrs. Fred Bailey, whose birthday was September the 3rd.

The program of sports which had been arranged by Mrs. Charles Martin was much enjoyed by all. Winners of the sports events were as follows:

Candy Scramble—Mary Reid.

Egg Race—Wallace Reid.

Diving for apples in a pan of water—Mr. Thomas Plane.

Guessing the number of beans—Mrs. Kenneth Caskey.

Junior boys' race—Irvin Wickens.

Intermediate boys' race—Gordon Reid.

Grandmothers' Nail Driving Contest—Mrs. George Fox.

Men's Nail Driving Contest— Mr. Oliver Plane.

Women's race—Mrs. Kenneth Caskey.

Men's race—Mr. Thomas Plane.

Presentations were made to Mrs. Kenneth Caskey, the newest bride; Lois Plane, the youngest person present; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reid, the largest family present.

It was moved by Mrs. Oliver Plane and seconded by Mrs. Fred Bailey that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin. The next reunion picnic will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Plane.

Marmora

Marmora—Miss Dorothy O'Neill of Toronto spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill.

Sister M. Josephine and Sister M. Isabel of St. Frances Hospital, Smith's Falls, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Neill for a few days this week.

Miss Ida Gillen left on Friday to visit relatives near Philadelphia for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Steenburg. newlyweds of the month were tendered a miscellaneous shower by a large number of their friends at the White Hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Nickle spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Mr. William Fraser of Philadelphia returned to his home on Friday after spending a month's holidays with relatives here.

Mr. Fred Reynolds has moved into Mr. Bullied's residence on the Havelock road.

Tweed

Tweed—The Boy Scouts held their first fall meeting at the Rectory on Thursday evening. They were welcomed by Rev. A. E. Pepper, M.A., Scout Master, and Dr. W. A. Paul, W.M. of Tweed Lodge No. 239 A.F. and A.M. sponsors of the Scout Troop in Tweed. The boys, numbering about thirty, enjoyed a corn-roast provided by the Lodge. A fine address was given by Mr. B. C. Sisler, Belleville. Dr. Paul and Rev. Pepper also spoke to the boys. Ernie Wallace and Jas. Corbett provided several musical numbers.

Mr. Wm. Pipe while working at his shingle mill suffered a painful injury when the ends of two fingers were cut off by the saw. He will be incapacitated for some time as it was found necessary to amputate part of one finger.

A card party in aid of Tweed-Sulphide Band was held on Rednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rath. The bridge winners were Mrs. Fred Mitchell and Mrs. J. Luffman. The winners at five hundred were Mrs. Wm. Prust and Sim McCrea.

The hottest day of the year was Friday, September 15th when the temperature reached a high of 91.

Hungerford School Fair was held at Stoco on Tuesday. Practically every school section in the township took part in the annual exhibition.

The following officials were appointed for Tweed Fall Fair:

Midway: T. C. Graham, Wm. Woods; Ticket Seller, main gate, Wm. McIvor; ticket taker, George Robinson; grandstand, W. H. Sayers; South gate, W. D. Courtney, Walter Courtney,; Outside ticket sellers, Stan Gabourie, Burton Thompson, Stan Tufts; Inside parking, Wilson Sherry, Sim Rowley; Police, James Lowry, Geo. Thompson, Archie Godfrey, Henry Generoux; night watchman, Alex McConnachie; Cattle gate, W. D. Irwin; Outside parking, Isaiah Woodcock, Russell Terry; Watchmen, main gate, Fred Geraldi, Joseph Trudeau.

Madoc

Madoc—On Wednesday evening several girl friends of Miss Margaret O'Connell gathered at the home of Miss Betty Stewart to honor Margaret before she left for London, Ont., where she will take a commercial course. After an enjoyable supper was served Miss Jean Phillips in a few well-chosen words wished Margaret much success for the coming year and presented her with an onyx ring. Margaret responded thanking the girls for the gift and the party. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller (nee Miss Jean Blakely were very suitably honored and presented with handsome gifts from their friends in the O'Hara settlement at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller. Miss Edith Miller reading an appropriate address while their young friends Messrs Gordon McCoy, Charles Stinton, Elmer Adams and Stan Franks presented them with a silver casserole and a miscellaneous shower. The evening was spent in dancing at Mrs. Miller's home in the Hart neighborhood. A pleasant evening was spent at the bride's mother's home, Mrs. Minnie Blakely where Miss Ethel Adams read an address and the young couple were presented with floor lamp, occasional table, a toaster, pyrex dishes and many other gifts. A pleasant evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Moorcroft of Toronto have been spending a few days with their daughter Mrs. Norman Whytock.

Miss Ethel Miller left this week for Peterboro where she will attend Normal School.

Miss Hazel Ross of Toronto is visiting friends in Madoc.

Miss Ruth Empey left this week to attend Normal School in Toronto.

Misses Ella and Margery Fleming are attending Peterboro Business College.

Weddings

DICKIE—LEAVENS

Picton, Sept. 18 (Special)—Baskets of gladioli and other autumn flowers decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leavens, Picton, on Saturday evening, for the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to George Henry Dickie, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dickie of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, assisted by Rev. J. P. Reycraft of Picton United Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of rose white satin, made on Princess lines, with sweetheart neck. Her finger tip veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried white roses and fern.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Leavens, gowned in orchid pink chiffon and velvet with jacket of fuschsia velvet and carrying a cascade of gladioli petals. Pilot Officer R. L. Edwards of the R.C.A.F. at Trenton was groomsman. Wedding music was played by Miss Margaret Dickie, Toronto, sister of the groom, and Miss May Leavens, sister of the bride, sang during the signing of the register. Little Miss Margaret Gullett, in a long net gown of pale pink, with blue velvet ribbons and pale blue and pink forget-me-nots in her hair, admitted the many guests.

At the reception following, Mrs. Leavens, mother of the bride, wore black lace au ninon with a corsage of salmon pink gladioli petals, and Mrs. Dickie, mother of the groom, was in amethyst velvet with corsage of fuchsia gladioli petals.

Following an extended honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Dickie will reside in Toronto.

"TIRED" ALL THE TIME

She felt miserable—draggy—low in vitality—lower in spirits. She hadn't thought of her kidneys, until a friend suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills. At once she took Dodd's. The "washed out" feeling was soon replaced by clear headed energy and restful sleep. Headache, backache, lassitude and other signs of faulty kidneys disappeared. 112

Dodd's Kidney Pills

Roslin

Roslin—Rev. W. J. Scott, M.A., B.D., of Stirling was the minister in charge of the anniversary services in the United Church on Sunday.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants and large congregations were present at both services. Special music was given by the choir.

Miss Helen Welsh went to Toronto on Monday where she is attending Havergal College.

Miss Velma Chapman spent several days this week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Chapman.

The September meeting of the Roslin Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Chapman with an attendance of thirty four. Members of Phillipston-Zion Institute were guests of the local branch at this meeting.

The President, Mrs. W. White, presided and the meeting was opened with the singing of the Opening Ode and repeating the Lord's prayer in unison. The secretary gave her report and read some correspondence which was discussed.

The roll call was answered with "Items found in my grandmother's kitchen." Miss Blanch Reid was the leader for the program. Several songs from the song sheet were sung.

Miss Reid gave an interesting talk on the motto for the day, "Leg after leg the dog went to Dover." Mrs. J. Chisholm gave the topic for the day, "The history of a tin pail." Mrs. G. Burleigh gave an instrumental number "In the sweet bye and bye." Miss Margaret Sills read a poem "Be careful what you say." "Home, home on the range" was sung. Miss Lettie Wilson read a poem "Pray for one another." There was a demonstration of articles made over or out of odds and ends. All joined in a soap-contest.

The President again took charge and called on Mrs. John Kingston of Tweed who was a visitor at the meeting. Mrs. Kingston spoke briefly expressing her pleasure in again attending a meeting of the Roslin Women's Institute of which she was a member, while living at Roslin. She regretted the fact that many of the former members were no longer present and recalling some amusing incidents of former days. Mrs. Simmons, President of Phillipston branch thanked the Roslin Institute for their kind invitation, and felt that all those who had attended had enjoyed the meeting. The National Anthem was sung and a delicious lunch served by the hostesses.

Little Benny's Note Book

We were eating supper and pop said to me, What was the last thing I told you at breakfist this morning?

To be sure and get my hair cut, I said, and pop said, Exactly, and it still looks like a volcanic eruption. Now what's the reason for that, I suppose you have some perfect watertight excuse? he said.

Yes sir, I said, and pop said, Dont tell me, just give me 3 guesses, I know them all by this time. You were on your way to the barber shop and you passed the boys playing some game or other, and they needed just one more to fill up the sides and your sense of social obligation wouldn't permit you to refuse, he said.

No, sir, that's nothing like it, I said, and pop said, Thanks for the tip,—I'll take a different tack on my 2nd guess, you had a sudden attack of aphasia.

How do you mean? I said, and pop said, It's commonly known as a complete loss of memory, your mind went, perfectly blank, at least on the subject of hair.

No sir, only one more, I said.

Meaning guess, and pop said, You heard fire engines and you considered it your duty as an embrio taxpayer to see that the firemen attended to their business properly.

No sir, I went all a ways to the barber shop and started to open the door and I noticed a little sign on it saying Closed temporarily due to labor trouble, I said, and pop said, Yee gods he's got a real iron bound, brass plated, hermetically sealed excuse, this is a remarkable occasion, it may never happen again.

Wich it proberly never will.

Centenary

Centenary—The Women's Association held their September meeting at the church on Thursday. Sixteen sat down to a pot luck dinner which as usual proved to be very tempting. The President called the meeting to order with all singing the theme song followed by hymn 278. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Mercer. The Scripture was read by Mrs. Edgar Ray. The President's message "He asks you to bring what you have" was followed by a poem, "Opportunity." Business was taken care of, the roll call and the meeting brought to a close with hymn 361 and all repeating the Mizpah benediction.

Miss Johnson the President of the W.M.S. called the meeting to order with a hymn followed by prayer. Several items of business were talked over and Mrs. Harold Garrison was appointed delegate to the sectional rally. The worship service of the Missionary Monthly was followed. Those taking part were Mrs. E. Adams, Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. E. Ray. The offering was received and Mrs. Mercer led in prayer. Readings "Today" by Mrs. Symns and "Living the way we pray" by Mrs. Mercer were much enjoyed. Mrs. Aikens read a very interesting letter from Mrs. Blythe Lehman, Nigeria, Africa. The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save The King" and the Mizpah Benediction.

Mr. Judson Kelly returned home on Monday after spending some time in Kingston, where Mrs. Kelly is confined to hospital, latest reports are that Mrs. Kelly is slowly improving.

Rev. Mr. Mercer preached a very inspiring sermon on Sunday to a large congregation. His special message to the children was also much enjoyed by both young and old alike.

Mrs. Fred Aikins, Miss Florence Johnson, Mrs. W. Ray, Mrs. J. Ray and Mrs. E. Adams attended the tea last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Saylor. All report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hart are entertaining friends from the U.S.A.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTROL BOARD

IMPORTANT NOTICE

As announced by the Minister of Finance, a Foreign Exchange Control Board has been established by Order in Council under authority of the War Measures Act.

The following are the main provisions of the Order:

1. Any resident of Canada having in his possession, ownership or control, any foreign exchange, bills of exchange, or any other forms of foreign exchange, having a total value of more than $1,000., must declare such foreign exchange to the Board forthwith. Forms for this purpose can be obtained from authorized dealers, that is, from Canadian branches of chartered banks. Any foreign exchange acquired subsequently is to be sold to an authorized dealer.

2. In addition, any resident of Canada having in his possession, ownership or control any bonds, debentures and similar securities not payable exclusively in Canadian dollars, and shares in a Company whose head office is outside Canada, having a total value of more than $1,000., must declare them to the Board forthwith. Forms for this purpose may also be obtained from any authorized dealer.

3. No person shall buy or sell or deal in foreign exchange except through the medium of authorized dealers at rates to be announced by the Board, or through the Post Office which has been appointed a special agent of the Board to sell foreign exchange for small amounts.

4. No resident may transfer any Canadian dollars to a non-resident, in excess of $100. in any month, without first obtaining a permit to do so through an authorized dealer.

5. No exports or imports of any kind, including shipments of currency, securities and foreign exchange by mail or parcel post, may be made without a licence. Licences for the export of goods and for the import of goods, currency, and securities will be issued by Customs officers. The Board is under no obligation, however, to sell foreign exchange for payment for property imported. Licences for the export of currency, securities and any other property except goods, may be issued only by authorized dealers. Articles to be sent out of Canada through the mails should be taken direct to a post office; otherwise they will be subject to seizure in the absence of evidence that a licence has been obtained or that the shipment is exempt from licence, as the case may be.

6 Special provision has been made to avoid inconvenience to visitors from the United States or abroad. They may bring into or take out of Canada, without licence, their automobiles, personal effects, and in addition, other goods to a value not exceeding $100. in any month. They may also take out of Canada any amount of money not greater than the amount brought in, provided that, if the amount to be taken out is more than $100., they should have obtained a certificate of the amount brought in from the Collector of Customs at the point of entry.

7. Provision has also been made for ordinary transactions of the Canadian public, e.g.

(a) Travellers may take out of or bring back to Canada their automobiles, personal effects, and in addition money not in excess of $100. in any month without licence.

(b) Any person may import, in any manner, goods to a value not exceeding $100. in any month without licence.

(c) Any person may, without licence, export by mail or parcel post gifts up to a value of $25. in any month.

(d) Any person may purchase, through an authorized dealer or the post office, foreign exchange not exceeding $100. in any month without a permit.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO EXPORTERS

1. Under the Order no person shall export any goods or other property from Canada except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted by the Board.

2. Licences for Export of Goods have been established as follows:

(a) General Licence: An exporter of goods doing a regular export business of such nature that it would be difficult to obtain a Particular Licence in advance of each export may apply direct to the Foreign Exchange Control Board, Ottawa, for a General Licence on Form A.

(b) Declaration of Goods Exported under General Licence: Form B, must be completed by the exporter after each export of goods under a General Licence, and submitted to a Collector of Customs and Excise.

(c) Particular Licence: Any exporter not holding a General Licence must, in respect of each exportation of goods, apply for a Particular Licence in Form B through a Collector of Customs and submit it to the Collector of Customs at the port of export.

3. Where no foreign exchange is to be received for an export, the exporter must, whether holding a General Licence or not, obtain a permit on Form D, through an authorized dealer in advance of exportation.

4. Licences for Export of Property other than Goods: Any person desiring to export currency, securities or other evidences of ownership or indebtedness must apply for a licence on Form K in advance of export, except in the case of the export of foreign exchange or Canadian currency for travel purposes when Form H must be used. In both cases the application must be made through an authorized dealer.

5. No licence or permit is required for the following exports:

(a) Goods or other property accepted for export by a transportation agency prior to the date on which the Order came into force.

(b) Travellers' samples.

(c) Goods taken out of Canada by and with a non-resident to a value not exceeding $100. in any month.

(d) Personal effects belonging to and required by any person leaving Canada.

(e) Gifts to a value not exceeding $25. sent from Canada by mail or parcel post by any person in any calendar month.

(f) Canadian currency and foreign exchange not exceeding $100. by any person in any calendar month.

(g) Any non-resident may take with him on leaving Canada Canadian currency or foreign exchange not exceeding the amount brought into Canada by such non-resident when entering Canada.

6. Disposal of Foreign Exchange: It is a condition of every licence to export that the proceeds in foreign exchange shall be declared and offered for sale to the Board through an authorized dealer as soon as it is obtained; for which purpose Form C must be used.

7. Exports by Mail or Parcel Post: Licences and permits are required for exports by mail or parcel post. In the case of exports of goods, application for a licence in Form B must be submitted to the Postmaster at the time of mailing. In the case of other property, a licence in Form K must be obtained in advance from an authorized dealer and surrendered to the Postmaster. A permit in Form D must also be obtained in advance in the circumstances mentioned in Paragraph 3 above.

8. Exports to Newfoundland: All the requirements mentioned above apply except that in the case of an exportation of goods to Newfoundland from which no foreign exchange is to be received no permit on Form D is necessary.

9. The forms referred to herein may be obtained from the Board in Ottawa, or as follows:
Forms A and B—from Collectors of Customs and Excise or authorized dealers.
Forms C, D, H, and K—from authorized dealers.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO IMPORTERS

1. Under the Order, no person shall import any goods, securities, or other property into Canada, except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted by the Board.

2. Licence to Import: Applications for licences to import goods or other property must be made on Form E through the Collector of Customs and Excise at the port of entry, except in the case of a non-resident bringing into Canada Canadian Currency or foreign exchange when Form P must be used. This applies to imports by mail or parcel post as well as to imports made by other means.

3. An importer desiring foreign exchange to pay for imports must apply for the same on Form F through his authorized dealer.

If payment for an import is to be made in Canadian dollars the importer must make an application on Form G through his authorized dealer for permission to do so.

4. No licence or permit is required for the following imports:

(a) Goods or other property which has been shipped to Canada from the country of export prior to the date on which this Order came into force.

(b) Travellers' samples.

(c) Goods not exceeding a value of $100. by any person in any month.

(d) Personal effects belonging to and required for the use of any person entering Canada when brought in by and with such person.

(e) Canadian currency and foreign exchange not exceeding $100. brought in by any person in any month.

5. Imports from Newfoundland: All the above requirements and exemptions apply, except that no permit on Form G is required in the case of payment for imports from Newfoundland in Canadian dollars.

6. The various forms may be obtained from the Board in Ottawa, or as follows:
Form E—from Collectors of Customs and authorized dealers.
Forms F and G—from authorized dealers.
Form P—from Collectors of Customs.

Anyone breaking the law as established by the Foreign Exchange Control Order will be subject to heavy penalties by way of fine or imprisonment.

Anyone likely to be affected by this Order should read the provisions of the Order itself and the Regulations of the Board. Further information may be obtained from chartered banks or customs officers, or enquiries may be directed to the General Secretary of the Foreign Exchange Control Board, Ottawa, or to the Bank of Canada, Ottawa.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street, Belleville.

NO PLANES FOR POLAND

Since the first week of the war between Poland and Germany, very little has been heard of the Polish airforce and its activities. It may be surmised that the Poles have been flown out of the air by the superior numbers and experience of the Germans and the bombing of the airdromes as well in which case hangars and machines are destroyed or if the planes escape destruction then the holes in the airfields created by the bombs would make take-offs and landings almost impossible.

It has been asked why the western Allies do not send planes to Poland especially when the distance is not too great and bombers are supposed to have flying ranges of two to three thousand miles.

One of the chief difficulties with this plan is that Poland has no spare equipment to service the planes of another nation other than her own. In fact probably British machines could not be serviced even by the French except in a minor way. Each country manufactures different types of engines and accessories and the parts are not interchangeable.

While the shortest distance from France to Poland is about six hundred miles all of it is over Germany. A pursuit plane has a probable range of five hundred miles and to send slower long range bombers by the same route would subject them to attack by swift German machines, not once, but along the whole journey. The planes would, also, have to evade anti-aircraft guns even at high altitudes and at night. Even should the bombers arrive they would have a difficult time with the fast German pursuit machines unless they were protected by machines of the same type and as has been pointed out it is almost impossible to get this type across because of the limited range of flying.

To go a longer way it would be necessary to fly over neutral countries to their embarrassment and possible gunfire. Instances of this have been seen in the incidents of belligerent planes flying over Belgium and Holland.

The British and French, also, probably feel that they need to keep as many machines as possible on the western front and at home to guard against any sudden surprise move by the Germans.

Thus it would seem that the Poles must get along as best they can but it certainly puts a brave country in a bad position for while this war may not be won in the air, the nation that has aerial supremacy stands the best chance of winning because of the destruction of supply centres and transportation facilities. These must be protected at all costs for no matter how good a defence is put up by an army it must be assured of a plentiful source of munitions, food and reinforcements.

THE RUSSIAN MOVE

Russia, whose non-aggression pact with Germany was just the support which Hitler required on September first to outrage Poland and precipitate war, has moved. Her armies are in Russian Poland which was a part of Russia before the last war, having entered the war-stricken land on Sunday purportedly to safeguard the rights of Slavs in the eastern part of Poland but perhaps rally to regain the ground lost by Russia after the world war.

What was the reason for the Russian move at this moment? Was Germany making progress too slowly in overcoming Poland that Russia had to come in? Or is it that there is no trust between Stalin and Hitler and that Russia stepped in before the Germans got their hands on the Ukraine of which Hitler a bare two years or so spoke of with envy?

Mystery shrouds the events of the past few months between Russia and Germany and the latest precipitation of Russia into the active hand in the war. Russia has declared she is still neutral, that her action was to safeguard Russian Poles in that part of Poland as the Polish government had left the country.

What the relations between Britain and France with Russia will be is still to be shown.

There can be little doubt that the democratic governments knew very well which way Russia was leaning as negotiations for an anti-aggression pact proceeded. In the light of the present event, one may see why Poland wanted no Russian soldiers, even for her defence, on Polish soil.

The events of the past few days have placed Poland in a sad plight in spite of her heroic stand against a foe to find a nation at her back. Japan is using the new non-aggression pact with Russia as a means of furthering her anti-democratic aims in the Orient. The Balkan issue now looms with two great nations nearby, Germany and Russia. What will come there nobody can foresee.

SIDELIGHTS

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Gossip and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper—under the evening lamp—and comments Grave and Gay.

Supervised by The Lamplighter.

BERMUDA, AT THE CROSSROADS OF THE WORLD, away off there by itself in the Atlantic Ocean, has felt the effect of war already, the ban has been lifted from motor cars for the duration of the war. Thus Bermuda loses one of its chief distinctions, being about the only place on earth where motor cars were banned. Now the ban has been lifted and horse and buggy days are over for Bermuda and it is hardly likely that the ban will be resumed after the war. Bermuda has also granted woman's suffrage, so if the men all go to war to fight the Huns the women can carry on with full authority.

x x x

STRANGE HOW SOON THE WORD "HUN" RETURNED TO THE HEADLINES. After the World War the word Hun fell into disuse as it was a term of reproach disliked by the Germans and the victors evidently thought that it was not sporting to rub it in.

x x x

PREMIER PATTULLO, OF BRITISH COLUMBIA, FAVORS CONSCRIPTION and in addressing a gathering of Kiwanians from the United States and Canada suggested that if Canada and the United States send 2,000,000 men overseas the war would soon be over. The place to fight, said Premier Pattullo, is on foreign soil, rather there than at home. If Canada is at war so is the United States, "and I say we should have conscription of everything right now—every man, woman and dollar."

x x x

GAS AND ELECTRIC LIGHT BILLS will get a boost of eight per cent because Hitler did not have sense enough to know when he was well off. Hitler, the most hated man in the world, should die soon of hate poison. How anyone as cordially hated as he can go on living is a mystery.

x x x

BUSINESS AS USUAL, after we get the budget digested and prices adjusted to the new order of things. Canada's contribution to the war, aside from men and money, should be a calm business-as-usual attitude to the end that a solid line of defence will be erected and maintained back of the lines, no panic, no hysteria, just grim resolution to help win the war and faith in the glorious past of the British Empire and the even more glorious future when enemies have again learned that Britain never has known defeat and never will—even the Spanish Armada failed to frighten and did not even disturb Admiral Drake at his game of bowls.

x x x

THEY'RE PULLING DOWN THE HIPPODROME, New York's famous amusement palace where many fine spectacles were staged in the years since 1900. The Hippodrome was an immense place with accommodation for many thousand spectators. The last big show at the Hip was Billy Rose's "Jumbo," a circus fantasy on a large scale, a worthy Rose production. Belleville folks will remember the Hippodrome as the place where Billy Power's trained elephants were a feature attraction for eighteen seasons. All visitors to the New York Hippodrome will remember the thrill received from the ballet which marched down into the water of the big pool, and disappeared from sight of the audience. Now the New York Hippodrome disappears before the march of progress which has recently obliterated the Sixth Avenue Elevated, another old landmark which had survived its usefulness and been succeeded by the subway.

x x x

YORKSHIRE RECIPE

"What is the secret of Sutcliffe's remarkable success as a cricketer?" asks a writer. No secret. Just a reliable old Yorkshire recipe—beef and batter.

x x x

A LONG COURSE

Writing in a daily paper, a woman says she has not seen her husband for eleven years and wonders what she should do about it. She should be patient. He may have taken up golf.

x x x

ALL TOLD

"How many of your girl friends are in on our little secret?"

"Six, all told."

"They would."

x x x

NOT FAR TO GO

The man who goes through life hunting for a soft thing can generally find it right under his hat.

OFF THE RECORD

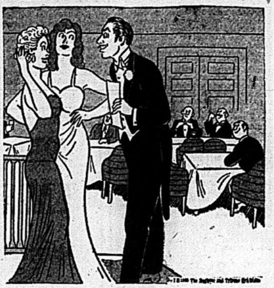
By Ed Reed



"Give us a table with two!"

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 18TH, 1919

Mr. William Carnew, County Crown Atorney, is in Toronto on legal business.

Major R. D. Ponton went to Bancroft today on legal business.

Mr. Thomas Downs of Toronto a former member of the Belleville Police Force, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Rathman have returned to the city.

Mr. J. J. B. Flint caught a maskinonge in Mosquito Bay yesterday which weighed 18 pounds, also several fine bass.

The Ven. Archdeacon Beamish, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, and Mr. John Elliott, are attending the Provincial Synod of the Church of England in Ottawa.

30 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 18TH, 1909

Mr. Franklin L. Ray has left here to reside in Peterboro.

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Taylor of Creemore left for home today after visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson.

Mrs. John Cronk of Wellington and her sister, Mrs. Vandusen are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Weese of Picton have taken up residence in this city.

Mrs. R. H. de Butts and children, who have been spending the summer here, have left for their home in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Robb of Montreal are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Burrows.

40 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 18TH, 1899

It is suggested that the street surveyor take stone from the river bed to repair the streets.

A red flag was erected as a sign of danger over a bad place in the sidewalk on Geddes St., and it was not long before the street surveyor had men at work repairing the walk.

There is entirely too much fast driving in this city; the authorities should put a stop to it at once.

Three men endeavored to hold up Walter Lambert, hackman, last night on Geddes Street. He struck at the men with his whip and managed to get away from them. He thinks he ran over one of his assailants.

Major R. J. Orr of Madoc was in town today.

50 YEARS AGO

SEPT. 18TH, 1889

The work of erecting the arch on Front Street in front of Mr. J. Roy's brewery was commenced this morning, under the direction of Mr. Lewis Grills. The timbers for the double arch at the corner of Bridge and Front Streets were placed upon the ground today. When completed the arches will be an ornament to the city.

Mr. S. G. Retallack opened a men's furnishing store in the Anglo American Hotel block this morning.

Prof. S. K. Burdin of Toledo. Ohio, has been engaged to take charge of the commercial department at Albert College.

Mr. George Belcher shot a large racoon in Bleecker's woods yesterday afternoon. It weighed 20 pounds.

Medical Discoveries by Chance

The road to medical progress is paved with lucky accidents. It is inevitable that this should be so. If logic and an exhaustive knowledge of the structure of the body could solve the mysteries of sickness, not a single disease would remain that could be classed as incurable.

It needs the million-to-one chance of the right man fusing with the right set of circumstances to solve the really big puzzles.

Take Banting, for example. He was a surgeon, but before he dared to dabble in diabetes research he ought to have been a bio-chemist, a physician and a trained experimenter. Hundreds of men with these qualifications had devoted their lives to the fight against sugar-disease, but it was in Banting's brain that the spark flashed.

He gave lectures to students. Each lecture was prepared with the plodding thoroughness that was charactertistic of the man, and one evening he chanced to choose diabetes as his subject.

By bedtime his notes were ready and all the details of the disease were at his finger-tips. But before turning in he slit the wrapper of the American Journal of Surgery, Gynecology and Obstetrics that had come by the last post, and glanced idly through its pages. His eye caught a brief report by one, Moses Baron, who put it on record that when he operated on patients for gallstone, he found that in certain cases the stones had blocked the pancreatic duct and the pancreas had degenerated —withered almost to nothing.

But the islets of Langerhans, that were part of the pancreas, but whose particular purpose had never been discovered, were perfectly healthy. And these people did not have diabetes.

Similarly, dogs whose pancreatic duct had been tied up did not get diabetes, even though the pancreas degenerated. And their island cells were perfectly healthy, too.

It seems painfully obvious now that it is the islets of Langerhans that control the amount of sugar in our blood, but Banting was the first man to think it out, and he would not have done so if that report had not come into his hands at the very moment when his mind was filled with facts about diabetes. A week later, and diabetes would have been forgotten in the whirl of working up his next lecture, and even if he had seen Baron's report, he probably wouldn't have read it.

If Banting had not discovered insulin just when he did, a Dr. Minot of Boston, would have died of diabetes and then we might have had to wait generations for the cure of pernicious anaemia. But if Minot had not become diabetic, he would never have become a bit of a crank about diet.

For years he had specialized in blood diseases, but it was his own weighed out in miserly grammes—pre-insulin treatment for diabetes—which meant a starvation diet that made him recommend special diets to his pernicious anaemia patients in the hope of enriching their blood. Not to cure them, mark you, but just to give them a little strength; to fight that appalling blood thinness that was driving them steadily to coma and death.

He noted that certain experts praised liver for its bone and blood-building qualities, so Minot outlined a diet for one of his patients that was to include liver twice a week. Minot's crowning stroke of luck was that this patient happened to like liver, so he ate it quite frequently and his condition improved.

Minot tried the diet on another patient, and she improved, too. But still he had no idea that he was on the threshold of a staggering discovery. He just thought he'd hit on a good diet, and liver helped. This went on until he had ten patients on liver, and they all showed definite signs of improvement.

So at last Minot confided in another doctor, a young man named Murphy. By sheer chance, Murphy happened to be a liver addict. He genuinely liked it, and his enthusiasm persuaded his hospital patients to stuff more and more liver down their throats. And the more they ate, the better they got.

Even Minot himself could hardly believe it was as simple as all that. For two solid years he kept scores of people out of their graves with liver before he plucked up courage to announce his discovery.

It was the craziest of chances that gave up an artificially induced-fever with which to burn out the ravages of general paralysis of the insane. Young Wagner-Jouregg, a Viennese alienist, had accepted an appointment in Egypt, and, to fill in the intervening time, took a stop-gap job in a mental hospital that would give him the leisure he needed to study for his Egyptian post.

One of his patients was a poor demented woman who caught typhoid fever and should have died. Instead, she recovered, and with returning health her sanity came back. She did not even stay sane, but gradually drifted back into dementia, but on the strength of that one chance case, Wagner-Jouregg threw up his Egyptian appointment and devoted his life to proving that fever could cure at any rate some types of insanity.

It took him thirty years, and he tried fevers induced by typhoid, by erysipelas, by the drug tuberculin that is used to cure consumption and, finally, by malaria. But he won through in the end, and now any case G.P.I. that is not too far gone is pretty certain to be cured by the hot blast of a man-made fever.

Once the original inspiration has been snatched from the infinite, it is a matter of patient research, checking and counter-checking, the collation of the combined experience of hundreds of workers in all parts of the world, until at last every ultimate detail is puzzled out and perfected. — By a Wimpole Street Specialist rewritten in The Hamilton Spectator.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Ordinary Foods Furnish the Complete Diet

You may think that food experts and health writers talk too much about vitamins and minerals and that manufacturers of special foods likewise over-advertise the dangers of lack of vitamins and minerals in the average diet.

As a matter of fact too much cannot be said about the need of vitamins and minerals in our daily diet but this does not mean that specially manufactured food products are absolute necessity in the diet of the average healthy individual. All we need to remember is the advice of America's outstanding diet expert, Dr. E. V. McCollum, Johns Hopkins University, who tells us that all we need is the ordinary "every day" diet in which "every" day there should be some raw fruit or vegetables.

It might be well therefore to see what "ordinary" foods contain these vitamins and minerals, because a lack of the necessary foodstuffs endangers your health. In speaking to the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association, Dr. Frederick F. Tisdall, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, said:

"If any one of the necessary food elements is missing from your diet, it will result in a gradual or, in some cases, a rapid lowering of your level of health. Your vigor will be impaired. Through proper nutrition we can secure increased health and happiness, greater vigor better resistance to disease, and longer life."

After outlining the various foodstuffs—proteins (meat, eggs, fish, cereals), fats (butter, cream, fat meat, oils), starches sugar, bread, potatoes), and the foods containing the various vitamins and minerals, Dr. Tisdall makes it very easy to remember a daily diet that gives us everything needed to attain and retain vigorous good health. As can be seen, these are all a part of the "ordinary" diet of most of us.

"Everyday of your life, except during illness, aim to have a pint of milk (which includes that used in cooking), some meat, an egg, two cooked vegetables besides potatoes and some raw fruit or vegetables."

In addition, during the cold weather, take a teaspoonful of cod liver oil daily or some other source of vitamin D, as provided in tablets or capsules.

DAYS OF OLD

The press dispatches recently carried a news item about the retirement of Frank Radway, a C. N. R. locomotive engineer, who in his younger days was a crack bicycle rider. Around the turn of the century Mr. Radway, then a resident of London, proved himself to be the best long-distance rider of the district. Frequently he won races over the course from London through St. Thomas to Port Stanley, the finish of the race being on top of Fraser (now Inverary) Heights, a total distance of about 27 miles.

Despite the fact that the main roads were gravelled, quite often dusty and rough and the side-roads lacked attention and that bicycle tires were uncertain things, men of those days—and they weren't all strong and skilled like Frank Radway—thought nothing of wheeling from St. Thomas to London, 18 miles, and back. On a Sunday others made longer trips. The trip to Port Stanley (nine miles) and back was considered a Sunday morning or week-day evening constitutional. Often the girl bicycle riders accompanied the men or went in groups by themselves. Through it all there was never a word about hard work. Every one was having a great time.

To-day, youth and middle age can't go anywhere except in a motor car. The motorist who starts out for London or Port Stanley in the evening sees dozens of young able-bodied men, and the occasional girl or two standing by the side of the road, begging a ride. They do the same to get back.

This comparison between the Frank Radway days and the present isn't to the credit of present-day young men and women.— St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Romance in Precious Jewels

Somewhere in the world, perhaps in a back-street curio shop in Alexandretta, or Paris, or Perth, there is a jewel of great price, lost now a hundred years since Louis Philippe of France was ready to give $100,000 for it. Any one might pass it every day on his way to work, yet never know that the large clear stone, set in an old-fashioned gold brooch, was the White Spinel, only stone of its kind known to have existed.

The story of that rarity, along with many others, is told in a fascinating new book by Louis Kornitzer, a dealer all his life in those expensive compositions of alumina, silicate, and crystallized carbon known as precious stones. For obvious reasons, Kornitzer, who hails from a long line of international Jewish gem traders, never handled white spinel; that mineral, with plasma and sphene is too rare to fall inside what he calls the range of practical politics. He dealt in all the rest, however — —the beryl, the emerald, the diamond and the ruby, and in those non-mineral substances, amber, pearl and coral which are gems but not stones.

Along with romantic and sometimes spicy tales of globe trots in search of gems (and customers) the author gives a lot of information about precious stones and clears up some misconceptions. Contrary to wide belief, he says, most stones are perishable; acids will turn them to jelly and even diamonds can be destroyed by fire. To pearls, fire is always fatal.

Some stones, notably turquoises, fade in strong sunlight; nearly all gems will change colour if subjected to heat. Faded turquoises are often restored to their original lustre, the author warns, by rubbing oil into the porous surface, but the restoration is only temporary. Color is the most undependable guide for identifying gems—every species comes in every known colour and hue.

A good test for diamonds is for hardness, for these aristocrats of the gem trade are first on the list of hard minerals. However, says Kornitzer, don't smack your diamond with a hammer to see if it's any good; even the best stone will split along what cutters call the "line of cleavage."—From a review of Gem Trader.

Spy Hypnosis of War Days

The country suffered from "spy fever" in the early stages of the Great War, and no doubt will have to pass through a stage of it again which means that a great many good Canadian citizens who happen to be of Teutonic ancestry or to possess German names will suffer from unwarranted aspersions. The most ridiculous rumors are set afoot regarding families which have been longer in this country than many of those who industriously circulate the gossip. Canada has had a substantial population of German racial origin for many years. Western Ontario has its share and these people are recognized as industrious citizens, loyal to Canada and to Great Britain, as their great contribution in the last war should amply prove.

There has been evidence during recent months of organized activities on the part of Nazi sympathizers in a few centres. With regard to that sort of thing the Dominion authorities may be relied upon to take suitable action. They have ample powers under the clauses of the War Measures Act covering "arrest, detention, exclusion and deportation." Persons of German or Austrian birth who have not become naturalized are citizens of an enemy nation and must expect to be called upon to give an account of themselves.

But families partly or wholly of German ancestry, who have been loyal citizens of this country for generations, have every right to treatment as such. They have helped to build this country; they adhere to its democratic principles of government and have nothing in common with Nazi aims or doctrines. They will do their part in the military effort of the country as they did in 1914-18. Those who have lived with them as neighbors and business associates know how untrue and unfair are the stories circulated in times like these. It would be a useful thing if some of these rumors could be traced to their source and the originators exposed.—Woodstock Sentinel Review.

"If Folks Would Just Pitch In"

I was reading the other day where the chamber of commerce in some city was raisin' a milk fund, and some farmer give 'em a cow. He said he had too many anyway, on account of the market bein' what it is, and so instead of givin' a few bottles of milk for the poor kids, he just up and give 'em the source of supply.

Of course that stumped the chamber of commerce. It was the first time some of 'em knew milk came from cows and there wasn't one of 'em knew how to git it out.

You'd think there'd be some poor family with a lot of kids that would be tickled to git a cow, but there wasn't no takers. They don't seem to want to feed a cow and milk her. What they want is for someone to set some bottles of milk on the back steps.

Honestly, if some of these city folks was to wake up and find themselves out on a farm, they'd starve to death, on account it would be too much trouble to dig potatoes out of the ground and pick the feathers off the chickens. What some folks need to learn is that there ain't no way to produce anything except by work. Some people have figgered out ways to live off'n other folkses work, but we can't all do that.

It ain't just laziness I'm talkin' about. It's bein' so particular about the kind of work a feller is willin' to do. I was brought up to do whatever there was to be done, even if cleanin' out the cow stalls ain't as pleasant as running the tractor. I've got a hunch that if folks would pitch in and do whatever kind of work there is to be done, we wouldn't have no hard times.— John Turnipseed in Family Herald.

STUPID CRIME

"Prussian policy," wrote John Hay, greatest of American diplomats, in a letter to a friend some years ago, "is always brutal, but seldom stupid."

John Hay would not write that today. Torpedoing of the liner Athenia, laden with human beings and not with war supplies—and bound away from, not toward, Great Britain—can be set down as a crime the brutality of which is matched only by its stupidity.—Buffalo Courier-Express.

HITLER UNDER HEAVY GUARD

Surrounded by heavily armed guard, Chancellor Hitler is pictured in this radiophoto as he stepped from his airplane in which, the German propaganda department stated, he made an inspection flight of the battle zones near Warsaw.

JOIN THE MILLIONS who enjoy its genuine
peppermint flavor!
● Get in the good habit of chewing Doublemint Gum after every meal! Its cooling, long-lasting, genuine peppermint flavor is so invigorating. And so good for you, too — helps keep teeth bright, breath pleasant. Healthful — delicious — refreshing!
GET SOME TODAY!
WRIGLEY'S
DOUBLEMINT
CHEWING GUM
PEPPERMINT FLAVOR
THE FLAVOR LASTS

TWO GREAT ARMY MACHINES

(Continued From Page One)

Furthest Penetration

side Poland from Russian frontier.)

It seemed certain, however, that the Russian and German armies planned to meet somewhere in mid-Poland. There were even rumors in Berlin that Nazi and Red leaders might meet today somewhere near Brest-Litovsk to discuss the fate of the Polish Republic.

Meanwhile German forces continued their drive to the Southeast. Nazi troops were reported advancing both north and south of Lwow (Lemberg), capital of the Polish Ukraine.

One force was said to be approaching Drohobycz, 40 miles southwest of Lwow. Other forces were reported pressing on toward Magierow, 30 miles northwest of Lwow, and Krasnystaw, still farther to the north.

President Reported in Flight

According to information here, the Polish Government—including President Ignace Moscicki—already had left Poland and had crossed the Rumanian border.

That no new action had been reported around Warsaw since submission of a German ultimatum demanding surrender of the capital, was taken in Berlin as an indication that negotiations for capitulation were under way.

The Berlin radio, in messages to the Warsaw commander which all Europe could hear last night, gave instructions as to the manner in which Polish emissaries were to leave the capital to meet the German commander.

No Response Heard

The High Command reported the defenders had agreed to dispatch emissaries to the German lines, but no response was heard here over the ordinary wavelengths.

There were repeated German radio assertions early today that "the peoples in Africa and Asia now dominated by England await the day of final settlement of their score with the British empire."

"It's Warsaw today, but the story is by no means finished," an informed spokesman said.

Only hearty expressions of agreement with Russia were heard in Berlin today. Russia, the Germans argued, has vital interests in suppressed minorities in Poland to whose aid, they said, she is obliged to go.

Stalin Called Shrewd

"But Stalin is the shrewdest diplomat of all," it was observed in one quarter. "He waited until Germany had performed the major part of smashing the Polish army before stepping in."

It was not expected here, however, that any meeting of Nazi and Russian military leaders which conceivably might take place today immediately could settle the fate of Poland.

Political questions outside the sphere of army commanders would be involved in any new partitioning of the Republic, Nazi leaders said. Pending settlement of political issues, it was expected there would be a German-Russian agreement regarding military control of certain portions of Poland.

He said the White Russian and Ukrainian minorities, which occupy 46,723 square miles of Polish territory, would be taken under Russian "protection".

Treaties Not Operating

"No one knows the whereabouts of the Polish Government," he said. In view of this state of affairs treaties concluded between the Soviet Union and Poland have ceased to operate."

Declaring "nobody could have expected that the Polish State would have betrayed such impotence and such swift collapse," Molotoff said:—

"The Soviet Government deems it its sacred duty to extend the hand of assistance to its brother Ukrainians and brother Byelo-Russians inhabiting Poland."

A note giving the same reasons and announcing troops would be sent into Poland was handed Polish Ambasador Waclaw Grzybowski after a conference with Soviet officials. He rejected the note. A spokesman for the Polish Embassy referred bitterly to the "obvious contradiction in the fact that Soviet authorities addressed a note to the envoy of a state they claim is existing no longer."

Note Given 24 Countries

Copies of the note sent to 24 countries said Poland "has become a fertile field for any accidental and unexpected contingency and may create a menace to the Soviet Union."

Extent of the territory Russia intends to occupy was not disclosed.

After the last war, 101,196 square miles of territory then held by Russia were included in Poland. Part of that territory already has been occupied by German troops.

Moscow diplomatic quarters said Germany might ask to retain Danzig, Silesia and other one-time German sections, and call for cession of White Russia and Ukrainia to Russia and creation of a narrow Polish buffer state between.

At workers meetings in many parts of the Soviet Union, cheers greeted the reading of Molotoff's speech and the news Poland had been entered from the east.

SOVIET SAYS

(Continued From Page One)

Described As Necessary.

In a broadcast by the Soviet Premier and Foreign Commissar, Vyacheslaff Molotoff, and in his notes to 24 governments represented in Moscow, crossing of the frontier was described as necessary to protect once-Russian minorities in eastern Poland.

Molotoff said the Polish government "ceased to exist", and the minorities — 11,000,000 White Russians and Ukrainians — were abandoned entirely to their fate."

The Red army advance was reported general along a 500-mile frontier between Latvia on the north and Rumania on the south.

Deepest thrusts were said to be far to the north — centre of Poland's White Russian minority — and in southeastern Poland—the Ukrainian minority territory. Towns as far as 50 miles from the frontier were listed as captured in the first day's invasion.

Russians claimed they took Glebokie, northeast of Wilno; Baranowicze, railway centre 50 miles from the frontier; Dubno, northeast of Lwow, and Tarnopol, in the Ukrainian section southeast of Lwow.

Armies 68 Miles Apart

That would place the Russian and German armies within 53 miles of each other. That is the distance from Dubno to Wlodzimierz, reported held by German troops north of Lwow.

Advance guards of the two forces might be even closer southeast of Lwow. German mechanized units were reported to have crossed a railway southeast of Lwow. Russian advance troops were said to be in Tarnopol, within 50 miles of the railroad.

At Baranowicze, German planes and Russian troops struck at the same objective. The Russian General staff announced the capture after Russian and German broadcasts told of heavy German air raids against the city.

A general staff communique said the Russians defeated several "weak advance units and reserves of the Polish army" at points where there was resistance.

(The Polish legation at Berne, Switzerland, said it heard a Polish broadcast that Russian troops had been repulsed at Moldeczno, 20 miles from the northeastern frontier.

(At Paris, it was reported the Red Army had taken Zalesczczki in the southeast, on the Polish-Rumanian border.)

The general staff said ten Polish warplanes were brought down.

Invasion from the east, reported started yesterday at 6 a.m. (11 p.m. E.D.T., Saturday), came two days after Russia and Japan called an armistice along the border of Soviet-controlled outer Mongolia and Japanese-dominated Manchoukuo. Four months of intermittent battling there had kept Russia's attention turned to the east.

Military reserves already had been called to bolster Russia's army which the Communist Party newspaper Pravda has said totalled 1,800,000 men in peace time

First intimation that Russian troops were crossing the border came in the radio broadcast by Molotoff.

Two more Polish strongholds were reported to have fallen yesterday simultaneously with Kutno, 75 miles west of Warsaw. There were Deblin, 70 miles southeast of the capital, and Brest-Litovsk, 100 miles due east, where 600 prisoners were said to have been taken.

Detailed reports on the Western Front were lacking.

Contrasting Provinces

The Polish Ukraine and White Russian Territory which Russia Sunday declared she was taking under her "protection" are divided into two sharply-contrasted provinces.

They are East Galicia—or East Little Poland—which was Austrian before the first Great War, and Volhynia, which was Russian.

In her troubled history, Poland was partitioned three times in the 18th century of Prussia, Russia and Austria.

Her independence again was declared in 1916 and three years later the Treaty of Versailles recognized Poland's independence.

Of her territory, 101,196 square miles was taken from Russia, 30,914 square miles from Austria and 6,973 square miles from Prussia. In 1938 Poland annexed 419 square miles, with a population of 241,698 from Czechoslovakia.

The Polish Ukraine and White Russian Territory compromise approximately 46,723 square miles and have a population of 7,500,000 according to Ukraine agencies.

Pavda, Communist party organ in Moscow, on Thursday listed 8,000,000 Ukrainians and about 3,000,000 White Russians among Poland's entire population. The group was termed larger than the entire population of Finland, Esthonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

More than 100 years of Austrian and Russian rule left a great difference of feeling among the populace of the two provinces. The Ukrainians of Volhynia are Greek Orthodox and the Galicians are Roman Catholics of the uniate rite.

Volhynians possess radio sets but seldom listen to Ukrainian broadcasts from Vienna or Bratislavia. They pick up programs from Kiev and Winitza.

Heads of the Undo, leading political party in Galicia, came to terms with the Polish Government in 1934 following the Poles-German Non-Aggression Pact.

The Ukrainian nationalism of the territory has been divided, however, as more than 1,000,000 Ruthenians form their own party.

FOURTEEN MEET VIOLENT DEATHS DURING WEEKEND

Three from Owen Sound Burn When House Catches Fire

BURNED IN TRUCK

Great War Veteran Killed in Toronto by a Street Car

(By The Canadian Press)

Fire, killing three persons in one case and two in another, swelled the list of persons who met violent death in Ontario during the weekend to 14.

Near Owen Sound a man and two of his grandchildren died in a farmhouse blaze, while near Cochrane two men suffered fatal burns when an automobile burst into flames after crashing into the rear of a motor truck. Another man was reported burned to death in an automobile on Manitoulin Island, four persons died in other motor mishaps, two in falls, one when struck by a street car and another by drowning.

Matt Halcrow, 68, Reggie Halcrow, five, and Kenneth Halcrow, three, were the victims of the fire near Owen Sound, which forced four other persons to flee from the Halcrow home early yesterday. The children's father, John Halcrow, was unable to get back into the frame building after saving another son, Leone, two.

Burned in Car

On the Timmins-Cochrane highway, Elmer Mahaffy, 20, was burned to death when the gasoline tank of a car exploded after a collision with a truck Saturday night. David Lebarron, another occupant of the car, suffered burns so severe he died in hospital yesterday. Mahaffy's twin sisters suffered critical burns.

Provincial Police at Sudbury said they had received scant word that Gordon Rinton of Sudbury had been burned to death when his car caught fire between Little Current and Gore Bay last night.

An unidentified men died in a Toronto hospital after being struck by an automobile near Oakville Saturday night. George Lalor, 27, of Toronto, was killed when he fell mysteriously from one automobile into the path of another on a city street Friday night.

Crashes Into Culvert

Coroner Dr. J. L. Poirier will decide if an inquest is to be held into the death of Mrs. Lila Lutiak, who died Saturday of injuries suffered when a car driven by her husband crashed into a culvert upon leaving a highway near St Catharines. James Presson, 75, was killed when struck by an automobile that did not stop near his home in Scarborough Junction Saturday night.

Richard Mucklestone, 53, of Toronto, died in hospital Saturday of a fractured skull suffered when he fell 20 feet to the ground from a roof he was repairing. Bert Collins, 73, of Oldcastle, died in a hospital at nearby Windsor Saturday of injuries suffered the previous night in a fall from a barn.

John Zaparanuk, 22, of Walsh, drowned while swimming by an unused Lake Erie pier near Port Ryerse Saturday.

Albert Redcliffe, 46, Toronto Great War veteran, was killed when struck by a street car on a Toronto street. No one saw the accident.

CANADIAN FLYING BOAT FORCED DOWN

Halifax, Sept. 18—(CP)—Royal Canadian Air Force officials said today one of their flying boats had been forced down off Sydney, N.S., but the Swedish freighter Pollux was standing by and "everything is all right."

DESTROYER

(Continued on Page Five)

(The Courageous was launched February 5, 1916. Her complement was 1,216, including Royal Air Force personnel, and she could carry 48 aircraft.)

The Admiralty said the enemy submarine was attacked by destroyers and was believed to have been sunk.

The Courageous was in service with the reserve fleet and was carrying a "reduced complement" of planes, the Admiralty said. She joined the reserve fleet last August.

The vessel, it added, had "been performing very good service protecting ships of the Merchant Service."

The announcement did not say where the loss occurred.

Statement Issued.

The text of the Admiralty statement follows:

"The Admiralty regret to announce that H.M.S. Courageous has been lost by enemy submarine action.

"She was commissioned with the reserve fleet in August with a reduced complement of aircraft and since the opening of hostilities has been performing very good service in protecting the ships of the mercantile marine against U-boat attacks.

"Survivors have been picked up by destroyers and merchant ships which are now returning to harbor.

"The submarine was immediately heavily attacked by destroyers and is believed to have been sunk.

"H.M.S. Courageous is one of the earliest aircraft carriers. She was originally completed as a cruiser in 1917 and was converted after the war as an aircraft carrier.

"The next of kin will be informed as soon as information can be obtained as to the names of the survivors."

First Loss to Navy

The Courageous was the first ship of the Royal Navy to be sunk since the outbreak of hostilities. She had been used in the convoy system to shepherd merchant ships along the sea lanes in co-operation with destroyers.

When Britain's super aircraft carrier Ark Royal was delivered to the navy in November, 1938, she replaced the Courageous as flagship for the Rear Admiral commanding aircraft carriers. The Courageous then was used to train pilots of the fleet air arm in deck landing.

The Courageous mounted 16 4.7-inch guns, four three-pounders and 17 smaller pieces. She was the oldest of the six aircraft carriers in the Royal Navy. Four others are due for completion next year.

Aircraft carriers in active service are the Ark Royal, the Glorious—a sister ship of the Courageous—the Furious, the Eagle and the Hermes.

1,200 Officers and Men

The Ministry of Information said in an authorized statement the full complement of the Courageous, plus the personnel of the fleet air arm, was "about 1,200 officers and men."

"When sunk she had a reduced compliment of aircraft and therefore presumably a somewhat smaller crew," the Ministry said.

The Courageous was of an original cruiser design formulated by Admiral Lord Fisher in 1915 with a view to Baltic operations—hence a shallow draught. Her conversion into an aircraft carrier was completed in 1928 after four years' work at a cost of £2,025,800.

Naval reference books gave her thickest armor plate as three inches on her sides and amidships. The beam of her flight deck was 100 feet and her overall length 786½ feet.

Before the Courageous was converted from a cruiser she claimed an Atlantic record with a crossing to the United States in less than four days.

She made the return journey almost as rapidly and when she docked it was found the ship's bottom was corrugated by the intense vibration caused by pounding through the seas at full steam for such a length of time.

King Aboard Six Weeks Ago

Just six weeks ago the King was aboard the Courageous when he inspected the reserve fleet. According to the August navy list, the Courageous was commanded by Captain W. T. Makeig-Jones.

Britain's announcement of the loss of the Courageous came two weeks after the world learned that the Montreal-bound liner Athenia had been sunk by a torpedo in the first hours of war between Germany and Great Britain. Since the hostilities began on Sept. 3rd, 24 British merchant ships have been victims of German submarine warfare.

On the other hand the fleet and the Royal Air Force have ranged far afield and have been officially reported as sinking numerous submarines. Simultaneously a general convoy system had been pressed, but this had naturally been a slow undertaking on British sealanes which circle the globe.

SEPTEMBER HEAT

(Continued From Page One)

damaged on some farms. A heavy rain struck Woodstock district and there was a high wind, but not of the violence elsewhere.

Mercury Drops Fast.

In the London area the storm meant only a break in the heat wave. From early Saturday with a 94.2 peak, the mercury dropped to 54 degrees through the night.

In the Southwold Township district of St. Thomas the storm wind struck with such fury that it lifted the barn of Ross Tufford, one of the largest in Elgin County, from its foundations. The barn collapsed, killing a horse, and barely missed Tufford and his brother, who fled the scene seconds before the barn toppled.

Trees Uprooted.

St. Thomas and Brantford district trees were uprooted in scores and smaller farm buildings, such as implement and driving sheds, flattened. St. Thomas electric users were without power for a short time after the wind smashed three Hydro poles. The fire department alarm system in Brantford was temporarily put out of commission in several sections of the city.

The wind picked up an iron garage at the home of G. Ego, Brantford and lifted it into an adjoining yard. An automobile in the garage was undamaged as the building was lifted from about it.

A Brantford tram crashed into a fallen tree, smashing windows in the car. Several streets were blocked by falling trees.

WAR GLEANINGS

London, Sept. 18 (CP)—Many persons were roused from sleep early today by an air raid warning from Southall, Middlesex. Officials said the siren sounded as "the result of a technical defect".

London, Sept. 18 (CP) — Police disclosed today that during the first ten days of September, when nightly "blackouts" prevailed, 38 persons were killed and 975 were injured in London traffic accidents. In the last ten days of August, eight persons were killed and 316 were injured.

Nancy, France, Sept. 18 (AP) — Martin Thelen, 44-year-old German, today was sentenced to life imprisonment for espionage in the Maginot Line region.

Budapest, Sept. 18 (AP)—Warsaw's fate was unknown here today as its lone broadcasting station, last contact with the outside world, remained silent during the night. Until now, the "all's well" signal has been sounded nightly at 30-second intervals.

London, Sept. 18 (CP)—The Daily Express today reported that Julius Streicher, Gauleiter of Nuremberg and the leading Nazi Jew baiter, has been removed from his post and placed under protective arrest.

Streicher was said to have appropriated for his own use sums confiscated from Jews, the paper said.

Stockholm, Sept. 18 (CP-Havas)—The Polish submarine Rys and its crew were placed under guard by Swedish authorities today after the vessel had taken refuge in Swedish waters near Sandham. Yesterday another Polish submarine, with a crew of 67, was disarmed in a harbor near here.

Holyhead, Wales, Sept. 18 (CP)—The Irish mail ship Cambria and two cargo vessels plying the Irish Sea, the Slieve Bloom and the Slieve League, were held up here today because their crews refused to sail under the Eire flag.

The crews charged that under Eire registration their wives and dependents would not be entitled to compensation for loss of life or injury to crew men in case the ships were sunk.

The vessels, owned by the London, Scotland and Midland Railway, operate between Britain and Ireland. They are registered in Dublin.

London, Sept. 18 (CP Cable)—The third Sunday of war found London quiet and the streets comparatively deserted. Many churches held evensong early so congregations could go home before the blackout clamped down.

London, Sept. 18 (CP)—The Ministry of Information disclosed last night that Royal Air Force planes have dropped three different sets of leaflets over Germany. The third set said: "Germans . . . we hate war as much as we know you do but remember Britain never gives way . . . we shall never give up."

New York, Sept. 18 (OP) — The New York Herald-Tribune (Republican) today saw the Russian invasion of Poland as raising new possibilities for the United States to face as a result of the second Great War. "One cannot stop at this late date for moral indignation," said the paper. "The practical situation is far too serious for that."

SAVE MONEY
Modess
Packages of
12 .................... 21c
30 .................... 49c
48 .................... 69c
BUY THE LARGE SIZES
Phone 138
WE'LL SEND IT.
DOLAN
THE DRUGGIST

It's New! It's Smart!
It's Moisture proof!
This New POCKET POUCH
Here's a dandy pouch for pipe smokers. Easy to handle... dust-proof... fits the pocket. It's a real package of smoking pleasure for 15c.
15c
Old Chum
PIPE TOBACCO
D. Ritchie & Co.
15¢

FOREIGN HAVEN SOUGHT BY GOV'T

President and Foreign Minister of Poland With Party of 56 Enter Neutral Rumania

Cernauti, Rumania, Sept. 18 (AP)—Poland's Government—in flight from two invaders—sought today a foreign haven for continued operations.

Close on the heels of President Ignace Moscicki, Foreign Minister Joseph Beck and a government party of 56, divisions of Poland's defenders, disarmed at the border, began entering neutral Rumania.

Behind them, reports from Berlin and Moscow indicated, other Polish troops still fought invasion from the East and West.

Foreign Minister Beck's first move was expected to be notification of heads of diplomatic missions to his country that their work was ended. Plans after that were not immediately disclosed.

Observers said it was understood the officials might apply for permission to cross Rumania, then circle to Paris or London to set up an emergency seat of Government.

Meanwhile President Moscicki sent a telegram to President Roosevelt protesting that German planes had "bombarded methodically and with premeditation" open towns in Poland.

With the soldiers came hundreds of civilian refugees in wagons, automobiles and afoot.

Polish fliers joined the exodus. By 10 p.m. last night (5 p.m. E.D.T.) 132 Polish planes had landed at Cernauti.

Premiers Confer For Mutual Neutrality

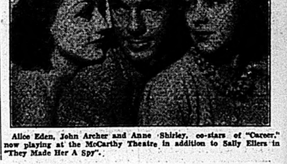
Copenhagen, Sept. 18 (AP)—Premiers of Norway, Denmark and Finland assembled here today to discuss mutual neutrality problems amid growing anxiety occasioned by Russia's thrust into Poland.

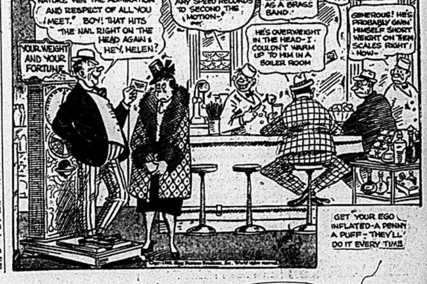
Despite Russian assurances that neutrality of the Baltic states would be observed, it was generally conceded that developments of the last 24 hours have complicated the situation of the northern nations, which are seeking to maintain normal trade relations without offending the belligerents.

Some concern also was manifest here concerning reports from Latvia and Berlin that Lithuanian troops were massing on the Polish frontier—a sign taken in some quarters to mean that Lithuania might seek to regain Wilno, lost to Poland in 1920. Lithuanian sources, however, denied any such troop movements.



Alice Eden, John Archer and Anne Shirley, co-stars of "Career," now playing at the McCarthy Theatre in addition to Sally Eilers in "They Made Her A Spy".

They'll Do It Every Time :-: By Jimmy Hatlo



YOUR QUIET, UNASSUMING MANNER AND GENEROUS NATURE WIN THE ADMIRATION AND RESPECT OF ALL YOU MEET." BOY! THAT HITS THE NAIL RIGHT ON THE HEAD AGAIN - HEY, HELEN?
YOUR WEIGHT AND YOUR FORTUNE
I DON'T NOTICE THE DAME BREAKING ANY SPEED RECORDS TO SECOND THE MOTION-
HE'S ABOUT AS QUIET AND UNASSUMING AS A BRASS BAND.
HE'S OVERWEIGHT IN THE HEAD- I COULDN'T WARM UP TO HIM IN A BOILER ROOM
SO HELP ME-I THINK HE REALLY BELIEVES IT!
GENEROUS! HE'S PROBABLY GIVIN' HIMSELF SHORT WEIGHT ON THEM SCALES RIGHT NOW-GET YOUR EGO INFLATED-A PENNY A PUFF- THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

Cuisine and service renowned throughout the world will make an unforgetable pleasure of your stay at
The ROYAL YORK
TORONTO
Largest hotel in the British Empire
Moderate rates
A Canadian Pacific Hotel

WOODLEY ● FURS

HAVE

REPAIRS
RELINING
RESTYLING
POLARIZING

DONE NOW!

Get Our Estimate

273 FRONT ST.

Personals

Mr. Frederick Temple, Jr., of Toronto, who has enlisted with the 48th Highlanders, Toronto, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Temple, Bridge Street West.

Mr. S. Halpin and Miss Hazel Halpin, Turnbull Street, left this morning for Montreal, en route to the World's Fair in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Mullett, Erie, Pa., are spending a short time visiting his mother, Mrs. Pernia Mullett, and his sister, Mrs. Everett Bell, 230 Coleman Street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fisher and Marion were week-end guests of Mrs. Fisher's mother, Newcastle, adn attended the double wedding of Misses Dorothy and Evelyn Rickard, daughters of Mr. Frank Rickard, M.P., for Durham County.

Mrs. Raymond Carr left today for London where she will join her husband ex-Alderman Carr, C.N.R. conductor, who was recently transferred to London. They will reside in that city.

TABERNACLE W.M.S.

The regular meeting of Tabernacle W.M.S. was held in the church parlours on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 14. Mrs. McClintock presided and opened the meeting using hymn 662 and offering prayer. The reports of the various secretaries were received and adopted. Plans for the next meeting which is the Thank-offering meeting were discussed. Mrs. Corham gave a splendid reading on Temperance. Mrs. French read the scripture lesson and led in prayer. A questionnaire "On Frontiers of Service" was conducted by Mrs. McClintock several ladies taking part. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Weddings

LATCHFORD—GOODFELLOW

Christ Church, Belleville, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, Sept. 9th., at three o'clock when Anneita Flora, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Goodfellow, Shannonville, became the bride of William Garnet Latchford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latchford, Belleville. Rev. G. G. Wright officiated.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father looked very pretty in navy blue sheer and matching accessories. Miss Freda Goodfellow was her sister's bridesmaid, attired in black sheer with matching accessories. Mr. Donald Boldrick, Tweed, attended the groom.

After a shower of confetti and good wishes the happy couple left on a wedding trip to Toronto and other western points. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Latchford will reside near Cannifton.

The Stars Say—

For Tuesday, September 19

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

ACCORDING to the astral indications, this may be a dubious day, with affairs moving in a rut and difficult to accelerate into action despite strenuous application of force. Hostility may be aroused by belligerent attempts to remove obstacles, or there may be very stubborn, frustrating circumstances. More might be gained by tact, diplomacy or stratagem. In any case postponements may be advantageous.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a rather doubtful year, with impediments and obstacles forestalling efforts at progressiveness. Aggressive actions may provoke disagreeable opposition at a time when more diplomatic approach of finesse might be effective. Because of frustrating situations, it might be well to postpone certain moves until there are more propitious astral signs.

A child born on this day may be deep and studious but also slow and cautious or suspicious. It may be practical and industrious, but its mental grasp may be too confused for conspicuous initiative.

CHILD'S COLDS

Relieve misery direct —without "dosing". Use swift-acting

VICKS VAPORUB

SWEETS— In a Jiffy

By ALICE LYNN BARRY

JIFFY SWEETS, those concoctions easily made in a minimum of time, are often the most pleasing. If your family has become refrigerator dessert addicts during the warm season, plan to serve them right along. Incidentally, any of these desserts can be made in an ordinary ice box as well as an automatic refrigerator, and they are all magically failure proof.

Cellophane Loaf is as nice as it looks and it looks lovely! Blend together two-thirds cup sweetened condensed milk, four tablespoons raspberry or strawberry jam and one tablespoon, lemon juice. Fold in one-half cup heavy cream which has been whipped. Carefully open top of one package cellophane-wrapped cookies and remove all but the bottom cookie. Place a large spoonful of filling on this cookie, add another cookie and press down. Repeat until all are used. Close top of package tightly. Chill in refrigerator 12 hours or longer. When ready to serve, remove paper, slice diagonally. Garnish each serving with whipped cream and maraschino cherry, if desired. Heavy wax paper may be substituted for the cellophane if desired. Serves eight.

Easily Made

Maple Refrigerator Cake is an easy-to-make delicacy which usually pleases all palates. Thoroughly blend one and one-third cups of sweetened condensed milk and two-thirds cup maple syrup in a heavy saucepan. Bring to boil over low heat, stirring constantly, about four minutes or until mixture thickens. Cool. Beat one-half cup whipping cream until stiff and fold into mixture. Line narrow, oblong pan with waxed paper. Cover with maple mixture. Add layer of vanilla wafers alternating in this way until maple mixture is used, finishing with a layer of vanilla wafers. Chill in refrigerator for six hours or longer. To serve turn out on small plate and carefully remove waxed paper. Cut in slices and serve plain or with whipped cream.

Date and Nut Roll, delicious and healthful, is a quickly-prepared sweet. Thoroughly blend one-half cup sweetened condensed milk in two teaspoons water. Roll eight ounces vanilla wafers to crumbs. Mix with one cup chopped, pitted dates, finely chopped, and one-half cup chopped walnut meats. Add sweetened condensed milk and knead mixture until it is well blended. Shape into roll. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill in refrigerator for 12 hours or longer. To serve cut in slices and garnish with whipped cream, or still better, hard sauce. Serves eight.

AT THE BELLE

"Stanley and Livingstone"

The greatest adventure known to man is thrillingly reconstructed on the screen of the Belle theatre, in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Stanley and Livingstone," with twice Academy Award winning Spencer Tracy turning in another masterful performance, co-starred with Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene at the head of one of the greatest acting casts ever assembled.

When Tracy, in the role of Henry M. Stanley, the crack young reporter on the old New York Herald, spoke those famous words, "Dr. Livingstone, I presume?" In the heart of Africa, drama's most thrilling moment was stirringly reenacted in this spectacular 20th Century-Fox film.

Producer Zanuck, his associate producer, Kenneth Macgowan, and his director, Henry King, all sticklers for realism, insured a true and authentic picture of the thrilling adventure and the heroic adventurer who faced all the nameless dangers of unknown Africa—heat, fever, cannibals, jungle—when, his fiery and dynamic publisher, James Gordon Bennett, gave him that memorable assignment: "Find Livingstone."

The film shows Stanley first as he was in 1869, a hard-boiled reporter of bulldog tenacity who willingly risked his neck to get his story!

It follows him through all the thrills and dangers of his great adventure and shows with great dramatic force the influence on his character and his whole life of his meeting and subsequent friendship with the great missionary-explorer, who had buried himself in the black heart of unknown Africa to serve humanity. For when Livingstone died, young Stanley picked up the torch and became one of the greatest men of his day.

The chief romantic interest of the story is carried by Nancy Kelly, as the lovely daughter of the English consular agent at Zanzibar, and Richard Greene, as the son of Lord Tyce, who had just returned, fever-racked, from a similar but unsuccessful expedition.

Walter Brennan is grand as the old Indian scout who accompanies Stanley; Charles Coburn is splendid as Lord Tyce, the pompous publisher of the London Globe; Sir Cedric Hardwick offers a truly great portrayal of Dr. Livingstone; Henry Hull brings James Gordon Bennett back to vivid life; and Henry Travers is superb as the English consular agent whom Africa has aged before his time.

Three years in the making, much of the film was shot in the actual locale in Africa.

An interesting newsreel, and a funny Walt Disney cartoon preceded the feature attraction.

Your Chance to Save Dollars!
ON YOUR SILVERWARE

1847 ROGER BROS. SILVERPLATE
OLD COLONY PATTERN
On Sale at ½ Price

ALL COMMUNITY PLATE PATTERNS
Including the new design "FOREVER" at 40% OFF
OPEN STOCK PRICES

THESE PRICES GOOD AT ANGUS McFEE'S UNTIL SEPTEMBER 30th. ONLY.

Angus McFee
JEWELERS
SINCE 1860

Soft-Pedaling the Blushes

FLORENCE RICE. . . .is practical about her application of make-up

By HELEN FOLLETT

WOMEN WHO slather on make-up with a lavish hand should understand that the feminine phiz can stand just so much pigment and no more. One wrong touch and a woman looks like a billboard. This is especially the case if the dear lady has lost the bloom and freshness of youth, has fine lines and saggy tissues.

She who has a practical mind and a far-seeing eye will make an effort to match powder to the skin, will be fussy about the tones of rouge and lipstick. If the skin is delicate and transparent, she will select a powder of light consistency. If the cutaneous coat is coarse and bronzed, a powder with an oily base will give good service.

Lipsticks come in a wide range of colors, from deep coral and true reds to fuchsia and raspberry. Considering the variations of complexion tones, it is impossible to lay down make-up laws. One must experiment. Unless powder, rouge and lipstick are flattering, impart an appearance of freshness and make the face vivid in a natural way, they are one grand fizzle.

Commercial blushes are being soft pedaled. If they are used at all, they are of delicate tones. Blazing red cheek apples are not au fait. They're crude, have no place with the romantic clothes we are wearing.

Time was when it was believed that "face paint", as they called it, made a woman look like sin. The belief holds good today in some cases.

Slow up, you self-driving girls. Don't rush hither and yon, keep on the go, fall into bed worn to a frazzle. The hectic life doesn't pay beauty dividends.

Tension is the enemy of good looks. It digs frowns between the eyes, makes the muscles around the mouth hard and rigid, ties nerves into hard knots, interferes with sleep, digestion and circulation. The human machine is not made of wire and fiddle strings. Any woman whose brain motors perform normally ought to know that.

FLYING BOAT FORCED DOWN

Chatham, Mass., Sept. 18 (AP)—A Canadian flying boat was reported forced down in rough seas off the Nova Scotia coast today. Rescue was said to be imminent in messages relayed by the steamship American Merchant and picked up by the Radiomarine Corporation station here.

For Women who hold their heads high!

As an artist mixes his pigments to reproduce living flesh tones —so the CHARLES of the RITZ Technician is trained to blend for you the individual tints of face powder that will make your skin alive, radiant.

Learn how flattering individually blended powder can be.

NOW SOLD IN BELLEVILLE EXCLUSIVELY with

GEORGE PAULEY, DRUGGIST

This Week Only!

You will receive a gift of a full $1.25 box of CHARLES of the RITZ Face Powder blended individually for you with your purchase of other CHARLES of the RITZ toiletries.

GOOD MANNERS

MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

Notes of Thanks

Dear Mrs. Beeckman

1—When receiving wedding gifts, what form of thank-you note is proper . . a personal note from the bride or a thank-you card?

2—If you tell me that I should write notes of thanks, and I am writing to someone of a higher social standing than I am, people who know both my fiance and myself, should I begin these notes with Dear Mr. and Mrs. Smith?

3—When does the best man give the fee to the minister and to the sexton?

4— When the wedding music is played by a relative of the bride or groom, should she be given a gift or paid a fee?

5—How long before the wedding date should the invitations be sent out?

M.

1—Please, please, I beg you, do not send ready-made thank-you cards to acknowledge your wedding gifts. They are the "low" in bad taste. When your relatives and friends are so kind and generous as to give you gifts that they hope you will like and find useful for your new home, their hearts won't be warmed by the bleakness and frigidity of a printed (or engraved) card bearing a "canned" sentence concocted by someone unknown to you or the giver of the gift. Sending such a bit of paper is an unworthy thing to do.

Provide yourself with some double sheeted letter paper or note paper (the semi-note paper, now so fashionable, is an excellent type for these notes), white or light gray or of a good light blue shade, and of as fine texture as you can afford. Then "Sit you down, my lass" and, as soon as possible after the arrival of each gift, tell the giver of your appreciation. Your letter to me was very good, and so I'm sure your notes of thanks will also be gracious and appreciative. Be proud that they aren't thank-you cards!

2—Even in the cases when gifts are sent by husband and wife, your note should begin Dear Mrs. Smith (or Dear Mary,), but in the note you would express your thanks to both.

3—In the best-planned weddings, the best man does not take part in the recessional. Instead, he waits until the recessional is on its way down the aisle, and then goes to give the minister the fee that the groom has given to him (the best man). But if you plan to have the best man take part in the recessional, he will have to determine some other convenient time to do this.

The fee to the sextion is not the responsibility of the groom, and so the best man has nothing to do with this. The sexton's fee is a part of the responsibility of the bride's parents, who pay for all church expenses (except the clergyman's fee) and for all reception expenses.

4—If the relative has asked for the privilege of playing the wedding music, she undoubtedly intends that her service is to be purely a friendly one, not a professional one. Then you should give her a gift. But if she is a professional and has been asked to play, she should at least be offered her customary professional fee. If she refuses this, then you should send her a gift, to show your appreciation of her gracious cooperation.

5—If the wedding invitations are to be formal ones (engraved, worded in the third person), they should be sent out at least three weeks before the wedding date. If notes of invitation bid the guests to the wedding, these notes should be mailed about two weeks before the wedding date.

Wedding Attendants

Dear Mrs. Beeckman

I am to be married in November, and I want very much to invite a married couple whom I know very well to be best man and bridesmaid. Is it correct to have married people as attendants?

Eleanor

Yes, if your fiance wishes to have this man as his best man (it is he who chooses the best man), and you wish to have his wife as your attendant, this is thoroughly proper. Wedding attendants may be either married or unmarried.

Advice to the Lovelorn

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage.

Education for Charm

American girls are preparing to strike, it seems. They want more education. Don't misunderstand me. They are not demanding more algebra problems or more lessons in history. They're asking to be fitted for life.

Somebody discovered recently that hundreds, even thousands of girls who had had the best of schooling were worried and resentful because they weren't able to solve their daily problems. They hadn't been taught the right things. Some of these girls were married. Some weren't. Some had jobs. Some didn't. But the same wail went up from all of them.

"Let's look into this," said the president of a well known girls' college in the middle west. So he got busy. And he tells all about it in the current number of a woman's magazine.

Three hundred girls and young married women were asked to keep diaries, telling all about those troubles, of theirs. They did so. The result may be that education for girls may revert in some degree to what it was in great-grandmother's day.

Lesson books in the regulation subjects aren't enough. We want to count as human beings, they say. We want to be considered charming women. Isn't that what's going to determine whether our lives are a success or not?

For instance, we want beautiful voices and correct ways of speaking. We want to know how to carry ourselves and how to walk well. We want perfect complexions and healthy hair and we want to know the art of dressing ourselves. We think it's our right to have this sort of education.

Not for a moment can these demands be dismissed as frivolous. They are fundamental. To succeed, whether as a wife and mother or in a career outside the home, a girl must have confidence in herself. And she cannot gain this confidence unless she knows that she has made most not only of her mental abilities but of her physical self and of her manner.

But this isn't the whole story. There are other things that these girls, who consider themselves under-educated, demand also.

They need to know about budgeting, especially the married ones. They don't want to waste their husbands' money, or their own. Then, they'd like to know the elementary principles of business. You'd be surprised to know how often young women are embarrassed for lack of this knowledge.

Then, they are too ignorant about foods, they say, and ways of preparing them. How can they choose the best diet for their families?

House-furnishing, too, they'd like to understand, and the art of house-decoration. These are things you can't pick up in a week or two.

As for marriage itself and mothconscientious ones, that a aet,th erhood, they feel, especially the knowledge is available and that somebody might have taken the trouble to pass it on to them.

This is going back, perhaps, to the old-fashioned idea of what girls need to know. Before women's colleges were ever thought of, girls were taught as a matter of course how to look charming, how to make themselves attractive to men how to practice all the many arts of a household. Was there something in the old idea, after all?

DR. DAFOE'S COLUMN on the Quintuplets and the Care of Your Children

Warming the Serum Lessens Pain or Shock from Inoculation

There's isn't nearly as much danger of secondary infections following inoculations or vaccinations as there used to be. For one thing, our methods of administering these vaccines and antitoxins had improved. But I think the real reason for the better conditions is that the serums themselves are now made much purer than they used to be For instance, in the old days when in smallpox vaccination we scratched the arm until it bled secondary infections were almost bound to occur. And they did occur unless there was absolute cleanliness.

There are three ways of injecting serums—into the skin, into the muscle and into a vein. Of the three I favor injecting into a muscle. It is more rapid there and doesn't cause much pain. Intravenous injections are to be recommended in emergency cases; I think they are fine for hospitals, but I'm not much in favor of doing them in the home.

Of course a doctor giving an injection will have the serum warmed slightly; otherwise the cold fluid will cause considerable pain, and I have known cases where cold serum caused severe shock to the patient.

Serums are made from people who are convalescing from a disease are popular with some specialists. Such serum is often helpful in the prevention of measles and chicken pox. We used to think it was valuable in the treatment of infantile paralysis, but recently doubts have been expressed as to the actual value of it. When I use these serums it is more or less in the spirit: "Oh well, they won't do any harm anyway."

Human convalescent serums such as we have been describing have to be administered within three days of exposure if they are to be of any use, and the protection is only temporary, but even if it does not prevent the disease from developing, it makes the attack less severe.

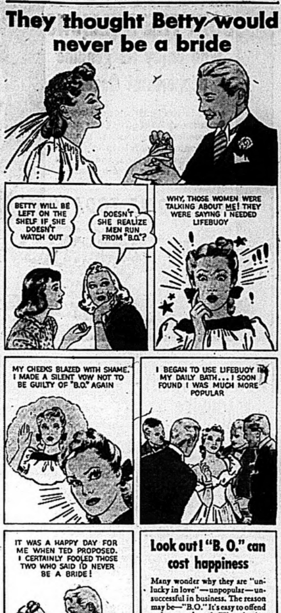
I think our inoculations and vaccinations of the Quints have done a lot to popularise these preventative measures especially amongst children..

As I told you, they were inoculated against diphtheria first, and we made quite an event of it. We invited the head immunologist of the Ontario department of health to be present, and we had a photographed on hand so the world might see what we were doing.

We made sure that we had very, very sharp needles, and the visiting doctor also made sure that the needle was inserted at the right angle. We took up each child, and did the job when she wasn't looking before she knew what had happened. Not one of the five cried during the whole operation.

Three weeks later when we did the job again, the children remembered it and were a bit apprehensive, but they still didn't say a word or cry the least bit. At the third inoculation, however they were pretty tired of it, for the pictures showed all five regarding us very reproachfully.

When it came to vaccinating them for smallpox, we told them exactly what we were doing, and they took it without a tear.



They thought Betty would never be a bride

BETTY WILL BE LEFT ON THE SHELF IF SHE DOESN'T WATCH OUT DOESN'T SHE REALIZE MEN RUN FROM "B.O."?
WHY, THOSE WOMEN WERE TALKING ABOUT ME! THEY WERE SAYING I NEEDED LIFEBUOY
MY CHEEKS BLAZED WITH SHAME. I MADE A SILENT VOW NOT TO BE GUILTY OF "B.O." AGAIN
I BEGAN TO USE LIFEBUOY IN MY DAILY BATH... I SOON FOUND I WAS MUCH MORE POPULAR
IT WAS A HAPPY DAY FOR ME WHEN TED PROPOSED. I CERTAINLY FOOLED THOSE TWO WHO SAID I'D NEVER BE A BRIDE!
LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP

Look out! "B. O." can cost happiness

Many wonder why they are "unlucky in love"—unpopular—unsuccessful in business. The reason may be—"B.O." It's easy to offend and not even know it. Why take that risk? Why not be on the safe side! Lifebuoy in the daily bath stops "B. O."—assures personal freshness. Lifebuoy contains an exclusive ingredient not found in any other popular toilet soap. Try it.

LIFEBUOY IN YOUR DAILY BATH STOPS "B.O."

AIKENS' W. A.

About sixty ladies attended the "tea" on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Saylor, held under the Aikens Women's Association.

Members of Centenary, Avondale Whites and Johnstown Societies were present, and assisted in presenting a short program during the afternoon.

Mrs. Selburn Westover, a Past President presided at this gathering and expressed sincere regret at the absence through illness of the President, Mrs. Fred Westover.

During the Devotional period Mrs. W. H. Kells read the 46th Psalm, "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" and spoke briefly on the significance of this Psalm as it applies to the confidence the Christian people of today have, in the outcome of the world chaos.

Words of welcome were extended to the visiting ladies by Mrs. Stanley Spafford.

Two beautiful readings were given, "The Master Cometh" by Mrs. (Rev.) Mercer and "A Woman rocking her child" from Tony Wons' scrap book by Mrs. Fred Aikens. A humorous reading, "Indignant Nellie" was given by Miss Ruth Spafford.

Vocal solos were contributed by Mrs. (Rev.) Scott and Mrs. Perry Hamilton which added to the afternoon's enjoyment.

Mrs. Leonard Reid, Avondale and Mrs. Lorne Hunt, Bayside, spoke briefly as Presidents of their societies, expressing pleasure at being present.

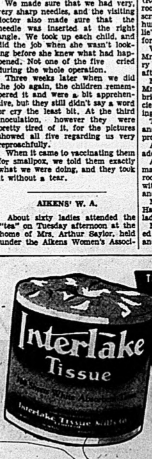
The National Anthem was sung and Mrs. Thos. Irwin closed the program with prayer.

Autumn flowers in profusion adorned the living rooms.

A silver basket of white and mauve asters centred the dining-room table which was very pretty with lace cloth, silver candle-sticks and white tapers.

Mrs. Wm. McMullen and Mrs. Harley Hubble poured tea, and the ladies served lunch.

Mrs. Jas. Ray of Centenary moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Saylor and to the Aiken's ladies.



THE QUALITY TISSUE AT THE QUANTITY PRICE

3 ROLLS 2100 SHEETS 25¢

It's Softer

DEPOSIT REDUCTION ON BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA"

The Coca-Cola Company of Canada, Limited—ANNOUNCES—Reduction of Deposit on its Bottles—effective

SEPTEMBER 20th, 1939

Effective September 20th, 1939, the regular DEPOSIT CHARGE of 3c each on BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will be reduced to 2c per bottle.

All persons having in their possession BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" on which the regular deposit charge of 3c per bottle has been paid, and on which they are desirous of securing refunds at the present rate of 3c per bottle, ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to return these bottles to their dealers for refund on or before September 19th.

On and after September 20th, BOTTLES FOR "COCA-COLA" will carry a deposit charge of 2c per bottle, and refunds will be made for this amount only.

Bottle Deposit on Six-Bottle Carton

formerly 18c
Reduced to 12c
EFFECTIVE
SEPT. 20th

DR-148

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

WEEP FOR LOVE

by RUBY M. AYRES

Roy rounded the last bend of the drive in fine style and stopped at the front door.

His sister Barbara came running out to meet them.

"I quite expected he'd turn you out into the ditch or something," she informed Elizabeth. "He's so frightfully reckless."

"Reckless yourself!" her brother retorted disgustedly. "Has Lawless come?"

"Not yet. And I'm not at all sure that he will come."

Roy stared at her.

"What on earth do you mean?"

Barbara shrugged her shoulders.

"Nothing, except—well, at the dance the other night I thought he didn't seem keen about it. You know how people behave when they're trying to hedge politely."

Roy laughed.

"Rot! He'll come," he said confidently. "You're always imagining things. Hallo, mater!"

Mrs. Selby bent to kiss Elizabeth.

"I am delighted to see you," she said, and she drew the girl's hand through her arm. "Did you have a good run down? Did Roy drive carefully? But I'm sure he did."

"I'll take you up to your room", Barbara volunteered. "I hope you'll be able to find your way about this old barn. Has Roy told you about Bingo?" she asked laughingly.

"Yes."

"I believe it's just a fable," Barbara declared. "At any rate, we've never seen him. This way—down these two steps. I hope you'll like your room; it looks over the garden. By the way, may I call you Elizabeth?"

"Please."

"And you call me Barbara. I hate formality. Here we are."

She crossed the room with its low-raftered ceiling and pushed the window wide.

"It's a topping view," she said, with careless pride. "It's a bit misty now—heat, I suppose—but when it's clear you can see the hills—and a bit of the sea."

She was so bright and friendly that Elizabeth's heart warmed towards her as, for a moment, they stood together looking out over the old walled garden, with its beds of flaming flowers and mossy lawns.

Suddenly Barbara gave a little squeal.

"There's Kim—oh, I am glad he's come, after all!" She leaned out of the window and called to him shrilly.

Lawless, who had just stopped his car at the door, looked up and smiled; but Elizabeth drew back a little with a sudden unaccountable feeling of shyness.

"I'm so glad he's come," Barbara said again joyfully. "He's such a lamb. I was dead nuts on him when I was in the nursery, and I've never got over it." She glanced at Elizabeth. "Of course, that was ages before he knew your sister," she apologized. "I can't understand why she chucked him."

"I don't know anything about it" Elizabeth said.

Barbara shrugged her shoulders.

"Neither do I. Kim never talks about her, of course, but she always seemed so frightfully happy when she was with him—not that I saw them together very much."

Poor Penelope! Elizabeth thought again, but she made no comment as they went downstairs together.

"Tea outside under the old apple tree," Roy informed them gaily. He gave his sister a little dig. "Who said Lawless wasn't coming?" he scoffed, raising his voice to call to his friend.

Lawless shook hands with Elizabeth. "What do you think of High Chimneys?" he asked.

"I think it's beautiful."

"I think old places are a bit depressing myself," Barbara said cheerfully, "but I expect you'll love it."

"Why should she love it?" Roy asked.

Barbara laughed.

"Well, she looks a bit romantic," she answered. "There's a sort of fairy princess air about her." She waved a hand in vague explanation. "I'm sure she adores the Knights of the Round Table and all that, don't you, Elizabeth?"

Elizabeth flushed a little.

"Yes, I like the Knights of the Round Table."

"Lancelot the Unfaithful?" Lawless asked with a faint smile, but it was Barbara who answered calmly:

"I don't see how you could expect him to be anything else—entirely surrounded by Lovely Ladies as he was." She flung herself into a dramatic attitude, with outflung arms. "To love one maiden only, cling to her and worship her with years of faithful love," she quoted.

"It sounds a bit dull to me."

"Really, Barbara!" her mother murmured.

"Not only dull, but impossible," Barbara insisted. "How can anyone know whether they are going to love the same person for ever and ever and ever? Somebody else more attractive might so easily come along, and then everyone would be in the cart. What do you say?" she demanded, turning to Elizabeth.

"I don't know much about it," Elizabeth said a little shyly. "But Penelope—and then she stopped in confusion, with a quick glance at Lawless, says—"

"What does Penelope say?" Roy asked, but Elizabeth would not answer, and Mrs. Selby tactfully changed the conversation.

It was later on, when tea was over, that Elizabeth found herself alone with Kim Lawless. Roy had gone to put his car away, and Barbara had followed her mother into the house.

"Back in a minute, you two," she announced.

There was a little silence when she had gone till Lawless asked quietly:

"What did Penelope say?"

Elizabeth looked at him and away again.

"She said that she didn't believe in love—because it never lasts."

"And do you agree?" he asked.

She was silent for a moment, and then she said:

"I only know that it doesn't seem to last. People love someone and then quite suddenly they don't love them anymore—but someone else instead." She drew a quick breath. "Yes, I think I agree with Penelope."

"Is it fair to judge everyone by one person's mistake?" Lawless asked.

Elizabeth answered rapidly:

"But it isn't only one person's mistake. I've seen it so often. There was my mother and father, and they were separated, and then mother and Pip—he was killed, and—and other people, too."

"I know you have had more than your share of unhappiness," Lawless said. "But that does not mean there is nothing better to come. I think we all find happiness—sooner or later."

"Find it—and then lose it," Elizabeth said. "And if it's going to be like that, I'd rather never have it at all."

He glanced at her serious face and smiled faintly.

"Don't be a pessimist," he said gently. "You're much too young—and too beautiful."

Her color rose a little.

"My mother was beautiful," she told him impulsively. "She was the loveliest—darlingest, but she wasn't happy—at least only for such a little while."

"But perhaps that little while made up for all the rest," Lawless said, and then he rose to his feet. "Come and look at the garden."

They turned into a narrow paved path bordered by a clipped yew hedge, and at the far end stood a mossgrown sundial with a weeping cupid.

There was an inscription round the column, but it was so worn away by time and weather that it was difficult to decipher.

"What does it say?" Elizabeth asked, and she bent closer to pick out the words.

"Love makes time pass away;
Time makes love pass away."

She read it aloud, and there was a moment of silence before she said with a faint note of bitterness, "There, you see! That's why there are so many pictures and sculptured figures of Cupid in tears."

She looked up at him and was surprised at the wistfulness of his expression.

"Don't believe it, Elizabeth," he said, and it was the first time he had called her by her Christian name.... "Don't believe it—at least, not the last part—because it isn't true. Love does last when—"

He stopped abruptly. Coloring a little as if afraid he had been too emotional.

INSTALMENT 10

"But—yours didn't," Elizabeth said impulsively, and then added hurriedly, "I'm sorry. I shouldn't have said that."

"No," Lawless agreed. "You should not—because you do not know the facts, and obviously I cannot tell you—not that you would believe me if I did. Shall we go back to the house?" His voice was now coldly polite.

She looked at him uncertainly, conscious that she had hurt him, that she had hurt herself also, wondering in bewilderment why it should be possible to say unkind things to someone when deep down in your heart there was no such intention.

Suddenly as he turned from her, she spoke his name breathlessly.

"Mr. Lawless."

"Yes?"

"I'm—so sorry," she said penitently.

"I'm sorry, too—for many things" he answered ruefully.

Her beautiful eyes softened. "Then—can we be friends after all?"

"Can we, after all?" he questioned, but he smiled. "In spite of everything?"

"Yes, I think we can," she said confidently. "In spite of everything." Impulsively she laid her hand in his.

"Then, as the Indians say, there is peace in our camp," Lawless said.

Elizabeth nodded.

Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene are the romantic interest in "Stanley and Livingstone," featuring Spencer Tracy, now at the Belle.

"I like that." She echoed the words softly. "Peace in our camp."

They looked at each other happily, and it was Elizabeth who spoke the thought which was in both their minds.

"I'm so glad you came."

"Thank you. I'm glad too."

She glanced at the little weeping figure of Cupid on the sundial, and quickly away, and as if he could read her thoughts, Lawless said:

"There is another motto which one often sees on sundials— 'Keep your face to the sunshine and the shadows will fall behind you.'" He drew her hand through his arm. "So we'll turn our backs on our tearful friend, shall we?"

"It's a lovely garden," Elizabeth said.

"And there's a new moon."

Lawless stood still, releasing her.

"Then we must turn our money."

"I haven't any with me."

He dived into his pocket and gravely produced a sixpence which he put into her hand.

"Turn it and wish! The humble penny will do for me. Now then!"

He spun his coin into the air and caught it again, but when Elizabeth tried to follow suit her sixpenny bit rolled away into the yew hedge.

Lawless stooped to recover it. "Some people do have clumsy children!"

She laughed as he put the coin back into her hand and there was a moment of silence before he asked.

"Have you wished?"

She nodded. "Have you?"

"Yes."

They looked at each other gravely as if it were a matter of great importance, and suddenly they both said in the same breath, "I hope it comes true."

Barbara Selby came running across the lawn towards them.

"You're wanted on the telephone, Elizabeth," she called. "It's Miss Thornley."

"I hope nothing is the matter," Barbara went on breathlessly as they sped across the lawn together. "It would be too bad if you had to go back home when you've only just come."

There was a faint feeling of apprehension in Elizabeth's heart as she picked up the receiver.

"Hullo!"

Miss Thornley's voice sounded a little harassed as she answered, "Is that you at last? I've had a telegram from Paris—you know Penelope was spending the week-end there before going on to Italy? Yes, well, she's ill—very ill so the message says—and they think I ought to go to her. I don't know whether you feel you'd like to come too. If so, and you can get someone to motor you down to Dover, we can meet there and catch the night boat." She paused. "What did you say?"

Elizabeth said quickly. "Of course I'll come. Can you wait a minute while I speak to Mrs. Selby— or Roy?"

"Be quick then."

Elizabeth put down the receiver and went out into the hall.

Kim Lawless was there talking to Barbara.

"All right?" Barbara asked.

Elizabeth shook her head.

"There's been a wire from Paris. Penelope is in Paris and she's ill, very ill. Aunt Thornley is going over tonight and she wants me to go with her." She did not dare look at Lawless. "She said if I could motor to Dover, I could meet her there and we could cross together by the night boat. I'm so dreadfully sorry," she apologized.

"What a shame!" Barbara said disappointedly. "When you've only just come! But, of course, if you must go—"

"I must. Can I hire a car?"

"Roy will take you. I'll find him." Barbara said quickly. She turned to go and then stopped. "But he's gone over to Bridgelake to fetch father. I quite forgot. Father rang up half an hour ago. Lingham is ill—he is the chauffeur," she explained. She looked from Elizabeth to Lawless blankly.

"What in the world can we do?"

Lawless spoke then.

"I'll drive you if I may, Miss Challoner—I know the road well." He glanced at his watch. "It's half past six now. We ought to go at once if you're to catch the night boat. How soon can you be ready?"

"In five minutes—but I don't want to take you away. Surely I can hire a car!"

Barbara said with a touch of impatience, "The nearest garage is Bridgelake, and even if we ring them there probably won't be anyone in. Father would have taken a car instead of ringing for Roy if he could have got one."

"I'll get the car," Lawless answered.

Elizabeth hurried back to the library and explained to Miss Thornley. "I'll be there. I'm motoring down." Then she went up to her room to pack with Barbara at her heels.

Barbara watched her silently and presently she said, "I suppose Kim will have to stay the night at Dover. It seems funny, doesn't it, that he should be the one to take you?"

"Funny?" Elizabeth echoed uncertainly.

"Because of Penelope, I mean. I wonder if Kim minds?"

"If he—minds?" Elizabeth asked faintly.

"That she is ill, I mean, Barbara explained.

Elizabeth did not answer, but she thought with a little shrinking at her heart, "'Peace in our camp.' It hasn't lasted very long."

The sky was overcast as Elizabeth drove away from High Chimneys with Kim Lawless.

Mrs. Selby and Barbara waved good-bye from the door and, as the car swung out of sight, Barbara said a little hardly:

"What a pity we hadn't any confetti to throw. They looked as if they were off for a honeymoon."

"My dear child!" her mother protested. "This is hardly the time to make a joke of that kind. Elizabeth is going on a very sad errand."

Barbara shrugged her shoulders as she turned to go back into the house.

"I don't suppose Elizabeth cares whether Penelope lives or dies," she said flippantly. "Stepsisters never like each other, do they?"

She was feeling a little bitter because Kim had gone—surely there could not have been such a tremendous haste? Elizabeth might easily have waited a short while to see whether Roy returned. She consoled herself with the thought that, with any luck, Kim would be back in the early hours of the morning.

"It's getting quite misty," Elizabeth was saying as Lawless's big car sped along the winding lanes which led to the main road. She was feeling a little nervous for, although an hour ago she had been happy in this man's company, it seemed different somehow now that they were starting out together on the first stage of a journey which for her would end with Penelope. Suddenly Barbara's words returned to her:

"I wonder whether Kim minds—that Penelope is ill?"

Elizabeth stole a glance at Kim's quiet face, and as if he felt her gaze, he turned his head.

"It's often misty after a hot day. I expect it will clear presently," he smiled. "I suppose you're quite sure about the boat?"

"Oh yes. Aunt Thornely said it left at Eleven-thirty-six from Dover and it goes to Dunkirk."

"Rather a long way round. Calais is much quicker."

"Is it?" she asked indifferently. Then, after a moment; "It's very kind of you to bring me. If there had been time I would have waited for Roy."

INSTALMENT 11

"That almost sounds as if you prefer Roy's company to mine", Lawless said.

Elizabeth flushed sensitively.

"I didn't mean that. I meant that it seems such a shame to take you away from them all when you've only just come."

"You've only just come too," Lawless reminded her.

"I know, but it doesn't matter so much about me."

"What does that mean?" he asked in amusement.

"It means that I'm a new friend—to Mrs. Selby and Barbara at least—and you're not."

They had reached the junction of the main road now and Lawless slowed down cautiously.

"I think it's very fortunate I happened to be on the spot," he said when they were speeding on again. "Otherwise you might have missed the boat." He glanced down at her grave face. "Do you want to go, Elizabeth?"

"Yes, I want to go, of course. Why?"

"Only that it may be rather a trying experience."

She said very quietly:

"It's not very long since Pip and my mother died, and nothing can ever be so bad as it was when mother died." She moved her slim hands expressively.

"It was like — suddenly going blind—or being shut alone in a pitch-black room."

"You mustn't think about it," Lawless said gently.

"I know—and I try not to, but sometimes—sometimes it's like a wave rushing across the world to meet me—a great wave that towers above my head." And then, as if she could not bear to think about it, she asked: "How many miles have we to go?"

"I'm not quite sure, but I've got a map. Would you care to look at it?"

He stretched a long arm to the seat behind him for the road-map and put it in her lap.

Elizabeth turned the stiff sheets carefully to find the right one, her head bent intently, unconscious that more than once Lawless turned his eyes from the road to look at her.

There was a quiet patience in her face which hurt him, a look of loneliness and enforced self-restraint which a girl of her age should not have experienced.

"Have you found the right map?" he asked presently.

"I don't think so. There are so many."

He took it from her with his left hand, turning the parchment sheets awkwardly until he found what he wanted and then returning it to her.

"There you are! The thick line is the main road we are on. The scale at the foot of the page gives the mileage."

"I see," Elizabeth said, but her attention soon wandered again, and ran on to the journey lying in wait for her.

She had always wanted to go to Paris. Pip had taken her mother there once, and he had told Elizabeth all about it, about Versailles and the little steamboats which chugged up and down the Seine, about Notre Dame with its gargoyle heads, the great Eiffel Tower, and the women outside the Madeleine who sold flowers. She had listened wide-eyed and eager when Pip had added: "Some day, you'll see them all for yourself."

But now, although she was on her way to the city she had longed to see, everything was different —under a cloud—and there was forboding rather than joy in her heart.

"Have you been to Paris?" she asked presently.

Lawless laughed.

"More times than I can remember. I know it pretty nearly as well as I know London."

"And do you like it better than London?"

"You can't compare the two cities. They are so utterly different."

There was a little silence until he said cheerily:

"We're making good time—you'll catch the boat easily."

"Shall I?"

Her voice was preoccupied. She found herself thinking with a pang: "Supposing Penelope dies?"

Would this man care if Penelope died? And again she longed to know why it was that these two who must surely have once loved one another, should have parted.

"Love makes Time pass away — Time makes Love pass away...."

The words came back to her so vividly that she could almost feel the rough stone of the sundial beneath her fingers.

Why was it that old things had such a way of being right, she wondered painfully. Why was it old people seemed to know so much better than anyone else? Why did old proverbs and old traditions never go out of date?

And she remembered that once she had read, "Few things are wonderful that are not distant"

That explained memory, she supposed, memory, the queer thing that lives on the past and beautifies only things that are gone.

She started when Lawless toucher her hand.

"What are you thinking about? You were miles and miles away. Tired?" he asked, as she gave a little sigh.

"Oh, no, thank you." She sat up with a show of energy. "I wonder if Roy is back yet."

"I expect so. He will be disappointed to find you are gone."

"He's very kind to me," Elizabeth said.

There was a little silence.

"Have you ever seen Bingo, Mr. Lawless?" she asked interestedly.

Kim laughed.

"Who in the wide world is Bingo? It sounds like the name of a dog."

"It is a dog, a ghost at High Chimneys. Roy told me about him. He's supposed to appear when a tragedy is about to happen."

Lawless shrugged his shoulders sceptically.

"I don't believe in ghosts," he declared, "and I hope you don't."

"I've never seen one," Elizabeth admitted. "But I'm not sure that I don't believe in them. It's the old things that are true."

Lawless frowned and presently he said impulsively:

"Do you know what I should like to do with you, Elizabeth?"

She looked up at him.

"With me?"

"Yes." His color deepened a little. "I should like to take you right away to a place you have never seen before; to put you among young people of your own age, so that you would forget the past and yur loneliness—and be happy."

She laughed softly.

"Perhaps the young people of my own age wouldn't like me," she said. "And perhaps I shouldn't like them! Though I suppose it would be all right if you were there," she added unconsciously.

The car suddenly swerved.

"That was a skid!" Elizabeth said in surprise, clutching the door handle.

Lawless laughed.

(To Be Continued)

The Morning After Taking Carter's Little Liver Pills

PILES

With a record of 50 years as a most satisfactory treatment for piles or hemorrhoids, you can positively depend on

Dr. Chase's Ointment

NEW RINSO
WASHES DIRTIEST CLOTHES SNOWY WHITE
ISN'T IT GRAND HOW MUCH MORE SUDS NEW 1940 RINSO GIVES! EVEN MY MOST SOILED TOWELS COME OUT DAZZLING WHITE AND BRIGHT
AND NEW RICHER RINSO GETS CLOTHES UP TO TEN SHADES WHITER THAN THOSE OLD-TYPE SOAPS I USED BEFORE
RINSO LEAVES WASHABLE COLOURS BRIGHT AS SUNLIGHT—IT'S SAFE FOR FINEST COTTONS AND LINENS
YES! AND THE NEW 1940 RINSO WITH ITS SPECIAL "SUDS-BOOSTER" DISSOLVES QUICKLY AT THE TOUCH OF WATER—EVEN HARD WATER
THE NEW RINSO IS SO ECONOMICAL, I USE IT FOR DISHES AND ALL CLEANING. ITS RICH SUDS LOOSEN GREASE IN NO TIME—AND IT'S EASY AS EVER ON HANDS. BE SURE TO TRY IT, LADIES. I'LL BET YOU SAY IT'S GRAND
COMES IN 3 SIZES... Regular—LARGE—GIANT
Rinso
FOR TUB, WASHER DISHPAN

Lowest Prices In History!

GE
60 WATT 20¢
100 WATT 20¢
150 WATT 30¢
MADE IN CANADA
Edison Mazda Lamps stay brighter longer. Choose the sight-saving sizes—at today's lower prices.
Better Light... Better Sight
EDISON MAZDA Lamps
CANADIAN GENERAL ELECTRIC CO. LIMITED
L-149

Time Ticking Away Chances Of Clubs Chasing the Reds For National Loop Pennant

Cincinnati Still Holds 3½ Game Lead and Margin Looks Safer

REDS, CARDS DIVIDE

Yanks Cinch Pennant and Lose Two to the Browns on Sunday

By JUDSON BAILEY

Time is ticking away the chances of clubs chasing the Cincinnati Reds in the National League. Every day has made Cincinnati's 3½-game lead look longer.

Far from fading under the persistent pressure of St. Louis Cardinals and the strain of three doubleheaders in four days the Reds swung back into their best stride since July by winning seven of nine games.

Furthermore, the schedule this week gives them an opportunity to reinforce their position with ten games against Boston Bees, Philadelphia Phillies and Pittsburgh Pirates—the last three teams in the league and a class of opposition from which the Reds have won 41 games and lost only 12 this season.

In contrast, the Cardinals are carded for eight games with New York Giants, Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs—all dangerous.

The first club to feel the pinch of the constantly tightening finish was Chicago's defending champions, who have only eleven games to play and are ten games behind.

Reds and Cardinals Divide.

The Reds and Cards divided doubleheaders yesterday. Cincinnati sounded the theme for the day by making nine errors, but Paul Derringer overcame six of them in the first game to beat the Bees, 6-5, for his twenty-second victory and seventh straight. Boston took the nightcap, 5-3.

Carl Hubbell pitched the Giants to a 2-1 triumph over the Cards in the first game, but Fiddler Bill McGee reversed the tables in the second session with a four-hitter to win by the identical score.

Brooklyn Dodgers swept two games from Chicago, the Cubs made three boners in the first game and lost 10-4, then fell helpless, 3-2, before Luke Hamlin's five-hit flinging in the second.

The Pirates committed eight errors in their first game to collapse, 7-3, for the Phillies, but grabbed the second installment, 10-1, on Bob Klinger's four-hit pitching.

Yankees Relax.

The Yankees relaxed, having clinched their fourth consecutive American League championship on Saturday, and dropped a double bill to St. Louis Browns, 8-4 and 3-1.

Five errors by Cleveland Indians helped Philadelphia Athletics beat Bob Feller, 4-2, but the A's made four blunders themselves as the Indians staged a 17-hit uprising to take the nightcap, 18-5.

Thornton Lee's southpaw slants stymied Boston Red Sox on three hits as Chicago White Sox opened with a 6-1 victory, but Boston retaliated with an 11-7 conquest in the second.

Hank Greenberg's homer in the eleventh inning decided Detroit's single game with Washington Senators, 3-2.

GROUND ATTACK BEST WEAPON

Ottawa Rough Riders Open Grid Season With Win Over Balmy Beach

Ottawa, Sept. 18 (CP)—Good kicking, a deficiency of Ottawa Rough Rider football teams since Eddie Rocano began slipping two years ago, apparently is well distributed in the lineup of this season's edition of the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union Club.

Ushering in the 1939 football season in Eastern Canada here Saturday, Rough Rigers defeated Toronto Blamy Beach 32-12 in an exhibition game in which the class of the Big Four teams showed in a fourth-quarter attack that netted them 18 points while holding the Ontario Football Union squad scoreless.

While the six kickers Ottawa used during the game figured in the scoring, a smashing ground attack that battered the lighter Beaches was Riders' best attacking weapon. They scored five converted touchdowns and two single points on rouges while Beaches got a rouge and two major scores converting one.

Tiny Herman, 260-pound placement kicking specialist, converted two Ottawa touchdowns, Rocano, Wilfrid Tremblay and the former Sarnia Imperial star, Tony Golab, did some lusty booting of his own but scored only one single point while Sammy Sward also kicked well against his former team-mates.

ddie EThompson, Jack Frizelle, Young and Haigh worked like trojans for the alert Beaches, but many opportunities were lost through unsteadiness of their snap. Many inaccurate snaps threw the kicker off balance and four times resulted in his punts being blocked.

THE HARD WAY

Birmingham, England, —(CP) — A 20-year-old, wanting to be a boxer, and hoping he would be sent to a reform school where boing was taught, had himself arrested for breaking and entering. He later retracted, establishing an alibi.

CEMENTMEN LOSE DECIDING GAME TO WOOLER TEAM

Nosed Out 11-10 at Trenton With Both Teams Wielding Potent Bats

FINE FIELDING

Point Anne Team Outhit and Wooler Fielded Better in the Pinches

In a free-hitting, wide open softball tilt, the Wooler "Sluggers" pounded out an 11 to 10 victory over the Point Anne "Cementmen" in a third and deciding intermediate 'C' O.A.S.A. tilt at Trenton on Saturday. In victory the Wooler nine were crowned Eastern Ontario champions in their grouping and advanced to the provincial O.A.S. A. finals by virtue of their ability to out-slug the Point Anne squad, that saw elimination in defeat.

A total of 32 base hits was registered, with the winning Wooler nine garnering 18 solid base blows to the Cementmen's 14. The Trent River sluggers gained an early game lead to score three runs in the first two frames, but the courageous Point Anne squad battled back to assume a 7-5 advantage in the bottom half of the seventh, but the Wooler squad rallied to score runs in the last three frames and win.

Many Base Hits

The game was distinctly a battle of base hits and solid clouting on the part of both teams, as both Luffman, hurling for Point Anne, and Stacey for Wooler, were hit hard and often and for many extra base hits. Luffman struck out six and Stacey five while Stacey had four wild piches and four walks, but was given superb support by his team mates.

Every player on both clubs counted at least one hit to his credit, with McCall, the Wooler centre fielder getting a home run and single, while Ruttan and Redcliffe had four hits each to help the winners' cause. Whitehead with four, Whalen with three, Gaulin and Genereaux counted the majority of the Cementmen's safeties. McCall not only paced the Wooler nine, but fielded superbly with two fine running catches, while Adams stopped a seventh inning Point Anne rally with a fine catch of Whalen's line drive. Wooler advanced to the Intermediate 'C' finals in the O. A. S. A. playdowns in victory.

OUT-SLUGGED

| Point Anne: | AB | R | H | PO | A |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Gefiereauv, cf | 6 | 2 | 2 | 4 | 0 |
| Whitehead, ss | 5 | 2 | 4 | 6 | 0 |
| Loft, 3b | 5 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| Green, c | 4 | 1 | 1 | 8 | 0 |
| Gaulin, 1b | 5 | 0 | 2 | 4 | 0 |
| Bennett, rf | 5 | 0 | 1 | 3 | 0 |
| Hutchings, lf | 5 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| Whalen, 2b | 5 | 2 | 3 | 0 | 3 |
| Luffman, p | 4 | 1 | 0 | 1 | 1 |
| Total | 44 | 10 | 14 | 27 | 5 |

| Wooler: | AB | R | H | PO | A |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Austin, 1b | 6 | 2 | 2 | 10 | 1 |
| Ruttan, 2b | 6 | 1 | 4 | 0 | 5 |
| McCall, cf | 6 | 2 | 2 | 3 | 0 |
| Redcliffe, c | 5 | 1 | 4 | 7 | 0 |
| Stacey, p | 5 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 3 |
| Adams, 2b | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 0 |
| Richards, ss | 4 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| Steenburg, rf | 4 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 0 |
| Dunn, lf | 5 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Total | 46 | 11 | 18 | 27 | 10 |

| Score by innings: | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Wooler | 122 100 221 | 11 | 18 | 5 |
| Point Anne | 102 103 021 | 10 | 14 | 6 |

Summary— Errors—Loft, Green 2, Whalen, Genereaux 2, Austin, Ruttan, Adams, Richards 2; home run—McCall; three base hit—Austin; two base hit—Whalen 2, Gaulin, Genereaux, Genereaux, Whitehead, Austin, Steenburg; runs batted in, Rattan 2, McCall 2, Redcliffe Steenburg 2, Dunn, Loft, Whitehead 3, Green, Gaulin, Bennett 2, Luffman; Left on base—Point Anne 11, Wooler 10; struck out—by Luffman 6, by Stacey 5; base on balls—of Luffman 2, off Stocey 4, wild pitch—Stavey 4. Luffman 1; passed balls—Point Anne 1, Wooler 2; stolen bases—Genereaux, Loft Whalen, Luffman, Adams, ascrifice hit—Steenburg. Umpires, Steenburg, Trenton, plate, Ethier, Belleville, bases.

UNDERDOGS WIN

Chicago, Sept. 18 (AP)—Kansas City and Minneapolis ran away from the American Association field in a season's span, but it required only five games for Indianapolis and Louisville to oust them from the Shaughnessy playoffs.

The two eastern division clubs each won their decisive triumphs yesterday—third place Indianapolis over pennant winning Kansas City 6-3 and fourth place Louisville over runner-up Minneapolis, 6-3.

The winners meet tonight at Indianapolis in the first game of the championship round with the victor in the four-out-of-seven series qualifying to meet the International League playoff winner in the "Little World Series".

TRI-BELLS DEFEAT SHELL 'OILERS' IN FIRST GAME

Defeat Partly Attributed to Loose Play in Field by Local Squad

BAWDEN WALKS 7

Team Saved from Whitewash When Ronsky Homers in Eighth Frame

Playing loose ball in the field, the Shell "Oilers" dropped the first game of the intermediate 'A' provincial semi-final playdowns to the Toronto "Tri-Bells" by a score of 9 to 1 at Acorn Park, Toronto, on Saturday. Although only out-hit seven to six, the "Oilers" booted the ball for four costly errors, while Johnnie Bawden issued seven free trips to the initial sack, via the four ball route, many of which entered into the subsequent scoring. The second game of the provincial softballs finals between these two nines will be played at Coleman Flats diamond this evening, when the "Oilers" face elimination in defeat.

Clark, hurling for the "Tri-Bells" kept the Belleville nine from scoring until the eighth inning when Johnnie Ronsky cracked out a home run to save the "Oilers" from an application of the whitewash brush. In the meantime an error and hits by Koschenco and Ivan gave the Toronto squad three runs in the third, but the seventh saw Ivan smite a home run, as a walk and two errors saw Toronto score four runs on one hit in this inning to assure certain victory.

Play Errorless Ball

The Toronto team played errorless ball behind Clark, who struck out eight to Bawden's six. Clark was steady, only walking one, while Bawden passed seven. Ivan with a home run and two singles and Koschenco with two one base blows paced the winners. Dickey had two singles and Ronsky a home run to lead the "Oilers" on the offensive.

The Toronto "Tri-Bells", winners of the intermediate 'A' group of the T.A.S.A. are a fast well-coached team that will take a lot of beating before they are vanquished. However, the Sedore-led 'Oilers' feel they have eliminated a bad game from their system and will force a third and deciding game with a win on the home diamond this evening.

ONE DOWN

| Belleville: | AB | R | H | PO | A |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Dickey, rf | 4 | 0 | p | 1 | 0 |
| Amo, lf | 4 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Bawden, p | 4 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 4 |
| Sero, ss | 4 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 2 |
| O'Neill, 1b | 4 | 0 | 0 | 8 | 0 |
| Whalen, cf | 4 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Moon, 2b | 3 | 0 | 0 | 5 | 0 |
| Rowbotham, c | 3 | 0 | 1 | 6 | 4 |
| Ronsky, 3b | 2 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Total | 32 | 1 | 6 | 24 | 6 |

| Toronto | AB | R | H | PO | A |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Mallo, ss | 5 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 2 |
| Sonosky, 3b | 4 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 2 |
| Koschenco, 2b | 5 | 2 | 2 | 4 | 1 |
| Stukus, cf | 3 | 2 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Ivan, lf | 4 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 0 |
| Vetore, rf | 4 | 2 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Dossey, 1b | 5 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 0 |
| Titanic, c | 3 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Clark, p | 4 | 0 | 0 | 8 | 0 |
| Total | 37 | 9 | 7 | 27 | 6 |

| Score by innings: | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Belleville | 000 000 010 | 1 | 6 | 4 |
| Toronto | 013 000 41x | 9 | 7 | 0 |

Summary—Errors, Amo, Sero 2, Moon; home runs, Ivan, Ronsky; two base hit—Dossey; left on base—Toronto 5, Belleville 6; struck out—by Bawden 6, by Clark 8; base on balls—off Bawden 7, off Clark 1; Umpires—Townsend, Belleville plate, Leitch, Toronto, bases. Scorer, Reg Stephenson.

Baseball Results

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

Series "A"

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Newark | 4 | 2 | .667 |
| Jersey City | 2 | 4 | .333 |

Newark wins series.

Series "B"

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Rochester | 4 | 1 | .800 |
| Buffalo | 1 | 4 | .200 |

Rochester wins series.

Sunday's Results.

Newark 6, Jersey City 4.
Rochester 8, Buffalo 6.

Saturday's Results.

Newark 7, Jersey City 1.
Rochester 8, Buffalo 5.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

| | W. | L. | Pct. | G.B.L. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 98 | 43 | .695 | — |
| Boston | 82 | 59 | .582 | 16 |
| Chicago | 80 | 62 | .563 | 18½ |
| Cleveland | 78 | 62 | .557 | 19½ |
| Detroit | 72 | 67 | .518 | 25 |
| Washington | 61 | 83 | .424 | 38 |
| Philadelphia | 52 | 89 | .369 | 46 |
| St. Louis | 40 | 99 | .288 | 57 |

Sunday's Results.

St. Louis 8-3, New York 4-1.
Philadelphia 4-5, Cleveland 2-18.
Chicago 6-7, Boston 1-11.
Detroit 3, Washington 2.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

| | W. | L. | Pct. | G.B.L. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Cincinnati | 85 | 52 | .620 | |
| St. Louis | 82 | 56 | .594 | 3½ |
| Chicago | 78 | 65 | .545 | 10 |
| Brooklyn | 74 | 63 | .540 | 11 |
| New York | 68 | 68 | .500 | 16½ |
| Pittsburg | 63 | 76 | .453 | 23 |
| Boston | 58 | 77 | .430 | 26 |
| Philadelphia | 43 | 94 | .314 | 43 |

Sunday's Results.

Cincinnati 6-3, Boston 5-5.
New York 2-1, St. Louis 1-2.
Brooklyn 10-3, Chicago 4-2.
Philadelphia 7-1, Pittsburg 3-10.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPT. 18, 1914 — Allies reported progress north of the Aisne River with lull in battle but no change in the general situation. United States Ambassador at Berlin announced Germany would enter plan to exchange war prisoners.

Belleville Ints. Eliminated From O. B. A. Playdowns

Cobourg Wins Third and Deciding Game in Series by 9-7 Count

The Belleville intermediates passed from the O.B.A. picture in Cobourg on Saturday by virtue of some loose playing as the Ponies beat the locals 9 to 7 to advance to the intermediate O.B.A. semi-finals. A five run splurge in the sixth inning settled the issue as the homesters garnered six lusty hits, including a home run by Campbell and a triple by Reymes.

Weeks and Cowie hooked up in a sterling pitchers' duel for five innings, only to have Cobourg break out in the sixth and assure themselves of victory by scoring five runs. Belleville rallied in the ninth, however, to score three runs, but with the tying runs on the base paths the locals floundered in the ninth, however.

Hits a Homer

Campbell, with a home run and three singles, was the big hitter of the game, as Cooper counted three hits and Rollings a double and single. McQuaid and Pointer counted two hits each for Belleville, while Wilkins got a hit in his only appearance at bat. Weeks gave way to Kelleher in the eighth, with Coach Wilkins finishing on the Belleville mound. Cowie hurled the entire nine innings for Cobourg and scattered seven hits well.

The Belleville team questioned Cowie's legibility to play in the O. B. A. it being established this player had not completed three O. B. A. games prior to the play-offs. Although Belleville have definite proof of their charges against Cowie, it is doubtful if they will press their charges against the Cobourg Club.

ALL OVER

| Belleville | AB | R | H |
|---|---|---|---|
| McQuad, 3b | 5 | 0 | 2 |
| Little, ss | 3 | 1 | 0 |
| Jerrall, 2b | 5 | 0 | 1 |
| Empson, lf | 4 | 1 | 1 |
| Carson, 1b | 4 | 1 | 1 |
| Weeks, p, rf | 3 | 1 | 2 |
| Churchill, rf | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Riggs, cf | 5 | 1 | 1 |
| a-Kelleher, p | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| b-Wilkins, p | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Total | 36 | 7 | 9 |

a-replaced Weeks in 8th.
b-replaced Kelleher in 9th.

| Cobourg | AB | R | H |
|---|---|---|---|
| Johnstone, ss | 5 | 0 | 1 |
| Rollings, 2b | 5 | 0 | 2 |
| Campbell, 1b | 5 | 2 | 4 |
| Brooks, lf | 5 | 0 | 1 |
| McCaig, rf | 4 | 1 | 1 |
| Reymes, 3b | 4 | 2 | 1 |
| Blastorah, cf | 4 | 1 | 2 |
| Cooper, c | 4 | 2 | 3 |
| Cowie, p | 3 | 1 | 1 |

| Score by innings: | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Belleville | 010 120 003 | 7 | 9 | 4 |
| Cobourg | 010 115 01x | 9 | 16 | 3 |

Summary—home run—Campbell; three base hit—Reymes, McQuaid; two base hit—Empson, Rollings; struck out—Belleville 4, Cobourg 4; base on balls—off Belleville 1, off Cobourg 5; wild pitch—Weeks, winning pitcher, Cowie; losing pitcher, Weeks. Umpires, Thomas, Belleville and Gibson, Cobourg. Scorer, Lorne McDougall.

SEATTLE WINS PENNANT

San Francisco, Sept. 18 (AP)—The 1939 Pacific Coast Baseball League season ended yesterday with Seattle, the pennant winner, finishing 4½ games ahead of the nearest competitor.

San Francisco was second, a half game ahead of Los Angeles. Sacramento was fourth. San Diego, Hollywood, Oakland and Portland composed the second division, finishing in the order named. Portland, with a percentage of .434, was 24½ games behind Seattle.

Cleveland, O.,—(CP) — A potato race "probably comes the closest to any one test measuring football ability," says Floyd Rowe, of Cleveland's public schools. He picks footballers by their potato-racing ability.

DO AS ROME DOES

ROME — (CP) —Because Fascism prefers the salute to the handshake it is likely Italian Davis Cup players will greet their opponents with the outstretched arm of the Fascist salute on this year's courts.

IMPROVING

Relief for Cincinnati's two-man pitching staff may be offered in the closing weeks of the season by Eugene (Junior) Thompson, ABOVE whose recent two-hit shutout over Brooklyn Dodgers was a ray of sunshine in the Cincinnati flag drive. Junior has shown in flashes before and this may be just another one, but if he can come through consistently it will lighten the burden so far carried by Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer.

LOUIS FAVORITE OVER BOB PASTOR IN SHORT BOUT

Referee Question Not Decided at the Present Time—Louis Ready

50,000 EXPECTED

Louis Concludes Training and Fully Recovered from Cold

(By Sid Feder)
(Associated Press Sport Writer)

Detroit, Sept. 18—(AP)— For one reason or another — either that Joe Louis is too top-heavy a favorite or Bob Pastor is too dangerous a question mark to fool around with—there wasn't enough betting today on Wednesday's heavyweight championship bout to cover a thin dime.

The "price" for the tussle was largely "rumor". It ranged, on the one hand, from the possibility that Pastor would be either one of the shortest priced punchers ever to tangle with the Brown Bomber, to the other extreme which made deadpan Joe a 1-to-8 shot to knock Bob's ears down sometime along the scheduled 20-round route.

The chances were that the champion, rated off his comparatively recent short and sweet sleep-producing victories over Max Schmeling, John Henry Lewis, Jack Roper and Tony Galento, would enter the ring at something better than 1-to-6 favorite over the one-time collegian who went 10 rounds with him back in '37.

Referee Not Known

Of more interest at the moment was the discussion over which of three refereeing possibilities would be the third man in the ring when the gong goes off at 11 p.m. E.D.T. Wednesday in Briggs Stadium. Those mentioned most prominently are Slim McClelland, Sam Hennessey, and Clarence Rosen, well-known here as a boxer and referee.

McClelland was the third man in Louis' victories over Natie Brown and Patsy Perroni, and, oddly enough, both of these bouts went the route. Hennessey worked most of Louis' amateur fights hereabouts and also took care of the more recent bout in which Pastor soundly whipped Roscoe Toles to become an A-No. 1 drawing card in this city.

This motor city, incidentally, has gone for the fight whole hog. Even Promoter Mike Jacobs said his most conservative estimates put the probable gate at the $500,000 mark, with a crowd of 50,000 or more.

Pastor again took it easy today, while Louis got in his last training licks. Fully recovered from the cold which put him to bed with a temperature last Thursday and Friday, the champion boxed four rounds then put his training togs back in the mothballs.

NEWARK BEARS, WINGS TO MEET IN FINAL SERIES

Bears Dispose of Leaders of Schedule While Rochester Takes Bisons

OPEN AT ROCHESTER

First Two Games at Rochester With Next Three at Newark

(By The Associated Press)

Rochester Red Wings and Newark Bears, the International Baseball League's "hottest" teams when the regular season ended a week ago, start tonight in the final playoff series for the Governors' Cup. The winner will get that trophy, a $4,000 cash prize and a shot at the American Association's playoff winner in the Little World series.

Newark, which barely slipped into the playoffs by beating Syracuse in an extra game to decide fourth place after they had finished in a tie, accomplished the downfall of the champion Jersey City Giants in the first playoff round, winning the sixth and deciding game yesterday, 6-4. Rochester, second in the regular season, trimmed the third-place Buffalo Bisons 8-6 for its fourth straight victory after losing the playoff opener.

The first two games of the best-of-seven final series will be played at Rochester with Newark's George Barley pitching against Elwin (Preacher) Roe tonight. The next three are scheduled for Newark and the last two, if necessary, for Rochester.

Newark was outhit in yesterday's contest but checked the pennant winners. The Bears got an early lead when Herman Schulte doubled after Johnny Wittig issued a pair of second-inning passes. Walt Judnich's homer with Buddy Blair aboard in the third doubled the count and when Lefty Max Macon looked as if he couldn't protect that lead in the sixth Norman Branch came in with some effective relief flinging.

Harry Davis, veteran first sacker, was the main reason for Rochester's victory in a slugfest which brought 11 hits for each team. He accounted for four runs himself, socking a homer inside the park with two aboard and two singles.

CANADIANS IN HUNT FOR U.S. AMATEUR GOLF CROWN

SANDY SOMERVILLE

JOE THOMPSON

PHIL FARLEY

Leading the Canadian field entered in the U.S. amateur golf tournament at Chicago were the three players shown here, Sandy Somerville, of London, who took the U.S. title in 1932, leading in the first half of the qualifying round with a 71; Thompson, who hails from Burlington, Ont., following with a 72, and Farley, Toronto, carding a 75. Martin Luther of Fort Erie, Ont., with an 80, also was eligible for the second 18 holes of the qualifying test, after which the low 64 scorers continue into the match play of the tournament proper.

CALLING 'EM

Between the Lines

with
Ken J. Colling

There may have been no joy in Mudville after "the mighty Casey struck out," but there was less joy in Belleville, yes in the entire Bay of Quinte district, on Saturday night after every team in Belleville and district was either eliminated or defeated. Three teams were eliminated while still a fourth lost in Toronto. It was a drastic and gloomy day for Belleville ball clubs. In Cobourg the Belleville 'Orfuns' were defeated 9-7 in a third and deciding game. In Trenton the Point Anne "Cementmen" bowed out of the softball picture as the result of an 11 to 10 defeat at the hands of the hard-hitting Wooler nine, while at Bowmanville the homesters made it two in a row over the Napanee Gibbards to push Walt Gerow's charges out of the baseball picture for 1939. Atop of all these eliminations the Belleville Shell "Oilers" lost 9 to 1 to the Toronto "Tri-Bells" at Acorn Park on Saturday. The 'Oilers' can climb back into the picture, however, by taking the Queen City nine in the return game here this evening.

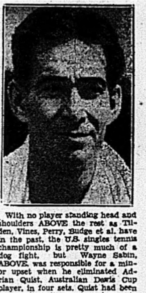
Up in Toronto the 'Tri-Bells' beat the Oilers 9 to 1, but strangely enough the home team only out-hit Frank Sedore's charges seven to six. The Oilers booted the ball for four costly errors, while Johnnie Bawden walked seven Toronto batsmen, which in no way helped his own cause. Incidentally the Oilers say the "Tri-Bells", as a team are not as strong as either Kingston or Peterboro, but their pitcher, Clark by name is the best they've met up with this year. "We played the poorest ball we've turned in since entering the O.A.S.A. playdowns and providing the boys return to form, I feel they'll force the series with Toronto to a third game by winning here this evening" was Skipper. Sedore's predictions today. Incidentally the Oiler's only score came in the eighth as the result of Johnnie Ronsky's home run. Clark let the Oilers down with six hits, the locals only getting one safety from the first until the sixth, Dickey, the first batter, welcoming Clark with a single. Glancing over the "Tri-Bells" line-up it would appear as though it resembled a League of Nations convention.

Both Bay of Quinte baseball clubs passed out of the provincial O.B.A. hunt on Saturday. Napanee bowing to Bowmanville by a one to nothing score in a sweet pitchers' battle. Incidentally we hear that one Napanee batter stumbled between third and home after hitting what should have been a circuit blow to tie the score. He was tagged out after falling. Up at Cobourg Bud Wilkins' 'Orfuns' took it on the chin to the tune of 9-7 in a third and deciding game. The Ponies now meet Sunderland. Lefty Weeks started for Belleville and pitched splendidly until the sixth, when a five run barrage, as the result of a torrid hitting attack, salted away the game. Belleville tried desperately to knot the count in the ninth, when they scored three runs, but left the tying runs stranded on the runways, so we bid fond farewell to baseball in Belleville for another year. Incidentally Cobourg used Eric Cowie on the mound, Cowie beating the locals the first and third game. The locals learned on good authority that Cowie is not eligible to play for Cobourg, but will not protest.

Pounding the pellett with gusto, the Wooler "Sluggers" lived up to their reputation as punishing pill-pounders to whack out 18 hits and beat Point Anne 11 to 10 on Saturday, thus disposing of the "Cementmen" and forcing Bubby Gaulin's charges into the discard of softball. Actually, it would seem the "cementmen" lost the series in the second game. After beating Wooler 14 to 7 in the opening game of the series, the Ox Point nine apparently did not take the Wooler team with sufficient seriousness in their second meeting and therein lies the sad tale of their defeat. When a club is good enough to arrive or place in the provincial softball semi-finals, as did Wooler, they must be respected at all times and it is to be hoped that the Cementmen's mistake of Thursday will be a lesson, not only to them, but to others as well. Today the Wooler team and the Trenton Yourex team are still in the Provincial softball hunt and they will be wholeheartedly supported by Belleville softball fans.

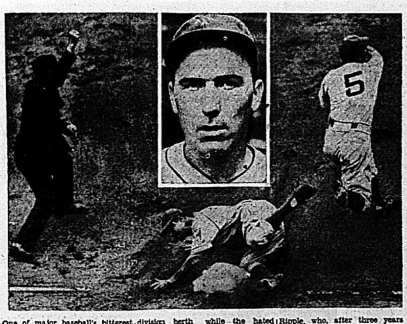
The Cincinnati Reds continue to stumble towards a National League pennant, winning two and losing one over the week-end. Oddly enough, the Cardinals turned in the same playing trick, so there is no difference in the National League standing today. With the exception of three games in Pittsburg, the Redlegs play all of their remaining games at home, while the Cardinals are on the road, which may prove the advantage to the Reds in the long run. Over in the American League the lowly Browns trounced the Yankees twice over the week-end, but Boston lost also so we find the Yankees still 16 games afront of the Red Sox. The Athletics beat Bob Feller yesterday and Paul Derringer hung up his seventh straight win and 22nd victory for the Reds. Even in losing two, the Yankees cinched their fourth consecutive American League pennant over the week-end and are just ten games out of a new world's record for games won in a single season.

SPORT SPICE — The Point Anne "Cementmen" claim they were "given the business" by Umpire Steenburg on Saturday, especially in the ninth when it hurt.... Bubby Gaulin's charges were most unhappy about the whole thing.... The Ottawa Rough Riders showed plenty of power when they laced the Toronto Balmy Beach squad 32 to 12 in an exhibition football tilt at the Capital City on Saturday.... Earl (Peg) Hurst, well-known Oshawa baseball player and goal-keeper, was married over the week-end, the bride being Miss Gladys M. Cobon to which we would like to add our good wishes and congratulations for a life of good will and happiness to the newlyweds.... The Scottish Soccer League voted to resume league activities next Saturday, while the English League executive meets today to decide the future fate of Old Country football in this time of anxiety.. ....Indianapolis was added to the roster of the International-American Hockey League over the week-end.



With no player standing head and shoulders ABOVE the rest as Tilden, Vines, Perry, Budge et al. have in the past, the U.S. singles tennis championship is pretty much of a dog fight, but Wayne Sabin, ABOVE, was responsible for a minor upset when he eliminated Adrian Quist, Australian Davis Cup player, in four sets. Quist had been co-favorite with Bobby Riggs to take the title.

NEW YORK-BROOKLYN FEUD FEATURES NEW STAR



One of major baseball's bitterest rivalries—and most lucrative to the teams involved—is that between New York Giants and their neighboring foes, the Brooklyn Dodgers. This year, for the first time in a decade, the Dodger rooters are getting a chance to howl as their favorites strengthen their hold on a first division berth while the hated Giants are forced down to fifth place. This action picture shows Cooky Lavagetto, of Brooklyn, retiring Bill Jurges as he vainly slides into third base, and throwing to first for a double play. Bill Stewart (remember Chicago Black Hawks?) is the umpire. Inset is Jimmy Ripple, who, after three years of intermittent play with the Giants, was traded to Durocher's Dodgers, to become a thorn in the Giant flesh as he pounded the pitching of his former teammates to all corners of the park and led the Dodgers to their most recent inter-borough victories.

AUTO FINANCE

AUTO LOANS REFINANCING

On terms and at rates which you will find suitable to your requirements. Your car is a quick and gilt-edge asset for borrowing. Only the owner signs. Deal with confidence with the largest company of its kind in Canada.

D. H. MARSHALL
17 Bridge St. E. Phone 2172
Representing
CAMPBELL AUTO FINANCE
Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa

DENTISTS

DENTISTS
DR. M. J. CLARKE
DR. JOHN M. CLARKE
McCarthy Theatre Bldg.
Phone 723

DR. ROBT. H. EMPSON
DENTIST
X-Ray
Phone [illegible] [illegible] Front St.
17-2m

Business Directory

LAND SURVEYOR

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to.
PHONE 8—P. O. BOX 38
MADOC, ONT.

STOCKS & BONDS

BIGGAR and CRAWFORD, MEMBERS of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738, Ross S. Salisbury, branch manager. m3-1y

MINERAL BATHS

MINERAL BATHS AND MASSAGE. The finest treatment for Neuritis, Arthritis, Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Colds, etc. Separate parlors for Ladies and Gentlemen. Graduate Nurse. Registered Masseur. Phone 1182. "THE HEALTH INSTITUTE, 221 William St., Belleville.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., Chiropractor and Drugless Therapist, Mineral Fume Baths with oil and alcohol rub; coagulation of tonsils, Radioclast examination, manipulative surgery and suction treatment for sinus conditions. 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Phone 900. Lady attendant.

H. R. and VERA R. PITCHER, Sp.C. Chiropractors, and Drugless Therapists. Adjustments, Radioclast Diagnosis and Treatments. Ultra-Violet and Intra-Red Radiations, Coagulation of Tonsils and Electrical Treatments. 421½ Bridge St. East, Belleville, Ont. Phone 1274.

INSURANCE

The thought of Fire loses half its Terrors when you're protected with our Fire Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
LIFE and FIRE INSURANCE
240½ Front St. Phone 492

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident and Plate Glass
278 Front St. Phone 1154w

LEGAL

S. GORDON ROBERTSON, BARRISTER, Solicitor, Notary Public, Suite No. 1, 236½ Front St., Belleville, over Quick and Robertson's. Telephone 2566. s27-1y

PONTON and PRINGLE — William B. Ponton, K.C., Robert A. Pringle. Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on Real Estate Mortgages. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East, Belleville, Ont. Telephone 174

CAMERON and CAMERON, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge Streets, Belleville Ontario.

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, Notary Public etc. 15 Campbell St. Belleville, Telephone 74. Money to loan on mortgages. O19-tf

SCREEN CLOCK

BELLE THEATRE TIMES
STANLEY and LIVINGSTONE
Spencer Tracy, Nancy Kelly
2.50 — 7.30 — 9.30

McCARTHY THEATRE TIMES
CAREER
Edward Ellis, Anne Shirley
2.45 — 7.25 — 10.20
THEY MADE HER A SPY
Sally Eilers, Allan Lane
4.00 — 9.00

CAPITOL FEATURE TIMES
ALF'S BUTTON AFLOAT
The Crazy Gang
7.27 and 10.05
ON TRIAL
Margaret Lindsay, John Litel
8.47

TO LET

FOUR ROOM UPSTAIR APARTMENT, 30 Boswell Street, 3-piece bath, private entrance. Possession, Oct. 15. Apply to Mrs. Howard on premises. s18-3t

75 VICTORIA AVENUE CORNER of John Street, in residence of Mr. Stuart Lazier, very desirable heated apartment, bright and commodious, well decorated, electric refrigerator and stove supplied. Possession Oct. 1st. Inspection by appointment only. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s18-tf

3 HEATED ROOMS, ALL CONveniences, suitable for light, housekeeping. Adults only. Apply 176 Foster Ave. s18-tf

2 FRONT BEDROOMS, COMFORTable; all conveniences, with board. Reasonable rates. Apply 244 George Street. Phone 827W. s16-3t

LARGE FURNISHED HEATED bed-sitting room on ground floor. Apply 221 Albert Street. s18-1t

NUMBER 23 HIGHLAND AVENUE. Possession October 15th. Apply R. J. E. Graham, Telephone 150. s13-15-18

STORE 282 FRONT STREET, APproximately 19x80. Phone 834. s15-18-20-22

NICE ROOM, WITH OR WITHOUT board, central location, continuous hot water, use of telephone. Write Box L, Ontario Intelligencer. s16-2t

FURNISHED APARTMENT, POSsession, October 1. Apply 252 Coleman Street. s16-4t

SOLID BRICK HOUSE, HARDwood floors, all convenînces, garden, garage. Phone 818W. s16-6t

8 ROOM HOUSE, 3 PIECE BATH, furnace, wired for electric range. Apply 17 Reid Street. s15-3t

SIX ROOM HOUSE WITH ALL conveniences; near bus line. 123 Catherine Street. Immediate possession. Phone 978W. s15-3t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, OVERlooking the bay, desirable brick house, seven rooms. All conveniences, garage. Reasonable rent. Immediate possession. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House phone 687. s11-tf

190 GEORGE STREET, SOUTH OF Bridge Street. Desirable heated apartments. Immediate possession. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

19 PINE STREET, CORNER OF Albert Street, newly decorated, six rooms, hardwood floors, bath, hot air furnace, immediate possession. Gas stove supplied. Garage. G. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. a29-tf

TENDERS

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned and marked "Tender for Radio Range Station, Stirling", will be received up to 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, September 27, 1939, for the development of a radio range station at Stirling, Ontario.

Plans, specifications, labour conditions and form of contract to be entered into may be seen and tender forms obtained on application to the undersigned at Ottawa or the Postmaster at Trenton, Belleville or Stirling, Ontario. Further information if required regarding location of site or interpretation of plans may be obtained on application to the Airway Engineer, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Ontario.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered Canadian Bank equal to ten per cent (10%) of the tender price, payable to the order of the Receiver General of Canada. which cheque will be forfeited in the event of the tenderer refusing to enter into a contract on the basis of his tender, if called upon to do so, or failing to satisfactorily complete such a contract. Cheques of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned.

Any tender not accompanied by a security deposit as described will not be considered.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

GEO. W. YATES,
Secretary.
Department of Transport,
Ottawa, September 13, 1939.
s15-3t

Fair Dates for Central Ontario

| | |
|---|---|
| Campbellford | Sept. 26-27 |
| Ameliasburg | Sept. 23 |
| Madoc | October 3-4 |
| Picton | Sept. 28-29 |
| Tweed | Sept. 21-22 |
| Stirling | Sept. 19-20 |
| Marmora | October 16-17 |
| Coe Hill | Sept. 20-21 |
| Wooler | Sept. 2829 |
| Warkworth | October 5-6 |

FOR SALE

GOOD BABY CARRIAGE. REASonable. Apply 42 Sinclair Street. s18-3t

NOVELTY MANUFACTURING business, splendid prospects. Price $500 cash, no balance. Apply Box 724, Trenton, Ontario. s18-2t

BABY CARRIAGE, MAN'S GOOD suit, size 38, large desk, single cot, white dresser. Reasonable. Phone 1219. s18-1t

GIRL'S BICYCLE, FIRST CLASS condition. Stan Barriage, 80 College St. between 6 and 8 p.m. s18-3t

80 HIGHLAND AVENUE AT THE corner of West Bridge Street—Belle Villa, the property of the late Mrs. C. B. Scantlebury. I have received instructions from the executors of the estate to offer this fine residence for sale. Excellent tourist accommodation business well established. Twenty-one rooms and four bath rooms. House in good state of repair. Estate must be closed as soon as possible. Exclusive Agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. - s18-tf

AT CANNIFTON, DESIRABLE stone house, named "Moira View", property of Mrs. Harrow and Mrs. Batty, eight rooms in all, commodious and well decorated, hardwood floors, one acre of land, garage, large henhouse, some small fruit; property all fenced. Low taxes. Investigate this. Apply on premises or to Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s18-tf

1927 CHEVROLET COACH IN good condition. Apply after five at 96 Station Street. s18-2t

4 YEAR OLD MARE, ALSO ONE yearling bull. Gladwyn Harns, Mountain View, Phone Sprague Line. s18-1t

$800.00 WILL BUY WELL BUILT and comfortable cement cottage No. 255 Sidney Street. West Hill, near Fair Grounds, three lots, good garden, small barn. Immediate sale desired. Inspect this property. Exclusive agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street. Phone 99, House Phone 687. s16-tf

36 BARRED ROCK PULLETS, 3½ months old; and Bicycle, 7 dollars. J. Ellis, R.R.1, Centre, Belleville. s16-2t

MOTORCYCLE, NORTON E.S. 2, 36, tools, riding kit. Reasonable for cash. A. M. Sharp, R.A.F., Trenton. s15-3t

A QUANTITY OF HARD WOOD $7.50 per cord, soft wood $5.50 per cord, and soft slab wood $4.50 per cord delivered at Belleville in 3 cord loads. Write H. C. Lloyd, Bannockburn, Phone Madoc 5233. s12-6t

27 HIGHLAND AVENUE, DESIRable brick house, overlooking the bay, seven rooms, all conveniences, garage, in good condition, newly painted. Low price for quick sale. Exclusve agent, Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s11-tf

DR. EMPSON'S RESIDENCE, TWO miles from Belleville, near Foxboro highway, seven room house, newly decorated throughout, hardwood floors, modern bath, 2 1-2 acres garden land, barn, double garage. Apply on premises. s11-6t

4 HILLSIDE STREET, WELL built brick house, three bed rooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen. Good basement and hot air furnace, nice grounds. Reasonable price for quick sale Exclusive agent. Geo. N. Gorman, 166 Front Street, Phone 99, House Phone 687. s9-tf

AUCTION SALE

Of fine stock and implements, some household effects, Lot 4, Con. 3, Thurlow Township on Foxboro Highway, 1 1-2 miles north of Belleville, Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 1 o'clock. Mrs. E. S. Gilbert, owner. Geo. Arnott, Auctioneer. s16-2t

AT THE McCARTHY

"Career"

You've asked for new faces—and here they are! Alice Eden and John Archer, selected from thousands of aspirants through Jesse L. Lasky's "Gateway to Hollywood" talent search, co-featured in their first screen appearance with Anne Shirley, Edward Ellis, "A Man to Remember," Samuel S. Hinds, Janet Beecher, Leon (rubber legs) Errol and Raymond Hattan, in Phil Stong's great novel "Career" now playing at the McCarthy theatre. "Career" is a picture made from a book that rips and tears with the teeth of its powerful drama and heals with its sweet romance — Small-town folks with big-city hearts in a picture as solid and satisfying as fried chicken and apple pie, don't miss "Career."

"They Made Her a Spy"

Sally Eilers in "They Made Her a Spy" is presented in addition to "Career" and is a stirring and timely story of amazing truths about sabotage, that will make your heart pound. "They Made Her a Spy" also has abundant action, multiple thrills and a capable cast of favorites besides Miss Eilers, including Allan Lane, Fritz Leiber, Frank M. Thomas, Leona Roberts and Theodore Von Eltz, all of whom enact wonderful performances. Preceding the above two feature productions "Hello Mama' a clever cartoon is also now playing.

WANTED

SINGLE MAN TO WORK ON farm by month or by year. Apply George Rush, Belleville, R.R. 3, Ont.; next Riley's Dance Pavilion. s18-2t

GOOD USED PIANO. WRITE Box F Ontario Intelligencer. s18-2t

ARE YOU THE MAN?
WATKINS DEALER (BETWEEN 25 to 50 years), with car, needed immediately to hand out FREE Extracts in nearby rural route and supply established demand for Everyday Necessities including Spices, Baking Powder, Cleansers, Soaps, Medicines, Fly Spray. Mineralized Stock and Poultry Tonics. 70 year reputation. 10,000 dealers. Must be statisfied with $30.00 weekly at start. Selling experience unnecessary. Farm experience helpful. Credit furnished right parties. Write immediately, The J. R. Watkins Company, Montreal, Que., Dept. O-B-10. s18-25-o2-9

TO RENT FROM 2 TO 5 ACRES with good house, cistern cellar, garage, hen house, well, near school and paved road. Possession Nov. 1st. Frank Hagerman, R. 2, Holloway, Ontario. s16-3t

INSTRUCTION

IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW, SKETCH or Paint—Write for Talent Test (No Fee). Give age and occupation. Federal Schools, Inc., Dept. BE, Minneapolis, Minn. s9-13t

WORK WANTED

HANDY MAN AND EXPERIENCed painter is anxious to get sufficient work to purchase clothing. Kindly write Box Y, Ontario Intelligencer. s15-3t

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 1.30 o'clock at Mrs. F. Munning's, 196 Dundas St. chesterfield suite, Moffat electric range, 2 studio couches, Coffield washer, dresser, other articles.
N. MONTGOMERY, Auctioneer, Phone 1770. s13-15-18

AUCTION SALE

Auction Sale, Friday, Sept. 22, at 1.30 at 126 Bridge East, Mrs. S. R. McCreary, owner:—Newcombe piano, Westinghouse radio, 2 complete bedroom suites, rugs, settee and chairs, glider, large leather couch, verandah mats, curtains, hospital bed, high frequency machine, surgical instruments, nearly new cook stove, chairs, and numerous other articles. Terms Cash.
NORMAN MONTGOMERY, Auctioneer, Belleville, Phone 1170. s14-18-21

NOTICE

THURLOW TWP. RESIDENTS

As Collector R. M. Mitchell must return his dog book on October first to the Municipal Treasurer, all residents of Thurlow Township, who own or harbor a dog or dogs or have done so during the year 1939 are hereby notified to pay their dog tax and receive their tag before said date, or penalties as imposed under dog By-law 597, will be incurred. Mr. Fred Mitchell will be at Canadian Bank of Commerce on September 23rd., and 30th., to receive tax or same may be paid at residence of Collector Mitchell, Concession 2, Thurlow.

E. W. BROWN,
Clerk.
s18-3t

PENSION CHEQUES FROM OLD COUNTRY HAVE LESS VALUE

Not among the least affected by the adverse fluctuations of sterling exchange lately have been the Imperial war veterans of the city who have been receiving pensions from the overseas government. With the pound sterling rapidly depreciating to low levels, many of the pensioners have received cheques lately which, according to one veteran "are hardly worth cashing."

Montreal, Sept. 18 (CP)—The all-Canadian Congress of Labor was asked by its officers today to approve the action of the executive board in pledging full support to the government of Canada during the war.

In its report to the ninth annual convention opening here today, the executive said it had "no hesitation in conforming the action taken by its officers in assuring the government of its support in this period of crisis." The report will be considered during the three-day convention.

HOW TO OVERCOME ITCHING PILES

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from J. S. McKeown or any druggist, a package of Hemroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemroid is a physician's prescription and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

Russia's Sudden Entry Into Poland Creates Much Conjecture as to Aims

Many Seem to Think Soviets Will Remain by Neutrality Declaration

LOSS OF A. C. DEPLORED

Russia's dramatic entry into the European malestrom of war, and uncertainty as to her actual designs left a depressive effect on the man on the street here today.

The news that came like a bolt from the blue Sunday was a matter for serious conjecture for people who gathered about the bulletin boards of The Ontario Intelligencer.

"What does Russia want?" "What is she going to do?" "Which side is she going to take". "Is Russia merely protecting her interests and minorities in war-torn Poland, or is it a result of well-laid plans between the Soviet and the German Reich", were many of the questions asked by curious bystanders.

A general world-war was prophesied by many, who foresaw in the sudden change of events, the drawing into the general conflict of practically all the European nations. Others took a more optimistic view as they voiced faith in the Soviet promise that "we are only protecting Soviet interest in the captured territory".

The possibility of the Allied forces being faced with a formidable enemy in the Russian forces, however, seemed to be the general opinion. One veteran, had a different viewpoint. "Let 'em all come", he said "we can lick 'em, no matter whom they line up with".

Sinking The "Courageous" Deplored

Adding fuel to the flames of more or less depressive reaction was the news this morning of the sinking of the British aircraft carrier "Courageous' 'by a German submarine. The main topic of conversation on street corner, in shops, stores and offices was this sudden reverse to the Royal Navy.

"It can't be helped, and things like this must be expected", an elderly man told a group of friends near the Canadian Bank of Commerce buildings. "But" he added grimly "don't forget for one minute that they won't pay for this. If I know my British navy, the lads in blue will collect that debt, and with plenty of interest, too".

General interest in the swiftly-moving events overseas is quickening, and the public today evinced far more concern in the fate of Poland and other principals in the war drama than they did a week ago. But beneath the feeling of general anxiety over week-end events there appeared a trend of faith in the ultimate outcome.

It appears to a casual observer, that it is more the uncertainty of the sudden change in the situation, and what might happen, than the actual facts, that is causing rising interest and much conjecture and guesswork on the part of the public.

New bulletins on The Ontario Intelligencer boards brought knots of people quickly to the spot today. Bystanders anxiously scanned the news as it was written, some even advancing opinions as to what was coming long before the actual news was printed.

SIEGFRIED LINE

(Continued From Page One)

Visits Army Lines.

Premier Daladier came back from the German-French front to study the new circumstances. He had been visiting the army in lines within German territory.

What many Frenchmen had predicted apparently was approaching reality—German and Russian forces were nearing a junction close to the Rumanian frontier where they would have a channel for Russia to send Germany supplies for her war in the west.

Even as the premier returned praising the morale of French soldiers, it was reported Germany was releasing whole trainloads of Nazi troops to stiffen her west wall defence.

Activity on the western front last night was reported in today's communique from the French general headquarters as confined to clashes involving advance guards.

The communique said:

"The night was calm on the front as a whole. There was local activity of advance guards."

Hold Left Bank.

The French army now firmly holds the left bank of the Saar River from the German border city of Saarbuemines, where the river enters Germany, to Milzig, where it nears Luxembourg.

The French reported fighting off numerous flanking movements attempted by the German infantry to gain summits overlooking Saarbruecken and Saarlautern, two important objectives in German territory.

Thus, the French dominate the whole Saar valley, rich industrial region which they have said more than offsets German mineral gains in the conquest of Polish Silesia.

The French also have thrown out a cordon threatening the right bank of the Saar River which they control from that side to Saarbruecken itself.

Smiley Burnette, Tully Marshall and Gene Autry in a scene from the new Republic picture, "Blue Montana Skies," coming soon to the Capitol Theatre..

Saarbruecken Evacuated.

French patrols reported the last German troops had moved out of Saarbruecken. They said the Germans had blown up bridges and railway lines to the north as they retired to new outposts before Dudweiler, several thousand yards away.

Action now is centred midway along a 100-mile front extending from Luxembourg to the Rhine River.

Reports from the front said the Germans were bringing up squadrons of planes from Poland as well as troops. Some of the German forces which fought previously in the east were reported to have taken part in recent action on the Nied River near the Luxembourg frontier.

The French said in an official announcement they had broken a German attack there in some of the fiercest fighting of the war.

WAR SESSION

(Continued From Page One)

Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews will read what is expected to be a brief speech from the throne and, adopting the speedy procedure of the 1937 special session, the House will get down to business without preliminary debate. It was in December, 1937, that the Succession Duty Act was first amended by the Hepburn Administration at a session lasting three days.

Drew Confers With Hepburn

Conservative Leader George Drew has conferred with Premier Hepburn and his Cabinet on the war measures and has promised to facilitate their passage. He reserved the Opposition's right, however, to criticise the Inheritance Tax measure which has been drafted to meet some objections which have been raised in court.

While conduct of the war is in the hands of the Dominion Government, Ontario will do its bit by lining up industry and agriculture in the province on a wartime basis. An organization of Resources Bill, similar to one passed during the first Great War, will assist in the organization of production along lines most suited to the Allies' needs, and control the flow of labor to both farm and factory.

Control of Electrical Power

Another measure will give control of all Ontario electrical power, public and private, to the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission. The Commission then will be able to control and co-ordinate the generation and distribution of electricity for war production purposes.

Other legislation slated for the Statute Books provides for appointment of guards (many have already been appointed) and control of their duties to safeguard utilities from possible sabotage: loosening of several fiscal measures to exempt patriotic gifts from taxation; providing land for jobless so they may grow foodstuffs to ease the national larder; aiding mining men who volunteer for war service by relieving them of patents fees and extending time for renewing licences for assessment work; allowing soldier members of the legislature who return from war service to attend sessions: giving soldier, sailor and airman the right to make a will involving his personal property without the usual legal formalities.

LIKE

CAESAR'S WIFE

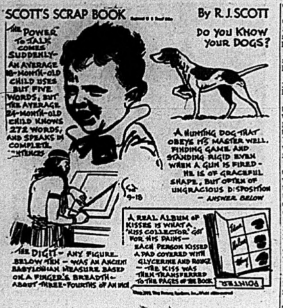
The product of service which you find advertised so appealingly in your daily newspaper must, like Caesar's wife, be above suspicion.

For the shortcomings of unworthy merchandise, which silence might have safely concealed, are always rapidly revealed by the spotlight of publicity. And it is by this token that advertising proves so great a public boon. It is, indeed, the true searchlight of selection.

Read, then, the varied advertisements in this paper with confidence and assurance. For, if an insurance company or trust company, a pastry shop or dressmaking establishment, a taxi service or a sporting goods shop can survive the test of consistent advertising, it merits your support and patronage.



SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK
By R. J. SCOTT
THE POWER TO TALK COMES SUDDENLY—AN AVERAGE 18-MONTH-OLD CHILD USES BUT FIVE WORDS, BUT THE AVERAGE 24-MONTH-OLD CHILD KNOWS 272 WORDS, AND SPEAKS IN COMPLETE SENTENCES
DO YOU KNOW YOUR DOGS?
A HUNTING DOG THAT OBEYS ITS MASTER WELL, FINDING GAME AND STANDING RIGID EVEN WHEN A GUN IS FIRED—HE IS OF GRACEFUL SHAPE, BUT OFTEN OF UNGRACIOUS DISPOSITION —ANSWER BELOW
9-18
THE DIGIT—ANY FIGURE BELOW TEN—WAS AN ANCIENT BABYLONIAN MEASURE BASED ON A FINGER'S BREADTH—ABOUT THREE-FOURTHS OF AN INCH
A REAL ALBUM OF KISSES IS WHAT A 'KISS COLLECTOR' GOT FOR HIS PAINS—EACH PERSON KISSED A PAD COVERED WITH GLYCERINE AND ROUGE—THE KISS WAS THEN TRANSFERRED TO THE PAGES OF THE BOOK
POINTER

The Sinner

By JANNIS PARKER

The dreary light fell on the crude furniture, on the cheap carpet and on the bent shoulders of the man, who sat staring, unseeing. The man crossed the room to a small battered desk and lifted out a faded photograph. A girl in a ruffled frock smiled up at him from the picture.

He had taken it himself. The day had been warm and they had gone picnicking beside a sparkling brook. He remembered it, clearly, vividly. How sweet she had been, how lovely! And how he wanted her. Ineffable joy had overwhelmed him when she had said yes. Angrily, he thrust the photograph back into its hiding place.

Suddenly he swerved, all alert. There had been a grating sound. It came again, a definite scraping in the lock. The tin door, painted to look like mahogany, swung open.

A woman stood there pathetic in a little black satin hat with its attempt at smartness.

"So you're back." The man's voice clipped the air.

The wilted flower in her lapel drooped. "I didn't know where else to go. ....."Her large eyes fell before his riveted stare. She toyed with the tarnished chain on her bag. Then she turned to leave but his toneless voice summoned her back.

"Were you turned out or did he leave you?"

She bit her lip. "Neither. He said things, so I left. My self-respect. ...."Seeing his leer she advanced a determined step. "I do have self-respect!"

"After what you've done?" he flared.

"Oh, you don't understand!" she moaned.

Her small hands were tense. Her woebegone face mirrored deep despair. Before her constructed mental vision the two men whom she had known only to bring her unhappiness, bobbed up and down like malicious puppets.

She saw herself, timid, diffident, shrinking, between them. First, the one who was to become her husband.

But life with the model man had day by day become more trying. He proved firm as a rock, and as unrelenting.

Then—and she laughed pitifully at herself—the villain had swung onto the stage. She mused that he had indeed been villainous not to have at least looked it.

Her husband, she reflected bitterly, though she did not condemn him, had been more villainous. Consumed with fear and jealousy when he had sensed the probable loss of his dainty little wife, he had borne down on her menacingly, actually driving her into the other's outstretched arms.

Now the woman smiled at her own expense. The love of her laughing suitor had fled, and so had she, back to the X-ray eyes of her husband.

Nervously she tucked a golden strand of hair under the shapeless hat.

"You will try to understand, won't you?" she pleaded. The muscles in his lean cheeks twitched.

She continued droningly. "He was gentle, kind, while you . . . oh, why were you so hard? We weren't poor, yet look at our home! And the time I bought the silk stockings... You seemed to think beauty was wrong, that even comfort was sinful."

His voice vibrated under the low ceiling. "The things you bought were wanton. You got them because they made you more beautiful, as though you weren't beautiful enough!" He checked himself; his face colored.

Then he continued bitterly. "He must have lost his gentleness or you'd still be with him." This thought made his voice strident. "You'd be better with him yet if he hadn't changed, wouldn't you?"

She made no reply. Jealousy smote him that only necessity had brought her back. "So he had to force you out!" he jeered.

She pulled the purse handle taut. "I told you he didn't force me out! I could have stayed. I'd never have gone with him at all if you hadn't been so hard."

She saw her husband's livid face, and added: "I'm not blaming you for whatever I've done, but if you'd been different I wouldn't have been won over by a soft mannered man."

He stared at her grimly through a tense silence.

"What do you want me to do?" she asked dully. "Stay or leave?"

A swirl of memories raced before him. His father—stern, harsh, unyielding. His father's gloomy house. It occurred to him that it had never been called his mother's house, too. His run-away thoughts flew to the picture in the desk drawer. He wondered how she'd gotten all those ruffles on her dress. Then he pulled himself up violently. Had she not left him for another?—a man who lived an evil life gayly?

He looked up to denounce her fiercely, but she was gone. The realization was like a sharp pain. Frightened, he raced into the dingy hall, and down the rickety staircase, but the small frame building and the streets were deserted. Full of misery he dragged up the stairs.

The door of her room was ajar. He looked at it with lusterless eyes before he pushed it open.

Then he saw her.

She lay on her iron cot in a deep exhausted sleep. The tenseness drained from his face. His eyes reflected deep, grateful joy. Quietly, gently, he spread a blanket over her. Then he put the wilted flower in a glass of water.

TONIGHT!
LUX
Radio Theatre
Barbara Stanwyck
Brian Aherne
Ida Lupino
"WUTHERING HEIGHTS"
CFRB—9 P.M. E.D.S.T.

Outstanding Radio Programs

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18.

NIGHT

7.00—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.—WEAF, WBEN, WGY.
7.30—Blondie sketch — WABC, WGR.
8.00—Quaker Variety Show. — WEAF, WBEN, WGY.
8.00 — Tune Up Time — WABC, WGR.
8.30—Voice of Firestone; Michael Jose Echaniz, pianist. — WEAF, WGY, CBL.
9.00—Lux Radio Theater.—WABC, CFRB.
10.00—Lullaby Lady.—WEAF, CBL.
10.30—Pageant of Melody—CBO, CBL.
11.15—String Trio.—CBO, CBL.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19.

NIGHT

7.45—The political situation in Europe.——WJZ.
8.00—Big Town drama. Edward G. Robinson — WABC, WGR.
8.30—"Information Please" — WHAM, WJZ.
9.00—Artie Shaw's Orch.—WJZ, WHAM.
9.00—Battle of the Sexes, Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson. — WEAF, WGY.
9.00—We, the People.—WABC, CFRB.
9.30—Fibber McGee and Molly. — WEAF, CBL.
10.00—Mr. District Attorney, drama —WEAF, WGY.
10.00—Time to Shine; Hal Kemp's Orch.—WABC.
10.30—Uncle Walter's Dog House, —WEAF, WGY.

RADIO PROGRAMS

MONDAY

1.00—The Goldbergs — WABC, WGR
2.00—Betty and Bob — WEAF, WHAM
5.45—Scattergood Baines, sketch—WABC
7.15—Lum & Abner comedy sketch —WABC, WGR
7.30—Larry Clinton's Musical sensations.—WEAF, WHAM
8.30—True or False—WJZ, WHAM.
8.30—Model Minstrels — WABC, WGR
9.00—Magic Key — WJZ, CBL, WHAM
9.00—Dr. I. Q. Quiz Program—WEAF, WGY.
9.30—Horace Heidt's Orch.—WEAF, CBL.

TUESDAY

7.15—Jimmie Fidler—WABC, WGR CFRB.
7.00—Fred Waring's Orchestra — WEAF, WGY
7.30—Echoes of New York; Helen Jepson sop. guest—WEAF
8.00—The Inside Story, dramatizing news of the day.—WJZ, WHAM.
8.00—Johnny with Johnny Green's Orch.—WEAF
9.30—Bob Crosby's Orch—WABC
10.30—Kaltenborn from Europe. — WABC
11.15—Jean de Rimanoczy, violinist, —CBO,CBL.

RADIO DIRECTORY

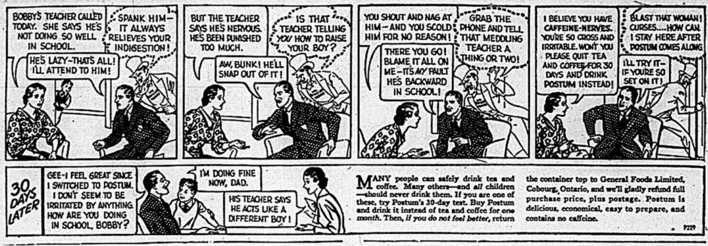
CANADIAN STATIONS

| | Kils. |
|---|---|
| CBO—Ottawa | 880 |
| CFCF—Montreal | 880 |
| CKOC—Hamilton | 1120 |
| CHML—Hamilton | 1010 |
| CKTB—St. Catharines | 1200 |
| CBL—Toronto | 840 |
| CBW—Windsor | 600 |
| CRCY—Toronto | 960 |
| CFRB—Toronto | 690 |
| CKNC—Toronto | 1420 |
| CKCL—Toronto | 580 |
| WTAM—Cleveland | 1070 |

UNITED STATES STATIONS

| | |
|---|---|
| WBBM—Chicago | 770 |
| WENR—Chicago | 354 |
| WGN—Chicago | 720 |
| WGR—Buffalo | 550 |
| WHAS—Louisville | 820 |
| WEAF—New York | 660 |
| WJZ—New York | 730 |
| WABC—New York | 860 |
| WBEN—Buffalo | 900 |
| WBAL—Baltimore | 1060 |
| WLW—Cincinnati | 700 |
| KDKA—Pittsburgh | 980 |
| WGY—Schenectady | 980 |
| WOR—Newark | 710 |

MR. CAFFEINE-NERVES is thrown out



BOBBY'S TEACHER CALLED TODAY. SHE SAYS HE'S NOT DOING SO WELL IN SCHOOL.
SPANK HIM—IT ALWAYS RELIEVES YOUR INDIGESTION!
HE'S LAZY—THAT'S ALL! I'LL ATTEND TO HIM!
BUT THE TEACHER SAYS HE'S NERVOUS. HE'S BEEN PUNISHED TOO MUCH.
IS THAT TEACHER TELLING YOU HOW TO RAISE YOUR BOY?
AW, BUNK! HE'LL SNAP OUT OF IT!
YOU SHOUT AND NAG AT HIM—AND YOU SCOLD HIM FOR NO REASON!
GRAB THE PHONE AND TELL THAT MEDDLING TEACHER A THING OR TWO!
THERE YOU GO! BLAME IT ALL ON ME—IT'S MY FAULT HE'S BACKWARD IN SCHOOL!
I BELIEVE YOU HAVE CAFFEINE-NERVES. YOU'RE SO CROSS AND IRRITABLE. WON'T YOU PLEASE QUIT TEA AND COFFEE FOR 30 DAYS AND DRINK POSTUM INSTEAD!
BLAST THAT WOMAN! CURSES....HOW CAN I STAY HERE AFTER POSTUM COMES ALONG I'LL TRY IT—IF YOU'RE SO SET ON IT!
30 DAYS LATER
GEE-I FEEL GREAT SINCE I SWITCHED TO POSTUM. I DON'T SEEM TO BE IRRITATED BY ANYTHING. HOW ARE YOU DOING IN SCHOOL, BOBBY?
I'M DOING FINE NOW, DAD.
HIS TEACHER SAYS HE ACTS LIKE A DIFFERENT BOY!

MANY people can safely drink tea and coffee. Many others—and all children—should never drink them. If you are one of these, try Postum's 30-day test. Buy Postum and drink it instead of tea and coffee for one month. Then, if you do not feel better, return the container top to General Foods Limited, Cobourg, Ontario, and we'll gladly refund full purchase price, plus postage. Postum is delicious, economical, easy to prepare, and contains no caffeine.

P229

Mr. and Mrs.—

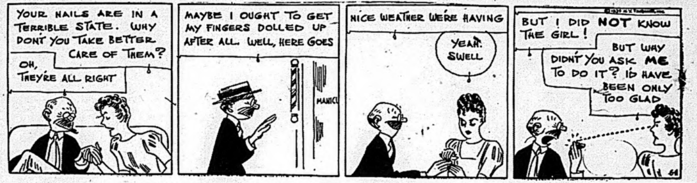
By Briggs



YOUR NAILS ARE IN A TERRIBLE STATE. WHY DON'T YOU TAKE BETTER CARE OF THEM?
OH, THEY'RE ALL RIGHT
MAYBE I OUGHT TO GET MY FINGERS DOLLED UP AFTER ALL. WELL, HERE GOES MANICU
NICE WEATHER WE'RE HAVING
YEAH. SWELL
BUT I DID NOT KNOW THE GIRL!
BUT WHY DIDN'T YOU ASK ME TO DO IT? I'D HAVE BEEN ONLY TOO GLAD

Pop-

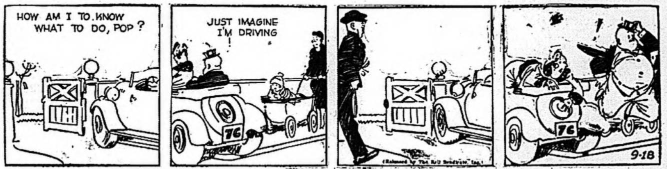
By J. Millar Watt



HOW AM I TO KNOW WHAT TO DO, POP?
JUST IMAGINE I'M DRIVING
76
9-18

(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Tillie The Toiler--

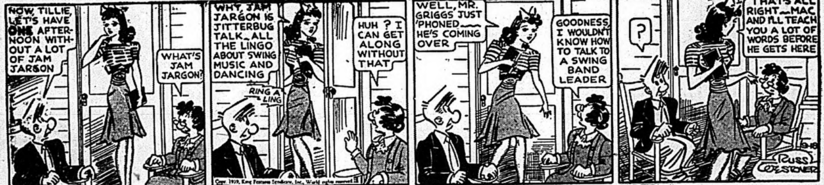
By Russ Westover



NOW, TILLIE, LET'S HAVE ONE AFTERNOON WITHOUT A LOT OF JAM JARGON
WHAT'S JAM JARGON?
WHY, JAM JARGON IS JITTERBUG TALK—ALL THE LINGO ABOUT SWING MUSIC AND DANCING
RING A LING
HUH? I CAN GET ALONG WITHOUT THAT
WELL, MR. GRIGGS JUST 'PHONED—HE'S COMING OVER GOODNESS, I WOULDN'T KNOW HOW TO TALK TO A SWING BAND LEADER
?
THAT'S ALL RIGHT—MAC AND I'LL TEACH YOU A LOT OF WORDS BEFORE HE GETS HERE
9-18
RUSS WESTOVER

Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved

Bringing Up Father—

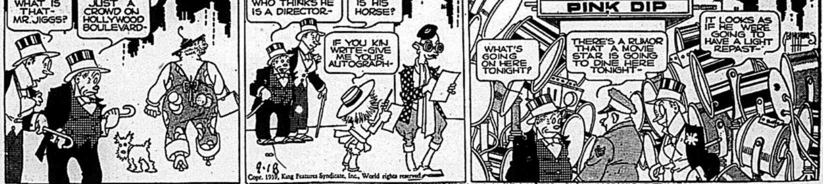
By George McManus



WHAT IS THAT—MR. JIGGS?
JUST A CROWD ON HOLLYWOOD BOULEVARD—
THERE'S A GUY WHO THINKS HE IS A DIRECTOR—
WHERE IS HIS HORSE?
IF YOU KIN WRITE—GIVE ME YOUR AUTOGRAPH—
9-18
PINK DIP
WHAT'S GOING ON HERE TONIGHT?
THERE'S A RUMOR THAT A MOVIE STAR IS GOING TO DINE HERE TONIGHT—
IT LOOKS AS IF HE WERE GOING TO HAVE A LIGHT REPAST—

Copr. 1939, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

Tippie and "Cap" Stubbs

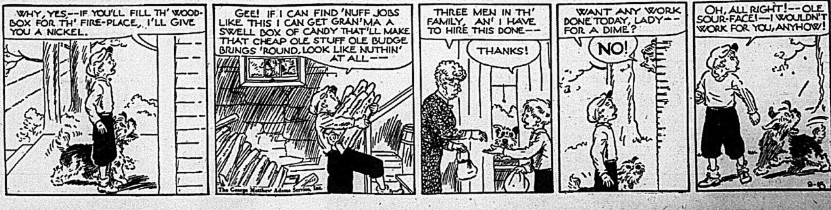
By Edwina



WHY, YES—IF YOU'LL FILL TH' WOOD-BOX FOR TH' FIRE-PLACE, I'LL GIVE YOU A NICKEL.
GEE! IF I CAN FIND 'NUFF JOBS LIKE THIS I CAN GET GRAN'MA A SWELL BOX OF CANDY THAT'LL MAKE THAT CHEAP OLE STUFF OLE BUDGE BRINGS 'ROUND, LOOK LIKE NUTHIN' AT ALL——
THREE MEN IN TH' FAMILY, AN' I HAVE TO HIRE THIS DONE——
THANKS!
WANT ANY WORK DONE TODAY, LADY——FOR A DIME?
NO!
OH, ALL RIGHT!——OLE SOUR-FACE!——I WOULDN'T WORK FOR YOU, ANYHOW!
9-18

The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.

INVESTMENTS

We believe the time has now arrived to check up your list of investments. There are many opportunities today where funds can be invested in old reliable companies yielding from 4 to 10% with an excellent chance of appreciation of capital. List of suggestions will be mailed on request.

JAMIESON BONE & CO.
Investment Broker Since 1927

STOCK MARKETS

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford
Ross S. Salisbury, Branch Manager

Quotations at 2.15:

MINES

Ajax 20
Aldermac 40
Anglo Hur. 220
Aunor 184
Bankfield 18
Beattie 100
Bidgood 11
Big Missouri 12
Bralorne 985
Buffalo Ank. 725
Calgary and Ed. 204
Can. Malar. 50
Central Pat. 205
Chemical Research 26
Chromium 55
Coast Copper 200
Chiboug. 15
Coniaurum 120
Dome 26
Eldorado 90
East Mal. 230
Falconbridge 485
Francoeur 27
Gillies L. 5 1-2
God's Lake 40
Gunnar 45
Hardrock 70
Home Oil 245
Hollinger 12 3-8
Howey 26
Hudson Bay 28 1-4
Jellicoe 8
Kerr Add. 170
Kirk Hud. 25
Kirk. Lake 115
Lapa. Cad. 20 1-2
Lake Shore 31
Leitch 86
Little L. L. 250
Macassa 375
McIntyre 46 3-4
McLeod 165
McKenzie 108
McWatters 56
Mining Corp 118
Moneta 80
Noranda 69 3-4
Nipissing 110
O'Brien 180
Okalta 102
Omega 25
Paymaster 31
Pamour 175
Perron 156
Pend. Or. 305
Pickle Cr. 400
Pioneer 220
Powell 156
Premier 125
Preston E.D. 125
Pros. Air 50
Reno 41
Royalite 35
San Antonio 156
Sherritt G. 123
Siscoe 95
Sladen M. 26
Stadacona 28 1-2
Sud. Basin 215
Sullivan 65
Sylvanite 285
T. Hughes 385
Tex. Can Oil 87
Toburn 155
Ventures 420
W. Amulet 565
Wr. Hargreaves 695

TORONTO

Bell Telephone 143
B. A. Oil 20
Brewing Corp 75
Braz. Trac 7
Can. Bud. Brewery 3 7-8
Can. Cement 5 3-4
Can. Dredge 11 1-2
Can. Ind. Alcohol 3 3-8
C. P. R. 5 1-2
Can. Malting 29 1-2
Can. Vinegar 11
Canada Car 14 3-4
Cockshutt Plow 8
Cons. Bakeries 15 1-2
Con. Smelting 44 3-4
Dominion Stores 6
Dist. Seagrams 15 3-4
Fanny Farmer 20 1-2
Ford "A" 20 1-4
Gypsum 3 7-8
Imp. Oil 16
Int. Nickel 45 1-2
Inter. Pet 24
Imp. Tobacco 12 7-8
Loblaw 26
Massey Harris 6 3-4
Mont. Power 27
McColl-Frontenac 6 7-8
Power Corp 7 3-4
Steel of Canada 80
Supertest 34
Shawinigan 19
Walker's 35 3-4
Walker's Pfd 16 3-4
Walkerville Brewery 80

NEW YORK

American Can 109 1-2
American T and T 161
Amer. For. Power 2 1-2
American Radiator 10 7-8
Anaconda 32 1-2
Auburn 3 3-4
Bethlehem Steel 87 1-2
Case 81
Chrysler 84 3-4
General Electric 40 1-2
General Motors 52 1-2
Elec Auto Lite 9 1-2
Inter Telephone 5 1-8
North American 21 3-4
Montgomery Ward 52 3-8
Phillips Pet 42 3-4
Radio 5 7-8
Simmons 22 1-2
Standard Oil of N.J. 49 7-8
Standard Brands 6 1-2
Stewart Warner 8 3-4
U. S. Steel 73 7-8
United Aircraft 41
Vanadium 35 1-8
Westinghouse 112

UNLISTED MINES

Unlisted Mines furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today at 2 p.m. by . H. Crang and Co.

Albany River 15 1-2 to 18
Barber Larder 2-3
Capps Gold 3A
Kenricia 16-19
Magnet Con. 53-56
Martin Bird 3 1-2 to 5
Oklend 6 1-2 to 8
Pascalis 30A
Proprietary 1.70-1.80
Sheldon 5A
Shenango 5 1-2 to 7
Upper Canada 44-46

WALL ST. CLOSE

New York, Sept. 18 (AP)—"Peace selling" tumbled stocks 1 to 6 points in today's market, the worst reversal suffered by the list since the start of the war boom.

Lowest prices were registered in the first hour. A comeback subsequently got under way, although at a slow pace. Near the final hour extreme declines were halved in many instances. The day's turnover was at the rate of approximately 1,500,000 shares.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, Sept. 18—(CP) — Dull trading and wide declines marked the early hours of Toronto exchange today. Industrial, gold and base metal stocks were losers. Turnover was only 161,000 shares.

The sharp decline on the New York board was evidently the depressing factor. In early afternoon the tone showed some improvement, especially in the industrials. Bell Telephone firmed a point net, Abitibi Pfd gained 3-4 and some of the steels and foods reduced their losses.

Nickel, Noranda and Smelters took losses of a point or more and Pend Oreille at $3 was down 40 cents. Wright-Hargreaves, Pickle Crow, Central Patricia and Coniaurum were soft spots.

Western oils gained strength.

France and Britain Accept Declaration At Face Value

By JEAN ALLARY
(Havas Staff Writer)

Paris, Sept. 18 (CP-Havas)—For the time being France and Great Britain are accepting the Soviet Union's declaration of neutrality in the European War at face value, authoritatives sources said here today.

This attitude, they said, would mean that no immediate declaration of war against Russia is likely on the basis of yesterday's Soviet invasion of Poland .

Paris circles considered the invasion as further obscuring rather than clarifying the Nazi-Soviet Non-Aggression Pact. It is thought the Reich obtained a reversal of Russian policy only by agreeing to share its influence in Eastern Europe, but no one here could accurately estimate how far Joseph Stalin will go with Germany.

EXCHANGE RATES

Ottawa, Sept. 18 — (CP) — The Bank of Canada today announced the following rates of exchange:

American Funds — 10 per cent premium buying; 11 per cent premium selling.

Sterling — $4.43 buying; $4.47 selling.

GENERAL-ELECT HONORED IN TORONTO

Toronto, Sept. 18 (CP)—General-Elect George L. Carpenter of the Salvation Army was tendered a civic reception today on the eve of his departure for London, England, where he will assume the post of world leader of the organization.

In paying tribute to the work of the Salvation Army, Mayor Ralph Day said the Army's citadels today are refuges of strength and peace "for tired souls and real centres of healthy and Christian influence."

GRAIN MARKET

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished to A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today by J. H. Crang and Company.

| | High | Low | Close |
|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat— | | | |
| October ..... | 77¼ | 75 | 76 |
| December ... | 79 | 76¾ | 77½ |
| May ......... | 83¼ | 80⅞ | 81⅞ |
| Oats— | | | |
| October ..... | 38⅝ | 37¾ | 37¾ |
| December ... | 37⅞ | 37 | 37½ |
| May ......... | 38½ | 37¾ | 37¾ |
| Barley— | | | |
| October ..... | 48¾ | 47⅞ | 47¾ |
| December ... | 48⅜ | 46⅝ | 46¾ |
| May ......... | 50 | 48⅝ | 48⅝ |
| Rye— | | | |
| October ..... | 58¾ | 57⅞ | 57⅞ |
| December ... | 60 | 57⅞ | 57½ |
| May ......... | 61½ | 59 | 59 |

Produce Markets

TORONTO BUYING PRICES

(By United Farmers Co-operative Company)

United Farmers Co-operative Co. today were paying the following prices for Toronto delivery:

EGGS—Prices to producers, cases returned basis, delivered Toronto:

| | |
|---|---|
| A-large | .31 |
| A-medium | .30 |
| Pullets | .22 |
| Grade "B" | .22 |
| Grade "C" | .14 |
| Churning Cream, No. 1 lb. | .26 |
| Churning Cream, No. 2, lb. | .21 |
| Butter, No. 1 | .27 |
| Butter, No. 2 | .26 |

Prices paid to country shippers.

(Quotations in cents)

| | Live | Dressed |
|---|---|---|
| Broilers. | | |
| 1 3-4 to 2½ pounds .. | .13 | .17 |
| Chickens. | | |
| 2½ to 4 pounds ...... | .13 | .17 |
| 4 to 5 pounds ....... | .14 | .18 |
| 5 to 6 pounds ....... | .15 | .19 |
| 6 pounds and over ...... | .16 | .20 |
| Fatted Hens. | | |
| Over 5 pounds ....... | .13 | .16 |
| 4 to 5 pounds ........ | .12 | .15 |
| 3½ to 4 pounds ....... | .10 | .13 |
| 3 to 3½ pounds ...... | .9 | .12 |
| Old roosters ........ | .9 | .12 |
| POTATOES | | |
| Ontario new, 75 lb. bag | .90 | .95 |

Butter Prices Ease Eggs Are Unchanged

Prices settled slightly lower for butter at Toronto Saturday, while eggs remained quiet.

More inquiry crept into the butter market, it was reported, and prices were steady at the reduced figure of 27c per pound for No. 1 Ontario creamery solids. Trading was limited, but offerings were not pressing. Country creameries were shipping less to major markets this week having been kept busy supplying their own local retailers with prints.

Slower demand as a result of reaction to higher prices by ultimate consumers left the egg market quiet and about unchanged at the week-end. Offerings were said to have been a little more plentiful.

Montreal Produce

Montreal, Sept. 18.— (CP)—Produce market prices here Saturday, as reported by the Dominion Agricultural Bureau follow:

Butter: First grade creamery prints, job price, 29c; first grade solids, job price, 28 1-2c. Receipts 13,424 boxes, compared with 21,346 a year ago.

Cheese: Ontario white, current receipt price, 11 9-16c-12 3-16c; Ontario colored, current receipt price, 11 13-16c, 12 7-16c. Receipts 20,370 boxes, compared with 32,162 a year ago.

Eggs—Graded inspected shipments in used free cases A-large, 35c-36c; A-medium, 33c-34c; A-pullets, 27c-28c; B-large 25-26c; C, 17c-17 1-2c. Uninspected shipments 1-2 cent less. Receipts: 6,790 cases, compared with 12,269 a year ago.

LIVESTOCK

Montreal, Sept. 18—(CP) —Increased offerings were evident for all classes of livestock on Montreal today the Dominion Department of Agriculture reported. Lambs were steady and calves lower. Not enough early sales of cattle and hogs were made to a basis for quotations.

Receipts: cattle 1,832; calves 3,078; sheep 5,176; hogs 1,740.

Calves were 50 to 75 cents lower. Veals were slow and were the last to be weighed. Good veals made $10-$10.50 with medium kinds from $9-$9.50 with common kinds down to $6. Drinkers ranged from $5-$7 and grassers brought $3.75-$4.50.

Good ewes and wethers made $9, buck lambs $8 and culls $7. Sheep were easier at $2-$4.

Hogs were unsettled with bidding lower and no early sales.

Toronto, Sept. 18.— (CP)—Cattle trade continued at a slow pace in early-afternoon dealings on the Toronto Livestock market today. The calf and sheep sections were steady while no hog price was established. No lamb sales were reported. Cattle holdover from last week was 200 head.

Receipts reported by the Dominion Livestock branch were—cattle 4,970; calves 1,380; hogs 1,570; sheep and lambs 2,520.

A few fed calves sold steady at $8 to $9.50 and stockers made $5 to $6.75. Sales on other cattle were too few to establish a market. A few butcher steers and heifers brought $5.50 to $7.35 and butcher cows sold mostly at $4 to $5.50.

Choice veal calves sold at a general top of $10. Common grades sold downward to $5.50.

Previous close off-truck bacons was $8.75.

Sheep ranged from $2 to $4.50 cwt.

HOG QUOTATIONS

Toronto, Sept. 18 (CP)—Brantford dressedweight bacon-hog prices dropped 40 cents today and Hull quotes remained unchanged. No prices were available from Hamilton and Barrie.

Liveweights: Brantford $8.10; Hull $8.25.

Dressedweights: Brantford $11 plus transportation; Hull $11; London $10.75 plus transportation.

BRITAIN TO FIGHT

(Continued From Page One)

until the Nazi regime in Germany is wiped out.

Question Not Answered.

An important question, however, was Britain's future relations with Russia.

The government has received from the Polish Embassy here a charge that Russia violated the Polish frontier by an "act of direct aggression".

(A similar complaint against Germany, made in London by Polish Ambassador Count Edward Racynski, who invoked the Anglo-Polish mutual assistance treaty after German armies invaded Poland Sept. 1, brought Great Britain into the war against Germany Sept. 3.)

Complicating the involved situation was the Soviet government's declaration it would pursue a policy of neutrality with Britain.

Furthermore, the Polish ambassador remained in Moscow. The British diplomatic view was that the attitude of the Polish government itself, now in flight from home soil, was not clear.

Statement on Wednesday.

Prime Minister Chamberlain was expected to make a statement on the situation Wednesday, if not before.

The press, meanwhile, attacked Russia for what it called the "stab in the back" and the "betrayal" of Poland.

The Times said:

"To the Soviet belongs the base and despicable share of accessory before and after the crime and the contempt which even the thief has for a receiver who shares none of his original risks.

"But no partnership can divide or abate the responsibility which already sits upon Hitler himself or divert the action which, whether it takes months or years, may be required to secure judgment and expiation . . ."

Heads Article "Betrayal"

The Daily Mail, under the heading "Betrayal", said:

"This act of treachery is a serious blow to the allies. But Britain can take hard knocks, she is used to them. Every big war in which we were ever engaged has begun badly for us—but it has ended far more badly for our enemies."

The Daily Herald declared Soviet Russia "follows the example of her Nazi ally and tears up her treaty as she hurries to the field of plunder."

Some sections of the press saw Russia's invasion of Poland as a fore runner of further acts of aggression in conjunction with Germany.

"It may be that with Poland crushed between her two enemies," the Daily Express said, "Rumania will be called upon by Russia to disgorge Bessarabia.

"This district was cut away from Russia and taken by Rumania at the end of the last war.

"Then, as an additional price for her intervention in the Polish war, Russia may have extracted a promise from Germany for a free hand in the Baltic.

May Attack Rumania.

Along the same line, the Daily Telegraph said:

"She (Russia) may attack Rumania with the object of recovering Bessarabia while Germany endeavors to push Hungary into a similar attempt on Transylvania; in which events Turkey and the other Balkan States would be faced with a new German 'drang nach osten' (drive to the east) designed to establish a gigantic state from the Baltic to the Black Sea and ultimately, of course, Anatolia and Iraq with its oil."

Similarly, the News Chronicle said Russia's action was not expected to stop with the annexation of parts of Poland.

The Manchester Guardian in an editorial entitled "a new partition" said:

"To Poland, already struggling desperately against the overwhelming power of Germany and receiving all too little aid from her allies in the west, this new blow must come as a final disaster.

May Take Up Old Line.

"The Russian armies will presumably advance up to the old 'Curzon Line' or some other frontier previously agreed upon with Germany and stand pat."

The Curzon Line, curving southward from the southern tip of Lithuania, roughly divides Poland in half. When the Poles were fighting Soviet and Ukrainian troops in 1919, the line, named for Marquess Curzon, then British Foreign Secretary, was agreed upon tentatively by the peace conference as Poland's minimum boundary in the east. In 1920, after the Russo-Polish war, the Polish frontier was pushed much farther eastward.

The Guardian asked:

"But what will be the Russian attitude towards the war in the future? If, as seems all too probable, the Soviet government is acting in concert with the German government, we must expect Russian aid to Germany to be continued and extended."

Position Not Changed

Evening newspapers said the position of Great Britain and France, whose objective is to destroy Hitlerism, has not been changed by the Soviet invasion of Poland.

"As for France and Great Britain," said The Evening News, "Russia's open adherence to the political school of brute force and trickery will merely strengthen their determination to fight to the bitter end.

"The war to destroy Hitler will and must go on—no matter how hard or long the task—until that evil thing is destroyed."

"Our position and that of France is not fundamentally changed," said the Star. "The timetable is altered. But the plan and purpose remain basically those to which we have set our hands. The Nazi peril has to be stopped for the sake of the world."

Accessories to Murder

"They have become accessories to the murder of Poland," The Evening Standard said of the Soviets "Bolshevik and Nazi are now advancing from either side to strangle a state which threatened neither.

"Is Rumania next on the list? Are Hungary, Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey also on the spot? With several of these countries Great Britain has treaties pledging our aid if they are attacked. Are we going to wait until the butchers are actually inside their doors?

"For if Britain and France are firmly resolved to fight on, using the blockade as one of our chief weapons, this must require some dispositions quickly to stop the whole of the Balkan granary from falling into enemy hands."

Writers Do Not Believe Germany Will Permit Soviets on Her Soil

London, Sept. 18 —(CP)— G. Ward Price, foreign affairs writer for the Daily Mail, wrote today that "the conception of Nazi and Bolshevist forces fighting side by side anywhere in the world may be ruled out as impossible."

"It is inconceivable that Germany should admit Red forces, whether military or aerial, to co-operate with her own troops at the front", the writer said.

"The danger of Red propaganda among the many ex-Communists now serving in the German army would be too great for the German Government to risk it. This unholy alliance is too unnatural to be effective, and may well prove disastrous to both."

May Not trust Each Other

Paris, Sept. 18—(CP—Havas) — Pertinax, noted French foreign affairs writer, said today it remains to be seen whether Soviet-German co-operation will go beyond "the mutilation and subjection of Poland."

"Relations between the two partners following the division of the spoils merit the closest attention," Pertinax wrote.

"Will the Reichswehr leave divisions in the east to watch the Red army? Will Russia supply the Reich engaged in the West?"

Flag of Neutral Eire Pointed Out to Sub Commander

London, Sept. 18—(CP)— The Ministry of Information asserted today the 9,456-ton motor vessel Inverliffey sunk Sept. 11 by a German submarine was sent down after her master had pointed out to the submarine commander she was flying the flag of neutral Eire.

To the assertion the Inverliffey was under a neutral flag, said the Ministry communique, the submarine commander replied she carried a contraband cargo and that he intended to sink her. He did so as soon as her crew abandoned ship. The United States tanker R. G. Stewart picked up the survivors and transferred them to a ship bound for Le Havre. They were landed in France Sept. 14.

Greater Freedom In Reporting News Given by Cabinet

London, Sept. 18 (CP)—The Ministry of Information today announced appointment of Lord Camrose, publisher of The Daily Telegraph, as Chief Assistant to Lord MacMillan, Minister of Information.

It was also announced the war cabinet had authorized greater freedom in the reporting of news and press comment was to be given more latitude.

The world press will be represented temporarily at the Western Front until other correspondents are authorized by A. G. Clifford, Reuter correspondent formerly in Berlin and Spain.

'Youngest Veteran' Claimed by Mathson

Toronto, Sept. 18 (CP)—Title of Canada's "youngest veteran of the first Great War" serving with the present forces is claimed by Arthur Mathson, Battalion runner for Toronto's 48th Highlanders.

Mathson will be 38 next February. He enlisted for the first Great War in 1915 when he was only 14 years old.

Edward Bray of Brantford previously claimed the title when he enlisted last week. He now is 39.

LIMIT IS SET AT 500 DOLLARS

Wndsor, Ont., Sept. 18 (CP)—Persons crossing from Windsor into the United States today were being asked by Canadian Customs Officers how much they carried in Canadian funds. The limit any individual could take with him was $500, according to instructions received from Ottawa following announcement of new currency exchange regulations.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Sept. 18 (CP) —Canadian Customs officials today asked all persons entering or leaving Canada to state the amount of currency in their possession.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 18 (CP) — Windsor banks were paying a premium of 10 cents on the United States dollar today. Canadian funds used for purchasing United States funds were discounted at 11 cents.

CALM RURAL LIFE OF ENGLAND IS INTERRUPTED

Preparations for Defence Visible Everywhere in Old Land

BATTERIES IN FIELDS

(By John Culmer)
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Somewhere in Southern England, Sept. 18.—(AP) — Great Britain's urgent preparations for defence are interrupting the placid rural life of the English countryside.

This morning, driving south from London, I found a suburban park pitted with gaping holes where heavy truck loaded fresh-dug earth to fill sandbags.

Farther out, barely clear of the suburbs, gunners from anti-aircraft batteries were playing football. In a nearby field, a barrage balloon squad tended its miniature blimp.

At the gateway of a naval barracks beneath a gilded coat of arms a Sergeant of Marines blocked the road. Beside him a police officer carried a revolver. In peacetime constables go unarmed.

Through back streets of this naval port marched a squad of seamen, gas masks stowed in khaki knapsacks.

Urgency of Preparedness

Everywhere in these southern towns and villages there is the same urgency of preparedness.

In the town, navy and army officers drive commandeered automobiles.

In the country soldiers are billeted in a village, filling every room in the place. The local pub, doing its best business in history, adapts itself to war conditions by reserving a private room for non-commissioned officers.

Down the road in a private park, trucks loaded with ammunition are lined up beneath broad oaks and guarded by armed sentries.

The stately Georgian mansion nearby is a battalion headquarters. Sacks for bayonet practice swing from a row of elms.

Fields off lonely narrow roads hide anti-aircraft batteries. Close by, sentries guard a searchlight post —five lamp units cleverly with brown and green daubs, merge into field and trees.

BRITISH MISSION STAYS IN OTTAWA

Suite of Offices in Centre Block Will be Used Permanently

Ottawa, Sept. 18 (CP)—A British mission sent to Canada to investigate potentialities of this Dominion for producing arms and supplies for Britain in the war shortly will move into a suite of offices in the centre block on Parliament Hill.

With some members of the mission here for the last 10 days, several newcomers arrived only yesterday. These included Sir James Rae, Undersecretary of the Treasury, Air Vice-Marshal R. M. Hill of the Royal Air Force; H. L. Stevens, Research Scientist for the British Air Ministry, who will act as Technical Air Advisor; J. J. B. Makings, Counsellor to the British Ministry of Supply, and Edward N. R. Trentham who will act as Chief Assistant to Sir James Rae. Mr. Trentham served with the British Ministry of Munitions during the first Great War.

Admiral Sir Percy Addison has been here for 10 days, along with Major-General R. F. Locke; James Crone and J. B. Gordon of the Supply Ministry; and A. C. Boddis, Contracts Officer of the Air Ministry.

Visited Last Year

Mr. Boddis visited Canada last year with a British mission sent to inquire into production of military airplanes in Canada for the Royal Air Force. As a result six Canadian Aircraft firms formed a joint company and received contracts to build British bombers. Their factories are in course of preparation for production of the British planes.

The British mission now here, it is understood, will work closely with the War Supply Board now being established by the Canadian Government under the authority of the War Measures Act with power to mobilize all the country's resources to aid Britain in the struggle against its foes.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced arrival of the special mission from Britain when he addressed the special war emergency session of the Canadian Parliament here on Sept. 8. The mission, he said, had been "authorized by the Government of the United Kingdom to place certain orders in Canada."

It is believed that Admiral Sir Percy Addison will inquire into supplies and arms for the Royal Navy, Major-General Locke for the Army, and Air Vice-Marshal Hill for the Royal Air Force, aided by his technical advisor.

BULLETINS

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 18 (AP)—A Tallinn, Estonia, dispatch by the Ritzaus (Danish) News Agency says the Polish submarine Orzel eluded Estonian gunfire early today and escaped from Tallinn harbor where it had been interned as a result of the Polish-German war.

Estonian shore batteries and warships attempted unsuccessfully to halt the submarine which made the break at 3 a.m., the dispatch said.

(Tallinn is on the Gulf of Finland, an arm of the North Baltic.)

"PUPIL OF MACHIAVELLI AND HITLER"

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Sept. 18 (CP-Havas)—The newspaper Social Demokraten today said Joseph Stalin is not the pupil of Marx and Lenin but of Machiavelli and Hitler.

"Only the Russian language has a vocabulary capable of characterizing the partition of Poland as an act of neutrality," the newspaper said. "German-Soviet collusion can strengthen the Fascist front militarily, but it is destined to increase the moral energy of the democracies by the proof it offers of the relationship between Fascism and Bolshevism."

VANGUARD OF TROOPS REACH WILNO

Riga, Sept. 18 (CP)—The vanguard of Soviet troops which are invading Poland was reported today to have reached the outskirts of Wilno.

Wilno, biggest city in northern Poland, until 1923 was the capital of Lithuania.

The Latvian minister to Moscow was reported, meanwhile, to have received assurances from the Soviet government that Russia is maintaining a policy of neutrality toward Latvia.

SLOVAKS MUTINY, TO BE DEMOBILIZED

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Sept. 18 (CP-Havas)—Unconfirmed reports reaching here from Bratislava today said demobilization of the Slovak army had been demanded by the German High Command following a new mutiny of Slovak soldiers.

(In the early days of the war a Slovak regiment and its officers were said to have been disarmed and interned because they refused to fight the Poles.)

NEGOTIATE ON ARMISTICE IN ORIENT

TOKYO, Sept. 18 (AP)—Domei Japanese News Agency, reported today Japanese and Russian officers had agreed to start negotiations tomorrow on an armistice along the frontier between Outer Mongolia and Manchoukuo.

It quoted a Japanese field dispatch saying the agreement was reached after two meetings on a plain between the opposing lines. Soviet tanks and armored cars, it said, appeared openly without firing, and Japanese soldiers emerged from their trenches, in which they had lived in freezing weather.

The newspaper Kokumin, considered pro-army, declared today that "should the United States strengthen her present policy it can be supposed that Japan would be compelled to assert her right to existence."

CHANGE PORTS OF REGISTRATION

HOLYHEAD, Wales, Sept. 18 (CP)—The owners of three ships whose crews refused to sail under the Eire flag as a matter of loyalty made arrangements today to change ports of registration so the British flag could be flown.

At first the question was raised whether dependents of the crew, if they sailed under the Eire flag, would be entitled to compensation for loss of life or injury under a compensation scale laid down by the British Board of Trade.

When this issue was settled the spokesman of the sailors brought up the question of loyalty. Eire has adopted a stand of neutrality.

The vessels are owned by the London, Midland and Scottish Railway and operate over the Irish Sea. They were registered in Dublin.

EXCHANGE BOARD CLARIFIES RULES

Canadians Cannot Buy Foreign Securities if Exchange is Unfavorable

Ottawa, Sept. 18 (CP)—Representatives of Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges conferred here during the week-end with the newly created Foreign Exchange Control Board headed by Governor Graham Towers of the Bank of Canada.

The lines along which the board proposes to proceed in regulating foreign exchange were clarified, and the representatives of the Stock Exchanges returned home Sunday to explain the proposals to their members.

The government's object in setting up the board, it was explained at the board's offices, is to prevent a flow of capital out of the country which might hamper Canada's war effort.

In general Canadians will not be allowed to buy foreign securities when it entails purchase of foreign exchange. Canadians may sell foreign securities they already hold provided they sell the exchange they receive in payment to the board.

Holdings Must Be Declared.

Canadians must declare to the board their holdings of foreign securities. This will include securities of some companies usually regarded as Canadian companies. Stocks of several companies operating in Canada are listed on Wall Street and also on Canadian Exchanges.

When these companies undertake to pay dividends in New York funds, Canadians holding such securities must declare them as if they were foreign securities.

For the present there is no intention of taking over the foreign securities held by Canadians, but if such a step should be taken later on, the owners will be paid the prevailing market prices on the day the securities are taken over.

Canadians holding foreign exchange must declare it.

It is expected provision will be made to provide exchange to meet all commitments outside Canada in regard to interest and principal payments on both public and private debts.

MILITARY EFFORT RESUMED

Berlin, Sept. 18—(AP)—The German News Agency reported tonight the German military effort to force Warsaw to surrender has been resumed after failure of the Poles to negotiate for withdrawal of the city's inhabitants. It was not stated whether the beleaguered capital was being shelled.

Baptist Missions Are Described

The Reverend John Bates McLaurin, B.A., D.D., General Secretary of The Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board, who has had thirty years of missionary experience in India, was guest preacher at Victoria Ave., Baptist Church on Sunday.

At the morning service, Dr. McLaurin spoke on "The Church of Christ at Work in India", and gave several interesting illustrations of the wonderful progress that has been made by Canadian Baptist missionaries from their Co-Canada headquarters. Dr. McLaurin stated that the Church of Christ was more characteristically at work and was proclaiming the Word of God more consistently in foreign mission fields than it was in the old world. Placing and keeping before people the Word of God is the primary task of the Church of Christ down through the ages, asserted the speaker, who deplored the fact that at the World Conference at Madras last year the message from Western delegates reflected an outlook of pessimism and gloom, whereas in Eastern lands the note was one of joy and triumph.

College President Attacks Neutrality Policy of U. S.

Troy, N. Y., Sept. 18—(AP)— A college president attacked the United States' neutrality policy today as "selfish and short-sighted" and declared Great Britain and France "have a right" to expect every type of service "short of an army" from the United States.

Dr. James L. Meader, head of Russel Sage College, told students at opening convocation the United States should speed to the aid of Democracies instead of waiting "until we find it necessary to fight Hitler and all that he stands for single-handed."

60 PLANES CONFISCATED

Riga, Latvia, Sept. 18—(AP) — More than 60 Polish warplanes, many of them damaged in combat, were confiscated and their crews interned when they arrived at Daugavpils Airport here today.

Polish citizens, including numerous officials, started crossing the border last night. A relatively small number of soldiers also crossed the frontier. They were disarmed and place din concentration camps.

ALLIED SUPREME WAR COUNCIL

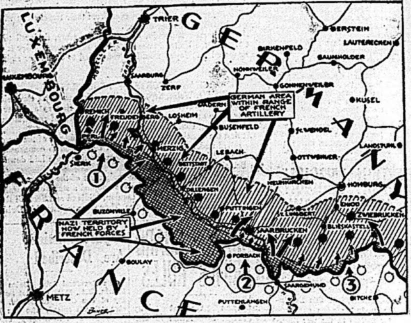
The famous Allied Supreme War Council of the World War has been revived with these four men directing the strategy. They are Great Britain's Admiral Lord Chatfield, minister for co-ordination of defence, LEFT; Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, TOP CENTRE France's Premier Edouard Daladier, BELOW CENTRE, and Gen. Marie Gamelin, commander-in-chief of the combined French and British armies.

WAY CLEARED FOR A MAJOR ATTACK BY FRENCH



French advance guard action has almost cleared way for large-scale operations against selected points of the German Westwall itself. In sector between Sierk and Merzig (1), French continued to clean out Nazi pill boxes while artillery raked German lines to points beyond Remich on west and Freudenberg on east. Second active sector was north of Forbach (2) toward Saarbruecken, with artillery fire raking the city and Nazi troops north of it. Strongest attack was between Forbach and Bitche (3), aimed at wiping out German salients and capture of Blieskatell and Zweibrucken.

MISSION A MYSTERY

Mystery surrounds the contemplated visit to Moscow by Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu. One report is that he will act as mediator between Britain and Russia, now estranged by the recent Russo-German pact. Another is that Saracoglu will seek to negotiate a Russo-Turkish pact.

New Lieutenant-Governor

Hon. Bradford LePage has been appointed lieutenant - governor of Prince Edward Island. He was acting premier of the province in the Lea-Campbell government and has been twice president of the P.E.I. executive council.

It is difficult to tell whether some of the new coats are cloth coats trimmed with fur or fur coats trimmed with cloth. A new model is tight fitted, full skirted, of black wool with Persian lamb in wide squares. Front of the coat is of cloth.

You'll note many brown felt hats among the dress models this autumn. A smart model has a brown snood. Brown velvet pipes the hat and is used for small bows on snood. A glycerined bronze ostrich fancy adds a dressy note.

Going away means a comfy travel coat that is nice enough to wear when not en route. Such a model is of tweed in a gray, blue and dark red mixture, set off by a big collar of gray fox.

Going along with the dressy autumn suits are new, dressy blouses. Thin white chiffon makes a charming blouse with a tucked bib front outlined with stitching, and tiny pearl buttons with rhinestone centres.

INNOCENT VICTIMS FEEL FULL FORCE OF WAR IN WARSAW

A pitiable victim of war, this boy RIGHT, blinded during a German air raid on Warsaw, is shown being led through the debris-strewn streets of the beleaguered Polish capital by police officers. Residents of nearby homes rush about, LEFT, endeavoring to save a few belongings from a house claimed by Polish authorities to have been set on fire by incendiary bombs dropped by German bombing planes. The British Government has issued a warning to Germany that Britain will "take appropriate measures" if Germans bomb civilian populations.

WOUNDED NAZIS RETURNED TO BERLIN

Radioed from Berlin to New York and then transmitted by Phonephoto, a hospital train bringing wounded German soldiers back from the Polish front is shown being unloaded at Berlin. Note the ambulance waiting to transport the wounded to hospitals.

SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS JOIN IN WARSAW DEFENCE

Desperately defending Warsaw from the invading German legions, Poland is using civilians as well as soldiers to hurl back the Nazi war machine. TOP photo shows Polish troops entering advanced positions outside the capital. BELOW, men, women and children equipped with shovels march through the beleaguered city to dig trenches for soldiers in the suburbs. Photos flashed by cable from London to America.

ATHENIA SURVIVORS RELATE TALES OF HEROISM AND HORROR ON HALIFAX ARRIVAL

Relating tales of heroism and horror, survivors of the torpedoed Athenia reached Halifax aboard the freighter The City of Flint, which rescued nearly 200 passengers and members of the Athenia's crew following its sinking by a German submarine while en route across the Atlantic with more than 1,400 persons aboard. Survivors lined the rails of the rescue vessel, LEFT, as it arrived in Halifax harbor. A view of The City of Flint is shown TOP RIGHT, as it neared the end of its voyage of mercy. Survivors were met at the pier by nurses, doctors and members of the R.C.M.P. LOWER RIGHT, who gave willing aid to the survivors, many of whom were on the verge of collapse following their terrifying experience.

Probabilities

Lower Lake Region — Light to moderate winds; fair and somewhat warmer. Wednesday, moderate winds; mostly fair and moderately warm; probably light scattered showers.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1939

Temperatures

| | Max. | Min. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | 66 | 39 |
| Year Ago | 73 | 56 |

Weather:—Fine and clear.

HITLER WELCOMES DANZIG BACK INTO REICH

Britain to Consult Polish Leaders on Russian Invasion

Soviet Action to "Protect" Ukranians and White Russians in Poland Not Considered Justifiable by Britain

NO DECLARATION

Only 438 Survivors Out of 1,100 on Aircraft Carrier Courageous Have so Far Reported but List Not Complete

London, Sept. 19—(CP)— The struggle between British shipping and naval power and German submarines continued today with official announcement that two British trawlers, the Lord Minto and Arlita, had been sunk but that three other merchant vessels had eluded submarines.

Britain's losses since the beginning of the war were set at approximately 30 vessels.

681 Survivors

The Admiralty's announcement that 681 survivors of the aircraft carrier Courageous had been accounted for left 579 missing but naval authorities said there still was some hope that the actual number aboard might have been considerably below 1,260.

The Lord Minto and the Arlita were sunk, the Admiralty announced, but gave no details beyond saying the crews were rescued by a third trawler.

The 3,395-ton Baron Lovat was one of three vessels the Admiralty announced had eluded submarines.

The crew came safely ashore at Greenock, Scotland, with stories of how they dodged gunfire of a submarine off the Irish coast and later heard an explosion which they believed destroyed the attacking submarine.

Admiralty Account

The Admiralty's account of the escape said:—

They (the crew) said the submarine, apparently short of torpedoes, shelled the Baron Lovat for 50 minutes without registering a hit, while the ship ploughed ahead at full steam.

"Then she submerged suddenly," a deck hand said, "and there was a violent explosion. Water shot high in the air. The Baron Lovat shuddered from stem to stern and we thought a torpedo had hit us but we were safe and the submarine itself must have been the victim."

The Baron Lovat had a cargo of sugar.

In Other Fields

In other fields of British wartime activity:—

The Government announced its non-acceptance of Moscow's explanation of the Russian invasion of Poland, but avoided a formal break with the Soviet Union.

Authorities said Britain was making every effort to "take account of the trading needs of neutral countries."

The Civil Air Guard, a voluntary reserve group which paid for its own training, ceased functioning and qualified members were absorbed into the Royal Air Force.

The Ministry of Information, in a statement in which it was understood France would concur formally today, delared the Soviet action — avowedly to "protect" Ukranians and white Russians in Poland—"cannot, in view of His Majesty's Government, be justified by the arguments put forward by the Soviet Government."

Whether Anglo-Soviet diplomatic relations would be affected by the Russian invasion was not known immediately. However, it was considered certain that there would be no declaration of war.

Poland Not To Declare War

Sources close to the Government indicated Poland had given Britain an assurance she will not declare war on the Soviet.

(Continued on Page Nine)

W. W. MURRAY NAMED AS CHIEF CENSOR

Ottawa, Sept. 19—(CP)— W. W. Murray of the Parliamentary Staff of The Canadian Press has been appointed chief cable censor in the National Defence Department, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He has been granted leave of absence from The Canadian Press for the duration of the war.

Rumors Suggest Goebbels Has Been Dismissed From Office

Paris, Sept. 19 (CP) — A Havas News Agency dispatch from Amsterdam last night quoted travellers from Germany as saying the disappearance of Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels from German press and radio activity has caused a rumor in the Reich that he was thrown overboard to placate Russia.

An extreme version of the rumor even suggests that Goebbels is dead, the disapatch added. He has not made a speech since war broke out and newspapers have ceased printing his name, according to these sources.

Goebbels was known as the Nazi government's chief anti-Bolshevist spokesman. The despatch said it had been surmised that he and Julius Streicher, Jew-baiter extraordinary, may have been eliminated from office as was Maxim Litvinoff, former Foreign Commissar of Russia. (The London Daily Express reported that Streicher was placed under protective arrest for appropriating for his own use sums confiscated from the Jews.)

The despatch said no measures have been taken by the Berlin government to contradict these rumors.

Russians Reach Hungarian Border; Slovaks Desert German Armies

Rome, Sept. 19. (CP-Havas)—Russian troops today reached the Hungarian border, according to press dispatches reaching here.

Arrival of Russian units at Hungary's border would mean the Russians have taken a strip of territory entirely separating the German-conquered parts of Poland from Rumania.

Rome papers also published dispatches from Budapest stating thousands of Slovak soldiers were deserting into Hungary with their arms and equipment. Extreme disquiet reigns in German-dominated Slovakia, these reports said.

Soviet's Invasion Might Prove "Adverse to German Ambitions"

London, Sept. 19 (CP)—The Daily Telegraph said today the Soviet Union's invasion of Poland might prove "adverse to German ambitions."

"The promptness with which the Soviet armies have occupied Polish territory from Latvia to the north as far as the Rumanian frontier in the south may be in accordance with secret clauses in the Russo-German agreement," the paper said, "but it may also mark the intention to set a limit to German penetration to the southeast and to block direct access to the Black Sea."

The Daily Express said that there is "no need to exaggerate the badness" of the news of the Russian invasion.

"For one thing, the economic situation in Russia is such that Stalin cannot send the Germans supplies of any consequence. Indeed it is Russia who requires economic assistance from Germany.

"Again, the Russians, for some reason still to be divulged, have interposed their troops between Rumania and the German advance towards that country, rich in oil. Maybe Stalin and Hitler have not agreed on this issue."

"Poland today lies under the heel of her two invaders, having first won immortal glory," said the Times.

"Geography made it quite impossible for Great Britain and France to prevent the overrunning of Poland, just as time gained by Germany through a breach of faith made it impossible to prevent the overrunning of Belgium 25 years ago.

"Nevertheless a restored Belgium stands inviolate today, while the sovereign of the invading hosts eats the bread of exile at Doorn."

"The immediate effect of the Russian intervention on the war as a whole is enormous," said the Manchester Guardian. "The ultimate consequences are likely to be considerable. They will certainly involve the Baltic states and perhaps Rumania.

Communiques Issued By Belligerent Nations

PARIS, Sept. 19 (CP-Havas)—The French High Command's communique issued this morning said:

"There was a partial attack by the enemy during the night in the region east of the Saar. The attack was repulsed."

BERLIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—The German Army High Command today issued the following communique on operations in Poland:

"Dissolution and capitulation of various enemy groups encircled by German forces continues rapidly.

"The enemy encircled south of the Vistula between Warsaw and Kutno, southwest of Wyzogrod, is defeated and in a stage of complete dissolution. The number of prisoners taken and the amount of war material captured cannot be estimated at the present time."

POLISH TROOPS ENCIRCLED NEAR VISTULA RIVER

Poles, However, Continue to Hold Warsaw in Turbulent Conditions

SHORT FOOD SUPPLY

Three High Officials of Japanese War Council Now in Berlin

Berlin, Sept. 19 (AP)—German sources reported turbulent conditions in Warsaw today as the Polish capital continued to hold out against encircling Nazi troops.

Action to occupy the city was resumed yesterday, the High Command said, after Polish leaders ignored an ultimatum demanding surrender.

'While the German army increased its pressure on Warsaw, the High Command issued a communique claiming that elsewhere in Poland "dissolution and capitulation of various enemy forces encircled by our troops continues rapidly."

(Continued on Page Seven)

RUSSIA'S NAVY RIDS BALTIC SEA OF POLAND'S SUBS

Precise Nature of Naval Action Not Disclosed in the Communiques

Moscow, Sept. 19 (AP)—Soviet Russia's warships have embarked on "measures" against the remnants of Poland's submarine fleet, believed hiding in Baltic Poland.

The precise nature of the naval action was not disclosed in an announcement by Tass, the official News Agency. It said merely the Soviet Baltic fleet is "taking measures."

(Continued on Page Nine)

FINED FOR SMUGGLING

Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 19 — (CP)—Mrs. Antonio Godbout of Dixville, Que., only a few miles from the international border, pleaded guilty here today to a charge of smuggling a quantity of sugar into Canada from the United States and was fined $50 and costs. Police found the sugar in a car driven by Mrs. Godbout.

Great Power Resources Will be Major Asset Says Throne Address

Toronto, Sept. 19.—(CP)— The belief that Ontario's "great power resources will be a major asset in the production of war equipment" was expressed in the Speech from the Throne with which Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews opened a war-time session of the Ontario Legislature today.

Marching, drilling men provided a backdrop in Queen's Park for the emergency session which will deal with a number of measures designed to mobilize Ontario's resources in the national war effort. Among the chief of these are Bills designed to increase agricultural and industrial production and for the protection of vital Public Works and Services.

To safeguard Hydro-electric power supply the Legislature will be asked to give the Hydro Commission authority to control both public and private power plants within the province, the Speech said. The Commission will be able for instance, to divert electricity to munitions making plants from other factories where its use is not essential.

Some other acts require amendment because of enlistment and provision will be made in several fiscal statutes for the exemption from taxation of gifts to certain patriotic causes. The Throne Speech referred to these measures and noted they were designed "to allow Ontario to play the most effective possible role in the successful prosecution of the war."

The Speech said "although additional expenditures have already been incurred owing to the war, the strictest economy is being observed in all departments" and no further taxation is contemplated. It added that the necessity to tighten provisions of the Succession Duty Act is greater than ever "particularly in view of the financial strain to which the province will be subjected under war conditions."

THRONE SPEECH

Toronto, Sept. 19—(CP)—Following is the text of the Speech from the Throne read by Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews at the opening of the special session of the Ontario Legislature today:

"We meet today under circumstances of the utmost gravity. The possibility of war, in which we are now engaged was fully realized and debated by you at the last session, when you passed unanimously a resolution calling, in such event, for the complete mobilization of all our resources.

"Legislation calculated to give effect to the determination then expressed will be immediately submitted to you. You will be asked to pass measures designed to in-

(Continued on Page Eleven)

Extensive Defence Measures Involving Establishment of Canadian Force Discussed

Ottawa, Sept. 19 (CP)—New and extensive defence measures involving establishment of a Canadian force equipped for any emergency including service overseas if that becomes necessary, are rumored to be occupying Cabinet Council which held an extraordinarily long session yesterday and is meeting again this afternoon.

Because of the tremendous amount of work involved in raising, training and equipping an efficient defence or expeditionary force it is believed the Government is preparing to start at once.

It is also believed the Government is giving consideration, probably in co-operation with the British Government, to establishment of manufacturing plants for munitions, supplies and ships.

Strict secrecy surrounds these activities. It is extremely rare for Cabinet Council to hold night sittings and last night, after an afternoon session, Cabinet met until nearly midnight. Several ministers and departmental officials who apparently had been in attendance upon Council remained at the East Block until early today.

Closely allied with the preparedness measures now under consideration is the augmented British mission here to purchase munitions and supplies. Nearly a dozen high officials of the British Government have assembled in Ottawa to survey Canada's potentialities as a source of supply and authorized to place orders.

Apart from defence and recruiting measures the Government is speeding organization of the War Supply Board to mobilize industry and resources and facilitate both production and distribution of war requirements.

Organization of the War Supply Board has not yet been announced but is under way with the Defence Purchasing Board as a nucleus. It is possible the Government will proceed at once with establishment of a Ministry of Munitions and Supply, authority for which was given by Parliament last week.

Daily War Survey

By The Canadian Press

Historic Brest - Litovsk was the scene of a new meeting between Russian and German soldiers Monday as the world speculated on the meaning of Russia's invasion of the battered Polish republic, Russian and German officers exchanging friendly handshakes in Brest - Litovsk may have been conscious of the shades of former representatives of their two nations who met there under different circumstances more than 20 years ago.

Only time will tell whether distrust of friendship towards Nazi Germany prompted the rulers of Communist Russia to send the Red Army marching through Poland. That is one of the political situations yet to unfold as the second Great War pursues its course.

Brest-Litovsk was one of the key cities of the first Great War. Through it the forces of the Tzar advanced to their attack on Germany in its early stages and it was the centre of operations when the German army drove them back far into Russian territory in 1915.

Signed by Force

Brest - Litovsk recalled also the bitter negotiations between the newly-established Communist regime and the powerful German of 1918. Then as Leon Trotsky, chief Russian representative and now an exile in Mexico said, Russia accepted all conditions "dictated to her by Germany sword in hand." While signing away large slices of territory and pledging payment of big indemnities, the Russians protested that they signed only by force and the treaty would be judged by the workers of the world.

At Brest - Litovsk in the same year, Germany recognized the independence of a Ukrainian Republic over Russian protests and made a treaty with Ukrain conditional on the delivery of 1,000,000 tons of wheat yearly. Ukraine failed to deliver the wheat and Germany occupied the country.

Both treaties went by the board in November, 1918, when Germany signed the Armistice with the Western Powers.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

(By The Canadian Press)

Sept. 19, 1914—Germans in their invasion of France captured Beaumont and shelled Rheims. British South African troops occupied part of German southwest Africa.

WEST WAR LINE STRENGTHENED FOR MAJOR BATTLE

Entry of Russia Into Poland Will Release German Divisions for Western Front

LOCALIZED ATTACKS

Germany May Launch Diplomatic Campaigns Against Neutral Countries

(By John Martin)
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Paris, Sept. 19.—(AP)— France and Great Britain strengthened their war line on the Western Front today in anticipation of a major battle as soon as German reinforcements are rushed back from Poland.

Entry of Red armies from Russia into war-battered Poland was viewed here as speeding the task of German divisions in the East and making more men and equipment available for defence of the West wall.

French reports said the Nation's Colonial troops — Senegalese, Algerians, Tunisians, Madagascans, Tonkinese, Annamese and Cambodians—were mobilized fully and ready to bolster the French attack.

Repulse German Attack

In the regular morning communique, the French general staff announced repulse of a localized German attack, launched during the night "in the region east of the Saar river".

The communique did not specify where the fighting took place, but it was believed to be in the region south of Saarbruecken, where French and German forces have fought numerous minor engagements.

British troops were said to have moved into position in the area of France's Maginot Line through tunnels to the vast defence works.

The German army, the French said, were moving up steadily from the rear through battle sites of the last war and the crumbling concrete works of Germany's old Hindenburg Line.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

COL. CUNNINGTON AWARDED SEAT BY ACCLAMATION

By-Election Necessitated by Retirement of Hon. R. B. Bennett — Lib. Candidate Withdraws

BRIGADE COMMANDER

Calgary, Sept. 19 (CP)—Col. D. G. L. Cunnington, M.C., Calgary alderman, became a Conservative member of parliament yesterday when awarded the Calgary West by-election seat by acclamation. The by-election, scheduled for Sept. 25, was necessitated by retirement of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, former National Conservative leader.

Col. Cunnington, Brigade Commander in the non-permanent militia, won the seat when the only other candidate, Manley J. Edwards, Liberal, withdrew.

Russia Claims Protectorate Over 11 Millions in Poland

(By The Canadian Press)

Polish White Russia and the Polish Ukraine, which Soviet Russia has announced she is taking under her protection, have a population of 11,000,000, estimates Pravda, Communist party newspaper at Moscow. Eight millions of these are said to be Ukrainians.

The White Russians, peaceful, industrious, and even-tempered, are descendants of an old Slav race. The "White" refers to the traditional color of their dress.

Queen Catherine II gave the name of "White Russia" to the present provinces of Vitebsk and Mighilov, but Emperor Nicholas abolished the term. It since has lost all political significance.

Most recent statistics estimate the White Russians at 3.2 per cent. of the total Russian population.

The "Ukraine" literally means a "border land", neither European nor Asiatic. Its people have been known variously as South Russians, Little Russians, Ruthenes or Ruthenians.

When the Soviet Union was established, the Ukraine included parts of Southern Russia and what previously was Austria-Hungary. Its soil is rich and fertile. Its strategic value is great because it offers access to the Black Sea and Central Europe.

Polish sources estimate there are approximately 5,000,000 Ukranians in Poland, about 4,000,000 of whom live in Galicia, former Austrian province. Most of the remainder reside in the Province of Volhynia, which Poland obtained from Russia.

Since 1918, Ukranian politicians in Poland have been urging creation of an independent republic, embracing all Ukranians in Europe.

Leaders of the movement have denied Polish accusations their activities were carried on with the connivance of Germany.

Fuehrer Charges Churchill, Eden, 'Preached War'

Says He 'Waited and Waited' and Thought There Was Possibility of Peace Until Conditions Became Impossible

CALLS POLES INFERIOR

German Chancellor Says They Are Beaten by 'Race of Men' Who Are Superior—Claims Germany Has Always Been Invincible

By LOUIS LOCHNER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Danzig, Sept. 19 (AP)—Adolf Hitler told a cheering throng in this former Free City today that "this land is German and will remain German forever."

"The world war which had losers only, not winners—this world war at the end left a sad remembrance behind," he declared.

Hitler began by addressing Albert Foerster, Nazi district leader, who had introduced him to the noisily demonstrating audience.

"My gauleiter (district leader), my dear fellow citizens:

'Not only we but the entire German people experience this historic moment."

First Speech Since Invasion.

Making his first public speech since Sept. 1, when the German invasion of Poland started, Hitler started speaking at 5:16 p.m. (12:16 p.m. EDT) in the mediaeval artushof, guildhall dating from the days of the Hanseatic League.

He drove there through cheering crowds in an automobile moving slowly over a carpet of flowers.

He was introduced by Albert Foerster, Nazi leader of Danzig, who said Hitler had corrected the "injustices of the Versailles Treaty".

Hitler began speaking in a calm voice.

This great moment, he said, was not for Danzig alone, but for all the German people.

The fate of Danzig, Hitler said, was the fate of all Germany.

The last war, he continued, "made no sense".

The peace imposed on the Germans at Versailles, Hitler said, had worked great oppression, but the time had come for them to live again.

Voice Rises to Tensity.

His voice, under considerable restraint when he started, rose to high emotional tensity at times.

If the world outside Germany thinks it should not believe in the word of German statesmen, Hitler continued, it should also be critical of the statesmen of the countries which forced the peace terms upon the Germans.

States were cut up and destroyed by those peace terms, he went on.

All the Polish territory taken away from Germany at the end of the last war held the best in German labor and culture, he said.

"Only those who are culturally creative have the right to exist."

He had attempted in the past to find "a reasonable solution to the problem". He had tried to establish borders in the west and in the south and had tried to make an agreement with Marshal Pilsudski which had as its purpose amicable relations between the Poles and the Germans.

Calls Poland Inferior State.

"As long as Pilsudski lived this was possible," he said.

What had depressed him and caused him suffering was that Nazis had had to suffer at the hands of an inferior state, while "Germany was a superior state".

Poland tried to make the German inhabitants of the Polish territory into Poles, he charged.

"What would England, France or America have done under similar circumstances?" Hitler asked, turning to the matter of the Polish Corridor, which separates Germany from East Prussia.

Poland had received proposals from Hitler which he said he thought he should never have made and which he would have difficulty explaining to his people.

"I cannot understand why Poland did not accept those proposals and the German people today are happy they did not accept them."

Instead of accepting them, Hitler said, the Poles turned toward London.

Attitude of Polish Press.

He claimed Polish newspapers published stories that the problem was not of Danzig, but one of boundaries and whether the Poles should defeat Germany in front of or "in back of Berlin".

As he continued his voice rose to the shrill pitch characterizing him in moments of excitement.

"The man who had spoken thusly," Hitler said, "was a Polish general who has deserted his army."

The Poles were told they could resist Germany, and if they were not strong enough they could in any case expect the help of others.

Hitler charged that British statesmen such as Churchill, Eden, Duff Cooper and others always preached war.

"In September the state of affairs became impossible, and yet in the days of August I believed it was still possible to come to an understanding."

"Peace Seemed Possible"

He said he went to Berlin and "waited and waited" and even worked out some new proposals, but "nothing happened except a general

(Continued on Page Eleven)

CHAS. M. SCHWAB, STEEL MAGNATE, DIES IN N. Y.

Started Work at Dollar a Day as Stake Driver in Steel Plant

77 YEARS OLD

New York, Sept. 19 (AP)—Death at 77 has ended the fabulous career of Charles M. Schwab, the $1-a-day stake driver who became a steel titan.

The one-time "strong man of steel", first president of the $1,000,000,000 United States Steel Corporation and founder of the Bethlehem Steel Company died peacefully in his Park Avenue apartment last night of coronary thrombosis.

(Continued on Page Nine)

MEMBERS PAID TRAVEL EXPENSES

This Would Apply Only if Military Authorities Gave Leave of Absence

Toronto, Sept. 19 (CP)—Soldier members of the Ontario Legislature would be paid travelling expenses from overseas to attend a legislative session under one of the wartime measures prepared for introduction at the special session opening today.

Under this bill, any member fighting in Europe, for instance, would receive an allowance so he might return to Toronto should the legislature meet while he is on active service. Whether he would be allowed leave of absence, however, would be a matter for the military authorities.

Coming Events

HUME ARENA DANCE GARDENS
Wednesday, Morgan Thomas return engagement of his most famous band. Tonight Economy Night. Music by Dan Fairman's Tophatters. a19-1t

Holden's Expectorant
WILL STOP THAT COUGH. 35c and 65c bottles
GEEN'S PHONE 131
S18-21

City and District News

TRENT RIVER RESIDENT HAS WHITE TOMATOES

White tomatoes are being grown by Jack Sedgewick of Trent River. This week Mr. Sedgewick is exhibiting a quantity of the albino vegetable which is all white, with a peculiarly smooth skin and tastes sweeter than the ordinary red variety. It is believed the plants are a freak resulting from cross pollination.

HAS GOOD LUCK CASTING FROM SHORE

Casting from the north shore of Consecon Lake early last evening, Walter Dillon, local resident, managed in the space of less than an hour to land an assorted variety of fish, the largest a six pound pickerel. Three bass and several perch made up the remainder of the catch.

METEOROLOGICAL BALLOON PASSES OVER CITY TODAY

Soaring high above the city on what appeared to be strong south west winds high above, a large sized gas balloon passed over the district late this morning headed in a northerly direction. The morning sun made a strong reflection on the sides of the balloon attracting attention of several residents. The balloon was apparently one liberated by some meteorological station on the United States side.

ADULT BIBLE CLASS TABERNACLE CHURCH HEARS FINE ADDRESS

The Senior Adult Bible Class of Tabernacle United Church met last night in the ladies' parlor. A pot-luck luncheon was served that proved to be a good-luck affair. Thirty-two were present. Mr. T. A. Burtt vice-president of the class acted as chairman. Mrs. H. J. B. Poste and Mr. George Wishart, both always so willing to help in a musical way, each sang two solos which delighted everyone. Mrs. Duff accompanied Mr. Wishart and Miss Florence Davis accompanied Mrs. Poste. Miss Davis played a piano solo. The guest speaker for the evening was Rev. L. W. Scott of Sidney United Church. Mr. Scott gave a very excellent address on the work of the Sunday School. The work of the Sunday School was compared to a swinging gate and the people as the posts which if placed true and strong would keep the gates swinging wide open always that by them the children might enter the kingdom. It was a very practical helpful and memorable address, which merited the hearty vote of thanks moved by Mr. Elliott and seconded by Mr. Jarrell. Mr. A. D. Archibald closed the meeting with prayer. The social committee were Mrs. Goraline, Mrs. Bedal, Mrs. Irwin and Mrs. McMillan.

PLANES ATTRACT MORE ATTENTION

One result of the war in Europe and the increased attention being paid air alarms in Europe has been the focussing of interest by citizens of Belleville on ordinary flights of planes from the R.C.A.F. base at Trenton. In quieter times several planes a day could fly over and around the city without attracting scarcely more than a passing glance. Now the drone of a single ship is sufficient to stop in their tracks many pedestrians who carefully watch and plot the progress of the occasional plane to and fro.

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT THE REXALL STORE.
FALL WEATHER BRINGS HEAD COLDS
REXALL
Nose & Throat Relief with Ephedrine will give you relief Speedily
2 sizes
25c & 50c
McKEOWN'S
DRUG STORE
PHONE 135

PLUS VALUES
in
HIGH QUALITY USED CARS.
'37 Pontiac Deluxe Sedan.
'37 Chevrolet Master Deluxe Coach ....... $595.
'36 Reo Sedan (Many Extras) ..... $575.
'35 Ford Deluxe Coach. $350.
'32 Pontiac Coupe .... $275.
'31 Durant Sedan ..... $175.
'36 Ford Pick-up ...... $395.
'35 Ford Panel ........ $375.
'30 Dodge Panel ........ $ 85.
BELLEVILLE MOTORS
PONTIAC, McL.-BUICK, G.M.C. TRUCKS.
SALES and SERVICE
A. C. REYNOLDS, Mgr.
Cor. Bridge and Coleman Streets
Phone 340
Successors to
CLAUDE B. FARNHAM
BELLEVILLE, ONT.

MADAME CORNELIA
The Well Known European Clairvoyant, Psychologist
Advice on all affairs of life.
PRIVATE READINGS 50c
Queen's Hotel, Room 35.
10 a.m.-11 p.m. 3 Days Only

CATTLE RUSTLERS ALLEGEDLY ACTIVE

Cattle rustlers are believed to have again been active in the vicinity of Stoco, two valuable springer cows having been reported missing from the ranch of W. L. Ketcheson, Tweed, yesterday.

Mr. Ketcheson told Provincial Police today the two cows, valued at $150.00 were grazing on his cattle ranch near Stoco on Sunday, but were missing yesterday. Police were not prepared to say the cattle were stolen, but the fact they are missing leaves the natural inference that cattle rustlers have again been active in that part of Hastings County. Other similar cases have been reported in the past and no recovery of the stolen cattle was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stickle Celebrate Golden Wedding

6th of Sidney, Sept. 19—On Sunday, Sept. 17th at their home 6th concession of Sidney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stickle celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Married at the home of the bride in Colborne in Sept. 1889, by the Rev. Mr. Edmonston, Henry Stickle, son of Mr. Addi Stickle and Emma Stimers, daughter of Mr. James Stimers were married 50 years ago.

The guests who celebrated with them on this grand occasion, were a sister of the bride of 50 years, Miss Hester Stimers of Colborne, also Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stickle, 6th Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stickle, Colborne, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Stickle, 6th Sidney; Corporal A. C. Stickle and private Grant Stickle arsenal guard, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. Russel Eckert and Miss Mary Ives, Colborne; Mr. and Mrs. Donald, Halloway and Mr. and Mrs. A. Stickle, Trenton.

The bride and groom of 50 years were presented with a purse and other beautiful gifts, also congratulations and best wishes from friends and neighbors for many more years of happiness.

TAG DAY FOR BLIND REALIZES $258.80

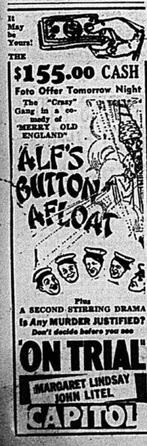
The Belleville committee for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind held a successful tag day on Saturday last. The sum realized was $258.80 and the conveners were Mrs. Edward Bernstein, Mrs. J. W. Kinnear and assistant conveners were Miss Peck, Mrs. Ashbury, Mrs. R. B. Morden, Mrs. Watkin. The taggers were girls from the Collegiate and public schools of the city.



It May be Yours!
THE $155.00 CASH
Foto Offer Tomorrow Night
The "Crazy" Gang in a comedy of "MERRY OLD ENGLAND"
ALF'S BUTTON AFLOAT
Plus
A SECOND STIRRING DRAMA
Is Any MURDER JUSTIFIED?
Don't decide before you see
"ON TRIAL"
MARGARET LINDSAY
JOHN LITEL
CAPITOL

COUNCIL TAKES NO ACTION ON PROTEST MADE

Shell Oil Company Allowed to Proceed With Work Under Construction

TWO BY-LAWS

Application for Funeral Home on East Bridge Street Laid Over

No action was taken on a petition from residents of South John Street asking that the Shell Oil Company be prohibited from running a pipe line over their properties at the opening meeting of the City Council for the fall term on Monday evening. The council appointed a committee at the conclusion of the meeting to confer with Shell Oil officials and after a lengthy discussion in the committee room, the committee reported to the council, that Ray Cornell, "Pat" Cornell and Croft Smith, who sit in for the ratepayers on the discussion were perfectly satisfied with arrangements made by the company to protect their interests and were quite willing that the work should be proceeded with. The council at earlier meetings had approved the changes being made by the Shell Oil Company and a permit had been issued by the City Engineer to proceed with the work and already an outlay of $20,000 had been made by the Company. Ald. Eddie Logan was chairman of the committee including Ald. Rollins, Lewis and Jeffery who conferred with spokesmen of the ratepayers.

Spokesmen Heard

The discussion on the petition was opened when Fred Ward, speaking for the ratepayers objected to the pipe lines being laid from the tanks on South George Street to the railway for loading and unloading purposes stating it would decrease the value of properties because of possible seepage and the consequent fire hazard if this happened. Before the spokesman finished his address, Ald. Marshall asked that the Shell Oil officials be asked to be present so they could answer the criticism, that was being advanced and this was permitted. Chief Lynch of the Fire Department was then called and he stated that in company with an inspector of the Fire Marshal's department in Toronto he visited the scene where the work was being carried on. The Inspector after his investigation reported that the pipe being used was first class and electric welded at the joints and that in his opinion there was no extra fire hazard and that the pipe laid would be good for at least 30 years. The pipe is being laid in rock and where soft earth is encountered the company is encasing the line in gravel and a filler of sand—both below and on top of the pipe.

Three Feet Under

It was also established that the pipe would be laid three feet below the surface and in every way protected according to the legislation governing gas pipe lines. Ald. Jeffery asked the Fire Chief if he thought the lines would be a hazard and the Chief stated "Gasoline is always a hazard." Ald. Marshall: "I have been informed that service stations have as high as 1,000 gallons of gas in their tanks and pipe line and this line will have only 750 gallons when it is full. Mr. Campbell, engineer for the company explained to the council the negotiations that were carried on and if they were prevented from continuing the work there would be an outlay of $20,000 with no return. "We received permission from the City Engineer to start this construction work after the Council had accepted the proposition and I am sure there will be no hazard for every precaution will be taken to ensure nearly absolute safety," said the engineer. Another spokesman from the section involved stated that the council had refused a Funeral Home licence in a certain area but down in Foster Ward anything goes.

Explained by Engineer

A construction engineer of the Shell Oil Company explained that the pipe, that had leaked in that area was of the tonking steel type and that it had been laid in ashes and cinder, which are very corrosive agents and the pipe became pitted. "I am sure this will not happen in our case", said the engineer for we are laying the pipe in rock and where the ground is soft the pipe will be embedded in gravel and sand. Mayor Bone stated that he had visited the area with the Fire Marshal and made a complete investigation. The district where the construction is going on is an industrial area and we are trying to get industries and if we do that is where they will go", said His Worship. "If the company is to use Belleville as a distributing point then there must be pipe lines. In some places there are pipe lines, 1,000 miles long. This particular line will be perfectly safe. The council has given permission and if it is opposed through this petition, the city may come in for heavy damages. I think the Harbor Board should be under the control of the council." The mayor advocated that foamite should be kept by each gasoline company.

Application Laid Over

A representative for the Belleville Burial Company appeared asking that the application made by the firm to establish a Funeral Home on East Bridge Street be deferred for a couple of weeks and this request was granted. W. R. McCreary, ex-Alderman of the city appeared before the council with a petition asking that the council not grant the application. "We in the neighborhood would be proud to have the applicants as neighbors but we do not think that the council should lessen the regulations to permit this application going through," said Mr. McCreary. "I am sure the council will use their best judgment in this matter.

Salaries Fixed

A by-law was passed fixing the salaries of the Public Utilities Commission at $400 for the chairman and $300 for each of the two commissioners. Another by-law was given three readings that restricts the delivery of milk before six-thirty in the morning and later than seven o'clock in the evening between the 1st of November and March 31st. Howard Clarke, manager of the Citizens Dairy argued against the passage of the by-law stating it was interfering with the rights of the public and also that it would create a combine.

Ald. Haig: "All but two dairies in the city have signed the petition for the by-law, and we are only trying to carry out the wishes of the majority.." Mr. Clarke: "I believe that certain persons want their fresh milk for breakfast and the only way to get it to them is by early delivery." Mr. Reid: "There would not be so much heaving in the bottles if milk was delivered later in the day and would be easier on the men. We have humane laws for horses but none for the milk delivery men. The efficiency would be greater and the public would soon become educated to the change. The by-law will have to be approved by the Department of Agriculture before the City Council can proclaim the act in effect.

Relief Account Paid

The relief account of $2,854.96 for August was ordered paid. The City Solicitor was instructed to prepare a by-law for the registration of all bicycles in the city at an annual fee of 50 cents. Two parking lights will be placed in the McCarthy Theatre parking lot.

A report on recent by-law prohibiting use of bells and whistles in city received and approved and are herewith given:—

September 5th, 1939

D. G. Kilburn, Esq.,
Chief Engineer, B.T.C.,
Ottawa.

File 9346.3—Application City of Belleville, Ontario, for approval of By-Law prohibiting the use of bells and whistles in the city.

Dear Sir:

I made an inspection of the crossings on the C.P.R. in the City of Belleville on August 23rd, and was accompanied by Mr. B. F. Jennings, Alderman, City of Belleville; and Mr. C. B. Matthews, Assistant Engineer of the City of Belleville; and Mr. Rudder, Engineer, C.P.R.

F. 26727.310. There are 12 open crossings on the C.P.R. within the city limits of Belleville. Starting from the west, and continuing east. City Limit Road is the first which crosses the C.P.R. tracks at mileage 93.10 Belleville Sub-division. This is a very narrow road and leads to the Water Works Plant, south of the tracks. There is practically no traffic over this crossing, as there is only one residence south of the track at this point. The view approaching the tracks from the south is fair, but from the north is very limited. There is a stop sign erected on the north side of the track.

Bay Bridge Road is the second crossing and is protected by one wigwag and bell. The view is fair at this crossing, and traffic fairly heavy.

Mary Street is the third crossing which leads to an old abandoned factory south of the track. At the present time the traffic over this crossing is practically nil. The view is fair on both sides of the track.

James Street is the fourth crossing, which leads to an abandoned factory south of the tracks, the traffic at present is practically nil. The view on both sides of the tracks is fair.

Front Street is the fifth crossing and protected with four mechanical gates. The traffic is heavy The view in all angles at this crossing is very limited on account of buildings and a railroad bridge.

F. 3701.293. Pinnacle Street is the sixth crossing and is protected by two mechanical gates. The traffic is fairly heavy and the view somewhat short in two angles and fair in the other two angles.

F. 26727.349. Church Street is the seventh crossing and is immediately west of Belleville Station and the view approaching the tracks from the south is fair in both directions ,but somewhat obstructed when approaching the tracks from the north due to station and oil tanks. The traffic over this crossing is fair.

P. 26711.395. John Street is the eighth crossing and is immediately east of the station and the view is just fair, as it is obstructed by houses on the north side of the track and oil sheds on the south side of the tracks. Traffic is fair.

George Street is the ninth crossing and traffic is fairly heavy, as there are quite a number of industries on this street south of the tracks. The view on the south side of the tracks is fair, but somewhat obstructed on the north side due to high ground and freight sheds.

Newberry Street is the tenth crossing and is a very unimportant street not paved and not used to any extent. The view on both sides of the track fair.

S. Foster is the eleventh crossing and is a paved street. This street leads to the foundry south of the track, and to other industries. The view is fair both sides of the track. Traffic is fair.

MacDonald Street is the twelfth and last crossing within the city limits. This street is not paved and not very important.

The heavy traffic in Belleville is carried by Bay Bridge Road, Front and Pinnacle Streets all of which have protection. There is a speed restriction of 10 miles per hour for all trains over George, John, Church and Pinnacle Streets. With the speed restriction now in effect on the important secondary crossings that are not protected by warnings signals, the elimination of the locomotive whistle would not greatly increase the hazard at these crossings for the present. It would be possible to eliminate the permanent slow order and still give greater protection by the installation of manually controlled wigwags and bells at Church, John and George Streets.

Yours truly
(Sgd.) D. M. Noell,
Signal Engineer.

September 5, 1939

D. G. Kilburn, Esq.,
Chief Engineer, B.T.C.,
Ottawa.

File 9346.3—Application City of Belleville, Ontario, for approval of By-Law prohibiting the use of bells and whistles in the city.

Dear Sir:

I made an inspection of the crossings on the C.N.R. in the City of Belleville on August 23rd and was accompanied by Mr. B. F. Jennings, Alderman, City of Belleville; and Mr. C. B. Matthews, Assistant Engineer of the City of Belleville; and Mr. H. Drew, Signal Supervisor, C.N.R.

There are five level crossing in the city limits, west of the Belleville Station, which crosses the double track main line of the C. N. R. from Toronto to Montreal.

C. 2581. The first crossing west of the station is Cannifton Road, which is protected by 2 automatic wigwags and bells. The street traffic is heavy on this crossing, as this is Highway No. 37. The view is fair and approaches from each side on a slight ascending grade to the tracks.

Moira Street is the second street west of the station, and is unprotected at this point. The tracks are higher than the surrounding ground, so the street approaches the tracks on an ascending grade of approximately 4% and crosses the tracks at an angle of approximately 65 degrees. The view at this crossing is not very good, in the north east angle the view is obstructed by the C.N.R. truss bridge and the northwest angle the view is obstructed by a house and in the southeast angle by a small bush, and in the south west by a house. This is a paved street and carries heavy traffic from the west section of Belleville north to Highway No. 37.

St. Charles is the 3rd Street crossing west of the station. This is a very narrow paved street and the traffic is not very important. The view is fair, but somewhat short in all angles on account of houses being located near the tracks. The approach from the south is on a slight incline to the track, but north of the track the approach is practically level. This crossing is protected by an automatic bell and danger sign.

F. 26765.88. Geddes Street is the 4th crossing west of the station and is protected by an automatic bell and danger sign. The tracks at this point are in a cut and houses are built up close to the tracks in all four angles which make the view very short. The street is paved and practically level over the tracks. Street traffic is only fair.

F. 27673. Grier Street is the 5th crossing west of the station and is protected by 2 wigwags and bells. There is a 3% descending grade on the street to the track on both approaches. This is a very narrow paved street with practically no view, on account of the tracks being in a cut and houses in all four angles near the tracks. Street traffic is only fair.

Front Street is the next and last open street in the west-end city limits of Belleville, and crosses the tracks on an overhead bridge.

The street traffic over Grier, Geddes and St. Charles Streets is practically the same and not very heavy.

To eliminate the whistling in the town limits of Belleville, I would consider additional protection required at St. Charles, Geddes and Moira Streets. The streets are so laid out near the tracks that it would not greatly inconvenience traffic to close Grier and St. Charles Street, as there is a street parallel to the tracks just one block north and one block south of the tracks. There are not many homes north of the tracks and only one small factory. Traffic on any one street is not heavy, and all traffic has to work its way to East Moira and Front Streets in order to get down town, I would, therefore, recommend that Grier and St. Charles Streets be closed within the limits of the railway tracks, and that the 2 wigwags and bells now at Grier Street be installed at Geddes Street and that 2 wigwags and bells be installed at East Moira Street, and that the present bell at St. Charles and Geddes Streets be removed.

With the above changes, the locomotive whistling at crossings in Belleville could be eliminated with reasonable safety for the present. The C.N.R. has a switching line that runs practically through the center of Belleville, and side tracks over Pinnacle, Church, John, George, Newberry and Foster Streets south of the C.P.R. main line. All movements are slow on the switching line and side tracks.

Your truly,
(Sgd.) D. M. Noell,
Signal Engineer.

• NO ENDORSERS!
• NO RED TAPE!
• YOUR SIGNATURE COMPLETES THE LOAN!
ON CARS and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Use this Easy Way to Rid Yourself of Pressing Debts—also to buy things you need for Cash. Repayable in convenient Monthly Installments.
Quick LOANS
QUINTE FINANCE and SECURITIES Ltd.
168 Front St. BELLEVILLE Phone 168

Recruits Wanted
by the
HASTINGS & PRINCE EDWARD REGIMENT, C.A.S.F
For Information Apply
BELLEVILLE ARMOURIES, BRIDGE STREET
Entrance: 10.00 a.m. until 10.00 p.m.
S14,16,19,21,23,26,28,30

No Frost Reported Although Said Near Danger Point

Sweeping in from the north, "the cooling breezes" that were reported to be crossing the continent a few days ago struck the city and district last night with just a hint of frost.

Although thermometers hovered at a dangerous level early this morning, farmers of the district at the city market stated that no frost damage had been done.

Curling smoke from city chimneys today bespoke the reaction of urban dwellers to the cool invader. Last night on Front Street and other city thoroughfares topcoats made their Autumn debut with many of the fair sex discarding summery dresses for the more seasonable tailored suits.

"It was anything but summer when I got up this morning", a Rednersville market gardener stated, "although I could see no signs of frost. However, I don't think the mercury was very far from the "thirty-two point".

Farmers and residents of other surrounding districts reported low temperatures but no sign of damaging frost.

Squadron Leader Mair Was in Charge of Disabled Flying Boat

Communication established last evening by friends in the city with Squadron Leader R. C. Mair of the Royal Canadian Air Force at Sydney, Nova Scotia, revealed that none of the crew was hurt in the crash of the R.C.A.F. seaplane forced down in the Atlantic off Nova Scotia yesterday. The plane was commanded by Squadron Leader Mair, well known in this city where he was recently married to the former Miss Grace Graham.

Following the landing the crew was picked up by the Swedish freighter, Pollux and taken to Sydney, N.S., where local contact was made last evening.

Squadron Leader Mair had been stationed at the Trenton base of the R.C.A.F. for a time and was transferred to Halifax last April. He has since been on patrol work off the Atlantic coast.

SEVERAL ENLISTMENTS FROM FOSTER WARD

Many familiar faces have been missing in various sections of the city lately as the result of recruiting by the various militia units of the district. Many young men have dropped full or part time employment to sign up, and their absence has been noted. In Foster Ward alone, it is estimated that from six to eight younger residents have enlisted lately.

Hampers of Peaches Sell for $2.10 Each

Hampers of delicious Elberta peaches that sold at $2.10 each featured a heavy early week display at the city market today. Baskets of the same fruit that were offered at thirty-five and forty cents each for "selects" moved briskly as did slightly inferior qualities at twenty and twenty-five cents in spite of restrictions on sugar sales.

Prices, generally showed no change over week-end levels. Egg quotations were steady at thirty-five cents for choice selects, while a few rolls of butter were disposed of at thirty cents the pound.

Potatoes were plentiful with bushels selling at $1.10 each and seventy-five pound bags at $1.40. Home grown tomatoes sold at fifty-five and sixty cents the bushel. Other vegetables were steady at week-end prices.

MacIntosh Red apples were quoted at twenty cents the small basket with Wolf Rivers at the same prices. Burbank plums were offered at forty cents the basket with blue damsons and greengages moving slowly at fifty cents for the same quantity.

OBITUARY

LATE WILLIAM J. BURROWS

Monday afternoon the funeral of William John Burrows, late residence, 154 Church Street, took place from the Martin Funeral Home, Church Street. The service in the chapel and at the graveside in Belleville cemetery was conducted by the Rev. G. G. Wright, Rector of Christ Church.

The bearers were Messrs. J. Samain, J. Maynes, G. Ellarby, B. Dolder, C. Kresler and A. Smith. The first five mentioned are members of the Imperial Veterans Club of which the deceased was also a member.

LATE GEORGE WOOTON

The funeral of George Wooton took place from the family residence, 68 Catherine Street, Monday afternoon and many friends were present at the impressive service which was conducted in the home by the Rev. R. E. Newman, pastor of Holloway Street United Church, assisted by the Rev. J. D. P. Knox. During the service Mrs. M. D. Denton sang, "City Four Square".

Interment was made in Foxboro cemetery; the service at the graveside was conducted by the same ministers.

The honorary bearers were Messrs. George A. Bennett, W. Williams, H. Barragar, I. G. Sexsmith, W. H. Panter and G. S Sharpe.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Talbot Ketcheson, M. D. Denton, John G. Shaw, George T. Woodley, G. H. French and James Hudgins.

Motor Car Owners Asked to Co-operate With City Police

City police today requested the co-operation of merchants and citizens alike in an effort to keep Front Street free from vehicular traffic during the progress of the Belleville Kiwanis Street Carnival, which opens Wednesday evening.

In an equal appeal to the public, Sergeant Arthur Harman today asked that all merchants and citizens remove their motor vehicles off Front St., from Bridge St. to Victoria Ave., as soon after 6.00 p.m. as possible on Wednesday and Thursday evenings in order to assist the Kiwanis Club in preparing for their two-night street carnival.

"All motor vehicles must be removed from that area, and the police would appreciate the co-operation of the owners to have their vehicles off Front St. as soon as possible after 6.00 p.m. as failure on the part of the owners may have to result in the police having remaining parked vehicles removed to nearby public garages, where storage may be charged the delinquent owners," warned the police this morning as they added the city council had sanctioned the blocking off of a portion of Front St. for this purpose on the nights of Sept. 20th and 21st.

Police Blotter

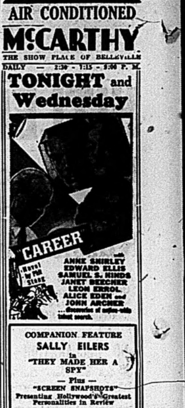
Wanted on a charge of assault, preferred by the Trenton police, John Beckwith, of that town, was arrested in Belleville today on a warrant issued by the Trenton authorities. After it is alleged the assault took place in Trenton over the week-end, police say Beckwith came to Belleville and joined the militia. He was later arrested and turned over to the Trenton police.

Wanted on a charge of false pretenses, to wit the issuance of a worthless cheque valued at $25.00 Morley Jamieson, of this city, was arrested in Kingston on a warrant issued by the Belleville police today. Jamieson also had gone to Kingston and there joined the militia. Jamieson will be brought to Belleville for trial.

City police today revealed that joining the army does not halt the progress of justice in Canada, as Criminal rights have jurisdiction in this country when a serious crime is said to have been committed.



AIR CONDITIONED
McCARTHY
THE SHOW PLACE OF BELLEVILLE
DAILY — 2:30 - 7:15 - 9:00 P. M.
TONIGHT and Wednesday
CAREER
Novel by Phil Stong
with
ANNE SHIRLEY
EDWARD ELLIS
SAMUEL S. HINDS
JANET BEECHER
LEON ERROL
ALICE EDEN and
JOHN ARCHER
...discoveries of nation-wide talent search.
COMPANION FEATURE
SALLY EILERS
in
"THEY MADE HER A SPY"
— Plus —
"SCREEN SNAPSHOTS"
Presenting Hollywood's Greatest Personalities in Review

SAY WHOSE BABY IS THIS ANYWAY?
They say it's yours . . Well? Some say it's mine but that's one thing I know is not true! Well, whose is it?"
GINGER ROGERS ★ DAVID NIVEN in a bedtime story for grown-ups
"Bachelor Mother"
— MORE TREATS —
LEON ERROL
in a funny comedy
"MOVING VANITIES"
TODAY!
STANLEY and LIVINGSTONE
NEWS — DISNEY CARTOON
TEMPEST OVER TUNIS Traveltalk
THE ZOO Clever Novelette
Tomorrow!
BELLE

FRIENDS HONOR FOXBORO COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gowsell, Recently Married, Presented With Gifts

Foxboro — This village was indeed lucky not to have suffered damage during the heavy wind storm of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wickett have moved into their home in the village and Mr. and Mrs. Lott have moved into the home owned by Mr. J. Elliott.

Mrs. Hetherington has returned home after spending a month with a daughter, Mrs. Roberts, in Muskoka.

Mrs. Lottie Rosebush spent the tea hour on Monday evening with Mrs. Harry Wickett.

Dr. Welsh visited the school on Thursday when a number of pupils were vaccinated.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodgen and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaughnessy of Latta, were Sunday guests at Mr. W. Hodgen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott are entertaining the former's grandmother for a few days.

Sympathy is extended to Rev. F Horton of Fraserville, a former pastor, who has been a patient in the Peterboro hospital. Hopes are expressed for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. Hodgen spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. D. Montgomery of Stirling.

Mrs. George Priest is entertaining her sister-in-law, Miss Grace Priest.

Miss Bernice Dainard spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Harold Stewart.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wickett on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Reid of Ivanhoe; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ross of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McMurray, Misses Pearl and Keitha of Gilmour, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Slater and Billy of McArthur's Mills.

The W.M.S. entertained a number of societies on Thursday evening when a goodly number attended. Mrs. Priest was in charge and a very impressive worship service was conducted, consisting of a hymn and prayer; Scripture lesson by Mrs. Gay; a most interesting story by Miss Marion Daniels and Mrs. (Rev.) Cooke sang a solo. After a few words of welcome by the president, Mrs. (Rev.) McKenzie was introduced and gave a helpful address. Mrs. Ewart Sills and Mrs. Jack Gowsell sang a duet and Mrs. Stanley Spafford gave some timely thoughts. The guests were then invited to the S. S. rooms which were prettily decorated with flowers, and a buffet lunch was served.

On Monday evening of last week a large crowd assembled at the home of Mr. Jack Gowsell to honor Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gowsell, a recent bride and groom. Rev. E. M. Cooke acted as chairman and after community singing, Miss Marie Bartlett rendered an appropriate reading and then Mr. Garfield Evans read the following address:

Dear Everett and Audrey:

Remembrance is the golden chain,
That naught on earth can sever.
The passing years roll on in vain
True friends are friends forever.

Tonight, we the classmates and teacher of your S.S. class here, of Foxboro, wish to offer to you, Everett, our heartiest congratulations. The poet has said "the wife is a helper, tender comrade, a fellowfarer true through life" and we trust you shall ever find Audrey such.

To you Audrey, coming as a bride to our community, we extend a hearty welcome and the glad hand of genuine friendship. As a token of the sincerity of our wishes for you both we ask you to accept this gift. Many true happiness and God's best blessings follow you through the journey of life.

Signed on behalf of your S.S. Class.

Everett was then presented with a coffee percolator, for which he made a suitable reply.

Mr. John Stewart then came forward and read the following address:

Dear Everett and Audrey:

We, your friends and neighbors have assembled here tonight to offer hearty congratulations and express our sincere good wishes. We have known you Everett, from childhood and we have followed your fortunes with sympathy and interest and now, in this most important undertaking, namely, beginning a home, we wish you Godspeed. To you, Audrey, although not entirely a stranger to many of us, we would have you feel the warmth of our affection and sincerity of our welcome. We know that this is the happiest time thus far in your lives and we all want to do our part to make it so for you. We hope that this happiness and love may reign supreme through all the years to come.

Just remember to laugh away your troubles and pray away your cares, and as you embark on the sea of matrimony may the Great Pilot of all pilots guide you safely and surely to the port beyond the plains. It is only natural that the sailing will not always be smooth and easy, but with a smile on the lips and a song in the heart the petty problems of life will soon be overcome.

May we leave with you a quotation from one of Edgar Guests' poems to guide you as you travel through life:

"Think not that romance is ended,
That youth's curtain has descended,
And love's pretty play is done—
For it's only just begun.

Bitter cares will some day find you,
Closer, closer, they will bind you.
If together you will bear them.
Cares grow sweet when lovers share them.

Never stoop to unbelieving,
Even when your heart is grieving
To what comes of wintry weather
In disaster—stand together,
Thro' life's fearful hours of night.
Love shall bring you to the light.

We ask you to accept these gifts and hope that we will always be remembered by you both. Rest assured that our good wishes and prayers go with you for a prosperous wedded life.

Signed on behalf of the community:

Percy Reid,
John Stewart.
Mrs. Ferne Spencer.
Miss Marion Daniels.

They were presented with a beautiful lounging chair, pretty floor lamp and end table. Both Everett and Audrey replied, thanking all for the kind remembrance and "For they are jolly good fellows" was heartily sung. A number made complimentary remarks and lunch was served.

Marmora

